Brandt building dedicated

A large number of people from Spearman, Gruver & the surrounding area braved the cold, blustery weather Saturday afternoon for ceremonies dedicating the old Brandt building, downtown Spearman.

The Hansford County Historical Commission and the Stationmaster's Museum committee along with representatives of the Chamber of Commerce were in charge of the 2:00 o'clock program which officially dedicated the building with a Texas State Historical Marker.

Fred Groves, president of the Hansford Historical Commission, praised Mrs. Roy Bulls for spending much time and money on research of data worthy enough in the eyes of the State Historical Society to mark this old building. This official marker, attached to the front of the building, was unveiled Saturday afternoon by the owners Mr. & Mrs. Roy Bulls.

Honored guests present for the unveiling were Mr. & Mrs. Bill Kenyon from Portales, New Mexico. She is the daughter of the late Fred Brandt and Mrs. Jewell Brandt who is at present a resident of the Senior Village Care Center, Perryton. Also present was the great granddaughter--Mrs. Jodie Smith of Floydada, Texas.

Mr. & Mrs. Roy Bulls also purchased the Spearman Hotel, another Old Hansford building which was moved to Spearman when the town moved. This building had been condemned, but Mrs. Bulls had a dream of restoring it and turning it into a quaint old general store. It now houses several little shops plus offices for the owners. The Bull's Inn also bears a State Historical Marker.

In 1900, P.M. Maize and his wife, Ettie arrived in Hansford, Texas from Memphis, Texas to open a general store. Ettie was experienced in the mercantile business since her father, H.C. Brandt owned three stores in Waller, Bernard and Chappell Hill, Texas. In 1908, Mr. Brandt and son, Fred, moved some stock from the Chappell Hill store to the Maize store in Hansford. Fred Brandt remained in Hansford becoming associated with his brother-in-law in the store.

Ledgers from the store indicate that the business flourished. By 1918, a larger building was needed to house the store. A new store was constructed by D.E. Dillow & Sons, building contractors of Hansford. The building was of wood construction covered with sheet metal and was located next door to the old store.

Things were not to remain the same in Hansford, however. In 1919, the Santa Fe Railroad built a branch line from Shattuck, Oklahoma, that ended at a site called Spearman. Businesses and families began to move to the site. Early in 1920, Mr. Maize and Mr. Brandt moved their store to Spearman. J.C. Tandy, mover, placed their building on wheels, known as trucks, and pulled the store up "Hansford Hill" with a large steam tractor. Moving started at 8:00 a.m., February 14, 1920. The building arrived in Spearman at 7:00 p.m. having traveled a distance of only five miles. Business resumed as usual on February 19.

Merchandise business continued in the building until 1929 when Fred Brandt purchased the business from P.M. Maize.

Then, Mr. Brandt continued the store until his retirement in 1950. The Brandt building was then utilized by his son, Billy Brandt, as a Radio and TV repair shop. After Billy's death, the building was still a Radio and TV repair shop operated by L.W. Rosenbaum.

In 1977, the Brandt building was purchased by Mr. Roy Bulls and his wife, Charlene. Preserving as much of the historical value of the building as possible, the Bulls refurbished, painted and restored the building. Heating and air conditioning were installed. The exterior of the building remained in its original state. Of particular note is the restoration of the old "Bright and Early Coffee Company" sign on the northwest side of the building. The sheet metal which covers the building is the original metal placed on the exterior of the building at the time of its construction in Hansford. The "Brandt" building now houses a gift store and hobby and craft shop.

Pictures of Saturday's dedication will be forthcoming in this newspaper.

Nedd an afghan for Christmas?

A WONDERFUL CHRISTMAS PRESENT! -- Dana Schnell poses with this beautiful reversible afghan worked in two lovely shades of blue by a visitor, Janie Simpson of Knoxville, Tenn. Shortly before Christmas, this fine tribute to the skill of human hands will go to one of those who purchase tickets benefiting the local YMCA. Now displayed at J.G.'s, the afghan will be shown in various stores until it is a lovely surprise for somebody at Christmas.

A beautiful afghan in two shades of blue and reversible will be a lovely Christmas present for someone while benefiting the local YMCA program.

This particular piece of this popular form of needlework is the handicraft of Janie Simpson, Knoxville, Tenn. The painstaking care with which it was wrought is evidenced by its reversible feature--which required infinite patience and skill to make to stitches and the color tones the same on either side of the piece. Mrs. Simpson is the mother of Carolyn Cummings, of Spearman.

It will be given away just before Christmas--in time for a present for a loved one or for yourself--and tickets are only ONE DOLLAR each. Proceeds from such tickets will go directly to the YMCA program here.

The lovely afghan is on display presently at J.G.'s but it will take a turn about the business community being shown at downtown stores having a part in the YMCA benefit project.

It is felt by those enthusiastic over both the project and the beautiful incentive afghan that anyone who appreciates beauty and particularly those who admire the skill of talented human hands, will purchase tickets.

Even those who may say, "...I am never fortunate that way..." will take a look at this afghan and purchase tickets.

After all...wishing and suspense are the hallmarks of Christmas.

Jury Selection Gets Underway

Jury selection was still underway in the jail escape trial of Michael Clyde Jones at press deadline, Tuesday, at the Hansford County courthouse.

Several months ago, Jones and a companion, George Marshall Hall, fled the Hutchinson County jail but were apprehended soon after their jail-break by authorities. Their trials on the escape charges have been in limbo awaiting a change of venue ruling by Judge Guy Hazlett.

Spearman and the Hansford County courthouse were finally named as the site of Jones' trial and he and Hall were brought to the jail here; Hall as a witness.

Before the first round hardly opened here, during pre-trial activities, Judge Hazlett ruled a mistrial based on the way the prisoners were being "displayed" in shackles.

Judge Hazlett set Nov. 17 for the start of a new trial at that time and pursuant to that order, activities got underway at the courthouse, Monday. By press time, Tuesday, there still had not been a jury selection completed and no one involved in the trial would venture a speculation as to when the actual trial procedure would get underway.

Hall has yet to be tried for his escape from the Hutchinson County facilities but no word has been issued by the court regarding that action.

Escapes Deep Snowfall

At press time, Spearman had received an official two inches of snow.

This was happy news underfoot to travelers about town and about the area but afforded very little "soak-in" moisture.

Neighboring Perryton received two inches and that was the measure down at Pampa while Borger accumulated an official four inches, but...

Lubbock, on the South Plains, was covered by a whopping 11 inches, the deepest official measure for that area since 1968! (An interesting note: that 1968 record snowfall came in March.) Littlefield, near Lubbock, also received an 11 inch blanket of the stuff.

The top tier of Panhandle counties and the western edge of the Panhandle suffered the least from the storm. Highway 287 between Amarillo and Dumas was the worst scene this high on the High Plains. The count of stranded and overturned vehicles on that stretch of U.S. 287 reached almost 100, Tuesday.

Despite the hazard of the original snow compounded by the melting, Monday, with its re-freezing, Monday night, the Texas Department of Public Safety reported only minor accidents with minor injuries. One car rollover accounted for most of the accidents while "jackknifed" trailer-tractor rigs blocked traffic for a time on almost every major artery in the Panhandle and on the South Plains.

At press time, the forecast was for sunny skies and a warming trend but the DPS warned travellers to watch for icy patches on just about every road in the Panhandle and South Plains area.

Along with the promised warming trend, Spearman experienced a low reading Monday night of 18 degrees.

Another record of sorts went by the board along with the snowfall record at Lubbock and Littlefield during this winter storm. A regional newspaper told the story of a mailman at Littlefield who said mail could not be delivered; the weather was so bad they had to turn back.

'Partners in Progress'

COLLEGE STATION -- This year's Farm-City Week focuses on farm and city people together as partners in progress as the key to the future.

Farm-City Week, Nov. 21-27, is sponsored by the Farm-City Council and Kiwanis International.

"Farm and city people depend on each other for products and services that are essential to modern business and living," points out Dr. Carl Anderson, economist in marketing with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System. "One group can't live without the other. Together they make the best food and fiber team in the world."

A basic ingredient for the economic, political and social success of a country is a highly productive agricultural base, believes Anderson. This gives a country the capacity to not only feed its own people but also to export for economic gain as well as for humanitarian purposes.

"One U.S. farm worker now produces enough food for some 45 people at home and another 25 overseas," says the economist. "At the turn of the century, one American farm worker could feed only seven people."

A dozen eggs, a sack of potatoes, a slab of bacon, a steak, a chilled fresh fryer, a cart of milk and hundreds of other items can be bought at almost any food store at almost any time and at a comparatively reasonable cost -- reasonable, that is, compared with the cost of most other things.

"While the overall cost of living has advanced 13 percent from a year ago, food prices in the grocery store have increased less than 10 percent," Anderson explains. "Americans, on average, spend 17 percent of their income on food compared to 45 percent for people in Russia."

One out of every 25 Texans is a farmer or a rancher, yet 30 percent of the state's retail trade business is directly associated with agricultural production and selling of food and fiber products. Thousands of businesses are active in food and fiber production, transportation, processing, packaging, storing, advertising, distribution and other activities associated with feeding, clothing and, to some extent, housing people, notes the economist.

"In Texas, movement of food and fiber from field to factory to the family table furnishes jobs and income for about a fourth of the working force," points out Anderson.

The future for continued growth in Texas agriculture is bright, he believes. Demand for food and fiber from countries overseas is growing. And, with good export facilities, the state's agricultural industry is ready to expand its share of the export market. This means more jobs and income for both rural and urban residents.

"No doubt, agriculture makes a large contribution to the Texas' affluence. Because quality food is available at reasonable prices, a large part of our income is available to buy other things," notes Anderson.

The light over your mirror was perfected by a deaf man.
A person with a hunchback helped invent your radio.
If you listen to contemporary music, you may hear an artist who is blind.
If you prefer classical, you may enjoy a symphony written by a composer who couldn't hear.
The President who set an unbeatable American political record could hardly walk.*

It's a fact, however, that persons with disabilities still remain a huge untapped resource. In the world today there are more than 450 million persons with physical or mental disabilities. Thirty-five million are Americans.

The United Nations has proclaimed 1981 the International Year of Disabled Persons (IYDP). The theme for the international year is "the fullest possible participation of disabled persons in the life of their society."

Alan Reich, president of the U.S. Council for the IYDP said, "even in the United States, which is a world leader in this field, many persons with disabilities still face attitudinal and other barriers limiting their self-fulfillment and contribution to society."

Thanksgiving Time

The Thanksgiving Holiday has always been a day when we give thanks for the lifestyles we enjoy here in the United States - something a lot of us take for granted such as our freedom, good jobs, vacation and our automobile. Everyone agrees the automobile and all it has brought to this nation is marvelous, but it could be an instrument of suffering and even death.

Major C.W. Bell, Regional Commander of the Texas Department of Public Safety in Lubbock, stated that this Thanksgiving Holiday weekend, thousands of more drivers will be on the streets and highways. Some drivers will only be going across town - others will be crossing several states.

Major Bell also said that the Department of Public Safety wants you to have a safe and pleasant holiday, so if you are planning a trip out of town check your car, the road conditions, the weather conditions and your driving habits, and remember that the early darkness and heavy traffic call for more caution and less speed. If we think safety first and drive defensively then a safe and pleasant Thanksgiving is almost certain.

Peggy's Pointers

Stay on that diet during the holidays.

The holiday season is a hard period for the dieter and weight-conscious person.

Dieters must face coping with parties, food given as gifts and the ever-present tempting treats.

The following 10 suggestions may help even the weak-willed cope with the holiday season.

Do not buy or prepare any tempting foods like cakes, pastries, candy or cookies. Ask the family to cooperate and support this effort.

When you know you are going to a party, cut back on food intake during the rest of the day. Don't skip a meal or do without—you may arrive at the party famished and eat more than you should.

When at a party, look for low-calorie foods. Vegetables eaten without dip are filling and contain few calories.

If you must eat dessert, ask for a small portion. Eat half as much—you'll consume only half the calories.

Don't forget to count the calories in alcoholic beverages—they add up fast.

If you do overeat one day, don't become discouraged and over-indulge for a week. It's perfectly all right to overeat once in a while.

When you feel the urge to eat, get out of the house and take care of an errand. Get away from the temptation, and accomplish a task at the same time.

Strike a bargain with yourself. Promise yourself that if you make it through the holidays without gaining any weight, you will buy yourself something during the January sales.

If you can't cut back on the food, increase the number of calories you burn off in exercise. Walk as much as possible—walking at a moderate pace burns off about 210 calories per hour.

If food is given as a gift, think about freezing it for a later occasion. Most dessert items will keep in the freezer for months.

'Shot in Seat'

Western jean's latest "shot in the seat" is the one stamped "celebrity."

Spurred by the popularity of recent western movies, TV shows and music, many manufacturers have recruited an array of celebrities to endorse their product, Becky Saunders, a clothing specialist, says in talking about one of today's newest fashion looks.

Mrs. Saunders is on the home economics staff of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

She points to examples of popular celebrities including Willie Nelson, Mickey Gilley, Loretta Lynn, Conway Twitty, Burt Reynolds, "J.R. Ewing," Larry Gatlin, Charlie Daniels, Hank Williams and Larry Mahon as part of today's jean-fashion trend.

And there are some specialty labels even banking on past images, such as John Wayne and Buddy Holly.

The celebrity endorsement most often appears as a name or picture on the label, along with recognizable decorative word(s) or design(s) on the back pocket. As with designer jeans, prices often are higher for celebrity versions than the plain traditional jeans.

Celebrity endorsements may also extend to other western wear, such as sweat shirts, jackets, vests, shirts and hats. However, jeans are the most popular item.

As one current fad, celebrity western jeans will offer variety to sportswear -- with a fun choice of backing your favorite star.

'Thanksgiving' An American Tradition

Going over the river and through the wood to grandmother's house for Thanksgiving dinner has taken some alternate routes in recent years.

Modern interstates and jet travel have seen to it that the nostalgic, storybook images of going home for the holidays on foot or in a horse-drawn buggy remain another of life's idealized memories.

Ironically, current modes of holiday travel are also slowly becoming a fond memory for an increasing number of Americans who have relocated to different parts of the country after retirement or for career opportunities. Increased fuel costs and soaring airline fares have removed a great deal of mobility in mobile America.

Practical considerations can present a real problem for transplanted individuals who associate Thanksgiving with home (their "real" home), family, turkey, cranberry sauce and other warm memories of such a traditional American holiday.

When they can't be home for the holiday, people are increasingly seeking ways to be there in spirit, if not in body.

According to Ronald Clouse, vice president of marketing for American Greetings Corporation, sales of Thanksgiving cards have doubled in the past five years.

"A transient population and increased travel costs have had a definite impact on this trend," said Clouse. "And even though the Thanksgiving holiday period is one of the busiest times of the year for airlines, the concentrated time span of the occasion, in contrast to Christmas and New Year's, discourages many people from making a long journey."

Despite what may be said about America becoming a rootless, impersonal society, however, the most popular Thanksgiving cards are those that incorporate in their messages such words as "warmth," "memories," "home," "tradition," "family ties" and "hearth."

Clouse also noted that there is an increasing demand for cards directed at family groups of two or more members. Examples include "To sister and husband," "To brother and family" and "To mom and dad." Theme like "across the miles" and "wish we were together" are also very popular.

For those less sentimental, humorous studio cards are also gaining in acceptance, particularly for sending to friends. Themes range from dieting to-you guessed it-football, a sport that's catching up with the turkey as a Thanksgiving symbol.

"This blending of the traditional and contemporary has taken some amusing turns," said Clouse.

One of the company's favorite cards, he noted, is a humorous rendition of a pilgrim and a helmeted turkey in determined, head-to-head confrontation on a football field. The message reads, "Did you hear about the first Thanksgiving football game between the pilgrims and the turkeys? The turkeys were doing fine...until the pilgrims ate their quarterback!"

Eggs

COLLEGE STATION--Perfectly whole and unbroken eggs are an unrelenting demand of every consumer, yet delivering such a product is a difficult task for the grocer and all those before him.

Dr. Dave Mellor, poultry marketing specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System, says egg breakage is currently one of the biggest concerns of workers in the egg industry.

Eggs can be protected from breakage in two ways, Mellor says. The first is by development of a stronger shelled egg and the second is through careful handling of eggs.

"The less handling, the better," contends Mellor. "If you do all the handling in one place at one time, it is much better than shipping the eggs to different places for each process."

The specialist encourages egg producers to do all the washing, sorting and packing right on the farm, if possible.

According to Mellor, egg handling methods vary widely throughout the world. In Pakistan and Bolivia eggs have been collected and shipped by donkey. Some Brazilian egg merchants wrap a dozen eggs in newspaper for the housewife. These methods don't prevent much egg damage. Brazilian egg producers have used wooden trays with individual wire egg holders for shipment--a good but costly method.

Wooden skids containing the equivalent of 24 cases of eggs (120 dozen) are being used as an economical way to transport eggs on the West Coast. When plywood sheets, with vertical supports, separate case-high layers, these skids of eggs are being used for 1,000-mile shipments.

Mellor is still looking for the "best" way to handle eggs.

Don't expect everyone to agree with you; variety of opinion makes the world interesting.

Luckenbach Going Cold 'Turkey'

Luckenbach, Texas is going cold turkey.

The whole town, population three, has agreed to give up cigarettes for 24 hours on November 20 to lead Texas' participation in the Great American Smokeout, sponsored by the American Cancer Society.

According to Luckenbach First Lady Kathy Morgan, "we're aiming for 100 percent participation - all three of us will give it a shot - I just hope I can quit for good." To help celebrate the event, cold turkey sandwiches will be served to visitors in town November 19 and 20 and persons pledging to quit will be eligible for a drawing with prizes including frozen turkeys and a kiss from the Stonewall, Texas Peach Queen.

In announcing its participation, the central Texas town has delivered an open challenge to other Texas towns - big or small - to do as well.

The challenge has been accepted. Houston will sponsor five rallies November 20 including one at City Hall and another at Galleria Mall. City officials and local celebrities including the Houston Oiler Cheerleaders will be on hand at each to help recruit pledges.

In Fort Worth the same day, Tandy Center will be the scene of a high noon showdown and gunfight between Franklin, the ACS 'Kiss Me - I Don't Smoke' frog and a five foot cigarette. Mayor Woodie Woods, local musicians and a local dance troupe will all be there to witness the event.

The Alamo will be the setting for San Antonio's smokeless rally November 20. Mayor Lila Cockrell will issue a Smokeout proclamation at the noon event emceed by City Council member John Steen. A booth offering alternatives to smoking will be manned by members of Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity of St. Mary's University handing out candy kisses, apples, oranges and other substitutes to the would-be smokers.

Other towns and cities are planning similar events with involvement of Youth Against Cancer (YAC) groups, pledge booths at local malls and shopping centers, anti-smoking educational programs and corporate involvement from hundreds of major companies planning in-house promotions.

The one-day Smokeout, now in its fourth year, is sponsored by the ACS nationwide as a positive approach to help smokers kick the habit for at least one day.

A survey conducted by the Gallup Organization last year indicated nearly 15 million American smokers tried to give up cigarettes Smokeout day. Five million succeeded for a full 24 hours. One to three days later, 2.3 million still were off cigarettes while another 7.8 million said they had cut down on the number of cigarettes smoked.

All Texas smokers are invited to join in the fun. They may contact their local ACS volunteers or office for a pledge card, tips on quitting and information on local planned Smokeout events.

Children Tested For Kidney Disease

On November 25, 1980, The National Kidney Foundation of West Texas will sponsor a urinalysis screening project in the Spearman Elementary School for grades One through Fourth. This program is designed to detect kidney disease early among school age children at no charge to the student or the school.

Kidney and urinary tract diseases affect more than 13 million American men, women, and children and continues to be one of the major causes of work loss and school absenteeism. Of these people, 43,000 need an artificial kidney just to stay alive, some of these are children. The mortality rate due to kidney disease is 54,000 annually, more people than are killed in traffic accidents each year. There are currently more than 200 people in our area who must sustain life on an artificial kidney machine because of renal failure. Dr. Miguel Rios, Chief Nephrologist at the Amarillo High Plains Dialysis Center, and President of the National Kidney Foundation of West Texas Board of Directors, states that fifty percent of all patients presently on dialysis could have avoided this costly, time-consuming treatment if they had been diagnosed during childhood. Some kidney diseases can be present for 20 years before any symptoms are present, by then 85 to 90 percent of the kidney functions can be lost.

Funding for the project is being provided by a private grant and various donations by individuals.

The urinalysis screening consists of a very simple procedure. The child will be asked to go into the restroom and give a sample in a paper cup, the child will then give the cup to the nurse who is doing the testing. A dip stick, which works on the same principle as litmus paper, is dipped into the sample and the color will tell if the child could have any abnormal kidney function. This test checks PH, Glucose, Protein, and Blood in the Urine. If a child shows some tendencies towards kidney disease, the parents will be notified informing them that the child should be seen by their family physician.

If you child has not brought his/her parental consent form home, please contact the school so that you child may be tested. You can prevent serious complications which could lead to eventual kidney failure by participating in this program. Your children need our help!

Cowboys Cookbook

"We've done it again!" said Mary Breunig, wife of the Dallas Cowboys' middle linebacker, Bob Breunig, "and the all-new Second Edition of the Dallas Cowboys Wives' Cookbook and Family Album is even bigger and better than last year's popular book."

"Bigger and better" means that this season's cookbook contains not only all new favorite Cowboy recipes, candid snapshots, and family sketches from the married players; but pictures, recipes, and sketches from the single players, rookies, and coaching staff as well.

The Second Edition, which has just been released in the Metroplex, is a fund-raising effort on the part of Mary and other Cowboy wives to benefit the children of Happy Hill Farm. All proceeds from the book go directly to the children. Located just southwest of the Metroplex, the Farm provides residential care and vocational training for boys and girls who suffer from severe learning disabilities and handicaps.

The wives have compiled the new recipes from their famous husbands, teammates, and coaches into a delightful volume that will please Cowboy fans and those who are just interested in good food. The "Family Album" section of the book contains pictures of the players, their families, and friends. Fans will be surprised to learn that some of the single players are gourmet cooks. Tony Dorsett has a recipe for "Scallops Provence-Style." Not to be outdone, Jo Lynn White, wife of Quarterback Danny White, has shared her favorite "Whipped Short Breads" recipe.

Mary came up with the idea of compiling the cookbook two years ago. With the help of some of the other wives and the Children's Home staff, she produced one of the most popular cookbooks shown in the Metroplex last year. Several thousand copies were sold to Cowboy fans, scattered from Alabama to Alaska. The small Children's Home staff, which handled all of the packaging and mailing of the books, worked frantically trying to fill the orders before Christmas.

The Breunigs, who are among the Farm's most ardent supporters, have been helping the children almost from the beginning of the work some five years ago. Bob has served on the Board of Directors since 1977.

Most of the special children, who live at the Farm, come from the Metroplex. They have been referred by school counselors, loyal psychiatrists and psychologists, and the juvenile justice system. Many of the children, due to their severe emotional and educational problems, have gotten into trouble.

Nestled in the hill country, about an hour's drive from the city, Happy Hill Farm is able to offer its children the best of both worlds. It is far enough away to provide a rural atmosphere, yet close enough to take advantage of all the recreational, educational, and cultural opportunities of the big city.

The Farm contains 266-acres, where the children work to grow much of their own food. They tend a large dairy goat herd and have a thriving egg business, with more than 700 laying hens. They also raise cattle, ducks, geese, and a variety of other small animals. The Farm's program contains a strong vocational emphasis. The children are being taught woodworking and other industrial arts in an effort to prepare them to enter the job market upon graduation from the Farm's Academy. The Farm and the Academy are licensed and approved by the appropriate state agencies. Along with Bob Breunig, other Board members from throughout the business community, assist the Executive Director, C. Edward Shipman, and his wife, Gloria, in operating the non-profit, charitable facility.

The Farm is multi-denominational. It does not receive Federal or state aid. Operating funds to sustain the program have come from hundreds of individuals throughout the state. Corporations and foundations in the area are assisting with capital funds for the Farm. Several new buildings have just been completed. Homes for seventy-six children are planned.

The Farm's Director, in assessing the success of last year's cookbook, said: "The Dallas Cowboys Wives' Cookbook not only provided needed income to assist us in caring for the children, but it let Cowboy fans all over the country know about the Farm. Since then, many of them have become involved in helping to support our boys and girls. We are grateful to Bob and Mary Breunig, the other players and wives, and the Cowboy organization for helping us to make this year's Second Edition an even greater success."

The cookbooks may be ordered directly from the Farm for $8.95, plus $1.00 for sales tax, postage, and handling. Write:

Prevent Blindness Society

Last year the eyes of a Texas high school student were severely burned when the d-natured alcohol he was heating exploded in his face. Also last year a first grader needed treatment because he bounced a large eraser into his eye. Both accidents resulted in days lost from school. Both are also just two of the nearly 10,000 school age accidents that the Texas Society to Prevent Blindness estimates occur each year.

"The causes vary," says Clymer L. Wright, Jr., Society president. "Some happen because students don't wear the provided safety eyewear. Some result from horseplay; one boy, for instance, was hit in the eye with a ballpoint pen shot from a rubber band. There are also an incredible number of youngsters who stick anything from their finger to a scissors - or an eraser - into their eyes."

"However, these accidents have one thing in common," he stressed. "Ninety percent of them could have been prevented if the students had some 'Eye-Q' - this is, some awareness of the basic rules of eye safety, an awareness that the Society hopes to develop through its new three-part 'Adopt-A-School' program."

"The program is designed to bring eye care and eye safety knowledge to 500 children at specific grade levels and also to their families," he explained. Each part consists of a 16mm film or film strip, a teacher's guide, wall charts, classroom lesson plans, and weekly take-home pamphlets.

"Program I is for grades K-4," he went on. "It is built around a short marionette film, 'The Eyes Have It', and is designed to make young children aware of such play-related yet potentially eye damaging items as darts and stick games."

"A second program is keyed to grades 5 and 6, a time when active youngsters need to be reminded that they must take care of their eyes or chance losing 'The Magic of Sight,' the title of the program.

"Program III is for grades 7-12 and stresses the importance of proper safety eyewear," Wright said. "Even though a state law requires safety goggles in labs and shops, we read time and time again in Texas Education Agency accident reports of students who've been injured because they didn't have any protection or were wearing the wrong kind. This program, called an 'Option To See' will help teachers educate their students in safety techniques. We feel sure its innovative teachings will substantially reduce the number of eye injuries in secondary schools."

7th Lynx WIN

As I'd been saying in the last few weeks. "Our 7th grade Lynx are good enough to win a game!" Well, guess what? It happened--our Lynx won against the tough Wolves at Lynx Stadium by the score of 6-0.

The game was 0-0 at the halftime intermission. Everybody was excited because our Lynx Defense had stopped a teams from scoring in the 1st half, and everybody felt a tie in the air.

Our Lynx tried a play that worked real good, so our Lynx tried the same play 9 more times. Boy! It worked slicker than a car sliding in oil!! Dean Greene, Jeff Valandingham, Nabor Cabrera, James Smith and Willie Vera blocked so well that on the last try Monty Morris went on thru for the winning touchdown. Our Lynx tried for 2 points but came up empty. So with 1 whole quarter to go, our Lynx had the lead 6-0.

When a team is ahead 6-0; the other team has a chance to win by 1 point or by 2; so the last quarter would be "do or die" for our 7th grade Lynx. Our Lynx, in games previously played, had lost all the games, yet they played like a championship ball club--the only trouble was that all the other teams were so much bigger. Well, the last quarter would show everyone if our Lynx were really a "championship bound" team. Let me tell ya'll--those boys are Championship Bound!

Now, get this--Dalhart had 3 1st and 10's and only had the ball 1 minute in the last quarter while our Lynx had 12 first downs, and controlled the ball for 7 minutes of the last quarter--that's some difference!

Our Lynx kept the ball by giving it to the Fullback Jeff Valandingham. Jeff and the rest of the Lynx drove the ball, using the last few minutes of the game, all the way to the 2 yard line of the Wolves--ready to "punch" in another touchdown. At that point Coach Hager put in the rest of his boys in the game and our Lynx tried to score but time ran out on 'em. If ya'll weren't at the game then you missed seeing a great game and a lot of happy fellows!

"Moving" Monte Morris gained about 60 yards in the game. Coach Hager said, "The Offense did great, so did the Defense and the Kick Off team, the Kick Return team, First String and Second--Everybody did a SUPER job!!"

Our Lynx didn't get any Bar-B-Q, but they got something better--Wolf Chili. Our Lynx' record for the year is 1-8, but the way they played, their record seemed to be 8-1 instead of 1-8!!

Winning the last game of the season was like Houston winning the AFC Championship!! CONGRATULATIONS BOYS, COACHES, and CHEERLEADERS!!!

8th Lynx Scare Wolves Out Of Town

The 8th grade Wolves knew it wouldn't be easy to beat our 8th grade Lynx at home. They were right--for once!!

The Wolves jumped out to a 14-0 lead until Brian Williams got the handoff and ran for a 50 yard touchdown. Watch out Earl Campbell!! The half ended 14-6.

Our Lynx are not what you call--a team that slows down when the going gets tough. No way, Jose! Our Lynx are what people call a Super team that fights to the final gun or buzzer. When the score was 27-12, and our Lynx Defense made the Wolves punt before the end of the game--about 50 seconds left. Our Lynx used a spread, I mean "spread" formation which is called the "Polecat" that the Wolves were so confused that our Lynx almost made another touchdown but the intended receiver missed the ball. What a rip!! Our Lynx could have had another touchdown, but our Lynx fumbled at the 4 yard line.

Our Lynx Defense concentrated and shut down the big back but the "Robert Newhouse" back just had a time. He ran, sometimes untouched, until he got in the secondary or 'til he made a touchdown.

Coach May said, "It could have been an 18-18 game or a 2 point game if the breaks had gone our way!!"

Coach May also said, "We made 'em punt more then they had before."

Coach May said that his team played exceptionally well! No other team played better except for the Chicago Bears vs. the Houston Oilers and the St. Louis Cardinals vs. the Dallas Cowboys, but they're not in our Lynx' League.

Our Lynx lost but not by much. The Wolves still tried to break into the 30 point barrier, but our Lynx were not going to give 'em that kind of satisfaction. The first game was 24-0 with the Wolves winning; the second game was 27-12--the Wolves winning; the next game which will be a high school game will be tied and the next game--both 8th grade teams in the Varsity--will have the Lynx winning. So Dalhart 8th grade Wolves, don't think ya'll have won the battle because our Lynx aren't done with ya'll yet. You see, our Lynx in high school will have guys to help them be a better team like ya'll do!

CONGRATULATIONS BOYS, COACHES, and CHEERLEADERS!!!

Freshmen Lynx 'Fire' Cools for Year

Our Freshman Lynx met the Dalhart Wolves at Dalhart Stadium. This game was not expected to be a close ballgame, but it was. The final score was 25-20--Dalhart won.

Our Lynx got all their points in the final quarter. Pat Tucker threw a 35 yard touchdown pass to Luis Nava. Our Lynx were not going to get "blown" out of the Stadium, so they got together a drive and Mark Guthrie "bullied" his way for a 2 yard touchdown run. Well, Paul Lopez decided to join his buddies in scoring, so he "scampered" for 30 yards and a touchdown. Our Lynx tried for the two point conversion and Coach Morris decided to let Mark Guthrie try--since he had succeeded in his touchdown by bullying his way into paydirt, so Coach wanted to see if Mark could do it again. Well, Mark did get the 2 points--making the score for the Lynx 20 big points. The game ended 25-20, but our Lynx gave the Wolves all they could "chew"!!

Although our Lynx didn't win any games; they still played as good as they could. There is nothing to be ashamed of. Like the saying goes--"It don't matter if you win or lose; it's how you play the game". And our Freshmen Lynx played good enough to win 3/4 of the games they played.

Those that played great on Defense for our Lynx were: Darl Faris, and Randy Farmer. Those who played great on Offense were: Eddie DeLuna, Pat Tucker & Byron Sutterfield. CONGRATULATIONS ON A FINE YEAR BOYS. WAY TO GO COACH MORRIS!!

Basketball Season Begins

Football was officially over Friday nite, and Basketball officially began Saturday. Our Lynxettes went to the Follett Clinic Saturday, Nov. 15, to play the Sanford-Fritch Eaglettes, but the Eaglettes cam out on top by 7 points.

Although our Lynxettes lost, they're not gonna let that get 'em down. It's a long season!! The A & B boys and girls will play Tuesday, Nov. 18 against the Stinnett Rattlers. The game will be played at Stinnett beginning at 4:00 p.m. All four games will be exciting and thrilling, so ya'll plan to make it.

The Freshmen boys and girls will participate in the Follett Tournament which will start this Thursday, Nov. 20, and end Saturday, Nov. 22.

The next game will be played at Sunray against the A & B Bobs cats and Bobkittens. The game will start at 4:00 p.m.

This week promises to be filled with action, so if you can't go to all of the games then go to one of the games. 'Cause one thing our Lynx and Lynxettes are gonna need is hometown support to take 'em thru the season and make 'em District Champions.

Comment On Sports

FOOTBALL *****

By Pete Fritchie
WASHINGTON, D. C. -- One of the unique features of U.S. football, both pro and college, is the uncertainty of the outcome of most games. Mississippi State can upset Alabama. Cincinnati can beat the Steelers twice in a few weeks.

One reason for this is that physical injury plays such a big role in U.S. football. Mental attitude is more important, it's true, but if key players are hurting, or out, the odds are not the same. That's not often a deciding factor in baseball, for example.

On a recent Saturday both UCLA and Bama were knocked off unexpectedly. They were number two and one, respectively, in the college ratings. After that, Notre Dame's fans rightly laid claim to being number one, and if the Irish get by the Tide (which may have happened by the time you read this) and then Southern California, they will be number-one at the end of the year.

Teams like Oklahoma, Nebraska, Texas, etc., are capable of beating any team in the nation on a given day. That's why they--and the Irish--are so often invited to the bowls. Georgia will likely go to a major bowl this year; the Bulldogs don't play Alabama.

Ohio State is again a power, as is Penn State. But as of now, it looks like Notre Dame has the best shot at number-one ranking, and that would be a good send-off for Dan Devine, in his last year at the helm.

FOOTBALL *****

By Pete Fritchie

WASHINGTON, D. C. -- Bart Starr, his job reportedly hanging by a thread, might have turned things around just in time in the National Conference's central division. And, believe it or not, the Green Bay Packers could still win in their division.

The Detroit Lions defeat of Oct. 26 made that quite possible, and Green Bay's win over the Vikings that week left Starr's chargers only a game and a tie back. Even before the end of October, one got the feeling the Packers might be turning things around. They had thoroughly outplayed the Tampa Bay Bucs, even though they only got a tie.

If the Pack can come back, even as the mighty Steelers seem to be falling, those two turnabouts would be among the biggest pro football news of the 1980-81 season. That and the surprising showing of now-mighty Buffalo, and tough Philadelphia.

At halfway point, as November began, the current season was becoming one of the more interesting in recent years, especially with Atlanta challenging Los Angeles and so many teams looking better than last season. The current low points are in New York--both the Giants and Jets--and New Orleans, where the Saints need help badly. In just about every other pro city, however, the representative team is capable of beating or upsetting any foe on a given Sunday.

7th Lynx' Fumbles Lose Game

Our 7th grade Lynx traveled to Boys Ranch November 6 to meet the tough ole boys from Boys Ranch. Our Lynx had not won a game to that point and they were ready and willing to get an "upset" victory over the Roughriders—even a tie would have been alright with our Lynx!!

The half ended with the Roughriders ahead 14-6. Our Lynx Defense had done a super job holding the Roughriders to 14 points at the half. Coach Hager said, "The first half, the Defense played great! The second half, there were too many mistakes and the Roughriders took advantage of 'em."

Well, the second half started and it seemed that the "world that had belonged to the Lynx" in the first half was starting to "rebell and stomp" our Lynx right thru the ground. Every time our Lynx had the ball at their own 20 something "supernatural" happened and our Lynx fumbled 5 times. Of course, Boys Ranch isn't a team that when there's an opportunity that they won't take advantage—cause they did. They made touchdowns on "all of the fumbles" our Lynx made.

Coach Hager said that Julio Garcia made quite a few yards against the stubborn defense of the Riders. By the way, Jeff Valandingham—Fullback—did make the touchdown. Dean Greene caught quite a few passes, again!! He's another Drew Pearson. Martin Lopez, Damon Goodheart and Curtis Porter did a tremendous job on Defense.

Coach Hager said, "Neat the last of the game I put in 2nd string, but the Roughriders left their 1st string in."

Now that's awful "tacky". I have but one thing to say, "7th and 8th grade teams are no: taught to "rub-it-in" but to "respect" the other team. Because if one team "smears" the "life" out of their opponent, they're just doing what their coaches tell 'em to do—I know that, then something is wrong with that team. Teams have got to let their defeated opponents have some "dignity". I have yet to see "any" Lynx team "smear" the "living dignity" out of their opponent. No wonder Spearman is known as the "Pride of the Panhandle".

Way to go Lynx and Lynettes—Football, Basketball, Track, Tennis, Golf, Rodeo, etc.

8th Football Game a Track Meet?!

Boys Ranch is the toughest place to play an opponent. That was the place our 8th grade Lynx went to play the Roughriders—November 6.

Our Lynx had already beat the Roughriders at Lynx Stadium. Coach May said, "It's a lot harder to beat a team the second time."

That's a true statement!! If ya'll saw the Cleveland Browns play the Pittsburgh Steelers which was played at Three Rivers Stadium—Pittsburgh—then ya'll know Coach May's statement is true. Cleveland had already played Pittsburgh and had beat 'em. Well, the Steelers beat the Browns the second time. And the Roughriders beat our Lynx by the score of 32-18.

Brian Williams, the MVP of the State this year in my book, made all three of the Lynx touchdowns!! Coach May said, "The Defense had an off-nite." I suppose they—Lynx—were a little shocked after "witnessing" the 7th grade football game.

Coach May said, "The game started out as a track meet." Both Offenses would go up and down the field scoring as many times as they went down the field.

JV Outplayed by Yellow Flags

What team in District 1-AAA give the Lynx teams most trouble? The Dalhart Wolves. Our Jr. Varsity Lynx played the Wolves Jr. Varsity at Wolf Stadium. So the game would be even tougher. Well, Dalhart won the game 20-6, but our Lynx played great against the powerhouse.

The Wolves had a halftime lead of 20-0. And after the third quarter it looked like the Wolves would shut out our Lynx in the last game of the season.

But Steven Francis didn't think like that. All he thought was, "This is our last game; if we don't win—we surely are not going to be shut out if I can help it!"

Great thinking Steven!! Steven caught a 35 yard touchdown pass.

Coach Collinsworth said, "We'd have 3rd and 2 and then we would get penalized and then we couldn't move."

Our Lynx did try a 35 yard field goal but missed by inches.

Great try. Coach Collinsworth said his team played real good against a team as devastating as Dalhart. Dalhart outplayed our Lynx, but so did the Refs' yellow flags!!

Our Lynx end the season with a 3-6 record. WAY TO GO LYNX!!! WAY TO GO COACH COLLINSWORTH!!

'Tis the Season YMCA News

The custom of hanging up a stocking by the chimney on Christmas Eve probably evolved from a legend surrounding the generosity of St. Nicholas. In the saint's hometown, there lived a man who had lost all his money through a string of unlucky events. This man had three daughters but, since he could not provide a dowry for any of them, it seemed doubtful that they would ever marry. St. Nicholas learned of their predicament and resolved to help them. Since he wanted no recognition or credit for his deed, he quietly came to their house at night and tossed three bags of gold, one for each girl, down the chimney. Each time, the legend tells us, the bag of gold landed in a stocking that was hanging by the fire to dry.

Today, the tradition of hanging Christmas stockings is still widely celebrated by young and old alike. Children usually receive small toys and candy... but often a more practical gift is in order for adults. One great "stocking stuffer" idea is a pair of ODOR-EATERS FOOT WARMERS, from the makers of JOHNSON'S ODOR-EATERS INSOLES. Their fleecy-warm fabric and famous ODOR-EATERS patented charcoal foam will help keep feet warm, dry, and odor-free through the raw, damp winter weather to come. Also great for use indoors, with thermostats being set at all-time lows again this year. They're perfect for all kinds of boots and shoes, ice skates, and ski-boots. Washable, too... and guaranteed for three months!

Hot rum toddies and eggnog are traditional Yuletide "warmers" in America. In Yorkshire, England, people "sup" ale possets for luck... they're a mixture of warm milk, ale, beer, and wine, often quite heavily spiced.

Jimmy Carter, President: "I congratulate you (Ronald Reagan) and pledge to you our fullest support..."

Ronald Reagan, President-elect: "He (Jimmy Carter) graciously offered his cooperation on the transition and I accepted."
