HAUPTMANN IS GIVEN DEATH PENALTY BY JURORS

News Reel of North Plains Rabbit Drive To Be Filmed In Hansford County Sunday

Guymon, Texhoma, Spearman, Gruver, Morse, Sunray, Dalhart and Dumas Citizens Cooperating In North Panhandle Sports Affair Feb. 17.

NORTH PANHANDLE INVITED TO PARTICIPATE

Special Invitations Issued to Amarillo, Pampa, Borger, Dalhart, Perryton, White Deer, and Other North Panhandle Citizens.

A rabbit drive expected to be the largest ever staged in the North Panhandle of Texas, will be held by a representative of the News Reel Corporation on Sunday, February 17th, in the West corner of Hansford County, beginning at 11:00 A. M.

Those who have witnessed this combination plan state it is the most enjoyable and most successful yet tried. The real fun begins when the rabbits attempt to evade the net traps and litterly hundreds of them dart thru the line of hunters. Citizens with shot guns are allowed to shoot after the rabbits have broken through the line, and there is no danger. Witnesses say that few ever successfully evade the death that await them when they break through the line.

Visitors from Amarillo planning to attend the affair are advised to take the paved highway to Stratford and via Texhoma to J. Jones farm. Pampa, Borger, Panhandle, White Deer, Clarendon, and other visitors from points South and East are directed over the paved highway 88 via Panhandle to Borger via Spearman where they will be directed to the J. Jones farm.

Every effort has been made to plan out the sports event so that all may enjoy a good time. Visitors will be met as they come to the drive headquarters. Each will be issued a printed set of rules with a plan of the drive and will be assigned to a Captain, who will take them to their right location in trucks. Visitors will be delivered back to their cars at the completion of the drive. An ammunition truck will follow the lines of advance and those who exhaust their supplies can purchase at the regular retail rates right on the grounds.

Planning Board Complete Preliminary Request At Saturday Meeting

At a meeting of the local planning board, composed of representatives from Gruver, Morse and Spearman, which was held at the court house on Saturday of last week, many projects were presented by the various representatives and were approved by the board. The purpose of this meeting was to work out and make official application to the state for funds to carry out needed improvements in Hansford County, to be appropriated out of the future fund the state government will allot for this kind of work. These projects take in every civic or county need and will furnish employment for everyone in the county that needs it, and some of them would necessitate bringing outside labor and thus increase the county's buying public that much.

HONESTY IS NOT DEAD

Old Diogenes should have brought his lamp to Spearman this week and peeked into Burl's Cafe, he'd have found an honest man alright, in fact he'd have found a couple of them. The popular football machine at this place got out of commission so that it failed to register the downs and therefore would not cut off the supply of balls at the end of 4 downs. Well now, Bill Whitson and Rex Sanders were playing the game under this disgusting handicap, but Strange as it seems, they were actually keeping track of the downs and after playing 4 balls they would put in another nicker. On one occasion they succeeded in making 4 touchdowns to qualify for 2 free games and were just ready to make another, when Halfback Whitson broke loose for 40 yards and put the ball across. However the boys remembered that they had made the ignominious error of shooting an extra ball, so they put in another nicker and started over. Tsch! Tsch! This is so hard to believe that I may decide to enter in Honest Bill's lie contest.

Masons of Hansford County are Invited to Washington Birthday Celebration Here

All members of the Gruver A. F. and A. M. Lodge as well as Masons and their wives and families in Hansford and adjoining counties are invited to be the guests of the Masonic Lodge of Spearman at a George Washington Birthday Celebration and program to be held Friday night February 22nd.

Masons P. A. Lyon, Woodville Jarvis and W. R. Finley are in charge of the program, and promise an entertaining and instructive program. Charles Chambers and Homer Allen are in charge of food arrangements. Plans now call for members of the lodge preparing pies and cakes, and a sandwich will be served with coffee. Secretary Snider of the local organization asks that Masons get in touch with Mr. Allen and Mr. Chambers and find out what is to be assigned the individual member in preparing food.

HICKS MAKES RAID

Law and Order Wilbanks changed to wander into Spearman's domino parlor one day this week just as two local sports were completing an exciting game of dominoes. One of the men tossed the other one a nicker and they started another game. Hicks coughed a gentle warning and sat down to witness the sport. At the end of the game another nicker was passed and the sheriff cleared his throat emphatically a couple of times. Another game and the same thing happened so Hicks asked them, "Are you boys gambling?" They assured him they were not, but with the next offense, our county protector became extremely plucked at this apparent disregard for his position as an upholder of law and justice in these parts so he exploded, "It looks to me like you boys are gambling, and you know that I can't put up with that sort of thing." So the culprits hurriedly explained that the business procedure of the place had changed so that they paid for every game as it was played instead of paying rental dues as heretofore.

Carpenter Weak And Tottering as He Learns Doom

FLEMINGTON, N. J., Feb. 13 Bruno Hauptmann must die in the electric chair unless an appeal to higher courts is successful.

The jury's verdict of guilty with no recommendation for mercy means that Justice Thomas W. Trenchard must pronounce the death sentence on Hauptmann. Had the jury recommended mercy a sentence of life imprisonment would have been mandatory.

When the justice does pronounce the death penalty he must under the law, set the time of death not sooner than four weeks, nor later than eight weeks from that time. He sets the week, not the day, when the sentence is to be carried out.

No matter what steps are taken by the defense in seeking a stay of sentence or filing an appeal, Hauptmann will be taken to the state prison at Trenton within a week or ten days. There he will remain while his defense endeavors to save him.

If his defense fails, he will be put to death in the electric chair at the prison. Hauptmann today was convicted of the murder of the Lindbergh baby during its kidnaping three years ago with death in the electric chair the penalty.

The jury of eight men and 4 women deliberated 11 hours and 6 minutes before it returned its verdict of death.

The jury was polled separately and all answered "Guilty of murder in first degree."

The jury rose and Hauptmann rose to face them. "Gentlemen of the jury have you reached a verdict," the clerk asked.

"We have," they chorused tremulously. "Who shall speak for you?" "The Foreman."

Walton, his hands trembling greatly, unfolded a rustling paper. Hauptmann stood up as the jurors rendered their verdict.

Wilentz moved for immediate sentence and Trenchard said: "The court will soon proceed to impose sentence."

"Guilty," Walton called, guilty of murder in the first degree." The silence was awful, until Reilly asked the jury be polled.

Trenchard set the week of Mar. 18 for death of Bruno Richard Hauptmann.

"So say you all of you?" asked Fell. An assenting murmur went thru the jurors.

Hauptmann stood while the verdict was delivered and the jury polled at Reilly's request.

The jurors answered the poll in quivering voices, most with an obvious great effort.

"The defendant may stand," Justice Trenchard said.

Hauptmann, straight as a soldier, stood between his guards." Bruno Richard Hauptmann," he pronounced, you have been convicted of murder in the first degree and according to law you must suffer the penalty of death at the time fixed by the court."

Hauptmann was still standing between his two guards as Justice Trenchard said "All those who wish to leave the court room may do so at once."

Ann Hauptmann who has stood by her husband through the long months of his incarceration, took the verdict and its automatic sentence with barely a quiver.

As each of the jurors responded to the poll with the dull fearful words, Mrs. Hauptmann steeled herself.

Those sitting next to her tried to comfort her with reassuring whispers and pressure on her arm. She seemed to hear and see nothing.

suggested the state police provide escorts for the jurors to their homes.

Justice Trenchard approved the suggestion.

Mrs. Hauptmann, her eyes accusingly fixed on the jurors as they filed out. Her expression was one of incredulity.

As the jurors filed out they looked weary.

They were led by the constables and state troopers across the street to the Union Hotel where they spent the night.

Mrs. Hauptmann began to cry. She reached for her bag and dabbed her eyes with a handkerchief.

Hauptmann was led into the courtroom at 10:30 p. m.

Mrs. Hauptmann arrived a few moments later.

The defendant was pale and he shuffled along between his guards without the snappy walk he had effected previously.

Hauptmann took his customary Hundreds of persons thronged Main street in front of the courthouse, flares set off by photographers threw a blinding light over the persons and outlined the courthouse plainly.

The jury of eight men and four women spent exactly 11 hours and 6 minutes in a bare room of the old courthouse where Hauptmann had been on trial since January 2 before they reached their verdict.

Anna Hauptmann, tears rolling down her cheeks as her husband went silently back to his cell, cried "There is nothing left for me." But she dried her eyes as she pushed through the thronged courtroom and left by a rear door. "I am not afraid," she said. "I still hope."

PLANS BEING MADE FOR 4H SHOW HERE SATURDAY MARCH 2

Under the supervision of County Agent Lester Boykin, and sponsored by the Spearman Lions club, plans for the big 4H boys exhibition to be held at Spearman Saturday March 2nd, are progressing nicely.

Oscar Reimer one of the two boys of the county feeding steers for the Amarillo show March 4th, reports that he is delighted at the encouragement from Spearman business men, and he feels that several boys will enter various 4H contests next year as result of the local encouragement.

The six steers which will be entered in the annual Amarillo stock show, will be exhibited in Spearman Saturday March 2nd, just before the merchants gift program. The steers will be "placed" by a competent judge, and prizes awarded to the boys according to the placing.

International Sunday School Lesson

Sunday School Lesson for Feb. 17.

General Topic:
Peter Teaches Good Citizenship
Scripture Lesson:
1 Peter 2:11-17; 4:1-5.

11. Beloved, I beseech you as sojourners and pilgrims, to abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul;

12. Having your behavior seemly among the Gentiles; that, wherein they speak against you as evildoers, they may by your good works, which they behold, glorify God in the day of visitation.

13. Be subject to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake: whether to the king, as supreme; 14. Or unto governors, as sent by him for vengeance on evildoers and for praise to them that do well.

15. For so is the will of God, that by well-doing ye should put to silence the ignorance of foolish men:

16. As free and not using your freedom for a cloak of wickedness, but as bond-servants of God. 17. Honor all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the king.

1 Peter 4:1. Forasmuch then as Christ suffered in the flesh, arm ye yourselves also with the same mind; for he that suffered in the flesh hath ceased from sin.

2. That ye no longer should live the rest of your time in the flesh to the lusts of men but to the will of God.

3. For the time past may suffice to have wrought the desire of the Gentiles, and to have walked in revellings, and abominable idolatries:

4. Wherein they think it strange that ye run not with them into the same excess of riot, speaking evil of you.

5. Who shall give account to him that is ready to judge the living and the dead.

Golden Text: Love worketh no ill to his neighbor: love therefore is the fulfillment of the law. — Romans 13:10.

INTRODUCTION

Peter is writing during or soon after the great persecution of the year 64 A. D. Silvanus had come to bring him tidings that the churches of Asia Minor were being exposed to a fiery trial of persecution (4:12). Especially at this time were they accused of being evildoers, of preaching revolutionary doctrines (2:15,16). The very name of Christian exposed them to odium and outrage (4:16).

To be a good all-around citizen is never simple and easy; especially not if one tries at the same time to be a good Christian. All the more complicated and trying then the problem of these disciples of Asia Minor—to live true to Christ and true to their duties as citizens. This epistle then is a message of counsel, good, sound, advice, mingled with comforting words and reassurance—a great Christian, man of faith, speaking to his brethren in Christ.

"Sojourners and Pilgrims," v. 11.

Peter addresses his readers as "sojourners and pilgrims," v. 11, and exhorts them, since that is what they are, "to abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul." True, they are living in a sinful, cruel world, but only temporarily as "sojourners and pilgrims," not as permanent citizens. They are in the world, but not of the world. Their real citizenship is in heaven (cf. Phil. 3:20). Moreover, they well know in how low esteem they are held by the Gentile world. The only way, therefore, for them to make headway as Christians is to see that their professions are backed up by their lives. Already they are called "evil doers." The greatest power to be used in breaking down this impression is the purity of their lives. To prove the reality of the faith which they profess they must with every precaution "abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul."

Obedience To Government, v. 13

"Be subject to every ordinance of man." The word translated "ordinance" is "used ordinarily in many senses, e. g., of peopling a country, of founding a city, of setting up games, feasts, altar etc. In Biblical Greek and its descendants it is appropriated to creation. Here it is apparently selected as the most comprehensive word available. It refers to all human institutions, which man set up with the object of maintaining the world which God created."—J. H. A. Hart, "For the Lord's sake." "Not because the Lord ordains a Caesar, but because the Lord's lift was one of obedience, because he himself showed respect to Pilate, and because he commanded his people to obey (Matt. 22:21)."—Charles Bigg. Also, no doubt so as not to bring dishonor on the name of Christ.

Duty to Man and God, v. 17

"Honor all men." "The fact that there were in every man traces of the image of God after which he had been created and infinite undeveloped capacities which might issue in the restoration of that image to its original brightness, was in itself a reason for treating all, even the vilest and most degraded, with some measure of respect. It is obvious that the command is perfectly consistent with showing degrees of honor according to the variations in men's character and position. It would almost seem as if the Apostle chose the most terse and epigrammatic form for the great laws of conduct that their very brevity might impress them indelibly on the minds of his readers."—E. H. Plumpire, "Love the brotherhood." "There is, as far as it appears, no case where a fellow-man, as man, is called 'a brother' in the New Testament. Such passages as Matt. 5:22ff., Luke 6:41ff., presuppose a special bond of 'brotherhood.'"—B. F. Westcott. "Fear God." "Love persuades a man purely for the goodness and loveliness of God, to fear to offend him, though there were no interest at all in it of a man's own personal misery or happiness."

Behaviour of the Good Citizen
First of all, the good citizen behaves, in the ordinary sense of that term. He gives heed to his manner of life. He lives in an upright life before the world. He "conducts himself properly." His behavior is seemly; it is honest; it is above reproach. And his behavior which is primarily a personal matter is nevertheless a means of influence upon others. His behavior must appear seemly unto others. And, therefore, his manner of life before unbelievers, even heathen and Gentiles, to use the nomenclature of the Apostle, must be influenced by it. So the good citizen not only does right for right's sake and behaves seemly for his own sake, but also he makes it a point to regard his manner of life and takes heed to it for the good of others who may observe him and also for the glory of God. The good citizen may expect criticism, even when he does do good out of a good motive and the fruits of his conduct are altogether good for himself and for his fellow man. He may censure from those who are

RULES

By ANNE CAMPBELL

IT WAS because of rules he had to go away from all he cherished. . . . On the street.

He looked back to the ward and saw the glow of lamps. . . . He could not help it if his feet would drag a bit, as, climbing on a bus.

He rode in silence, almost ominous.

He thought of rules the whole way to the rooms.

Her presence had made sweet. . . . The hospital.

Must have them, I suppose. . . . A man presumes.

But after all, there was his child, his wife—

All that he held most precious in this life.

But when he washed his work-grimed hands and lay alone within their bed, he thought again.

Of the not very distant, happy day when rules to separate them would be vain.

Smiling, he thought (Queer how a grin can smart!):

"No rules can keep her image from my heart!"

not likewise good.

Gold in the Golden Text

Love worketh no ill to his neighbor: love therefore is the fulfillment of the law (Romans 13:10).

Love works. Of course, it does. Whoever heard of idle love? And it works good, or what it believes to be good. At all events, it does or designs no ill. And its wave of helpfulness strikes the neighbor first. Thence it widens out to all the world.

Love fulfills. It is easy for love to be law-abiding. But the lawless are the lawless. It is hate that is laid low by the lightnings of the law. Love summarizes the Decalogue. Love inspires every duty to God and man.

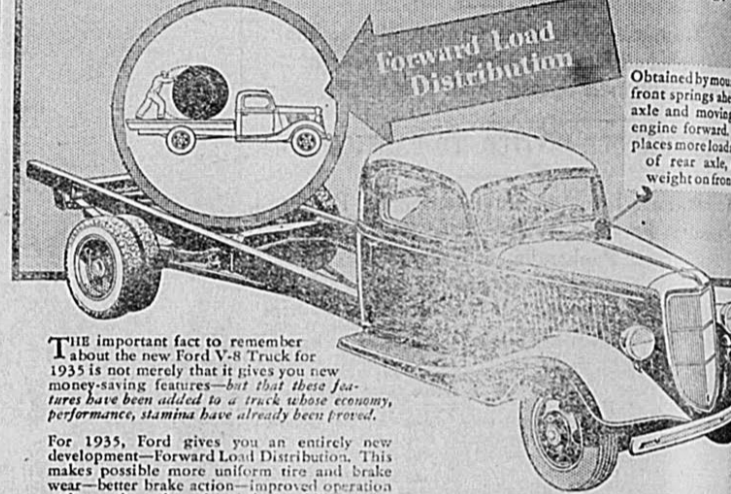

Our attitude toward God is not that of a slavish fear which cringes like a coward before a mighty potentate. On the contrary it is a becoming awe and respect which fosters a spirit of true reverence.

So the imperative may be stated: "Reverence God, reverent to God."

FORD PRESENTS ANOTHER ADVANCE IN TRUCK ENGINEERING

Obtained by mounting front springs ahead of axle and moving engine forward. This places more load on rear axle, less weight on front.

THE important fact to remember about the new Ford V-8 Truck for 1935 is not merely that it gives you new money-saving features—but that these features have been added to a truck whose economy, performance, stamina have already been proved.

For 1935, Ford gives you an entirely new development—Forward Load Distribution. This makes possible more uniform tire and brake wear—better brake action—improved operation and wear throughout the truck. In addition, with more space between the cab and rear axle, the 1935 Ford V-8 permits acute angle turns with full-width semi-trailers.

No matter how efficiently you are now doing your hauling, these and the other features of the 1935 Ford V-8 are important advantages to consider. They are matched by no other truck in America today, regardless of price.

VICK'S VAPORUB
 PROVED BY 2 GENERATIONS

OUR congressmen are a loquacious lot, and their speeches delivered on the floor and "extended" in the Record, together with the thousands of bills they introduce, keep the great government printing office exceedingly busy. The men in this picture are working on the Congressional Record, and as the session proceeds their labor grows heavier.

Kirk. It is a new and spicy, witty and serious all in the same program. A very small admission, adults, 10c, children 5c, will be charged to cover expense of books and lights. The first play is a comedy, "Two of a Kind." The characters in order of appearance: Rebecca Rhubarb, mother of Arminta, Mrs. C. A. Batton; Keturah Mellon, sister of Rebecca, Miss Vera Helen Ottaway; Arminta Rhubarb daughter of Rebecca, Mrs. Chas. Rosson. Parsley Endive, village professor, Philip Jenkins; Jos-buay Buckley, gold miner, O. C. Holt.

The second play will be "The Getaway." Characters are: James Hoardley, a crook, Chas. Rosson; Barbara Hoardley, his wife, Mrs. Owen Pendergraft. Calvert Farrel, a Westerner, Dewey Thompson; Policeman, J. B. Patterson. The third play will be "The Balty Courtship." Characters are: Ira Beasley, publisher of "The Turkeyfoot Herald," Owen Pendergraft; Elmer Cook, compositor and proof reader, Buster Kirk; Roney Reynolds, society editor, Flodell Batton.

There will several special numbers in between acts. Everyone is invited to come out Friday night and bring someone with you.

More Than $46,000.00 State and County Tax Collected In This Co.

More than $46,000.00 state and county taxes have been collected today according to information from H. L. Wilbanks, Tax Collector. This collection represents 56 per cent of the 1934 tax rolls. The officials at the tax collectors office estimate that 73 per cent of the 1934 taxes will be collected before they become delinquent. The basis of this figure is on the half payments on taxes previously made in the county. Delinquent taxes in the county largely represent taxes levied on city property at Gruver, Spearman and Morse. Very little farm property is delinquent at this time.

THROUGH A Woman's Eyes By JEAN NEWTON MORE EMPHASIS ON FACE

BECAUSE he shared responsibility for the emperor's party taking a wrong turn in their trip through a city which received a royal visit, a police inspector in Japan attempted to commit suicide. Death was preferable to the disgrace that would descend upon the unfortunate blunderer and his family and all his relatives. For by his mistake this man had "lost face." And in Japan to lose face is a far worse thing than to lose material possessions.

In China, too, it is a not uncommon occurrence for people to take their own lives for reasons of far less importance than causing the car of the emperor to take a wrong turn. However, they are mistakes which cause the person to lose face—that is the important thing. To lose face is to lose dignity and the respect of others. And what then, say these sons of an ancient culture, is there left?

"A good bank account," would be the rejoinder of some American politicians—and everything that will buy, which includes about all one wants."

It seems to me that the onus there is not alone on the man or woman who exemplifies that philosophy—as for instance a well-known New York mayor who with honor and reputation besmirched still has a very good time on the surviving bank account—that the onus is on the viewpoint of the vast numbers of people who make possible that good time. For no one can enjoy life who is ostracized by his fellows. And in China and Japan a man or woman who had lost reputation, honor, dignity, would be ostracized, regardless of how much of the world's goods remained with them.

The western slogan that "money is power," and the penchant for winking an eye where an offender has that power, is important not only in such matters as discredited officials and the absconding rich. It is significant all the way down the line to the daily actions of average people. There is that emphasis on getting what one wants, without too much thought on how one gets it. In social as well as business matters, women are guilty of little tricks to attain their ends, so they undoubtedly "lose face," but they seem indifferent to this as long as their end is attained.

I am not promoting the idea of suicide for lost dignity. But I believe our standards of life would be very much improved by placing more value on what in the East is called "face" and less on getting the things we want.

DON'T NAME IT

By HONEST BILL

Don't forget there may be a dollar bill hidden in the classified section of this issue of the Spearman Reporter. You had better turn to the classified section right now and see if you can find the character. If you locate it and draw a pencil mark around it presenting the copy of the paper to the Reporter management—you will be given a dollar bill.

I don't know how all us rabbit hunters are going to handle the situation Sunday. We shore ought not to attend a rabbit drive on the Sabbath day at all, and about the only way I can figure it out is for us all to attend Sunday school and church, donate about $5.00 each to ease our conscience, then go to the drive in the afternoon, getting back home in time for the night services. The boys in charge of the drive said they hated to stage it on Sunday, but it seems this is the only day a large crowd will work through the week will attend.

ATTENTION NEIGHBORS

Edgar Womble, Bob Archer, Bill McClellan et al. If I could not raise a big enough garden to furnish my family with plenty of vegetables and my own and our neighbors chickens with a dandy good grazing ground I positively would not attempt to garden. I have spent many hours of my life worrying about what my chickens were doing to my neighbors flowers and garden. Since I have moved into a new neighborhood, I want it distinctly understood that I don't give a darn how many of your chickens or dogs or cats come over to my house and graze around on anything that is growing. I like dogs and cats and am especially fond of chickens, and you will never hear me gripe a bit about your pets visiting the Miller's Gigantic Irrigated Garden and White Plymouth Rocks Chicken Ranch.

—Got my large irrigation garden all plowed and ready to catch the moisture before the quarter of an inch rain Wednesday night. Now I want some of my friends to tell me what to plant right a - way. I'm anxious to get a good start on Mayor Cooke. Pa Hale, you had better call a meeting of the Advisory board so I can get a good start on this gardening.

I'm plumb disappointed that the wimmen don't take advantage of the special subscription offer and get the Reporter 15 months for $1.25 and secure their husbands a package of 25 razor blades free of charge. Mrs. Ed Church is the only woman in the County who came in last week to take advantage of the Special offer. I was advised before I started this campaign that the wimmen did all the buying in Hansford County, and that any premium that I wanted to give away should be one that would appeal to the ladies. I maintained that we have unselfish wimmen in this county that are just as interested in securing hubby a batch of razor blades as they would be in getting a premium for themselves. That's my story and I'm a gona stick to it.

In the mean time here's my thanks to Clay and Pope Gibner, Tom Johnson, "Burl Brockus, C. E. Campbell, R. E. Burran, Floyd Mitts, F. C. Sumrall, J. M. Cates, F. L. McClelland, P. A. Lyon, Bill McClelland and the six subscribers who live out of Hansford county, for renewing their subscription during the past week. Don't forget you will never have a better opportunity in this section of the country to get your home paper at these BARGAIN RATES.

We still have a chance to win the highschool basketball championship in this section. We do not even have a ghost of a chance to lose a game in the independent basketball league. The Eagle team has been playing basketball all this season and have not lost a game yet.

Be prepared for a real show in Spearman Saturday March 2nd, when Hansford county 4H boys show in Spearman. Believe you will enjoy it. . . . More about it next week—and Amarillo, you are going to see some prize winners when we reach the stock show March 4th.

LYNX AND LYNXETES WIN FROM MORSE

Tuesday night, February 12, the Lynx played the Morse Mustangs an interesting game on the Morse court. The Morse boys held a lead of four or five points at the end of the game until the last three or four minutes of play; when the Lynx scored four points which put them one point ahead. The score was 19-18 in favor of Spearman.

PHYSICS CLASS NEWS

The Physics class has been making some interesting experiments recently. Believe it or not; they have been working extremely hard for the past three weeks, partly due to the shortage of teachers before Christmas and partly because the State Supervisor always comes snooping around once in a while in every school. Anyway they were mighty glad to have Mr. Dickson visit them and they hope he has the best of reports to send back.

SPEARMAN TEACHERS ATTEND DELTA KAPPA GAMMA MEETING

Mrs. J. C. Tuttle, Miss Lucille Maize and Miss Ethel Deakin attended a meeting of the Delta Kappa Gamma Society in Pampa Saturday. Miss Deakin discussed "Texas School Laws" at this meeting and all report a very enjoyable time.

SEVENTH GRADE NEWS

Four of the girls in our class are to be characters in a play put on for the P. T. A. They say it is going to be good and that all should attend. In English we are studying participles and infinitives this week. We have begun practicing for our declamations with Miss Pearson helping us. All but five of the ten who entered in arithmetic have dropped out; we who are still working intend to do our best.

THIRD GRADE

We are very glad to report that most of our pupils are all back in school now. Many of them have been absent several days because of flu. We are working very hard now. This week we are studying about Abraham Lincoln. We are also studying letter writing. We wish to thank our room mothers, Mrs. Bill Hutton and Mrs. Dick Kiker for the pretty Valentine box they gave us.

WORK BEGINS ON ONE ACT PLAY

Mother's Day, a one act play written by Mart McMillan, has been selected for one of our contest plays at the Interscholastic League in March. Miss Deakin has been trying out members of the cast and hopes to begin practice in earnest in the next few days.

DEBATING NEWS

We debators are progressing nicely on our speeches and briefs. We plan to have all speeches finished by this week-end. Doc. Word and Prof Reinertsen have been coaching debates and we think they are good coaches. The boys debating team is Robert Douglas and Richard Holton. The girls who are debating are Doris Kirk and Lois Blackburn. Wish us luck, everyone, because we are out for victories.

JUNIOR CLASS NEWS

Our three weeks exams are over and we are studying real hard so that we will make good on our six-weeks exams. Those pupils having an "A" average for the semester are Ina Mackie, Alma Johnson and Helen Jenkins. Those having a "B" average are Rodney Hammond, Lois Blackburn, Doil Howerton, Gladia Caldwell. We are sorry to report that Violet Hanners is ill at this writing and we hope she will be back to school soon. In English III class we Juniors are studying American Literature. We find it very interesting.

THE MAJOR BATON SENIOR NOTES

On Tuesday, February 12, the Major Baton met with Mary Brandt. Every member, including the new members, was present. After the old business had been discussed, the new business was taken up. At the next meeting the Senior Music Club will be entertained. The following program was heard with Geraldine Boland as leader: The Music of Germany, Beth Wilbanks; German Folk Dance, Doris Kirk and Geraldine Boland. The following members answered roll call: Doris Kirk, Ruth Wilbanks, Elsie Reed, Gertrude Barkley, Alma Johnson, Beth Wilbanks, Dorothy Main, Ruth Buchanan, Dorothy Jo Benton, Miss Vera Lawrence, Miss Lucille Maize and the Hostess, Mary Brandt.

FRESHMAN NEWS

Tes's have been falling so thick and fast on the freshmen, we hardly know which way to turn. Congratulations to the person who honored us by writing a poem to express our feelings, "The Freshman Musing." That expresses our sentiments exactly. We have with us again an old classmate who has moved back, Hazel Thorne. The freshmen were well represented in the boxing matches held in between games at the tournament held Saturday. You really sock hard when you get wrought up—don't you R. E.

SENIOR NOTES

Our lessons are like Tennyson's Brook, they go on forever. The majority of the English IV class met their Waterloo in the lesson on verbals in our work books. Believe it or not, more work books arrived this week. We received both our Occupation and Economics work books. The Occupation work book consists mainly of personal opinions and might aid in getting some "inside dope" on some pupil's ideas. We are having tryouts in typing to determine which students will represent this school at the county meet. We have begun practice on our one act play. The debaters and declaimers have begun work, also. Adalyn Daugherty has been absent for several days. Down payments of the diplomas are now in order. The engraving company has agreed to give a refund to all diplomas not used. Some of us may have a rebate. We are seriously considering an application for R. F. C. funds to finance our graduation. We have decided to rent our caps and gowns from Perryton again this year. The bright spot this week is the rain. May it continue! It would be a pleasure to come to school in a boat.

Our prospective homemakers should know that the American game with them. The Lynxettes played good basketball and held the lead all during the game, but gave the game to Borger before it ended. The Lynx had hard luck, and due to not having practiced together for about a week did not play their usual type of basketball. The whole squad played at some time during the game. The Borger Bulldogs won by a decisive score.

ment that if a visitor from Mars or from some part of the universe, were at the schools of his time, he would be led to believe that all the boys and girls therein were doomed to be bachelors and spinsters, because nothing at all concerning home making was taught to them. Our schools have changed considerably since Spencer's time in this respect, but the changes have not been great and fundamental enough. Not nearly enough time is given to instruction designed to prepare our youth for this, their most important task and much of what is given is not the most essential. It is evident that we cannot teach everything about life to our young people. Some things must be left to experience, and still others must be left to be taught later on when the need arises. But there are some things which we can teach to young people which we believe will be of great benefit to them in later life. For instance, we should teach that marriage and the experiences of homemaking are necessary for the development of a well rounded personality. From the national or social viewpoint we should teach our young people that the home is still the most important social institution. No river can rise higher than its source, and no nation can have a higher moral life than that which characterizes its homes. National standards are simply home standards on a larger scale. Our prospective homemakers should know that the American best people. Really, most physically are not bearing enough children to maintain their own numbers, while the less desirable of our citizenry multiply very rapidly is a matter of very great concern to all those who possess any social vision. We should develop in our boys and girls a keen appreciation of the importance of sound personality, including physical and mental health. Our young people should understand the practical operation of the laws of heredity, the old saying that one marries the girl and not the family is wrong. We should teach that marriage is a serious business, not a pleasure or a burden. We should teach also that marriage and homemaking present a real challenge and demand all the intelligence, talent and education any normal person possesses. And lastly, we must somehow teach our young people that we must pay for everything valuable that we get. If we wish a happy, full middle and old age we must pay for it when we're young. Walter pitkin in his book, "Life Begins at Forty," is forced to admit that in order for life after forty to be what he pictures so glowingly, the preparation must be made before one is forty. HOLT NEWS

Sunday school was attended by very good crowd Sunday afternoon. Bro. H. A. Nichols, pastor of the Methodist church in Spearman, filled his regular appointment Sunday afternoon after Sunday school. We hope that the ones who were absent Sunday will be out next Sunday and bring someone with you. Mrs. Nichols headed Sunday school and church with the preacher. The school is progressing nicely with a good attendance and high good interest. We had two students last week. They are Georgia and Bonnie Lee Thompson of Mangum, Okla. Mr. and Mrs. Owen Pendergraft gave a birthday dinner Sunday in honor of Mrs. Chas. Rosson and her daughter. The room was beautifully decorated in colors of St. Valentine and the beautiful birthday cake was decorated with St. Valentine's colors. This splendid dinner was enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Rosson, Cecil Kirk, Miss Vera Helen Ottaway and Mr. and Mrs. Owen Pendergraft. The many relatives and friends of Mrs. Tom Rosson were grieved by her illness and operation and hope she will soon have completely recovered. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Jones motored to Pampa Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Claude Jackson and daughter Ella Rose motored to Amarillo Wednesday to see Ella Rose's head treated. The doctor said that another operation would be necessary. They decided to consult another doctor, Dr.

Fowler Border of Mangum, Okla., who also advised another operation. Ella Rose underwent the sixth operation for mastoid Friday morning at the Borger & McGregor hospital in Mangum. She has been a resident of this community most of her life, but goes to school in Spearman. Her first operation was less than a year ago. Her many friends here and at Spearman will be glad to hear that she stood the operation fine and is reported doing as well as could be expected. We all hope her speedy recovery. Miss Vera Helen Ottaway, teacher of the Holt school, sends a special invitation to all the patrons to come out to her Valentine party at the school house Thursday afternoon at 2:30. Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Jameson returned home Thursday afternoon, after several weeks' visit in St. Pedro, California, being called there by the death of Mrs. Jameson's father. Everyone is glad to have them back home again, especially the club women. Mrs. Jameson is president of the Holt home demonstration club. Messrs. Herbert Stephen and Mason Scott made a business trip to Mobeetie Thursday morning and was a Thursday night guest of Herbert's cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Stracner. They returned home Friday afternoon. Miss Lucille Chance of Borger, met with the 4-H club at the school house Friday morning. Mrs. Dan Burleson had as her Friday dinner guest, Miss Lucille Chance of Borger. Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Holt are back home from Kansas City, where Mr. Holt has been a patient in a hospital for several days. He is reported as some improved in health at this writing. Bob Thompson returned home last Sunday night from several days visit with relatives in Mangum, Oklahoma. Everyone was proud to hear that Mrs. Herbert Stephen drew the $20 at the merchant's drawing in Spearman Saturday. Mr. Whittington of Amarillo was a Friday guest of R. C. Stewart. Mr. and Mrs. Troy Bullin and Mrs. Anna Robinson of Erick, Oklahoma were Tuesday guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Stewart. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Rosson and Mr. and Mrs. Owen Pendergraft were shopping in Spearman Saturday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Dan Jackson and daughter were shopping in Spearman Saturday afternoon. Guy Stewart of near Spearman is a guest this week in the R. C. Stewart home. Dan Burleson and Russell Baker attended court at Stinnett Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Jackson spent last week with their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Carter Crawford, in Borger, while Mrs. Jackson was having some dental work done. Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Thompson and daughters, Misses Georgia and Bonnie Lee, moved back to their farm in this community last week after a year's absence spent at Mangum, Oklahoma. They have many relatives and friends here who are glad they have returned.

Mrs. R. C. Stewart and son Dwayne left Wednesday for Erick Okla., for a visit in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Bullin. Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Davis motored over to Morse Sunday morning to visit his brother, Mr. and Mrs. Boss Davis and to see their son, Henry Davis, who was brought home Friday from a hospital Temple, where he received treatment for tumor. He is reported as improving at this time. Miss Ruby Lee was a Saturday night guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ferrel Lee. Mr. and Mrs. Mason Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Stephen were shopping in Spearman Saturday afternoon and also attending the drawing. W. H. Jackson and son Merrill made a business trip to Spearman Saturday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Mose Lamb and two daughters, Joyce and Ruth, were Spearman visitors Saturday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Jameson were Amarillo visitors Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Jones were shopping in Spearman Saturday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. John Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Medlin Patterson and Mrs. Clyde Thompson motored over to Borger Thursday to visit Mrs. Campbell's and Mrs. Thompson's mother, Mrs. D. A. Jackson, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carter Crawford. Mrs. Dan Burleson and children were shopping in Spearman Saturday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lee and daughter Miss Ruby, were shopping in Spearman Saturday afternoon. Mrs. M. M. Smith, Mrs. Charlie Davis, Mrs. C. A. Batton, Mrs. Etha McCaskey and son Bobby, were shopping in Borger Monday morning. Herbert Stephen left Tuesday morning for Plainview with Bro. A. F. Loftin and some others of Spearman, who will spend this week in a training school there. Mrs. Willis Lackey and Mrs. Major Lackey attended council meeting in Stinnett Saturday morning. Mrs. Clyde Thompson has been on the sick list for the past few days. Mrs. J. B. Patterson is still on the sick list.

BLODGETT NEWS

Mrs. L. W. Austin and children, Mrs. Ralph Blodgett, Mrs. J. M. Blodgett and Ralph were Perryton visitors Saturday. They attended council while there. Mr. and Mrs. Jake Haun visited the E. S. Uptergrove family Sunday. Mrs. J. M. Blodgett and Mrs. John Kenney were Thursday dinner guests of Mrs. Frank Dressin. Mrs. Ralph Blodgett and Miss Marie Ludwig, Ochltree home demonstration agent, went to Amarillo Monday to attend a Reporter school. We are glad Dean Church is back in school this week. Earl Church is still on the sick list. J. C. Johnson of Amarillo was a caller in the John Kenney home Thursday of last week. Ed Brainard is freighting a car of cake this week. Clyde Harbour was a guest of

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Archer last week. Sam Powell, who has been visiting in the Rio Grande valley for a few weeks returned home Saturday. He reports an enjoyable trip. Mr. and Mrs. Mearl Beck and Otie Gowen went with Frank Hardin to Sulphur Springs, Texas, last Thursday and returned Saturday. Mearl and Frank transacted business in Fort Worth and Mrs. Beck visited her relatives near Sulphur Springs.

OLD AGE PENSIONS

Without attempting to pass upon the merits or otherwise off the bill which has been introduced by Senator Wagner of New York and Representative Lewis of Maryland, providing for a national system of old age pensions, we believe that the great majority of Americans are in hearty agreement with the fundamental principles involved.

We know of nobody who is not in favor of some effective system of providing for those whom in old age, are unable to support themselves in decent comfort, in food and shelter.

We believe that the plan of building up, during an individual's working life, a fund to which the worker the employer and perhaps the State are contributors, which will provide an annuity for old age, is the soundest possible way of accomplishing this end. It removes completely any possible stigma of pauperism, which is inevitably attached to gratuitous grants of unearned benefits.

As to what the amount of such pensions should be, and whether the compulsory retirement age should be 60, 65 or 70 years, there is a great diversity of opinion

There is much to be said for the voluntary annuity system proposed for the "self-employed," whereby the farmer, the doctor, the lawyer or anyone else who is not attached to a payroll, can place a small part of his or her income in trust with the Government, from year to year, to accumulate until the retiring age is reached, when an income for life may then be derived from the accumulated fund. We understand such a system has been employed in England for more than two hundred years.

To the hopeful elderly person who have been looking forward to immediate old age pension checks from the Government, the bill as introduced offers little solace. Provision is made for joint state and Federal relief for those who are practically destitute, but the age at which this relief shall begin may be as high as 70 years. This does not bring much comfort to those in their sixties who have been led to believe there was a chance of getting $200 a month now.

At any rate, the Wagner-Lewis bill is a start toward a goal at which the nation, sooner or later, must arrive.

THE BOOK

... the first line of which reads, "The Holy Bible," and which contains Four Great Treasures

And Joseph was brought down to Egypt; and Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh, captain of the guard, bought him of the hands of the Ishmaelites,...

And Joseph found grace in his sight, and he served him; and he (Potiphar) made him overseer over his house, and all that he had.

And it came to pass after these things, that his masters wife cast her eye upon Joseph; and she said, Lie with me. . . and he fled.

The illicit love of Potiphar's wife and her revenge when the young overseer refused to betray the trust to his master, is the most widely remembered episode in Joseph's career. It has been the theme of plays and novels, and the cynical writers of all ages have scoffed at the young man's scruples and by their scoffing condemned themselves. For the story of Joseph is the finest in the Old Testament.

many colors, the same cometh," they sneered at them and they into a pit, and smearing the spot with the blood of a kid took it home to their sorrowing father with a lie.

A commonplace age is always suspicious of dreamers. But what continent was ever opened, what railway built, what great discovery made, without their help?

He whom a dream hath possessed treads the invincible marches. From the dust of the day's long road he leaps to a laughing star; And the ruin of worlds that fall he views from celestial arches, And rides God's battlefield in a golden and shining car.

The dreamer may ride in the golden car at the end, as the poets inform us, but he treads a long hard path in the beginning. The Ishmaelites bought Joseph when his brothers removed him from the pit into which they had cast him, and he tramped beside their camels down the dusty trail into Egypt. By sheer brains and force of character he won his way into Potiphars employ:

And he (Potiphar) left all that he had in Joseph's hand, and he knew not aught he had, save the bread which he did eat.

Joseph's life stretched out before him with the fine promise of success when the passion intervened, and evil days decended. "Behold the dreamer cometh"; unlock the prison door and let clang behind him.

In prison who remembered him? Potiphar's wife, perhaps, with a sinister smile at his scruples. His guilty brothers, like enough, with a lessening prick of conscience until they almost persuaded themselves they had forgotten. But the people whom he had benefited did not remember him.

THE HUMAN SKIN

This wonderful envelope for our bodies, it seems to me, with its seven layers is second in importance only to the brain. And, like the poor "we have it always with us".

A young doctor, explaining why he had selected skin diseases for his specialty, is reported to have said "well, skin patients never require night visits; they never die and they never get well." Those with experience can testify to his accuracy.

I wish I had the space and time to say all I would about the skin, but, I am limited to only gross statements here. The skin is full of holes millions of them which should never be plugged up on prolonged occasion; keep the pores open for a healthy skin.

The best agent for maintaining a healthy skin is Pure Water with the addition of mild soap. People spend hundreds of dollars for chemicals supposed to be skin food. The best skin food comes from our daily dietary.

A good bath tub and a course towel are the very best friends of man when properly used. The skin is not hard to care for, if we but use common sense with practical judgement. Soda is a good bathing salt as is boric acid; both should be kept in every household. Very few skin remedies will be needed if the surface of the body is kept in good sanitary condition.

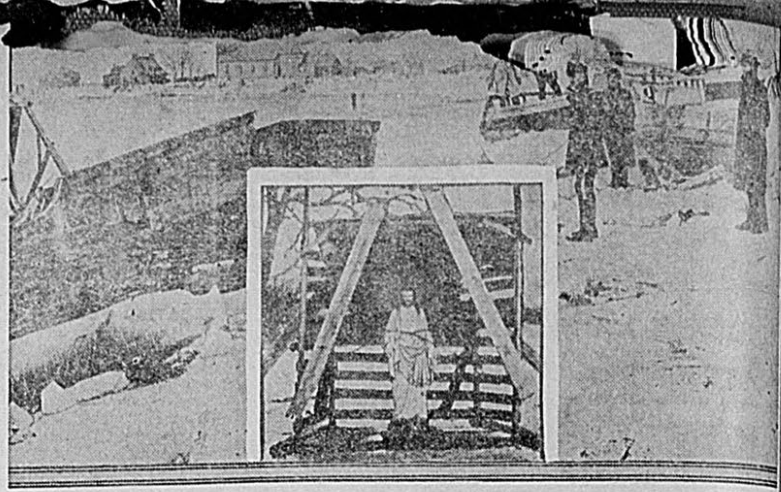

It is not a good plan to try experiments on the skin. Merely to bath with the idea of perfect cleanliness, and a rub down afterwards with the coarse towel to produce a bright healthy glow is a good prescription. For any thing more elaborate, see your personal physician or nurse.

COOKING WITH COCONUT

Now that the fresh coconuts are in the market it is the time to use some of the good recipes that are being worked out by industrious housewives.
 To prepare the coconut pierce the eyes with an ice pick and let the milk drain into a cup. Now place the coconut in the oven for a few minutes to become hot, then crack it and the meat will come out nicely without sticking to the shell.

Fresh Coconut Candy.
 Take one cupful of coconut milk, add three cupfuls of sugar and put on to boil; cook ten minutes after the boiling begins, then add all of the grated coconut and cook five minutes longer. Beat until it is cold, pour out into greased baking sheets and cut into squares.

ALL types of boats, in the way of the St. Lawrence river ice jam, were crushed and rendered useless, as shown here. Father Bourget of the Roman Catholic church at Hogansburg, N. Y., ordered the statue of St. Peter taken out of the church and placed between the ice jam and the Indian village of St. Regis, while the villagers gave prayers of thankfulness that the river was receding. The inset shows a picture of the statue of St. Peter.

"Little Stories for Bedtime"

PETER DISCOVERS SPOOKY

PETER RABBIT had been startled by a voice as he was passing a certain big apple tree in the Old Orchard. The voice had seemed to come from that big apple tree. Peter stopped short and stared up through the branches of the tree. Look as he would he couldn't see anybody. There wasn't a leaf on that tree and he could see all

"You certainly did fool me that time, Spooky," cried Peter. "I ought to have recognized your voice, but I didn't."
 Spooky the Screech Owl, for that is who it was, came out of the hole in the tree, and without a sound from his wings flew over and perched just above Peter's head. He was a little fellow, not more than eight inches high, but there was no mistaking the family to which he belonged. In fact he looked very much like a small copy of Hooty the Great Horned Owl, so much so that Peter felt a little cold shiver run over him, although he had nothing in the world to fear from Spooky. His head seemed to be almost as big around as his body, and he seemed to have no neck at all. He was dressed in bright reddish brown with little streaks and bars of black. Underneath he was whitish with little streaks of black and brown. On each side of his head was a tuft of feathers. They look like ears, and some people think they are ears, which is a mistake. His eyes were round and yellow with a fierce hungry look in them. His bill was small and almost hidden among the feathers of his face, but it was hooked just like the bill of Hooty.

"You Haven't Told Me Yet Why You Look So Unhappy, Peter," Said Spooky.

through it. Peter blinked, felt foolish, very foolish indeed. He knew that had there been anyone sitting on one of those branches he couldn't have helped seeing them.

"Don't look so high, Peter. Don't look so high," said the voice with a chuckle. This time it sounded as if it came right out of the trunk of the tree. Peter stared at the trunk, then suddenly laughed right out. Just a few feet above the ground was a good-sized hole in the tree, and poking his head out of it was a funny little fellow with big eyes and a hooked beak.

"That man was subsequently promoted to a position which profited him and his family with a smile. But he stood there, smiling, cheerful, uncomplaining, patient in his poverty. I felt that in what he said, here was a man who was living. He was fighting for—he was 'helping' the country now."
 So the test of whether people living or merely existing is not necessarily in the worldly success in the comfort or luxury they enjoy. In fact it is perhaps among women of the "luxury class" we should find the largest number who would not like to apply themselves the question, "Is really living?"
 To be really living we must be that feeling of something out of our life to make it worthwhile that feeling of a gardener who the flowers bloom under his hand—of the mother who sees her children growing up, of every person whose living means something somebody else.
 There are people about whom think first not so much of how to do or produce, as how they can. They cannot help being of the world, for happiness makes and like the sun, sheds its light on others.
 When we get into the rut of the line so that we are too busy to appreciate life, when we get so occupied with the details of it and forget even to enjoy, that the time when we need to ask ourselves, "Am I really living?"

THROUGH A WOMAN'S EYES
 By JEAN NEWTON

"TO BE OR NOT TO BE"

THESE words with which Hamlet spoke aloud were pointed recently by Prof. William L. Phelps as among the most important words in all literature:
 "To be or not to be"—they mean to be really alive, or merely a human machine; to be living fully and richly with satisfaction, or to be just not dead; they point to the difference between life and existence.

I remember during the terrible post-war period in England when the poorest working man was subjected to heavy taxes, discussing with a mill worker the question of wages and the cost of living. These people were getting along on so little compared to the same kind of workers in America, that I asked what he told me of his earnings. "How can you support a family?" I asked; "how can you live?" "Well, ma'am," came a smiling, cheerful response, "I wouldn't call it living, exactly; more like lingerin'; but we've got to help the country now!"

That man was subsequently promoted to a position which profited him and his family with a smile. But he stood there, smiling, cheerful, uncomplaining, patient in his poverty. I felt that in what he said, here was a man who was living. He was fighting for—he was "helping" the country now.
 So the test of whether people living or merely existing is not necessarily in the worldly success in the comfort or luxury they enjoy. In fact it is perhaps among women of the "luxury class" we should find the largest number who would not like to apply themselves the question, "Is really living?"
 To be really living we must be that feeling of something out of our life to make it worthwhile that feeling of a gardener who the flowers bloom under his hand—of the mother who sees her children growing up, of every person whose living means something somebody else.
 There are people about whom think first not so much of how to do or produce, as how they can. They cannot help being of the world, for happiness makes and like the sun, sheds its light on others.
 When we get into the rut of the line so that we are too busy to appreciate life, when we get so occupied with the details of it and forget even to enjoy, that the time when we need to ask ourselves, "Am I really living?"

MONEY TO LOAN

One of the most important duties of a bank is planning the use of the bank's funds available for loans. If money is not loaned the bank cannot stay in business. On the other hand, the bank must look to the future and make loans to the borrower's ability to pay—otherwise it will not be in business long.

Borrowers should remember that a bank wants proof of ability to repay the money borrowed. Sufficient collateral alone does not always prompt a banker to say "yes" regarding a loan, because the basis of loans is not how much collateral one can pledge, but whether one can show a definite, reliable source of repayment with which to liquidate the debt. We would rather be able to say "Yes" than "No."

Justice of the Peace Precinct No. 1, Hansford County, Texas.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION

The State of Texas, To the Sheriff or any Constable of Hansford County, Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon Hugh McKoin by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your County, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in the nearest County where a newspaper is published, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Hansford County, to be held at the Court House thereof, in Spearman, on the 2nd Monday in March A. D. 1935, the same being the 11th day of March, A. D. 1935 then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the first day of February, A. D. 1935, in a suit numbered on the docket of said Court as No. 254, wherein Catholene McKoin is Plaintiff, and Hugh McKoin is Defendant, and said petition alleging that plaintiff is married to defendant, that she has been an actual bona fide inhabitant of the state of Texas 12 months and has resided in Hansford County six months; that though plaintiff has conducted herself with propriety, defendant was guilty of excesses, cruel treatment and outrages toward plaintiff of such a nature as to render their living together insupportable; that defendant did not provide for plaintiff but forced her to earn her own living; that defendant often became intoxicated and that he kept company with other women while married to plaintiff, that plaintiff separated from defendant on or about the 5th day of July, 1934, and is now filing this suit for a divorce and asking that the marriage between plaintiff and defendant be dissolved and that plaintiff be restored to her maiden name.

Herein Fail not, and have you before said Court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and the Seal of said Court, at office in Spearman, this the first day of February, A. D. 1935.

FRED J. HOSKINS,

(Seal) Clerk, District Court, Hansford County, Texas.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION

The State of Texas, To the Sheriff or any Constable of Hansford County—Greeting:

You are hereby commanded by summons M. C. Underwood by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your county, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in the nearest County where a newspaper is published, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Hansford County, to be held at the Court House thereof, in Spearman, Texas, on the second Monday in March, A. D. 1935, the same being the 11th day of March A. D. 1935, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 29th day of January, A. D. 1935, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court No. 250, wherein Lorena A. Meek Underwood, is Plaintiff and M. C. Underwood is Defendant, and a brief statement of plaintiff's cause of action as follows: Suit for divorce, alleging substantially that she is and has been a resident of the State of Texas for one year and Hansford County Six Months, next preceding the filing of her petition; that plaintiff and defendant were legally married in New York, N. Y., on or about the 25th day of February, 1926, that during the time she lived with the defendant as his wife she treated defendant with kindness and was a dutiful wife, giving defendant no cause for his course of conduct toward her; that for the last four years of their married life defendant contribute nothing to her support, and never at any time during their married life fully supported plaintiff; that she taught school during most all their married life and thereby supported herself and contributed to the support of defendant; that defendant is a radical communist and is the author of numerous communist articles and the co-author of several communist books, that defendant said radical teachings of communism, alleging that plaintiff was born and reared in the United States of America, and fully believes in and subscribes to its form of government, and the continual pressing of his radical communist doctrines by defendant greatly disturbed the peace of mind of plaintiff and the plaintiff protested with defendant beseeching him to desist therefrom, he continued said nagging without abatement; that same was continued until plaintiff's health was seriously impaired and until she was forced to separate from defendant on or about February 25, 1933, since which time they have not lived together as husband and wife, the defendant at said time departing for England, where he has since remained; That as a result of defendant's treatment and persistence in his radical teachings her health was so impaired that she had a complete physical collapse on or about the 19th day of August, 1933, and was taken to a hospital where she remained until about December 10, 1933, and since said time she has been unable to resume her work or to do any physical labor of any kind.

That the conduct of defendant toward plaintiff has rendered their again living together as husband and wife insupportable; that no children was born to them as the fruits of said marriage.

Plaintiff prays for process as by law provided, for decree of divorce from defendant, and relief general and special, etc.

Herein Fail Not but have before said Court, at its next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and seal of said Court, at office in Spearman, Texas, on this 29th day of January, A. D. 1935.

MORSE P. T. A. OBSERVE FOUNDERS DAY WITH AN APPROPRIATE PROGRAM

Mrs. J. E. Griggs, of Amarillo, President of eighth district was the principal speaker Tuesday, February 12, to the Morse P. T. A. The home of Mrs. Griggs address was "Realizing the Hopes of the Founder's." Mrs. Griggs stated that "Each year parent-teacher members and friends set aside a special time to honor the memory of the founder's of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers and to take stock of their own objectives, aims and accomplishments. There is no finer guide than that used by our founder's, Mrs. Theodore Briney and Mrs. Phoebe A. Heats: "To Cure is the voice of the past; to prevent, the divine whisper of today."

Mrs. Griggs compared our P. T. A. to a beautiful garden, each member having a part in its beautification. "Like the leaves dropping from the trees in autumn, the pioneers in any great movement pass from visibility. But it is the pinor personality which gives the roots of the movement strength to bear the heavy burdens of a rapidly developing civilization."

A vocal solo by Ethra Jean Vorman, a playlet "A Dream of the Future," was rendered by the pupils of Miss Strain's room, assisted by Miss Virginia Lee Dorch.

Special music by the Morse school Band, finished this inspiring program. After which delicious refreshments were served by the hospitality committee.

Hansford Men Attend Great Plains Farm Pond Meeting In Amarillo

Representatives of Hansford County were on hand at the meeting of the Great Plains Farm Pond and Terracing Association held in Amarillo last Friday. Hundreds of people from the North Plains and Panhandle of Texas, Panhandle of Oklahoma and Southwestern Kansas attended this rally staged in the Municipal Auditorium to discuss practical and feasible ways and means to preserve moisture and thus prevent the recurrence of such widespread losses from drought in this region.

How many elephants are visible?

Spearman men report that they discussed the plausibility of the Palo Duro dam project with engineers at this meeting and pointed out how profitably it would serve in this way.

Those attending from this locality were: D. W. Holland, W. M. Glover, Bill Deck, G. L. Boykin, Arnold Ferguson, H. L. Wilbanks, Bob Morton, Ed Greever, S. B. Hale, R. V. Converse, J. Jones, Hayden Hart and Administrator S. H. Haile.

OUR MORTGAGE

God made us a loan one winter day, Of a darling baby, to brighten our way, And to teach us a lesson of patience and love And to look for guidance from heaven above. The mortgage was drawn up one day after date, So what could we do but to love and to wait? And to hope against hope that the time would be long, And went on our way with a smile and a song, Watching the little one's growth and smile, Contented and happy all the while.

A REGULAR FELLOW

He bore without a murmur The cross God gave to him, That manly little soldier, In His palace now a gen. Our ways have parted sadly In childhood's early dawn, But I'll strive to meet that soldier When my soul has, too, passed on. Of his voice I'll hear an echo, When the schoolbell stops our play: There'll be one more angel singing I shall meet him there some day. A pal, a friendly fellow, One on whom I could depend, No greater tribute can I pay Than this: He was my friend. In memory of George Alexander, with my sincerest sympathy for his mother, father and sisters. —Walter Wallin. (Written by Helen Harvey)
