

German Zones Being Merged By US, Britain

NEW YORK, Dec. 3. (AP)—Secretary of State Byrnes, jointly announcing with Foreign Minister Bevin a British-American economic merger in Germany, declared today that he would ask the Big Four foreign ministers to discuss peace plans for Austria as well as Germany before ending their New York sessions.

Byrnes and Bevin said in a statement that the zone economic merger would become effective Jan. 1, that it should make 40,000,000 Germans self-sufficient in three years and that they hoped it would lead to discussions with Russia and France for the economic unification of all Germany.

Negro Tells Of Being Beaten In Trying To Vote

Senate Probers Hear Testimony Against Bilbo

JACKSON, Miss., Dec. 3. (AP) A Negro veteran, displaying clothing splashed with brown stains, told Senate investigators today he was beaten insensibly in a jail at Gulfport, Miss., July 2 after trying unsuccessfully to vote.

The Senate committee investigating Sen. Theo. G. Bilbo's primary campaign tactics heard this veteran, Richard E. Daniel, after two others testified they had been refused registration after being asked a number of questions on government.

Both said they believed the examination procedure was inspired by Sen. Bilbo's campaign advice to local officials for handling would-be Negro voters, quoted as, "ask them questions they can't answer."

Daniel said he tried to vote at the Gulfport city hall but was told "you are in the wrong place."

As he was leaving the building, he said, two men named Estes and Allen struck him and said, "take off that damn hat and don't let us catch you in here with it on."

Daniel said all the other men in the room were wearing hats.

Daniel, a slight, neatly-dressed man, said he made no resistance and left, but was overtaken a short distance outside the building by the same two men with a policeman named Williams. He said he was taken to jail and that as soon as he arrived there Williams, without saying a word, began beating him about the head and body with his fists.

Boy Charged In Church Theft

Police Chief A. G. Mitchell is scheduled to return from Dallas tonight with Charles Elmer Madden, 16, of Newark, N. J., who has been charged with theft of approximately $400 from the First Methodist Church here Sunday night.

The youth was arrested Monday morning as he arrived in Dallas, after local police had notified authorities there that he was a passenger on an east bound bus.

Dallas officers quoted the youth as saying he was hitchhiking to New York and entered the church asking if he could use the telephone. He said he took the money from a cash drawer in the church office, the Dallas officers stated.

After taking the money the boy took a taxicab to Midland where he boarded a bus for New York, the officers said.

Big Spring police had obtained a description of the boy from Dr. C. A. Long, First Methodist pastor, and other church officials who had seen him at the church. The local officers learned through a ticket agent from the Midland bus station that the youth had boarded the bus.

A number of checks which were taken along with cash, were recovered on Highway 80 Monday afternoon. Big Spring police reported this morning. Captain Pete Green and a taxicab driver who carried the boy to Midland after the theft, found 10 checks along the highway. They were scattered from about seven to nine miles east of Midland, Green said. The checks recovered accounted for approximately $60.

Although Brent was suffering from shock and considerable loss of blood, he is expected to recover. Police said Mrs. Brent was held at headquarters pending complete investigation.

Penalty Question An Important One

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3. (AP)—John L. Lewis and his United Mine Workers were held "guilty of contempt of court" today for disregarding an order designed to avert the industry-shattering soft coal strike.

Federal Judge T. Alan Goldsborough, who handed down the historic verdict after five days of court proceedings, deferred sentence until tomorrow.

The penalties in fines or jail sentences are within the discretion of the court. The law sets no maxima or minima in court cases.

Opposing attorneys were directed by Judge Goldsborough to submit their recommendations tomorrow at 10 a. m. (EST).

The overnight adjournment was announced after Lewis, making his first public utterance since before the 13-day old strike, had spoken out against "this ugly recrudescence of government by injunction."

He referred to the court's restraining order directing him to withdraw his contract termination notice, which led to the strike.

Lewis declared the order deprives the miners of their constitutional rights as American citizens. Pending sentence, Goldsborough directed that Lewis go free of bond, in custody of his counsel.

AFL General Counsel Joseph A. Padway protested indignantly: "The court did not need to add 'in custody of counsel.'"

Lewis, Padway said, will be in court of his own free will at any time the judge orders.

UMW Held To Be Separately Guilty

After the judge announced his verdict, Lewis asked for and was granted permission to make a statement.

"The history of labor injunctions prior to 1932 is a sordid one," Lewis began in somber tones. "It was Lewis' first public statement since before the soft coal strike on Nov. 20."

Lewis stood facing the judge, with his broad back to the crowded courtroom.

After reviewing a history of government statutes forbidding courts to restrain strikes, he turned quickly to coal strike issues and inveighed against "the deadly brutal 54-hour work week in American coal mines."

John L. Calls It A 'Coercive Order'

Lewis asserted the UMW had been impelled to announce termination of its contract with the government on November 13. This step led to the coal strike and the contempt proceeding against Lewis and the UMW.

After his announcement that the contract was ended, Lewis said, the government "in violation of the Norris-LaGuardia (anti-injunction) Act asked for a restraining order and it was granted 'without notice and without hearing.'"

Sonorously he went on, denouncing "this coercive and all-embracing restraining order," which he was accused of ignoring.

Speaking "officially" as president of the UMW and vice president of the AFL "with 8,000,000 members," Lewis said he would not subscribe to "this ugly recrudescence of government by injunction."

Addressing the court, he said: "Your injunction, sir, I respectfully submit, deprives the miners of these constitutional rights, freedom of speech, freedom of the press, freedom of assembly, and freedom from involuntary servitude."

"The miners and I stand upon these constitutional rights as American citizens."

"The miners are law-abiding, God-fearing citizens, he said, and have only 'asserted their rights as citizens.'"

As he finished and stalked to a seat behind his lawyers, Judge Goldsborough shuffled papers quietly for a minute while the courtroom buzzed.

Injunction Plea Yet To Be Decided

The jurist's finding of "guilty of contempt of court" ended one phase of the government's legal drive to get the 400,000 soft coal miners back on the job. Still on tap is the government's request to make the restraining order a temporary injunction.

It was uncertain whether the judge tomorrow will issue a ruling on this.

The judge could continue the case to bring out more testimony on the legality of the government-UMW coal contract, or he might decide he had heard sufficient evidence.

Oakland Tied Up Completely By General Strike

Transportation And Industrial Activities Halt

OAKLAND, Calif., Dec. 3. (AP) A general strike tied up Oakland today as AFL trade unions obeyed an order to "pull out everything in Oakland."

Transportation, except for a mass of private automobiles, was stalled.

Normal operation of industry in the area of 1,000,000 persons halted. Newspapers ceased publication. Commuters—there are 120,000 of them—either stayed at home or found themselves caught in the slow tide of private cars.

The strike, effective at 5 a. m. (8 a. m. EST) was a retaliatory move by AFL unions to Sunday's action of police in escorting non-union trucks, laden with merchandise, to two picketed department stores in downtown Oakland. The union insisted the truck drivers were strike-breakers.

Charles W. Real, president of the AFL California Federation of Labor and head of the Bay District Council of Teamsters, was said by union sources here to have given the signal for the strike. He was in Washington, D.C., on a business trip. Apprised of Sunday's events, his reply was quoted: "pull out everything in Oakland."

Schools remained open, and Superintendent W. R. Odell said union maintenance employees would be on the job.

Some drug stores closed, but the AFL Teamsters' union, directing strike strategy, said it had arranged that certain registered pharmacists remain on the job.

Cab drivers did not report for work. AFL interurban-bus drivers did not pick up passengers in Oakland. City streets and buses did not turn a wheel.

Gasoline stations remained open but supplies were uncertain, as delivery trucks were not operating.

Bethlehem shipyard said its Alameda yard "is open for business but no one showed up. About 3,000 employees are involved. The Moore drydock said no union people showed up. It has 1,200 employees."

Some restaurants were operating—mostly small ones—but most were closed.

The Oakland Tribune and the Oakland Post-Enquirer announced they would not publish, and the nearby Alameda Times-Star decided likewise after pickets showed up.

MacArthur Boulevard, the main artery to the bay bridge, was choked by private cars en route to San Francisco. There were periods this morning when the line did not move a yard in five minutes. From East Oakland, 15 miles to San Francisco, the cars were lined up solid four abreast.

The key system commuter trains, which normally carry thousands to work in San Francisco remained in their barns.

Testifies Daughter Of Unsound Mind

DENTON, Dec. 3. (AP)—L. M. Justice, father of Mary Justice, 19-year-old former student at Texas State College for Women, charged with murder in the dormitory razor slaying of her newborn baby, testified today his daughter is "of unsound mind."

Questioned at a sanity hearing by defense attorney W. P. McLean of Fort Worth, Justice said his daughter had never before given any indication of being of unsound mind.

"Did she know the difference between right and wrong or the quality of the act?" McLean asked.

"No sir," Justice replied. "Is she now of sound or unsound mind?" "Unsound mind," the father answered.

COURTESY TICKETS ON FIRST VIOLATIONS—

More Parking Space As Meters In Operation

There was ample parking space within easy walking distance of any section of Big Spring's shopping district this morning, as some blocks usually well filled were virtually deserted with the beginning of parking meter enforcement.

Effect of the meters was most apparent on Main street, where, with exception of one block, a number of spaces were available throughout the morning.

Police were kept busy reminding motorists that the meters were in operation, and a new record for tickets probably was established. They were "courtesy" tickets, however, serving principally as a reminder.

The meters themselves caused no more violations than new markings where parallel parking was instituted this morning, officers said. Angle parking has been discontinued on several streets, but dozens of cars did not conform to the new parallel markings, this morning. Streets where angle parking was allowed formerly but changed beginning today include Johnson street, from Third to Fourth; north side of Fourth street from Johnson to Scurry; east side of Scurry from Second to Fourth; and east side of Runnels from Third to Fourth.

Police also urged motorists to park within the white markings, which designate the individual spaces. Vehicles parked across the lines are subject to all penalties set forth in the parking meter ordinance.

Officers had issued 200 "courtesy" tickets by noon today, for all types of parking violations. The 200 block of Main street continued well filled with parked cars, but there was a continuous turnover this morning, and there were a few spaces open most of the time.

The collection till at the city hall got a head start Monday afternoon, when a final pre-enforcement check on the meters produced $95.52. Most of the money was in nickels, officials said, but pennies were well represented and even a few dimes were found. Only nickels and pennies are required in the meters.

"Good News" Is Theme At First Prayer Meet

Telling of "good news from the war countries," the Women's Missionary Union of the First Baptist church Monday began its prayer week programs.

Twenty-four women attended the first of a series of meetings to continue throughout the week and gave a mission offering of $57.30.

Monday's program was in charge of Mrs. Theo Andrews who developed the theme of "good news of overcoming evil and good." Mrs. Ernest Hock led in the songs, "Joy to the World," and Mrs. Andrews conducted the devotional from Psalms 67.

Mrs. J. C. Pickle told how American servicemen, sent on missions into subjugated countries, had found an indomitable spirit on the part of Christians in those lands, and how, in the midst of adversity, new souls were won to Christ. She also told of an unprecedented demand for tracts and copies of the Bible in many different languages. There were instances of self-denial of food in order to secure the Scriptures. The demand, she said, is world-wide.

Testimony of the sustaining power of Christ was recounted by Mrs. Carl McDonald, who told of reports from missionaries in concentration camps, and of how Chinese refused to deny their Lord in the face of death. Joy of missionaries in returning to feed spiritually hungry souls in foreign fields was related by Mrs. Milton Meyer. On release from prison, one missionary, Mrs. Meyer recalled, said "You have prayed us safely home, now please pray us back."

Everywhere, she said, missionaries were being received enthusiastically, and perhaps no more so than in Japan where the renunciation of deity by the emperor has opened a flood gate of possibilities for Christianity.

Prayers were led by Mrs. P. D. O'Brien, Mrs. H. E. Choate, Mrs. Marie Haynes and Mrs. M. E. Harlan. Mrs. Hock led the closing song and Mrs. Harlan pronounced the benediction.

Attending were Mrs. R. C. Hatch, Mrs. Mildred Jones, Mrs. A. L. Hobbs, Mrs. Bill Todd, Mrs. Cora Holmes, Mrs. A. T. Lloyds, Mrs. C. T. McDonald, Mrs. Theo Andrews, Mrs. R. D. Ulrey, Mrs. D. C. IT'S HOPKINS VS. CLARK—

Regardless Of Coal Dispute Outcome, Texas Will Have A Winning Attorney

By PAUL BELTON
Herald Austin Bureau

AUSTIN, Dec. 3. — The coal strike is a long way from Texas but it has served to bring together as contestants in the greatest legal battle of their lives, two outstanding Texas lawyers whose paths have crossed many times before.

One of them, a tall, gangling, drawing big-city boy who talks like a country boy and who habitually underlines his protruding Adam's apple with a bow tie, is Tom Clark, the attorney general of the United States.

The other, a suave, genteel, booming voiced man who talks in city accents although from a comparatively small town, is Welly Hopkins of Gonzales, Texas, the attorney for the United Mine Workers.

Both of these men went to the University of Texas law school. After law school, Hopkins followed the course of many another University graduate: He went into the Legislature for practical experience in making those laws with which he was to deal. First as a member of the House, then as a state senator, Hopkins built himself a reputation: As an astute lawyer, an orator of great ability, and as one who lived up to the definition in his conduct and manners of a southern gentleman. His political views while a legislator were always considered on the conservative side.

Tom Clark went from law school into another great training ground: As an assistant to a sensational district attorney named William McCraw in Dallas county. When James V. Alford relinquished the post of Attorney General to run for governor of Texas, there were many men spoken of as potential candidates but two names were mentioned most frequently: William McCraw and W. K. Hopkins the forceful young senator from Gonzales.

McCraw became a candidate. He selected as his north Texas campaign manager, Tom Clark of Dallas. And W. K. Hopkins, instead of running himself, became the South Texas manager of the McCraw campaign.

It must have been a disappointment to Hopkins: In any event, he is known to have talked with his great and good friend, John Nance Garner of Uvalde. It was not long before Welly Hopkins dropped largely from sight so far as Texas was concerned: He had gone to that gruelling proving grounds for lawyers, the trial division in the justice department.

Meanwhile in the course of political developments in Texas, Tom Clark looked for larger fields for his talents and talked with his great and good friend, Senator Tom Connally. And within a few years, Tom Clark also joined the trial division of the justice department in Washington, where for a time he took orders from his friend, Welly Hopkins who by this time was one of the leading lights in the justice department. Hopkins had made a reputation for his prosecutions in coal miner cases.

Another man prominent in the same department was John Rogge, the same John Rogge lately fired by Attorney General Tom Clark. But at that time, Rogge and Hopkins were the standout lawyers. An assistant attorney general post became vacant. The two leading candidates were Rogge and Hopkins. It is reputed that the President weighed them; found Hopkins to be affiliated with the more conservative wing, a Garner protege. The nod went to Rogge.

It is believed Hopkins was bittered; he felt he had been unjustly by-passed. In any event there was one man on the national scene who was not influenced in selecting his aides by geography or politics. That man was John L. Lewis. He had watched Hopkins in action. And not many months after Rogge's elevation, Hopkins left the government to become counsel to the United Mine Workers — at a salary many times that which the government could have paid. And, in the course of political change, Tom Clark became the favorite and advanced to the post of Attorney General of the United States.

Hopkins in Texas was never one to court reporters, but as attorney for the United Mine Workers he shuns them — courteously, with a pleasant smile, but firmly. He has never been quoted in an interview. At least up to the time of the Lewis contempt case, his friendship with Tom Clark was unimpaired. However the coal strike comes out, however the Lewis contempt trial ends, it can be said: A Texan was the winner.

Army Ousted From Top Place In Grid Poll By Notre Dame

Vols And Owls, Bowl Opponents, In First Ten

NEW YORK, Dec. 3. (AP)—In a final voting spree for the campaign, the nation's sports writers today knocked Army's Cadets off their throne as kings of the gridiron for the first time in three seasons, and named the Irish of Notre Dame as the "Football Team of the Year" for 1946.

Reversing their field as a result of Army's close call against Navy's fire-eating Middles last Saturday, while the Irish were wrecking Southern California, the sports writers deposed the careening Cadets by the slim margin of 71 points in the largest vote ever cast in the Associated Press' weekly poll.

Actually, however, it wasn't quite that close. Of the 184 scribes balloting for their selections for the top ten teams, as of the end of the season last Saturday, an even 100 voted for Notre Dame to head the parade, as against 48 for Army. Nine others, unable to decide, split their tickets and called it a tie between the two outfits which battled to a scoreless draw three weeks ago—the only blot on Army's otherwise all-conquering three-year run.

Of the other first place nominations, 23 went to unbeaten, undefeated Georgia, in third place in the final voting for the year; two went to the all-winning Bruins of the University of California at Los Angeles, who held fourth place, and one each to up-and-down Texas and doughty Delaware. Delaware like Army, has been unbeaten in three years. Neither Texas nor Delaware made the first ten in the final ratings.

Only once before in their tremendous three-year romp have the Black Knights of West Point been out of first place. That came the first week of this season, when Texas temporarily ousted them for a brief one-week period. In the final voting of the last two years they were far out in front.

This time, however, the Irish got back on a peacetime basis to bowl over all their opponents except the Cadets and roll up the best offensive and defensive records of any major team in the country—the first time in history any one outfit has been at the head of the class in both departments.

The outpouring of votes that resulted—counted on the usual basis of ten points for a first-place selection, nine for a second, eight for a third and so forth—gave the battering South Benders a total of 1,730½ points as against 1,659½ for Army, Georgia's Bulldogs rolled up 1,448 and UCLA

1,141. It was the first year four teams had gone over the 1,000-mark.

Both Army and Notre Dame were voted no worse than fourth on 172 of the 184 ballots, with the Irish getting 60 second-place nominations to 94 for Army, 10 third place picks to 26 for the Cadets and 2 fourth place calls to 4 for the future generals.

Just back of UCLA, in fifth place in the final standings, came Illinois' Big Nine champions, who tangled with the UCLAs in the Rose Bowl Jan. 1. The Illini polling 893 points, beat out their Western Conference rivals, the Wolverines of Michigan, who wound up in sixth place, with 778.

As a matter of fact, seven of the top ten teams are parties of the first or second part in the major Bowl battles on New Year's Day. Georgia's Sugar Bowl rival, North Carolina, came home in ninth place, with 394 votes. Tennessee's Vols ended in the seventh slot with 507 points. They now head for the Orange Bowl to take on the Rice Owls, who round out the top ten with 207 points. Louisiana State, finishing eighth with 402 points, meets Arkansas in the Cotton Bowl. The Razorbacks finished 16th in the final tabulation.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With TOMMY HART
Some of the highlights of the giddy football season just completed as viewed by this reporter:

Highest scoring contest: Water Valley 64, Barstow 31. (For bi-district six-man championship).

Best passing team: Abilene against Big Spring.

Most erratic passing team: Lubbock against Big Spring. (No completions).

Best performance by a backfield man: Bill Bumgarner, North Side, against Big Spring.

Best performance by a lineman: Harold Headrick, San Angelo, against Big Spring.

Smartest quarterbacking: Hayden Fry in Odessa-Sweetwater contest.

Best catch: Bobo Hardy on pass from Horace Rankin on Steers' second touch in Abilene-Big Spring bout.

Most powerful runner: Pug Gehrel in Odessa-Big Spring tilt. (Jack Tankersly, Brownfield, a close second).

Hardest luck team: Brownfield. (The Cubs waited until final game to chalk up their first victory—a 7-6 triumph over Borger).

Best comeback punch: Big Spring against Brownfield.

Most thrilling contest: Big Spring vs. Midland.

Most disappointing incident: Big Spring's inability to kick an extra point against San Angelo, a mistake that cost them a tie.

Best pass defense: Texas Aggies, when SMU was within scoring distance.

Most versatile back: Frank Payne of SMU.

Most courageous athlete: Jackie Baron of Big Spring. (He insisted on playing despite trouble with his arches all year).

Longest run of the year: Rankin's 77-yard sprint on a kickoff against North Side. (The Hoss was tackled on the 16-yard line).

Longest scoring run: Bumgarner's 56-yarder against Steers in North Side game.

Greatest individual rushing performance: Gerald Harris against Cisco. (He made 114 yards in 11 tries).

Johnny Malaise's Big Spring high school hoopers will face San Angelo's Bobcats at least four times the coming season. Besides the Dec. 10 and 13 dates, the two quintets will tangle on January 23 and February 11. The January engagement will be in the local fieldhouse.

Bobby Decker, the one-time Big Spring baseballer who hit nearly 350 for Borger last season and played well enough to get drafted by the Little Rock Travelers, may be back in these parts again in '47. Writes he, from his winter home at Tarryton, N.Y.:

"I'll be back around the Lone Star state — I pay poll tax there."

you know, I'm keeping in good shape, working and playing baseball. Little Rock bought me, as you know, but I don't know whether I'll go or not as I have a free agency coming from Borger if I request it. And I'm highly interested in managing a ball club. Hope to make that my future. If there's anything available down that way, throw my hat in the ring. My fondest regards to all my friends in Big Spring. BOBBY DECKER."

Robin, a young veteran at the game, would make some club a capable skipper. He can still play a nifty infield, has learned to hit and is regarded as one of the craftier ball players in Class C ball.

Bovine Football Letter Winners Are Announced

Nineteen players, including eight who have at least one more year of eligibility remaining, won varsity football letters at Big Spring high school the past season.

Coach Johnny Dibrell, who made the announcement Monday afternoon, said that an additional 22 boys had been awarded reserve numerals. Most of that group will be eligible for play in 1947.

Regulars earning monograms were Jackie Barron, Bobo Hardy, Gerald Harris, Bobby Hollis, Read Collins, Ike Robb, Ensor Puckett, Marv Wright, Horace Rankin, Roy Lee Reaves, Pete Fuglaar, El Cypert, George Worrell, Pat Lamb, James Abbe, Ernie Ache, Johnny Hamrick and Larry Hall. The two managers, George Oldham and Bobby Carlisle, were also rewarded.

Of that contingent, Barron, Collins, Robb, Puckett, Fuglaar, Worrell, Lamb and Houser can come back in 1947.

Hardy won his fourth football numeral. The little fullback becomes one of the few athletes in the history of Big Spring high school to gain that many grid letters. Barron, Hardy and Robb are all eligible for their third monograms.

Hollis, Rankin, Reaves, Fuglaar, Collins and Hall will be wearing two stripes on their jacket sleeves while the other lettered for the first time.

JACOBS IS DIFFERENCE West Texas Trims Felines In Cage Thriller, 45-44

Teams of Abilene Christian college and West Texas State applied a slam-bang finish to Clarence Fox's first annual basketball coaching school here Monday night, playing the kind of game that had the 600-odd spectators screaming for more.

The West Texas gang, a brigade of battle-wise veterans, finished out in front, 45-44, but only after playing an extra period.

It was close all the way. No more than four points separated the two contingents at any time and the ACC team lead several times during the struggle.

LeDru Jacobs, who was dwarfed by most of the players on the court, clinched the outcome in the final ten seconds of play when he sank a free toss after having been fouled by Guerdon Busby. Jacobs was a constant threat and thrilled the onlookers with his ball handling.

Dub Winkles was the scoring leader for the evening, bucketing 13 points while J. E. Smith wasn't far behind with 11. Both play for ACC. Jacobs and J. W. Smith shared scoring laurels for Ne winners, each with nine points.

The Christians were out in front at half time, 18-16.

West Texas controlled the backboard most of the time but the Wildcats' ability to sink free tosses kept them in the game. The Cats made 16 gratis pitches.

Fox, who announced immediate SEARS QUIT JOB

ANSWER: JOSEPH'S BROTHERS. There was severe famine in Canaan, but there was plenty of food in Egypt. So Jacob sent his sons to buy corn in Egypt. However, Joseph was next in authority to Pharaoh, ruler of Egypt; he recognized his brothers who once sold him as a slave. Joseph frightened his brothers with his personal questions and rough manner.

Winning Heifer Clumsy As Cow

CHICAGO, Dec. 3. (AP)—B. F. Princess Royal A, a five months old heifer calf, is ranked as a prize in the barnyard but on a ball room floor she's as ungraceful as a cow.

The princess took a royal flop on the highly polished wax floor of the lavish Gold Room of the Congress hotel last night. But her market value didn't slump.

The calf was the guest of honor at the American Shorthorn Breeders association dinner and remained in a pen in the rear of the ballroom until the sale was ready to start. Herdsman Ed Morris tried to lead the princess over the floor, but she slipped and slid and the calf finally fell.

She was taken back into her pen and the auction started, with a top bid of $1,300 by James Napier of Grain Valley, Mo., winning the calf donated by Col. E. Arthur Ball of Muncie, Ind. Proceeds from the sale and contributions totaling $6,500 went to the National 4-H Club.

Napier said the princess is going to Grain Valley, where he said he has two of the country's finest shorthorn bulls.

"They'll make good husbands for her," Napier said.

MUFTI SPOT REMOVER

REPAIR BROKEN CHINA WITH MAJOR'S CEMENT

Rowland Leads Minor Rebellion

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 3. (AP)—President Clarence Rowland of the Pacific Coast league said at baseball's annual winter meeting today he believed all minor league leagues would support a movement to block major league invasion of minor league territory.

He said his organization would spearhead such action by seeking amendment of the present major-minor agreement to balk any ideas the majors might have of taking over a franchise in any league, notably any city in the Pacific Coast league, International league or American association.

Rowland, member of the minor leagues' executive committee, made his observation as more than 1,000 baseball men entered the second day of their meeting. In its first day the gathering produced more rumors than action in the way of player deals or outstanding developments.

The effect of an amendment such as proposed to block the majors' expansion was obvious. Briefly, it would require that all clubs of a league give permission for one member of the league to go major. In the case of the Coast loop, if Los Angeles or San Francisco were taken over, opponents say the entire league, with its millions of invested dollars, would be wrecked. The same might apply to another triple "A" circuit.

Several issues remained uppermost on the week's agenda. In the minor league category was (1) the probable retirement of William G. Bramham as president of the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues, and the election of his successor, (2) adoption of the amendment to forestall possible major league encroachment, (3) the demand to be presented by the Pacific Coast loop for recognition as a third major league, and (4) approval on a number of provisions to the major-minor agreement, many of them technical in nature.

Machinery In Need Of Overhauling

A county judge has had the courage to speak out against the antiquated county governmental machinery.

Addressing the annual meeting of the County Judges and Commissioners association in San Antonio, Judge Gilbert Smith of Jones county declared that "we as counties are grappling with the molding relics of 100 years ago and cannot meet today's demands . . . We are pushing the people away . . . As long as we operate our system under the present plans, we will continue to pick the public's pocket."

Those are pretty strong words and the significant thing is that it came from a member of the ranks and not from an outsider. Whether Judge Smith's remarks strike any ready response remains to be seen, for heretofore one of the bulwarks of opposition to change in the form of county administration has been from those who would be affected as officials.

Judge Smith pointed out that changing of the county machinery would require changes in the state's "horse and buggy constitution (which) needs a good going over in the interest of modernization." He has a point there, too, for the revered document has been patched so spasmodically and frequently that it resembles a legal crazy quilt.

Mandatory changes on a state level may be the best way to get at the problem, for several years ago an amendment was adopted which permitted counties to change governmental machinery through adoption of charters. In the intervening decade, few if any steps have been taken by individual counties in that direction.

Judge Smith had some pertinent suggestions for changing the county set-up, which may or may not find agreement. The point is that the governmental vehicle is in need of modernization to insure cohesiveness and complete lines of authority. Although it will not come in our time, ultimately the biggest economy and efficiency could come through the combined administration of at least some of the municipal and county functions.

Key To Era Of Greater Friendship

Mexico has just inaugurated Miguel Aleman as its president for a six-year term.

One of the chief planks in his platform was the industrialization of his country principally by private forces. One of the chief results, we hope, will be an increasing of the spirit of friendliness between the two neighbors.

Mexico is on the verge of a great period of development, and the fact that its leadership is pointing in that direction gives every reason for hope that it will be development and not mere exploitation.

We in the United States can contribute to the promotion of still greater understanding by recognizing that Mexico is due the same privilege we would insist upon ourselves—to work out her problems in her own way.

Court Ruling May Be Far Reaching

WASHINGTON. (AP)—Time will show whether the question raised here is far-reaching.

It revolves around the statement made by Federal Judge T. Alan Goldsborough in the case of John L. Lewis.

The Supreme Court, in the end, may have to give the answer. The case probably will wind up there.

When Lewis ended his coal contract with the government, it meant his miners would stop digging coal.

The government asked the judge to order Lewis not to let his coal, that it would mean a coal shortage and a blow to the nation.

So the judge told Lewis not to tear up the contract until he, the judge, had time to decide whether Lewis had a right to tear it up.

Lewis disobeyed. The judge called Lewis to trial for not obeying. Lewis' lawyers said the judge had no right to issue the order because:

The Norris-LaGuardia Act forbids a federal judge to interfere in a labor dispute by issuing an order that would prevent a strike or walkout.

The judge, giving several reasons, said he had a right to issue the order and was free to do so.

The judge said the Norris-LaGuardia Act does not apply in this case. That nowhere does it say the government can't get a court order against a union; therefore, it can get such an order.

(The government lawyers argue that the act prevents private employers from getting a court order to stop a strike but this doesn't mean the federal government.)

This was a tremendously important decision by the judge. Until the act was passed in 1932 unions had been smashed by court orders that prevented strikes. Since its passage they've been free to strike.

But the judge said this, too: The court has a right to stop a union from doing something, such as a coal mine walkout, "which was against the public interest."

But what does this mean? Some lawyers have told this writer: "In this case the government had a contract with Lewis to mine coal. He broke it. But the government was in possession of the mines since it has been running them after seizing them last May.

"So the judge is talking only about this case—or, at most, only about the government's right to get a court order to prevent a strike where it has a contract or possession of property."

But is that all it means? If the government could and did get a court order to prevent strikes in vital industries even where it had no contract or direct interest it would be a shocking blow to big unions.

But Lewis if he loses this court fight (he's been losing it so far) will probably appeal to the higher courts. They may have to decide precisely what Judge Goldsborough meant, and how far-reaching it is.

And whether he was right when he said it.

U.S. Carpetbagger

NEW YORK. (AP)—Jimmy isn't on any list of American export products.

But he is going abroad. Some lucky country that wants American automobiles and books and vacuum cleaners is going to get Jimmy instead.

Young, carefree grinnin' Jimmy! Jimmy is going over on a "do good" mission for a philanthropic organization which I am not at liberty to identify. That's what the organization thinks. But Jimmy is really going over to carry out a private philanthropic program of his own—the personal enrichment of Jimmy at the least possible expenditure of energy he can put out.

Since Jimmy is symbolic of one kind of modern American carpetbagger now going overseas to fatten on foreign distress, it might be of interest to listen to him describe his plans in his own frank winning way.

"I was getting nowhere fast on the job I had," he said at a party the other day, "and besides there was too much work to it.

"I thought there must be something better than this for Jimmy," I looked around and heard about this deal and brother—this is just what the doctor ordered."

"I'll make about a hundred bucks per—yes, of course, per week. What'd you think? Per month? That's a laugh. Little Jimmy ever living on a hundred a month!

"But the hundred bucks—that's just the beginning. I'm going to have a nice easy trip over.

"There's a lot of work to be done, all right, but that's all taken care of. I'll have a staff of two or three people, and, believe me, they're going to do all the work. You know Jimmy."

"But wait. The best part of the deal is I figure it ain't going to cost me a penny. I've made arrangements with a dozen different contacts to ship me cigarets over. I know cigaret prices have dropped there, but I can still peddle them for enough to take care of me and plenty of entertaining on the side.

"So when the whole thing blows up—you know a deal this good won't last forever—I'll be sitting pretty with all my salary in the sock. Then when Jimmy comes back home he won't have to ride the subway looking for something good again."

And little Jimmy stood there grinning and grinning his frank boyish grin, like a weasel with a plump chicken hanging from his jaws.

Later, a man who had met Jimmy at the party, told me: "I've been thinking ever since about that little guy, and wondering why I myself or someone else didn't step on him."

Well, in good time Jimmy will step on himself with his own big

HOW ABOUT BALANCING THESE BOOKS?

Broadway—Jack O'Brian

A Little Premature

NEW YORK — Manager Robert Christenberry of the Hotel Astor would shoot one long chase sequence in front of Barney's store, there by giving Barney the benefit of some coast-to-coast advertising.

Christenberry looked over several polls which suggested the change in musical tastes from the swing to the sweet, with a good deal of rising popularity among the masses for concert music.

Therefore Bob announced that the Columbia Room of the handsome Times Square rooming house would abandon dance music and hot jazz emphasis in that portion of the premises and concentrate on strictly longhair stuff.

A CONCERT orchestra was booked, rehearsed to a Carnegie Hall proficiency, and started an engagement in the Columbia Room. It went over like a submarine, proving probably that Times Square is not ready yet for Bach, Beethoven and Mozart, and that Gershwin, Cole Porter and Irving Berlin are the big fellows still, whatever the polls show.

Therefore, the concert combo was quietly sneaked out over a weekend and the bright tempos of Sande Williams and his dance orchestra were returned to their proper place. Again everything is noisier and happier on Times Square.

BARNEY RUDITSKY, a Broadway detective only slightly less well-known in the bright bulb belt than the famed Johnny Broderick, retired from the New York constabulary and settled in Hollywood, where his native energy precluded his sitting still too long. So Barney opened a liquor store, and all his friends in the film colony, numbering hundreds of the biggest and littlest stars, turned out for his premiere.

MacArthur Bans Newspaper Critics

WASHINGTON. — A top-secret cablegram has just been received by the War Department from General MacArthur, banning several important newspapers from taking a trip to Japan. They include the New York Herald Tribune, Christian Science Monitor, Chicago Sun, San Francisco Chronicle, PM, and the Daily Worker.

In his telegram to the War Department, General MacArthur accused these papers of "downright quackery and dishonesty."

MacArthur's cable was sent after the War Department wired him, suggesting that a group of newspaper editors and correspondents make a brief tour of Japan and Korea, as they recently did through Germany. The War Department, which is always loath to make suggestions to MacArthur, phrased the telegram in tactful language, proposing that it might be a good idea to let the press get a real picture of the occupation.

The supreme commander in the Pacific was not hesitant about replying. First he objected; then, when the War Department sent him a second cable, he reluctantly accepted — but turned thumbs down on the above mentioned papers.

While many Army men would agree with MacArthur's opposition to the Daily Worker, which is an official communist publication, the War Department was surprised at MacArthur's banning of the Christian Science Monitor, which is non-partisan, and the New York Herald Tribune which is Republican. The San Francisco Chronicle, also Republican, is edited by Paul C. Smith, who had a brilliant war record in the Marine Corps and Navy, and who, during a recent trip through Germany, was vigorous in his praise of the US Army's work.

NOTE — Secretary of State Byrnes, talking to a closed-door session of the Kilgore Committee, recently said of General MacArthur: "While that fellow has been doing a fine job, nevertheless he is a prima donna — because I have known him for 30 years — and when you send out there for costs (occupation costs), he is liable to fly the coop and raise a lot of sin."

US HEADACHES IN KOREA

A committee of Congress recently visited Korea, supposedly on an investigation trip. But what they didn't find out would fill a book — a book, incidentally, which may be one reason why General MacArthur is loath to have certain newspapermen visit the Pacific.

Army censorship has hushed it up, but serious rioting has occurred in Korea, with about 50 civilian policemen killed in the City of Taegu. Their bodies were horribly mutilated by an aroused mob of natives. Police cruelty was given as the reason for the uprising. American MP's patrol the streets of Taegu and other cities, but are under orders not to get mixed up in civilian brawls.

Meantime, factories are at a standstill because of lack of supplies and transportation, while part of the civilian population is on the verge of starvation. Insiders blame conditions on various factors, including the Russians and the blundering of Lieut. Gen. John R. Hodge, US commanding officer.

The fact that our military and American military government detachments get three square meals a day and are billeted more or less comfortably, while Koreans must do without, also hasn't helped matters. Neither has the fact that Hodge is constantly feuding with the AMG chief, M. Gen. Archer L. Lerch, who is gripped over alleged discrimination against the AMG by Hodge in the allocation of food supplies and vehicles.

other occupation area, and one thing which especially riles enlisted men is the disposition of liquor.

An officer can store as many bottles as he wants in his billet, and only the liquor left over after officers buy all they want is turned over to enlisted men's clubs. As a result, the clubs frequently don't get any.

General Hodge, however, was hesitant about serving liquor to the Congressional committee which inspected Korea. At first, he decided to serve only suntuoy, a Jap brand of Scotch, at a party in his private dining room at the chosen hotel in Seoul. At the last minute, however, he changed his mind, and requisitioned half a case of champagne, three bottles of port wine, and three bottles of sherry for the party.

ARMY CANCER CURE

Walter Reed General Hospital has made some excellent progress in treating cancer, but it's kept such a hush-hush secret that the doctor in charge of cancer research, Lieut. Col. Milton Freedman, is about to be kicked upstairs because of a news leak.

It so happens that the amount of cancer in the Army is high—so much so that the number of cases is kept secret. But one whole wing at Walter Reed hospital is devoted to cancer, and Dr. Freedman made so much progress that various editors got wind of what was happening and tried to print the story.

At this point, Surgeon General Norman Kirk stepped in. It was made clear that Merical Corps policy did not permit mentioning the name of any hospital specialist. Only the surgeon general's office could be mentioned in connection with cancer research.

The cancer specialists didn't particularly mind this policy. But as an aftermath of this, Kirk wants Freedman kicked upstairs to an administrative post, where he would shuffle papers instead of practicing medicine.

This Freedman refuses to do. Meanwhile, doctors criticize Kirk for continuing his wartime policy of wasting medics. During the war he corralled 40 per cent of the nation's physicians, then let many of them spend about three months sitting idle for every month they devoted to medical practice. Some had so much free time, they even organized softball teams to keep themselves occupied. Many would have stayed on in the Army, but were fed up with the regimentation of the surgeon general's office.

State Directory Is A Complete One

By JACK RUTLEDGE
Associated Press Staff

Jan H. S. Anderson of Austin is married and has six children, which should be enough to keep an average man busy, but he has more ideas, projects, and promotions than you can shake a stick at—even a very small lightweight stick that doesn't require much shaking.

One of his most recent—and most successful—is the Texas State directory. It's a handbook of Texas Department and directory of all state officials and employees.

The directory is one of those things that make people say why didn't I think of that? There's a definite need for it, particularly among politicians and state workers.

It contains about 300 pages of material, including over 5,000 names and 300 pictures. Anderson says as far as he knows, there hasn't been a complaint yet about errors.

Further, it's solidly packed with advertising.

The next edition, for 1947-48, is due in April. It will include new material, such as county and city officials. It also, of course, will have the names and pictures of the new legislators. And some time next month an insert will be sent all owners of the original directory, bringing it up to date.

It would take more space than we've got to tell what's in the directory, but you can figure it out for yourself—300 pages of very small type and thumbnail pictures.

Anderson also is working to organize a statewide Texas chamber of commerce; a big building he hopes to call Texas Tower, to house all Texas organizations in Austin; he handles publicity; he has a new book coming out which is hush-hush right now; he heads the Texas Publishing Co., Inc., and Anderson and Associates.

He lives on a farm south of Austin, wears fancy clothes, GI shoes and a Texas hat, has worked on 14 different papers in Texas from El Paso to points east, was in publicity for 13 years after that.

If there's something he hasn't thought of, drop him a line. He'll try it.

Praise For Extras

HOLLYWOOD. (AP)—The real stars of motion pictures are the extra players, says Anne Baxter, and she isn't kidding.

Mrs. John Hodiak will undoubtedly be in the running for an academy award this year, and she remarked that she has the extras to thank as much as anyone else.

"They create the atmosphere and really get me in the mood," she said on the "Blaze At Noon" set. "Supposing there's a cafe scene. If the extras just sit quietly, there's no mood. But they give you a milling crowd, jostling, pushing, yelling, smoking—then I really feel as though we're in a night club and I act like it."

The gal has a point there. I have often wondered how an actress could do an emotional scene while gazing out at a cold camera.

She pointed to the example of the scene she was doing at the time. It was supposed to be a happy scene in a speakeasy. The extras were joking, singing and generally cutting up in a make-believe charade that seemed a little silly for grown-ups. But they were getting paid ($14) for it.

"See what I mean," Anne said. "It's like playing fourball handball. The mood keeps bouncing back at you."

It's officially here. Christmas tree forests are sprouting on Wilshire Boulevard . . . Gene Tierney and Howard Hughes an interest.

Steel, Railroad Workers Idle

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Dec. 3. (AP)—Fires were banked in more of the nation's steelmaking furnaces today as the 13-day strike of 400,000 AFL-United Mine Workers forced idleness on nearly 150,000 other workers.

In Pittsburgh, heart of the steel and soft coal industry, the Pennsylvania Employment Service reported an estimated 23,000 workers idled by the coal walkout will become eligible for jobs by this week.

Most of them are steelworkers, who will be asking unemployment compensation for the fourth time in a year: first, last January during the steel strike; then during the coal strike of last spring; the power strike of October and the present crisis.

Coal-using railroads felt the pinch of dwindling fuel supplies, laying off an additional 6,400 workers. The Southern Railroad at Washington, D.C. laid off 5,000, the Baltimore & Ohio an additional 1,062, and the Norfolk and Western and the New York Central 350 at Columbus.

Plane Crash Kills Twelve

BELFORT, France, Dec. 3. (AP)—Twelve persons were killed and a 13th was missing today in the crash late Monday of a French Army transport plane during a snow storm in the Vosges mountains.

A woman and two children were among the victims. Four bodies were identified, but names were withheld pending notification of relatives.

The plane was en route from Liden, Germany, to Paris. It caught fire after falling, burning many bodies beyond recognition.

Rescue parties trudged through a heavy snowfall to the scene, but were held off by fierce fires that burned in the wreckage for 12 hours after the accident. The plane fell on the eastern slope of Ballon d'Alsace Peak, past which the American Seventh Army fought during the war.

Three bodies were blown clear of the wreckage by the explosion of gasoline tanks. Nine others and the body of a dog were taken from the remains of the plane. No trace was found of the 13th person who the French Army Air Ministry said was aboard.

Another Increase in Welfare Fund

Another $130 was added to the Community Fund total Tuesday, Ira Thurman, general chairman, reported.

This brought the gross to about $29,500. A special gift of $100 was reported from Wm. M. Currie Tuesday. Previously omitted in special gift announcements was $200 from Dr. P. W. Malone.

Funeral for Buford Givins Bly, 80, who died in a local hospital Monday at 7:45 p.m., will be held Wednesday at 10 a.m. in Eberley chapel with Rev. C. A. Long in charge.

Mr. Bly had lived in Big Spring since he came from Coahoma in 1910. He had been in ill health for some time.

Survivors include the widow, Mrs. Lizzie Margie Bly; four sons, Wallace T. Bly of Big Spring, W. N. Bly of San Angelo, Tom Bly of Leaky and Joe M. Bly of Fort Worth; two daughters, Ruth Eudy of Vernon and Virgie Elliott of Wilcox, Ark.; two sisters, Mrs. Joe Williams of Fort Worth and Mrs. George Bankhead of Weatherford; a brother, Fletcher Bly of Pasadena, Calif.

Pallbearers will include L. E. Coleman, Earl Phillips, Bob Middleton, Ira Thurman, John Allred, Shine Phillips and Dee Foster. All friends will be considered honorary pallbearers.

Zoning Board Is Completed

A nine-member zoning commission for Big Spring was completed at a special session conducted by city commissioners Monday afternoon, when four additional members were selected to serve with five already named to the planning commission.

Members selected Monday and their respective terms are John A. Coffee, four years; E. B. McCormick, three years; R. L. Beale, two years; and Joe Pickle, one year.

Mayor G. W. Dabney summed up ideas expressed by commissioners in a general discussion by pointing out that the group desired representatives from all sections of the city and a cross-section of professions and businesses to serve on the zoning board.

The four new members will be combined with the planning commission, composed of Dewey Martin, Dr. Lee Rogers, Jess Thornton, W. E. Carricks and Ted O. Groebel, to form the zoning commission.

After the zoning commission completes its own organization, it will meet with the zoning engineers, Parkhill, Smith and Cooper of Lubbock, to review zoning plans already prepared.

Bus-Car Collision Fatal To Texan

SAN ANTONIO, Dec. 3. (AP)—One man was killed and two were injured critically today following a collision between a coupe and a bus 15 miles from San Antonio on the new Corpus Christi highway.

Ignacio Valdes, 35, of Floresville, driver of the auto, died in a local hospital, and the two men who were riding with him, Alvin Ruiz and A. G. Montayo of Fairview, were reported in a critical condition.

The bus carried no passengers at the time of the accident.

County Heads Favor Unified Road Program

SAN ANTONIO, Dec. 3. (AP)—Texas county judges and commissioners have received recommendations for adoption of a one-unit rural road system and for a general overhauling of county governments.

Delegates attending the opening sessions of the Judges and Commissioners Association of Texas here yesterday heard County Judge D. V. McDaniel of Waco, in a committee report, state that the one-unit system of rural road control recognizes the efficiency of a centralized control eliminating the present costly procedure of maintaining four complete sets of road equipment and employees.

Judge Gilbert Smith of Jones county told the group that county governments have failed to keep pace with the streamlined changes of the national governments.

"As a result, the people are turning to state and federal governments for aid," he said. "As long as we operate our system under the present plans we will continue to pick the public's pocket." Smith recommended that each county elect three commissioners to serve six-year terms and that the county judge serve terms of two years duration. He also recommended abolition of the office of county treasurer and the employment of an auditor and purchasing agent.

idence on that point and announce his ruling simultaneously with the sentencing of Lewis.

Lewis' attorneys ended their defense abruptly after the court had admitted documentary evidence that the mine union leader declared last May 29 that his contract with the government, signed that day, settled all issues "for the period of government operation" of the coal mines.

This evidence was in the form of a newswire transcript. Over vigorous defense objections, Goldsborough also admitted a United Mine Workers brief, filed in another case, which contended that the government operates the mines in its role as "sovereign."

Federal attorneys have contended that the mine shutdown interferes with a "sovereign" function of the government. Lewis' counsel have argued that government operation of the mines is only a "token" affair—that mine owners are the actual operators.

Immediately after resting Lewis' case, Welly Hopkins, of defense counsel, moved to strike all government testimony on the ground that contempt of court was the only issue and that the government's testimony regarding United States sovereignty over the coal mines was immaterial.

The motion was denied by Goldsborough. Then Goldsborough asked whether the government had any arguments to make. Assistant Attorney General John F. Sonnett said the government had no arguments unless the defense presented some.

For the defense, AFL General Counsel Joseph A. Padway suggested a short adjournment in order to study a proposed verdict prepared by the government.

Taking a copy of the proposed finding with them, Lewis and his ten man squad of lawyers retired to the judge's library.

The startling defense move apparently was a last-minute decision, for two officials closely connected with the defense said last night that the union was considering putting Lewis on the stand.

Coal Producers Oust President

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3. (AP)—The Southern Coal Producers association today accepted the resignation of former Nebraska Senator Edward R. Burke as its president, less than a week after he proposed resumption of negotiations with John L. Lewis.

The board of directors of the association announced this action after a special meeting called by Burke to discuss the opposition of approximately one-third of the directors to his public declaration on Thanksgiving Day.

Burke had suggested a two weeks truce in the strike by the United Mine Workers, and proposed that the operators immediately sit down with Lewis in an effort to agree on a new contract and regain control of the government-operated soft coal mines seized during last spring's 59-day strike.

Stevenson May Fill Vacancies

AUSTIN, Dec. 3. (AP)—Gov. Coke Stevenson indicated today he intended to fill a number of vacancies in important appointive posts which occur near the end of his term, but he also said he was not going to be "obdurate" about the matter.

The governor added that if Governor-elect Beauford H. Jester has a good reason for wanting to fill a certain office, he would defer to him.

He made these responses to questions at his press conference. On Jan. 1, three places each become vacant on the boards of regents of the University of Texas, the A&M board of directors and the State Board of Education. On Jan. 20, one vacancy occurs on the State Board of Public Welfare.

Stevenson said that his chief function as governor now was "to hold the door open so the new governor could walk in."

"Are you going to appoint the University regents before you go out of office?" he was asked. "I haven't climbed that hill," Stevenson responded. He added that he had not talked with Jester about the matter but that he planned to in the next few days.

"Is there any custom about filling such vacancies?" "I haven't checked on it," Stevenson replied, "but I believe it has been done both ways. Personally I think the occupant of the office should occupy it until his term runs out. A term is a term."

How to buy a $400 television set for $300

We don't know exactly what 1956 television receivers will look like. But we do know that—if you see a snappy $400 job that suits your fancy—there's a way you can buy it for just $300! There's nothing shady about this deal. You'll actually pay $400 in cash... but only $300 comes out of your own pocket! The trick is turned by buying U. S. Savings Bonds regularly—preferably on a Payroll Savings Plan. For every $3 you put in, you get back $4 in ten years. If you put $300 in this year, you'll get back $400 in 1956. And that's how you buy a television set... or help a kid through college... or get yourself a cabin where the fishing's good. Millions of people—many who've never been able to save before—are buying Bonds on a Payroll Plan easily... automatically... painlessly. If you're one of them, keep it up. If not, start now on a Payroll Plan... or by buying Bonds regularly, through your bank or post office.

Loretta's Biceps Give Her Appeal

CHICAGO, Dec. 3. (AP)—Four year's ago Loretta Zygowicz, 23, said she was "tired of being a wall-flower and having colds all the time," so she started lifting weights.

Now, she says, she can toss her 220-pound brother over her head and lift a 330-pound weight from the floor with ease.

"I'm healthier, slimmer and have lots of boy friends," said Miss Zygowicz, who weighs 160 pounds. Her aim, she said, is to become the nation's strongest woman.

If you use an old-time coffee pot, tie the coffee loosely in a cheesecloth bag which serves as a filter, then put into just-below-boiling water and hold at the temperature about five minutes.
