

FFA Members Go To Houston

Twenty-five FFA members from Hansford County will be joining 4-H and other FFA members from throughout the state for showing competition at the upcoming Houston Livestock Show, Feb. 17 through March 4 at the Astrohall.

Spearman FFA members exhibiting market barrows will include Chris Brooks, Mark Brown, Clint DeArmond, Ramon Hinojos, Buck Hughes, Haley Lair, Temp Sheppard, Brandon Sutter and Santiago Tercero. Ramon Hinojos of Spearman FFA will also exhibit in market steer and market lamb competition. Mark Brown of Spearman FFA is scheduled for exhibit in beef heifer competition and is also entered in the beef scramble.

Gruver FFA members entered to exhibit market barrows include Cody Barkley, Clint Bell, Max Davis, Rex Ralston, Tisha Ralston, Galen Slough, Kathy Slough, Kenny Slough, Sharlet Slough, Casey Smith, Traci Smith, Lance Sparks, Brady Tidwell, Crockett Tidwell, Jimbo Tucker and Clint Venneman. Gruver FFA members with market lamb entries are Galen Slough, Kenny Slough and Sharlet Slough. Lance Sparks of the Gruver FFA has a market steer entry.

Representing 841 Texas 4-H clubs and FFA chapters, the junior show is expected to exceed 12,000 entries this year. A variety of animals are shown in the junior show division: market steers, market swine, market sheep, market poultry, beef and dairy heifers, breeding sheep, goats commercial steers and breeding rabbits.

The four market animal categories represent animals raised by the exhibitor as food sources. Top animals in each of these categories are eligible for their individual market auctions. Total money paid in 1989 at the four junior show auctions exceeded $4.5 million.

"Our Show, the world's largest livestock show, attracts some of the finest breeders and ranchers from throughout the world. Yet during the second week of livestock show competition, the young 4-H and FFA exhibitors take over the Astrohall. We feel these outstanding youngsters exemplify the purpose behind our event - to benefit youth and support education," said Steve Woodley, Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo assistant manager.

All net proceeds from the annual Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo provide funds for scholarships and research projects throughout the state. Currently, more than 1,000 students receive some form of Show-sponsored financial assistance, with 30 research projects funded. More than 6,500 volunteers ensure the success of each year's event.

Administrators For Predictable Funding

To meet the Texas Supreme Court's mandate to establish equitable funding for Texas schools, the Legislature must find ways to increase revenues in the upcoming Special Session, said Larry Butler, Spearman ISD superintendent.

"The Texas Supreme Court has ruled that our funding system is unconstitutional, and it is clear that we will need more revenue to ensure our children an equitable and adequate education," Butler said.

"I do not pretend to have the absolute answer to the problem, but we are mounting a strong effort to rally support for predictable and dependable revenue sources to meet the needs of Texas schoolchildren," he said. "We need to look at all the plans and funding alternatives - and then make the decision that benefits the children."

Butler said, however, that a lottery should not be considered as a solution to the funding shortage. "The lottery is neither as predictable nor as dependable as revenue from fees or taxes," he said. "We cannot support any proposal that puts the future of our children's education on a shaky foundation."

Butler said his local campaign is part of EQUITY PLUS! - a statewide effort led by the Texas Association of School Administrators to demonstrate public support for funding increases.

Butler described a "pressure cooker" of problems that led to the Edgewood v. Kirby decision and the current school funding crisis. Those problems include:

- (1) education's share of the state budget has fallen from 52.1 percent in 1985 to 45 percent in 1989,
- (2) inflation has driven up the cost of education, and
- (3) student enrollment in Texas will increase from 300,000 to 500,000 during the next decade.

"We believe Texans have the courage to take a stand for their children's future," Butler said. "The choices are not easy, nor will they come without sacrifices. But Texans never settle for second best-especially when their children's future hangs in the balance."

"By the time the Legislature convenes in its school finance special session on February 27, we believe that the people of Texas will have decided that new revenue sources are needed to fund Texas' public schools. We hope that our efforts will allow the House and Senate to debate this issue without fear of political retribution," Butler said. "With broad support from citizens and other concerned local groups for additional revenue, the Legislature will be free to hammer out a school finance plan that best reflects the concerns of Texans and the educational needs of our children."

Hideout In Danger Of Closing

by Amber Cates

We all know the Hideout. It's the place where kids hang out and have dances. A really cool place, to hear the kids talk about it. But something tragic could happen to the Hideout. Without money, the Hideout is in danger of closing. We need your support to help keep it open.

The 3-D club, the Just Say No to drugs group, has come up with a plan that might save the Hideout. But we need your support. From 8:00 p.m. February 16 through the morning of the 18th, the 3-D club leaders have decided to hold what they call a Dance-a-Thon to help raise money to go towards saving the Hideout.

There are going to be prizes awarded for the person who raises the most pledges and one prize each for the last two people left dancing Sunday. A sheet for the pledges can be picked up at either the Junior High or High School library. There are two ways that you can pledge money. You can sponsor a child, giving so much money per hour that the child dances, or you can just give a donation, either of which is tax deductible.

Not only is there the Dance-a-Thon, but also a Challenge Booth. This is where you can come in and give a certain amount of money to have a certain person come and do a specific dance. For example, someone might come in and say they will give fifty dollars if we can get Joe Blow to dance the Twist. Someone will then be sent out to get Joe and bring him back. If he does the Twist, then the money goes for the Hideout, if not, then the money is returned to the person who offered it. The money you offer can be as little or as much as you choose.

There will be free T-shirts (with logos on them) for contestants, and there will also be shirts to buy, if you are not a contestant. The price to enter the contest is three dollars for singles and five dollars for couples. If you want to come dance, but don't want to enter the contest, then the price is five dollars, single or couples.

If you have any questions about the rules or more details, there will be information sheets available at several of the local retailers soon, containing all the information.

Deborah Kovacevich, representative of the Texas Bankers Association, talks with Jim Shirley of First State Bank about her speech delivered to the Lions Club and North Panhandle Bankers Association meeting. She provided information about how the homestead law prevents Texans from taking a second mortgage on property they own.

Among The Neighbors

by Helen Fisher

New residents of Spearman are Ellen and Harvey Blair from Hurley, N. M. They recently purchased the Patton Motel from the Evan Busters.

This is the Blairs' first venture into business on their own. In May, 1989 he received his Masters Degree in Business Administration from Western New Mexico University.

Ellen is an experienced bookkeeper.

The Blairs have one son, Luke, who is in the third grade. They both like boating and fishing, and he enjoys hunting. Their church preference is Baptist.

The neighbors wish them every success in their new business and welcome them to Spearman.

Butch and Debbie Reed are relishing the opportunity of announcing the arrival of their first child, a daughter, on January 25. Kyla Shea was born in Northwest Texas hospital in Amarillo weighing 7 pounds, 10 1/4 ounces.

Her grandparents are Jack and Ethelee Mullis, Amarillo; and Jack and Gwen Reed, Amarillo and Spearman. Great-grandmothers are Velma Mullis, Amarillo; Ione Reed, Stratford; and Lois Pearson Megert, St. Petersburg, Fla.

Mrs. E thelee Mullis returned to her home in Amarillo after being here with the young lady during her first week.

Last week this column offered congratulations to those deserving citizens who received awards at the Chamber of Commerce banquet. Somehow one name was inadvertently omitted - that of Ralph Blodgett, Citizen of the Decade.

Hey, Ralph, all that whistling, stomping, applauding and yelling is the cheering section among the neighbors!!!

Mr. and Mrs. J.T. Pond attended funeral services for his brother, Aubrey B. Pond, 83, last Thursday morning in Canyon.

Many in Spearman knew Mr. Pond as he had visited here and also as a guard at the Panhandle Plains Historical Museum in Canyon. David Pond, now of Perryton, son of the J.T. Ponds also attended the funeral.

Chuck Eaton of Ft. Worth spent the weekend with his parents, Charles and Joanne Eaton. Chuck is an engineer with General

Ten Spearman School students have earned a chance to move closer to winning a $25,000 scholarship.

The finalists are Jocelyn Edwards, 4th; Hilary Biggers, 5th; Tony Clements, 5th; Cody McLeod, 6th; Jason Villines, 6th; Sandi Rich, 7th; Alan Hutchinson, 7th; Stuart Riggins, 7th; Alisha LaRochelle, 8th; and Melissa Baker, 8th.

All 10 won the chance in school wide preliminary rounds held January 30 and 31, for grades 4-8. The winners will be competing Tuesday, Feb. 13 at 5:30 p.m. in the Spearman Elementary Library.

The contestants will be asked

Dynamics.

Dana (Buzz) Daniels of Lubbock, and Tiffany Pritchard and two children, also of Lubbock visited in Spearman over the weekend.

Buzz, a hair stylist now, was the guest in the homes of her sisters, Lyn and Joey Woolley and Becky and Reagan Baker.

Tiffany and children brightened the weekend for her grandparents, Sara and Lawrence Dossett.

A group from the First Baptist Church returned Saturday after a week in Matamoros where they had gone to assist in some work at an orphanage.

The men worked on some tables and other equipment; ladies made clothes and curtains.

Those making the trip were Cleo Denman, Altha Groves, Winnie Vernon of Gruver, Roy Lee Uptergrove, Russell Gibbs, Marian Gibbs and Julian Villarreal.

Roy Lee remained in Matamoros to complete the work. Mr. Gibbs was surprised one day in Brownsville to come face to face with Paul and Betty Hazlewood who are in the Valley for a few months.

Marian and Jennie Gibbs, parents of Russell Gibbs, are from San Angelo. While he was on the mission, she stayed here with the Gibbs family.

What can be said that has not already been said, repeatedly, concerning the grand matriarch, Mrs. E.A. Greever, for whom services were held Monday afternoon. Each of her 101 years will stand as a memorial to her life of caring and giving.

At the mention of her name, her saintly face comes to mind and always she is associated with complete adherence to the tenets of her faith.

Her amazing clarity of thinking was exemplified in her published column for a number of years. She will be missed but her influence will live on.

Latest word from Avo Tope Gray is that she continues to improve and is eager to return home.

Avo underwent surgery for three bypasses last Thursday. She is in room 433 at High Plains Baptist Hospital. It is not known when she can return to her duties at Thriftway Grocery.

Avo, you sure are missed, so hang in there!

THANK YOU

I would like to thank the "Person" that sent my name in to the Chamber of Commerce office for the Citizen Over the Years Award, and to the one who wrote the story.

I have always thought that was a great award, but never thought it would be me.

I do these things because I love doing them, not to be rewarded for them.

Thanks to all the many friends that shared this honor with me and my family.

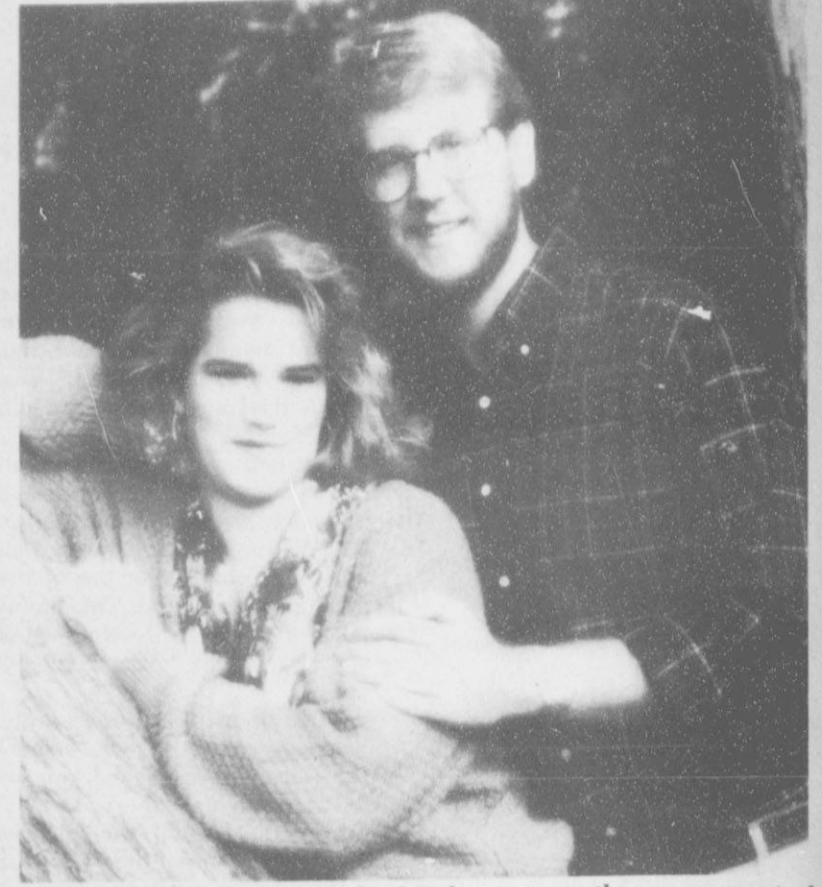

It was hard to walk up there and receive this honor, much less to say more than "Thank You."

It is an honor for which I will always be grateful. I thank God that I am able to do the things I do.

To receive such a special honor makes tears come to my eyes and a lump in my heart.

Thanks to the Chamber of Commerce for the beautiful banquet and delicious food.

A Centerpiece

by Ernestine Gray

Here we are into the second month of this new decade and if we were any busier when our families were growing up how did we ever manage? Maybe we just moved faster. It's great to be busy, however. Be sure to mark March 24 on your schedule as something "not to miss." We have a very special program to be presented in our high school auditorium which will benefit our local Golden Spread Center.

"The Quilters" is the story of pioneer women and the struggle of early day life and reflects the heritage of our people. The proceeds will stay in our community as a fundraiser for our center so be sure to support it and have an enjoyable evening too.

We have been asked to submit old recipes reflecting this area's tastes.

As you may have heard on television or perhaps read of it in the Amarillo papers, an effort is being made to build a Western Cultural Heritage Theme Park. Something similar to Silver Dollar City at Branson, Mo.

Recipes from any of you having real old ones need to be submitted with your name and some of the history surrounding each recipe.

Yesterday's Children is a non-profit organization to assist senior citizens and these recipes will be compiled and books sold, with proceeds going towards the study and construction of the theme park. The deadline on the recipes is March 31, so if you have an oldie get it to us and maybe it will be selected to go into the book.
