City of Gruver 112 to 38 with 2 socialist votes. and Morse 58 to 4.

AMENDMENTS
Voters of this county refused amendment number one, the Red River Tax Amendment 170 to 113.

Other amendments carried by a slight lead. Not much interest was shown in the amendment voting with only 283 voting at all out of a possible 850 votes.

BILL CORRY
Bill Corry lacked 58 votes of carrying this county in his write in race over McDonald for Commissioner of Agriculture. Gruver gave McDonald 112 to 22 votes, otherwise Corry would have easily carried Hansford county.

50 ENROLLEES MAILED QUESTIONNAIRES

PAL LYON WAS HALF A MAN WHEN THE WAR STARTED BACK IN 1917

Now before any of the good friends of P. A. Lyon come over and take a swing at me, for the apparent slur at our mutual friend, let me add that Pal was MUCH A MAN, because he had to do a bit of Hoss trading to be the first man from Hansford county to enter the army, representing the first quota Hansford county sent to the first training camp.

The story starts back when many of the friends of P. A. Lyon beat Uncle Sam to the draw and volunteered before the draft law became effective. Pal slipped away to Amarillo and tried to enlist, but some minor physical defect sent him back home. Then came the first quota—and it only called for a half man from Hansford county. P. A. Lyon was listed number 11 in the order for immediate service back in these days, and when he learned about the situation, he traded around until the local board agreed to send him up as half a man. It worked and Pal went to the first training camp.

Back in 1917 when the first men registered, the total registered for Hansford county between the age of 21 and 31 were 170. Of course we had a smaller population at that time and the present enrollment calls for all men between the ages of 21 to 36.

The ten men ahead of Perren Allison Lyon back in 1917 were Dave Lucille McClellan, Wesley Maupin, Luther Hamner Reynolds, Horace G. Weavers, Marion Partman, William Luther Godfrey, Edward Franklin Bennett, Charles Davis, Alva Francis Garner, John Silas Longley. Among other Spearman men who were listed in the first 50 enrollees back in 1917 were Roma David Tomlinson, Alvino Richardson, Jess Hays, Randolph Lee McClellan, Joseph (Doc. Joe E. Brown) Jones.

The official Hansford county master list of enrollees for the one year training period in the national army, subject for call to service during the next five years, is printed below.

For the benefit of enrollees we explain that the order number indicates your standing so far as classification for first call is concerned. The names are not in the order in which they will be called, but each individual, who already knows his serial No. can check his name for order number.

We are informed that questionnaires for the first 50 enrollees order number 1 to 50 inclusive, have been mailed out. When these replies have been studied by the local board, and enrollees who have exemptions weeded out and placed in deferred classification, it will leave the young men in their proper order ready to provide the first quota for Hansford county. It is roughly estimated that less than 20 men of the first 50 mailed questionnaires, can qualify for immediate service. Most of the 30 men who will be unable to qualify will be classified for deferred classification because of marriage.

IT'S HARD TO CATCH THE IRISH IN THE WRONG

Last week this writer gave the world the information relative to an oil test that is being drilled in Hansford county. This week Uncle Johnnie O'Laughlin was in Spearman and interviewed about the oil well. He asked the writer why the well was publicized as being located in Ochiltree county. Thinking this was one time that I could prove a great Irishman had erred I thoughtlessly told him that I would buy him a nice tie if my story located the well in Ochiltree county. I read where the well was in Hansford county, but when I saw where it was located East of the Ochiltree line, I realized that my description of the oil well location placed it in Ochiltree county. When you see Uncle Johnnie wearing a new pale blue tie, just let it remind you that you can't get the Irish in the wrong. The oil well should have been described as located WEST of the Ochiltree line.

NEW BAND UNIFORMS ARRIVED WEDNESDAY

Spearman's national prize winning band will have the opportunity to "give out" with music under more favorable conditions in the future. Bandmaster Rattan announced today that the new sparkling uniforms, 65 in number had arrived, with the exception of 12 belts. When the 12 missing belts arrive, Bandmaster Rattan plans a street parade in Spearman so local people may view the coming national prize winning band. Plans are underway for a public concert, which will be held at the school auditorium, the date tentatively set for Dec. 1.

Ten members of the band will have a chance to strut their new uniforms next Tuesday, when Lion Fred Rattan carries an orchestra number over to Perryton, for the Spearman number on the district 2T Lions club meeting.

SENIORS OF '41

Activities last week were so scarce that a writeup was not considered worth the effort. But this week there is something that we feel that we shall all enjoy. Our room mothers, Mrs. Clement and Mrs. Shedeck will present the class with a party that we know will be a good one. Instead of the students being honorees, we and our sponsors shall be the hosts and hostesses to our parents and to the other members of the faculty. This will be more or less a social get-acquainted affair for the parents to meet their youngsters' classmates. In other words the parents will learn where that lingo comes from that their children bring home.

This party will be held at the school house tonight, Thursday. I would not recommend the best bib and tucker for you parents; however, the activities will not be too strenuous. If I am not mistaken there will be games set aside for the bald-headed fathers and for mothers who will no doubt have to attend similar parties for each of her other 8 children. But the rest of you parents will be expected to stand the gaff by coming on down and being a kid with your Senior boy or girl for what will be the last time for you. We shall expect to see Mr and Mrs Brockus there also since our class has the good fortune of welcoming their son P. D. back in school.

I don't wish anyone any bad luck, nor do I wish to give any one the impression that this is going to be a rough and tumble party, but if someone would kindly fall and break their neck, it would certainly held this column in length of contents.

This week finds all the juniors still working on our themes, but we hope to be through with them by Wednesday.

The girl shomemaking 111 are planning entertainments. We find this interesting work, but the fun comes when we carry out our plans.

SOPHOMORES

A large number of the Sophs attended the football game at Perryton last Friday. Although we were disappointed in the score those present cheered for our team as long as the game lasted. Several of the Sophomores are coming out for basketball this season.

In English we are still studying a novel written by Charles Dickens "A Tale of Two Cities" and in biology we are studying how plants manufacture food and how they grow.

We are progressing very rapidly in typing, many can get several words per minute already.

FRESHMAN

In the world history class the freshmen are having a debate as to whether Germany or England will win the war.

In general math we are beginning the study of algebra and geometry.

The moving picture machine has been of great interest to the class. We have enjoyed each picture very much.

Ethel Fullbright enjoyed a trip to Caribad and to Colorado during the past few days. She reported many interesting things at both places.

THIRD GRADE

We enjoyed the "Get Acquainted Party" given by our room mothers, Mrs. Schnell and Mrs. Novak. Several of the mothers were present and we were especially glad to have two mothers who are new to our group—Mrs. Corson and Mrs. Kiziar.

Thirty of the thirty-four members of our class made 100% in spelling last week.

"1 In 160"

Anything appearing in this column is not necessarily the opinion of the school, newspaper, or sponsor, nor is any reflection on the character of any person intended.

Sentiment ran high in Spearman high school during pre election days. To me that type of excitement goes to prove that the youth of today is realizing more and more the need of education in the way of governmental problems. If we students cannot begin to see through all the political propaganda, or at least think we can, how can we, as citizens, hope to choose the right men and women to fill our governmental offices? If we believe everything we hear, vote for the one who has the most charming personality, or allow other campaign speech points of equally little importance influence our voting, how can we know how to mark our ballots of the future? We students of today, the voters of tomorrow, will not always have the privilege of voting as our parents, because of life expectancy of our parents is rated as much lower than that of ours. We should begin to take part in such important matters now, while we are still in high school.

Of course there is still an axiom that is true to some extent "A man these days knows not what to believe." Our duty as citizens of this great U. S. is that we should for our own good investigate the source from which these various campaign speeches come. Reading the platforms of both sides is a good start. Even at that there is still chance of doubt, but the odds are not nearly so great as they would have been, had we sat idly by and voted just because we paid our poll tax.

Poll tax is another item of our government that could be freely discussed. Whether the poll tax law in my opinion is a good law or not does not matter, but what does matter is this: To me the person who does not pay his poll tax and therefore does not vote and then squawks about how the country is being run is one of the lowest form of slackers that ever walked on the good earth of the U. S. The person on the fence is very little better. He is one of these fellows who doesn't know just what he wants.

Now that we have freely discussed the voters, let us turn to the candidates and treat them the same way. Had I been of the voting age, I know who would have gotten my vote, but that has nothing to do with the subject. Whether it is on the part of the candidate of my choice or on the part of the other, mudslinging is something I thoroughly detest. I can think of only one instance in which I would retract this statement and that is in the case of Hitler. But really for two people to stand before microphones and make false statements about himself or to accuse without grounds his opponent of doing some misdemeanor, or for persons to take drastic measures in showing their political feelings is downright silly. Why can't our political campaigns be had without such as that? I love my country; I am willing to die for it if necessary, but why must our leaders be chosen by people who will allow such things as the flop of high society party or the appearance of a candidates wife at a press conference influence their vote?

Our educational leaders should band together and confirm the fact that as the youth goes today, so goes the nation tomorrow. Governmentally uneducated youth today—a weak government tomorrow. Weak government—fall of the nation.

I sincerely hope that on this program alone that I shall be able to live a long life and still be able to see stronger, more promising signs that the Stars and Stripes shall forever wave over a nation

Hallowe'en Program Big Success

The Hallowe'en program staged at the school house Thursday night was a big success. Approximately $50.00 was taken in including the donations made at the door of the auditorium. The faculty, as well as the entire school wishes to take this means of thanking those who were kind enough to come to this entertainment, and also those who made donations at the door. The proceeds will go to purchase a microphone for the school as well as some other needed equipment.

All Spearman students are to be complimented upon their excellent behavior at both of the programs.

F. H. T.

We have been busy making backs for our song books and at last they are finished.

Our song leaders are practicing the songs and learning to lead groups in singing. This year we have a piano in our laboratory which makes it convenient for us to practice singing or specials. It is also helpful when we have entertainment in our department.

Leona Shedeck has been appointed program chairman. She has asked Mrs. R. V. Converse to make a talk on Travel.

ERROR
 A woman whose husband had joined the Navy gave a note to the minister the following Sunday. The note said, "Mr Tom Smith, having gone to sea, his wife requests that the congregation pray for his safety. The minister was near-sighted and this is what he read: "Mr Tom Smith, having gone to see his wife, requests that the congregation pray for his safety."

"So you have two sets of twins in your family, Bobby. My, what a wonderful family! And are you one of the twins?"
 Bobby: "Naw,—I'm just a spare."

 The second grade presented a playlet "The Runaway Pumpkin" at the Hallowe'en program Thursday night. Joel Lee Lackey played the part of the Big Pumpkin, and Gene Clark of the first grade, the part of the little Pumpkin. The witch was Patsy Howell, and the owl was Dan Dacus. Through the kindness of the room mothers and several other parents the class visited the museum at Goodwell Friday.

SNOOPER SNOOPER SNOOPER

Is it a secret who you were with Sunday night, Totsy?

Your Gruver friends don't think you are worth much, do they Buck? Rusty, she said that she could find a better place to park.

H. L. don't you know that you shouldn't chase girls on Saide Hawkins week.

Was he stepping out on you Sunday night, Skeeter? You had better ask Bonita about it.

Geneva, did you have a good time with Preeyton Sunday?

Oneta and Lowell weren't the only ones who were breaking the rules of Sadie Hawkins week.

Tonight is the senior class party. All of girls had better hurry and get dates.

You girls looked pretty lonely Sunday afternoon, Joyce.

James, did you have a good time Hallowe'en night. What did you say you and 7 others were doing. Where were you all day Adelaide?

Albert says his girl isn't worth a slug nickle. Would Sadie Hawkins week have anything to do with it?

Margaret, you and Margie should be ashamed to make the boys walk to town and then worry them so about the car. Besides Mr Crawford has other things to do.

Why was Marilyn hunting a date book Monday? Could it be that she was afraid she would forget what boy she was to take out each night Sadie Hawkins week.

AN EDITORIAL

Co-Operation — Emmitt Sanders

"Oh, Co-Operation doesn't apply to me. I am just one among many. Things will go on just as well, even if I don't take part in them. Football, Basketball, Band Newspaper and a number of other activities will go ahead functioning without my assistance. Why should I put forth effort on activities like these? A fellow never gets any good out of them." The above is a thought which certainly MUST be lingering in the minds of some of our students.

Those who think this thought never realize that they, themselves are just as vital a part of this organization as anyone else. More over, they do not realize that one of the chief reasons of spending thousands of dollars of the taxpayers money in order to maintain a modern high school is to prepare the students to be able to go out into life and fit in with the whole scheme of things—in short, give and take.

Some grumble about some phase of the school failing to work exactly as it should—but these ones that would grumble are the ones who never do anything about it. If we would like to see the various activities of the school improved, let us take part in everything. CO-OPERATE!!!!

Sour Notes FROM S. H. S. BAND

We want to thank all the town people for their fine cooperation in helping us to the out of town games.

Friday night wound up the football season. Though the score was disappointing we know the boys played a grand game. We are looking forward to basketball season with high hopes.

Perryton had its band out Friday night, also its drum and bugle corps in new red satin uniforms. We went to Perryton game a little disappointed because we were sure our new uniforms would come in. We had a notice that they had been shipped. Mr Rattan was kept busy answering the question Have they come yet? all day Friday. When he saw a band student coming down the hall he would start shaking his head. If you see all the band down at the depot some morning soon, don't think we are leaving town, we won't be. But we will be hoping our uniforms haven't been shipped on to some other town.

You should have seen Billy Miller play the tambourine Thursday night or did you? Billy is so good we are afraid he will stop playing the drum and go in for that. When we got the tambourine and triangle Thursday morning the drum section didn't know what to do with them, but they were put to use in quick order.

Virginia Buchanan has played in the band for 6 years—she started with the clarinet when she was in the 6th grade. When she was a sophomore, she was librarian, and this year she is reporter. Virginia has played solo clarinet three years. She plans to major in music in college. Her hobby is collecting literature about old composers and about symphony orchestras. Her ambition is to be a symphony orchestra director. but she adds, "If I ever get out of High school."

FIRST GRADE
 We all had such a good time on Hallowe'en. The spooks did not get us.

We are working on a farm unit now and yesterday we enjoyed the picture show about the farm very much.

Several parents have visited us this week. We are very glad to have them visit us.

SPEARMAN DEFEATED BY RIVAL, PERRYTON

For the last few years this game has gone down in the Rangers favor, and Friday night's game was another in favor of Perryton. The breaks going for Perryton, and the Ranger Jinx won the game for them. The Lynx were out to win but the odds were against them. This game was the last of the season, and the boys checked in their suits Monday.

Basketball is now in the minds of the boys, for they are out to avenge their football scores. A different story will be heard as regards to basketball.

SEVENTH GRADE

The seventh grade misses very much this week their reporter, Winifred Hoskins, who is in a Canyon hospital recovering from an appendicitis operation. We are all hoping that she will soon be able to be back in school.

The class enjoyed the picture show last week, especially the reel called farm inconveniences. Besides giving us a lot of laughs, it reminded us of the topic in our civics lesson, accidents in the home. We made a list of the many opportunities which one has of being injured about the home or farm. Perhaps several farms in this community will have a few less tools lying around, and perhaps even some bailing wire will be placed where it will not be so troublesome.

Harold Reed brought a real porcupine to school one day last week. The animal was captured near Spearman by Mr Garnett. Harold carried the Porky around to all the rooms so that the pupils might have a chance to see it, and now he is hunting through all of the encyclopedias to find out some thing about what a porcupine eats. So far salt and bark from tree limbs of trees seems to be his favorite diet.

WHAT I DID HALLOWE'EN

It was the intention of the Lynx staff to publish a column on "What I Did Hallowe'en" in this weeks paper. Owing to the fact that every one interviewed (and we quote) "Took a bath and went to bed at sun down" (un-quote), this column is slightly over to the left.

CEASE FIGHTING

TWENTY-TWO YEARS AGO, on Flanders' shell-torn fields, a bugle's silver tone brought golden silence to still the cacophony of War . . . a silence, however, epitomized by the grim quiet of the burial grounds with endless crosses, row on row.

Today our nation labors with feverish haste that we may erect a man-made barrier against the thunderous wrath now sweeping a continent in the wake of human hatred. The torch of America is being carried to light forever the path of peace for this hemisphere.

For twenty-two years we have shed no blood in war . . . yet American motherhood trembles as children kneel in evening prayer for fear that this precious peace may not be maintained . . . that the overseas lightning may yet flash across the ocean with its blighting destruction.

Well today may we add to our pleas before the Almighty's throne our prayer for a continuation of the golden silence that came on this day in 1918 . . . and from the merest child to the tottering patriarch, add these words to our supplication . . .

"And grant us Peace . . . Amen!"

R. V. Converse Says:

The election was a great game and nearly everyone that was eligible took part and now since it is over there is great jubilation and every one is happy. We are all set for another four years of New Deal and regardless of what was said about the New Deal in the campaign the people like it.

England is all enthused over the election of Roosevelt and will expect great things of the United States in the near future there are some who will remember Wilson's promise to keep us out of the other world war and the way he was able to keep that promise. Let us hope that we will be able to stay out of this fight.

We are now ready to look forward to the action of our next legislature which will contain many new members most of them made very many promises among them was the one to get along with the governor and if this promise is kept we can look for some constructive legislation pretty soon after the first of the New Year.

Thanksgiving Day will soon be here and we can be thankful this year for many things, among them, that we live in a country that is governed by the popular vote of all of the people and when the people decide an issue everyone accepts it as the law and joins in trying to make it work to the best possible advantage.

Yours, R. V. C.

Doris Jean Russell As She Won "Miss Industry" title.

(Ed. note—the following story was carried this week in the Waco daily papers, Fort Worth Press and several weekly papers. By Mary Crutcher

FORT WORTH—Listen, fellows, we're about to give you a tip.

Doris Jean Russell, that brown eyed, brown haired beauty from Spearman, collects toy dogs and stationery—it's a hobby with her. Thought maybe you'd like to make a hit.

Doris Jean will be here Nov. 15 to compete in the Queen's contest of the All-American Rodeo & Horse Show. What's more fellows, she's leaving her boy friends at home. (Thee line forms to the right at the door of 1338 Hotel Texas, publicity headquarters.)

Miss Russell will be accompanied here by her parents, Mr and Mrs W. L. Russell, and Mr and Mrs Bill Miller. They'll arrive Nov. 14, a day ahead of the big blow-out.

There's plenty of excitement and thrills in store for the 108-pound freshman beauty from Baylor U. She'll be kept busy throughout the morning by members of the Town and Country Horse Club who have breakfasts luncheons, coffees, teas and what have-you planned for her and 200 other Queens from cities throughout the Southwest.

Then when the courthouse clock strikes 4 p. m. in Cowtown the Queens from cities throughout the Southwest will line up in a parade with 1,000 other horseback riders, including movie stars, Governors and other colorful personalities of national prominence.

Immediately after the mammoth parade, they'll go to a buffalo barbecue and then participate in the biggest tribute ever paid the late Will Rogers in the $2,000,000 Coliseum Fort Worthers built to the memory of the late humorist.

It isn't unfitting for the Queens to have a prominent part in such a memorial program. It was such pulchritude as the Southwest produces that Rogers was surrounded by during his Ziegfeld Follies days.

Members of his family will be here as will Rochelle Hudson, who had the leading feminine juvenile roles in all of his pictures, and John Boles, movie star and concert singer who sang Old Faithful, at Rogers' funeral. Fort Worth's nationally-known publisher, Amon G. Carter, will unveil and present to the nation a $100,000 oil painting of Rogers astride his favorite horse, Soap Suds.

From the memorial celebration, the crowd will move to Pioneer Palace where the Top Hat & Stetson Revue will be presented and the Queen's Ball will follow. It is there that the big news of the day will be announced.

The news is the name of the winner of the Queen's Contest who will be titled All-American Girl of the Southwest and will be rewarded with a six-day, all-expense-paid plane trip to Hollywood where she'll be squired through the studios by top-ranking stars of the cinema city.

Baylor's co-ed contestant has won contests before. She was Miss Texas Panhandle, Miss Ochiltree, Miss Industry of the Southwest and Miss Lake Fryer. Her pet hate (or hates) are HATE-ful girls. Her ambition is to get married. She's a 17-year-old.

MEDLIN HD CLUB

Mrs E. W. McJunkin was hostess to the Medlin HD Club Nov. 1. In the home of Mrs F. Davis.

Miss Locke was with us for a demonstration on making and baking pie crust. Miss Locke stated that an all purpose flour is preferred to a soft flour for pastry, because the dough is easier to handle and the crust is more flaky. Most of us also learned a different and much neater method of fluting the edge of pie crust.

Medlin club members plan to carry out an idea suggested by Mrs Tom Allen, that each club member make the gift she takes to our club party of a sack. If a sack is not used at least use cotton material. Idea, is to use more cotton, and in that way help the cotton farmer.

Mrs Virgil Hull will be hostess to the Medlin club on achievement day Nov. 15th, for an all day meeting. The commissioners Court and their wives, the Reporter office force and their wives some of the members of the Chamber of Commerce are special invited guests.

Others interested in HDC work are welcome.

Those present Friday were: Mesdames Virgil Hull, Tom Allen, Jess Edwards, Earl Ooley, F. R. L. Jones, O. L. Williams, Kenneth Williams, A. J. Curtis, Frank Davis, Miss Locke and the hostess, Mrs McJunkin.

"IT IS LATER THAN YOU THINK"

Advertisement of Warner and Swasey, Cleveland; — Nero fiddled-but Rome burned. America talks—while the rest of the world is on fire, and the flames lick nearer our shores. Each group holds its special privilege as more important than the liberty of 130,000,000 men, women and children.

In Heaven's name let us stop mouthing hours and profits and political theories. This country of ours is in danger. Unless we stop talking and get to work, hours will not be 40 but 80—profits will not be guaranteed but gone — politicians will not be mending fences, they will be pounding rock—because this country will be one more of the slave states which met weapons with words ... and died.

DEMPESTER TILLING, DRAINING and DEEP FURROW SEEDING MACHINE

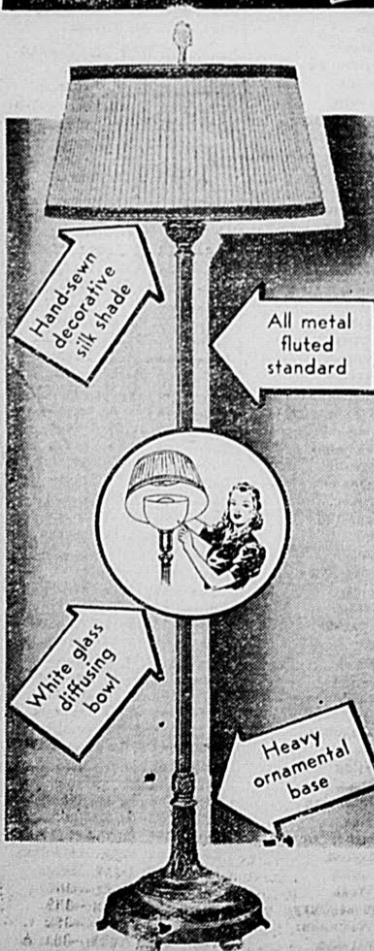

YOU need only this one machine to do every job from one wheat harvest to the next ... and to follow the new system of farming that greatly decreases the weather gamble. Think of the money you save not having to buy several machines ... of the time, labor and fuel saved by doing several jobs in one operation.

HERE'S WHAT IT DOES — With machine as shown above you go into the stubble field immediately after harvest—cultivate, forming furrows and damming in one operation so that the ground is ready to catch and hold moisture. Later you can level ridges and prepare excellent seed bed with trash on top to prevent soil-blowing. Then with machine as shown below you do an ideal job of seeding, depositing seed in wide, 6-in. moist seed bed, covering seed uniformly with moist soil.

Traditional American Food
Becoming More Popular
The great American cook is to be honored in her own country. One of the hotel chains is to comb the land for housewives' recipes, famed in their own circles or localities, but worthy of wider fame. The canvass follows an analysis of 161 million meal checks from the chain's many restaurants. It shows a steady decline in the standing of Continental specialties, a corresponding rise in that of traditional American fare.

Corned beef and cabbage outdrew sole marguery 3 to 1; apple pan dowdy has long since passed French pastry; lamb stew is outdrawing Parisian meat courses drenched in sauce. The chain would go farther.
It would draw on our resources of cooking still untapped. Codfish cakes on the morning menu of a local hostelry is a sign of a reciprocity worth cultivating. Kentucky does noble things with old ham. It should not be necessary to go to Kentucky to know that.
The two seaboard enjoy many simple fish dishes that deserve a wider public; the Pennsylvania Dutch have a whole cuisine on which to borrow; the indigenous hamburger and its affilate, the meat-ball,
are susceptible to infinite variation;
corn lends itself to a myriad delectable forms; there are 448 ways to cook an egg, it has lately been estimated. About many of these, more should be known.

And to these, and the other dishes, which the canvassers may elect, the names of their localities should be conspicuously attached. A baked bean is the better for being Boston baked, and "scrapple" without "Philadelphia" would be unthinkable.

Toll Gate Crasher 'Dies'
To Cross Seattle Bridge
Recorded in history are the names of the first motorist, the first bicyclist and the first roller-skater to cross the Lake Washington Floating bridge near Seattle. Now comes the first toll-gate crasher.
Joe's Bottom-Up club, a group of young men who meet regularly for social purposes, defied Lake Washington Floating bridge enthusiasts to top this one:
"You can get a free ride across the bridge," says John Nacey, club vice president.
And Nacey ought to know. He "played dead," reclining on a stretcher in an automobile which drove across the bridge. Merrill Scott, a department-store employee, was the driver.
"We don't have to pay for the corpse, do we?" Scott asked, as the toll-gate attendant began counting noses. "He's on his way to a funeral home."
The startled attendant hurriedly collected fares from Scott, Jack Rooney, Dwight Powell, Joe McDaniels and Jim Wiles, all club members, and waved the "funeral party"
through the gate.
A safe distance from the gate, the erstwhile corpse roused himself:
"Well, that's a new way of getting across the bridge!" he laughed.
"Wonder what they'll do next?"

VITAMINS
EXPLAINED
Homemakers from Maine to California are asking many questions about food values, better nutrition, how to give their families well balanced meals.
When the questions are directed to the U. S. govt., nutritionists in the Bureau of Home Economies supply the answers. Almost every letter in their mail is worth sharing with other home makers.
Do oranges lose their vitamin C a few minutes after they are cut and the juice is squeezed?
—No, orange juice is rated a top notch in this important vitamin, C.
Why are canned tomatoes always near the top of the list of foods rich in vitamin C, when other canned vegetables are not even shown?—Fresh tomatoes are richer in vitamin C, than most vegetables, and the acid of the tomatoes keep the vitamin C from being destroyed in the canning process.
Canned vegetables have about the same vitamin supply as fresh ones, but be sure to use the juice that comes in the can as it has rich minerals in it.
Milk can easily be added to the several foods cooked, also cream soups, custards, and puddings, also American cheddar.
A normal healthy person has little need of concentrated vitamin in form of pills or shots. Ask your doctor, he will tell you whether your system needs vitamins and the kind to get.

The electric range...
a great deal to...
standard of living.
Its first entrance into the American home was as a means of giving more light. Since those early days it has, step by step, eliminated entirely or in part virtually all the innumerable drudging tasks which had to do with what is known as "housekeeping."
It not only accomplishes these things with greater efficiency and speed, but actually at less cost.
Year after year these varied electrical appliances become more efficient, lower in price, cheaper to operate; and added to all this, the price of electric current has also consistently decreased.

This means cooking meals on an electric range with attendant cleanliness, speed, and cool comfort; cooling and preserving food with all the comfort and economy of a modern electric refrigerator; and laundry washed and ironed with the ease an electric washer and ironer make possible, while the electric cleaner takes care of rugs and carpets in a fraction of the time and without the back-breaking labor of the old-fashioned broom or sweeper and all the time you have a high intensity of glare-free light, perfectly diffused through the use of new and improved bulbs, lamps and fixtures.

Reducing Traffic Deaths
"Cleveland, Ohio, broadcasting—
tune in New York, Chicago, Detroit,
Los Angeles, San Francisco, Seattle,
and all other cities. We'll show you how this city cut traffic deaths from 248 to 130 in one year, thus being designated as the safest big city by the National Safety council for 1938 and 1939.
"A committee of 1,000,000 was appointed by the mayor, with the police department doing most of the ballyhoo that attracted the attention of everyone and cut the fatalities nearly a half. The city was plastered with streamers of various slogans obtained in a city-wide slogan contest. Storekeepers contributed their windows; outdoor advertising company donated full-sized billboards, beer companies urged temperance for drivers; the city added 250 billboards of its own and created death speed-o-meters.
Radios were used, parades were held, doctors and nurses were interviewed and accident victims pictured the graphic moments before a collision, over the air.
And practically over night, Cleveland became safety conscious—and the campaign to sell safety to the city was well on its road to success.

EDITORIAL

Spearman people have the opportunity to make friends with the oil fraternity, and gain some wonderful association, and perhaps a bit of needed business.
There is not a question but what Hansford county is scheduled for rapid oil development during the next year. Perhaps two thirds of the county is leased for oil and gas development, and advance work is underway at this time. It is a sin and disgrace that members of the Western Geophysics crew have headquarters at Canadian, and drive all the way to Spearman to begin their work.
However, this is a fact. Out of the many advance workers who have made necessary experiments in Hansford county during the past 5 years, so far as this writer knows, the only crew to make headquarters in Spearman and live in this city, was the advance crew of the Phillips company, that worked here last fall. This writer was among several local business men who attempted to gain homes for workers some 5 years ago when the first crew came to Spearman. Due to the fact that modern accommodations were not available the entire crew of some 26 married couples and 8 single men, made their headquarters at Amarillo, and worked Hansford county out of the No 1 city of the Panhandle. The same has been true in several other instances.
This writer has associated with oil people thru two oil booms.
They are fine people, and they have plenty of money to spend.
However, they have an inborn objection of being 'jipped'. They also want the best accommodations and are willing to pay for them.
Spearman should see to it that these fine people have an opportunity to live comfortably, and receive their just recognition if we want to win their friendship and approval during the years that are just ahead of us. If you have a spare bed room, or light housekeeping quarters in your home, please list them with the Reporter. We would like to file available accommodations, so that we can meet the oil people with a welcome. If you want to be reasonable and not hi-jack the oil men, you will find that we can earn a reputation that will be valuable to us for a future that promises much to Spearman.

BAPTIST MISSIONARIES HOLD JOINT MEETING

Members of the two circles of the Baptist church, the Lottie Moon and Blanche Rose Walker met at the home of Mrs. Ora Schroder for the monthly missionary lesson, "Faith Amid Persecution." Mrs. Jess Edwards was leader of the lesson and was assisted by Mrs. Carl Hutchison, Mrs. W. D. Cooke, Mrs. Rex Sanders, Mrs. Jack Taylor and Mrs. Ora Schroeder. Mrs. R. L. Baley led the devotional.

Following the lesson the monthly business meeting of the organization was held with president Mrs. T. R. Shirley presiding.

Twenty-two members were present for the Wednesday meeting.

Next week both circles will meet on Nov. 13 at the home of Mrs. W. M. Glover for an all day meeting with a covered dish luncheon served at noon.

BRIDGE CLUB FRIDAY

The Bid a Bit Bridge Club will meet for a luncheon meeting at the home of Mrs. W. P. Hutton Friday November 8.

Chinchilla, Says Expert

William Burns made $6,400 in one day recently when four chinchillas were born on his half-acre farm in suburban Brighton, near Rochester, N. Y. Those mites of fur, so small one nestles comfortably in the palm of the hand, are ounce for ounce the most valuable animal known to man. Their silky fur, incredibly soft to touch, can be made up into splendid coats—at about $50,000 a coat.

They are so scarce that he gets $3,200 a pair for them from other breeders.

Despite their high cost, the chinchillas are comparatively easy to raise, according to Burns, who says he has the only farm of his sort in New York state. The small wooden nest boxes are entirely bare, and the chinchillas run and play in small wire pens. They seem to thrive best in a climate with wide ranges in temperatures.

It costs only about $2 a year to feed chinchillas, but they must have a special diet. This includes yeast, wheat, oat middlings, soy bean meal, yellow corn meal, dehydrated alfalfa, mineralized salt and bone meal. The mother is also fed green, leafy food and orange juice a few weeks prior to whelping.

Burns is a pioneer in the American-bred chinchilla industry. In 1932 the late M. F. Chapman succeeded, after considerable trouble, in bringing 11 live chinchillas to the United States from high in the Andes mountains. Guarding the health of his prizes with blankets and hot water bottles, he took them to Inglewood, Calif., and started to raise chinchillas.

Burns bought the first pair sold by Chapman in 1925. Now he has 45, has sold many pairs and has realized an income enabling him to retire from his job as a factory machine operator and give his full time to chinchilla breeding.

Creating Things by Hand Brings Mental Relief

Mental peace through manual work—that is the kind of a workshop institute, located in Radio City. Called the Universal School of Handicrafts, it is directed by Edward T. Hall, a gray-haired man.

Into this shop comes the banker who fashions handmade cocktail shakers; an executive who weaves the cloth for his own suits; a society lady who fabricates pewter tableware and another who carves artistic buttons—all because they believe that nerves, boredom, and loneliness can be helped by the satisfaction of creating things with their hands.

A frustrated college girl returned to normal after a course in clay modeling, while many adjustments have been made with people over 70. All walks of life are represented in this school, such as blind people, rich life-long widows, deaf-mutes, refugees, cripples and tired business men and executives.

Predicts Dry Spell

A prediction that the United States is in for a long dry spell has been made by Dr. Halbert P. Gillette, member of the American Geophysical Union.

Having studied ancient and existing lakes and rock strata, he evolved from them the theory that there are at least three major weather cycles. His findings have been checked with the best available modern data of Nile floods and American weather reports.

His conclusion is that three cycles are working together to bring a long period of droughts, probably reaching maximum intensity about 1960—but that subnormal precipitation is apt to continue for another 50 years.

Dr. Gillette suggests that as one practical application of his findings the United States should prepare for continued migration from its dust bowls.

Youth Needs Training

School systems are operating under an outmoded and antiquated theory of preparing youth for vocations, Dr. Edwin A. Lee, director of the National Occupational conference, told a congress of Northwest educational administrators, recently.

He told his hearers that the present system for education provides training for about 40 different occupations, but that the problem of the school today is to prepare youth for a greater variety of occupations. A dictionary of jobs, he declared, published by the federal government, lists about 18,000 possible means of occupation.

Cats Cause Divorce

Divorces have been asked for many strange reasons, but few of them stranger than one asked by John Joseph Pettinger of Los Angeles. He appears to have been jealous of cats, and feels that they were getting too much favor from his wife. He couldn't move around the house or sit in a chair without a feline being in his way.

He put up for it for more than a year after his marriage, with disagreements becoming almost a daily occurrence—always ending on the subject of cats.

A property settlement has been arranged, but Pettinger believes that the marriage might have been a success if his wife had picked dogs instead of cats for pets.

California

ANGELES.—Several thousand fragments of ice age animals already have been found in a geological project recently begun in California by a group of scientists jointly sponsored by the city of Inglewood and the University of Southern California.

The fauna from the Pleistocene, or "Ice," age—estimated at from 20,000 to 50,000 years ago—is substantially the same in the Centinela park area as that found at Rancho La Brea, according to Dr. Clements, in charge of the work.

While the latter are better preserved as specimens because of the tar pits which trapped the animals, the new discoveries will prove highly valuable in a scientific way, Dr. Clements stated.

"This deposit gives a truer representation of the distribution of the various types of animals than do the tar pits where a higher proportion of carnivorous animals such as the saber-toothed tiger were attracted by the trapped mammoths and other animals," the geologist explained.

Among the fragments already found at depths of approximately 50 feet below the present ground level are portions of the imperial elephant, mastodons, a horse about the size of a present-day draft horse, camels, bison, saber-toothed tigers, great ground sloths, tiny deer and many water birds indicating that the area under examination was a river during the Ice age.

Also evident from specimens found by the geologists is the fact that the Ice age had a heavy rainfall and abundant vegetation.

Urge Government to Aid Housing Plans for Cities

Expressing its belief that the rebuilding of the extensive and growing blighted areas in our cities is an urgent necessity, the National Association of Real Estate Boards suggests that U. S. H. A. be remodeled to turn its activities to the assistance of private redevelopment companies, chartered by it, to rebuild large areas in the blighted districts.

"Blight and decay in the close-in areas is in itself a major cause of bad housing," the statement, signed by Newton C. Farr, Chicago, president of the association, and Herbert U. Nelson, Chicago, executive vice president, points out.

"Decline of these areas has many causes, but chief among them, no doubt, is the increased use of the automobile. This has caused too sudden and unplanned decentralization. The blighted areas cannot be reassembled, replanned, and rebuilt by private effort unless government helps. If government and private business can develop an appropriate plan for this vast undertaking, it will help local government and stimulate employment. We are working on the details of a practical plan of this kind which would, we believe, put many dollars of private funds to work for every dollar invested by government."

San Antonio 'American Venice'

San Antonio, Texas, city of light and imagination, of beauty and ugliness, old and new—saunters, smiles and ultimately arrives, like her clear little river, winding under 42 bridges to give her the name of "the American Venice." The river is being "beautified" these days, with Venetian bridges, curving stairways, flagstone paths, tropical plants and a small open-air theater with the seats on one side of the stream and the stage on the other.

A hint of Athens in the masses of garden flowers and oranges for sale along the sidewalks; a reminder of Italy in the rose red tower of the courthouse and the cypresses that lift long fingers into an almost Italian sky—though Italy would never hang Christmas lights and tinsel on a cypress tree!

Slip Brings Career

Accidentally spilling a glass of water on his hostess brought Angelo Bisenz fame and fortune as an industrial designer in New York city. He noticed that the glass and many other articles which he handle in our daily lives were not designed to fit our hands.

Bisenz changed all this by what he calls "formagenic design." He has designed door-knobs which can be opened with soapy hands, glasses with a non-slipable groove, a safety razor that is easily gripped with the fingers and many other household utensils.

He says that his idea of "formagenic design" is just the adaption of utensils to the human body and its requirements. He could go right through a house, he says, and really modernize it formagenically.

Live Longer in Australia

Man's normal life span ranges from 50 to 80 years, but his longevity chances vary from country to country. According to the Statistical Year Book of the League of Nations, a man may expect to live longer in Australia and New Zealand than in any other country on earth. In those two countries, a boy may look forward to 65 years of life, a girl to 68 years. Next best place seems to be the United States, where life expectancy is 63.8 years for the girls and 60.72 for boys. Worst country of all in this respect is India, where the life expectancy of male infants is only 27 years.

WHEAT TO GROUND

Thousands of acres of Panhandle wheat, particularly on the north plains, has been eaten to the ground by small hoppers which came into this section following the recent freeze. Farmers in this area have not been hit hard but those living here who have wheat in the Perryton and Spearman area report that the ground in places is as bare as a floor.

The swarms of hoppers which came from the north and east caught this section of the country by surprise and there is little or no hopper poison in the area.

Early wheat that came up and got a good stand before the freeze is not being damaged to any great extent, farmers report, but late wheat is being devoured.
