Roundup Begins Thursday

SPEARMAN, TEXAS HANSFORD COUNTY

The time is now, June 5, 6 and 7 for the annual Hansford Roundup staged in Spearman each year. The carnival moved into Spearman Monday and set up ready for business early this week. The carnival is the State Midwest Show from Kinsley, Kansas. The first rodeo performance will be Thursday night beginning at 8 p.m., at the Oscar Archer Arena. Triple M Rodeo, James Martin, is the stock contractor. The announcer is Scott Stutzman of Ulysses, Kansas. Clowns are Kenny Becker and Steve Goughmyer of Garden City, Kansas. Rodeos will be held Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights beginning at 8 p.m. Admission is $2.00 for adults and $1.00 for children, with 25% of the rodeo profit to be donated to Girlstown, U.S.A. Plans call for a businessmen's wild cow milking contest Thursday evening, preacher's night ribbon roping Friday night and the ladies calf scramble on Saturday night. Trophies will be given in all three of these events. A new event for the roundup is the flea market, with tables placed at the County Show Barn beginning Thursday at 1 p.m. All proceeds from the rental of spaces will go to the Stationmaster House Museum. On the big day Saturday, the Old Timers Reunion will be held at 10 a.m. at the Joe Traylor Ford building, sponsored by the Hansford Historical Committee. The parade will leave the Jr. High at 1 p.m. and will proceed down Townsend Street and East on Kenneth Street and down Main Street and then on Hancock Street to the rodeo arena where it will disburse. The new Miss Hansford County, Denise Desimone, and the two runners-up, Mary Lou DeArmond and Cecelia Randall will be a feature of the parade as they ride on the Lions Club float. Trophies will be given for 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place winners in the commercial division. Cash prizes will be given to organizations, $100.00, $75.00, and $50.00. The winners will have signs on their floats when they leave the junior high. Decorated bicycles will be presented trophies this year. The Old Time Fiddlers Contest will be immediately following the parade at the show barn with Wes Nivens in charge. Cash prizes will be given for 1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th place winners this year. Prizes will be $75.00, $50.00, $25.00 and $10.00. Trophies will also be presented. At 2:30 or 3:00 the sack races will begin at the rodeo arena. Greg Sherwood is in charge of this event. Ribbons will be given in this event and no entry fee is required. The cow chip throwing contest will follow at the arena, and also a horse flag race. The barbecue, which is a project of the Spearman Jaycees, will be at 5 p.m. Saturday at the County Barn. Tickets are $3.00 each and are available at the Chamber of Commerce office, at the KBMF radio station or any Jaycee member. The final performance of the rodeo will be at 8 p.m. Saturday night.

Donates Windmill To Smithsonian Institute

J. B. Buchanan, who lives 14 miles Southwest of Spearman, Texas, has given an old Eclipse windmill to the Smithsonian Institute, located in Washington D. C. The mill will be used in the 1976 centennial celebration of our nation; it will be included with an old ranch home from New Mexico, as a typical western pioneer scene. Three men from the Smithsonian will arrive by airplane in Hansford County Monday evening, and begin dismantling the beautiful old Eclipse. Baker and Taylor Drilling Company of Spearman will furnish the equipment to lower the tower and mill. Buchanan informed the paper that the old Eclipse mill was built and patented in 1870. This particular mill, a 12 foot mill was found in Kerville, New Mexico, near Santa Rosa. Buchanan put up the mill in 1965. This mill has twin tails, and a half-moon weight. When the mill was first produced, the half moon was turned down, indicating a dry moon. Farmers in Kansas pleaded with the company to turn the weight up, so it would indicate a wet moon, as they were having one of their worst droughts in 1870. Of course the company obliged, the original Eclipse that will be sent to the Smithsonian, will have a wet moon "weight" on it plus the twin tails. B. O. Cator was the last Eclipse dealer in the county, and he had his store at Old Hansford, according to Buchanan. Buchanan has 7 mills on the place, that represent a fantastic collection of the past. The most beautiful mill, is the brightly painted O. K. Mill, built by Challenge. It has an extra wide tower at the bottom, probably because it was first used to go over hand dug wells. The O. K. Mill has a crank-shaft instead of gears to drive the sucker rods. It has a 2 x 4 wood cut off system, with weights at the bottom. One time, according to Buchanan, a cowboy was ordered to grease this particular windmill. He had been drinking a little to much moonshine, and so he just poured the oil and grease on the anchor posts and was just going to let the oil "soak up" to the top of the windmill. Today there are only two windmill dealers left in the country. They are Dempster and Aeromotor. At one time there were 200 or more dealers. Actually, the windmill is an American invention. The mill was invented by a fellow named Holliday, from Connecticut. He couldn't sell any of the mills in Connecticut, so he moved to Chicago, the windy city, where he really "got in business" according to the old timers. His first patented windmill was in 1857. Buchanan has a "Currie" mill, an 8 footer, that was made in Topeka, Kansas. It is a cheap mill, with wooden bearings, and sold for about $20.00 new. It has open gears! Buchanan's 6 foot Sampson belonged to his wife's grandmother, and the mill was brought down from Enid, Oklahoma. This is a shallow water type mill, used to lift the shallow water in the Enid area. Buchanan's "Star" mill is from New Mexico. It has twin tails, and runs backwards from the Eclipse mill. The beautiful painted star on this windmill was painted by Roscoe Nelson's daughter, Joan Eaton. This was probably the most popular mill around 1914, and this particular mill came in from Sudan, New Mexico. The large 18 foot Railroad Mill was used by Santa Fe, Union Pacific, Rock Island and the Fort Worth and Denver Railroads. This mill is one of Buchanan's finest, and was reclaimed on the old XIT Ranch near Dalhart, Texas. It also has 2 tails, and the sucker rods are almost as big as some of the drill stem pipe used on Baker and Taylor oil wells. These magnificent mills were located about 30 miles apart to furnish water for the gigantic railroad steamers that help build our Western country. J. B. has an umbrella type mill, that was the first windmill actually built. This windmill opens from an umbrella position, into a flat windmill position when it is turning. The weight, or balance that formed a tail, had many fancy animals, like roosters, or horses, but the mill that J. B. owns, displays a football. Symbolic of the great football teams that have played from Spearman Morse and Gruver. The O. K. windmill has a bit of the supernatural connected with it. A fellow by the name of L. F. Noe, near Morse, was attacked by a mad dog, and he climbed the ladder of the O. K. Windmill to get away from the mad dog. Of course he used a "mad stone" on the dog bite, and rubbed some type of secret ointment from the O. K. windmill, and sure enough, he was soon well, and did not catch rabies! The windmill used to pump water for the Buchanan farm, is a 60 ft. tall mill, and it really does a fine job of furnishing water. It is one of the tallest in the Panhandle area. But, Buchanan likes to tell the story of the mill on the XIT that was 130 foot tall. The cowboys who worked on the XIT would take turns greasing this mill (it looked like a Baker-Taylor oil rig according to old timers) and as each cowboy time came to grease the mill, he would usually quit his job. One wife, who wanted her cowboy husband to keep his job on the XIT agreed to wash another cowboys clothes for 11 months if he would go up and grease the mill in place of her husband. He did, and she washed his clothes for 11 months! There have been many stories come out of the West concerning the windmill, and many men have died, and fought for these precious mills that furnished water for the cattle and the people of the Panhandle areas. This newspaper joins in saluting J. B. Buchanan for preserving this part of our history, and also a special thanks to Baker and Taylor for their assistance in getting this wonderful original Eclipse to the Smithsonian Institute!

Cowboys Sign Up For Rodeo

Interest grows as the Hansford Roundup Celebration draws near. The Chamber of Commerce has been busy accepting rodeo entry fees. The cowboys are eager to participate. Several of them talked to the Reporter about their events. Tommy Boone, a Dumas man, entered the calf roping. He has been roping for 5 years. Marvin Wilson, Gruver, 1145 entered the steer wrestling. He has also been roping for about 5 years. Carl Mayfield from Dalhart signed up for the bull and bare-back riding, while John White, 18, from Canadian likes to ride bulls. You will see these cowboys in action and many more at the Hansford Roundup Rodeo June 7, 8, and 9.

Auto Accident Injures Couple

Early Sunday morning an auto accident 7 miles south of Spearman on Hwy. 207, resulted in injuries to a young Perryton couple, Mr. and Mrs. Rodgers. According to the Sheriff's department, the frame of the Rodger's 1968 Thunderbird was cut into when Mrs. Rodgers apparently fell asleep at the wheel, striking a tree. Mrs. Rodgers suffered lacerations and Mr. Rodgers received a skull fracture. Both were taken to the Hansford County Hospital.

Club To Sell Refreshments

Members of Spearman Study Club will be selling coles and snow cones on Main Street Saturday beginning at 10 A.M. on the corner near Golden Thimble and also at the County Barn following the parade. Be sure and buy your refreshments from these women on Saturday. Also the Town and Country HD Club will be selling homemade ice cream in a variety of flavors at the County Barn from 5 p.m. on during the barbecue.

Her husband, Jack Roberson, died in 1967. Survivors include a son, Bill of 417 S. Bowie in Amarillo; two daughters, Mrs. Nellie Jo Schofield of Hereford and Mrs. Imogene Pogue of Spearman; a brother, A. Hope Owen of Lubbock; a sister, Mrs. O. R. Baker and Taylor gently lowers the old Eclipse Windmill belonging to J. B. Buchanan. The Eclipse is heading for the Smithsonian Institute, in Washington.

Recently some of our finest people were asked to name the most important events of our time? There were thirteen events rated more important than the birth of Christ. If, you still think that anything is more important than the birth, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ, you are of all men most miserable. Come to church this Sunday, and find out why Jesus Christ should be Number 1....

$1,202,000 Federal Aid To Local Area

NEW YORK, May 16 - In the distribution of Federal funds to states and localities across the country, via grants-in-aid and revenue sharing, how has Hansford County been making out?

What portion of the $44.6 billion that was distributed by Washington in the past fiscal year percolated down to the local area?

According to state-by-state figures compiled by the Tax Foundation, a non-profit research organization that serves as a watchdog over public spending, its allotment was relatively small.

The grants earmarked for local purposes under a variety of community aid programs came to approximately $1,202,000. It is estimated from a breakdown of the state figures, the money was awarded for such purposes as public housing, education, health, child welfare, job training, road construction, food stamps and the like.

Throughout the State of Texas as a whole, the grants totaled $2,119,000,000, the Tax Foundation reports, based upon data it obtained from the Treasury Department.

The figures take into account only direct aid and revenue sharing. They do not include other Federal expenditures, for goods and services, in local communities.

On the other side of the ledger is the cost of the benefits. They are paid out of Federal income and excise taxes collected from each area and allocated to the aid programs.

Hansford County's share of these costs came to approximately $1,286,000 in the year. The statewide contribution was $2,273,000,000. The amounts are exclusive of matching funds.

In some areas the costs involved exceeded the benefits. In others the reverse was the case.

The Tax Foundation finds that 23 of the states paid a premium for the aid they received. The remaining 27 came out ahead.

Indiana was at the bottom of the heap, paying $1.68 for every $1.00 it got back in aid. Alaska was at the other end. Its cost, per $1.00 of aid, was only 36 cents.

News For Veterans

The Veterans Administration suggests that during these times of rising housing costs, veterans interested in becoming homeowners should consider the advantages of a GI loan.

Officials noted the agency has approved nearly nine million loans valued at $111.3 billion since World War II, and more than half the loans have already been repaid in full.

"As buying a home generally is the largest and most important expenditure a family ever makes, care should be taken to insure value received for money paid," officials stressed.

A veteran who buys a home with VA assistance usually finds the loan easier to obtain because the agency guarantees part of the loan. No downpayment is necessary unless required by Government states that there is no attempt at equalization, that community needs and requirements are the determining factor.

the lender, or the purchase price exceeds the reasonable value as determined by VA.

The loan may be repaid over a long period of time at a moderate interest rate, with the option of paying off all or part of the loan in advance without penalty. VA appraises the home to determine its reasonable value in the market prevailing at the time appraisal was made.

The agency also makes available an inspection service, in most cases, on proposed new homes to insure that they meet accepted standards of good construction, and conform to plans and specifications on which the agency's appraisal was based. When there are justifiable complaints, the agency tries to assist in getting the builder to correct defects.

VA advised veterans who want GI loans to first select a home, then take a certificate of eligibility issued by the agency to a private lender, and apply for a loan. The agency guarantees 60 per cent, up to a maximum of $17,500, of loans lenders make to eligible veterans.

"Texas" Actors Announced

CANYON, TX., May 19, 1975... The directors of "Texas", the Musical Drama of Panhandle History, proudly announce the actors who will play the leading roles in the 1975 production of the drama, this tenth season.

To celebrate the anniversary, Mr. William A. Moore and his co-workers have chosen seven veterans of the show, seven people who have been in it before.

Several of the seven started in minor capacities in the theatre and studied and worked until they were able to carry the responsibilities of leading roles. Their personal information is on the following pages.

Reservations for the 1975 season are arriving in quantity, so patrons of the theatre are urged to make reservations as soon as they know the dates they wish to attend "Texas". Write Box 268, Canyon, Texas 79015, or come into the office at 2010 Fourth Avenue in Canyon, or telephone 806-655-2182.

Getting tickets will be somewhat easier this year, as the office space in Canyon, Texas has been doubled.

Ron Williams of Amarillo will play the leading role of Calvin Armstrong this year. A Senior at West Texas State University, Ron has played a wide variety of parts during his college career. He received the Best Actor Award as well. In his last year at the University, Mr. Williams acted as co-director of the Christmas show, "Alice in Wonderland"; played Dr. Carrasco in "Man from La Mancha"; Uncle Chris in "Remember Mama"; Lovborg in "Hedda Gabler"; Elyor in "Private Lives"; Feste in "Twelfth Night". He designed the set for "The Fourposter"; was Cast Director (president) of the honorary drama fraternity, Alpha Psi Omega, and played the guitar professionally. As an actor, Mr. Williams is particularly effective, as he changes his appearance and style so radically from one part to another that he is often not recognized.

Mr. Williams starred in "Texas" as a dancer four years ago, worked to understudy both Tuck and Calvin last year, and now has the top responsibility.

In entering the professional theatre, Ron Williams is following a family tradition. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Williams of 8600 South Western. Mr. Williams furnished entertainment as Master of Ceremonies and playing guitar and has fiddle to the area. As leader of the band, The Western Cavaliers, he played at the Avalon Ballroom for 26 years. Earlier, he played with Billy Briggs and the XIT Boys, and also with the Sons of the West, the musical group of Cal Farley's program.

It was KGNC, however, that he probably reached the most people. He made many friends as he served as M.C. for the afternoon kid show. Wearing a long, flowing beard, he introduced many special features. One was the rating of movies from one to four humdingers.

Father and son have already added much to the pleasure of the Panhandle. Pamela Hurst will play the leading lady, Elsie, this tenth season of "Texas". She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hurst of Lubbock and will be a senior at West Texas State University next year majoring in speech and theatre. During the past year she played Agnes in "The Fourposter", and received the award of Best Actress in student directed production for it. She won the award of Best Supporting Actress in a student directed production as well for her interpretation of Sister-Woman in "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof". Her principal responsibility this year was the ingenue lead in "Remember Mama". She also played with distinction Viola in "Twelfth Night" and Thea in "Hedda Gabler".

Miss Hurst is a member of Chi Omega, Buffalo Masquers, the honorary drama fraternity, Alpha Psi Omega. In addition to her theatre work at West Texas State University, she has participated in the summer theatre workshop at Texas Tech University.

Miss Hurst appeared in "Texas" for the first time last summer when she filled the role of Lizzie Faye Batcher, and was the understudy for Elsie.

Dwayne Hood (Dave Newberry) came to the "Texas" company last year from Denver City, Texas, where he was the drama director for the Denver City High School, and the Junior High. He has performed as soloist around the West Texas area, and has been director of the Denver City Community Chorus, and with his teaching has produced and directed, "The Sound of Music", "The Music Man", "Brigadoon", and "Lil Abner". Dwayne holds the B.M.E. degree from Texas Tech University, and membership in T.M.E.A., T.C.D.A., M.E.N.C., and T.S.T.A. Some of the productions he has appeared in include: "The Devil and Daniel Webster", "Harvey", "Androcles and the Lion", "West Side Story", "Oklahoma", "The Music Man", "Naughty Marietta", "The Curious Savage", "Brigadoon", and "The Sound of Music".

In addition to his teaching duties, he sang the tenor role in "Don Giovanni" in the fall production at West Texas State University.

Last fall Mr. Hood joined the faculty at West Texas State University as a graduate assistant.

Robin McKenzie Goodhue, (Kate Lucas), is a most talented, sensitive actress from Canyon, Texas, and comes to the "Texas" cast for her second season, to play that many-sided character-Kate Lucas. Robin has grown up in the theatre, participating in Children's Theatre Groups, WTSU High School Workshops, and Amarillo Little Theatre productions. She holds the B.F.A. degree from Stephens College, and appeared in numerous plays while there including: "The Children's Hour", "Juno, and the Paycock", "A Streetcar Named Desire", and "The Three Sisters". She has done many summer stock productions which included, "Charley's Aunt", "The Night of the Iguana", and "Sleeping Beauty". When she was with the High Plains Center for the Performing Arts, she was a member of the company of "Spoon River Anthology" and starred in "Goodbye, Charlie", and "Any Wednesday" with the Diamond Horseshoe Dinner Theatre. Robin is currently doing graduate work at West Texas State University, and has appeared in "The Madwoman of Chailot", and as Hedda Gabler in "Hedda Gabler", for which she received a Branding Iron Award.

Mrs. Goodhue was awarded the Branding Iron for being the Best Actress in 1975, based on her portrayal of the title role in "Remember Mama". During the spring semester, she coached the contest play in Happy, Texas producing the "Twelve Pound Look" by James Barrie. The cast won the district competition and went to the regional meet.

Jerry O. Williams, (Tucker Yellend), returns for his eighth season in the comedy role of "Ole Tuck". During the day, Jerry owns and manages Williams Et Cetera, a most unusual shop featuring gifts and quality antiques, including his own line of handmade "Cacharos" pottery. Jerry is a member of the National Association of Dealers in Antiques, the Appraisers Association of America, and the National Retail Merchants Association. He holds the Certificate of Clinical Competence in Speech Pathology from the American Speech and Hearing Association. He has also served as supervisor of Speech Pathology for the Amarillo Speech and Hearing Center, and an instructor in Speech Pathology at WTSU. Jerry is on the board of Directors of the Canyon Chamber of Commerce, and the Administrative Board of the First United Methodist Church in Canyon.

Mr. Williams helps with difficult make-up for "Man from La Mancha" and other Branding Iron Theatre productions and the "Texas" production.

Jane Bivins Lipscomb, (Aunt Anna), returns to the "Texas" cast for her 6th season to play the role of the so skillfully plays. As a member of two pioneer ranching families--the Bivins, and the Beverleys, she knows her role in the drama from the lives of her pioneer family of the same land, weather, and wind. Mrs. Lipscomb received her B.A. degree from Texas Women's University and did graduate work at Columbia Teachers College, N.Y.C. While in New York, she was a member of the Daltrey Opera Company, Barnes and Carruthers shows, soloist at St. Lukes Episcopal Church. She also toured with "The Debutantes". She is the wife of Dr. Joe Lipscomb, of Amarillo, and they give much of their time and talents to the cultural activities in the Panhandle.

Mrs. Lipscomb appeared with Jonathan Harris in ALT's production of "The Man Who Came to Dinner", and was understudy for Ann B. Davis in "The Nearlows" in May 1975 at the Amarillo Little Theatre.

Harrell E. Floyd (Uncle Henry), comes to the Pioneer Amphitheatre with many credits in his fifth year with the "Texas" cast. He started with the small role of Abel Tatum and built up to the major part of Uncle Henry. As the story unfolds and the various characters are introduced, it will be this fine WTSU alumna - who appeared in so many interesting character roles in the Branding Iron Theatre - who will serve as the Master of Ceremonies for "Texas".

In Mr. Floyd's repertoire are "The Little Foxes", "Oklahoma", "The Rainmaker", "The Night Thoreau Spent in Jail", and "Edwin Booth". Shakespeare interests him particularly. He played Sir Toby in "Twelfth Night" this year. Bottom in "Midsummer Night's Dream" previously. He received the Alpha Psi Omega Award of Outstanding Achievement from the Branding Iron Theatre for his part in "Hamlet".

Mr. Harrell is a graduate of West Texas State University and is employed by the Cookbook Bread Company. He is married and has three sons.

to help them and be a good example. Will Allen Dromgoole talks about this in his verse, "The Bridge Builder". An old man, going a lone highway,
 Came at the evening, cold and gray,
 To a chasm, vast and deep and wide,
 Through which was flowing a sullen tide.
 The old man crossed in the twilight dim--
 That sullen stream had no fears for him;
 But he turned, when he reached the other side,
 And built a bridge to span the tide.
 "Old man," said a fellow pilgrim near,
 "You are wasting strength in building here.
 Your journey will end with the ending day;

You never again must pass this way.
 You have crossed the chasm, deep and wide,
 Why build the bridge at the eventide?"
 The builder lifted his old gray head.
 "Good friend, in the path I have come," he said,
 "There followeth after me today
 A youth whose feet must pass this way.
 This chasm that has been naught to me
 To that fair-haired youth may a pitfall be.
 He, too, must cross in the twilight dim;
 Good friend, I am building the bridge for Him."
 When all the busy activities of school stop, children search for something to do. Usually the vacation church schools are the first part of June then the rest of the summer is ahead. At 7, children are beginning to settle down. They are better listeners now and appear shy and pensive at times. Nevertheless, they are pretty steady talkers and are increasingly aware of others. They are at a stage when collections and sharing them are fun. Airplanes, space travel, prehistoric times--especially dinosaurs--are favorite topics for reading and discussing. Their sharp little minds store exact terms, sizes and records. A las for the parent who calls a bromosaurus a tyrannosaurus!

 Young children look for quick action and mounting suspense in what they read or have read to them. They welcome information presented straight without watering down the drama. When your 7-year-old child gets restless this summer, check out a few of these books from the public library. H.A. Rey's Curious George books present a monkey with a fascinating personality. Each book is full of monkeyshines. Horse lovers will enjoy C.W. Anderson's Billy and Blaze and other Stable books. A wild pony book is A Pony Called Lightning by Miriam E. Mason.

 Exaggerated humor fascinates 7 year olds in Why Cowboys Sing in Texas, Captain Dow and The Hole in the Doughnut by Le Grand. Fantasy appeals to boys and girls in My Father's Dragon by R. S. Garrett or A Iphorse That Bearded One by N. S. Carlson.
 Stories of children like themselves include Lentil by Robert McCloskey and Little Eddie (and other Eddie books) by Carolyn Haywood.
 Our local librarians can offer much assistance. Reading to children helps both parents and children build a warmer relationship.
 And summer is a time for all children and adults as well to take advantage of learning and enjoying via literature. Make yourself and your family acquainted with the library this summer.

FARM AND RANCH NEWS
 By Joe Van Zandt
 I am writing this on Saturday. Last week during the wet weather, I had two calls about funny, strange looking orange stuff on cedar trees in Spearman. After doing a little research I found that the "stuff" was rust galls and that during wet weather, sticky orange spore horns protrude from the falls.
 According to Dr. Bob Berry, Area Extension Plant Pathologist, these are annual galls. To complete a life cycle, the spores from the cedar trees infest either apple, hawthorn, or crab-apple trees. Usually apple trees are the hosts in our area and a small rust pimple forms on the top of leaves now, later larger postules will form and hand down.

 If you have apple trees in Spearman, I recommend you spray every week with either: Zineb, Fore, Dithane M45, or Manzate 200.
 Then to prevent your cedar from getting infested, during July 1, I recommend you spray weekly with either of the above listed products.
 These rust galls should not kill your cedar trees, but I have seen a few that are real heavily infested and undoubtedly are in a weakened state. These galls can be pruned out if you desire. Dr. Berry believes they will die out each year and reinfest trees through the life cycle of infesting apple trees.

 Dr. Berry will be in Spearman July 8 for a clinic and if you are having problems and have questions mark this date on your calendar. We will also have some more specialists for this clinic.
 Last week Dr. Frank Petr and myself went around and marked two irrigated wheat variety demonstrations. Joe T. Venneman has one demonstration about 1/2 mile west of his house. John Armes has the other demonstration and it is located on the highway going north of Gruver, about 5 miles north of Gruver. Go by and see what you think about the varieties in the demonstrations. The demonstrations are partly funded by the Texas

Wheat Producers Board.
 I have a New Fact Sheet on Summer Care on roses. If you have some roses, you may want to get a copy and read up on how to properly care for roses.
 Certain environmental conditions will cause tomato blooms to shed, resulting in a poor fruit set. Partial failure of flowers to develop into fruit will result in abnormal fruits which may be misshapen or catfaced.
 Blossom drop is most common in tomatoes which bloom late. The usual cause for poor fruit set is high temperatures--either at night or day. Nighttime temperatures above 72 degrees F, along with daytime temperatures above 90 degrees F, often result in heavy blossom drop. On the other hand unseasonably cool weather may also cause blossoms to drop in addition to causing abnormalities in fruits.
 Other factors causing lack of fruit set or abnormal fruit include unbalanced nutrition, extended periods of warm, windy, weather in the early spring, and insects and diseases.
 Therefore, providing a balanced fertilizer and controlling insects and diseases will help in controlling blossom drop. Of course, little can be done about weather conditions.
 Poor fruit set is most common in the large slicing types of tomatoes. However, such varieties as Early Giant, Spring Giant, Spring Set and Improved Summer time have the ability to set fruit during somewhat higher temperatures.
 Smaller sized tomatoes that normally do not have the fruit set problem include such varieties as Small Fry, Red Cherry, Roma and the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station Variety, Saladette.
 In areas where blossom drop seems to be a common problem year after year, I suggest planting some of the smaller type tomatoes or those varieties that tend to be more tolerant to higher temperatures.
 If you bought more seeds than needed to plant your spring vegetable garden, store them properly and they will remain viable for a number of years.
 Properly stored seed can be used for fall gardens as well as for plantings next spring. Saving seeds is especially important since some varieties are often difficult to find. Furthermore, seeds are becoming more expensive so they should not be wasted.
 Most vegetable seeds can simply be stored in the home refrigerator for periods of two to five years. Seeds should be packaged in an air-tight container such as a glass jar with a tight-fitting lid. Before storing seeds, make sure they are free of moisture.
 If seeds are to be placed in packets or envelopes other than the ones they came in, be sure to note the variety and source of seeds on the packet as well as the date seeds were stored.
 Most seeds can be stored at least three years except for corn, oats, onion, parsley and parsnip, which can be stored up to two years without losing viability. Seeds of vegetables belonging to the cabbage family as well as cucumbers, squash and watermelons can be kept in cold storage up to five years.
 It's best to purchase only the amount of fresh seeds you need for a particular planting. However, surplus seeds can be stored safely if they are kept dry and refrigerated.

COUNTY 4-H DRESS REVUE: The County 4-H Dress Revue will be in Gruver this year. The place has not been definitely set but it will be an air conditioned building. There will be a separate judging for people who are unable to attend the revue on the 27th. Come see the revue and see what the youngsters have sewn. Time and place will be in the paper. The Gruver, Old Hansford, and Town & Country Clubs will provide refreshments.

UNIVERSAL PRODUCT CODE: Or UPC is the name for the small rectangle of thick and thin bars and spaces on food package labels. This indicates manufacturer, price and other identifying characteristics of the food product.

At the check out counter

it can be ready by an electronic cash register tape that indicates the price and description of items purchased. It will provide fast service and accurate and detailed records of items purchased.

One disadvantage may be that supermarkets may decide not to price mark food products as the computer picks up the symbol price. But if we insist, as consumers, stores will still price food items.

Gardeners will be having a food preservation workshop in July. Will practice canning and also discuss freezing, pickles, relishes, jellies, etc. Watch for details in the July newsletter.

By popular demand we are again sharing Mickey Delano's ice cream recipe. I've had some and it is delicious!

Mix together 2 cans sweetened condensed milk, 1 large carton cool whip, 2 packages coffee rich, 1 can drained pineapple chunks, 1 cup (or more) strawberries and 2-3 sliced bananas. Fill freezer with milk. Makes one gallon. Freeze according to freezer instructions.

Economize and make your own sweetened condensed milk. Mix 2 cups non fat dry milk, 1 c. sugar, and 1/2 c. water. Let set overnight or 1 day at room temperature. Will keep for a week in the refrigerator. Depending on the brand used, you may have to vary the amount of milk to get the proper consistency. Use as you would the commercial product.

Curtain Going Up For Boys State

Roger Jones, Mike Pack of Spearman and David Andersen of Gruver will be among the 885 high school junior boys who will assemble on the Campus of The University of Texas in Austin, June 11 for the 1975 session of American Legions Boys State. James W. White, Department Commander, has announced.

Delegates will converge on Austin and commence registration at 2 p.m. Wednesday, June 11, at Jester Center. Following an evening meal the new citizens of Boys State will assemble for orientation in their respective Boys State cities.

Highlight of this year's program will be the appearance of top leaders of the Democratic and Republican parties.

The program sponsored by The American Legion, Department of Texas, is an annual event in which the organization teaches boys the responsibilities of citizenship in actual "do it yourself" type program from which comes its motto, "Learn by Doing."

The approximate 885 boys will be housed in 18 Boys State Cities with each city further divided into two precincts, one for the Federalist and one for the Nationalist political party. Each Boys State City is named in honor of a Past Department Commander of the Legion who is now deceased.

F. C. McConnell of Austin Post No. 76 is chairman of this year's program and Dr. Firman Haynie, also of Austin, is Director.

The American Legion is stressing its belief that youth should be offered a better perspective on the practical operation of government; that the individual is an integral part of, commensurately responsible for, the character and success of his government. Boys State is an activity of high educational value, born out of a need for youth training in practical citizenship.

Citizens must remember that whether we of this generation like it or not, the young men and women attending high school and college now will eventually be the chosen leaders of this land. Boys State brings future goals within sight by developing civic leadership and pride in American citizenship; by arousing a keen interest in the detailed study of our government; by stressing the importance of maintaining our form of government and by bringing a full understanding of our American traditions and beliefs in the United States of America to the more than 28,000 youths throughout the nation who participate this year.

Boys State is one of the outstanding youth training

Papay To Attend Camp

Tony Papay has been accepted in the Ranger Junior College Basketball Camp June 15-20. This camp is directed by Ron Butler, Coach of the Ranger Junior College Rangers.

This is the fourth annual camp and the fastest growing camp in the Southwest. The camp is for boys of high school junior varsity and junior high.

The primary purpose of the camp is to teach new skills in the fundamentals of sound basketball and to improve the skills and individual abilities of each boy. A long with these ideas, the camp will also stress the ideals of good sportsmanship, leadership, and good citizenship.

AC To Offer Ag Program

After an advisory committee study of agricultural needs in this area, an agricultural technology program will begin this fall at Amarillo College.

The advisory committee is composed of representatives from Producers Grain Corp. in Amarillo, Panhandle Wheat Growers, Inc., Vega Wheat Growers, Inc., and Conway Wheat Growers, Inc.

"The greatest need for rural America today is to keep its young people interested in the benefits of rural life," said a spokesman for the group.

Graduates of the program will learn basic skills needed to enter an agricultural career, especially ag cooperatives. Upon satisfactory completion of 69 hours, students will be awarded an Associate in Science or Associate in Applied Science degree.

Field study will be done with local cooperatives, said Nancy Elliott, assistant professor of mid-management of AC.

The first year of study will be general agriscience courses such as agriscience math, plant science, animal science, soils and fertilizers.

The second year of study will include agriscience marketing, agricultural chemistry, livestock nutrition, elevator and feed mill technique, coop grain marketing, and agriscience law.

At the end of two years a student can continue onto a four-year school or remain with the coop, said Mrs. Elliott.

Lynx Stadium Work Continues

The new Lynx stadium will highlight the upcoming football season. It will soon be possible for Spearman football fans to pack into the new field. The home side section should be completed by the end of this week, according to Mr. Cunningham, school superintendent. These stands, made of a aluminum, will accommodate approximately 1,850 people. The middle section, composed of gold seats, will make up the reserve section. All seats have ample leg space for fans. The concession stand, rest rooms, visitors dressing rooms, ticket booth, and storage area will all be constructed beneath the home side. This area will be completely enclosed with metal siding to provide wind blockage.

Other improvements are also being made. The stands from the old field will be restored for the visitor side. They will be renovated and repainted. The field itself has been installed with an underground water system. This system is set on an automatic clock. The clock can be set for any number of days or hours. There is no danger to players, whereas, the sprinklers are ground level and only slightly raise when in use. In addition to the sprinkler system, there will be four lights for the field. The four poles will each have eight lights. Two poles will be placed on each end of the field to prevent any view problems.

The track section includes the pole vault, broad jump area high jump, and the track. The track slopes slightly for drainage. The track will be open for public use.

The stadium will then be enclosed by a six foot fence. The stadium will be completed by September for everyone's enjoyment.

Local Families Headed By Women

NEW YORK, MAY 23 - In Hansford County, as in most other parts of the country, more families are headed by women than ever before.

In the absence of husbands, for one reason or another, they have taken over the responsibility of earning a living, maintaining a home and bringing up their children by themselves.

In 1970, when the last census was taken, it was found that 74 local families, amounting to 4.4% of the total were headed by women.

Since then there has been a general increase throughout the country, according to a sampling survey made by the Department of Commerce.

In Hansford County, as a result, it is estimated that the proportion is now approximately 5.3%.

Elsewhere in the United States, by way of comparison, the average is 12.4%. Among the white population it is 9.9% and, among the black, 34.0%.

There are now over 6.6 million families headed by women, 1 million more than in 1970.

Why the sudden increase? The Institute of Life Insurance has an explanation for it.

It states that in 1968, for example, being widowed (46% were) was the principal reason for women moving into the leadership role. The second was divorce or separation (44%).

Today, divorce or separation has jumped into the lead (50%), well ahead of widowhood (37%). The number of single women heading families has also increased, going from 10% to 13%.

More and more, as a result, children are being brought up by their mothers alone. The Census Bureau reports that 14% of all children in the United States under the age of 18, or 1 out of every 7, are now being raised by their mothers.

In Hansford County, according to the latest Government figures, 39 of the families with female heads have children under 18 and 10 of those have children under age 6.

The changes in household composition and family structure are attributed to such factors as changing attitudes toward marriage and toward separation and divorce. Better job opportunities for women has also been a factor.

TGSPB Slates Regular Meet

LUBBOCK -- The Texas Grain Sorghum Producers Board will conduct its regular bimonthly meeting beginning at 9:30 a.m. June 17 in the City National Bank of Plainview, according to board chairman C. C. "Pap" Kress.

Heading the list of agenda items will be discussion of recent Federal Power Commission hearings conducted in Lubbock, Albuquerque, N. M., Phoenix, Ariz., and Washington, D.C. The outcome of the ruling could ultimately decide the future of irrigated farming in the United States, according to informed observers.

Board representatives Nathan Boardman of Crosbyton, Larry Witten of Olton and K. B. Parish of Springlake, presented testimony during the Lubbock hearings concerning the necessity of natural gas for irrigation on the High Plains.

Ebert Harp, TGSPB executive director, will report on his recent trip to Eastern Europe where, in his role as chairman of the U. S. Feed Grains Council, he inspected council projects and promoted the use of American feed grains.

Lake Meredith Swimming Area To Close June 2-6

Spring Canyon Swimming Area at Lake Meredith will be closed Monday, June 2 through Friday, June 6. The National Park Service will close the area while the lifeguards are undergoing orientation and training. The area will reopen Saturday, June 7 at 9:30 A. M.

Seven men and women will be supervising the water activities in Lake Meredith's only protected swimming area. They are all certified as Red Cross Senior Lifeguards.

Head lifeguard is Mark Workman of Pampa. Workman is the only lifeguard returning from last year. He recently graduated from West Texas University.

Three of the lifeguards are students of Texas A&M. They are John C. Kibler of Iowa Park, Texas; Linda J. Rhea of Ennis, Texas; and Mary K. Russel of Dumas. Janice C. Ray is a French major at Texas Tech University in Lubbock. She graduated from Borger High School in 1972.

Two lifeguards were enrollees last summer in Lake Meredith's Youth Conservation Corps Camp. They are Catherine Koelzer of Hereford and Karen Keller of Fritch. When not on duty at Spring Canyon, Ms. Koelzer and Linda Rhea will be coordinating recreation activities for this year's Youth Conservation Corps Camp.

Alcohol Institute Scheduled

The Texas Commission on Alcoholism (TCA) in cooperation with the University of Texas at Austin, division of Extension, is currently accepting registrations for their 18th Annual Institute of Alcohol Studies.

The Institute will be held in Austin, June 8-11, 1975, and will center on the theme of "The Helping Process: Integrating who you are with what you do," as a multi-track training event for skill development in the broad areas of treatment and prevention of alcohol abuse and alcoholism, the program will offer workshops for a maximum of 500 participants. Featured speaker for the institute will be Dr. Sid Wolf, director of the division of alcohol abuse and alcoholism for Baltimore County Department of Health and a nationally known trainer of persons in the helping field. After his keynote address, Wolf will co-lead workshops in counselor effectiveness training with Jacques Small, clinical training specialist for TCA. Small points out that "Persons involved in helping relationships can be most effective if they are trained to use certain core personality characteristics. Other workshops will focus on the helping process in clinical skill development, prevention techniques for special groups, and current trends in the alcoholism field.

Currently there are an estimated one-half million alcohol abusers and alcoholic persons in Texas, each affecting their family members, friends, and fellow workers.

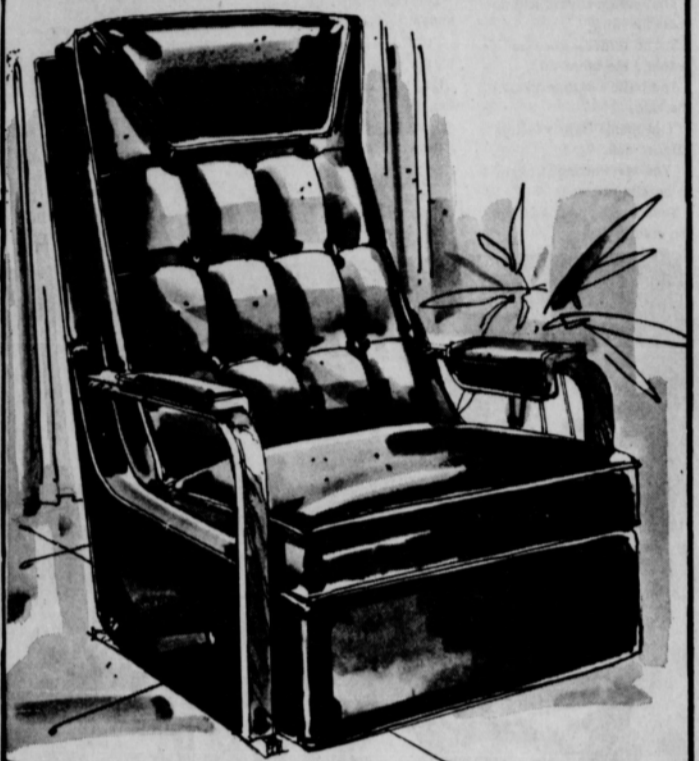

Small emphasizes that "Understanding the nature of the helping process is particularly important to anyone coming in contact with the alcoholic individual because of his intense need for meaningful relationships."

Persons interested in attending the 18th Annual Institute of Alcohol Studies may obtain registration materials through the Texas Commission of Alcoholism (806) 372-7791 or the Panhandle Regional Alcohol Drug Abuse Services Coordinating Board (806) 376-4238.

editor's letters

June 3, 1975
Dear Billy Miller:
First off I openly apologize to you for hanging up the phone on you this past week--it was very rude of me and I am not a rude person. ... But like everyone else, I also have feelings which at times do come to the top. In fact, I wouldn't give 2¢ for anyone who didn't have feelings and get mad once in a while. I will miss writing for the Spearman Reporter, but it just got to be too much on me my nerves in particular--as it seemed, I no sooner turned in my so called column on Tuesday and paper were out on Wednesday, when I started getting calls asking if my column for Saturday was ready. I did my best but just could not cope with it. I always felt I had until Friday afternoon to turn in Saturday's column and Tuesday afternoon for Wednesday's column, maybe I was wrong. Maybe they have to be in on Monday for Wednesday's paper and Wednesday for Saturday's paper--I just don't know.

But, I for one, just can't write that fast. Guess I am just getting old and like to do things slow and easy. Maybe someday in the near future I will feel like writing again (that is, if Billy Miller wants me too).
So I hope when my nerves calm down from all the mistakes I've been making and hope Billy gets some real good help to go along with his fine crew he's got now--that can type and maybe straighten out my mistakes I may make. Things will all be different and once again, you'll be reading my column.
Thanks for calling me, Billy!
Sincerely,
Nita Stewart

Lion Proctor Installs Gruver Officers

Lion Warren Proctor of the Spearman Lions Club, installed the new officers for the Gruver Lions Club at the El Vaquero Restaurant in Gruver Tuesday evening.
In the impressive ceremony, Lion Les Barkley was installed as Boss Lion, and Horace Curlee was installed as Vice President of the Lions Club. Several others were installed and their names and a complete story will appear in next week's paper.
Lion Proctor had the theme for his impressive ceremonies, a ship, the S. S. GRUVER. Lion Proctor stated that the Gruver Lions Club was like a ship, in the manner that the club was one big family working to help the blind, help the crippled, and put glasses on every child that needed help.

One of the big features of the evening was the entertainment by Mr. & Mrs. Frank Pittman. Frank and his pretty and charming wife almost stole the show from Lion Proctor, as Frank played the piano while Mrs. Pittman presented several classical numbers, some of them from "My Fair Lady". Mrs. Pittman, dressed as Mary Poppins, also appeared as an old dirt "farmer" in one of her numbers.

Mrs. Riley Gives Program

The Dahlia Flower Club met Monday, June 2nd at 3:00 P. M. in the home of Mrs. Olin Sheets. Mrs. F. J. Hoskins presided over the meeting. Minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. Mrs. John Bishop reported on the new Day Care Center, Kiddie World, Inc. of which Mrs. Gene Jenkins is Director. The Center is in need of donations for operation. The Social Committee reported they will have final plans at the next meeting for a luncheon at Martin's Steak Garden. Roll Call was answered to "Customs of the Flag". Mrs. Earl Riley gave a very interesting program on the Wind Flower or Anemone. The flower obtained its name because it takes the wind to open it. She also told how to make hanging baskets for flowers to be used indoors or outdoors.

Mrs. John Bishop won first with her rose specimen, Mrs. A. F. Loftin won first with her arrangement of Peace Roses and Mrs. Olin Sheets won first with her African Violet plant.
