

Five Posts At Stake In Saturday Run-Off

Democrats go to the polls for a second time within a month Saturday, passing final judgment on nominations.

FOR GOVERNOR
RICHARD ROX
JOHN DOE
BILL BROWN

Use The X

Election officials have urged that voters use the X in marking their ballots Saturday.

At stake locally are two county offices—for judge and for sheriff, and three precinct offices—for commissioner of Precinct No. 1 and of Precinct No. 3, as well as justice of peace, Precinct No. 1 (place No. 1).

Only one state race is on the ticket—that of a place on the State Supreme Court.

Squaring off in what appeared to be a close race for county judge were Walter Grice, serving out his first term, and R. R. Weaver, young attorney. They were top men in a field of four in the first primary.

A picture familiar two years ago is presented in the sheriff's race where J. B. (Jake) Bruton, serving out his initial term, is being contested in his bid by Jess Slaughter, former sheriff. This has proven one of the most spirited races of the year.

In precinct No. 1, where the incumbent, Walter Long, is not seeking re-election, P. O. Hughes and Ralph Proctor are battling it

Campaigns Closing For Second Primary

By The Associated Press

Candidates in Saturday's Democratic run-off primary wound up their campaigns Friday as Republicans got down to business with their Texas drive for Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower.

At the same time, Gov. Allan Shivers—faced with a decision on Texas' drought status Friday—planned his showdown Saturday with Democratic Presidential Nominee Stevenson.

Hurried get-out-the-vote attempts marked the day before election as an extremely light run-off vote seemed likely. Only one state office—Place No. 1 on the State Supreme Court—was at issue.

Republicans, with the help of Gov. Dan Thornton of Colorado, a native of Texas, opened their Eisenhower-Nixon headquarters in Fort Worth.

Thornton told a small, vociferous crowd in Will Rogers Memorial Auditorium Thursday night that Gen. Eisenhower, a "fighter all his life," was not one to accept a defeatist attitude that would give this country up to Communism and Socialism.

Thornton's speech formally opens the campaign to carry Texas for Eisenhower and Sen. Nixon. "We have nothing to fear but fear," said Thornton, "mink fur, that is."

Ben Gull of Pampa, former Republican congressman from the Texas Panhandle and state campaign manager for the Ike forces, said the new state GOP headquarters will be "the nerve center of a great grass roots campaign."

At Austin, Gov. Shivers said there would be no "demanding or threatening" when he talks Saturday with Gov. Adlai Stevenson in Springfield, Ill.

Shivers wants to know Stevenson's attitude toward state ownership of the tidelands, foreign policy, corruption and graft in government, taxation, spending, the federal budget and civil rights.

The Texas governor has said he could not possibly support any candidate favoring federal ownership of the tidelands. He adds that Texans generally will be greatly influenced by that issue.

Shivers, who said he would suggest that Stevenson include Texas in his speaking tour, said he did not expect to be consulted by Stevenson on such things as the choice of Cabinet members.

"But I certainly want to know if he is going to put somebody in the State Department who is going to continue some of Acheson's policies—or lack of policies," Shivers said. The governor also said he wondered about the rumor that Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn) was being considered for a Cabinet job.

Meanwhile, the voters of Texas—some of them, made up their minds about the Supreme Court position, four Congressional races, a Civil Appeals Court judgeship, three State Senate races, and 29 State Representative posts.

There were also several district judge and district attorney posts at issue in the run-off, as well as numerous local offices.

UN Planes Hit More Red Posts

By WILLIAM C. BARNARD
SEOUL, Korea (AP)—U. N. warplanes smashed Communist targets all across the Korean peninsula today, while ground troops repulsed two light Red assaults.

The U. S. Fifth Air Force said 12 B-26 bombers staged a daylight raid on a Communist supply area at Anak on Haju Peninsula, near the 38th Parallel in Western Korea.

Other Allied planes demolished five large warehouse buildings near Wonsan, on the East Coast, the Air Force said. Fighter bombers slashed at Red battlefield positions.

Six U. S. Sabre jets scrapped with elements of a flight of 10 Russian built MIGs near Sinuiju, in Northwest Korea, but failed to score.

The Air Force said U. N. pilots destroyed 11 Red-occupied buildings, 15 gun positions, 49 bunkers and four mortars, and inflicted 20 troop casualties.

U. N. infantrymen early today beat back a 16-man Chinese assault on Bunker Hill, in the west. On the Central Front, U. N. soldiers hurried back a probing Red platoon in a 40-minute battle near Capital Hill.

The U. S. Eighth Army said the Communists flashed searchlights on Allied lines early Thursday, probably for the first time in the war. A staff officer said the beams obviously were trying to spot loudspeakers blaring psychological warfare at the Reds.

The U. S. Navy said Communist shore guns Wednesday hit the American destroyer-minesweeper Thompson off Northeastern Korea. Four crewmen were reported killed and nine wounded.

Searchers today recovered the bodies of three more of the 30 American infantrymen presumed drowned in a flash flood during training last Monday. So far, bodies of 15 members of the 45th Division unit have been found.

U. N. B-26 bombers struck a Communist supply center near Hamhung on the northeast coast of Korea Thursday night. Other bomber pilots claimed they destroyed 11 Red trucks.

TEL AVIV, Israel, Aug. 22 (AP)—An Israeli army spokesman said today two Arab Legionnaires from Jordan were killed and several wounded in a recent clash on the Israel-Jordan frontier.

X-Ray Total Is Nearly 2,500

Howard County's X-ray total approached the 2,500 mark at noon today, half way through the week-long survey being conducted by the State Health Department.

A total of 2,424 chest pictures had been made at 11:45 a. m. Pace was slackening slightly Friday and health officials renewed their appeals for all-out participation in the survey.

Chest X-rays which had been made at the rate of 100 an hour during the two previous days dropped to about 90 per hour Friday morning. A total of 278 pictures were made in three hours; X-ray technicians say they can make up to 180 per hour, so the present rate can be doubled.

Officials of the Howard County Tuberculosis Association and the Big Spring-Howard County Health Unit are urging all county residents 15 years of age or older to participate in the chest survey. There is no charge for the service which is provided by tax funds, nor is there any inconvenience or loss of time in taking the X-rays.

Winners of the four theater passes given persons taking the X-rays Thursday were Mrs. Ferneta Sulek, Walter Grice, Dixie Burcham and Maxine Brooks. R&R Theaters are giving four tickets daily to persons selected from those registering for the chest pictures.

Lewis Gives Formal Notice That Contracts To Expire

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22 (AP)—Government officials said today that John L. Lewis has given formal notice that his contracts with the coal industry will expire at the end of September. This set up the possibility of a nation-wide coal strike at that time.

Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers Union, gave federal mediators the required notice that contractors with both the soft and hard coal industry will run out then, these officials said.

The Taft-Hartley Labor Act requires that the government be informed of a labor dispute at least 30 days before the work contract expires.

Lewis gave his 60-day notice to Moody, who bargains for 240 million tons of coal a year, on July 23. That means he could legally take his northern soft coal diggers out of the pits about Sept. 22.

His contract expiration notices to Moody and the anthracite industry were given on Aug. 1.

Teamsters Strike At Grocery Firm

Six warehousemen and truck drivers, employees of the J. M. Radford Wholesale Grocery here and members of the AFL Teamsters Local Union No. 583, set up a picket line and went on strike against the company this morning.

The group met and voted Thursday to strike.

A group of employees of the Abilene warehouse of Radford went on strike Thursday morning. They are also members of the local No. 583.

J. M. Waltrip, union business manager from Abilene (local headquarters are in Abilene) reported this morning the men are striking in answer to the company officials' delay in renewing the union's working contract.

Officials of the Radford Company warehouse here, said today that he could make no comment. All information must come from the headquarters in Abilene and J. E. Harvey, manager there.

Waltrip said that the old contract expired July 26 and the company has failed to draw up another as yet. He added the union had given the company officials the required 90-day notice prior to the expiration date of the contract and they have still delayed.

The Big Spring and Abilene houses are the only two in the county.

REAL SAUCERS COMING SOON

Folks in the Big Spring area as well as elsewhere in the country may be seeing some real flying saucers before too long, according to Sgt. A. M. Burt, non-commissioned officer in charge of the Big Spring Army and Air Force Recruiting Station.

Sgt. Burt says that according to word he has just received from the Air Research and Development Division of the U. S. Air Force these round shiny objects may soon be seen in the sky. Spheres 45 to 110 feet in diameter will be sent aloft and any one who finds equipment parachuted from them is asked to send a telegram collect to the Air Force and then deliver the box to the nearest Railway Express agent.

Checks for $25 will be mailed to each person who returns or arranges the return of the equipment.

"Good hunting," says Sgt. Burt.

Shivers To Reach A Decision Today

By The Associated Press
Texas, worst drought and one of its longest, most torrid heat waves continued to ride death and destruction across the state Friday.

Tantalizing rain showers fell in Southeast Texas along the Gulf Coast Thursday—just where they were last needed. And the death toll increased while the burning sun seared and withered everything it touched.

Meanwhile, Gov. Allan Shivers was to make his decision Friday on whether to ask drought disaster status for Texas. Political implications of such a move in election year, he said, had forced his delay while he polled small farmers and ranchers on their needs and attitude.

Some men with money, he said, wanted the disaster status so they could buy feed cheaper. "They are not the ones who need help," he commented.

As the long drought continued, even the professional rain makers were giving up the ghost. In Austin, it was announced that the 21-county Colorado Water Association project was being abandoned. Headquarters of Irving Krick, Inc., of Texas were moving to Lamesa.

It was to continue its contract, however, for projects at Waco, in the Texas Panhandle, and in the South Plains. A spokesman, C. J. Schmid, said that in some localities the operations could be credited with increasing rainfall.

High temperatures in excess of 100 degrees entered their 22nd day in much of Texas Friday. Thursday's temperatures ranged from 109 degrees at Seymour down to a low maximum of 85 at Victoria where 1.35 inches of cooling rain fell.

Other Thursday measurements of thundershower precipitation included:

Two and one-half inches in Orange County, 1.65 at Beaumont, .70 at Palacios, and much smaller amounts at Galveston, Palestine, Alice and Houston.

The Orange County rain fell on areas where crops and pastures already were lush and green and where a near record is predicted in the rice crop. Points that had only seared grass and withered crops had no rain, not even a cloud.

Two heat fatalities at Mexia and one at Vernon added to the death toll. They were W. G. Price, 52, and Mrs. E. J. Thomas, 31, of Thornton, at Mexia, and H. J. Muller, 70, at Vernon.

Dallas watched several heat stroke patients in local hospitals after the death toll there had climbed to 10 Wednesday.

Across the state, crops of all kinds were failing. Some were already listed as complete losses. Cattle lost weight in the intense heat with only dusty, dried-out grass and stagnant pools for nourishment.

A few farmers and businessmen met with County Judge Walter Grice at his invitation yesterday afternoon to take action on a telegram sent Grice by governor Shivers asking a determination of the sense and sentiment of the people of Howard County toward the proposal that all Texas be declared a drought disaster area.

The meeting went on record as favoring a more liberal program for loans to distressed farmers, according to Loyd Wooten, projects manager for the Chamber of Commerce. Wooten said the controversial matter of shipping in hay from outside the state was not discussed. "What we had in mind and asked for," Wooten said, "was financial aid for the farmers of this county who need it."

At the time of the meeting, Wooten explained, they had not received word that the state director of the Farm Home Administration had already pledged this aid to J. H. Greene, manager of the Big Spring Chamber of Commerce at Governor Shivers' meeting Wednesday afternoon in Austin.

"I believe that what the FHA promised at that meeting," Wooten said this morning, "is just exactly what we need and what we had in mind at our meeting here yesterday."

Opposing federal aid, Tom Lineberry of Kermit wired: "Ranchers want no part of government aid."

J. W. Sartwell of Houston said pressure for a disaster declaration is "primarily political."

Brown County Judge F. A. Loudermilk of Brownwood said "small farmers and ranchers all urge you to declare Texas an emergency area."

The men whom he wired yesterday were asked to contact at least six small farmers or ranchers to determine their thinking on the drought relief problem.

The governor also received 17 letters today, 14 opposing a drought disaster designation and three favoring it. The letters apparently were spontaneous reactions to news stories about the drought conference held by Shivers Wednesday.

State Senator Kilmer Corbin of Lubbock messaged the governor: "If complete ruin is to be avoided immediate steps should be taken to procure loan aid from available federal sources."

He added that the immediate area around Lubbock is not suffering from drought but much of the country around Lubbock is in dire need of drought relief.

This County Is Already Eligible For Drought Aid

Howard County is already on the disaster list for aid through Farm Home Administration loans, J. H. Greene, manager of the Big Spring Chamber of Commerce, said yesterday afternoon following his return from Austin where he attended the Wednesday afternoon meeting called by Governor Allan Shivers to discuss the drought situation.

Greene, who questioned L. J. Cappelman of Dallas, state director of the Farm Home Administration, during the course of the governor's conference, said answers supplied to his questions by Cappelman were to the effect that the present FHA disaster loan program is sufficiently complete to aid emergency likely to be faced by a Howard County farmer or rancher if the loan program is administered with sufficient liberality.

He was also assured by Cappelman in the open meeting, Greene said, that there are sufficient funds available to the FHA in this program to meet all disaster emergencies. "We were told," Greene commented, "there is no limit either on the amount of money that a single farmer or rancher may borrow from this disaster fund. The appropriation was made to provide these farmers and ranchers with all they need to carry on their operations."

Greene said he anticipated that Howard County needs under this

Five Oil Companies Accused In Report

By G. WILTON KELLY
WASHINGTON (AP)—The Mutual Security Agency (MSA), in a new report to investigating senators, has accused five U. S. oil companies of heaping "an undue burden on the American taxpayer" for their own profit.

Senate Small Business Committee's monopoly subcommittee and made public last night, accused the five of "price discrimination on a world-wide scale." It said they inflated the price of oil shipped from the Middle East to European nations receiving Marshall Plan aid.

The Justice Department, at MSA's request, already has filed suit to recover 50 million dollars from the five companies on grounds of overcharges on bills paid with foreign aid funds.

Dr. Walter Adams, economic counsel to the Senate, committee, told a reporter MSA, which administers foreign aid, contends the total overcharges would be more than $9 million, but that he does not know how much more.

The companies, the report said, charged the Europeans "exorbitant prices" for oil, far higher than they charged for deliveries to the United States from the same Middle Eastern fields.

"Because of this two-price system and the abnormally high price charged in European markets, an undue burden was placed on the American taxpayer, who was footing the bill for Marshall Plan aid," the committee said in a prepared statement quoted in the report.

It said MSA also reported that Arabian-American Oil Company and member of one of this community's earliest families, died in Long Beach, Calif., Thursday afternoon.

Funeral will be held here Tuesday afternoon and arrangements will be announced by Kiker & Son Funeral Home.

Mr. Crowder had been ill for a long time.

Before his retirement in 1946, he had been employed by the American Railway Express for approximately 43 years and had served here and at Sweetwater. Two years after his retirement, he moved to Colorado.

The Crowder family arrived in Colorado City in the early 1890s, and his father, the late W. A. Crowder, was the second agent for the Texas & Pacific Railway Company at its new office in what was then called Colorado, Texas.

Besides his widow, Mr. Crowder leaves one other immediate survivor, a daughter, Mrs. John Henry Moore, Colorado City.

Dr. Wilson Coming Back To Head Texas University

By BO BYERS
AUSTIN, Aug. 22 (AP)—Dr. Logan Wilson, a sociologist with iron-grey hair, a quick sense of humor, and two degrees from Harvard, will come back to Texas to become president of the state's main university Feb. 1.

He was elected by unanimous vote of the University of Texas regents yesterday. They talked to him by telephone right after voting, and he said he was mighty proud to be returning to the school where he got his first Master's degree in 1927.

Wilson, who is academic vice-president of the Consolidated University of North Carolina, also talked to the Associated Press by telephone and said he and his family were champing at the bit to head for Texas.

Wilson, who has held his job at Chapel Hill, N. C., only a year, he said he didn't want to pull up stakes before completing some of the work he started.

For instance, Wilson thinks television is a "tremendous educational medium," so he has had charge of developing an educational television program for the University of North Carolina. That's one of his incomplete jobs.

Does he think television should become a part of the University of Texas' educational program? "My guess is that the university has had an educational television channel allocated," said Wilson.

"But the big obstacle at any school is the tremendous cost of building a station and setting up program without revenue. You know, they can't use commercial revenue for such programs.

"I think television is a tremendous educational medium, and schools are simply going to be neglecting a great opportunity if they don't do something with it."

Prof. Gale Adkins, acting director of radio-television at the University of Texas, confirmed Wilson's guess that an educational TV channel has been allocated to the Austin area, where the university probably would be the only serious contender for its use.

Wilson will succeed Dr. T. S. Painter as president at the maximum statutory salary of $15,000 per year, plus home and utilities.

He said he might not be able to visit Austin before next year but his wife—the former Myra Marshall of Commerce—"will probably come down to look at the house and see if the color of paint in the bathroom needs changing."

Wilson, 45, was born and reared in Huntsville.

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A revealing photo, a lipstick imprint on the back, and a note to "blue eyes" have sent Mrs. Virginia LeTourneau, 28, back to jail.

Mrs. LeTourneau, the blonde divorcee who admitted taking a boy 12 years her junior on a 10,000-mile trip, tried to get a juvenile hall jailer to take the picture and the note to the boy, Jimmy Sherwin, 17.

The photo was of Mrs. LeTourneau in a sun dress. Written on the back of it was, "I love you. So sweet." A lipstick imprint was nearby.

The note read: "Darling, hold out. I love you, Jimmy, more every day. Don't let anyone tell you different. . . . Life without you is terrible. I love you, blue eyes."

Superior Judge William B. Neely took one look at the photo and note and ordered Mrs. LeTourneau back to jail. She had been at liberty on $1,000 bail pending a probation hearing after she pleaded guilty to contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

Juvenile authorities had indicated they would release Jimmy if he and the blonde mother of his 12-year-old son agreed not to see each other again. Now they weren't so sure.

Chest Budget Group To Meet

First step toward determining requirements of the Howard County Community Chest's fund for 1952-53 will be taken tonight.

A special budget committee from the Chest board is to receive fund requests from various welfare agencies which are beneficiaries of Chest funds. These include the YMCA, Salvation Army, Girl Scouts.

This year, the Chest also is to receive a request from the local USO organization which hopes to open a local servicemen's center.

Agencies will submit their own contemplated budgets for the year, and the Chest committee will consider those in the over-all establishment of a Chest quota.

R. L. Beale heads the Chest committee. Others on it are Frank Hardesty, Clyde Angel, A. V. Karcher and Chester Calhoun. The group has called meetings at the Settles Hotel beginning at 7 o'clock, to hear agency delegations.

A Second Term For Walter Grice

We the friends of Walter Grice believe he should be elected to a second term as County Judge.

- 1 Because every case that has come up under his jurisdiction has been handled in an impartial way according to law and Justice.
- 2 Because he is qualified having so faithfully served as Justice of Peace then two years as County Judge.
- 3 Because he invites everyone at any time to visit his office where he will readily assist and help in any way possible.
- 4 Because Walter Grice has given more time in erecting and getting Howard County's new courthouse under way.
- 5 Because when a man has so faithfully served as a public official it is the Motto of good American people to give him a second term.

To The Voters Of Precinct 3

I again want to express my thanks and appreciation for the support that you gave me in the first primary.

I am now serving my first term as Commissioner of Precinct No. 3 and am asking your support and influence for re-election to a second term.

While I have been serving as your commissioner, I have tried to conduct the affairs of the County in a fair, just and business-like manner.

Harmony has existed in the Commissioners Court with all members of the court co-operating with the State Highway Department in securing right of way for new permanent type roads in Howard County. The Commissioners Court has also co-operated with the City Commission in solving the problems that are the concern of both governing bodies.

During the past year the Commissioners Court has started several major projects which I would like to see completed according to the agreements of the Commissioners Court and Contractors.

To you who supported me in the first primary, I solicit your continued support and to you who had a first choice, I earnestly solicit your vote and influence in the Second Primary.

As time will not permit me to contact each of you personally, I therefore would like for you to accept this as a personal plea for your vote and influence on August 23, 1952.

J. B. BRUTON FOR SHERIFF

We, a representative group of the women voters of Howard County, have made an independent investigation of the administration of J. B. Bruton as sheriff, and this we have done without his knowledge, and we make the following findings of fact:

That J. B. Bruton is absolutely honest, and has so conducted his official duties during his term of office.

That J. B. Bruton is a Christian man, and has been active in his church ever since he has lived in Howard County, long PRIOR to his TAKING OFFICE.

That, as sheriff, J. B. Bruton has treated everyone alike, with no enemies to punish and no friends to reward.

That J. B. Bruton has been vigorous in presenting to Grand Juries cases well prepared, and has collected more in fines during his administration than has been collected ever before during the same length of time.

That, after long and patient work, J. B. Bruton and deputies have, with help of other officers, broken up a 'dope ring' of marijuana and narcotics, this being the first time in the history of law enforcement in Howard County that such dope peddlers have been convicted in groups, with still more pending trials.

That J. B. Bruton's present opponent was defeated when he and Bruton were candidates two years ago, in the SECOND PRIMARY; that his opponent Jess Slaughter, then RAN AGAIN as an INDEPENDENT in the GENERAL ELECTION.

That J. B. Bruton is such an honorable man that we feel that we can be assured that, if HE is defeated in the Second Democratic Primary he will not run as an INDEPENDENT in the GENERAL ELECTION.

Thus, we believe that, in the interest of law and order, and an honest administration of the Sheriff's office, J. B. Bruton should be given a second term.

Vote Saturday For J. B. Bruton For Sheriff

Polio Cases In State Nearing 3,000 Mark

By The Associated Press
Polio cases inched toward the 3,000 mark in Texas Friday while more deaths from the disease were reported.

Houston, Dallas and Fort Worth reported two new cases of the mysterious malady while Tyler reported one new case and one possible case.

Latest deaths reported from the disease occurred Wednesday night at Fort Worth, a 21-month-old boy, and at Sugar Land, a 20-year-old woman.

An infant girl and a four-year-old boy were the new Dallas patients. Four of the last five patients reported in Dallas were four-year-old children.

The New Houston cases boosted that city's 1952 total to 336 city cases and 12 deaths, 234 Harris County cases and eight deaths, and 213 non-resident cases and 11 deaths.

A three-year-old boy was Tyler's 15th case of the year and the 32nd for Smith County. In the previous peak year, 1950, Smith County had only 21 cases.

Fort Worth's two new cases made a total of 208 treated there this year.

In Houston, the mother of Barry Bishop Jr. said the youth was definitely improved and off the critical list. He is in an iron lung with deadly bulbar polio, and was unconscious until given the new Mexican drug, anidolic.

But young Bishop's physician said anidolic had nothing to do with his improvement.

The physician, who asked that his name not be used, said he had sent a telegram to Dr. Albert Trencavel in Mexico City saying "there is no proof the drug has any benefit on the natural course of the disease."

The drug was flown to Houston from Mexico.

Meanwhile at Mexico City, Mexico's Public Health Ministry asked Dr. Trencavel to make a public demonstration of the use of the drug.

The ministry said Dr. Trencavel, a Belgian-born U. S.-naturalized citizen, would be given every facility for further investigation if the public demonstration shows his drug is useful.

The drug is now on sale in Mexico but has not been used in public hospitals there.

At Dallas Parkland Hospital physicians were watching closely the case of a polio victim who received gamma globulin before becoming ill.

The patient, 4-year-old Linda Kay Carroll of Dallas, was given gamma globulin shots after a child that visited in the Carroll home got polio. Then Linda Kay came down with the disease.

Recently thousands of Houston school children were given shots to see if gamma globulin would ward off polio paralysis.

Parkland doctors say the Carroll child thus far has suffered a slight attack of polio. But the physicians said this was not a certain indication that the injections had lessened the severity of the attack.

Internal Revenue Collections Jump

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22 (AP)—Texas Internal Revenue collections took a big jump over 1951 in the fiscal year ending June 30, 1952.

The Bureau of Internal Revenue yesterday reported 1952 collections at $2,130,648,235.65 as compared with $1,679,345,003.09 on June 30, 1951.

The preliminary 1952 figure includes June collections based on telegraphic reports.

Total collections include individual income and employment taxes, corporation income and profits taxes and miscellaneous revenue. The miscellaneous revenue includes customs duties on liquor and Postoffice receipts from sale of documentary stamps. They do not include other Postoffice revenue.

McCarthy Suit Will Shift To Wheeling

By O. MILTON KELLY
WASHINGTON (AP)—Pre-trial testimony in the two million dollar libel-slander suit brought by Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) against Sen. Benton (D-Conn.) shifts tomorrow to Wheeling, W. Va.

There, lawyers for the battling senators have scheduled an examination of four prospective witnesses.

McCarthy accuses Benton of defaming him with false charges of fraud, perjury and deceit in a move to have the Wisconsin lawmaker expelled from the Senate.

Benton has declared he will base his defense largely on efforts to prove that his accusations, voiced against McCarthy before a Senate Rules Subcommittee, are well-founded.

Tomorrow's hearing will deal with Benton's charge that McCarthy committed perjury when he denied under oath that he told a Wheeling audience in a speech on Feb. 9, 1950, that he possessed a list of 205 persons "known to the Secretary of State (Dean Acheson) as being members of the Communist party and who nevertheless are still working and shaping policy in the State Department."

Benton's lawyers called four news and radio men to the Wheeling hearing in an announced effort to show that McCarthy did make that statement in the 1950 speech.

The scheduled witnesses at the hearing are James E. Whitaker, Paul A. Myers and Paul Miller, officials of radio station WWVA at Wheeling which broadcast the speech, and Frank Desmond, reporter for the Wheeling Intelligencer, whose news account of the speech has been cited by Benton as evidence that McCarthy made the statement.

Sworn statements of Whitaker and Myers that they recorded McCarthy's speech, and that in it he did claim to possess a list of 205 Communists, have been used as evidence in Senate inquiries into the matter.

Theodore Kiendl, counsel to Benton, said he later plans to summon Millard E. Tydings, former Democratic senator from Maryland, and Edward P. Morgan, a Washington lawyer, to tell whether McCarthy denied under oath before them in a closed-door Senate investigation that he had made the disputed statement.

Benton contends that McCarthy made the sworn denial before them on April 24, 1950, and that on that ground alone "a prima facie case of perjury is made out."

To The Voters Of Howard County

Here are the facts about the Marijuana Scandal: The big raid conducted March 14-15, 1952 resulted in the filing of 20 cases in Justice Court on information, evidence and undercover work by out-of-town narcotics agents called in by our District Attorney, who saw the marijuana traffic was getting out of hand.

The present sheriff's department, I am informed, had nothing whatsoever to do with working up the evidence in these cases and only made arrests when the facts were placed before them.

Do not be misled. Facts are facts.

A MESSAGE TO THE VOTERS OF JUSTICE PRECINCT ONE

From W. O. LEONARD, Candidate For Re-Election

The first time I was elected Justice of Peace, I got out and campaigned by meeting the people. This election, I have not been able to do that. As some of you know, I have recently undergone surgery for a spinal disorder. For that reason I am not strong enough to walk about and campaign.

I mention this physical impairment for the sole purpose of explaining why I have not been around to see all of you personally. I am running for re-election purely on my record, experience and ability.

The office of Justice of Peace rarely receives much attention from the voting public. But, it is a very necessary cog in your county government. The duties of a Justice of Peace are varied, and all essential. A Justice of Peace sits as a judge in certain misdemeanors, and sets bonds in felonies pending grand jury action, and holds inquests, and along with a great variety of other duties, marries a couple now and then. By experience, I have come to know and understand the duties of the office, and since I like the work, I would like to keep the job.

You know folks, the cases that come before me are not big ones, but the principles involved are the same as in any court. The rules of justice are as important in my court as in any other court. I never have believed a person was guilty of some crime, just because he was arrested. I hear the evidence, and go by that alone. I do not want the job on any other terms. If you believe the same way, then maybe I am your man for Justice of Peace.

JESS SLAUGHTER For SHERIFF

Was the half-page ad appearing in yesterday's Herald, purportedly signed by several women voters endorsing Jess Slaughter's opponent, J. B. Bruton, for Sheriff.

Up until this good hour Jess Slaughter and his friends have conducted his campaign upon a high level, honestly and conscientiously presenting the facts and official records from the courthouse, which show conclusively Jess Slaughter to be the best law enforcing Sheriff Howard County has ever had.

Jess and his supporters have not and will not engage in mud slinging or false propaganda as his opponent's friends have done in falsely, and with the express purpose and design to mislead the good people of Howard County, by charging Jess Slaughter was a candidate for Sheriff two years ago as an independent. This charge is wholly false and contains not one iota of truth.

It is true some 1500 good citizens throughout Howard County DID write Jess Slaughter's name on the ballot for Sheriff, two years ago. They believed THEN and they believe NOW that Howard County needs a competent sheriff.

Jess Slaughter has never run as an independent for any office. The records in the County Clerk's office will show Jess Slaughter's name has never appeared on any ballot as an independent candidate.

Keep the record straight—don't be misled by false propaganda.

Vote for Jess Slaughter in Saturday's election for a capable, honest and fair law-enforcing Sheriff—a veteran of World War I.

Sparkman Ends Four-Day Tour Of His Home State

By LEROY SIMMS
BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—Sen. John Sparkman, Democratic nominee for vice president, ended a four-day home state tour here with the assertion that the Republicans have only one campaign issue — "that it's time for a change."

The Alabama senator said Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower has said "he's going to keep all those social and economic gains of the last 20 Democratic years, and he's going to do it better."

Sparkman ended his homecoming tour at a dinner here last night.

Sparkman, the first man from the Deep South to win a place on the Democratic ticket in 100 years, also emphasized what he called "the end of the political isolation of the South."

He said his nomination on the ticket headed by Gov. Adlai Stevenson of Illinois sprang partly from the campaigns of Georgia's Sen. Richard B. Russell and Tennessee's Sen. Estes Kefauver for President.

"They proved it possible for a Southerner to run for President," he said. "Their campaign did

Drought Problem Too Big To Bog In Politics And Recriminations

Amid cries of "politics," official attention has been turned to the increasingly sharp drought condition in Texas. At a party in Athens on Monday, livestockmen were told that if they could prevail on the governor to declare the state in a state of drought emergency, hay and possibly other feed could be provided at lower costs. Presence of the U.S. under secretary of agriculture at the meeting and his inability to talk about anything other than cheap hay contributed to the view that the meeting was not without its political implications.

Manpower Drain Levelling Off As Healthier, Trained Men Return

As Liaison Bulletin 270, Public Information Division, Department of the Army, points out: "The full impact of the Army's manpower requirements for fiscal year 1952 will naturally be felt most at the community level. Unless parents, relatives and friends are fully informed of this program, they cannot know that from 700,000 to 800,000 soldiers will be returned to civilian life at approximately the same rate as replacements will be called into the Army."

Merry-Go-Round—Drew Pearson

Stevenson-Eisenhower Debate Would Help The Voters Decide

(Note: While Drew Pearson is on a brief vacation, the Washington Merry-Go-Round is being written by several distinguished guest columnists, today's being Sen. Blair Moody, Democrat, of Michigan.)

DETROIT.—The best way for the American people to get the full, unvarnished picture of the real issues of the presidential campaign, in my judgment, would be a series of debates on television and radio between Governor Stevenson and General Eisenhower.

This modern innovation would give the voters an opportunity to decide directly which candidate would provide the country with more competent leadership in this moment of history when our future is so dangerously at stake.

It would draw the issues between the parties on the level of fact, not smear. It would give the people a chance to "know" their next president—his personality, his intellect, and his grasp of public affairs.

It would provide both candidates an equal crack at what doubtless would be the largest audience of all time, without forcing either to raise huge sums of money for the privilege of presenting their views to the people.

And it would knock the ex parte bunk out of the campaign at the very top level. If the famous General from Kansas is matched with the great statesman from Illinois for an hour each week, perhaps from mid-September through October, the people will make the right decision November 4, and a new, high pattern will have been set for the future functioning of our Democracy.

This suggestion was advanced by the writer on People's Platform, a Columbia Broadcasting System radio discussion with Sen. Allen J. Ellender, of Louisiana, on July 27, the day after the Democratic convention adjourned.

Neither Ike Nor Adlai Can Convince Everyone He Is Middle-Of-The-Roader

WASHINGTON.—The middle of the road is getting crowded with presidential candidates. Within a few hours of each other, Eisenhower and Gov. Stevenson both claimed it as their natural habitat.

It's not surprising. Both were considered fairly conservative at the time of their nomination. It's one of the reasons they were chosen. No one expected radical promises from either of them.

And at this point in American history it wouldn't be politically wise for a candidate to express anything but a philosophy of moderation. It's the mood of the country. In 1952 the center line looks like the only road to the White House.

The country is prosperous, there is plenty of food, the people are still undergoing a reflex action against communism and Communism, and we doesn't seem too close, all of which encourage conservatism.

Nevertheless, neither candidate can convince everyone he is a middle-of-the-roader. Stevenson himself said yesterday the middle means different things to different people.

Between the two men should appear when they begin their campaign speechmaking. So far both have been very cautious.

But the fact that Eisenhower and Stevenson claim the center as their favorite place—which might indicate that any differences between them are differences about details—may limit the range of issues. For example: not whether some policy or program of the Democratic administration was right or wrong but whether it was well-handled.

When that occurs, if it occurs, the voters are not given a choice between a policy or program but between two methods of handling it.

There are already a number of nationally televised, nationally sponsored programs which specialize in precisely this type of matching of facts, wits, and grasp of the issues. Nearly all senators and many congressmen have participated.

While the standard 30-minute time often runs out before issues have been adequately clarified, a series of hour-long discussions, running over perhaps six weeks, could be conducted with complete fairness.

The opinions contained in this and other articles in this column are solely those of the writers who sign them. They are not to be interpreted as necessarily reflecting the opinions of The Herald—Editor's Note.

Eisenhower Backers Wondering How Candidate Will Do On TV

WASHINGTON.—Everybody says knowingly, nowadays, that "this is going to be the first television election," but nobody seems to have thought out the implications of this alarming statement.

In the Eisenhower headquarters, on the one hand, the New York gubernatorial election of 1950 is being studied with anxious attention. Gen. Eisenhower's exceedingly able press secretary, James Hagerty, is borrowed from the staff of Gov. Thomas E. Dewey. Hagerty saw Gov. Dewey transform the New York contest by the first truly inventive use of television attempted by any of our high-level politicians.

What Dewey did in his 1950 telecasts was, in effect, to take the New York voters into his living room for a nice, brisk chat about politics. The show was informal and varied. Sometimes Dewey answered questions. Sometimes he gave short talks on selected topics. Sometimes members of his staff were present, and sometimes Mrs. Dewey took part.

These Dewey telecasts were one of the biggest factors in Dewey's comfortable majority when the voters were counted. The Eisenhower strategists are asking themselves, therefore, whether the general can do the same stunt that Dewey did, with the same success.

The advocates of an Eisenhower television show on the Dewey model argue that this is just the way to "bring the real Eisenhower" into the homes of the voters. The more conventional political planners around the general reply that such a show could not be really spontaneous; that the magic might not work after all; and that the danger of bad fluffs would be very great.

Meanwhile, at the strategy meeting to plan Gov. Stevenson's campaign in Springfield this week end, a similar debate is in progress. At least one of the seven members of Stevenson's top campaign staff, Sen. Mike Monroney, Okla., head of the Democratic Speakers' Bureau, went out to Springfield with a plan already roughed out. Monroney's plan called for a weekly Stevenson telecast—perhaps a fifteen-minute show every Monday evening—combining a short talk with answers to questions that voters send in.

What a change that house was from the cabins of New Salem! We see it today, it is large enough to hold half a dozen of New Salem's log cabins.

Does this house mean that the rail splitter and backwoodsman wanted to live in luxury after he moved to Springfield? Probably not.

The simple fact, as we may trace it in the history of Lincoln's life, appears to be that the wife of Lincoln was the one who wanted a big home. As a maiden she had been Mary Todd. She was a member of a well-to-do family.

Mary Todd, or Mary Lincoln as she was called after her marriage, wanted more than a large house. She also had ambitions in the field of politics. There is little, if any, doubt that she did much to "push" her husband forward until he rose to the highest office in the land.

People may wonder how things would have been if Lincoln had made a different marriage. If Ann Rutledge had lived long enough to marry Abe, he might have been a happier man, but he probably would have stayed out of national politics. We are told that Ann wanted to spend her life on a farm. As it was, Lincoln ran for Congress at the age of 37 and was elected. Later he worked hard at the practice of law. He was elected President of the United States at the age of 51.

All the world knows about Lincoln's years in the White House. There he served about one of the sad events of history, the American Civil War. His time in office was ended by the shot of an assassin. It is agreed widely that if he had lived longer, he would have done much to bind the wounds of the war.

Arguing Finances With Woman Usually Useless

NEW YORK.—When Wilbur Peete came home from work, his wife, Trellis Mae, met him in cold, resentful silence.

"What's troubling you, my little chickadee?" he asked playfully. "Somebody put sand in your bird seed?"

"Oh, don't bother your big head about me," said Trellis Mae, and flounced out into the kitchen to finish dinner.

Wilbur sighed and held his peace. He knew that whatever the matter was, he would hear about it later. And sure enough he did—after they had eaten, and he was seated comfortably in his favorite chair, trying to read the sports page.

"I'll tell you what's wrong," Trellis Mae said suddenly. "You lied to me—that's what!"

"Lied to you?" replied Wilbur, wondering (like any husband) which lie she meant. "How... when?"

"About our finances." "Well, what about our finances?" "Remember when I wanted that fur coat last year? It was a wonderful bargain for $1,000," said Trellis Mae. "But you said no, we couldn't afford it."

"We couldn't then," said Wilbur stubbornly, "and we can't now." "How much did you make last year?" demanded his wife. "I made $5,200 after paying taxes," said Wilbur. "And we saved $500. But if we had bought that $1,000 fur coat I'd be owing the $500, instead of having it in the bank for a rainy day."

Some Firms Still Feel Strike Effect

DALLAS, Aug. 22.—Impact of the recent steel strike is still to be felt by some Dallas firms, a national production analyst says.

George McBride predicted a number of firms will have to close temporarily during the next 60 days because of shortages of vital steel parts. He said most inventories are used up and that some time will elapse before they can be replenished.

24-Day Fast Comes To End

YAKIMA, Wash. (AP)—A 24-day fast by a Bible Presbyterian church minister atop a 7,000-foot mountain has been ended—but not by the higher authority he sought.

The Rev. Robert Kutz, about 48, was taken from the mountain yesterday by Yakima County deputy sheriffs who brought him in on a stinny warrant after concern was felt for his health.

He climbed to the top of Darland Mountain, 45 miles west of here in the Cascades, late last month after parking his car in a high meadow. He would come down, he said, when told to do so by "a higher authority."

Since then, forest rangers attest, he has had no food. He slept in his car.

He didn't protest when the deputies came to get him and exhibited what one official said was "surprising strength" in walking to their car. No report has been received on his condition since he was lodged in a hospital.

The Rev. Kutz has no parish now. His wife told police he fasted 28 days last year.

MONRONEY IS SURPRISED

Talk That Ike Would Support McCarthy Called 'Incredible'

WASHINGTON (AP)—The chairman of the Democratic Speakers Bureau called "incredible" today a Republican counterpart's assertion that Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower will support Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy.

Sen. A. S. Mike Monroney of Oklahoma issued this statement after Sen. Karl Mundt of South Dakota said on a radio program last night that Eisenhower will "endorse and campaign actively" for McCarthy if the latter is renominated by Wisconsin Republicans and if he asks for Eisenhower's help.

Mundt is co-chairman of the Republican campaign Speakers Bureau.

On the radio program, Mundt also said that Eisenhower, the GOP presidential nominee, will also campaign for Sen. James P. East of Missouri, Sen. William E. Jenner of Indiana and Sen. John W. Bricker of Ohio, Republicans who have not shared Eisenhower's foreign policy views.

Monroney said he finds it impossible to believe that Eisenhower would appear on the same platform with McCarthy because of the latter's attacks on Gen. George C. Marshall, who helped Eisenhower attain his five-star general's rank.

The Oklahoma senator noted that in a Senate speech McCarthy had accused Marshall of participating in "a conspiracy of infamy so black that when it is finally exposed, its principals shall be forever deserving of the maledictions of all honest men."

"Either Sen. Mundt hasn't read this scurrilous attack on Gen. Eisenhower's friend and sponsor or he fails to grant to his candidate any of the human loyalties of a friend for a friend," Monroney said. "It is incredible that Gen. Eisenhower can embrace McCarthy, the author of this attack upon a great American. Gen. Eisenhower knows better than anyone else of Gen. Marshall's great service and patriotism to his country."

Monroney said "mere silence on Gen. Eisenhower's part will not absolve him from responsibility for Sen. Mundt's remarks."

Mundt, a member of the Republican Senatorial Campaign Committee, said he assumed McCarthy will be renominated and when he is Eisenhower, it invited, will go into Wisconsin and give him his "active support."

"Gen. Eisenhower has said he is not going to discuss his philosophies in terms of personalities,"

Mundt said. "He is a Republican and the people of every state are going to nominate their own choice as they should under the American doctrine and he will support the team, as the team will support him."

Mundt noted that the Republican party is composed of carrying opinions, adding that Eisenhower may agree with some of McCarthy's views.

"Certainly he finds himself in agreement that he is a Republican like the rest of us and if McCarthy wins the nomination in Wisconsin, as seems indicated, why certainly he will be a part of the team," Mundt said.

The South Dakota senator said Eisenhower's policy will be to support all party nominees.

Postal Clerk Draws Charge On Slaying

HOUSTON, Aug. 22 (AP)—A praying postal clerk has been charged with beating to death a former Paris woman, Mrs. Edna Specht, 39.

He is Silas Edgar Locke, 51. The woman's body was bruised severely from her forehead to her knees. An autopsy last night set the cause of death as a massive brain hemorrhage.

Police said Locke prayed frequently while they questioned him and appeared to be in a daze. He denied striking the woman.

Justice of Peace Tom Maes ruled it murder.

Chinese Druggist Tells How Reds Took His Store

By FRED HAMPSON
HONG KONG (U)—A Chinese drug store owner who reached Hong Kong from Shanghai said today his store was so firmly in the hands of Communist workers "I had to ask permission to take an aspirin."
The pharmacist is Carl Chang who attended the University of Wisconsin and Massachusetts Institute of Technology in the 1940s. He owned one of the largest dispensaries on Shanghai's famous Avenue Joffre.
He said he got out of the Red-controlled city on the pretext of going to Hong Kong to buy more supplies. Even so it took several weeks to receive an exit permit.
Once here Chang said he has abandoned his home and business and wants no more of communism. He said his nine workers discovered that by allying themselves with a district unit of the Communist party, they could get control of Chang's drug business after a year. The owner said that while his store was making money, he was permitted to take only minimum wages, although he was forced to continue as operator and manager and take all responsibility.

He said the profits did not go to the workers. They went to the Communist party either through forced donations, fines or taxes.
Chang said he continued on his job, hoping for a turn for the better until a government campaign early this year against private owners. After that he said he decided there was no use and got out of China as quickly as he could.

Kashmir Plans Elected Chief

NEW DELHI, India (U)—Kashmir is ditching its hereditary maharajahs for an elected chief of state to govern the disputed North Indian land.
The Indian radio announced yesterday that Kashmir's Constituent Assembly had unanimously adopted a resolution ending hereditary rule by the family of its maharajah, Sir Hari Singh.
The maharajah's son, 21-year-old Yuvraj Karan Singh, is considered the leading prospect for Kashmir's first chief of state. Yuvraj, however, appears reluctant to step in and the maharajah, now living in Bombay, opposes his son assuming the post.
The maharajah, a Hindu, acceded his predominantly Muslim state to India after the 1947 partition of the sub-continent which created India and Pakistan. Irregular border fighting developed and Indian and Pakistani forces each seized parts of the state.
A U. N.-sponsored truce was established but the dispute still is pending in the international organization.

WANTS MORE APPROVAL

Kefauver Says He Is Pleased Over Laws His Group Planned

By WARREN ROGERS JR.
WASHINGTON (U)—Sen. Kefauver (D-Tenn) said today he is encouraged by enforcement of the laws his crime committee helped enact, but wants Congress to approve more of its recommendations.
In a statement Kefauver, who was chairman of the Senate Crime Investigating Committee during most of its life, said he has received "encouraging reports" from the Justice and Treasury Departments.

These also show, Kefauver added, that additional legislation urged by the committee should be passed by Congress. He said he intends to work for passage of these at the next session, beginning in January.
The recommendations would require racketeers to keep records and produce a statement showing their net financial worth. They would also prohibit deduction of illegal gambling losses from income tax returns.
Another committee suggestion was for creation of a permanent crime commission. Kefauver said he would propose this again at the January session of Congress.
Figures in the Bureau of Internal Revenue, meanwhile showed something pretty drastic apparently going on among the nation's gambling fraternity.
In the wake of the crime committee investigation last year, Congress passed a law requiring gamblers to pay a $50 occupation tax every year, plus a 10 per cent excise tax.
Many gamblers were wary of the law since, in effect, it registered them in a profession outlawed in most states. Nevertheless, before the end of fiscal 1952 last June 30, a total of 22,461 gamblers had registered.

Since July 1 start of the new

Ford Foundation Biggest Venture

PONTIAC, Mich. (U)—The Pontiac Press says the Ford Foundation probably is the biggest philanthropic venture of all time, with current assets of more than a billion dollars.
The newspaper, which conducted a survey of the foundation's operations, reported that it could amass such wealth only by owning a major holding in one of the biggest companies in America.
The foundation owns 89.3 per cent of the 3,452,900 shares of stock in the Ford Motor Company, according to the Press' findings. The total Ford stock has a net worth of $1,141,033,681, which would make the foundation's share worth $1,021,225,145.
Announced aims of the foundation are to promote "the advancement of peace, education, the behavioral sciences, democratic institutions and economic stability. Grants totaling 18 million were made in 1951 and 22 million in 1952.

fiscal year and time for getting new stamps, only 3,950 gambling occupation stamps were bought, the bureau reported today. Officials doubted there was a collapse in the trade but were not sure whether, on the strength of a District Court ruling that the tax is unconstitutional, gamblers had decided the Supreme Court will overturn the law and had held off buying stamps.
Kefauver said that, in response to inquiries from him and other former members of the committee, the Justice Department reported:
1. Special "rackets" grand juries, recommended by the committee, were called in 66 of the 94 federal judicial districts. Of these, 49 concluded their sessions and 17 are still active.
2. These grand juries have re-

- Qualified and Experienced
- Friendly
- Firm
- Courteous

An honest, conscientious, hardworking officer whose record from the Criminal Docket of the District Court is printed below. A total of 893 felony cases against thieves, hijackers, forgers, drunk drivers, bootleggers, marihuana peddlers, murderers and gamblers were brought to justice by Jess Slaughter... an all time record for Howard County. This was accomplished with only 2 deputies and 1 automobile. The present sheriff's department has 5 deputies, 3 automobiles and two-way radio and yet, only 30 felony cases were tried in district court during the entire year of 1951. You can readily see who is the best law enforcement officer.

Jess Slaughter, a veteran of World War I, is a good Christian man, fair and honest. We need Jess Slaughter in the sheriff's office.

10TH TRIBES FINALLY CROWN HIM ISRAEL'S RULER

Scripture—1 Samuel 16: 18; 20:1-2; 23:15-18; II Samuel 1:1-2:40; 3:1; 5:1-5.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL
THERE are no better words to open today's lesson than those of Professor Andrew W. Blackwood, quoted in our notes by the editor, Rev. Wilbur M. Smith:
"The most important event in the life of a nation may be the selection of a new leader. If the outgoing ruler has proved unworthy, or if he has tarried in office too long, the choice of his successor becomes a matter of tremendous concern. . . . In state as in Church, under God, almost everything depends on the right sort of leadership."
Saul had failed as king of Israel, and had met his death on the field of battle. But even before this Samuel was looking for a new king who would be chosen by Jehovah to replace Saul.
The Lord told Samuel to go to Bethlehem and there he would find the man who was to be the next king. Samuel feared to go there as he was in disfavor with as he played his harp for the king, so David had to flee for his life. He escaped to the cave of Adullam, a huge natural cave in the Valley of Elah, and there his father and all his household went to him, and also "every one that was in debt, and every one that was in distress, and every one that was discontented gathered themselves unto him, and he became captain over them; and there were with him about 400 men"—later 600.

Jonathan, Saul's son, who loved David, met him in the wilderness of Ziph in the wood, and told him not to fear, "for the hand of Saul my father shall not find thee; and thou shalt be next unto thee, and I shall be next unto thee."
Jonathan was a man whom anyone would have been proud to call a friend. He was loyal in prosperity, and cheered his friend in his adversity, without thought for himself.

MEMORY VERSE

"Man looketh on the outward appearance, but Jehovah looketh on the heart."—I Samuel 16:7.

Saul and might be killed, but he obeyed the Lord and told the people "who trembled at his coming," that he came peaceably and to offer sacrifice.
As he had been commanded, he called Jesse, a Bethlehemite, to the sacrifice and his sons also. Seven of Jesse's sons passed before Samuel and each one he looked at seemed good to him, but Jehovah said no, he was not the man.

"Are here all thy children?" inquired Samuel, and Jesse answered that the youngest was tending the sheep. Samuel demanded that he be brought, and when he came "he was ruddy, and withal of a beautiful countenance, and goodly to look at," and Jehovah said, "Arise, anoint him; for this is he." So David had his first anointing.

At first Saul loved the boy, who had killed the giant Philistine in battle and saved his people. When Saul was in one of his bad, melancholy moods, David played for him on the harp and soothed him.

Saul's son, Jonathan, loved David at night and was always his faithful and steadfast friend, but Saul, knowing that he was out of favor with Jehovah, began to suspect that this innocent appearing young man might be a menace to him, especially as he was a wise person and likeable. Everyone loved him, we are told. Twice Saul sought to kill David his fine son were slain in battle, and when David heard of it he mourned sincerely, not only for his great friend, Jonathan, but for Saul too, who had been so cruel to him. He forgot Saul's faults, and remembered only that he had once been a fine, brave, stalwart man. He sang a beautiful song of mourning for both men.

Now things moved quickly. The tribe of Judah quickly anointed David king of that tribe. Abner, captain of King Saul's host, made Saul's youngest son, Ishbosheth, who had escaped the slaughter of his family, king over Israel. Thereafter there was a feud between the two groups, but the house of Saul grew weaker, and David grew stronger, and finally "came all the tribes of Israel to David unto Hebron, and spoke, saying, Behold, we are thy bone and thy flesh."

Also in time past, when Saul was king over us, thou wast he that leddest out and broughtest in Israel; and the Lord said to thee, Thou shalt feed my people Israel, and thou shalt be a captain over Israel.

"So all the elders of Israel came to the king to Hebron . . . and they anointed David king over Israel."

So the Israelites had their king who would bring great renown to his people, and who would walk with Jehovah, and be blessed by Him.

There is a more modern way of doing this!

In fact as man continues his quest for the best gadgets, there is a more modern way of doing almost everything.
But beware lest you lose sight of the old discoveries that will never become obsolete.
For instance, there is no more modern way to peace and happiness than the Christianity our ancestors treasured before us.
And when you need a text-book for living, there is no book-of-the-month to equal the Bible your Mother gave you.
And when it comes to gaining spiritual insight and moral strength, there will never be any streamlined substitute for the Church down the street.
You see, in spiritual discovery, man didn't have to await modern science. Long ago God gave us Truth and Power. That is why the age-old faith the Church teaches is THE LATEST MODEL FOR LIVING.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship, strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

DESIGNING WOMAN
Fireplace Mirror Should Be Important In Style

By ELIZABETH HILLIER

No one who comes into the room can miss the mirror over the fireplace. Be sure it deserves the front and center attention it's bound to receive. An ordinary mirror won't do for this key piece of the room's decoration — it should be an important mirror, important in style and importantly large. Skip the over-elaborate frame that tries to excuse poor quality and fancy trimmings that try to substitute for good design. Choose a simple design, one that doesn't steal the limelight from firelight, but one that has unmistakable quality and style. New mirrors for fall promise new ideas for filling the bill. Designer Paul Frankl, in the mirror sketched, introduces a new process called patina plate. This process warms the fluted glass to a silvery glow to give the mirror an interesting and harmonious frame, be sure the over-the-fireplace mirror is held enough. Size matters almost as much as style. Of course a badly designed mirror won't look well anywhere, but even a good design does nothing for a room if it

Drillers And Broncs Vie Twice Saturday

First Go Starts At 7:30 O'Clock

Pat Stacey brings his Big Spring Broncs home Saturday—for a large assignment.

The Steeds, red-hot on their current road trip, play the Artesia Drillers in a double bill, starting at 7:30 p.m. Each contest is down for seven innings.

Artesia remains over for a single game Monday night, after which Roswell moves into town to begin a series.

Artesia still has designs on finishing in second place in the league. The Drillers are now in fourth, six games in arrears of Big Spring. The Artesians are also intent on sewing up a spot in the Shagnessy playoffs, which begin Sept. 3.

After tonight's game in Roswell, the Broncs have only five more road games, three in Odessa and two in Sweetwater.

Their chances of overtaking Odessa are fading but it's not impossible. The Steeds have been playing better ball the past week than have the pace-setters.

On Monday night, Ed Hammond, the nationally-known clown, will put in here to stage his act. On Tuesday, the area's old-time baseball players will be honored in a pre-game ceremony.

Oscar Reguera and possibly Bert Baer could see mound action in Saturday night's double bill here.

Corrales Gains Tenth Triumph

ROSSELL, N. M. —Reggie Corrales notched his tenth mound win of the season as Big Spring belted a patched-up Roswell club, 9-7, here Thursday night.

Corrales had some rough sailing in the middle innings and surrendered 14 hits in all, but was up to all challenges. His mates got behind him for some heavy clubbing of their own.

The Steeds, out to sew up a place in the Shagnessy playoffs in the shortest time possible, raked the offerings of Audie Malone and Milton Ralat for 15 assorted blows, including three each by Rick Gonzales and Pat Stacey.

Big first and fourth innings turned the trick for the Cayuses, who achieved their second straight win over the home club. The Big Springers banked three runs in the first and four in the fourth to win going away.

The triumph put the Hosses 14 full games ahead of fifth place Roswell, 16 full games ahead of San Angelo—the only second division teams which still have a chance to catch them. The Big Springers have only 20 games to play and 14 of those will be in their own park.

The loss was especially bitter for Roswell as Manager Al Monchak was lost to the club for several days with a mild concussion. He was struck on the head by a batted ball during pre-game warmup and was taken to the hospital. He returned to the park, however, and absorbed the loss from the bench.

Audie Malone, one of Roswell's current contingent of pitcher-outfielders, suffered the loss, but it was his first tour of mound duty which accounted for it. Malone started but was shelled out with five Bronco hits and three runs in the first inning. He moved to right field and was replaced on the hill by Milton Ralat, but then came on again in the fifth and limited the hard-hitting visitors to but two hits over the final five innings of play of the stand for the Broncos.

The teams wind up their three-game series here tonight. A Big Spring victory will mean a sweep in the Shagnessy playoffs.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

First thing you know, if Carlsted is added to the Longhorn League, our wheel and the WT-NM will be wanting to swap names.

Most of the Texas clubs in the latter circuit aren't in West Texas but rather the Panhandle.

BENNETT WILL TRY OUT FOR TEAM IN ABILENE

Virgil Bennett, the good looking Forsan youngster, is reporting for football drills at ACC next month.

Virgil, who is a basketball and track standout at the Abilene school, played only six-man ball in high school under Bob Honeycutt. He was out for spring drills at ACC, however, and impressed Coach Garvin Beauchamp and his aides.

He'll try to win a berth on the squad as a defensive tackle. The 20-year-old junior is built for the job. He's 6-feet-3 and weighs 195.

There are no paties on the Carwell Air Force grid team this season.

Playing for the Bombers are such stalwarts as Bud McFadin (Texas U), Louis Schaufele (Arkansas), Lee Stonestreet (Rice), Johnny Dunn (TCU), Bob Moorman (TCU), Max Eubanks (TCU), James Jeffery (Baylor), Vernon Glass (Rice), James Mott (Baylor) and Rex Proctor (Rice).

SAMMY BAUGH HAS BEEN AROUND LONG TIME

It's hard to believe but Sammy Baugh, the Sweetwater Silnger, is going on 39. He was born on St. Patrick's Day, 1914.

When Sam's wife gave birth to her fourth son several years ago, his employer, George Marshall, wired him:

"That's fine and dandy. You've completed a backfield. Now I'd like to see you go to work on a line."

Wesley Grigsby, who has played a lot of Little League ball here this summer, is a younger brother to Culin Grigsby but he's going to dwarf the former Big Spring High School grider in size.

Fact is, Wes is about as big now as is Culin and is only 12 years of age.

The other Southeastern Conference schools stand to be hurt more than the Cats by the league's decision to suspend Kentucky's basketball team for a year from play within the circuit.

Seems that Kentucky was the 'big game' for each of them, a gold nugget in gate take. As a drawing card, Kentucky has no equal in collegiate ball.

If you haven't got your season football pass for high school games here, you're wasting time.

Coach Carl Coleman told his charges recently his prospects were better than at any time since he took over here. He meant every word of it.

Crucial Set Opens In Yanks' Park

By RALPH RODEN

Associated Press Staff Writer

A month ago the Cleveland Indians were pronounced dead as an American League pennant threat.

Today, the Indians could well recall Mark Twain's famous quotation:

"Rumors of my death are greatly exaggerated."

The Indians appeared to be knocked from contention on Black Tuesday July 22 as they dropped a doubleheader to the New York Yankees and fell 7½ games behind the Bombers.

But the Indians never entered the happy hunting grounds. Instead they climbed back into the thick of the race and today they invaded the Yankee Stadium for a two-game series with first place at stake.

Cleveland, trailing the Yanks by one game, could take over the lead by one percentage point by beating the Bombers in the series opener.

Big Mike Garcia (15-8) has been nominated to face the Yanks' Al Reynolds (15-7) in the first game. Early Wynn (15-10) is scheduled to go against New York's Vic Raschi (14-3) in the concluding game Saturday.

Showers are forecast for today and if the game is rained out the teams will clash in a doubleheader tomorrow. If both games are rained out the series will have to be played in Cleveland as this is the Indians' last visit to New York.

The Yanks play the Tribe a single game in Cleveland Sept. 14. The next day is an open date for both clubs.

Garcia sports a 3-0 record against the Yanks and will be pitching with four days rest. Reynolds has won two out of five from Cleveland and will be starting his first game in five days.

Both the Indians and Yanks suffered defeats yesterday. The third place Boston Red Sox knocked off the Indians, 4-1, and the Chicago White Sox upset the Yanks, 6-1, to sweep a three-game series. Washington and St. Louis divided a twinning doubleheader, the Senators winning the first game, 3-2, and the Browns the second, 5-1.

In the National League, the Chicago Cubs impeded New York's pennant bid by splitting a doubleheader with the Giants, winning the first game, 5-6, but losing the second, 10-3. The Mexican stand-off kept the Giants seven games behind front-running Brooklyn. The Dodgers' game with Pittsburgh was rained out. Philadelphia and Cincinnati were idle while in the circuit's only night game. St. Louis nipped Boston, 3-2, for its sixth straight victory.

Sid Hudson scattered seven hits in beating the Tribe's "spot pitcher," Steve Gromek. The Red Sox nicked Gromek for all of their eight hits and runs in seven innings.

The Yanks conserving their best pitchers for Cleveland, opened with a second liner for the third straight time and failed. Rookie Tom Gorman was beaten in the first inning and had no one to blame but himself.

DICK TODD

Todd Checks Job To 'Skin Boss Following Loss

By PETE ARTHUR

LOS ANGELES (AP)—This is the day the Washington Redskins start over. They lost another exhibition football game last night, but a couple of much more serious things happened to them.

They lost Charley (Choo-Choo) Justice, their offensive star, and their head coach, Dick Todd. Justice broke his wrist, and will be out from four to six weeks.

Officially, Todd quit to attend to his farming interests in Crowell, Tex. Unofficially, there was talk that he and the Redskins' owner, George Marshall, were at odds over the 35-0 beating from the San Francisco 49ers last Sunday.

Todd's announcement said he asked to be relieved before the world champion Los Angeles Rams hung a 45-23 licking on his team last night. The news came out moments after the final gun. Marshall said a successor will be picked today.

There were reports that the head man's job has been offered to aging Sammy Baugh, starting his 16th pro season. But Baugh told reporters he isn't interested.

Justice distinguished himself with one of the finest performances the Coliseum ever saw before he snapped his wrist. To the cheers of 57,582 fans he piled up 199 yards in 11 ball-carrying tries. He had 49, 53 and 63 yards, all starting deep in his own territory. Each time he looked to be in the clear, but the Rams' steel defensive half, Herb Rich, ran him down.

It was at the end of the 63-yard gallop, when Rich tossed him out of bounds, that his wrist snapped. Justice blamed himself.

"I tried to straight-arm Rich and I never should have done it. It was the first time I ever tried to do it in my whole football career."

The Rams Norman Van Brocklin tossed four touchdown passes, and set up a fifth score. Bob Waterfield set up the sixth tally with three passes, and booted a field goal and six conversions.

Aside from Justice's three long gallops, the game's biggest sensation was provided by a local boy, Rex - Southern California halfback Johnny Williams who dropped a Ram kickoff, retrieved it and scooted 100-yards for a score.

Series Is Shifted To Angelo Park

SAN ANGELO, Aug. 22 (AP)—The Vernon Dodgers Thursday received permission from President Hal Sayles of the Longhorn League to shift their remaining home games with the San Angelo Colts to San Angelo this week end.

Scheduled in Vernon Saturday, Sunday and Monday, the games will be played here in a single contest Saturday night and a doubleheader Monday night.

Catches Are Good In Fishing Derby

PORT ISABEL, Aug. 22 (AP)—Catches continued good here today as the Texas International Fishing Tournament entered its second day.

Two sailfish, a small tunny and more than 100 king mackerel were among the catches hauled in yesterday as 43 fishing craft took part.

Game On Air

Tonight's baseball game between Roswell and Big Spring, to be played in Roswell, will be broadcast over Station KTXC Big Spring, immediately following the Little League finals at Steer Park.

Cherry Is Lone Texan Left In National Amateur Go

By BOB MYERS

SEATTLE, Aug. 22 (AP)—This great Pacific Northwest, which is how the natives modestly describe it, is not only playing host to its first men's National Amateur Golf Championship, it is supplying three-fourths of the field in the semi-finals today.

Young Al Mengert of Spokane, just out of the Air Force; Jack Westland, a candidate for Congress from nearby Everett; and Bill MaWhinney, former Canadian champion from neighboring Vancouver, B.C., make up the cast from this fine green country.

The lone invader left in the running is Don Cherry, a nightclub singer from New York and Texas. They make up the four who escaped defeat in yesterday's double round at the Seattle Country Club.

The pairings today found Mengert, a Walker Cup Team alternate in 1951, assigned to pluck the Graham Cherry. Westland, at 47 the "granddaddy" of the field, met MaWhinney, 23, a bonding company employe on the side and current Pacific Northwest champion.

One by one the outsiders fell by the wayside yesterday.

In the feature matches, morning round, Jimmy McFalls, Mamaronck, N.Y., disposed of the last former champion when he defeated Charlie Coe of Oklahoma City, 3 and 2.

Cherry won from Bob Rosburg, Stanford, Calif., 4 and 3, and Gene Littler of San Diego won from Jim Jackson, Kirkwood, Mo., one up.

Then came the afternoon skirmishes, Cherry, coming from behind, upset Littler in a vale, 3 and 2. MaWhinney, two down on the first nine, rallied and sent 36-year-old McFalls to the sidelines, one up.

Cherry, one down to Littler at the 12th, won the next four holes as Gene's putter went cold. Cherry played well. Littler, after a sub par morning round, lost the match on the greens.

Today's semi-finals are set for 36 holes, or less. The same for the finals tomorrow.

Midland's Coker To Start In Wichita Falls Contest

WICHITA FALLS, Aug. 22 (AP)—Texas and Oklahoma schoolboy footballers clash here tonight in the 15th annual Oil Bowl game with the Texans favored to win as usual.

The many-pronged Texas passing attack is expected to prove too much for the Sooners, who never have been able to master this state's gridders in the All-Star game that contributes its proceeds to the aid of crippled children in the two states.

Coaches Cooper Robbins of Texas A&M and Ted Jefferies of Stephen F. Austin College have two of the finest throwers of last fall's campaign to make their split-T formation click.

They are Charley Brewer of Lubbock and Ronald Robbins of Breckenridge, each having quarterbacked his team to a state championship last fall. Robbins is the son of Cooper Robbins, who coached Breckenridge High last season but now is freshman mentor at A&M.

Donald Robbins, another son, is an end of the Texas team.

Coaches Jack Cox of Sulphur and Earl Presley of Duncan, who are tutoring the Oklahoma team, will depend almost entirely on a running game, using the straight T formation. This features Jim Kridler of Ponca City, Preston Carpenter of Muskogee and Bill Pierce of Chickasha, with Tommy Green of Duncan at quarterback.

The Oil Bowl game, sponsored by Maskat Temple of Wichita Falls for 14 of its 15 years, was an all-Texas affair until 1945 when Oklahoma started furnishing a team. Since the Sooners have been participating, they have lost every game. Midwestern University joined Maskat Temple in sponsoring the contest this year.

A crowd of better than 18,000, taxing the capacity of the high school football field, is due to see the game which actually is being played in defiance of a Texas Intercollegiate League rule banning use of high school facilities in All-Star games.

Midwesterners went to court and obtained an injunction against the

Indians, Yanks Are All Even In Playoffs

The Little League baseball championship goes up for grabs this evening at Steer Park when the Yankees and the Indians tangle, starting at 8 p.m.

The two teams are all even in their best-of-three game series, each club having won one contest.

The Yankees, who are managed by D. R. Gartman, prevailed in the opener Wednesday night, 17-6, but Harold Rossen's Indians came storming back last night to win, 16-7.

Two big rallies paid off for the Warriors. Held in check in the first inning, the Tribe ganged up on Roy Brown in the second for eight big runs and then added four more in the third.

The Yanks' big round came in the third, at which time they counted five times.

Ricky Torry was the winning pitcher. He was spelled by Jimmy Marin. The two held the Yanks to six safeties and their mates played errorless ball behind them.

Indians . . . . . 084 013-16 15 0
Yankees . . . . . 025 000-7 6 3

Races Scheduled Here For Sunday

Jalopy races will be staged again Sunday afternoon with at least six races assured the spectators.

Fifteen cars participated in the races last Sunday and more are expected for Sunday's exhibition. Cars from Odessa, Midland, San Angelo, Colorado City and Big Spring competed last Sunday.

The track is located three and one-half miles south of Big Spring on the San Angelo highway.

Time trials for the races begin at 2:30 p.m.

Ross Is Returned To Clovis Club

Following are player transactions completed recently by Longhorn League teams, as announced by League Press Hal Sayles:

ARTESIA—Aaron D. Ross, contract returned to Clovis club of WT-NM League.

MIDLAND—Enrique Gonzales, contract assigned outright to the Havana club of Florida International League; Charley Rathiff, obtained by optional assignment from Abilene club of WT-NM League.

Rough winds for the past week have affected coastal fishing. It may continue for another week or two, so before you go there just for fishing, make the right contact.

Little Difference In Views On Farm Product Price Supports

By OVID A. MARTIN
WASHINGTON (AP)—Farmers may find little difference in the views of the two major presidential candidates on the question of price supports for agricultural commodities.

Statements made by Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, the Republican nominee, and Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson, the Democratic standard bearer, at news conferences yesterday indicated that their positions on this issue, when finally outlined, may be quite similar. Eisenhower, at Kansas City, said in reply to a query that if he were elected there would be no tampering with the price support law. He said he had received no suggestions that supports be lowered.

Stevenson ruled out the controversial Brannan Plan which Eisenhower and the GOP national platform had sought to tie to the Democrats. The Illinois governor at Minocqua, Wis., said in effect that the Republicans, in trying to make the Brannan Plan an issue, were barking up the wrong tree. He said this plan was obsolete, that it had not been endorsed by his party's platform nor recommended by its candidates.

Thus the statements of the rival candidates were open to the interpretation that both endorse the existing farm price support law.

This law requires that basic crops—wheat, corn, cotton, tobacco, rice and peanuts—be supported at not less than 90 per cent of parity—the level in effect this year—during the next two crop years. It was passed shortly before Congress adjourned last month, with the approval of Democrats and Republicans alike. It has the effect of setting aside, for the next two years, a system of flexible supports which had been criticized by President Truman and Secretary of Agriculture Brannan.

The Democratic platform promises to "continue" the 90 per cent minimum supports beyond the two-year period. Eisenhower's statement that there would be no reduction in price supports could be interpreted as meaning that he too would advocate their continuance.

Parity is a standard for measuring farm prices, declared by law to be equally fair to producers and to those who buy their products.

Present law also requires that some other products—such as dairy products, wool and mohair—be supported at levels ranging from 60 to 90 per cent of parity. Supports for other commodities also are permissible.

Blum Is Indicted On Theft Charge

HOUSTON, Aug. 22 (AP)—The Harris County grand jury yesterday returned a felony theft and embezzlement indictment against Ervig W. Blum, discharged director of the Houston Housing Authority. The true bill charged Blum with taking $513.09 in funds which were in his custody on Aug. 30, 1949. Blum had been indicted earlier on 17 counts of embezzlement in connection with a reported shortage in rental accounts.

Sleeping Sickness Spreads Northward In California

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A sleeping sickness epidemic is creeping northward up California's central valleys, borne on the wings of the tiny female mosquito.

Already the encephalitis has claimed 30 lives and nearly 500 have been reported stricken, the State Health Department reported.

Twelve died within the last week. Doctors are powerless to check the disease. There is no known vaccine for humans.

The only hope is to kill off the mosquitoes. Hundreds of men are spraying 276 towns in the valley lowlands and then laying down quarter-mile-wide barriers of poison residue spray around them. The female Culex tarsalis mosquito—common in California—carries the disease from birds and fowl to horses and humans. It is not carried from horses to humans.

A total of 499 cases have been reported to the State Health Department, but only 315 have been clinically diagnosed as encephalitis.

Two blood tests from the patient are necessary to determine absolutely that the disease is en-

Eden, Tito To Meet For Talk

LONDON (AP)—British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden will confer in Belgrade next month with Yugoslav Premier Marshal Tito. Informed sources say he will take up the touchy Trieste question.

British and American officials are known to be worried about the danger-point relations between Italy and Yugoslavia over eventual control of the disputed international territory on the Adriatic.

A Foreign Office announcement today said Eden will visit the Yugoslav capital from Sept. 17 to 23. He will spend five days after that in Vienna.

The agenda of the Belgrade talks also will include Yugoslavia's relations with Turkey and Greece, the southern anchor nations of the Western European defense setup.

Tito's announced hopes for defensive co-operation with his two Balkan neighbors has stirred U. S. and British interest, as evidenced by the recent visit to Belgrade of U. S. Army Secretary Frank Pace Jr.

Twelve Recruiting Stations Closed

DALLAS, Aug. 22 (AP)—Twelve Army and Air Force recruiting stations in the Dallas region have closed because of appropriation cuts.

Recruiting stations have been closed at Denison, Waxahachie, Sulphur Springs, Marshall, Mexia, Hillsboro, Mineral Wells, Jacksonville, Atlanta, Henderson, Stephenville and McKinney.

Tour Is Concluded

SAN ANTONIO, Aug. 22 (AP)—Brig. Gen. Jose Gana, director of services for the Chilian Air Force, concluded a tour of U. S. Air Force bases yesterday. He left for home after visiting Kelly AFB here.

cephalitis. In most of the reported cases, the necessary two blood tests were not taken. Dr. Malcolm Merrill, acting director of the health department, said the disease acts quickly. Those stricken usually recovered quickly or die within 24 to 48 hours. Dr. Merrill said the epidemic may reach as far north as Shasta County—near the Oregon border—before summer is over. He said, however, that it is not expected to branch out of the interior valleys.
