"Christ Is Born"

FAITHFUL TO THE SPIRIT OF THE FIRST CHRISTMAS is "The Nativity," by the Florentine painter Mariotto Albertinelli (1474-1515). The simple scene presents the Christ Child, with Mary and Joseph, in a realistic setting, and background detail suggests a hillside manger, typical of the rock caves which were used for stables in Bethlehem. Painting is in the Uffizi Gallery, in Florence, Italy.

Christians Celebrate Holiday With Joy and Prayer

"And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God and saying, Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men." — Luke 2:13-14

In church services this Christmas season, Christians everywhere gather to commemorate the miracle of a holy night nearly 2,000 years ago. The message of Christmas lives on—in candlelight and carols, in pageants and prayers.

Joyfully, the happiness of Christmas finds expression in music and song. Choirs sing the praises of the Babe of Bethlehem, and sacred hymns and carols reflect the spirit of rejoicing. As the herald angels sang to shepherds long ago, so now exultant voices join in proclaiming the Birth of Christ, with "on earth peace, good will toward men."

"And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us."

"And they came with haste, and found Mary and Joseph, and the Babe lying in a manger." — Luke 2:15-16

Along with the joyous exultation, there is a spirit of thankfulness in celebration of this holy Day. In both church and private devotions, Christians ponder anew the word of the Christmas story, as it was told by two of His disciples, Matthew and Luke. It is read and re-read, remembered and recited upon. And it is beheld, symbolically, in Nativity scenes and by treasured tradition, recreate the manner of His birth. Prayerfully, each congregation and each individual celebrates Christmas, keeping always in memory that the glory of His coming was first revealed to humble shepherds, and that the Holy Child was born in a simple manger. Worshipers give thanks to God, for the Miracle and its meaning.

"And when they were come into the house, they saw the young Child with Mary His mother, and fell down, and worshipped Him: and when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto him gifts, gold, and frankincense, and myrrh." — Matthew 2:11

The Wise Men, says St. Matthew, followed a Star to seek and find the Babe of Bethlehem. Their joy at beholding Him, and their precious gifts in homage, express much of the wonder and majesty of the Christmas story, as it is envisioned today. Yet in those gifts was a prophecy, a poignant reminder of the sacred solemnity, the highest meaning of Christmas. Gold was a precious treasure, fitting gift for the newborn King. Frankincense, an ingredient of incense, expressed the ancient belief that "incense owns a deity nigh."

The third gift was in sad token of great sorrow to come. Myrrh, used by the ancients in funeral rites, symbolized Christ's own supreme gift of life and foretold His death upon the Cross.

At the manger, there was the shadow of Calvary. Thus Christmas is celebrated, joyfully, prayerfully, solemnly, in dedication to its sacred meaning: The Child born in a manger was the Son of God, destined to take up the burdens of mankind and bear them to the Cross, where He died that the spirit of man might live forever.

More and Legend Express Happy Mood of Season

From home to home, from country to country, Yule celebrations abound. The happy traditions of gift giving, home decorating, carol singing, card sending, candle lighting and trimming express the spirit of the season.

Popular folk customs of nations after nation have been absorbed into the international legend and lore of the Yule. Yet virtually every nation and every home and family, has its special way of celebrating Christmas, and its own memories of Christmas past.

Carrying in Straw
Carrying in straw is a traditional part of Christmas celebrations in Sweden—in probable remembrance of the first Christmas when there was straw in the manger.

While "carrying in the straw" is a tradition rather than a modern custom, Swedish people still make use of straw and wooden figures to decorate their Christmas trees.

Baking the Pie

"The devil dares not show himself in Cornwall at Christmas time lest he should be baked in a pie."

This old English saying takes its humorous inspiration from the wide variety of ingredients actually used in the mince pies and other Christmas pies of early England, according to the editors of The New Book of Knowledge.

One 14th-century recipe for a Christmas pie included: a pheasant, a hare, a capon, two partridges, two pigeons, two rabbits, beef meat balls, eggs, pickled mushrooms, seasonings and spices, all in a pastry crust.

In Bethlehem, it's the rainy season.

In Hawaii, Santa Claus might arrive by boat, and Christmas could be celebrated on a sunny beach. In Australia, Christmas is a time for picnicking—it's summer "down under."

Even in Northern lands, December 25th does not always provide the pleasures of a "white Christmas."

In spite of the varying climates where Christmas is observed, and in spite of the frequent shortage of ice and snow at the appropriate time, the traditional image of Christmas is, and probably always will be, a wintry, snowy landscape—celebrated in song and story, pictured in countless paintings.

The countryside under a blanket of snow, the hillside drifted deep in white, the trees bent down with snow or crystal-bright with ice, the lakes, rivers and streams gleaming in ice-covered magnificence—in these are favorite themes in holiday lore, and favorite dreams for all those who spend Christmas cozily among the conveniences of modern centrally-heated buildings and modern transportation.

The "winter wonderland" of ice and snow has been a frequent source of inspiration for artists. There's a wealth of winter landscape paintings that, although not directly associated with Christmas, seem to set the mood and reflect the spirit of the season.

In 16th and 17th century Holland, for instance, a whole tradition of landscape painting was devoted solely to depicting winter scenes—something unusual since the winter weather of Holland is not especially cold.

Spirit of Christmas Spreads Good Will and Good Cheer

They Go Together—Feasting and Festivity

During the Christmas season, merry sounds ring out, pleasing sights greet the eye—and tantalizing aromas fill the air. Good food is as much a part of holiday tradition as bells and carols, greens and gifts.

At this festive time, people delight in serving their families and friends an abundance of choice foods. The custom probably began with the ancient winter festivals. In the course of time, naturally each nation developed its own treasured customs in connection with the Christmas dinner, say the editors of The New Book of Knowledge.

Special holiday cakes were thought to bring good fortune and good health. More directly connected with the religious meaning of the season is the "Christ-bread" traditional in many countries. This is a long cake, and its shape is meant to symbolize the Christ Child wrapped in swaddling clothes.

Both mince pie and plum pudding began as national Christmas dishes in England. Like the "Christ-bread," early mince pies were baked in symbolic shape—an oblong meant to represent the manger.

On American tables, the center of attraction is usually the turkey. This custom has its origin in the English "Christmas bird"—usually a goose, capon or chicken, rather than a turkey.

In medieval times, a large bird was standard fare at English Christmas dinners among the common people. In castle and manor, however, a "bird" wasn't always the main dish.

To the tune of the old carol, "The Boar's Head in Hand I Bear," the boar's head was borne to the table in solemn procession. Then followed other courses—and what courses! The most lavish of dinners usually featured a boar's head.

For a medieval feast, a typical menu included 17 main dishes—everything from roasted swan to a kid with a pudding in its belly!

Breaking Bread
Everywhere, a widespread use of breads and pastries is customary for the Christmas feast.

This has its origin in pre-Christian and early-Christian customs of the agricultural nations of Eastern Europe, where peasants offered thanksgiving for a good harvest, usually of grain, during the winter season.

Little Folk Prance
For Icelanders, Christmas Eve is the holiest night of the holiday season.

Tradition says, however, that many years ago elves, dwarfs and other little folks pranced and danced about the streets on the night before Christmas.

For admirers of art and winter Christmases alike, one of the definitive painters of winter scenes is Hendrik Avercamp.

Perhaps because he devoted his artistic talents exclusively to the winter landscape, Avercamp's paintings capture to perfection both the beauties and pleasures of winter. Bare branches of trees etch their patterns against expanses of ice, in contrast with the cozy cottages and, on the ice, the

In churches and homes, in city streets and stores, across the countryside—the spirit of Christmas spreads its joy and its contentment. Soon now, the last-minute hustle and bustle will give way to the highest moments of holiday celebration. It's a time for fun and feasting, a time for light-hearted laughter and heartfelt prayer, a time when friendships are renewed and family ties are strengthened.

Throughout this community, and indeed throughout all the communities where Christmas is celebrated, the spirit of the season finds expression in innumerable ways—among them, the gladness of gift-giving, the merriment of parties, the happiness of hearth and home and, above all, the solemn hush of midnight, traditionally the symbolic time for heralding the Birth of Christ.

From the holy wreath on the door to the packages under the tree, from the gaily decorated windows of stores to the manger scenes in the churches, the customs of Christmas contribute to the meaning of the Day—just as early Christian leaders meant that holiday customs should.

When Christmas first began to be observed on December 25th, churchmen welcomed the idea of incorporating ceremonies and traditions from earlier beliefs into the celebration. They thought that people would feel closer to the new religion if former ways and rituals were not abolished, but instead united with the new rites to honor the birth of Christ.

Today, nearly everyone celebrates Christmas because Christmas belongs to everyone.

For the Christian believer, Christmas is cherished as a religious holiday of paramount importance, and as a time meant for joy and festivity, too.

For people of many different faiths, Christmas is beloved as a happy holiday, a secular celebration that gives meaningful expression to universal good will and good cheer.

Giving Gifts
Since the Wise Men gave of their treasures to the Christ Child, giving has been part of the tradition of Christmas.

The idea of gifts as homage dates from even earlier times, when kings demanded special tribute from their subjects during holiday seasons. Thus the Wise Men, in offering precious gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh, expressed their reverence for the newborn King of mankind.

Giving to celebrate a happy time was a familiar part of many pagan festivals. The Romans honored Saturn, their god of agriculture, with a winter festival called the Saturnalia. During this joyous feast, they exchanged gifts—wax candles, clay dolls and various trinkets.

When these pagan customs of exchanging gifts were transferred to the celebration of the birth of Christ, church leaders added a new idea: selfless giving. Through the ages, giving to help the less fortunate has been a special tradition of Christmas.

Sending Greetings
Perhaps even more than the giving of gifts, the sending of Christmas greetings symbolizes the seasonal spirit of good will.

The personal exchange of good wishes at holiday time is a custom that's older, probably, than Christmas itself. In ancient winter festivals the renewal of the earth at the coming of spring was linked with the renewal of friendships.

Though greetings and Christmas have long been associated, the printed greeting card is a relative newcomer to the Yule scene—introduced little more than a century ago. Nowadays, Christmas greeting cards go out by the billions, carrying their messages of "happy holiday" and "best wishes."

In the glad tradition of sending greetings, today's edition of this newspaper presents the special greetings of local merchants, as they express their good wishes and gratitude to customers and friends.

Burning the Log
From a miraculous Star to a tiny candle, gleaming lights have cast a glow over holiday festivities for centuries.

Pagan sun-worshippers lit candles and kindled fires at winter festivals to help the returning sun gain strength. Traditional for both light and warmth is the blazing Yule log. Like all "Christmas lights," it has both a religious and a festive significance in holiday lore.

Because legend says that the Christ Child was washed and dressed beside an ash wood fire, the people of early England always had Yule logs of ash wood. Ash had a practical aspect, too, because it was the only green wood which would burn.

The Yule log of England and continental Europe was often believed to have mystical powers to protect the home. To give this protection, the Yule log had to be kept burning all through the 12 days of Christmas.

Later, the "blazing Yule" was primarily associated with the feasting and festivity of the winter holidays.

Ringling Bells
Among the merry sights and sounds of Christmas, none is merrier than the ringing of bells.

Since earliest times, the pealing of bells has announced important events, both happy and sad. The first use of bells to call Christians to worship took place, it's believed, at Christmas in Italy, about 400 A.D.

Tradition once held that Christ was born exactly at midnight. In medieval Britain, church bells tolled sadly during the hour before midnight on Christmas Eve. On the stroke of 12, a joyous pealing announced the Miracle of Christmas.

Today, church-spire bells and carillons ring out the glad tidings of Christmas.

Artistic Views Reflect 'Winter Wonderland'

BECAUSE CHRISTMAS IS TRADITIONALLY A WINTER WONDERLAND, paintings such as "Winter Scene" by the Flemish artist Hendrik Avercamp seem to capture the mood and reflect the spirit of the holiday season. Avercamp devoted his talents to depicting the winter landscapes of Holland. This painting, which is in the Rijks Museum, Amsterdam, appears in the Grolier Book of Art, a 10-volume encyclopedia.

For admirers of art and winter Christmases alike, one of the definitive painters of winter scenes is Hendrik Avercamp.

Perhaps because he devoted his artistic talents exclusively to the winter landscape, Avercamp's paintings capture to perfection both the beauties and pleasures of winter. Bare branches of trees etch their patterns against expanses of ice, in contrast with the cozy cottages and, on the ice, the shape his landscape style. The snow-covered hillsides seen in the work of the elder Pieter Bruegel contrast strangely with the flat, icy terrain of his native Holland. The explanation is to be found in travels which took him to mountainous lands.

Bruegel became a master in the Antwerp painters' guild in 1551, and shortly afterward journeyed to France and Italy, says the Grolier Book of Art.

the Reporter's PERSONALITY OF THE WEEK

It is said that a great deal of a man's happiness depends upon working at something he enjoys. That is probably the reason for the ever friendly demeanor of our personality of the week, because if there is a single business man in Spearman who thoroughly enjoys his vocation that person is Slim Cates. He's known to everybody, young and old alike, as just plain "Slim." Should the day ever come when he tips the scales above the two hundred mark, I'm sure the name will stick. Slim's success in the mens' and boys' field, can be attributed to many things, but probably one of the most outstanding reasons, is the fact that he naturally likes people and especially youngsters. Just stand around the store for a while, after school hours and you'll see more than one or two boys enter the place. You'll also note that Slim greets them by name and spends maybe a little more time waiting on them, than he would their dads. He constantly stocks the very best in name brand clothing for men and boys and this stock changes with the styles and the seasons. Slim Cates hates carry overs and discontinued merchandise, like a case of mumps and he never hesitates to reduce the prices on such items to the extent that they simply have to move out. His love for youngsters is exemplified in his support of all local sports. He's an avid Lynx fan and never hesitates to boost the teams. The operation of a store like Cates Mens' and Boys' Wear requires a lot of knowledge, from the standpoint of buying and he has constantly shown that he has his finger on the pulse of the public, as far as mens' and boys' clothing is concerned. He believes in the very best brands for work or dress. No matter how busy he may be, you'll always find him ready and willing to take time off for a friendly chat, or maybe, once in a while, he can be induced into a quick coffee break. To get a fully appreciation of Slim's diplomatic talent, you should be in the store some day when a mother is trying to persuade her young son to buy a particular pair of shoes. I'm talking about a case where the youngster is dead set on a different style. You'll agree that a situation of that sort requires a bit of diplomacy, but by the time the purchase is complete, both mother and son are happy. If you like sincere, friendly people, you'll surely like Slim Cates.

Pipkin, Fendorf Schubert and Burton Schubert.

A holiday party was enjoyed December 17 in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Craig Hutchison by employees of the Sheriff's Office and Tax office. The party began with a dinner served in the beautifully decorated home. A centerpiece of red ornaments, red velvet bows and candles decorated the buffet table. Red candles and garlands of greenery highlighted the long banquet table. Hanging from the ceiling over the banquet table was a Christmas wreath candleabra holding red candles and greenery.

ICE SLEDDING... White, frozen roads provided opportunity for these boys to drag out their sled Friday for some winter fun! Stanley Pendergraft and Dennis DeArmond found it difficult to get enough traction to push their younger brothers Kevin Pendergraft and James DeArmond, but the boys had a slippery-sliding good time.

After dinner Sheriff Cooke was presented a gift from his employees. Cake, pie and coffee were served during the evening while guests played a variety of games. Attending were Messrs. and Mrs. J. B. Cooke, R. L. McFarlin, Jr. and Gregg, Lee Phillips, Lindell Warren, Orville Walker, Glen Red, John Brown and Bobby, Miss Linda Thompson, Miss Peggy Robinson, the host couple and Lisa and Joe Hutchison.

Darrell Longley is in St. Anthony's Hospital in Oklahoma City. He is taking physical therapy and expects to be home another week. He had knee surgery in October and this is a follow up treatment. His room no is 2009.

NEW CITY PATROLMAN... George Cannon went to work for the City Police Department Thursday of this week. Cannon, his wife Jewel and twins Bret & Bridgett, age 6, reside at 718 Bernice st. He replaces Tommy Messer who resigned from the Police force Nov. 22. Cannon has been employed with the Plainview Police Dept. for the past three years.

Disciple Class Has Party

The Disciple Class of the Union Church was honored with a seasonal party last Sunday evening in the home of Rev. and Mrs. George Bollinger. Mrs. Bollinger, who is the teacher, was assisted with hostess duties by Mrs. W. B. Barnes and Mrs. Jesse Francis.

SIMMONS-CLOSE Vows Read

A double ring ceremony performed at one o'clock December 16 united in marriage Miss Jenny Simmons and Mr. Carl Close.

Flavil Ayers read the vows in the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lelan Close, 403 S. Bernice St., Spearman. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Simmons, 412 Dressen Street.

The ceremony was performed before members of the immediate family and close friends. The bridal party stood before the mantel which was draped with garlands of greenery and caught with a large red bow. Other mantel decorations included a centerpiece of Christmas angels flanked on either side with candelabra holding burning red tapers.

The Close home was decorated throughout in the traditional Christmas scheme.

Miss Janice Gilbert, maid of honor, wore a red sheath dress pinned at the shoulder with red roses and white carnations.

Mike Close served his brother as best man.

The bride was attired in a white wool street length dress fashioned with long fitted sleeves and a scooped neckline. She wore a white pill-box hat with a short veil attached, and carried a white Bible topped with an arrangement of red roses, white carnations and stephanotis. The Bible was a gift from the bridegroom.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Simmons chose a light blue suit with black accessories. Mrs. Close was dressed in a royal blue two piece dress with black accessories. Both mothers wore shoulder corsages of white carnations.

For a wedding trip to the mountains of New Mexico, the bride traveled in a red wool dress with gold accessories. She wore the flowers from her wedding bouquet.

Following the honeymoon, the couple will be at home at 723 Haney St., Spearman. The groom is employed with White House Lbr. Co. The bride is a senior in Spearman High School. The bridegroom is a 1967 graduate of Spearman High School.

Founder of Red Cross

Clara Barton, Civil War nurse, was born on Christmas Day in 1821. It was her warm thoughts of Christmas that led her, when she set off to visit her brother, a prisoner during the Civil War, to offer to take presents not only to him but to the prisoner relatives of all her Oxford, Mass., neighbors.

Subsequently, Clara Barton was instrumental in founding the American Red Cross and served as its president for many years.

A JOYOUS CHRISTMAS

As the peace and joy of the first Christmas shines across the years, we wish bountiful blessings for you and yours. And to you, our sincere thanks for your patronage and good will.

Residents Asked To Hold Trash For Tuesday Pick Up

Since there will be no city trash pick-up over the weekend nor Christmas day, all city residents are asked to hold their extra accumulation of boxes and trash for a Tuesday morning pick up.

It can be scattered. Hold it until Tuesday morning, put it out by the can, and crews will pick it up then. The city has hired extra pick up crews for Tuesday so that the extra accumulation of holiday boxes, etc. can be dispensed with quickly.

Empty Streets Only Greeting For Santa Claus

Santa came to Spearman Dec. 16 riding on the fire truck... but he badly needed ice skates... The icy roads and very bad weather kept many boys and girls from greeting the grand old man of Christmas personally. He threw candy to those shoppers brave enough to be out in such weather, but he was greeted mostly by empty streets and freezing temperatures.

However, for the children who did not get to greet Santa Claus and tell him their Christmas "wishes"... he will be at the Plains Shopping Center from 6:30 to 8 p.m. this Friday night.

Cheryl Bollinger is home for the holidays from Oral Roberts University in Tulsa visiting her parents and family, Rev. and Mrs. George Bollinger.

Mrs. J.D. Helms and sons visited one evening last week with her sister in Canyon, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Harrison.

Mag has bought a bagful of layin mash for the old Red Rooster but I perdict that he ain't goin to eat it if he finds out what it is.

I got him a fresh bottle of Rooster Booster pills. He likes to take a couple of them when he begins to feel kind of down and out or when he's trainin for a fite.

We have shelled a bushel of Indian corn and I'm goin to dress up like Sandy Claws on Christmas mornin when I go out and scatter it around the chicken lot.

I have got a surprise present for Mag. It's a new choppin axe. She'd got the old one pretty well dulled up on that batch of railroad ties which she has been splittin up for stove wood.

Mag has made herself a Christmas mini skirt by cuttin up a red horse blanket. She has trimmed the bottom of the skirt with a bunch of silver bells. She is talkin about taking the bells off on account of she can't sneak up on nuthin or nobody.

We plan to git a new milk bucket for the cow, "Magnesia" and Mag is making halters out of tinsel for "Ned" the horse and "Jim" the mule.

We couldn't afford a turkey but I shot a big hawk which we aim to stuff with collard greens and black eye peas. Mag is also makin up a pot of poke salad soup.

Mag found a pair of iron clad toe protector shoes for Bob and for you, John. She got a book on Artistic Gift Wrapping.

I bought a box of nuts and a box of candy for Ben and Sammie.

We found out later that Sammie don't care much about nuts so I guess it is going to be the candy to Sammie and nuts to Ben. Me and Mag wishes ever body a Merry New Year and a Happy Christmas.

For Family's Christmas Fun

Little Prune People Bring Good Luck

From the South of Germany comes a centuries-old custom of making "Little Prune People" for Christmas decorating and eating.

Legend has it that the appearance of these "little people" in the home during the holiday season will bring good luck and good harvest during the coming year. They take on characterizations of people of all ages and occupations, including St. Nicholas himself.

If Dad has some heavy wire and some scraps of plywood in his workshop, and if fruits and nuts are on hand (as they usually are at Christmas), almost any family could make some "lucky little prune people" this Yuletide. For groups large or small, planned or impromptu parties, the creation of prune people could be an enjoyable Christmas Day pastime.

Most people will quickly come up with their own ideas for prune characters they would like to create. The characterizations are limited only by the imagination and the materials that can be used.

Traditional materials used to create "prune people" are: heavy picture wire, prunes, dried figs and raisins, unshelled nuts, quarter-inch plywood scraps or wood scraps from crates, pliers, hammer, small awl, foil, scraps of Christmas wrapping, glue and a little imagination.

To make prune people, follow these steps:

1. Cut a three-inch square wooden base. Make two holes one inch apart in center of base and cover with paper or foil.
2. Cut wire 30" long and put each end through holes in bottom of base. The base will now stand with wire perpendicular and ready to string on nuts or prunes.
3. Punch hole through two Brazil nuts and string wire through holes to form feet and glue nuts to wooden base.
4. String two or three prunes on each wire for legs. Then twist two strands of wire around each other to form one strand so that body can be made from prunes or figs (five or six figs or two or three prunes).

PRUNE PEOPLE BRING luck during the coming year, legend says. They are easy to make with ingredients most families have on hand at Christmas time — prunes, figs, Brazil nuts, together with plywood scraps, picture wire and scraps of such decorative materials as foil and gift wrapping paper.

SOME CHARACTERS that might be created from prunes and other ingredients are shown at right. The chimney sweep is prune from neck to toe. His ladder and hat are made from shiny black construction paper. He and his companions, the Tyrolean prune couple, stand on a three-inch wooden base covered with foil. Each has Brazil nuts glued to the base for feet, and a walnut for a head.

5. Twist strands of wire again to hold torso in place at neck. Then separate wires and bend down arms. Make arms of prunes, adding raisins for cuffs or hands, snip off extra wire and bend into loop to hold fruit in place.

6. For the head, make small hole in end of walnut and insert short piece of wire in walnut — just far enough to hold head in place, using balance of wire to wrap around wire that forms body of figure.
7. With scraps of cloth, thumb tacks, small balls of foil or raisins and a little creative thought, dress the little prune figures.

"NIGHT OF CAKES"
In Ireland, Christmas Eve is often called the Night of Cakes. This name is based on the custom, still practiced, of baking special Christmas Eve cakes spiced with caraway seeds.

To All Our Friends, We Wish a
MERRY CHRISTMAS
and a Happy, Healthy New Year

 From the lowliest shepherd who worshipped at the Manger to the littlest angel with tinsel crown and starry-eyes, the spirit of Christmas reaches out to fill the world with Love and Peace. Busy with mistletoe, holly, gaily wrapped packages and holiday treats, every home and heart pauses to join in wondrous adoration.

As we review the many joys of Christmastide, we call to mind the loyal patronage and good will of all our many friends. To them go our thanks and our heartiest best wishes of the holiday season!

FIRST STATE BANK

Early Roman Had 'Practical' View On Gift Giving

"Christmas is getting too commercial!" This modern complaint, while it may have force, is somewhat lacking in originality.

"I hate the crafty arts of giving presents," said the witty Roman poet Martial, who lived and wrote from about 40 to 104 A.D. "Gifts are like hooks."

His complaint was expressed in a series of poems written for a wealthy patron, at the time of the Saturnalia, the pagan festival from which came many Christmas customs. Martial, however, was not always averse to presents. After listing a large number of small gifts, such as toothpicks, figs, napkins, which had been delivered to him, he pointed out that it would have been much easier for the messenger to bring him "five pounds of silver plate."

Dale Carnegie Chapter Has Banquet Dec. 18

A banquet was held December 18 in the Plains Restaurant by the alumni of the Dale Carnegie Chapter.

After enjoying a sumptuous holiday meal, a program was presented by chairman Junior Lusby.

A two minute talk was given by each member telling of some exciting adventure in his or her life. The prize winning talks were those of Mrs. Dave Hand and Gus Birdwell.

Talks were also given by Mrs. Belle Crawford and Mrs. George Bollinger. The talks were on the memorized highlights of the first twenty pages of a recent Life Magazine. In doing this, they demonstrated how to use the Dale Carnegie helps.

After the program, Everett Tracy conducted a short business meeting.

ROY JONES, left will retire January 1st after 42 years with Foxworth Galbraith Lbr. Co. Bill Weatherly, left has been named manager of the local firm.

Jones Retiring After 42 Years With Lbr. Co.

Roy Jones, manager of Foxworth Galbraith Lumber Company in Spearman for the past 30 years, will retire from this position on January 1.

Bill Weatherly has been named to replace Jones. Mr. and Mrs. Weatherly moved here the first of the month from Clarendon where he had managed the lumber company there for 7 years.

The Foxworth Galbraith Company has been doing business in Spearman for 40 years. Mr. Vern Main was manager of the company before Jones took over. Main relinquished his position to go into the furniture business in Spearman and passed away shortly after making the business move.

Jones retires after 42 years service in the lumber business. He spent 12 years with the Pampa firm before moving to Spearman 30 years ago.

Miss Nancy Burke Is Bride Of Jerry Long

Miss Nancy Carol Burke became the bride of Jerry Long on December 17 in a double ring ceremony at the First Methodist Church in Spearman.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Baker, 514 S. Barkley St., Spearman. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Long of Balco, Okla.

The Reverend Wesley Daniel performed the ceremony at 10 o'clock before an altar adorned with seven branched candelabra and large baskets of white glads and orchid stems adorned with large orchid bows and ropes of smiles. Pews were marked with the same orchid bows and strings of greenery.

Nuptial music was provided by Larry Pribble of Perryton. The organist played traditional wedding marches and accompanied Miss Debbie Brock, choir. Miss Brock sang "More" preceding the ceremony and "The Wedding Prayer" for the benediction as the couple melted at the white satin altar.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal wedding gown of champagne lace which featured a full chapel train. The fitted bodice designed with an open collar neckline, had long sleeves. Her veil of illusion fell from a pearl tiara. She carried a white Bouquet topped with a crescent bouquet of white roses tied with long white satin streamers and stephanotis. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls.

The bride was attended by Petra Barfield, maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Kathy Rayworth, Ruth Riley, Elaine Langley and Carolyn Schell. Layleen Cooper was flower girl. Attendants wore identical gowns of interchangeable tulle and white satin embroidered with a floral design. Each carried a long stemmed white mum tied with purple streamers.

Yvonne White and Bonnie Frasier served as candle lighters.

Best man was Jed Monroe. Groomsmen included Danny Jackson, Dale Naylor, Donald Burke, and Eldon Albright. Ringbearers were Billy Cooper and Jon Iverson, cousins of the groom. They carried the rings atop white satin pillows.

Immediately following the ceremony reception guests were received in the fellowship hall of the church. The receiving table was covered with a white linen cut-work cloth and centered with the large four tiered wedding cake decorated with purple tulle. Punch and cake was served by Barbara Mitchell, Alma McMillan and Carol Hale, sister-in-law of the bride. Robbie Jackson, Texas, Okla., registered guests.

For the wedding trip to points of interests in New Mexico and Colorado, the bride traveled in a green double 2 piece dress. Black accessories and the roses from her bridal bouquet completed her ensemble.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Burke chose to wear a white wool suit with brown tulle accessories. Mrs. Long wore a white suit. Both brides wore a white orchid corsage.

The program calls for construction or reconstruction of US- and State-numbered highways.

In all, a total of 1,667.6 miles of non-interstate highways will be built or reconstructed under the program. Estimated cost of the construction work is $335 million.

According to District Engineer Charles W. Smith of Amarillo the following work is authorized in your County: Hansford County, State Highway 282 and FM 289, from Spearman to Gruver, a distance of 13.4 miles, reconstruct grading structures and surface to a modern section. This project was previously authorized and the present program allots $570,500 as additional finance.

The program also covers the State's portion of right of way acquisition on 557 miles of US- and State-numbered highways at an estimated cost of $27 million. On such highways, the State shares right of way cost 50-50 with local governments.

Approval of the program earmarks funds for badly needed improvement on many routes on the State-maintained highway system. This permits the orderly development of plans for construction.

The program places emphasis on the State's "bread and butter" highway routes.

"These highways of the primary system are the transportation lifelines for a vast number of Texans," the Commission said. "Our people and commerce are deeply involved in these routes, yet many are outmoded."

Work under the program also will make a significant contribution to highway safety.

"Obviously, modern, high-type highways are significantly safer than obsolete facilities. Therefore, construction of new highways is in a real sense an investment in highway safety," the Commission said.

Additional Funds For Highways Approved

AUSTIN--The Texas Highway Commission today approved a $362-million, two-year Consolidated Highway Program which will mean better highway facilities throughout the state.

Traffic Picture Looks Grim For Holidays

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated two accidents on rural highways in Hansford County during the month of November, according to Sergeant Ben A. Neel, Highway Patrol Supervisor of this area.

These crashes resulted in three persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $1,075.00.

The rural accident summary for this county during the first eleven months of 1967 shows a total of 16 accidents resulting in no persons killed, 18 persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $19,410.00.

What does the traffic picture look like for this Christmas--New Year holiday season? Past records have proven December to be the most deadly month of the year. December, 1966 recorded 351 traffic fatalities.

The Sergeant stated, "It is estimated that 100 persons will be killed in traffic accidents during the Christmas and New Year holidays." The Sergeant also added, "If we are going to be satisfied for a repeat performance of past records set during the month of December, then this holiday season is going to be a very sad one for many people."

Christmas, with the deepest spiritual significance, is the deadliest holiday of all, according to Major Luther C. Moore, commanding the Northwest Region of the Texas Department of Public Safety. "Ironically, Christmas achieves this terrible distinction precisely because we want it to be such a wonderful occasion," Major Moore says.

"It is a sentimental holiday. People will drive long distances for the traditional family reunion, undaunted by bad weather and road conditions. More travel--especially winter travel at highway speeds--means more accidents," the Major adds.

"It would be interesting to discover, in this era of jets and computers, what the word holiday means to most people. What is the first thing that flashes to mind when the word is mentioned? Time off from work?--A trip?--An excuse to celebrate?--Or a tragic accident toll?" Major Moore asks.

"Unfortunately, truthful answers probably would place all of those higher on the list than the true meaning of the holiday. And it's especially unfortunate that holidays must have an association with high accident tolls," the Major says.

"The joyous spirit of Christmas is too often sought in the liquid form. This deadly combination of the throttle and bottle many times turns re-joicing into deepest sorrow. Last year in Texas 38% of all rural fatal accidents involved a drinking driver," warns the Major.

Major Moore reported that the four most frequent violations in all rural fatal accidents are: (1) Speed too fast for conditions, (2) Driving while drinking, (3) Wrong side of road, and (4) Did not have right-of-way.

"We feel it is important to point out these facts as the Christmas holidays approach, in the hope that our fellow citizens will heed them as warning against doing the things that have caused fatal accidents all over the state," Major Moore said.

WILL PURCHASE SCHOOL BUSES

The Spearman school board conducted routine business matters in the regular monthly meeting held Tuesday Dec. 12.

The board heard a cost estimate and proposal for purchasing two new school buses for next year to replace two which are nearly worn out. The proposal was approved by the board.

The board accepted the resignation of Mrs. Burl McClellan, elementary teacher, effective at mid term. No one has been hired to fill Mrs. McClellan's vacancy at this time. The McClellans are moving to Arlington, Texas.

A lengthy discussion was held as school officials and board members talked over tax problems for the coming year. No decisions were reached.

20th Century Has Christmas Party Dec. 14

Members of both departments of Twentieth Century Club had a general meeting and Christmas party December 14 in the home of Mrs. L. S. McLain.

Mrs. Frank Davis, president, conducted the afternoon meeting with Mrs. O. C. Holt reading the minutes of two previous meetings. Those appointed to the nominating committee to elect officers for the new year were Meses. George Buzzard, Wesley Garnett, P. A. Lyon, J. R. Keim, Wayne Hutchison.

Mrs. Davis welcomed three new members into the club, Meses, Mike Holt, Jack Vanderburg and A. D. Parsons.

Mrs. Porter reported on the library including a summary of the recent sale to raise proceeds. Mrs. Kirk reported on the reading program which is set up for Christmas week for interested children.

Mrs. Wesley Garnett opened the program with the reading of the Christmas story from Luke 2. Mrs. O. C. Holt recited "A Certain Small Shepherd" by Rebecca Caudill.

A gift exchange was held after the reading of the club collect.

Hostesses Mrs. Fred Holt and Mrs. Johnnie Lee served refreshments to Meses, John Allen, Deta Blodgett, George Buzzard, Wesley Garnett, Woodville Jarvis, P. A. Lyon, R. C. Porter, T. D. Sansing, Tom Sutton, A. D. Parsons, H. H. Chevalier, Frank Davis, Guy Fuller, Wayne Hutchison, Nolan Holt, J. R. Keim, Raymond Kirk, Jack Vanderburg, Mike Holt, C. A. Kleeberger, J. R. Stump, Joe Trayler, and O. C. Holt.

That was the beginning. The Seals came across the sea to people in America. The American Red Cross sponsored the first campaigns and the Christmas Seal sported a single red cross. In 1910 the NTA joined forces with the Red Cross. A decade later, the TB Association had grown so that it could carry on the crusade alone. The Seal became a bright red double-barred cross. Soon it was a familiar part of the Christmas scene as well as an honored American tradition.

Today, a half-century later, the crusade goes on. The work of Christmas Seals through the years has helped to reduce TB drastically. But the crusade isn't over. About 30 million Americans are infected with TB germs, and nearly 100,000 persons have known, active TB. Christmas Seals still play a part in the struggle. But today they support more than the campaign against respiratory disease and the special noxious effects of air pollution and smoking. The National Tuberculosis Association slogan sums up the struggle:

Christmas Seal Crusade Goes On

Instead of a White Christmas, millions of people not so long ago had the White Plague. The White Plague was TB.

To combat this devastating illness, the National Tuberculosis Association was formed in this country at the turn of the century. In the same year--1904--the first Christmas Seal was first by a Danish postal clerk. Why not, he thought, urge people to buy a special stamp while their holiday spirit was soaring? The Danish postmaster liked the idea, and the King of Denmark asked his people to use the stamps on their Christmas cards and packages. The generous Danes responded with tremendous enthusiasm. Soon there was enough money to construct a children's tuberculosis hospital.

Christmas being close at hand, I am going to deviate a bit from my usual ramblings about people I saw during the past few days. I want to recall a certain Christmas that many of you will remember. The particular Christmas I have in mind, was when I was living in Philadelphia. I remember walking down Market and Chestnut Streets, during the shopping days prior to that Christmas. There were the usual throngs of people along the way, but something was different from past holiday seasons. The bright, happy faces of the shoppers had turned to grim masks. The Salvation Army Santa Clauses stood on their respective corners and rang their little dinner bells. It seemed that people were contributing over generously to the Christmas pots and some of them even said "Merry Christmas" but smiles were few and far between. The store windows were as brightly decorated as ever before and Christmas wares were very much in evidence. The usual street decorations were all along the way and little tots could be seen rubbing their noses up against windows with animated toy displays, until parents pulled them away. Everyone seemed to be in an unusual hurry, but nobody seemed to really know where he or she wanted to go. I suddenly took note that people were not buying the usual type of gifts. There were no takers for little frilly and useless gifts that many people just can't resist, during a gift buying spree. Most folks were buying gifts of a more useful nature. A lot of people were actually buying staple food stuffs to make into gift boxes. Such things as shoes and clothing were selling uncommonly well. A couple of days before Christmas, a few drops of snow began to fall, but even the prospects of a white Christmas failed to create a happy holiday mood. Church attendance on the Sunday before Christmas reached a record high. One of the most popular gifts was a radio and one of the most popular habits of the day was listening to the radio and reading the newspapers as fast as they rolled off the presses. When Christmas finally rolled around, more people went to church. After church, family groups and neighborhood groups got together. Gifts were exchanged and greetings were passed back and forth, but a Merry Christmas it was not. This Christmas I have been talking about was the Christmas of "1941". At 1:50 on the sleepy Sunday afternoon of December Seventh, the Japs had bombed Pearl Harbor and in a matter of two hours our navy had lost about three times as many men as in the Spanish-American war and World War One combined. Yes, That was the Christmas that Santa Claus forgot. May he never forget another one. You're middle-aged when the girl you whistle at thinks you must be calling a dog. Merry Christmas.

Let Me See ... by Sybil

Lest we forget, at this season we are not celebrating the birthday of a little fat man with white whiskers who tries to pull a bundle of gifts down chimneys to waiting children, nor of a tycoon of trade who instigates this month long buying binge each year for merchants to clear their shelves of unwanted goods before tax time. We are celebrating the birthday of a man named Jesus Christ who was born in a cold stable at the rear of a hotel. He was not a renowned scholar. He was a poor carpenter. He died young after three years of ministry with a ragged band of 12 followers, who listened to him but were not always convinced. He was defamed, reviled and executed as a traitor, yet the entire Christian World dates the calendar from the year of his birth. In his brief period of ministry he taught men how to live with each other and the nations who followed his teachings have become great.

Isaiah prophesied that the Messiah's name would be Prince of Peace. The craving and desire for peace is universal. It is part and parcel of our nature to want to live in tranquility, free from confusion, discord and strife. Peace will come to the world only when individuals are at peace with God. Our men in Vietnam have a right to know that we are dedicated to the principles of a God who said "My peace I leave with you." They are prepared to and some are making the same sacrifice as the man who suffered on the cross in order that mankind could learn to live and share without dominating. Billy Graham said, in recalling Christmas 15 years ago when he was ministering to the troops on the front lines during the Korean War:

"On that Christmas eve a young lad lay dying on Heartbreak Ridge. My chaplain friend climbed up the slope and stooped over the soldier's form and whispered, "may I help you son?" "No, it's all right," he answered. The chaplain marveled at the boy's complacency in such an hour. Then glancing down he noticed a New Testament clutched in his bloody hand. The reason for the soldier's tranquility was found on the page where his finger was inserted: "My peace I give unto you."

This is the message of Christmas.

Have you ever wondered why Jesus' picture was not painted during his days on earth? Perhaps one reason was that he carried out his earthly ministry among a people who believed that painting or sculpting a person's features could be considered idolatry. The Jews held God in such awe they would not even say or write his full name, so it is not surprising THEY would not make "a graven image" of a man who claimed to be God's son.

It is hard to understand why the writers of the Gospels did not attempt a physical description of Jesus, but they simply did not.

Down through the centuries artists have had to form his image out of their own understanding of man's relationship to God.

Chinese artists have given him almond eyes, African artists, a black skin. The work of Europe's old masters were so familiar with portray the events of the Lord's life in scenes that are like Italy, Germany, or Holland, but not at all like Palestine.

Artists are acted upon by, and react to, the world that surrounds them. They are, in fact, its most sensitive observers and prophetic interpreters. If the artists of today give us suffering Christs, Christs alone and in agony, Christs broken and distorted, it is because they are reflecting the anguish and aloneness of contemporary man.

The many images of Christ that artists have given us through nearly 2000 years, tell us that the Son of God, our Savior, our Brother, our Lord, is for each man in his own time. And he comes to us each in our own way... perhaps in a blinding flash of light... perhaps as a still small voice, but always in the way that will drive us to exclaim in surprise and delight: "Yes, this is my Lord."

For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder; and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father... Prince of Peace. Though Christ a thousand times

In Bethlehem be born, If he's not born in thee Thy soul is still forlorn. Angelus Silesius. Merry CHRISTMAS to you all.

After the Christmas cantata last Sunday evening in the First Baptist Church guests gathered in the J.D. Helms home for coffee and cake. Those joining in fellowship were the families of Roy Flowers, Barton Riley, L.M. Patterson, Jr., Hershel Jones, Jim Burks, R.L. Uptergrove, F.W. Thomas and Walter Woolley.

JOY at CHRISTMAS

"And they came with haste, and found Mary, Joseph and the Babe lying in a manger." As the sacred story of that Holy Night is told once again, let us rejoice in awe and wonder, for the glory of that moment, for the Miracle of Christmas.

BERRY CLEANERS

In spite of everything . . . Christmas endures

In spite of foreign troubles and domestic distress . . . Christmas endures.
In spite of personal problems and individual anxieties . . . Christmas endures.
In spite of everything some men have done to blunt its message . . . Christmas endures.
Why?
Because mankind needs Christmas. Not for the revelry, the gift-giving, the outward displays.
Mankind needs Christmas for inner solace.
For far more than a thousand years, Christmas has fulfilled man's yearning for a season of sanity, love, and peace.
Open your heart to the real meaning of Christmas.
Christmas can endure only with your help.

A JOYOUS CHRISTMAS

"Unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord"

While humble shepherds watched their flocks, a heavenly glory shone upon them, as herald angels sang of a Holy Child. Far to the East a Star shone, guiding the wise men in their search for Him. Across the years the sacred message shines for us today, ever renewing in our hearts all the joy and wonder, the hope and promise of that Holy Night, so long ago.

As we worship in spirit at the blessed manger, we wish for all a truly joyous Christmas, rich in meaning, with faith ever deeper... with inspiration ever greater.

MRS. MARY ALLEN

Stratford School Named for Teacher

The Stratford Independent School District has named its new school in honor of a pioneer Panhandle teacher who is well known in this area. She is Mrs. Mary Allen, 95, who started teaching at the age of 16 and continued in that capacity until she was 73. She was a resident of Lillian's rest home in Amarillo. Stratford's new 16 classroom building complete with cafeteria, gymnasium and refrigerated air conditioning is far removed from the humble country facilities where Mrs. Allen began her career. She was born Dec. 6, 1872 in Adams, Tenn., the daughter of a pioneer doctor of that state. She spent her childhood in Tennessee until her parents came to Texas. Her first teaching job was at McKinney at the age of 16. Mrs. Allen moved to Sherman County in 1902 because of her husband's health and taught grades at the Spurlock country school, 16 miles south of Stratford. The climate there had a healing effect on her tuberculosis afflicted husband because he lived to 89. Mrs. Allen took a respite from her teaching career in 1906 and reared five children, but resumed teaching again in 1910. She taught for the next 27 years in the Hansford and Sherman County schools. The pioneer educator made her home in Stratford after retirement in 1946 until her husband died in 1959 and then moved to Gruver to be near one of her daughter's Mrs. Estelle Alexander. Other living children include Mrs. Estelle Billington of 2219 Wichita in Amarillo, and John & William Allen of Los Angeles. Mrs. Billington said her mother was in good health until a year ago when she was stricken with pneumonia.

Friends at the rest home said Mrs. Allen was most pleased to hear the school had been named for her.

Christmas Plants Prove Poisonous

AUSTIN, Dec. 19--A sprig of mistletoe tacked above the doorway at Christmastime is a good excuse for stealing a kiss, the Texas Safety Association noted today, but warned homemakers that there's a potential danger in having mistletoe and some other Christmas plants around the home.

Although it is not commonly known, the waxy-white, sticky mistletoe berry is highly poisonous and fatal if swallowed, the Safety Association pointed out. Adults as well as children have died from tasting these harmless-looking berries.

But mistletoe is not the only poisonous Christmas plant. The leaves of the poinsettia can also be deadly if eaten and one leaf can be enough to kill a child. Yew branches, too, can be lethal if either the berries or foliage is eaten.

Placing mistletoe overhead is probably the safest place in the house for it, the safety group advised. However, homemakers should keep a check for berries dropping to the floor which could be picked up and eaten by small children. Place other poisonous Christmas plants out of the reach of children and warn other members of the household of their hazards.

If someone should swallow parts of a dangerous plant, call a physician immediately or contact the nearest poison control center. It is not always advisable to induce vomiting, because some plants contain corrosive juices that could severely damage tissue of the digestive tract during vomiting.

Pioneer Manor Resident Is 98 Years Old

Joseph Hardy, resident of Pioneer Manor Nursing Home, celebrated his 98th birthday December 16. Born in Kentucky in 1869, he came to Schultree County in 1925 and has been a resident of that area since. At the age of 18 years Mr. Hardy became a Primitive Baptist Preacher and continued in this occupation until he retired at the age of 89 years. Elder Hardy's wife and three of their four sons have passed away. One son, Herman Hardy, resides in Amarillo. He has been a resident of Pioneer Manor for the past three years, moving here from the Amarillo Nursing Home. The 98-year old man has over 60 grandchildren and great grandchildren. They are: Mrs. Frank Gipson, Mrs. Earl Schwalk, Mrs. Virtle Faries, Mrs. Clyde Herrington, Mrs. Ella Mathews, John Hardy, Paul Hardy, Burk Hardy and Dr. Ernest Hardy.

Elder Hardy's health has been very good up until the past few months. He was hospitalized last week, but was released and returned to Pioneer Manor Dec. 14.
