

FOUR WEEKS OF TRADING SPACE FOR TIME—This map details the week by week progress of Communist penetration in South Korea since the invasion nearly a month ago. American troops now are in action along the entire front as the fighting goes into the fifth week. B-29 bombing of North Korean supply centers and allied naval bombardment of east coast supply roads have supported the defensive delaying actions of ground forces attempting to hold on until supplies and manpower can be built up for an eventual offensive. Dates are in terms of Korean time. (AP Wirephoto Map).

UN Defense Hurled Back Tank, Infantry Assault

Red Drive Opens On First Cavalry

TOKYO, July 25 (AP)—Hard-charging North Korean Reds attacked Monday and Monday night all along a twisting 150-mile front nearly the breadth of Korea, but "continued to be repulsed" by the American and South Korean defenders, General MacArthur's headquarters reported today.

The latest assault described in detail by MacArthur was made by eight tanks with infantrymen in First Cavalry division positions near Yongdong Monday night.

The headquarters announcement said the Red infantry was hurled back and three of the tanks were knocked out by 3.5-inch bazookas. American tank-killer teams were hunting the other five in the darkness.

Field dispatches confirmed the Red drive against the First Cavalry and also reported another separate push by the Communist Second infantry division along back roads in the mountains northeast of Yongdong.

Roving tank-infantry teams of the invaders slithered along the west coast as far south as the port of Mokpo, near the southwest tip of Korea. MacArthur's announcement said these Reds were opposed only by the South Korean police but secret measures were being taken to eliminate the broad flanking threat.

Dispatches from the front late Monday night said Red pressure mounted steadily all day against American lines astride the Taejon-Yongdong Highway, while 20 to 30 miles northeast another drive was in progress, pronging out along three roads.

On the Yongdong front, AP Correspondent Hal Boyle reported Red infantry at one time got behind advanced American positions and threw up a mortar-backed road block.

Roving tank-infantry teams of the invaders slithered along the west coast as far south as the port of Mokpo, near the southwest tip of Korea. MacArthur's announcement said these Reds were opposed only by the South Korean police but secret measures were being taken to eliminate the broad flanking threat.

This serious threat was cleaned out in two hours with the aid of American tanks and artillery, Boyle reported.

"We didn't fool with it; we sent the tanks to clean it up," he quoted an artillery commander. "This was one of the few references made to North Korean frontal pressure was still mounting, with steady artillery and mortar firing all Monday afternoon."

North and northeast of Yongdong, a force identified as the North Korean Second Infantry Division pushed its three-spear attack on other American positions.

One second-division column reached Poun, 92 miles north of Yongdong and 35 miles northwest of the rail-highway hub of Kumchun.

American planes and ground troops were credited with knocking out five of the eight tanks leading about 700 Red infantrymen near Poun.

The second division were reported 15 miles and 20 miles northeast of Poun on two rugged mountain trails that wind southward west of the town of Hamchang.

Gen. MacArthur's press release early Tuesday also said a South Korean division withdrew from Yongju—30 miles farther northeast of Hamchang—"to more tenable positions" two miles south of Yongju.

MacArthur's report said Red tank-infantry teams ranged as far southwest as the outskirts of Mokpo, a South Korean naval port 45 miles southwest of Kwangju.

A savage U. S. First Cavalry Division counter-attack stopped an earlier Red thrust along the mountain highway leading to Yongdong.

Washington, July 24 (AP)—President Truman today ordered the Federal Bureau of Investigation to tighten its enforcement program against "espionage, sabotage and subversive activities." He called on citizens to give the FBI all possible aid.

In a statement, Mr. Truman said he has asked all law officers, both federal and state, to report information on spying, sabotage and subversion to the FBI where it can be "sifted out and correlated."

"I suggest that all patriotic organizations and individuals likewise report all such information to the nearest FBI field representative," the President said.

SOARS AFTER PRIOR FIZZLE

"Push-Button" Warfare Seen As Rocket Thunders Into Air

LONG RANGE PROVING GROUND, Cocoa, Fla., July 24 (AP)—A two-stage "bumper" rocket thundered into the air at 8:29 o'clock this morning in the first horizontal test firing.

It was a preview of "push button" warfare, and the first successful rocket launching from this Florida proving ground for guided missiles.

An attempted test firing of a similar two-stage rocket fizzled last Wednesday.

There was no immediate report on how the giant rocket behaved. Officials at the public information office said simply that the test was "successful."

Before the test officials described the expected performance this way:

The main part of the missile, a captured German V-2 rocket, will use 19 tons of fuel in approximately one minute. It will be fired vertically but shortly after the takeoff a gyroscopic steering device will turn it to go horizontally.

By the time the main part of the missile is spent, a 700-pound rocket known as a WAC corporal, riding on its nose, will take off. The V-2 will come down at sea and the WAC corporal will continue the flight. Both will send information back to base by radio.

The WAC corporal is a scientific missile rather than an military weapon. Experts said it may go as far as 250 miles.

The rocket stands about 60 feet high and the V-2 is six feet in diameter at the base. The V-2 weighs 14 tons.

A safety area was established extending 250 miles off shore. The destroyer USS Sarafield and the Destroyer Escort USS Foss were in the area to keep it clear of shipping. Planes equipped with loudspeakers also patrolled the flight area.

LEOPOLD RETURNS FROM EXILE—Leopold III, King of the Belgians (center), salutes the honor guard at Maren military airport in Brussels on his return to Belgium after five years of exile. Behind Leopold, who is wearing the uniform of a lieutenant general, are Crown Prince Baudouin (left) and Prince Albert, followed by government officials. Leopold was exiled in 1940 because he surrendered to the Nazis in 1940 instead of fleeing to England with his ministers. Thursday a long, bitter political fight in Belgium was ended when Parliament voted to ask the king to return. Official at left is not identified. (AP Wirephoto by radio from London).

Seek Bodies Of 34 Killed In Plane Crash

Army Transport Explodes With Guardsmen Aboard

MYRTLE BEACH, S. C., July 24 (AP)—An Air Force transport hurtled into swampland near here yesterday and exploded into a blazing funeral pyre for 34 servicemen.

The dead included 30 members of the Tennessee Air National Guard, en route to Nashville from war games in this area. Four air reserve crewmen were on the plane.

Minutes after the C-46 climbed from the municipal airport here it plunged into the pine-spotted muckland. The servicemen were still within sight of the airport until just before the ship crashed.

Towering gasoline-fed flames pushed would-be rescuers back. Helpless, they watched the cremation. When the flames died, white-jacketed Army medical corpsmen began removing the bodies. Late last night, they had recovered 15. The others were trapped in buried, charred wreckage.

Bits of the big transport were flung in a 100-yard circle. The wings were still further away.

There were conflicting reports about the crash. Some said the plane seemed to explode in mid-air. But a pilot who flew over the Carolina swampland said the ship didn't blow up until it struck.

At the scene of the crash an unidentified woman told would-be army rescuers that she saw two men parachute from the falling plane. But she said they dropped into the blazing wreckage. That report couldn't be verified.

Capt. W. P. Vandiver of Birmingham, Ala., a medical officer from Shaw Field in Sumter, S. C., said bodies already recovered were badly mutilated.

The task of clearing the area continued today.

Talk Filipino Troops

MANILA, July 24 (AP)—President Quirino told his press conference today he would discuss thoroughly with his military advisers the possibility of sending Filipino troops to Korea.

AGAINST QUEMOY

Invasion Try May Be Underway Now

TAIPEI, Formosa, July 24 (AP)—A defense ministry spokesman said today a number of junks were approaching Quemoy Island under cover of a Chinese Communist artillery barrage.

It may be the long expected invasion attempt against the Nationalist-held island used as a blockade base against the Reds.

The spokesman said Nationalist forces on Quemoy, just off the mainland port of Amoy, were adequate to meet the expected Red attack. He said they would be supported by locally assigned Nationalist air and naval units.

Communist artillery began bombarding the town of Guanau on Quemoy's northeast coast, at 11 p. m. Sunday (7 a. m. CST, Sunday).

The spokesman said President Truman's July 27 request to halt air and sea operations against the Red mainland did not preclude the defenses of Nationalist positions.

Asked whether there was effective co-operation between Nationalists and the United States Seventh Fleet, assigned to safeguard Formosa from Red invasion, the spokesman replied: "That's a military secret."

He hinted Nationalist air and naval support would not be given Quemoy without Washington's approval if invasion develops.

The spokesman expressed doubt that a reported large concentration of Communist craft in the vicinity of Quemoy would pass the island for a direct attack on Formosa.

Air Forces Base Moved Into Korea

U. S. 8TH ARMY HEADQUARTERS IN KOREA, July 24 (AP)—The Far East Air Force has moved its advance base to Korea from southern Japan.

The move was made so the Air Force could speed up its war against the North Koreans, headquarters said.

The new advance headquarters of the Fifth Air Force has been located near this headquarters. Maj. Gen. Earl E. Partridge is in command of the Air Force headquarters.

"You can say we are here with Army headquarters," said Gen. Partridge. "To give them the fullest co-operation and support."

The Air Force already has set up at least two bases in South Korea. The move is aimed at giving fighter planes longer time over target areas without using up fuel on the trips to and from bases in Japan.

Before the Korean war the Fifth Air Force headquarters was at Magoya. At the outbreak of hostilities an advance headquarters was established in southern Japan.

Pact Nations Ready To Bolster Defense

By The Associated Press

LONDON, July 24—The 12 Atlantic Pact nations—spurred by the crisis in Korea—got to work tomorrow on a five-point program aimed at bolstering their defenses against Communism in the West.

The urgent need for quick action was stressed by America's Charles M. Spofford, who is expected to serve as permanent chairman of the new Atlantic Pact council, a sort of civilian high command.

Spofford, who flew here from Washington for the council's first meeting tomorrow, told reporters: "The mission of the council meeting will be to speed the North Atlantic defense program along the lines of the President's message regarding the urgency of North Atlantic defense at the present time."

The council, created last May by the foreign ministers of the 12 pact nations at their London meeting, has the following tasks:

1. To create a balanced collective force based in Europe, with each country specializing in particular types of forces so as to prevent costly duplications.
2. To set up mobile reserves forces which can be dispatched to any trouble spot in the West's defense chain.
3. Partial mobilization of industry for war production.
4. To lay down a master plan of rearmament fitted to the strategic defense plan outlined by the chiefs.

5. To see that the pact partners carry out their assignments after they have accepted them.

Meeting with Spofford on the council will be deputies of the foreign ministers of the 11 other pact nations—Britain, France, Italy, Holland, Belgium, Luxembourg, Portugal, Norway, Denmark, Iceland and Canada.

Spofford is said to have instructions from Washington to urge the other pact members to pay out more for defense needs. Reports from the U. S. capital say President Truman is prepared to ask Congress for a new $5 billion arm aid program for Western Europe.

Some Atlantic Pact members, torn between a desire for security and the need for patching up their torn economies, are reported willing to shoulder any heavier military burdens at this point.

2,600 Shipyard Workers Strike

HOBOKEN, N. J., July 24 (AP)—Eleven hundred men struck at the big Todd Shipyard here today.

In Brooklyn, 1,500 more stayed away from work at the Todd yards there, waiting to take a strike vote later in the day.

Hoboken pickets took up their march at midnight, despite a plea from Federal Mediator Howard T. Colvin in Washington, who telegraphed that shipbuilding and ship repair are vital because of the Korea situation.

The union replied that while it "always put our country first," it had been negotiating with the company long enough.

The union is the Industrial Union of Marine and Shipbuilding Workers (CIO).

Police said there are no ships at the Hoboken Yards here but seven at Brooklyn. It was not immediately learned whether they were of types recently ordered taken out of mothballs because of the Korean crisis.

The union is asking an increase of 11 cents an hour to be divided between a wage increase and a possible pension over the $1.55 hourly wage provided under the contract which expired last night. The company has offered two cents this year and three cents next year.

FORTS SMASH NORTH KOREA

TOKYO, July 24 (AP)—B-29 superforts flying from Japan, dropped 80 tons of bombs Monday on key North Korean transportation targets. They blasted roads, bridges and other transport links leading to the Taejon front.

The Far East Air Forces said the bombing runs were made in clear weather, the first in several days.

All the Superforts returned safely. Pilots said they encountered neither Red fighter planes nor anti-aircraft fire.

Candidates Ready For Run-Off Vote

Twelve county and precinct candidates were ready to launch run-off campaigns today, after Saturday's Democratic primary had pared the field sharply.

No official figures were available this morning on the number of votes cast in the county, but apparently the total fell below 5,400, or approximately 3,000 under the county's potential.

Run-offs were shaped in six offices, four of them for places on the county commissioner's court. John L. Dibrell Jr., the incumbent now serving by appointment, received 1,731 votes to enter a run-off with Walter Grice, 1,274, in the county judge's race.

Three commissioner's posts were left undecided, on the basis of unofficial returns. Run-offs find W. W. Long, incumbent, with 146 votes, facing P. O. Hughes, 136, in Precinct No. 1; Pete Thomas, 501, and Roy M. Bruce, 374, in Precinct No. 2; and R. L. Nall, incumbent, 644, and Arthur Stallings, 630 in Precinct No. 3.

Meanwhile, further campaigning is in prospect in races for sheriff and county attorney. J. B. Bruton led the field of four, with 2,083, in the sheriff's race. He enters a run-off with Jess Slaughter, 1,577.

Hartman Hooser, 2,199, opposes A. Mack Rodgers, 1,429, in the run-off for county attorney. Rodgers is now serving in that office by appointment.

In other district, county and precinct races that were contested, George Mahon was re-elected to Congress from the 19th district; R. E. (Peppy) Blount was returned to the state legislature from the 91st district; Charlie Sullivan, now serving by appointment, was elected judge of the 118th district; B. E. Freeman was re-elected county tax assessor-collector; and Earl Hull was re-elected commissioner in Precinct No. 4.

Other local offices were not contested.

Next deadline on the candidates' calendar is Aug. 1, when expense reports for the first primary must be submitted.

O'Brien's Truly Friendly Store

Employees of the O'Brien Grocery store, located at 1201 11th Place, who pride themselves on the number of old friends and acquaintances they have made, enjoy making friends of all newcomers to Big Spring.

The store, owned and operated by George O'Brien, grocer of long experience here, is known throughout the area for its air of hospitality.

O'Brien's customers, of course, are not confined to the southeast section of the city, where the store is located. People like to trade there, not only because they will find all merchandise to their liking, but because there is plenty of parking space around the store, as well. Too, one can be assured of shopping in cool comfort by calling at O'Brien's, since the establishment is air conditioned for the convenience of the customer.

Among nationally advertised goods recently made available to the customer by O'Brien's are Putnam dyes, a household item for many years, and colored thread. Quality meats, attractively displayed so that the customer can choose the exact grade and size he desires, are also sold by the concern, along with nationally advertised canned goods.

Delivery service to any point in the city is offered by the O'Brien store at any time during the day. Business telephone number of the concern is 1622.

Sakrete Is Convenient For Small Amounts Of Concrete

Sakrete is the latest of a line of a rough estimate as to when it amazing and convenient products would prove more economical to distributed here by West Texas Sand and Gravel company.

It is, in simple terms, sacked concrete. The proportions are measured for ordinary use. All that is needed is water to complete the mix.

This makes it ideal for small jobs. For instance, if you have a clothes line pole to set in concrete, Sakrete is the easy answer. Either mix it in an old tub, a mortar bin, or if you like, mix it in the hole.

Most households have numbers of places where a small amount of concrete is needed. Yet the amount is hardly enough to justify a load of ready-mix concrete. Now the sacked mixture fills the bill up to approximately quarter of a yard. That figure is used as

New Principle In Tractor Tire Mead's Fine Bread Precise Product

Introduction of the new Mid-Century Grip Master tire for tractors, the latest development by the U. S. Rubber Co., has been announced here by the Phillips Tire Co.

The same firm recently introduced the Mid-Century Royal Master, an ultra-premium tire for passenger cars, which has lived up to its advance notices in every respect.

The Mid-Century Grip Master is called the greatest all-terrain, all-purpose tractor tire in history. It is exactly designed for every American soil, from sand to gumbo, and for every crop from corn to clover.

The distinctive open center design provides the utmost flexibility, permitting the tire to conform to the irregularities of the ground and penetrate every type of soil with equal effectiveness.

It is of rugged construction, with high-tensile cord and liquid rubber coating, which means extra carcass strength plus extra flexibility to absorb the bumps.

Despite heavy purchases recently, the Phillips Tire Co. expects to have its stock of new tires back in good shape in a few days, since replacements are beginning to arrive.

A precision operation utilizing the latest in modern equipment—that's the manufacture of Mead's Fine bread in the modern bakery plant, Big Spring's only wholesale baking establishment, at 18th and Gregg streets.

Mead's Fine Bread company boasts of an array of the latest equipment used in the baking art with equipment ranging from the giant Baker-Perkins mixers to the big Reed tunnel oven, made especially for the Big Spring concern.

And every step in the preparation of Mead's Fine bread is taken by skilled bakers thoroughly qualified to operate the modern equipment. Their know-how and the degree of exactness they employ in preparing the rich dough for ovens is illustrated by the effect of weather changes on the product.

Ingredients that go into each loaf are measured so exactly that different formulas must be followed to offset the effects of changes in humidity and temperature. A sudden rain shower usually necessitates a complete change in formula so that finished bread will have the same rich even texture that makes Mead's loaves so popular in the Big Spring area.

Temperature and humidity are controlled thermostatically in all phases of the baking process, requirements of the Mead's formulas are so exacting.

In its daily baking work, the concern uses two new Baker-Perkins mixers, each of 1000 pounds capacity. Water, flour and other ingredients are measured to the fraction of an ounce before entering the mixers. Flour is sifted twice after being emptied from bags and readied for the mixers.

From the mixers, dough goes into a Baker-Perkins divider where it is cut into loaf size blocks. From there it goes to the roller for kneading and into the "proofer" where it is allowed to "loosen up" as yeast goes to work.

It is then molded and put into large thermostatically operated proof boxes where it rises and is shaped into loaf form. After rising, the bread is started in to the 65-foot tunnel oven.

Moving slowly through the oven, loaves get their final "rise" and are then baked to a golden finish before emerging from the other end ready for slicing and wrapping.

Loaded on trucks, Mead's Fine Bread is distributed locally twice daily.

Korean Crisis May Affect Incumbents

By The Associated Press
An Oklahoma Democratic runoff primary tomorrow may give lawmakers some indication of how the fighting in Korea affects incumbents.

If Thomas is licked, some lawmakers said they will take it as something of a sign that the voters are irked because the United States wasn't better prepared to fight. Other legislators said they think local circumstances will govern the outcome.

Democrats are also nominating tomorrow in Arkansas, where a governorship race has involved the national issues of the Truman administration, and in Louisiana, where Sen. Russell Long is after his first full term in the office once held by his father, Huey P. Long.

Sen. J. William Fulbright is opposed for renomination in Arkansas tomorrow. There, the big race is for the governor nomination, between incumbent, Sidney McMath and former Gov. Ben Laney.

McMath has supported the Truman administration on most national issues, while Laney is a leader of the anti-Truman Southern Democrats.

In Louisiana, Sen. Long is running to keep the seat he won in 1948 to fill an unexpired term. His opponents for renomination are Malcolm LaFargue, a Shreveport attorney, and former Rep. Newt V. Mills, Monroe real estate man. National issues have been secondary in their race.

Kentucky Jail Head Probing Escape Story

LaGrange, Ky., July 24.—Warden R. L. Whaley today said he was making a complete investigation of the escape and re-capture Saturday night of two prisoners who were reported to have overpowered a prison guard and attacked a woman.

Whaley said he had been given conflicting reports on the incident. The prisoners, Carmen Stacy of Whitesburg and James Neal of Pineville, were members of the Kentucky State Reformatory softball team here. Both were serving terms for robbery.

They had been to Warsaw for a game, taken there in a bus with other players, but were permitted to ride back with an off-duty guard, Delbert Collins.

Sheriff J. J. Coghil at Carrollton reported Collins told him the men overpowered him near LaGrange on the return trip. Collins said he managed to escape after disabling the car to prevent a getaway.

The woman in the car with Collins was the wife of another prisoner, the sheriff said. He had gone to the ball game with Collins and reported she was molested by the prisoners after they overpowered the guard.

The woman, whose name was not listed by the sheriff, declined to file a formal complaint for fear her testimony would hinder chances of her husband getting a parole.

SOVIET HAS THREE MOVES

Korean Peace Hinges On U.S. Efforts To Stabilize Front

By The Associated Press
WASHINGTON, July 24.—Prospects for some new diplomatic negotiation to end the Korean war appear now to hinge on the outcome of the American army effort to stabilize the front.

The critical point at which Russia's real intentions toward the Korean fighting will be disclosed, American officials believe, will come when and if the Red advance is brought to a standstill.

Russia must then realize, they say, that without powerful outside assistance the Korean Communists will be unable to hold their gains and will be confronted with the threat of ultimate defeat.

At that time, according to this line of reasoning, the world will probably find out quickly whether there is to be an end to aggression and a return of peace in Korea or whether the danger of a great war will increase.

Top officials here believe the major decisions on Russia's course have been under study in the Kremlin since the middle of last week.

Two things happened at that time: One was President Truman's message to Congress, calling for a $10 billion down payment on an expanded military program and warning Russia that a series of limited aggressions of the Korea type might well bring on World War III.

The other development was the failure of Indian Prime Minister Nehru's effort to create conditions for a negotiated settlement. The United States rejected Nehru's suggestion that it facilitate Communist China's membership in the United Nations as a means of getting Russia to resume its place in the Security Council.

These two developments together are taken here as having demonstrated to the Kremlin this country's intention to stand absolutely firm against aggression in Korea or anywhere else, whatever the cost.

In addition, diplomatic officials now believe Mr. Truman's message may have scored another point with the Kremlin; that is, that the United States will not permit itself to be involved endlessly in a series of little wars against aggression without finally tackling the main source of the trouble—Russia.

Mr. Truman did not say that in a section of his message which, it was learned, was penned specifically for Kremlin eyes to read, he said simply that the men who have the power to unleash aggression should realize that by continued recourse to such action they would wear the fabric of world peace to the breaking point.

However, suspicious governments normally read each other's official statements for the meaning between the lines. The Soviets know that in Korea the United States and associated United Nations have engaged not the forces of Russia but those of a minor satellite.

The Russians might be tempted to entangle these countries similarly in other regions—Indochina, the Middle East, or the Balkans. The Soviets must know that American strategists have seriously considered this possibility, as well as the counter action the U. S. should take.

So long as the Korean Communists have a prospect of victory by driving American troops into the sea, Russia may let the situation ride unchanged. But if they lose the prospect due to build-up of American power in Korea, authorities here say the Soviets may take one of three courses of action:

1. Emerge in the role of peace-maker by telling the North Koreans to give up a lost cause before they were compelled to do so.

2. Send in troops to aid North Korea, thereby assuring a direct clash between American and Russian forces.

3. Start trouble in some other place to divide United Nations anti-aggression forces.

CONFLICTING STORIES NOW TOLD ABOUT DEAN

By WILLIAM R. MOORE
AN ADVANCED AMERICAN COMMAND POST IN KOREA, July 24.—Maj. Gen. William F. Dean, the fighting commander of the fighting 24th Division, escaped burning Taejon Thursday night after personally leading a bitter street-by-street battle against tanked North Korean forces.

But the general stayed behind in the mountains—now enemy territory—to round up American stragglers.

When last reported early Friday morning, Dean had not been wounded, although others in his party were hit in a running fight out of Taejon.

The account came from an Iowa Lt. Arthur Clarke of Boone, Iowa. Clarke led a dozen men from Dean's party into American lines at noon Sunday.

Earlier, the Army had listed the 50-year-old Dean as missing in action. A report to Gen. MacArthur's headquarters by Col. Jimmie Kim, Dean's interpreter, said the general had been wounded. Kim, hit by a machinegun bullet in the flight from Taejon, dropped out because he could not keep up with the party. He later made his way to safety.

(There appeared to be some confusion in the two stories. Clarke's account, saying that Dean had not been wounded, is the more recent.)

Clark himself was wounded in the shoulder. He related this story of the Taejon fighting and flight: Dean, 6-foot-2 inch, sandy-haired, former Berkeley, Calif., policeman, was in the thick of the battle. He directed bazooka teams firing the new, king-size rockets against Red tanks and juggled ammunition for truck privates.

By nightfall the Korean Reds were everywhere. Dean gathered a small group in jeeps and trucks and they roared through the burning city.

But they made a wrong turn and ran into a Communist road block. Machinegun fire doubled the convoy. The convoy doubled back, ran into other North Koreans.

The party abandoned their vehicles and scurried across rice paddies toward the hills. They eluded the Reds and paused on a mountainside to rest.

Dean said, "You can wait for me," and trudged down the mountainside toward a river, apparently to round up other stragglers.

Earlier Dean had expressed his concern in Taejon. "I want all of you boys to get out," he told Pvt. Alfred Vessels of Stanton, Tex. The party waited two hours, then left.

Hot Rod Jeep Driver Rides High On Bumpy Korea Roads

By TOM LAMBERT
AP STAFF
WITH U. S. FORCES IN KOREA, July 22 (delayed)—Corporal David I. Mocalis draped a leg over the gearshift of his jeep, dragged deeply on his cigarette and squinted at the countryside.

"I don't think God has forgotten or forsaken the joint," he confided. "I think the Koreans have."

Mocalis is something of a philosopher, besides being—for my money—the best jeep driver in the U. S. Army.

Sometimes 22-year-old Dave almost scares you to death as he doffs his cap, pulls plastic goggles over his eyes and tromps on the accelerator.

He dismisses your fears casually. He once was clocked in a hot rod auto at 129 miles per hour.

Korea's roads—often veritable goatpaths—are not even remotely similar, however, to the highways and race courses near Mocalis' home in Santa Monica, Calif. So his easy assurances do not quiet your fears.

The corporal is doing his second hitch in the Army, although for a moment before signing the second time he dallied with the idea of joining the Navy.

The lure of the sea called to him strongly the other day when he boarded a U. S. Navy ship in a South Korean port.

Mocalis was ushered grandly into the crew's mess and food was thrust upon him.

"Two of those big coffee cups full of cherry ice cream" he marveled. "Two of them. And they kept forcing stuff like breaded veal on me. 'G'wan, have some more,' they kept saying. Boy! Then when I finished some sailor wanted to 'chry my weapon (Garand rifle) up on deck for me."

On Korea's rough and scabrous roads, Mocalis is supreme. He drives with a flair... with contempt for Korean drivers... and with a judicious eye for bumps, ruts, river fords and trembling bridges.

ned it out of the command post area like a cowboy sweeping after a runaway steer. He whirled out of sight.

When I rejoined him a few minutes later he was crestfallen.

He had whirled around the communications truck, all right... and into a four-foot deep foxhole.

His fury at the sentry alternated with disgust at himself.

The jeep was hailed out. Mocalis was moody but only for several hundred yards.

His acquisitions are almost legendary. It is told that Mocalis acquired several trucks, jeeps and trailers in Japan between the time the outfit was alerted and boarded ship for Korea.

Mocalis is modest and understandably reticent about such ramblings.

Occasionally he strays into trouble. He has a handful of stratagems. It would be disclosing military secrets to tell how Mocalis wiggles out of some jams. But one account should harm neither the corporal nor the Army.

"This officer was really reaming me, see," Mocalis related. "So I began to snicker. I kept it up. Pretty soon he was so burned up at my snickering he forgot what he was reaming me about in the first place. Finally he threw me out."

French Head Seeks World Army Action

BAR-LE-DUC, France, July 24.—France's President Vincent Auriol has called for "definite organization" of an international army against aggression.

In his first public statement on the Korean war, Auriol hailed "the building, however late, of the international army so long demanded by France."

What a stepper!

Just hint to the gas pedal and she steps out like no other low-priced car. And that's true whether you're driving a Ford V-8 or "Six". But this high-stepper is a low spender when it comes to costs. You can own a V-8, for example, for hundreds less than most "Sixes"—and a Ford "Six" for even less.

What a stopper!

This '50 Ford actually helps you apply the brakes. They're 35% easier-acting-King-Size Brakes that use car momentum to help you stop. Like Ford's extra-tugged "LifeGuard" body, they give you the kind of protection you'd expect only of costlier cars. And for added safety and comfort, you ride low and level in the "Mid Ship" section of the car, between the wheels—not over them. You're cradled in comfort on "Hydra-Guid" front springs and "Para-Flex" rear springs that give a road-hugging smoothness truly amazing.

What a looker!

Yes, again in '50, Ford received the Fashion Academy Gold Medal as "Fashion Car of the Year." And Ford's may good looking because their laked-on finish is "made to live outdoors." That means high resale value which, together with Ford's low running costs, puts Ford further out front as America's savingest car.

And what a saver—all the way!

President Makes Home Buying Harder To Keep Prices Down

WASHINGTON. — THE HOUSING and home finance agency is the top government outfit to help people buy, build or repair homes.

In this story already in effect: 2. Public Housing Administration (PHA). IN 1949 CONGRESS PASSED A LAW to help cities build low-rent housing units for low-income families.

FURTHER, THE FHA NOW WILL GIVE 5 per cent less insurance than it did this week. Example: Until this week the FHA insured a loan on a one-family house up to 80 per cent of the cost, for a maximum of $10,000.

THIS AGENCY GIVES CREDIT TO SAVINGS banks and loan outfits which make loans to people for buying or building homes. This credit, unlike insurance, gives banks a backing of money to draw on for making loans.

U. S. Position Can Be Strengthened By Leaving Korean Objective To UN

The part that the United Nations is playing in Korea is not to be measured by the military contribution of the other members. Their continuing political approval of the campaign to halt the invasion and to repulse it is a great moral support; it gives reason and purpose to what would otherwise be a dirty little war.

partition which has ended in war and to achieve a united and independent Korea. It is difficult to exaggerate the importance of our convincing the uncommitted nations of Asia and the great masses of the people everywhere that MacArthur is in truth fighting under the U. N. flag and not behind it.

of the governments of India and of Pakistan to work out proposals for a settlement. It is their duty to do it. They are the leading independent powers of Asia, and theirs is the responsibility for discovering them, arranging through the U. N. for the kind of settlement which the peoples of Asia will accept and will come to like.

But that is not all. The task of the U. N. in Korea will not end with the repulse of the invasion and the withdrawal of the North Korean army to the 38th parallel. In fact that will be only the beginning of the principal work of the U. N. in Korea. For only under the auspices of the U. N. can there be any kind of decent settlement of the Korean problem.

It would be an intolerable settlement of course if the North Korean army conquered South Korea. But it will not be a decent settlement if at the end of the Korean fighting the American Army finds itself at the 38th parallel, and is invited for the indefinite future with the task of defending South Korea, and therefore of occupying it, policing it against guerrillas, and in fact providing it with a government.

So deep a commitment to the U. N. may make it possible for the Security Council to unshackle the tangle of Chinese representation. It is true that Red China cannot be seated as a reward, or as the ransom, for ending the Korean aggression. The dignity of the U. N. would be gravely injured if that were the outcome.

Double-Ring Ceremony Unites Hill, Franklin

Bonnie Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hill, 103 Madison, and George Franklin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Franklin, 1605 Lancaster, were united in marriage in a double-ring ceremony Saturday evening at 8 p. m. in the home of the bride's parents.

The Rev. A. W. Stowe, pastor of the Airport Baptist Church, officiated at the informal candlelight ceremony. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Bestrothal vows were exchanged before a fireplace banked with fern and interspersed with candles. Flanking each side were tall baskets of white gladioli and pink marooni daisies.

The bride wore a dress of white lace over satin of street length with powder blue accessories. She carried a corsage of red roses on a white ribbon given her by her mother.

The Bible was something, old, her ensemble, something new, a necklace set belonging to Neta Betterton, something borrowed, and a garter made for her by Ina Dell Hayworth, something blue.

Miss Betterton attended the bride as maid of honor. She wore a dress of dusty rose crepe with navy accessories. Her corsage was of red roses. Fred Franklin attended his brother as best man. Jimmy Gill brother of the bride lighted the candles.

The mother of the bride wore a navy dress with white accessories and a white carnation corsage. Mrs. Franklin, mother of the groom, wore navy print with white accessories and a white carnation corsage.

For her wedding trip the bride chose a white embroidered eyelet with navy accessories.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the home of the bride's parents. The two-tiered cake was served from a lace-covered table centered with an arrangement of sweet peas and phlox.

Mrs. Neil Bryant served the cake to the guests. Mrs. Fred Franklin served punch from a crystal service.

Wedding guests included Mr. and Mrs. Roy Franklin, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Franklin, Neta Betterton, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Spivey and Judy.

Christianity In Europe Is Solution

CLEVELAND, July 24. (AP)—The Baptist World Congress was told today that if Europe were thoroughly Christian, the problems of the world would be well on the way to a solution.

Rev. Walter O. Lewis of London, associate general secretary of the Baptist World Alliance, spoke at the third day of the five-day meeting opened Monday by more than 20,000 persons from 48 countries are attending.

He said Europe is important not only because of its size and population, but "because it is a way of life."

"European civilization has dominated many parts of the earth since the age of discovery and since the era of colonization set in," he pointed out.

Referring to the vital question of separation of church and state, Dr. Lewis asserted "full religious liberty does not exist where there is a state church."

"Intelligent non-conformists," he said, "advocate the separation of church and state, not only because they suffer certain disabilities, but because they feel the state churches themselves would be better off if they were freed from their connection with the state."

He pointed out that in Italy an attack on the Roman Catholic Church often is regarded as an attack on the state and may result in heavy punishment.

Declaring a union of church and state always has been a handicap to the church's spiritual life, Dr. Lewis added.

"Surely it is not too much to hope that the churches themselves may realize this and of their own accord free themselves from the union."

He informed the Congress that European Baptists have taken steps to form a federation in the hope that various Baptist groups can thus gain strength to push for religious freedom.

"Upon the whole, it would seem there is less religious liberty today in Europe than at any time during the last 100 years," he added. "And things are getting worse."

The alliance secretary warned that if the battle for freedom is lost in Europe, it will be difficult to maintain freedom in other parts of the world."

Increased Outdoor Activity Makes It Hard For Women To Have Cool Look

By BETTY CLARKE
AP Newsfeatures Beauty Editor
It always is a challenge to women to try to capture that cool look during the summer time. It is a difficult beauty chore to accomplish, what with the usual increased outdoor activity during hot weather.

The cool look of crisp summer cottons doesn't counterbalance a hot, red face. So we should strive for cool looking skins whether we choose the pale or sun bronzed look.

A few beauty treatments whipped up from things on hand in medicine chest and kitchen cupboard, will keep you fresh and well-groomed through the hottest days.

Try carrying a small bottle of good quality witch hazel in the purse for frequent face washings during the day. It will do wonders in keeping the face cool. Wrap a few cotton squares in cleansing tissue and keep them in your bag for these dab-up moments. It is a good idea to keep witch hazel in the refrigerator during the summer. Its icy coolness will be refreshing when you arrive home after work on a hot day.

If you are troubled with oily skin and humid weather puts an unbecoming shine on your nose, try a vigorous cleansing routine. Select a soft complexion brush and each morning briskly scrub your face with mild soap and warm water. Pay special attention to the area around chin and nose, where oil glands are most active, as you refresh and stimulate complexion to a radiant glow.

A cooling facial several times a week is wonderful for cleansing pores and tightening facial muscles. One that is particularly effective and simple to make is the cucumber mask. Soak cucumber peels and the juice of one lemon in a cup of water 15 minutes. After your morning cleansing ritual, saturate a cotton square with this liquid and pat briskly over face and throat. While you are organizing your wardrobe for the day, allow the facial mask to dry. Splash it off with cold water. Then apply makeup with soft, gentle strokes to avoid overheating the skin.

Another kitchen facial that works wonders is the egg mask. This, also, is particularly good for oily skin, as it has a tendency to dry and tighten pores. After skin is cleaned, wet a fresh cotton square with frothy, beaten egg white and rub over face, neck and throat. When this is completely dry, remove with cold water. The girl with oily skin always should select summer cosmetics with a non-oily base.

If complexion is dry and flaky, use a good cold cream for daily cleansing rather than soap and water. You might even take a tip from the young member of the family and borrow his baby lotion for removing soil and stale makeup.

Simple, flared princess lines — the most flattering you could ask for in a frock! Best of all, it's easily made, even to the binding-trimmed scallops.

Derwood Cox Tames Big Springers, 5-1

Gomez Clouts Eighth Homer

Derwood Cox made the Big Spring Broncs the victims as he notched his 15th mound victory of the season for San Angelo here Sunday afternoon. Final tally was 5-1.

The Colts got to Bert Baez, who was out after his 12th victory of the season, for a dozen assorted base hits, including home runs by Jack Smith and Bob Cruces.

Smith's round tripper came with the sacks deserted in the second stanza and gave the Colts their first run.

After Felix Gomez had busted one for four bases for the Broncs in the third, the Angelenos came right back with a tally in the fourth when Wayne Wallace led off with a hit, went to second on a walk to Cruces and came home on a one-baser by Chino Lopez.

The Colts added to their margin when Cruces hit his four-master with one out in the sixth frame, then got to Baez for two more in the eighth when Art Caballero doubled and sprinted home when Gabe Castenada gobbled up Steve Follett's ground ball to hit Caballero in the back trying to flag him at third base.

Caballero scored and Follett went to second on the misplay, legged it to third on a hit and sprinted home on a long fly by Smith.

Big Spring was afforded numerous chances to score but Cox was always rugged in the clutch. Manny Junco continued his batting spree for Big Spring, getting hits his first three times up. Cox shackled the rest of the Broncs power, however.

Knapp Missing In T-C Bout

Knapp's Lions failed to show up for their Tri-County baseball league game with HCJC here Sunday and the contest apparently will go into the records as a forfeit to the Jayhawks.

Steeds Invade Duster Domain This Evening

The Big Spring Broncs are at that crossroads again in Longhorn league campaigning, which might make some people wonder whether they're going in circles.

Pat Stacey's Steeds are only two games out of second place in the standings, yet only two out of fourth. Their chances to move up depend largely on their success in the upcoming Vernon series, which begins tonight in Vernon.

The Dusters, now occupying fourth place, will have to win all three games from the Broncs in order to occupy third place. However, the Dusters have been very successful against Big Spring to date and anything can happen.

Big Spring will be gone for five days. The locals head for Sweetwater and two games after finishing up with Vernon on Wednesday. They'll next be seen here against Sweetwater Saturday, July 29, at which time they open a four-game home stand.

Club President Al Atton received assurance that Ray (Cookie) Vasquez was to leave Havana today to join Big Spring. The little shortstop was to have joined the Broncs last week but was held up for numerous reasons. Not only did he have to go through the customary customs inspections but he had to await a flight out of Cuba.

Snead, Ferrier St. Paul Foes

ST. PAUL, Minn., July 24. (UP)—It was chip shots against putting as Sam Snead of White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., and Jim Ferrier of San Francisco met today in a playoff for first place in the St. Paul $15,000 Open.

The 18-hole playoff starts at 3 p. m. (EST). Snead's ability to place chip shots where they would do the most good brought him a seven-under-par 65 yesterday in the final 18 holes of the scheduled 72-hole tourney. And it was Ferrier's putting that kept him in the running.

The two wound up tied at 276. Ferrier carded a one-under-par 71 for the 6,557-yard Keller Course. They were the nearest competitors. Amateur Champion Frank Stranahan of Toledo, Ohio, and Jerry Barber, Philadelphia club pro. Stranahan shot a 71 for low amateur honors in the tourney, while Barber collected third money of $1,400 after his par 72.

Regardless of whether he wins first or second money, Ferrier will have $15,546, not quite a thousand dollars more than Demaret has collected. Demaret withdrew from the St. Paul Tourney Saturday after completing nine holes of the third round, saying he was too tired to continue.

Ref Campaigns To Kill Censure

TEMPLE, Tex., July 24. (UP)—The referee of the controversial Arkansas-Texas Christian football game last fall from which came Southwest conference censure of Arkansas for rough play said today the action was unjust.

Paul Boyd of Temple, who claims he was blackballed from officiating in conference games this year, declared that he was asking the conference faculty committee to reopen the hearing. The censure was voted after Coach Dutch Meyer of TCU filed a protest, claiming illegal use of hands and arms by Arkansas.

He said he had attempted to get the conference committee to reopen the case, that they had refused to the fans through the medium of newspapers and radio. "I have discussed the game with competent men who were scouting the game and they did not see any rough play," Boyd declared. "I have seen the picture (of the game) under Coach Meyer's supervision and there was not any more rough play in the ball game than there is in any conference game."

Meyer, in filing the protest, cited a list of injuries received by his players. The conference censured Arkansas at its winter meeting. It was asked to reconsider at the spring meeting but would do nothing more than to say no reflection was intended on the character of John Barnhill, then the Arkansas coach and now athletic director at Arkansas.

Shelton Tames Miles Giants

FORSAN, July 24. (UP)—Lefty Shelton spaced ten hits in pitching the Forsan Oilers to a 10-6 victory over Miles in a Concho-Basin baseball league game here Sunday.

The triumph gave the Oilers undisputed possession of second place in circuit standings. The Oilers ganged up on Shorty Gramzine for nine blows, including three by Sammy Porter. Miles committed seven errors, which helped Shelton and the Oilers.

Bob Lemon became the major's biggest winner. He turned in his 15th triumph for the Cleveland Senators, 6-2. The Boston Red Sox whipped the St. Louis Browns, 6-2. Ellis Kinder went all the way to gain his 10th conquest.

Philadelphia vacated last place in favor of the Browns by taking a twin bill from the Chicago White Sox, 2-1 and 5-4.

Shelton was a 10-run third inning by Besumont during which the Oilers set a new league record for total errors in one frame. They committed six. Fort Worth held the record of five set in 1947. Fort Worth lost to San Antonio 6-1 with the Missions getting all their runs in the first inning. Ray Moore walked the first three batters and hit the fourth and before the nightmarish inning was over San Antonio had won the ball game. Oklahoma City nipped Shreveport 1-0 in a brilliant pitching duel between Leroy Wheat of the Indians and Howie Auman of Shreveport. Harry Maimberg scored the winning run in the eighth on a hot grounder by Fred Marsh that couldn't be handled for a play at the plate. Elvin Stabelfeld carved a six-hitter as Dallas whitewashed Houston 7-0. Bill Klaus and Jim Harkard led an 11-hit Dallas attack. Tonight Houston remains in Dallas for a doubleheader. San Antonio is at Fort Worth. Besumont at Tulsa and Shreveport at Oklahoma City for single games.

Whiz Kids Decision Cincinnati Twice

Regain Lead In National

BY RALPH RODEN
Associated Press Staff
The Philadelphia Whiz Kids are performing beyond Manager Eddie Sawyer's fondest expectations.

Sawyer, who brought his young charges home a surprise third last season, said in the spring that he would settle for an encore this year.

At the moment it appears that the Phils will better their 1949 deeds. In many quarters the Phils are looked upon as the next National League champions.

The lone fly in the ointment is the imminent departure of Curt Simmons, 21-year-old star left-hander, for a tour of duty with the National Guard. Simmons leaves July 29 for a 14-day hitch at Indian-town Gap, Pa. Duir gnat that time the Phils are at home for 17 games.

Simmons recorded his 13th victory yesterday as the Phils cooled off the Cincinnati Reds in a doubleheader and gained undisputed possession of first place.

The $65,000 bonus beauty turned back the Reds, 12-4, in the opener. The Phils took the second, 7-4, behind Russ Meyer and Jim Konstanty to snap their tie with the St. Louis Cardinals for the top rung. The Cards beat the Boston Braves, 8-4, in a single encounter.

Simmons scattered ten hits and fanned seven while his mates came up with a 15-hit attack that included a pair of home runs by Willie Jones and one apiece by Andy Seminick and Del Ennis.

Lefty Al Brazie, with help in the ninth from Harry Brecheen, stopped the Braves on 12 hits, the same number the Cards secured off Bob Chapman and Bucky Walters. The Cards howler backed up Brazie with four double-plays.

The loss doubled the Braves from third to fourth place, with the Brooklyn Dodgers moving up. The Dodgers outsluged the Pittsburgh Pirates, 11-6. The Hums broke a 6-4 tie with a four-run rally in the eighth that Gil Hodges featured with a three-run homer.

Sheldon Jones, knocked out in each of his last four starts, turned in the pitching gem of the day—a 3-2 one-hit victory for the New York Giants over the Chicago Cubs in the second game of a doubleheader.

The Giants also won their first game, 5-3, with Wes Thurman knocking in three runs, one on his 18th homer. Larry Jansen went the distance to gain his 10th victory.

In the equally close American League pennant scramble, the pace setting Detroit Tigers staged a two-out ninth-inning rally to whip the runner-up New York Yankees, 6-5. The win boosted the Tiger's edge to a game and a half. A victory by the Yanks, who won the first two games of the series, would have enabled them to take the lead.

With two down and a man on, Hoot Evers, Gerry Priddy and Don Holloway singled to turn the tide. Allie Reynolds yielded the first two hits and Holloway's game-winning blow came off Joe Page.

Bob Lemon became the major's biggest winner. He turned in his 15th triumph for the Cleveland Senators, 6-2. The Boston Red Sox whipped the St. Louis Browns, 6-2. Ellis Kinder went all the way to gain his 10th conquest.

Philadelphia vacated last place in favor of the Browns by taking a twin bill from the Chicago White Sox, 2-1 and 5-4.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart
Though the fans over the circuit did their best to overlook them in the balloting, Big Spring players kept up their superlative work in the last Longhorn league all-star classic, won by the West, 3-1.

When Bert Garcia, the Broncs righthander, notched the win, he became the third pitcher in four all-star games to be credited with a victory.

Jose Cindan, although he was shaky in the three innings he labored, received credit for the triumph back in 1947 when the West licked the East, 11-4. Cindan toiled the middle three innings, gave up all the opposition's runs and the West trailed when he left the game. However his mates rallied before his successor came on and the win was his.

Last year, Julio Ramos of Our Town had a rough time of it for three frames but his mates hit East flinger even harder what time he was around and he got the triumph. Final tally of the 1949 show was 7-3 with the West on the long end of the score.

Two Big Spring hurlers made an appearance in the 1948 classic but Ed Arthur, then with Odessa, gained the nod in that one as the West won out, 5-4.

BIG REPRESENTATION
In the four games, a total of 21 Big Spring players have appeared in the classic. In those four contests, Broncs performers have collected a total of 16 base hits and scored a total of 11 runs, as compared to 48 blows and 26 tallies for all four West teams.

As a matter of fact, the Broncs representatives have registered only one less run than the East clubs in their four losing efforts.

DIFFERENT LINEUP
It is no accident that the West has been able to ring up four victories without a loss in the Longhorn show. Most of the strength has been concentrated in Big Spring, Midland and Odessa in those four campaigns.

Perhaps, the league directors will see fit in 1951 to align the teams differently. A North-South arrangement might possibly work better.

However, Big Spring could change camps next season. That is likely to happen if Carlshad, N. M., comes into the league, replacing Ballinger. The Ballinger club will be moved somewhere and Carlshad promoters have requested that they be given consideration for a franchise.

Lefty Vernon Gomez, who never weighed more than 145 pounds in his best days as a New York Yankee flinger, is now carrying 205 pounds.

HIGH-PRICED CLUBS
Salary limit of Longhorn league clubs is supposed to be $2,800 a month, which means the entire club, exclusive of the manager, cannot be paid in excess of that amount. Most teams ignore the limit as if it didn't exist, however.

More than a few semi-pro outfits in Texas divvy up $4,000 and more among their players every 30 days, which constitutes quite a mystery, not to say quite a stake. The semi-pro aggregations usually play no more than three or four times a week.

Some of the higher priced semi-pro teams in Texas are located at Alpine, Sinton, Columbus, Weimar and Victoria.

ODESSA, July 24. —The Odessa Stars won their third straight baseball decision from the Big Spring Tigers here Sunday, 4-1.

The Main-Americans from Big Spring picked up their tally in the first frame when Memia doubled home Mendoza.

The Stars caught up by the third inning when Britt was plied on an outfield fly and went ahead in the sixth on a walk to Chicla, a hit and a double play.

Odessa widened the edge when Roman and Roth went home on an error and a walk with the sacks jammed.

The Tigers could manage only six hits off Britt, the Odessa hurler, two of them by Memia. Roman paced the seven-hit Odessa offensive off Gus Fierro, the Tiger twirler, with three safeties.

Odessa Upset By Sweetwater

By The Associated Press
The boys work harder for their dough in the Longhorn League than most of the other circuits. They sure play a lot of extra-lining games.

Three contests yesterday produced two. Sweetwater had to go ten innings to beat leading Odessa 6-5. Hal Abbott pounded a double to drive in Jerry Jones with the winning run. A 10-inning tilt also was played at Ballinger. Midland tied up the game in the ninth when Lou Dawson singled Jim Prince across.

Then in the last of the tenth Clyde Bell drove in Walt Wallendorf with the tally that won for Ballinger 4-3.

San Angelo downed Big Spring 5-1 as Derwood Cox notched his fifteenth pitching victory of the season. He scattered eight hits. Bob Cruces and Jack Smith homered. Rowell gained a half game on Odessa—it's only 4 1/2 games back now—when its game with Vernon was postponed because of wet grounds.

The agriculture committee voted to approve the plan for a new Howard county Fair plant and that the group assist in the campaign for funds.
W. D. Berry, of the Ackerly-Knott telephone company, outlined proposed plans for extension of services to cover the north and east sections of the county. Under the plan, exchanges will be set up at Sparenburg, Knott, Ackerly, Vealmoor, Vincent, Coahoma, and Chalk.
An application for an REA loan to finance extensions is now pending, Berry said.

German Reds
Said Forming
Own Party

DUESSELDORF, Germany, July 24.—German Communists opposing Moscow's foreign policy are reported forming an independent Communist party here.
Joseph Schappe, former party leader ousted as a Titoist, said more than 100 leaders expelled by the German party met yesterday to get the new group going. Schappe said he expected "tens of thousands" of Communists to join them.
The new party, Schappe said, still regarded the Soviet Union as the "ideal and as the fatherland of the working class." But West German Communists, he declared, should not follow the Kremlin's foreign policy line but should adopt itself to "specific conditions in West Germany."
Schappe said his group opposed the agreement of the Communist East German Government to cede to Poland all territory east of the Oder and Neisse Rivers. He also denounced Russia's recent announcement that all but 13,458 German prisoners of war had been repatriated. West German sources have charged that several hundred thousand German prisoners taken by the Russians still are unaccounted for.

By Communists

BERLIN, July 24.—Composer Johann Sebastian Bach died 200 years ago but Russian and German Communists say he set their doctrines to music.
The Soviet control commission's official newspaper, Targliche Rundschau, welcomed Bach into the Communist fold.
An editorial in the paper said he put into music "thoughts of world development which were later put in legal form by Marx and Engels and now instituted in the Soviet Union and the people's democracies."
The Russian-occupied city of Leipzig, where Bach lived much of his life and died yesterday began an eight-day festival celebrating the 200th anniversary of his death on July 28.

Rose Bowl Site
May Be Loaded
With Uranium

PASADENA, Calif., July 24.—The Arroyo Seco, in which stands Pasadena's famous rose bowl, may be loaded with uranium, the stuff you can drive up the big gulch with a Geiger counter and listen to incessant bombardment by beta and gamma rays, says Research Engineer Henry Kinlow.
Kinlow disclosed yesterday that he, his wife and several friends filed mining claims on 1,700 acres of Arroyo Seco land in February, 1946. They are now pending before the Atomic Energy Commission for study.
The AEC replied that preliminary test indicated further examination was warranted. A final report has been received it yet.
"We believe there are substantial veins of good stuff here," he declared. However, the Rose Bowl is in no immediate danger. The richest ore is back up in the surrounding hills.

HST Discusses Tax Increases
With Advisers

WASHINGTON, July 24.—President Truman discussed with congressional leaders today the advisability of an immediate emergency tax increase on both individual incomes and business firms.
House Speaker Rayburn (D-Tex.) told reporters after the White House conference that the matter was still in the conversation stage.
But in any case a long-range tax bill, possibly including an excess profits tax, is likely to be taken up later in the year or early next year, Rayburn said.
Rayburn said the idea of an immediate emergency tax rise would be discussed by Secretary of the Treasury Snyder and the chairman of the appropriate Senate and House committees in the near future.
He said such "interim" legislation as he called it would be intended to take up "some of the immediate slack" in government financing arising from the proposed huge increase in military spending.
Rayburn mentioned no figure in talking of the possible emergency bill.
At the Capitol, hearings began on the administration's general home front economic program.
To the Senate Banking Committee, W. Stuart Symington described this program as aimed to "take" the profiteering out of war.
Symington is chairman of the National Security Resources Board which has the job of planning for production, home front controls and civil defense in event of war.
The administration's five-point controls bill does not involve retail price controls at the civilian level or controls over manpower.
Buy Symington told senators these things are under consideration and may be asked if needed.

North Koreans
Draft Children
To Fight War

U. S. 8TH ARMY HEADQUARTERS, Korea, July 24.—South Korean army officer said today the north invaders were drafting practically all available manpower—including school children—to throw into the war.
"They are putting everyone they can get into the army and they've exhausted their manpower," said Col. Lee Sun Keun, former dean of the Seoul University Law School.
His report to a news conference was supported by Capt. Kenneth R. Cornell of Brinsford, N. Y., American adviser to the Republic of Korea.
Lee said children as young as 13 years were summoned in Seoul and then pressed into "student volunteer corps" and used in combat zones.
Lee also said:
"South Koreans are unaware they are fighting American troops."
"They believe the UN force is a guerrilla force... and they have only a week or two to fight and it will be all over."
"The invaders force their soldiers literally 'to fight for their food'." Unless they advance they are denied rations.
Lee said the Korean Communists' morale is shaky but the fighting spirit of the South Korean is mounting.
Reports of Communist atrocities in Seoul have stiffened southern resistance. Lee said refugees reported families of South Korean police officials, army officers and political leaders are being rounded up and shot.

Thomas' Parole Request Refused

WASHINGTON, July 24.—The U. S. Parole Board today refused to parole former Rep. J. Parrott Thomas (R-NJ) who is serving six to 18 months on conviction of padding his congressional payroll.
As usual, the board gave no reason when announcing it had rejected Thomas' parole application. He is serving his sentence in the Danbury (Conn.) Federal Correctional Institution.
Members noted, however, in response to inquiries, that in addition to his prison term, Thomas was also fined $10,000 and that no arrangements for paying this have been made.
The former congressman made a direct appeal to President Truman several weeks ago for a presidential pardon which would cancel the remainder of his sentence and also delete the fine.
The President referred the appeal to the Justice Department.
Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Heard left Sunday for San Francisco where Vernon was called back as navigator for American Airlines. This was his occupation during World War II.

Legion Asks Imprisonment For Supporters Of Subversive Acts

INDIANAPOLIS, July 24.—Department commanders of the American Legion adopted unanimously yesterday a resolution calling for imprisonment of any person who supports or sponsors subversive acts against the government.
The resolution was adopted at a conference summoned by National Commander George N. Craig of Evansville, Ind. before the Legion's 3 million members to campaign for "immediate enactment of universal military training legislation."
Lewis K. Gough of Pasadena, Calif., head of the California Department, presented the imprisonment resolution. When asked by Craig if it applied to the Communist element, Gough replied that was the target of the measure.
The resolution's text was: "Resolved, that any person who knowingly aids, abets or assists or in any way practices implementation of a subversive policy of a nation, upon destruction of our government by violence or other means, be subject to imprisonment as a criminal."
Craig's announcement of a campaign for universal military training, broadcast over CBS, said: "Universal military training is the least expensive and most effective national security measure we can adopt. The cost of universal military training can never break its adoption will make us..."
The Legion commander called also for reduction of all government expenditures not concerned with national security. He said the Legion would set an example by dropping for the present its support of new pension and bonus laws.
Craig also said the Legion would ask for no additional benefits of extensions under the GI bill of rights except to make the bill applicable to those now fighting in Korea.

REACTION TO KING

Wave Of Strikes Due For Belgium

By The Associated Press
BRUSSELS, Belgium, July 24 — King Leopold and his Social Christian Government today faced tightening opposition which promised to take a far more solid form than rallies and press blasts.
A Socialist leader declared that a wave of strikes would start today in Belgium's Walloon area. They would spread, he said, until the king quit the throne for good in only two days ago.
The Socialist spokesman intimated that no general strikes are planned immediately. Expecting the abdication fight to be a long one, the anti-Leopold party is loath to use all its weapons at once.
Leopold has shown no sign he intends to submit to his opponents' demands that he abdicate and let his eldest son, Crown Prince Baudouin, reign.
Liberal ministers of state discovered this yesterday when they were summoned to a meeting of the crown council at Laeken Palace. They withdrew in protest when told the king would only read them an address and they would have no chance to submit demands for his abdication.

The anti-Leopold Socialist state ministers already had withdrawn from the council. The king thus found his crown body reduced from 28 to 10 — all members of the Social Christian Party which voted to recall him from Switzerland.
Prince Baudouin received a warm welcome from Leopoldists yesterday when he fulfilled his first public engagement by presenting a wreath to the victims of the bombing the past year. Some 500 persons cheered him as he drove into Brussels for the ceremony with his younger brother Albert escorted only by motorcycle police.
Leopold himself remained secluded behind the walls of Laeken Palace, protected by police and troops. Armed guards were posted every 25 yards around the walls.
Last night several hundred of the king's opponents marched through Brussels chanting "Leopold to the scaffold." The previous day the Communists demonstrated against the king in Brussels. At Liege several thousand demonstrators turned out to protest his return. At Charleroi, a strong anti-Leopold center, three small bomb explosions were reported.

King's Funeral Wednesday; World Great Pays Tribute

OTTAWA, July 24 — The world's great joined Canadians today in paying tribute to former prime minister William Lyon Mackenzie King, a senior statesman of the British Commonwealth who died Saturday night of pneumonia. He will be given a state funeral Wednesday. For the 24 hours preceding the body will rest in state in Canada's parliament. Funeral services will be held in King's Church at Ottawa. St. Andrew's Presbyterian Burial will be in Toronto's Mt. Pleasant Cemetery, beside his father, mother and brother.

Prime minister from December 1921 to November, 1948, the 75-year-old King had the British Commonwealth's longest tenure as a chief of state. One of the first tributes came from King George VI and Queen Elizabeth, who said that the veteran liberal leader's "lifelong service to Canada will ensure him a place in the history of his country and in the hearts of his people."
In King, said President Truman, "freedom loving peoples and democratic institutions found an unwavering champion." His death, he added, "will bring sorrow to his legion of friends in the United States, among whom I was privileged to be numbered."
King's death, said Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent, marked the end of a period historians will call "the MacKenzie King era."
The former prime minister, who had resigned on Nov. 15, 1948, died at his summer home in the Chateau Hills, 20 miles north of Ottawa
