Holiday Hazards

With the holiday season rapidly approaching, care must be taken to insure that in all the hustle and bustle that accidental poisonings do not occur, warns the Texas State Poison Center. "Holiday plants and decorations can cause considerable problems," warns Michael Ellis, director of the Texas State Poison Center.

"Plants, such as the poinsettia, Christmas holly, mistletoe, and the Jerusalem cherry can all cause problems if left where small children can get to them," Ellis noted. "Although the poinsettia is not the deadly plant it is often misrepresented as, if the leaves or stems are eaten or chewed on, frequently we see fairly severe vomiting and diarrhea. This in itself can cause dehydration problems in small children."

"If holly berries are eaten they can produce severe vomiting and diarrhea, due to a number of extremely irritating substances found in both the red and green berries. Mistletoe, on the other hand, has proven deadly when ingested in any quantity," Ellis noted. "The bright red berries of the Jerusalem cherry can be mistaken for tomatoes by small children, and the consequences may prove severe."

"Since we know that small children are attracted to plants, and particularly those with bright colors," Ellis said, "they should be placed high enough that small hands cannot have access to them." This means that places like the coffee table are definitely out as areas to display these plants."

Other holiday decorations can pose problems also. "Christmas tree ornaments, such as the older bubbling lights, contain methylene chloride, which if consumed by small children, may prove quite toxic," noted Ellis, "each year we are consulted about children eating glass Christmas tree balls, and the possibility of the mouth or the gastrointestinal tract being cut or injured is very real."

"Some decorations cause us essentially no problem. These include pyracantha berries, the flocking used on Christmas trees, the ingestion of pine needles, and the ingestion of styrofoam ornaments. The drinking of Christmas tree preservatives by children is also common, but generally is of little concern if the amounts consumed are small," Ellis states.

Should a poisoning emergency arise during the holiday season, first aid information can be obtained by contacting the Texas State Poison Center in Galveston at 1-713-765-1420.

All Year Long One of our present troubles seems to be that too many adults, and not enough children, believe in Santa Claus.

Our Heritage of Faith... notes from Faith Lutheran Church

The Christmas season is a busy time of year for all of us and it is easy to get caught up in all the commercialism of the holiday. But Christmas is more than Santa Claus and gifts. Let us remember the true reason why we celebrate this holiday. Christmas began many years ago in that little town of Bethlehem. It was a simple humble beginning but the child that was born on that day changed the history of the world. As we celebrate this holiday let us remember that child and the gift of love and salvation that he has given to all of us. As we give gifts this year let us remember the greatest gift of all - Love.

We invite you to join us at Faith as we prepare for and celebrate this Christmas holiday. This year our Christmas program will be a unique program of song and scripture presented by both the children and adults. It will be held on Sunday, December 16 at 7:00. We will also have a candlelight communion service on Christmas Eve, December 24 at 8:00. Everyone is always welcome to come and join us in Christian fellowship and love. Our regular worship services are held every Sunday at 9:30 with Sunday School at 10:30. Come and join us in this season of joy.

The postmen of America believe in moderation--in sending Christmas cards.

Life is no more puzzling to man than death but it has greater popular support.

BERGLAND & FARMS
FAYETTEVILLE, N.C. -- Preservation of the family farm was the cry U.S. Secretary of Agriculture Bob Bergland heard as farmers from North Carolina, Virginia and Georgia gathered in Fayetteville for a public hearing on federal farm policy. The session is the second of 10 meetings Bergland has scheduled across the nation to get comments from farmers.

Choirs To Present "The Messiah"

The Spearman High School Choir combined with several local church choirs will be presenting "The Messiah" December 16 at 4 p.m. in the High School Auditorium. Accompanying the chorus will be Wilma Clark, Cheryl Meek, and a string ensemble from the Amarillo Symphony. The choir will sing the following choruses: And the Glory of the Lord, And He shall purify, O Thou That Tellest Good Tidings, For Unto Us A Child Is Born, Glory To God, Behold, The Lamb Of God, and Hallelujah. "The Messiah" will be under the direction of Travis Angel-choir director of Spearman schools. Due to the generosity of several citizens the concert will be free to the public.

Handel wrote "the Messiah" in 1741. He had been invited to Dublin by Duke of Devonshire and governors of three charitable organizations to direct a performance of one of his works for charity. For this he produced the oratorio in twenty-five days. The concert brought in $1800.

In March of 1743, "The Messiah" was introduced in London. On that occasion George II was present; he was so awed by the Hallelujah Chorus that involuntarily he rose in his seat and stood during the entire section. The audience, seeing the kind rise, had to rise also and remain standing as long as their monarch did. What began as a spontaneous gesture became a tradition. Since then it has been habitual for audiences to rise during the singing of the Hallelujah.

In January of 1753, Handel lost his sight. During a performance of "The Messiah" in London in 1759, when, during "The Trumpet Shall Sound", he felt somewhat faint. Neither he nor the musicians near took this seriously. He even seemed fully recovered when, after the final Amen, he turned to receive a thunderous acclaim. But a few moments after the ovation subsided he fainted and had to be helped home. He was put to bed, from which he was never again to rise. He died on the morning of Good Saturday. His last wish was to be buried in Westminster Abbey, which was faithfully carried out.

Christmas Mailing Tips

One of the biggest problems postal employees face is illegible handwriting. "At Christmas time, when mail volumes skyrocket, this can become a major problem," the Postmaster said today.

"The use of ZIP Codes by mailers does help speed up the process because often if the city and state are unreadable the ZIP Code will direct the mail to the Post Office from which it will be delivered. Clerks in that post office, being more familiar with local residents may be able to figure out the person to whom the mail should be delivered."

Another significant problem is the number of parcels delayed or actually undelivered because of poor wrapping or packing. The Postmaster urged that special care be taken to see that each package is tightly stuffed and that nothing rattles around inside.

Parcels should be addressed on only one side, and should have the address written somewhere on the inside of the package in case the exterior wrapping should come off. It is a good idea to also enclose a list of the contents.

Poor packaging and illegible or incorrect addressing accounts for about half a million undelivered parcels each year.

Khomeini insists Carter should also stand trial.

Bank Displaying Western Paintings

The First State Bank of Spearman cordially invites you to come in and view the western art paintings of Jack Sorenson, famed western painter, now hanging in the bank during this Christmas holiday season.

The paintings will be on display all through December. Sorenson is a very gifted young man who has already enjoyed national acclaim, has refined his technique and perfected his skill to a new high and is producing truly amazing paintings with a sensitivity to color, light and space which is refreshing and enriching.

Sorenson's paintings have recently been added to the permanent collection of the Santa Fe Railroad in Chicago, Illinois, and the historic Harmson Collection in Denver, Colo.

Dord Fitz, owner and director of the Fitz Gallery, Amarillo said of Sorenson "This young man is destined to be one of the greatest western painters of our time."

Sorghum Producers Honor Three Leaders

Three High Plains farmers were honored recently for their years of dedicated service to sorghum growers. Texas Grain Sorghum Producers Board recognized these directors who are retiring from the Board this year. The three have served a total of twenty-eight years.

Worth Jones farmed in the Hart community when he was elected to the Board in 1971. He later moved to a farm near Happy. He was reelected by area sorghum producers in 1977. Jones resigned that office this year and Olan D. "Jack" Crowl of Morse was appointed to serve the four remaining years of his term.

A. W. "Dub" Anthony, Jr. became president of Grain Sorghum Producers Association in 1968. He directed GSPA as it sponsored the Texas Sorghum Referendum that established Texas Grain Sorghum Producers Board. He was elected to serve on the first Board and was reelected in 1973. Anthony was not a candidate this year. His son, Dennis, is one of four new directors who were inaugurated at the November meeting.

E. C. Witten of Edmonson was another charter director of the TGSP Board. H was elected to a second term in 1973 but did not seek a third term. His son, Larry Witten of Olton, is the current TGSPB Chairman.

Engraved plaques were presented to the men by the Board as Chairman Larry Witten expressed the thanks of all sorghum producers who have been helped by their efforts. Currently serving on the twelve-man Board are: Chairman Larry Witten, Olton; Vice Chairman John Gilbreath, Hart; and Secretary-Treasurer C. P. Smith, Hale Center. Other directors are: Dennis Anthony, Friona; Paul Cobb, Plains; Olan D. "Jack" Crowl, Morse; Lee Hill, C.C. "Pap" Reed, Kress; and Albert Scheele, Lockney.

Directors of Grain Sorghum Producers Board are elected by the sorghum producers of a twenty-nine county area in the Texas Panhandle. They serve six-year terms as officers of the State of Texas. It is their responsibility to direct the programs of Texas Grain Sorghum Producers Board and to supervise the collection and disbursement of assessment funds as authorized under the Texas Commodity Referendum Law. They donate their time and most other expenses to attend six or more meetings per year and to carry out many other responsibilities of their office.

The effectiveness of Texas Grain Sorghum Producers Board in the twenty-nine county High Plains of Texas has netted millions of dollars to the nation's sorghum growers and has given strength and stability to the area's grain industry.

In Fashion

Holiday hair styles vary from the shoulder-length casual with soft waves to the dressy chignon. One thing all holiday styles have in common is that ribbons, flowers and jewels adorn the hair.

Most holiday dresses will be soft, slinky and shiny. One dress features streamlined elegance in front and is accented with a deep cowl neck in back. Another, in red satin, features a shirred top with spaghetti straps.

Early Fertilization Could Pay

COLLEGE STATION --- Texas farmers might be able to save some money as well as get a jump on the 1980 crop year by fertilizing cropland early.

"The possibility of shorter fertilizer supplies and much higher costs next spring should provide some incentive for farmers to put out fertilizer early for next spring's crops," believes Dr. Charles Welch, soil chemist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

Increased crop acreages, export demands and reduced fertilizer production have caused a decline in fertilizer inventories, points out Welch. This, coupled with an increasing transportation problem, makes it uncertain and difficult for many local fertilizer dealers to obtain fertilizer to maintain a desired inventory level.

Any fertilizer prices are going up due to increased production costs, inflation and market pressures. By planting time next spring, some fertilizer materials such as anhydrous ammonia and ammonium phosphate may cost twice as much as last spring.

"With expected higher fertilizer prices, it is especially important to obtain soil tests and all available agronomic information for using fertilizers efficiently for next year's crop," emphasizes Welch. "Now is a good time to start planning for an efficient fertilization program."

A happy spirit is the greatest possession that comes to man, regardless of his wealth or lack of it.

WISE ENERGY MANAGEMENT can give you more comfort per dollar.

Wasteful heat loss can add up to 30% to your utility bill. Poorly insulated walls and cracks around doors and windows can also cause cold spots, draftiness, and a constant battle to keep your house warm. Wise energy management can lower those high utility bills, while giving you the most household warmth for your energy dollar. First, install insulation in your attic, matching the "R" value requirement for this area. Next, seal all cracks around doors and windows with caulking or weatherstripping. And keep your thermostat setting at 68°. Each degree above 68° adds 3% to your bill. Put an end to high utility bills. Stop heat loss in your home, today.

Bullock Sees No Surplus In Treasury

AUSTIN, Tex. --State Comptroller Bob Bullock Monday said that recent business trends and government actions give him no reason to foresee a windfall surplus in the state treasury over the next two years.

"We are going to be lucky to fill our own cup," Bullock said. Bullock said that last summer he had hoped a sizeable surplus could be built from unspent state agency appropriations, items vetoed by the Governor and "perhaps, just perhaps, increased tax revenue."

"But it has gone just the other way," Bullock said. "The agencies are facing tight budgets and increasing costs and are likely to leave much less than we might have hoped on the table."

He said the expected $150 million from items vetoed by Governor Clements was whittled down somewhat by the Attorney General. Further, highway allocations were increased $32 million and foundation school costs are up $24 million, Bullock said.

"On top of that, business and interantional situations have deteriorated even more than we had foreseen in our last estimate, such that I cannot raise the previous estimates of our tax income," Bullock said.

"Considering all, $300 million would be the top dollar even a prudent betting man would bank on for the coming two years and two-thirds of that is dedicated by the appropriations bill."

Boys Ranch suit drive under way

The annual drive to outfit all of the 370 boys at Cal Farley's Boys Ranch with new suits began today.

Purchasing new suits for the boys with donations of $45.00 is a favorite way for many friends of the Ranch to help at Christmas-time.

"His first suit is something a boy never forgets," Virgil Patterson, Ranch President, said. "We want to make it a happy Christmas, not only for the boys now living at the Ranch, but also for new boys who will be coming to us during the coming year."

Amarillo department stores cooperate with the Christmas Suit Fund by giving special discounts on boys' suits. Other boys will receive gift packages of clothing that will include shirts, ties, jackets, trousers or other articles needed by them.

"A new suit or clothing package is the best Christmas gift any of our boys will receive," Mr. Patterson said. "It is a year-round reminder of those who really care."

Donations to the Christmas Suit Fund may be mailed to the Boys Ranch Office, P.O. Box 1890, Amarillo, Texas 79174, or be taken to the office at 600 West 11th Street in Amarillo.

PRINCE IN FRANCE

PARIS -- Exiled Cambodian Prince Norodom Sihanouk arrived in the French capital recently to the cheers of his compatriots to head a campaign calling for an end of the genocide of the Cambodian people and the ouster of the Vietnamese-backed Phnom Penh government.

Operation-Christmas Greeting-1979

The members of the Hansford County Hospital Auxiliary are beginning their annual fund raising campaign in which they ask that the amount of money which you plan to spend for Christmas cards, to mail to friends be sent to them instead to use in their various projects for use and beautification of the Hansford Hospital.

This is the only fund raising event that the Auxiliary sponsors and they appreciate and thank the public for the fine way it has received and supported this idea for the past six years. The proceeds of this campaign have been used in many different ways - furnishings for the labor room, reclining chairs, utility shelves, surgery lights, wheel chairs, kitchen needs, a crash cart, a baby crib, a stretcher and many seasonal decorations.

If you wish to support "Operation - Christmas Greeting" again this year, please send your contribution to Helen Etter, Box 1045, Spearman, Texas, with your names listed the way in which you wish them to appear in the paper and they will be published each week in the Spearman and Gruver papers.

Christmas Bonus For Texas Taxpayers

WARREN G. HARDING, State Treasurer, proudly announced that the taxpayers of the State of Texas are receiving an early Christmas present. As a result of prudent and timely money management and investment policies during the year ended November 30, 1979, the State of Texas had 96.4% of all State Funds invested and earned $189,176,104.53 on investments of cash funds. This amount represents an increase of $51,219,283.90 and an increase of 37.1% over the previous year - largest in the history of Texas.

House approves 1980 budget of $547.6 billion.

46 SHOTS OF LIQUOR

WIND LAKE, WIS. --

Teryl Barth tried to beat a record for drinking liquor, but he ended up drinking himself to death, authorities say. The 19-year-old man collapsed and never regained consciousness after a four-hour marathon in which he downed 46 shots of whisky, brandy and rum.

FB Safety Director Speaks To Students

"Farm tractor and machinery mishaps take the lives of 800 to 1,000 people each year on our U.S. farms and ranches," David Bohac, Assistant Safety Director for the Texas Farm Bureau in Waco, said today as he spoke to F.F.A. students at 10:00 A.M. in Spearman.

The Farm Bureau hopes to aid in reducing the needless loss of life, time, and farming equipment by encouraging greater caution and protective equipment.

Bohac discussed ways in which many Texas farm and ranch people have been fatally injured (30 to 50 annually) in past years. They include overturns, horseplay, speed, extra passengers and refueling accidents. He estimates that both the (1) injury rate and the (2) fatality rate could be reduced by 40 to 50% through the use of protective equipment.

Using model equipment, Bohac illustrated the importance of protective cabs or roll-guards, properly mounted, with seat belts. Personal protective equipment such as bump hats, gloves and snug fitting clothing were listed as being very important, too.

When on a road or highway proper lighting and markings were discussed, including SMV emblems. The SMV emblem is to be placed on the tractor, or self-propelled equipment that - by engineering design - was designed to travel 25 MPH or less. Today's program was brought to the Spearman School courtesy of the Hansford County Farm Bureau.

PIONEER Harvest Hotline

John Maxson reports Hansford Co. Results

Again this year Pioneer brand seeds are delivering outstanding yields in field after field. But we know it takes more than one year's performance to tell the whole story. Look at these results, then ask your Pioneer dealer to show you records from several years. You'll see for yourself why Pioneer brand seeds have become famous for their consistency.

This tall, semi-upright leafed hybrid has demonstrated better standability than most popular competitive upright leafed hybrids. And that made an important difference to Hansford County farmers this year. V. B. Morris of Gruver reported a yield of 158.7 bu./A. with 3360 in a comparison field where lodging was a problem with other hybrids in the test. 3360 has outstanding head smut tolerance, excellent MDMV tolerance and good early season vigor to get off to a good start. In 27 comparisons on the Northern High Plains, 3360 averaged 8.7 bu./A. more than competitive hybrids. And it offers the same kind of outstanding performance potential again next year.

One of the most popular hybrids on the Northern High Plains, 3184 proved its reputation in 32 comparisons again this year. It averaged 14.9 bu./A. more than competitive hybrids and demonstrated the consistency of performance that's made it so popular. Strong stalks and roots provide excellent standability, and it holds ears well to minimize field losses.

In nearby Sherman County, Joe Morris recorded a yield of 162.9 bu./A. with this outstanding hybrid. Although it's relatively new to many High Plains farmers, 3183 is an established favorite across the U.S. And this year's averages prove why. In 34 comparisons it yielded 12 bu./A. more than competitive hybrids. Excellent drought tolerance and very good seedling vigor give it extra appeal in this area, too.

YMCA Director Is Rotary Speaker

Jim Benson, executive director of the Spearman Y.M.C.A. invited all the Spearman Rotary Club to attend the Y's Open House for Phase I on Sunday, December 16 from 1:00 to 4:00 p.m. Benson was the program for Rotary Monday, December 10 at noon in the garden room of the Cattleman's Restaurant. Benson pointed out that the Y was started by the Rotary Club. He pointed out that the Youth Center and the Fitness Center are just about completed. The Y is now equipped to offer a full fitness program. It sponsors football, basketball, volleyball, tennis, and golf. It has a twelve stage program for ski fitness. Its whirlpool is an excellent therapy pool.

The Youth Center is a lounge and a game room. The rest rooms have been remodeled and are 90% complete. The Y had to go $32,500 in debt to get all this equipment here, so the Y is badly in need of money, and they need people getting memberships and taking advantage of the good equipment. Phase II will be to reconstruct the old J.C. area and create some much needed offices with second floor meeting rooms above the offices. Profits from the Fruitcake Review were $4200 which will be split between the Y and the Chamber of Commerce. Involvement of people in the Fruitcake Review was exceptionally good. Quality of the talent was excellent. Quality of the show was that of a community that had produced four shows previously. Organization was far better than most communities. Fruitcake Review crossed age lines with people from age 18 to those in their sixties. It brought together people from all cross-sections of the economic and social strata. That is what the Y and the Chamber of Commerce are all about. Nominating committee report was read and approved and the election of new officers will take place on Monday, December 17. For president, Eschol Blankenship. For vice-president, Mike Schnell and Robert Elliott. For secretary-treasurer, Don Wirsdorfer. For directors, Ronnie Hoover, Ed Freeman, David McClellan, and Brice Palmer. Visiting Rotarian was Nolan Harris of Borger. Other guests were Seth Cunningham of Borger and Tommy Limbocker of Spearman. Members present were Jim Benson, Eschol Blankenship, Kim Brock, Roy Bulls, John R. Collard, Jr., Robert Elliott, Ed Freeman, Ed Garner, Kerry Henton, Ronnie Hoover, John Hutchison, Eddy Limbocker, Junior Lusby, David McClellan, Jack McWhirter, Jim Murray, Frank Oglesby, Brice Palmer, Mike Schnell, Jim Shirley, Len Simpson, Gary Sims, Jerry Taylor, and Don Wirsdorfer. Members absent were: J.L. Brock, Archie Burress, Durane Castleberry, Pete Fisher, Jim

McLain, Vance Snider, and Tim Woodington. "Celebrate" will present a program of Christmas music to the Spearman Rotary Club on Monday, December 17 at noon in the garden room of the Cattleman's Restaurant. The U.S. government invests $12.75 per 4-H member per year, and it's "worth every penny," contends Layton Barton, County Agent with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System. 4-H is the largest federally funded non-school educational program. Some 5.4 million boys and girls take part in 4-H throughout the nation, with more than 160,000 of these in Texas. Cost-effectiveness of 4-H is made possible through a rare blend of cooperation between government agencies on the federal, state and local levels plus tremendous private sector support, points out Barton. For every dollar of public funding received by 4-H, the private sector contributes about five dollars, either in funds or in-kind. Volunteers are the keys to the continuing success and relevancy of 4-H, believes Barton. There are more than 580,000 volunteers throughout the U.S., with some 22,000 serving in Texas. According to a scientifically designed study of volunteers in three states, the average volunteer contributes the equivalent of $1,124 in time, supplies, gasoline and related materials each year. If extended nationally at a conservative estimate of $1,000 per volunteer, the total value of 4-H volunteer contributions would be more than $580 million annually, points out Barton. To place the worth of 4-H in perspective, compare the cost of 4-H membership at $12.75 annually to the cost of maintaining a youth committed to a public institution at an average cost of $17,000 per year. A recent evaluation of the impact of 4-H in an inner-city community in Detroit showed a 60 percent reduction in juvenile crime in the immediate area of the local 4-H center. This study showed that in one year, 4-H saved taxpayers more than $200,000 in this one census tract alone. Even more important are the non-monetary values inherent in exposing youngsters to constructive activities and improving their self-image through 4-H. For more information about the 4-H program, contact your County Extension office, says Barton.

What About Soil Tests?

If you are considering using fertilizer and limestone for crop or pasture land, then soil tests can be a valuable source of information and a profitable investment, contends Layton Barton, County Agent with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System. A soil test is a chemical laboratory analysis designed to provide an index of the available nutrients in a soil. Soil tests for pH (acidity), calcium and magnesium are needed as a basis for liming. The soil test report also includes levels of nitrogen, phosphorus and potassium. In addition, suitable methods have been developed for determining levels of the micronutrients zinc, iron and manganese. Even though soil tests can be made for other nutrients, results have limited value where deficiencies have not been detected in research studies, notes Barton. He lists two important requirements for getting valid information from soil tests. First, laboratory methods must be correlated with field response data. Second, a good soil sample is needed. There are many procedures for testing soils and obtaining numerical values, such as pounds per acre or parts per million. However, unless crop removal and response data are collected to establish whether or not the soil is medium and high in nutrients, expected response results are essentially meaningless. Therefore, a producer should make sure that the laboratory doing his work uses procedures suitable for his soils. In addition to reliable testing procedures, the soil sample sent to the laboratory must be carefully collected and must be representative of the field on which information is desired. Barton emphasizes two aspects of sampling. First, divide fields into uniform sampling units. Each unit should be uniform with respect to color and texture of soil as well as past cropping, fertilization and liming practices. If samples represent large acreages, results will show only general information. As fertilization becomes a regular practice, more attention must be given to obtaining specific information for each field or subdivision and developing fertilization practices accordingly, notes Barton. The second point of emphasis regarding sampling is the number of spots at which soil is obtained. Collect soil from at least 10 to 15 spots in each field. Soils vary considerably in nutrient content even though they look uniform. Take a slice or core from the plowlayer at each location, put in a clean bucket, mix thoroughly and send about a pint to the laboratory. Soil tests can provide valuable information for profitable fertilization and liming practices. More information about soil testing is available from the County Extension office, adds Barton.
