Dorothy Woolley's father dies

J.R. (Jamie) Halliburton, 76, died of a heart attack at his home Wednesday morning. Services were held Friday, Oct. 21, 1983 at the Fairview Methodist Church near Slapout, Oklahoma.

Mr. Halliburton was the father of Dorothy Woolley and Grandfather of Gary and Joey Woolley all of Spearman.

Absentee ballots ready

Absentee ballots are available at the county clerk's office for the November 8 constitutional election. Eleven propositions will be decided this year, covering a broad range of issues. All county residents are eligible to vote in the election if they have registered within 30 days of November 8.

Only seven excuses will be accepted by the board of elections for voters who wish to receive an absentee ballot. Those reasons are:

- expected absence from the county on the day of the election
- age of 65 years or older
- religious beliefs which do not allow a person to vote on the day of the election
- sickness or physical disability
- service as an election clerk or poll watcher
- confinement in jail
- service as an administrator of elections

Applications for an absentee ballot can be completed in the county clerk's office until Friday, November 4, free of charge.

The eleven propositions on the ballot were voted by the state legislature during its last session and are being considered as amendments to the state constitution. They have been simplified for the November ballot, and will be answered by a yes or no vote.

Proposition one would amend the system for distribution of justices of the peace in the state. If approved, a county with more than 30,000 people would be divided into between four and eight justice of the peace precincts. A county with between 18,000 and 30,000 would be divided in two to five precincts, and a county with fewer than 18,000 inhabitants would be designated as a single precinct. However, the county commissioners court would be empowered to create up to four precincts in that county if there were special conditions.

Proposition two would limit a homestead in a city or town to a lot or lots equaling less than one acre of land, together with any improvements to that land.

A third proposition would authorize the legislature to enact laws permitting representative associations of agricultural producers to collect refundable assessments on sales of their products. This money would then be used to finance programs of marketing promotion, research, and education for and about those products.

Another proposition would allow the legislature to prepare an order of succession for members of the legislature in case of enemy attack. It would also allow the legislature to suspend procedural rules in case of attack or the imminent threat of attack. Suspension of the constitutional rules could not exceed two years under a single decree by the governor, but could last longer if it were renewed by the state house and senate.

The legislature would be empowered to enact legislation allowing the use of the permanent school fund and income from it to guarantee bonds issued by the school districts under proposition five. The legislature would also be allowed to appropriate part of the available school fund to administer the permanent school fund.

The state would be permitted to take a person's wages to enforce court-ordered child support payments if proposition six passed. The state would not be allowed to seize wages for any other purpose, however.

Proposition seven would authorize the Veterans' Land Board to issue and sell state general obligation bonds for up to $800 million to provide financing to veterans of the state. Three hundred million dollars worth of bonds would be used by the Veterans' Land Fund to purchase land to be sold to veterans. A Veteran's Housing Assistance fund would also be created with the remaining $500 million.

The eighth proposition on the ballot would authorize cities and counties to exempt veterans' organizations from ad valorem taxation on their property. The veterans' organizations would have to be chartered by the United States Congress and be devoted to "patriotic and public service projects." Fraternal organizations may also be exempted from ad valorem taxes on their property if the amendment passes, if the organizations were primarily devoted to charitable or benevolent projects. The legislature would set standards for which groups qualified as fraternal organizations.

Proposition nine would authorize the legislature to devise a way by which judges of statutory courts with probate jurisdiction could be assigned to any other similar court or to any constitutional county court in the state.

Proposition ten would allow the legislature to pass laws to allow a city to use public funds to relocate or replace sanitation sewage laterals on public property if it was done together replacement or relocation of sewer mains on that property. The law would further authorize the city to take a lien on the private property, with the owner's consent, to cover the costs of the operation.

The final proposition on the 1983 ballot would change the board of paroles from a constitutional agency to a statutory agency. It would also eliminate the power of the governor to revoke paroles.

Lynx lose to Wolves

Sometimes you can play with all heart, and desires, and hustle in the world and still not win in football.

Crippled, hobbled and shorthanded—with a completely makeshift offensive backfield—the Spearman Lynx gave it a good shot, but it was just not enough, and the Lynx fell 22-7 to the Dalhart Wolves Friday night in Dalhart.

The Lynx went into the contest without the services of their leading rusher, Julio Vazquez, out with a knee injury, and their regular starting fullback who quit the team.

It was doubtful whether Ross Donahue, the Lynx' ace signal caller and passer, would be able to play against the Golden Wolves after being carried from the field on a stretcher and rushed by ambulance to the hospital with a dislocated knee in the previous Friday's win over Canadian.

But play he did and turned in a fantastically gummy performance. Hobbled and slowed by the knee, he could not move with his usual authority and finesse. He quickly proved there was nothing wrong with his throwing arm, however when on the Lynx second possession, he dropped back and winged a long touchdown pass to Mac McLain.

Before the game was over, Donahue had taken to the air 27 times, completing nine for 147 yards and the Lynx only touchdown.

Unfortunately for the Lynx, their ground game was not equally up to par. They gained only 90 yards, and quite understandably so. Donahue at quarterback was the only starter playing his normal position.

Jeff Laird, the number one back up for Vasquez, started at tailback, but he was injured in the game, and Ricky Lopez, the team's starting halfback, moved over to tailback. He had only practiced at this position a couple of days, and from this unaccustomed slot, Lopez was not as effective a runner as usual.

To fill the gap at halfback, Head Coach-Athletic Director Larry Lanier moved up light but swift Monty Morris from the junior varsity. Damon Goodheart, who had played a strong second at fullback this season, moved up to the number one fullback slot. He also handled the punting for the Lynx, and did a creditable job, punting six times for a 36 yards per boot average. There was talent in the Lynx backfield, but the players were not used to playing together as a unit and committed a couple of errors that hurt the Lynx offensive efforts.

The night was clear, but because of a still wet field, and the stout defensive records of both teams, a defensive duel was expected. But in the first few minutes of play, it looked more like there was a wide open offensive duel in the making, as three touchdowns were scored in the first quarter.

The Lynx failed to score in their first offensive series, then it was Dalhart's turn and the Pack scored in a hurry on a 66-yard gallop by Dodd Nolan. The try for extra point

COMMISSION MEETS

Hansford County Commissioners voted to adjust the salary of a deputy clerk, and granted a country road easement to GTE but delayed a decision on a proposed swap of taxable land by Gruver and Texhoma ISDs during a session at Hansford County Courthouse Monday.

The commissioners voted to adjust the salary of the deputy county and district clerk to bring it into line with the salary of a tax office deputy clerk who had been employed by the county for approximately the same length of time.

An easement was granted to the phone company for the laying of a line along a county road, and other minor adjustments.

The request for a swap of taxable land within the Gruver and Texhoma school districts was made by Jack Freeman, who owns farmland along the Hansford-Sherman County line in Hansford County.

Dan Carthel, who owns land on just the other side of the line in Texhoma, Texas ISD wants his land transferred to the Gruver ISD, as his family's ties, and interests have long been in Gruver and he wants his children to attend Gruver schools.

Freeman agreed to swap land, not the same in acreage, but roughly the same in tax value, to accommodate Carthel. The two school districts have already okayed the petitions of the two landowners, but both Hansford and Sherman Commissioners must approve if the switch is to be made.

The Hansford commissioners Monday did not vote on the petition, holding their opinion until the commissioners get the correct "paperwork."

Lynx 'Infirmmary' hopes cure arrives before River Road

Head Coach Athletic Director Larry Lanier must feel it would be appropriate to hang a new sign up over the Spearman Lynx dressing room door: The infirmmary.

Certainly the Lynx have had their share of injuries--and then some, this year. Early in the season it was the Lynx big, strong linemen who were out of action with injuries. As the big line was supposed to be Spearman's strongest point this year, the Lynx "hurt" until they were able to return to action.

Now the Lynx are hurting again, this time from injuries to key backs. Julio Vasquez, the team's leading rusher, missed the entire Dalhart game with a knee injury and it is still questionable whether he will be able to play Friday against River Road in Amarillo, Coach Lanier said.

Another offensive ace, quarterback Ross Donahue suffered a dislocated knee against Canadian the week before, and was severely hobbled in the Dalhart contest. The first string fullback quit the team before the Dalhart game, and early in the contest last Friday, Vasquez' back up at running back, and a good defensive back, Jeff Laird suffered a jammed neck and was knocked out of action.

Coach Lanier expects another typically tough 1-3A game with River Road, and is hoping to have his walking wounded backs back in action for the tilt.

"We're playing River Road there, and they have alot better ballteam than their record indicates," Lanier said.

Lanier said that he expects a "real tough game any way you look at it," that River Road would play the Lynx a tough game--regardless of whether the Lynx have their top backs back in action, and that the River Road'ers will find the Lynx plenty tough, even if the injured backs see little action.

But it will definitely help if Vasquez, Donahue and Laird are back in the lineup at "full speed" for the contest, he added.

River Road is a hard team to defense, he said, because they use a multiple spread offense, run the option out a lot, use different formations and some motion. The offense is keyed around Aguilar Campos, a talented quarterback who can run or throw the ball very well, and likes to sprint out a lot.

The Lynx are 4-4 on the season and hope to break the .500 mark. They are 1-2 in district play and would like to improve on that, too, at River Road's expense.

River Road is 0-3 in district and 1-7 on the season.

Six F S B women execs attend meeting

Six of the First State Bank women executives recently attended the fall meeting of the Texas-Oklahoma Panhandle Group of the National Association of Bank Women hosted by the Plainview, Texas members in Plainview.

A lovely luncheon was served to approximately 52 members and guests. Following the luncheon, an interesting program was presented by Jo Dunham who is a consultant for Color I. She gave a program on the clothes, colors and accessories that were complementary to everyone's particular needs.

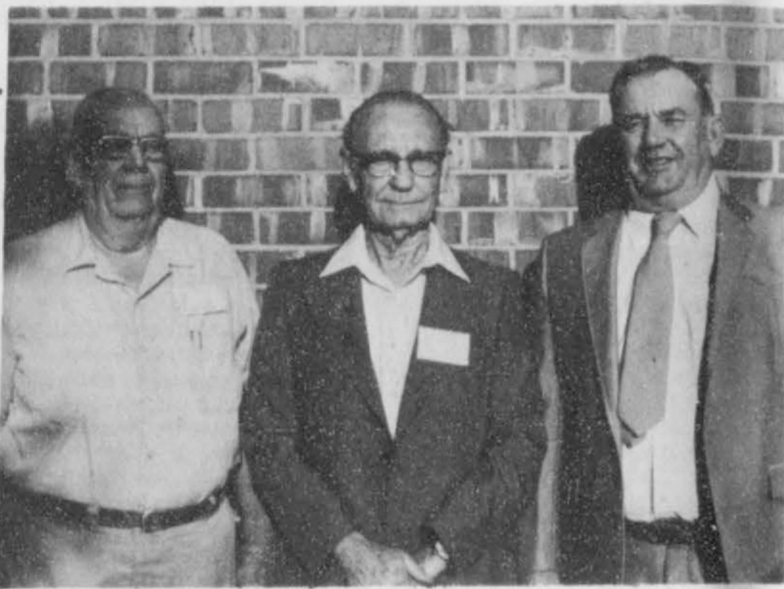

The business meeting was then held with the following officers installed for the year 1983-84: Chairman, Norma Phinney, Security National Bank, Amarillo; Vice-Chairman, Sharon Peddy, First National Bank, Guymon, Okla.; Treasurer, Gretchen Bills, Hale County State Bank, Plainview; and Secretary, Margaret Ralston, Gruver State Bank, Gruver.

An important issue that was voted upon at the national meeting in Dallas in September was discussed. The issue was to include the women officers of the Savings & Loan and other financial institutions in the nation to our organization. The name will not be changed and we are inviting any women officers of these institutions to join our group.

Those attending from First State Bank, Spearman were: Lynanne Maize, Cashier; Muriel Boyd, Assistant Cashier; Debi Baskin, Auditor; Arbeta Nobles, Executive Secretary; Betty Elbert, Administrative Assistant; and Sharon Sutton, Data Processing Manager.

Ninety-seven justices of the peace attended a 20-hour Texas Justice of the Peace Training Center seminar Sept. 13-16 in Amarillo. The training center is based at Southwest Texas State University in San Marcos. The seminars are held in compliance with Article 5972, Section B, of the Texas Revised Civil Statutes. Among the judges attending were, left to right, Roy O. Hickman of Texhoma, Sherman County, Precinct 3, Place 1; John W. Woods of Stratford, Sherman County, Precinct 4, Place 1; and Johnny P. Vernon of Spearman, Hansford County, Precinct 1, Place 1. (SWT News Service Photo)

Facts to inspire taking care of your lungs

When the American Lung Association of Texas--The Christmas Seal People--say, "Take care of your lungs. They're only human," the warning is backed with facts. According to the Lung Association seventy-three million American men, women and children report suffering from chronic respiratory disease. And many other millions suffer from acute, or short-term respiratory ailments. The total cost of these diseases to the U.S.A., including lost work days and medical costs, is $48.8 billion a year.

Over 17 million people suffer from Chronic Obstructive Pulmonary Disease (COPD), which includes: 2.5 million persons with emphysema, 7.8 million with chronic bronchitis; and 6.8 million with asthma. Asthma, furthermore, continues to be the most common chronic childhood disease and one of the leading causes of school absenteeism. Over 8 million days of school are lost each year due to asthma-associated illnesses. Over 2 million people with asthma in the United States are children under 17 years.

There are an estimated 1,000,000 people in Texas who have one or more chronic respiratory diseases. Avoidable lung diseases include some of the 129,000 newly diagnosed cases of lung with black accessories. The groom's mother wore a teal blue dress with black accessories.

At the reception following the wedding, the serving table featured a tiered cake made by the bride's sister, Sherill Wofford, with alternating layers of chocolate and vanilla. A silver punch bowl decorated the table surrounded by various hors d'oeuvres.

When families laugh together, it promotes a feeling of unity, according to recent research studies. In all the writing on parenting, humor is probably the least talked about parental resource and the most untaught parental skill.

Laughing together helps reduce stress in a family, as well as keep communication harmonious and open. This is not to imply that a good joke suffices for parents providing structure, feedback and limit-setting for child guidance. Humor helps diffuse emotionally charged situations and makes serious discussion, disciplinary measures and ground rules more likely to work.

Increasingly, psychologists are demonstrating the effectiveness of humor related to health promotion. Humor has a stimulating effect on the digestive and circulatory systems, but the real psychological value of laughter is its ability to lesson inner tension.

As children grow older, families seem to vary more in the extent to which they use humor. Growing children respond to verbal humor as well as to the earlier slapstick humor. Toward adolescence, children have an increasing repertoire of jokes from peers. The way parents respond to a child's humor depends on the value the family places on humor, the way they have learned to use it and the interaction they typically have with their children.

Psychological research can document what makes children laugh at different ages and in diverse situations. But humor between parents and children is generally spontaneous and hard to capture in a laboratory even though its effects are real and healthy. Home Extension Club Meets

The Town & Country Extension Homemakers met Oct. 18 in the home of Penny Ralston.

President Peggy Winegarner called the meeting to order and a devotional was read by Patti Hudson. Roll call was answered and minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. Treasurer's report was given by Penny.

The program committee will meet Thursday, Oct. 20 to plan the programs for next year. Delinda and Penny reported on the state TEHA meeting they recently attended in Lubbock. They told that it was both informative and fun.

Pat Cudd had some suggestions for a couples party in November. Each suggestion was discussed and it was decided to have a bowling party in Perryton on Nov. 19. More details will be given at a later meeting.

Delinda made the motion and Denise seconded it that we will sponsor Lynna Renner in the Turkey Walk for a sum of $25. Election of officers for 1984 were held and results are as follows: President--Denise Harbour; Vice President--Dixie Smith; Secretary--Pat Cudd; Treasurer--Paula Foster; Council Delegate--Penny Ralston; Parliamentarian--Joan Brown.

Lynna reminded those attending of the membership supper to be held Oct. 27 at the clubroom. Each person is responsible for bringing a homemade craft item worth $10 and a salad.

The program was on wreaths and was presented by Debi Rogers. Homemade wreaths had been made by Debi and Dixie. There were also books and pictures of many others. The program was very delightful. The raffle was won by Julie Adams.

Those attending the meeting were: Julie Adams, Pat Cudd, Paula Foster, Denise Harbour, Janie Kunselman, Delinda McLaughlin, Jeanie Laughlin, Penny Ralston, Lynna Renner, Debi Rogers, Dixie Smith, Connie Steger, Peggy Winegarner and Patti Hudson.

The rain came and it was a dandy. We couldn't have had it better if it had been special ordered--just a steady, slow and easy shower that lasted all night and the next day and when it was all over on Friday p.m. we had been blessed with nearly 2 inches of the good stuff. It was great, it was wonderful and if anyone finds fault with this one, let him stop grumbling and say "Thank You Lord". The weather has been much cooler and for that we also give our thanks.

Now--perhaps our good farmers who have so patiently waited for moisture may not get the rest of the wheat sowed and what has been already planted will soon be up and looking good. Just a bit tough on the maize harvest but that will get done, all in due time. This is so much better than the freezing weather of 26 degrees we had a year ago at this time.

Several of the volunteer ladies came on Thursday for Arts & Crafts and quilting which is always to do with any spare time we have. They also enjoyed a luncheon at the noon hour. Bridge clubs met on Monday and Friday. These people are senior citizens and enjoy getting together for fun and fellowship as well as working for the good of the center.

If you haven't stopped in lately, do come in and enjoy a cup of coffee with us. We look forward to your coming and enjoy your visits.

Last Tuesday night all enjoyed a covered dish dinner at 6:30. Joan McClellan was present to take blood pressures. This is a smart thing to do and if you haven't been checked lately, do stop in and get a check. If you can't get here then, just drop in anytime and Pearl will be glad to help you. This is your center. Please learn to use it. Hope to see you soon.

Dahlia Flower Club

Ora Sanders was hostess to the Dahlia Flower Club Monday, Oct. 24. Nelle Evans conducted a short business session. Roll call was answered with "A Woman I Admire." A motion was made and seconded that the ladies wishing to participate in the gift exchange for the Christmas party bring a gift.

Myrna Biggers served as installing officer for the new officers for 1984. The flowers and flower garden were used as the symbols. President--Nelle Evans, Vice President--Ora Sanders, Secretary--Reporter--Louise Archer, Parliamentarian--Hazel Loftin.

After the installation Nelle gave her list of committees for the new year.

Exchange: Martha Batton, Mabel Edwards.

Area Republicans to honor Rep. Phil Gramm with reception

Phil Gramm, a unique national political figure, will be honored by a reception at Villa Inn in Amarillo, according to Roy Bulls, Hansford County Republican Party chairman. Bulls said the reception honoring the former Democrat turned Republican will be held Saturday, Oct. 29, beginning at 7:30 p.m. in Villa Inn. Area G.O.P. leaders are hoping for a good turnout at the Gramm reception, and Bulls has issued a special invitation to all Hansford County Republicans to attend.

Gramm is now a Republican Congressman from the Sixth Texas Congressional District, which is something of a shocker in itself. The central Texas Sixth district is a Democratic hotbed.

He was a long time Democrat and was elected to the U.S. House of Representatives as such. As a Democrat he was named to the influential Budget Committee. But in the past two years in Washington, Gramm increasingly antagonized the liberal Democratic hierarchy with his outspoken support of President Reagan's key economic policies and his conservative and often pro-Republican voting record.

The ire of his fellow Democrats was particularly kindled when he co-sponsored with a Republican, budget bills to curb federal spending by $130 billion in fiscal year 1983-84, more than $8.1 billion.

Enough's enough, the party's Capitol Hill leaders decided. In January, the first working day of the 98th Congress, the Democratic leadership chose to not reassign Gramm to the Budget committee, a re-appointment that ordinarily would have been automatic.

Gramm was just as abrupt. Within hours he resigned from Congress, bolted from the Democratic Party to the Republican Party, and announced he would "go back home" to Texas and run for his old seat in a special election—as a Republican.

Gramm could have simply switched parties and stayed in Congress instead of going back to the staunch Democratic 10th District. But he said that he did not feel switching parties and remaining in office without letting the voters decide if he should or not would not be ethical and a betrayal of the voters who supported him.

The Republicans have praised his action calling him a man of integrity and conscience; the Democrats have denounced him as a political opportunist out just to further his own career.

But the people of 10th district gave a resounding "yes" to his actions, the new Republican received 94 percent of the vote in the special election, easily defeating nine Democrats and a Libertarian.

The Republicans have since awarded his "bolt" to their party by returning him to the House Budget Committee.

Reared in Columbus, Ga., Gramm attended a Georgia military academy and eventually earned a Ph.D. in economics from the University of Georgia in 1967.

He has written several books and taught at Texas A&M University, where he met Wendy Lee who later became his wife. Gramm, 40, and Wendy, 38, have two children, Marshall, 9, and Jefferson, 7.

Dear Editor

Dear Ms. Lynch:

Texas taxpayers have a lot to gain and nothing to lose in voting FOR Proposition 5, the school bond amendment, in the November 8 constitutional amendments election.

The amendment could save our schools and local taxpayers $435 million in interest payments alone in just the next 17 years.

It comes as a surprise to many people that the awesome resources the State of Texas dedicates to education are not taken into account by national bond markets when setting local school district bond ratings and interest rates. Local bonds are judged solely by the local district's situation.

Proposition 5 would cure that by permitting qualified local school bond issues to be backed by the state's $3 billion Permanent School Fund. The result would be better bond ratings and lower interest rates for our local districts.

The state's Permanent Fund would simply be lending its good name; it would not be paying off the bonds. Texas schools have a fine bond record. In the unlikely event of a default, the state would simply pick up the payments by withholding the local district's state allotments.

I urge Texas voters to approve Proposition 5. Sincerely, Bob Bullock, Comptroller of Public Accounts

Friday is Donna's last day

Friday is Donna Thomas' last day as Spearman city secretary.

Donna has resigned after five years of service to the city, to accept a job with an engineering consulting firm in Amarillo. At the last city council meeting the councilmen appointed City Manager Jim Murray as temporary acting City Secretary in addition to his managerial duties until a new city secretary can be hired.

Mrs. Thomas said she has taken a job with West Texas Consultants of Amarillo, an engineering firm that does consultant work for area cities and other governmental bodies, providing them with planning and engineering services.

Mrs. Thomas first started working for the city in December 1978, and was appointed city secretary in March of '79. She said she has mixed feelings about leaving her job with the city.

"What can you say in an instance like this?" she asked. "I've enjoyed my work with the city very much--and 'I've really enjoyed everybody I've worked with here. I've worked with a very good city staff."

"I regret leaving, but I feel like this is an advancement in my career, and I have to take advantage of it."

Donna has been attending a city secretaries certification course at North Texas State University in Denton, and is current president of the Panhandle City Secretaries and Clerks Association.

She moved to Spearman when she was six years old, attended public schools here and was graduated from Spearman High School.

She is moving to Amarillo, but said, "I'm going to miss everyone here--and I'll be back as often as possible for visits."

"Spearman is still 'home.'"

failed and the Wolves led 6-0 early in the first quarter.

One play after the ensuing kickoff the Lynx evened the score. On first down and 10 from the Lynx 43, Donahue dropped back and pitched a pass to McLain. The fast split end caught the ball some 30 yards down field and outraced the Wolves' secondary--a 57-yard touchdown play.

Mark Guthrie booted the PAT and the Lynx led, 7-6.

It was a short-lived advantage for the Lynx. Shortly before the end of the first quarter, Michael Thompson broke loose and raced 70 yards for a Dalhart touchdown. Jerry Williamson then tossed a pass to Tinker Morin for the two point conversion and Dalhart forged back in front, 14-7.

The remainder of the half settled into the expected duel between two solid defensive clubs, and when the horn sounded for the half, the Lynx were trailing only 14-7 despite their patched up lineup.

In fact, the Lynx defense shutout Dalhart the rest of the game. The Golden Wolves scored a safety and a touchdown in the second half to cinch their 1-2A victory, but both of Dalhart's second half scores came as a result of Lynx offensive errors.

The Lynx, conscious of their offensive leader's gave Donahue good protection generally when he went back to pass. But the Wolves got to the Lynx quarterback at the very worst time for Spearman, probably because of the blocking backs' inexperience in playing with each other. On a first down and 10 at the Spearman eight, Donahue dropped back into the Lynx end zone to pass. Kurtis Ablu broke through the blocking screen and tackedle the quarterback in the end zone for a two point safety, upping the Dalhart lead to 16-7, with 5:42 left in the third quarter.

Near the end of the third quarter, the Wolves got the game's final TD. On a fourth and eight from the Spearman 28, the snap to punter Goodheart sailed over his head and bounced into the end zone where it was covered by the Wolves' Fidel Olivarez for six Dalhart points. A passing try for a two point conversion was batted away by McLain, and the score was 22-7, Dalhart.

That's the way it remained, as both teams continued rugged defensive play in the fourth quarter.

The Wolves rolled up a 247 to 90 yard advantage in rushing, but the Lynx held the edge in the air, gaining 147 yards passing to only 32 for Dalhart, leaving the total offensive stats at 279 yards gained by Dalhart, 237 gained by Spearman.

The Lynx covered two Dalhart fumbles and the Golden Wolves pounced on three Spearman bobbles. The Lynx drew five penalties for 25 yards, and the Wolves six for 48.

ETN teleconference planned

Through the Extension Teleconference Network (ETN) Hansford County Extension Agent, and interested individuals will have an opportunity to hear speakers in Washington, D.C., will be broadcast to the Texas A&M University Agricultural Research and Extension Center at Amarillo. This will be one of 14 such locations across the state to receive the telephone information concurrently.

Presentations the first day will include general discussions on the economy, international monetary policy, the overall agricultural outlook and the trade outlook.

Key discussions on November 1 will deal with the outlook for feed grains, food grains, oilseeds, livestock and poultry, cotton and dairy.

The third day will feature outlook discussions on finance and credit, agribusiness and inputs, food prices and marketing, and agricultural policy and farm programs.

Each of the audio presentations from Washington will be followed by a brief discussion period featuring Extension Service economists based at Texas A&M University and various district offices.

The three-day conference should provide a good opportunity for getting a broad overview of economic conditions and trends as well as getting specific information on various agricultural commodities important to Hansford County.

Anyone desiring additional information on the teleconference should contact Jim Smith, Hansford County Extension Agent.

Dear Editor

Dear Editor,

The track is a busy place every afternoon. I believe this "Bunch" is too old for the High School Track team. Could we find someone to sponsor them in the Hansford County Turkey Walk?

Billy, how about Sybil? She's quite the walker. She could even bring her dog.

There's a 5:30 Physical Unfitness Class at the "Y" that's getting excited about the Turkey Walk. I'm afraid there's a few that are more in shape for a "Chicken."

We've had good responses from all the organizations. Preceptor Chapter has a "Swingin Granny" that will ride her bike. Talking of sororities, Xi Zeta has pledged their entire membership—can you match this Gruver Beta Sigma Phi?

Kids, pick up your entry blank at the YMCA or at The Bunkhouse. You might have to help your mother finish.

Lets all get involved—Help make our Hansford County Turkey Walk a big Success.

"A Distant Thunder to be shown here

A DISTANT THUNDER, a Mark IV Pictures Incorporated production, will be presented by First Christian Church on October 30, at 6:30 p.m. at First Christian Church, Spearman (29 S. Bernice)

A DISTANT THUNDER, a seventy-eight minute color film, is a sequel to Mark IV Pictures' 1973 release, A THIEF IN THE NIGHT. It begins where A THIEF IN

THE NIGHT ended.

Patty, the leading character in A THIEF IN THE NIGHT, is among a large number of people held prisoner because they have not received the Mark of the Beast. Since the day Patty awoke and found Jim, her husband, had disappeared, she has suffered grief, loneliness, hunger, and fear because of the Evil One that works for the control of the world. Patty and her two friends, Wenda and Sandy escape the attention of the authorities for a time. When Wenda and Sandy attempt to help an elderly man, they are arrested by an armed patrol. The girls succeed in warning Patty that their hiding place has been discovered. Patty makes a daring attempt to outwit the soldiers sent to sieze her. Audiences are thoroughly engrossed with her predicament.

The film answers many of the questions raised by other recent motion pictures. Events foretold in the Bible as part of the Great Tribulation are vividly portrayed in A DISTANT THUNDER. You will remember this film as long as you live...perhaps forever!

HOW MEMBERSHIP IN THE NATIONAL TAXPAYERS UNION MAY BE THE BEST INVESTMENT YOU EVER MADE.

Cutting your taxes.

State, local and federal government costs the average family more than $12,000 annually. And that figure is going up faster than any other single item in your cost of living. If things keep going as they are, government may cost you nearly twice as much in just five years.

So you see, if you could cut the cost of government—even just a little—you'd save a lot of money. Naturally, we don't expect complete success right away. But if all our lobbying, organizing and research efforts only result in a 1% reduction, you'll save, on the average, about $150 annually. Since membership in the National Taxpayers Union costs only $15 a year, that's a good return on your money.

We'll help you cut your personal taxes as well. As part of your membership in the National Taxpayers Union, you'll receive 10 issues of Dollars & Sense, the newsletter of the taxpayers movement. Dollars & Sense will give you ways to cut your own personal taxes immediately. Written by tax experts, and a former IRS agent, Dollars & Sense will show you how you can cut your taxes (legally of course) by as much as 20% a year. Dollars and Sense will tell you how to reduce your tax liability to the least amount the law requires. There's absolutely no reason to pay more than you have to. Dollars & Sense will help make sure you don't. Dollars & Sense alone should save you many times the low membership fee.

Your Investment Will Pay Off In Other Ways Too.

1. Place a limit on how bad things can get. The National Taxpayers Union is working for enactment of two constitutional amendments. One would prohibit government from taking more than 25% of your income. This amendment was originally introduced in Congress during the 1930's and came close to passage. It was a good idea then, and it is a better idea now. As it is, you spend at least five months a year working to pay all taxes, direct and hidden. The serfs in the Dark Ages were required to spend only three months toiling for their masters. The remainder of the year they were free to work for themselves.

No government can spend more than it takes in year after year without going broke.

NTU was the first sponsor of the Balanced Budget/Tax Limitation Amendment to the U.S. Constitution.

In 1975, NTU began urging state legislatures to pressure Congress to pass such an amendment. Under our leadership, 31 of the needed 34 states have already acted.

When three more states act, Congress will have no choice but to propose an amendment reforming federal budget procedures. If the Congress fails to act, a limited constitutional convention could be convened to write the amendment itself.

The U.S. Senate has already responded to this pressure by proposing a Balanced Budget/Tax Limitation Amendment. A majority of the U.S. House of Representatives also supported our amendment...but not the two-thirds needed for passage.

When NTU convinces one or two more states to join the convention call, the Congress will cave in. But the key is NTU's lobbying effort.

The WALL STREET JOURNAL described it as "a strong grass-roots movement to take matters out of the hands of Congressmen."

2. Fight fire with fire. Washington is swarming with thousands of lobbyists representing special interests -- especially the bureaucracy (the most powerful special interest of all). You and other taxpayers already pay the salaries of more than 600 bureaucrats who lobby for more spending. They know that government spending helps them, even if it does little for you. They are organized and well-financed.

The National Taxpayers Union has started another kind of lobby -- one which works for you. We've already achieved amazing success in helping to cut more than $150 billion from government spending! We were able to do this working on a very limited budget. Each dollar we've received in membership dues or contributions has helped to trim or prevent as much as $15,000 in federal spending.

3. Dig out the truth. NTU researchers uncover the facts that the politicians don't want you to hear. For example, the first calculation ever done of the government's total financial obligations was made by NTU. We helped Congress and the Treasury uncover federal debts which they never knew existed. NTU digs out proof of ways your tax money could be saved. We also tell you how your Congressmen actually vote on spending issues.

4. Fight them where they live. NTU has built a nationwide network of local taxpayer groups to help bring local spending under control. And we've begun to succeed. U.S. NEWS AND WORLD REPORT highlighted our efforts with a headline article "Taxpayer Revolt Pays Off." We've mobilized hundreds of thousands of citizens to fight for lower property taxes.

Anyone who is organizing a local tax-cutting movement can count on NTU for help. We've proven that you can fight city hall...and win. One of our handbooks, for example, CUT LOCAL TAXES WITHOUT REDUCING ESSENTIAL SERVICES, explains how your community can shave 20%...or more...off its tax bill.

This is where you come in. The program of our whole organization is based upon you. We need your help to see it through.

Of course, the experts doubt that we'll get it. They have their political science studies which "prove" that you are not interested enough in what's happening to your country to do anything to stop it.

And the big spending politicians hope you won't join us. They've made careers out of ignoring your interests. They don't want you to try to change things.

Well, we hope you'll prove the experts wrong...and disappoint the politicians. We want you to confirm your membership in the National Taxpayers Union by sending your annual dues of $15 today. There's no pressure on you to contribute anything in excess of your dues. Do so only if you have the extra money, and you want to do more than your share to further our goal of limiting taxation in America to no more than was taken from the serfs in the Dark Ages. For further information contact Roy Bulls, Spearman, Tx.

J. V.'s Win

The Spearman Lynx Junior Varsity proved to the Dalhart Wolves JV that they, too, could be excellent "mudders"—and in the process gained sweet revenge for an earlier loss in Dalhart by topping the visitors 20-0 in the rain, cold and mud last Thursday.

The situation did not look promising for the Lynx JV'ers going into the game. They had lost to their opponents earlier in the rain on a similarly wet field, as Dalhart had sloshed to a 6-0 victory. Such a wet field Thursday was expected to be a detriment to the Lynx JV passing and wide run attack.

Making matters worse, injuries to key players on the Lynx varsity had forced the call-up to two of the Lynx JV's top offensive players, speedy running back Monty Morris and passing ace Allan Mires, who had been alternating with Bob Cook between quarterback and offensive end.

With the loss of Morris and Mires, and Dalhart's proven ability as "mudders," things looked a trifle dark for the Lynx JV at kickoff time.

The darkness brightened for the Spearman JV in a hurry—figuratively speaking for the weather remained cold and rainy throughout the contest.

In the first quarter, the Lynx got on the scoreboard, when Cook broke over the goal line on a two-yard keeper.

The play was set up by a long pass from Cook to Dusty Hill, who made a fine run on the 35-yard play after catching the ball, only to fumble at the slippery Dalhart two. Tight end James Coombes, also out in a pass pattern on the play, dived, slid in the mud and covered the ball to set up a Spearman first down at the two.

From there Cook carried over for the score, but the PAT try failed and the Lynx led, 6-0.

In the second quarter, full-back Brian Davis capped a Spearman drive by bulling over from six yards out on an off-tackle run. A bootleg pass from Cook on the PAT try fell incomplete and the score was 12-0, Lynx.

Later in the second quarter, Cook continued his sensational play by dashing 55 yards on a bootleg to set up his own three-yard scoring plunge on a quarterback wedge play. The Lynx tried the same play again on the PAT, and Cook "wedged" over again, this time for the two point conversion and a 20-0 Lynx lead.

The rain and the cold intensified in the second half, both teams played excellent defense, and the offenses "bogged down"—the result being a 0-0 defensive stalemate in the second half.

Lynx JV Coach Gordon Lockett said the defense did a good job holding the big Dalhart offensive unit scoreless. He also said the offense did a good job. He said Cook and Davis performed well carrying the ball, and also remarked that the offensive line of Hill, Mark Garnett, Willie Vera, James Davis, Ernie Bowen, Damon Herndon, Tim Willis and Coombes "did a fine job."

The Lynx Junior Varsity hosts the River Road JV in a game in Lynx Stadium Thursday. Game time is 6 p.m.

The Lynx will be seeking to better their season record of 3-4-1 when they take on the River Road team which Coach Lockett said is "pretty tough, I understand."

With the recovery of Lynx varsity quarterback Ross Donahue, the Lynx JV will regain the services of Mires for the River Road game, a fact that should help their passing game. But the running game could still feel the backlash of varsity injuries, as Cook will move up to join Morris on the varsity, Lockett said.

Scout drive on

Adobe Walls Council of the Boy Scouts of America has launched its annual finance drive.

The door-to-door campaign, which got under way on Oct. 19, will be conducted throughout the Spearman community through Nov. 1, according to Harry Stumpf, Boy Scouts district finance chairman.

"We are going to try to raise $3000 for the Adobe Walls Council Boy Scout program," Stumpf said.

Glenn Miller Orchestra to Perryton

The Glenn Miller Orchestra will be in Perryton on Monday, November 7, in a two-hour concert at the PHS auditorium. The special event is being sponsored by the Ochiltree County Senior Citizens Association.

Tickets for the 7:30 concert will go on sale Tuesday. Tickets are priced at $5 and will be available at the First National Bank, Senior Citizens Center, or from association members.

Glenn Miller was the legendary big-band leader from the 1940's whose band created great dance music. Today's world-famous Glenn Miller Orchestra plays all the favorites like "In The Mood," "Tuxedo Junction," "Little Brown Jug," "Chattanooga Choo-Choo," and the immortal "Moonlight Serenade."

June Kindy, president of the Senior Citizens Association, says, "Thanks to the community, we have a beautiful center. There are some things inside we need to complete the center. This special concert is being sponsored by the association as a fund-raiser. We get to keep 50 cents of each ticket sold. So we invite everyone to attend, young and old, because this is music for all time. We encourage people from area towns to join with us. It will be a fun night and will make you feel just like dancing! We are able to bring the Glenn Miller Orchestra to town because of a grant from First National Bank."

The Miller Orchestra is based in New York City. The 17-member group, led by bandleader and trombonist Larry O'Brien, is on the road 50 weeks out of the year. They performed more than 300 concerts and dances last year, more than any other orchestra in the world. The group played at the White House for the Inaugural Ball of President Ronald Reagan.

In case you're wondering, the Glenn Miller Orchestra appearing in Perryton is the only musical organization legally authorized to carry the name of "Glenn Miller", and the only one that plays the authentic and original arrangements of the Glenn Miller Band. It is owned and operated by Glenn Miller Productions, Inc., under license from the Miller Estate and has the sole and exclusive right to use the "Glenn Miller Orchestra" name.

There's an important story behind the legendary Glenn Miller. His first band, started in 1938, didn't make it at all. It was a financial failure. But Glenn knew what he wanted, held on to that dedication, and worked to succeed. He started his second band before World War II, and it has been a hit ever since. At the height of his popularity, he volunteered for the Army, and led the famous Glenn Miller Army Air Force Band. The Band went to Europe to entertain servicemen. On December 15, 1944, Major Miller took off in a single-engine plane from England, on his way to France. The plane went down, never to be seen again. The Army declared him officially dead a year later. Glenn Miller's reputation, his music and his band have been kept alive for more than 40 years since then.

The special Perryton concert will feature all of the Glenn Miller favorites, plus contemporary music that lends itself to the Miller style. Both young and old music-lovers will appreciate the excellent music of an outstanding, professional orchestra. Glenn Miller had more hit records in one year than anybody in the history of the recording industry.
