BOY SCOUTS ARE SELLING FRUIT CAKES

Boy Scouts of Troop 51 are selling the most delicious fruit cakes you ever tasted. The 3-pound cake, already sliced and packaged in a decorator box, sells for $3.50, which is cheap. If you bought all the ingredients to make a cake of this type you would pay more than this.

Randall Nichols, Scout Master, said he hopes the boys will be able to sell enough to buy a much needed bus for the Troop.

The cake, guaranteed by Good Housekeeping, comes from the famous "Bensons" in Athens, Georgia, makers of old-home cakes.

SPECIAL HOLIDAY SAFETY MESSAGE FROM THE TEXAS HIGHWAY DEPARTMENT

Thanksgiving, the traditional opener of the winter holiday season, will prompt thousands of travelers to take to the highways. This will mean increased traffic in all parts of the State. Although the Texas Highway Department tries to make highway construction areas as safe as possible, heavy holiday traffic poses additional hazards.

The enclosed bulletin pinpoints current construction projects, some of which may be in your area.

The Highway Department urges you to call these construction areas in the attention of readers and listeners. Repeat the message as often as possible during the holiday period.

Please include a reminder to observe highway warning signs, and above all, urge safe driving in the construction areas.

Your use of highway safety messages now and through the year is a public service greatly appreciated by the Texas Highway Department.

Archer Sheets, member of a prominent Hansford county family, is well known in this area and has had an integral part in Hansford County history since the turn of the century. In this book she calls forth a personal recollection of life in this area around 1900 and the years following.

The story was told to Roselle Price Shelby and published in book form by Vantage Press of New York.

On December 2 The Gift Box, area distributor for the book, will have an autograph party for Mrs. Sheets. Read details about this in the advertising columns of this paper.

UH-OH! WRONG LINE

Last year the good tax folks put on an education campaign throughout Northern Texas to prevent taxpayer errors. The Newspapers and Radio and TV Stations work with IRS in carrying this message: "Be careful to get your tax due from the correct line in the tax table, and make sure that you put it on the correct line on your tax return."

The Dallas District IRS employees feel a little embarrassed over leading the Nation in having 49,000 out of 1,500,000 taxpayers, who, sure enough, got the tax from the wrong line of the table or put it on the wrong line on the tax return. I guess they would like to have us "Line Up" and do it right next year.

MEMBERS OF THE TWENTIETH CENTURY CLUB toured the new library building Thursday. Although the building needs some rejuvenation before it will be ready for occupancy, the women mentally erased the immediate obstacles and let their imagination go. Instead of seeing large empty rooms, they visualized the downstairs filled with shelves, books and tables, and the upstairs exhibit hall filled with banquet tables and hung with paintings. The value of a Hansford County Library to this city and community is well known to this group of women. Pictured from left: Sybil Miller, Grace Lyon, Ruth Shaver, Addie Novak and Johanna Kleeberger. More than 40 women toured the building Thursday.

R. V. Converse Cited For Leadership And Service

At the Federal Land Bank Association stockholder's meeting held November 15 at the First State Bank in Spearman's most distinguished and well-loved citizens was paid special tribute and honor.

Mr. R. V. Converse was presented a certificate of appreciation which read: "In acknowledgement of outstanding leadership in this community and distinguished service to agriculture and its related interests, the Federal Land Bank Association of Spearman is honored to present this certificate of recognition to R. V. Converse in this Golden Anniversary year of the Federal Land Bank System."

This is certainly a fitting tribute to Mr. Converse, who came to Hansford County in 1930 and has been engaged in farming operations since that time.

Mr. Converse has been interested in everything that would cause Hansford County and surrounding area to be a better place in which to live.

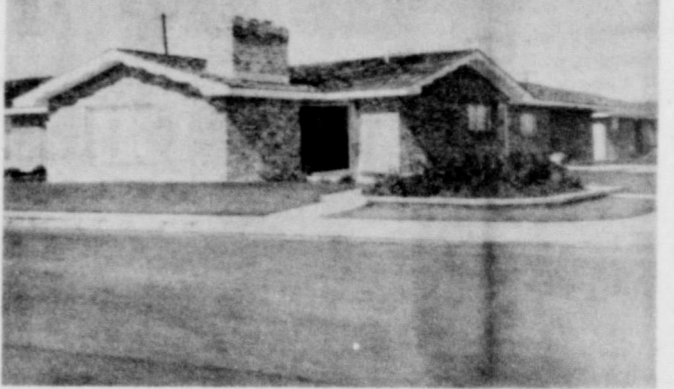

He helped to organize Producers Grain Corporation in the early thirties; has served on the Board of Directors of the Federal Land Bank Association of Spearman for almost 20 years; has had a part in the work of the Chamber of Commerce, Lions Club and various other civic organizations for many years; has served on the board of Directors for our Soil Conservation district almost continually since its inception and has spent much time and money in the interest of soil and water conservation in this area. He served as Democratic Chairman for Hansford County for many years retiring from this office in 1959.

Ray V. Converse was born July 4, 1881 in Ames, Iowa and graduated from Iowa Agriculture College. This 86-year old gentleman has been retired from active farming for several years.

Gruber Club Will Sponsor "Home Tour"

The Gruber Music Club will sponsor a Christmas Tour of Homes in Gruber on Dec. 3 between the hours of 2-5 p.m.

Proceeds from the tour will be used in the scholarship fund. Four homes will be shown and will include the homes of Dayton Barkley, Kenneth Irwin, Orville Mathews and Gene Wood.

Tickets may be purchased from any music club member or at the homes on the day of the tour. Prices are $1 for adults and 50 cents for children.

Refreshments will be served at the Irwin home and Santa will be in the Wood home to visit with children.

On the Christmas Home Tour, sponsored by Spearman Study Club December 10, guests will have the opportunity to visit the beautiful new home of Mr. and Mrs. Lester McLain, 1016 Wilmet Drive. Roscoe Nelson, contractor, completed the residence for occupancy by April 10, 1967. The split-level home, built of antique design brick, contains 3,000 sq. feet of living space. Southeast double entrance doors open into an entrance hall which is on the high level with the two spacious bedrooms. The entry leads down into the living room, dining room area. Walls in this large room are partially constructed from stone cut in the quarry at Liberty Hill, Texas. The avocado green and white kitchen is well lighted by a 6x8 ft. ceiling fixture. A glass enclosed patio with television and barbecue pit, and the open fireplace in the living room are the "best loved" conveniences in this beautiful home.

The McLains have used good taste in blending period furniture pieces with contemporary; some were special built to fit certain areas.

Mr. McLain, real estate man and farmer here since 1919, has his office at home. Located next to the living room, it has a private entrance.

ACCIDENT SUMMARY

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated one accident on rural highways in Hansford County during the month of October, according to Sergeant Ben A. Neel, Highway Patrol Supervisor of the area.

These crashes resulted in one personal injury, and an estimated property damage of $650.00.

The rural accident summary for this county during the first ten months of 1967 shows a total of 14 accidents resulting in no persons killed, 15 persons injured and an estimated property damage of $18,335.

The last two days of October have proved that winter is here. Your vehicle needs winterizing. Get the jump on bad weather by having your vehicle safety inspected by an authorized garage to help assure safe mechanical performance in the months ahead. Then check to see that antifreeze has been installed in your radiator; also, snow tires or tire chains and ice scrapers are handy, for "Today's inspection is tomorrow's protection."

The Sergeant suggested ways to "winterize your driving" during icy and slippery conditions.

- (1) Slow down and leave more space between cars.
- (2) Keep windows clear--turn on lights to help others.
- (3) Drive extra slow on turns, intersections, and crest of hills.
- (4) When braking, pump to avoid locking wheels in skid.

Elsie Porter will be home this weekend visiting her mother, Mrs. Rose Porter.

Let Me See ... by Sybil

Anyway I try to arrange the hands of the clock or days on the calendar, there is never enough time to get in all the things I would LIKE to do. In fact I just barely manage to squeeze in the things I HAVE to do. Of late my days haven't had enough hours in them, and for the next several months, I can see that the WEEKS aren't going to have enough days in them! It makes me so mad that everyone is pushing Christmas on me... when I haven't yet thought about Thanksgiving! Believe it or not, I have seen Santa Clause in many windows since the 1st of Nov. Yesterday I read an ad in the big daily inviting people in to see new SPRING merchandise! The "pushers" won't let you enjoy any season... or any particular holiday. I don't like it. It keeps me in a constant state of confusion. That poor ole turkey in my deep freeze (purchased for Thanksgiving) may not get cooked until Christmas... and by then it will be Spring already!

Just how and why I got into the newspaper business (is a marriage tale)--the one thing I ever wanted to be is a Nurse! How proud I am of our Vocational Nurses who have just passed their State Board exams. The class, which made the highest score in the entire State of Texas, is to be congratulated... and envied greatly (by me). Congratulations to all seven of these women who studied and worked their heads off for one entire year... and to their excellent instructor, Mrs. Joan McClellan. Last week when Joan was in Austin for the State workshop held for Nurse School Instructors... she received a personal call from the Governor himself! Not only did he congratulate Joan and her class for being first in the State, but he offered her a fabulous salary! I am thankful her husband, Wilson, is a home-grown boy whose roots are firmly anchored in local soil... else we might have lost Joan to Gov. Connally!

Visited a minute Saturday morning with Bill Coppock at Pioneer Manor. Bill was really proud of his new, shiny wheel chair, a gift from the Muscular Dystrophy Foundation. Bill, who is 44 years old, has been a victim of this disease since he was 5 years old. He was injured recently in an auto accident... at which time his chair was completely demolished. Bill was all smiles Saturday morning... but this is nothing unusual... he always is!

The absence of the "Let Me See" title from this column for the past two weeks was never noticed by anyone in this shop... until my friend Mrs. W.A. Schubert brought it to my attention Monday morning. Thanks Mrs. Schubert!

I don't fit into the age group... but I just might attend the story time sessions coming up during Christmas holidays. The ladies of the Twentieth Century Club have come up with an excellent way to entertain YOUR children during the vacation from school in December. From Dec. 26 through Dec. 29 there will be story reading sessions from 2:30 to 3:45 each day in the new Library building on main street. This will be for children in grades 1-3 in one group, and grades 4-6 in another group. Reading sessions will be held in the big room on the first floor of the building. In the mean time, if there is any certain story preference you might have, contact Mrs. Analee (Raymond) Kirk. Drop off your child at the Library building during these hours... and go back home and finish cleaning up all that Christmas mess! You can't beat this kind of deal!

Helpful Hints From Me To Thee ... By Vivian Warmbath

Planning your holiday parties? You'll want to take into consideration the variety in enhancing the flavor and appearance of so many holiday foods. Pecan Pie is a favorite of the southeast. Here's a tasty recipe using sour cream to lend special flavor. To make two nine inch pies, mix 4 egg yolks, 2 cups granulated sugar, 2 cups sour cream, 1/2 cup sifted flour, 1/2 teaspoon lemon extract and 1/4 teaspoon salt.

Cook the mixture over water until thickened about 45 minutes. Spoon mixture into two unbaked pie shells. For the topping, beat 4 egg whites and 2 cups brown sugar. Stir in 2 cups broken pecan meats. Spread over pie filling and bake in a 325 degree oven until brown, about 15 minutes. Plentiful foods on USDA's November list: turkeys, pork, grape juice, potatoes, dry split peas and broiler-fryers. A noted professor reports that perhaps 20 million Americans think they have heart disease but do not. "What better excuse is there for each effort or failure? In a sense, some of these people have waited all their lives for a good excuse, and the physician's hesitation, cough, or throat clearing is sufficient." Here's wishing all of you a very happy Thanksgiving! Always remember to forget The things that made you sad, But never forget to remember The things that made you glad.

TEXAS DRIVERS NEED EYE TESTS AUSTIN, NOV. 7-Drivers must see well enough to recognize danger in time to avoid accidents, and high speed driving makes the best of vision an absolute necessity. These basic facts were emphasized today in a news release by the Texas Safety Association and Texans for Traffic Safety when they pointed out that thousands of licensed drivers may well be driving in today's heavy traffic with defective vision. "Each year in Texas more than two million drivers licenses are renewed without the benefit of an eye examination. Visual capabilities often change, and sometimes rapidly. Advancing age, diseases and eye injuries can adversely affect a person's vision," Dr. Otto Lippmann, Austin, Chairman, Texans for Traffic Safety, said. "It is not unusual for a 40 or 50-year-old driver who had good vision 20 years ago to have some visual problem now that calls for correction or treatment," he said. "Some drivers with failing eyesight are aware of their problems, but many others are not. These drivers with unknown visual defects may endanger all other users of the streets and highways." Both the Texas Safety Association and Texans for Traffic Safety strongly advocate vision re-examination at the time of driver license renewal. They also recommend all drivers, who think that their vision might be deteriorating, have competent eye examinations. "They owe it to themselves, as well as others--for the unseen traffic hazard can kill or cripple," Dr. Lippmann concluded.

"CAN WE WAVE THE FLAG TOO MUCH?"
by Signey L. De Love
Is it possible to wave the flag too much? Provided, of course, that you wave it with integrity? Is it possible to read the Bible too much? The great, the good, the true, are inexhaustible for inspiration, example and strength. I believe that we are not waving our flag enough, not nearly enough. It seems to me that we are developing a tendency to be timid or even apologetic about waving the stars and stripes. Walk up and down the streets on July 4th and count the flags. It is our nation's birthday, a sacred day in world history, the most important day of America. Why isn't the flag flying on every rooftop and from every home and building? This complacent attitude is strong evidence of cancerous patriotic decay. The flag is a symbol of our national unity. It is the spirit of our undying devotion to our country. It stands for the best that is in us... for loyalty, character, and faith in democracy. Isn't our flag a synonym of the United States of America? Does it not represent man's greatest, noblest, most sublime dream? Is it not the zenith of achievement, the goal to which generations have aspired?
Ladies and gentlemen, I believe it is time for us... for the mad, rushing Twentieth Century American... to stop for a moment and think. Let us arrest our near reverential admiration of material success and return to the spiritual and ethical values. Let us imbue and rekindle in ourselves and our children the so-called old-fashioned way of patriotism, a burning devotion to the principles and ideals upon which our country was founded.
Should not every home own and proudly display the colors on holidays and other occasions? Isn't the flag Patrick Henry, Jefferson, Franklin, Washington, Nathan Hale, Gettysburg and Valley Forge, Paul Revere, Jackson and other great men and women who have given us our heritage. When you look at the flag can't you see the Alamo, Corrigedor, Pearl Harbor, The Monitor and The Merrimac? Let us forget, isn't the flag Flanders Field, Bataan, Iwo Jima, Normandy, Babe Ruth and Davy Crockett? The great events of our past and present are wrapped up in our flag.
It is a symbol of this blessed nation, a giant in industry, education and commerce. Millions of fertile square miles, wheatlands, coal mines, steel plants. Our great republic, the chosen infant destined to be man's last remaining hope for suffering humanity, a shining beacon of light, noble and glorious, the haven for the oppressed and persecuted and truly God's gift to mankind. That is what the flag means to me. Can we wave it too much? I don't think so.

the Reporter's PERSONALITY OF THE WEEK

James Edward Evans boils down to just plain Jim. Surely everybody in Spearman, knows this smiling friendly fellow, Jim Evans. We might very well refer to Jim as the host at Gordon's Drug, because sooner or later, he'll sit down and join you with a cup of coffee. He may be interrupted several times, by people who are in a hurry for a prescription, but be that as it may, he'll find time to carry on a few snatches of conversation. Jim Evans is the type of young business man that becomes an integral part of this community in a few short years. Once you get to know him, you sort of classify him as a native son, although he has only been a Spearman resident for a few years. He is an ardent sports fan and a loyal supporter of all the Lynx activities. He is a very active member of the Spearman Jaycees. He is a member of the Presbyterian Church and ever willing to go all out for anything that lends to the betterment of Spearman. Jim is an alert, aggressive business man, who likes to keep busy. He has the uncanny knack of knowing the kind of merchandise that people want to buy. Jim is greatly responsible for the well rounded stock in Gordon's Drug, one of the most modern drug stores to be found anywhere in the area. His major complaint is that there should be more than twenty-four hours in a day, so that a fellow could squeeze in a game of pool or ping-pong, between jobs. If you're spending ten cents or fifty dollars, you'll get the same Evans attention and service, plus that friendly smile. Here is a young man who makes quick decisions, but more often than not, his decisions are right. He believes that a well operated drug store should have new merchandise constantly coming in and, in order to keep this fresh flow of goods arriving on the shelves, he depends on that ability to buy what the public wants. With the Christmas season approaching, Jim has made a special project out of seeing that Gordon's Drug affords such a well rounded stock that there's a veritable bonanza of available gifts for anyone on your list. Here's a young man on the go with the talent, background and personality to reach his goal. If I had to count my friends on my ten finger, Jim Evans would be one of the ten.

Debbie Standerfer will be home this weekend visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Standerfer. Debbie is going to Texas Women's University in Denton. Doug Lackey is coming home from North Texas in Denton to spend the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Major Lackey.

The worry-wart fretted himself to a frazzle, then peppered his doctor with complaints during his physical check-up. Finally, he asked, "Will I live?" "Well," replied the medic slowly, "you could, but I wouldn't advise it."

A lot of things have been going up...

but one thing has stayed down - the cost per unit of electric service

You may find it hard to believe that anything is less expensive now than it used to be. But it's a fact that the average price per kilowatt-hour of residential electric service is lower today than ever before. That's not to say that your monthly electric bills are smaller now. But if you're paying more per month for electricity, it's because you're using more of it to enjoy more electric comforts and conveniences. Electric service is still the biggest value in your household budget.

THE PEABODY LETTER CHESTER L. PEABODY III RANCH ROOSTERBURS GRUVER COUNTY

Dere Bob and John: When the whistle blew for the first round of the fite between Cashus Clay and the old Red Rooster, I put the towel over my arm and got in back of Red's corner. Red came out with his wings up and his tale down. He dribbled rite up to old Clay and hit him with a flying tackle with no holts barred. Clay side stepped and hollered, "I'm the greatest." Red come back with a off tackle sweep and caught cashus with a drop kick in the basket. Clay tried for a free throw, but Red helt him in the end zone. About that time, Red caught him off-center and kicked him for a field goal, plumb through the basket. The referee blowed his whistle which caught Red off sides and out of bounds. Red figured, by this time that he had Mohamid X on the fifty one yard line, so he made a lateral pass and caught Cashus in a double wing lock toe Holt. Cashus broke the holt and tide Red up in a body slam to the mid section. Red come back with a wish bone kick to the parrots eyebeam and old Clay hollered fowl. Red looked around to see where she wuz at and Cashus caught him with a drop-kick to the side lines. Red wuz knocked out plumb cold but he wuz saved by the bell which ended up the first round. I quick got in Red's corner and shoved a bunch of rooster booster pills down his throat to give him more strength. When he come to, I told him to use my old Indian holt on Clay. Red winked one eye, which told me that he had another holt in mind. About that time, the whistle blowed for round two, but I have done run out of paper and ink so I'll have to con tend new this cereal story about the fite, between Cashus Clay and the old Red Rooster next week. Water Rights Commission Sending Forms To Users

The Texas Water Rights Commission announced today that it has begun distribution of reporting forms required by the Water Rights Adjudication Act of 1967.

Persons using public surface water in Texas for any purpose other than for domestic or livestock uses without a permit are required by recent legislative action to file a sworn statement with the Texas Water Rights Commission for recognition of their claim. This must be done no later than September 1, 1969.

The Water Rights Adjudication Act, effective August 28, 1967, provides that all claims of water rights must be recorded with the Water Rights Commission. These claims must be valid under existing law and will be limited to actual use. All water rights are to be adjudicated and administered by the Commission "to the end that the surface water resources of the State may be put to their greatest beneficial use," to quote the new law.

This Act will not affect users of ground water. Users of surface water for domestic or livestock purposes only also will not be affected. The new law applies to and may limit claims to riparian waters, waters diverted or impounded for use other than for domestic and livestock purposes. . . . claims to water rights under the Irrigation Acts of 1889 and 1895 which were not filed with the State Board of Water Engineers in accordance with the Irrigation Act of 1913, as amended. . . . and all other claims to water rights for which permits or certified filings have not been granted.

Only the maximum volume of water beneficially used by claimants during any one year from 1963 to 1967, inclusive, will be recognized under the new law. If an individual has expanded his water application facilities prior to this Act but has not fully used the facilities, the volume used without waste from 1963 to 1970, inclusive, will be recognized. These individuals will need to file an additional sworn statement on or before July 1, 1971 to include the additional two years.

Water authorities have explained there will never be enough water in Texas for each individual to have an equal share. Therefore, available public waters must be appropriated to individuals based on priority, necessity and legal right. The Water Rights Adjudication Act is designed to protect the rightful users of public waters from waste and unlawful users.

The Act empowers the Commission to adjudicate water rights in the State. Adjudication of a stream may be initiated upon the Commission's own motion, by a petition signed by ten or more claimants of water rights on the same stream, or upon a petition by the Texas Water Development Board.

The new law contains detailed procedures to insure due process and notice. Judicial review of the Commission's final determination is mandatory. The eventual determination in every water right adjudication will be final. The Water Rights Adjudication Act provides, "Except for domestic and livestock purposes or rights subsequently acquired by permit, no water rights shall be recognized in the adjudicated stream or segment unless included in the final decree."

Upon final determination of water rights on a stream, the Commission will issue a certificate of adjudication to each person found to have a water right.

All permits for unappropriated water granted after a stream is adjudicated will be administered in the same manner as an adjudicated right.

During drought periods, especially on larger streams, it will be necessary to closely supervise all rights. The Commission will divide the state into water divisions and appoint watermasters to regulate stream flow and water usage.

Any person dissatisfied with the actions of a watermaster may appeal to the Commission and then to the courts.

The watermaster and necessary assistants will be paid by the Commission which in turn will be reimbursed by the holders of water rights.

Water users on non-adjudicated streams may enter into a written agreement with the Commission for administration of the stream flow and a special watermaster will be assigned.

The Water Rights Adjudication Act involves three basic premises. The Act provides for up-to-date recording of all water right claims in the State, for the adjudication of these rights on streams upon filing of necessary petitions, and for the administration of adjudicated rights during times of water shortage to insure that rights and priorities are protected.

The Recording Forms may be obtained free of charge from the Texas Water Rights Commission, P. O. Box 12396, Capitol Station, Austin, Texas 78711.

SAN DIEGO--Marine Private Michael C. Babbs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie C. Babbs of 515 S. Evans, Spearman, Tex., and husband of the former Amy Cator of Gruver, Tex., was graduated from eight weeks of recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot here.

He will now undergo from two to four weeks of individual combat training and then after leave at home, will report to his first Marine Corps assignment.

The intensified Marine recruit training emphasizes rigid physical conditioning and survival techniques, both at sea and ashore, to develop self-confidence and endurance. Marksmanship with the M-14 rifle and 45-caliber pistol are equally stressed, and close order drill instills the traditions of Marine Corps teamwork.

A thorough study of basic military subjects, hygiene, first aid and sanitation, and the customs, courtesies, history and mission of the Marine Corps serve to polish the Marine's recruit education and prepare him to join the Marine combat forces.

Price Says Rising Crime Is Disgrace

"The nation's spiraling crime rate is a disgrace," Representative Bob Price said in Washington Friday in calling for speedy passage of a bill intended to unclog the backlog of criminal cases.

Price, a member of the House Republican Task Force on Crime, blamed part of the crime problem on the failure "to dispense swift, sure justice."

The federal Magistrates Act endorsed by the Task Force and the Judicial Conference of the United States has already been passed by the Senate.

The proposal, according to Price, would replace U.S. Commissioners with a new position of U.S. Magistrates, and upgrade and expand the qualifications and duties of the office.

"The significant feature of the legislation," Price said, "is that Federal Judges would be freed from less important procedural tasks and enabled to devote more time to matters of substance in the administration of justice."

"If enacted," the Panhandle Congressman said, "the bill would promote swift justice in Federal criminal cases especially in the Nation's Capital where all crimes are within the jurisdiction of the Federal courts."

SHOOTING WAR STARTS

In "bird" hunting, accidents occur as the hunter swings to shoot birds flushing to the right and left. All hunters in a group should stay abreast of each other. Those in the center should fire only at game that is straight ahead. Game to the side should be taken by the hunter on that flank. CARRYING A GUN

There are several ways to carry a gun so that it's pointed safely, yet ready for instant use. One position is to grip the small of the stock by the trigger hand and cradle the barrel in the crook of the other arm. However, hunters walking abreast should never carry a gun in the crook of the arm, pointed dangerously to the side where it might hit a companion. In this case, it is safer to use the familiar shoulder carry.

Some hunters hold the rifle with the right forearm under the balance point of the gun and the butt beneath the right armpit. Still another way is to hold the fore-end with the left hand, the small of the stock in the right hand. Each of these positions is acceptable, but the important thing to remember is to watch where the muzzle is pointed and have the gun under constant control.

When carrying a gun, safety should always be and the hunter's trigger finger outside the guard unready to shoot. The safety can easily be pushed to "off" position as the gun swung to the shoulder at the same time the trigger finger can find the trigger. SELF-INFLICTED WOUNDS

HOW NOT TO GROW

The manager who fears making mistakes too much to risk making them, obviously won't make any. But neither will he learn or grow. He will stand still, or slide backwards. While others about him, with courage to face up to the inevitable risk that is inherent in initiative, will thrust forward. In short, the status of the individual who plays it too safe will be in greater jeopardy than his more venturesome counterpart.

WSU Plans $3. Million PE Building

CANYON--West Texas State University expects to submit a contract in March to construct a $3.25 million physical activities building, and hopes to have the building completed by September, 1969.

Final plans for the building have been approved by the board of regents, Texas State Senior Colleges, and university financial vice president Virgil Henson said financing will come from a federal grant and revenue bonds.

He said the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System has recommended a grant of $1,750,000 from the Health, Education, and Welfare department for the building.

The physical activities building will be constructed on the northeast portion of the campus near the proposed location of new men's and women's dormitories. The building will house a 50-meter Olympic-sized swimming pool and a 38,000 square-foot area for basketball, volleyball and tennis.

The swimming pool will be in a one-story section at the right of the main entrance, and the basketball area will be in a similar section to the rear of the main building. A two-story structure, the main building will contain locker rooms and separate rooms for such activities as weightlifting, modern dance, billiards, wrestling and handball.

Henson said that the building is designed and intended for student body physical activities, intramural sports, and not for varsity inter-collegiate sports competition.

He said the contract for the construction of a regulation outdoor track and for ten outdoor lighted tennis courts, he said that if a contract is let next spring, it might be possible to have the tennis courts completed for play next summer.

David McClellan will be here for Thanksgiving weekend from the University of Texas in Austin visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. McClellan.

AF Offering Commission To R-Nurses

The United States Air Force today announced changes in its requirements for a commission in the Air Force Nurse Corps. Sergeant Ralph Gross, local Air Force Recruiter, states that a message just received authorizes registered nurses who are married, but have no dependents under 18 years of age to apply for a commission in the U. S. Air Force. Also Sgt. Ralph Gross said that male nurses may now apply with no limitation on dependents.

In the past, the Air Force has accepted very few male nurses, and has not accepted women who were married. Now according to Sgt. Ralph Gross these restrictions have been lifted, partly because the nationwide shortage in Air Force Hospitals and partly because of the great need for Flight Nurses in Southeast Asia.
