

More Stop-Gap Aid May Be Demanded

Marshall Plan By April 1 Is Deadline Set

Leader Thinks Austria May Need Help Soon

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14. (AP)—Congress may face an urgent demand for more stop-gap European aid unless the Marshall Plan gets started by April 1, lawmakers heard today.

A member in close touch with the state department said Austria certainly will need more relief by then, and maybe one or two other countries as well.

The long-range, multi-billion dollar Marshall Plan for European reconstruction is making good progress in an election year Congress, but there is considerable doubt whether it can be cleared to President Truman in another month and a half.

But the $52,000,000 which the special session of Congress voted for the immediate needs of France, Italy and Austria is expected to be spent by April 1.

The man who talked to the state department said it might be necessary to cut Austrians' rations to 500 calories a day unless new help is sent. It was feared that low amount—far below what Americans eat—might cause food riots and other disturbances.

The long-range program made its first definite legislative progress yesterday.

The Senate Foreign Relations committee voted unanimously to authorize the spending of $5,300,000,000 over a one-year period beginning April 1. The Administration had asked $6,800,000,000 for the first 15 months.

Although the committee's figure averaged $11,666,667 a month lower, some critics of the program still thought it was too high. One of them was Senator Taft (R-Ohio), chairman of the GOP policy committee.

"I think the amount they (the committee) have endorsed is still too large," Taft told a news conference in Denver.

Taft, who is seeking the Republican presidential nomination, is in the West on a campaign trip.

Reviewing The Big Spring -Week-

As far as topics of conversation are concerned, we have had two good ones this past week. Temperatures and market prices—and they both went down. If there's any relationship between the two, the bull-minded followers of the markets doubtless were happy to see a balmy day like Saturday.

At least stop-gap aid, which is welcomed by many parents distressed over the half-day sessions, has been provided a part of the local school system with the opening of the new Airport ward. Some 100 youngsters in the first three grades now are attending classes there, leaving that much more room in crowded West ward.

That our population climbs regularly is reflected in the schools' No. 1 problem, that of providing more classroom space. The matter is getting worse by the day, and now a move is underway for authorization of a special scholastic census, to provide the district with the additional state per capita funds it is entitled to.

The oil scene continues bright. On the heels of the pool opener north of Big Spring comes news of continued flow of the Sterling county wildcat. Black gold seems to be coming forth on all sides of us.

There wasn't much fanfare about it, but the Boy Scouts observed another anniversary—and another year of progress that demonstrates within itself the merit of this movement which makes better men for the nation's future. That part of the Scout program which includes the establishment of a new West Texas camp is deserving of full support.

Speaking of good causes, the March of Dimes technically was concluded during the past week, with money in the bank far short of the sought-after goal. And the goal was not large—just enough to care for some ten patients who might be stricken with polio. The let-down on this appeal and on the Community Fund might mean that we need to do a little soul-searching.

CURIOSITY TIES TONGUE — Teddy Englund, fourth grade pupil, standing in snow waiting for a school bus in Mullens, W. Major Goods Hit Temporary Price Bottom

Inflation Is Pushed Back Six Months

CHICAGO, Feb. 14. (AP) Some major commodities touched at least a temporary bottom today after an overall 10-day plunge that pushed the inflationary spiral back six months.

However, soybeans and corn for May delivery continued their record breaking slump and New York stocks did little more than hold their ground at levels near the lowest in eight months.

Retail prices, always lagging behind the markets, still were coming down. Soap, flour, bread, meat, butter and lard in the list of shopper items marked down in some grocery stores. Prices were down sharply from a week ago in many New York groceries. Shoppers in most American cities have had at least a few cents chipped off their grocery bills.

All wheat contracts for future delivery halted their downward slide. But trading was the quietest of the week and there was not much disposition for prices to bounce very far back. Prices were going down at the close.

Grains staged a much stronger comeback Monday only to resume their drop until today.

The strongest showing in the comparatively few markets operating on Saturday was made by cotton. At New York, cotton futures closed $2.15 to $2.75 a bale higher. The staple went $1.65 to $2.50 a bale higher in New Orleans.

The upturn in wholesale commodities and stronger showing of grains today again brought to the fore speculation on what future direction prices would take.

President Truman's top economic team will make a study of the problem for him. One spokesman for the council said it was still too early to tell whether the price tide really is turning, whether a business slump is near or whether inflation still is a danger. Crop prospects will be a major factor in the future picture, he said.

G. I. Students Given Raise

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14. (AP)—Two million veterans going to school under the G. I. Bill of rights will get larger living allowances beginning April 1.

President Truman signed a bill today which raises the subsistence allowance of single veterans-students from $65 a month to $75, those with one dependent from $90 to $105, and those with two or more dependents from $90 to $120.

The new rates are estimated to cost the government an additional $217,000,000 a year. That's an average of $108.50 per G. I. scholar.

The Senate passed the bill last summer; the House Feb. 3.

Experts on the staff of the House Veterans committee said that veteran students who have part-time jobs will be eligible for the new allowances, but their combined earnings and subsistence allowance will be held under a ceiling.

Those ceilings are $175 a month on combined earnings and allowances for veterans without dependents, and $200 for those with dependents. The figures are unchanged from the present law.

Rent Control Bill Compromise Talked

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14. (AP)—A compromise 30-day extension of rent controls won important backers in Congress today only 15 days before the present Federal Act dies.

Senator Wherry (R-Nebr.), acting GOP leader, told a reporter: "I have an idea that controls will be extended for at least 30 days and the Senate may act on it before the week end."

Eight-State Area Plagued By Floods

WHERE TOWN WAS, RIVER IS — The Deskins Addition to the city of Logan in southern West Virginia is flooded by waters from Guyandotte river, normally a stream two or three feet deep. Water poured into narrow Guyan Valley from flooded creeks which forced hundreds of families from homes in narrow mountain hollows. (AP Wirephoto).

Snow-Swollen Rivers Take Five Lives

Thousands Are Driven From Homes

Turbulent flood waters from rain and snow-swollen rivers surged in eight states Saturday, taking at least five lives. This increased to 14 the death toll of a two-day attack by the elements.

Thousands of persons were driven from their homes by the angry flood waters. Sub-freezing temperatures added to their misery.

Four of the flood dead were in West Virginia. The fifth was in Indiana. Mississippi, in addition to facing a flood menace, counted nine dead and 42 injured from a tornado which ripped a section of the little town of Newton Friday.

Other states affected by the floods were Ohio, Tennessee, Kentucky, Pennsylvania, Indiana and Alabama. The situation was worst in the South, particularly in central Tennessee.

Besides wreaking her wrath in floods and tornadoes, an angry nature hurled snow, sleet, rain and sub-zero temperatures at a widespread stretch of the nation from the Rockies to the north Atlantic seaboard. A cold wave moving in from Canada threatened temperatures of 25 below in northern Minnesota, 15 below in northern Wisconsin and well below zero in the Dakotas, Nebraska and Iowa.

Zero temperatures were forecast for Illinois and readings of five to 10 above in the Ohio Valley. The cold wave was expected to reach over the east by Sunday night.

In central Tennessee, the swirling Duck river cut the city of Columbia in half. It was the worst flood in the city's history. Nearly 200 families were evacuated by Red Cross workers and the Columbia National Guard unit. The Army rushed in an emergency water purification unit to meet a crisis caused when the city water plant failed.

Up river from Columbia, the waters were falling at Shelbyville, Tenn. Stocks were washed from store shelves. Hundreds of persons still were held from their homes.

On the Tennessee river, the flood waters were too much for the great dams set up by the Tennessee Valley Authority. The huge reservoirs filled and the water was released to rush over the low country.

At Chattanooga, where the river stood four feet above flood stage, 25 families were evacuated. Arrangements were made to move 40 more.

Tax Strategy Shift Is Seen For Democrats

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14. (AP)—A shift in the Administration's line of defense against the tax cut drive of the Republicans was reported on good authority today.

A high official who cannot be named indicated the new strategy—keyed to signs of a potential change in the business tide—would follow this outline:

1. Champion a broad revision of the tax laws to benefit business as well as individuals. The idea would be to thus strengthen the country against the possibility of an economic storm.

2. Time the revision for later this year when the budget situation becomes more certain. This would be done provided that Congress leaves the government in financial position to afford revision costs after allowing for "substantial" reduction of the national debt.

3. Stress that a quick slash, like that proposed in the Republican $6,500,000,000 income tax-cut bill, would smash chances for "sound" changes in the tax system in the foreseeable future by eating up the money available.

The Administration was represented as believing that the active, "counter-offensive" nature of this defense would be more effective than its past course.

HOPPI-COPTER PASSES TEST

SEATTLE, Feb. 14. (AP)—The Hoppi-Copter—the closest thing yet to equipping man with wings—has passed its first man-carrying free flight outdoor test.

Test Pilots Maurice L. Ramme and Kermit D. Jones took the featherweight (175 pounds) craft aloft for several trials, the company reported.

The pilot sits in the open air in a Hoppi-Copter, appearing to have the mechanism strapped to his back. The 35-horsepower engine is at his back, the twin rotors whirl above his head and the tripped landing gear is beneath his feet.

Nations, deck log of the U. S. S. Missouri on the surrender of Germany and Japan, and many other historically valuable papers.

CAA DISCOVERS BLAZE

The Howard County Junior college gymnasium and miscellaneous articles of athletic equipment were destroyed by a fire which swept through the frame structure shortly before midnight Friday night.

The blaze was discovered by personnel of the Civil Aeronautics Administration control tower at the Municipal Airport a short time after a Negro basketball game was finished in the building.

City firemen said they received the alarm from the CAA control tower at 11:50 p. m. and the entire structure was ablaze when fire-fighting equipment arrived.

Cause of the blaze had not been established Saturday.

E. C. Dodd, HCJC president, said a quantity of boxing equipment owned by the Big Spring Athletic Association was stored in the building as well as some articles which belonged to the college. Several game uniforms of the HCJC basketball team had been stored at the home of Coach Harold Davis, however, which enabled the Jayhawks to keep their engagement with the Texas Tech freshmen at the High school gym Saturday night.

Negro basketball teams from Big Spring and Lamesa had played games in the junior college gym earlier in the evening. However, Dodd said a junior college night watchman had checked the building thoroughly at 11:05 p. m. after the building was vacated and no evidence of fire was found.

Firemen said the blaze could have originated from an electrical short, the building's heating system, or any of several other possibilities, but destruction was so complete that it will be difficult to determine a definite cause.

The building was one of several war surplus structures granted the college by a Federal government agency several months ago.

Dodd said the Junior college carried a $30,000 insurance policy on the building.

Eisenhower Makes Last Army Report

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14. (AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower warned gravely today that if the Mediterranean nations should lose their independence to totalitarianism "war x x x would be close to us."

In his final report as chief of staff (the office which he left a week ago) Eisenhower set forth his views on the Gulf between the democracies and Russia. He didn't mention Russia by name but the words he chose left no doubt of his meaning.

Export Cut Rejected

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14. (AP)—Rep. Heselton (R-Mass.) said today the Administration has rejected his urgent plea for a further cut in U. S. oil shipments abroad.

WANTS PEACE ACTION

LAREDO, Feb. 14. (AP)—Gov. Earl Warren of California is expected to advocate a program of positive action toward world peace when he addresses an international audience here February 23 in the climax of the 4-day Washington's birthday celebration.

Warren, mentioned frequently as a possible Republican presidential candidate, will be the principal speaker at the Mexico-United States boundary monument, where Mexican delegations to the celebration will be welcomed.

The Californian's subject will be "Solidarity of the Western Hemisphere." He told William Prescott Allen, Laredo publisher, in a telephone conversation that he would urge the extension of American solidarity and friendship into a program for world peace and prosperity.

Warren will come here from Monterrey, Mexico, accompanied by Governors Raul Garate of Tamaulipas and Arturo De La Garza of Nuevo Leon, arriving Feb. 21. Gov. Beauford Jester of Texas also has accepted an invitation to attend the celebration, as has Gov. Ricardo Ainslie of the state of Coahuila, Mexico.

This is the 51st year that this border city has celebrated the birthday of George Washington and the event promises to be one of the largest in Laredo's history.

Next Sunday, festivities will shift south of the border. A gala bullfight, starting three of Mexico's

NEAR VALLEY MILLS

Officers Dig Up Bremond Bank Loot

WACO, Feb. 14. (AP)—Officers dug up in the hills near Valley Mills, today $1,318.15 they said was part of the $12,350 loot from the First State Bank of Bremond.

The bank was robbed last December 23. Charged with the robbery is Francis M. Hooper, 22, who was returned to Marlin, today and lodged in the Federal section of the Falls County jail. The money was brought here, where Hooper is to be arraigned February 23.

Sheriff Bob Reeves of Franklin, Robertson county, headed a party of officers who found the money near the Bosque county town today. He said it was buried in cloth money bags.

Reeves shot and killed Hooper's brother, John Bernard Hooper, as the robbers fled from the Bremond bank. The sheriff said tonight he was seeking to have Hooper tried in state court at Franklin rather than in Federal court.

Reeves said the officers went to the Valley Mills section after talking with Hooper in San Antonio where he had been taken after he was captured in Los Angeles.

FBI agents arrested Hooper Jan. 20 as he left the home of a wartime buddy, a young policeman with whom he had served on Okinawa. The policeman had notified officers after advising Hooper to give himself up.

Sheriff George Grimes of Bosque county and his deputy, Doyle Spurlin, Texas Rangers Joe Thompson of Waco and John Cope of Dallas, and FBI agents Dick Johnson and Clark Anderson were in the party which found the money.

Officers said $538.50 was found in Fort Worth in an abandoned car during the chase after the robbers, and that $5,838.55 had been recovered in California.

DETROIT IS HURT BY GAS SHORTAGE

DETROIT, Feb. 14. (AP)—There weren't any breadlines in Detroit these last three weeks, but the memory of them rose again to frighten 150,000 idle persons.

A shortage of natural gas dealt the city its severest blow since the depression, a $120,000,000 bill in the economic stomach.

MAKE SPECIAL TRIP TO DEL RIO

Nine local residents, students at Howard County Junior College, were among the approximately 4,500 persons who inspected one of the most famous collections of documents in the world Friday morning when the Freedom Train was opened in Del Rio.

The train, a six-car special in shining red, white and blue, was officially let to the public at 10 a. m. Friday, but throngs were gathered as early as 8 a. m. despite 25-degree weather. Hotel accommodations were impossible to find, overflowing with visiting school children from dozens of cities.

The interior of the Freedom Train is designed with walls at alternate angles. Deep, well-lighted cases fronted in unbreakable glass and set in plaster-finished walls housed the valuable documents. Each paper, in turn, was set between half-inch glass slabs bolted in silver. The train was under surveillance constantly by a special detachment of Marines and secret service agents.

In addition to the beauty of the colorful windows, the interior of the train was in muted green and carpeted in brown. Patriotic silhouettes sketched on heavy plastic framed a number of the cases. Folk songs, marches and patriotic music were played softly during the showing hours.

In most instances, documents were in the original; others were accurate photostatic copies. Among the earliest writings were papers in beautiful script and exaggerated print. Several were in Spanish or French and a number of the famed articles were penned on large sections of exquisite sheepskin. Notable was the fact that ink used by the writers was clearly legible even after more than a hundred years.

Among documents of principal interest were George Washington's ledger of expenses during the Revolutionary War, original copy of the Star-Spangled Banner written on ship-board, first copy of the Bay Psalm book (first book printed in the American colonies), Washington's own copy of the constitution, deck log of Old Ironsides, the Mayflower Compact, the Magna Carta, Treaty of Paris, Bill of Rights, government bonds dating back to 1779, Jefferson's treaties on Freedom of the Press, letter from Christopher Columbus dated 1492 on describing the Continent, treaty to fix boundaries between Canada and the U. S., Declaration of Independence both draft and finished copy, the Constitution, original declaration of the United Nations, deck log of the U. S. S. Missouri on the surrender of Germany and Japan, and many other historically valuable papers.

Added exhibits included a collection of significant flags: the one flown above the U. S. S. Missouri at the Jap surrender, the flag raised by the Marines on Iwo Jima, Commander Matthew Perry's embroidered flag flown by his ship during the opening of Japan in 1854, Gen. Dwight Eisenhower's personal flag.

Given special permission by the junior college to attend the showing of the Freedom Train were Mr. and Mrs. Dormand Hill, Leatrice Ross, Dick Clifton, Zack Gray, Olney Thurman, Ray Dunlap, Jimmy Ray Smith and Charles Buckner, students of American government. The group returned to Big Spring Saturday afternoon.

A street pageant headed by Pochontas and an Indian cavalcade will be a feature of the closing day.

TEXAS POLL

Stevenson Is Heavy Favorite In Early Senate Race Survey

AUSTIN, Feb. 14.—Forer Governor Coke R. Stevenson, first to announce himself as a candidate, is today the leading choice of Texas voters for the post of junior U. S. Senator. Senator W. Lee O'Daniel, the incumbent, is second, and Congressman Lyndon B. Johnson of Austin is third, according to the latest statewide survey by the Texas Poll. George E. B. Peddy of Houston placed fourth.

At the time this survey was made, only Stevenson, Peddy, and F. B. Clark, former professor at A. & M. College, had publicly announced their candidacy.

To sound out public sentiment at this early stage of the race, interviewers for The Texas Poll asked a cross-section of eligible voters this question:

"If you had to decide today, who would be your choice for U. S. Senator from Texas in this year's election?"

Coke R. Stevenson	40%
W. Lee O'Daniel	14%
Lyndon B. Johnson	10%
George E. B. Peddy	7%
Miscellaneous others	7%
No choice	2%
100%

Among the "miscellaneous others" in the above tabulation is U. S. Senator Tom Connally, named by 3 per cent of the voters who mistakenly think the senior senator is up for re-election. Twelve others, none of whom received as much as 1 per cent, are included in the miscellaneous group.

Among the avowed and the likely candidates for senator, O'Daniel is the best known to the voters. More persons can tell you who he is than can identify Stevenson. The Texas Poll found this to be true by asking the voters to identify a number of public figures, included among whom were the names of O'Daniel, Peddy, Johnson, and Stevenson. This test was put to each voter before he was asked to give his choice for senator:

"Will you please look over the list of names and tell me which of these people you can identify? Will you please tell me who each one is or what he does?"

The voters were presented the names on a card. At no time during the interview was the voter advised that any of the men listed were running or would run for U. S. Senator.

GUARDIAN OF MONUMENT Remembering Maine Is Full-Time Job

AP Newfeatures
HAVANA—Arturo Feliu has remembered the Maine well for 50 years. In fact, he makes a living of it.

Feliu's particular memory is that of rescuing a marine sergeant from the waters of Havana harbor after the United States battleship had mysteriously exploded on that rainy night of Feb. 15, 1889.

And for the past 14 years he has been self-appointed guardian of the Maine monument on Havana Malecon, or seaside drive.

Twenty-seven years later Feliu again met Rau, who had come to Havana from his home in New York to attend a reunion of the United Spanish War Veterans.

"He recognized me by a wrist watch he had given me when I rescued him," says Feliu.

Feliu is 79 years old now. He wears a blue uniform with the words "Hero of the Maine" stitched into a sleeve. Proudly he shows a letter of commendation from former Secretary of the Navy Curtis D. Wilbur, and a scrapbook full of other clippings.

"He was hanging on this chain," Feliu tells visitors, patting a section of the anchor chain from the Maine which forms part of the monument.

"It was an actor at the time, and a member of the volunteer fire department. I was sitting in the Parque Central, resting, at about 9:45 p. m., when there was that terrible explosion and the whole sky turned red.

"As a fireman, I knew I had to get to the harbor, about a mile away. So I jumped into a carriage and kept urging the driver to hurry.

"The ship was burning, and explosions were continuing. Several Spanish warships in the harbor were leaving, to get away from the explosions. The harbor was full of swimming men.

"I got into a skiff and rowed out to the Maine. Arthur Rau was hanging on the skiff and brought him to shore. We couldn't find anyone else. On shore I got some sugar and put it into a big bleeding gash on his head to stop the flow.

"Next day I rowed out to the ship and found another man hanging onto a buoy. He had been there all night. Much of the ship was still above the water. I went aboard and got the American flag and some documents and brought them in to the American consul."

INDEX OF TEXAS BUSINESS ACTIVITY — November's sharp upturn leveled out during the month of December as the index of Texas business rose only one point from November's 208, according to statistics computed by the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research and only now released. All components of the general index held steady or recorded gains except department and apparel store sales which were down 23 points. Electric power consumption remained steady. Employment and pay rolls increased slightly. The index of miscellaneous freight carloadings, the only one to record a decrease in November, had the greatest gain, from 153 to 162. Industrial activity picked up as indicated by an 8 point gain in crude oil runs to stills. (AP Photo).

Irish Labor Party Backs Coalition

DUBLIN, Feb. 14. (AP)—The Irish Labor party promised today to participate in a coalition government if Premier Eamon De Valera is deposed next week after 16 years in power. De Valera's Fianna Fail (government party) lost its Dail (parliament) majority in the recent elections. But the New York-born Irish leader hopes to be re-elected prime minister with the support of half a dozen independent votes, without a formal coalition. The Dail votes Wednesday.

ITU President Is Given Court Order

NEW YORK, Feb. 14. (AP)—President Woodruff Randolph of the AFL International Typographical union has been ordered by the Federal court to appear Feb. 27 to answer a National Labor Relations board complaint. The board charges that ITU and its president ignored subpoenas for a board hearing. The NLRB had subpoenaed Randolph and certain ITU records in connection with an unfair labor practice complaint against five ITU locals.

Cullen Sends Washington Hot Protest Against Oil Industry Regulation Bill

HOUSTON, Feb. 14. — With the assertion that "it is just hell when one has to continue to fight for freedom in this country," H. R. Cullen, multimillion-dollar donor to charity and independent oil producer has wired an emphatic protest to Texas senators and others in Washington condemning a bill seeking to regulate the oil industry.

The measure, sponsored by Rep. Heselton, (R. Mass.), is scheduled for introduction in the House Monday. It would, its author asserted, put the oil industry under a Federal board similar to the Interstate Commerce commission.

The outspoken independent made his telegram public today. In his view the purported oil shortage in this country is traceable to shipments of pipe and steel, in part, to Russia; the asserted failure of the coal industry to increase production and the alleged adoption of "Harold Laski's theory of state socialism."

Cullen's telegram stated: "The morning press states John W. Heselton Republican congressman from Massachusetts drafting bill to put oil under Federal Control. It is just hell when one has to continue to fight for freedom in this country. I sent you Harry Weiss' letter sometime ago that showed that the oil production of this country has increased fourfold since nineteen twenty while coal production has not increased any. Why do not the bureaucrats in Washington jump on the coal business for a while and leave the oil men in peace? Bureaucracy working at its best held the price of oil down and put the price of coal up with the consequence they are using fuel oil in the factories almost directly in the coal mines. It is an unhealthy condition and should be stopped by allowing the price of oil to rise high enough to force those industries in the coal states to use coal. Instead of putting the big headlines on a shortage of supplies they should stress an unprecedented demand aggravated by a unusually cold winter, plus a shortage of tankers, tank cars and pipe lines due to war created shortages. What are the facts? We are exporting around 163,000,000 barrels of petroleum a year. Senator Moore of Oklahoma called attention to the Senate committee on May 27th of last year to the fact that in twenty months exports not of petroleum but of approximately fifty thousand tons of piping, casings and other tubular goods used by the petroleum industry had been shipped to the Russian government under export licenses issued by our state department. This, said Senator Moore, meant that the American oil industry had been denied material for drilling about 1500 wells, which should have produced for our own use over 135,000,000 barrels of new reserves. If this equipment had stayed here and not gone to Russia, there is little reason to believe that any fuel oil tanks would be empty in America today. It is time that some patriotic statesmen in Congress should state facts and save us from that condition recently presented by undersecretary Archibald L. M. Wiggins to the leading bankers and business men of this country, who said: Quote and, surprisingly to me, about two-thirds of the things that happened in this country in the last twenty five or thirty years fitted right into Harold Laski's theory of state socialism. So, it is not a matter of opinion; it is just a matter of putting the facts down side by side, and there it is. End of Quote."

C-C Banquet Tickets Are Going Fast

With eight of 23 tables already filled, tickets for the annual Big Spring chamber of commerce banquet were moving rapidly by Saturday afternoon, chamber officials reported.

Sales up to Saturday noon, which totalled 115 tickets, represented almost one third of the seating capacity. Tables will be arranged to accommodate 367 persons.

The banquet, which is scheduled for the night of Feb. 27, will feature James E. Gheen, well-known speaker from New York. The engagement here will be a repeat performance for Gheen, who spoke at a similar gathering two years ago.

Chamber officials called special attention again Saturday to the reservation system adopted for the banquet. All tables will be numbered and a selection of seating space must be made when tickets are purchased. Persons who desire seating space at any particular table or location in the dining room were advised to make reservations early.

The Statue of Liberty in New York Harbor was dedicated in 1886.

Regan Urges Salvage Of Junked U. S. Guns, Tanks From Europe

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13. — The return of junked guns, tanks and the like from Europe to relieve the scrap iron shortage has been urged by Reps. Ken Regan of Midland and Lindley Beckworth of Gladewater.

Both represent large oil producing areas, Regan the territory from Midland and Beckworth the East Texas field.

How the oil industry is affected by the scrap iron shortage was described to the house by Regan.

"This shortage of steel continues to hamper, prevent, and delay the drilling of wells that would, in all probability, relieve if not entirely prevent the shortage in oil and its products if an adequate supply of well casings could be made available," he said.

"Yet, Mr. Speaker, we are told that there are tremendous quantities of scrap steel in Europe and Africa.

"Mr. Speaker, we are shipping boatload after boatload of various supplies and commodities to Europe; the boats are returning empty.

"Is it not high time, Mr. Speaker, that these United States start practicing some economies at home and do something that will be a direct benefit to all our people?

Beckworth has for months corresponded with American Military Government officials in Germany on the matter. Recently he received word from them that plans were being drawn for an organized program to salvage war scrap for shipment to the U. S. and England.

General Lucius D. Clay, U. S. military governor in Germany, wrote that while negotiations for returning scrap are pending, "It is doubtful that any scrap will be sent in through Texas ports."

Beckworth wrote back for more information and again urged more attention be given to the matter of getting some of the scrap in through gulf ports for use in Texas.

The frame units, look-outs perched atop their roofs, are shown as they moved down Main Street of Hutchinson through the heart of the business district. (AP Wirephoto).

Texas Stream Flow Far Below Normal

AUSTIN, Feb. 14. (AP)—Stream flow is far below normal in Texas. Deficiencies ranged around 50 and 60 percent in the entire southern two-thirds of the state, the United States geological survey reported for January. Most of Texas came into a belt of stream flow deficiency that extends from the Pacific Coast through Arizona, New Mexico, western and southern Texas and northeastward into Canada.

Big Gifts Drive Gains Momentum

Spurred by an informal big gifts report of over $14,000 by Dr. P. W. Malone of Big Spring, committee members in Midland and Odessa began to enroll their heavy money days of solicitation work at the Buffalo Trail Council Scout Ranch campaign developed into a three-city contest. One of the three cities is expected to take the lead for the 15 counties in the $200,000 fund drive. Meanwhile early reports on special, or smaller, gifts showed $2,098 from Monahans, $1,519 from Pecos, $1,457.01 from Kermit and $1,163 actually turned in, although more was reported, from Odessa. The $6,237.01 total represents less than 10 percent of the cards issued. First special gift report in Big Spring is scheduled for Monday noon in the Settles hotel. Team members who accepted supplies at the kick-off dinner Thursday night will post returns for the first three days of solicitation work at the session. Big gifts committees throughout the council were completed by the end of the week, Judge Paul Moss, big gifts chairman, reported Saturday. Judge Moss said that some contributors may wish to perpetuate the memory of departed loved ones by assuming the cost of some of the ranch facilities. Subject to approval of the council's executive board, individual memorial facilities will be marked with appropriate plaques naming the persons to be honored and the donors, he advised. Memorial gifts range as high as $35,000 and as low as $100.

Ten New C-C Directors Are To Be Named

Ten new chamber of commerce directors will be named Monday when ballots of the annual election which has been in progress for the past week are tabulated.

Actual voting is to close today, although ballots received at the chamber office by mail on Monday morning will be tabulated. At closing time Saturday 228 votes had been cast.

Results of the election will be canvassed Monday noon at the regular director's meeting in the Settes.

The 10 new directors then will meet with 10 held over from the 1947 board, and they will have authority to name up to 10 others to the board. After the 1948 directorate is completed, officers for the year will be selected. The new officers will be installed at the chamber's annual banquet on the night of Feb. 27.

Salvation Army Slates Classes In Wood Crafts

Classes in wood crafts will begin Monday evening at the Salvation Army Youth Center wood working shop, Capt. Olvy Sheppard has announced.

Equipment including three big saws, one hand saw, an eight-inch table saw and four motors have been received from an unidentified contributor, Capt. Sheppard said.

Classes will be conducted from 7 p. m. to 8:30 p. m. Monday through Friday.

The schedule has designated Monday and Thursday nights for 11 to 14-year old boys, Tuesday and Friday for 15-18 year old boys and Wednesday for 7-10 year old boys.

Mrs. Ramona Amos, Frank Amos and Sam Steen are in charge of the shop.

Handy work classes for girls are expected to get underway at an early date.

FORTY-THREE HEAD

Registered Herefords Are Slated For Auction Here

Forty-three head of registered Herefords consigned by members of the Howard County Hereford Breeders Association are scheduled to enter the auction ring at the organization's fourth annual sale Friday afternoon.

The auction will be held in a warehouse building purchased recently by the breeders association at the former Big Spring Army Air Field.

Prior to the sale a registered breeding Hereford show will be held in the same building. The show is scheduled to open at 9 a. m., with the sale to follow at 1 p. m. John C. Burns, Fort Worth, who judged beef steers at the 11th annual Howard County 4-H club and FFA Livestock show in January, will place the animals for ribbon awards.

Thirteen members of the breeders association have listed consignments for the 1948 auction in the sale catalog, which was distributed last week.

Included in the offerings are 25 bulls and 17 cows. Consignors include S. F. Buchanan, I. B. Cauble, Rexie Cauble, H. D. Cowden, E. W. Lomax, R. Ed Martin, O. H. McAlister, John J. Phillips, Tom Roden, C. A. Walker, Leland Wallace, Wilson Bros., Charlie C. Wolf.

In three previous sales staged by the organization buyers have come from throughout West Texas and from several out-of-state ranches, and the annual event this year is expected to attract another sizable group of Southwestern Hereford men.

Col. Walter Britten, who served in the same capacity last year, will be auctioneer.

Officers of the Hereford Breeders Association are E. W. Lomax, president; Tom Roden, vice-president; Leland Wallace, secretary-treasurer.

Tommy Hutto Makes Bid For Commissioner

A newcomer to the local political arena is Thomas L. (Tommy) Hutto, who is announcing his candidacy for county commissioner for precinct 2, a precinct in which he has resided practically all his life. In making public announcement, Hutto said: "I have never held public office, and have never asked for one before. But I intend to remain in Howard county, to try to be a success in business here, and I want also to serve my government the best way I can. If elected, I intend to seek and abide by the counsel of the people, and pledge myself that my every action as a commissioner would be in the public interest. In short, I'm ready to 'make a hand' for the people of Howard county."

Resident now of Big Spring (111 Lexington), Hutto was born 35 years ago on a ranch near Coahoma. He attended grade school at Midway, later moved to Big Spring and finished high school here in 1935. He attended Texas A&M college, obtained a degree there in animal husbandry.

In his school days, Hutto was a prominent athlete, starring as basketball, football and baseball player. Hutto has worked on a ranch near Coahoma, was associated with the Cosden Petroleum corporation for about a year, worked in the oil field near Forsan for a year, then was at Texon for about four years. Since his discharge from the army, he has been associated with his brother-in-law, Obie Britton, in oil leasing activities.

Hutto is a veteran of World War II, having volunteered in Big Spring as a private in June of 1942. He later was sent to officer candidate school, emerged with a commission, and advanced in rank until he was discharged in November, 1946 as a major. He was three years in the Mediterranean theater, seeing action in Africa and Italy, and later spent 11 months in Panama.

Hutto is married and the father of a daughter.

WEEK'S BUSINESS

Residential Construction Shows Gain

New residential work produced a slight gain for city building figures during the last week, although most permits again were required for repair work. Estimated cost total for the week amounted to $28,875, with two new dwellings representing $15,000. The week's activity advanced the 1948 total to $135,809.

Warranty deeds filed in the county clerk's office indicated continued real estate activity in the city and county. Instruments recorded during the week involved transactions amounting to $26,800. The current total for the year is $374,969.

New automobile deliveries were slightly off the previous week's pace. However, registrations were still considerably ahead of last year's average. During the week the county tax assessor-collector's office issued licenses for 27 passenger cars, four trucks, two motor-cycles and one motorscooter.

Among new developments during the week was considerable grading in the Cedar Crest and Park Hill areas. Fox Stripling has made plans for new residential development in that section between West Ward school and Park Hill.

Norman Rockwell To Paint Presidents

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 14. (AP)—The imperial council of the Shrine for North America said today artist Norman Rockwell had been commissioned to paint three life size portraits of three U. S. presidents who have been active shriners.

They are Warren G. Harding, Franklin D. Roosevelt and Harry S. Truman.

Child Grooms World In Filling Station

VAN ALSTYNE, Feb. 14. (AP)—Trapped by mud and ice, Mrs. John Chitty gave birth to an 8-lb. girl in a Van Alstyne filling station yesterday.

The father, attempting to drive to a McKinney hospital, became stuck. A tractor pulled the car two miles to the filling station.

Hutto is married and the father of a daughter.

Men, Regain Youthful Vigor

Here is a Vital Message to Men of 40, 60 or Older Men Who Feel That The Years Have Let Them Down

If you apparently have lost its zest, you again may be able to enjoy life as you did in your youth. If added years have blotted down your vim, vitality and youthful pleasures, here is a simple method that may change your whole outlook on life. Don't feel old and worn out at 40, 60 or more. Why not try to regain the pleasures of living you once enjoyed; why be discouraged? Regain the nerve and zest of a much younger man. Just ask your doctor for Caltron stimulating tablets. Take as directed on label. There is nothing harmful in Caltron tablets. Take as long as you feel you need them. Added years may no longer deprive you of desired enjoyment. Why be the victim of the "older" years?

Goethe finished Faust at 82; Connie Mack is still managing the Athletics at 85; Titian painted masterpieces between 94 and 99; Clara Barton was an active president of the Red Cross at 85; Verdi was composing. Victor Hugo was writing. Corot was painting long after 80. So don't let the added years get you down. Why not try Caltron tablets today? Available at all drug stores.

Medicine Course May Attract 200 Doctors, Others

GALVESTON, Feb. 14. (AP)—The third postgraduate course in physical medicine is expected to attract more than 200 physicians and hospital administrators at Galveston March 1-5.

A group of national and internationally famed physiatrists will come to the University of Texas medical branch as lecturers and demonstrators. The experts on physical medicine—which has proved its importance in the rehabilitation of the sick and disabled—include several internationally known specialists:

Frank Krusen, professor of physical medicine, Mayo foundation, and director of the Baruch committee on physical medicine; Richard Kovacs, professor of physical medicine, New York Polyclinic Medical school, and secretary of the American Congress of Physical Medicine; Stafford Osborne, associate professor of physical medicine, Northwestern University.

Also Robert Bennett, director of physical medicine, Warm Springs foundation, and vice-president of the American Congress of Physical Medicine; H. Worley Kendall, professor of physical medicine, University of Illinois, and president of the American Congress of Physical Medicine; A. Ray Dawson, assistant medical director, Veterans Administration; and James B. Menell, St. Thomas' hospital, London.

Mitchell Wildcat Permit Is Sought

Sun Oil company has filed an application with the railroad commission of Texas, requesting a permit to drill its No. 1 Ellwood Estate, as an 8,000-foot wildcat in south Mitchell county, 19 miles south of Colorado City.

It will be 680 feet from east and 1,980 feet from south lines of section 26, block 15, SPRR survey. Drilling with rotary tools will start by February 19. The projected destination of 8,000 feet is expected to take the venture into the Ellenburger.

After flowing steadily and consistently for 44 hours, Anderson-Prichard Oil corporation and the Viceroy Petroleum Co., Inc., No. 1 Foster, southeast Sterling county wildcat recovery, was still flowing. It was to continue to test for 48 hours and then start making new hole.

During the 44 hours the well made a total of 1,268.9 barrels of 28.5 gravity oil, through a three-quarter inch tubing choke. That was an average of 28.53 barrels per hour for the entire period it had been flowing on the current test. At that rate the well would make 681.92 barrels per day. The oil is coming from pay in the Wichita-Albany zone of the lower Permian at 4,252-4,343 feet. It is natural. Gas-oil ratio is around 120-1.

In the first 24 hours of the test the well made a total of 815.4 barrels of oil. That was an average of 34 barrels per hour. In the last 20 hours of the test, which had been reported up to now, the flow totalled 453.5 barrels of oil, or an average of 22.67 barrels per hour. No water has been developed. There is a cut of about one-tenth of one per cent sediment.

The new field opener is about seven miles south of Sterling City, and 660 feet from south and west lines of section 12, block 15, H&TC survey. It was originally started to go to approximately 8,500 feet to test the Ellenburger and it is slated to continue to that objective. If it should not find any better shows of production in any of the lower formations it will plug back and complete from the section which has already proven for commercial yields of oil and gas.

Cities Service Oil company No. 1 Collins, north-central Sterling county deep prospector, 660 feet from south and east lines of section 71, block 17, SPR survey, had reached 8,018 feet in lime and was fishing for lost tools.

It picked a tentative top of the Strawn lime of the Pennsylvanian at 7,978 feet, on an elevation of 2,385 feet.

Center is Leonard Coker, whose box at the Douglass Coffee shop was first in coin returns, and at right is Leonard Robinson whose Home Cafe box was second high. Cpl. Tyra and others on the Army recruiting staff performed yeoman service throughout the March of Dimes campaign, in way of publicity, manpower, etc. Coin containers over the city yielded $386.13, to bring the total local contribution to around $2,400, well under the goal of $4,000. ## WEEKLY OIL

South Texas Gets Synthetic Plants

HOUSTON, Feb. 14. — Synthetic gasoline is looking to South Texas for part of its future progress.

The Texas Company last week announced the Carthage Hydrocol, Inc., plant (with the Texas company owning 38 per cent of the stock) is to open next year at Brownsville.

Carthage hydrocol will produce 7000 barrels of synthetic gasoline daily through its complicated and expensive process of turning natural gas into synthesis gas.

L. C. Kemp, director of Texaco research, in announcing the Brownsville plant figures during a New York interview, said that within 10 years the United States should have 50 such plants producing 350,000 barrels a day.

Carthage hydrocol will use 280,000,000 cubic feet of air and 90,000,000 cubic feet of natural gas daily.

Kemp pointed out that economists estimate the hydrocol process will make 163,000,000,000 cubic feet of natural gas available for synthetic gasoline. This is the equivalent of 16,300,000,000 barrels of crude oil and would supply the United States with its gasoline requirements for nine years at the rate of 1946's demands.

While still expensive, the hydrocol process, Kemp reports, reduces investment costs to one-third of the process used by Germany in making synthetic gasoline and reduces operating costs to one fourth.

Texas last week had pulled away in Washington.

This time no punches were pulled while testifying in favor of the Ritzley-Moore bill which would limit the Federal Power commission's jurisdiction to interstate transportation of natural gas and leave production and final use of gas to local regulation.

The bill, passed by the House during the last regular session of Congress, is being considered by a senate sub-committee.

Testified Rex G. Baker, general counsel for Humble Oil: "The commission's regulation of natural gas producers would be a dead hand placed upon the industry and in time would sound its death knell."

Said Paul Kayser, president of the El Paso Natural Gas company: "The present F. P. C. rules which allow the pipe line company producing gas a 6 to 6 1-2 per cent return of actual cost of production properties, less depreciation and depletion, in effect strips gas of its value as a commodity and gives it to the public. This is going further in public utility regulation than any other precedent known in the United States."

Kayser, whose company is constructing facilities to market more than 450,000,000 cubic feet of natural gas daily as far west as California, said more than 300,000,000 cubic feet will be residue gas produced along with oil and formerly wasted by flaring.

Wildcatting — Humble Oil has staked a 12,000 foot Ellenburger wildcat a half mile south of its No. 1 J. M. Parrott well in the upland pool of southeastern Upton county and three miles northeast of Slick-Urschel Oil No. 1 D. L. Alford Plymouth in the recently opened Benedum pool. . . Slick-Urschel-Plymouth's D. L. Alford, producing from 11,885 to 11,985, the deepest producer in West Texas, is the subject of an article in the current issue of Life magazine. . . a fire at Seaboard Oil's No. 1 Powers wildcat, 25 miles north of Refugio, was raging out of control last week to bring the lower Gulf coast area its worst oil well blaze in a decade. . . H. R. Cullen, Houston oil man and philanthropist, has staked an 8500 foot wildcat test in Victoria county.

Tulsa's Body Found Near His Wrecked Plane

BROWNSVILLE, Feb. 14. — The body of Fred Cooper of Tulsa, Okla., an oil field supply company representative was found near his wrecked plane today in Mexico, 43 miles south of Brownsville.

The plane wreckage was sighted by occupants of a plane who were searching for two other missing airmen who disappeared on a flight to Carmen, Mexico, last Tuesday.

Cooper cleared the international airport here on February 6 for Tampico, Mexico, enroute to Venezuela. He had not been reported missing. He is survived by his wife and a daughter.

Jeeps of an Army search and rescue party left here today to return Cooper's body.

The search plane was manned by CAA Inspector Lewis C. Kalsche of Brownsville and Lt. R. C. Carver of Biggs Field, El Paso, a member of an Army search and rescue squad which is searching for Neil Womack, Brownsville, and Esteban de Leon, Matamoros, Mexico, missing since last Tuesday.

TEC Completes Aptitude Tests To 1,136 Texans

AUSTIN, Feb. 14. — The Texas Employment commission gave a complete series of general aptitude tests to 1,136 Texans, many of whom revealed unexpected talents.

Whether the results of this small sampling of the state's seven million inhabitants is an indication of the aptitude of the entire state, commission analysts would not say.

Because one individual might show potential talents in several different fields, the classification of results is made by aptitude rather than by individuals.

This was the breakdown of aptitudes for the 1,136: 487 for helper jobs in mechanical work; 229—computing or general recording work; 252—radio repairing; 285—typing, typesetting and hand composing; 475—combustion engine and aircraft equipment repairing; 77—engineering drafting.

Also, 441—routine recording work; 572—metal structural, electrical, mechanical or optical unit assembling; 525—tool grinding; 315—electrical unit assembling; 534—processing metals or cutting stone; 265—routine clerical work; 531—hand machine operating.

IN HARLINGEN OPEN

Tempers Flare As Lloyd Mangrum Grasps Lead

HARLINGEN, Feb. 14 (AP)—Debonair Lloyd Mangrum of Chicago ripped the 6,045-yard Harlingen municipal course with an eight-under-par 63 today to shoot into the lead in the Lower Rio Grande Valley $10,000 Open at the three-quarter mark.

Displacing Jimmy Demaret, the singing man from Ojai, Calif., who led at the start of today's round with 129 and skidded to a one-over-par 72, Mangrum brought his 54-hole total to 196. Demaret fell into second place at 201.

The finish of the leaders climaxed a day of bickering among the players over the rules situation and at one time two of the pros came to blows but, however, in no way related to the general turmoil that has taken over the tournament.

The two pros figuring in the brief flurry were N. G. Von Nida of Sydney, Australia, and Henry Ransom of Ravenna, Ill., former-Texan. Ransom claimed Von Nida told him he should be charged an extra stroke on a hole for tapping the ball before putting. Ransom said he did not tap the ball. Hot words passed between them then and later they renewed the argument near the scoreboard. They wrestled around on the ground until other pros separated them.

The bickering started yesterday after some protests over leaving up the ball in the opposite fairway and of improving the lie. George Schmitter, chairman of the PGA tournament committee, said the rules were not clear—that those on the back of the score-card and those on a supplementary sheet did not jibe.

The committee last night held that no one should be disqualified.

but that winter rules would be discarded today. Lawson Little of Cleveland, chairman of the rules committee, said today he had resigned. Schmitter said a general meeting of the pros would be held tonight to try to iron out the situation.

Mangrum missed an eight-footer that would have given him a birdie on No. 16 and a tie of the competitive course record of 62 set by the Harlingen Municipal Course Pro Tony Butler. He had eight birdies on his card and said the eight-footer on No. 18 was the only putt he had missed at that distance during the round.

Demaret started out by going over par on the first two holes and never could whittle it down. At Smith of Winston-Salem, N. C. shot a 66 today to move into third place with a total of 203. Next in line were Bob Hamilton of Evansville, Ind., and Clayton Heafner of Charlotte, N. C. who were tied at 204.

Thirty-five of the field of 71 bettered par 35-38-71 today. The final 18 holes of the tournament with $20,000 first money will be played tomorrow.

Ransom and Von Nida, who figured in the fistcuffs, were both among the 20 leaders—Ransom with 207 and Von Nida with 209. Ransom was tied for ninth place and Von Nida for seventeenth.

The Leaders: Lloyd Mangrum, Chicago, 133-63-196. Jimmy Demaret, Ojai, Calif., 129-72-201. Al Smith, Winston-Salem, N. C., 137-69-203. Bob Hamilton, Evansville, Ind., 136-68-204. Longhorn Heads Large Field Due To Meet Sunday At Tournament

Longhorn League baseball fans are due to learn next Sunday whether they will watch eight teams perform during the 1948 season or continue with the six units which composed the loop a year ago.

A league meeting has been set for 2 p. m. Sunday at Abilene, and one of the first items on the agenda concerns the question of expansion. Another important matter to be considered is a playing schedule for the 1948 season. League officials have prepared schedules for both six-club and eight-club circuits in order to proceed with that part of the business without delay, regardless of developments on the expansion question.

Actually, possibilities of expansion appeared remote at the end of the week. Syracuse University has just constructed its own ski tow and jump for the 684 students enrolled in Orange ski school.

Women keglers from a dozen West Texas cities will descend upon Big Spring Feb. 28-29 to take part in the first annual Wear-Ever Aluminum invitational bowling tournament, a WIBC sanctioned show which will be held in the West Texas bowling center.

Entries have been pouring in steadily to Jack Y. Smith, tournament manager, and indications are more than 50 of the women pin-toppers will enter the meet. Participants can take part in any or all of three different events—singles, doubles and team play and will be classified according to their handicap.

Entry fee for the team event is $12.50 while the levy per person for each event is $2.50. No entries will be accepted after Feb. 25, Smith has announced. Trophies will be awarded winners in each class of all events. Two of the pre-tournament favorites are Vera Dozier and Mary Ruth Robertson, a local mother and daughter combination.

PIERRE LABELLE - - - Combats Funk

Rematch Of AC Villians Set For This Week

The two "meanest men alive," Rod Fenton and Leon Kirilenko of Montreal, Canada, and Moscow, Russia, respectively, come to grips again in the main event of Monday night's Big Spring Athletic club grapple show.

Fenton and the Mad Russian pumelled one another for the better part of an hour last week and settled exactly nothing. They buffed and they puffed and threatened to blow Promoter Pat O'Dowdy's house in only to wind up behind the referee's eight-ball.

The arbiter, who happened to be George Lopez, sent both of them to the showers when they fell through the ropes and fought each other up and down the aisle.

This week's preliminary match should be a lulu. The duel pits Pierre LaBelle, a nice-looking Frenchman, against muscular, pleasant Dory Funk, the Hammond, Indiana, adonis.

The crowd may have a hard time choosing a favorite in that one since both boys have "caught on here. Sentiment, no doubt, will be fairly evenly divided. Funk has perhaps been the more successful locally and may enter the ring a slight favorite.

The kickoff occurs around 8:15 o'clock.

Mordecai Brown Death Victim

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Feb. 14 (AP)—Mordecai Brown, who had but three fingers on his pitching hand to use in making one of the greatest records in baseball, died today.

The 71-year-old veteran of the major leagues had been ill since he suffered a stroke a year ago. His death was attributed to diabetes.

Once the anchor man of the Chicago Cubs' pitching staff, Brown began and ended his professional baseball career here. Coming out of the Indiana coalfields, where a mining accident cost him two fingers, he joined the Terre Haute Three-I league team in 1901. Eighteen years later, he came back from the big time to manage his home-town club in 1919 and 1920.

The Cubs took notice when the "three-finger" artist shut them out in his first major league appearance with the St. Louis Cardinals in 1903.

For his entire career in the majors he won 239 games, lost 131. In 1908 Brown climaxed his many mound duels with another immortal, Christy Mathewson. "Three-fingers" gave the giants two runs and then won the pennant playoff, 4-2.

Born in nearby Nyesville, Ind., Brown broke into baseball in 1898 as a third baseman with a Coville semi-pro team of miners. When the pitcher fell and injured his arm, Brown got his chance on the mound. His 9-3 victory so impressed the losers from Brazil, Ind., that they "signed me up for more money."

After leaving professional baseball, Brown managed a semi-pro team. Later he returned here and opened a filling station, which he operated until three years ago. The funeral will be held here Tuesday.

Abilene Edges Big Springers In 3AA Setto

ABILENE, Feb. 14—A home court jinx endured as the Abilene Eagles trounced the Big Spring Steers, 29-27, in a 3AA district basketball game played here Friday night.

Following the outing, Coach Johnny Malaise of the Big Springers said his club played one of its best games of the year. The going was close and spirited all the way.

The Steers were in front, 27-26, in the last three minutes of play when Burl Troutman hit from the corner for Abilene.

Troutman was fouled a moment later and made good his gratis pitch to clinch victory for the home club.

Big Spring held an early 7-2 lead but the War Birds came on to tie the count. The Flock was in front, 15-12, at half time.

Abilene increased its margin to 20-12 immediately after play was resumed but the guests clamped down and suddenly broke into the lead, 23-22.

The victory enabled the Eagles to tie the Steers for the league lead and all but assured them of a finish at the top. They were to play Lamesa Saturday night while Big Spring winds up its season with Midland at home Monday.

The Big Spring Dogies captured a 35-32 decision from the Abilene B string in the opener.

Table with columns: Name, FG, FT, PF, TP. Rows include Turner, House, Bailey, Madison, Berry, Row 2, Little, Totals, ABILENE (29), Landrum, Chambers, Row 1, Row 2, Weath, Holland, Hiram, Reece, Totals, ABILENE (33), Biller, Bird, Anderson, H. Before moving to Yale and more recently to the University of Washington as head football coach, Howie Odell was on the grid staff at Pitt, Harvard, Penn and Wisconsin. He is 37.

Coaches Convene Here Today To Decide On Tourney Site

Four Schools Represented

Site of the 1948 District 21B basketball tournament, scheduled to be run off next Friday and Saturday, will be decided at a meeting of school officials at the Settles hotel at 2 p. m. today.

Big Spring, Abilene, San Angelo and Odessa will be represented at the session, those schools having clinched places in the Shaughnessy playoff.

Johnny Malaise and Walter Reed will attend the meeting as local delegates. Johnny Klick, San Angelo; Jake Bentley, Abilene; and Gail Smith, Odessa, are others expected.

Big Spring is in line for the annual show but Coach Malaise expressed some doubt that the other coaches would agree to come here because of the limited seating capacity of the local gymnasium.

Abilene hosted the tournament two years ago while San Angelo was the scene of last year's meet. Officials for the hoop conclave will also be selected at today's parley.

Fems To Oppose Midland Tuesday

Arah Phillips' Big Spring high school girls volleyball team play their first home game of the season here Tuesday night when they meet the Midland Bulldogs. Game time is 8 o'clock.

Midland defeated the locals in their lone meeting last year, 30-17, but lost their star spiker, Joyce Beasley, via graduation.

The locals were hit hard by graduation, too. Five of Miss Phillips' departing with sheepskins. Only Capt. Virginia Costello is a hold-over.

Co-Captain Dot Wasson, Dot Caudle, Patsy Morales, Pattie Miller and Charlene Perkins will start the game along with Virginia. Miss Caudle was ineligible last year.

The locals lost a first stringer earlier in the week when Pearl Mae Clanton underwent an operation for appendicitis.

Big Spring will return the game Feb. 24. Miss Phillips' team is entered in the Water Valley tournament, which takes place next weekend.

ASSAULT SCORES IMPORTANT VICTORY; ARMED DEFEATED

MIAMI, Fla., Feb. 14 (AP)—El Mono, a $99.80 for two shot, captured the $25,000 added McLennan Handicap at Hialeah race course today in a photo finish while heavily favored Armed ran third.

In the preceding race, King Ranch's Assault made a successful winter season debut by winning a $5,000 Overnight spring by a head.

The largest crowd of the winter meeting so far, 21,995, turned out to see the Calumet Farm's champion lose the 14th running of the McLennan to Daniel Lamont's El Mono and Circle M Farm's Rikolater.

El Mono, which has shown well in sprint events, was never figured as a threat to the mighty Armed in the mile and furlong fixture. But the chestnut speedster came from last position of the nine starters to finish a head in front of Rikolater in a camera finish. Armed finished a length behind the winner.

King Ranch Trainer Max Hirsch said he was "very satisfied" with Assault's initial showing this year. Although the bay racer, third ranking money-earner of all time, finished only a head in front of Mrs. Helene K. Haggerty's Rampart. As in the McLennan, the winner was decided in a photo finish.

Jockey Warren Mehrens, who piloted Assault, said his mount could have "won by as far as I wanted him to." I had plenty of horse under me.

Track Officials Are Selected

M. R. Turner and John Albers, both of Coahoma, were named general director and athletic director, respectively, for the District 20B track and field meet at a session of officials held Friday night in Sterling City.

The 1948 show will be staged at Steer stadium in Big Spring, if proper arrangements can be made, either the first or second weekend in April.

Seven schools will send representatives to the meet. They are Stanton, Coahoma, Knott, Garden City, Forsan, Courtney and Sterling City.

EUROPE UNION TALKED
U. S.-Red Relations May Grow Worse

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14. (AP)—Relations between the United States and Russia are expected by American officials to go from bad to worse during the next three to six months. After that, these U. S. diplomats say, they may get better.

Within a year or so, some advisers to Secretary of State Marshall report, there is a hope for easing up the differences between East and West.

Spring seems certain to these cause of efforts of the western powers to unify western Germany. To reorganize the economies of the Marshall plan countries; To form—with American backing—a western European union.

The central issue in the crisis is the Marshall plan for the European recovery. Until the state department knows how that project will fare finally in Congress its analysis of the months immediately ahead remains largely speculative.

However, the substance of the multi-billion dollar program has been approved by the Senate Foreign Relations committee. There are other evidences, too, which raise official hopes for an ultimate congressional action. So the diplomacy of Marshall and his staff of foreign service experts is taking sharper form around the recovery plan.

Marshall revealed in his speech at Des Moines last night that he regards British Foreign Minister Bevin's proposal of a "western European union" as the ultimate capstone of what he would like to see come about in Europe.

This public endorsement of the Bevin plan is expected to speed up and widely encourage the efforts of the Europeans to break down traditional political and economic barriers.

Charges Are Filed Against Local Man
PALM BEACH, Fla., Feb. 14. (AP)—Fabulously wealthy Winthrop Rockefeller and his bride, the daughter of immigrant Lithuanians, spent their honeymoon night within a three minute drive of their marriage place and today were off on a Florida honeymoon trip.

Rockefeller and the former Mrs. Barbara Sears, married in the first minutes of this St. Valentine's day, drove only as far as the Palm Beach Biltmore hotel to spend the rest of the night.

The 35-year-old Rockefeller, one of the heirs to the millions of his grandfather, John D. Rockefeller, and his pretty blonde bride, 31, were married at 11:14 (CST).

The Rev. Winslow S. Drummond, pastor of the West Palm Beach Presbyterian church, performed the ceremony.

The newlyweds planned to slip quietly away later today for an undisclosed honeymoon spot. They plan to be gone about 10 days.

Steelworkers Are Drafting Demands
PITTSBURGH, Feb. 14. (AP)—Philip Murray and other top strategists of the CIO-United Steelworkers union began conferences here Monday to draft new wage demands.

No tentative wage increase figure has been disclosed. Union spokesmen ridiculed any suggestion they would be influenced by the slump in the commodity markets and recent price decreases in some grocery lines. One source said it was too early to tell if the price drop would be permanent.

A steelworkers executive board meeting Monday will be followed on Wednesday by a session of the wage policy committee. The executive board consists of international officers and district presidents. The wage policy group is made up of representatives from unions in all 36 districts. The wage policy committee must ratify the plans of the executive board but that approval has been a mere formality in recent years.

Odessa Charged In Fatal Shooting
ODESSA, Feb. 14. (AP)—District Attorney Martelle McDonald today filed a charge of murder against Dennis Randel, 41, in the fatal pistol shooting last night of his twin brother, Dallas Randel.

The shooting occurred in a tavern about two miles from here at 9:30 p. m. Dennis Randel was released today under $10,000 bond. Deputy Sheriff George Bosley said Dallas Randel was shot at close range with a .38 caliber revolver.

Attempts Made To Save Marines
SHANGHAI, Feb. 14. (AP)—An attempted rendezvous with the Chinese communist failed to obtain release of four captive U. S. Marines, but new efforts are being made by means of air-dropped leaflets, it was learned today.

Man Pleads Guilty To Armed Robbery
L. P. Shoup entered a plea of guilty to armed robbery in 70th district court Friday afternoon and was sentenced to serve five years in the state penitentiary by Judge Cecil C. Collings.

Shoup was accused of holding up a California resident in a taxi-cab west of town several months ago. He had been free on bail.

McKeever Given Southwestern Official Okay
Royalty Gives Third Dividend

CHICAGO, Feb. 14. (AP)—The All-America football conference, opening its winter meeting, today re-elected Jonas Ingram as commissioner.

A third dividend for the past fiscal year was declared for stockholders of the Southwestern Royalty company, at the eighth annual meeting held at the Settles hotel Saturday evening.

The latest dividend was 10 per cent. Earlier in the year there had been dividends of six and eight per cent.

At the stockholders session, the following were named as directors: B. F. Robbins, Mrs. B. F. Robbins, R. T. Piner, S. M. Winham and Charles Ebberson of Stanton. Officers elected were Robbins as president; Fred Keating, first vice president; Judge Storey of Stanton, second vice president and Winham secretary-treasurer.

Organized eight years ago as a $25,000 corporation, Southwestern Royalty has some 16 stockholders. It holds royalties spread through Glasscock, Howard, Mitchell and Scully counties, with at least one producing well on each parcel. New development during the past year, plus some sales accounted for a good profit record, Robbins reported.

Porkers Again Humble Frogs In Fayetteville

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark., Feb. 14. (AP)—Arkansas defeated Texas Christian university, 47 to 38, here tonight to sweep a two-game Southwest Conference basketball series.

T. C. U. took the lead early in the game and held it for nine minutes, at one stage being four points ahead. The Frogs had regained a two-point lead at halftime.

Shortly after start of the second half, the Razorbacks jumped ahead and led thereafter. Their widest margin was 12 points approximately three minutes before the game's end.

The Frogs held Arkansas Center George Kok below his usual point total, but he still led in individual scoring with 16 markers. Brock Jerrell led the visitors with 10 points.

Airline Schedules Undergo Shake-Up

Airline schedules in Big Spring were undergoing a general shake-up here this weekend, with changes in departure time ranging from as much as two hours to as little as two minutes.

Eastbound flights by American Airlines ships will depart at 1:15 p. m. and 7:31 p. m. under the new schedule, which advances the latter flight two hours ahead of the previous schedule. Westbound flights have been announced by American at 9:45 a. m. and 6:20 p. m. each day.

Pioneer Airlines advanced early morning flights an hour with the following results: Eastbound, 7:47 a. m. and 7:07 p. m., westbound, 9:59 a. m. and 9:18 p. m.

Continental Airlines had only mild changes of a couple of minutes, making the northbound flight depart at 9:16 a. m. and the southbound flight at 8:14 p. m.

Capt. Ivan R. Olson, veteran pilot for Continental Airlines, who is well known among airport personnel and others in this area, recently completed 20,000 hours of flying. He also is rounding out 10 years of service with Continental today, and has piloted ships for airlines for 17 years.

Capt. Olson received his first pilot's license in October, 1924, and the document was signed by the late Orville Wright, airplane inventor and pioneer in air transportation who died two weeks ago.

During his career, Capt. Olson estimates that he has travelled two and a half million miles in the air. He formerly flew Continental ships through Big Spring before transferring to another division.

Killed By Machinery

SILSBEE, Feb. 14. (AP)—J. C. Fregia, 23, was killed yesterday when he became entangled in machinery at Honey Island while working for the Kirby Lumber Co. His body was badly mangled and he was dead when removed from the machinery.

Frozen pork will be fine in flavor if used within five or six months of the date stored, advises the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

SA Service Units Formed

Salvation Army Service units were organized at Odessa, Midland and Lamesa during the past week, Capt. Olvy Sheppard announced Saturday.

At Odessa Capt. Sheppard, assisted by Dan Eddy, field representative from Dallas, made arrangements. An emergency group committee for local administration of the unit is in the process of organization.

An organization was completed at Midland Thursday, with Judge C. C. Keith, chairman, Delbert Downing and Ralph Barron, treasurer. Funds amounting to $1,500 have been designated for the service unit by the Midland community chest.

At Lamesa Judge Kilmer Corbin is chairman, M. E. Boren, treasurer, and Matt McCall a board member.

Sheppards Leave For SA Meeting

Capt. and Mrs. Olvy Sheppard for the Salvation Army left Saturday for Dallas where they were to attend a three-day conference with Lieutenant-Commissioner Albert Chesman, new territorial commander for Salvation Army.

Officers of the organization from throughout the state were to attend.

The conference agenda was to include discussion on operational problems, finances, prison and parole program and public relations.

Another matter which was expected to claim attention was division of Texas service units into four areas.

Gerald Kaver May Win Mile From Dodds

GERALD KAVER
... a 4:04 miler?

STATE COLLEGE, Pa., Feb. 13. (AP)—Watch out, Gil Dodds, Penn state's miler, Gerald Kaver, figures to outrace you one of these track days.

That startling prediction comes from 43-year-old Ray Conger, a top miler himself in 1929-32 when he ran for Iowa State and the Illinois A. C.

Conger says Kaver possesses "the speed and class to run a 4:04 or 4:05 mile."

But he's not sure when, except that it'll be "sometime before the indoor season ends."

Dodds currently holds the national indoor record of 4:5.3 for the 1,760 yards. He set that mark at Madison Square Garden this year.

Conger, whose best mile was a 4:13.6 endeavor, points out that the Boyertown (Pa.) Dutchman is a slow starter but a fast finisher.

That's exactly opposite to the Dodds pace. The Flying Parson runs a fast half-mile, piles up a blistering third quarter, then more-or-less coasts in at the finish.

"Some day soon," says Conger, a member of Penn State's School of physical education and athletics. "Kaver will stay with Dodds right down to the finish and beat him to the wire."

"It could happen anytime," adds Conger.

Trees Take Ride

FORT WAYNE, Ind. (U.P.)—Sheriff's officers were incredulous when someone telephoned that a "tree is moving down the state highway." They arrested Robert Holt, 24, on drunken driving charges. His car had trees protruding from the hood. He had left the highway to plow through a plum thicket.

Farm And Ranch Exhibits Campaign

MARSHALL, Feb. 14. (AP)—A campaign to shift the emphasis to farm and ranch exhibits at Texas fairs during 1948 has been undertaken by Oscar B. Jones, new president of the State Association of Fairs and Expositions.

Jones, also manager of the Central East Texas Fair and Livestock Exposition, said an active campaign will be conducted through newspapers and radio stations.

AT PLATE - WITH FOOD

BEST DEMO 'BATTERS' WILL TAKE A FEW CUTS AT THE REPUBLICANS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14. (AP)—The Democrats will send their best batters to the plate next week to take a few cuts at the Republicans.

The plate — with food on it — will cost each guest $100 if he attends the overflow Jackson-Jefferson day dinner in Washington Thursday night. Lesser sums are charged for the campaign chest in other cities.

President Truman will address the main dinner here. His words will be carried to other banquets across the country by radio.

Republicans had their innings the past week at Lincoln day rallies. They belabored the Democratic administration on both foreign and domestic counts.

A group of southern governors is expected to come to Washington soon to "lay their cards on the table" before National Chairman J. Howard McGrath. They are talking all kinds of reprisals if the party's national leaders refuse to abandon what they term "anti-southern" legislation.

Their chief threat, they say, lies in the power of the party groups in Dixie to put Anti-Truman elector slates on the November ballot. Senator Harry Byrd of Virginia may be asked to head such a ticket, says Democratic Chairman Herbert Holmes of Mississippi.

National party leaders, while upset, are hopeful that the southern tempers will cool on reflection that the only result of such a move, in their view, would guarantee election of a Republican president.

Good News For Folks Who Suffer From

- STOMACH GAS
- SOUR FOOD TASTE
- ACID INDIGESTION

Do you feel bloated and miserable after every meal. Have sour, bitter food? If so, here is how you may get blessed relief from this nervous distress.

Everytime food enters the stomach a vital gastric juice must flow normally to break-up certain food particles; else the food may ferment. Sour food, acid indigestion and gas frequently cause a morbid, touchy, fretful, peevish, nervous condition, loss of appetite, underweight, restless sleep, weakness.

To get real relief you must increase the flow of this vital gastric juice. Medical authorities, in independent laboratory tests on human stomachs, have by positive proof shown that 555 Tonic is amazingly effective in increasing this flow when it is too little or scanty due to a non-organic stomach disturbance. This is due to the 555 Tonic formula, which contains special and potent acting ingredients.

Also, 555 Tonic helps build-up non-organic, weak, watery blood in nutritional anemia—so with a good flow of this gastric digestive juice, plus rich red-blood you should eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better.

Avoid punishing yourself with over-eating of soda and other stimulants to counteract gas and bloating when what you do really need is 555 Tonic to help you digest food for body strength and repair. Don't wait! Join the host of happy people 555 Tonic has helped. Millions of bottles sold. Get a bottle of 555 Tonic from your drug store today. 555 Tonic helps build sturdy health.

Wedding Vows Are Exchanged Sat. By Julia Owens And Jake Hancock

Rev. Crandall Reads Ceremony

Wedding vows were exchanged by Miss Julia Odessa Owens of Lubbock, daughter of Mrs. J. F. Owens of Lorenzo, and Jake Hancock of Big Spring, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Hancock of Abilene, Saturday evening in Lubbock.

The single ring marriage ceremony was read in the First Methodist church by the Rev. E. H. Crandall before friends and relatives of the couple.

Baskets of white gladioli and greenery decorated the church. The bride chose to wear a mauve Charmaine gabardine suit styled with a cut-away jacket. Her accessories were black and she wore a green orchid corsage.

Mrs. Winston H. Martin, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and she was attired in a palomino suit with matching accessories. Her corsage was of blue iris.

Don R. Marshall of Abilene was best man.

Attending the wedding were Mrs. Sally Riley of Abilene and Winston H. Martin, of Lubbock.

Following a wedding trip to San Antonio, the couple will be at home at 107 Lexington street in Big Spring. For traveling the bride wore an imported tweed suit in Burgundy and matching accessories.

Hancock has been in business in Big Spring since February 1946. Mrs. Hancock is a registered nurse and a graduate of Lubbock Memorial hospital.

Mrs. Hancock was complimented with a tea given last week in the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Lattimore in Lubbock.

If frozen pork is stored too long the fat will gradually become rancid and the meat will lose its best flavor.

LEAP YEAR BIRTHDAYS

This is Leap Year and the Herald is anxious to learn of people who are among those rare individuals who have an honest-to-goodness birthday only once every four years. So if you were born on Feb. 29 or know of anyone here who was born on that date, please call Miss Billie Burrell at the Herald.

Primroses need abundant light in winter and do best at about 65 degrees. Too much watering rots them, but they should not be allowed to dry out.

Probers Believe Delinquents Being Detained, Not Trained

GATESVILLE, Feb. 13. (AP)—It's early to bed and early to rise at the Gatesville training school for boys, but does it make Jack a good boy?

Several members of the State Training School Code Commission came away from their inspection of the institution with the impression that merely keeping the juvenile delinquents busy from 6 a. m. until 8 p. m. is not enough.

The commission found that the delinquents "in training" here might more accurately be said to be "in detention."

Its visit here was the first of three such formal inspections undertaken in the task of studying the entire problem of juvenile delinquency and evaluating the state effort to correct it.

The commission has just barely started its work, and it has made no formal report on the school for boys, the first one to be visited. Most of its members are not yet ready to go on the record with their impressions or recommendations.

But on the basis of what they said informally, and on the basis of questions they asked the supervisors and inmates, it would be safe to say the members of this body are greatly concerned. Their concern was not over the administration, but the system the state is now using.

Several members put their finger on what appeared to be a basic weakness—little participation in vocational education.

They found only a few inmates, for example, in the school's simple automobile mechanics shop. Just a handful of the 385 boys were in the well-equipped carpentry shop, and few in the plumbing and tin-shop. Officials of the school explained that it is difficult—almost impossible—to find adequate vocational teachers for the salaries that are available. These would run from $80 to $100 a month, plus maintenance.

There seemed to be a full force in the bakery and the laundry, and there is plenty of work for the boys on the farm. The trouble here is, the commission was told, most of the Gatesville inmates are city boys. They aren't interested in farms, and don't want to spend their lives farming.

The inmate of Gatesville gets up at 6 in the morning, and most of the time he is in bed at 8.

He is kept pretty busy at work or in school during those daytime hours. Half at work. But the question the commission members asked was, does it all add up to much from the standpoint of rehabilitation? Are the inmates getting enough useful training to make them independent and self-respecting citizens when they leave the school?

The members of the commission are coming back individually for further studies. They want to go into the entire matter more thoroughly before they are ready to sit down and write out a bill of particulars to submit to the next legislature. They will follow the same process at the Gatesville Training School for white girls, and the Brady Training School for Negro girls. They are investigating all related matters, such as the code of laws which set up the system of treating juvenile delinquents, the manner of commitment to the institutions, what the state does if anything to follow up and keep track of "graduates" of the institutions, whether or not the state is appropriating enough money to try to reclaim wayward boys and girls.

Speeders Help Boost City's Court Income

Fines for speeding helped boost assessments in corporation court during the month of January, as city police launched a campaign of rigid enforcement of that section of the city traffic ordinance.

Total assessments for the month on all types of violations amounted to $3,355.50 which resulted from 216 arrests. Policemen issued 52 speeding tickets during the month, 49 of which drew fines ranging from $5 to $65 each while three were excused. Total assessments for speeding amounted to $810.

Twenty-five cases were transferred to the county for legal action, while 191 cases were heard in corporation court.

Fines collected totaled $1,912, while assessments aggregating $1,303 were laid out in the city jail and a total of $140 was pending at the end of the month.

Officers issued 141 regular traffic tickets for infractions charged to vehicles registered in Howard county and 35 from out of the county. Of those from this county, 83 paid fines, 27 were excused and 31 were pending at the end of the month. Nine from out of town paid fines, seven were excused and 19 were left pending.

Laredo Will Honor Hero

LAREDO, Feb. 13. (AP)—Mount Vernon was never like this, but George Washington undoubtedly would be pleased at the plans they are making to celebrate his 216th birthday down here on both sides of the border.

A three-day celebration—the birthday celebration association has marked the event—in the making.

Pocahontas will lead the closing pageant. George and Martha Washington (their real identities a close-kept secret) will head another pageant and a colonial ball.

A bullfight will highlight the celebration in Nuevo Laredo, on the Mexican side Sunday, Feb. 22.

Gov. Beauford Jester of Texas and Gov. Garate of the state of Tamaulipas, Mexico will be among dignitaries honored at a cocktail party on the night of Saturday, Feb. 21.

The annual grand street pageant will be held Monday, Feb. 23. Headed by Pocahontas, it will include decorated floats, Indians, cowboys, cowgirls, lots of bands and military and school groups. A Mexican delegation will be welcomed by Texas hosts at the boundary monument on the international footbridge.

Stockmen from both Texas and Mexico will hold an annual grand ball at the Martin high school auditorium on the night of Feb. 19.

The annual Pan-American fair and livestock show was postponed again this year, because of the foot and mouth disease in Mexico.

TEXANS IN WASHINGTON

Army Official Must Think Texas Is Still A Republic

By Associated Press

Someone at army headquarters here must think Texas still is a republic.

Major Emmett L. Arnold of McAllen, who is stationed here, asked for a 30 day leave to visit Panama, with a stopover in Texas. He received an official communication of approval, with this paragraph included:

"This headquarters has no objection to Major Arnold leaving the continental limits of the United States to visit Texas and Panama."

Thirteen men soon will visit the Philadelphia mint, pick up an assortment of coins at random, then weigh and assay them.

That's an old and annual practice, to make sure that the hard money you carry in your pockets is sound. The assayers are paid only their traveling and other expense for a couple of days work. They're appointed by the President.

One of those the Treasury Department recommended to Truman for appointment is a Texan, U. S. Naval Capt. Oscar Henry Dodson. Senator Tom Connally appointed Dodson to the Naval Academy 20 years ago from central Texas.

As a hobby, Captain Dodson has studied the "Science of numismatics" and specialized in the collection of coinage of the United States, ancient Greece, Rome and China.

Douglas K. Ballentine of Ysleta, 34, for the past two years with the American diplomatic legation in Buenos Aires, has been nominated by the President for the title of vice consul.

He finished at the College of Mines in El Paso in 1937 and was a physical education instructor and surveyor before joining the state department. He was an army captain during the war.

Recently Rep. John Lyle of Corpus Christi received a telegram from his colleague, Rep. J. M. Combs of Beaumont, which read:

"Advise whether HR 2759 for consideration this week is Bulwinkle bill. If so prepare me against it. Plan to arrive Washington Saturday afternoon."

At first Lyle was puzzled as to how he could prepare, annoint or otherwise satisfy his friend. Then he figured out the telegraph operator had misunderstood Combs, who had asked Lyle to "pair" him when a vote came up on the railroad bill. Pairing is a means by which a congressman not able to be present in voting can line up another member who is forced to be absent and who holds opposite views, so each can know they would have offset each others vote had they been on hand.

A Wonderful Spirit For Any Business

Most people knew of Josephus Daniels because he had served in the cabinet and as an ambassador, and because his counsel was highly respected by presidents.

Not many were aware that his chief delight and vocation were found in publishing a newspaper in Raleigh, N. C.

Now Raleigh is a beautiful and fair-sized city, but certainly not a metropolis. Notwithstanding, Josephus Daniels gave a force and personality to his newspaper far beyond the degree warranted by his field. When editors began to pick up reactions from over the country, they usually had a look at what the News and Observer had to say. This was partly because it might have been Josephus Daniels talking, but more because he had been able to transmit some fundamental ideals into the functioning of that newspaper. Consequently, it was influential.

So when Mr. Daniels died, the disposition of the paper was naturally a matter of general interest. There was nothing out of ordinary in bequeathing the stock to his sons, but the charge which went with the legacy was sobering and enduring. Here is an excerpt from his will:

"It is my earnest desire and hope that the News and Observer shall be edited and directed by my descendants, though I do not believe the dead hand should attempt to control the living spirit. I recognize that no one can become a good jouralist who does not love the calling. For me the joy of work has been my chief happiness and reward, and I could wish the same to be true of my descendants.

"I have never regarded the stock I owned in the News and Observer as property but as certificates of trust to be administered for the common good of the people of North Carolina. I owe to their support and approval the success of the News and Observer. Its future depends upon complete devotion to the ideals that have characterized its course.

"I advise and enjoin those who direct the paper in the tomorrow never to advocate any cause for personal profit or preference. I would wish it always to be 'the voice of equality and justice to the underprivileged. If the paper should at any time be the voice of self-interest or become the spokesman of privilege or selfishness it would be untrue to its history."

The Atlanta Journal observed that the sons of Josephus Daniels "have been left certificates of trust to be administered for the common good of the people of North Carolina. It is an estate more precious than gold."

And whether it be newspaper, food store, blacksmith shop or what have you, the spirit of service which Josephus Daniels coveted for his business would be a wonderful spirit for all business.

"IF ANYBODY GETS HURT THIS TIME, DON'T BLAME ME"

Around The Rim—By The Herald Staff

Something New Added

The Herald in instituting, not particularly with the hope of attaining new eminence or even very many more subscribers, a new column, the first of which will appear Monday. Subsequent offerings will be in this same corner every publication day, unless, of course, there are those hindrances one chooses to call "Provisional."

It will be written, in rotation, by various members of the editorial staff. This, for two reasons: Nobody around the Herald office has the mental reservoir (yet) from which to extract six columns a week about nothing in particular; and secondly, it was felt that six writers might at least provide more variety than one.

"Around The Rim" is the title that has been given to this new production. Don't let it confuse you. It could have reference to the rim of the Great Plains which makes an arc around our town; it could be linked with, in newspaper jargon, the "rim" of a copy desk, around which sit sweating mortals toiling daily with such news events as come their way. Anyway, the title of the column doesn't make much difference.

There are to be no pretensions about "Around The Rim." Its creators will not attempt to be as dogmatic as Dorothy Thompson, as controversial as Westbrook Pegler, as sagacious as Walter Lippmann, as sensational as Drew Pearson, and certainly not as cute as Billy Rose. They may prove to be as futile as Walter Winchell, but they have hopes. . . .

The column may sometimes be entertaining, it might sometimes even be instructive, it might sometimes make you mad. The writers may feel silly, they may feel ornery, they may get a "chip off their shoulder." Their major hope is that they don't get altogether too boring, and that "Around The Rim" will be such to tempt you to keep "The Herald in your hands for a few minutes more reading each day than you have been devoting to the paper.

The Rimmers will certainly welcome suggestions from time to time from their readers, if any. So if you know about a six-legged loaf, or buried treasure, or a man who multiplies seven-digit figures in his head, or have a good recipe, or a method of getting rid of cockroaches, or of knowing in advance what the stock market is going to do, you might call The Herald office. Any Rimmer will leap to your suggestion, hoping to make a readable column out of it. Until the suggestions pour in, the subject matter is of their own choosing. Ladies and gentlemen of The Herald family — we give you "Around The Rim" . . . (fanfare).

Lessons In History On Military Training

By FRANK GRIMES
Herald Special Writer

Once at a moment of crisis in the life of a great nation, the chief executive officer of the nation wrote to the chief of a province:

"We are contending with an enemy who, as I understand, drives every able-bodied man he can reach into his ranks, very much as a butcher drives bullocks into a slaughter pen. No time is wasted, no argument used. This produces an army which will turn upon our now victorious soldiers already in the field. If they shall not be sustained by recruits as they should be. It produces an army not to be matched on our side if we waste time to re-experiment with the volunteer system, already deemed by Congress, and palpably, in fact, so far exhausted as to be inadequate."

This was a letter written by President Abraham Lincoln to Governor Seymour of New York, after the notorious draft riots in that state.

The Congress of the Confederate States had enacted a conscription law April 16, 1862, in recognition of the failure of the volunteer system. It took the Congress of the United States almost a year longer to resort to conscription, after the Union forces had suffered several serious setbacks.

All-out war demands the total resources of a nation, a fact General Washington realized in urging abandonment of the volunteer system early in the Revolutionary War. This country's first crude effort at conscription permitted the well-to-do to hire substitutes, and many hired deserters from General Burgoyne's army, a practice that brought a stern rebuke from Gen. Washington.

In 1880 was published a book called "The Military Policy of the United States," by Brevet Maj. Gen. Emory Upton, U. S. A., in which he said:

"It may be laid down as an axiom, based upon historical proof, that any government which ignores its rights to compulsory military service becomes more and more enslaved by depending solely upon voluntary service induced by gifts of money, land and clothing. . . . That neither voluntary enlistments based on patriotism, nor the bounty, can be relied upon to supply men for the army during a prolonged war. . . . That the draft, connected or not connected with voluntary enlistments and bounties, is the only sure reliance of a government in time of war."

Once before he wrote it and thrice after he penned these lines, Upton's conclusions were substantiated. Just as the Revolutionary fathers found the forced draft essential to victory, so did the U. S. and Confederate Congresses in the 1860's, and so did the U. S. Congress in World Wars I and II.

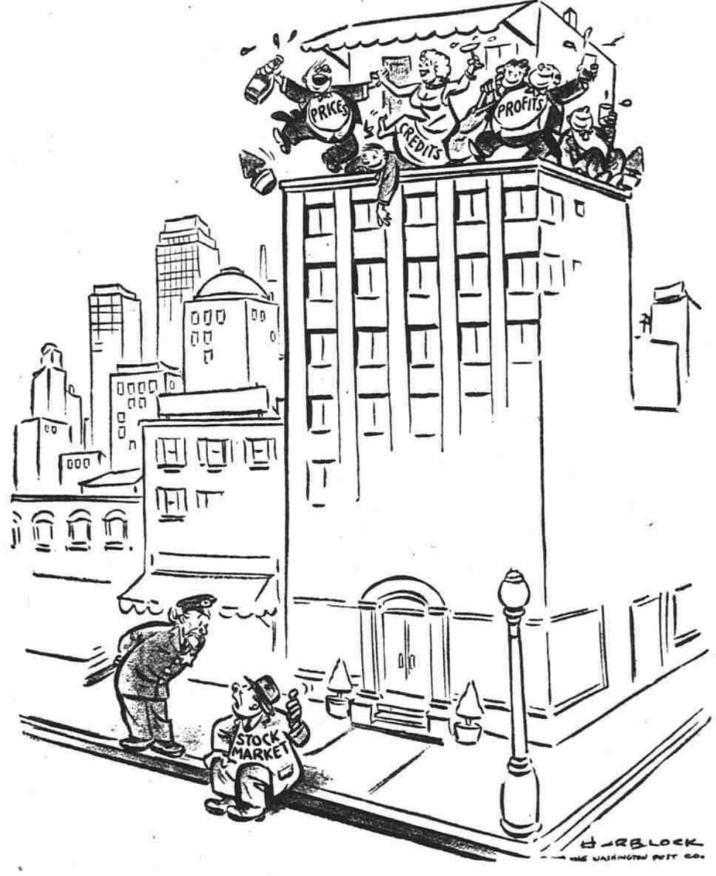

One thing is certain: In case of another war, conscription will be one of the first laws re-enacted. It is recognized today as the only democratic way to get manpower to defend the nation and carve out victory.

Yet congress today stalls and delays action on something that isn't conscription, although denounced by that name, but universal military training to prepare young men to take care of themselves and the nation should real conscription ever be necessary again.

U. M. T. isn't conscription because men called to training cannot be used as soldiers; they are not subject to military duty. They are trainees. Only re-enactment of the full selective service law could subject them to use as soldiers, along with all eligible males in the nation, trained or untrained.

On February 6, 1948, the Associated Press carried a dispatch from Warsaw saying that officials of the Communist Fighting Youth Organization had announced 4,500,000 boys and girls would be affected by Poland's new compulsory mobilization law. All boys from 16 to 21 are to receive compulsory military training. Girls must undergo vocational and physical training.

American youth may meet this cannon fodder at some future Armageddon. The question is, will American young men have to face it without any semblance of training and experience?

Washington Merry-Go-Round—Drew Pearson

Truman Tempted To Pull SEC Props

WASHINGTON—Boss of the Bronx Ed Flynn, who had a great deal to do with picking Harry Truman for vice president at Chicago, has a queer complex about liberalism. He has repeatedly urged Truman to appoint a Negro as Federal judge in New York in order to attract the Negro vote, yet he turns round and tries to undercut a government agency which protects the economic welfare of both Negroes and whites.

This is what the charming Ed was up to when he visited at the White House this week.

His visit was aimed at persuading Truman to appoint Paul Rowen of Boston to the Securities and Exchange commission, and simultaneously to make Ed Hanrahan of New York chairman.

On the surface, this sounds innocent enough. But below the surface, it happens that Hanrahan, already a member of the SEC, had come under the influence of Wall Street to such an extent that it's a foregone conclusion that as chairman he would try to throw overboard the Holding act, one of the greatest landmarks in FDR's battle against the big utilities.

It also happens that Rowen is pledged in advance to vote for Hanrahan for chairman.

Finally, it happens that Ed Flynn's law firm represents some of the best-paying firms along Wall Street. Nuff said.

Only other thing to do is watch and see whether Truman follows Flynn's advice. Inside word is that he's inclined to do so.

is so strong for Farley. Friends suggested to Tom Watson (International Business Machines and Eisenhower's political mentor) that Ike ran for governor of New York in 1950. This would get him back in the presidential race in 1952. Watson was noncommittal.

WHAT HAPPENED TO KAISER

Even on the stock market it's sometimes a fact that mighty oaks fall for little acorns grow. Take, for instance, the mysterious attempted stock flotation for Kaiser-Frazer automobiles.

On Feb. 2, Henry Kaiser, the big West Coast shipbuilder who had the nerve to invade Detroit to build automobiles, sat down with his bankers to iron out final details of a $17,000,000 stock flotation. Kaiser had successfully carried out his auto threat, was turning out 1,100 cars per day at the Willow Run plant, had made $5 per share during his first year of operation. He now wanted money to push production to 1,500 cars daily.

Participating in the conference were Otis and Co. of Cleveland, the First California company of San Francisco, and Allen and Co. of New York. Kaiser-Frazer stock, it was agreed, would be sold to the public on Feb. 4, at $13 a share but it was also agreed that to keep the price of the deal before Kaiser would buy his own stock at $13.50.

What Kaiser didn't know, however, was that Cyrus Eaton, head of Otis and Company, was going to tip off brokers to this fact. Supposedly this support agreement to keep the price at $13.50 on Feb. 3, the day before the stock flotation, was to be kept a strict secret.

But it wasn't. Furthermore, Eaton's telegram to brokers amounted to an invitation to them to dump Kaiser stock at $13.50 on Feb. 3 and buy it back for $13 on Feb. 4.

KAISER PAYS OFF

As a result there was a mad rush to sell Kaiser stock. Further result was that Kaiser had to shell out around $2,400,000 of his own money to buy his own stock. However, he kept his word. Grimly for one long day, he bought up his own stock at the rate of 500 per minute.

Otis and Company and the First California company, however, did not keep their word. As the time approached for these two underwriters to take over the Kaiser-Frazer stock they had pledged to sell, a Philadelphia lawyer, James F. Masterson, mysteriously brought suit against Kaiser. In fact, he brought the suit exactly 40 minutes before Otis and Company was supposed to pay up.

And what most people didn't know was that lawyer Masterson had previously been close to

Tinkling A Tuneful Past

NEW YORK, Feb. 13 (AP)—A bald-headed man called "Curly," who thirty years ago wrote hit dance tunes for Vernon and Irene Castle, is still tinkling a tuneful past for people who are homesick for yesterday.

He is Arthur N. Green, now billed as "The Man of a Million Melodies" but once known as America's dance king.

In his sixtieth year Curly pulses a battered piano in the Knickerbocker music hall, a Manhattan theater club. It features old-time songs, variety acts and "The Wayward Maiden," a satire on the old-fashioned melodramas.

Green has found pleasant anchorage in this last refuge of vaudeville, which is popular both with college kids and old-timers who come to shed an alcoholic tear over the songs of their youth.

"It's funny about the old tunes—they're like life itself," said Curly, whose fingers are a rippling anthology of the last half century of music. "They're popular for a while and then lose out. But every so often they come back again—as a new generation comes along to enjoy them."

Each night he lives over his life again as he tinkles out 200 to 300 tunes.

Few people now request any of the thirty numbers he wrote himself, except lonely beleaguered folks who call for "Hello Bill," the official lodge song. But more than three decades ago people in the streets hummed his now half-forgotten novelty, "If I Catch the Guy who wrote poor Butterfly."

And an America weary of the waltz turned eagerly to the new dance rhythms Green composed for the famous Castle team—"Tango Argentino," the first tango written in this country, "Innovation Tango," "Sans Souci," the "Half and Half" and "Ragtime Old Virginia Reel."

The death of Vernon Castle in an air crash in 1913 broke up his hit parade. Castle had been his close friend.

"For twenty years I couldn't write a note," Curly said.

He went into vaudeville with his wife. They were a featured act on the "four-a-day" circuits for years until something happened to vaudeville that shouldn't happen—even to vaudeville.

Green retired but he's back again now. He's turned out a new catchy dance tempo—"kind of a boogie-woogie with a rumba rhythm"—which he says is catching on in Harlem.

"Writing a melody is easy," he said. "I can do it in 15 minutes and base it on anything—a phone number, a car license, the figures on a dollar bill."

"But turning out a hit tune? There no rhyme or reason to that. Writing a hit song is like throwing dice—you can come up with a natural any time."

Green believes women may write the best American songs in the next generation.

"There've been only a few in the history of popular music," he said. "But women are turning more and more to new fields, and some are bound to put their thoughts in music."

I asked Curly if through the years he hadn't developed a phobia against familiar tunes he has played thousands of times.

"How can you dislike anything that has a melody?" he said.

One of his proudest memories is the day in 1917 when the late George M. Cohan stepped into a music huddle humming a tune he had just composed. He wanted it written down. Green volunteered.

"I think Cohan got the tune from listening to the railroad wheels that morning as he rode in," he recalled. "There wasn't a piano handy, so I just wrote down the notes as he hummed them."

The tune was "Over There." Green still has the original copy, signed by Cohan, in the scrapbook all show people keep to cheer them through the rainy days.

World Is In Need Of More Tolerance

Surely newspaper columnists must have been in mind when it was pointed out in the book of Proverbs that "the way of transgressors is hard."

Your columnist has had his knuckles soundly rapped by a reader for views expressed at the time of Mahatma Gandhi's assassination.

My reader critic demands how I explain that statement about Gandhi's life encompassing Christianity, "in the light of Exodus 20:3—Thou shalt have no other Gods before me?"

I'm too old a hand to get involved in technical religious arguments, being the son of a Methodist minister and thus knowing something of the pitfalls for amateurs. So I am going to stand pat and add a couple of stories about some little incidents which long have seemed to me to be an invitation to tolerance.

On my first visit to India a generation ago I was the guest of the late Maharajah of Bikaner, an Arabian prince among the greatest of the sub-continent's potentates. He was a grand gentleman who followed the highest moral code and insisted on the same from his officials and court. But his highness was a Hindu and through his own friendly connivance I saw him in a ceremony which probably no other non-Hindu ever had witnessed.

I saw him and his two little princes prostrated on the floor of the temple before a stone idol. I was shocked and troubled as I tried to weigh that sight against his grand morals. Then came that incident inviting tolerance.

The day I left Bikaner the Maharajah also was traveling by train to Delhi and he invited me to ride in his private car. We pulled out of the capital at sunset, and I stood by a window admiring the picture made by the golden rays striking across the city. Suddenly I became aware that the prince was on his knees in prayer, and when he arose he turned to me and said:

"I owe you an explanation. When I leave my capital I always pray God to keep my people safe, and bring me back to them again."

The story involves a northern great prince who also was a Hindu—the late Maharajah of Gwalior. He was good to his people and his morals were beyond reproach. You get a gauge of the man when you know that he established a famous boys' school in which lads of all religions, races and social standing were welcome.

There were in his capital a large number of missionaries and the Maharajah (an orthodox Hindu) not only raised no objections to their proselytizing but made things as pleasant for them as he could. He was fond of children and during my stay he gave a big garden party on the palace lawn for the missionary youngsters. The prince joined in the fun with some of the kids. As I stood watching this wholly happy picture an American missionary said to me:

"What a pity, Mr. MacKenzie, that his highness isn't a Christian."

That remark got under my skin. I gave him an answer which I probably should not have done, but I still let it lie where it fell:

"Well, if you don't spell it with a capital 'C' he seems to be a pretty good one to me."

Whereupon the missionary stalked away in indignation.

was a foregone conclusion that as chairman he would try to throw overboard the Holding act, one of the greatest landmarks in FDR's battle against the big utilities.

It also happens that Rowen is pledged in advance to vote for Hanrahan for chairman.

Finally, it happens that Ed Flynn's law firm represents some of the best-paying firms along Wall Street. Nuff said.

Only other thing to do is watch and see whether Truman follows Flynn's advice. Inside word is that he's inclined to do so.

MERRY-GO-ROUND

Alice Roosevelt Longworth, Bob Taft's best socialite booster, has a new word for Dewey. In 1944 she called him "the little man on the wedding cake." Now she says: "Dewey is a soufflé. He never rises twice." It was Alice who said of Calvin Coolidge: "He must have been weaned on a pickle." . . . biggest wearers of Wallace buttons are the colored people . . . that's why Democratic leaders privately have virtually given up New York state as lost, especially if Dewey runs. Wallace, they figure, will swing all the Harlem vote, and Dewey would take most of the New York city labor vote. . . . Tammany leaders are so glum about Truman's prospects in New York state that many have already decided to sit it out. They're more interested in 1949—the election for mayor of New York. Jim Farley is all for the Republicans when it comes to the income-tax and the Taft-Hartley bills. That's one reason he says he can't make too many political speeches now—it might be embarrassing. . . . It was Jim Farley who gave Senator Howard McGrath his first job as U. S. attorney in Providence, R. I. That's one reason McGrath

O'Brien, Busy Irishman

HOLLYWOOD, (AP)—You might call Pat O'Brien the busy Irishman. Here's an account of his current activities:

1. He is set for "The Harder They Fall," the film version of the Budd Schulberg novel. Starting date is undecided, as RKO fears there are too many fight pictures on the present market.

2. He is performing diverse chores in "The Boy With the Green Hair," in which he plays a middle-aged waiter. He'll sing three Irish songs, dance, juggle and do magic tricks.

3. He is working on three radio shows—a transcribed series of Damon Runyon stories, a weekly stint as a small-town druggist and a possible series with a circus background.

Bill Boyd has taken a rodeo to Hawaii and then plans to go on to Manila. The movie Hopalong Cassidy is enjoying his first experience as a rodeo star, and if all goes well, may take the show to Mexico City and Rio de Janeiro. . . .

Wanda Hendrix will star with John Lund in "The Tallock Millions," and Ilka Chase, Monty Woolley and Barry Fitzgerald are being sought for other roles. Incidentally, Wanda, who will be a full-fledged star after "Abigail, Dear Heart," is claimed to possess Hollywood's smallest waist—a mere 18 inches. . . .

MGM can expect June Allyson to adopt a firmer attitude toward the studio. Her easy nature has caused her to do several pictures she didn't like and she has been working too hard on "Three Musketeers." She has ammunition for a new attitude since the Photoplay poll named her one of the five most popular actresses.

Joan Leslie will be the last Brodell girl at home after her sister Betty married Joseph Franz in June. Joan tells me she is still married to her career and can't think of marriage. Which may or may not be a wise viewpoint. What do you think?

Explanation Of Commodity Market

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Hedging . . . speculating . . . selling short . . . buying long . . . futures . . .

This is an ABC of them. . . .

A commodity is wheat, or lard, or soybean meal, or eggs, or other things like those.

In commodity exchanges brokers buy and sell commodities for customers who pay them a fee for each deal.

So through these brokers people buy from one another without having any personal dealings at all.

The drop in commodity prices started in the exchanges, not in your grocery store.

There are two main kinds of deals you can make through a broker. Both of them are deals in "futures"—that is, commodities to be delivered at a set time in the future.

The two kinds are:

1. Speculation—You hope to make a profit by guessing prices will go up or down.

2. Hedging—This is a deal to protect yourself from a loss on some other deal you've made.

First, speculation—

There's one kind of speculation called "buying long." That's when you think wheat prices will rise because there's a demand for wheat.

You see May wheat futures—that is, wheat to be delivered in May—quoted today at a certain price. You think it will sell at more than that sometime before next May.

So you tell your broker to buy

May wheat. After that if the price goes up you sell and take your profit.

If the price goes below the price you paid, you wait. But if it's still down by May you're stuck. You have to sell at a price lower than you paid for it.

"Selling short." This is one by which you think prices will drop. You have no wheat at all.

But you tell your broker to sell for you 5,000 bushels of May wheat futures—wheat that doesn't have to be delivered until May—at whatever the May wheat price is today. Say $3 a bushel.

Then the price of May futures drops to $2.50 a bushel. Now you tell your broker to buy 5,000 at $2.50. Although you had no wheat to start with, now you have some.

So you sell this $2.50-a-bushel wheat in May for three dollars a bushel—since someone's agreed to pay that for it. Your profit: 50 cents a bushel.

But suppose you guessed wrong: You told your broker to sell for you 5,000 bushels of May wheat (which you didn't own) at $3 a bushel. But the price rose to $3.50.

You would have to buy 5,000 bushels at that high price of $3.50 to fulfill your agreement to sell at $3.

Hedging—

Say you're a flour maker. You need wheat to make flour. Instead of going to a broker, you go directly to a farmer and pay him $3 a bushel for 5,000 bush-you can't use the wheat right away, so you put it in a warehouse. If the price drops before you use it, the value of your wheat has dropped.

So, to protect yourself, you tell your broker to sell for you 5,000 bushels of May wheat futures.

Say they're selling at $3 a bushel, the same price you paid for the wheat in your warehouse.

From now on you don't figure to lose whether wheat prices go up or down.

First, suppose they go down—from $3 to $2.50. You tell your broker to buy you 5,000 bushels at $2.50 a bushel.

Remember, you have a deal to sell 5,000 bushels of May wheat at $3 a bushel. By buying it at $2.50 you make 50 cents a bushel.

But the value of the wheat you have in your warehouse has dropped from $3 to $2.50 a bushel. That's a 50-cent loss. So you break even.

Now suppose wheat prices go up instead of down—

After you've told your broker to sell 5,000 bushels at $3 a bushel, the market price goes up to $3.50.

You buy back your contract at $3.50 a bushel, thus losing 50 cents a bushel on this deal in May futures.

But the value of the wheat in your warehouse—you bought it at $3 a bushel from a farmer—now is $3.50 a bushel. You still break even.

You've protected yourself all around.

Today's Birthday

ROBERT R. YOUNG, born Feb. 14, 1897, zoomed to public attention through vigorous attacks on "antiquated" and "unwise" railroad practices.

He was born in Canadian, Tex., where his father was a banker. After two years at the University of Virginia, he launched himself as partner in a food dehydrating plant which failed. Joined General Motors. With a partner, he bought a "bargain" stock exchange seat in 1932. His biggest deal gave him control of the Chesapeake and Ohio, Nickel Plate and Pere Marquette roads.

Child Expert Says Texas Needs More, Smaller Training Schools

AUSTIN, Feb. 14. (AP) — More training school units and separation of juvenile delinquents in line with their deficiencies were suggested today to the State Training School Code commission as means of improving Texas' juvenile correction system.

Katharine Lenroot, chief of the U. S. children's bureau, offered the suggestion. At the same time, she said the commission should recognize that the commission can not make "radical proposals" that would involve the state in impossible expenditures.

She believed the commission, created by the 50th Legislature, could devise a plan that might be put in effect in the future if not immediately.

Texas training schools should be broken down into smaller units and located in various sections of the state so that parents will not have to travel far distances to visit their children, she said.

There are three institutions at present, one for boys at Gatesville, one for girls at Gainesville, and one for Negro girls at Brady.

Juvenile delinquents should be classified as to their deficiencies, separating the more able from those who need stricter attention, she advised.

The training school, code commission headed by Dean Leslie Jackson of the Baylor law school, Waco, met with representatives of social agencies in the state's House of Representatives to hear Miss Lenroot.

She described juvenile delinquency generally as "a symptom of a deep-seated illness." A hospital must be provided for an emotional ill as well as a physical ill. She observed.

State departments of public welfare have been found to be the best agency for administering training schools, Miss Lenroot told the group, adding that whatever agency handles the job should have the help of all other state agencies dealing with health, welfare, education, vocations and employment.

Texas training schools are administered by the board of control.

Jean Peters Takes First Starring Role In Ritz Attraction

Darryl F. Zanuck's presentation of "Captain From Castile" is set for showing at the Ritz theatre beginning today. Tyrone Power and Jean Peters, a newcomer, are given the leading roles in the Technicolor production.

In bringing Sameul Shellabarger's best-selling novel to the screen Mr. Zanuck wisely placed his bet on a sure thing, for few novels — even among the best-sellers — offer such a wealth of film possibilities as does this one. And to make doubly sure, Mr. Zanuck put some extra insurance on his project by entrusting Tyrone Power with the title role, assigning to Henry King the responsibility of direction, and by putting the production reins into the hands of Lamar Trotti who also wrote the script. In addition, Zanuck earmarked a budget generous enough to provide for photography in Technicolor, and to see the largest company ever sent on location into a foreign country through three and a half months of shooting in Mexico.

aristocratic Spanish family, who is forced by the Inquisition to flee his native land with vengeance in his heart for those who destroyed his loved ones, and a passionate determination to restore his family name to its former glory.

This is the story of Pedro de Vargas — a battle that catapults him into the ranks of history's boldest adventures as, under the shores of Mexico in search of gold and empire. And woven into the fabric of this saga is the love story of a spirited peasant girl who followed the Cavalier de Vargas through the dangers and hardships of the New World in search of a romance she didn't dare dream could ever come true.

On the screen, the story emerges in scenes of sweep and excitement. The horrors of the Inquisition; the pulsating excitement of Cortez' call to arms and glory; Pedro's indecision and his final plunge into a blind adventure; the intrigues within the army's ranks and Pedro's desperate encounter with the plotters; the invasion of Aztecs and the undercurrent of the fabulously rich land of the resentment that is to flare into fierce battle; the fiery romance of Pedro and Catana—these and tens of other facets of the story are brought to screen life against detailed and panoramic settings of beauty.

NEWCOMER — Jean Peters recent discovery, and Tyrone Power are shown above in a scene from 20th-Century Fox's "Captain From Castile," which opens today at the Ritz theatre.

DANGER — Jon Hall and Rita Johnson (above) have a moment of excitement in "The Michigan Kid," current attraction at the Lyric theatre.

20 Numbers In Circus To Show At Auditorium

A two-hour performance, with no less than 20 different presentations, is promised in the ABC-Clyde Brothers Circus, an indoor variety spectacle which is to be staged at the municipal auditorium March 9-10-11.

The local American Business club is sponsoring the engagement, and will use its share of the proceeds for its civic and welfare projects.

The Clyde Bros. show comes highly recommended as a circus of clean acts which are replete with thrills and amusement.

AB club members and associates have tickets on sale. In addition, reserved seats for the various performances will go on sale March 2 at the Cunningham & Phillips Main street store.

Happy Landing

INDIANAPOLIS (U.P.) — Mrs. John Snowden was at her kitchen stove preparing breakfast. The stove exploded and blew Mrs. Snowden across the room. She landed uninjured in her husband's lap.

Slogan For Smokers

ed in new glory through the Cinecolor process, expertly photographed by Virgil Miller, ASC., without sacrificing any part of the story.

Rex Beach's "Michigan Kid" concerns a hard riding, gunsure peace officer's attempt to defeat a powerful frontier underworld that has arisen in the West during his absence while fighting in the Sioux Indian Wars. In the process, he falls in love, involving his sweetheart in circumstances which almost brings death to both of them.

Jon Hall in the title role of the Kid, lives up to expectations of action fans as he cleverly outwits the desperados and their ruthless leaders, Victor McLaglen and Andy Devine. The latter give their usual season performances.

Rita Johnson sparkles in her role of the Kid's sweetheart.

Outstanding supporting performances are credits to Milburn Stone, William Brooks, and Leonard East.

One of Hollywood's action specialists, Ray Taylor, directed for Producer Howard Welsh. Roy Chanslor wrote the screenplay, with additional dialogue by Robert Presnell.

Toss In Towel

ATLANTA, Ga. (U.P.) — U. S. Post Office employees literally tossed in the towel when higher-ups ordered them to economize. The first casualty of the new economy program was the 1,400 workers' towel service.

Menace To Trees

KENT, O. (U.P.) — If you strew salt to melt winter ice from dangerous walks, make sure there's no seepage to roots of trees, warns D. C. Grove, chief field supervisor of the Davey Tree Expert Co. Salt may severely injure or even kill valuable shade trees.

Top Flight Talent Heads Technicolor Musical At State

Esther Williams, Jimmie Durante, Lauritz Melchior, Johnnie Johnston and Xavier Cugat and his orchestra head the cast for MGM's Technicolor musical, "This Time For Keeps," coming to the State theatre today.

The script revolves about two conflicts, one between an opera star and his crooner son; the other between a society girl and an aquatic queen, offers a tailor-made role for each of the stellar participants in the romantic comedy, with Esther Williams again in the water routines which first made her famous and Johnnie Johnston an attractive leading man singing away his love in such hit numbers as "Sno Wonder," "I Love To Dance," "I'll Be With You in Apple Blossom Time," "Easy to Love," and "Why Don't They Let Me Sing A Love Song."

Durante and Melchior, in the respective roles of Esther's bodyguard and Johnston's opera-star father, are the pair who at first contrive to break up the young romancers and then later plot to bring them together again, and each contributes enormously to both the comedy and melodic entertainment with Melchior singing "Easy to Love," the charming "Danish Children's Song," "Donna E Mobile" and "Ora E Per Sempre Addio," contrasted with such typical Durante ditties as "Ten Per cent Off" and his own inimitable version of "Why Don't They Let Me Sing A Love Song."

There is a flock of supporting talent in this stellar entertainment, with special applause going to Dame May Whitty for her amusing portrayal of a worldly-wise grandmother, singing Dorothy Porter, dancing Tommy Wonder, Sharon McManus, Dick Simmons and Mary Stuart. A hand must also go to Director Richard Thorpe and Producer Joe Pasternak for a perfect blend of music and merriment.

FUNNY MAN — Hap Kellern is the top clown with the Clyde Brothers circus, a variety indoor presentation which is to appear at the municipal auditorium March 9-10-11, under sponsorship of the local American Business club.

Snow Costs

NEW YORK (U.P.) — The Board of Estimate reported that the final cost to the city of clearing its streets of the record 25.8 inches of snow that fell on Dec. 26 came to $6,605,000.

Texas City Coverage Tops AP Contests

EL PASO, Feb. 14. (U.P.) — News and picture coverage of the Texas City disaster won top awards for Texas Associated Press member newspapers in annual contests announced here today.

The awards were made at the 37th annual meeting of the Texas Associated Press managing editors association, sponsor of the contests.

The news writing contests were judged by the American Press Institute, Columbia University, New York, and the picture contests by the photo editors of the Des Moines, Ia., Register and Tribune.

A special citation for community public service was sent to the Paris News for its campaign "fruit for all," a movement it sponsored for the planning of fruit trees. Recognition also was given the Beaumont Enterprise for its bond issue and charter campaigns and the El Paso Herald-Post for its investigation and crusade in a guardianship case.

In the picture contest there were two classes, those for photographers in cities of more than 50,000 population and those for photographers in cities under 50,000.

Jack M. Haynes, Big Spring Herald photographer, won honorable mention in the feature picture class for cities under 50,000. His print was entitled "Big Leaguer, 1965."

WEST TEXAS OIL
Sterling Strike Paces Activity

By JOHN B. BREWER
SAN ANGELO, Feb. 14. — Flowing of oil for 32 minutes at a rate estimated at 25 barrels hourly by a southeastern Sterling county wildcat on a drillstem test of the lower Permian lime topped West Texas oil developments this week.

Drilling of more Ellenburger pay and a heavier distillate flow by a northern Pecos county discovery drew locations for two nearby wildcats. Upton, Reeves and Hockley counties each listed a wildcat starter.

During the first five hours of a slated 72-hour flowing test, the Anderson-Pritchard Oil and Vickers Petroleum Co. No. 1 Marvin F. Foster, seven and a half miles south of Sterling City, averaged 41.26 barrels of 28.5 sweet oil. The section covered by the test is in the lower Permian between 4,232 and 4,343 feet, and flow is through a three-quarter inch choke. In order, flow was 42 barrels in the first hour, rose to 44 in the second and eased off to 36.6 in the fifth. Gas oil ratio was 107-1 the first hour, 118-1 the fifth.

No. 1 Foster is in the C SW SW 12-15, H&TC. Phillips has a diagonal southwest offset, Humble a south offset and Stanolind a west offset. The operators hold leases on 5,200 acres not in a solid block. Miss Foster, the land owner, has three and a half sections in the area.

C. W. Chancellor and Slick Oil Co. No. 1 Thornton Davis in Pecos county, which sprayed the first distillate on a drillstem test from 9,115-75 in Ellenburger entered at 8,790 feet, 6,310 feet below sea level, rated 26 barrels hourly from 9,275-9,330 feet. With only an estimated two-thirds the gauged 15,200,000 cubic feet of gas daily run through the separator, the later well yielded distillate at the rate of 28 barrels hourly. Gravity of the fluid dropped from 67 to 62.

Another drillstem test to 9,330 was scheduled before deepening. No. 1 Davis is in the C NW SE 105-8-H&GN, two miles west of the Pecos Valley shallow pool.

To hold leases expiring Feb. 14, Guy Mabree Drilling Co. staked No. 1 W. M. McEver, slated 10,000-foot wildcat, C NE NE 109-8-H&GN 1 1-2 miles to the south, and Standard of Texas spotted No. 1 Ethel N. Wick and others, proposed 2,500-foot, cable tool wildcat C NE NW of the same section.

Humble staked No. 1 Rosa Half Barnett, proposed 12,000-foot wildcat in Upton county C SE NE 4-Y-GC&SF, 3 1-4 miles northwest of Slick-Urschel and Plymouth No. 1 D. L. Alford, opener of the Benedum (Ellenburger) field. The test will be one-half mile south of Humble No. 1 J. M. Parrott, small short-lived pumper from the Pennsylvanian which stopped short of the Ellenburger.

Stanolind applied for a permit to continue deepening No. 2 Seth Campbell, Winkler county wildcat C NE SW 13-B5-psl, to 12,200 feet. A larger rotary was being installed with total depth 9,861 feet in Devonian lime.

A slated 4,200-foot, cable tool wildcat was staked in Reeves county by Taylor Refining Co. of Taylor, No. 1 Grisham-Hunter Corp., C SE SE 30-59-psl, 24 miles north of Pecos.

Ralph Lowe of Midland and others prepared to start No. 1 E. T. Roche, projected 5,500-foot, rotary wildcat in Hockley county to test the San Andres. The test is 440 feet out of the northeast corner of labor 28, league 26, Wharton county school land survey, five miles southeast of Levelland.

Ellenburger production in the Bedford (devonian and Ellenburger) field in southwestern Andrews county was given a short south-east extension by Shell and Texaco No. 8 Ratliff & Bedford. The well, C SE SE 4-74-psl, registered a daily flowing potential of 165 barrels of oil from pay topped at 1,120 feet, with total depth 11,377.

Shell staked No. 1 Lillie Collins C SE SE 4-A40-psl, one mile west and half mile north of Shell No. 1 Nelson, opener of the Nelson (Ellenburger) field in northwestern Andrews county was defined on the west by Champlin No. 1-D University, C SW SE 24-13-U, which encountered sulphur water in drilling to 10,070 feet. It is three-quarters of a mile from the Sinclair Prairie discovery.

The Barnhart (Ellenburger) field was extended northeast by Amerada No. 1-C TXL, C SW SW 235-1-T&P, flowing oil at a daily rate of 211.14 barrels from through casing perforations at 9,070-9186 feet after acidizing.
