Greater Than Expected Test Averages 60 lbs.

Amount of grain elevators to Wednesday that approximately 100,000 bushels of wheat were harvested by the county farmers. The wheat is being stored in the elevators and will be marketed in the next few days.

Unusual yield of wheat farmers who estimate the yield per acre to be in a number of places 6 to 7 bushels per acre. The yield is about 60 pounds per bushel.

Yield so high was on Smith's farm. He tested 64 bushels per acre. An elevator at Spearman has approximately 2,000,000 bushels of wheat. However, the yield is about 60 pounds per bushel.

ZACK MILLER OWNER OF 101 RANCH VISITS FORMER RANCH BOSS IN SPEARMAN

101 RANCH IN OKLAHOMA

Zack Miller, sole survivor of the Miller Bros., and now owner of the famous 101 Ranch in Oklahoma, accompanied by Mrs. Harriet Witherbee, land owner in Moore county, of Chicago, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Watt Huffstutter of Spearman, Wednesday and Thursday.

One readily recognizes that Zack Miller is no "pansy" and that he can take it and has taken it. The Reporter hesitated to inquire how many notches were on his pistol and shot gun that he uses, even now, to rule the roost of the 101 ranch, with Governor Bill Murray sticking close by his side. Miller, one would judge, is nearing his sixtieth birthday, and from his dress one would think he had just completed a round-up, but not his last one. He wore a big ten gallon Stetson hat and cowboy boots, out of which he would undoubtedly would be uncomfortable. He was driving a new 1934 Chevrolet Sedan which gave the appearance that it had been spurred from flank to flank, had jumped many fence rows and to them. His jovial disposition and pleasant western attitude makes an interview with him one of interest and ease. Mr. Miller visited Watt Huffstutter here who was foreman of the famous 101 Ranch in Oklahoma for more than 7 years. Huffstutter went to work for Miller Bros. in 1898 as just a cowpuncher, and in two years he was foreman of the outfit.

DON'T NAME IT

By HONEST BILL

An entering Fred Linn, our deputy sheriff in the Hansford County "Truth" Contest. Fred tells of seeing a license tag on a Phillips truck with all the figures painted over with aluminum. At least that is what he thought had been done to the tags. He encountered the driver and notified him that painting up license tags was again the law. The driver informed Fred that he had not tampered with the tag, but that he made a territory near Dahart and the sand blowing against the tag had cut the finish down to the aluminum background. To prove the matter, the driver showed Fred his car bumpers which were in the same shape as the car tags.

—Am looking forward to a first harvest in Hansford County. Have several rather large estimates as to the turnout this year. Both Jay Jones and Frank Wendt declare the production in Hansford County will be nearer three million bushels than it will be two million bushels. Seems as though most everyone who has harvested any wheat so far this year are making greater yield than they estimated.

Here's my alibi to Rev. Richards. Told you I would come to church Tuesday and Wednesday night—just blame E. C. Greene and others who just simply had to have out their job work. I'm telling you Preacher it's been so long since we have had any business in this section that we do not know how to handle it. Simply takes day and night to get the job done. I know you are good enough scout to overlook my negligence in attending.

Its funny what one letter of the alphabet will do to the meaning of a sentence. Last week in the Church of Christ write-up the statement was made as follows: "It has never been opposed to religious divisions and act." The article was referring to the Church organization and read "It has never been opposed to religious division." One can readily see that the entire meaning was reversed in the error made by our paper. We are indeed sorry and make this official correction this week.

"I declare to goodness I wish I had some of the good road opponents here with us tonight." Them are the words Rev. Loftin said last Friday night about 3 p. m., after he had made the seventh attempt to lift my car out of the ditch on the road between Canadian and Spearman. The preacher felt like he could convert anyone that opposed good roads. I believe anyone who stays out all night mired up in mud would be able to convince that good roads are profitable.

While we are on the subject, here's complimenting Rev. Loftin on his good judgement in selecting a wife. Anyone who can go thru a storm cooped up in a car without complaining deserves to be complimented. Mrs. Loftin and her daughter and Rev. Loftin all survived such an ordeal in the best of spirits. As for the writer, he got plenty hungry, and awful downhearted when he found out he had used his last match at 1 a. m. Saturday morning—However the experience sure made them "Miller Brand" fryers taste good Saturday at noon.

In case you have not received the news from Mr. Dougherty, I give you the information that wheat loans for summer fallow can be secured up to July 15. In the mean-time, Clay Gibner and several others of the county are working on an appeal to the Federal government to allow wheat producers of this section $400.00 per individual as a loan instead of $250.00 the limit that is designated at this time.

Don't forget about the bargain that is offered in the Reporter subscription up to July 1st. You pay the regular price and get a double duty dollar back, good in trade at a number of the leading business houses in Spearman. Subscribers in the Morse and Graver communities can receive a double duty dollar good in trade at their home stores. We will arrange this for you if you will designate the store that you desire to trade with.

Two Infant Cyclones Reported In County

On Tuesday afternoon of this week two infant cyclones visited different places in Hansford County, doing minor damage to out buildings and windmills.

One of the cyclones was reported at the home of H. L. Wilbanks two miles Southeast of Spearman. Its chief damage at that place was the blowing down of some feed stacks, and scattering the bundles in a hundred yard circle.

The other cyclone was at the J. C. Smith home near the north line of the county. Several out-buildings, including a chicken house were blown away at his farm and also at the home of Raymond Smith, which was a mile from the J. C. Smith home. The cyclone also hit at the Reuner home, tearing down his windmill and other structures.

Mrs. E. R. Jarvis and daughter Miss Rosamond Jarvis of Perryton visited friends and relatives at Morse and Spearman during the first part of this week.

Texans Awaken To Progress Of Small's Candidacy For Office

Sen. Clint C. Small

CLINT C. SMALL CLUB BEGUN AT LONGVIEW

Declaring that now is the time for Texans to forget sectional lines and that it is time for East and West Texas to join in and elect to the governor's chair a sound statesman who has proven his metal, a group of East Texans have launched a Small-for-Governor Club to cover East Texas. Longview, headquarters of the East Texas Chamber of Commerce has taken the lead. Headquarters here are in the Gregg Hotel with Jack Barnes, Longview, in charge. E. M. Bramlett, attorney has been named chairman of the Gregg County Small-for-Governor Club. W. R. Nicholson, Longview business man, land owner and philanthropist, who donated the Longview Library, is actively supporting Small, as is A. R. Lofis, bank president.

The "Gladwater Times" Gregg County newspaper, which two years ago bitterly opposed reelection of R. S. Sterling, has editorially announced for Small. Sam Ross of Kilgore, president of the East Texas Land and Royalty Owner's Association has openly announced his support of Small. Roy Laird, bank president and insurance man, is another Gregg county leader who has thrown his strength to Small. R. M. Woods, Gladewater, leader and brother of the mayor of Gladewater, is for Small.

Outstanding in the campaign is the fact that Small is not a sectional candidate this year, but his first enthusiasm and hearty support is coming from the South and East Texas. In Bexar county, where Small only had some 300 votes last campaign, the West Texan now has the support of influential men who are guaranteeing him a vote above 30,000 this year. With Small Headquarters at San Antonio as a central point, sixteen county "Small For Governor" clubs have been organized in South Texas, and state headquarters report more being organized each week. Over in East Texas some 24 counties have active organizations supporting Small in his candidacy, with activities centered around Longview.

An active unit will be organized and headquarters opened in each county. Senator James Strong of Carthage is campaigning for Small in the counties to the east and south of the oil field counties. H. L. Hunt and M. A. Greiling of Tyler are active for Small in that city.

The decision to support Small was reached because these East Texas leaders are convinced that Small offers a sane and constructive platform bereft of hokum and ballyhoo. All Texas has noted the rapid increase in popularity of Clint C. Small, as candidate for Governor of the state during the past few weeks.

West Texas is proving the most backward this year in extending our own candidate the enthusiastic support he deserves, but this is probably caused because the heat of the harvest season, and many counties that will poll 95 per cent majorities for Small have been unable to start their organized support. This is true of Hansford County, but this publication predicts a very active organization for Senator Small before the July primaries.

BORGERS BASEBALL TOURNAMENT BEGINS SATURDAY JUNE 30th.

Borger's baseball tournament which begins June 30th, this year, promises to be the greatest sporting event of the season in the entire Panhandle. CONNALLY DEMOCRATS

Printed below is a Congressional address of Connally of Texas, recently defended President and the Democrat. The address made an attack upon the administration of Iowa. In the address the Senator accused of "useful" to open the Register for Congress

When the Senator from Iowa was interrogated by the Senator from South Carolina (Mr. Byrnes) he did not deny that he had never voted to cut a single appropriation. Are not you on the other side of the Chamber just as responsible as we are on this side of the Chamber? Do you owe your country any less than we do? Is it not just as much your duty to vote against extravagant appropriations as it is our duty? Can you hide yourselves behind the shield of politics and wash your hands of responsibility for the conduct of this Government?

When you went into power on the fourth day of March last, when President Roosevelt, amid the clouds and the fogs that surrounded this government, amid the grief and the gloom that years of leadership of your party left us in took the helm, and a Democratic Senate sat here in this Chamber and a Democratic House over at the other end of the Capitol, you said you wanted to help us. You said you wanted to stand by the President wherever you could. You went before the country, some of you, with hypocritical phrases to the effect that you were going to help the President pull us out. You did that for awhile. You did that for a few months; and I am not indicting all the Senators on the other side. I am indicting those who, like the Senator from Iowa, profess to be concerned with the welfare of the country, and yet are playing politics 24 hours of the 24.

The Senator from Iowa never goes under the NRA. The Senator from Iowa does not merely work 6 hours a day and 5 days a week as a partisan. He works 24 hours out of every day as a political eniper at the president and the administration, and everything they are undertaking to do. Now let us see about it. The Senator from Iowa has complained about the Farm Board. I have already answered that. Of all the colossal failures, of all the relatively asinine accomplishments in behalf of agriculture the Farm Board, bearing the brand of the Senator from Iowa all over, will stand out in history as the greatest and most marvelous cataclysm of legislation that ever was enacted.

What else is the matter with the present system, according to the Senator from Iowa? What is he complaining about? What has this administration done that he challenges? He does not challenge any one act. He just has a grutch, like an old woman with herkeratism. (laughter) She knows she has a pain and cannot quite locate it, but she knows she has it. That is the condition of the Senator from Iowa. Is he complaining because President Roosevelt saved the banking situation of the country? Why, the Senator from Iowa a while ago read a statement from somebody to the effect that if we did not look out the Government was going to be in the banking business. If we had followed the Senator from Iowa and his late lamented President Hoover, the Government would not have been in the banking business, and by Gattings! there would not have been anybody else in the banking business in this country (laughter), because the banks would have all closed their doors, the most of them never to open again.

I ask the Senator from Iowa, is that what he is complaining about because we saved the banking structure of the nation? Is that where his pain is located? What else is the Senator complaining about? Is the Senator from Iowa complaining because instead of thirteen million men walking the streets in idleness and hunger, clothed in rags and begging for a job, under this administration five million of those men have been returned to useful occupations? Is that his complaint?

I am wondering whether the Senator from Iowa is angry because factories in the States of Rhode Island, Wisconsin, Connecticut and Main, and many other states are now open, employing more men than they did in the olden days. Is that his complaint? Let him challenge it. Let him deny it. Coming from a great farming state, is the Senator from Iowa complaining because wheat was selling for about 30c when this administration came into power and the same wheat now is selling for 85 to 90 cents a bushel? Is that the reason why the Senator from Iowa complains that higher prices are being received by the farmers for whom he shed tears as big as goose eggs on this floor, but for whom I never saw him do anything in all his legislative career? Is that the complaint of the Senator from Iowa?

Mr. President, is he angry because the corn out in Iowa, where the tall corn grows and the short politicians grow (laughter)—I am wondering whether he is complaining that under the Roosevelt administration the corn, which he tells the voters he used to raise when he was a farm boy—I wonder if he is complaining that corn is now selling for twice as much as it was selling for when Mr. Roosevelt took charge and the Senator from Iowa from any responsibility (laughter).

(NOTE) At this point the junior Senator from Iowa (Democrat) interrupted the speaker to inform him that "corn is selling for four or five times as much as it was."

Mr. Connally. Mr. President, the Junior Senator from Iowa (Mr. Murphy) says that corn is selling for four or five times as much in the state of Iowa, as it was before. Yet the Senior Senator of Iowa, the representative of those farmers out there in Iowa, spends his time here in denouncing the administration and in denouncing the President, who has made his farmers receive four or five times as much for their corn as they were getting before.

Mr. President, even hogs are higher: Iowa is a great hog state—a great hog state—A GREAT h-o-g state. (laughter). They are even getting more for the hogs than when Mr. Roosevelt took the chair and the Democratic Congress went to work on its program of restoration. Yet the hogs we get consists of denunciation from the senior Senator from Iowa representing more hogs than any man who ever sat in this chamber.

Most Amazing Proof OF EXTRA STRENGTH • SAFETY AND DEPENDABILITY Ever Known! THE NEW FIRESTONE HIGH SPEED TIRE FOR 1934

IT IS almost inconceivable that human ingenuity could build tires that would withstand the terrific punishment of the 500-mile grind at Indianapolis, May 30. 'Round and 'round the blistering track they streaked, hour after hour, under the blazing sun . . . the low moan of powerful motors rose to a terrific roar as they hit the straightaways at 150 miles or better—grinding, pulling, pounding around treacherous tire-destroying curves faster than they ever dared before. Sliding into the turns at these terrific speeds, there was nothing to hold the car to the track except the tire.

Mile after mile, lap after lap, greater and greater heat and increased centrifugal force developed to separate the tread from the body of the tire. Every conceivable force known was working to tear the tires to pieces—yet Firestone High Speed Tires, with Gum-Dipped High Stretch Cords, withstood this most gruelling test. Thirty-three demons of speed—thirty-three cars equipped with Firestone High Speed Tires—all protected by Gum-Dipped High Stretch Cords—entered the Annual Speed Classic. Every tire was bought by the driver or owner of the car. In all the heat—in all the grinding—in all the straining and pulling—not one cotton strand loosened—not one life was endangered by tire failure—not one car was forced out of the race by tire trouble. Six of the winners finished without a tire change.

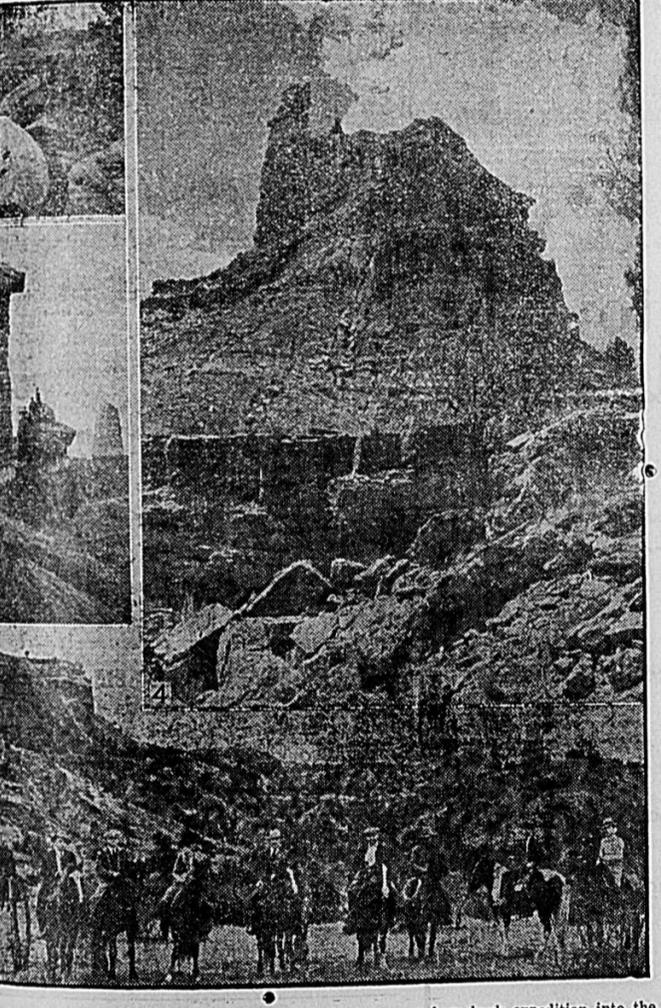

WHAT THIS MEANS TO YOU The amazing record of Firestone dependability at Indianapolis was made possible by the Firestone patented process of Gum-Dipping. Every fiber of every cord in every ply of the tire is saturated and coated with pure liquid rubber; there are eight extra pounds of rubber to every 100 pounds of cotton cords. There is greater adhesion between the plies of the Gum-Dipped Cord body and between the body and the tread. As a result of this patented process of Gum-Dipping Firestone engineers have been able to build a wider tread of flatter contour, with more and tougher rubber and deeper non-skid, giving you more safety, longer non-skid mileage.

Spearman business firms are again enjoying good business for the first time since the harvest of 1931 and 1930, and are facing the future with an optimistic outlook. The harvest of this county's estimated yield of near three million bushels of wheat has barely begun.

Business for the past several months been on a steady increase and blew in full force last week as several farmers spudded in on the new 1934 wheat harvest.

Practically every business in Spearman has added from one to ten new employees, and new jobs are being created daily in every branch of work. The town as usual at harvest periods is filled with transients, the majority of them find work and are paid a good wage, and they in turn spend a good portion of their salaries with Spearman merchants, making business boom. There perhaps are no local people without work at this time. The scale of wages being paid for harvest work ranges from $2.50 per day to $4.00 and higher for skilled labor.

Not only the business firms are enjoying good business but the county's financial condition is being helped. Sheriff Wilbanks is making special effort to collect new license from truckers who operate out-of-state trucks in this county to haul grain.

The local business firms are to be congratulated with the way they are handling the increased business and for the splendid service being rendered.

Dr. James Rayburn Met With Ministers In Dalhart Recently

Dr. James Rayburn, nationally known evangelist who conducted a series of revival meetings in Spearman in the year 1932, met last week with the ministers of Dalhart and made arrangements to hold a revival there, beginning in September.

He has recently held a revival at Stratford which resulted in arousing many dormant religious lives. In fact reports of the meetings claimed that literally hundreds were converted and religiously constructed.

Angus McKay, operator of the City Machine Shop in Spearman announces this week that he now has the agency for the Oliver Nichols-Sheppard farm machinery and will render the authorized mechanical service for such equipment.

Summer Fallowing Wheat Loans Will Be Made In Hansford

Wheat seed loans for summer fallowing will be made again this season in Hansford county.

Details of the loan plan have not been received by the local loan committee, but they should be here at any time.

Farmers needing these seed loans should see Mr. Daugherty, Mrs. S. E. Harbison and children and Mrs. J. W. Burgess and two children spent the week-end visiting in the home of relatives and friends near Springfield, Colorado.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Philyaw and son Bill of Perryton visited with relatives in Spearman Sunday.

Mrs. Wanda Reed, daughter of Mrs. A. M. Wilbanks, of this city underwent an operation in the Northwest Texas Hospital Thursday of last week. Mrs. Reed is nurse supervisor of the hospital. It is reported that she is recovering rapidly at this writing.

A. J. Wilbanks drove to Amarillo last week end to visit with his sister Mrs. Wanda Reed who had undergone an operation for appendicitis.

Measuring Wheat Acreage In County Nearly Completed

It is thought by the end of the week the ten measuring crews will wind up the measuring of the contracted acreage in this county. Over 630 contracts have been measured which average 400 acres.

When the measuring is completed and the excess acres destroyed it is likely that the second allotment payment will be forthcoming, as all preliminary conditions of the contracts will be fulfilled.

Detroit, Mich., June 23.—Reductions of $10, to $15 in list price of 1934 Ford V-8 passenger cars and $10 to $20 in list price of Ford V-8 commercial cars and trucks were announced last week by the Ford Motor Company effective Friday, June 15.

Ford prices had remained unchanged since the introduction of the 1934 Ford V-8 last December, the Ford Motor Company not having participated in the recent general automotive price increase. The reductions announced are, therefore, a decrease in the original prices.

The price reduction on the standard and de luxe Tudor Sedans, most popular individual models in point of sales is $15. Prices of other standard and de luxe body types were reduced $10, except prices of the Roadster, Phaeton and Cabriolet, de luxe types, which remained unchanged. Both standard and de luxe passenger cars have the same V-8 engine and 112 inch wheelbase chassis. Body types for both are identical except for the de luxe equipment.

Miss Cathey Taylor, daughter of LaVerne Taylor of Cisco, Texas, is visiting in the home of her relatives in this city, the Wilbanks.

Hicks Wilbanks has a playful pup that followed him to the harvest field Wednesday. The dog followed the combine faithfully, managing to stay in the uncut wheat and Mr. Wilbanks claimed the pup was knocking out four bits worth of wheat every thirty minutes. He wanted the writer to send out a man to play with the dog. Claimed he could pay harvest wages and still be to the good.

Mr. and Mrs. T. P. McMurry and children arrived in Spearman one day last week to visit with friends and relatives, and to attend to business matters.

Decline In State Business Failures Shown By Bureau

Austin, Texas, June 19.—Further evidence of improved business conditions in the state is seen in a decline in Texas commercial failures during May, according to the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research.

According to reports from R. G. Dun and Company, there were only fifteen business failures during May, against nineteen in April and 61 in May 1933, declines of 21 and 75 per cent respectively. Total liabilities of $142,000 represented a decline of 40 per cent from April last year, and 72 per cent from May 1933, while average liabilities per failure of $9,467 were down 24 per cent from April and 50 per cent from May a year ago.

WANTED — some Reporter subscriber to perfect wheat seed that will mature in latter part of July and early part of August. The idea is to get advantage of all the June rains in the growing season of the year instead of after the grain has ripened. No joking, we always have plenty of rain in June, and if we could train our wheat to ripen a month later we would be able to make harvests each year.

I have the low-down from our Sheriff and Tax Collector, Hicks Wilbanks about the tax penalties. He really believes the state government plans to add on all the penalty and interest they outline in their letter to the Tax Collector. Mr. Wilbanks has placed a large advertisement in this issue of the paper. Look for this information. It is valuable.

Mr. and Mrs. Ewing Williams and Mr. and Mrs. John Williams of near Waka were Spearman visitors last week.

When Time Is Money Power Counts

When your grain stands ripe in the field, when the loss of a few hours may mean the loss of a season's profit—power counts!

Dependability characterizes the new Oliver Hart-Parr 18-28 Tractor just as it has characterized the Hart-Parr line for nearly 30 years. The four cylinder, upright motor delivers an abundance of power to drawbar and belt—power that you can depend upon from morning 'till night, day in and day out, from the beginning of the season to the end.

Here is a balanced tractor whose designers considered each part and each unit not as individual problems but in relationship to the finished tractor as a whole.

It's a new day tractor for new day farmers! Let us tell you more about it.

DON'T WAIT FOR DROUTH

Those people in Shelby, Mich., who clubbed together to express their appreciation of the services that a country doctor had rendered them over many years had an idea that would stand a good deal of copying.

Probably you saw the story. The doctor was William L. Griffin, who is 75 now and who in his 46 years of practice in and around Shelby, brought something like 3500 babies into the world.

Furthermore, he didn't stop at that; after bringing these youngsters into the world, he did all that he could do to make the world a pleasanter place for them.

Thus during the years, Dr. Griffin and his wife provided a home and schooling for 52 boys and girls. For decades their house has always been open to young men and women.

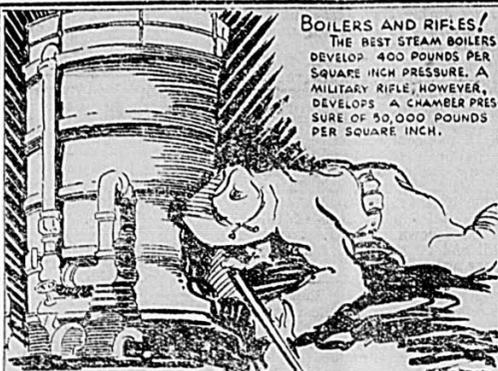

Through it all the physician made his regular rounds following the steady grind the hard-worked country doctor, despite the fact that he had been left permanently crippled by an accident in 1902.

So, all in all, the doctor deserved the big celebration that several hundred babies of his grown-up "babies" put on for him.

Now there are men like this in every town, big and little; men of whom it can truly be said that they are the salt of the earth. They seem to have been born into the world for no other purpose than to do a lot of hard, ill-paid and rather thankless work for other people. Nearly all of us at one time or another have been indebted to some such person.

But usually we just take it all for granted, saying and doing nothing to show our thanks until it is too late. By and by the man dies; and then we loyally send flowers to his funeral. fall in behind his coffin as it goes off to the cemetery and tell everybody we meet what a fine man he was and how much we owe him.

The interesting thing about this demonstration at Shelby is that the people didn't wait for the funeral.

A man like Dr. Griffin never gets much in the way of a material return for his services. He does what he does because of some inner compulsion, some light in his own heart that makes the way of service and self-sacrifice the only possible way for him.

The least we can do, when we know such a man, is to copy these Michigan people—and rally round with the flowers and the fine words while he can enjoy them.

CONSIDER the facts about the Ford V-8. The delivered price is decidedly low... yet it is a big, roomy, 112' wheelbase car, with many features found ordinarily in the most expensive automobiles. It is the best Ford ever built... the most economical. This has been proved by the unbiased testimony of owners, in over 2,000,000,000 miles of driving. And the cost of service—needed it is modest, by any means. Here you get a V-8 engine which responds instantly to your every command. It is all-steel, welded one-piece, durable enamel finish—best in the industry. Free Action on Wheels with the safety of front axle. And your good judgment in purchasing a Ford V-8 is justified. You eventually trade it in for a new Ford. The trade-in value is high.

H. L. WILBANKS
 Sheriff and Tax Collector
 Hansford County

Hansford County property owners will want to take advantage of the huge savings possible by paying their delinquent taxes before July 1st, 1934, at which extreme penalties and interest will be added to all unpaid taxes. Below is a notice to all tax collectors concerning the penalties and interest that will be added at that time.

NOTICE TO ALL TAX COLLECTORS
 You will recall that from time to time since 1930, the Legislature has been suspending penalties and interest on delinquent taxes. Last May the last measure of this kind was enacted, which provided a two per cent penalty on all Ad Valorem Taxes delinquent on February 1st, 1933, (later included the split tax payments which became delinquent on 1st, 1933,) if paid by December 30th, 1933, and four per cent penalty if paid by March 31, 1934, and 6 per cent if paid by 30th, 1934, expiration date, old law prescribing 10 per cent penalties and 6 per cent interest per year will be in force. This means that on and after July 1st, 1934, this year's penalty and interest you will be required to charge, will not be 6 per cent but will include 6 per cent interest per annum the it was first delinquent, plus per cent penalty. 30 per cent will be added to 1930 delinquent taxes. 24 per cent will be added to 1931 delinquent taxes. 18 per cent will be added to 1932 taxes. (A delinquent cost will also accrue in addition to the above.) In as much as the taxpayers public may not understand the law I suggest that you give matter as much publicity as possible, in order to bring to the attention of the taxpayers the saving, if they take advantage of the remaining period, which expires on June 30th, 1934. With kindest regards, I am Yours very truly, times it hurts—just enough to keep my hate alive—just enough to make me think that mercy would be weakness—

"Poor dear! So you've been having a rough time, also? I'm glad. I think we ought to fight our fights together and in the open. I think, too, Nate, we ought to be strong for our son's sake. He is so dear to us, why shouldn't we forget our triumph over our enemies and teach him to love humanity, even if human beings often prove unlovable?"

"You're a quitter," he charged. "There are two little cemeteries up in Eden Valley that are sound arguments in favor of quitting. Nate. We had our code—an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth, and we lived up to it; but it seems to me we never derived any happiness from it. I can't be happy in Eden Valley any more, because every time I leave it I'll have to drive through this—this desolation—this place where men have lived and fought and struggled and dreamed their futile little dreams—and went away in despair. I'll never forget that wherever these dispossessed people may wander they'll always hate you and me."

"We can get along without their approval, Lorry."

"But can we get along without the approval of Nate Tichenor and Lorry Kershaw, young Robin Tichenor and those that, please God, will come after him?"

"Darby!"

"Yes, sir."

"Turn the car around and overtake that farmer we just passed!"

"They passed the man and at Tichenor's command Darby stopped the car and Tichenor got out and walked back to the approaching wagon. The man pulled up, set his brake and waited for Tichenor to speak."

"Hello, Dan," said Tichenor. "You're Dan Clanton, aren't you? We went to school together in Valley Center."

Clanton nodded.

New York bank all of the lands of the Forlorn Valley Irrigation district which had come into its possession by foreclosure. I paid that bank just half what the lands had cost them and I have since deeded the lands to my wife—just a little gift for presenting me with a son. Of course I haven't the slightest idea what Lorry intends doing with Forlorn Valley, but I wouldn't be surprised if she decides to deed back to those people the farms they have lost, taking a first mortgage to secure her for the amount each individual farm was bonded. That will give her better than a half-million-dollar profit."

"And then you'll let the farmers have free water, Nate?"

"Joe, you are much too optimistic. I haven't a word to say about that water. Last year I killed the Mountain Valley Power company and deeded the dam-site and the lake-site back to the Bar II Land and Cattle company. Just abandoned that dream. Then I married Lorry, and we merged the Circle K and the Bar II into a new corporation known as the Eden Valley Land and Cattle company, with powers, under our charter, to sell water, however, the Circle K was a larger and more valuable ranch than the Bar II—and after Lorry had thrown her cattle into the deal I'll be hanged if she didn't emerge from it with a controlling interest in the capital stock. Consequently she controls the water of Eden Valley creek, and she owns most of Forlorn Valley and Lake Babson and a whole smear of canals and laterals, so if she asks my advice in the matter I'll suggest that she hire a good engineer to run her irrigation system, and a bookkeeper to bill the water to the farmers and collect the money and give the poor devils the water at a nominal price for enough years to enable them to catch up even on the losses they suffered when Babson's bank went bust."

"Nate, that's fine as far as it goes and provided your wife follows your advice, but this valley can't function without a bank."

"I'm supplying that, Joe. The bank building has been ready for months and I have a charter from the superintendent of state banks and will open for business in a week or two. I've hired a good man to be cashier and manager and have told him to be a banker, not a pawnbroker. I think I'll take on Babson's old board of directors. They know more about this valley and its needs than I do, and those that lost their stock in Babson's bank will be permitted to pay for it out of their dividends and the increased valuation of the stock as the years go by."

Lorry made a dive for him; her arms went tight around his neck. "Oh, Nate, you fakir! You fraud! You great-hearted schemer—" And then she was weeping tears of joy in his arms.

"This is certainly a whale of a story," Joe Brainerd mumbled, and wiped his eyes on the hem of his villainous old compositor's apron. "Don't you think I'd better put a box in the center of the page, in black type, to the effect that Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Tichenor wish Forlorn Valley a happy and prosperous New Year?"

Nate nodded. "Come up for dinner New Year's day, Joe. There are a number of things I want to talk over with you."

"Thanks, Happy New Year, folks. Now if you'll excuse me I'll fly at that extra. I want to write the story well and I want to get out what Babson used to call a 'rouning' editorial." He proffered an ink paw to Nate and Lorry in turn. "It's a pretty good old world, after all, isn't it?"

"It is," said Lorry, "if you make it so. Isn't that so, darling?"

"It is," Nate Tichenor replied, with a wink at Joe Brainerd, "even if one has to wing-tip it to make it behave."

[THE END]

from the original purchasers. Was he scheming to delude the farmers of Forlorn Valley into growing more and more alfalfa and planting trees, thus enriching his land to a point where his threatened foreclosure would make the disaster all the greater?

The secretary was instructed to write to Tichenor's attorney and ask him for a frank exposition of Nate Tichenor's intentions. Back came a prompt reply to the effect that Tichenor's intentions were unknown to his attorney; that Tichenor was in Europe.

A mass meeting was held, but while there was much talk there was no concerted action; since nobody knew what to do, nothing was done, and on the first day of August the interest payment was still in default. On the second day of August suit was filed by the trustee to foreclose the deed of trust, and Forlorn Valley, realizing that all was over, sat dumbly and patiently awaiting the end.

On December 30 Nate Tichenor and his wife came home. Darby met them with the ill-omens when they got off the train at Gold Run and noticed that they were accompanied by a nurse who held a two-month-old boy in her arms.

"Hello," said Darby, "I see I got another boss."

"A boy, Darby. We had to have an heir to Eden Valley, you know."

"I suppose you've heard the news about Forlorn Valley."

"Yes, sir. Seems pretty bitter medicine, but they asked for it, as Rubie says, and they got it. Have any of the farmers in the district moved out?"

"No, I don't think so. Joe Brainerd says they haven't any place to go, so they're hanging on, hoping the new owners will lease the farms back to them, sir."

"Well, that might be possible. Stow the bags, Darby, and let's go. We must be out in Eden Valley for luncheon."

"Dan, Turn Around and Go Back to Your Farm and Stay There Until You Are Evicted."

and stay there until you're evicted. If that happens while there's snow on the ground you just pull out to the old Bar II headquarters in Eden Valley and put up there. The old house is furnished and you can remain there until spring. You'll be more comfortable. January is a bad month to be out on the road with your wife and children. Besides, I think I can give you a fair job looking after our golf course. Turn around, Dan. You'll have time to get back to the old farm house, get your beds and the cook stove set up and be settled after a fashion before sunset."

"You mean that, Tichenor?"

"Of course I do."

"After what I done to you—"

"Tut-tut, Dan. That was a bully fight while it lasted. I would have forgotten it if you hadn't reminded me of it." He smiled at the man and his wife and entered his limousine, which had turned and was now waiting alongside Clanton's farm wagon.

In silence they drove on toward Valley Center.

CHURCHES

Church of Christ

Program for the week beginning Sunday, June 24th.
Bible School 10 a. m.
Preaching 11 a. m.
Young People's Bible Class at 7:30 p. m.
Preaching 8:30 p. m.
Mid-Week Bible Classes Thursday 8:30 p. m.
Many blessing of a spiritual nature await you at the Church of Christ.

You will enjoy the Plain Simple Gospel preaching that has to do with the duties of man toward the God who made them. Such subjects as the NRA, will not be discussed, because they have no part in true gospel preaching. Whoever read of any of the apostles or of the early evangelists preaching anything of such a nature, Paul said, "woe is me if I preach not the Gospel." He also said, "For I am not ashamed of the Gospel of Christ for it is the Power of God unto salvation." When people go to church they should with the expectation of hearing and learning a lesson from God's word. They should not be disappointed.

We had two excellent lessons last week, Brother Murry preaching at the morning service, and Brother Tillman B. Pope at the evening service. Brother Pope will be remembered by many as a very able minister, and who conducted a revival here two years ago.

To "Harvest Hands," land owners, wheat buyers, and all, we extend the kindest invitation to be out to church with us Sunday.

Methodist Church

All services as usual Sunday. We are making the services brief during the hot weather—hence you need not fear, but come along to the church.

The young people who attended the summer Assembly at McMurry College, gave their report at the league Sunday evening. The reports were interesting and full of information which were enjoyed by more than thirty young people present. We are glad to have so many leaguers back who have been away attending college—this should be added strength to our League.

The pastor is preaching a series of sermons on the church. He has already discussed the four corner stones of the church in four sermons. Sunday he will discuss the progress and some of the prominent doctrines of the Methodist Church. This year throughout our church we are observing the 150th anniversary of American Methodism. The first evangelical church to begin work in Texas—was the Methodist. Rev. Wm. Stevenson preached the first protestant sermon at one Mr. Wright's house in Jonesboro, Texas in 1817. The first protestant sermon preached in San Antonio, Texas was by Rev. Jno. W. DeVilbiss, a Methodist preacher. This year we will observe the 100th anniversary of organized Methodism in Texas, at San Antonio, in September. This promises to be the largest church gathering ever to be held in Texas—several thousand are expected to gather there Sept. 4-8.

We extend to all visitors, strangers and friends a most hearty welcome to our services Sunday.

H. A. Nichols, Pastor.

Drive Over Paved Roads

Birthday Shower

Mrs. Joe Close was very pleasantly surprised with a card shower on her birthday, Saturday June 16th, 1934, at her home in Hutchinson county.

She is one of the pioneer ladies of this county, having lived here thirty years. Saturday found this dear lady lively and happy, doing her own housework, raising over a hundred young chickens and cooking for several men, despite the fact that she had reached her eightieth milestone along life's highway.

Friends in Spearman and vicinity gave her much joy by sending her many beautiful and clever birthday greetings. Also several handkerchiefs and two lovely original poems.

The entire community joins "Aunt Neta," as she is lovingly known with warmest congratulations and very best wishes for many more happy birthdays.

Justice Oakes Throws Away List Of Names

A reporter of this paper found an envelope near the court house late Saturday evening, on which were scrawled the names of Pete, Paul, Peter, James and John, on the other side of the envelope appeared the name of Justice G. E. Oakes. The reporter carried the envelope to Oakes and asked if it were any good and inquired as to what all the names were for.

The Justice with a note of despondency in his voice explained that for the past several weeks he and his wife has searched through the Bible, Montgomery Catalogue, Phone Directory, and the Reporter for suitable names for a baby boy and had selected the five which were scrawled on the envelope as suitable ones for the baby.

"The Blessed event happened but not a single one of the names would do," gined the Justice. "It was a girl, and a ten and one-half pound one born at 3:15 p. m., Saturday June 16th, 1934, and now we don't have a suitable name picked out."

He said that Mrs. Oakes wanted to name the baby Caboose, but he wasn't pleased with the name, due to the fact that a caboose would look queer in the middle of a train. The name of Mary was finally decided upon as a suitable name for the new daughter.

MANY PLAN TO GO TO AMARILLO FOR DERBY DAY

Derby day at the races in Amarillo next Monday, June 25, will bring together some of the best 3-year old thoroughbreds in the entire Southwest. American Red, a horse that was once considered for the Kentucky derby this spring, will head the list of great horses entered in this event. American Red will soon go to the major tracks where he is expected to hold his own with most of the present crop of colts.

Plans are being made to make Derby Day here one of the year's greatest events and to lay a foundation for the continuance of the running here each spring.

There is nothing hippodrome about the Tri-State meeting. The jockeys are first class riders, most of the horses are registered thoroughbreds, and the officials in charge are known throughout the world of racing for their ability.

Besides the derby six other races are scheduled for Monday in a grand ending of the nine days meeting.

The races have been successful in every way. Thoroughbreds from many states have vied the glory and cash purses. Patrons have kept up a steady file to the pari-mutuel windows to buy certificates on their favorite bangtalls. The races will be held every day with the exception of Sunday until Monday night.

Mrs. Ed Burrough of White Deer visited Mrs. J. E. Gerber last week.

Floyd Barnhill is recovering nicely after having his tonsils removed last week.

Mrs. G. W. McMurry and daughter, Mrs. Mary Fuhr are visiting E. Dowling and Thaddeus McMurry, sons of Mrs. McMurry, in Spearman this week.

Miss Ruby Wilson has accepted a position with the Baker Hotel in Spearman.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Meers will be glad to learn that their little daughter, Eula Marie, is recovering nicely from a hernia operation performed at a hospital in Pampa.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hays were Borger visitors on Tuesday of this week.
