Lynx Ready For 4th Straight Win...

Meet Bobcats at Sunray

The Spearman Lynx, coached by Larry Lanier, are getting ready to go "on the road again", this time to face the tough Sunray Bobcats. The Bobcats have not been having the kind of season they expected, being 0-4, being shutout in each game. First of all, the Lynx have just come of a 3-games at home, winning all three beating the likes of Sanford-Fritch, Gruver and Stinnett. There are many folks that Sunray must be aware of, I'd say the whole Spearman Lynx team!! The game will be played at Bobcat Stadium beginning at 8:00 p.m. This will be the last game before the District games begin. So it would be nice for Coach Lanier and his Lynx to win, and win big, to take some confidence with them into the District games.

There are many fellows that the Bobcats must try to contain, mainly Dennis Randall, who has had 2 games over 200 yards and 2 over 100 yards. The latest was the 128 yard game he had against the tough Stinnett Rattlers. But if Sunray is going to try and contain Dennis "Duck" Randall, #33, they will have their hands full with Fullback Darren Goodheart #31. Darren "rams" thru his opponents in each game. Once again if they try to contain both Darren and Dennis, they will have their hands full with Ricky Torres and Julio Vasquez, two other excellent running backs. Both Ricky and Julio have more speed than their opponents, and even if they can't go thru folks, they will go around them with ease. Dell Brandt and Jay Pack are good blockers and being two more runnings backs who do an excellent job for the Lynx. The Lynx also have a Sophomore that can fill the shoes of one of the running backs when needed and that is Karl Bynum. He "plows" thru his opponents also.

The two quarterbacks that the Sunray Bobcats will have to look out for are Ross Donahue, #11, a Sophomore and Billy Pat Underwood, #12, Senior. Both do an excellent job as quarterbacks for the Lynx. Ross can "zip" the ball past defenders to his receivers and can hand off smoothly. Ross is also the "holder" in the critical but most important point-after-touchdown. Billy Pat does a fine job handing the ball off, running with it every once in a while. Billy Pat is also the "expert" on kicking the point-after-touchdown and making it good. Last week against Stinnett, Billy Pat made 2 of 3 extra points, one was blocked.

There are two Lynx Ends and two Wing Receivers, all four doing an excellent job catching the ball and then running for more yardage. First of all there are two Ends-Gary Thomas, a Senior and Steve Burke, a Sophomore. Both do a fine job catching the ball and then running for daylight. The two Wing Receivers include Steven Francis and Jeff Pool. Steven, when he catches the ball, he starts running and makes extra yardage like a running back. Jeff Pool has great hands for catching the ball and then running for extra yardage when necessary. All of these 13 guys, ranging from Quarterback to Wing Receiver, are the Offensive Weapons that Sunray Bobcats must contain, but before they can get to them, they will have to try and go thru the tough Spearman Lynx Offensive Line, and believe me, they are one tough Offensive Line.

There are 3 Centers, Charlie Salgado, Billy Ray Haden and Israel "Kimo" De La Rosa. Charlie is the Senior, he is the starter and does a great job. Not too many Noseguards can penetrate thru Charlie. Charlie is also the 1982 Football King, so where there is a King, there is only one ruler, and he rules his territory very well. If anyone goes thru Charlie, then you will hear thunder, because not that many folks can penetrate to get to the backfield thru Charlie. Charlie is an inspiration to all the Centers in football. Billy Ray and "Kimo" are both Juniors, they have another year to fight for the starting position. One of them will take over for Charlie, one day, and that player will have to know what he is doing, which both do.

The Lynx squad has 4 Guards. All four are very quick and good. These four are Clint Graves, Darl Farris, David Turner and Byron Sutterfield. First of all, there is only one Senior Guard and that is Clint Graves. Clint does an "excellent" job on sweeps and blocking downfield for his running backs. The other three are Juniors. Byron Sutterfield switched from a Defensive Safety to Offensive Guard. It was a big adjustment, but according to Coach Lanier, Byron has "come along way". Darl Farris does a fine job for his backs also. He blocks well. David Turner is the other Junior who does a great job blocking downfield for his running backs. He protects his quarterback very well, also.

There are 4 Tackles on the Lynx squad also. They are Kevin Slaten, Mark Guthrie, James Potter, Joe Gomez and Jan Hartsell--correction, I meant to say 5 big Tackles for the Lynx. Two of the mean Purple Machine are Seniors, Jan Hartsell and James Potter. Jan has done a fine job for the Lynx tackling perfectly. He protects his backs and his quarterback. He does an excellent job blocking when his Quarterback gets ready to throw a pass. The other Senior is James Potter. James does a fine job tackling for his team. He protects his backfield as well as anybody. Mark Guthrie and Joe Gomez are both Juniors. Mark has done an excellent job for the Lynx since he began his Lynx career last year. There is no way to describe Mark, but that he is an excellent Tackle. He protects his backs and his quarterback very, very well. He is another one of those guys that can block two or three guys if he has too. The other Junior is Joe Gomez. Joe has done a fine job for the Lynx so far. He protects his backfield very well. He is very strong and can also tackle 2 or 3 guys at a time, if necessary. The final Tackle representative is a Sophomore. He has done a fine job with the Lynx as a Tackle so far. He is also one of those Lynx that switches off and plays with the JV Lynx also. Kevin, when he plays, does a fine job for the Lynx.

So as you'll can see, the Sunray Bobcats are going to have their hands full with the Lynx Running Backs, Quarterbacks and Ends, but first they must penetrate the Offensive Line--this will be the hardest chore for the Bobcats all Friday night.

Sunray has not scored any kind of points in 4 games. While the Lynx have scored 75 points altogether. So, since this is going to be the last game before the District games begin, the Lynx would love to win this game and maybe win it big. They could be the fifth team to shut-out Sunray. But, of course, Sunray will also be getting ready to start their District games, so they will be looking to score some points and possibly win the game. Don't y'all miss this game. It is a very serious game, in a way. Go on over to Sunray Friday night and support the Lynx at 8 p.m. to their 4th straight victory. The Lynx have improved, and will be shining up their

Without bid county court session brief

A total lack of any bids on a new automobile for the Hansford County Sheriff's Department was the only hitch in the execution of the agenda for the regular "fourth Monday" meeting of the county commissioners court, Monday.

It was agreed to re-advertise for bids on the vehicle. Other than routine items such as the treasurer's report, were two action items on the agenda; an easement for Phillips Petroleum Company for a pipeline generally north of the city and a part in the purchase of a copying machine for the office of the district judge.

The easement was granted subject to the usual requirements that county specification be met with the commissioner in the precinct involved the final judge to work done. All such easements are subject to this practice.

Regarding the requested copying machine for the district judge's office, commissioners felt their responsibility was for their prorated share with other counties in the judicial district and approved the expenditure on that basis.

As usual, the "heavy" agenda is for the second Monday or the first session of commissioners court in the month. That meeting must be conducted by statute. That is the only regular session many Texas counties schedule. However, many others feel county business justifies the "fourth Monday" commissioners court session, too.

Hansford County commissioners go along with this group of entities in the state, feeling the two sessions each month make for greater expediency in rendering service to the county. All commissioners court sessions -- conducted in the council room of the county judge's offices -- are open to the public. Next regular session of the court will be Oct. 11

The Ball will be informal and entertainment will be by Nickel and food will be catered by the Shriners of Perryton. If you have any questions, please contact Mona Beth Windom, general chairperson.

A Note From The Whitehouse

I take great pleasure in extending my congratulations and warm personal regards to all those participating in National 4-H Week. During the first week of October, the five million young people in 4-H, their leaders, and professional youth working across the nation will celebrate this special occasion.

National 4-H Week brings deserved recognition to the over seventy years of 4-H activities encouraging leadership, good citizenship, and excellence by young people involved in agriculture. The on-going success of this program is a tribute to the thousands of volunteers who help guide and support the efforts of 4-H'ers across the nation.

Your national theme for 1982, "4-H - Pathways To The Future", is especially timely and appropriate in an era when the world has great concern about future food production. The knowledge you acquire in 4-H projects will help America and other nations to deal more effectively with the problems of nutrition, health and the conservation of natural resources.

Our nation faces many critical challenges in the period ahead, problems that can most confidently and successfully be addressed by forward-looking young men and women who possess the spirit of voluntarism that has contributed so much to our nation's progress. In helping overcome obstacles to our advancement, the 4-H program furthers the goals of a stronger, more vibrant America in the years ahead.

Register to vote

Secretary of State David A. Dean encourages you to register to vote if you have not already done so. The last day to register to vote for the November 2, 1982 General Election, is October 3, 1982.

POLITICAL AD

It appears to me that our incumbent State Representative has already almost retired -- he's just putting in time in Austin, hoping that the voters will return him one more time. If you do, he'll qualify for still another pension -- this one a nifty $8,000-plus per year Legislator's pension, at taxpayer's expense.

He'll get the $8,000-plus annual pay for spending four years in the Legislature more than 20 years back, and four more in the 1980's. How many people in private business earn an $8,000 pension for eight years of parttime work?

Help me retire him -- NOW!

Tax act encourages preservation activity
Texas developers and property owners are discovering that there is money to be made in the restoration of older buildings for new commercial and residential uses. One of the major new incentives behind the increasing preservation activity in Texas is the Economic Recovery Tax Act of 1981. Offering tax credits of up to 25% on certified rehabilitation of historic structures, the tax act has stimulated the initial planning of some 105 major restoration projects in Texas.
One such project involves the State National Bank Building, a 58-year-old National Register site on Houston's Main Street. Developers are planning a $1 million restoration of many of the distinctive architectural details of this 13-story office facility. Care is being taken to either repair or duplicate original moldings, window and door fixtures, brass mailboxes, and other decorative features. The marble entrance way will be repaired and refinished, as well as the tiled roof cupola, plaster and gold leaf interior trim, and the building facade.
The neoclassical State National Bank Building is an early achievement of one of Houston's best-known 20th century architects, Alfred Finn. The building is a durable and tasteful representation of an earlier period of the city's development.
A few of the other important Texas landmarks that have benefitted from the Tax Act preservation incentives are the Sartor House in San Antonio, the Old Ellis County Jail in Waxahachie, the Galvez Hotel in Galveston, Albany's Blach Building, the Old Mercantile Building in Sonora in Sutter County, the Fort Worth Livestock Exchange, and the Ragland Building in Sweetwater.
For a historic structure to receive tax benefits, a Historic Preservation Certification Application must be submitted to the Texas Historical Commission. After review by the Commission's National Register Department, all applications and recommendations are forwarded to the National Park Service for final review.
For further information on rehabilitation tax incentives and National Register nominations, contact the THC National Register Department, P.O. Box 12276, Austin, TX 78711.

'A Football Player'

"A football player likes game films, trips away from home, practice sessions without pads, hot showers, cold Cokes, long runs, whirlpool baths, recovered fumbles, points after touchdowns and the quiet satisfaction which comes from being a part of a perfectly executed play." "He is not much for wind sprints, sitting on the bench, rainy days, after game compliments, ankle wraps, scouting reports or calisthenics." "No one else looks forward so much to September, or so little to November. Nobody gets so much pleasure out of knocking down, hauling out or just plain bringing down the enemy. Nobody else can cram into one mind assignments for an end run, an off tackle slant, a jump pass, a stunt, a quarterback sneak, a dive play, punt protection, kickoff returns, a back lateral, goal line stands, or a spinner cycle designed to result in a touchdown everytime it is tried." "A football player is a wonderful creature—you can criticize him, but you can't discourage him. You can defeat his team, but you can't make him quit. You can get him out of a game, but you can't get him out of football. Might as well admit it—be you alumnus, coach, father, mother or fan—he is your personal representative on the field; your symbol of

Head Coach Larry Lanier, 1st year coach for the Spearman Lynx. Coach Lanier is "eye-ing" the Lynx' mistakes as well as improvements like a "Hawk". Coach Lanier believes that his Lynx have a shot at the District Title.

7th & 8th Lynx Ready For Dalhart

The 7th and 8th grade Lynx will travel to the toughest place on this side of the Mississippi. The place will be Dalhart and the opponents will be the 7th & 8th grade Dalhart Little "Golden" Wolves, or Cubs. The 7th & 8th graders will be tested once again.

Coach Ken Rutherford and Coach Dan Shaver will be checking out the action at Dalhart. The 7th grade Lynx, have not won a game, but they have scored a touchdown. That could make the 7th Lynx realize that they can score, then maybe they can "upset" this Dalhart team. Any team from Dalhart is tough, and they are tougher at home. So the 7th Lynx will have their hands full, once again, against another tough opponent. The 7th grade game will begin at 5:00 p.m. this Thursday, September 30. This game should be the toughest game the 7th Lynx have been up against. The 8th grade Lynx will face the tough Dalhart 8th grade Wolf Cubs. Dalhart always has tough teams, and the 8th graders are usually one of the toughest teams in Jr. High. The 8th Lynx have been shut-out in all their games so far, if they score against Dalhart that could be the "break" they have been waiting for. The 8th grade Lynx have the potential to win games, this could be the first one that they will win. The 8th grade game will begin at 6:30 or it will be immediately following the 7th grade game. It will be played this Thursday, September 30, at Wolves Stadium. Try and make it and cheer on the 8th grade Lynx to victory.

JV Lynx to host JV Dalhart Wolves

The JV Lynx had not won a game until they met the Guymon JV Tigers last week, and defeated them 14 to 0. The JV Lynx have a lot of talent in their Running Backs, their Quarterbacks, their Guards and Tackles, Centers, Ends, their Defense and their Special Teams. Each week, the JV Lynx improve. Well, this Thursday, September 30, the JV Lynx will host the tough JV Dalhart "Golden" Wolves. This will be a test to determine how much work the JV Lynx need, or how much they have improved.

First of all, the game will be played at Lynx Stadium beginning at 6:00. There is no fee, there is no Thursday Night Football, so now the only thing to do is go out, take a few friends to Lynx Stadium and cheer on the JV Lynx to another victory. The JV Lynx' record is 1-2. This game against Dalhart will be the toughest test they have had all thru the year. There are lots of Sophomores and a few Freshman and Juniors. Now, that they have played together a few games, they will be ready for the Dalhart JV Golden Wolves.

Last week the JV Lynx took the "stripes" of the JV Guymon Tigers, this Thursday, September 30, they can take the "fangs" of the Dalhart JV "Golden" Wolves. Go on over to Lynx Stadium and cheer on the JV Lynx to victory. This would be a tremendous victory for the JV Lynx. This will be an exciting and excellent game, go on over and watch it.

Lynx Band Clinics

The Lynx Band will have several upcoming clinics in the month of October. They include a percussion clinic, a music clinic and a marching clinic.

The percussion clinic will be on Saturday, October 2, all morning long, beginning at 8:30 and extending until about 4:30 p.m. with a small lunch break in between. The clinic will stress the important aspect of ensemble sound, and concentrate on improving the execution of the ensemble.

The music clinic will be Monday night, October 18, and will begin at 6:30 p.m. The clinician for the event will be Mr. Fred Pankratz of Canadian. Mr. Pankratz has built two bands into sweepstakes winners, first at Miami and most recently at Canadian. He will concentrate solely on the music as it relates to the total show performance.

The marching clinic will be Monday night, October 25, and will also begin at 6:30 p.m. Mr. Kent Jordan, from Booker will serve as clinician. Mr. Jordan also has a Sweepstakes winner at Booker and has placed as high as fourth place in the State Marching contest. Much of Mr. Jordan's clinic will be directed toward improving the marching and maneuvering and general effect of the bands performance.

These clinics, plus a flag festival and clinic, to be announced at a later date, should provide for a strong bid at the UIL contest for the Lynx Band.

Flag Football News

The Tri-State Fair competed in the first scheduled game for last Saturday and came out the winner, as the game between the Little Lynx and the Green Machine was postponed. However, good competition began at 10:00 at the field east of the YMCA, as the 4-5-6th grade boys squared off in a real defensive struggle for 50 minutes of play, the boys are really playing good football, with some great offense and superb defense. The competition ended in a 0-0 tie. They will come head-to-head again on October 2nd at 10:00. The younger boys competed at 11:00, with the Raiders and Green Machine teams grabbing flags left and right. The ball moved up and down the field many times and three touchdowns were scored, one a really long run of about 65 yards for a really exciting moment. In the end the Raiders came out victors. Standings for the younger boys are: Lynx 0-2, Raiders 1-1 and Green Machine 0-2.

Busters Dusters Are Undefeated

It took three games before Thriftway edged a win over the improving Bulls Inn netters. Thriftway in three weeks of play are 2-1 and Bulls Inn 1-2. In further action the Buster's Duster's team, which has been together for many years continues to be the team to which the others aspire to defeat, won two of two from a new team this fall the Interstate Savings sextette. Buster's Dusters is alone on top, one game away from Thriftway, with three wins and no losses. Interstate has a 1-2 record. The third game of the evening was between another new team, Sparks Brothers and 1st State Bank, which has many returning players from previous seasons of play. First State won the contest and is 2-1 on the season, tied with Thriftway and one game behind Busters.

Sparks Brothers, which is learning more and more each week and becoming a team has met good competition and has a record of 0-3. Give them a few more games and they will surprise one of the others and begin winning. Games are played each Monday evening starting at 7:15, with the second game at 8:00 and the third at 8:45 in the junior high school gym.

TAILORED FASHIONS...AT HOME! EASIER!

Blazers and other tailored jackets are versatile additions to a wardrobe, but "impossible" to sew? At least too difficult to tackle? Not so.

If you've hesitated to make a blazer because you think it's too hard to do or will take too long, think again.

Today's patterns, fabrics and notions make tailored jackets easier than ever before.

Here are some tips for "quickie" tailoring:

PATTERN SELECTION

Select a basic pattern that you can make several times in different fabrics for different seasons. Each time you make the same pattern, it gets faster. Look for design details that are simple and quick. These include patch pockets instead of welt pockets and sleeves and back without vents. If the pattern has vents, plan to sew them up.

Also, in choosing a pattern, remember that lining a garment is faster than finishing all the seams. Be sure the pattern includes the lining. Making your own lining pattern is time-consuming.

Be sure the pattern has enough seams to make altering and fitting easy. Contrary to what you might think, the "few-seams" feature of the "jiffy" or "simple" patterns makes these difficult to alter.

FABRIC CHOICES

Choose fabrics that are easy to sew on.

Tweeds and linen-like fabrics are good choices in woven fabrics, while wool, polyester or blends are the best double knits.

Fabrics such as wool flannel and velveteen take a long time to sew or press to get a nice look.

Plaids are lovely but take extra time to match during cutting.

CONSTRUCTION TIPS

Choose construction methods that eliminate hand sewing. Use fusibles for interfacing and in hems, if possible.

Remember that topstitching eliminates the need for hemming at all.

Make machine buttonholes and topstitch pockets to the jacket.

Don't skip the essentials of good construction — this will slow you down. For example, be sure to staystitch neck edges and armholes. Clip and trim seams to eliminate bulk. And press often, especially before crossing one seam with another.

Local Students in WTSU Play

WTSU—A young nun has died under mysterious circumstances in a remote parish of northern Michigan and her pastor, Father Brian Rivard, has been charged with her murder, in "The Runner Stumbles," by Milan Stitt, to be performed Friday and Saturday, Oct. 1 and 2, at 8 p.m., in the Intimate Theatre in the West Texas State University Fine Arts Building.

The cast includes Father Brian Rivard, played by French Stewart, an Albuquerque, N.M., freshman; Sister Rita, played by Amber Smith, a freshman from Friona; Mrs. Shandig, played by Sherry Strain, a senior theatre major from Hereford; and Toby Felker, played by Dennis McMenemy, a senior theatre major from St. Louis, Mo.

Other cast members are Erna Prindle, played by Michelle McFerrin, a freshman nursing major from Chillicothe; prosecutor, played by Brent Biles, a senior music education major from Spearman; Monsignor Nicholson, played by Kelly Davis, a junior theatre major from Spearman; Louise, played by Laura Davis, a senior theatre major from Amarillo; and Amos, played by Kenny Cook, a freshman from Amarillo.

The play is directed by Robert Busch, a graduate teaching assistant in speech and theatre from Los Alamos, N.M.

Assistant director is Donna Shelby, a junior theatre major from Canyon, and technical direction is by Paul Welch, a junior theatre major from Spearman.

Biles, who plays the part of the prosecutor, also composed the music for the play.

This play was suggested by a turn-of-the-century trial for the murder of a nun in Michigan and the action alternates between interrogation and testimony and scenes of past events.

"The play functions on two levels. It is both a courtroom drama and a moving story of repressed passion," said Busch.

General admission is $1.50 and $1 for WTSU students with an identification card.

National Farm Crisis Day Set

WACO, TX—Texas Farmers Union District I Director Robert Green of Hartley has urged all the farmers and small business people in his area to take an active part in National Farm Crisis Day, October 2, 1982.

"There will be a tractorcade and rally held in Austin," Green said. "If you can attend, I strongly urge you to do so."

The TFU Director stated that the tractorcade would begin from the parking lots on 15th and Congress on the north side of the Capitol. "We will be stopping at all traffic lights and obeying all traffic laws," Green commented. "We have no desire to disrupt Saturday morning shoppers or create problems for downtown businesses. We just want to bring to the attention of all people in Texas and throughout the nation the disastrous conditions that are pervasive in agriculture, small business and labor sectors. In fact, we invite downtown motorists, business people and laborers to join us. We're all in the same economic boat. We need to stand together."

Green strongly encouraged all producers and concerned citizens to plan local rallies and events if they cannot attend the statewide rally in Austin. "If you just can't come to Austin plan a local rally at your county courthouse as a show of unified concern," Green suggested.

All those interested in participating in the statewide event in Austin should be at the parking lots at 15th and Congress no later than 9:30 a.m. Saturday morning. The rally will be held subsequent to the tractorcade on the Capitol steps.

RECIPE

By Sarah Anne Sheridan

Autumn means apple time--succulent sweet or cooking apples have a place at almost any fall meal. There are many ways to serve apples.

Apple Crowns

- 4 red Delicious apples
- 1 large seedless orange, sectioned
- 1/2 c seedless raisins
- lemon juice
- 8 walnut halves
- 4 iceberg-lettuce wedges
- 8 wedges provolone cheese
- sour cream or yogurt

Wash, core, but do not pare apples. Cut 1/2-inch slice from top of each and also from the bottom so apple stands upright. With melon baller, scoop balls from top slices and insides of apples, leaving 1/8 inch shells. Top balls with orange sections, raisins; cover; refrigerate. Cut sawtooth edge around top of each apple. Brush inside shell and edge generously with lemon juice. Fill shells with fruit mixture. Garnish with walnuts, lettuce and cheese. Serve with sour cream or yogurt.

* Makes 4 servings.

Texas 4-H Fashion Show Winners

Twelve young seamstresses from across Texas made it to the "winner's circle" in the 1982 Texas 4-H Fashion Show staged in Corpus Christi September 15-17.

Scholarships were presented to eight contestants who placed first or second, respectively, in the four fashion show categories: active sportswear, evening and specialty wear, tailored daywear and nontailored daywear.

Other awards went to the two highest placing contestants in the state wool/mohair division and the state cotton division. The county having the highest percentage increase in clothing project completion from 1981 to 1982--Crosby--received a special award given for the first time at the 4-H fashion activity. It was a sewing machine from the Bernina Sewing Machine Co., Inc.

All first place winners in the four fashion categories were awarded $300 scholarships from Cloth World, Inc., along with other awards. All second place winners received scholarships in the amount of $225 from the

Mary Kay Foundation.

First place in the tailored daywear category went to Sandra House of Atascosa County, and Kim Watson, Moore County, placed second. In the nontailored daywear division, Christy Pittman, Sherman County, placed first, and Cathy Cain, Lamb County, second. Placing first in the active sportswear category was Rebecca Zehetner of Red River County, and second place honors went to Amy Diedrichsen, Moore County. Top honors in the evening and specialty wear category went to Penny Miller of Gray County, while Belinda Vaughn, Washington County, placed second.

State wool/mohair division winners included Laura Allen of Parker County, first, and Melissa Ramirez, Starr County, second. Laura received a $100 bond from the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers Association and a trip to the Apparel Mart from the Mohair Council of America. Melissa received a $50 bond and fabric.

In the state cotton division, first place winner Carol Hamff of Kleberg County received $100 from the Texas Cottonseed Crushers' Association and cotton fabric from the Crompton Co., Inc. Second place winner Amy Diedrichsen of Moore County received a $50 and fabric from the same sponsors.

Representing Crosby County in the clothing project completion activity were all contestants from Extension District 2, where the winning county is located. The contestants included Cathy Cain, Angie Stark, Cindy Ferguson and Rhonda Nivens.

The Texas 4-H Fashion Show is a major educational activity in the statewide 4-H clothing program, which attracts about 11,000 youth participants each year. To be eligible to compete in the show, a 4-H member must have completed a 4-H clothing project and won first place in local county and district shows, says Alma Fonseca, clothing specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

Sponsors of the youth activity are the Extension Service in cooperation with the award donors.

Postal Service To Test Use Of Official Mail Stamps

In early 1983, the U.S. Postal Service will begin testing a new system which will permit U.S. Government agencies to use official mail postage stamps, postal cards and stamped embossed envelopes instead of the current official mail indicia printed on government envelopes.

The design of the Official Mail Stamp, which will be the same for stamps and postal stationery, was unveiled today by Assistant Postmaster General Gordon C. Morison during the National Postal Forum in Washington, D.C.

The purpose of the nationwide test is to develop procedures for the possible future introduction of an Official Mail Stamp system which, when combined with meter postage, business replies, Express Mail, E-COM and permit imprints, will provide total official mail accountability and the collection of proper postage revenue from official mail users.

If the test is successful and the concept is adopted, it would replace the present official mail indicia and the system whereby government agencies reimburse the Postal Service for postage costs based on mail samplings.

The stamps will be produced in seven denominations in order to provide customers with the full range of service for single-piece mailings. The denominations are one cent, four cents, 13 cents, 17 cents, 20 cents $1.00 and $5.00. Thirteen-cent postal cards will be provided, as well as 20-cent embossed stamped envelopes in the Number 10 size with or without windows.

The design features a stylized eagle and will bear the phrase "Official Mail USA-Penalty for Private Use $300." To ensure compatibility with Postal Service facing and canceling equipment, the stamps and postal stationery will be "tagged" with green phosphorescent ink. The stamps will be distributed in sheets of 100, except for the 20-cent stamp, which will be issued only in coils of 100.

The postal Service emphasized that the stamps and postal stationery will be restricted to official government mail, and may not be used on private mail. Envelopes bearing the stamps must have a government return address.

For collectors, the stamps and postal stationery will be sold by the Philatelic Sales Division, Washington, DC 20260-9997 by mail order. Over-the-counter sales will also be provided by the Philatelic Center located in the lobby of the U.S. Postal Service Headquarters Building, 475 L'Enfant Plaza, S.W., Washington, D.C. Details on ordering first day of issue covers will be provided prior to issuance of the stamps and stationery.

The Official Mail Stamp test is expected to involve elements of the Department of Agriculture and the U.S. Air Force initially. The field offices of these agencies will requisition stamp and stationery supplies from designated Stamp Distribution Offices within each state.

Local officials attend Highway Commission hearing

AMARILLO—The Panhandle delegation to the Highway Commission hearing in Austin, September 22, consisted of 46 representatives from 13 area communities. Led by the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce, the delegation presented resolutions from 38 Panhandle agencies outlining the importance of highways to the free enterprise on the Golden Spread.

Sen. Sarpalus, 31st State Senatorial District, presented the area's testimony before the Commission.

Upon the delegation's return Wednesday night, Barney Wiegand, C of C Highway Committee chairman said, "Senator Sarpalus did an outstanding job of emphasizing to the Commission the great importance of highways to this area and our appreciation for the highway system we do have out here."

"He emphasized our tremendous production of agriculture, livestock and oil and gas; and its importance to the rest of the state."

"Sen. Sarpalus discussed our growing concern over the conditions of our roads and the need for improvements."

"Last but not least he pointed out the willingness of so many elected officials in the Panhandle to go on record favoring additional highways funds to be provided by an increase in the fuel tax."

Wiegand continued, "The Commission was impressed with the strong support shown by the many resolutions we delivered to them. It was a rare sight for them to see a big area united on an issue and speak with one voice. The large number of elected officials there, from such a long distance made a big impression, too."

Results of the presentation to the commission will not be felt until the Texas State Legislature convenes in January. At that time the plea for increased funding for the state's highways will be considered by the legislators.

If the highway fund is increased, the Panhandle delegation will return to Austin and make specific requests for projects in the Panhandle, according to Jim Eubanks, Amarillo Chamber of Commerce Transportation Manager.

List of Resolution included Hansford County Commissioners Courts; Spearman City Council and the Spearman Chamber of Commerce.

Among the Panhandle Delegation were Hansford County Judge Roy McClellan, and Hansford Commissioners, B.J. Renner and Joe T. Venneman.

Strake Talk

FROM YOUR NEXT LT. GOVERNOR

This may be my last column in this series. We began this column ten weeks ago, hoping it would be a success. And judging from the response of the readers, I would call it an unqualified success. The mail has been very favorable. The columns that drew the most response were those dealing with education of our children, the property tax issue, and the issue of Mr. Hobby raising funds for the ACLU to use in that organization's crusade against prayer in schools and in defense of pornographers.

I have made a point in these columns that Texans need a Lt. Governor who is in touch with the people he is supposed to serve. Mr. Hobby is clearly out of touch with the thinking of Texans, and, in my opinion ought to be retired.

Mr. Hobby's lack of understanding can be illustrated: Texans are overwhelmingly in favor of President Reagan's efforts to transfer power and responsibility back to the states. I agree that Texans can do a better job for Texas than Washington can. Mr. Hobby disagrees. The vast majority of Texans do not believe they ought to be forced to pay for the education of the children of illegal aliens. I have compassion for these children—but I must confess that I care more for Texans who are faced with the burden of supporting their own children in hard economic times. Mr. Hobby disagrees. Most Texans think our Right to Work law should be incorporated in the Texas constitution. I agree here, too. But Mr. Hobby disagrees and has fought the effort. The list goes on and on.

The problem with continuing my column is a simple one—money. We originally budgeted for ten columns, and we have now reached that point in our budget. If we are successful in raising more campaign funds, you are likely to see more columns. I hope so, for this seems to be a good way to get the issues to the people.

These columns are needed. Without them Mr. Hobby will clearly avoid the issues and seek to confuse us with 30-second TV commercials created by his image builders. If you would like to see these columns continue and would like to help in that regard, please send your contribution. If you can't make a contribution, I assure you that your opinion will be equally important. Please write to me at Texans for Strake, 1213 W. 34th, Austin 78705. Let's keep in touch.

Voter registration deadline is Oct. 3

COLLEGE STATION--Eligible voters who have not registered to vote must do so by Oct. 3 if they wish to cast their ballot in the Nov. 2 general election.

"All that is involved is filling out an application card available at the county voter registrar's office," said Joe Rothe with the county officials program of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

Rothe particularly encouraged high school seniors to register to vote. Those who are 17 years and 10 months of age are eligible to register and may exercise the right to vote on or after their 18th birthday. Some 188,000 high school seniors should be eligible to vote in Texas this fall.

"Everyone eligible to vote but unable to do so on Nov. 2 should apply at the county voter registrar's office to vote absentee," said Rothe. Oct. 29 is the deadline for voting absentee in person while absentee ballots will be accepted in the mail as

1. Absence from the county of residence on election day.
2. Age 65 or older on election day.
3. Inability to appear at the authorized polling place on election day due to sickness, physical disability or religious belief.
4. Service as an election clerk or a poll watcher in an election precinct other than the precinct of residence.

5. Under certain circumstances, voters confined to jail may be eligible to vote absentee.

"Every Texas House, Senate and Congressional seat is up for re-election this fall along with nearly every statewide office," said Rothe. "So it's especially important for all eligible voters to get to the polls on Nov. 2. Only 24 percent of those eligible voted in the May 1 Texas primary, the lowest in 30 years for a gubernatorial primary election.

4-H Week October 3-9

Nearly 150 4-H members and 25 volunteer leaders in Hansford County are taking part in special activities for National 4-H Week October 3-9.

This year's theme, "4-H Pathways To The Future," challenges members to become self-directing, productive and contributing members of society, points out Karen Harruff and Jim Smith, county agents with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

Through practical hands-on learning experiences, 4-H members select and follow pathways that lead to success in personal and career development.

4-H, America's largest out-of-school program for boys and girls between the ages of 9 to 19, is the youth program of the Cooperative Extension Service of the state land-grant universities and the U.S. Department of Agriculture. Some five million youth are involved in 4-H across the nation, with 140,000 of these in Texas.

The overall mission of the Extension Service in conducting 4-H programs is the development of youth individually as responsible, productive citizens, says Karen Harruff.

4-H members learn specific skills in programs such as nutrition, animal science, forestry or gardening. They also learn to keep accurate records, make oral presentations, and develop life-long management, consumer and communications skills, explains Jim Smith.

They use their skills to contribute to community development through such projects as beautification, historic preservation, work with the elderly, energy conservation and involvement in civic affairs, says Karen Harruff.

Low income Texans may qualify for energy payments

AUSTIN--Low-income Texans faced with home energy cutoff for heating or cooling may qualify for payments for $3 million in federal funds set aside for energy crisis intervention (ECI), according to the Texas Department of Human Resources.

The money, made available to Texas counties, will be distributed to energy suppliers on behalf of eligible households.

One payment is allowed each household between October 1 and March 31. Another payment is allowed between April 1 and September 30. A maximum of $90 per period can be paid if the household applies and is found eligible.

Officials at DHR explained that once the fund is exhausted, no further payments can be made.

The department has negotiated contracts with local agencies to handle outreach, applications, eligibility determination, and payments to energy suppliers.

Qualification for ECI payments is limited to households with a total gross monthly income of less than $305.50 for a one-person household; $499.50 for a two-person household; $684.50 for three; $845.50 for four; $998.50 for five; and $1,166.50 for six.

At least one person in the household must be a U.S. citizen or a legally admitted alien. If a household's past due energy bill exceeds $90, and funds from other sources are not available, the household might not qualify for ECI help. The goal of ECI, officials emphasized, is to maintain the flow of energy to the household.

October

Is October the peak of nature's splendor? Many writers think so. Only springtime, with its flush of new growth and life--especially in countries where winter is long and bitter--rivals October as nature's most glorious show.

The color of autumn has a different nostalgic flavor than that of spring. Bright fall colors represent dying leaves, the end of a season, the closing of a year, a cycle. Spring represents the beginning of something new.

Whatever the reader's choice, one of nature's two most colorful and beautiful seasons is at hand. Those wise enough to walk through the fields and forests on these glorious days will find a new appreciation of the wonders of a power greater than man's.

Oops!

In broadcasting, there's a school of thought that commentators who make mistakes shouldn't correct themselves. Most listeners, or viewers, won't notice the gaffe, it's argued. The practice is highly prevalent in sports broadcasting and telecasting.

Like the venerable "we" in journalism--not a custom among European newspaper writers incidentally--the custom among some broadcasters not to correct obvious mistakes is illogical.

The viewer is entitled to an accurate commentary. Whether it be sports or news, a mistake requires correction, the sooner the better. News programs should include a correction segment, just as newspapers print corrections. Few of them do.

When a broadcast team member hears a co-worker err, he should set the record straight--not remain silent, assuming most listeners won't notice the misstatement.

Child Advice

One of the facts of life parents should appreciate is that there's an over-abundance of advice, much of it half-baked, about rearing children. One constantly reads magazine and newspaper articles by various "authorities" telling us how to rear Junior.

There's really not very much complicated in this worthwhile task. Common sense, love and time will enable most parents to do a fine job. A good book on medical care in the home is advisable but the current spate of psychological digging, overdone worrying over junior's reactions, his (or her) frustrations, resentment, etc., is often misleading or worse.

All children must learn discipline and the sooner the better, if it isn't allowed to crush their spirit and initiative. All will have some frustrations, some resentments. Fine and good. That's life. All must be curbed at times, sometimes punished. Consistency and love, however, in guiding them along, are recognized and understood by children.

And if he or she doesn't turn out just like parents expect, it isn't necessarily the parents' fault. There's no need for these parents to consider themselves failures, and wallow in a sea of remorse. Too many sorry influences today can lure a youngster from the proper path of life--including television, films, associates, etc.

Politics is perhaps the only profession for which no preparation is thought necessary. --R.L. Stevenson.

In politics experiments mean revolutions. --Benjamin Disraeli.

John Paul II, Pope, on Arafat visit: "The pope and the Catholic church look with sympathy in consideration of both peoples (Israelis and Palestinians) and hope that each one accepts the existence and reality of the other..."

About Tradition

There's much good about many of our traditions. Sentiment and nostalgia often prompt us to keep many of them alive. But keeping all tradition alive isn't necessarily the proper course.

Some of us don't like change, don't want life to change. That, perhaps, is a natural inclination among the elderly--who aren't keen on adapting. The art of drawing a line between what was and is good and worthwhile, and what tradition and custom should be allowed to pass into history is a fine one.

In some rural areas, everything that reaches back into the past is romanticized and traditions change hard. Sometimes they change too slowly. The individual who proposes change is often abused. He may think that what was good enough for grandpa is not good enough for him. He's right--much of the time.

To hold on to what's still practical and good, especially old values, is highly desirable. But times, the discovery of new truth, change knowledge and correct and improve much in society. We must move with the times if we are to keep pace with progress, learning and enlightened living.

Some traditions, from the good old days, deserve a natural death.

Football's Strike

Although the pro football strike could be over by the time this is read, a word about it is in order. Millions of Americans are disappointed, and inconvenienced, by strikes in major sports. But, of course, sports are not essential for public services and a strike doesn't threaten public safety or government services. Thus, federal mediation isn't imminent.

Paramount is the right of players (employees) to strike. They exercised that right after long deliberation. Whatever one's views as to the players' case, it should be said that pro footballers, in a more dangerous sport, receive average salaries lower than those in pro baseball and pro basketball. On the other hand football owners have made a substantial offer and it would appear this strike is more a struggle for control than anything else.

Thus the abuse fans have been heaping on players is, to a large degree, uninformed. In fact, the most difficult part of the pro football controversy is to know which side's spokesman to believe. In the days leading up to the strike, the two spokesmen made directly contradictory statements as to the positions of the two sides.

All regret the advent of strikes in sports. There is always a danger that player strikes will turn off fans. That happened in Major League baseball to some extent last year when already highly-paid players struck unnecessarily. Some baseball fans have not recovered their lost interest in baseball as a result.

But football players in 1982 had a better case. One doubts if this strike will cost the game fans. Football is the most exciting sport on TV, and the fans' dismay at present reflects his or her keen interest in following the game more than anything else.

A politician thinks of the next election; a statesman, of the next generation. --James Freeman Clark.

Fabian Linden, director of the board's Consumer Research Center: "The high and still rising level of unemployment appears to be an important factor in the latest decline in consumer spurts."

Gun Time

This is the time of year fathers and sons are getting guns cleaned and oiled for hunting, preparing for the seasons of deer, pheasant, quail, etc.

Thus it's good to recall, at the beginning of the season, that sportsmen are killed every year unnecessarily through carelessness with firearms.

Accidents will occur this year. Hunters will trip and shoot the hunter ahead; some will shoot themselves while crossing fences. Others will be shot by "unloaded" weapons in cars. Some will be shot by trigger-happy hunters mistaking them for wild game.

Safety with firearms can't be stressed too much; as the expanded population and more leisure time and money send more and more hunters into the fields, the danger of accidents increases.

Leif Ericsson

Former President Nixon proclaimed October 9 as Leif Ericsson Day--in memory of the Viking who sailed to America around the year 1,000. That was almost five hundred years before Columbus reached an island he called San Salvador (Watling Island).

For many years some Americans struggled to prevent recognition of Ericsson's feat, theorizing that to admit his discovery would demean the accomplishment of Christopher Columbus in 1492.

Columbus' discovery, however, opened up the New World to Europe and had a much broader impact on colonization, trade, economics and history.

'RADIO MART'

WASHINGTON, D. C. -- The Senate Foreign Relations Committee recently approved establishment of a government radio station in the Florida keys to broadcast programs to Cuba. Many American broadcasters oppose the bill because they say such a station would invite Cuba to interfere with broadcasts by commercial stations in the United States.

MEXICO & TRAVEL

MEXICO CITY -- The government relaxed currency restrictions recently for Mexicans traveling abroad and for Americans who visit the 12-mile trade zone along the U.S. border.
