

LOCAL GRID HOPES LOOK GOOD IN WORK - OUT TUESDAY

POLISH UP OFFENSE AND SPEND TIME DRILLING ON DEFENSIVE TACTICS

Flashing through a light offense drill and putting in a little time on pass defense, Steers were very pleasing to the coaches Tuesday.

Offensive maneuvers clicked with clock-like precision, demonstrating an abundance of power, and the pass defense work put the coaches in a jubilant frame of mind.

Around And About

The Sports Circuit

By Tom Beasley

WHEN SAN ANGELO school men visited here Monday they tried a little 'high pressure' stuff that didn't work. They thought they could buy the game. By that we mean that they wanted to entice Big Spring to San Angelo by offering a nice fat guarantee. Gentry didn't even give the proposition a tumble. Positively no soap, he said, and the matter was dropped.

FROM ALL indications San Angelo will have several thousand fans here for the game. The Angeleons have waked up in a big way and they're rarin' to go. The schools should get well financially on that game. Big Spring, however, owes so much for new equipment, etc. that it would take several good games to wipe out all of the red ink.

JUST BEFORE the Plainview game a number of pep messages were delivered to the team. Bristow tells us the messengers of encouragement helped a lot. If a telegram can do the team that much good it wouldn't be a bad idea to start a pep message sales campaign now for the San Angelo game.

BRISTOW AND Moffett were interested spectators at the Lubbock-Pampa game last Saturday afternoon.

SUNDAY WE accused Blondy Cross of scouting the San Angelo Bobcats for Oble Bristow. Tuesday morning Blondy astounded us by admitting that it was the truth. He wrote: "After checking the situation over carefully and man for man, I have reported to Coach Bristow that the situation looks very bad indeed—for Big Spring. I shall keep in touch with Bristow day by day."

SAN ANGELO coaches began a stiff pace Monday afternoon behind a no-admittance sign. According to reports, the Kittens (junior team) were firing Bristow plays at the Bobcat team.

IN THE Plainview game it was interesting to note how the Steer line really got down to business when Cordill and Coats went out of the game. Why is it?

COACHES believe it's because the linemen have been depending too much on Cordill. What a sweet team that would be if those linemen would really charge out in these fast and hard with Oble in the game. Even the best kind of a back can't get anywhere without some help.

LUBBOCK'S VICTORY over Pampa last week afforded the writer a wonderful opportunity to plaster a little razz on Glen Gulkey, who moved to Pampa several months ago and subsequently became a rabid Harvester fan. We razzed a collect "ha ha" wire to Gulkey Saturday night and it was promptly turned down, thereby giving Glen a bigger HA HA. (Our pal Gulkey.)

GULKEY WAS not long in making the typewriter keys clatter and dance, and for once, admits we had him. Said Glen: "You win! Guess from now on I'll keep my mouth shut about Big Spring's football affairs. Maybe you think this town wasn't down in the mouth. Everybody who saw the game came back with a good story of some kind, but they all agreed that the Pampa boys played their roughest game of the year—so far. Now the dope is being figured on Amarillo beating Lubbock and Pampa taking Amarillo's measure on Thanksgiving Day and throwing the district in a three-way tie, as in 1931."

Game Date Change
Due to the fact that Thursday is Halloween, the Devil-McCamey game scheduled to be played at McCamey Thursday under the lights has been shifted to Friday night.

Other players who will rank high at the end of the year are Lloyd Russell of the Baylor Bears, Bill Pitzer and Joe Smart of Texas, Jack Holt of Arkansas, and Maurice Orr of SMU.

Southern Methodist and Texas Christian still retain chances for an invitation to the Rose Bowl, but both teams will show their wares to the West Coast folk with inter-sectional fairs. The Mustangs will be in Los Angeles Armistice Day where they will play the Bruins of UCLA, the surprise eleven of the Pacific Coast, while the Frogs travel to San Francisco to meet the Santa Clara Broncos.

Revolta Was Pick Of Experts To Go Far In Pro Golf Rivalry

Random Shots At Steer Lot Tuesday

The Big Spring Steers, defending District 3 champions, are shown above in practice Tuesday for their game with the San Angelo Bobcats.

LeRoy Woods, fighting reserve back that has shown a lot of promise but is too light to make the first string, is shown about to drag in a pass in the upper left photo.

WASH COLLEGE GRIDDER STARS

PULLMAN, Wash., Oct. 30. (AP)—Ed Goddard, Washington State college's candidate for the all-America this season, gave a sample of his calibre in the first two non-conference games, when he played only a total of 36 minutes and scored four touchdowns. He also threw a touchdown pass. In running plays Goddard carried the ball 22 times for 177 yards, an average of 8 yards each trip. He never failed to gain in the 22 smashes, and punted twice for an average of 48 yards.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. (AP)—He's everybody's man—Johnny Revolta. For several years he's been getting the big build-up. Close observers of golf "put the finger" on him in 1932 and since then such able Knights of the Niblick as Gene Sarazen and Leo Diegel have been touting the tall, bushy-haired youngster.

Mustangs Have Tough Practice

DALLAS, Oct. 30. (U.P.)—The Southern Methodist University Mustangs had their second tough day of practice Tuesday in preparation for the coming game with the University of Texas Longhorns Saturday afternoon. The Mustangs took one of their hardest drills of the season yesterday. They worked on new plays to use against Texas. While the varsity was learning and practicing the plays, varsity reserves battled with the freshman squad. Coach Matty Bell told his charges that the toughest teams they would face. He pointed out that while Rice beat Texas, the Longhorns managed to stack up if points, nine more than the Mustangs were able to score. A dry field will be assured for the flying feet of Robert Wilson. A cover has been rented and will be placed over the field as soon as it has dried up from the recent rains.

Japanese Go In For Grid Game

By GLENN BABE
TOKYO, Oct. 28. (AP)—American style football is taking a regular place on the sports calendar of Tokyo universities for the first time this fall. Five of the largest private universities in the capital have organized the Tokyo American Intercollegiate Football League, acquired equipment, obtained coaches and arranged a regular schedule of games. The participating schools are Waseda, Keio, Rikkyo, Meiji and Hosei universities, each with an enrollment of from 4,000 to 10,000. These five are the outstanding schools in the Empire from an athletic point of view. The American brand of football made its first appearance in Japan last Thanksgiving day when a Japanese team selected from Meiji, Rikkyo and Waseda universities played an aggregation of American residents. The lighter and younger Japanese ran rings around their opponents for a 28-0 victory. The winners were coached by Capt. Alexander George, a former West Point player now attached to the American Embassy here, who is also coaching some of the varsity teams this fall. Added interest in the American game resulted from the visit to Japan last spring of an American all-star team, mostly former Pacific coast university players. The all stars, too beefy and experienced for Japanese opposition, played weekly exhibition games between their own Red and Green teams but on the few occasions when Japanese eleven tried to buck the visitors the smaller home boys gave a fairly good account of themselves although outweighed from 40 to 60 pounds a man. The Japanese are fast, courageous and from their long experience at Rugby are able to handle the ball skillfully. New League Forming. The small size of Japanese students, however, is likely to prevent American football from ever becoming as popular in Japanese schools as baseball or soccer, for instance, have become. The Japanese are badly handicapped as to weight and like any other people they do not care much for competition in which they are hopelessly outclassed. Rugby and soccer, however, in which speed, skill and endurance count for so much, have long been major sports in Japanese universities, and Japanese teams have held their own against first class foreign opposition both here and abroad. In addition to forming the Tokyo league, American-style football enthusiasts are trying to form a similar group of universities in western Japan, where Kansai college, an American missionary institution, already has a team in training. Doshisha, another missionary school, and Kansai and Kyoto Imperial universities are other prospective members of this league.

Girl Scouts Entertain Kiwanis Club

Dinner, Program Given For Sponsoring Group

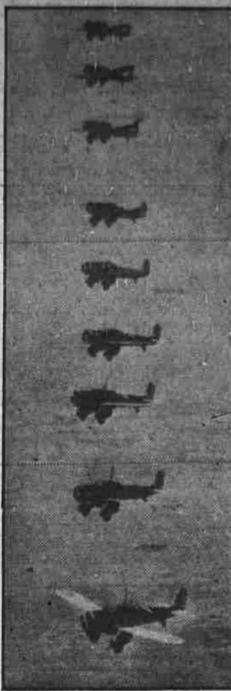

The Pioneer troop of the Girl Scouts entertained their sponsors, the Kiwanis service club with a dinner and a program Tuesday evening at the Episcopal parish house. The dinner was given in observance of girl scout week.

The parish house was effectively decorated with fall flowers and in Halloween colors. The girl scout color, green, was employed in the candles, and used for bows on the place cards that were Halloween cats. The color of the bows determined the classification of the occupant, the men's colors of blue and yellow being used for their favors.

A delicious meal was served camp style. Orange and black candles in hand-made nut cups of the same color were at each place. Chessie Faye Miller made the speech of welcome to which Mr. White responded. The girls sang folk songs and demonstrated rope games. Vivian Ferguson played a piano selection.

The court of honor gave a shadow play, "Singing Leaf," with Jacqueline Faw as ballad reader. The evening was concluded with the dancing of folk dances in which the guests joined.

Pharmacy To Observe 1st Anniversary

Celebration Of Event Is Planned Thursday By Jack Frost

The Jack Frost Pharmacy, 1403 South Scurry street, Big Spring, is celebrating its first anniversary Thursday evening, Oct. 31, from 7:30 to 9:30 o'clock. Charles Frost, proprietor and manager, announced Wednesday. This popular suburban drug store has recently been enlarged, increasing its floor space from 600 to 1200 square feet, and adding new stocks. The store has been renovated and rearranged throughout.

Special music will be furnished for the occasion by some of Big Spring's popular musicians, including John Vastine, Miss Mary Wade, Horace Penn and Miss Evelyn Jackson. Souvenir gifts will be given to all who call during the evening.

The regular personnel of this store includes Elmo Martin, George Choata, Mavis Terrell, Mrs. L. B. Dempsey, bookkeeper, and Charles Frost, proprietor and manager. Assisting on the occasion of the reopening will be Bill Gage and Pete Sellers.

Mr. Frost extended a cordial invitation to the public to attend the first anniversary and reopening celebration of his store Thursday evening.

Youth Sent To Insane Asylum

AUSTIN, Oct. 30, (U.P.)—Howard

Pierson, 21, who killed his father and mother April 24, was yesterday committed to the Austin state hospital for the insane. The commitment order was issued by County Judge George Matthews who received the transcript of District Judge C. A. Wheeler's court in which a jury found Pierson insane Saturday. The insanity trial was asked by defense counsel when he was arraigned on a charge of murder of his mother, Mrs. Lena Pierson. Another indictment charged him with killing his father, Justice William Pierson of the state supreme court. Both were shot after being lured to the hills west of Austin. Pierson then shot himself in the arm and reported a hold-up.

WE DRIVERS

A Series of Brief Discussions on Driving, Dedicated to the Safety, Comfort and Pleasure of the Motoring Public. Prepared by General Motors

No. 9—COUNTRY DRIVING

IN DESCRIBING BRAKES we spoke of our cars as transportation systems... our own private railroads, so to speak, with home for our terminal.

As a rule we engineers behind the steering wheel work only on local runs... back and forth from the office, stores, and the rest of our regular stops. But every now and then, and especially when vacation time rolls around, we're likely to want to change our run. And one fine day there we are, out on the main line, at the throttle of our "Overland Limited." If you please.

Railroads put only their best engineers on important runs like that.

What the railroad men mean by the best engineer, is the one who has taken his train out and brought it in, time after time, year after year, without a thing to regret. Now there's one thing about this engineer that explains his good record better than anything else. He believes in signs. All along the way there are signals that tell him what to do, and he does exactly what they say. When a semaphore says slow down, he slows down. Whenever he gets the sign of a curve or grade, he adjusts his speed accordingly. Every red and green and amber light that comes winking through the darkness means a definite order that he'd never dream of ignoring. And when a flare warns him of danger, he just stops until he gets the go-ahead. Now, when we pull out of our station and on to the main track, if we are good engineers we'll take good heed of our signals as they come flashing by—"Curve," "Steep Hill," red light—"Stop." But along comes one that says "Intersection," and there doesn't happen to be any car passing on that other road. Or one that says "School" when there aren't any children about. Or "Slippery when wet," but today the road is dry. And what's the result? Why, a good many of us get to taking those signals with a grain of salt, and, after a while with so much salt that if we aren't careful those warnings may lose their meaning. It isn't hard to imagine what would happen if the railroad engineer got into the habit of ignoring the signals of the highway. He would be a danger to himself and to others. He would be a danger to himself and to others. He would be a danger to himself and to others.

So it isn't enough just to have our engine in good shape, and to follow the rule of not driving too many hours at a stretch. Those things are highly important, but it is just as important to watch for our signals and follow them religiously. Then we can look forward to sending back that ever-welcome message—"Arrived safe after pleasant trip."

RUMBLINGS OF NRA REVIVAL HELD AS CERTAIN INDICATION ACT WILL RAISE NEW STORMS

The effort to revive NRA, or at least to preserve its essentials in one form or another, quietly is assuming proportions which seem to insure widespread discussion during the coming session of congress and in the 1936 campaign.

Already there have been many rumblings of speculation about the fact that NRA headquarters carries on, with hundreds of employes, months after the supreme court declared the codes unconstitutional;

Picking Near An End In The Eastern Belt

Rapid Progress Made With Favorable Weather, Reports Show

NEW ORLEANS, La., Oct. 30.—The last week continued favorable for cotton picking, which is nearing completion in the southern half of the eastern belt and making rapid progress elsewhere, the Cotton Trade Journal reported. In Oklahoma...

home picking made good progress in the south and west but rather slow in other areas, due to rains. Reports by states follow: ALABAMA—Weather was favorable for harvesting and farmers have about completed picking. ARKANSAS—Large bolls are opening well, but small bolls are decaying, due to frost bite and showers. Harvesting made rapid progress in the south, but was retarded by rains in central and north. FLORIDA—All cotton has been picked. GEORGIA—Cotton picking and ginning are almost finished. Most sections are too dry for all plowing. LOUISIANA—Excellent progress was made in picking and ginning, which are practically finished except for the top crop. Rain is needed for fall plowing. MISSISSIPPI—Picking made good progress in the north and is about completed elsewhere. Late planted lowland cotton is still being picked. NORTH CAROLINA—Rain is needed for fall plowing. Excellent progress was made in picking. SOUTH CAROLINA—Weather was favorable. Cotton picking was active in the north, but is about finished elsewhere. TENNESSEE—Cotton is being picked rapidly and there is no further growth. There has been sufficient rain to soften soils for fall plowing.

Beautiful Linen Shower Is Tendered Miss Marie Faubion At Home Of Mrs. W. J. McAdams

Mother Of Bride And Groom And Sisters Of Both Present For Function; Miss Faubion To Be Married Thursday

Mrs. W. J. McAdams was hostess for a lovely bridal shower Tuesday evening at her home in Washington Place, complimenting Miss Marie Faubion of Midland, whose marriage to James Ater has been announced for Thursday evening.

The members of the Epsilon Sigma Alpha literary sorority, of which Miss Faubion was a member when she resided in Big Spring, assisted Mrs. McAdams with planning and giving the shower.

The bride-to-be was seated in a chair underneath a short window. Before the gifts were presented, she was toasted with clever toasts by three of her friends. Miss Edith Gay offered a toast to her. Miss Rogers described a modernistic husband. Miss Burns talked of the girls left behind.

Every guest then gave aloud an impromptu wish for the couple, which ranged from the serious to the ludicrous.

An excuse to open the window brought down a shower of gifts upon the unsuspecting and surprised honoree. These were unwrapped and passed around. Among them was a blue and white hand-made quilt from the bride's mother that was especially admired for its beautiful stitches.

Miss Faubion then led the guests to the punch bowl, where the punch bowl flanked with white chrysanthemums centered the table that was spread with a white mosaic cloth. Waters and Hallowe'en candies and punch were served to the following:

Miss Faubion, Mrs. L. A. Faubion of Midland, mother of the bride; Mrs. Ater of Lubbock, mother of the groom; Mrs. J. O. Barker of Longview, sister of the bride; also two sisters of the groom, Mrs. F. L. Shull of Big Spring and Mrs. Putnam of Amarillo.

Mrs. Claude Miller, Mrs. Ira Driver; Misses Amy Gray, Edith Hatchett, Edith Gray, Mary Burns and Lellene Rogers.

Gifts were sent by Mrs. W. Madry, Mrs. C. C. Dunham, Mrs. Fox Stripling, Mrs. Ray and Dunegan, Mrs. Ruth Airhart and Miss Agnes Currie.

Miss Faubion will be married Thursday evening at the First Methodist church.

Mrs. Bennett Hostess To Tuesday Bridge Club

Mrs. M. H. Bennett was hostess to the Tuesday luncheon club this week at the Monterey cafe. After a delicious Mexican meal the members played at the home of the hostess.

Mrs. Bennett scored the highest. Mrs. Inkman will be the next hostess.

Present were: Misses J. Y. Robb, Shine Phillips, W. W. Inkman, M. K. House, E. V. Spence, Harry Hurt and R. V. Middleton.

Cotton Pickers Again Busy In Fairview Area

Cotton picking was in full swing in the Fairview community again this week, with the clearing of the weather. Last week's rains had stopped the harvest, but the crop was not damaged and the moisture proved of benefit to gardens and grain crops.

Regular church day will be observed at the Fairview church next Sunday. There were 50 present for Sunday school last Sunday.

Personally Speaking

Rail Commission Cuts Down Force

DALLAS, Tex., Oct. 30. (U.P.)—Discharge of 29 men from employment in the oil and gas division of the Texas railroad commission was revealed today by E. O. Thompson, commission chairman.

Thompson said the force was cut last week because of the commission's reduced income, due to a cut of 80,000 barrels a day in the East Texas field allowable and a consequent falling off in tax revenue.

Such economies, he predicted, are certain to weaken the effect of pro-ration enforcement in the field but that they could not be avoided.

Asphalt Commonly Used

Moreover, expansion and contraction caused by extremes of temperature had to be considered and it was found necessary to leave a three-quarters-inch space between the slabs. Asphalt was used for 15 years to fill the joints, but it tended to extrude above the edges and thus form a series of bumps.

Next used was a moulded material made of a mixture of rubber and cork with a layer of asphalt on top, which, however, continued to protrude above the level of the highway.

No Heating Required
The new compound is a liquid which is packed in sealed drums. It is not necessary to heat before applying. Some of it is brushed over the edges of the slabs to form a priming coat.

The mixture then is poured into the joint. It immediately coagulates and quickly hardens to form a permanent bond which seals both the end and top of a joint against water, sand and gravel. The compound also can be used for joints in bridge structures.

Premier Laval of France conferred with Vittorio Cerruti, Italian ambassador to advise him, informed circles said, of the failure of French and British experts to find an acceptable peace plan.

It was reported that Laval had let Mussolini understand that proposals for peace must come from the Italian premier himself, to be submitted to the league.

Slowly but surely, Geneva's boycott is growing. Already 29 countries have agreed to buy no Italian goods and not to ship key products for munitions manufacture to the fascist kingdom.

U. S. Sets Record For Tree Planting

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—A record year for tree planting in national forests, with more than 222,000,000 seedlings set out on 244,000 acres, has been reported by the Forest Service.

Fall planting is in full swing utilizing CCC and relief labor. Devastated and outover lands east of the Great Plains, where the Government has made large acquisitions in the last two years as part of the forest rehabilitation program, have received the most planting.

HOT? IT'S A BALL OF FIRE!

The BUICK SPECIAL series-40, four-door sedan—91-horsepower, 118-inch wheelbase $885
 List price in Texas. All Buick prices include safety glass throughout as standard equipment.

Production of the new Buick accord with the joint program of Government, labor and industry to spread employment more evenly throughout the year

HERE you see illustrated in action the stunning and spirited new Buick SPECIAL — and very special you'll find it indeed!

The motorwise in the trade who previewed its performance habitually use the word phenomenal to describe it.

That may tell you how it performs, as your eye tells you how it looks, but only long years can tell you how very good it really is.

We'll advise you in advance, that it's the nimblest, smoothest, liveliest, steadiest, safest, most satisfying carrier of high-power energy that ever thrilled an appreciative traveler!

The Special is fingertip light to handle, in traffic or at speed, but it has none of that rubbery pulpy jumpiness that keeps you tense and on the alert in many cars.

That's because it's engineered firm — fitted part to part with sound micrometer precision—throughout every inch and detail of its deep-framed durable Buick-engineered chassis.

When you give it a shot of gas and it's turning up its steady even-keeled speed, it seems to settle even closer to the road, a paragon of stability as it reels off its thrifty miles.

And when you kick it open on take-offs it gets away instantly! without pause or delayed gathering of power before its spurt.

No use trying to picture the Special in words, it's so different from anything you're used to — the practical thing is to get behind that wheel yourself.

Then you'll know the difference between the engineering of yesterday and of tomorrow, and your amazement will be that the phenomenal Special can be sold at a price so low.

YOU CAN AFFORD THE NEW BUICK
 List prices $765 to $1945 at Filat, Mich., subject to change without notice. Standard and special accessories groups on all models at extra cost. Convenient GMAC time payment plan.
