City of Spearman to support Extra Special, Special

Spearman will again be one of the 34 cities taking part in the Panhandle segment of the Jerry Lewis Labor Day Telethon, with their own Pledge Center located at the Fire Department.

Vicky Bullard is serving as coordinator for the Spearman Pledge Center which will be open throughout the Telethon from 8:00 p.m. Sunday, September 5th until 6:30 p.m. Monday, September 6th. A special phone number, 659-5577, has been assigned for use by the people of Spearman, to phone in their pledges. Local coverage of Spearman activities will be on Cable Channel 6 and KRDF FM Radio.

Originating from Las Vegas, the 22 1/2 hour TV Marathon is held to benefit the medical services and research programs of the Muscular Dystrophy Association (MDA). Telephone pledges and donations made through the Spearman Pledge Center, to be manned around the clock by the Rotary Club and Fire Department, will be credited to the citizens throughout the telethon.

The Panhandle show will again be broadcast by KFDA-TV 10 in Amarillo and will feature Mark Robertson-Baker and Ken Baierl as emcees. They will interview patients from pledge center towns, and will recognize various fund-raisers throughout the Panhandle, in addition to first-hand-reports of pledge center activities.

Watch Cable Channel 6 for Day to Day Activity Updates prior to September 5.

A Gruver couple, Tim and Teresa Barkley, suffered a fire in their home in the Harris addition Sunday on the eve of the start of their vacation.

Quick and expert action on the part of the members of the Gruver Volunteer Fire Department held damage to the dwelling to a minimum but the couple suffered the loss of their pet Cocker Spaniel from smoke inhalation.

Mrs. Barkley reportedly left work early to get a head start on last minute preparations for the annual summer vacation. Finding her house filled with smoke, she phoned the Gruver Fire Department.

Cause of the conflagration had not been determined at press time.

The Barkleys moved into a vacant dwelling as a temporary home while investigation and repair is underway at their house.

City Manager A. J. Ratliff had profuse praise for the firefighters who responded to the call Sunday. Ratliff cited the speed and skill of these men as the reason fire damage was closely contained at the Barkley home.

Lynx Scrimmage Guymon Friday

The Spearman Lynx are getting ready for their first scrimmage of the year. They will be going up against the tough Guymon team at Guymon. The game is expected to begin at 6 p.m.

Head Coach Larry Lanier has optimism for this season. His coaching staff and himself have been working hard with the Lynx Freshmen, Jr. Varsity and Varsity players-to-be. The "official" roster for the Lynx has not yet been printed or released. During this first scrimmage, Coach Lanier will see which guys deserve to be on the varsity, on the Jr. Varsity and so on. Y'all go on over to Guymon and cheer on the boys.

They need all the support they can get from their local fans, let's not let them down. One way to show how proud we are of them is to show up at Guymon and cheer them on.

Then next Friday, August 27, the Lynx will be hosts to White Deer--at Lynx Stadium beginning at 6 p.m. Once again, you as a fan will be able to cheer on the guys and prove to them that we are "behind them all the way".

But this year, the Lynx will be taking the season--"one game at a time". So first thing is first and the first scrimmage of the season will be this Friday, August 20, at Guymon beginning at 6 p.m.

The Lynx--all three teams--have been working out in their pads and so forth. Each member doing his duty is what Coach Lanier and his coaching staff are asking for. Make the trip and the Lynx will make the effort to look good at their first scrimmage. Guymon is supposed to have a pretty good team this year.

Once In A Lifetime Opportunity

The local committee for Hansford County History Volume 2 has received the first of the family stories for proofing; already the "Special Pages" have been proofed and returned to the publisher.

The publisher is allowing us to accept orders for books until the final proofs are returned for publication. When that time comes, book sales will be closed. All books must be pre-ordered and paid in advance, this will be the number of books to be printed. If you have not already ordered the "collectors item", or if family members or friends have been left out, do not wait and miss out on this once-in-a-lifetime opportunity! Already when a copy of Volume 1 Hansford County History is made available for sale by someone who purchased more than one copy, this book sells for $50.00 to $60.00. The original cost was $35.00 in 1980. Act now, order this second publication today.

Hansford County Volume 2 contains 562 family stories; a memorial and tribute section; business histories; organizations; new county history not contained in Volume 1; and a comprehensive index for both volumes. It promises to be a book with approximately the same number of pages as Volume 1. IF ENOUGH ORDERS FOR BOOKS ARE RE-CEIVED. If too few books are sold, the number of picture pages will be cut. Order your book today by bringing or sending your check or money to: Stationmaster's House Museum, Spearman; Hansford County Library, Spearman; Sylvia Robertson, 515 Archer, Spearman; Ada Joyce Stedje, Gruver (she has placed an envelope at Gruver Drug for this purpose). Gift certificates are available. These books would make fine Christmas gifts, or birthday gifts for family members.

Cost of Volume 2 Hansford County History is $46.20 including tax; add $3.00 if you wish your book mailed. (Sylvia Robertson, and Ada Joyce Stedje, co-chairmen book committee.)

EATING OUT

By Rose Hughes
ONE of the great American dining traditions is the free glass of ice water--served at the very beginning of one's visit. Unfortunately some clever operators are trying to end this unique courtesy and profit more by not automatically serving free water.

THAT'S the European and worldwide custom, of course. In few other countries does one get a free glass of ice water upon sitting down. But it has no place in this country. Customers should ask for their traditional glass of water--or refuse to patronize restaurants which end this service. (That's a subtle effort to sell more non-free drinks.)

ANOTHER of this country's great dining traditions is free bread and butter. In most other countries one must buy them. In Germany there's a basket of rolls on all tables. At the end of a meal, one tells the waitress or waiter how many rolls one ate. He or she charges accordingly.

STILL another great tradition in the U.S.A., where food is plentiful, is the eat-all-you-wish meal. That's almost never found in other countries; one can return to the buffet spread and get seconds in other countries.

THESE fine traditions make dining out in the United States the best buy in the world. And in some of our chains--such as Brewmaster--one gets all the wine and beer one wants with dinner. That's unheard of abroad.

MAKING PLANS FOR 'UP WITH PEOPLE'

First National Bank president John Cluck goes over the details with "Up With People" representatives Mark Conzemius and Brett Strobel. The 100-member cast of "Up With People" will provide entertainment for the Wheatheart Celebration at the PHS Auditorium at 7 p.m. on Saturday, August 21. Tickets are on sale at the First National Bank and at the Ochiltree Chamber of Commerce office.

Greyhounds

The Gruber Greyhounds are on the growl! Shoes were picked up Wednesday. The first workout-in shorts-is set for Monday (Aug. 9) with the second "hustle" Friday (Aug. 13) in pads. The following Friday-Aug. 20--will be the first scrimmage. It will be here against the Hooker, Okla. squad. One week later, the Greyhounds will go to Dalhart for the last scrimmage before season play begins.

That first game of the season will be a home stand against Vega beginning at 8 p.m., Sept. 3. Greyhound Head Coach Rick Nix said the Vega team has been picked by a prominent magazine to be the winner in its district this season. Coach Nix said he expected some 50 prospective gridsters to turn out when school gets underway. As of now, 12 of these should be seniors. The coach said the quarterback spot particularly was "up for grabs." "Right now, we have two men with experience at the quarterback position," Coach Nix said. "They are Dub Garrett, a junior and Chad Logsdon, a sophomore. Both of them will probably get a 'workout' as season play opens but this does not mean others will not get a shot at the position whether they have experience or not." Nix pointed out that District 1-AA re-alignment left the Gruber Greyhounds with only five conference clashes on their schedule this year. This gives them five non-conference games to "warm-up." "Not counting the two scrimmages, this will give us five tough games to find out who

CAN and who CAN'T," Nix observed. The five non-conference games begin with the previously mentioned schedule with Vega. The second will be against Guymon and will also be a home game. The third tilt will also be the third game in a renewed rivalry with neighboring Spearman. This year, the "Hounds will cross the creek to meet the Lynx on their home grounds. Sept. 24, the Greyhounds will journey to the lair of the tough Panhandle team and then, on Oct. 1, Gruber will host the Canadian squad for the annual Homecoming Game. All five non-conference clashes will start at 8 p.m.

The time schedule moves back to 7:30 with the first conference game Oct. 8--against Stratford on the Greyhounds' home turf. Then comes Stinnett, there, Oct. 15; Sanford-Fritch, here, Oct. 22; White Deer, there, Oct. 29--and the season's climax Nov. 5 against Sunray there. Coach Rick Nix observed that many of these schools had fielded tough teams in the past but noted that all of them would be working up from a large number of raw recruits this season. "It could be a flat-out race to refine that raw talent and the first few games it could be anybody's guess who will turn up with the real mean scene this year," Nix grinned.

Seventh and Eighth grades and the Junior Varsity are often a treasure trove of talent that will eventually move on to the Varsity. Because of this, these squads have, in the past, drawn a large number of spectators for each game and a lot of support from home, school staff and student body. Their opening game of the season, Sept. 2, is a home game against Stratford and features only the Junior Varsities. That game starts at 7 p.m. The remaining nine games, the last five of them district tilts, will begin at 5 p.m. because they involve Seventh, Eighth and the JV. Sept. 9, they play Stinnett there; Sept. 16, Panhandle, here; Sept. 23, White Deer, there; and Sept. 30, Sunray, there. Then, with one exception, district play is a re-run of the warmup cycle. Oct. 7, Stratford there; Oct. 14, Stinnett here; Oct. 21, Sanford-Fritch there; Oct. 28, White Deer here and the climax: Nov. 4, Sunray here. Coach Nix said he was making a special "push" to get Gruber fans, faculty and student body to back each squad in a big way in each game they play this season. With a large number of fans already plotting pre-game strategy around the local coffee cups, one of them just may have hit on a description of the action this season. "When a dog wags his tail, he usually wants to play. With the Greyhounds, it usually means some swivel-hipped broken field running and THAT just may end putting the bite on the other teams' championship homes this year!"

Richard Snelling, Governor (R-Vt), chairman of National Governors' Assn.: "The governors cannot support a plan that fails to provide for the medically needy, discourages adequate state welfare assistance or ignored differences in state burdens."

Farnsworth fire is a minor blaze

So far as activity among city departments is concerned, this past week in Spearman was quiet--which is the way the dog days of a waning summer are supposed to be lived. The only stir--and that of little consequence--was a fire call that took Spearman firefighters and equipment to a point five miles north of Farnsworth just before press time, Tuesday. The fire, at an irrigation facility, was quickly tapped out and firefighters were on their way back to town. Other than that alarm, routine traffic tickets were the only activity confronting the Spearman Police Department.

Jr. Lusby Cats & First State Bank Red Hots Are...

1982 Co-Champs In Softball

The final games--in a matter of speaking--were played on Friday, August 13, and on Monday, August 16. They were two days of excitement and glory for a couple of teams.

First of all the games played on Friday, August 13 included the biggest game of the season--the game between A&L Printing and First State Bank Red Hots, who were tied for second. Sports Tally had already forfeited their game to J&J Enterprise at the Jaycee Ballpark. So there were going to be lots of folks at this game. Not particularly, not as many as predicted. Some were in the stands, some on the grass, but most of the fans in their cars. There were a few interested spectators at this game. First of all, the Red Hots had already beaten A&L once before, the question now was, could they do it again? Well, Brenda Shieldknight, the Red Hots' Pitcher, did a fine job barely walking folks, and making her opponents hit bad pitches, where her infield could make outs and where her outfield could catch the flies. The Red Hots played an excellent game, as a matter of fact, both teams played exceptionally well in the first 2 or 3 innings, no one scoring a single point. Then, all of a sudden, the Red Hots made hits, RBI's--Runs Batted In, by the batter--excellent base running. A&L found itself losing in the biggest game of their season. They tried desperately to make a comeback, and almost succeeded, but First State held on to win the game. This gave A&L their 3rd loss of the season, and put First State Bank Red Hots back in the drivers seat, if they defeated the Sororities on Monday, then the Red Hots would be tied for First Place. While all this was going on, the Jr. Lusby Cats would now be getting ready to cheer on the Sororities to victory over the First State Bank Red Hots. A&L, last year's Champs, had to hang up their Title Claims and wait for next year.

First State was ready for the "thrill of victory" not the "agony of defeat".

The final games were played on Monday, August 16. There were lots of spectators at the first game, A&L Printing going up against J&J Enterprise. A few folks thought this would be "an easy game" for A&L to win, well, J&J proved them wrong. J&J played one terrific game. They never let up. They played as a team determined to win. They had only won 3 games in the season, this would be a fantastic victory. J&J played the game against A&L as if this was the Title game. They really worked hard. Each one scoring at one time or another. A&L had to work harder than they figured, they had to work as hard as they did when they defeated Jr. Lusby. The players for J&J Enterprise--every single one--scored or brought in a run at one time or another. The lead would change at the end of each teams bat. In other words, at the top of the inning the lead would change, at the bottom of that same inning, the lead would change again. The last at bat was A&L Printing, so they had an advantage to start with. Let me tell y'all something, both teams proved to the fans and to each other that "Wheaties" does make a difference in a game. Well, J&J lost by 3 points--19-22. If you weren't at the game, then you don't know what you missed, and if you were there, then you know how J&J played--with the self-confidence of any team wanting to win!! The members of J&J include Criselda Vela--Pitcher, Ciria Vela--3rd Base, Tammy Garcia--Rover, Sara Avila--Center, Maria Rosales--1st Base, Terri Dewberry--Shortstop, Melissa Davis--Left Field, Tierra Smith--2nd Base, Ramona Garcia--Right Field and Olivia Renteria--Catcher. Congratulations to each and everyone of the J&J Enterprise team for improving as the year went by. The team members for A&L Printing include Pam Barber--Shortstop, Brenda Vera--Right Field, Jeane Close--Center Field, Kim Vera--Left Field, Ginger Coffee--2nd Base, Tina Woolley--3rd Base, Janet Reed--Rover, Royce--1st Base, Stacey Cook--2nd Base, Tina--Catcher, Linda Wilkerson--Pitcher--A&L was last year's champs, this year they finish in 3rd Place. Congratulations on having a fine season. The final game played was between First State Bank Red Hots and Sororities. First State had to win and they proved to be worthy of the Co-Championship. Sororities had an excellent season, surprising most folks of this year's League. Congratulations to all the Sororities' players for playing with the intensity to win and keep their heads high even when they lost.

So now there is a tie for First Place. There has been no word from June Sexton, the Chairman of the Women's Softball League, but the question is "Will there be a play-off?" "Will the League have Co-Champions?" Well, each team defeated each other once, so they deserve to share the Championship Title for a year!! The team members include: Donna Yarbrough--Pitcher, Ronda Witten--Shortstop, Shelly Lackey [of Gruver]--Rover, Kathy Beck--2nd Base, Janeen Baumgardner--Center Field, JoDell Tigrett--Left Field, Kari Lou Schumann--1st Base, Cheryl Gibson--Catcher, Kenda Burke--3rd Base, Judy Tindell--Right Field and Brenda Clark--2nd Base. Congratulations to the Jr. Lusby Cats for being Co-Champs of the 1982 Wo-

Clark Mires Returns To Coaching

Clark Mires, former football coach here, has returned to coaching. Mires will be on the Caprock varsity football staff in Amarillo this year.

Mires has been out of coaching and in various business enterprises since he resigned from the Spearman School System in the spring of 1973.

Mires guided the Lynx to an 8-1-1 record during the 1972 season. That was the best record in school history to that point. He also coached the first player ever picked from Spearman to play in the Texas High School Coaches All-Star Game, Mike Floyd, who played at Texas A&M.

Mires was an all-district center for three seasons at Lamesa High School. He was a good basketball player there. He attended West Texas State on an athletic scholarship until a neck injury cut short that career.

He got into weightlifting and was the state AAU champion in 1963. He also was state runner-up in Golden Gloves boxing.

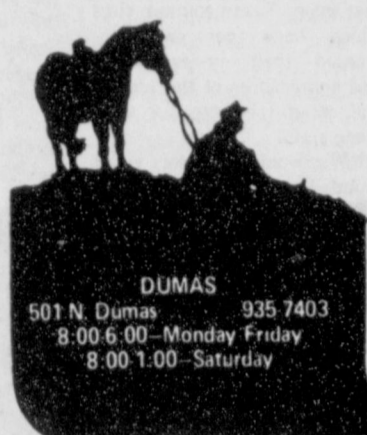

Mires was an assistant football coach to Dalhart and Canyon before taking the head job at Stratford in 1970. His next move was here where he revitalized the Lynx.

SAVE ENERGY AND TIME IN MEAL PREPARATION

Has continuous "kitchen duty" drained your energy and time banks?

"Maximize" your efficiency with steps designed for saving time and energy—especially human energy—in meal preparation.

Identify ways specific jobs can be performed using the least amount of time and energy to increase efficiency.

'WORKABLE' KITCHEN A 'MUST'

A good way to begin is by spending some time organizing your kitchen. Arrange storage and work areas so that equipment and supplies are within easy reach.

This will save steps across the kitchen each time you need something.

TOOLS A KEY
If you've been struggling along with prehistoric tools, maybe now's the time to replace them.

Proper equipment and utensils that get the job done—and knowing how to use them—will go a long way toward time-and-energy savings.

For instance, using a blender to grate and crumble bread and cheese takes less time than hand grating or grinding them.

Granted, new equipment does cost more money initially, but most items, if chosen wisely, will be one-time investments.

TIME MATTERS

Another factor to consider is time spent in the kitchen, both busy time and "watching time"—the latter often wasted.

Instead of standing idle, use "watching time" to prepare other meals. For example, make up juice for tomorrow's breakfast, sandwich fillings for tomorrow's packed lunches or salads and desserts for tomorrow's dinner.

In order to prepare as much food—with as little energy—as possible, maximize time and energy—both human and fossil-fuel energy.

Prepare a roast large enough for two or three meals, or make two pies and freeze one.

Prepare enough of your favorite casserole for two meals and freeze half. This way you've saved not only time but also energy.

Be sure to estimate time needed to prepare each item in the meal. This will help you determine in advance the order of preparation.

CLEAN-UP CONSERVES

One of the greatest enemies of efficiency is procrastination. Don't put off cleaning up, but instead save time by cleaning as you work. This will provide you with more clutter-free space.

Soak used utensils and equipment immediately or place in a dishwasher. Dried-on foods are difficult to remove from utensils, so avoid waiting to clean them.

ASSEMBLY LINE 'ASSISTS'

Another way to save time is with the assembly-line approach—perform all tasks of one kind at one time. Do all trimming and peeling before starting to chop, or measure all dry ingredients before wet ones.

MENU PLAN SAVES

Menu-planning can also save the cook time and energy. Planning ahead helps determine the length of meal preparation, and it ensures efficient shopping.

NEW IDEAS HELP

Finally, to control the use of time and energy, be receptive to new ideas. Try new meals, recipes or even methods of cooking and baking that save time and energy. Also try out new products that are time savers.

Shorthorn Association Recognizes Producers

James W. Shirley, executive secretary of the American Shorthorn Association, has announced that seven "Builders of the Breed" award recipients have been named for 1982.

The annual awards were first presented in 1945 and are presented to breeders who have made outstanding contributions to the development of the Shorthorn/Polled Shorthorn cattle breed. They are all involved in Shorthorn cattle operations and exhibit their leadership in breed associations, agricultural, civic and service organizations.

The recipients for 1982 are Robert Dahl, Gruver, Tx.; Stanley Melroe, Gwinner, N.D.; Roger Steiger, Delavan, Il. Orville and Kendrick Berg, Osage, Ia.; Paul Dugdale, Omaha, S.D.; Mike Schrag, Marion, Ne.; and Darrel, Dave, and Dean Steck, Wataga, Il.

Robert Dahl, Gruver, Tx., has developed the cow herd at Palo Acre Farms with quality and performance in mind. Strict culling has been practiced for these traits since the herd began in 1968 with the purchase of one bull and four females. The cow herd, that now numbers over 100 registered females, shows selection for size and correctness. Dahl contributes much of the improvement to their herd sire of recent years, Spiro X, and the introduction of selected Irish bloodlines through AF Deerpark Dividend 932 and Ballyart Advancer, with Dividend and Guinness used artificially. Palo Acre Farms have participated in numerous shows, have produced a number of All-Americans and market a large number of the calves to junior exhibitors for show purposes. Dahl is active in numerous church activities, has been a 4-H and Boy Scout leader, is a former basketball referee and is listed in the Blue Book of Texas. He has been president and vice president of the Five State Shorthorn Association and currently is a director for that organization. He has been a director for several years of the Texas Shorthorn Association and is presently serving as vice president. He has served on the Texas delegation to the annual meetings of the American Shorthorn Association for many years. He has served on the steer sifting committee of the Southwestern Exposition & Fat Stock Show and Houston Stock Show. Dahl is also a member of the American Cattle Breeders Hall of Fame, Texas edition.

The Robert Dahl family also includes his wife, Suellen; their three children, Wade, Brenda, and Scott; Angie, wife of Wade, and their daughter, Jennifer.

First Guide To Historic Sites

The meaning, spirit and feel of Texas' heritage will come alive in a first-time guide to historic shrines and sites that every Texan should visit.

The booklet on where to go to experience the Lone Star story is a Texas Heritage Project of the Texas Historical Foundation. This handy heritage reference will be distributed free to schools, tourist bureaus, libraries and chambers of commerce.

Mrs. W.R. Knowles, chairman of the activity, requests that every Texan submit sites which have personally increased their understanding and appreciation of the unique and colorful heritage of their home state.

"We would like for every proud Texan to submit those locations which they recommend their children, grandchildren, out-of-state guests and newcomers should visit," Mrs. Knowles emphasized.

"This much needed guide will be of great assistance to new and native citizens in discovering the roots of Texas' traditional values of courage, independence, work ethic and freedom of opportunity. Visiting these significant shrines, monuments and sites will heighten the awareness of and strengthen ties to our incomparable legacy," Mrs. Knowles continued.

Suggestions for those sites every Texan should visit can be sent to: Texas Heritage Project, Box 12243, Austin, Tx. 78711.

School Again

The freedom of summer for millions of youngsters is coming to an end, and the "necessary tragedy" of school approaches.

This, of course, is not the proper view. Many look forward to school, a healthy reaction. But the Huck Finns among us love freedom under summer skies. The end of vacation coincides nostalgically with the end of summer.

Fall, nevertheless, has its attractions—cooler weather, clear skies and landscapes, football, hunting, etc. That doesn't make the approaching end of summer less sad for children who enjoy it as their annual time of freedom.

It should be remembered, in this sorrow, that school makes vacation summers what they are. The time will come for most when a few weeks' vacation a year, if that, will be the annual hope.

FREE EDUCATION AND THE UNDOCUMENTED WORKER

On June 15, 1982, The Supreme Court ruled, 5-4, that Texas and other states must provide free public education for the children of undocumented workers—people in this country illegally.

Our current Lt. Governor, Mr. Hobby, was happy with the decision, praising it as the "only rational decision" the court could have made.

On the contrary, I think it was a wrong decision that defied both law and logic.

One of the principal underpinnings of an orderly society is that one should not benefit from breaking the law. All around the world, thousands of people stand patiently in line at our embassies, waiting for legal entry into this country. By its recent ruling, the Supreme Court told these people that, if they are smart, they will ignore our immigration laws, find some other way to enter, and then there's a good likelihood all manner of taxpayer-supported benefits will be open to them and their families.

We can all feel sympathy for people driven to emigrate by desperate economic conditions. And I believe we should be compassionate toward the children of undocumented workers who are here through no fault of their own. We have been told we must educate these children and we will; it is our duty.

But I am deeply concerned about the effect this will have on our school systems and the quality of education. We have only a certain amount of desks and dollars with which to address the problems of educating Texas' children.

The court was essentially establishing social policy under the guise of ruling on a constitutional question. The result was bad law and bad social policy. It should now be up to the Federal Government to help pay for the mess they have created by not properly policing our borders.

Congressman Hightower's Washington Report

Because of my long-standing advocacy of a balanced federal budget, and in view of the Congress' and Administration's continuing difficulty in achieving that goal, it is clear to me that stricter procedural rules and stronger fiscal medicine are needed to correct the chief cause of inflation, high interest rates and recession: chronic budget deficits. Although in the past, I have favored amending out: constitution as a last resort, I am increasingly convinced that we need to take this step, and we need to do so now.

The amendment I am co-sponsoring, H.J.R. 350, would require a three-fifths vote of both houses of Congress before any spending over the budget could be allowed. That three-fifths is extremely difficult to get on any vote, regardless of which political party controls the House or Senate. The only exception to the amendment would be if the President declared a national emergency such as war or disaster which might require special spending. I have been on record as favoring a balanced federal budget since 1961, and my voting in Congress has been with that as a top priority. Although many of us have fought through the years to cut spending, demands on the federal dollar have intensified. Last January, President Reagan, despite his advocacy of a balanced budget, submitted a 1983 fiscal year budget proposal to Congress containing a whopping $184 billion deficit estimate. I think that points out the difficulty of doing what must be done.

In just twenty-one years, from 1961 to 1982, federal spending increased from $98 billion to $725 billion, a 740% rise. Many factors are responsible: the Vietnam War, staggering OPEC oil price increases, but most of all, ever-expanding domestic spending designed to meet the needs of a modern nation.

I have argued for some time that the way the disease of inflation, and bring down interest rates, is for Congress and the Administration to make hard choices and bring spending into line with revenue gradually, but firmly, over a fixed period of time. A constitutional amendment will not magically balance the budget itself, but it will give us a mechanism making it much harder to deficit-spend. It will refocus the congressional spending bias away from chronic deficits and toward sensible fiscal policy.

WINNING CROP DISASTER AID FOR FARMERS

On July 15th, the Department of Agriculture announced that farmers whose crops were destroyed by intense rain, wind, hailstorms and cold weather in May and June in a 40-county area of West Texas would be receiving emergency disaster assistance. This announcement was a major victory for many of us who have been working to get the Administration to respond to our farm communities' worsening depression. The request for help was first made in a letter to Agriculture Secretary Block from me, Rep. Charles Stenholm and Rep. Kent Hance on June 25th, followed up by our invitation to Department officials to inspect the damaged areas. They agreed to come down, and their subsequent estimates were that some 2.3 million acres of 4 million were affected. Between $50 and $60 million in cotton alone was devastated.

In the meantime, Senators Bentsen, Tower and Governor Clements expressed concern and actively worked with us to convince the Administration of the need of act. Numerous farm groups and local officials worked with U.S.D.A. personnel, and a strong and successful bipartisan effort got the aid approved. Producers of cotton, wheat and feed grains will be receiving financial aid disaster payments based on the percentage of crop they lost. Hopefully this will help many survive these natural disasters coming on top of the worst farm depression since the 1930's. Thirty-two of our district's 33 counties were successfully included in the aid package, as were Baylor, Knox, Kent and Floyd counties which become part of the 13th District at the end of the year through redistricting.

THE SCHOOL PRAYER AMENDMENT

I have always been one who believe that our country's past, present and future welfare was and is greatly dependent on our dedication to religious freedom and private worship. The official atheism of the Soviet Union and the religious fanaticism of Khomeni's Iran are extreme examples of government denial or government dominance of religion. Just as it is constitutionally and politically proper that we Americans continue to observe the principle of "separation of Church and State," I also believe that government should not interfere with or deny the free practice of religion.

There have been a number of proposals for a constitutional amendment to "restore school prayer." Most of these proposals, unfortunately, have been worded in such a way that they would probably create more legal and religious problems than they would resolve. Many religious leaders, as well as respected legal scholars, agree that we must not put anything in the Constitution that could be twisted into government mandated worship. I do not believe that prayer should ever become perverted into a "compelled public ritual." At that point, it is no longer prayer in the true sense.

However, ever since the Supreme Court's landmark decision prohibiting state or local authorities from requiring an official state prayer in community schools, I have been increasingly concerned about the widespread misbelief that the Supreme Court banned all prayer from our public schools. Subsequently lower federal court decisions have further muddied the legal waters and contributed to public misunderstanding. Therefore, I am supporting a resolution for a constitutional amendment which reads as follows:

NOTHING IN THIS CONSTITUTION SHALL BE CONSTRUED TO PROHIBIT INDIVIDUAL OR GROUP PRAYER IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS OR OTHER PUBLIC INSTITUTIONS. NO PERSON SHALL BE REQUIRED BY THE UNITED STATES OR BY ANY STATE TO PARTICIPATE IN PRAYER.

This would, in my judgement, remove the uncertainty that has existed since the Supreme Court's decision and would not violate the important principle of Church-State separation. If such a resolution comes to the House, I will vote to submit it to the states for ratification. This is an affirmation of what I have always believed the law to be and what most people believed prior to the Court's decision and the later actions of other courts.

DEFENSE, CIVIC LEADERSHIP AWARDS RECEIVED

On July 3rd in Wichita Falls, I was honored by the military personnel at Sheppard Air Force Base as the first recipient of the new Sheppard Air Force Base Contributor Award. Major General Harry A. Morris, Base Commander, made the presentation citing my "support of the various missions at SAFB, the Air Force and the United States." Sheppard AFB has become one of the most important training bases in the United States.

Earlier this year, I was honored to receive a National Security Leadership Award for my work in Congress to rebuild and strengthen our defense posture over the years. The Award was presented by the Americans Security Council, the executive committee of the Coalition for Peace Through Strength. The Coalition is an organization of pro-defense groups throughout the U.S. which includes the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the American Legion.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

"... The dogmas of the quiet past are inadequate to the stormy present. The occasion is piled high with difficulties, and we must rise with the occasion. As our case is new, so must we think anew, and act anew. We must disenthrall ourselves, and then we shall save our country..."

North Plains Field Day August 18

AMARILLO, TEXAS--People interested in ways to cut farm production costs are invited to the North Plains Field Day, Wednesday, August 18, near Etter, Texas. Dr. G.B. Thompson, Texas A&M Research Director, will host this annual tour. Featured will be research on limited tillage and irrigation. The program will start at 1:30 p.m. by the headquarters of the Texas A&M North Plains Research Field located about 1.5 miles east and 1 mile north of Etter.

The program will begin with a Welcome by Joe Cox, Chairman of the North Plains Research Field Steering Committee. Dr. Bob Merrifield, Associate Director will discuss the overall research program of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station. A tour of research in the field will follow the opening program.

Cotton, corn and sorghum variety trials will be the first stops on the tour. According to Cecil Regier, manager of the research field, Paymaster 145 cotton produced over a bale per acre and grossed 230 dollars per acre in 1981. This variety was markedly more resistant to drift from 2,4-D than the other 36 varieties evaluated.

Over 90 hybrids each of corn and sorghum are being evaluated with a high level of irrigation and fertility. These trials will be discussed by Kenneth Holloway, Moore County Extension Agent, and Dr. Frank Petr, Area Agronomist with the Texas Agricultural Experiment Service.

Tillage systems on dryland and under center pivot irrigation will be explained by Dr. Paul Unger, USDA Soil Scientist, and Dr. Dan Undersander, Texas Agricultural Experiment Station Agronomist. Unger will describe research conducted for 15 years at the USDA Research Laboratory at Bushland and a new experiment at Etter in which limited irrigation, furrow diking and limited tillage will be integrated. Undersander has four tillage systems under high and low pressure center pivot systems. Corn and sorghum are planted under each pivot. People on the tour will be able to see how furrow diking and no-tillage greatly reduce runoff under a low pressure pivot.

Efficiency of high and low pressure sprinkler systems has been evaluated for three years by Tom Marek, Agricultural Engineer. His research shows that crop yield is not affected by pressure of the irrigation system.

Finally, Dr. Wyatt Harman will discuss economic analyses of several minimum tillage and irrigation systems.

Reducing production cost while maintaining high yields will be the key to economic survival for farmers. "Observing our research at Etter will help farmers toward that goal", Dr. Tompson said.

Institute On Substance Abuse Set

The ninth Annual Panhandle Institute on Substance Abuse, scheduled for Sept. 9 and 10 at West Texas University, will feature two nationally-known experts on substance abuse as keynote speakers.

Dr. Donald MacDonald, president-elect of the Florida Pediatric Society, will keynote the first day's activities with a presentation on drugs and youth. Dr. MacDonald has been affiliated with the American Council on Marijuana and the National Institute on Drug Abuse.

The second day's activities will begin with a speech by Dr. Douglas Talbott. He began his medical career as a cardiologist and worked as a senior consultant for NASA, helping select crews for the Mercury, Gemini and Apollo projects. He is currently director of the Alcohol and Drug Program at the Ridgeview Institute in Smyrna, Georgia.

Both MacDonald and Talbott will be participating in concurrent workshops during the days they are associated with the institute. Joining them will be more than a dozen national, state and local experts in various facets of the drug and alcohol problem, DWI legislation and employee assistance programs.

In addition to the workshops dealing specifically with substance abuse, a roundtable discussion featuring state elected officials, judges and probation officers will look into proposed DWI legislation and how it will affect the role of the courts.

Cong. Hightower Will Be Speaker For USDA Event

Congressman Jack E. Hightower of Vernon will be the principal speaker at a field day to be held at the USDA Soil Conservation Service Plant Materials Center at Knox City on August 25, 1982.

Congressman Hightower serves on the conservation, credit, and rural development subcommittee within the Committee on Appropriations. He will speak about 12:30 p.m.

Monnie Edwards, district conservationist for SCS at Spearman, said the public is being invited to the event. The center serves both Texas and Oklahoma.

Guided tours will be conducted through the 90-acre center from 9:00 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. The center is located on FM 1292, 2 miles north and 2 1/2 miles west of Knox City.

POLITICAL AD

Voter turnout verges on the pathetic these days, because politics smell too bad to too many people.

I have a couple of suggestions:

"First, election campaigns are too long, with too much opportunity to buy an election. These should be shortened to no more than 90 days, with Texas primary elections about Sept. 1, 60 days or so before the established general election in early November.

Second, politicians build corrupt little empires when they hold an office a long time. Let's limit time in legislative offices to a maximum of eight years -- then, UP or OUT.

When a fellow stays around Austin too long, he forgets that the people he is supposed to represent live back in his district.

Hightower Urges Regulatory Relief For Farmers, Ranchers, Landowners

Potter County Sheriff T.L. Baker will also be featured the second day, talking about county-based restitution centers where offenders reimburse their victims of their crimes as part of their rehabilitation.

Area lawmen, hospital emergency room personnel and anyone else who comes in contact with violent, aggressive and intoxicated persons will benefit from a day-long workshop being presented by Lucy Dowling, an education specialist with the Texas Hospital Association.

One of the special features of this year's institute will be a performance of Through Our Eyes, an original drama with music written and presented by participants in Amarillo Theatre Centre's summer children's program. It will be presented the night of Sept. 9. The play focuses on the effects of alcoholism, drug abuse and peer pressure on the family.

The other special event will be the second annual Distinguished Service Award, presented by the institute's organizing committee. Last year, the honor went to former Potter County Judge Branch T. Archer for his pioneering work in establishing the Panhandle Alcoholic Recovery Center at the Old Amarillo Air Force Base.

The institute is planned and conducted by a subcommittee of the Panhandle Regional Alcoholism Advisory Committee, and advisory group to the PRPC's Board of Directors. It is co-sponsored by 16 area agencies and companies. Last year, it drew a crowd of 165. About 200 are expected this year.

A barbecue lunch will be available on a prepaid basis at $4.50 per plate. Payment should be sent to Ms. Doris Crowover, Chamber of Commerce, Box 91, Knox City, Texas 79529 by August 20.

Seed or rootstock from native plants that show potential for solving specific soil and water conservation problems are collected, then grown and evaluated at the Knox City Center. The more promising ones are then tested under field conditions by farmers and ranchers cooperating with local soil and water conservation districts. Selections which prove superior to commercial varieties are then released to seed growers. These producers then grow seed and sell it to the public.

Several hundred strains of grasses, legumes, forbs, and woody plants are being tested at Knox City.

SCS also operates a plant materials center at Kingsville in cooperation with the Caesar Kleberg Wildlife Research Institute, Texas A&I University, and the South Texas Association of Soil and Water Conservation Districts. The South Texas center was established in 1981.

Congressman Jack Hightower today urged a key House committee to act on his bill to reform U.S. water laws as they affect playa lake areas like those in the 13th District. Hightower testified before the House Committee on Merchant Marine and Fisheries arguing for changes in federal law that would provide relief to farmers, ranchers and landowners whose land includes playa lake areas.

Under the present wording of the law, playa lakes which only contain water briefly after rainstorms, are included in the definition of "navigable waterways." Hightower is seeking a clearer definition of navigable waterways which would exclude such playa lake areas. Hightower claims federal jurisdiction over playa lake areas is unnecessary and federal bureaucratic intrusion into the rights of landowners and others.

"When the Federal Water Pollution Control Act was written in 1972, its language regarding restrictions on dredge and fill operations in Section 404 were much too vague," Hightower said. "Therefore, we've come to the ridiculous situation where the federal government has questioned a man's right to fill in eight feet of swampy area in his backyard because it may technically come under the jurisdiction of the Act. It's this kind of federal intrusion that I'm trying to eliminate with my bill." Hightower was referring to a case of a man in Appleton, Wisconsin, who was warned by federal officials that he was in technical violation of the Act and that he faced possible fines of up to $25,000.

The Hightower bill, H.R.

3962, would make clear that for purposes of dredge and fill operations, the federal government would have jurisdiction only over navigable waterways which could be used for interstate transportation, the original intent of the 1972 Act. The bill also re-establishes clear state jurisdiction over those waters not included under the navigable waters definition.

"There's a situation on the Trinity River in Texas where a federal district court judge reviews all Section 404 permits for a 200-mile segment of the river," Hightower explained. "and we had a highway near Amarillo stopped in the middle of construction because a part of it was being built through a low area that was technically under the jurisdiction of the Act. Farmers and ranchers who own land with these areas think it's silly for the government to call them 'wetlands' and I certainly agree. I don't think it's the federal government's business if a farmer or rancher in my district digs a trench to water cattle or crops." Hightower told the Committee.

The American National Farm Bureau has endorsed the Hightower bill and the Assistant Secretary of the Army for Civil Works, William Gianelli, testified that he, too, agreed with the intent of the bill. The Army Corps of Engineers, which is involved in water and construction issues, comes under Gianelli's jurisdiction. Although other similar pieces of legislation have been introduced in the House, the Committee preferred to consider the Hightower bill during its review of the Section 404, Dredge and Fill, part of the Act.

Experiment Station Plans Field Day

LUBBOCK--Research aimed at helping High Plains farmers make better management decisions about their crops will be demonstrated Sept. 14 at the 73rd annual field day of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station (TAES) at Lubbock and Halfway.

The Texas A&M University High Plains Research Facility at Halfway, 14 miles west of Plainview on U.S. Hwy. 70 is the host this year, said Dr. Bill Ott, resident director of research for the Lubbock-Halfway centers. The annual program alternates between the two facilities, in cooperation with the High Plains Research Foundation.

Five major displays are planned on the tours of the research sites at Halfway, said James Bordovsky, research agricultural engineer and field day chairman. These stops will illustrate research being conducted in weed research, cotton breeding and variety testing, and cotton bollworm control; explain work on new management strategies, including on-farm computer application; and display a new multi-function irrigation system which will apply both water and chemicals through a dual nozzle system.

Also featured on the tour will be research on sorghum improvement, mite control, soil fertility, grain sorghum performance, and soybean evaluation. Farm machinery, irrigation equipment and other farm implements will be on display by area manufacturers and suppliers.

Tours will begin at 1 p.m. and end at 5 p.m.

The field day is a cooperative presentation of TAES, the High Plains Research Foundation, the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and the Agricultural Research Service of the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

Professional staffs of these agencies will be on hand to answer questions and discuss problems with agricultural producers, home owners and gardeners, Bordovsky said.

Boys Ranch Rodeo

Pint-size cowboys on professional rodeo animals will highlight the 38th Annual Boys Ranch Rodeo that gets underway over the Labor Day weekend.

Area riding clubs from a tri-state area will join the nearly 400 boys of Cal Farley's Boys Ranch when the rodeo is held on September 5 and 6. More than 200 boys will be riding bareback broncs, Brahma bulls, steers, calves and stick-horses, depending upon their ages. A specialty act that proved very popular last year, a wild-steer race, will be included in the action this year. Approximately 10,000 people, including many of the Ranch's former boys, are expected to attend the two performances at 2:30 p.m., Sunday and Monday.

Reserve box seat tickets for $3.50 are on sale at the Ranch administrative office at 600 West 11th Street in Amarillo, and can be obtained by calling 806/372-2341. General admission tickets are $2.50 and can be purchased at the rodeo arena or in Amarillo. Barbecue beef plates will be sold by the boys for only $3.00. The Boys Ranch Rodeo is the only rodeo of its kind in the nation, according to Ranch officials.

'Up With People' In Perryton

"The opportunities are vast that come with being a part of Up With People. But it's up to the individual to take advantage of such opportunities . . . to learn and grow. The combined experiences of travel, performing, living with host families, and an exposure to broad cultures is something you can't put a price on."

The words come from Mark Conzemius, 23 and a native of Minnesota who, along with 18-year-old Brett Strobel from Boise, Idaho, is in town to promote the upcoming Perryton stop of Up With People. Conzemius toured with Up With People in 1979-80 and now works as a staffer for the international touring group. The two will be in Perryton for a couple of weeks before the 110-member troupe arrives, working out details of the show and gaining an insight to the Perryton community.

"We want to get a feel for the Perryton community," said Conzemius. "We don't want to be just another organization to come into town, hit the motel, perform, and catch the first bus out." Indeed, the entire Up With People program is carefully planned and executed in an overall attempt to "build bridges of understanding and communication among peoples, cultures and countries."

The cast of Up With People will be arriving in Perryton two weeks from tonight. A barbeque dinner will be hosted by United Supermarket and the Wheatheart Shrine Club, where the cast will meet their hosting families. The troupe coming to Perryton includes young people (ages 18 to 26) from 32 different states and more than a dozen foreign countries. Up With People has a total of seven casts, five of which tour in various parts of the U.S. and then go abroad.

The entire Up With People movement, more than 500 cast members strong, has only recently organized for the 1982-83 year. Dress rehearsals were held in Tucson, Ariz., on July 14. The Perryton show will be the second stop of the season.

"Up With People is an educational experience," explained Conzemius, "and new casts are chosen each year. In other words, we don't have any repeaters." The annual budget of Up With People is nearly $8 million. Just over half of the funding comes from performances and ticket sales. Just under a third comes from student fees (the cast members pay a tuition fee of $5,300 each) and about one-fifth of the revenue comes from gifts and grants.

First National Bank of Perryton is sponsoring the group in Perryton.

The cast will be in Perryton for three nights. Saturday, August 21, is the big day, of course, as Up With People will appear in the Wheatheart of the Nation Celebration parade as well as presenting their concert at 7 p.m. in the high school auditorium. (Tickets are on sale at the First National Bank and the Chamber of Commerce.)

In between, the group will be making various tours in and around Perryton. Plans call for the touring of a wheat farm operation as well as a local oil and gas-related business. Cast members are hoping to be able to make a stop out at Senior Village. Other activities will include a mixer, put on by the Chamber of Commerce, and the 10K and fun runs, in which some of the cast is expected to take part.

The two ambassadors of the Up With People show doing promotion work in Perryton from different backgrounds. Conzemius hails from the small town of Madena in Minnesota and was graduated earlier this year from North Dakota State University. He earned a bachelor's of university studies degree, with an emphasis on communications. As a staffer this year with Up With People, he received a salary that doesn't do a whole lot more than cover expenses. But that doesn't tint his enthusiasm whatsoever.

Strobel, meanwhile, is just fresh out of high school and is sewing his oats, so to speak, right here in Perryton. In high school, he was a member of the choir, debate team, Key Club, and was a columnist for the school newspaper. The Borah High School Newspaper, by the way, was judged one of the top five in the U.S.

Joining Conzemius in promotion and public relations is just one of Strobel's assignments for the year. He will be singing and dancing with Up With People, but had expressed a desire to learn about and be exposed to public relations. Such is the educational experience and the opportunities that Conzemius referred to earlier.

Here in Perryton, the two will be speaking at various civic and service clubs as well as meeting with the area media and finalizing plans for the upcoming show. Both also are on the lookout for young people of the Perryton community who might be interested in joining the tour group next year. In every town, interviews are conducted with interested young people. "Pure talent isn't the measure of who can be in Up With People," said Conzemius. "I'm not a great singer but I had the want to be a part." The interviews will be conducted following the Saturday night concert.

As of mid-week, some 30 families had signed up to be host families for the Up With People cast. That's about half of the total number needed.

Teresa Brillhart is in charge of assigning host families and anyone interested in hosting a student or two should contact her. Conzemius and Strobel can be contacted through the bank.

PORTS OF CALL

... FOR TRAVEL AND ADVENTURE BY EDWARD H. SIMS

WASHINGTON, D. C. -- The next two months are glorious for enjoying the countryside. In the east, the most famous scenic drive is from west of Washington to northern Georgia--beginning as the Skyline Drive and turning into the Blue Ridge Parkway.

This is a 400-mile trip, along the top ridges of mountains. There are no trucks and no billboards, and one can drive between 55 and 45, stopping at the hundreds of overlooks and parking areas.

October is the peak month for color, of course, but September (and August in the higher altitudes) is also beautiful. A gap which has existed in the parkway for years has just been completed and its entire length is kept in top condition by federal maintenance crews. Free literature is available at various places along the parkway.

Motorists should double the driving time which would be needed on regular highways. There are also few inns and lodges. They're often full in peak month October and thus one can plan a turnout at any of the many towns and cities along the way.

Utah, Colorado, Montana, California, Arizona and other western states (Oregon, Washington and Idaho in the northwest) offer many beautiful drives at higher altitudes. Utah is breath-taking and so are so many drives and parks in

Malcolm Baldrige, Commerce Secretary, on tax cut: "In the way the budget deficits came out this year...certainly implies that if we had to do this all over again we would have asked for less of a tax decrease last year."

California and Wyoming. Nevada is spectacular in the Hoover Dam area, but most of it is flat dessert. New Mexico, west Texas and Arizona offer dry, rocky and spectacular mountain country. Those who like that climate (and the wind) would live nowhere else.

Colorado is close to California when it comes to high mountain scenery. But California has the ocean--similar to areas in southern France and Italy on the Mediterranean, where mountains for skiing are close to the ocean and provide a panoramic view and contrast.

The writer has found Florida delightful in September and October, after the summer rush and before the major winter season. Uncrowded beaches, settled weather, fewer thunderstorms and less haze are features of early fall weather in Florida.

It's also the hurricane season. But today these gigantic, slow-moving storms can be tracked rather accurately, and tourists always have time to move inland or away from these monstrous storms.

Inland, during September and October, the tornado season is past its peak; the mountains in any event tend to break up funnel cloud activity year-round. So fall at the beach or in the mountains is a nostalgic, colorful drink of nature's beauty in a year coming to an end.

Robert Orner, chief economist, Department of Commerce: "The July report is not as bad as it appears, because it contains signs that the employment situation may be stabilizing..."

The 19th

In August, 1812, this country was at war with Britain. Captain Isaac Hull in the frigate Constitution sailed from Boston to demonstrate to the British that U.S. naval power was for real.

Largely contemptuous of the Americans, the British bet their regular warships could easily defeat American counterparts. On the 19th, some days out of Boston, Hull sighted the Guerriere, which opened fire at long range.

Holding his fire until very close, Hull quickly devastated his English opponent in a battle which cost the Royal Navy 300 killed and wounded.

That strikingly demonstrated to the world that America was a major sea power--with potent ships and well-trained crews--not to be taken lightly.

August 24

On August 24, 1572, the mass murders of Protestants began in France, on an order from King Charles IX, incited by Catherine de Medici.

Over 2,000 were killed in Paris alone, and many more all over France. The Reformation had begun in Germany earlier in the century and many of France's leading thinkers and intellectuals had joined the reform movement.

French Protestants, known as Huguenots, were persecuted and murdered on and off in France for centuries, many fleeing for their lives to America, often to Massachusetts, New York, Pennsylvania, Virginia and South Carolina.

The 24th, known for the festival of St. Bartholomew, thus reminds the world annually of the folly of religious intolerance and fanaticism--probably responsible for more killing in the world's history than any other thing.

Fishing

For some people fishing isn't the rest or relaxation it should be. If fishing requires the same mad pace our daily routine requires, it provides little recreational value.

Successful fishing is the small boy who sits happily dangling a hook from a bank-taking it easy.

Or, it's the individual who finds relaxation, unhurried, in dangling bait with quiet hope and pleasure, not frenzied frustration and push.

FALL 1982

All Classes Meet From 7:00 to 9:50 PM

SUPPLEMENT TO THE
SEASMAN REPORTER,
PANHANDLE PLAINSMAN,
GRUYER STATESMAN

GENERAL INFORMATION

A concerted and organized effort to provide college level courses for adults of the area was begun during the spring semester of 1979. From that first offering, six subjects, the Adult Education Program has grown to this semester's offering of 25 courses. The tremendous response by the people of the area has made possible this expanded program. Six of the courses offered during this term will meet requirements for a degree. A survey of persons who had taken previous adult ed courses indicated that the interest did exist for a way to obtain a degree by taking evening courses. The persons responding indicated that areas of business would be most popular. The fall of 1982 finds four classes from this department that will meet requirements in most areas of business. Other courses can be used to fulfill general education requirements, total hour requirements or upper level requirements. It is the belief of Panhandle State University that many people of the area have enjoyed the stimulation of learning and doing and meeting new people. A challenge has been re-experienced and the results have been rewarding. For information concerning enrollment or classes, contact Bob Wise, Director of Adult Education, Panhandle State University, Goodwell, Oklahoma 73939. Call 405-349-2611 EXT 269

ENROLLMENT

Persons wishing to take courses in the Panhandle State University Adult Education Program may enroll by any of three ways. The back cover of this brochure may be filled out and mailed with a check to the Director of Adult Education, Panhandle State University, Goodwell, Oklahoma 73939. You may enroll by coming to room 101 of Sewell-Loofbourrow (the administration building) between the hours of 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon and 1:00 to 4:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, August 16, 1982 through August 26, 1982. Participants may also enroll the evening of August 26, 1982 at 7:00 p.m. in room 101 Sewell-Loofbourrow. No enrollments will be accepted after August 27, 1982. Current Panhandle State students will be allowed to enroll, on August 27, 1982 in any class not closed by limit. They will adhere to all policy listed for the adult education classes including book purchase, refunds, and tuition costs. They may enroll in room 101 Sewell-Loofbourrow on August 28 only. Current Panhandle State students may enroll in any class not having a maximum limit at any time listed above.

TUITION, FEES & COSTS

Each person enrolling in the Adult Education Program will be charged tuition and fees at the time of enrollment. Tuition is $15.65 per credit hour for courses numbered 1000 or 2000. Tuition for courses numbered 3000 or 4000 is $16.75 per credit hour. Each person is assessed a $3.00 general fee for each course in which they enroll. They are also assessed a $1.00 per credit hour student union fee. All of these charges are established by state legislature. Some courses require an additional fee to be paid sometime during the class. This is to help defray costs of materials or foods used during the class. In all cases, this fee will be mentioned in the descriptive information contained in this brochure. Some classes also require textbook, workbook or both. This information will also be contained in the course descriptions on pages 4, 5, 6, and 7 of this brochure. These textbooks are to be purchased at the university bookstore. They are not part of the book rental plan available to the tradition student attending regular university classes.

INCLEMENT WEATHER

In the case of inclement weather, cancellation of class notices will be broadcast by KGYN Radio, 1210 kh on the AM dial. They will air the announcements as soon as they receive them and will air them on the 5:00 p.m. central time local newscast. Please do not call the radio station, call Panhandle State if you think you might have missed the announcement.

CLASS LIMIT

Many of the classes offered through the Adult Education Program have limits governing the maximum number who may enroll. These limits are established due to lab facilities, classroom size, or instructor abilities to provide necessary individual attention. These limits are stated in the descriptive information and in the appropriately titled column of the schedule on page 3. Additionally, the university has instituted a minimum enrollment of 10 participants per class. This minimum number allows the university to adequately fund the instruction for the course. Any person who enrolls in a class that does not meet minimum enrollment will be given a full refund. All who are cancelled out of a class will be informed by telephone on Friday, August 27, 1982 and be given the opportunity to enroll in another course that has not attained a maximum limit. Any person not wishing to enroll in another course will then be given a full refund.

REFUNDS

It is the policy of Panhandle State University to make no refunds to persons enrolled in the Adult Education Program. The lone exception will be when PSU cancels a class because of minimum enrollment standards are not met. If and when that occurs, a full refund will be made.
