Truman's Role In Campaign Will Be Decided In Talks

Stevenson Expects To Run Own Show

Pilot Leaps To Safety As Jet Trainer Falls

A Webb Air Force Base pilot parachuted from his T-33 jet plane early Monday afternoon a few minutes before it crashed in an uncultivated field about 10 miles northwest of Big Spring.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12, (AP)—Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson came here today for a big political pow-wow with President Truman and his Cabinet on issues and strategy of the Presidential campaign.

A series of talks at the White House, running into the late afternoon, was expected to frame the basic pattern for the Democratic effort to put Stevenson into the presidency.

One decision of high moment may be on the campaign role of Truman as a retiring President who wants the reins of government to pass to Stevenson.

Truman has shown signs of itching to hit the road against the Republicans with "give-em-hell" speeches of the kind he delivered in his own 1948 campaign.

But Stevenson and his advisers are reported desiring that Truman take a less vocal part and play a muted second fiddle to Stevenson.

The Illinois governor arrived by plane at 11:15 a. m. (EST). Stevenson's running mate, Sen. Sparkman, Alabama, and two of Truman's secretaries, Joseph Short and Matthew J. Connelly, met him at National Airport.

A crowd of about 200—including many reporters and photographers—also was on hand. The reporters tried to interview Stevenson as a police escort led him through the crowd to a White House car.

Most of the questions and answers were lost in the confusion, but in reply to one query Stevenson said he regards his chances of beating GOP nominee Dwight D. Eisenhower as "pretty good."

He also was asked if he had a program to outline for Truman. "We'll probably talk about that," Stevenson replied.

Stevenson was accompanied by a staff of advisers, including his campaign manager, Wilson Wyatt. Unless all the outward signs fail, the Illinois governor probably will tell Truman he will be glad to have his help. But Stevenson is expected to make it plain he wants no presidential whistlestop tours overshadowing his own efforts as the nominee to get his views across to the people.

One issue that may be settled in conflict in Labor Day speaking plans for the two. William Flannigan, Stevenson's press secretary, disclosed yesterday in Springfield, Ill., that the nominee was considering kicking off his campaign with a Sept. 1 speech in Detroit.

Flannigan said the Stevenson camp learned that Truman tentatively had arranged to speak in Milwaukee the same day. He said the mixup occurred because of lack of knowledge in Springfield of Truman's plans.

Democratic leaders apparently agree that in any such conflict the President ought to defer to the nominee. One campaign official who asked not to be quoted by name said he thought Truman ought to let Stevenson get a running start on his drive before the President makes any appearances at all.

This official said he is suggesting that Truman's greatest contribution might come in his assurances to people in the populous Northern states that Stevenson will carry on his civil rights program if elected.

Sen. James Murray of Montana said he believes Truman could help. See TRUMAN, Page 4, Col. 1

Missing Plane Of Dr. Marshall Reported Safe

BROWNSVILLE, Aug. 12 (AP)—A plane carrying three Texas Baptist workers, overdue on a trip to Mexico City, was reported safe at a small town near Guadalajara, Mexico, today.

The plane was piloted by Dr. J. W. Marshall, president of Wayland Baptist College, Plainview. With him were Jack Robinson, Fort Worth, a Baptist youth worker, and Sam Choy, Plainview, director of religious activities at Wayland.

The Civil Aeronautics Administration reported that a plane landed last night at Atotonilco, Mexico, because of bad weather. The Plainview Airport confirmed that the plane was the one piloted by Dr. Marshall. Atotonilco is east and south of Guadalajara.

An aerial search had begun this morning of the rugged terrain between Brownsville and Mexico City after nothing had been heard from the plane since it left here yesterday shortly after noon.

The Baptist leaders were on an aerial tour—making preliminary plans for a tour by Wayland students and faculty to the Baptist World Youth Conference in Rio de Janeiro in July, 1953. They planned to go as far as Bogota, Colombia, on this trip.

Loan Is Granted For Rural Phones

Announcement that the Rural Electrification Administration (REA) had given final approval of a $487,000 loan to the Scrack Telephone Company, Inc., was made today by W. D. Berry, president of the corporation.

This means, Berry said, that when actual transfer of money is made, work will be started immediately on various telephone service extension in rural areas around Big Spring.

The expansion program, Berry said, calls for 1200 phones to serve Coahoma, Chalk, and Vincent; and the Ackery-Knott-Veslmoor-Sparenburg area. It also calls for new dial exchanges at Coahoma, Chalk, Vincent, Veslmoor, and Sparenburg. The extension also will include telephone service around the new Lake J. B. Thomas area, Berry said.

Engineering on the expansion project has been completed by Cecil Hawk and Associates of Lubbock, Berry said, so that actual construction may be started promptly.

His company has been serving these territories for some time, and negotiations for the REA loan have covered an extended period. Berry was advised by telegram today that the loan had been given final approval. Mrs. Berry is secretary-treasurer of the operating corporation and Harold Berry is vice president.

Marines Beat Back Red Charge On Bunker Ridge

By WILLIAM C. BARNARD SEOU, Korea (AP)—U. S. Marines beat back late today 400 Chinese Reds charging Bunker Ridge, won early this morning by the leathernecks in a sweeping attack on the Korea Western Front.

The battle site is a few miles east of the truce-talks town of Panmunjom.

Marine flame-throwing tanks and riflemen burned and blasted the Chinese off Siberia Hill just before midnight, then swept on and captured Bunker Ridge dominating the sector.

For a time in midafternoon, a Marine spokesman said, the entire Siberia area had been "quiet as a church mouse."

But later in the day an American officer reported Chinese troops were attempting to infiltrate Bunker Ridge. There was a steady crackle of rifle fire in the sector but the officer reported the ridge and Siberia Hill still firmly in the hands of the Marines.

A Marine spokesman said that by midafternoon the entire Siberia area was "quiet as a church mouse."

Since Saturday the fighting for the nob east of the Panmunjom truce talks site had been bitter. The Chinese made their first bid to win the hill Saturday. It exchanged hands six times before the Marines finally secured it.

The Navy announced that Communist shore batteries hit the American destroyers J. R. Pierce and Barton and the British frigate Mounts Bay in separate actions the past week. One American and one British sailor were killed and Marine flame-throwing tanks thundered to within 20 yards of the crest of Siberia and sprayed the hill with searing flames. Riflemen, five yards behind the tanks, picked off the Reds trying to escape the flames.

The attack on Siberia Hill was a diversionary action to throw the Reds off guard for the main assault on Bunker Hill—long held by the Reds and named because of its stout fortifications.

A U. S. Eighth Army staff officer said, "the diversion was a success. The Chinese were completely fooled and badly confused."

The Marines split into two groups and enveloped Bunker Ridge at 1 a. m. The Chinese fought like wildcats. Hand grenades exploded in the darkness. Automatic weapon fire killed through the night as mortars rained down on the Chinese.

Marines met the charge with air strikes, mortar, tank, artillery and small arms fire.

Plans Made To Boost X-Rays

Representatives of the Howard County Tuberculosis Association talked about plans for publicizing the mass chest X-ray survey when they met Monday afternoon at the City-County Health Unit.

The anti-tuberculosis survey will be conducted Aug. 19-26. Mobile equipment operated by State Health Department technicians will be set up in E&R Jewelry building, 112 E. 3rd, for the survey. All Howard Countians more than 15 years of age are being urged to report for the examinations which already have been paid for by Howard County tax money.

Members of the Howard County Girls 4-H Club were to meet Tuesday afternoon in the office of the county home demonstration agent to further survey publicity plans. The girls are to be in charge of distributing posters advertising the event.

Various groups in all sections of the county are working on programs to encourage all residents to participate in the survey. Local taxi companies will co-operate by offering free rides to all persons without transportation to the X-ray center.

A canvass of residential areas of Big Spring, as well as contacts with persons in other towns and communities in the county, will be a part of the publicity work.

Local Delegates Attend GOP Meet

G. H. Hayward, Al Dillon, E. B. McCormick and R. L. Tollett were in Lubbock today to attend the 19th Congressional District convention of the Republican party.

Purpose of the meeting is to pick nominees for district offices, and pass on resolutions to the state convention. Hayward, as county GOP chairman, is official delegate to the convention.

Jordan Preparing To Welcome King

AMMAN, Jordan (AP)—The Middle East kingdom of Jordan prepared today to welcome its third King in just over a year and awaited his arrival to settle the future of his royal father-predecessor and of the country's government.

Parliament dethroned mentally ill King Talal I yesterday and proclaimed his 17-year-old son as King Hussein I. A court envoy left for Switzerland, where the schoolboy Hussein is vacationing with his mother, Queen Zeine, and two brothers.

In Lausanne, a Swiss official said the royal family would leave for Amman on Sunday. Government sources said the new King and his mother would decide the future of Talal, who reportedly is suffering from schizophrenia (split personality), 41-year-old deposed monarch meanwhile is living here in Basman Palace.

Following Hussein's return, Premier Tewfik Abul Huda is expected to submit his resignation in accordance with custom, but it appeared certain he would be asked to form a new cabinet. The premier has endeavored himself to the new King and his mother by fighting to maintain the boy's rights to the throne against intrigues which have plagued the divided royal family. Hussein, up to now a student at England's famed Harrow school, will not exercise the royal powers until his 18th birthday next spring. Until then, a regency council—the same three senators who had acted for his father for the past three months—will act for him.

In Lausanne, a representative of the royal family said Hussein's mother would not permit him to give interviews at the present time. "He is too young to talk to the press, the queen feels," the official said. Parliament deposed the 41-year-old Talal after hearing medical reports that there was no hope for his recovery. He had been King for slightly less than 13 months—since the assassination July 20, 1951, of his father, King Abdullah, but actually had ruled for only eight months.

At the time of Abdullah's death, Talal was receiving medical treatment in Switzerland and his brother, Prince Naif, served as regent for the first two months of his reign. When Talal returned to Europe last spring, a throne council was named on May 13 and has exercised the royal responsibilities ever since.

IN COUNCIL MEET

AFL Blasts Spiral In Cost Of Living

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (AP)—The American Federation of Labor has used the opening of its Executive Council meeting as a chance to blast the high cost of living and predict new price boosts soon.

But the council avoided saying what should be done about the problem, in a statement issued yesterday from behind the closed doors of the economic study session.

The council stated definitely, however, that wage increases had nothing to do with the rise in prices. "There is no justification whatsoever for attributing the present price spiral to wage adjustments," it said.

The blame belongs on big business and "profitfiltering right down the line, from the wholesale to the retail level," said the council, 13 of whose members were present for the meeting.

In addition to its cost of living studies, the council looked into a longstanding jurisdictional fight between two member unions, AFL President William Green told a news conference.

The fight concerns a complaint by the Carpenters Union that the International Association of Machinists resorted to the National Labor Relations Board to settle jurisdictional disputes. The carpenters claimed the machinists should have two AFL agencies instead.

Green said the council instructed him to get more details on a settlement proposed by the machinists. The council continued its five-day meeting today without announcing in advance what it would take up in the second-day sessions.

Green said at least part of the meeting would be devoted to preparing a report for the AFL National Convention in New York next month.

In commenting on the high cost of living, Green said, "We don't want to suggest what should be done, but the government should do something."

The 79-year-old AFL president said the union favored strong retail price controls but did not advise a special session of Congress in order to get them. "We are not enthusiastic about a special session because these Southern Democrats and Northern Republicans control the Congress," he said.

In his statement on danger of inflation, the council said, "The President of the United States has all these facts before him. We urge him to take whatever steps the facts make necessary to protect the public interest in the price crisis."

Although it gave no figures, the council reported a sharp upturn in prices during the past few weeks even before effects of the steel strike settlement could be felt. It continued: "In the months ahead, the prospect is even more forbidding. Prices of manufactured articles are bound to rise, due to the huge and unjustifiable increase in steel prices extorted from the government by the steel industry."

Announcement of the resignation of J. W. Purser as Precinct 3 Democratic chairman was made today.

County Chairman George White said that Grover Cunningham Jr. had accepted appointment to the post, succeeding Purser. The replacement becomes effective immediately and Cunningham will be in charge of running the Precinct poll in the August 23 Democratic primary.

Atomic Plant Set In Southern Ohio

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12 (AP)—The Atomic Energy Commission will build a new $1,200,000,000 plant in Southern Ohio, Rep. Elston (R-Ohio) said today. The plant will produce uranium-235, a key atomic substance.

An aide to Elston told a reporter the new gaseous diffusion plant will be located on a 6,500-acre tract in a sparsely-settled area of Pike County about 18 or 20 miles north of Portsmouth. It had been said previously that a new plant would be located somewhere in the Ohio Valley.

Some 50 families will be relocated.

Putnam Says GOP Favored Inflation

BOSTON (AP)—Economic Stabilizer Roger L. Putnam said today Gen. Eisenhower left the majority of Republican congressmen "high and dry" when he favored lower prices and lower taxes.

Putnam spoke at the 66th annual Convention of the Massachusetts Federation of Labor.

The economic boss said in a prepared address that 75 per cent of the Republicans in the House voted in favor of an amendment to end all price controls. "That vote was a vote for more inflation, for higher prices, for cheaper dollars, for less real income," Putnam declared.

Purser Resigns As Precinct Chairman

County Chairman George White said that Grover Cunningham Jr. had accepted appointment to the post, succeeding Purser. The replacement becomes effective immediately and Cunningham will be in charge of running the Precinct poll in the August 23 Democratic primary.

Putnam said Eisenhower, before the Chicago convention, "came out in favor of elimination of our direct economic controls. Then in a speech at Los Angeles last week this same general said he proposed to save American people from the double toll of high prices and high taxes."

"It's going to be somewhat of a feat to lower prices and end controls at one and the same time," Putnam said. "Even if the gentleman in question exchanges the swagger stick of the general for the wand of a magician, his task will be impossible."

Alonzo Wasson, Veteran Dallas Newsman, Dies

AUSTIN, Aug. 12 (AP)—Alonzo Wasson, 52, who had written for the Dallas Morning News the past 39 years, died at 8:20 a.m. today at Seton Hospital.

Wasson suffered a long illness and had been partly paralyzed since 1945, when he suffered a stroke while writing in the study of his farm home. He had continued his writing despite paralysis of his right arm and leg.

He had been active in newspaper work 50 years, most of this time in Austin, Dallas and Washington. The former editor-in-chief of the News reported his first session of the Texas Legislature in 1897 and some of his most recent active work was in connection with the 49th session in 1945.

He was born April 13, 1870, at Fort Smith, Ark. He attended St. Vincent's College at Cape Girardeau, Mo., where he was noted for his scholarship. He remained a student throughout his life, particularly of government, but his tastes also ranged into the field of Greek literature.

He first joined the staff of the Dallas News in 1896 and prior to this he had worked for the Gainesville Register. He also worked for the San Antonio Express, Kansas City Times, and St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

In 1905 he became Washington correspondent for the News, and returned to Dallas as an editorial writer. He was made editor-in-chief and remained in this post until 1929, when he resigned and retired to his farm home on Williamson Creek near here. This retirement was short-lived and he rejoined the News as an editorial observer here.

Wasson was a keen student of judicial affairs and was a member of the Texas Civil Judicial Council. A highlight of the Texas Unlimited edition published by the News when the paper moved into its new building a few years ago was Wasson's recollection of men and events in the early days of the newspaper.

The writer also provided background material for a forthcoming biography of the late G. B. Dealey, publisher of the News.

Patients Moved To New Hospital

COBESCAN, Aug. 12 (AP)—Patients were transferred today from Navarro County's old Physicians and Surgeons Hospital to a new $1,840,000 memorial hospital dedicated last week.

The old hospital was sold for $6,250 yesterday to Twilight Home, Inc., a nonprofit group that will operate it as a home for the aged.

R. B. Baker Is Named To Colorado City Council Post

COLORADO CITY — R. B. Baker, 48-year-old field man for the Sweetwater Production Credit Association, was elected to the council of Colorado City at the meeting of that body, Monday night. Baker has been a resident of Colorado City since 1904, and is a past president of the Kiwanis Club. He replaces Bill Craddock, who resigned several weeks ago to move to his ranch near Bandera. The city's sewage disposal plant was the object of complaints from Hank Bryant, who said that he represented a group from Colorado City's South Side, the location of the plant. The disposal plant was built in 1948, and original plans called for odorless operation.

Bryant was told by Roy Dosier, city manager, that "We're doing our level best to reduce the odor to a minimum." He added, in his opinion, however, that it could not be entirely eliminated. Bryant was asked by councilmen if checking the plant by a competent engineer would satisfy those near the plant. "I'll be satisfied when the odor stops," Bryant replied. The council requested the City Manager to secure opinions from engineers and the State Department of Health on the best way in which to improve the situation. J. C. Bradley, chairman of the school board, appeared before the council to request a reduction, if possible in water rates for the school. Bradley stated that the school's July bill for water was $298.55 and was over two hundred dollars in June. Ford Merritt, city secretary explained that rates could not be lowered under the city's contract with the bonding company. Dosier warned Bradley that if it did not rain, "the city may not be able to let you water the grass at all."

Hvasta's Parents Seek Information

WASHINGTON (AP)—The parents of John Hvasta, an ex-GI who reportedly escaped from a Red prison in Czechoslovakia, have a promise from the State Department that it will take "definite action" to try to get more information about their son. Mr. and Mrs. Michael Hvasta and another son, Steve, 22, came here from Hillside, N. J., yesterday to ask State Department aid. The Czech government reported last Monday that John Hvasta escaped from a Communist prison near Bratislava Jan. 2. At the time he was serving a 10-year sentence on conviction of charges—denounced by this government as baseless—that he was an American spy. No word has been heard from him since. Yesterday, however, a Czech refugee named Jaroslav Burec said in Munich, Germany, that Hvasta escaped with him and four other prisoners, and he was confident he was still alive and is hiding in Czechoslovakia. Rep. Rodino (D-N.J.), who accompanied the Hvastas to the State Department, said later officials promised "definite action" but did not say what this might be.

19-Year-Olds May Face Draft Soon

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Selective Service spokesman says increased needs for manpower soon may force the drafting of 19-year-olds into the armed services. Men 20 and older are now being used to fill draft calls, but an official said the need for more men—as indicated by yesterday's call for 47,000 draftees in October—may mean dipping into the lower age bracket. The October call was an increase of 17,000 over the September call, and there are indications quotas for the last two months of 1953 may be as high if not higher. The Selective Service spokesman, who asked that he not be quoted by name, could not estimate when it may be necessary to draft 19-year-olds. Up to now, he says, he has been made to change the order issued Jan. 25 by Maj. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, Selective Service director, to call quotas with older men.

Ike To Stress Plugs For 'Durable Peace'

By EDWARD O. ETHELL
 DENVER (AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower says "the outlook is not too bright" for a durable world peace unless Americans gain a thorough understanding of the complex problems involved.

The Republican nominee told a news conference late yesterday he'll touch on the subject in every campaign speech. "The great subject of peace and how to obtain it," the general declared, "overshadows all other subjects because it affects all others."

But efforts of newsmen to draw out details of Eisenhower's campaign plans got nowhere. The GOP standard bearer did say he expects to speak in Philadelphia but that no date has been set. He repeated he will campaign in traditionally Democratic Dixie. And, in response to a question, he said no speech yet has been scheduled for Labor Day.

He indicated, however, that plans may be completed after a current round of conferences. Yesterday he met with Southern backers and with Republican farm leaders in Congress. Last night, Arthur E. Summerfield, national GOP chairman, flew in with what aides said was a proposed itinerary for the next 30 days.

Harold Stassen, who campaigned unsuccessfully for the Republican nomination, is scheduled to arrive tonight and to have lunch tomorrow with Eisenhower.

One of those on the appointments list today was Allen Kline, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation.

Newsmen questioned Eisenhower about his conference with eight members of the House and Senate Agriculture Committee. "We found ourselves in very general agreement," the general declared.

He added that a statement issued by the law-makers would speak for him, saying, "I'm not stating in advance of the campaign my own particular ideas."

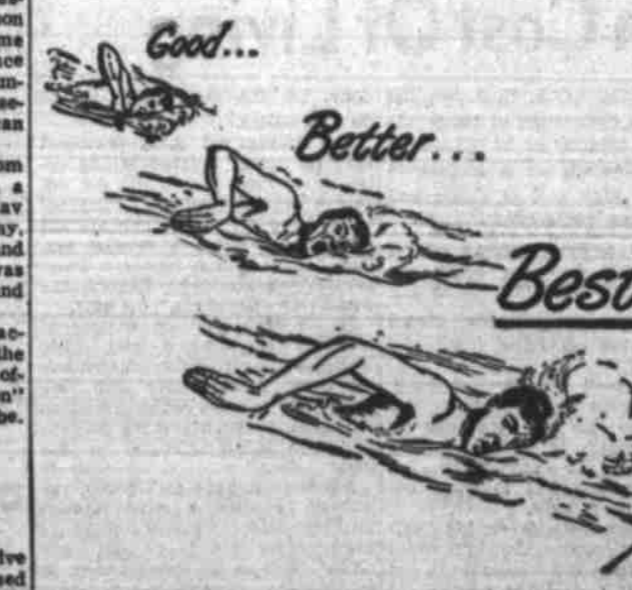

The congressman said in their statement that Eisenhower "is going to present positive, forward-looking farm policies." They also outlined no specific farm policy. One, however, Sen. Milton R. Young (R-ND), said Eisenhower

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 12 (AP)—Five "hookers," men who guide illegal immigrants across the border for work on U. S. farms, have been arrested near Reynosa, Mex., the Interior Ministry announced yesterday. Reynosa is across the border from McAllen, Tex. The announcement said the men were surprised as they led a group of Mexican farm hands toward the Rio Grande. Boats used to ferry the workers across the river were found and destroyed.

Comanche County Leads In Peanuts

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12 (AP)—Comanche County, Tex., was the nation's champion in terms of acreage planted to peanuts at the time of the 1950 census, the Census Bureau reported yesterday. Texas boasted 123 of the nation's leading peanut-producing counties, the report said. In terms of production, however, the champion was Southampton County, Virginia, the Census Bureau said. Texas counties among the nation's top 100, with the rank in terms of production and acreage: Comanche, 1-6; Eastland, 11-15; Atascosa, 22-41; Wilson, 29-48; Erath, 33-46; Frio, 39-51; Grayson, 50-60; Anderson, 58-58; Hood, 62-74; Lee, 63-64; Fannin, 64-63; Parker, 66-71; San Saba, 69-90; Mason, 70-82; Waller, 71-66; Brown, 73-85; Wise, 74-84; Bexar, 75-91; Denton, 77-87; Cooke, 81-x; Bill, 82-x; Calahan, 83-80; and Houston, 88-84.

DESPITE CRIPPLING DROUGHT

Plentiful Food Supplies Are Forecast For The Year Ahead

By OVID A. MARTIN
WASHINGTON (AP) — Plentiful supplies of food appear to be in store during the year ahead despite last month's crop damaging drought in the South and North-east.

In its latest measurement of production prospects, the Agriculture Department predicted late yesterday that the combined volume of all crops this year will be larger than in any year except 1948 and 1949.

Although the indicated output is larger than last year, it will be less evenly distributed because of heavy losses—particularly in feed supplies for meat and dairy animals—in Southern states.

The latter area will need to ship in more feed than usual if it is to avert a serious setback in the production of meat, dairy and poultry products in a land once ruled by cotton.

Elsewhere, there appears to be sufficient corn, oats, hay and other feed materials to foster a further expansion in production of beef, pork, milk, eggs and poultry.

The nation is harvesting its second largest wheat crop of record—a crop far in excess of expected needs.

Only in the case of potatoes and sweet potatoes are supplies likely to become tight before new crops are harvested in 1953.

Meanwhile, the department moved to provide financial aid to more financially distressed farmers in drought areas. It put all New Hampshire, 10 additional counties in Oklahoma and seven in Illinois in the "disaster" classification.

Farmers in such areas may obtain loans from the department's Farmers' Home Administration to carry on operations. Only those who have suffered substantial losses from the drought and who are unable to obtain credit elsewhere will be eligible for aid.

The department previously had designated all of Maine, Massachusetts, North and South Carolina, Georgia, Kentucky, Tennessee, Alabama, Mississippi and Arkansas, and parts of Missouri as drought disaster areas.

Should weather conditions be more favorable during the rest of the season, drought-affected states might well achieve a degree of recovery. The department said rains early this month have tended to break the drought and should revive pastures and encourage farmers to plant late forage crops for fall grazing and winter hay.

Winter wheat and rice are the only crops for which record out-turns are now expected. But the production of corn, all wheat, cotton, soybeans, tobacco, sugar cane, hops, grapes, cherries and plums will be larger than average.

Below average crops include oats, barley, rye, flaxseed, sorghum grain, hay, dry beans, peanuts, potatoes, sweet potatoes, sugar beets, and most fruits. But no pinches in consumer supplies of these crops and their byproducts are indicated.

First Bale Ginned In Tarrant County

FORT WORTH, Aug. 12 (AP)—A. Sparks, 29-year-old Haslet farmer, produced Tarrant County's first bale of 1952 cotton yesterday. It was ginned at 7 p. m. at Midlothian, after Sparks found the gin at Haslet had broken down. The bale ginned out at 473 pounds.

Sparks won the honor only after a close race with another Haslet grower, Guy Bell Jr. a previous winner.

Bell took his cotton to Grapevine but the ginner had already shut down.

Texas GOP Slate Purely Local Problem, Says Ike

DENVER, Aug. 12 (AP)—"Purely a local problem" is the way Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower described proposed strategy of not presenting local Republican slates in Texas.

Some Texas GOP leaders said no local candidates would be presented in order not to detract from Eisenhower's presidential campaign.

Eisenhower also told a news conference yesterday that "I thought any man had the right to file for office." He did not comment further.

Earlier, Jack Porter, GOP National Committeeman from Texas told a reporter:

"I discussed Texas campaign strategy with the general when I saw him a few days ago. He agreed with me on the strategy I outlined."

Porter's remarks were in reply to this question:

"Does Eisenhower agree with you that Republican candidates should not be filed at the local and county levels in Texas, on the ground that to do so might hurt the chances of the national GOP ticket in winning Democratic support?"

The Houston oilman-politico added:

"The general is looking to me to organize his campaign in Texas. It was Porter who at the GOP National Convention in July headed the pro-Eisenhower Texas delegation which won recognition over a rival group favoring the nomination of Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio."

Last night in Denver, John Minor Wisdom, national committeeman from Louisiana, told a news conference he believes Texas—birthplace of Eisenhower—is most likely of all Southern states to line up in the GOP column in November's election.

Wisdom and 26 other Eisenhower supporters from eight Southern states sat down with the general and his vice presidential running mate, Sen. Richard M. Nixon of California, to discuss plans for a GOP bid in the South.

The Louisianan also said the chances are good that Florida, Virginia and Louisiana will get into the Republican fold for Eisenhower.

Besides Wisdom and Porter, Alvin Lane of Dallas and Ben Gull of Pampa were also in Denver for the high level strategy conferences. Lane is candidate for GOP state chairman in Texas, and Gull is a former Republican member of Congress from the Texas Panhandle.

Officials Favor Regular Fining

TRACY, Calif. (AP)—This small city's police judge and police chief said today they see nothing wrong in a former city practice of regularly fining slot machine operators while the slots stayed in action.

Details came to light yesterday in Washington when the U. S. Tax Court ruled that Charles A. Clark, former Tracy slot machine operator, could not deduct the fines from his income for tax purposes.

Clark told the court he used to have an arrangement with the city under which he was allowed to operate the illegal slots, so long as he paid the city $25 a month in fines for each machine.

Clark made the deductions on his income tax returns under the heading of "taxes, licenses, and permits."

But the court, in pointing out that the city did not issue him a permit for his slots and that the machines were illegal in California called the arrangement a "sham."

Clark, the court said, kept careful records and these revealed that he paid $32,233 in slot machine fines, by check, through the police chief, from the beginning of 1944 through 1948.

There was no dispute today from either Chief of Police E. C. Wyman or Police Court Judge Fen Jackson that the fines had been assessed and paid.

Both declared the fines were "legitimate fines" and went from the Police Court into the city coffers.

AREA OIL

Tex-Harvey, Driver-Spraberry Completions Top Area Activity

Glasscock County completions for production in the Driver-Spraberry Field highlighted area oil reports Tuesday.

There also was a completion in the Tex-Harvey section of the Spraberry in Midland County and locations in both the Tex-Harvey and Driver-Spraberry zones of Midland County.

Glasscock

Philips No. 1-C McDowell, C SW NE, 31-33-24, T&P, drilled at 842 feet in shale.

Turner No. 1 Hall, C SW NW, 4-32-56, T&P, drilled in lime at 4,810 feet.

Sinclair No. 1 Hall, C SW NW, 6-34-28, T&P, at a total depth of 7,954 feet in lime, was taking a drillstem test from 7,300 to 7,954.

Three Driver-Spraberry completions highlighted Glasscock County oil operations.

Argo No. 10 Charles J. Cox, 660 from the north and east lines of 45-37-44, T&P, flowed 24 hours through half-inch choke for 237 barrels of oil and no water. Casing pressure was 125, gas-oil ratio was 845-1, gravity 27.3, top of pay at 6,860 and total depth 7,128. Seven-inch was set at 6,849.

Ashland No. 3-12 Hutchinson, 1,984 from the south and 660 from the east lines of 12-37-48, T&P, flowed 267 barrels of oil and no water in 24 hours. Gas-oil ratio was 1,500-1, gravity 27, top of pay at 6,904, total depth 7,877 and 8 1/2-inch was set at 7,878, perforated from 7,038-818. Elevation is 2,626 and flow was through half-inch choke.

Ashland No. 9-30 Driver, 660 from the south and 1,980 from the east lines of 30-36-48, T&P, flowed 206 barrels and no water in 24 hours through 24-64th choke. Gas-oil ratio was 1,350-1, gravity 27, top of pay at 6,847, total depth 7,773 and 5 1/2-inch casing was set at 7,709. Perforations were between 6,850-7,773.

Howard Stanolind No. 1 Moates, 467 from south and east lines of 2-31-29, T&P, plugged back to 7,578 from a total depth of 7,580 and was shut in to move off rotary.

Martin Stanolind No. 1 Cowden, C SE SW, 30-40-19, T&P, was circulating after reaching a total depth of 13,300 feet in lime.

DeKalb No. 1 Flynn, 660 from south and west lines of Labor 12, League 348, Hartley CSL, drilled ahead in lime at 12,045 feet.

Gulf No. 1-P Glass, C SE NW, 12-39-19, T&P, drilling in lime and shale at 8,616 feet Tuesday, had a drillstem test in the spraberry of 8,536-756. Open two hours, recovery was 120 feet of mud with no shows of oil or gas.

DeKalb No. 1 Knox, 660 from the north and 2,777 from the west lines of League 253, Ward CSL, drilled at 11,195 in dolomite.

Phillips No. 1 Sehar, 1,320 from the south and 7,000 from the west lines of lease in section 324, La-Salle CSL, was at a plugged-back depth of 8,520 and was preparing to hydrate.

Flynn No. 1 Morris, C NW SW, 7-35-18, T&P, was running log to start pumping.

Midland Three Midland County locations were reported for the Driver and Tex-Harvey areas.

Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 5 Williams Shackelford will be 660 from the north and east lines of 8-37-48, T&P, 18 miles southeast of Midland. It will be drilled to 7,450 feet with rotary, to start at once.

Magnolia's No. 1-B Sam Preston is 660 from the north and east lines of 10-37-48, T&P, and is projected to 7,500 feet with rotary. Drilling is to start immediately. Well will be 19 miles southeast of Midland.

In the Tex-Harvey, Magnolia No. 13 Louise B. Shackelford is 1,980 from the south and 660 from the west lines of 34-37-38, T&P, 14 miles southeast of Midland. Rotary is to start drilling to 7,550 feet at once.

Tex-Harvey Completion was the Anderson-Prichard No. 4 Hutt, 1,985 from the north and 1,977 from the east lines of lease in 42-37-38, T&P, elevation 2,600, flowed six hours through one-inch choke and made 568 barrels of oil. Flow was natural and included 1.2 per cent water. Gas-oil ratio was 647-1, gravity 29, top of pay 7,132, total depth 8,030.

Borden Brill No. 1 Good, 660 feet from the south and west lines of Section 14-32-38, T&P Survey, drilled past 7,675 in black shale.

Upton No. 1 Logle, C SE SW of Section 9-32-40, EL&RR Survey, reached 3,473 in lime and shale.

Standard No. 6-E-14 Griffin, 478 feet from the east lines of Section 35-25, H&TC Survey, was below 6,846 in lime and shale.

Superior No. 13-538 Lanham, 660 feet from the south and west lines of Section 536-97, H&TC Survey, was drilling below 6,531 in shale.

Dawson Shield No. 1 Galbraith, 660 feet from the south and west lines of Section 77-M, EL&RR Survey, reached 7,913 in lime and shale.

Cities Production No. 1-B Leverett, 1,980 from the south and west lines of Section 3-4, D. L. Cunningham Survey, was waiting on the contractor.

Sinclair No. 1 Scott, 660 feet from the south and east lines of Section 101-M, EL&RR Survey, drilled past 11,911 in chert.

Standard and Chicago No. 1-J Smith, 660 feet from the east and 1,980 feet from the south lines of Section 2-N, EL&RR Survey, was at 4,060 and was running 9 1/2 casing.

A wildcat test 10 miles northwest of Lamesa will be the Cities Production Corporation No. 1-B Leverett, 1,980 from the south and west lines of Section 3, Block 4, D. L. Cunningham. It will be drilled with rotary to 12,500 feet and was waiting on contractor.

Sterling

Humble No. 1 Dayvault, 660 feet from the north and east lines of Section 13-15, H&TC Survey, swabbed the perforated section of the San Angelo lime, 1,736-1,700 and it swabbed naturally and dry. It was treated with 1,000 gallons of regular acid and then operator swabbed out load and residue. Operator swabbed two and one half hours, recovering 23 barrels of salty sulphur water with no shows of gas or oil and is still swabbing. It will probably sequester off the perforation and plug back and test the San Andres.

Lynn

Great Western No. 1 Williams, was drilling below 4,694 in lime.

Pumped 24 hours, production was 30 barrels of oil, no water; gas-oil ratio was 765, gravity 41.7, top of pay at 6,308, total depth 6,444 and 7-inch casing was set at 6,287.

In Nogales, Ariz., the justice of the peace who married them said he "told the kids they didn't look old enough."

Judge Fred Allen said the couples signed sworn affidavits that they were over the state legal minimum of 16 and 18. He said the statements are on record at the Santa Cruz County Courthouse.

For the baby-faced Tucson girls, their return was an unhappy one. One sobbed loudly as her 17-year-old husband was arraigned on a charge of contributing to the delinquency of a minor. He was ordered bound over to the Juvenile Court.

All four sets of parents said the double marriage would be annulled immediately. But the girls' parents signed criminal complaints against the boys, one a sailor from San Diego.

The mother of one of the girls said she became alarmed when her daughter had not returned home late Saturday from a girl friend's home, where she was to have stayed Friday night. Sheriff's deputies checked and found both girls missing.

UN Says Planes Flew Over Site MUNSAN, Korea (U) — The U. N. Command said today the two or three jet planes which flew over the Panmunjom truce talks site Sunday in violation of its neutrality probably were United Nations planes.

The statement was in a note from Col. Charles W. McCarthy, senior U. N. Command liaison officer, to Col. Chang Chun-san, top Red liaison officer, delivered at Panmunjom in response to a Red protest.

The note said witnesses were unable to observe identifying marks on the planes but "we have concluded in all probability the aircraft in question were those of the United Nations."

"This overflight is regretted. Our side will make continued efforts to prevent occurrences of this kind."

The truce talks are in their third successive week-long recess. They are scheduled to be resumed Aug. 19.

Rev. Hardy Reported In Critical Condition Rev. Ben Hardy, formerly of Big Spring and now of Tahoka, was reported in critical condition at a Tahoka Hospital Tuesday.

Rev. Hardy suffered a stroke early Sunday. Relatives here, including a son, Dr. W. B. Hardy, are at his bedside.

He was pastor of the Big Spring First Methodist Church for four years prior to moving to Tahoka.

Deaths Of Soviet Officials Reported MOSCOW (U) — Moscow newspapers reported today the deaths of Herman Kovalev, deputy general director of Soviet railways, and Vice Adm. Alexander Frolov, faculty chief at the Voroshilov Higher Military Academy.

Kovalev, who headed the nation's southwest railways, was a deputy of the Supreme Soviet.

Frolov, 59, served as a Soviet Navy fleet commander during World War II.

Two Girls Of 13 Marry, Parents Are Indignant

TUCSON, Ariz. (U) — Two 13-year-old girls faced indignant parents and marriage annulments today and their youthful husbands of one day faced possible criminal action as the aftermath of a joint week-end elopement.

In Nogales, Ariz., the justice of the peace who married them said he "told the kids they didn't look old enough."

Judge Fred Allen said the couples signed sworn affidavits that they were over the state legal minimum of 16 and 18. He said the statements are on record at the Santa Cruz County Courthouse.

Crude Average Makes Increase TULSA, Aug. 12 (U) — Notable gains in California and North Dakota lifted the country's daily average crude oil production 140,000 barrels during the week ended Aug. 9, the Oil and Gas Journal reported today.

The total daily average for the week the Journal figured, was 6,266,350 barrels, highest since May 3.

August's change in allowables boosted Texas' production 142,675 barrels to 2,790,850.

North Dakota, with a 500-barrel jump, boosted its output to an all-time high of 4,500. The state, an oil producer only 18 months, now has production surpassing that of Florida, Alabama and Utah.

Other sizeable gains were reported for Oklahoma, up 4,700 barrels to 531,800; California, up 2,300 to 929,500; and Colorado, 2,250 to 84,850.

Kansas was the biggest loser, off 5,500 barrels to 313,750. New Mexico dropped 3,950 to 161,100. Arkansas was up 200 to 79,600.

Young Forger Being Hunted

DENTON, Aug. 12 (U) — A search continued today for a 15-year-old Denton boy accused of getting $1,800 for a bogus check made payable to a dead man.

Complaints of forgery and passing a forged instrument were filed in a justice of the peace court here yesterday against the teen-ager.

The boy appeared at the First State Bank Saturday and cashed the check without arousing suspicion. Later bank officials found the check was drawn on a phoney depositor, made payable to a Denton man who had been dead more than a year, and was purportedly endorsed by the dead man to the youth.

About $80 of the money was returned yesterday when a 14-year-old boy appeared at the sheriff's office and voluntarily surrendered the money. He said he and the older boy went to Fort Worth after the check was cashed and the older boy gave him $50 to spend. The 14-year-old said he became "scared" and returned to Denton with the money.

Pythian Class Is Named For Harding The class of 12 men starting work in the Knights of Pythias tonight is to be known as the Russell Harding class.

This group will be the first here to receive rank work since Harding has been grand chancellor of the K-P in Texas. Harding, a Lubbock resident, has been helpful to the local lodge in organizational and class activities for the past five years, and local K-P's voted to honor him with the class designation.

Harding made his official visit to the local chapter last week. The lodge meeting opens this evening promptly at 8 o'clock, at the K-P hall, 1407 Lancaster, and will close at 10 p. m. A large attendance is urged, members being invited to see the ritualistic work portrayed.

Service Held For Richardson Infant COLORADO CITY — William Glynn Richardson, two-day-old son of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Richardson of Colorado City, died at noon Monday at the Root Memorial Hospital.

The child was one of twins, and was buried with graveside rites at 8 Tuesday morning, in the Colorado City cemetery. Officiating was the Rev. J. W. Arnett, Baptist District Missionary, and the child's maternal grandfather. In addition to his parents, Rev. and Mrs. Arnett, he is survived by his paternal grandmother, Mrs. Maye Richardson of Abilene.

Lubbock OPS Office Is Being Reduced The Lubbock district office of the Office of Price Stabilization is being reduced to branch office status on August 15, with most of the functions of the office being transferred to the Dallas district office.

The OPS information program which has been handled at Lubbock will be taken over by the Dallas district office, and will be under direction of Raymond L. Michers, OPS, 3306 Main Street, Dallas.

Crime On Increase In New York City NEW YORK (U) — New York City had 122 homicides and 22,963 burglaries in the first six months of 1952, the police department reports.

The figures compare with 116 homicides and 14,961 burglaries in the comparable period of 1951.

Police figures showed yesterday that major crimes in every category increased sharply for the six-month period.

Faces Check Count Simon Williams has been placed in the county jail on a charge of passing felony checks.

PMA's Committee Election Scheduled

The election of the Howard, J. Pickle, Johnny Blake, Lester County PMA committee will be held Monday, Aug. 18, at the County PMA office, it has been announced by Gabe Hammack, county PMA administrative officer.

At the same time and with the same ballots delegates and alternates will be elected to the county convention which will be held Aug. 23.

Hammack said ballots have been mailed to all association members and their wives and that these ballots may be voted and returned by mail, thus saving the members the loss of time incidental to going to the PMA office to cast their votes on the day of election. In order to be counted, Hammack said these mail ballots will have to be returned to his office not later than 5 p. m. Aug. 18, the day of election.

The various candidates have been selected by nominating committees in each of the five PMA communities but the member is not restricted to voting for these men since provision is made on the ballot for the write-in of some other person for whom the member wishes to vote.

Members of the nominating committees were: Community 1. J. I. White, Paul Adams, E. L. Roman, Cecil Allred and Dick Kelly.

Community 2. Cecil Lockhart, Ed Carpenter, Jim Hodnett, W. D. Anderson and Eddie G. Mann.

Community 3. R. C. Thomas, A. Community 4. J. L. Baugh, Donald Lay, Carl D. Reid, Charles D. Read and Arthur Mereworth.

Community 5. Curtis Wood, Tom Newsome and Alton Denton.

Candidates selected by the various community nominating committees are: COMMUNITY 1. Delegate to county convention: Paul Adams and J. C. Spaulding; alternate delegate, Fred Roman and Cecil Allred; community committee chairman, Robert Merrick and J. I. White; vice-chairman, Robert Brown and Elbert Roman; member of committee, Cecil Allred and Larry Shaw; first community committee alternate, Morris Barnes and Floyd Kennedy, and second alternate, V. L. Jones and Harrison Wood.

COMMUNITY 2. Delegate to county convention: W. D. Anderson and W. B. Puckett; alternate delegate, Louis Underwood and Carl Lockhart; community committee chairman, Neil Spencer and L. C. Underwood; vice-chairman, Eddie G. Mann and F. C. Appleton; member of committee, Winston Kirkpatrick and J. H. Fuller; first alternate, O. J. Ingram and B. J. Montgomery, and second alternate, Carl Peterson and W. C. Clanton.

COMMUNITY 3. Delegate to county convention: J. A. Smith and C. L. Nichols; alternate delegate, Shirley Fryar and Edgar Phillips; community committee chairman, L. C. Mathies and Robert Wheeler; vice-chairman, R. C. Thomas and C. A. Nichols; member of community committee, Claude Russell and J. R. Murphree; first alternate, Maurice Chapman and Luther Smith, second alternate, Leonard Hanson and E. J. Fickling.

COMMUNITY 4. Delegate to county convention: R. E. Martin and Ira McQuerry; alternate delegate, Frank Loveless and Alvin Lay; community committee chairman, Wm. Robinson and Alvin Walker; vice-chairman, Sam F. Buchanan and Johnny Walker; member of community committee, J. L. Baugh and Alvin Lay; first alternate, Carl D. Reid and J. D. Spears, and second alternate, W. D. Coates and Tom Birkhead.

COMMUNITY 5. Delegate to county convention: Leroy Echols and Clifton Neff; alternate delegate, E. W. Lomax and Cecil Long; community committee chairman, Fred Adams and Lawrence Davis; vice-chairman, C. A. Denton and Woodrow Robinson; community committee member, Curtis Wood and Ellis Iden; first alternate, E. W. Lomax and Ray Russell, and second alternate T. M. Dungan and Leroy Finley.

The newly elected committee members will take office September 1, Hammack said, and the county administrative officer is urging all association members to vote and to return their ballots as soon as possible.

C-City Street Is Being Re-Topped

COLORADO CITY — Colorado's Second Street, which also doubles as Highway 80, was receiving a major face-lifting today, the first since it was paved in the 20's.

One and four-tenths of a mile, from Cypress Street to the east city limits, is being re-topped under direction of the State Highway Department.

Ned B. Hoffman of Fort Worth is contractor on the $30,000 project. Work began Monday morning and the street was closed from Chestnut to Cypress, a five-block strip by-passed by Highway 80 during construction of a bridge over the Colorado River west of town. This strip will be completed by Wednesday, according to C. L. Res, local highway engineer. The work on this five blocks is being done under one operation, and a five-block detour is necessary to go from the post-office to the bank, a block away. Even foot traffic was stopped today, as topping was spread on the street.

Edudys Encounter Rain On Vacation Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Eudy and daughter, Freda, 405 Johnson, have returned from vacation trips to New Mexico and North Texas.

They visited Carlsbad Caverns, Santa Fe, and fished for trout in the mountains near Pecos, N.M., reporting that it rained every day during their three-day stay there.

Upon their return they went to Whitesboro for a visit with Mr. Eudy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Farmer, encountering rain there also. They came through Denton Sunday evening during the time the two tornadoes struck, traveling through rain and high winds.

DESIGNING WOMAN Collapsible Furniture Is Answer To Moving Problem

By ELIZABETH HILLERY

"My husband's work makes it necessary for us to move often," writes Mrs. B. J. "Furniture we have moved from city to city has become so shabby we'd like to buy new, but I'd like to know more about kinds that stand moving best before I make choices. Can you help me?" It's the large upholstered furniture, of course, that suffers most from moving, Mrs. J. The kind that would solve your problem best looks like this. This furniture was just introduced in the furniture previews for fall in Grand Rapids and no point was made of its special feature. Because they have the extra comfort and beautiful proportion that Danish design so often has, the sofas and chairs imported from Denmark will be bought whether or not the plus practicality is need-d, but actually each piece is made to be taken apart for easy shipping. Wood sides, backs and bases disconnect to pack flat and cushions are separate. A large collection in European beech, Hungarian ash, walnut and teak designed by Ole Wanscher of Copenhagen is moderately priced.

Hayworths Get Together For Reunion

Members of the Hayworth family gathered over the week end for a reunion.

Saturday evening the group met at the City Park for a get-together and Sunday's activities were held at the IOOF Hall on San Antonio Street.

Kentucky Seeks Games To Fill Its Schedule

By KYLE VANCE
BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—Kentucky, a temporary castout from the conference its basketball forces ruled with an iron fist, tackled the project of filling its open dates on its cage slate today.

Yesterday's one-year suspension from the Southeastern Conference, an unprecedented penalty levied for the school's laxity in administering its sports program, left Kentucky with only 20 games on its hardwood schedule.

In addition, the SEC ruled that two football players were ineligible for future participation and fined Kentucky $500 for each of them.

Japanese Say Much Treasure Missing

TOKYO, Aug. 12 (U)—A Japanese Parliament committee today said it has confirmed that a large quantity of Japanese national treasure is missing and receipts by occupation officials for some of it are "extremely unclear and figures do not jibe."

"We have confirmed the loss of a considerable large quantity of precious metals and diamonds, including the Empress Nagako's crown made of gold and platinum and studded with five large diamonds," the committee said.

The committee said the loss of the treasure may have disappeared during World War II while the property was still in Japanese hands.

The committee said the Central Materials Utilization Assn. which purchased precious jewels and metals of Japan during the war reported it gave the occupation the following:

"10,999.97 carats in diamonds. "28,707.49 kan (240,000 pounds avoirdupois) of platinum."

"32,145 kilograms (1,110 pounds) of gold and 226,947,968 kilograms (500,000 pounds) of silver."

"Receipts by the occupation for these items are extremely unclear and figures do not jibe. The receipts are available at the committee."

The valued references to the occupation had special significance since it came at the end of the long report—80 pages in Japanese. It is customary for the main point in a Japanese document to come at the end.

The report also said that much of the treasure may have disappeared during World War II while the property was still in Japanese hands.

The committee said national treasures during the war were badly supervised and carelessly recorded and that theft would have been "quite easy."

Japanese press comment was caustic and recalled the case of Col. Edward J. Murray, former U. S. custodian of the Bank of Japan, convicted in 1949 of taking nearly $85,000 (wholesale value) in diamonds from the bank's vaults.

He contended they were a gift. Murray was sentenced to 10 years but this was cut to five and he was paroled.

The Soviet broadcast called Talal a supporter of "American imperialism" and said that in contrast the new boy king Hussein in Jordan.

London (U)—The Russians say the dethronement of Jordan's King Talal is a British triumph over the United States in the "imperialist struggle for control of Jordan."

Moscow radio today broadcast a message of Tass, the official Russian news agency, from Beirut saying Britain had the skins under Talal by the beginning of June.

"When a regency council was formed under the pretext that Talal cannot rule because of his nervous complaint."

Carlsen was taken to a local hospital and fitted with a plaster cast. Then he resumed his journey by train, telling police he was in a hurry to get back to his new ship the Flying Enterprise II, which is docked in Rotterdam.

Near Failure Of Southwest's Crop Increases Sorghum Price

CHICAGO, Aug. 12 (AP)—A near-failure in the Southwest's grain sorghum crop was considered by grain experts today as the primary reason behind sharply advancing prices for sorghums.

Ever since the sorghum crop was first planted down around the Corpus Christi area in Texas it has been plagued by drought, grain men said. The result is a crop less than half the size of last year's.

The Agriculture Department yesterday forecast a sorghum crop, in its first estimate of the year, at 73,149,000 bushels. This compares with 159,285,000 bushels harvested last year. And last year's crop was not particularly large.

It is necessary to go all the way back to 1939 to find a smaller sorghum crop than is anticipated this year. That was before sorghums started to grow in popularity. The largest crop on record was in 1950 at 233,278,000 bushels.

The price for grain sorghums in the cash market at Fort Worth, Texas, yesterday was $3.39 to $4.44 a hundred pounds. On June 30 the price was $3.10 to $3.15.

In future dealings on the Chicago Board of Trade, the September contract was quoted nominally yesterday at $3.36. It was down under $3.00 late in June. Trading in futures here started last Oct. 1. The first trade was in the December contract at $2.65. The December contract closed nominally yesterday at $3.35.

J. O. McIntock, executive vice-president of the Chicago Board of Trade, said, "The price advance is a response to the generally dry situation in the Southwest, particularly Texas."

Texas is the largest producer. Last year its output totaled 71,985,000 bushels and the year before 144,566,300 bushels. But the Agriculture Department yesterday estimated it would come up this year with a crop of only 46,819,000 bushels.

Grain experts said that some of the Texas acreage normally given over to grain sorghums stayed in wheat this year.

Second largest producer is Kansas. The Agriculture Department estimated it would have a crop this year of 11,718,000 bushels. Last year it produced 57,310,000 bushels and the year before 44,689,000.

Grain experts said Kansas was so dry this spring that much of the acreage normally given over to grain sorghums never was planted.

McIntock noted that sorghums are used mainly as a livestock feed.

There is a very strong demand for any type of livestock feed at present because of the drought which has caused the Agriculture Department to designate many Southern states "disaster areas." The department is helping to get hay into some of these states to feed livestock.

The strong demand for livestock feed, coupled with the near-crop failure, have produced the sharp price rise, grain experts said.

Cancer Prevalence Varies In Different Countries

By FRANK CAREY
Associated Press Science Editor

WASHINGTON (AP)—The prevalence of cancer varies in different countries and under different conditions, the 17th International Geographical Conference was told today.

For example, the delegates were told, cancer of the lung does not exist in Iceland or Korea stomach cancer is not as common in England as on the continent of Europe; primary cancer of the liver is relatively more common in Africa, Indochina, India, Malaya, Indonesia and the Philippine Islands than elsewhere in the world; and cancer of the base of the tongue is relatively frequent in certain communities in India.

The cancer facts were a highlight of the first report of the "Commission on Medical Geography" of the International Geographical Union—a commission which is making a world-wide systematic study of the possible relationships between the distribution of diseases and the environments in which they develop.

Dr. Jacques May of New York, director of medical studies of the American Geographical Society, and also chairman of the International "Medical Geograph" Commission, said the commission's first aim is to "map" the distribution of all diseases throughout the world.

Declaring there is a need to know "who has what and where," he said that once such information is pinned down on a world-wide basis, it may be possible to determine why one person becomes afflicted and another does not.

He asserted that "geographical factors" may be paramount in the distribution of disease.

Gen. Gay's Son Is Listed As Missing

FALMOUTH, Mass., Aug. 12 (AP)—Air Force Capt. Robert R. Gay Jr., 28, son of Army Maj. Gen. Robert R. Gay, is listed as missing after his jet fighter crashed near here Sunday.

He is a veteran of 105 combat missions in Korea.

His father, who was commanding general of the Fifth Cavalry Division in Korea, is in Falmouth.

Polio Bounces Back Following Week End Lull

By The Associated Press
Polio incidence continued high in Texas Tuesday after a week end lull brought hopes that the disease was waning in the state.

Four new cases—one of the deadly bulbar type—were admitted to Parkland Hospital in Dallas Monday following a 36-hour period with no admissions.

Only two new victims of the malady were reported to the Houston City Health Department during the week end, one from the city and one from Harris County.

Besides giving Houston nurses and doctors a respite from their grim tasks of caring for new victims, it was the fewest admitted to polio wards there since the epidemic began. The toll has ranged from eight to 31 cases each week end since June 1.

Dallas physicians and nurses—after their 36-hour relief—treated a 30-year-old Dallas man, a two-year-old Grand Prairie boy, six-year-old Dallas boy and a three-year-old Denison girl.

The Denison child, Janet Buchanan, was reported to have bulbar polio which affects the base of the brain. She followed her nine-year-old sister, Judy, to the hospital. Judy was admitted August 8 with polio.

The Buchanan girls' brother, Jimmy, 9, was treated by Denison doctors with gamma globulin. Bill Buchanan, pipeline foreman for an Oklahoma oil firm, is the father of the children.

Besides the Houston and Dallas cases reported, five children from East Texas—two from Tyler—were admitted to the Mother Frances Hospital in Tyler. Three were from outside Smith County.

Houston's total for 1952 for the disease now stands at 337 cases and 12 deaths compared with 95 cases and five deaths at the same time a year ago.

Harris County's total is 216 for the 1952 months so far with eight dead. This compares with 25 cases and no deaths a year ago.

Texaco Denies Cartel Charge

NEW YORK, Aug. 12 (AP)—The Texas Co. issued a formal statement yesterday denying government charges that Texaco is a part of an international oil cartel.

The statement said the big petroleum firm is not a party to any international oil cartel or any illegal price-fixing arrangement of any kind or any monopoly.

Texaco and 20 other oil companies have been subpoenaed to appear Sept. 3 in U. S. District Court in Washington for investigation by the department of justice into alleged cartel arrangements by international oil companies.

Cheese sales in some Texas stores have risen as much as 90 per cent since 1940. American Cheddar, according to a recent survey, is the best seller.

Junior Rodeo Coming Soon

Big Spring is going to have its second rodeo of the month.

The three performances of the Junior World's Champion Rodeo, sponsored by the Howard County 4-H Club are scheduled for 8 p.m. the evenings of Thursday, Friday and Saturday, August 28-29-30.

The parade will march at 4 p.m. Thursday and any person or firm wishing to do so may enter a float in this event by making reservations with either the Big Spring Chamber of Commerce or at the county agent's office.

Admission at each performance will be $1.20 for adults; 60 cents for school children, and 50 cents for service personnel and adult members of their families.

4-H Club members in charge of the rodeo are Ronnie Davidson, Delbert Davidson, Benny Jo Bilsard and Travis Fryar. The show will be held at the Big Spring Cowboy Reunion Rodeo arena.

Marine Represents Korean Captivities

BOSTON, Aug. 12 (AP)—The name of a Marine from Austin, Tex., was read here last night to represent all Austin men who died or were wounded in Korea.

Names chosen at random from Defense Department casualty lists were read to represent the various sections at the memorial services of the 31st annual National Convention of the Disabled American Veterans.

Representing the Austin area was the name of Marine Pfc. Leonard V. Todd Jr., whose parents live at 2314 Kinney Rd., Austin.

Body Of Hit-Run Victim Is Found

WACO, Aug. 12 (AP)—The badly mangled body of a Negro man, apparently a hit-and-run victim, was found four miles south of here today on the Marlin highway.

Waco police identified the body as that of Ocie C. Gordon, young Marlin Negro.

Marines Eye Pocket Of Chinese As They Advance Up Bunker Hill

By SAM SUMMERLIN
WESTERN FRONT, Korea (U.S.)
American Marines stealthily moved up Bunker Hill today, casting wary eyes at a tiny pocket of Chinese soldiers dug in on the dust-caked summit.
From an outpost overlooking the Hill, I watched the hunters stalk their prey.

The Chinese were in deep trenches. A few scattered boulders gave them added protection.
The Marines, dripping sweat in the fierce sun, zigzagged on the slopes 300 feet from the enemy. They took cover behind scrawny shrubs and in small crevices on the slopes.

With a broad grin. Each time the Chinese on Bunker Hill poked their heads up, a Marine sniper just below our trench opened fire.
"That keeps their heads down so our boys can move around easier," Howard explained.
In recent days, the mercury has hit 106 and 108 degrees on the Western Front hills. But the Marines still prefer to keep on their plastic vests. Every Marine seems to have a story of some buddy who escaped certain death when his vest stopped bullets or shell fragments.

Over 100 Members At XIT Reunion

DALHART, Aug. 12 (U.S.)—This Panhandle town returned to normal today after the festivity-filled XIT Ranch reunion.

More than 100 members of the XIT Association, open only to former cowhands and their families, wound up a two-day rip-snootin' spree with two dances last night following rodeo performances, a morning parade and a memorial service to pioneers.
Snowy-haired old cowpokes with a bow in their legs ranged Dalhart's streets during their celebration.

L. A. William H. Thousand of Mt. Horeb, Wis., pinpointed the Red position and called in artillery and white phosphorous shells, used to guide air strikes.
An Allied gun boomed on a hill behind us. Everyone suddenly ducked. The Marines in the outpost realized it was defective. The shell made a weird flip flop sound as it went overhead and exploded on the bottom of Bunker Hill, far short of the target.
"Phew!" muttered Sgt. Jim E. Howard of Burlington, Ia. "That thing went end over end. They sure give you the willies."

"Guess our planes didn't knock out that mortar crew after all," remarked Capt. Bernard W. Peterson of Manhattan Beach, Calif.
U. N. artillery soon boomed behind us again. Shells zoomed overhead and crashed into the hill beyond. The Red mortars became silent.

Long about yesterday, though, things got a little wearisome for some, who began parking ten-gallon hats, sliding into handy chairs and slipping off hot boots.
But Johnny-come-lately's in their brightest dress store cowboy regalia kept the festivities rolling to the small hours of this morning. They had plenty of music for last night's windup dances, too. The XIT reunion committee hired orchestras to play until the last one headed for home.

Howard, wiping sweat from his sunburned, unshaven face, said he had not slept in four days except for short naps.
"Nobody much likes it here," he said. "But it's a job that has to be done."
Howard pointed over our trench to a majestic ridge line towering behind Bunker Hill. The ridge is enemy territory.
"That's Taedok-san," he said. "Every time you open your mouth, they can put a bullet in it."

Climbing down the hill, I ran into a weary sergeant who had just walked off Bunker Hill.
"Those boys are pretty tired — but they're in good spirits," reported Sgt. Robert C. Coleman of San Diego.
The husky sergeant said the Marines are swiftly digging in on Bunker Hill. They are building sturdy bunkers as cover against enemy shelling.
"Once the boys get dug in," he said confidently, "those Chinese never will get us out."

During the reunion more than a ton of juicy Panhandle barbecued beef was consumed—with the trimmings.
Mysterious Shots Fired At Train
SHENANDOAH JUNCTION, W. Va. (U.S.)—Mysterious shots and rocks hurtled out of the darkness as a Norfolk and Western passenger train pulled out of town last night.
The engineer and a brakeman said rifle fire zinged by close to them. A rock broke a window in a passenger car but none of the 15 passengers were injured.
Railroad officials knew of no reason for the attack.

Medals To Morgan

Lt. (jg) William T. Morgan, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. James T. Morgan of 1101 East 12th, Big Spring, receives the Commendation Ribbon with Combat Distinguishing Device, the Air Medal and a Gold Star in lieu of a second Air Medal. Honors are being bestowed by Vice Admiral J. J. Clark, USN, Commander Seventh Fleet, aboard the aircraft carrier USS Philippine Sea. The ship has been in service in Korean waters.

THE GRUB LINE

With Franklin Reynolds

Taking the whole string, animal by animal, it is doubtful if the people of Big Spring have ever seen a better bunch of rodeo stock than that presented last week by the Beutler Brothers of Elk City Oklahoma, during the Big Spring Cowboy Reunion Rodeo.

Interested in the Grub Line's comments on the fly situation as concerns West Texas livestock this dry year and call attention to their CAMICIDE Dairy Cattle Concentrate, with which the University of Illinois and the University of Florida have conducted some interesting and successful experiments.
West Texans are going to hear more about the CAMICIDE products when Mr. Campbell arrives to live among us.

This was the Beutler's 20th show this season and their bulls have been consistently maintaining a 87 per cent buckoff record. Out of 32 attempted bull rides here only four were successfully made. The Beutler broncs have also held a high percentage buckoff record this year, and one of their horses, Yellow Fever, seen in action here, has only been ridden three times in his rodeo career which places him in the class with those star pitching performers of the yesterdays, Midnight and Five Minutes to Midnight.

The regional office of the Water Resources Development Corporation of Denver, which has the cloud seeding contract with the West Texas Weather Improvement District are being moved from Austin to Lamesa.

About 12 members of the WRDC's staff will be moved. It has been announced and a part of these have already made arrangements for housing in Lamesa. The new offices will be in the Alexander Building in which the Lamesa Chamber of Commerce, the W.T. WID, the Dawson County Farm Bureau, and a number of business and professional men are already located.

Dick Anderson of Okolona, Mississippi, says that the extra weight put on by calves carrying a Shorthorn cross pays his taxes and then some.
His cow herd consists of grade Shorthorn and Whiteface cows, most of them carrying from one-fourth to one-half Brahma blood. He says that from now on he is going to use only Shorthorn bulls and bulls with a Shorthorn-Brahma cross.

The percentage of successful bulldogging was also low here with the Beutler steers from Florida as it has been all year. Last year Dub Phillips was the RCA world's champion bulldogger but last week in Big Spring both his steers slipped right through his fingers and won nothing more than "no time" on either of them. Last year Don McLaughlin of Fort Worth was the world's champion RCA calf roper winning $12,522, but here in Big Spring he could do no better than finish third on the Beutler Brothers last Brahma calves.

He says he believes the best cows for his section of the country are those carrying from three-eighths to one-half Brahma blood, the balance Shorthorn. He is highly pleased with the calves such cows produce from Shorthorn bulls.

Nor can the Beutler bulls and broncs be depreciated in performance value with the statement that we didn't have the best riders in the world here. In the shows already produced by the Beutlers this season the country's best riders have met this stock, and have failed to lower its riding percentage.

With Lynn Beutler as arena director and Gene Payne of Tucson as announcer the show moved along at a rapid pace with continuous action from the beginning to the end of each performance.

All in all it was a top show.

De Vigier, 28, obtained the annulment yesterday by default. His lawyers said there was no out-of-court settlement, but at the request of De Vigier the court ordered the hearing testimony and exhibits sealed.

The couple met at a soda fountain where she was a waitress and were married in a civil ceremony at Quartzsite, Ariz., last Nov. 14. They were re-wed on their continental honeymoon at Notre Dame cathedral in Paris Nov. 22.

Shortly after their return to California they became estranged. She said she couldn't jump up to his level "and I couldn't ask him to come down to mine."

De Vigier is executive vice-president of a firm that manufactures heavy construction equipment. His offices are in Chicago.

"Guess our planes didn't knock out that mortar crew after all," remarked Capt. Bernard W. Peterson of Manhattan Beach, Calif.
U. N. artillery soon boomed behind us again. Shells zoomed overhead and crashed into the hill beyond. The Red mortars became silent.

Mitchell Helped Write First Chapter In Stevenson Story

By RUSSELL LANE
CHICAGO (U.S.) — Stephen Arnold Mitchell, the new Democratic national chairman, says he's an amateur in politics.

His friends say that's a technicality. Mitchell, a 48-year-old Chicago lawyer, has been around behind the scenes.

He is one of four men who wrote the opening chapter of the political success story of Gov. Adlai Stevenson, the Democratic presidential nominee. That was in 1947.

Mitchell and his fellow townsmen Herman Dunlap Smith and Louis Kohn sold Stevenson and Jacob M. Arvey on the idea that Stevenson was candidate material. Mitchell envisioned Stevenson as U. S. senator. But Arvey decided he should be governor of Illinois.

It was in Stevenson's gubernatorial campaign that Mitchell did his only public politicking. He made speeches for his candidate.

Unofficially, Mitchell has been one of the Illinois governor's most trusted confidantes and advisers.

Stevenson, who appointed Mitchell party leader last Friday, has known him for 13 years. They met casually while both were in private law practice in Chicago before World War II. Both held State Department jobs for a time during the war. They've kept in close touch since.

Mitchell was born at Rock Valley, Ia., March 9, 1903. His father, also Stephen Mitchell, was a banker-farmer, but not wealthy. A shortage of funds made it necessary for young Steve to work his way through Creighton University by sandwiching working years on his father's dairy farm between his years of campus activity.

At Georgetown University, where he took his law degree in 1928, he worked part time in the credit department of General Motors Acceptance Corp. He stayed with that firm four years after he graduated. Then he went into Chicago practice.

During the war he served as chief of the French Division, Lend Lease Administration, and as a State Department expert on French affairs.

His wife is the former Evelyn Josephine Miller of Waterloo, Ia. They have three boys.

The family attends Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Roman Catholic Church in Chicago.

The Mitchells live in a rented apartment on Chicago's North Side. They have maintained a small furnished apartment in Washington since March this year when he was appointed counsel of the House Judiciary Subcommittee investigating the Department of Justice.

Mitchell, who prefers single breasted suits and a narrow, colorful bow tie, is a cagy conversationalist. The day after his appointment, he told reporters, "I usually say what I think, but things are different now."

That was after he was asked if he considered himself a liberal or a conservative Democrat and replied: "Those words confuse me."

Mitchell, who maintains that his appointment as Democratic national chairman was a surprise, admits he had told Stevenson he was available for any duties which might help in the presidential campaign.

He went actively after a political job himself in the summer of 1947. He wanted to succeed J. Alfred Woll, who resigned as U. S. attorney at Chicago in July of that year. But Mitchell's ambition was blocked by Arvey, who supported Otto Kerner Jr. for the appointment. Kerner got it.

Only a few months later, Mitchell got Arvey into his corner backing Stevenson for Illinois governor.

Mitchell has been active in civic enterprises. He headed the Illinois Speakers Bureau for the War Bond Drives; served on the State Medical Center Commission, and was active in the American Vote Council, a group dedicated to getting out the voters on election day.

He heads the law firm of Mitchell, Conway and Bane in Chicago's Board of Trade Building.

Former Foes Unite To Fight McMath

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (U.S.) — Gov. Sid McMath's three former opponents lined up solidly behind Francis Cherry last night in an election eve move to defeat the governor in his bid for a third-term Democratic nomination.

The three candidates who were defeated in the preferential primary two weeks ago appeared on Cherry's radio "Talkathon" to urge their supporters to vote for the country judge for governor in today's runoff election.

McMath, recently endorsed by President Truman and supported by both the CIO and AFL's Political League, said earlier last night in a broadcast that Cherry was "preparing an alibi for his coming defeat."

The appearance of U. S. Rep. Boyd Tackett, Atty. Gen. Ike Murry and former Atty. Gen. Jack Holt on Cherry's talkathon—a marathon question and answer session—climaxed one of the most bitter campaigns in recent Arkansas history.

Volcanic word battles erupted following the first primary, when Cherry received about 91,000 votes, allowing McMath only about a 9,000-vote margin to lead the five-man field.

The governor accused Cherry of having no program, of hiding behind "slyster lawyers" and "Florida promoters" who screened talkathon questions, of planning to abandon farm to - market road building, of referring to McMath's private life by "innuendo" and of being supported by "special interests."

The 43-year-old judge said his program had been more fully outlined in answers to 30,000 questions than in any previous elec-

Thousands Are Needed For Health Care, Report Says

WASHINGTON (U.S.) — The President's Commission on Health Needs of the Nation was told today that thousands more dentists, nurses and medical assistants are needed to care for the American people.

Summaries of panel discussions held during the last two months by 21 medical, military and lay experts were presented at the opening of a two-day session by the commission.

The panel summaries indicated the exact shortage of trained people, including physicians and surgeons, depends on how U. S. medical care is "organized."

Proposing a plan for doing this is one purpose of the commission. President Truman appointed its members last December. He has been plugging for a national compulsory health insurance plan. The commission was told to study the facts and present a program for "safeguarding and improving the health of the nation."

The American Medical Association, opposed to what it calls "socialized medicine," has described the appointment of the Truman commission an act of "political expediency."

The panel summaries estimated about 3,000 dentists are being turned out each year, but around 3,400 are needed to maintain the proportion of dentists to total population at its present level.

They also estimated thousands more nurses are needed each year than are trained and said the American Hospital Association has such fields as laboratory technicians, occupational therapy, X-ray technicians and hospital administration.

It was estimated that less than

County Balance In Slight Decrease

Howard County wound up with a cash balance of $302,097.80 on July 31, $35,241.56 less than that on June 30.

Expenditures totaled $55,380.11 while receipts came up $50,128.55. Of the expenditures, $31,304.93 came out of the Road and Bridge Fund and of that amount $17,592.93 went for six miles of paving in the Luther community.

An outlay of $1,802.89 was also made out of the Courthouse and Jail Building Fund.

A total of $37,528.51 was transferred from the Road and Bridge Special Fund to the Road and Bridge Fund while $304.22 was transferred from the Road and Bridge Fund to the Officers Salary Fund.

It was estimated that less than one-half of Americans seek dental care each year. Members of the dental panel agreed that "adequate" dental care is not available to all citizens.
