City To Remove Abandoned Vehicles

The City Council recently decided that a clean up campaign was long overdue on abandoned and nonusable automobiles parked on the streets in the city.
The first step in this program was to notify all owners of cars abandoned on the streets.
The car owners can authorize their removal by signing a waiver.
The owners so notified and who do not authorize removal will have the vehicles removed by bonded wrecker service and impounded behind locked fence for a 30 day period.

They will then be auctioned off at public auction to the highest bidder.
The next step in the clean-up program will be the same procedure as described above on city easement and private property.
The administration is hopeful that the campaign will eliminate dangerous traffic hazards and greatly improve the appearance of our city.

●●● GAME TIME 7:30 AT PHILLIPS ●●●

Lynx meet Hawks in crucial game Friday nite!!!!

Jimmy Kenny, Jeff Beedy, Ricky Morris, and Calvin Bodey celebrate after a touchdown against Dalhart Friday night. The Lynx had their hands full against a good Wolf team.

This will be the biggest week-end of the year for the Spearman football teams, fans, and student body. First, the 7th grade will open the action for the week, at Phillips Thursday afternoon when they meet the Phillips 7th graders in a 5 p. m. afternoon game. The 7th grade will be ready for this one, and it should be a real crowd pleaser. The 8th graders will follow the action, with an equally important game, as they go after the "black birds" at Phillips. A real thriller for local fans, should be played at the Lynx Stadium Thursday afternoon, when the local B team, or Junior Varsity, plays host to the Perryton Ranger Junior Varsity. This game will begin at 7 p. m. Thursday evening.

Highlighting the week-end of football, will be the big district game at Phillips this Friday evening at 7:30 p. m. The Lynx have never beaten the Hawks at Hawkville, but by the same token, the Lynx, under Coach Sherwood have never lost to the Hawks! The "birds" should be in good shape for the Lynx game, and the Lynx likewise will be in good shape.

We scouted the Phillips-Guymon game recently in order to bring an accurate report on the Phillips team. Our scouting report is that Phillips has more determination than any team we have ever watched, other than our own Lynx. And, the Hawks get "all" they can out of their small squad.

Although the Lynx have been plagued with injuries this year, we feel like the team will be ready for the game Friday night. Of course, Hargis will not be with us, but Pack is back, and some of the others who have been nursing injuries should be ready for the "big one" Friday night.

Kids Dog Show

Hansford County's first unbench and unprofessional Dog Show for Kids from 4 through 14 will be Nov. 1 at the County Barn on Ave. D in Spearman.

The show is being sponsored jointly as a public service by the National Recreation and Parks Association, Kennel-Ration, Carron's Canine Clip-Joint and Happy Homes Home Demonstration Club.

There will be seven judging classifications with first, second and third place ribbons in each. Categories to be judged are: Best trick dog, smallest dog, largest dog, best looking, best costumed, funniest (without a costume) and best behaved. The "Best of Show" trophy will be chosen from among the first place category winners.

All dogs may participate in the show, regardless of pedigree, breed or special training. Dogs entered in the smallest dog category must be over 6 months old. All dogs must be leashed and should have had their distemper and rabies shots.

All contestants will receive a ribbon, a booklet entitled "How To Care For, Train and Feed Your Dog." Plus Tom Larra of Panhandle Veterinary Clinic said he thought he would have something for each child also.

Judges for the show are: Helen Whitaker, Mary Lou Wysong, Jock Lee, Don Wisdorfer and James

Allen Schnell.

Entry forms will be filled out at the County Barn from 12-1:30 (the day of the show) Nov. 1. The show is limited to one hundred contestants so be sure to get registered early. Contestants may enter their dog in more than one category.

A concession stand will be available at the show and the proceeds from this will go to Happy Homes Home Demonstration Club.

This is free of charge and should be a lot of fun for both the contestants and the spectators, so come on parents, let this be your kids day to show off their dog, and when you are getting their halloween costume ready don't forget your dog's. Then bring your camera with you to the show. Further information can be obtained from Carmon Laird 659-2105.

"What is a reasonable charge?" These are questions beneficiaries often ask about medical insurance payments under Medicare.

To help beneficiaries get a better understanding of this concept, a detailed explanation of how reasonable charges are determined is contained in your Medicare Handbook. A new edition of the handbook was mailed to all Medicare beneficiaries and to health care providers late last year.

Basically, the "reasonable charge" simply means the amount on which Medicare bases its payment for a covered service or supply. And the reasonable charge for a covered service or supply in a particular area is determined by the Medicare carrier for that area.

The carrier is an organization selected by the Social Security Administration to handle medical insurance payments. Carriers use a specific formula, which is based on the Medicare law, to determine reasonable charges.

Each year the carrier reviews all the charges made by doctors and suppliers in the previous calendar year. This is called the customary charge. Next, the carrier determines what amount is high enough to include the customary charge in three out of four bills submitted in the previous year. This is called the prevailing charge. Then, when a medical insurance claim is submitted for payment, the carrier compares the actual charge shown on the claim to the customary and prevailing charges for that service or supply. The reasonable charge under Medicare will be either the customary charge, the prevailing charge, or the actual charge, whichever is lowest.

If you have any questions regarding Medicare, please contact your nearest social security office. The Pampa Social Security Office is located at 1541 North Hobart Street. The phone number is 669-3381 (area code 806).

Farm Taxes & Exemptions

LUBBOCK--Texas voters will go to the polls November 4 to cast ballots on the proposed Texas constitution, voting on eight separate propositions concerning the constitutional structure of the state government.

Proposition 5 (Finance Article) has far-reaching implications for Texas farmers.

Grain Sorghum Producers Association, working with Delwin Jones of Lubbock, has studied various implications of the finance article in an attempt to eliminate some confusion concerning the proposed documents and its effect on agriculture.

Jones, a life-long Lubbock County farmer, served in the Texas House of Representatives for eight years and was chairman of the Agricultural Committee. In addition to his work with GSPA, Jones currently farms and is active with Plains Cotton Growers, High Plains Research Foundation and Texas Farm Bureau.

FARM SALES TAX EXEMPTION

Jones explained that approval of the finance article will exempt from sales tax farm machinery, feed, seed, fertilizer and parts. These exemptions are not presently included in the constitution. The items are exempted in the sales tax law but could be removed by any future legislature.

TAX VALUATION OF FARM AND RANCH LAND

Another vital area to Texas farmers deals with land tax valuation, Jones said. "Under the present constitution, land value for tax purposes must be determined by the most recent sales of land in the same area. This simply means that land speculators may establish values so high that taxes in many areas may well exceed the farm or ranch gross income of the land itself," Jones said.

"If Proposition 5 is approved, it will assure that farm and ranch land tax value shall be based on its net income capacity. This will give the farmers and ranchers the same consideration that oil companies, life insurance companies and banks have on their buildings," he added.

Proposition 5 provides that the legislature shall establish separate formulas for appraising farm and ranch land.

Jones explained that the proposed change would place emphasis on the net profit of farms and ranches instead of their market value.

The legislature has already enacted a formula that would establish the net income of a farm or ranch as a basis for its taxable value. It provides that the five year average net income shall establish this basis, but this net income value SHALL NOT EXCEED the fair market value.

"I believe that the net income valuation for the individual farm or ranch will protect the farmer or rancher from excessive taxation," Jones said.

Proposition 5 also authorizes property tax exemptions for those over 65 years of age ($3,000) and exemptions for veteran and other non-profit organizations. It states that refundable assessments voted by marine food and agricultural producers shall not be classified as taxes.

In addition to the specific items of sales tax exemptions and favorable tax valuation of farm and ranch land, Jones said that Proposition 5 does not delegate any new authority to the legislature.

"In fact, it is more restrictive than the present constitution," he said.

BITS OF THIS AND THAT

It was sure nice seeing Larry and Cathy Rauscher Friday evening. Larry and Cathy and son are living in Borger where Larry works for Fisher. Their baby sure has grown. They said "Larry's Dad, Tom Rauscher, has a real good job working for the City of Pampa" and that Tom and Ardella are just fine and doing well. Sure was nice to hear that they are all well and doing good. Come back again, Larry and Cathy, was really nice seeing you once again. Since Dave and I haven't been feeling to well and can't get around to good right now, we have Lee McDade helping us out after school. Lee's a good worker and is catching on fairly fast, so stop by and say "hello" to her. She's trying very hard and we feel lucky in getting her to help us out.

Our Heritage of Faith

notes from Faith Lutheran Church Friday, the 24th at 6:30 there is going to be a Pastor's Circle of the Panhandle Conference Lutheran Churches at Oslo. There are eleven churches represented by this conference and this circle is a time for Pastor's and wives to share some of the joys and pitfalls of the ministry. It is a time to give support to one another in christian love and concern. October 25, Saturday, the Luther League has been invited by the 1st Presbyterian Youth to go on a hayride and weiner roast. We are to meet at the 1st Presbyterian Church at 5:30. This enables us to have fun yet share in one another's ministry here in Spearman. Sunday the League will meet at 2:00 for practice of the upcoming Talent Show and Congregational Supper which is going to be held on the 9th of November. Tuesday the 28th at 4:00 a new Jr. League is forming. This is for grades 4-6. The children wanted to form this group so it is our duty to give them a chance. Coming Nov. 3rd Faith again will be in a softball league which includes churches from Boise City, Hooker, Guymon and Oslo. Last year Faith won the tournament at the end of the year. This is again joy and fun in fellowship. What do Lutherans believe? Since listing the coming events and saying that fellowship is important it seems appropriate to say that Lutherans stress the "community of saints". This simply is the whole of christian believers or the church universal. Luther called it the holy community or just christian people or church. In this "Christian Church" we have the forgiveness of sins which is granted through the sacraments and absolution as well as through all the comforting words of the entire Gospel. In this community we therefore have joy, peace and strength. So if you have no home of worship join us at Faith and share in the joy and peace of the community of saints. Worship at 9:30, Sunday School at 10:30.

GAME NUMBER SEVEN

By ten close points,
Our 'Bunch' came through!
Mr. Harris was wrong,
But we knew that too.
Angry Purple teamed up,
Real proud you should be;
Dalhart's a fine team, but

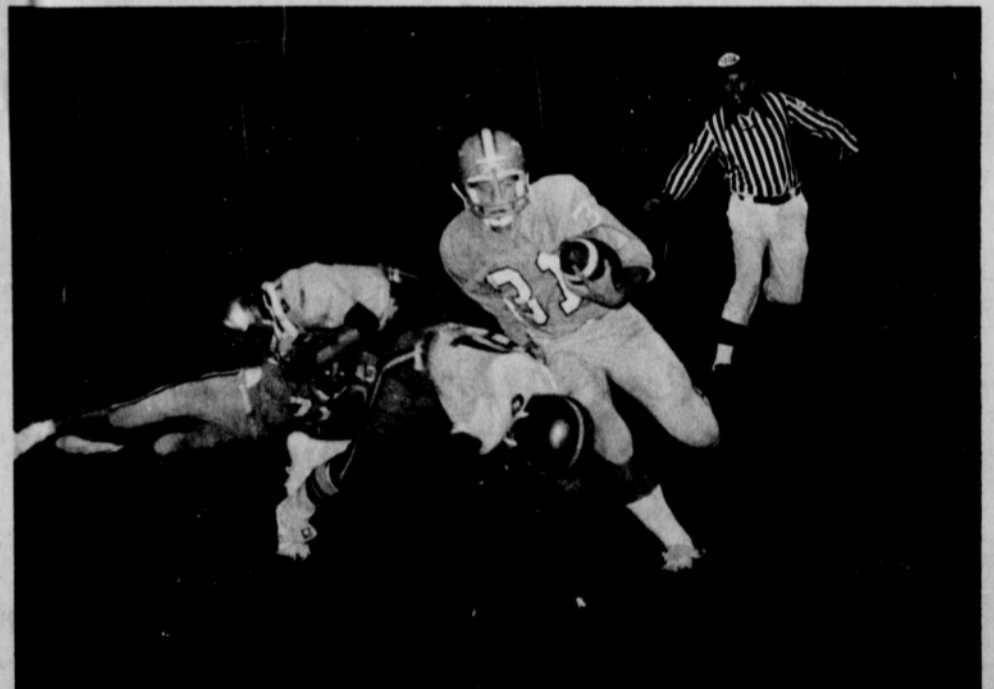

The Pride's something to see.
Hawks are up next,
Expecting to run and gun;

Beware of their talents,
Losses and ties they have none.
At the Hawk playpen,
Comes this seventh game!
Know what to expect,
High trickery is their middle name,
Another great effort,
With the game of the year!
Knock out their tail feathers, and Spearman's one step nearer.

LETTERS To The Editor

Dear Billy:

Enclosed is some information on Proposition 2 of the proposed new Texas Constitution. I am forwarding this information to you in hopes that your paper will take a stand in favor of the Unified Court System proposed by the Constitutional Amendment. Most of the members of the State Bar of Texas are in favor of Proposition 2 and feel that the unification of our court system will be a direct benefit to the citizens of our state.

If I can personally answer any questions for you concerning this proposition I will be happy to visit with you on them.

Very truly yours,
J. E. Blackburn
Editor's Note: The following is a statement by Loyd Lochridge, President of the State Bar of Texas, dated Wednesday, Sept. 17, 1975.

Our message to the voters is this: Exercise your right to vote separately on the issue of court reform, which is Proposition 2 on the November 4 ballot.

We are taking this position because those who oppose one or two parts of the new constitution are resorting to the political expediency of urging voters to vote against the ENTIRE constitution just to kill the one or two parts they do not like.

We believe this shotgun approach is an insult to the intelligence of the voters of Texas. Texas voters are fully capable of voting FOR some parts of the new constitution and against others—splitting your ticket is nothing new in Texas. We believe Texas voters who take even a brief look at the problems plaguing our court system will agree with us that while our judges as individuals are doing a good job, our court system as a whole is not working well because our present Constitution prevents judicial teamwork.

Proposition 2 will allow us to salvage thousands of judicial man-hours which are now going to waste because there is no means of using them.

The State Bar of Texas feels strongly enough on this issue to create a special committee to inform Texas voters of this unprecedented opportunity on November 4 to save their court system from a slow death by case-load strangulation.

As chairman of this committee, I feel secure in the State Bar's position because it is based on continuous support of court reform during the last three years: Since 1973, when the lawyers of Texas voted in a special referendum to support the Chief Justice's Task Force's proposals to modernize the outdated Judiciary Article in our Constitution, State Bar leadership has steadfastly endorsed the reforms contained in Proposition 2 on the November 4 ballot. Our reasons for supporting Proposition 2 are:

1. First, as the arm of state government charged by our own "charter" with the obligation of "advancement of the administration of justice and the science of jurisprudence" in Texas we cannot stand by silently as criminal trial backlogs threaten to make a mockery of our Constitution's guarantee to a "speedy trial".

The citizens of Texas would be horrified if they realized that the backlog of felony cases in Houston and San Antonio is so bad that it would take a year just to clear the dockets even if not a single new case was filed in these two counties. Our present system does not put our judges where the workload is; under the new constitutional Judiciary Article, our Supreme Court could call on judges who have eliminated their backlog of civil and criminal cases and assign them to help a fellow judge who is overloaded with cases.

2. Secondly, we are convinced justice is delayed unnecessarily under our present system of handling appeals of criminal cases. All criminal appeals are bottlenecked in a single court--the Court of Criminal Appeals--it might surprise you to hear that it takes a year and a half from trial through conclusion of an appeal. Once again, we believe the citizens of Texas would be puzzled by the fact that while the Court of Criminal Appeals continues to handle a staggering caseload of 2,600 decisions a year, there are intermediate appeals courts which handle as few as 53 cases a year--five of our 14 courts of civil appeals averaged only one new case filed each week. Our present system, once again is not putting our judges where the workload is; under the new constitutional Judiciary Article, this network of 42 courts of civil appeals judges would be given authority to hear appeals of criminal cases.

Highway Film Available

"A Legacy Of Transportation" is now available for showing by area civic clubs and schools.

The updated slide presentation, produced by the Travel & Information Division of the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation, includes information pertaining to the new department responsibility: public transportation.

The slide program, which replaces "The Highway Story," is being loaned by the department's educational film library in Amarillo.

In June 1975 the 64th Legislature passed legislation that in effect merged the State Highway Department and another agency, the Texas Mass Transportation Commission, into a single multimodal department--the new State Department of Highways and Public Transportation.

The responsibility of public transportation systems and highways was placed for the first time in Texas history in one entity, the SDHPT. Senate Bill 761 gives the revised department additional duties for assistance in planning and funding public transportation in the State's urban and rural areas.

"A Legacy Of Transportation" is a 16-minute, 44-second slide program that may be presented with either a reel tape or a cassette.

In order to schedule a showing of "A Legacy Of Transportation" please contact a department supervisor in your area or the District Public Affairs Office at 5715 Canyon Drive in Amarillo, 806 355-5671.

For years, we at Community Public Service Company have been tightening our belts, trying to cut costs and operate more efficiently. And it's worked.

The number of kilowatt hours we provide jumped from over 1½ billion in 1964 to over 3 billion in 1974 . . . a whopping increase of 91%. Yet during that same ten years, the number of our employees increased only 17%.

In 1964, Community Public Service Company's electric customers numbered 97,000. Today we serve 133,000 customers . . . an increase of 37%. So you see . . . over the past few years, when the cost of many products and services has risen so rapidly, Community Public Service Company has been working to hold costs down, while providing the most efficient electric service possible.

Now, and in the future, we will continue to provide the best possible service to our customers. At Community Public Service Company, efficient service is what we're all about.

County Farmers Gross Up

For Hansford County's farm community, the past year turned out to be a better one, by and large, than it did for farmers and ranchers in many parts of the country.

Although some operators did little more than hold their own, others, especially growers with large, well-equipped setups, ended up well in the black. The results were not so good, on the other hand, for most livestock producers.

The final figures for the year, recently released on a county-by-county basis, show that gross receipts in the local area from the sale of crops, livestock and other farm products compared favorably with those reported in 1973. The better showing was due to higher prices obtained for most commodities rather than to increased production. Expectations of a bumper crop petered out because of the hot, dry summer followed by an early frost.

However, figures from the Department of Agriculture show that it was a landmark year in that gross farm income in the United States topped $100 billion for the first time in history.

In Hansford County, according to data compiled by the Standard Rate and Data Service, farm receipts in the year came to $11,497,000, as against the previous year's $8,843,000.

The increase, 35 percent, compares with a 21 percent rise in the United States and with a 32 percent rise in the State of Texas.

The income figure refers to gross receipts, before taxes and operating costs are taken into account.

The bulk of it consisted of cash returns from the sale of crops, livestock and other commodities. Making up the rest were government payments and

Institutions Qualify for ACS Grants

Texas cancer research specialists and medical institutions have qualified for new American Cancer Society research grants totaling $745,109 which were effective July 1 of this year.

Charles Pelphrey, M. D., president of the Texas Division of the American Cancer Society, announced that eight institutions received the new grants. The Texas Board president said that the new grants include Southwestern Medical School, Dallas, $42,196; University of Texas M. D. Anderson Hospital and Tumor Institute, Houston, $25,356; University of Houston, Houston, $90,654; and University of Texas Medical School, San Antonio, $44,000.

Other institutions receiving the research grants included Baylor College of Medicine, Houston, $334,103; University of Texas Medical Branch, Galveston, $40,000; 24 National Clinical Fellowships ($4,800 each) in 5 Texas institutions; 4 National Junior Faculty Clinical Fellowships ($3,600 each) in 6 Texas institutions; 5 Texas Division Medical/Dental Student Fellowships ($600 each) in 2 Texas institutions.

"Clinical fellowships serve to support young physicians in their choice of various specialties," Pelphrey concluded. "Our goal is to improve the diagnosis and treatment of cancer."

Nelle's News

by Nelle Evans

Fall is a traditional housecleaning time. Are you over-cleaning your house? If the grocery bill shows too much money spent on non-food items, "limited-use" cleaning products may be the problem.

You can save money by making cleaning products from a few basic supplies such as ammonia, vinegar, baking soda and washing soda.

Try one of these solutions for cleaning windows and mirrors:

--for heavy, greasy soil, add four tablespoons ammonia to one quart of warm water.

--for hard water spots, add two tablespoons vinegar to one quart of warm water.

And lemon juice works wonders to remove rust stains on the porcelain enamel on sinks, bathtubs and toilets.

For sluggish drain pipes, flush with one-half pound washing soda dissolved in two cups boiling water.

Keep furniture clean with 'distless' cloths that gather dust instead of scattering it. To make a treated cloth, put a few drops of cleaning wax in a jar, coating the sides. Place a soft cloth inside the jar, cap tightly and leave overnight.

For cleaning ovens, place a small dish filled with ammonia in a cool oven and leave several hours to loosen grease film. Later, wipe clean.

Have you ever noticed the differences made by age spacings between children in a family? Understanding the effects of age spacing between siblings may be a good clue to their behavior.

Two to four years apart appears to be the most stressful spacing. The firstborn is old enough to think he has to compete with the "intruder"--but too young to understand that parental love can stretch to include another child.

If sibling spacing is less than two years, the firstborn hasn't had as much time to be the center of attention--so he's more willing to accept a new addition to the family.

And the child who is more than four years older than his sibling can understand some effects of a new addition. He can realize that his parents have to give the baby different kinds of attention than what he needs--and that they're still interested in his activities.

Noting some specific problems with children two to four years apart, the firstborn often seems somewhat reserved and controls his angry feelings more effectively than his sibling.

Of course, the older child may have learned this control because he knew he'd be punished for aggressively dealing with his sibling.

By contrast, parents often permit--and may even encourage--the second child to defend himself. As a result, second born children become less hesitant to exhibit their anger.

Also, when a wider age space exists between children, there may be less friction if the older child can take some responsibility of caring for the younger one.

FARM AND RANCH NEWS

By Joe Van Zandt

This unusually warm, dry fall weather is certainly favorable for our grain harvest. This fall harvest is probably setting a record for allowing farmers to get their crops harvested without wet weather interruption. I am hearing of some real good yields that are being harvested.

All of this dry weather has made our wheat pasture prospects dim. I recently received a USDA release on wheat pasture conditions. The release stated that only 1 percent of the fall seeded wheat in the three-state region of Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas had sufficient growth to support grazing as of October 1.

The report went on to state that in western Kansas about 50 percent of the fall wheat had been seeded. Due to the lack of moisture, much of this acreage is coming up to uneven stands.

The Low Rolling Plains area of Texas is apparently the only area with adequate moisture. Last week when I went to Dallas, I noticed a lot of wheat sowing taking place in the Vemon area and wheat was coming up to good stands in fields already planted.

Even though we are extremely dry on the surface, apparently we have good sub-soil moisture, thanks to the above normal summer rains we had. I know several fairly late planted dryland fields have come up to good stands in the county where I would have thought the soil was too dry to germinate the seed. Here's hoping this sub-moisture will keep our wheat going until we get a good snow since it doesn't look like it is going to rain this fall.

Peach tree borers - now is the time to treat your peach trees for the Peach Tree Borer. These borers enter and feed on the cambium and inner bark in an area 6 inches above the ground to about that far below ground line. Masses of frass and gum exude from the wounds caused by yellow-white larvae.

The treatment to be used at this time of year is Paradichlorobenzene crystals (PDB), which is also the chemical contained in many moth crystals. Check the label on a moth crystal container to verify that it contains PDB.

Treat peach or plum trees between October 20 and November 15 when the soil is dry and soil temperature is above 55 F. Remove weeds, loosen and level soil about 1 foot from the tree trunk. Place PDB crystals in a narrow circular band preferably in a groove about 2 inches from the trunk. Place several shovels of clean soil over the crystals and mound the earth into a cone-shaped pile about 6 inches high around the base of the tree. Avoid pushing any of the material against the trees, since crystals can cause injury. Compact the soil with the back of the shovel. Remove the mounds in early spring. For 2 to 3 year old trees, use 1/2 oz. of crystals; 4-5 year old trees use 3/4 oz.; for mature trees use 1 oz. of the crystals.

If you have borers up above the lower trunk of your peach tree, then you probably have the Lesser Peach Tree Borer. This damage occurs above the ground in the tree trunk and limbs. These borers usually occur where trees are damaged by implement low temperatures or other means of bark injury. Keep trees healthy and as free as possible from wounds, cankers, and winter injury. Control the Lesser Peach Tree Borer by painting affected areas with PDB in dormant oil, prepared by dissolving 2 pounds of PDB crystals in 1 gallon of miscible dormant oil and diluting with 2 gallons of water. Treat only affected areas and do not circle the entire trunk or limb. Apply on a warm, sunny day after trees have shed all foliage.

Mrs. Maude Ayres (Grandmother Ayres) was not only queen for a day on her 94th birthday, but is queen for everyday as far as members of her family and her friends are concerned.

On the momentous occasion of her 94th birthday, October 10, her family gathered at the Dunaway Manor in Guyton, Oklahoma, where she is now a resident to help her celebrate. Cake 'n ice cream and all the trimmings helped to make the occasion something special in each of their lives but most important to her was that her family were there with her.

Mrs. Ayres has a sister in California who also has an October birthday and she managed to send greetings to her while her family looked on and also signed the California-bound card.

Water, Inc. Sets Meet

Directors of Water, Inc., will converge on Amarillo Friday (Oct. 24) for a session in the Reddy Room, SPS Tower. Significant items coming before the directors will be recommendations from their Food and Fiber Committee and selection of a meeting site for the annual membership meeting, slated next February. A meeting of the Water, Inc., Executive Committee will precede the director get-together.

The Water, Inc., Food and Fiber Committee is expected to recommend a stepped up program of public information aimed at acquainting Texans outside the High Plains area with the magnitude of the agricultural production of the area and the dependence of the remainder of the state and nation on this agricultural production. The committee, which met in its initial session recently, is headed by Bruce Rigler of Plainview.

Water, Inc., is a private non-profit organization financed through voluntary membership dues and has set for its goal the implementation of an import water project. Its director represents a cross section of the economy of West Texas and Eastern New Mexico.

George McCleskey, Lubbock, Water, Inc., president, said any person having an interest in the organization's work is welcome to attend the board meeting.

BANKERS HAVE MOVIE TUESDAY

The First State Bank presented the program at the Tuesday noon Lions Club, and the Rotary Club on Monday. The program was on "Con or Paper Hangers" who are thieves writing hot checks to the local banks.

The program was very informative, and the projectionist was Lion Claude Newell.

In other business at the Lions Club, Boss Lion Pogue urged all of the Lions members to attend the 50th wedding anniversary for Lions Clay and Hazel Gibner, which will be held this Sunday afternoon at the First Methodist Church.

On behalf of the Lions Club, I would like to take this opportunity to congratulate one of our members and his wife upon the forthcoming celebration of their Golden Wedding Anniversary. Their lives have been a vital part of this Community, their Church and this club has been supported by their interest. I call upon the members of this Club to attend the open house this coming Sunday, between the hours of 2 and 5 p.m. at First United Methodist Church to add your words of congratulations to this couple whose married years have been given to our town. We live in a better town because of them, and our heartiest congratulations to Mr. Clay Gibner and his wife on this the occasion of their Golden Anniversary.

C. OF C. BREAKFAST

Gene Cudd and his crew were hosts for the Chamber of Commerce breakfast Tuesday morning. Clark Mires and the Hansford Cowboy were hosts for the breakfast. C. D. Riggins and his crew cooked a delicious breakfast of yellow scrambled eggs and ham, plus biscuits! We suspect that Gene colored the eggs yellow! Eck Lee received the prize for the oldest in attendance; Roscoe won the $25.00 for the member prize. H. and H. won $25.00 on the membership drawing; the Masons won the club attendance prize. All of these winnings were donated to the library and fire department.

Mrs. Sid Evans won the bubble gum blowing contest, and we will have an action picture of Felma in the Sunday paper. She defeated Paul Hazlewood in the finals, and it looked like Ab Abston took 3rd place!

All of us thank Gene Cudd, C. D. and of course the Chamber of Commerce for such a fine breakfast! Music was by Mrs. Clark and Mr. and Mrs. Wes Nivens!

GOBLINS OUT AT CEMETERY

A warning by the head spook has been posted with the Spearman Reporter to be on the watch for spooks and goblins. Although in the past the spooks do not come out until Halloween, one has already been spotted at Old Hansford! Now we don't want to refer to Helen Fisher as a spook, but we must clear up a small problem that occurred at the cemetery this week. Helen goes to work early for a feedlot South of Gruver. She also helps with the cemetery work. She was checking a grave for a woman early Monday morning (it was still real dark) when some three or four cars stopped, and sped away in apparent fear and disbelief. So, if you see a body walking around in the cemetery, carrying a small light, you can be assured that it is Helen, who is too pretty and nice to be a Spook! Or at least we hope it is Helen!
