FIVE LOCAL MEN ATTEND STATE CO-OP. MEETING

Five Hansford County Citizens, Bill Deck, E. C. Greene, Henry Keith, Carl Hutchinson and T. C. Harvey, attended a state-wide convention of cooperative farmers held at Dallas, Texas, December 5, 6, 7.

The Hansford county men attending as delegates representing the Spearman Equity Exchange of Spearman and Morse, The Consumers Sales Company and the Spearman Grain Growers Inc., report a wonderful program at Dallas with more than 2000 delegates attending.

According to press notice from Dallas, Texas publications, the program for the convention was one of the best ever held in the state. Talent from most every business and agricultural line was included in the three day program and Federal government speakers featured each day's program.

Some of the outstanding subjects and speakers were: "Cooperative Banking" - Mr. Sterling C. Evans, President of Bank of Cooperatives, Houston, Texas. "Cooperative Insurance" - G. J. Mercherle, President, State Farm Insurance Companies, Bloomington, Ill.

"The Farmer in the New World" - R. H. Montgomery, Department Agricultural Economics, "Legal Phase of Cooperation" - Judge C. K. Bullard, Dallas, Tx. "Consumers Purchasing" - Howard A. Cowden, Kansas City, Mo.

"The Agricultural Banking System" - Judge S. A. Lindsey, Chairman of Board of Directors, Federal Land Bank, Houston, Tx. "The Farm Woman and the New Deal" - Mrs. Phoebe K. Warner, Claude, Texas.

"The Cooperative Way" - Hon. F. W. Peck, Co-operative Commissioner, Bank of Cooperatives, Washington, D. C. Some of the social features of the convention included, music, songs and fun. The personal appearance of "Bewley's famous radio Chuck Wagon Gang" was one of the entertainment features of the convention.

Bill Deck stated that he wished every farmer and land owner of Hansford County could have attended the convention. He is of the opinion that cooperative movements in the state will receive more and more government encouragement, and that continued savings of farmers through their cooperative purchasing and sales will result in added wealth to farm owners and producers in this and other states of the nation.

ARDEEN HITT INJURED IN LEFT EYE SUNDAY

Ardeen Hitt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Hitt, sustained a serious injury in his left eye, Sunday afternoon, while playing with several of his boy friends. The unavoidable accident occurred when an arrow from a "sling bow" of one of his friends struck Ardeen in the eye.

A large gash was cut in the eye, and according to information of attending physicians, the fluid from the front part of the eye was lost, with a portion of the eye running out of the cut place. Dr. Gibner stated that he did not have any hopes for full sight in the eye, and a possibility that the entire sight would be lost.

Young Hitt was carried to Dr. Pendergraft, an eye specialist of Amarillo, Monday morning. Mr. Hitt stated that he would not know until Friday whether the child would be totally blind in his left eye.

Miss Vera Campbell, manager of the Spearman Equity Exchange is another of the group of local merchants who have decided to present customers with Christmas presents. Miss Vera is fixing up a basket that will furnish a customer with a sumptuous Christmas dinner, and have plenty of food left for New Year's dinner.

ALLOTMENT CHECKS ARRIVE TUESDAY

Notification of approximately $35,000.00 in allotment checks that should be received in the county any day was also received early this week. Prior to the receipt of the checks today, only 55 per cent of the allotment checks had been received in the county.

Mrs. Wayne W. Hance, Mrs. Walter Goode and Mrs. Caradine were visitors in Perryton Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Hays and Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Riley were visitors in Perryton Tuesday.

Mrs. Earl Riley spent Thursday visiting in the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Brown.

P. T. A. PLAY "LOOKING LOVELY" COMING HERE THURSDAY

"Looking Lovely" a three act comedy by Janice Gard will be presented at the Spearman High School auditorium Thursday night December 20th. The play will be brought to Spearman by the Gruver P. T. A., but is sponsored by the Spearman organization. All of the proceeds of the play that are derived from attendance at Spearman will go to the local Parent Teacher's and will be spent on the Spearman High school library. Sixty books were placed in the school library the past week as a result of the recent play produced at Spearman. It is the hope of the local organization that the library at the school can be built up to meet the requirements of the state board. Due to the conditions the past two years very few new books have been added, and the county wide program of Parent Teachers is meeting a very essential need.

The play being brought to Spearman will be staged at Gruver Monday night Dec. 17th. at the school auditorium.

Miss Mary Ansley of the Gruver school faculty is directing the play. This play will also be produced at Morse, but the date has not yet been set.

CHANGING CONDITIONS WILL FORCE FARM READJUSTMENTS

Dallas, Dec. 6.—A warning that farmers must be prepared to adjust themselves to changing agricultural conditions was sounded by Frank W. Peck, Cooperative Bank Commissioner of the Farm Credit Administration, at the annual meeting of the Texas Agricultural Association here today, attended by 1,800 delegates from 200 counties. He predicted that agriculture will be readjusting itself for many years to come and that many experiments will be tried and efforts made to place agriculture on a parity with other industries and to maintain it in that position.

Touching upon some of the numerous economic changes that may affect agriculture, Mr. Peck emphasized the necessity for farmers to prepare to meet the rapid shifts of agricultural positions. Without discussing the exact types of readjustment that will be necessary, Mr. Peck pointed out three fundamental elements of preparation to meet changing conditions.

"One of these," Mr. Peck said, "is organization of farm people into effective association with each other. A second is education that goes beyond the school room and the academic training of the young, and continues into objective forms of adult education and training. The third is the development of cooperative business enterprises designed to bring distribution of farm and purchasing of farm supplies into the control of and for the benefit of agricultural producers."

Mr. Peck urged the Texas Agricultural Association to continue its cooperation with educational institutions in an effort to promote education among the young people on farms, as well as adults.

"There is no substitute for understanding," he declared. "There is nothing as destructive as organized ignorance. There is nothing more futile than attempting to deal with important economic and social forces with no facts, misinformation, and consequent prejudice. I am pleading for your continued support of all educational processes that can be brought to bear upon the practical solution of these important changes and readjustments with which you as farm leaders, will be concerned in the next few years."

Turning to the work of the Farm Credit Administration, Mr. Peck said: "This cooperative credit system has an important place in the adjustment of agriculture that we are now facing. The cooperative feature of the Farm Credit Administration is particularly important, for it is based upon the participation of individual farmers and their business institutions as the foundation of the credit program. Any borrower of mortgage credit from the land bank or any borrower of short-time credit from a production credit association or any cooperative marketing or purchasing association that obtains its financing through a bank for cooperatives, is required to subscribe to stock in the credit unit with which he becomes associated as a borrower."

The Farm Credit Administration, Mr. Peck said, represents the first attempt by any country to develop a cooperative system of farm credit adapted to the varying needs of agriculture on a business basis and at the lowest possible cost to farm producers. "The motive underlying the system," he continued, "is to permit good farmers to work themselves out of debt rather than to keep producers in debt with a motive of profiting through the earning of interest, commissions, and other charges."

RELIEF NEEDS IN TEXAS REACH ALL-TIME HIGH FOR MONTH OF DEC.

Austin, Dec. 12.—The estimated relief load for the month of December stands at a new all-time high as state relief officials prepare to defend the state's destitute against winter's siege. Early cold snaps were believed largely responsible for increasing the rolls to 270,593 cases as reported by county administrators in their applications for funds, but end of the cotton picking season also contributed to the unemployment problem. In November the relief rolls carried 253,873 cases.

Federal authorities last week notified State Administrator A. R. Johnson that Texas will receive $4,304,395 from the national government for carrying on various programs in the state during December. This fund will be distributed as follows:

General relief, $1,500,000; drought relief, $1,500,000; transient relief, $168,000; rural rehabilitation, $178,000; cattle program, $750,000; emergency education, $127,300; student aid, $63,195.

Seeking to ascertain the essential needs of clients for the winter months, E. A. Baugh, assistant director of the Texas Relief Commission, last week asked the county administrators to submit estimates of the requirements of each county for bedding and clothing.

"Please indicate your estimated needs for the months of December, January and February, showing separately the amounts required for shoes, clothing, bedding and fuel," Baugh said.

Estimates are to be mailed on a dollar basis after making allowance for issuance of comforters and mattresses from the Commission's production rooms.

The state will have $1,000,000 of state bond money for general relief purposes in December as provided by the legislature. This amount will be matched dollar for dollar from federal funds by previous agreement. In January and February, the legislature has provided for the expenditure of $1,500,000 each month for general relief purposes.

35,000-ACRE TEST PLOT REVEALING POSSIBILITIES

In a few years the lose top soil of the southwestern high plains may not be such a bother to the housewives of points east.

The strong winds that sweep the plains now carry the rich upper layer of dirt as far as Atlantic city and Kidney Pond, Maine. Wind erosion of farm lands has become more serious in the last two years, so serious that the Federal Government is experimenting in an attempt to solve the problem and conserve soil worth millions of dollars.

The Government, in a program known as the Dalhart wind erosion control project, is operating a 35,000 acre tract, 14 miles east of Dalhart. Plans call for restoration of a vegetative cover for the soil, and to make the cover permanent.

The high plains area has suffered from wind erosion simply because farmers have removed grass, nature's protection, and failed to provide a substitute.

The vegetative cover, which should have taken the place of grass, has been absent the past two years because of crop failures due to insufficient moisture.

Therefore moisture conservation is the basis of the control program. This is to be accomplished by contour plowing an deterracing sufficient to handle a four-inch rain. Larger rains occur in the area only once in every 15 to 20 years.

Experiments have proven that in this country the average farm land, in its original state, loses three inches of a four-inch rain because of run-off.

On an average unterraced 160-acre tract, not more than 30 acres receive much benefit from a rain. Terracing will hold the moisture where it falls, according to H. H. Fennell, director of the control project.

The permanent plan of the program is to leave the stubble or residue of one crop on the land until there is sufficient moisture stored in the soil to give good prospects for another crop.

Weeds will not grow if there is insufficient moisture in the soil for a crop prospect. The stubble on the land protects it from wind erosion and as soon as it is removed, growing vegetation should take its place.

Farmers are being educated to the value of crop diversification. Under this phase of the plan there would be no one-crop farmers. If, after wheat harvest, insufficient moisture fell to give a wheat prospect that fall the farmers would leave the wheat stubble on the ground through the winter, insuring against wind erosion.

If moisture fell during the winter the farmer could plant what are known as "row crops," corn, hegar, milo and the like in the spring. Such a program, Fennell says, would increase the production efficiency of high plains farms at least 60 per cent.

Figures on several hundred acres of land terraced by Fennell's staff of engineers shows that the plains farmer can terrace his own land at a cost of $1 to $1.50 an acre.

In Wheeler County, Texas, this year five farms were terraced and six not, as an experiment.

The five showed an average yield gain of 61 per cent this year over the unterraced six and terraced maintenance was negligible," Fennell said.

The 35,000 acres near here being worked by the government is owned by farmers who have agreed to continue the erosion practices at least five years.

Using the 35,000 acres as a demonstration, the government hopes to get every farmer on the plains to use approved erosion control measures.

Misses Alice Makeig and Jo Cowser, Gruber teachers, spent the week end in Dumas.

Mr. T. H. Stewart, instructor of science in the Spearman High School, tendered his resignation last week, which was accepted by the Board of Education. The vacancies are being filled by Mr. Finley and Prof. Word. Mr. Finley is teaching Biology, and is doing a great deal of study for this class. Prof. Word is teaching general science and Physics.

RESIGNATION OF SCIENCE INSTRUCTOR ACCEPTED

Mr. Stewart, who formerly held the position as assistant in the chemistry department at Texas Tech, hopes to again obtain this position for the second semester and finish the work on his masters degree.

NOTES FROM THE GLEE CLUB

We are just tickled to death to that it is almost Christmas and of course we are looking forward to a great long vacation. Our mirror that was ordered some time ago has been here for several days and naturally the girls are enjoying it. The Boys and Girls Glee Clubs have been planning a program to present just before the holidays, but fate has been just a bit smart as Mrs. Word would have us so we are going to postpone our program for a while. Even if we are a bit unlucky tho, we hope we can prepare a program for the primary department sometime soon.

MADE THE HONOR ROLL THIS LAST SIX-WEEKS?

Do you suppose the nearness to Christmas had anything to do with it? Here is the list of seniors making the Honor Roll. You might ask them. Omar Cotter, Willard Davis, Robert Douglas, Gertrude Barkley, Lady Maurine Archer, Mary Brandt, Elsie Reed, Sylvia Harmon, Woodrow Gibner, Oran Ross Kelly, Charles Newcomb, Helen Browder, Alvino Caldwell, Verlira Hollinshead, Jaunita Lamb, Elsie Mackie, Carrie B. Nesbitt, Marva Smith, Ruth Wilbanks and Beth Wilbanks.

THE MAJOR BATON CLUB

Tuesday, December 11, The Major Baton met in the home of Doris Kirk. After saying the

LYNX WIN PRACTICE GAME FROM MORSE

Coach Speer of Morse, brought his boys to Spearman Tuesday evening for a practice game with the Spearman boys, in basketball. The Lynx won the game with a 30 to 19 score. The game was called at 6 p. m. in the high school gym.

The Morse boys played a good game of basketball. They have a small squad but some good boys to pick from. The Spearman boys seemed to show up pretty good in first game, but they hope to improve between now and the Perryton Tournament, which is December 14 and 15.

LYNX TO ATTEND THE PERRYTON TOURNAMENT

The Lynx have good prospects for a good season in basketball. There are about twenty-five boys reporting now, with four letter men back this year. The boys and girls will go to the Perryton tournament, Dec. 14-15. They are expecting to bring home high honors. The boys have been practicing two weeks and have received new suits which they are very proud of.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Perhaps you already know that the girls physical education class was organized last week under the supervision of Miss Lawrence. This class is composed of all the girls in high school who do not go out for basketball. We meet every Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday from 10:15 to 10:45. We have already learned several exercises and are learning others. These exercises have convinced some of us that we have more muscles than ever knew we had.

Some of the juniors went to see Santa Claus Saturday. Among the little tots were Alma Johnson and Oliver Leverton.

The second team also played a game with the Gruber second team. The second team played a fine game, with the score at the half 20-5. The final score was 38-7.

The Lynxettes are planning to go to the Perryton tournament which will be December 14-15. We are planning to bring home the Bacon.

DEAREST SANTA:

Will you please bring us a new piano for Christmas so we won't blame Miss Lawrence for our "getting off?" We have been very good little girls and you don't have to ask Instructor Word either.

P.S.—Please bring us all a package of chewing gum too, especially Miss Lawrence and Mrs. Word—Doublemint.

S. S. Bremen On Century Voyage

A NEW epoch in maritime history was begun when the North German Lloyd liner BREMEN arrived in New York harbor five years ago and immediately established, not merely a record for speed, but also a new standard for transatlantic travel. Curiously enough, this achievement became more than a "seven days wonder," and the BREMEN has not only retained her reputation in the maritime world, but has been a source of admiration by her consistent and noteworthy performance from that day until the present, piling up an enviable record of service and today, upon completing the first half of her one hundredth round-trip, she is pointed to as an outstanding example.

With her arrival at New York on November 8th, the BREMEN will have finished the first lap of her century voyage. This, in itself is no extraordinary achievement, were it not for the fact that she has maintained, during all these years, a schedule of arrivals and departures or clock-like regularity, in all weather, through all seasons and under all conditions. This record is due in no small measure to the man on the BREMEN'S bridge, Commodore Leopold Ziegenbein, who brought her over on her maiden voyage.

By an odd coincidence, Commodore Ziegenbein celebrates not only the one hundredth voyage but also his sixtieth birthday which occurs on November 10th, the date of the BREMEN'S arrival in her home port, Bremerhaven, on the completion of this century voyage.

In these past five years, the BREMEN has run up a mileage of 735,000 miles; has transported 232,195 passengers, among whom were included the president of the United States, Mr. Franklin D. Roosevelt, who accompanied by his wife, crossed on her.

An analysis of the BREMEN'S performance involves figuring up into many ciphers, referring to the number of passengers on her in this country of her tenure. A survey of expenses incurred in New York from the BREMEN'S arrival on her first appearance on July 22, 1929, discloses the startling fact that of this enormous sum, an amount of $982,500 (the major part of which represents actual payments) was spent for miscellaneous items including pilotage, and stevedoring; overtime for officers; electric current, steam telephone services; fresh water; $7,039,625 paid the fuel bill; the amount of the world's food supply purchased for her; the cost of many hundreds of thousands of dollars.

In addition, appreciable amounts were made for office rent, advertising and agents' commissions.

Commodore Ziegenbein was born in Celle, Germany, November 10, 1874, he first went to sea in 1894 on the bark FUERST BISMARCK, later on the bark NOMIA, and the services of the North German Lloyd in 1900. Leopold Ziegenbein commanded the S.S. KONGHIG, He served as Second Officer on KAISER WILHELM II, and KRONPRINZESSIN GEORGINA. In 1920 he became First Officer on the S.S. SEYDLITZ, and in 1927 he became master of the S.S. COLUMBUS.

In 1927 he became master of the S.S. BERLIN. He assumed command of the BREMEN in December, 1932, he was appointed Commodore.

THE SECOND QUESTION A DOCTOR ASKS...

Here is some information that has relieved whole families from Constipation

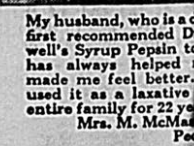

When anyone is "out of sorts" the doctor's first question is about the bowels. And the second, what is being taken to help them. Doctors use laxatives, and expect you to use them. But they prefer a liquid laxative. Do you know why?

Doctors and hospitals use liquid laxatives because they've seen the damage sometimes done by highly concentrated drugs in the form of pills or tablets! They know that a properly made liquid laxative containing senna (a natural laxative) does not do this harm. And they use liquid laxatives to relieve the bowels, because the dose can be easily regulated.

What to Use
 There is a preparation of fine herbs, pure pepsin, casars, and senna which does away with all need of harsh cathartics. The active senna in Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is laxative enough for any adult, mild enough for any child. And there are other valuable ingredients in this delightful syrup.

Syrup Pepsin will usually relieve a case of constipation overnight. If a further dose is necessary, you give a smaller dose, each time less, until the bowels are moving regularly and thoroughly without any help at all!

If you have a youngster who

My husband, who is a doctor, first recommended Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin to me. It has always helped me, and made me feel better. I used it as a laxative for my entire family for 22 years. Mrs. M. McManis doesn't eat, doesn't gain, and is bilious no matter how full you are about the doctor's resort to strong cathartics may only make matters worse.

Make this Test!
 If you are "not yourself" of a constipated condition, blame it on your blood or your age. Try the help of Pepsin until you are relieved. Nature restores your regularity. When your bowels continue to move regularly, completely every day, know why most doctors use liquid laxative like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

Santa Claus

Monday, December 24

... was appreciated when last Sunday morning—make it a habit to attend. Be an inspiration to those about you and fill your place of responsibility in life. We want our church to be more spiritually alert this year than ever before in her history. It can be done if each member and friend will determine that he shall be spiritual.

We were delighted with the good report that was made by the W. M. S. of Spearman last week at Perryton. Both societies brought back the "bacon." Three societies of this zone were at the top in their reports and these two plus another were the three.

The pastor had a good report for the church in general. He has secured more than 200 per cent of the Advocate quota and is not thru yet. We want every Methodist family to take the Southwestern Advocate—your church paper—which costs 2 cents per week. No other church paper we know anything about is as cheap as this paper.

Sunday is Orphanage Day in our church. We have a very great responsibility in maintaining this Orphanage at Waco. More than four hundred children are looking to the Methodist churches in Texas for their food, shelter, clothing—we dare not disappoint them. Every member of the Sunday school and church should count it a golden opportunity to be a contributor to this noble cause. Let
