nee Ann Garnett

Cathedral floor vases with large arrangements of white princess giasous and snow ball mums decorated the auditorium of the First Baptist Church in Spearman for the Saturday evening wedding of Miss Eleanor Ann Garnett and William James Twomey. The Reverend Luther Berry of Derby, Kansas performed the double-ring ceremony.

The altar area was decorated with golden standards holding vigil candles and banked with emerald palm branches. Crystal chandelier candelabras with sanctuary tapers were garlanded with fern and smilax. A white satin kneeling bench centered the setting. To further enhance the setting for the vows, the area was encircled with colonial fence sections and white silk bridal roping. The bridal aisle was laid with white satin and pews were decorated with cathedral candle sticks holding vigil candles, white silk ribbons and fern. Candle light filled the windows of the sanctuary. The entrance to the altar aisle was flanked with chevrons holding yellow daisies and white silk aisle closers.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Garnett of Spearman. Mr. Twomey who is from Waco, Texas, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Carothers of Clyde, Texas.

Organist, Mrs. Neil Pack of Spearman, accompanied Mr. Bill McGowan of Tulsa, Oklahoma, soloist, who sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Candlebearers were Miss Linda Morris and Miss Vicki Morris of Amarillo, cousins of the bride. Their dresses were fashioned like the attendant's and they carried white bouquets matching those of the honor attendants.

Best man was Mr. Joe Hill of Brownwood, Texas. Ushers & Groomsmen were Elwood Harris of Waco, Mr. Jon Carothers of Waco, Mr. Larry Martin of Waco, and Mr. Howard Garnett, brother of the bride, of Spearman.

Maid of Honor was Miss Linda Gilbert of Kemah, Texas. Matron of Honor was Mrs. Larry Martin of Waco, Texas. Bridesmaids included Miss Leah Findley of Dallas, Miss Louise Garnett (cousin of the bride) of Arlington, Virginia, and Miss Lynne Garnett (cousin of the bride) of Spearman.

Attendants were dressed alike in floor length canary yellow dresses of linen and organza with daisies bordering the empire waists. Trains were attached to the neckline adorned with a bow. They wore hats made of a single circle of tulle. Small cascading roses fell from the one large rose which centered each hat. The carried long flowing cascade bouquets fashioned from majestic white and canary yellow daisies.

Entering on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage the bride wore a formal wedding gown fashioned of white silk organza featuring a highline figure bodice. The portrait neckline was accented with re-embroidered alencon lace appliqued with clusters of pearls centering lace roses. The A-line skirt was appliqued with the same lace motif front and back. A double cathedral train was attached to the gown at the neckline adorned with a lace fly from shoulder to shoulder. The train also bore the applique motif. Her tiered veil of imported silk illusion, was attached to a small pillbox incrustated with crystals and seed pearls. Cascading from the pillbox crown were four silk roses. She carried a long slender cascade of white stephanotis florets and white orchids tied with satin streamers.

The groom's boutonniere was a single blossom from the bride's bouquet. For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Garnett chose a beige silk dress with a matching full length coat. Beige accessories and an orchid corsage completed her ensemble.

The bridegroom's mother wore a turquoise suit with bone accessories. She also wore an orchid corsage. Both grandmothers of the bride were able to attend the wedding. They were Mrs. B. J. Garnett of Spearman and Mrs. Elma Royce of Downsville, La.

Immediately following the ceremony reception guests were received in the fellowship hall at the church.

A large tiered wedding confection was served from a revolving round table dressed in floor length folds of white satin and garlands of smilax. The serving table was centered with a sterling silver epergne of white Dutch roses, Dutch Iris and Tulips. Silver candelabras and dinner tapers flanked the centerpiece. Two silver punch sets completed the service. White slipper satin swags were clipped to the tables edge with clusters of white spring flowers and garlands of smilax.

Mrs. Mike Garnett of Spearman & Mrs. Mike Hurt of Lubbock cut and served the cake. Mrs. Tommy Lovett and Mrs. Fred Jackson, both of Spearman, presided at the punch bowls. ## DID YOU KNOW THAT

The average annual salary of a Texas school teacher is $6025
(Texas ranks 33rd nationally)

The average annual salary of a Spearman school teacher is $6641

The average annual salary of a school teacher, nationally, is $6821

The average annual wage of a Teamster's Union member is $8367

A person choosing an occupation strictly on financial considerations would choose truck driving over teaching, and teaching in 32 other states over teaching in Texas.

Walt Whitman (a teacher, as well as a writer) said, "The cheapest way of conducting a school is to engage the best teachers at the best price."

I believe that the school tax dollar goes farthest that is expended to obtain the best possible teachers.

I am as anxious as you are to insure that every dollar spent in the school system is spent to a useful purpose, and not wasted.

I earnestly solicit your support in the School Board election Saturday, April 1st.
