Oslo Community Awarded Special Honors In Statewide Contest

Oslo, located in the northwest part of Hansford County, was awarded an "Honorable Mention" certificate in the statewide community progress contest staged the past year by Farmer-Stockman magazine, a national farm magazine published at Oklahoma City. The honorable mention certificate was earned from a field of several hundred communities entered in the contest. This newspaper wishes to list the Oslo community as fourth, since three prizes were awarded, and several honorable mentions.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Johnson and Pastor Knudson of the Lutheran Church were each awarded medals of merit as result of their work in earning the certificate. Mr. Johnson was president of the community organization for community progress and Mrs. Johnson was secretary of the organization. Pastor Knudson was general supervisor of the activity during the year.

The Oslo community entered the contest with an outstanding handicap, the fact that the community was one of the outstanding of the nation so far as civic progress is concerned before entering the contest. The good roads were already in the community, rural electrification was a fact, because the people had already bought the poles and placed them themselves in order to get power for S. W. Public Service Co. The church was well organized, with most every

Free Fair Contestants In Back Talk

County citizens can see the results of agricultural contests at the Free Fair to be held in this county at the Meadfield in Spearman, Sept. 10. One can judge by some of the back talk that is going the rounds. Nichols tells this story on the fair. He says that he was urged to enter produce at the Free Fall Fair. Nichols sent his daughter over to see Eck's cross. He instructed his daughter to what to say if Eck would know how he would saw. Sure enough, Mr. Eck saw what Mr. Nichols did with the saw. Nichols replied that the saw would cut one of the prize melons out of the Nichols. Lee replied in part, "You are Daddy that I would be let him have the saw but it is up badly while sawing those Alberta peaches he ate the tree for several years ago."

Band Will Make Debut At Ranger Football Game

The Spearman High School Band resumed its functions this week with the opening of school, and everything points to a very profitable year for all who are participating in the band program. The band department will consist of three units; the beginners band for fourth and fifth grade students; the junior-senior high beginners band; and the advanced high school band in which the advanced junior high school students also participate.

The band will make its appearance at the Perryton-Spearman football game Sept. 30. The band will be in a position to support the school athletic program this year in a large way, as well as other community functions. Approximately fifty experienced members are on hand to give the band a good start this year, with others being added as soon as they reach the minimum playing standards necessary to play with the advanced group.

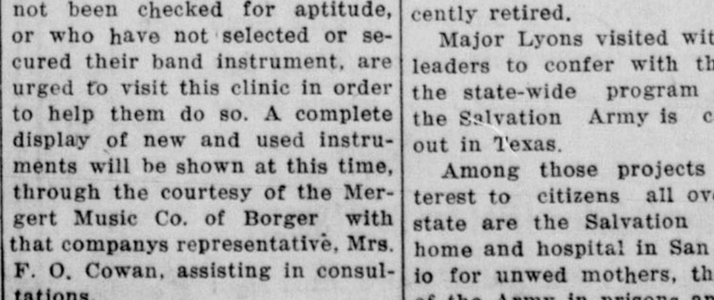

Every student from the fourth grade and up, who desires to start on a band instrument this year is urged together with their parents to see Mr. Godfrey at the earliest possible moment in order to get them started.

A band instrument clinic and demonstration will be held in the high school band room on Thursday afternoon and evening of this week, September 8 from 4:00 to 9:00 P.M. All students who have not been checked for aptitude, or who have not selected or secured their band instrument, are urged to visit this clinic in order to help them do so. A complete display of new and used instruments will be shown at this time, through the courtesy of the Mercer Music Co. of Borger with that company's representative, Mrs. F. O. Cowan, assisting in consultations.

Jinxing Lynx Will Have Conference Opener At Home: Vega Will Have Slight Weight Advantage Over Lynx

Gruver & Morse Begin Football September 16

Gruver and Morse six man football teams open the 1949-50 football season this Friday at Spearman, with the Vega Longhorns. This will be a conference game.

Coach Gariand Head expects to give the Longhorns a taste of bitter weeds in the Friday night game. Don Floyd will spearhead the offense for the Lynx. In the line at tackle will be All-District Joe Lackey and last year regular Bill Hull. At guard will be Jerry Cade tipping the scales at 190 and Don Cates at 143. Center will be held down by last years regular, Dan Dacus at 165 pounds. There are four candidates for ends, three of which have very little experience. The other a reserve letterman. Half backs will be handled by inexperienced but hard running boys. This years team is deeper in reserves and expects to be in the district race all the way.

As most of you know the Lynx scrimmaged against Phillips Wednesday of last week. The Lynx did not use either Cade or Donny Floyd on defense. Floyd has an injured rib and Coach Head is saving him for Vega. The Lynx did not score on the Blackhaws, but the purpose of the scrimmage was to get nervousness out of the boys. Coach Head thinks this will help his team tremendously.

About the game Friday. As big as the Lynx are this year, they will like a lot of being as big as most of their opponents. Vega will have a 2 pound per man advantage in the line, and 11 pound per man advantage in the back field. This heavy backfield which will average approximately 155, might give the Lynx more than they can handle. Too, Vega boys beat our Lynx last year, and they have several returning boys. At the end of the season last year, Vega had one of the best B teams in the Panhandle.

Bobby Scott, 160 Left Guard
James Voyles, 175, Center
Dick Montgomery, 145, R. Guard
Bud Cotton, 175, R. Tackle
Don Cotton, 190, Right End
David Loyd, 165, Quarter Back
Sherril Blasingame, 142, H. Back
Dick Murphy, 155, Fullback
Harold Dillehar, 150, R. H. B.

Coach of the Vega team is James E. Garrett. Team colors are Black and Gold.

Vega has not played a game this year, so their playing strength is not known. Their power and weight, however, will be as strong and heavy as any class B team in Texas school-boy football. Don't miss the game Friday night.

Cator-Miller Vows Read August 28

Beautiful in its simplicity was the wedding of Miss Gladys Romero Cator, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Cator, of home to Mr. Richard Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Miller of Berger.

The wedding occurred at the First Methodist Church Sunday, August 28 at 2:30 P. M. with the Reverend C. R. Harkins officiating at the double ring ceremony.

Misses Vian and Patsy Cator, sisters of the bride, lighted the candles, preceding the wedding, which was an all white affair. Seasonal flowers of white and candelabra led the way down the aisle to an archway and altar of fern and white gladioli. Baskets of flowers and greenery flanked the pulpit and the bride's side.

The candle lighters wore white plique dresses fashioned with scalloped neck and butterfly sleeves and bodices of orchid and yellow. They wore yellow and cream carnations in their hair.

The bride, given by her uncle, Mr. J. P. LaCase of Pampa, wore a white semi-formal of organza, designed with a low, round neck, butterfly sleeves and a tiered cut-work embroidered bodice.

She wore an off the face hat made of embroidered horsehair braid with illusion veil falling from each side. Her accessories were white. She carried a bouquet of orchids and wore pearls, a gift from the bridegroom.

Impressive Ceremony Unites Johnny Ruth Wilson & Sam Reddell

Given in marriage by her father, Miss Johnnie Ruth Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wilson of Spearman, and Mr. Sam Reddell of Idalou, were joined together in holy matrimony at the First Baptist church in Spearman Thursday, September 28.

Holy nuptials were solemnized at the sunset hour before an altar banked with masses of flowering ferns, white gladioli and white candelabra, giving a cathedral affect. The bride aisle preceded the altar culminated into a gorgeous array of hanked gladioli, wardia trees, and climbing fronds. Twenty nine tapers were lighted just as twilight descended, and they blazed in splendor as the vows were spoken. The Baptistry was also adorned with trailings of shrubs and candles framed the mural of the river Jordan.

Robert Wilson Womble of Hereford, and Clark Lee Wilson of Capitan, N. M. nephews of the bride, lighted the tapers. Sacred and solemn music filled the whole atmosphere and cascaded into peals of beauty as the traditional wedding march began. "Through The Years" and "Because" were used as introductory numbers by the organist.

The Reverend Joe Notsenbocker, of the First Baptist church of Idalou, and Reverend Dr. J. W. Marshall, President of Wayland College of Plainview were the officiants.

Rev. Notsenbocker read the vows, and the double ring ceremony and Dr. Marshall pronounced the prayer at the closing of the service. Billie Jack Glover, baritone of Spearman, sang "Wedding Prayer" between the taking of the vows and the ring ceremony, as the congregation bowed their heads. Jerry Malone played Massenet's "The Lord's Prayer" during the wedding.

Escorted by Hugh Davis and Lynn Whitten, the mothers of the bride and groom entered and were seated just before the candles were lighted. The wedding began by a formal one the mothers wore blue gowns with white gardenias and tube rose corsages. The laying of the aisle cloth then proceeded, with the same two ushers performing.

The bride wore an exquisite imported white satin victorian dress, with a cathedral train, and a cashmere lace yolk, satin covered buttons, fitted sleeves and white satin shoes. Her full length veil of white illusion was centered with a white satin, Juliet-type coronet enhanced with gold rhinestone tips worn by Mrs. J. B. Smith, mother of the maid-of-honor who wore them in her wedding.

She carried a cascade of white flowers centered with an orchid and a floor-length garland of hawn ivy and satin streamers, with the tube roses.

The minister entered from the vestry at the right side of the Baptistry and the ushers started the procession down the aisle from the rear of the church. The minister, Rev. Notsenbocker was followed from the vestry by the groom and the best man who took their places at the foot of the altar. The ushers took their places in graduated arrangement on the steps to the right of the groom. They were followed by the junior bridesmaids who stopped at the foot of the altar to face the minister.

Following the junior bridesmaids were the bridesmaids who approached sedately and took their places opposite the ushers. The maid-of-honor stood directly across from the best man. The ring bearer, Douglas Womble of Idalou, nephew of the bride, and the flower girl, Janell Reeves, niece of the groom came in together. The flower girl carried a horn shaped basket trimmed in satin ribbon with knotted streamers, and distributed rose petals as she came. The bride and her father were followed by the page and trainbearer who were Leldon Baker Womble of Hereford and Ann Garnett of Spearman. Their head dresses were illusion ruffles with satin bows with chartreuse satin bows, tube roses and ivy.

David Reddell of Idalou was his brother's best man, and other attendants were Lynn Whitten, Hugh Davis, and John Whitten. All wore tuxedos with buttonholes of white carnations. Mr. Wilson, father of the bride, and the bridesmaids were formal in black also.

At the semi-formal reception immediately following the ceremony, Mrs. A. M. Lassater of Amarillo, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Byron Reeves, sister of the groom, of Idalou, presided over the head table. The head table was centered by a three tiered wedding cake which was topped with silver sugar bells, and double candelabra with blue maline bows and silver bells. The guest table with the bride's book held a single silver candle with streamers, garlands, nosegays and the guest book, which was presided over by Mrs. O. L. Wilson, sister-in-law of the bride, of Capitan, New Mexico.

The second table containing punch and cake on a cutwork and lace table cloth was decorated with summer flowers, and garlands of streamers and nosegays.

Make sure your child has plenty of good light at his study table. See that the lamp he uses for home study is equipped with bulbs totaling at least 100 watts, and that it is well shaded to eliminate glare. Better light means better grades!

Here's Better Light for Home Study!

Homework's quickly done with a Better Sight Table Study Lamp like this. Its wide-angle shade and extra tall standard spread light over a wide area. Lion's Share of State Aid Is Diverted to Education

Local governments receive more than 25 per cent of their general revenue from state aid, the American Municipal Association reports.

A recent report prepared by the U.S. bureau of the census for the association reveals that fiscal aid paid to local governments by the 48 state governments amounted to $2.8 billion dollars in fiscal 1947. Preliminary figures for 1948 indicate that aid to localities in 26 states increased 18 per cent while state revenue was up 21.5 per cent over that of the preceding year.

School districts received 902 million dollars in state aid—more than any other kind of local government. Counties received the next largest share—792 million, while municipalities received 746 million, townships 44 million, and special districts 5 million dollars.

In terms of function, about 40 per cent of all state aid was for education—comprising a total of more than 1.1 billion dollars. Local welfare services received 495 million, local highways 417 million, hospitals 14 million, health services 10 million, and other local services 75 million dollars.

New York provided 388 million dollars of state aid in fiscal 1947, more than any other state. Of this total, 119 million was for unspecified purposes.

Forest Fires in Wisconsin
 Forest fires are usually made in Wisconsin but lightning accounted for 86 fires last year because of the dryness of vegetation. Railroad sparks started 37 of the fires and careless smokers accounted for 555. Brush burners started 264 fires and 182 of the fires were of incendiary origin. Of the total burn, 10,190 of the acres were forest lands and 13,424 marsh and other non-forest lands. Actual marketable timber values destroyed amounted to only $3,835 but the loss included the reproduction value of young trees amounting to $36,821. Other values were listed at $2,461.

extended vacation trip north. They visited Canada where they were somewhat of a novelty. Jeans and cowboy boots made quite an impression. In one town they visited the kids cried "here come the Yankees" when they walked downtown. They also learned to drink tea. From Canada they took a five day boat trip to Alaska. They were on a British boat and enjoyed a delightful British custom: eating five meals a day. They all look well and hearty.

Frank Fleck got his name in the Reporter last week because he had just returned from the Minnesota bear country. But the truth is, he never saw a bear. But he did see his brand new grandchild. Some men bring home fishing pictures to prove their stories. Frank brought home baby pictures. There was one with Frank holding the baby, several with Mrs. Frank, and one with Etta, to say nothing of those with the proud mamma and pappa. You'd think Frank had never been a grandpa before, and he has one right here in Borger.

Mr. and Mrs. Buster Cator have just returned from a seventeen day trip to the coast of Oregon. Buster has an older brother living there. Buster said the brother was in the best of health and he and Mrs. Cator had a swell time. The children stayed here, so it could have been a second honeymoon.

When telling about Frank Fleck's visit to Minnesota, we forgot to tell that they met the Mart Harts in the Superior National Forest. They took a picture of the event. Lynn shows up well in the picture but the rest must have been in the car.

Gruber received a very welcome visitor last week. Seventeen years ago, a young preacher just out of the seminary came to Gruber. His name: Alfred Freeman. He and Mrs. Freeman are about the most popular people who have ever lived here. Everybody loved them and they have never stopped talking about them. When Ted McClellan and Charlene decided to get married a few years ago, they went to Oklahoma City so that Alfred could do the job. Last week, Mr. and Mrs. Freeman and their three boys visited the city. They stayed in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Garrett, Ted and Charlene entertained them at dinner. We had the pleasure of meeting them and watched as old friends came up to greet them. Dave and Elmo McClellan had a long visit with them. Frank Fleck was another whom we saw and there were many others who enjoyed visiting with them.

We are sorry to report two rather serious accidents involving some of our Gruber people. Valdene Winger son of Mrs. Fred Hodges, was seriously hurt last week in that morning storm which hit this part of the country. They were blinded by the storm and the pickup in which they were riding turned over. Fortunately Dean Clark and T. C. Harvey, Jr. arrived on the scene and knew just what to do and got them to the hospital at Gayton right away. The accident occurred north of town, not far from Guyton. Valdene was the most seriously injured. He suffered a cracked pelvis bone and will be in bed for a month or six weeks. Fred Harville, who has been working on the ranch all summer, was shaken up and cut about the face, but was able to return to his school in Abilene. The other accident occurred near Dumas last Friday night and again, a storm was at least partly responsible. Keith Gross, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Gross, and Ray Beasley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Beasley, had left to attend a ballgame at Dalhart. The storm came up before the game ended. On their way home, they were within two miles of Dumas when they ran in to the rear of a house trailer which was being towed by the owner. Both the trailer and the car were seriously damaged. The two boys were taken to the Dumas hospital in an ambulance. Ray Beasley's head had gone through the windshield and he is very badly hurt about the face and head. Keith also received a severe blow on the head, but he has also a fractured knee. He was operated on Saturday afternoon and it took the doctors three hours to correct the damage. Mr. and Mrs. Gross visited him Saturday and again on Sunday they went back with Don. They report that both boys are doing as well as possible.

NOTICE

Dear Gruber Friends: (I hope that I still have friends in Gruber.) Referring to a mention in the Spearman Reporter last week and the Miss Hammer Column in the Amarillo Sunday News, I wish to say in explanation that in a short conversation with Miss Laura V. Hammer a few weeks ago, I was asked to give the names of some of the early day schools in Hansford County. Also, when they were established and in what direction from Spearman, the origin of their names and if they were still in use. In so short a time it was difficult to remember all of them; only a few came to mind, so by calling several reliable persons who had lived a number of years in these separate districts, I gained some information. However, when it was published, there were some errors.

In speaking of one of the schools, I mentioned the fact to Miss Hammer that some 36 years ago, patrons of a certain school drove through the snow nearly 30 miles to attend an entertainment at the Hansford School, given by the ladies of Hansford for the purpose of raising money to fence the cemetery, the only cemetery in the county AT THAT TIME!

The statement that the Hansford Cemetery is the only one in this county was not mine as I have some very dear friends who are buried in the Gruber Cemetery—a place of beauty and peace—and Mrs. Winder was one of them.

Everyone in Hansford County should be proud, and justly so, of this beautiful cemetery and the care given it by the citizens of Gruber.

Mrs. J. H. Buchanan

New GRAIN DRILL ATTACHMENT

FOR DEMPESTER SERIES 100

POWER LIFT CARRIER

Here's another basic attachment for the No. 100 Power Lift Carrier: the No. 120 9-foot Drill Attachment. Practical for seeding of small grains, sorghum crops, soy beans, etc. The machine is equipped with nine 4 1/2" furrow openers spaced 12" apart which provides a 3" to 4" spread of the seed on the bottom of the furrow. The machine can be adjusted for planting in rows, 12", 24", or 36" apart. Press Wheels work independently under spring pressure and carry the weight of the seed box plus the weight of the frame which provides a sturdy and positive pressing arrangement. Spring Shanks handle trashy conditions more satisfactorily. Power Lift on Carrier provides high clearance and automatic throw-out for seed mechanism. Don't Name It! by "Honest" Bill Miller

It appears that Spearman will hardly get settled on the reverse side of the coin... I mean caller... yells to break and circle in Indian style. That has a wide interpretation... and means to follow around single file yelling blue murder... and etc. The caller can always get you straightened out by telling you to promenade home or promenade back to the hole in the wall... which is the place you started before he made a call.

When the caller calls for a balance, the gent takes the lady's left hand in his right hand and bows. Break and trail are the same as circle Indian style. Cheat is strictly a lady's privilege. If the caller calls for the ladies to cheat, they can playfully scuffle and can or will not let their partners swing them around. A Do Si Do calls for the partners to face each other and join left hands swing around the partner and back to a place where they can end and ladies are facing their "corners" then drop your partner and with the right hand, with elbow bent to about a 90 degree angle, swing around the corner and back again to the partner and swing around again with the left arm and hand so that you come back to your original position, or "back home." A do si is merely strutting around your partner, the men always going in back of the ladies. The conventional procedure is to cross arms kinda like we usta do when we would "rooster fight" when boys, and gracefully (if possible) strut around the partner, the lady moving toward the center of the square to allow the men to come behind them and then moving back into place and simulating some sort of a dignified strut or motion.

Left Almand is usually followed by the callers demand to do a left and right grand. The men turn to their corner (to the left) and with their left hand grasp the lady's left arm and circle around the lady until they are facing their partner, to whom they extend their right hand and assist the partner to go forward in a circle while the men progress (counter clockwise) extending their left and right hands respectively to the ladies in their square until they meet their partner and then promenade back to the hole in the wall. Sounds simple... but this country editor has been known to stop the progress of the movement by opening his mouth and trying to think whether to give his left hand, right hand or maybe his elbow to the next in line.

Since this article is getting entirely too long, and there is lots of time for the country editor to learn more about square dancing, we are going to continue the description in later issues. In future issues we will discuss "Ladies Chain," "Ladies on the Right," "Lock Arm Swing," "Next Couple Out," "Once and A Half," "On the Corner With Your Left Hand" and other terms that are considered fundamentals. Of course, we assure the public that we don't know all this... but we hope in a couple of years to learn a bit more... and we surely do enjoy trying to learn.

It is amazing to this writer the ways callers take to confuse the dancers... boy, you gotta think quick. For example, a caller will not direct you to promenade back home but he may yell somepin like this: "Chicken on the fence and possum on a rail, grab your honey and everybody call." It means to walk around the circle in a promenade step. Or again he may yell "Cat in the barn, rat in her mouth, grab your honey and head her south." Interpreted, it's promenade from the glass and drink from the keg, now swing that rail with the piano leg, and promenade home.

Instead of calling for one to almand, grand left and right, the darn caller is liable to yell, "Rope a yearling and brand a calf, swing your partner with one and a half." It's plumb confusing, but believe it will be a couple of years before members of the Spearman dance club can learn the square dance language, much less do the exhibition dances.

Do you want to go out nights? I will stay with your children or baby of any age. Mrs. Margaret Brazell, Rt. A, Spearman, Co. Duane Oakes.

Birthplace of Bitters

Venezuela's remote Guiana highlands, where modern industrial minerals now are sought, contain both the gold mine that once was the world's richest, and the birthplace of bitters. The mine is El Callao, which produced as much as $200,000 worth of the metal a month in 1885. The bitters were invented in 1824 by a physician who lived in Angostura, the early name for today's Ciudad Bolivar, on the Orinoco River. Later, the bitters factory was removed to Port of Spain, Trinidad.
