Temporary Stations Will Open In April

By DON ENGER
Treador Staff
In a surprise move yesterday, the Traffic Security Department decided to change the proposed fall date of instituting entry stations at Texas Tech to April 7, the first day of spring vacation.

The idea of the stations was conceived about seven years ago and will be put into effect in an effort to help solve the ever-increasing campus traffic problem.

Bill Daniels, head of the department, said the stations will be temporary until September and the reason for changing the date was to allow time to decide on the best location for the stations.

Daniels said one station will be placed on each of the four routes to the interior part of the campus. Station No. 1 will be at the Broadway entrance west of the Gordon, Sneed, and West Hall parking lot; No. 2 will be at the 15th Street entrance to the Drane parking lot; No. 3 will be adjacent to 17th and Boston; and No. 4 will be across from the meats lab on 15th Street.

The stations will be operated from 7:15 a.m. until 3 p.m. and will be open only to service trucks, faculty and staff members, handicapped students, and visitors.

Visitors will be escorted throughout the campus by officers at the entry ports.

Daniels said students will be allowed to drive through the ports only to go to the infirmary. "This will stop the practice of students delivering other students to and from classes." During the closed period the north end of Boston, adjacent to Textile Engineering will also be closed. "The only parking lot that will be interfered with is Knapp and most girls park their cars at night and don't use them during the day anyway."

Daniels said "the Traffic Committee had made recommendations to the Board of Directors before about the entry stations and they refused. But the situation got so bad that they changed their minds."

AROTC To Present Trial

A moot General Court-Martial will be presented by members of Tech's Army ROTC Monday through Thursday in room 22 of the Social Science Building.

On each of the four nights the same trial will be staged in full with an alternating cast of cadets and guest performers, with the exception of the individuals who will continue their supporting roles each night.

The trial covers the case of the United States against Private James M. Mullins, of Company A, 1st Battle Group, 130th Infantry, stationed at Camp Mudflat, Nebraska. He is charged with housebreaking and larceny in connection with the theft of an expensive gold bracelet from the room of Private Nelson O. Baker while Baker, Mullins and Private Harold E. Williams are on three-day passes to a nearby town of Chadron, Nebraska.

The formal proceedings of a military trial are completely followed by the prosecution and defense of Mullins. All court proceedings, including the dialogue of the cast, are legal and were prepared by military justices for this particular trial. The finding of the court will be the only variable factor in the four trials and will be chosen by the court from three alternatives prescribed by the authors of the scenario.

Monday night's trial will begin at 7 p.m. and is open to the public.

Tech Student Senate Candidates Named

By the 5 p.m. Thursday filing deadline, Bill Beuck and Jerry Rawls were the only two candidates for Student Senate president.

Candidates for Graduate School senator are William Whiteside Price Pritchett and Clyde Farris.

Election of executive officers and cheerleaders will be April 22 with no run-offs. Senators will be elected April 29 and run-offs on May 4.

Senior Student Gets Position

Tech senior, Carolyn Herring from Houston, was elected state vice-president of Young Democrats Club last week at the annual state convention.

Collegiate Young Democrats of Lubbock County sent a delegation of 15. The Congressional District was represented by a delegation from the Lubbock County Young Democrats Club and the South Plains Club.

'TARTUFFE'—Susan Logan, Judy Marcell and Mike Gifford rehearse a scene from Moliere's "Tartuffe," which will open at 8:15 p.m. Friday at the University Theater. They portray Marianne, Dorinna and Valere, respectively.

'Tartuffe' Will Open At University Theater

Moliere's infamous hypocrite becomes a cowboy in the University Theater's production of "Tartuffe," opening at 8:15 p.m. Friday.

Dr. Clifford Ashby, director, has set the 17th century comedy in the West. Action takes place at a ranch, and costumes are western.

Jeannie Rook, Lubbock senior, said she designed the costumes "with the comedia del'arte approach in that the style and color is exaggerated in order to emphasize personality traits of the characters."

The outspoken maid, Dorine, will be Mexican, and called "Dorinna." In order to emphasize her extroverted personality, Miss Rook has costumed her in a ruffled red Spanish dress.

Another example is the white hats which the deputies will wear, since they are "good guys."

Tartuffe will appear in a shabby black and white suit with dirty red underwear at the sleeves.

The women's costumes capture the style of the late 1800s. They are frilly, bustled and draped in front. Men's costumes are strictly western—boots, spurs, cowboy hats, vests and buckskin jackets.

The dominating Madame Pernelle will wear a western woman's riding outfit.

The ranch set includes a fireplace, staircase, beams and a chandelier. All of the furniture, except for three chairs, was built by the stage crew. The floor of the ranch home is stone.

The stage crew estimated 700 man hours went into building the set.

Tickets for "Tartuffe" are available from 9 a.m.-5 p.m. at the University Theater box office or at ext. 2154. Admission is 50 cents for students with IDs and $1.50 for the public.

TWC - Kansas Gain NCAA Finals

By MIKE LUTZ
Sports Editor

Texas Western and the University of Kansas battled their way into the finals of the NCAA Midwest Regional Basketball tournament Friday night in possibly the most exciting evening of basketball in the coliseum's history.

Texas Western, ranked third nationally, and now 25-1 for the season, utilized a five-minute overtime period to down Cincinnati 78-76 in the opener. Then SMU, the Southwest Conference representative, and fourth ranked Kansas took to the court with Kansas vaulting to a 76-70 victory.

The results set the stage for tonight's final action, when SMU and Cincinnati meet at 7 for third place and Kansas and Texas Western tangle at 9 for the championship and a trip to the national tournament at College Park, Md. next weekend.

Balanced Shooting

The Miners, paced by the balanced shooting of a quartet of performers, were virtually playing catch-up the entire game and managed to pull even for the first time with 5:43 left in the game when they knotted the score at 65-all.

The Texas school vaulted from that stalemate to a 69-69 margin that existed at the end of regulation play.

In the overtime period, Willie Cager, who wound up with 15 points, was the big man, scoring the first five points in the Miners' favor. Little Bobby Joe Hill then pumped in two more buckets to give Texas Western its total for the evening.

It was a four-minute scoring drought that eventually put down the surprising SMU crew, which almost pulled the upset of the evening before wilting under Kansas onslaught.

Wesley Hits 23

All-America Walt Wesley led Kansas with 23 points and 12 rebounds, but Ron Franz was an able assistant with 19 points, many coming at timely intervals.

Carroll Hooser and Charles Beasley led the way for the upset-minded Mustangs, scoring 22 and 17 points respectively.

An upset appeared in the brewing as the Mustangs jumped on the 'Hawkers in the opening half with a torrid 58 percent shooting eye from the field. But it all cooled off in the second 20 minutes with a slow, deliberate play.

Big David Lattin paced the Miners with 29 points, the biggest output of the evening. He was supported by Hill with 17, Odsten Artis with 11 and Cager with 15.

Surprisingly, it was the underdog Mustangs who set the tempo of the game in the opening 20 minutes.

With Hooser and Beasley pumping in with deadly accuracy from the outside, the Southwest Conference representative vaulted to a quick, 12-5 lead with but four minutes gone in the game.

But then big Wesley and Ron Franz brought the Jayhawkers to their senses and also into a one point lead, 16-15 several minutes later.

Burst of Scoring

Then with a burst of scoring, the 'Hawkers jumped on the Mustangs for eight points in a period of 40 seconds to move to a 24-17 advantage with 12:17 showing.

But then it was SMU's turn to play catch up again and they did just that with eight minutes left in the half when Hooser put the Ponies into a 29-28 lead.

SMU kept ahead until the last minute of the half when Joseph White put through a set shot for a 43-42 Kansas lead. The lead changed hands three more times before the eventual 46-46 margin at halftime.

Whereas the first 20 minutes between the Ponies and Jayhawks was a rapid-fire tempo, the second half turned into a slow-moving affair.

WAKE ME WHEN IT'S OVER

The trouble with early morning classes is that you're too sleepy. At late morning classes you're too hungry. At early afternoon classes you're too logy. At late afternoon classes you're too hungry again. The fact is—and we might as well face it—there is no good time of day to take a class.

What shall we do then? Abandon our colleges to the ivy? I say no! I say America did not become the hope of mankind and the world's largest producer of butterfats and tallow by running away from a fight!

If you're always too hungry or too sleepy for class, then let's hold classes when you're not too hungry or sleepy; namely, while you're eating or sleeping.

Classes while eating are a simple matter. Just have a lecturer lecture while the eaters eat. But watch out for noisy foods. I mean who can hear a lecturer lecture when everybody is crunching celery or matzo or like that? Serve quiet stuff—like anchovy paste on a doughnut, or steaming bowls of lamb fat.

Now let us turn to the problem of learning while sleeping. First, can it be done?

Yes, it can. Psychologists have proved that the brain is definitely able to assimilate information during sleep. Take, for instance, a recent experiment conducted by a leading Eastern university (Stanford). A small tape recorder was placed under the pillow of the subject, a freshman named Wrobert Wright. When Wrobert was fast asleep, the recorder was turned on. Softly, all through the night, it repeated three statements in Wrobert's slumbering ear:

1. Herbert Spencer lived to the age of 109 and is called "The Founder of English Eclectic Philosophy."
2. The banana plant is not a tree but a large perennial herb.
3. The Archduke Ferdinand was assassinated in 1914 at Sarajevo by a young nationalist named Mjilas Cvetnic, who has been called "The Trigger of World War I."

When Wrobert awoke in the morning, the psychologists said to him, "Herbert Spencer lived to the age of 109. What is he called?"

Wrobert promptly answered, "Perennial Herb."

Next they asked him, "What has Mjilas Cvetnic been called?"

Wrobert replied, "Perennial Serb."

Finally they said, "Is the banana plant a tree?"

"To be honest," said Wrobert, "I don't know too much about bananas. But if you gents want any information about razor blades, I'm your man."

"Well," said the psychologists, "can you tell us a blade that shaves closely and cleanly without nicking, pricking, scratching, scraping, scoring, gouging, grinding, flaying or flensing?"

"Yes, I can," said Wrobert. "Personna® Stainless Steel Blades. Not only does Personna give you a true luxury shave, but it gives you heaps and gobs and bushels and barrels of true luxury shaves—each one nearly as truly luxurious as the first."

"Land's sake!" said the psychologists.

"Moreover," said Wrobert, "Personna is available not only in the Double Edge style blade, but also in the Injector style blade."

"Great balls of fire!" said the psychologists.

"So why don't you rush to your dealer and get some Personnas at once?" said Wrobert.

"We will," said the psychologists, twinkling, "but there is something we have to do first."

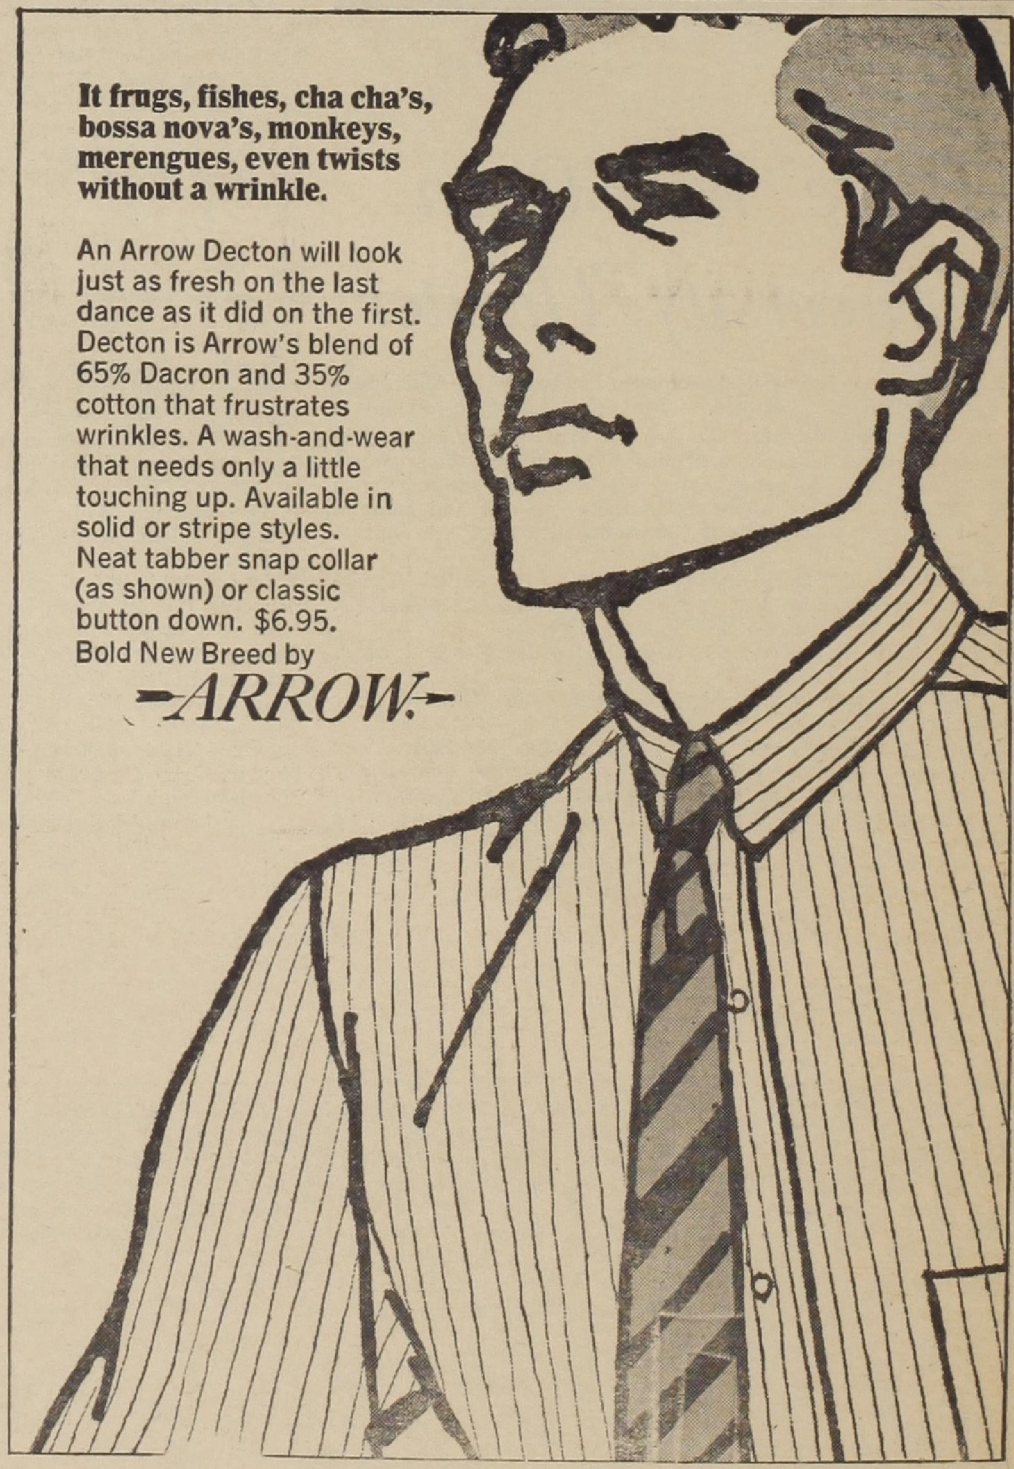

Whereupon they awarded Wrobert an honorary L.L.B. (Lover of Luxury Blades) degree, and then, linking arms, they sang and danced and bobbed for apples till the campfire had turned to embers.

Red Raiders Lose To Sul Ross, 10-5

Alpine—The Sul Ross Lobos ended a four-game losing streak as they pounded the Red Raiders 10-5 and continued their winning streak at Kokernot Field in Alpine. Tech started out with a bang, as John McIntyre walked, Haggard flew out to center field. Then Lee Watts hit a 370-foot two-run homer to put the Raiders ahead 2-0. The Raiders did not manage another runner until the sixth inning when Watts singled, stole second and was thrown out at third.

In the ninth inning the Raiders came alive. John McIntyre led off with a single and advanced to second on a fly to right field by Haggard. Watts' single put McIntyre on third. McIntyre scored on a fielders choice when Don Champion hit a grounder to second.

Ronnie Holly struck out, Watts scored on a single by Chris Galanos. Eldon Frost singled, bringing in Champion. Then Norman Schuessler walked, loading the bases.

Kent Hopper forced in Fraizer on a walk In the third inning Gregg Slope walked and then stole second and third. He scored on a single by Bill Carthiel.

In the fifth Carthiel hit a 340-foot homer to left field to put the Lobos ahead to stay, 3-2.

The Lobos went wild in the seventh with 11 men going to the plate and seven scoring runs on three hits.

The Red Raiders will play a double header here today and will leave immediately after the second game and arrive in Lubbock around midnight.

Methodists Take Early Lead In Austin Meet

Southern Methodist swam away with top points for the Friday session of the Southwest Conference swimming meet in Austin.

Tech coach, Jim McNally, praised the tanksters performance. "Tech is doing real well. Everything looks fine. These kids are on fire up here."

Tim O'Rourke placed fourth in the 400 individual medley with a time of 4:44.3, which set a school record for Tech.

In the 200-yard butterfly Tech placed fourth with Tim O'Rourke swimming for a school record of 2:06.0. Gary Aber, with a high time of 2:04.6 in preliminary trials, placed fifth.

Another school record was dunked by Pete Velde in the 200 freestyle with a time of 1:50.3.

Randon Porter placed fifth and Frank Shotwell placed sixth in the 100 backstroke. Their times were 1:01.7 and 1:03.3 respectively.

With a time of 3:23.4 Tech's 400 freestyle relay team placed third. John Long, Frank Shotwell, Pete Velde and Robert Graham were Tech's tanksters for the relay.

Danna Weaver, swimming the 100 breaststroke, set another school record with a time of 1:04.7. Sixth was Bob Eason with a time of 1:08.2.

Saturday's schedule will be the 1,650 freestyle relay, 100 freestyle, 200 backstroke, 200 breaststroke, 100 butterfly, three meter diving and the 800 freestyle relay. Preliminaries will be at 1 p.m. with finals at 4 p.m.

With the meet in its second day, Tech had scored 57 points, more than ever scored by any Tech swimmers.

Southern Methodist led the conference with 132 points. The University of Texas was second with 75 and Texas A&M trailed Tech in fourth place with 14 points. Rice and TCU were in hot contention for last place with Rice totaling eight points to TCU's four.

Tech's Robert Graham faces strong competition tomorrow in the three meter dive. Tudor Lacey, SMU, is considered to be Graham's biggest threat to the diving championship.

Dual match competition wound up last week with Tech defeating Arlington State and Eastern New Mexico for a final record of 10-9.

As Tech faces the third and last day of competition the meet looks like a repeat of last year's conference finish with SMU on top.

TWC - Kansas . . .

And it was all Kansas. The 'Hawkers charged into the lead by five points, 53-48 in quick order and trailed only once in the remaining minutes of play. That was a 58-57 Kansas deficit with 10:55 showing.

But that was the only thunder available for the Mustangs, who were behind by three to six points the rest of the night.

Less Fouls

SMU kept from fouling much better in the second half and the Kansans seemed to get worse. But the Ponies weren't able to capitalize on the 'Hawkers' aggressiveness, missing key shots from the charity line.

Kansas kept the pressure on in the form of a three to five point lead in the last half of the second stanza but the coup de gras was that cold spell suffered by the Mustangs at the end.

The rough and tumble first half got off to a slow start and it was the Cincinnati quintet who took up the initiative. Led by Foster and West, they moved to a quick 6-1 advantage and although the Miners finally got going about midway through the stanza, the 'Cats led at intermission, 42-36.

It was a matter of the Miners not being able to penetrate the 'Cats' zone defense in the early stages. Cincinnati also held the upper hand in rebounding in the early portion of the contest.

The extended second half began with the Miners giving notice of what was to come. First, Od-sten Artis, then Cager pumping in consecutive baskets to cut their deficit to a two-point, 42-40 margin.

And, that surge took the Miners right down to the 5:43 mark when Artis sank two points to mark the first tie score of the evening, 65-65. The score was tied once more before the 69-all margin that prevailed at the end of regulation play.

After Cincy's Don Folfes had knotted it at 69-69 with 1:28 showing, the Miners came slowly down court and with 1:07 showing, prevailed until the final seven seconds.

Cager had a chance to put TWC into the lead with seven seconds remaining but missed and the Bearcats got the rebound. They rushed downcourt and Foster got off a desperation, 35-footer but missed, setting the stage for the overtime stanza.

Tech Track Men Compete For Title

Texas Tech will try to capture the championship from Abilene Christian College in the Border Olympics at Laredo today.

Tech probably will dominate the weightmen with Ed Mooney leading the way. Mooney is a junior college transfer from Scottsbluff College, Scottsbluff, Nebr. Mooney won the discuss and the shot put competition in the Southwestern Recreation Meet last Saturday in Fort Worth.

Mooney has a chance of setting a new record in the discuss throw. Last week he tossed it 170 feet 1½ inches. The Border Olympic record is 171-7.

Mooney also has a good chance of winning the shot put competition since world record holder Randy Matson of Texas A&M has decided not to enter.

Leading the Tech sprinters will be Don Parrish, who has a 9.7 century mark. Rich Kay has the best time in the mile run with 4:22.4. Hurdler Art Carroll's best time has been 14.7. Ronnie Davis, the Southwest Conference three mile champ, also will be entered.

Entered in the meet besides Tech and ACC are Texas A&M, Baylor, SMU, TCU, LCC, Trinity, Texas Southern, and the University of Houston.

Net Team To Begin Home Play

The Texas Tech Red Raider Tennis Team will open their 1966 home schedule today at the varsity courts when they meet the West Texas State Buffaloes at 1:30 p.m.

The Raiders will be trying their second win of the season, and over West Texas, as they beat the Buffs at Canyon in the opening game of the year.

The match will consist of two-doubles and four-singles matches with Bengé Daniel in a singles match, and Dub Malaise and Charles Bower teaming, and Pat Acton and Mike Farrish in the other doubles match. Malaise and Bower were undefeated in conference play last year, and are the only lettermen returning from last year's squad.

"We are about the only team in the conference who won't be stronger this year," said George Philbrick, coach of the team, "We lost two 3-year lettermen in Greer Kothmann and Robert Peterson." The conference race probably will be between defending champion Rice, Texas, and Texas A&M.

Tech last won the conference in 1962 when Daryl Allison and Beau Sutherland won the doubles championship. The Raiders, however, have never failed to make the upper division in the conference.
