

PEARSON HANDCUFFS REDS AS YANKEES WIN AGAIN, 4-0

Monte Gives Up But Two Singles; Mates Get Artillery To Working In Third; Dahlgren Gets Homer

YANKEE STADIUM, NEW YORK, Oct. 5 (AP)—Giving one of the finest pitching exhibitions in world series history, Marcellus Monte Pearson held the Cincinnati Reds to two singles today to give the New York Yankees their second straight triumph by a 4 to 0 score.

For seven and one-third innings Pearson was on his way to the first no-hit game ever pitched in baseball's biggest spectacle, but Ernie (Schnozle) Lombardi stabbed a sharp liner directly over second base to break this streak and in the ninth Bill Werber shot another bouncer through shortstop for the Reds' second safety.

Even so Pearson, who had a no-hitter last year against the Cleveland Indians on August 27, tied a series record held by Herb Pennock since 1927 for going 7-1-3 consecutive innings without yielding a hit.

The game by innings: The Yankee power broke out in the third inning, today for three runs on five hits off Bucky Walters and Babe Dahlgren sent a tremendous drive into the left field stands in the fourth for a home run that completed the scoring.

This early bombardment created such enthusiasm among the crowd of 60,000 that the full effect of Pearson's magnificent hurling was not realized until along about the sixth frame when New York's own guns had finally been silenced by Walters after producing at least one hit in every earlier inning.

Pearson's performance was the first series shutout since Lon Warneke of the Chicago Cubs stopped the Detroit Tigers 3 to 0 in the first game of the 1935 classic.

Tax Plague Is Discussed As Oil Men Meet

Industry Threatened, Assn. President Says At Houston

HOUSTON, Oct. 5 (AP)—Weary of 'tax sharpshooters,' Texas oil men placed their case before the state today in a brief which pointed to the industry as a humanized, citizenship-conscious business deserving of a friendly and understanding public attitude.

Ready For Emergency Through Charles P. McGaha, president of the Texas Mid-Continent Oil and Gas association, the industry said its "very life and continued existence as an independent enterprise is at stake."

The Wichita Falls oil man, opening the association's annual convention, said "taxes and regulations, unfriendly and uninformed public officials, an indifferent and uninforming public, often misled by demagogues with deliberate misinformation, arise to plague us."

After his exposition of the taxation question and the scope of the oil industry in Texas, McGaha said oil men stood ready to meet any emergency that might arise in the matter of national defense.

He asserted, however, the industry should lend every force it has to keep America out of the European conflict.

"Oil is essentially a peace-time commodity and the false stimulation of war-time leads only to the dark days of post-war depression," he said.

"x x x Texas, possessing more than half of the world's available supply, is a factor of far-reaching importance to our national defense."

Texas oil men have built up the greatest reserve of all history, McGaha said.

Declaring "I think too many people in Texas look upon the petroleum industry as some sort of huge octopus operated by remote control," the president said every sixth person in Texas depends directly upon the oil business for a livelihood, and the other five look to him for a portion of their living.

McGaha indicated the fall of the state's tax program was not accomplishing its purpose when he reported "even though our tax rate per barrel of oil is at the highest level in the history of Texas oil, being 9.8 cents per barrel, nevertheless the aggregate tax collections on oil production have actually shown a material decrease compared to collections made when the tax rate was lower."

He said the total tax bill of the Texas petroleum industry was more than $70,000,000 yearly excluding gasoline taxes, and pointed to the financial circumstances of the business.

As per well allowables have been reduced, the amount of borrowed capital has increased, he said figures showed, Texas bank loans to oil operators now aggregate $68,000,000, McGaha said.

LEAD NEUTRALITY BILL FIGHT

WASH. (AP)—Senator Nye (R-ND) demanded today that the administration agree to divorce proposed repeal of the arms embargo from its "cash and carry" program of neutrality legislation.

Proponents of the administration legislation, he charged, "are taking the position that 'repeal of the embargo must be effected before other provisions of the pending neutrality bill, which would restrict the nation's foreign trade, could be enacted."

That, he asserted, "misleads the people and jeopardizes the peace of the United States."

"There is no good reason," he told his colleagues, "why we should not have both the arms embargo and the cash and carry provision."

One of the leaders of the opposition to the bill in its present form, Nye declared:

"There can be quick passage through the senate and through the house, of legislation to provide a cash-and-carry provision to cover all commerce which is not covered by the existing embargo law."

Nye took the floor after Senator Tobe (R-NH) had spoken in support of his proposal, first advanced yesterday, to split the present bill in two, enact now the shipping controls and other similar provisions, and take up later the question of repealing the embargo.

On the house side, Rep. Mundt (R-SD), charging "strategists" of the arms embargo repeal drive with committing "a sly legislative trick," demanded that the house be permitted a full 30 days debate on neutrality legislation.

The strategists of the (embargo) repeal drive have resorted to a sly legislative trick in an effort to deprive house members from having the opportunity to consider any legislation now passed by the senate," he said.

French Positions Are Strengthened To Cut Off Flank Movement

PARIS, Oct. 5 (AP)—The French army was reported today to have strengthened its positions so greatly by recent gains on the northwestern end of the front facing Germany as to minimize the danger of any attempt to turn its left flank by a thrust through neutral Luxembourg.

Military advisers said the French army was in full possession of the Borg Forest after a brief, close-range battle between French and German tanks.

The forest is in the strategic sector between the Moselle and Saar rivers just east of Luxembourg.

On the political front police were taking action against members of the dissolved communist party on charges they were trying to put it into operation under another name.

An order was issued for the arrest of two deputies of the party, Flormond Bonte, 49 year old journalist, and Arthur Ramette, 42 year old mechanic.

In a decree, apparently aimed at muzzling communist deputies who have been urging peace talks with the reich, Premier Daladier sent parliament on vacation.

The action stripped the deputies of the parliamentary immunities they have enjoyed since parliament was summoned in extraordinary session Sept. 2. The communist party recently was abolished by government order, but has been reorganizing under a new name.

There was no evidence of any immediate spectacular military activity as the general staff appeared bent on keeping casualties to a minimum and using time as an ally in bringing Germany down.

Commutation For M'Kenzie

AUSTIN, Oct. 5 (AP)—The governor's office revealed today the chief executive had commuted to life the death sentence of John M. (Pete) McKenzie of San Antonio who was convicted of the slaying of Sam Street, San Antonio chief of police, Sept. 10, 1927.

Clemency was granted on a majority recommendation of the board of pardons and paroles.

T. C. Andrews, a member of the pardons board, said the recommendation was signed by W. C. Strong and J. B. Keith. Andrews did not participate.

McKenzie, central figure of a maze of litigation, had never been executed because he was adjudged insane.

The board's recommendation was dated August 22 and the governor commuted the sentence September 28.

McKenzie's conviction was affirmed by the court of criminal appeals on Nov. 28, 1928. It was stayed by executive proclamations on June 18, 1929, and July 2, 1929, due to insanity proceedings.

Previously he had been convicted of a murder charge in El Paso and given a life sentence. He was received at the penitentiary from El Paso on Nov. 19, 1924, and escaped July 16, 1927. While an escapee he was involved in a shooting fray with San Antonio officers, resulting in Street's death and a severe injury to McKenzie. He remained in the death cell until Feb. 4, 1932, when by executive order he was returned to Bexar county as a county prisoner. He fled the county jail and was captured in Kansas and returned to the penitentiary.

103 Tax Suits Are Filed Here

In the most sweeping action ever taken here for collection of delinquent taxes, the City of Big Spring and the Big Spring Independent School district Wednesday and Thursday filed a total of 103 suits in 70th district court, asking judgment for arrears taxes.

The number filed was equal to the total listed on the district court tax docket over the past two years.

Interventions were due to be listed in all cases on behalf of the county and state, this having been the case in previous cases of this type. First judgments in tax suits were taken last week when 18 such default judgments were listed by the court.

Named in the suits were: City versus C. J. Shafer, et al; See TAX SUITS, Page 11, Col. 1

Nye Says Embargo Repeal Is Not First Essential

DEFENSE OFFERS NO TESTIMONY IN BERGDOLL TRIAL

NEW YORK, Oct. 5 (AP)—The defense rested today without offering any witnesses in the court martial of Grover Cleveland Bergdoll, World War slacker, on charges of desertion and escape.

Earlier, the prosecution had rested after a brief parade of witnesses and the reading of a time-faded letter asserting that Bergdoll had "no desire to escape" shortly before he fled from the custody of two U. S. army sergeants in 1920.

HITLER GOES AS A CONQUEROR INTO POLISH CAPITAL

Victorious Forces Reviewed In Warsaw; World Awaits His Speech Before The Reichstag Friday

BERLIN, Oct. 5 (AP)—Reichsfuehrer Hitler went in triumph today to Warsaw, Poland's fallen capital, and inspected the naval forces which effected the city's surrender.

He reviewed a parade of the victorious forces immediately after the inspection.

First word of his activity in dismembered Poland on the eve of his world-awaited reitstag speech came in a report from the fuhrer's field headquarters by DNB, German official news agency.

Officials earlier had refused to say whether Hitler had gone to Warsaw and his flag still flew over the chancellery.

The fuhrer made the trip by airplane to Warsaw where high army officers and Nazis welcomed him.

They included Col. Gen. Walther von Brauchitsch, commander in chief of the German army; Col. Gen. Erhard Milch, general inspector of the air force; Col. Gen. Karl Rudolf Gerd von Rundstedt, eastern commander in chief, and two men who had leading roles in directing the attack on Warsaw, Col. Gen. Walther von Reichenau and Col. Gen. Johannes Blaskowitz.

Hitler promoted Von Reichenau and Blaskowitz to the rank of colonel general only last Monday.

Among those who accompanied the fuhrer on his triumphal visit were Col. Gen. Wilhelm Kettel, chief of high command of the armed forces; Heinrich Himmler head of all German police organizations; Dr. Hans Heinrich Lammers, member of the wartime ministerial council as liaison officer between the council and Hitler; and Dr. Otto Dietrich, secretary of state in charge of press relations.

BERLIN, Oct. 5 (AP)—Germans pinned their peace hopes today on the possibility that Adolf Hitler's reitstag speech tomorrow would outline a basis on which hostilities might be ended.

The fuhrer was scheduled to speak at noon (5 a. m., CST) to the members of his legislature.

But what Hitler intended to say remained a profound official secret and in official circles it was emphasized that speculation on his speech was "hazardous and a disservice to everyone."

The fuhrer is scheduled to speak for one and three-fourths hours.

Two pleas of guilty were entered in county court Wednesday as County Judge Charles Sullivan reviewed the docket in preparation for hearings on contested cases next week.

S. A. Gomez was fined $25 and costs on his plea of guilty to possessing beer for sale without a license, and Merritt Barnes paid a similar fine and costs on his plea of guilty to a charge of aggravated assault.

DECLARATION OF PANAMA IS TERMED THREAT TOWARD INVOLVING U. S. IN EUROPEAN WAR

AUSTIN, Oct. 5 (AP)—The danger of the United States becoming involved in war because of possible repeal of the arms embargo will not hold a candle to the inherent dangers in an attempt to enforce the declaration of Panama, Dr. John L. Meahan, University of Texas authority on Latin-American affairs, said in an interview today.

Coupled with his criticism, he asserted "dreams of a great trade expansion into Latin America by the United States are doomed to disappointment" because of the United States rate of exchange.

He described the rise of the Mexican peso last week, possibly due to European gold stores in Mexico, as an action "of a confidence in Mexico that is purely artificial."

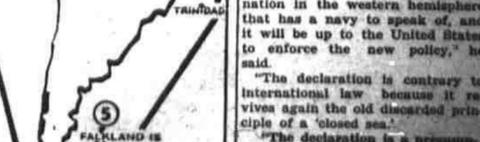

The Panama declaration he declared unnecessary and dangerous and possible of enforcement only by force.

The United States is the only nation in the western hemisphere that has a navy to speak of, and it will be up to the United States to enforce the new policy," he said.

"The declaration is contrary to international law because it violates again the old discarded principle of a 'closed sea.'"

'Texas' Foremost Patriot Honored By Federation

AUSTIN, Oct. 5 (AP)—Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel, Roy Miller, civic and political leader of Corpus Christi, and hundreds of Texas clubwomen joined last night in impressive tribute to Mrs. Clara Driscoll of Corpus Christi.

The ceremonies at the $300,000 headquarters of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs climaxed "Clara Driscoll day," so proclaimed by O'Daniel.

"Texas' foremost patriot" was the description applied by speakers to the Corpus Christi woman, whose gift of $92,000 lifted the debt from the federation's headquarters building. Mrs. Driscoll frequently is called "the Savior of the Alamo."

"Most of the great deeds done in Texas have been the brainchild of some good, unselfish, humanitarian woman," the governor said. "I feel this is the kind of a lady Mrs. Driscoll is."

Miller unveiled a life-size portrait of Mrs. Driscoll, donated by Mrs. Harold Abrams of Dallas. It will hang in the federation building.

"My love for the women of the state federation will last as long as I live," Mrs. Driscoll said. "and I hope I live long enough to be of further service to them."

On behalf of the 60,000 clubwomen of Texas in 1,080 clubs, Mrs. Joseph M. Perkins of Eastland, state president, expressed gratitude to Mrs. Driscoll for her gift to the federation.

Officers were elected and include Jeannette Barnett, president; Mrs. Matt Harrington, vice president; Edith Gay, second vice president; Gladys Smith, secretary; Lillian Rhotan, treasurer, and Ina Mae Bradley, corresponding secretary.

Miss Spencer told of the fellowship the club provided with other business women not only in the local club but the district and state units. She pointed out that the club was educational and that different phases of industries were discussed and legislative acts effecting women were brought before the club from time to time.

She also mentioned that the club work taught the women members to think clearly on a subject and think through it. The charter was signed and Miss Rhotan, chairman of the constitution committee gave a report.

The constitution was amended and approved by the club. The new president, Miss Barnett, told other members of the cooperation expected of them and expressed her appreciation for the task that was to be undertaken.

The next meeting date is to be Monday at the chamber of commerce at 7:30 o'clock.

The Sports Parade

By HANK HART

The Saturday Evening Post this week carries a revealing story on the secret of Texas Christian university grid-der's successes as written by the skipper, himself, Dutch Meyer.

Meyer frankly states that his charges look upon the pass as a normal and integral part of their offense, that most of the teams of this sector have adopted the pass as the central and most dangerous part of an attack.

"We use the forward pass to gain ground," he relates, "if its use loosens the defense so that runs will go, well and good. But primarily, when we wind up and let go, our lone idea is to move the ball down that football field x x x"

"x x x Leaving out the fumble, the uninvited guest, there are three methods of gaining precious yards on a white lined field. They are runs, passes and punts. We hold these three to be inevitable and of equal importance x x x"

"The pass, a wayward orphan in most football families is just as important as the running or kicking x x x"

"The passing game is far more developed in our region than in most others. All our teams have a reputation for 'open football. To us, it isn't especially open. It's natural football x x x'"

Meyer's belief in the passing game has proved an inspiration to many of the coaches of the smaller high schools of Texas who, handicapped by lack of material have taken to the air lanes to seek to hold their own with the larger institutions.

Most of the coaches try to work on their overhead game as much as possible. Something that proves a big help and will continue to improve their all around game in the future is the fact that most of the boys who report for 'varsity' football are already equipped with a general knowledge of the passing game, having gained schooling in that part of the game by childhood pass-and-touch games on sand lots.

On almost any sand lot youngsters can be found constantly throwing that ball around.

Check Jones, who played for a last time year under Big Spring high school colors, is the first string fullback for Lovington High, New Mexico, a very tough eleven of our neighboring state.

The rugged 175-pounder, who can kick and pass with any high school player, becomes eligible for competition next week.

YANKS DEADLOCK THE SCORE

The Yankees knotted the score 1 to 1 in the first game of 1939 World Series baseball games at Yankee Stadium, New York, Wednesday when Second Baseman Gordon felled on Dahlgren's double. Gordon had stogled after Silkirk grounded out to McCormick. Dahlgren died on second as Ruffing fouled out and Cronetti went out on a fly. (Associated Press Photo).

Yanks Heavy Favorites To Wrap Up Title

Berger Slip Possible Chance At Decision

By GAYLE TALBOT
NEW YORK, Oct. 5 (AP)—Those Yankees, possibly the greatest set of opportunists baseball has yet seen, are off and running again.

Victories over the scrapping Cincinnati Reds, 2 to 1, in yesterday's opening battle of the world series, they go into the second contest at Yankee stadium today almost prohibitive favorites to wrap up their fourth straight world championship.

That was the game the Reds needed. Paul Derringer nearly pitched his heart out, and his National league teammates fought to the last gasp before a friendly crowd of over 68,000. But in the end the great pitching of Red Ruffing and the timely swatting of the Yanks proved a little too much.

Even if Bucky Walters, their second fine pitcher, scores for the Reds today over the Yankees' Monte Pearson and squares the series, the Yankees still will have a big psychological edge. They have beaten Derringer, the man Bill McKechnie regarded as his ace, and they again have proved that they can't be overcome by fine pitching alone.

Probing further into the opening thriller, though it was won by Bill Dickey's line single to center with Charley Keller on third base in the ninth, it was lost to the Reds when Wally Berger made the wrong throw-in from left field in the fifth frame, enabling Joe Gordon to score from first on Babe Dahlgren's zipper.

That one uncertain throw undid the splendid six-hit, seven-strikeout hurling of Derringer and put the big right-hander in a spot where, when the Yankees finally struck again in the ninth, he was trying to fight off the winning run instead of the tying one.

Berger's arm is acknowledged to be the weakest link on the whole Cincinnati chain, but perhaps he only did as he was signaled. Here's what happened:

The Reds were ahead, 1 to 0, the result of a walk to Ival Goodman, his steal of second and Frank McCormick's hit through the infield. Derringer was wheeling them through in great style.

Fletcher Saw Break
So, with one out in the fifth, Gordon lined a single to left. Dahlgren then cracked one over the third bag that Bill Werber just failed to spear. It went on to the boards and Berger fielded it smartly as Gordon tore between second and third. Then Berger lazily winged the pellet toward second.

Art Fletcher, coaching for the Yanks, saw instantly that the Reds hadn't arranged for a "cut-off" play, as he said later, and he waved the fleet Gordon on home. Linus Frey took Berger's heave, and made a high peg to Ernie Lombardi at the plate as the Yankee slid into the pan.

As it was, Paul went into the ninth looking fairly secure. In the three previous frames he had set the Yankees down in order.

After Rolfe went out on a grounder, Keller, the rookie from Newark, caught hold of one that went a mile high toward the 407-foot sign in right-center.

Goodman went after it and so did Harry Craft. Both, playing in an unfamiliar park, appeared to be bothered by the possibility of crashing into the wall.

Goodman just reached it. The ball hit his glove and bounced off, and Keller easily reached third. It was scored a triple, though a lot of Yankee partisans felt that Joe DiMaggio would have had it in his pocket.

Derringer then purposely passed DiMaggio to set up a possible double play. Why he didn't pass Dickey while he was about it, thus setting up a force play at home, had not been explained at this hour. For Dickey pumped a clean single into center that Craft fumbled and didn't even bother to recover, because Keller long since was across the plate and the crowd was leaving.

Much has been made here of Derringer's hard luck, but Ruffing pitched the better game.

The Reds got four hits off him. In the last five innings the National leaguers went down in order.

SCHM LING IN BERLIN
BERLIN, Oct. 5 (AP)—Max Schmeling, former heavyweight boxing champion, arriving in Berlin today, disclosed he had been "living the life of a country squire" since the war began and had not been called for military service.

He said he expected his bout with Walter Neusel, which was "put off on account of the war," would be staged next May, "if peace comes soon."

MINISTERS TO MEET

A meeting of the local pastors' association has been called for next Monday morning at 10 o'clock at the First Methodist church. All members are urged to be present.

Horace Bostick May Not Get To Play

An injury suffered in practice earlier in the week may keep Horace Bostick, blocking back, out of the Big Spring Steers' important District 3-AA game with Odessa in Odessa Friday night.

Bostick has been in bed for the past several days and, although expected to make the trip, is not slated to play much.

Bostick's absence had Mentor Pat Murphy experimenting with his secondary. Lefty Bethell is the regular right half but is going to need help. Pete Presley may get plenty of action against the Broncs.

Murphy has his charges working on pass defense in Wednesday's workout. The Odessans executed a finished aerial attack against the Austin Panthers last weekend and the mentor intended to do something about tossing a monkey wrench into the machinery.

The two teams will be evenly matched in weight although the Broncs will hold a slight advantage in the secondary.

The Odessans' running game featuring such backs as Billy McCracken and Fred and Al Caudie is something with which to contend.

Odessa supporters, confident that this edition of the Broncs eleven is the ultimate champion, were reported to be giving anywhere from one to three touchdowns in backing up Joe Coleman's crew.

The Broncs will leave aboard a chartered bus for the Ector county capital Friday afternoon, 3:30 p. m., and will be followed by a special train carrying more than 300 Big Spring fans.

Ducats for the special, which pulls stakes here at 5 o'clock, are available at the high school administration building for $1. The group is scheduled to arrive in Odessa around 6:45 and depart for Big Spring again at 11.

Reserve seat pasteboards, now on sale at the ad. building, will be taken back to Odessa after 2 p. m. Friday. Fans wishing the best seats are urged to make their purchases as quickly as possible.

Odessa officials are expecting one of the largest crowds of the season to look on as the Broncs and the Steers officially open district play.

Supt. W. C. Blankenship announced at noon that more than 175 train tickets had already been disposed of. The required quota of 250 is expected to be reached by Friday morning.

The Big Spring delegation will take part in a parade upon reaching Odessa. The Odessa band and pep squad will form the welcoming committee at the station and lead the parade to the school grounds.

Xerxes, Darius and other Persian kings are buried in giant, cross-shaped tombs cut in a rocky cliff.

SERIES NOTES

By BILL WHITE

NEW YORK, Oct. 5 (AP)—The less serious side of the series: Jotting down names as fast as they passed: Postmaster General James A. Farley; Dorothy Arnold (Mrs. Joe DiMaggio-to-be); Film Funnyman Joe E. Brown; the greatest Yankee of 'em all, Babe Ruth; Clark (Old Fox) Griffith, hoping against hope the "Dam-Yankers" would lose; Bill Terry of the across-the-river Giants; Dancer Bill Robinson and Golfer Jimmy Thomson, another power hitter.

When the Yankees put the clincher on in the ninth inning yesterday it was like the stroke of a guillotine—quick and irreparable. One minute the Reds were in the game—the next they were heading for the showers.

Typical picture: The Yanks in their dugout sitting complacently back, taking things easy. The Reds on their feet, hollering at their mates and heckling the Yanks, as nervous as a jitterbug at Faust.

The Reds weren't without friends, even though the Yanks forgot to treat 'em like guests. Derringer was given a grand burst of applause when he went out to pitch the last half of the ninth. The Yanks greeted him a minute later.

Cincinnati Fans Busy Lifting The First Game
CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 5 (AP)—Today's letter from the bend of the river is as full of ifs as the weatherman in flood time.

For while the New Yorkers, calm as any cow in our pastures, digest their victory, the people down in Vine street are lifting the first game of the world series for a fare-you-well looking down and the second game looking up.

"If Berger hadn't thrown to third instead of..." fades into a sob as the next man tries, "if they get Bucky Walters some runs."

"If they hadn't hit into all them doubleplays" becomes "if Lombardi can get ahead of one today."

But all the ifs in the world won't restore that first game to what is firmly regarded here as the right side of the books. As much as Vine street wanted the opener, since 24 of the 35 world series have gone to the team getting the jump, the folks are echoing their spokesman. "It's winning four of them that counts," said Manager Bill McKechnie in New York. After all, the Reds lost the first game of the season, too.

A few reckless people who knew all the time that the Yankees would win in four straight came out of their holes to risk lynching with a tentative "I told you so." They were merely slapped down.

GARNER BILLIES MAY PROVE TOUGH FOR FORSAN BUFFS

The football stadiums of Big Spring and Colorado City will be employed this weekend for two of District 12's six-man grid clashes.

Forsan's Buffaloes, hot favorites to cop the title in southern half play, will oppose Garner's Hill Billies Saturday night at Big Spring while Westbrook and Ceahoma will meet at Colorado City Saturday.

Garner is playing under a new coach, T. J. Turner, this year and are rated to be almost as strong as in 1938 when they racked up the PSAA championship.

remembered by fans of both sectors. The Bisons thumped the Hill Billies, 12-6, after a hard struggle but later withdrew from PSAA competition and played "outlaw" ball.

Coch Coach Brady Nix lost valuable men at Forsan this year and he must send his charges out without the services of Tommy McDonald, ace back, who is inactive due to injuries.

In other games Courtney goes to Water Valley and Sterling City is to be entertained by Garden City. Both of those clashes are scheduled for Friday afternoon.

Yearlings And Wolves Collide At 7:30 p. m.

Locals Hopes To Be On 120-Pound Back, Matlock

Game time for the clash between the junior high school football teams of Big Spring and Colorado City, slated to be played in the Highland Park stadium this evening, has been moved up to 7:30.

Admission prices have been established at 10 and 25 cents.

Coach Howard Schwarzenbach sent the Yearlings through an extended drill Wednesday afternoon at the stadium and pronounced the team in shape for the invasion.

The locals will pin their hopes for victory on the versatile Lowell Matlock, 120-pound half who starred for the North Ward team last fall. Matlock can do everything with a football but make it talk, according to his teammates.

He will be assisted in the secondary by Junior Moore, rugged 120-pound speedster who went to Junior High from West Ward where he starred for the past two seasons, Earnest Bostick and Jack Bowden, who will call signals.

Swatzy's line may be out-weighted by the Coloradans. Heaviest player in the forward wall is Stewart, a tackle who tips in at 170 pounds. Others who are sure to start are Newton and Dearing; ends; Adams, tackle; Franklin and Curley, guards and McDonald, center.

Ache, Webb, Holly, Winslow, R. Matlock, Cunningham, W. Moore, Franklin and White are first line reserves.

LARY MARRIES FORMER WIFE

MIAMI, Fla., Oct. 5 (AP)—"Sort of a retake" was the way Lyn Lary, major league baseball player, described his marriage yesterday to Mrs. Mary Larrow Lary, the former Broadway singer from whom he was divorced here last Jan. 29.

The first marriage was in New York in 1932. They have a son, Lynford Lary, Jr., 5.

Lary, a shortstop, started this season with the Cleveland Indians, shifted to the Brooklyn Dodgers and then to the St. Louis Cardinals.

CHAMPION LOSER

OAKLAND, Calif., Oct. 5 (AP)—Tony Olivera of San Francisco scored a 10-round decision over Sixto Escobar of Puerto Rico, world's bantamweight champion, in a non-title bout here last night.

Olivera weighed 120, Escobar 123.

The Cubs summoned 40-year-old Charley Root to the mound for today's daylight game.

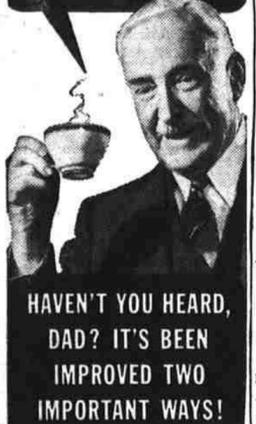

A spirited crowd of 42,767 fans saw the extra-inning contest. The championship will go to the winner of four out of seven games.

THOUSANDS FILE BY CARDINAL'S BIER

CHICAGO, Oct. 5 (AP)—A steady stream of mourners filed past the bier of George Cardinal Mundelein today as members of religious orders of the archdiocese gathered at Holy Name cathedral for a pontifical requiem mass.

Police estimated more than 200,000 persons had filed past the coffin since Tuesday when the solid bronze casket was placed upon it.

Bishop William D. O'Brien will officiate at the mass, today's principal service for the eminent Catholic churchman who died Monday. The final requiem mass is set for tomorrow.

Ten Pin Tales

By JAKE DOUGLASS
A couple of new records were set Tuesday night in the Classic league at the Casadena club. The Grand Prize Beer keggers sailed in with a 993 series, only seven pins short of the coveted "thousand pin series." J. C. Loper, anchor man for the team, dethroned teammate Bobby Kountz with a fine 254-616 (high game and total series) to take charge of the single game record to date.

Up until last night, only two "six hundred" series had been fired, these by Kountz and Ben Daniels. Three additional series were recorded, an additional 609 by Kountz, Loper's 616, and Jake Morgan's fine 230-621 group.

While there has been a sharp increase in high games, only a few bowlers were able to better their averages and no one was quite able to overcome Kountz whose 609 three-game run raised his score one point to a nine-game 197 average.

We thoroughly appreciate the response given to yesterday's foul rule explanation and to further clarify that A. B. C. quotation, "The foul rule means that if any part of the bowler's hand, foot, or arm rests on or extends over or beyond the foul line while any other part of the same foot, hand or arm remains in contact with the runway, division boards, walls or uprights back of the foul line, it must be declared a foul. This does not apply to any other foot, hand or arm unless they touch the alley proper."

Another request ruling by the A. B. C. is the following: "A bowler may not bowl with two teams in a given sanctioned league. Should he wish to change from one team to another he must obtain a release signed by two-thirds of the captains of the league teams."

The question has arisen about the possibility of the local teams not being affiliated with A. B. C. in time to bowl in the West Texas tournament. The applications have been sent for and although it may take nearly 30 days for each team to receive their affiliation cards from the American Bowling Congress, they will definitely be eligible to participate in the West Texas Bowling tournament which is an A. B. C. sanctioned tournament. Incidentally, the sanction certificate is on display on the Casadena bulletin board.

LOU AMBERS WEDS

HERKIMER, N. Y., Oct. 5 (AP)—Lou Ambers, world's lightweight boxing champion, married Margaret Cello, his childhood sweetheart, today.

Ambers planned a honeymoon through the Midwest before going into training for his December 1 fight with Henry Armstrong for the latter's welterweight crown.

Here's the Lincoln-Zephyr for 1940

THE frontal appearance of the Lincoln-Zephyr for 1940 is markedly changed by a lower hood, which extends further forward, and a new grille and ornament. The attractive low grille design, now general in the industry, was pioneered two years ago by Lincoln-Zephyr. The design is functional and intended to provide the greatest possible efficiency in engine cooling. The divided front bumper adds this. New Sealed-Beam headlamps give greatly improved night-driving vision.

Oil Men Pondering Effect Of Market Of European War

AUSTIN, Oct. 5 (AP)—As the last quarter of the oil year begins, the effect of the European war on market demand continues a matter of absorbing interest among oil men.

Oil circles, looking toward the winter season when demand normally falls off, also note:

Some talk of higher prices for crude, with plenty of skeptics saying the wish is father to the thought.

Good domestic demand generally. What appears to be intention of Midcontinent states to keep crude output within demand figures of the federal bureau of mines, at least for October.

Crude production nationally nearing an all-time high and runs to still be also vaulting.

Excellent demand for fuel oil looming.

The demand for oil some thought would follow outbreak of hostilities in Europe has not materialized, but as to the future there is much difference of opinion.

Some oil men say when England and France have an effective convoy system set up many tankers which reportedly have been taken off the seas because of the submarine menace will resume operations.

Gulf coast and southwest fields in Texas witnessed in the last two days upward adjustments of prices paid by the Humble and other oil companies for lower gravity crude. It was announced this action was due to strong demand for fuel oils.

SAN ANTONIO HERD WINNER AT FAIR

ABILENE, Oct. 5 (AP)—The Rio Vista herd of San Antonio ranks first in the dairy division of the West Texas fair here.

Sir Sybil Dreamer, Rio Vista farms, was judged grand champion bull yesterday. Hildebrand's grand champion Jersey cow was Estella Phil Hope. Rio Vista cows also won first in every division, and the herd was found best in the show.

New Design Followed In '40 Zephyr

Continuing the style leadership established when it was introduced four years ago, the Lincoln-Zephyr V-12 for 1940 is being presented as a newly designed car, embodying many advanced features. The new models are on display at the Big Spring Motor company.

The fundamental characteristic of its construction—the unit-body-and-frame—which sets it apart from other cars, is retained. But the structure has been completely redesigned and improved to provide added comfort, safety and driving pleasure.

The new car is larger, more beautiful and more powerful. The bodies are entirely new, substantially longer and wider. Interiors are more roomy all around and seats are wider than formerly. A new finger-tip gearshift on the steering post below the wheel provides substantially more passenger room in the front compartment.

The Lincoln-Zephyr always has been noted for permitting good driving vision but the 1940 car has 22 per cent more glass area. The windshield, unbroken by a middle support, is deeper and has 105 square inches additional glass area. Windows are substantially wider and deeper. The large rear window is of one-piece tempered glass curved to the body lines.

Engine power has been increased but amazing economy is retained. Many improvements designed to give increased convenience and comfort include a new controlled ventilation system and Sealed-Beam headlamps. The latter afford 50 per cent better vision in night driving and reduce eye fatigue.

The frontal appearance is markedly changed by a lower hood, which extends further forward, and a new grille and ornament. The low grille design was pioneered two years ago by Lincoln-Zephyr. Interiors are completely restyled. A new instrument panel has dials and gauges grouped in front of the driver. A glove compartment is at the right. Seats are chair-height, deeply cushioned with soft edges for comfort. The cushions are built up with individually wrapped springs. The floor is low and passengers step directly into the car. Running boards have been eliminated. Floors extend all the way to the doors.

Louisville Tied With Rochester

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Oct. 5 (AP)—A pair of rookies hold the answer to the Little World series deciding clash between Rochester of the International league and Louisville of the American association.

Tied at three games apiece in the annual minor league classic, Billy Southworth, manager of the Rochester Red Wings, called upon young Johnny Grodzicki while Bill Burwell placed his hopes on Woody Rich.

The Wings squared the classic last night with a 9 to 5 victory.

1940 LINCOLN-ZEPHYR V-12

ALWAYS THE STYLE LEADER, NOW GREATER IN SIZE, POWER, BEAUTY!

The Lincoln-Zephyr, always the style leader, is ready with important improvements for 1940. It is a new car, retaining the exclusive combination of features which sets this car apart.

The twelve-cylinder engine—smooth, silent, eager—is increased to 120 horsepower. Yet, because of favorable ratio of horsepower to car weight, the Lincoln-Zephyr's remarkable standards of economy will continue.

The unit-body-and-frame, a rigid, steel, truss-type structure, is still present in all closed types. But it is a new and larger body-frame, with increased head room, leg room and elbow room.

Passengers will see the road and the countryside more clearly, because the Panorama

Windshield and deeper windows contain 500 added square inches of glass. The luggage compartment in the Sedan is 30% larger.

The new Lincoln-Zephyr is equipped for even more comfortable travel than ever before... with new Controlled Ventilation... Finger-Tip Gearshift on the steering post... Sealed-Beam Headlamps. Hydraulic brakes assure quick, smooth, effortless stops.

But more important than any single feature is the unique combination of features, at medium price, not found in any other car at any price! They bring pride when you take the wheel and lasting satisfaction in ownership. Lincoln Motor Company, Division of Ford Motor Company.

A COMBINATION OF FEATURES THAT MAKES LINCOLN-ZEPHYR THE ONLY CAR OF ITS KIND

1. Unit-body-and-frame—in closed panels welded to steel trusses (in steel types).
2. V-type 12-cylinder engine—smooth, quiet, economical power.
3. High power-to-weight ratio—low center of gravity.
4. Comfort for six—"amidships," chair-high seats—gliding ride—direct entrance—high visibility.
5. Hydraulic brakes.
6. Panorama Windshield and windows.

ON DISPLAY TOMORROW IN THE SHOWROOMS OF LINCOLN-ZEPHYR DEALERS

The Humble Frankfurter Now Hob Nobs With High Society

By MARTHA LOGAN

Do you remember the tales your grandfather used to tell about business of his day being barter and trade? How it was a case of every man for himself and how his business success depended upon his cleverness or his luck? One rarely paid the same price twice, and quality varied always.

All that is changed today. Manufacturers guide your buying through the use of brand names which designate grade and quality. Their national advertising further guides and guards you.

If you're a real American, you probably had your share of hot dogs last summer. Were you conscious of all the publicity of frankfurts, too? The president, the king and queen and other dignitaries enjoyed them at Hyde Park; thousands of persons saw frankfurts made at the New York

World's Fair, and countless thousands more saw full-color advertisements in newspapers and magazines showing how frankfurts are made. Even this humble American favorite bears a brand name assuring high quality!

Perhaps you have had the opportunity to try the new large-size frankfurts that have been sprayed or dipped in fresh pineapple juice. Just like thick steaks and double lamb chops these plump frankfurts are extra juicy. They are super tender and cut with the touch of a fork.

So we say, "What's in a name?" "Well, when it's a nationally known brand name that assures us top quality even in frankfurts, then we say there is a great deal in a name."

For genuine good eating, we suggest this old European method of serving these tender frankfurts in the dinner size:

 Frankfurts, sauerkraut and
 Dumplings
 Mix a No. 2 1-2 can 4 cups) sauerkraut with 1 teaspoon salt, 1 1-2 teaspoons sugar, 1-2 teaspoon caraway seeds (optional), 2 cups water, 1 1-2 cups grated raw potato. Cook 5 minutes. Place 1 lb. frankfurts in the sauerkraut, drop small dumplings on the top. Cover tightly and cook 12 minutes. Serve with chitlil sauce.

Dumplings:
 2 cups flour
 4 teaspoons baking powder
 1 teaspoon salt
 2 tablespoons shortening
 1 cup milk
 Sift together the dry ingredients. Cut in the fat and add milk slowly. Drop by spoonfuls on the top of sauerkraut and frankfurts. Do not uncover the dumplings until they have steamed 12 minutes. Makes 12 medium-sized dumplings.

If you're a modern-minded housewife, you'll want to try this broiler dinner of frankfurts:
 Frankfurts Grill
 Place on a broiler rack 1 pound

frankfurts, thin slices of tomato, onion rings and cold mashed potato cakes. Brush generously with melted butter. Keep broiler about 3 inches below the direct heat. Turn frankfurts and potato cakes once to brown.

Mrs. Reeves Of Marshall Is Only Guest Of Club!

The Lucky Dosen club met Wednesday in the home of Mrs. Dick Hatch, Jr., with Mrs. Milton Reeves of Marshall as the only guest.

The club will meet next with Mrs. Vaughn, 508 Douglas street, next Wednesday.

Virginia Fisher will return to-night from Abilene where she has attended the fair this week.

SWEETS FROM SWEDEN—Not even a candy flower was broken on this gay wedding cake brought from Sweden to Kansas City by Mrs. Emil Reed for the wedding of her daughter, Evelyn (above). The cake—and Mrs. Reed, who guarded its every move—came through the zone where the liner Athenis was sunk. Evelyn is to wed Russell Peck of Falls City, Neb.

Prices Low, Demand High; Turkey Eating Is On A Boom

SALT LAKE CITY, Oct. 5 (AP)—Drumstick gawwin' is going to be popular in the United States this autumn!

Turkey experts sounded this proclamation today and listed two reasons:

Some states will have two Thanksgiving days—one federal, one state.

The 1939 turkey production is the largest on record—and the birds are selling at prices approximately the same as those asked for first grade hamburger.

Directors of the Northwestern Turkey Growers' association, who represent thousands of growers in 11 states, invited the nation's housewives to "try a wing," not only on a holiday, but any time, because, they emphasized, the gangling birds are the one meat that failed to benefit from the recent war-time price hike.

Directors, in annual meeting, said they expected a newspaper advertising campaign to put turkey on many tables twice next month instead of the usual once.

President Roosevelt has indicated he would proclaim Thanksgiving day for Nov. 23, but many states have clung to the traditional last Thursday of November, this year the 30th. Hence, some commonwealths will observe both days.

With the nation's turkey production estimated at 31,957,000, some 22 per cent larger than last year, officials said few growers would make a "fair" profit.

Farm Relief Due To Be Increased Because Of Drouth

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5 (AP)—Agriculture department officials said today they anticipated a sharp upturn in the farm relief load in the so-called "dust bowl" region of the Great Plains as a result of a serious and late summer and fall drouth.

Farming has been brought to a virtual standstill, they said, in a wide expanse of territory extending from the Rocky mountains eastward into the Mississippi valley and from the Dakotas south into Texas.

Although this region normally produces the bulk of the nation's wheat crop, only a small percentage of farmers has been able to seed or prepare land for next year's crop. Winter wheat normally is sown in September and early October.

Crop and weather bureau officials said drouth conditions were more severe than in the autumn preceding the disastrous drouths of 1934 and 1936. In those years, the government was called on to extend financial aid to thousands of farmers.

The weather bureau reported that last month was the driest September of record in some interior sections of the country. Aggravating the dry situation were abnormally high temperatures in the Midwest.

Finger-Tip Gearshift On New Fords

Enriched by refinements made possible by the manufacture under a single, unified management of five cars which virtually bracket the motor car market, the Ford V-8 and the deluxe Ford V-8 cars for 1940, announced today, present notable advances in styling, comfort, convenience and safety. The new Fords are shown by the Big Spring Motor company.

The new cars are big, substantial and powerful in appearance. Body lines are pleasingly streamlined. Front end designs are distinctively modern, with low radiator grilles, long hoods and deeply rounded fenders. The trimly tailored interiors are big and roomy, with plenty of seat room, leg room, elbow room and shoulder room.

Two V-8 engines are available, an 85 horsepower engine in the Ford V-8 and the deluxe Ford V-8, with a 60 horsepower engine optional in the Ford V-8.

Four Ford V-8 and five deluxe body types comprise the two lines. A new business coupe as well as a Fordor sedan, a Tudor sedan and coupe are available in both. There is also a deluxe convertible club coupe with automatic top as standard equipment. Three color choices are available in the Ford V-8, six in the deluxe line.

An important new feature of the cars is a finger-tip gearshift mounted on the steering column under the two-spoke steering wheel. This provides increased room for driver and passengers in the front compartment. There is also a new controlled ventilation system. New Sealed-Beam headlights are used

Ford V-8 Fordor Sedan for 1940, Here

THE FORD V-8 Fordor sedan for 1940 is of modern streamlined design, with plenty of room for six persons to ride comfortably. The new finger-tip gearshift on the steering post clears the front compartment and allows two passengers to ride in front without interfering with the driver. In 85 horsepower models improved spring suspension and a new torsion bar ride-stabilizer help to provide an unusually comfortable ride. A 60 horsepower V-8 engine also is available. There is a large luggage compartment.

on all types, providing greatly increased driving vision at night. On the 85 horsepower cars, an improved spring suspension with a longer, more flexible front spring, and a torsion bar ride-stabilizer provide an exceptionally comfortable steady ride. The ride-stabilizer also contributes to firmer, easier steering. Front and rear springs of deluxe cars are equipped with metal covers. Large double-acting hydraulic shock absorbers with self-sealing construction are fitted on all cars.

Comfort features are emphasized throughout the design. Seats are built for restful riding. Front seat backs are of new resilient type. Cushions have a new "floating" edge. Driver's seats are adjustable two ways—they rise as they are moved forward. Bodies are scientifically soundproofed, shutting out road noises. An "easy-shift" transmission, permitting speeds to be changed quietly; new design curved disc wheels and improved drums for the highly effective, quick-stopping hydraulic brakes also contribute to quietness.

WTCC Talk On Air Friday

ABILENE, Oct. 5—A "Swing Around West Texas" titles a new quarter-hour radio program making its premiere this week on a trio of West Texas stations: KRBC, Abilene; KGHK, San Angelo, and KBST, Big Spring.

The program will go on the air at 7:15 every Friday evening as a sustaining presentation by the West Texas chamber of commerce, great regional organization serving "The Raw Materials Capital of the World." Master of ceremonies and commentator will be Max Bentley, activities director of the WTCC, who is returning to the air after a three and a half months absence. The WTCC and the Texas State Network expect to expand the program to KFYO, Lubbock, and KFDD, Amarillo, as those stations are able to clear the time. Still later it is hoped to expand to outlets in Wichita Falls and Vernon over a TSN hookup.

The "Swing Around West Texas" will be patterned on Bentley's "Swing Around the World," a news broadcast and commentary originally aired over KRBC, later over the entire Texas State Network, which won him a wide following. The WTCC presentation will be confined to West Texas happenings and personalities and will not be a spot news broadcast. Its format will be a roundup of the week's top events in the 132 counties served

MISSION PREACHER FACES LIFE TERM

FLINT, Mich., Oct. 5 (AP)—Convicted of first degree murder in the shooting of his ailing wife, the Rev. James W. Lane, 61-year-old mission preacher and factory worker, will be sentenced tomorrow to a mandatory life term in prison.

A circuit court jury of seven men and five women returned a guilty verdict last night following a trial during which the preacher admitted intimacies with his 41-year-old housekeeper, Mrs. Helen Sherwood. The prosecution charged it was infatuation for Mrs. Sherwood that caused Lane to send a rifle bullet into the head of his wife, Nancy Virginia, 61, last July.

Tax Remission Invalid

Many who had professed the belief that a system of tax remission is a fallacy will be pleased at this week's dispatch from Austin announcing that Attorney General Gerald Mann had ruled unconstitutional a bill remitting to counties one-half of state ad valorem taxes for five years.

The bill was passed at the last general session of the legislature and signed into law by Governor Lee O'Daniel.

The attorney general ruled the bill violated the constitutional provision that no money shall be drawn from the state treasury except by specific appropriations. There were other points cited as making the bill invalid, but that, in essence, was the attorney general's finding.

Many people had questioned the remission bill on other scores, not attempting to pass on its legality. These people wondered, for instance, if there were wisdom in the state turning back an estimated three and a half to four and a half million dollars a year when it already has a deficit of some $18,000,000 and likely will have a larger one.

"It (the bill) does not propose to relieve the taxpayer of any taxes whatsoever. The act expressly provides that such taxes shall continue to be collected as heretofore. Only the manner and purpose of the expenditure would be changed."

George Tucker Man About Manhattan: NEW YORK—This is no secret; it has been printed, and people are supposed to know things that have been told. But I didn't know it, and I will admit that it sort of startled me, and caused me to turn and gaze with interest at the apartment building.

The first Mrs. Ernest Simpson lives there, in a three-room apartment. It was her husband who married Wallis Warfield, of Baltimore, who in time became the woman for whom Edward VIII renounced his throne.

Side notes: Millions of pounds of fish are handled by the New York markets a year. You can always find at least a hundred varieties at the Fulton street fish market, where Al Smith got his start in life.

Are You Listening?

After A Man's Heart

by JEAN RANDALL

Chapter 27 FLIGHT "Where has Buff gone?" Tim yelled at Webby.

"No need to speak to me so mad like, Mr. Tim. I don't know no more'n you do. She just said she was on her way and wouldn't be back."

"Where's her father? Where are Mr. and Mrs. Carroll?" "I can't tell you that neither. The last letter Miss Buff had from 'em, they was in Arizona."

George was surprised at the look of frozen misery on Tim's face. "It's all right, guy," he said gently. "We can always reach her through her father's syndicate. She hasn't disappeared completely."

"That's exactly what she's done, and I know why: because she wanted to!" "But why in thunder should she want to?"

"A wry smile twisted Tim's lips. "I thought you knew her so well! I thought it was I who didn't understand her, couldn't gage the motive for what she did! Of course she would go—after that Denver business. I think I suspect it all along. I think I knew she wasn't sick—unless she was sick at heart, poor child, over the top."

"It doesn't make sense to me. Why should she be disgusted with us simply because she'd acceded, wished what she set out to do?" "Would you make us some coffee, Mrs. Webb?" Tim requested.

"Mr. George and I didn't have time for lunch today." And when the fat housekeeper had withdrawn, he explained: "When I said the lot of us, I meant myself, of course. What sort of a girl would she be if she felt the least interest in our friendship, in a man who struck his neck out twice in the same place in less than a year?"

"No, I don't," replied the simple Mr. Weeska. "She knew all along the kind of fool you were making of yourself. Good gosh, Tim, didn't we talk it over—she and I, you and she? Even Iris dumped j. and specifications in her lap. She cared enough then to put that smart brain of hers on the job and show you where you stood. Why should she change her mind about you just because she did that?"

"Unless," he added, "she thought you were still in love with Iris; that you resented what Buff had done for you. Listen," he demanded, "didn't you call her 'telephones even?'"

"I telephoned half a dozen times. I called her. I sent her flowers that same evening. The shop was closed and I had to hunt up the florist and pay him a winking sum to open up for me. Then I got a messenger boy to deliver 'em—the roses, I mean."

"She knew they were from you!" "I put my card in with them." "Anything on it?" "My name."

George clutched at his vest.

Washington Daybook

WASHINGTON—The excited flood of mail protesting repeal of the arms embargo has shifted much of the tension from the senate to the house where public reaction traditionally causes more political heartburns.

Since two-thirds of the senate is largely immune at any one time to immediate political pressure, there is a greater sense of resistance to mail bombardments such as has grown surprisingly out of the present American "crisis."

In the house it is different. Members come up on mass every two years. They are coming up next year, each in his own ballwick. Don't discount any reports as to how responsive they are to mail attacks.

In the senate, two-thirds of the members can risk being "statesmen" even to the extent of voting against a flood of protests of their constituents. Many things may arise to rescue these senators from an irate constituency before their own election periods come around two or four years hence. But in the house members must come face to face with their neighbors and explain their acts almost as soon as they perform them.

THE MAIL OR A POLL?

It is true that polls by the usual agencies point to a disposition of America to favor the allies by the repeal of the arms embargo. But the congressional mail runs so overwhelmingly in the opposite direction that members of the house are truly worried about what to do. If thousands of their constituents, including grange members, legionnaires, literary clubs and just plain heckled Yankees, write in to protest the repeal, they have got to think a long time before they convince themselves whether the mail or public reaction polls are right.

We have run into several who remember or have read about the League of Nations fight. Public sentiment was overwhelmingly for the league. It sounded like peace, President Wilson was for it, and even if he hadn't kept us out of war, his word was good.

Yet within a half-dozen months sentiment had changed considerably. The two or three newspapers that had stood out from the throng and opposed Wilson were joined by hundreds more. The League went down. Its critics contended that the following election, in which the democrats went down to defeat with the League as an issue, was final proof of U. S. repudiation. Cool historians are not so sure, but the politicians remember the change of sentiment, regardless of what it represented.

To a puzzled congressman, there is no sure way to guess which way the change may come. The polls say sentiment is one way and the mail says another. It is true that the house passed a neutrality bill last session containing the arms embargo repeal, but the newly written bill must come back to it in some form, as it is vastly changed from the shape in which the house passed it.

MORE WOBBLY NOW

There is really no spoffing about the mail. We stood in one senator's office while a new batch was counted. Of 34 letters opened—it was only a fraction of a stack—two favored repeal. There were odds and ends of size of envelopes, so it was a fair representation, coming from several states.

In almost every bundle of mail delivered to members are stacks of uniform-sized envelopes indicating that some enterprising club president has swung the members into a mass club action. Nevertheless, most of the stuff we have seen comes in odd sizes and odd handwritings and purveying the general protest in individualistic terms. It may be mawkish, but it certainly looks like the outpourings of troubled souls, regardless of whether it comes from the nation's mental froth.

The mollifying nature of the neutrality bill seems already to have softened some senate opposition, but the house is more wobbly than before.

Hollywood Sights And Sounds

HOLLYWOOD—Items gastronomic: The key to Robert Taylor's heart is watermelon pickles—but B. Stanwyck must have found out long ago.

Bela Lugosi's most famous role is "Dracula," a sweet character who thrived on human blood. Bela has a favorite wine. It's bikaver—or, translated from the Hungarian "blood of the bull."

Clark Gable's midnight snack (unless C. Lombard Gable put a stop to it) is a raw onion sandwich. Joan Crawford's vengeance is self-directed when she's angry or upset: she's as likely as not to go on an ice cream soda binge.

Bing Crosby has a tooth for avocados—plucked and eaten from his own trees. Vera Zorina, when she's dancing, takes three pills (concentrated food) for lunch—but otherwise her appetite knows no bounds. (With a wasp waist like hers, it needn't know any.)

When Mischka Auer raids the icebox at night, it's for watermelon. Claude Colbert goes yum-yum over snails—the fancy French kind—and Marlene Dietrich's appetite for broiled tripe is a marvel after some of the tripe (unbroiled) she used to star in.

That penny a day—Deanna Durbin still collects from Producer Joe Pasternak and Director Henry Kostor still goes, when it mounts up to a nickel, for candy bars—and she a young woman in the throes of "First Love."

Eddie Albert, who used to be a soda fountain genius, still goes for soda fountain messes. (One you won't find at a soda fountain is Zorina's pet dessert: macaroons topped by vanilla ice cream, topped by a syrup made of a jigger of cherry brandy, a jigger of kirschwasser, a jigger of cognac, heated gently. (YUM!))

Sandy, the child prodigy, goes goo-goo over gelatine desserts—but doesn't really enjoy the struggle unless she can eat 'em with her fingers. Paul Muni's Ah-h-h: green onions, radishes, dill pickles, mixed up in sour cream.

Bette Davis's ditto: Boston Brown Bread and Boston Baked Beans, as whipped up by Ma Davis at least once a week, and most always for company dinner.

Frank McHugh is a rabbit. Perpetually on a diet, he makes a virtue of carrots, lettuce, tomatoes. (Wonder, by the way, how Shirley Temple feels about her spinach, by now?)

Also on the salad-and-fresh-vegetable brigade, but not above a steak: James Cagney. Chicken fritas—fan: Jane Wyman.

Sen. Nelson Listed As A Possible Candidate For Railroad Commission

HERALD AUSTIN BUREAU AUSTIN, Oct. 4—At least four members of the Texas senate are thinking about running for higher office in next summer's political races, according to reports current in capitol circles.

Sixteen members of the senate will be up for re-election. Presumably, 13 of them will run again for the same office; two may enter the lists for state railroad commissioner; one has indicated he will retire after this term, leaving his place open for a new man.

Among the 13 hold-over senators, with two more years to serve, two are reported to be preparing for statewide races.

Sen. Will D. Pace of Tyler and Sen. G. H. Nelson of Lubbock, both up for re-election next year, are said to be considering a try at the railroad commission post. Pace is a more likely candidate than Nelson.

If either decides against making a statewide race, they are expected to seek re-election to the senate. An almost certain candidate for higher office is Sen. Clay Cotten of Palestine, who has had his eyes on a seat in the court of criminal appeals. Presiding Judge W. C. Morrow of the appeals court is expected to retire because of ill health.

Cotten is a hold-over senator. If he does not win the higher office, he will return to the senate. Sen. Joe Hill of Henderson, another hold-over senator, is regarded as a potential candidate for governor. He has been a constant critic of Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel and may make an attempt to oust him in next year's political campaign.

German U-Boat Gets Away After Landing Seamen On Irish Coast

LONDON, Oct. 5 (AP)—The British press association said today a German submarine which landed 55 men from the torpedoed Greek steamer Diamantis on the Irish coast acted too quickly for guards of neutral Ireland to attempt interception of the U-boat.

The ship's crew was set ashore last evening near Dingle, County Kerry.

First reports from Dublin said the submarine exchanged greetings with persons ashore while the Diamantis' survivors were ferried to land in a collapsible boat. The Diamantis, 4,900 tons, was sunk off Land's End Tuesday.

"Civics guards patrolling the coast saw the submarine on the surface and rushed to the spot," said the press association's account, "but they were too late to detain the U-boat. While they were still some distance away the submarine moved away from the coast and started to submerge."

Six of the survivors were taken to Dingle hospital for treatment of injuries received in the torpedoing. The others said they had been aboard the U-boat 36 hours and were treated courteously while it cruised off the Irish coast seeking a spot to put them ashore.

The region selected for the landing was described by the British as "desolate."

President Eamon De Valera told the Irish senate last night the country would strengthen her neutrality by making nightly blackouts compulsory to prevent any belligerent planes from using Ireland's lights as guideposts.

British war aims on the eve of a speech in Berlin tomorrow by Adolf Hitler were reiterated by Foreign Secretary Lord Halifax in the house of lords last night.

He said that while Britain was

LABOR ELECTION BEING PONDERED

TOLEDO, O., Oct. 5 (AP)—A national labor relations board examiner was attempting today to arrange a consent election to determine whether a CIO or an AFL union should bargain for workers at the strike-closed Gulf Refining Co. plant here.

Both unions have filed petitions demanding an election but AFL leaders refused today to meet in the same room with CIO heads, Oscar Smith, NLRB regional director said at Cleveland.

The strike was called last May 20 by the CIO union after it had filed charges against the company of refusal to bargain. An AFL group entered the picture last week, Smith said.

The company had arranged a peace conference with the CIO union but called this off pending outcome of the jurisdictional dispute, Smith said. Eldon Young, Fort Worth, Tex., attorney for the company, came here with the expressed purpose of resuming negotiations.

COPPER PRICE UP

NEW YORK, Oct. 5 (AP)—All producing and smelting interests today advanced the price of domestic copper one-half cent a pound to 12 1/2 cents following the action of one producer in boosting the metal yesterday.

Establishment of the uniform higher price came about within a few minutes after actual sales of copper at the 12 1/2 cent level were reported. Fair sized tonnages were said to have changed hands.

ARMY MEN TO GET FURLOUGHS FOR RECRUIT WORK

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 5 (AP)—Major Gen. H. J. Brees, commander of the corps area, with headquarters at Fort Sam Houston, issued instructions today to various post commanders that 15-day furloughs may be granted to enlisted men who present reasonable assurance that they can procure recruits from their home districts.

The war department has reminded the several post and unit commanders that recruiting is to be given priority over other activities while the present enlistment campaign is being conducted.

For each recruit obtained, the canvasser will be given 10 days extension to the furlough, according to the order.

CAMDEN, N. J., Oct. 5 (AP)—A charge that the Rev. Walter Dworecki had his 18-year-old daughter slain so he could collect $2,500 insurance was given to a jury of seven men and five mothers today.

Judge Clifford Baldwin instructed the jurors that if the 45-year-old Polish Baptist minister "was guilty of murder at all, you must find him guilty of murder in the first degree. That, and 'not guilty, are the only possible verdicts."
