R. V. Converse Says

Did you ever think of what all this talk of a changed condition after the war is over might mean to use in th eway of freedom?

In some broadcasts we hear of planned control of agriculture and planned control of agriculture and in others we hear that all are to be reduced to the same standard of living and that rationing is to be a thing to reckon with for many years. Then the president promises support for a pension system for service men that will include mustering outlay, and bet-ter living conditions for labor with jobs for all Just what this means is not quite clear, but it is clear that this will bring about gov-ernment control, or what the So-cialists have been shouting about for many years. In one place I have accumulated wealth as all would be on a common footing, so I am wondering what it all means and where it is all leading, and if what some radical leaders think is readily what you and I will think is good, better give it some thought and let congress know what you think the post war pe-riod should be like. in others we hear that all are to

Now they are talking of too much meat and not enough cloth-ing or plenty of coffee and sli-gar, but rationing of soap and li-quor. Won't we be in a mess with plenty of food, no clothes and nothing to drink. After a spell of that kind of living who would care what happened.

YOUR ELECTRIC REFRIGERATOR

MIDSUMMER heat means extra duty for your electric refrigerator. The hotter the weather, the longer and harder it works to protect your perishables and provide you with extra quantities of ice cubes, frozen desserts and cold drinks.

No matter how high the temperature soars, you can depend upon your economical electric refrigerator to provide constant, food-saving cold. And although it may be using a little more electricity now, the small added cost is far outweighed by the food savings it makes possible.

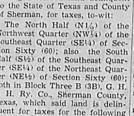

is working harder than e er now

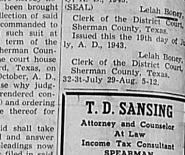

1	Defrost whenever frost reaches 1/4-inch thickness. Frost forms faster in hot weather.	N REFRIGERATOR CARE 5 Keep cold control at lowest settin necessary to assure safe temperatures
2	Open door only when necessary and close it quickly.	6 Use fast freezing sparingly. Return a normal setting promptly.
	Do not store hot foods. Let them cool first.	7 Don't overcrowd shelves. It hinders a circulation.
4	Cover all liquids. Moisture drawn to freezing unit speeds formation of frost.	8 Don't use refrigerator as a pantry Store only perishables and foods re quiring chilling.

BRENNER PASS: Axis Cracking Point?

Bolzano, with the Alps as a backdrop, is Italy's first sizeable city south of the Brenner Pass.

The Spearman Reporter, Spearman, Texas

Looking toward Italy at the Brenner Pass German-Italian frontier. Halfway mark on the Rome-Berlin Axis is historic Brenner Pass, and here have appeared the first signs of a crack in the Axis. Bren-ner, where Hiller and Mussolini frequently met, is both a funnel in the Alps through which German troops pass into Italy, and a bottleneck through which German troops pass into Italy, and a bottleneck through which they must go in the eventual retreat. The pass and the Po valley to the south are the subject of much talk in the rumor factories of Europe, with these reports emerging: Nazis are sending troops and materials through the Brenner to fortify a line along the Po; Germans are taking over cities like Milan, Turnin and Flume; Badoglio is resisting the new Nazi occu-pation and is sending troops to stop the inflow at Brenner; and the Germans are setting up headquarters at Bolzano, Italy, south of the pass. GOVERNOR STEVENSON'S PROCLAMATION URGES RETURN OF DEPOSIT BOTTLES. In the proclamation, just issued by Governor Stevenson, Texans are urged, during the month of August, to conserve the existing supply of returnable deposit bottles by returning them promptly to the dealers. Governor Stevenson's proclamation points out that the general public, by returning idle milk, carbonated beverage, and beer bottles, which can be sterilized for civilian re-use, will permit the glass industry to re-use even more of its facilities for the manufac-ture of glass containers for food, and other items, required by the armed forces at home and abroad. Mrs. Margaret McDuffie, the Governor's personal secretary, was photographed with him at the time the proclamation was signed.
