

Revolutionary Plan Devised For Oil Field

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 7 (AP)—A revolutionary step in the operation of California oil fields was announced here today for the operation of the rich Kettleman Hills fields by A. L. Weil, chairman of the oil control committee.

The plan calls for formation of a corporation to operate the area as a unit, distributing production among the owners in proportion to acreage yield. The corporation will be the Kettleman North Dome Association.

While this operation is authorized under a permit, Weil said, it was the first instance in which the operators have shared the control of production in the area.

The plan, he said, is to be operated by the owners who have 100,000 acres, which will be operated as a unit with the same production rate as the other fields in the area.

Most of the acreage in the field is held by the California Oil Company of San Francisco, which has 20 million acres in the area.

The operating company will be organized upon receipt of a permit from the state, further conserving oil and gas resources.

Hawks Makes New Record

American Airman Flies From New York To Havana

HAVANA, Nov. 7 (AP)—Cuban aviators believed today that Capt. Frank M. Hawks, who breakfasted in New York and dined last evening in Havana, had set a record for flight between the two cities which will be hard to beat.

Setting out from Curtiss Field, Long Island, at 5:30 a. m., east, Capt. Hawks, who holds most of the major American long distance speed records, flew southward along the Atlantic seaboard, and across to Cuba from the Florida set. It was said that he arrived here at 9:11 p. m. after a flight of 21 hours and 21 minutes after his departure from New York.

His record that afternoon for a 12-hour flight, he averaged 122 miles an hour for the trip, which he used a small motor plane, a biplane, the name of which he said was 8 hours and 26 minutes. There were 2 stops on the way, one at Washington, D. C., and one at Miami.

He had to carry 3 hours the previous record of 24 hours, set in 1923, when the late Wilbur Wright flew here with Charles Taylor and Miss Mabel Boll in a non-stop trip in the airplane Columbia.

SOCONY MOTOR OIL

DEWAXED...PARAFFINE BASE...POURS AT ZERO

THE Magnolia Petroleum Company has worked two and a half years developing this finer lubricant. We have had at our disposal the most highly trained engineers and the most modern research laboratories. We have had the pick of the choicest crude oils and the most up-to-date refineries. We have had the benefit of years of experience in the manufacture of lubricating oils.

5 reasons for changing today to the new SOCONY MOTOR OIL

- 1. Perfected Lubrication... Refined by the new and exclusive Socony process, which gives additional lubricating value, the New Socony reduces wear on your motor.
- 2. Easy Starting in Coldest Weather... It will flow more freely at zero temperature than asphalt base oils do that have the same consistency at like atmospheric or operating temperature.
- 3. Fuel economy and Increased Power... Maintains proper "body" at all engine temperatures. Result: perfect piston seal, maximum power and minimum fuel consumption.
- 4. A Clean Motor... A minimum of sludge and carbon, insuring more oil and a clean motor.
- 5. Minimum Oil Consumption... No engine heat or pressure severe enough to break this new oil. Gives 25% to 50% greater mileage, with subsequent saving in money.

We have produced the new Socony Motor Oil in which full lubricating value takes on a new significance. For in it we have put not one or two, but all and every characteristic a motor oil should have.

STEERS AWAIT BATTLE WITH SWEETWATER

Horses Certain Of Defeating Longhorns

Chuckatuck Bird, the combination fireman-folk singer of Ranger, has been protested by Cisco. It was not a wholly unexpected, either by Ranger, by Cisco, by Mineral Wells (Bird's former home) before Ranger saw him in action, or any of the others. Cisco merely beat Breckenridge to it. The Cisco protest is based on the ground of non-residence. For the information of any interested, this department will state that Mr. Bird's papa will be found in Ranger. He is coked in a local hotel there, and so far as we know has closed down Bird's Bath House at Mineral Wells. If that is all the protest is based on, then it is likely Mr. Chuckatuck will be in his special built uniform against the Lobos Armistice Day. Of course the fact remains that Ranger did entice the star from Mineral Wells to the city here. That fact will always remain so. A humorous side to this protest, however, is added in a news story carried in the Ranger Times. It sounds strangely like Mr. Boyce House, the Ranger scribbler. To wit: "Why did they do it?" fans asked each other. "Ranger is the only team in Eastland County that has a chance for the All-Belt championship. Do they just want to try to destroy our chance and hand the title on a silver platter to Breckenridge, the club whose prospects against Ray and Connell are so bad the Lobo eleven?" Such a question we have never heard. It is a declaration that Bird is only a first class player. If Bird is not ineligible, then it would be the first to know it, and knowing it, would Ranger who is a wheeler like that? Would it be right for Cisco, thinking Bird is ineligible, to pass that by in the hopes that Ranger would desert Breckenridge? It is surprising Ranger doesn't borrow a couple of dozen players to use against Breckenridge. If the Eastland County forces are to work together to slip the pluck to the Lobos, presumably we don't believe the district committee exists. But can on the non-residence ruling. He lives in the Griffoh, doesn't he, and that should be a certain check. No, the residence clause was one of the first ones added to the rules of the All-Belt football league.

Inspired Eleven To Be Pitted Against Bovines

Saturday is just another day for the Big Spring Steers. For the first time this season they will be compelled to twiddle their thumbs on a week-end. On account of Armistice Day being just around the nearest corner, the Bovines will be idle this week, preparatory to taking on the Sweetwater Mustangs in a holiday feature here Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 p. m.

To the Sweetwater aggregation the Armistice Day contest is just another game. Winning it won't place them very high in the percentage column. Losing it can't put them any lower. To Big Spring, however, it means a lot more. It simply means that winning it would place the Steers in a position of a fairly successful season. Losing it would mean that the season has been an utter failure. Although the Steers probably won't finish in the first division, due to the Brownwood defeat and the San Angelo tie, they won't be so far behind should they manage to cope with the Nolan County crew.

It will be an inspired eleven that invades Big Spring Armistice Day. Although Mustangs are noticeably sloppy, they are not yet bowed. They have lost every game they have participated in, except one and it was a tie with Eastland. Yet, despite their losses, they are just as certain they are going to roll the Brownwood boys in a Brownwood war. It will be called, pointedly by some, that Brownwood did just that little thing.

Couch Lewis of the Mustangs says he saw the Steers in action in a game at San Angelo. He witnessed the San Angelo team and the Brownwood boys, participating in both the Mustangs and the Steers. He will be called, pointedly by some, that Brownwood did just that little thing.

Youngsters Anxious To Get At Cy Leland And Company

By GAYLE TALBOT JR. Associated Press Sports Writer DALLAS, Nov. 7. (AP) Texas Christian University, undefeated since 1928 and with only two ties to mar its record in 18 consecutive games, will encounter a serious obstacle in its path to a second straight Southwest Conference title tomorrow at Houston. The Rice Institute Owls, surprise package of the current campaign, are pitted to give the Horned Frogs a working over.

Victorious over the mighty University of Texas eleven a fortnight ago and last week easy winners over Sewanee, the Owls promise to amply Cy Leland & Co., with all the opposition the champions can handle. The fact that the Frogs' seven victories so far this season have been scored over comparatively weak opposition while the youthful Rice eleven has been under much heavier fire was expected to level the Owls' advantage.

The game will bring together the two youngest teams in the conference. Captain Martin at guard and Jones at fullback, the Frogs will have three veteran backs, including the illustrious Leland, but an almost complete sophomore line. The Rice line, led by sophomore center, the sophomore quarterback, the sophomore halfback, and the sophomore fullback, will be a surprise package.

It is common talk around the village that the Steers will have their hands set down with Sweetwater at next Tuesday. It seems a spirit of pessimism has been generated somehow. However, this department is still undecided what is the best tactic to follow. Being optimistic can sometimes be as dangerous as being pessimistic. For instance, because we were extremely optimistic San Angelo gained a bye with the Big Spring Steers. Despite the fact that San Angelo was picked to win over Big Spring by every dooper in these parts, it was optimism that prevented the Steers from crushing the Bobcats. We accept the verdict with bowed pate. This week, should the Steers lose, it will be because this humble person did not bolster their spirits after the Brownwood game. Should they win, it will be because they overcame great odds thrown in their path by some servant. Seriously, however, the Steers will have a great battle. But battle or no battle the Longhorns have the best team, have the best material, have a great weight advantage, and are more experienced than their neighbors. They should cauterize along through the game and emerge with a point margin that

6 Short Cuts to Dinner On Mother's Rush Days

By JOSEPHINE B. GIBSON

After the lull of summer, when all the activities that crowd our lives are in full swing again, home makers often must take short cuts to the inevitable three meals a day.

At such times, everyone welcomes dishes that are quick and easy to prepare, yet are sure to prove appealing to a family coming home tired and hungry through the chill autumn dusk.

Following are a few favorite recipes that should help you greatly in planning quick-time menus for just such busy days as these:

Pork Chops and Baked Beans En Casserole Six pork chops; 1 can oven baked beans (vegetarian style); 1 teaspoon sugar; 3/4 cup tomato ketchup.

Everyday Chop Suey One pound ground beef; 2 onions; 2 green peppers; 1 cup water; 3 tablespoons butter; 1 teaspoon salt; 1/4 teaspoon pepper; 1 medium can cooked spaghetti.

Chop onions fine and cook with pork until brown. Drain off excess fat, and add spaghetti, tomato soup and cheese. Turn into baking dish and cover with crumbs and butter. Bake 30 minutes in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.).

Potatoes Stuffed with Sausage Six large potatoes; 1/2 pound link sausage; 1/4 cup water; 1 small can cream of tomato soup.

Wash and pare potatoes. With a knife or apple corer cut a hole through each potato large enough so that a sausage may be inserted.

Drop sausages into boiling water and cook for three minutes. Insert sausages into potatoes. Place in a casserole, and cover with soup and water. Cook until potatoes are done, basting frequently with the soup.

Left Over Meat and Tomato Sauce Two tablespoons fat; 6 medium size onions (thinly sliced); 2 cups cream of tomato soup; 1/2 teaspoon celery salt; 1/8 teaspoon pepper; 2 cups cold cooked beef or veal cut in small pieces, or an equal amount of cold sliced meat; 1 teaspoon salt.

Melt the butter in a frying pan, add the onion and cook over a low flame until slightly brown, stirring frequently. Add the tomatoes and seasoning, and cook slowly until thick and rich—about one half hour. Then add the cold cooked meat, heat thoroughly, and serve.

Tuna Fish with Pickle Sauce One cup tuna fish; 2 tablespoons butter; 2 tablespoons flour; 1/2 teaspoon salt; dash of Worcestershire sauce; 1-1/2 cups milk; 3 tablespoons

Melt the butter in a frying pan, add the onion and cook over a low flame until slightly brown, stirring frequently. Add the tomatoes and seasoning, and cook slowly until thick and rich—about one half hour. Then add the cold cooked meat, heat thoroughly, and serve.

Pork Chops Baked With Pineapple Slices Are Good

Cover the bottom of a shallow baking dish with slices of fresh or canned pineapple. Sprinkle with two tablespoons of sugar. On top of these lay peppered pork chops.

Place in a hot oven for ten minutes. When the pork fat has frizzed out a little, salt well and pour pineapple juice sweetened with one teaspoon of sugar over the chops. Bake from twenty to thirty minutes. Garnish and serve.

Put That Tangible Tang In Your Indian Summer Breakfast Dishes

Indian Summer's here! The "bright blue weather" of October and November, when the well-known Mr. Frost has touched all the pumpkins that did not go to make grinning Jack o'lanterns, has tumbled the apples from the trees, helped strip the shucks from the golden corn, and sent the old thermometer down around its own shoe tops every single morning!

To some folks, Indian summer means poetry, to others beautiful scenery, to the farmers harvest, and to all of us who are lucky enough to sit around the family board—bigger and better breakfasts! "Bigger and better" breakfasts mean—you've guessed it—waffles and pancakes and muffins, with all of the delicious syrup you want poured on top of them—a tangible tang you can eat! Isn't that a treat that was worth waiting all summer for?

There are all kinds of syrup for the waffles and cakes of our Autumn appetites, but the best and most healthful kind, the kind that melts in your mouth, is made from the food most appropriate to Indian summer—corn, the first food of the Americans. Straight from the tudy cans you can pour it, or from your favorite fat pitcher, the crystalline light kind, the mellow dark variety, or, for a change, the butterscotch or maple or caramel-flavored corn syrups.

If it's piping hot you like your syrup, that's easy, too! Just pour it into a saucepan, to each cupful add one-fourth teaspoon baking soda, bring to a boil and serve.

Rice With Mint, An Unusual And Most Interesting Recipe

Serve with lamb. Boil two cups of rice in salted water until tender. Drain. Mix two tablespoons of fresh mint leaves with one tablespoon of powdered sugar. Add one tablespoon of lemon juice. Stir this into the rice with one tablespoon of melted butter. Brush with butter and dust with a little powdered sugar. Brown for fifteen minutes in a hot oven.

RUSSIAN BEETS

Serve with ham. Boil eight beets until tender in one quart of water sweetened with two tablespoons of sugar. Chop, add salt, one tablespoon of butter, one teaspoon sugar, one-half cup of chopped broiled bacon or salt pork, one tablespoon vinegar and one-half cup of sour cream or milk if it is on hand. Thicken with one teaspoon of flour.

ARTICHOKES deserve a more frequent appearance on our menus. They are easy to prepare and add a note of real distinction to the meal. Soak in cold, salted water for five minutes. Drain, place compactly in pot and cook slowly in boiling, salted water until tender. Serve as vegetable or salad with mayonnaise dressing.

Keeping comfortably warm when the mercury persistently hovers in the lower half of the thermometer is a matter of diet as well as of proper clothing and close attention to the furnace. The carbohydrates, particularly sugar, are nature's great fuel foods, providing the body with internal warmth.

Here's the reason EVERY CAN OF Hills Bros Coffee has such a matchless flavor

Press from the original vacuum pack. EASILY opened with the key. LOOK for the Arab on the can.

You control the mixing of pie crust when you add the water a little at a time. Hills Bros. control the flavor of their famous coffee blend by roasting it a few pounds at a time.

SLOWLY... continuously... a few pounds at a time, Hills Bros' exclusive blend of coffee passes through the roasters. Every berry is roasted evenly by this patented process—Controlled Roasting. And the flavor which is developed is deliciously different from that which any bulk-roasting process can produce.

When you open a can of Hills Bros. Coffee it is just as fresh and aromatic as if you took it from the roasters yourself. For the air, which destroys the flavor of coffee, is completely removed and kept out of Hills Bros' vacuum can. In a so-called air-tight tin, coffee will not remain fresh. Try a can of Hills Bros. Coffee. Grocers everywhere sell it. Ask for it by name and look for the Arab on the can. Then you will get the coffee made famous by Controlled Roasting.

EVERYDAY QUESTIONS

Answered By Dr. S. Parkes Cadman

Questions from readers are answered by the Rev. Dr. S. Parkes Cadman, Rector of the Church of Christ in America. Dr. Cadman seeks to answer inquiries that appear to be representative of the trends of thought in the many letters which he receives.

New York City. My wife has just died leaving me with a daughter six months old. As a walking man I am compelled to leave her with neighbors while I go to work. I know nothing of how to care for her.

Is there any person who could get help?

Communicate with the Child Welfare Association of 243 Madison Avenue, New York City. This organization has been doing splendid work along the lines of your inquiry for the past few years. Many have been helped in which instances would have been.

deeds. In so doing keep before you the truth of God's Fatherhood and the redemptive love that Fatherhood implies. Do not stress the past too strongly. Remember the future, with its promise of better things. Be more concerned with what shall be and less with the things that have been.

Carlin, Ohio. What is your interpretation of the parable of the fig tree? It says, "with its leaves and its fruit not his own father and mother and wife and children and brethren, and anyone else, and his own life also he is subject to my will."

The fig tree is a symbol of the church. It is a tree that bears fruit. The church is a tree that bears fruit. The church is a tree that bears fruit. The church is a tree that bears fruit.

JIM TULLY, JOHN GILBERT and WALLACE BEERY in "WAY FOR A SAILOR"

Playing "low-brow" roles in talkies is much harder than accomplishing similar characterizations in silent films.

John Gilbert and Wallace Beery discovered this during rehearsal of their roles in "Way for a Sailor." Gilbert's latest starring vehicle will be shown at the Ritz theatre at a midnight matinee at 11:30 p. m. Saturday.

Not only did they have to learn their dialogue for this production but they had to be taught to speak the lines with a Cockney accent in keeping with the nature of their characterization. That of two "hardboiled" sailors on an English freighter.

The actors were assisted by learning the Limehouse dialect by Jim Tully, the "hobo-author" who makes his initial screen appearance in this picture and who picked up the Cockney accent during one of his many tramps around the globe.

The new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer production was adapted from Albert Richard Wetjen's well-known sea yarn and was directed by Sam Wood. In the cast, besides Gilbert, Beery and Tully are Lella Hyams in the feminine lead, Polly Moran and Doris Lloyd.

Huey Long And Mortal Political Enemy To Sleep Together On Trip

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 7.—Two mortal political enemies, Gov. Huey P. Long and Lieut. Gov. Paul S. Cyr, will make a trip out of the state together and will sleep together to make sure that one does not put anything over on the other.

Governor Long had promised his followers that Lieutenant Governor Cyr would govern for a month while he was in Europe. This promise was made in reference to the flood control meeting at St. Louis and if he went out of the state, Lieutenant Governor Cyr would temporarily become governor.

The governor mentioned his promise in the presence of the lieutenant governor. Cyr suggested that the matter could be solved by both going together.

"Fine," said the governor. "And I think that it would be best if we banded together. We don't want to get out of each other's sight."

When they go Alvin King of Lake Charles, president pro-tem of the state senate will be governor during their absence.

Former Hotel Officer To Be Tried For Taking Money Off Auditor

SAN ANTONIO, Nov. 7.—John Williams, former house detective at a San Antonio hotel, who has been held in the Bexar county jail in default of $10,000 bond since March, will be tried on a charge of robbery by assault with firearms, Nov. 17.

Williams was arrested shortly after the St. Anthony hotel manager, S. J. Woolter, was held up in March by three bandits and robbed of $10,000.

Hunt Watson, convicted of the robbery and sentenced to serve 25 years in the state penitentiary, escaped from a prison farm shortly after his conviction. Watson and Williams were named as confederates in the robbery by Fred Bradbach, who testified in Watson's trial that he made the third member of the bandit trip.

SCHEIGS VISITING HERE Mr. and Mrs. Richard F. Scheig of San Antonio, former residents of Big Spring, are visiting the B-B Cooks of this city. They will be in town for several days.

BOSTON WOOL The market both as respects manufactured and raw materials appears to be very sound. Foreign markets are continuing to show a firmer tone on the wool side, but an easier tone on cross-breeds, as the opening of the New Zealand and South American seasons is near. Mohair continues dull and nominal. Wool quotations are unsettled, with announcement of further closing of mills impending, unless orders come forward more freely. The statistical position of the market both as respects manufactured and raw materials appears to be very sound.
