A HOME TALENT LYCEUM COURSE

Spearman should have a home talent lyceum course for the winter. We have no contract with any of the regular lyceum bureaus, so our only chance for entertainment of this nature during the winter is home talent. The home talent lyceum and chautauqua is fast growing in popularity throughout the panhandle country, a great majority of the towns having refused to contract with the big companies. The idea is growing stronger every day that there is no necessity of guaranteeing a concern a big cash payment, whether they deliver the goods or not. If a snow storm arrives on the night the home talent play is booked, it can be postponed until the snow storm is passed, but you take the lyceum and pay for it on a certain night, rain or shine. The home talent plays are just as good and many are better than the big concerns sent out. Spearman has the talent and there is no reason why we should not put on a number of plays during the winter. Perhaps the greatest argument in favor of the home talent play is the fact that the money stays at home, to help build up our school and other worthy institutions. If Spearman is to grow in importance, make the town she should make, we must buy at home. Buy everything at home, even to amusements.

BUYING THE GOOD ONES
Bob Archer and H. L. Wilbanks are buying calves on a contract with low feeders and have about 500 head now ready to start to the northern feed pens. Their latest purchase was 100 head from June Baintine and a smaller bunch from Bill Barkley. These are said to be some of the finest calves in the country. Messrs. Archer and Wilbanks are paying a long price for calves and are not handling any but the best. They are handicapped considerably by a scarcity of cars, but are shipping as fast as the Santa Fe will provide the way. They expect to send another string north on Saturday of this week.

See us for money on homesteads. We have a proposition that will interest you. McLAIN & McLAIN, Spearman.

CITY COUNCILMEN VISIT TEXTLINE

Find a Progressive Little City and a Splendid Light and Water Plant

At a recent meeting of the city council that honorable body appointed Mayor James and R. L. McClellan as a committee to visit the town of Textline and to pick up what information they could in regard to a water and light plant. That progressive little city is about the same size as Spearman, their needs are about identical with Spearman's, and as they have just recently installed these two very necessary improvements, the council thought they would be in position to offer some valuable suggestions. Messrs. James and McClellan went over Saturday afternoon and returned Sunday. While in Textline they were entertained by Mayor H. H. Tate and City Clerk John W. Key, who were very courteous to the visitors and furnished them all the information at their command. They found a two-unit plant, two wells, a 75,000 gallon storage tank with a maximum water line of 140 feet, and everything up in spick and span shape. The cost of this plant to the town of Textline was $195,000, and Textline people are well pleased with their investment. They claim that new business is coming their way at a rapid rate since the installation of these improvements and that among the other great improvements noticed is a fine $75,000 school building, which is a beauty. Another substantial improvement noticed is a $60,000 hotel, one of the most popular hostleries between Amarillo and Trinidad. Without their water and light plant Textline could not have landed this important improvement.

At the election held in Textline for the purpose of voting bonds with which to install these improvements, there were 72 votes cast for and 2 votes cast against the proposition. The second issue of their bonds sold at 99. The Spearman geographer says that Textline is well pleased with the investment and would not be without their water and light under any circumstances, now that they have learned what a great thing it is for a town. They were enthusiastic in their praise for Textline and the hospitable and courteous treatment received at the hands of the Textline officials. Though it is rather long and wearisome trip, Messrs. James and McClellan are glad they went, as they are now in possession of the real facts and figures connected with the installation of a light and water plant and feel that they are in position to better represent Spearman citizens as town officials.

Spearman folks should get behind this city council and help along the good work they are trying to do. There is neither money or honor in being a city officer at Spearman and people are too free with their criticisms of our councilmen and mayor. They are doing the very best that can be done under the circumstances and in nine cases out of ten are doing better than the most of us would do under similar conditions. Every man should do his part; then the work of the council will show up to better advantage.

TWO WORTHY FAIR OFFICIALS

The Reporter has heard nothing but praise for the work of A. P. Sagar as president, and Lyman J. Hillhouse as secretary of the Hansford County Free Fair and Fine Stock Show. These worthy gentlemen neglected their personal business and devoted their entire time and attention to the business of pulling off a successful fair, and they succeeded far beyond the hopes of the most sanguine. It is very probable that they will be asked to take the position of president and secretary for another year, and the Reporter believes that better officials will be mighty hard to find. However, Messrs. Barkley and Hillhouse may prefer to have the honor fall on other shoulders in 1922.

EFFICIENT STREET LIGHTING INSURES SAFETY

In 1906, according to data compiled by engineers of the Illuminating Engineering Bureau of the Westinghouse Electric Company, the death total in automobile accidents was 182; and in 1919, the total was 7,969. These figures relate to fatal accidents only and it follows that cases of lesser injury and property damage have been increasing at practically the same rate," declare the Westinghouse illuminating engineers.

This mounting total of personal and property damage has spurred both civic authorities and local national safety associations to institute campaigns of education to induce greater care on the part of those using public roads and streets both day and night.

However, in conjunction with the efforts to secure proper traffic regulation and the elimination of carelessness, it is necessary that there be an adequate and proper illumination of the streets, for at night on a poorly lighted thoroughfare even the best of care cannot reduce the accident risk to that of daytime.

$15,000,000 Extensions for Chicago
In Chicago the Department of Gas and Electricity has presented a program for the extension of Chicago's present system of street lighting at a construction cost of $15,000,000. In considering this program the Western Society of Engineers' sub-committee on streets and parks has made specific recommendations that curtail this expenditure to meet the available debt-incurring power of the city of Chicago, which is estimated at only $1,394,000.

The Chicago program includes changes so as to operate on safe low tension circuits in about 8,600 100-c.p. lights now operated on high tension circuits, which are a source of danger to workmen and the public.

On account of the public safety consideration, the W. S. E. committee refuses to countenance any part of this idea. Another important item is the installation of modern electric street lamps, on about 374 miles of streets. This replacement would increase illumination about 600 per cent over the present amount. The engineers recommend that instead of installing the full 26,000 modern lights, that number be cut in half for the present, and provision be made for the remaining 13,000 when the city finances permit.

Street lighting as a means of safety and protection is being emphasized in the educational campaign in behalf of better street lighting now being conducted by the Westinghouse Electric & Manufacturing Company. The scope of the movement is national, and efforts are being made to impress municipal officials everywhere with the necessity of modern methods of illumination.

"Proper street lighting lessens accidents" is one of the strongest arguments for better illumination being used with officials of municipalities. The fact that proper street lighting lessens accidents is a powerful argument. This is well demonstrated by figures compiled by officials of various cities which show an increasing number of accidents each year for which poor street lighting has been either directly or indirectly responsible.

The full use of streets at night can be secured only by providing improved street lighting. In 1919, 187,900 passenger and truck automobiles were produced, and in 1920, 2,295,000. Today nearly 10,000,000 are traversing the highways and streets of the United States. While in most cities street lighting has been improved to some extent, only in a small number of them has there been a radical improvement in proportion to the increased requirements.

A survey of street accidents in one city shows that one-third of the accidents occurred during the hours of darkness. Similar investigations have been made in many other cities in the United States and they show substantially the same indication of the importance of light in the reduction of traffic accidents. This evidence points to the serious responsibility upon those who have city management in charge to take advantage of the permanent reduction in accident damage and loss of life afforded by properly planned and efficiently operated street lighting.

Efficient street lighting also is a guarantee of the personal safety of citizens against criminals, the great majority of whom operate under cover of darkness, and there can be no question but that good street lighting is a powerful adjunct and aid to the force of law and order.

AN UNFORUNATE BLUNDER

The Reporter made a mistake last week which we regret very much. In naming the winners of the prizes in the baby contest, we gave first prize to Mary Sue Secord and second prize to Verna Letore Secord. The second prize was won by Verna Lenore Letner, the attractive little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Letner of Spearman. We are very sorry this error occurred and humbly ask the pardon of all interested parties.

INTERESTING LETTER FROM HEALTH NURSE

Miss Yeager Writes Interestingly of Conditions Among the Boys and Girls

The public has recently made the discovery that the youth of America is laboring under a physical handicap so great as to be almost intolerable. Statistics show that one out of every four children is undernourished. This means that it is not necessarily somebody else's boy or girl who is below par, but that there is at least one chance in four that it is your own child. Who is responsible for this condition and what can be done about it? This is a question that every parent should ask themselves. Am I to blame? The idea that undernourishment is more prevalent among children in large cities than in small towns and rural districts has been found just the reverse. Also, it isn't true that we find it more prevalent among children of the poor than of well-to-do parents. In fact it has been found in many instances that the rich are the greater sufferers in this regard.

The easiest way to determine whether your child is undernourished is to find out what its weight is and then compare its weight with its height. If the child is more than 1-10 below the proper weight for his height, as given in the tables, it is very probable that he is undernourished. When we find this to be true the next step is to see that the child has a careful examination made by a physician, to find out whether his lack of development is caused by some physical abnormality or some other cause. The rate at which a child gains weight is another way to determine proper development. Up to 14 years of age boys and girls gain in weight in the same proportion. From five to eight years the monthly gain is about six ounces. After the fourteenth year boys gain more rapidly than girls. Children usually gain more rapidly during the fall and spring. Of one thing we must be sure: That there is no loss of weight. This is always a danger signal. Occasionally we find that children will look entirely well in the face and yet their bodies show signs of malnutrition. For this reason it is very important to keep up with your children's weight. The big, outstanding symptom of undernourishment is fatigue. Undernourished children are usually pale, with dark circles under the eyes; the expression is almost always dull and listless, the features droop and the face wears an expression of fatigue, which one soon and understood can never be forgotten. The child most always stands in a slouchy position, with nearly all the weight thrown on one foot; the shoulders droop forward, so that the child is hollow chested and round shouldered. The muscles of the body, legs and arms are soft and flabby. About nine out of ten people say that the reason a child is underweight is because it is not getting enough to eat. It is true, but it is regularly undernourished, but it is also true that it is the result of many other conditions, nearly all of which may be traced back to bad habits of living or to the wrong kind of surroundings. Poverty alone can not be given as a cause of undernourishment, because, as we have already seen, the condition is just as prevalent among the rich as it is among the poor. It is mostly because we do not fully understand that as far as the child is concerned the results are the same, whether the food is lacking in quantity or whether it is entirely unsuited for the child's proper development. There are many causes of undernourishment, among which may be mentioned the wrong kind of food, lack of food, irregular feeding—that is, meals at all hours—and too rapid eating. These are all prominent causes, yet I do not believe any of the causes mentioned are as important as the way in which the child's daily life is carried on. The mothers of the rich and those of limited resources are equally to blame for the kind of environment under which their children live. This has been proven over and over in the congested districts of the large cities. One of the great causes of undernourishment is lack of proper rest. Sometimes we find too much stimulation and emotional excitement in both school and home. Overcrowded class rooms and too much indoor life are all things that must be looked after and properly adjusted if we are to give our children a fair chance for health. Other common and serious causes of undernourishment are the presence of physical defects, such as adenoids, enlarged or diseased tonsils, defective vision or decayed teeth. Undernourished children will contract contagious diseases more easily than if they were normal.

It is interesting to know that taking the countries as a whole there is far less undernourishment among the children of France, Belgium and England today than there was before the war, while in the United States the proportion has constantly increased since prewar days, so that now we have twice as many in some places and three times as

A FINE BOAR

The big, fine Duroc Jersey boar belonging to W. A. Sutton, which wore away two blue ribbons from the fair last week, deserves more than passing mention, because of the fact that there are very few as good boars in the southwest. "Kalvin" is his name and he won the first premium in the aged boar class over keen competition and also won the grand championship of Durocs over first premium boars of all the other classes, among which was a grandson of the world's champion for the past two years. This is rather fast company, but Sutton's boar got away with the ribbons, just the same. "Kalvin" was bred near Plainview by A. C. Scott, one of the best breeders on the south plains. Mr. Scott sold him to McGee & Zimmerman of Lockney, and this firm sold him to W. A. Sutton, who brought him to the Spearman country in March, 1921. "Kalvin" was bred for a prize winner and he certainly is one. He has all the finer points of the perfect Duroc Jersey, and that breed is justly noted for class. Mr. Sutton is justly proud of this animal, and with such herd boars as this in the country, there should be some mighty nifty showings of the younger classes at next year's fair.

Conditions found in the Spearman school: Number of pupils inspected, 62 boys, 73 girls. Number of pupils found defective, 45 boys, 59 girls. Defects found: Vision, 10 boys, 20 girls; teeth, 16 boys, 17 girls; tonsils, 33 boys, 31 girls; mouth breathing, 20 boys; 40 girls; hearing 5 boys, 8 girls; 10 per cent or more underweight, 8 boys, 32 girls.

CALL BOND ELECTION

On Tuesday, November 21, 1922, the citizens of Spearman will vote on the proposition of issuing bonds of the city of Spearman for the purpose of constructing water and light plant for Spearman. Surely there will be very little opposition to this proposition. Spearman has suffered enough from the ravages of fire, and the matter of doing without lights has become a great burden. Spearman must have both water and light. A voter should weigh well his words before raising his voice in protest of this great step forward. The city council have studied the proposition from every angle. They are among our best business men and citizens. They believe that Spearman should have water and light and they also believe the property owners of Spearman are behind them in this move. Surely no objection can be found to this very worthy undertaking.

SHOULD ORGANIZE

A Hansford County Swine Breeder's Association should be organized at once. Good hogs are the salvation of the Spearman country and the breeder's of pure-bred stuff can be of mutual benefit to each other through an association. "Keep agitating this pure bred hog idea" is the advice of the Reporter heard almost every day. We intend to keep agitating and the very next step is the organization of an association. Let's get busy; set a date and hold a meeting right away.

SUGAR FACTORY OPENS

Only Plant in Kansas to Begin Operation at Garden City October 23

At Garden City the beet sugar corporation which has the only plant in Kansas, is advertising its list of special employees for the "campaign" of sugar market. It expects to begin grinding beets about October 23rd and run for forty or fifty days. About five thousand acres of high quality beets were raised, mostly on company farms in the northwest part of Finney county, and digging and topping began today. The machinery will be started when a great enough pile is in the sheds to assure a day and night run without shutting down until the whole crop is "sugared." Several hundred men will be kept busy by the work, and the factory will prove a great benefit to the local laborers. No outside help seems to be necessary. The company operates its own railroad to bring in the beets. Everything is used, the tops for feed and the pulp also. The latter is dried and sacked for shipment to dairy countries as far away as Wisconsin. A ton of beets makes only one hundred pounds of pulp. The factory makes sugar of from six hundred to a thousand tons in the 24 hour run.—Hutchinson Gazette.

Recipes

Combination Salad
Combine all vegetables desired. Cut into small cubes, mix with a fork and place on a lettuce leaf, top with mayonnaise, having everything cold.

Fudge Bars
1/2 cup butter, 3 eggs, 1 cup sugar, 3/4 cup flour, 1/2 teaspoon baking powder, vanilla, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 cup nuts, 2 squares chocolate or 4 tablespoons cocoa. Cream butter, add chocolate, add beaten eggs, add sugar and the flour, salt and baking powder well mixed, add the floured nuts. Put in tins 1/2 inch thick. Bake twenty minutes. When done cut in squares and frost.

Icing
2 tablespoon hot water.
2 tablespoon syrup.
2 tablespoon cocoa.
Mix ingredients and add powdered sugar until thick enough to frost the bars.

L. H. S. Salad
Put one ring pineapple on lettuce leaf, fill hole in pineapple with mayonnaise and top with a red cherry.

One Egg Cake
1/2 cup butter, 1/2 cup milk, 1/2 cup sugar, 1 1/2 cups flour, 1 egg, 2 1/2 teaspoons baking powder. Cream the butter, add sugar gradually, and egg well beaten, mix and sift flour and baking powder, add alternately milk to first mixture. Bake thirty minutes in a shallow pan, spread with chocolate frosting.

Glazed Sweet Potatoes
Wash and pare six medium sized sweet potatoes. Cook in boiled salted water ten minutes. Drain, cut in halves lengthwise, and put into a buttered baking dish. Make a syrup by boiling 1/2 cup sugar with four tablespoons of water three minutes, then add one tablespoon butter. Brush the potatoes with the syrup and bake ten to fifteen minutes or until tender. Baste the potatoes with syrup once or twice while baking.

Three Pea Salad
Equal amounts of canned peas, sweet pickles and peanuts. Dice pickles and peanuts, add the peas whole. Heap on lettuce leaf, top with mayonnaise to which whipped cream has been added. Sprinkle with paprika.

Mrs. Roosevelt's Spice Cake
2 cups sugar,
1 teaspoon each of cloves, nutmeg and cinnamon,
1 cup milk (sour),
2 eggs,
Pinch of salt,
1 teaspoon soda.
Cream butter, add sugar, milk and beaten eggs, add soda, salt and spices and enough flour to make batter medium stiff, bake in long shallow pans.

and boil until it threads. Remove from fire and beat until creamy.

Ladies Fingers

Whites 3 eggs,
1-3 cup powdered sugar,
Yolks 2 eggs,
1-3 cup flour,
1-3 teaspoon salt,
1/4 teaspoon vanilla.

Beat egg whites until stiff and dry, add sugar gradually, beat, add yolks of eggs beaten until thick and lemon coloring and add favoring. Cut and fold in flour mixed and sifted with salt. Shape four and one-half inches wide on a thin sheet covered with un-buttered paper, using a pastry bag and tube, sprinkle with powdered sugar and bake eight minutes in a moderate oven.

Remove from paper with a knife. Ladies Fingers are much used for lining moulds that are to be filled with whipped cream mixture. They are often served with frozen desserts, and sometimes put together in pairs with a thin coating of whipped cream between, when they are attractive for children's parties.

Hints

Cracked Eggs
A cracked egg may still be boiled without danger if it is not running out of the shell. Tap the egg lightly until its cracks on the opposite side from the original crack. The forces are equalized.

Cleaning Windows
A damp shamoon skin will clean dry and polish windows.

Coffee Grounds
Never use coffee grounds but once as they are poisonous after being boiled once.

Potatoes
Drop potatoes into boiling water to cook, not into cold water. Too vigorous boiling tears the outside before the inside is done.

WHEN IS A CHILD MALNOURISHED?

Perhaps You Think
Your child is not really ill, that his underweight is not a cause for worry. Perhaps you would describe his condition by one or more of these terms:

No appetite, frail, delicate, anemic, thin, pale, below par, always tired, doesn't sit up straight, low vitality, very small, under-sized, pot thriving, growing too fast, easily upset, lacks energy, born so nervous, skinny, not himself.

If this is so your child's condition is serious. You can correct it. It means more to the success and happiness of your boy or girl than any fortune you can leave.

In final analysis there is no more royal road to establishing health in your child than your own intelligent care and watchfulness. There is no magic that can be substituted for common sense. Every mother is responsible for her child as no physician can be, and in following the methods outlined in these articles the home is a governing factor, and the parents the determining influence. You must remember that much of the instruction that is new to you is also new to the medical profession, so that you must be patient in working out your child's problems.

The object of Physical Examinations of the school children is to secure from the doctor by examination, any special defects which interfere with nutrition and growth of children. It is necessary that the child's clothing be entirely removed in order that the examination be complete. The school examination will not be a complete one but will catch the most prominent defects and if when they are corrected the child fails to gain, it would be a governing factor, and the parents the determining influence. You must remember that much of the instruction that is new to you is also new to the medical profession, so that you must be patient in working out your child's problems.

In the army the physicians learned the folly of pills, and tonics and have come to recognize the value of hygiene and good food and health habits. Whole companies of soldiers who had supposedly attained their growth made rapid advancement in height as well as in weight, and almost burst out of their clothing, required new outfits. Many boys and girls are like these service men—they have been retarded by adverse conditions, but will make a start and come up to the standards nature has intended for them if only conditions are made satisfactory for their growth. Last year, in one of the weighing contests which have done so much to awaken mothers to the needs of their children, a boy was given a grade of 97 per cent, although it was made a matter of record that he was 15 per cent underweight for his height. His mother naturally accepted this 97 per cent rating as an indication that her boy was in very good condition, yet she should not have overlooked the details of the report. The fact that he was far below normal weight was an important danger signal, even though he had no other physical defects.

Often your own feelings and judgment as to whether a child is doing well or ill is of more value than outside opinion. In many instances the father has said, "There is nothing wrong with the child," and the physician has confirmed him in his opinion; but the mother has insisted upon finding out the cause of underweight and working on the basis of our simple rules has brought the child up to normal mark.

Insist on the cause being found. Do not let yourself be put off with such expressions as "Some children never will get fat." "All Malnourished children are especially susceptible to suggestions and ideas and fears, once impressed are almost impossible to eradicate. Therefore do not allow any mention of definite disease, such as "heart trouble," "tuberculosis" and so forth to be made in their presence.

WHY HE LEFT TOWN

Some years ago, while a professor of an eastern university, I made a trip west, stopping at Omaha, en route where I was entertained at dinner by friends socially prominent in that city. Only three relatives of the host were invited, including an elderly lady whom I believed to be Mrs. Anderson.

Discussing marriage and the number of unmarried women in New England, I made this sage remark: "I have been told that since the opportunities for marriage are so much greater in the West, it is considered a disgrace to be an old maid."

My hostess now kindly informed me that the woman directly opposite me, on her left, was Miss Anderson.—Exchange.

Makes Pet of Snake

A very peculiar looking snake was brought to Dr. Sutton's office this week by Mr. Chas. Brickhousen. It is about a foot long, has a black head and the entire length of its body is girded with rings of white, red and black. The red rings are the widest, being about a quarter of an inch in width, then comes a narrow black ring, then a wider white ring, then another black ring, and so on, the entire length of the snake. Dr. Sutton is going to fix a cage for the snake and make a pet of him. —Huceton Hermes.

CONGRESSMAN JONES MADE FINE SPEECH

One of the most pleasing numbers on the 'two days' program of the Hansford County Fair last week was the speech by Congressman Jones, who came from his home at Amarillo to attend the big doings. Mr. Jones addressed a large and appreciative crowd at the Union church at 2:00 o'clock on the afternoon of the second day. The building proved to be too small for the crowd, but several hundred were comfortably seated and enjoyed the speech immensely. The fair management and his many friends in this country were glad to see Mr. Jones and to have him make us such a fine speech.

Miss Ella Yeager, the state health nurse, now working in this county, will begin visiting the country schools next week and expects to visit every school in the county before her work is finished here. If any, of the said W. J. Medlin, deceased, the present residences of said minors being unknown, Oma Lena Medlin, Isaac Medlin, Joe Medlin, Sallie Ann Mildred Medlin, and Cecil Jerome Medlin, minors, the heirs of J. M. Medlin, deceased, and any and all unknown heirs of the said J. M. Medlin, deceased, if any, whose residences are unknown, Walter McKean and Hume McKean, herein after styled defendants, represent that the plaintiff resides in Carson County, Texas, and that the residences of the defendants are as abovesated either unknown or they are non-residents of the State of Texas.

Plaintiff states as his cause of action against all of the defendants the following:—

I That on the first day of October, A. D. 1922, plaintiff was lawfully seized and possessed of the tract of land hereinafter described situated in the County of Hansford, State of Texas, holding the same in fee simple; that on the day and year last aforesaid, defendants entered upon said premises and ejected plaintiff therefrom and unlawfully withholds from plaintiff the possession thereof to his damage $15,000.00; that the premises so entered upon and unlawfully withheld from plaintiff by defendants, are known and described as follows: All of section No. 190, in Block No. 45, Certificate 46-6334, original grantee, Houston and Texas Central Railway Company, containing 640 acres of land.

Plaintiff shows that L. L. Medlin is the common source of title to said premises; that the said L. L. Medlin died intestate in the County of Hansford and State of Texas, seized and possessed, among other lands, the premises herein described; that on the 24th day of March, 1919, all of the heirs at law of the said L. L. Medlin, deceased, save and except the defendants, Walter McKean and Hume McKean, filed their suit in the District Court of Hansford County for a partition among said heirs of the real property belonging to the Estate of the said L. L. Medlin, deceased, against the said Walter McKean and Hume McKean, defendants in said suit, said partition proceeding including the premises hereinbefore described that in said cause, being suit No. 184 in the District Court of Hansford County, Texas, judgment was rendered on the 22nd day of April, 1919, in which the court found that the lands of said estate were incapable of a just, fair and equitable division and that the best interest of said owners required that the same be sold at private sale for not less than $15.00 per acre, one-half cash and the remainder in not to exceed five equal annual payments at 6 per cent per annum, the deferred payments to be secured by the vendor's lien upon said land, and appointed A. F. Barkley and H. E. Hoover as Commissioners to sell said land at such price, and ordering that the money arising from the sale of said land be paid by said Commissioners to the respective parties in said suit according to their interest; that thereafter the said Commissioners duly qualified as such under the orders of the Court, and on December 9, 1919, the said Commissioners sold and deeded said land under the orders of the Court theretofore obtained, confirming said sale to C. C. Patten for the sum of $57,600.00, $28,800.00 paid in cash and the remainder evidenced by his five promissory notes, each for the sum of $5,760.00, payable on or before one, two, three, four and five years from date, with interest from date at the rate of 6 per cent per annum, and interest payable monthly at the of conveyance to L. C. Koontz, who thereafter by proper deed of conveyance and for proper consideration, conveyed the same to the plaintiff herein.

Plaintiff further shows that all of the heirs of said L. L. Medlin, deceased, joined as plaintiffs in said partition suit and have received their distributive share of the money arising from said sale and paid by the said C. C. Patten to the said commissioners, save and except the defendants, Walter McKean and Hume McKean, they at said time and now being non-residents and their whereabouts being unknown, their distributive share in said estate being held in the proper custody of said Commissioners ready to be paid over to them when they can be found.

Plaintiff further shows that all of the heirs of said estate including the defendants herein, save and except the two McKean's have not only received their distributive share of the proceeds arising from such sale, but have attempted to ratify said sale so made, all the heirs of the said L. L. Medlin, deceased, save and except the defendants herein having heretofore properly and legally ratified and confirmed said sale.

Plaintiff further shows that the said C. C. Patten purchased said land in good faith and paid the full value therefor and was and is entitled to be vested with the legal title thereto as against all of said defendants and all of the heirs of the said L. L. Medlin, deceased, including the said Walter McKean and Hume McKean and plaintiff further shows that the said Patten in good faith conveyed the land herein mentioned to the said L. C. Koontz, who likewise in good faith for a valuable consideration conveyed the same to this plaintiff. Plaintiff alleges that at the sale of the land by the Commissioners heretofore appointed by the District Court of Hansford County, Texas, that the said C. C. Patten paid full value for the same, and that each of the defendants, who were parties to said partition proceedings accepted their respective shares of the purchase price paid for the same, and that of the unpaid balance of the purchase price for said land, according to Isaac Medlin and his heirs after his death, that said heirs and defendants herein have received their distributive shares of said deferred payments which had been made since the death of said Isaac Medlin, all of which they and each of them have appropriated and still retain, and have at all times recognized the validity of said sale and conveyance.

Plaintiff further shows the defendants herein claim title to said land as heirs at law of the said L. L. Medlin, deceased; that the Minor defendants herein to-wit, Opal Alene Medlin, Bessie Rose Medlin, Keeble Inez Medlin, Willie Fisher Medlin, Roy Morris Medlin and Cecil Hallie Medlin are the heirs at law and the only heirs at law of W. J. Medlin, deceased, and that the minors, J. M. Medlin, Jr., Oma Lena Medlin, Isaac Medlin, Joe Medlin, Sallie Ann Mildred Medlin and Cecil Jerome Medlin are the heirs at law and the only heirs at law of the said J. M. Medlin, deceased, and that the said Isaac Medlin, before his death not only joined in the prosecution of said partition suit as a plaintiff therein, but theretofore before his death received his distributive share of the moneys paid by the said C. C. Patten for said land and at the time of his death was estopped by reason of his own acts to question the validity of said judgment of the validity of the title which passed therein to the said C. C. Patten and he being estopped, the said Minor Heirs are likewise estopped to claim title to said land, or to claim that the title as against them did not pass to and become vested in the said C. C. Patten and thru him vested in this plaintiff. Plaintiff further shows that all the other defendants herein, save and except the two McKean's, having received their distributive share of the proceeds of said sale are thereby estopped in law to claim title to said land, or that good title to the same did not become vested in the said C. C. Patten and thru him become vested in this plaintiff. Plaintiff further shows that by reason of the matters herein stated, good title passed to said C. C. Patten and thru him to this plaintiff as against the said defendants, Walter McKean and Hume McKean, all of said defendants claiming title to said land, if any as part of the heirs at law of the said L. L. Medlin, deceased.

and often cursed, abused and mistreated plaintiff. At one time at the Taylor Rooming House in Spearman during winter of 1921-22, he cursed and abused plaintiff, and struck her, called her such names as whore and bitch and accused her of staying out late and having improper relations with other men, which charges were false. That plaintiff was forced to work in restaurants late at night to make a living for herself and children. That his conduct has been such as to render their living together insupportable. She asks for the custody of her two girls, aged 19 and 12 respectively.

You are further commanded to so punish the said defendant, and to serve this citation by making publication of this citation once in each week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your County if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not then in any newspaper published in the nearest county where a newspaper is published.

Wherefore premises considered, plaintiff asks that the defendants herein be cited as the law directs to appear and answer herein; that upon the trial hereof the plaintiff be adjudged the title to said land as against all of said defendants and that the sale of said land by the said Commissioner to the said C. C. Patten and the sale by the said C. C. Patten to the said L. C. Koontz and the sale by the said L. C. Koontz to this plaintiff be in all things confirmed and that plaintiff be decreed the title and possession of said land as against all of said defendants and all persons claiming under them, or either of them since the common consent of this suit, for costs and general relief.

Attorney for Plaintiff. Herein Fail Not, and have before said Court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

abused plaintiff, and called him a son of a bitch, a low down son of a bitch, and a whore monger, and guilty of such violent and outrageous conduct toward this plaintiff, that in order to get away from her quarreling and abuse he was forced to leave the house and went some distance away and was lying down near a shed or barn and she slipped upon him and threw a large rock, weighing several pounds, down on his back to his great pain. That at another time about the latter part of 1920 in the month of December, at their home in Kirkland, Texas, she quarreled and abused plaintiff violently and grabbed him around the neck and tried to choke him and called him names and accused him of going with another woman, which charges were false, and this was done in the presence of another man, a neighbor, that defendant used violent and abusive language toward this plaintiff and exhibited violent and unbearable conduct toward plaintiff not only once, but at many and various times. That in her conduct toward plaintiff she displayed an intense temper and an insane jealousy of plaintiff. That she would accuse plaintiff of committing adultery with other women, which plaintiff was entirely innocent.

Plaintiff further alleges that defendant was guilty of improper conduct during the year 1917, she began keeping company with another man by the name of Virgil Haecker, who was a neighbor. That she corresponded with this man, and from some letters that were discovered she was engaged to do better with this plaintiff and marry him. That she would give this man part of the money which plaintiff gave her to live on. Plaintiff further shows that at two different times during the year 1918, defendant entered suit against him for a divorce, but that she repented and begged him to take her back, which he consented to do, hoping that she would do better. Plaintiff shows that the marriage relation still exists between them. Plaintiff further shows that of this marriage there was born one child, Ruby Lois. That said child has been living with him for some time past, and that she is not able to properly educate and maintain her, but that said defendant is not a proper person to take care of said child, and that she is not able to properly do so and has shown no desire to take care of her. Wherefore he prays that he have the custody of said child.

Plaintiff shows that the conduct of the defendant is such as above set out as to render their further living together as husband and wife entirely insupportable.

A DRY YEAR FOR A FAIR

When the proposition of holding a fair at Spearman this fall was first mentioned, a few opposed the idea on the ground that crops are not up to standard this year and we could not have an agricultural exhibit that would do the county justice. Since the Hansford County Fair was such a great success, we have come to the conclusion that it is more important to hold a fair in a dry year than in a more prosperous year. If farmers are busy with big crops, they will not take time to attend and take part in the proceedings. They will not take time to listen to the speeches or the short talks on judging, breeding and handling pure bred stock. If a man is prosperous he thinks he knows enough, anyway, and will not try to learn, but when adversity overtakes him; when crops are short and money scarce, he looks around to see if he can find some way to improve his methods. That is where the Fair comes in. A fair is educational. If it is not it is not worth holding. Therefore, it is better to hold a fair in a dry year.

J. F. Lackey was in from his ranch out south of town Monday morning.

BIG ACREAGE OF WHEAT

If the season is at all favorable, Hansford county will harvest the largest wheat crop in her history next year. Farmers are seeding hundreds of acres in excess of the 1922 acreage, and as a usual thing, the land was summer fallowed, which makes the chances for a bumper harvest about 75 percent better. If proper care is taken in the selection of seed, this county will go way over the top on wheat in 1923. However, we still contend that the cow, the sow and the hen are the safest propositions for the Spearman country.

Joe Bush and Joe French of the Guyton community, shipped a string of cattle from Spearman the latter part of last week. These gentlemen, like every other shipper, are experiencing much trouble in securing cars these days.

Roy W. Nance, representing the Nance & White Commission Company of Kansas City, was in Spearman the latter part of last week, looking after the interests of his firm. This is a brand new commission company and parties who have shipped to them during the past few weeks report having received very satisfactory service. Mr. Nance was seeing the great southwest for the first time on his recent trip here and was greatly pleased with the country.

Fred W. Brandt, J. A. Ward, L. R. McComas, H. H. Jones and H. D. Dale are Hansford county citizens in attendance upon the session of Federal Court which convened at Amarillo Monday. Mr. McComas is a grand juror and the other gentlemen are petit jurors.

Two room house for rent—See Andrews.

While in Perryton on Friday of last week, we were glad to meet our old friend J. W. Rogers, who is able to be up and about again, after a long seige of sickness. Mr. Rogers was taken about the time B. V. Andrews was stricken. The latter was in Perryton also, and he and Mr. Rogers compared notes, discussed doctors, remedies and health resorts and arrived at the unanimous conclusion that being sick is about the worst thing that can happen to a mortal here below. The Reporter editor reminded them that a fire could also give a man something to worry about.

Geo. A. Field of the Texas Highway Department, was here the first of the week, inspecting the machinery the county has leased from the state. Mr. Field says the state has leased machinery to practically every county in the state and yet has many trucks and other machinery, tools, etc., which may be leased.

Mrs. Tom S. McMurry is in Amarillo this week, where she underwent an operation at the hospital. She is doing nicely since the operation and will be able to return home within a few days. Her mother, Mrs. M. B. Wright, who was taken to the hospital several weeks ago, has undergone the second operation and is now feeling much better. Their many friends sincerely hope that both ladies are now on the road to complete recovery.

Miss Jewell Duling, teacher of the third grade of the Spearman school, was taken to the hospital at Canadian on Monday by Dr. Jones and Miss Yeager, the state health nurse, where she underwent a successful operation for appendicitis. Miss Duling was quite ill when taken away, and the many friends she has made in Spearman during her brief residence among us, and particularly the pupils of the third grade, were glad to learn the news of the successful operation and that Miss Duling would soon return to her work.

J. H. Harris was in from Grand Plains Tuesday, trading and visiting with the boys. Mr. Harris says he has a row of cotton in his garden, about 50 feet long, which is fine as can be found in a cotton country. Mr. Harris has raised much cotton and understands the crop. He says the greatest difficulty in raising it in this country would be getting it to sprout and grow early in the spring, but he believes that it can be successfully grown here.

RABBITS

The time has come, in my judgment, when we should give a reasonable measure of protection to our cotton tail rabbits. Probably no other game bird or animal furnishes as great an amount of sport or food as does this handsome little rodent. He has held his own well in Kansas but there is no doubt that his numbers are gradually decreasing. Every six to ten years an epidemic of some kind sweeps over our state, destroying thousands of rabbits. One of these will arrive some time following a severe winter and close shooting and our rabbits will be gone. In this case, at least, let protect our little friend in time and not wait until too late. We should be warned by the experience of some of the older states. In Connecticut, Vermont and other states rabbits have been so closely shot that they are practically exterminated. They are now trying to re-stock and do not meet with success. Rabbits do not stand transportation. When crated and shipped most of them die in transit. What few do reach their destination alive show no inclination to set about housekeeping, and soon die or fall prey to their natural enemies.

With no closed season or bag limit, our rabbits are wantonly and uselessly killed. Seldom, even in the hottest summer months, do you take a drive in the country, without seeing rabbits lying dead in the road—killed no doubt by some one who just wanted to see if he could hit the rabbit. I would be glad to have expressions of opinion from people generally as to the advisability of making a closed season on rabbits, say from March 1, to July 1 or August 1, with a daily bag limit of ten during the open season. Unless I am convinced to the contrary I shall recommend something like the above regulation to our next legislature. The Jack rabbit is a very different proposition. He is not generally used for food by our people though some of the people in the larger cities seem to think him quite toothsome.

There is another way in which a closed season on rabbits would be of great benefit. People go out honestly intending to kill a mess of young rabbits but happen onto a quail or a prairie chicken, probably a nesting bird, and cannot resist the temptation to shoot it, thereby probably destroying a whole covey of birds. Rabbit hunting also is often used as an excuse for illegal shooting of game birds during the closed season. At present there is no discredit attached to one afield with a gun at a time when all game is protected except the rabbit. With a closed season as indicated the principal nesting months of all game would be an absolute closed season, and anyone seen hunting would be known to be violating the law.—Alva Clapp, State Fish and Game Warden.
