MUCH IMPROVEMENT ON MAIN STREET

Main street, Spearman, is coming to the front by leaps and bounds this week. The "T-Bone Cafe," formerly "Joe's Cafe," was moved to the east side of Main, first door north of the Butler shoe shop. This popular eating house is now owned and operated by Jesse E. and Floyd Hays, with Henry Crawford as chief of the culinary department. The work of grading the streets was begun on Saturday by Ed Wilbank and Ralph T. Bucy. They have finished grading Dillon street, and are putting the finishing touches to Main street today. The work is good and adds greatly to the appearance of the town's busiest street. The Hale Drug Company's new building is nearing completion, and Mr. Hale hopes to move his big stock of goods into the same early next week. A few stretches of sidewalk also helps out, even if it is a board walk.

LYCEUM COURSE

A meeting of Spearman citizens was held at the Reporter office on Wednesday night for the purpose of making arrangements for the Lyceum course contracted for last summer with the Redpath Company. The meeting was presided over by S. B. Hale, president of the chamber of commerce, who appointed various committees to look after the work. The first number, a lecture by Ernest C. Mobley, will be heard at the Arcade Theater in Spearman on Monday night, December 6. Mobley is one of the very best lecturers on the platform today and everyone should hear him. The entire course is strong; elevating and instructive and everyone should hear every number. The committees appointed by Chairman Hale are as follows: Advertising, D. L. Wertheimer and Oran Kelly; building and arrangements, R. J. McCaslin, C. W. Carson; tickets, L. J. Hillhouse, Fred W. Brandt, R. L. McClellan. The last named committee will place the season tickets on sale within the next few days.

Mrs. Dora Tandy returned Tuesday to Wichita, where she will remain during the winter, while her husband finishes his house-moving work in this section.

J. C. Hancock moved his family to town the first of the week, that the children may have benefit of Spearman's splendid high school. They are occupying the E. M. Keer residence in the east part of town.

FOURTH ANNUAL ROLL CALL

What former service man of the World War does not recall with keen appreciation the ministrations of the Salvation Army lassie in France? How many thousands of girls will never forget how the Salvation Army took them in and sheltered them in their hour of need when all the world despised them? Last year alone, 1088 girl mothers in the western states were cared for, and sent out as good women to face the world again. How many thousands of children can ever forget to bless the Salvation Army for feeding them when they were hungry? The Salvation Army is calling for aid from the Panhandle. They want the people of this town to help them feed the hungry children, care for "down and outs", rescue unfortunate girls, and carry on other work among the poor, helpless, suffering people of Texas and the United States. Why, right in Amarillo, a woman and her four children were recently saved from a condition of semi-starvation by the Salvation Army. A sick man and his wife were recently provided for by the organization. An orphan child was recently given a home. Daily, poor people are fed and clothing given them. Workers will soon start here a campaign for funds to carry on the work during 1921. Will you aid these Salvation Army workers, who, themselves are poor, to care for the down-trodden men and women and children, looked after by no other body of people as they are looked after by the Salvation Army?

SPEARMAN HIGH DEFEATS PERRYTON HIGH SCHOOL

The girls' basket ball team of Spearman high school, accompanied by an enthusiastic crowd of loyal fans, journeyed to Perryton last Saturday, and succeeded in defeating the high school girls of that city in a hotly contested game, by a score of 14 to 11. It was a good game from start to finish, and the Spearman team say the Perryton team plays a splendid game, and are very nice, agreeable opponents. The home girls are highly elated at having won their first out-of-town game, and now plan many trips to neighboring towns. At the end of the first half of this game the score stood 9 to 2 in favor of Spearman Hi, but the Perryton girls succeeded in putting up a much better fight during the second half, and finished with the very creditable showing given above. Hurray for the home girls. The Reporter hopes they will win every game they match.

She was taken there last Friday, was operated on Saturday, and at present is doing nicely, a fact her many friends will learn with much pleasure.

Mrs. A. F. Barkley spent Monday in Perryton. Or rather, Mrs. B. intended to spend the day in Perryton and have some dental work done by Dr. Jarvis, but the train went off the track near Burnside and she, with the other passengers spent a greater part of the day half-way between Spearman and Perryton, waiting for another locomotive to come and pull them back on the rails.

Tom B. Windom came from his home near Springfield, Colorado, the first of the week for a visit with friends and relatives and to look after business matters here. Haynes Douglas, who has been out in Colorado on a visit, came in home with Mr. Windom. These gentlemen report plenty of rain and some snow in the Springfield country. They say Cool Colorado is decidedly cool at the present time, and they were glad to get out of the snowbound district. Mr. Windom recently sold a section of land near Springfield at a fancy profit, and tho he still owns two sections yet, his friends believe this to be the initial step toward his return to Hansford county.

A WILD GOOSE HUNT

A hunting party composed of Messrs. Lyman J. Hillhouse, C. W. Carson, R. J. McCaslin, Perron A. Lyon and Joe Close went out to the Grand Plains community Sunday evening, spent the night at the home of Clinton Wilson, and made a raid on the wild geese, found in large numbers on the great lakes in that vicinity, early Monday morning. The boys brought down a goose alright, and tho there is room for doubt about who fired the shot that broke the goose's wing, as they were all firing, it is generally conceded that the honor goes to Hilly, as he was using the longest range gun and the largest shot. The party is unanimous in their verdict that there is not a semblance of doubt about who killed the rabbit.

CAPTAIN MILLS RESIGNS

An associated press dispatch of November 15th, from New York, had the following to say of Captain A. R. Mills, brother-in-law of Judge J. H. Cator. Captain Mills has visited the Judge and family at their ranch home on the Palo Doro, west of Spearman, and is well known to many Hansford county people:

"New York—This man, Captain Arthur R. Mills, has crossed the Atlantic 1,068 times! He has been with the American line for 41 years, during which time his cross-Atlantic service has resulted in his steaming more than 3,000,000 miles, a distance equal to 128 times around the world. His vessels have carried more than half a million people—and without the loss of a single life! He was given the Cross of the Legion of Honor by France in 1917 for towing the disabled steamer "Jeanne d'Arc" 400 miles to the Azores. Captain Mills, who has just retired, has sailed for England to take a holiday rest in the country of his birth."

The OilPull Never Overheats

INVESTIGATION has proved that one of the big troubles developed by the average tractor is the overheating of the engine due to the heavy work which the tractor is called upon to perform.

This is because the average tractor is cooled with water.

The reason the OilPull never overheats, and is entirely free from all the ordinary cooling troubles, is because it is cooled with oil. This is an exclusive OilPull feature.

Unlike water—oil does not evaporate—there is no boiling in the hottest weather.

The temperature of the OilPull engine is held within correct limits at all times under all loads and climatic conditions. When the OilPull is working at top speed the oil is automatically kept cooler than when it is working at light load or running idle. There is absolutely no possibility of the OilPull overheating. And not only that, but the proper temperature for perfect kerosene combustion is maintained at all times.

Oil does not deposit scale or sediment—the OilPull circulating system is always open. Oil does not rust the system parts—the OilPull radiator will last the life of the tractor.

There are four sizes—12-20, 16-30, 20-40 and 30-60 H. P. Which do you need?

SPEARMAN GIVEN WIDE PUBLICITY BY WRIGHT

W. Hamilton Wright, director of publicity for the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, headquarters at Stamford, has written an article dealing with the north plains country, particularly Spearman and Perryton, which has been widely distributed. It follows:

The northern part of the Texas Panhandle seems to the casual visitors to be cut off from the rest of West Texas by more or less natural boundaries. The Canadian river, which crosses the northern part of the state, divides that section of country known as the North Plains from the territory reached by the main line of the Santa Fe through Canadian, Miami and Pampa, says W. K. Whipple, field representative of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, who has just finished an extensive trip into that section. It is in this section just south of the Oklahoma Panhandle that a year ago were the towns of Hansford, county seat of Hansford county, and Ochiltree, county seat of Ochiltree county. Both were small inland towns, served by the Rock Island railroad fifty miles to the northeast, but they were located in a territory that is proving a great wheat producing section.

Extends Branch Line

About a year ago the Santa Fe extended a branch line out of Shattuck, Oklahoma, into this great plains territory, but this line was built seven or eight miles from either town. The situation was—two good towns in a promising country without a railroad, and an eighty mile stretch of railroad without a town. The solution of the problem was not simple, but in West Texas people go to the mountain if the mountain will not come to them. The result was that Hansford and Ochiltree had a moving day. They not only packed their household goods and chins, but they loaded their buildings on skids and with the aid of large tractors, hauled them to the railroad. Everything from the bank to the barber shop was thus transported, and today we find two thriving young towns with a railroad, banks, water systems, electric light plants and hotels, where a few years ago was the bald prairie, covered with buffalo grass.

The towns are thirty-five miles apart. Hansford has changed its name to Spearman, and Ochiltree to Perryton. The town of Gray, Oklahoma, also packed up and moved down into Texas, joining the neighboring town of Perryton.

Remains of Town

As one drives through this new country he sees in the valley west of Spearman, the remains of what was once a town. The foundations of what was once a town are partially covered by a growth of weeds, the old bank vault of brick is still standing, the town pump still supplies water for the overheated Ford. But the old place is quiet, the court house alone remaining of the town of Hansford. Dust almost an inch deep covers its rooms and floors.

Eight miles east is the new town, rapidly becoming a center for all that great section. Surrounded by thousands upon thousands of acres of virgin prairie land waiting only for the plow, its location predicts that, as the country around develops, its power and influence will be felt.

These people of the North Plains are alive to the possibilities of their country. Spearman has an active chamber of commerce, a newspaper man who not only boosts but works, a banker who believes in his town and is on hand for anything that will help his community. New buildings are going up and at the present time, there are five elevators on the railroad, three lumber yards, hotels where you can get a real meal, and a picture show. The town now has a population of around 500 and as the great body of land around it is developed by man, the future growth of Spearman is assured.

The wheat acreage is being increased in the Spearman country each year and the prospects for a bumper crop for 1921 were never better.

The new bank at Texhoma, the Farmers State, are now representing the Oklahoma Farm Mortgage Co. over all this territory, having direct charge of seven counties in the Panhandle. If you need a farm loan quick, see us.

Fortunately we have the merchandise to fill your wants and satisfaction is guaranteed when you trade with P. Monkey Maize & Co.

CAN'T be beat. It has stood the test of time. Before the war, during the war and at the present time, it is the same old "Kelly's Famous," and the price is right. You cannot buy flour that is "just as good" quite as cheap as we can sell you Kelly's Famous.

In 500 pound lots we will make even better prices than quoted above. The more you buy, the better the price. We bought this stuff to sell and intend to sell it. Our price is "just a little lower" than competitors. Come and see.

Pains Were Terrific

Read how Mrs. Albert Gregory, of R. F. D. No. 1, Blufford, Ill., got rid of her ills. "During . . . I was awfully weak . . . My pains were terrific. I thought I would die. The bearing-down pains were actually so severe I could not stand the pressure of my hands on the lower part of my stomach . . . I simply felt as if life was for but a short time. My husband was worried . . . One evening, while reading the Birthday Almanac, he came across a case similar to mine, and went straight for some Cardui for me to try.

"I took it faithfully and the results were immediate," adds Mrs. Gregory. "I continued to get better, all my ills left me, and I went through . . . with no further trouble. My baby was fat and strong, and myself—thank God—am once more hale and hearty, can walk miles, do my work, though 44 years old, feel like a new person. All I owe to Cardui." For many years Cardui has been found helpful in building up the system when run down by disorders peculiar to women.

RIVER AND FOUNTAIN

ONCE there was a Little River running near a beautiful Fountain in a garden.

In the sunlight Fountain throwing its stream of water made wonderful colors and it sparkled and splashed as it fell into the big basin beneath it.

"Oh, how beautiful it is," said the Little River looking up at the Fountain.

"How I wish I could sparkle and make beautiful colors as it does in the sunlight."

The Fountain tossed its waters higher and splashed louder when it heard the Little River's lament.

"I am sorry for you," it said, "for it must be quite dull down where you are, and very tiresome, too, running on as you have to over the rough stones.

"The world is very beautiful up here and as I dance and splash everyone who comes this way stops to admire me. Yes, I pity you and I do not wonder that you admire me and wish you could be in my place."

The Little River did not dare reply to the Fountain. It was too far above it, and as all the Fountain said seemed true to Little River, it ran along about its work, still wishing it was beautiful.

That night when all was still and the water at the Fountain had been turned off, a big tree, swaying over the river, spoke to it.

"Little River, I heard you complaining today that the big fountain was very beautiful and you wished you were like it," said the Tree.

"Oh, yes, but I am only a lowly little river and can never hope to be like the lovely Fountain," replied Little River.

"Yes, the Fountain is beautiful," said the Tree, "but do you not know that it is your water that supplies the beautiful Fountain and if you were not here there would be no Fountain?"

Little River almost forgot to move, it was so surprised. "It cannot be true," it said. "I never could get up there; you must be mistaken."

"It is true," said the Tree, "the water that sparkles and flashes at the Fountain comes from here. It is true that some man-made power forces it to the fountain bed, but the water comes from you, Little River, so do not envy the Fountain any more for without you the Fountain would not be beautiful."

The next morning, in the sunlight the Little River ran so swiftly over the rocks and stones that it almost jumped from its bed, it was so happy, and the big Fountain looking down upon it wondered how it could seem so joyous.

But though the Fountain was as beautiful as before, Little River was never again envious for was it not from it that the Fountain got its beauty?

Little River never stopped to tell the Fountain what it knew. "I could not be any happier," said Little River, "and it might make the Fountain sad to know that its loveliness came from a lowly little river."

CARRYING A TON A MILE FOR LESS THAN A CENT

Freight rates have played a very small part in the rising cost of living. Other causes—the waste of war, underproduction, credit inflation—have added dollars to the cost of the necessities of life, while freight charges have added only cents.

The average charge for hauling a ton of freight a mile is less than a cent. A suit of clothing that sold for $30 before the war was carried 2,265 miles by rail from Chicago to Los Angeles for 16½ cents. Now the freight charge is 22 cents and the suit sells for $50.

The cost of the suit has increased 20 dollars. The freight on it has increased only 5½ cents. Other transportation charges enter into the cost of the finished article—carrying the wool to the mills and the cloth to the tailors—but these other charges amount to but a few cents more.

The $10 pair of shoes that used to sell for $5 goes from the New England factory to the Florida dealer for a freight charge of 5½ cents—only one cent more than the pre-war rate.

EVERYWHERE IN AMERICA.

Not somewhere in America, but everywhere today. Where snow-crowned mountains hold their heads, the vales where children play, Beside the bench and whirling lathe, on every lake and stream And in the depths of earth below, men share a common dream, The dream our brave forefathers had of freedom and of right. And once again in honor's cause, they rally and unite.

Not somewhere in America is love of country found But east and west and north and south once more the bugles sound And once again, as one, men stand to break their brother's chains. And make the world a better place, where only justice reigns. The patriotism that is here, is echoed over there The hero at a certain post is on guard everywhere. O'er humble home and mansion rich the starry banner flies And far and near throughout the land the men of valor rise.

The flag that flutters o'er your home is fluttering far away O'er homes that you have never seen. The same impulses sway The souls of men in distant states, The red, the white and blue Means to one hundred million strong. Just what 't means to you, The self-same courage resolute you feel and understand Is throbbing in the breasts of men throughout this mighty land. Not somewhere in America, but everywhere today For justice and for liberty all free men work and pray. (Copyright by Edgar A. Guest.)
