WASHINGTON By George Durso

Taxes—Unless the Congressional situation develops even more snarls than now anticipated you good folk of the nation need not worry about any additional federal taxation during this session.

The Roosevelt administration, so its Congressional spokesmen have indicated, will be satisfied with a reenactment of some $400,000,000 of nuisance taxes. These already have been in effect on radios, auto accessories, gas, etc., long enough generally to be taken for granted.

Prudence—Senator Jim Byrnes, of S. C., a recognized White House spokesman on the Senate floor, has pointed out what a marked gain was noted in 1934 income taxes as against 1933. He has not yet had a political opponent counterblast publicly that 1933 was the year of the bank holiday, etc.

Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau is not inclined to talk about new taxation. He has had experts surveying the field for some time but best words is that the Treasury will submit NO new tax schedules unless Congressional committees specifically ask for revenue-raising suggestions.

Stymied—But before the tumult and the shouting of this session dies there is apt to be lots of vigorous talk about immediate new taxation.

Senator Couzens of Michigan wants to impose a graded corporation tax that big business would worry about. Senator LaFollette of Wisconsin suggests higher income rates in the lowest and highest brackets—with most of the pressure on top.

Senatorial advocates of further levies are stymied by one thing: The Constitution requires that all revenue measures must originate in the House. And so far the House has only been able to grow faintly through its muzzles. There may be much talk on the other side of the Capitol but there won't be any action unless the House leadership decrees.

War Profits—

The Senate munitions committee will soon report out its recommendations on control of profits during war. This doesn't mean that legislation will be enacted. Suggestions by Bernard M. Baruch, John T. Byrnes and members of the committee are at variance, although the general idea is the same—to hold down profits on tax them.

Undercover—Letters have been coming into the White House in increasing numbers recently urging that President Roosevelt go on the radio again for a "fireside talk" and reassure the people that everything is all right. The White House would like nothing better than a good dramatic issue with which to do just that. The trouble is that right now the whole national picture is in a state of flux. Well-defined influences on the one hand and other influences not so well defined but probably more powerful are hammering away at President Roosevelt's prestige.

Bucky Harris, Back Home In Washington, Sees Six Clubs In Running, Including His

By STANLEY B. (Bucky) HARRIS
 (Manager, Washington Senators)
 HELOZI, Mass. (AP)—It's like coming back home for me to be with my old club again and it's also a source of real satisfaction to feel that the Senators, if we can shake off the injury list, are going to climb right back into the thick of the American league race again.

I realize we will have a big pair of shoes to fill at shortstop, created by Joe Cronin, but it looks like we will have two good men to pick from for that job—either Red Kress, who has the call right now, or Tom Lary, who led the league shortstop in fielding last year.

Kress has been hitting so well, reminiscent of the way he clouted when he first came up with the Browns, that it will be difficult to keep him out of a regular job.

Otherwise we have a first class outfit, right down the line. There will be plenty of punch. We won't have to worry about our defense and I believe we have a great young addition to our outfield in Jake Powell, a big favorite with the Washington fans.

BROMBERG INTENT ON WINNING

Frenchy Just As Confident Of Victory; Trains Hard

Wrestling fans will probably crowd the Big Spring Athletic club tonight to see two fine ring generals in action—Count von Bromberg and Gene La Belle.

Winning Streak
 La Belle, holding a winning streak record here, has been training for the past week at the CCC camp where he has been taking his conditioning work seriously. He has not been defeated here, and has no intentions of losing.

The German Royalist, a graduate of Columbia University, also of the well known University of Heidelberg, Germany, is a top-notch in the bone-bending art.

EVIDENCE RARELY ELSE THAN CIRCUMSTANTIAL

The Bruno Hauptmann defense fund now contains enough money to relieve the state of New Jersey of the job of financing Hauptmann's appeals.

On the same day that this announcement was made, it was also announced that Mrs. Hauptmann had a committee would make a tour of the middle west to solicit contributions.

This being a free country, the right to solicit funds of this kind is inalienable—as is the right of any citizen to contribute. But it is a little bit hard to figure out just why under the shining sun anyone should feel moved to shell out in this case.

The principal reason, apparently, is a widespread feeling that a man sentenced to die on purely circumstantial evidence had not quite a square deal.

against them was the evidence of eye-witnesses. If eye-witness testimony were as much superior to circumstantial evidence as people believe, there never could have been the slightest question as to these men's guilt.

And Mooney—where was the circumstantial evidence in his case? Practically all the important evidence against him came from eye-witnesses. The agitation about his case would have died years ago if direct evidence were as foolproof as some innocent souls suppose.

This is not to say that these men were convicted through error. It is simply to point out that it is silly to suppose that circumstantial evidence is in the nature of things open to suspicion. On the contrary it is apt to be the strongest kind of evidence there is.

A human witness may lie, or be honestly mistaken, or be subject to hallucinations; a fingerprint, a bit of handwriting, a handful of bills, or a piece of wood cannot.

Contribute to the Hauptmann defense fund if you wish. But don't do it on the ground that it is wrong to convict a man on circumstantial evidence.

NEW YOUTH PROBLEMS FACED BY PARENTS

The falling birth rate is apt to do a good many things to America before it gets through. One of its unexpected by-products may be the emergence of a vast race of spoiled children.

This quaint development is suggested by Prof. William F. Ogburn of the University of Chicago, in an article in the current issue of the magazine Better Times.

Professor Ogburn figures it on a straight supply and demand basis. The supply of children will decrease—or, at any rate, will not increase at the old-time rate. The demand, in the sense of the love of parents for their children, will remain just as high as it ever was, and will perhaps even increase.

The result will be that the child will be appreciated more.

COACH BOSTIC OF STANTON HAS BEEN WORKING HARD WITH HIS FOOTBALL BOYS, BUT THE PROSPECTS DON'T LOOK SO ROSY AT THIS STAGE OF THE GAME.

Bostic said Monday.

AL PARKER OF THE WICHITA FALLS TIMES HEARS ANOTHER HIGH SCHOOL GRID FOOTING.

The Inter-scholastic league is famous for the situations developed in the bitter football strife among the school boys. Each fall, and down in South Texas another nasty one may be heard from soon. It all hinges around the long argument with Port Arthur—the only class A school in the league where students are carried through a 12-year course. All others graduate their pupils after 11 years, and the teams playing Coach Dennis' eleven maintain the extra year gives Port Arthur an unfair advantage. A couple of years ago the thing was fought out in a formal way on a protest by Beaumont, but the Inter-scholastic league authorities refused to take any hand in the manner in which Port Arthur operates its schools. Now the nasty part of it is threatened in the probability that Beaumont's two high schools, Beaumont high and South Park high, will boycott Port Arthur, and down in that part of the country this lack of action is being interpreted as a boycott against Port Arthur.

"SUPPOSE BEAUMONT AND SOUTH PARK CARRY OUT THEIR BOYCOTT AND REFUSE TO PLAY THE PORT ARTHUR TEAM. FIVE SCHOOLS ARE IN THE DISTRICT, AND THE TWO AT BEAUMONT WOULD NEED ONLY ONE MORE VOTE TO CONTROL THE SITUATION. SINCE IT IS STRICTLY AN INTRA-DISTRICT AFFAIR, WE BELIEVE THE LEAGUE WOULD MAINTAIN A HANDS OFF POLICY, AND FORCE THE DISTRICT ITSELF TO CLEAR UP THE Muddle."

THE SOUTH TEXAS SITUATION may cause a rupture in the whole Inter-scholastic league structure. It seems to us that Roy B. Henderson and his helpers at Austin are holding out when they should be taking a hand in the arguments.

W. W. "WILLIE WADE" FENDELTON took us out yesterday, 5 up and 4 to go. We didn't have much of a chance. Three down at the start of the last nine and failure to sink short punts just wouldn't get it. Maybe we were a bit hasty in chiding Willie about his game.

DID YOU KNOW THAT BARE Ruth used to swing a bat which weighed fifty-six ounces. Now his willow weighs only thirty-six ounces, which is one reason why he won't hit as many home runs as he used to.

J. ALVIN GARDNER HAS ARRANGED for all except one umpire to return for the 1935 Texas league season. Since Bob Kober has been sold to the International league, Uley Walsh, Jr. has been promoted from the East Dixie league to take his place.

Green Hay is the name of a farmer living near the town of Eagleville Tenn.

Powell To Replace Schulte

Powell is as fast as a streak and he can really hit. He will replace Fred Schulte in centerfield the way he is going right now.

We may have to do some juggling with three young catchers, including a solid 300 hitter in Cliff Bolton, but it's all a question of how our pitchers come through. If two of three of them come through with good years, Washington will be in a contending position but it may be a gamble.

I look for Bump Hadley, back from the Browns, to have a better year, with a stronger club to support him. He has a lot of stuff and should be a 20-game winner. So should Earl Whitbill, our great southpaw. He won 22 two seasons ago and there's no reason why he should not repeat. Monte Weaver is still young and he is over-due to repeat the great form he showed as a freshman.

The most satisfactory development, so far as the pitching is concerned, is the form Lefty Bob Burke is showing. He has not had a real chance to make a regular turn for several years but he will get it this year and I expect him to wit consistently. If Ed Linke, a fine looking young right hander comes through, he will have five capable starters, with Jack Russell, Wally Stewart and Al Thomas in reserve.

I think some of the boys have been a bit premature in awarding the pennant to Cleveland. The Indians will have a hard time replacing Bill Knickerbocker, a great young shortstop, for the first part of the season.

I cannot see how the Detroit Tigers, good as they may be, can enjoy all the good luck they had to have to win last season. Everything broke favorably for Mickey Cochrane. He won't win 16 out of 22 from Cleveland or 15 games from us this year. He will still have lots of power and good pitching but the outfield is shaky.

I look for at least six clubs to be in the running, nearly all the way, and everything may happen.

WRESTLES HERE TONIGHT

Indian Pete will bring a new bag of wrestling tricks to local wrestling fans tonight when he meets Tiny Simmons in the semi-windup.

Six Wells In Howard Area Are In Making

Six wells in Howard county, including a pale northwest extension of the Dodge-Denman pool, were in various stages of completion at the close of last week. One of the number, General Crude Oil Co. No. 2 T-P Land Trust, had just obtained pay, two logged increases and two others were cleaning out after shots.

Sinclair-Prairie No. 14 Dodge, 330 feet out of the southeast corner of section 11, block 30, township 1 south, T&P Ry. Co. survey, was completed at 2,810 feet, pumping 138 barrels daily. It topped pay at 2,562 feet and was shot with 300 quarts from 2,310 to 2,655 feet. Sinclair-Prairie No. 13 Dodge swabbed 40 barrels of oil daily while cleaning out following a shot, bottomed at 2,806 feet. Sinclair-Prairie No. 15 Dodge tined 200 feet with oil following increases from 2,640-

Dorn-Hall Well To Shut
 Stacy B. Dorn and G. T. Hall's No. 1 T-P Land Trust, one mile northwest extension to the Dodge-Denman pool, was scheduled to have been shot yesterday. It headed around 50 barrels daily while running 6 5/8-inch casing to a point above the pay top at 2,850 feet. Total depth was 2,791. The well is 330 feet out of the southeast corner of section 45, block 30, township 1 north, T&P Ry. Co. survey. Iron Mountain Oil Co. moved in materials for No. 9 Read, 330 feet out of the southwest corner of section 46, block 30, township 1 north, T&P Ry. Co. survey. It will be 660 feet east of the Dorn-Hall well.

Chevy Ekes Out Victory

Knee Action Boys Break Loose In Stretch Inning

After trailing for six stanzas, the Chevrolet Knee Action 'five' broke loose in the stretch innings to eke out a 4-3 decision over Vic Mellinger's Angels.

The Carterites were helpless before the twirling of Good Graves, flashy Angel pitcher, until the final frame when they managed to count the winning run only after the Mellinger outfield had erred.

The Angels were hitting in mid-season form during the first four innings, and finally forced Manager Harvey Krauss to retire from the mound with a quartet of bingles in the third. "Bucket" Hare took the mound for the remainder of the game.

The Mellinger infield performed without a bungle.

Monday's game was the first big practice session of the Angels.

TWO THOUGHTS IN BUSINESS

One: is when business gets better we will put more men to work!

The other is to put more men to work and force better business.

The first is a proven hopeless proposition—the latter logically sound, and every dollar you spend of necessity encourages business stagnation or becomes a supporting influence to intelligent, aggressiveness in business.

Health, Sanitation Measures In CCC Camps Are Reported Good

No effective have proved the sanitation measures the Army has put into operation at the Civilian Conservation Camps that but three cases of typhoid and no smallpox cases have occurred among the many thousands of youths who have joined in the West Texas District according to Capt. B. H. Galbraith, Medical Reserve, District Surgeon on staff of Maj. Thomas G. Jenkins, 3rd Infantry, Commanding the West Texas District. Captain Galbraith is in charge of the health service for the twenty-five camps of the western area of Texas.

"This phase of the Army's part in the CCC has been considered one of the first and most important requirements for the success of the camps," he stated. "The Army is going about the job with a double purpose of preventing disease and promoting health and of returning them to their homes better fitted for their 'duty as citizens.' Swatting the fly has given way at the camps to the electric and hand sprayer of chemical insecticides that spells death to flies, cockroaches,

Brighten up with ALL-BRAN!

You've had days when you've felt discouraged and low. Nothing seemed to go right. Frequently these dreary days can be traced to common constipation, due to lack of "bulk" in your meals.

This ailment may cause headaches and loss of energy. Correct it by eating a delicious cereal.

Laboratory research shows Kellogg's ALL-BRAN provides "bulk" to aid elimination. ALL-BRAN also furnishes vitamin B and food-iron.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN resists digestion better than the fiber in size and vegetables. It is gentle and does more effective. Isn't this natural food better than taking patent medicines—often harmful?

Two tablespoons of ALL-BRAN daily are usually sufficient. With a meal, in chronic cases. If not leaved this way, see your doctor.

Brighten days with ALL-BRAN! Get Kellogg's ALL-BRAN cereal. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Gladine Fletcher Returns From Austin
Gladine Fletcher, and her father, Carl Fletcher, of the Magnolia returned from Austin Sunday, where Gladine was rushed Thursday afternoon where it was feared that she had been bitten by a cat with rabies. The cat bit her last week but her parents thought nothing of it until Thursday when the cat began having fits. The cat was killed and its head taken to Austin where it was examined and found to be free of rabies.

Mrs. Tompkins and Mrs. Spratt Joint Hostesses
Mrs. Bob Tompkins and Mrs. J. Harold Spratt entertained with four tables of contract bridge at the Fort Sam Houston Hotel Friday evening. The Easter theme was carried out in table and decorations. Mrs. Williams won ladies high and received vanity dresser set. Mr. Dunn was presented with cards for winning men's high. A plate lunch of salad, sandwiches, cake, cream and coffee was served.

Freshmen Go To Roberts Ranch On Weiner Roast
The Freshmen gave a weiner roast Friday evening honoring Miss Connie Branson who is moving to Colorado. They met at the school house and then went to the Dora Roberts ranch. The chief entertainment was eating as they took plenty of food along. Those going were: Vivian Perry Caldwell, Ethna McChes, Bill Henry Campbell, Clifton Ferguson, Charles Adams, Henry Wilmoth, Eldred Prescott, La Voyce Scudday, James Underwood, Myrtle Distler, Emma Hoard, Dorothy Faye Grissett, Raymond Moreland, Boyce Hale, and the sponsors, Miss Frances Coulson and Mr. Tom Watkins. The sewing circle of the Ladies Auxiliary will meet April 5. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Branson left

CCC are having a splendid effect in raising the moral tone and standard of the boys. Every enrollee has the opportunity of participating in the First Aid classwork and to receive a certificate upon completion of the course.

Food supplies, whether furnished by the Quartermaster's Department of the Army or purchased locally, must meet the Federal Standard as to quality and purity.

In most camps fresh milk is furnished each boy every day. None but pasteurized milk in the West Texas District is used. This, Captain Galbraith stated, goes a long way in preventing infectious diseases, including scarlet fever, diphtheria, and particularly septic sore throats.

All drinking water used by the CCC is tested frequently and in one instance twice a week by having samples submitted to the Eighth Corps Area Laboratory, Fort Sam Houston, Texas. Chlorination of water is used with gratifying results.

Waste of the CCC camps are as carefully disposed of as in a modern city. No soil contamination is permitted. Where it is possible the sewerage system has been installed with a septic tank and disinfectants being used.

Chapter 11 NAPPY

"I'm glad you've come to your senses," the Judge growled.

"I'm glad, too," James grinned amiably. He knew very well that he was the apple of the old man's eye.

"Of course, I can't afford to go to law school," he went on, "but I thought perhaps you'd allow me to study here with you. I'd like it better than anything."

The Judge grinned back at James delightedly. "I'll think about it," he boomed. "If Nappy's willing I shouldn't be surprised if we could manage it." (Nappy was the colored office boy.)

It was the happiest day in the old Judge's life when James came into the office which had been his father's and began his study of law.

For forty years, black letters on the faded blue of the front door and gold letters on the windows had proclaimed to a small but interested world that the firm of Stimson and Holcomb, Attorneys at Law, practiced their profession there.

Perhaps some of Dr. Jim's old admirers, the women, were disappointed that he had failed to follow in his medical footsteps, but to the rest of New Concord it seemed entirely fitting that the third son should be sitting at the first James' desk in the first James' room.

From the self-same half-bound volume of the law.

To the Judge it was not alone fitting; it was rapturously satisfying.

"Well, Miss Julia, you see that Providence is still on the job, looking after my boy," he said a day or two later as he paused before Miss Pratt's front porch.

"I hadn't noticed that Providence was so busy exerting itself," retorted Miss Julia good-naturedly, "but I had seen that James' special Jinx had seen it to that he was reduced from affluence to poverty just when he needed his money most."

What Sarah Stimson was thinking of investing.

"That! What's a little money? Losing his money will be the making of the boy, Miss Sarah's coldly said like a hot tallow candle. It's time James cut loose from her apron strings and learned that chicken livers and cream don't grow on saucers, High time."

"You may be right," Miss Julia conceded generously. "And if James is the born orator you say he is it's barely possible that in the long run it will be better for him to have to give up medicine and let you teach him law. I must say that Providence couldn't have provided a better teacher."

That night the Judge admitted to Caspar, his hound dog, that he did believe that in Miss Julia the Lord Almighty for once had made a word.

man with faint glimmers of common sense.

James took to law as an Irishman takes to whiskey, due partly no doubt to the skillful coaching of the Judge, but more to the aid and encouragement furnished by the Judge's super-efficient assistant, Mr. Napoleon Bonaparte Hanley, commonly known as Nappy.

Nappy was a young man of color of about the same age as James who, like so many eminent Americans, had started his business career at the very bottom rung of the ladder as a mess office boy and runner of errands.

But Nappy had not stayed long at the bottom. In the course of some half a dozen years he had risen, fairly by leaps and bounds, to a position of such importance with the firm of Stimson and Holcomb that it stopped just short of a "partnership."

It was Nappy who received callers in the outer office and took in their names with a dignity and air of secrecy that would have made an observing casual spectator want to shoot him off with a gun. It was Nappy who delivered the bills and sometimes collected the most unpalatable.

It was he who sorted the Judge's mail and read it whenever it looked interesting; and none other determined which of the firm's callers should be offered the five-cent "smoke" and which the ten-cent "cigar" matter in which the Judge was three out of ten was certain to go astray.

So keen a student of human nature was Mr. Hanley that he knew before a stranger had got both feet over the sill of the outer office door whether or not he was a person of importance to be greeted cordially or disdainfully steered toward the street. Nappy, moreover, seemed to know by sheer instinct just when to admit that the Judge was in and when to say that he was out.

It was Nappy again who soothed the ruffled feelings of his firm's fair clients and who escorted them to the hall or into their carriages after the Judge had banded the door behind them. And after that new and intriguing instrument, the telephone, was installed it was Nappy as a matter of course who answered it and decided whether or not the Judge should be called or only given a message.

The telephone was Nappy's particular pet and pride and not for nothing that he could think of would, he have surrendered the precious privilege of answering it first. Mr. Hanley was a musician born and played the trombone by ear in New Concord's Fishers of the Colored Benefit Society Band, but the most magnetic tune to his ears compared to the alluring hum of the telephone bell.

Nappy, of course, had known James for years and admired and looked up to him from the first. James had been installed in the office scarcely a day when Nappy's reverent body and soul to his charms. There is no denying that Mr. Stimson, even though he failed to make much impression upon his classmates in the effete East had a way all his own with his colored brethren.

When Nappy had need of a lawyer he ignored the Judge altogether and went straight to Mr. Stimson. Like the first Napoleon, Nappy was possessed of a boundless energy, and was therefore not satisfied with ten hours' daily labor for the glory of Stimson and Holcomb and Hanley.

One morning when James had no news of it spread about until he and his papers of incorporation were drawn up and sealed tight as the law can do it.

"Legal business is, of course, sacredly confidential," said James gravely. "But just what are you going to promote?"

"Drift wood," whispered Nappy impressively. "Nothing more nerless. The old Missouri River is full of it springs and falls. Now my idea is to form me a company to catch that drift wood what's going to waste and saw it up and sell it by the cord."

"But, Nappy, that drift wood is free to anyone who goes after it. You can't get men to catch it for you and then give you a share."

"I certainly kin," said Nappy indignantly. "Ain't it my idea? Didn't I think it up, and ain't I employing 'em and carrying all the responsibility? Why shouldn't I have my rewards same as another promoter? That part ain't carrying me a-tall."

James looked at Nappy for a moment and then he said: "I'll attend to that young lady in mighty short order."

"The idea of her— OH!!"

"HELP! TIGER! TIGER!!"

"WHAT— OH, YEAH!! FORGOT I HADN'T SEEN MISS JULIA'S LITTLE PET!!"

"T-THAT-AW— YOUNG WOMAN FAWTHAW BROUGHT HOME— SHE'S TAKEN AWAY MY ROOM! THREW ALL MY THINGS OUT IN THE HALL AND MOVED IN HERSELF!!"

Big Crowd Sees School P.-T.A. Show

Youngsters Perform Well; Receipts Said To Be Satisfying

A crowded house and a very appreciative audience greeted the all-school pageant given by the combined Parent-Teacher Associations of the city Monday evening at the Municipal Auditorium.

From the opening and colorful number given by the members of the high school glee club, in their white costumes and their blue and red capes, the program moved smoothly and entertainingly to the close. Frequently it was broken by applause and many encores were called for, although the only responses were made by Cornelia Frazer who plays a piano solo, and the group of Mexican singers.

The colorful costumes and small piping voices of the actors with a woodland setting made on feel as though he were peeping into fairyland. Cedar branches and lilacs were used for floral decorations and the setting remained the same for all the scenes.

Every child did his part well, although few have appeared on the stage before. The songs of the operetta, "Cinderella in Flowerland," were well sung and the children showed careful coaching, for almost never did any of them forget their parts. They were all natural little performers, as unconscious of the stage as could be; most of them looked as if they were having a good time.

Mrs. E. W. Potter, chairman of the play, and Mrs. C. W. Dickerson, chairman of the ticket sale, expressed their appreciation for the

Bluebonnets Bloom In Big Spring Yards

Travelers returning from Central Texas say that the bluebonnets are riotous this year. Howard county has its quota, too, and they are not lagging behind their southern cousins in blooming.

The two biggest patches are those in the city park, which is choked with weeds this year, and one in the yard of Mrs. W. R. Douglass at 1505 Johnson street. Mrs. Douglass' patch has grown every year and the blooms are now at their best. The dust storms were hard on them, she said, and changed their colors to purple, but now that the dust has blown away, the flowers are beautiful again.

Many people have tried to get bluebonnets to grow in their yards. Mrs. J. M. Morgan, president of the Garden club, says that the plants do not stand transplanting well and that the best way to raise them is from seed. The seed should first be soaked, then planted. They do better if planted in the fall instead of the spring. Local gardeners who want to grow plants will do well to remember this fall; if there are good rains, next spring could bring forth a nice showing of bluebonnets in Big Spring yards, she said.

of them hoped the P. T. A.'s would give another next spring. It is the first time in the history of the town that an all-school program has ever been given. Before the building of the auditorium there was no place large enough to accommodate the crowd such an event would attract; now that there is, the town has discovered how entertaining a bunch of youngsters can be when turned loose on the stage to kick up their heels and sing and play.

League Results

New School Trustees Outing Planned

STANTON—Final results of the Martin county interscholastic league contests held Friday were released Tuesday.

Lenorah led the rural school division with a total of 204 points. Pleasant Valley was second with 134 points. The other schools with their points are Brown 67, Flower Grove 45, South Plains 35, Merrick and Walcott 20 each, and Badgett 5.

Stanton annexed more points in the high school division than any of the other two high schools in the county. Courtney was a close second and Valley View third. Total points are Stanton 115, Courtney 99, and Valley View 67.

In the ward school division Stanton again was victor with 145 points, Courtney second with 87, and Valley View third with 32.

Election of W. E. Currie, Sam Martin and H. W. Keising as members of the board of trustees of the Stanton Independent school district is virtually assured.

Three of the present members will go out of office at the expiration of their terms. None is running for reelection.

The election is to be held Saturday, April 6.

The Senior class of Stanton high school was making plans Monday for a trip to the Carlsbad Caverns. About twenty-one seniors are expected to make trip. Present plans call for the class to leave Friday, spend Saturday in Carlsbad, and return home Sunday. Mrs. W. C. Glazier will accompany the class. The trip is an annual event.

Stanton teachers got ahead of their pupils by playing their April Fool jokes first.

Students who usually took French leave from school on April 1 were busily engaged in taking the regular six-weeks examinations Monday. The examinations are usually held sometime in the middle of the week.

But the students had the last laugh. The teachers still have the papers to grade.

Mrs. Thorns Conducts Auxiliary Bible Study

Mrs. John C. Thorns, secretary of spiritual life, conducted the Bible study at the Presbyterian Auxiliary Monday afternoon. She gave the first lesson in "The Holy Spirit," the outline of study for the coming year.

Preceding the lesson, members gave testimonials regarding the city-wide revival just closed. Attending were: Meses. E. C. Beater, Bill Edwards, H. G. Foose, Sam Baker, Hal Farley, Tom Donnelly, J. A. Smith, L. T. Leslie, Annie Fuller, Lee Porter, C. W. Cunningham, T. S. Currie, R. T. Piner, H. W. Caylor, R. C. Strain, John C. Thorns.

Teacher To Review New Spring Novel

Junior Hyperion Ticket Sale Already Assures Big Audience

Mr. Ralph Houston who will review "Forty Days of Musa Gagh" by Franz Werfel Thursday afternoon at the Settles Hotel was selected as one of the North Texas State Teachers' College, outstanding alumni to speak at a recent teachers' training school.

English, which Mr. Houston teaches in the local high school, was his major in college, and literature is a subject on which he is a connoisseur. For this reason the Junior Hyperion club gave him his choice in selecting the outstanding spring book for review.

Many men have indicated an interest in this book, and those who can get away are planning to attend. It is a novel that will appeal to both sexes, in contrast to many modern novels which seem to be written chiefly for women.

Idle Art Bridge Club Plays At Miss Bunch's

Miss Dorothy Bunch entertained members of the Idle Art Bridge club Monday evening with an enjoyable surprise April's Pool party at her home.

The April's Pool joke occurred at the refreshment hour, when Mrs. Bunch followed the salad course by a chocolate pie made of cotton wadding. The guests were later served real chocolate pie.

Highest score was won by Miss Runyan.

Members present were: Misses Evelyn Merrill, Florine Robinson, Veda Robinson, Imogene Runyan, Eleanor Gates, Emma Louise Freeman and Mrs. Fletcher Eased.

Miss Gates will entertain on April 15.

The demand for tickets for the second book review has been so gratifying that the club believes this benefit performance will make possible enough books to open the library as soon as the books can be procured.

The book review will be held Thursday afternoon at the Settles hotel at 4:15 o'clock.

Mack Underwood Marries Mrs. E. Cooper Of Lamesa

Mack Underwood and Mrs. Edith Cooper of Lamesa were united in matrimony Sunday afternoon, at the home of the bride's brother, Mr. Lee Holley in Big Spring.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Holley of Lamesa and the groom a son of J. H. Underwood of Big Spring. They are making their home at 208 1-2 Gregg street.

Present for the ceremony were: Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Holley and Miss Helen Cooper of Lamesa, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Holley, Messrs. Raymond Holley, Sam Lamar, Henry Moore, J. H. Underwood, Mrs. Roy Perreffield and Judge and Mrs. Garlington.
