

Millionaire's Six-Year-Old Son Kidnaped

KANSAS CITY (U)—Hours of agonized waiting dragged by today without any word from the kidnapers of 6-year-old Bobby Greenlease, son of a millionaire automobile distributor.

Twenty-four hours after the child was taken from the fashionable Notre Dame de Sion school by a woman, the parents of the boy, Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Greenlease, waited hopefully for some contact with the kidnapers.

Police, meanwhile, said they were doing nothing in an effort to avoid frightening the kidnapers and to give them an opportunity to make contact with the family.

The FBI declined comment on the case.

Greenlease said he believed the kidnaping was the work of professionals. That, he said, made him hopeful the perpetrators would make contact soon with a ransom demand. This, he felt, would make it more likely that the child would be released unharmed, as the professionals would be interested primarily in the money.

The boy was taken from the school yesterday morning.

The woman gained admittance to the school, Notre Dame de Sion, by telling a nun Mrs. Greenlease had suffered a heart attack and the boy had to be taken to the hospital. She said she was the boy's aunt.

The nun suggested the woman pray for Mrs. Greenlease in the school chapel while she waited for the child to be called from his class. The woman walked into the chapel and knelt.

On leaving the school with Bobby, the woman remarked:

"I'm not a Catholic, but I hope God heard my prayers."

Eugene M. Pond, chief of detectives, said police were following all normal processes in the investigation and added:

"We are awaiting a request from the parents before starting an intensive investigation."

He said no request for such an investigation had been received, apparently out of concern for the boy's safety.

The FBI declined to comment when asked whether it was taking part in the case.

Announcement of the kidnaping was withheld from the press and radio for three hours. Police Chief Bernard C. Brannon explained officers feared earlier disclosure might result in death or injury to the child.

Greenlease, 71, is a distributor for Cadillac.

"I don't know why anybody would do anything like this," he said. "There are so many reasons why anybody would be foolish to take such a risk. It just doesn't make sense."

The woman, described as chunky, about 35 years old and having reddish brown hair, left the school with the boy in a taxicab.

The sun then telephoned the Greenlease home, talked with Mrs. Greenlease and learned she was not ill. Then it was discovered the boy had been taken from the school on a ruse.

Later the taxicab driver, Willard Creech, 62, told police the woman and young Greenlease left his cab at a parking lot only a few blocks from the school. They got into a late model blue sedan with Kansas license plates and drove off.

Mrs. Greenlease collapsed from strain and was under care of a physician. The Greenleases also have an 11-year-old daughter.

Local Unit Of National Guard Draws Praise

Big Spring National Guardsmen zoomed through a command inspection last night to a tune of praise from their commanding general.

Gen. James E. Taylor, of San Antonio, told local Guardsmen their unit has improved more "in every respect" than any Guard organization he has inspected since June encampment. And the unit had received top rating at the summer camp.

Gen. Taylor is commander of the 36th Division artillery. The Big Spring unit is Battery B of the 132nd Field Artillery Battalion.

The commanding general also complimented the Guard members on their personal appearance and the efficiency with which they conducted a simulated artillery fire mission. Several battalion and division artillery officers were on hand for the general's inspection.

A dinner was held for Guardsmen and the visiting officers prior to the inspection.

The Big Spring unit, commanded by Lt. Charles K. Vaughn, received one of the highest ratings at the division encampment in June. A state maintenance inspection, held earlier this month, also resulted in an excellent rating for the artillery battery, according to W.O. Bill Eggleston, administrative assistant.

PARIS (U)—The Soviet Union has unconditionally accepted the Western proposal for a Big Four meeting to discuss German problems, an American Embassy source said today.

At the same time, the Russians proposed the Big Four and Communist China also meet to consider ways of easing world tensions.

The Russians did not set a date or name a place for the Big Four foreign ministers meeting on Germany. The United States, France, and Britain had suggested that such a conference be held in Lugano, Switzerland, Oct. 15.

The Soviet note, about 10 typewritten pages, was delivered yesterday to the three Western embassies in Moscow and relayed to Paris, London and Washington.

The Russian communication appeared to reject the Western invitation for the Big Four foreign ministers to talk about the dead-

India Seeks Big Power Conference On World's Woes

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (U)—Calls for a big power conference to try ironing out the world's woes mounted today at the U.N. Assembly entered the last day of its general policy debate.

India's V. K. Krishna Menon urged the Assembly last night to request a personal meeting of the major nations' chiefs of state. He said he would submit a formal resolution proposing this.

Menon declared that no settlement of world tensions was possible except by negotiated agreement of these powers—"primarily of the two giants—the United States and the Soviet Union. . . This idea is what humanity cries for."

23 Die In Plane Crash At Airport

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (U)—The death toll from the worst aviation disaster in Kentucky's history climbed to 23 today when stewardess Dorothy Jean Bush, 32, San Antonio, died.

Twenty-two persons, including 20 Puerto Rican soldiers, were killed outright when a two-engine chartered airliner bearing the end of its journey went out of control late last night and crashed in the center of Louisville's Standfield Field.

The remaining 18 of the 41 persons aboard remained in critical condition.

After pulling up to about 400 feet, the liner nosed down and crashed with a terrific impact. Bodies were scattered as far as 100 feet. Some were decapitated.

The pilot, Capt. Whorton Moller, 33, and his assistant, Co-Capt. John DeWitt Pickel, 31, both of San Antonio, Tex., were dead when ambulances arrived.

The status of the soldiers was not clarified immediately since their records went with them on the transfer.

Authorities at Camp Kilmer said they were among a group of Puerto Ricans processed from overseas for reassignment and that quite likely some of them saw combat service in Korea.

Lt. Col. Roscoe Buckles, staff duty officer at Ft. Knox, said the men had been taken to Camp Kilmer from Puerto Rico.

None of the survivors could tell what happened.

One witness, Carl South, a transportation agent for Trans World Airlines, said the plane came into view at about 1,000 feet and descended in a normal manner. He said he noticed the left elevator flap on the tail drop and the plane pulled up. All at once it nosed down and crashed into the middle of the spacious field.

The plane broke into two parts and both engines burst into flames. Most of the survivors seemed to come out of the tail section.

Those first on the scene said the injured were crying and screaming and uttering invocations to "Maria," the Virgin Mary in the Puerto Ricans' Spanish tongue.

Fire Capt. Marion Norris said: "There wasn't much we could do about the fire. People were lying all over the place, and we handled them as we could."

The Army withheld the names of the victims until next of kin are notified.

Menon's appeal came in the wake of a big power conference that Churchill's assertion that he still thinks a top-level Big Four meeting is a good idea.

Some diplomats viewed the Churchill and Menon statements as pressure for U.S. agreement to a high-level parley. Commenting on Churchill's statement, the State Department said earlier yesterday it couldn't see how such talks could "accomplish results different from those being sought through conferences that are now in prospect."

Mahon Will Speak Here Wednesday

A crowd of several hundred is expected to assemble for a luncheon session at the Settles Wednesday noon to hear a report from Washington by Congressman George Mahon.

The Lions Club is host organization for the session, and three other clubs—Kiwanis, American Business Club and Junior Chamber of Commerce—are holding their meetings this week as a joint affair.

It has been emphasized that the meeting is open to the public—men and women alike—and reservations can be made through Commerce.

It will be Congressman Mahon's first appearance in Big Spring since the adjournment of Congress, and he has reported that he wants to review national and international affairs as they developed during the Congressional session.

His Wednesday talk, scheduled to begin at 12:45 p.m., also is to be broadcast over Station KBST.

Four Convicts Flee Federal Prison; Two Are Recaptured

TACOMA, Wash. (U)—Four convicts escaped from McNeil Island Federal Penitentiary late last night. Two were recaptured within hours after they escaped.

Vincent N. Chesney, who was serving a term for violation of the Dyer Act—illegal transportation of a stolen car across a state line—was retaken as he tried to swim across choppy Puget Sound.

Edward Morden, a Canadian alien serving a four-year term for a Dyer Act conviction, was recaptured by officers at the prison farm on the island.

Still at large were Earl E. Smith, serving a five-year term for postal burglary and violation of the Dyer Act; and John Edward Watson, serving five years for postal burglary. It was not known if they had escaped the island.

OFFICIALS ATTEND

Senator McCarthy Marries Jean Kerr

WASHINGTON (U)—Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis.) and Miss Jean Fraser Kerr, his onetime girl Friday who won his heart, were married today. Thousands of well-wishers and curious onlookers outside St. Matthews Roman Catholic Cathedral as they spoke their vows.

In the cathedral, which seats about 900, were most of the top figures of Washington official and diplomatic life. Nearly every seat was filled.

The bride veiled in white, wore a long-trained white gown. McCarthy was in formal morning dress, black frock coat, striped trousers and ascot tie. He wore a small white sprig of flowers in his lapel.

The organ, its tones almost a whisper, played the Lohengrin Processional as the bride entered the church with Wilbur A. Johnson of Kearney and Fanwood, N.J., a close friend of the family who gave her in marriage.

McCarthy, escorted by his brother, William F. McCarthy of Chicago, walked through a side entrance to await his bride.

Hundreds of uninvited gathered long before the 10 a.m. hour of the ceremony to gaze at arriving dignitaries. Police estimated 3,500 were around the cathedral.

There was a great burst of applause when McCarthy drove up. When his bride arrived, there were shouts of "Hi, Jeanie" and more applause.

The guest list for the ceremony was long and imposing. There were 200 guests from McCarthy's home.

Vice President and Mrs. Nixon, Cabinet officers and their wives, Congress members and just plain friends were among the others invited.

Jack Dempsey, the onetime heavyweight champion, was there. President and Mrs. Eisenhower sent regrets.

Miss Kerr, a native of Washington, D. C., who was raised in the Presbyterian faith, has adopted McCarthy's religion.

Their vows were to be spoken before the Rev. Fr. William J. Awalt, who will also conduct the nuptial low mass assisted by the Rev. Fr. Augustine Maloney of St. Charles.

Burglars Enter VFW Hall Here

Thieves, vandals and burglars continue active with a break-in at the VFW hall added to the list of nocturnal activities last night.

Nothing at the VFW was bothered, however.

Police also reported recovery of a trailer which had been stolen here Sunday. The rental trailer, taken from the Jenkins Tire Service, was found parked in an abandoned service station on Security Street.

Vandals cut seat covers in a booth at the Asia Cafe, police reported. W. C. Tompkins, 504 Ayrdale, notified officers that a box of mechanic's tools was stolen from his pickup sometime during the weekend. H. E. Blatt reported theft of a fender skirt from his car.

Patrolman Alvin Hiltarunner said burglar apparently was frightened away from the VFW before he finished his raid. Rear window of the hall was broken open but no damage was done inside. A few bottles of pop or similar items may have been stolen.

El Pasoans Warned To Show Up For Legislative Probe

EL PASO (U)—A legislative investigation of charges some El Paso officials took gamblers' money continued today backed by a warning that witnesses who lie or fail to appear are in for trouble.

More than 74 El Paso residents have been summoned to testify in the four-month-old investigation. The legislative committee, headed by Rep. Joe Pool of Dallas, began its hearing yesterday.

"Any witness who fails to appear for the hearing will be subject to a fine up to $1,000 and a jail sentence up to 12 months," Pool said.

"Any witness appearing before the committee who commits perjury is subject to prosecution under the penal code of the State of Texas which provides for punishment by imprisonment in the penitentiary for not less than two and not more than 10 years."

New Dispute Might Delay POW Talks

By MILO FARNETI

PANUNJONJON (U)—The neutral nations reparations commission said today that explanations to Allied and Communist war prisoners who have refused to go home may be delayed again—this time by a dispute over facilities.

The Allied objection committee said today that it will attempt to persuade the POWs to return home originally were scheduled to start talking to prisoners last Saturday, but the talks were postponed until Thursday because of a dispute over the ground rules.

An Indian spokesman for the commission said today the meetings may be pushed back again unless the Reds and Allies accept explanation centers already constructed.

The Communists, he said, object to centers built by the U.N. Command because Red teams would have to pass through all the POW camps to reach them.

"They want to avoid them because of hostile prisoners," the spokesman said.

Allied dissatisfaction centered on explanation booths and compounds built by the Reds. They say both are too small.

The Allied objection apparently stems from the dispute over whether prisoners should be interviewed individually or in groups. The Allies want group explanations while the Reds insist on individual interviews.

An Allied spokesman said the U.N. Command told the reparations commission it could not make the changes by the Thursday deadline, but promised they would be completed as fast as possible.

There was no immediate word on Communist remodeling plans.

The commission met in a long session Tuesday night, presumably to discuss snarls holding up processing of 22,600 Red and more than 300 Allied POWs.

A commission spokesman later said a press conference would be held Wednesday morning probably to announce rules governing the explanations.

He said the commission also may answer an Allied protest that it had distributed a letter tainted with Communist propaganda to balky POWs.

Hereford Men Are On Tour

More than a score of West Texas Hereford breeders departed from the Walker Pharmacy, 2nd and Main, at 8 a.m. for an all-day area Hereford tour sponsored by the Howard County-South Plains Hereford Association.

The first stop was to see the herd sties and young bulls being readied for the coming sales by Charlie Creighton at his place west of Big Spring.

From the Creighton place the tour visited the ranches of Loy Acuff, O. H. McAllister and Rexie Caudle, to view cattle being put in show shape. They returned to the Big Spring City Park at noon and were served a barbecue dinner prepared by Nath Allen.

Early this afternoon they left to visit the herds of Leland Wallace, Cecil Walker, Alton Youngblood and Son east of Lamesa, and the Judge Tom Garrard herd near Tahoka.

They expect to return to Big Spring late this afternoon.

School Strike Ends With Water Assured

Sanitation and school board personnel assured parents that service would be improved to the Negro school, officials said.

The parents had asked for city water service and new toilet facilities. Children had not attended classes since last Tuesday.

Benson Would Replace PMA With New Unit

By OVID A. MARTIN

WASHINGTON (U)—A super marketing bureau, intended to regain world outlets that have been slipping away, will become the No. 1 agency in the Agriculture Department under a reorganization plan Secretary Benson is completing.

This new agency will replace the Production and Marketing Administration (PMA), the present day successor to the politically controversial Agricultural Adjustment Administration (AAA) set up in the early days of the Roosevelt New Deal.

Details of the reorganization plan have not yet been completed and it may be two or three months before it is put into effect.

Benson is known to feel that a sound solution to the farm problems of declining prices and accumulating surpluses is to be found in developing new markets, rather than in price supports and production controls.

At present, the department's marketing activities are divided among four agencies—the Production and Marketing Administration, the Foreign Agricultural Service, the Bureau of Agricultural Economics and the Research Administration.

Benson plans to place them in one unit.

A remnant of the Production and Marketing Administration, heretofore the big department agency, would be limited to activities concerning price supports and production adjustments when the latter were deemed necessary.

In making the marketing agency the top unit, Benson is acting on his expressed belief that when supports and crop control measures are needed it is because marketing has fallen down.

The present uneasy farm situation, with its below parity prices and big surpluses, has developed at the same time that foreign markets for farm products have dropped nearly a third from post-war levels.

Employee Group Launches Its United Fund Campaign

A great surge of sentiment to put the cause of the United Fund before the working people of the community developed Monday night, as workers in the employe solicitation phase of the campaign gathered for their "kick off" meeting.

It was a group of working people—largely a youthful group—that enthusiastically picked up the challenge to see that no employed person in Big Spring is overlooked in the UP appeal.

A stirring address for rolled-up sleeves work for the community's welfare climaxed the session. The speaker was Gil Jones, who stressed that neither drought or other hardship can deter a community from determining that it shall be "not a pigsty community, but a clean and worthwhile community."

"Your job," he said, "is not to sell the United Fund. That's merely a mechanical device. Your job is to contact the man who takes an interest in what kind of a town he lives in and what kind of a town he wants for his kids."

Jones continued: "This thing you are doing here tonight, is the biggest thing in Big Spring this year. Do it in a big way."

The United Fund this year seeks $74,144, to finance the work of nine welfare and charity agencies—Boy

Newest Hoover Commission Is Sworn In At White House

By D. HAROLD OLIVER

WASHINGTON (AP)—A new Hoover government reorganization commission, patterned after the earlier one but with wider powers, became an official entity today in oath-taking ceremonies at the White House.

The 12-member group headed by former President Herbert Hoover has seven Republicans and five Democratic members and half a million dollars to look for further economies in a government now costing about 70 billions a year.

The new commission has a duty not held by the earlier one, which wound up its work nearly four years ago. Besides inquiring into how efficiently a government activity is performed, it has authority to study whether the activity should be performed by the federal government at all.

The law creating the new commission directed it to submit its final report not later than May 31, 1955. Presumably preliminary reports will be submitted before that time.

Sen. McClellan (D-Ark.), a member of the old commission and the new one, said in an interview he intends to urge the commission not only to make reorganization recommendations but to draft legislation or proposed executive orders to submit with its report.

"In the past there have been different interpretations of the commission's recommendations," he said. "If the commission will set down its recommendations in the form of proposed executive orders or bills, there won't be any need for controversy over its findings."

The Republicans on the new commission are Hoover; Atty. Gen. Brownell; Arthur S. Flemming, defense mobilization director; Rep. Clarence J. Brown of Ohio; Sen. Ferguson of Michigan; Solomon Hollister, dean of the School of Civil Engineering at Cornell University; and Sidney A. Mitchell, New York investment banker.

George Butler Dies On Monday

TEMPLE (AP)—George B. Butler, 48, chairman of the Texas State Board of Insurance Commissioners and a 1936 candidate for governor, died yesterday at Scott and White Memorial Hospital here.

Nature of his ailment was not disclosed. Friends said he had been in apparent good health recently.

Butler, a former state legislator, was prominent in affairs of the National Association of Insurance Commissioners. He was a vice president of the group at the time of his death and had served on its executive committee and committee on laws and legislation.

The Bryan native was well known for his direction of metal salvage work during World War II. In 1942 he was named executive secretary of the Texas Salvage Committee, with headquarters in Austin. A year later the War Production Board appointed him regional salvage manager for Texas, Louisiana and Oklahoma with headquarters in Dallas.

He resigned in 1945 to accept appointment by Gov. Coke Stevenson as chairman of the Board of Insurance Commissioners, a post to which Gov. Allan Shivers re-appointed him.

As a state representative from Brazos and Grimes Counties in 1933-36, Butler wrote the Insurance Agency Licensing Act. It was after his 1936 term in the legislature that Butler unsuccessfully campaigned for governor. In 1937 he became executive secretary and attorney for the Texas Telephone Association with headquarters in Austin.

Survivors include his widow, In Austin, the former Miss Imogene Stuart of Texarkana.

Key Solons Not Eager To Release A-Secrets

By JACK BELL
 WASHINGTON (AP)—Several key senators displayed a lack of enthusiasm today for furnishing atomic weapons information to U. S. Allies.

There have been strong indications the Eisenhower administration will ask Congress next year for authority to do so. Policy-making officials were pictured yesterday as believing the international effort to build up Western Europe's defenses requires sharing of some weapons information which under present law is kept secret.

Without reference to that problem, Secretary of Defense Wilson said after a talk with President Eisenhower yesterday that Russia is making "lots of progress" in the atomic field.

Responding to a reporter's suggestion to sum up the problems facing this country, Wilson said: "We must realistically face the problem that the Russians, too, are making lots of progress in atomic and thermonuclear (hydrogen) weapons. We must face the reality that, if not at the moment, very shortly they will be able to make bombs of any size also."

He said the chief problem now is "how we can develop the strongest position for our country—the more secure position—within the limits of manpower and money that are available to the Defense Department."

Sen. Hickenlooper (R-Iowa), a member of the Senate-House Atomic Energy Committee said in an interview he will have to be shown that it is necessary to furnish secret data to friendly nations.

"I am perfectly willing to look at any proposed changes which are considered to be absolutely essential in the interest of American security, but at the moment I see no necessity for any revision of the law in the interests of the security of the United States," he said.

While none of the legislators interviewed was willing to discuss it publicly, there was evident feeling on the part of some that any information furnished U. S. Allies would be likely to find its way to Moscow more swiftly than if there were no such disclosures.

Sen. Symington (D-Mo) former secretary of the Air Force, cautioned against any hasty decision.

"I think the full facts should be presented to Congress because it is getting more obvious all the time that the future security of the United States may well lie in its ability to preserve its superiority in the field of nuclear weapons," he declared.

Sen. Hendrickson (R-N.J.) said he doesn't believe this country can avoid giving its Allies some information if it expects them to employ atomic weapons in their own defense. But he said he wants only "limited" information passed along.

Riding THE GRUB LINE With Franklin Reynolds

Yesterday's winds produced some of the worst rangeland blowing of the year.

South of Big Spring on the San Angelo and Garden City highways, automobiles were, at times and in spots, slowed down to 10 or 15 miles per hour and motorists were forced to turn on headlights as a safety precaution. Rangeland blowing was reported very bad in the Garden City area.

Former Howard County Deputy Sheriff Hoyt Hallford tells a story about a man he had some trouble locating in order to serve some papers on him.

Members of the man's family were helping him keep out of the officer's way. On the way to the man's house Hallford drove slowly up the alley behind the man's house and looked through the back window. He saw the man stretched out on a bed in the back bedroom reading.

Hallford went on around to the front and knocked on the door which was opened by the man's wife.

"I'd like to see your husband, please," he said to the woman.

"He isn't at home," she replied.

"Then," said Hoyt, "I'll make a suggestion. If he isn't at home you'd better go back there and get that man out of his bed. Your husband might not like that. There might be trouble when he does get home."

"Since you've already seen him," she said, "come on in."

Thus, did the officer get the papers served.

ers for many years to come. Congress is getting ready to take a new look at farm legislation and to provide a program for the years after 1954. What Congress does depends in part on you.

"Any farm program that is to endure must rest on farmer approval, acceptance by Congress, and sound economic principle.

"Right now we are in the midst of a great, democratic 'thinking-through' process in which you, the farmer, are the key man. Your ideas are being sought by your farm organization, by the Department of Agriculture, and by Congress itself."

He then goes on to point out that the Department of Agriculture has asked the Farm Bureau to talk over current and future farm operations with their members "and to give us the benefit of their discussions. I urge you to take part in these meetings whenever you have the opportunity and to contribute your thoughts, along with those of other farmers."

Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson is today calling the farmers themselves for suggestions for an improved government farm program.

Writing in the October issue of The Country Gentleman, the head of the USDA urges the nation's farmers to write a "letter giving us your views."

Benson says: "We have received thousands of letters making suggestions and we want yours. After we have had the opportunity to study all the suggestions we can obtain, we will make recommendations to Congress."

He continues: "It seems pretty plain that we need to improve our farm programs. If present programs were doing the job they should we would not face serious problems today. Your overriding problem at the moment is, of course, the cost-price squeeze. Farmers find that the prices of the things they have to sell have come down only a little, have stayed the same, or have even gone up. The cost-price squeeze is a serious warning signal that our agriculture is out of balance with its markets — that we must strengthen our farm programs to restore good balance."

Secretary Benson emphasizes, however, that "we seek a program that will serve all our people, consumers as well as producers." To this he adds: "We seek a program that will put food supplies into stomachs rather than build up excess reserves in storage. We seek a program that will provide dependable and adequate supplies of food and fiber for consumers while helping farmers to achieve their full share of the national income."

Indirectly and without saying as much in so many words, Benson endorses membership in the Farm Bureau for the farmers. He says:

"This winter will be a time of decision for agriculture. Decisions are going to be made on farm programs in the next few months that will affect the lives of farm-

Wiley Wise, chapter reporter, says there 86 Future Farmers of America enrolled in the Big Spring High School this year, and this he adds, means there will be plenty of projects underway.

At present there are 38 lambs on feed, two pigs, eight rabbits, three calves, 55 acres of cotton, 15 acres of feed, 46 capons, 25 egg layers and 1,985 broilers listed among these projects. Wiley says some of the boys do not have a project but that they will adopt one during the year as is required. Busy days are also seen ahead for Truett Vines and R. E. Baumhardt, the chapter advisors, in helping the boys get their animals ready for the shows which include those at San Angelo, Abilene, Fort Worth, El Paso and others.

By the time the Howard County show rolls around in March, the animals that have not been sold at the previous shows will be entered here, exhibited and sold. In the local show each FFA member is entitled to sell one calf, one lamb and one capon.

Wiley says that last year when feed was high and stock prices low that only a very few boys made even a little profit. But this year he sees brighter times ahead, and he thinks it's going to be different, because more boys will have better projects, and will make more profit on their efforts.

Governor Of Florida Dies In Tallahassee

Dies

Florida's Gov. Dan McCarty died last night in a Tallahassee hospital, losing a fight with heart trouble complicated by pneumonia. McCarty was 41 years old.

TALLHASSEE, Fla. (AP)—Gov. Dan McCarty last night lost his gallant fight against heart trouble and pneumonia.

Death came to Florida's 41-year-old governor shortly before 10 p.m. in Tallahassee Memorial Hospital. McCarty was conscious almost to the end and spoke to his wife and his doctor a few moments before he died.

His duties passed to Senate President Charley E. Johns, 48-year-old insurance executive, who came to Tallahassee from his home at Starke to take over until a new governor is elected in 1954 to serve the last two years of McCarty's four-year term.

McCarty, a Fort Pierce cattleman and citrus grower, became governor in January and served less than nine months. He was the third Florida governor to die in office.

McCarty was taken to the hospital a week ago today after a severe cold he contracted the weekend of Sept. 12 developed into pneumonia. He had suffered a heart attack Feb. 25 which put an end to nearly all his activities and from which he never recovered.

A heart specialist was flown here yesterday from New Orleans in a desperate attempt to save his life.

McCarty's 12-year-old son, Dan III, was taken from school to be at the bedside yesterday. Two other children, Mike, 7, and Frances Lela, 3, also survive in addition to the son.

McCarty's brief administration saw the start of a program which included plans for institutional construction unparalleled in Florida's history, a system of coordinated

Boy Thought Bass Like Human Race

DALLAS (AP)—Mrs. J. W. Sewell says the high spot of her vacation trip to San Marcos, Tex., came during a visit to that city's submarine theater.

She was in a glass-bottomed boat viewing underwater life when a 7-year-old boy asked the guide what kind of fish it was that was swimming down below.

"That," he replied, "is a large-mouth bass."

"Oh," said the small boy thoughtfully. "You mean it's a female?"

Purchasing Expert Becomes Head Of State Control Board

AUSTIN (AP)—A Fort Worth purchasing expert becomes executive head of the State Board of Control Oct. 19.

Walter L. Bell, Tarrant County's purchasing agent for 15 years, was named director of the agency that supervises spending of around 60 million dollars in state funds each year.

The Board of Control is the state's chief purchasing agency. It also supervises the capitol and other state buildings.

It formerly was made up of three full time members, but was reorganized by the last Legislature along lines similar to the Highway Commission.

It now has three part time members who make policy, and a full time director who is the executive head of the agency. The board members named by Gov. Shivers are R. C. Lanning, Jackboro; C. K. McAuliff, Dallas; and H. M. Lingle, Buchanan Dam.

RFC Comes To An End, Maligned But With Some Accomplishments

The Reconstruction Finance Corporation, born of the depression and for 20 years the government's principal lending agency, is heading for the last roundup. Its lending authority expired Monday and for the next nine months RFC will be engaged in liquidating itself. Next June 30 it dies the death, and will be no more—except for the trail of scandals, successes and failures it leaves behind for future historians to pick over.

Sales Tax Has Its Drawbacks In Levy, Also In Its Inequities

In his Sunday radio report to the people of Texas, U. S. Senator Lyndon B. Johnson referred to a federal sales tax as one of the more disturbing "trial balloons" designed to test public sentiment. In his opinion, "only a beneficial miracle" could put such a tax across in Congress. "Personally," he said, "I have never felt that a sales tax is a fair tax."

Democratic strategists unanimously concede the continuing—and even perhaps increasing—personal popularity of President Dwight D. Eisenhower. Not Much Wrong With Washington That Some Humility Couldn't Cure

By DON WHITEHEAD (For James Marlow)

WASHINGTON (AP)—There isn't so much wrong with our town here on the Potomac that couldn't be cured by an occasional dose of humility. There is a peculiar affliction that can be diagnosed as "Washingtonitis"—or the delusion that here is the dog and the rest of the country are the tail. The tail is a tail hooked on behind. And tails were made to be wagged.

It's an attitude spawned by supercharged politics, without any relationship to which party is in power. Its victims may be politicians, newsmen, government employes, society leaders or just anybody that happens to call Washington home.

The only known cure is the humility that comes from (A) getting licked at the polls in an election, or (B) getting out of town occasionally to discover how the rest of the world lives and thinks. Oddly enough, out beyond the political mists and fogs, where the taxes are harvested, the traveler may find that Washington is an important place—but after all it's only a part of these United States.

This Day In Texas

By CURTIS BISHOP

An almanac published in Texas on this day in 1843 may have slightly overestimated the physical prowess of the Crockett family. For, according to "Fisher's Crockett Almanac," Davey had not been killed in the Alamo; he had been shot by a silver bullet which left no wound and had merely fainted Davey as a means of escape. But Davey's uncle was even more fantastic. "He shaved himself with sheet lightning and cats-pawed thunderbolts for his breakfast, and takes half-stone pills when he's sick. He picks his teeth with a pitchfork, combs his hair with a rake, fans himself with a hurricane, wears a cast-iron shirt and drinks nothing but creosote and aquafortis."

Not many of these in Washington have waxed wealthy on such compensation as Vinson received. Interesting too, in connection with the revelation concerning his estate is the additional fact that while he wrote two wills, neither of these wills was good or could be admitted to probate in Washington, because of non-compliance with the statutes. Supreme Court opinions he wrote became "the law of the land" but neither of his personal wills were good.

Let's Recover Lost Art Of Old-Fashioned Loafing

NEW YORK (AP)—"Strive to loaf if you would succeed in living longer." That could well be every man's motto in these tense times. For it is now an accepted medical fact that too much hard work and exercise may kill you or drive you crazy. Size Of His Estate Confirms The Honesty Of Justice Vinson

The opinions contained in this and other articles in this column are solely those of the writers who sign them. They are not to be interpreted as necessarily reflecting the opinions of The Herald—Editor's Note.

The news from Washington that a probate of the estate of the late Chief Justice Fred M. Vinson reveals he left an estate of only $7,183 against which there is a debt of $8,000 is not surprising to many people, and should be encouraging to all, because it is evidence of the fact that up until the time Fred Vinson died there was at least one honest man in Washington. It is also safe to assume that there may be more.

Organized Labor Is Only Group Actively Fighting Red Unions

The C. I. O. did the job right. It expelled the Communist unions, thus making two facts clear: 1. That there are Communist unions; 2. That organized labor resents them. It took the C. I. O. a long time to acknowledge what was an obvious fact. For years, its apologists were denying that there were any Communist unions or any Communist officials in the C. I. O., despite the fact that its General Counsel was Lee Pressman and the editor of its publication, Len De Caux. Then what happened? Nothing! The Communist unions continue to exist; they continue to be recognized by the National Labor Relations Board and by important industries. Their position is unshakable under the law. The only group that is actively fighting the Red unions is organized labor, the American Federation of Labor and the C. I. O. industry does nothing about it. Industry has become so accustomed to government intervention in management that it avoids issues which the government does not settle.

Cable Can Carry Many Calls

With two empty baking powder cans, a can-and-string telephone may be produced. With four empty cans, you could make a two-way telephone system; each person would have a receiver for his ear, as well as a transmitter. That kind of toy telephone will work for a distance of several yards, but what would happen if you made the string 1,000 feet long? The sounds would die on the way. Electricity is needed to carry sounds very far, but let us suppose, for a moment, that we could talk to far places over a "dead" wire. How long time would pass in speaking from Winnipeg to New Orleans? Sound will carry through metal (such as iron or copper) about 15 times as fast as through the air. If I could talk to you from Winnipeg, saying, "Hello, this is Uncle Ray," the words would take about eight and a half minutes to reach you in New Orleans! About 17 minutes after I spoke, you answering words ("Hi, this is Bill (or Mary)" or something like that) would come back to me.

New Type Jet Plane Production Pushed

By EDMOND LEBRETON
WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of the Air Force Harold E. Talbott says some of the money saved in recent cutbacks is going into stepped-up production of the latest type jet planes—the B52 bomber and F100 fighter.

When he announced the decision last night, Talbott said he hopes Air Force cutbacks have been completed and the department can concentrate on pushing manufacture of planes which show most promise. Extensive tests, he said, convinced authorities that the giant Boeing bomber and the fast North American fighter would perform satisfactorily.

Talbott gave no numbers of aircraft to be ordered, but said the accelerated B52 production would mean an increase of 25 to 40 per cent in the monthly totals of such aircraft turned out.

He said the whole program would mean an increase of 25 to 40 per cent in the monthly totals of such aircraft turned out.

He said the whole program would mean recommitting about half a billion dollars of the amount saved through recent reductions in other Air Force procurement plans.

578 Aliens Are Excluded From U.S.A.

WASHINGTON (AP)—A rundown on the Justice Department's program for getting undesirables out of the country today showed 578 aliens so classified have been excluded since the start of the year.

Dep. Atty. Gen. William P. Rogers commented, in a speech prepared for an Immigration and Naturalization Service conference, "We can well be proud of these figures and the number which will follow in the ensuing months."

Of the total, 536 were described as criminal, immoral, or narcotic addicts, and the 42 others as subversive.

Justice Department officials said today that when the Republicans took over on Jan. 20, they inherited from the Democratic administration a "preferred list" of proposed exclusions which included 96 racketeers and 33 subversives, mostly Communists.

Officials said this elite group has now been expanded to cover 131 accused as racketeers and 142 as subversives, a total of 273.

Of these, 3 notorious hoodlums have been actually deported, 50 other persons are under deportation orders, 34 are undergoing denaturalization proceedings in the federal district in which they live, and the others are in various stages of investigation or litigation.

Ex-President Truman Attacks 'New Isolationists' In Speech

NEW YORK (AP)—Former President Harry S. Truman says the United States must build "a really strong defense" and, from a position of strength, show willingness to negotiate "in all sincerity" for a solution of its differences with the Soviet bloc.

Truman, urging nonpartisan support for this program, says the negotiations should be "in firm agreement with our Allies and from a position of united strength."

He urged a battle for freedoms both at home and abroad in an address last night at a dinner of the Four Freedoms Foundation at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel. Truman received the foundation's fifth annual Four Freedoms Award.

Fourteen hundred persons attended the dinner of the foundation, established to work for the freedoms defined by the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt in 1941. These are freedom of speech, freedom of religion, freedom from want and freedom from fear. An award plaque cited Truman for "inspiring leadership in the cause of the four freedoms at home and abroad and his valiant and unyielding struggle in the cause of civil rights."

In calling for a fight for freedoms, Truman said: "All across our country there are people at work, stirring up suspicion of the United Nations, of our Allies, of our own public servants, of our fellow citizens. All across our country there are zealots who are clam-oring for somebody's head." He called his targets "old isolationists" become "the new isolationists, the new imperialists"—and at one point, "morticians of the mind."

Truman declared there now is an "investigating frenzy" in the nation, and he said the forces behind it are also seeking an American isolationism which he contended would eventually doom the free world if put into effect. He added: "Only the whole free community, we and our Allies together, our resources and theirs combined, is strong enough and big enough to meet the threat to freedom and give us victory for freedom's cause."

Truman did not name any of the people he criticized. Basically, he said, they are the "die-hard isolationists of 12 years ago"—the people who say "the really important thing is to cut taxes, whether the danger is over or not."

Neither did the former President directly attack the Eisenhower administration or Republicans as such—as he did in two recent speeches.

Instead, he appealed for recognition and support, "regardless of partisanship," of what he called the "basic pillars" of American foreign policy.

In addition to a strong defense and willingness to negotiate with Russia, Truman listed as the "basic pillars": a renewed and reinvigorated reciprocal trade policy; support of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO); European unity, the Pacific alliances and the Rio de Janeiro Pact for Western Hemisphere security; technical assistance and economic aid for underdeveloped countries, support of the United Nations.

Truman's address was broadcast on the Columbia Broadcasting System radio network.

Patients Rescued Before Nursing Home Burns Down

JACKSONVILLE (AP)—Neighbors and passersby helped rescue ten aged people before the Cherokee Nursing Home here burned to the ground yesterday.

One of the volunteer helpers, Kenneth Howard, was overcome by smoke and taken to the same hospital where the elderly patients were temporarily sheltered after the fire.

Five ambulances were used to carry the patients, whose ages ranged from 65 to 93, from the home. Several were bedfast and helpless.

Mrs. Helen Stewart, operator of the home, said the fire started from defective wiring in a fan which she had asked patients not to use. She said she had arranged for the fan to be repaired.

PALESTINE, Tex. (AP)—The Palestine Telephone Co. asked the city council yesterday for permission to raise one-party residence rates from $2.65 to $3.75 and one-party business phones from $4.65 to $6.45.

A hearing was set for Nov. 9. The firm said higher rates are needed "to provide additional revenue for continuous improvement, extension of local service and to meet increasing operating expenses."

Yanks, Bums Poised To Launch Series

Chief, Furillo May Hold Key

By JACK HAND

NEW YORK (AP)—Allie Reynolds' right arm and Carl Furillo's acing "pinkie" may hold the key to the New York Yankees-Brooklyn World Series opening tomorrow at Yankee Stadium.

If Reynolds can flash his 1952 form against the Dodgers' Carl Erskine in the opener, the 6-5 odds favoring the Yankees probably will lengthen. Reynolds simply blew his fast ball past Dodger sluggers like Jackie Robinson, Roy Campanella and Gil Hodges last year. But until the final weeks of this season, he was only a pale carbon of his old self.

"We'll know after the first two innings whether he still has it," said Dodger Manager Chuck Dressen at yesterday's stadium workout. "I saw him pitch last week when he struck out 11 but he was throwing the curve—not that 1952 fast ball."

If Reynolds should be knocked out early, it would be a severe blow to Manager Casey Stengel's chances of an unprecedented fifth straight championship. He wasn't going to use Reynolds in the first game until Whitey Ford's late-season wobblers made him change his mind.

Stengel's pitching plans are set with Reynolds, Eddie Lopat and Vic Raschi in that order although he insists on a "Raschi or Ford" call for the No. 3. Obviously, he counts on Reynolds to come back for No. 4 and possibly even for No. 7 if it goes that far. If Old Case gets a chance to close it out sooner, Reynolds will be in the bullpen.

That all is based on a 1952 Reynolds. A first-game knockout could scramble the entire plan. Furillo, who tested his well-banded hand in a special 15-minute batting practice, fully intends to play. There always remains the possibility that he might injure the hand or find it impossible to swing hard in a real game.

The finger, broken in a fist fight with Leo Durocher Sept. 6, was doubly protected in the batting drill. In addition to the bandage, there was a foam rubber pad, taped to the handle of the bat. Dressen hopes he'll be able to discard the pad and some of the bandage by game time.

If Furillo does have to miss the series, the Dodgers would be seriously crippled. Carl is a fine defensive player with a terrific right arm in addition to holding the National League batting title.

Dressen said yesterday he would play either Don Thompson or Dick Williams in right field if he has to replace Furillo.

"He's swinging just the same as ever," said Dressen after Furillo hit the auxiliary score board in right field on the first bounce in yesterday's workout. "He'll be ready."

The Yanks still were a bit concerned about Gene Woodling, whose hand was swollen from an injury received two weeks ago. Gene, too, used a padded bat in batting practice. It didn't seem to hamper him much for he hit two or three balls into the right field seats. Woodling was sure he'd be all right.

Tomorrow's game, starting at 1:05 p.m., EST, will be broadcast by Mutual and televised by NBC.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

The best duel in Friday night's football game between the Big Spring Steers and Brownwood here may be waged between Ray Masters of the Steers and Buddy Cosby of the Steers.

The entire Brownwood attack is wrapped up in Masters, who is to the Lion attack what Ed Dudley is to Pampa. Cosby is the heart and soul of the Big Spring defense.

Cosby did a sensational job of slowing Masters in last year's game. Thanks to his ability to stop the power-running back, the Steers came back to make a game of it after the Lions had had it all to themselves in the first half.

Buddy has a sixth sense in diagnosing an enemy play, which makes him invaluable in the Steers' defense. Where ever Masters went last year, Cosby was there to meet him and bring him down.

They say Masters is much improved this year. If he's stopped this weekend, Cosby, of course, won't assume all the credit. Others will have to help. If Masters breaks loose, neither can Buddy be saddled with the blame.

But in no other game this year, perhaps, will two boys play such vital roles.

To parlor a hackneyed phrase, I believe the fans are in for a treat instead of a treatment when Brownwood comes to town. True, the Steers have taken their lumps in two games now but, if their offense can untrack as it is capable of doing, then the Lions had best get set for trouble.

The Steers' spirit remained good after the Pampa game, despite that 19-0 loss. They felt, and not without justification, they had given just about as much as they took, even if they hadn't enhanced their reputation.

They know their capabilities, now, and, if everyone can stay healthy, they're going to be very hard to contain from here on down to the wire. You can count on it.

The Stratford Elks won their first home game in 15 years last weekend, when they shaded the Gruver Greyhounds, 7-0. Their record isn't as bad as it sounds, however. Stratford didn't field a team for 15 years.

Ray Machado, a washout as a baseball pitcher here, wound up winning 17 decisions the past season. He was sold to Pampa by Big Spring early in the season, after gaining only two decisions here. He fared little better at Pampa and eventually was shipped to the Mountain States League, where he came onto his own. He topped 12 decisions in Class D ball.

Juan Visteur, the ex-Big Spring outfielder, will get another chance to stick with Chattanooga in 1954.

Pat Stasey, the ex-Bronc manager, says he may convert First Sacker Rick Gonzales into an outfielder, if the ex-Big Spring is returned to Roswell by Chattanooga.

Steers Have Relied On Running Game

Big Spring has relied primarily on its running game to see it through in its football starts to date but the Steers do have two boys who can throw the oval.

Against San Angelo and Pampa, the Steers have gained 348 yards running and 162 yards passing. The opposition has gained 510 yards on the ground and 119 yards in aerial trials.

J. C. Armistead has been the leading ground gainer with a total pickup of 153 yards in 37 carries. Frosty Robison has gained 98 paces in 22 tries.

Frank (Red) Long has completed 19 of 22 passes for 127 yards.

Tigers Win Two As Season Ends

The Big Spring Tigers terminated their baseball season here Sunday afternoon by winning two decisions.

The Bengals fashioned an 11-1 verdict over the Coahoma Eagles, then vanquished the Santo Nambre (Holy Name) team of Big Spring in a five-inning afterpiece, 9-1.

Joe Cadenhead buried the opener for Yves Yancey's team, setting the Coahomans down with four hits, J. Martin and Bernardo hit home runs for the Bengals.

Junior Dutcher limited the Santo Nambre club to one hit in the second go, a fourth inning single by Fierro.

The Tigers wound up their season with 39 wins against five losses.

Lions, This Week's Foes Of Herd, Major Surprise

By The Associated Press

The Brownwood Lions, which move into Big Spring Friday night to help the Steers open their home football campaign, are proving one of the big surprises in the 1953 Texas Interscholastic League races.

The Lions had only one regular back from last year's great team but have won all three of their starts and seem to get better every Friday.

The Jungle Beasts, coached by Roland Warren, have bowled over Stephenville, Tivy High of Kerrville and San Angelo, in that order.

Warren has built his attack around Ray Masters, a 190-pound two-letman fullback. Masters took personal charge as Brownwood pummeled Angelo, 18-13, only a week after the Bobcats had nudged Big Spring, 27-26.

Other lettermen back with Brownwood are Bill Harlow, 190-pound senior; Robbie Martin, 165-pound tackle; and Jesse Soliz, 150-pound back.

The Maroon and White-clad team runs from the single wing and spread. Abe Houston, who had led the club a year ago, used the single wing.

The team has a lot of speed, a factor that will give Big Spring plenty of trouble.

Hendrix Wheeler, 170-pound junior end; Don Clark, 160, guard; Ken Miller, 160, guard; Sherwood Harris, 170, tackle; Rod Hudson, 160, end; Boley Embrey, 155, back; and Don Morris, 165, back, are others who will see action for the Lions here.

Jerry Elledge, 160-pound back; Jack Woodson, 153, center; and the 150-pound Glen Franks, a back—all up from the Junior High team will also see action for the visitors.

Last year, Brownwood—with Leonard Fry playing a key role—defeated the Steers, 33-21, but Big Spring roundly outplayed the Lions in the last half.

Austin Unbeaten After Two Games

By The Associated Press

Austin College and McMurry are the only undefeated teams in the Texas Conference as the football season moves into its third week. They each have been tied, however.

Young coach had impressed him with his ideas. Bell recommended him and the athletic council hired him—probably to the surprise of Woodard as much as most everybody else.

Woodard had had five weeks to get ready for his leap into the big time. He says it's actually too long—it's hard to keep the players' interest up when they open the season three weeks after the others. And he knows little about Georgia Tech except that it has a lot of top football players. Twice SMU scouted the Tech this season but both times the game was in the rain and Georgia Tech could show little. What the scout saw didn't jibe very well with films and scout reports of the past of Tech.

Woodard installed the T formation at SMU, which never before had used anything but the single wing, and is just now getting to know his boys by their names although he admits "I know what they can do."

He faces the season opening without the services of a couple of fine backs—Don Miller and Roy Pace—who are out with knee injuries.

Notre Dame Rules Roost In Ratings

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK (AP)—Mighty Notre Dame, despite the protestations of Coach Frank Leahy that the Irish would be sub-par, ruled the roost today as the No. 1 football team in the county.

Apparently everyone except Leahy thought Notre Dame was loaded this year. The South Bend outfit was ranked first in the pre-season poll of The Associated Press and No. 1 in the first survey after the season got under way.

Most of the sports writers and sportscasters polled were impressed with the manner in which the Irish whipped Oklahoma, 28-21, last Saturday.

Michigan State, the mythical national champion last year, was tabbed for second. The Spartans, in the Big Ten for the first time, had trouble beating Iowa, 21-7.

Naire Dame, which finished third in last season's national rankings, got 73 of the 98 first-place votes cast. This was good for a total of 907 points on the basis of 10 for first place, nine for second and so on down the line.

Michigan State collected six firsts and 682 points. The rest of the first 10 was comprised of Maryland with 391 points, Michigan with 403, UCLA with 391, Ohio State with 380, Southern California with 346, Oklahoma with 316, Georgia Tech with 242 and Baylor with 188.

The fact that Oklahoma was ranked in the first 10 despite the fact that it was beaten, was an oddity. The experts evidently don't regard being beaten by Notre Dame as a disgrace.

Notre Dame's foe for this week will be Purdue while Michigan State plays Minnesota.

There isn't much doubt about Notre Dame and Michigan State, but the writers and radio men who participated in the poll had a hard time making up their minds on the other teams. No fewer than 44 registered points.

The top ten (figures in brackets indicate number of first place votes):

- 1-Notre Dame (11) .....
- 2-Michigan State (6) .....
- 3-Maryland (5) .....
- 4-Michigan (3) .....
- 5-UCLA (3) .....
- 6-Ohio State (2) .....
- 7-Southern California (1) .....
- 8-Oklahoma .....
- 9-Georgia Tech .....
- 10-Baylor .....

The second ten: 11-Mississippi State (117); 12-Duke (1) 127; 13-West Virginia (4) 94; 14-Rice 76; 15-Mississippi 68; 16-Wisconsin 54; 17-Texas 53; 18-Georgia 49; 19-Louisiana State 48; 20-Holy Cross 42.

Other teams which received 10 or more points: Missouri 38; Army and Pennsylvania, 31 each; William & Mary 24; California 22; Northwestern 16.

Coahoma visits Bronte Friday night in a test of strength between teams of Districts 6-B and 7-B. The two elevenes used to belong to the same conference but Bronte was moved into 7-B last season at which time 8-B was reduced to five teams. Bronte has won twice, last once. Ozone beat the Longhorns last week, 19-0.

Eagles Bidding To End Series On Wednesday

By The Associated Press

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Nashville's battered Vols headed for Dallas today and a resumption of the Dixie Series, still in contention but well aware of their last visit to the Texas City.

The injury-plagued Tennesseans rode four home runs and a great relief pitching job by southpaw ace Jack Harshman to an 8-4 victory over Dallas here last night. They now trail the Texas League champs, 3-2, in the best-of-seven series.

It was a hard-earned triumph in a game that should have been easy for the Southern Association playoff winners.

The two clubs were idle today. They play the sixth game tomorrow night and a seventh, if necessary, Thursday night. The Eagles captured both previous games in Dallas, but could take only one of three in Nashville.

Starting pitcher Dick Libby had the Eagles bottled up effectively for 5 1-3 innings last night while Vol batters chased starter Joe Koury of Dallas in the fifth on three homers and five runs.

But an error one inning later by shortstop Billy Gardner opened the gate to four Dallas runs and sent Libby to the showers. With the bases loaded, the Vol infield performed its third double play of the game to retire the side, much to the relief of the skimpily crowd of 1,909.

Reliever John Walsh got into trouble two innings later when the Eagles' Bob Barend hit a pinch home run with one away.

Harshman, still hobbling as a result of an injured right toe, came in and retired the side. He fanned three straight batters in the ninth to salvage the Vols' Dixie Series hopes.

Wayne McLeland was nominated to start for Dallas tomorrow night. Pete Modica, who was supposed to pitch last night but turned up with a sore right shoulder, will hurl for Nashville if his arm is better, otherwise Harshman probably will get the nod.

Los Angeles Move Voted By Loop

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Washington Times-Herald said in a New York dispatch today that the American League owners voted 8-0 in a secret ballot yesterday to move the St. Louis Browns to Los Angeles.

Mechanics of the deal were to be worked out in another session of the owners today, said the story by Bob Adair.

Bill Veck, owner of the Browns, was reported to have given his consent to the shift. Veck lost out Sunday in a move to transfer the club to Baltimore.

Pampa Is 5th On Grid List

DALLAS (AP)—Lamar of Houston, Waco and Corpus Christi Ray remained the Big Three in the Dallas News weekly schoolboy football poll but Waco and Corpus Christi swapped places.

Today's poll of state sportswriters shows Lamar the top choice of the writers with 77 points. Corpus Christi second with 67 and Waco third with 65. Last week Waco was second.

Port Arthur jumped from fifth to fourth, replacing Lubbock which slipped to eighth after a 13-9 squeak past Highland Park. Pampa jumped from seventh to fifth after a 19-0 win over Big Spring.

The first ten on the News poll:

- Lamar
- Corpus Christi (Ray)
- Waco
- Port Arthur
- Pampa
- Odessa
- Amarillo
- Lubbock
- Woodrow Wilson (Dallas)
- (Tie) Sunset (Dallas) and Fort Worth Paschal.

Abilene Baseball Club Is For Sale

ABILENE, Tex. (AP)—The Abilene club of the West Texas-New Mexico League is up for sale.

The board of directors put a price tag of $15,000 on the club and will dispose of it before Oct. 10, date of the fall meeting of the league.

Abilene finished last in the league race the past season and Mack Epley, president of the club, said "all of the directors here are in favor of having organized baseball here next year. They will stand behind it, but they feel they cannot financially stand up to another season such as this."

Epley will retain the park and lease it to next year's operators.

Officials Named For Local Games

Post-Season Game Won't Be Played

KANSAS CITY (AP)—A proposal for a post-season all-star game between picked football teams of the Big Seven and Southwest Conference was turned down yesterday by the Big Seven faculty committee.

Executive Secretary Reaves Fetters said the committee "reluctantly" decided against making further exceptions to additional benefit games at this time.

Parents See Film On First Grade; More Showings Set

Scores of Big Spring parents have had a look at the first grade through the eyes of a beginning pupil.

"Skippy and the Three R's," a film provided jointly by the National Education Association and the Texas Education Agency, was shown at four schools Monday and three Tuesday.

Those who have not seen it may do so at College Heights at 10 a. m. Wednesday, or at East Ward at 2:30 p. m., said Dean Bennett, supervisor of elementary education. The picture shows Skippy into the first grade with all its problems of adjustment to school routines and learning processes. Bennett was anxious that as many patrons as possible see the picture now when this period of adjustment is taking place in their own schools.

Pinales Rites Set Wednesday

Remains of J. S. Pinales, about 58, who died in his sleep at the Salvation Army transients' dormitory Sunday night, may be interred here Wednesday.
The body is at Nalley Funeral Home and the county will provide for the burial.
Papers found on the man contained statements in which he claimed to be a Choctaw Indian.
His father, he said, in the statement, was killed by white men, but he added, his father had never registered with Indian affairs authorities.
An 87-year-old Spaniard, J. Sacramento Pinales, cared for his mother, who died five months after his birth. Apparently, Pinales took on the name of his foster father, who died in 1923.
Pinales lost his left arm in 1912 as the result of a shotgun mishap. In 1942 his feet froze while he was living in Michigan. His right foot had been amputated at Galveston in 1922. Since then he had been a ward of various agencies and local governments.

The first of what may be a series of conferences with instructional specialists in the elementary level has been completed.
All teachers in grades three through six met at various times during a two-day period with Evelyn Miller, representing Houghton-Mifflin Co., Miss Miller, in addition to explaining teacher aids, also gave a demonstration with children at the point where she found them in their studies.
A consultant in the language field, she dealt with the new text adoptions in that instructional area. The series is unique in its approach to nine basic fields of oral and written communication, explained Dean Bennett, director of elementary education. These include such things as letter writing, reports, summaries, introductions, etc., things that pupils will need to use regardless of what vocation they might ultimately enter.
Bennett expressed appreciation to the parents who took places of teachers temporarily in the classrooms. "This is the only way in which teachers could all take advantage of this special training," he said, "and we are indebted to the patrons for their help."

ILA Threatens Full-Scale Dock War With New AFL Movement

By EUGENE LEVIN
NEW YORK (AP) — The International Longshoremen's Association (ILA), faced with increasing defections to a new AFL union, today threatened a strike which could detonate full-scale dock war with the rival group.

The ILA, ousted from the AFL a week ago for failure to cleanse itself of racketeering, posed the walkout threat for a minute after tomorrow midnight in contract negotiations with eastern shippers.

While the ILA dealt with employers, it also had to meet inroads from the new International Longshoremen's Association, AFL (ILA-AFL), which was chartered by the AFL after the ILA was ousted.

Latest blow to the ILA came last night when two locals with 1,500 men bolted it to join the ILA-AFL. A third local started the secession movement here a few days ago. There also have been defections elsewhere.

The ILA also was reported in the throes on an intra-union squabble for leadership. ILA President Joseph P. Ryan checked into French Hospital yesterday for observation.

Violence could explode before the strike threat deadline as the ILA-AFL pushes its organizing attempts, described as raids by the orphaned ILA; or the waterfront could continue tense with special details of police maintaining an uneasy calm between the two factions.

The defections of locals to the ILA-AFL leaves breaches in the ILA's potential strike front. It means there might be action by ILA members to make a tieup 100 per cent effective. The result would be the first direct test of strength between the rival unions.

Negotiations between the ILA and the New York Shipping Association took a sudden turn for the worse yesterday, with ILA negotiators increasing their demands and making the strike threat.

Until yesterday, the ILA was reported anxious to come to terms with the shippers, to edge the ILA-AFL out of a chance for a work contract for at least a year.

ILA had reduced its demands for a wage-welfare package increase from 50 cents an hour to 10 cents. Patrick J. Connolly, ILA executive vice president, said Sunday there would be no strike, even when the present contract expires at midnight tomorrow.

But yesterday there were rank and file rumblings, with handbills appearing on the docks calling for a "no contract, no work" policy. Later in the day the 120-man ILA negotiating committee said it would recommend a strike if there were no agreement by noon tomorrow.

At the same time the ILA committee, reversing itself, asked the employers for a 13-cent-an-hour package increase. A committee spokesman said a strike would affect the Atlantic Coast from Portland, Maine, to Hampton Roads, Va.

Employers have offered an 8 1/2-cent-an-hour package boost. Longshoremen now earn as basic $2.27 an hour.

The ILA has claimed to represent about 60,000 longshoremen—about 35,000 in New York, 15,000 elsewhere on the Atlantic Coast, and the others in Great Lakes and river ports.

The shipping association represents 170 shipping and stevedoring firms.

By The Associated Press
Texas' searing autumn heat wave continued Tuesday with little sign of a let-up.

By mid-morning temperatures across the state were again crowding the 100-degree mark on thermometers and skies remained clear and blue.

What green grass there was shriveled in the September sun and prompted the State Drought Relief Committee to put 38 Texas counties back on the drought disaster list. That made 86 counties in which stockmen could get government feed at bargain prices.

Electrical consumption again jumped skyward as air-conditioning machinery, electric fans and refrigeration equipment took more juice. It was summer all over again.

Official high temperatures Monday ranged from 107 at Seymour in the Wichita Falls vicinity to 86 at pleasure-bent Galveston, the Gulf Island city.

Wichita Falls and Llano reported 106, and it was 105 at Dallas, Fort Worth and Mineral Wells. For Dallas and Fort Worth it was the hottest Sept. 28 on record. Fort Worth reported an unofficial 107 downtown. Other temperatures included Amarillo 95, Cotulla 104, Temple and Childress 103; Abilene, Waco, Laredo, Texarkana and Presidio 102; Lufkin 101, College Station, Wink and Junction 100.

The Weather Bureau at San Antonio said the heat revival was caused by compression of air in the wake of the Gulf hurricane which blew across Florida last week.

As the temperatures rose, wind increased over the Texas Panhandle region and sent blowing dust drifting over the dry area. Visibility dropped to 7 to 8 miles.

Hot, dry winds drove the heat of the Southern Plains toward the North and reached from Texas to Illinois and Indiana. Salina, Kan., reported 107 degrees and Oklahoma City and Kansas City each had 103. Red Oak, Ia., reported 102 and St. Louis had a 96-degree reading.

Across the super-heated area, humidities were low, only eight per cent at Dodge City, Kan., and about 17 per cent over much of Texas.

Western Nebraska had dust storms in winds that reached as much as 60 miles per hour. There was little rain and none in Texas.

Forecasts called for fair to partly cloudy skies in Texas Tuesday and continued hot weather. A slight drop in the temperature was indicated for Wednesday with some widely scattered showers in East Texas.

38 Counties Put Back On Drought Aid Eligibility List

SAN ANGELO, Tex. (AP) — The drought is hurting some West Texas cattlemen worse today than it did before widespread rains in August greened up some rangeland.

Then, there was hope rains would come in time to make winter pasture. But the rains slacked off. Now, with a searing heat wave setting temperature records under clear skies, it's too late for many pastures to recover this year.

Yesterday the state drought committee approved resumption of emergency feed shipments to 38 more counties. That means the cattlemen will be able to buy government-owned dry feed at less than market price. Eighty-six of Texas' 254 counties are now eligible for the drought-relief feed.

The moisture-devouring heat wave sent temperatures past 100 in much of Texas yesterday. Seymour in North Texas recorded 107. Wichita Falls and Llano 106, Dallas and Fort Worth 105. Dallas' 105 was 9 degrees higher than the previous Sept. 28 record, set in 1938. No rain fell.

The hardest decision of his life faced many a West Texas rancher: with only part of his herd left, a big debt at the bank, and the prospect of another dry winter during which his feed bill and bank debt pile up, should he sell out?

One San Angelo stockman who handles thousands of sheep and cattle each year sees strong signs many ranchmen are getting ready to quit. Here's the way he put it
