Council Prepares for April Election

by C. J. WREN

Plans for the spring elections and approval of amendments to the student association Constitution highlighted a Student Council meeting Tuesday night.

Petitions and rules for spring elections may be picked up at the Council office beginning Monday. Petitions are due April 9. Election will be Wednesday, April 16, with the run-off election Wednesday, April 23.

Expenditures lists must be in by 5 p.m. Monday, April 14. Complete election rules were adopted by the council with minor amendments. (See page 4 for rules.)

THE PRE-LAW CLUB proposed to the Council for approval of a plan to let candidates make short speeches to government classes of about 10 minutes to present platforms. "This would reach about one-fourth of the student body," Jim Ray, club spokesman, said. "It will be a great day when campus elections become more than a popularity contest," Don Ledwig, Council Business manager, said.

The Elections Committee will work with Pre-Law on the proposal.

Several amendments to the present Constitution, most of them minor, were approved. "This is the first time since 1948 that the Constitution has been touched. Many changes are due to the installation of the matriculation fee," David Thompson, president, said.

These amendments will be voted on in the regular election, April 16. These amendments will appear in THE TOREADOR before election. WICK ALEXANDER, vice president, reported that plans for Spring Festival are nearly complete with the exception of the Barbecue Saturday of Festival week, April 16 through 19.

Rules and regulations for the Bicycle Race may be picked up in the Council office starting tomorrow. The race is open to the whole student body and entry blanks may be filled out in the Council office, Alexander said.

LINDA BUNGER was installed as Arts and Science representative by Thompson. She replaces a vacancy left by Dub Heffington.

A king and queen to be sent to the Rice Rondelet need to be selected, Pat Rainer, secretary, reported.

Queens, chosen from the Homecoming queen and her court, are Sharla Pepper to University of Texas Roundup, Arleen Durkee to TCU Ranch Week, Marilyn Morris to Texas A&M Cotton Pageant and Mary Katherine Birkelbach to SMU Manada.

THE COUNCIL approved publicity recommendations proposed by BSO with the exception of organizations designated to authorize posters.

It was proposed by BSO that it approve posters for all campus

Character Artist Appears In Tech Union Next Week

by LYNDA TULL

"See yourself as others see you," is the slogan of Juan Avila, a well-known character sketcher who is visiting in the Tech Union Building for the next week.

"The story behind the beginning of my current type of drawings is funny," said Avila. "It was at a fraternity party where I was doing portrait paintings, when I first began caricatures. Having a good time, I began to make these caricatures of the boys just for fun. The next night at another fraternity party, I was again asked to draw the caricatures. So I changed from the commercial artist to the character sketcher, although I still do portraits."

For 24 years Avila has traveled across the United States, from coast to coast. He was born in Mexico and attended the San Carlos Academy in Mexico City. Avila says that lately he has been traveling mostly to Texas schools.

Avila's location during his visit is in the southeast end of the SUB. He works practically all day drawing students.

The caricatures themselves bring out the personality traits that others see in you. Some are rather humorous, but individuals can still be recognized. Each caricature costs $1.50.

OCEAN TO OCEAN ACROSS SOUTH AMERICA—AND BACK—IN 41 HOURS! CHEVY'S NEW V8 LEVELS THE HIGHEST, HARDEST HIGHWAY OVER THE ANDES!

To prove the durability of Chevrolet's radical new Turbo-Thrust V8,* the tremendous flexibility of the new Turboglide transmission,* the incredible smoothness of Full Coil suspension, we tackled the most challenging transcontinental road in the world — the 1,000-mile General San Martin Highway. To make it harder, the Automobile Club of Argentina sealed the hood shut at Buenos Aires — no chance to add oil or water or adjust carburetors for high altitude.

So the run began — across the blazing Argentine pampas, into the ramparts of the forbidding Andes. Up and up the road climbed, almost 2½ miles in the sky! Drivers gasped for oxygen at 12,572 feet — but the Turbo-Thrust V8 never slackened its torrent of power, the Full Coil springs smothered every bump, the Turboglide transmission made play of grades up to 30 percent. Then a plunge to the Pacific at Valparaiso, Chile, a quick turn-around and back again. Time for the round trip: 41 hours 14 minutes — and the engine was never turned off!

organizations. Council voted to leave the authority as it is now with the Student Council and Tech Union with approval authority.

BSO asked for poster approval to aid in contacting campus organizations and to help the organizations with publicity programs.

'THE STAMPING of posters is running smoothly now. I feel it would confuse the issue by splitting the authority on stamping,' Chuck Strehli, representative, said.

Plans for this spring's World University Service were presented by Richard Estes. WUS week will be April 29 through May 2. Goal this year is $500. This is an increase of about $100 above last year, Estes pointed out.

Activities planned are Greek Night, Car Wash, dormitory drive and Mile of Pennies.

THE COUNCIL voted to distribute to each organization on campus a copy of the minutes of each meeting. The motion, proposed by Estes, was so that the student body will be more familiar with how the Council works.

Also, the Council commended BSO on the "fine job it has done this year." Alexander made the proposal.
Next Council meeting will be April 1.

The South Shall Rise Again! Eleri Secedes from the Union

LRAEP, Eleri (P)—The Queen vel. of this self-proclaimed new nation near Waller, Tex., again Wednesday eluded the might of the United States government in the form of a frustrated deputy marshal.

The deputy, Ellis Binford is trying to hand her a little piece of paper saying that half of the 713-acre farm she claims is not hers.

THE QUEEN is Mrs. Irene Pearl Smith Clett. A sister handed reporters a document Monday declaring the farm a free nation and giving it the name of Eleri with a capital named Lraep. That's Mrs. Clett's names spelled backward.

The document also sought membership in the United Nations. Mrs. Clett pitched a tent on the disputed property last weekend and displayed a shotgun aimed at discouraging anyone who sought to take the land from her.

DEP. BINFORD sought to serve legal papers Monday but couldn't find Mrs. Clett. In fact, he didn't get on the property. Mrs. Lucy Mayberry, Mrs. Clett's sister, drove him away with the swish of a GI shoe.

NCAAFencing Tournery Starts Saturday

by RON CALHOUN
The National Collegiate Fencing Tournament, featuring outstanding college teams from over the country, starts Friday in the Men's Gym sponsored by Texas Tech. Tech's team will be composed of Frank Griffin, a senior physics major from Slaton, in the foil;

Royce Bruce, sophomore personnel management student from Lubbock, in the epee; and Delano McLane, sophomore agriculture major from Ralls, in the saber. THE RAIDERS placed 16th last year in competition at Detroit, but the captain of the team, Griffin, expects much better results this weekend; possibly placing in the top ten. Griffin is the only returning Tech fencer from last year's team. Tech's fencers will be facing tough competition from such teams as Columbia, New York University, and Wayne State. The tournament has been dominated for the past few years by Columbia and NYU. NYU is the defending champion by virtue of a one point win over Columbia last year. Columbia won in 1954 and '55, placing second in '56.

COLUMBIA'S chances were slightly dimmed when their star epee competitor, James Margolis, was unable to make the trip when he sustained a leg injury.

Wayne State will enter a team paced by their defending champion in the foil division, Bruce Davis. Davis won the title last year by winning 26 of 27 bouts in tourney competition. He has won 30 consecutive bouts this year.

Other entries to date are Navy, California, Nebraska, Iowa, TCU, Texas A&M, Stevens Institute, Notre Dame, Illinois, Buffalo, Michigan State, Princeton, Yale, and Kansas.

THE COMPETITION will be on a round robin basis. A winner is declared when he scores five touches against his opponent.

Individual championships will be decided on the fencer scoring the highest number of touches. The team championship will be the highest total of points scored by the individual fencers.

A Campus-to-Career Case History

"Growth makes opportunities in the telephone company"

In October, 1957, only four years after graduation, Stanley W. Smith was appointed District Plant Engineer in Northwestern Bell Telephone Company. Here Stan tells what his responsibilities are and how his promotion came about.

"I'm responsible for outside plant engineering in a district which includes about one-third of all Bell telephones in Nebraska outside of Omaha," Stan says. "That's about 35,000 phones, and the number is growing every day."

"The most important part of my job is to plan for growth and have facilities ready when needed. This means planning for pole lines, aerial and underground cable, and conduit lines to the central office. I also make cost estimates for all planned construction so that money can be budgeted for it.

"This is the kind of job I really like—one which combines engineering and management. And it was the continuing growth of the business," Stan points out, "that opened up this new assignment for me. My predecessor was appointed to a newly created position and I was selected to replace him."

"What the future holds for me depends on a lot of things. But I can see from my present job that growth will keep opening opportunities for myself and other engineers like me. I'm more convinced than ever that the telephone company is the place to get ahead in an interesting and challenging career."

Stan Smith graduated from the University of Nebraska in 1953 with a B.S. in E.E. degree. He is one of many young men who are finding rewarding careers in the Bell Telephone Companies. Find out about opportunities for you. Talk with the Bell interviewer when he visits your campus, and read the Bell Telephone booklet on file in your Placement Office.

LONDON (AP)—The ever-growing world of golf Wednesday received what it wanted most—a world's amateur championship.

After 35 years of suggestions, talks, plans and negotiations the Royal and Ancient Golf Club and the U. S. Golf Assn.—who between them rule golf the world over—moved to set up the first championship.

A trophy from an anonymous American donor will be presented to the winning national team after the inaugural tournament in October in St. Andrews, Scotland.

A rumor circulating among some British amateurs Wednesday night—and so far it is just a rumor—is that the donor is President Eisenhower.

There was no confirmation of any kind, but the story goes that President Eisenhower for political reason did not want his name on the cup until after his term of office.

Brig. Eric Brickman, secretary of the Royal and Ancient Club in St. Andrews, declined to speculate about who the donor was.

"It is from an American," was all Brigadier Brickman would say. The trophy, for the time being at least, will carry only the inscription:

"World amateur golf team championship trophy. To further friendship among peoples of the world. By a donor."

Officially the championship will be among national teams. Unofficially, the individual low scorer will be "the world amateur champion."

The tournament will be a 72-hole medal play affair to be played over four days. Each country will send four golfers. The championship will be determined by adding the three lowest scores of each team.

Between 35 and 42 countries are expected for the first tournament at "the old grey city" on the North Sea Coast of Scotland.

Forty-nine countries have been invited to send representatives to an organization meeting at Chevy Chase, Md., near Washington, D.C., May 2-3. A worldwide tournament committee will be formed at that time.

The tournament will be rotated among three geographical areas—Europe, America and Australia. In 1960 the event will be played in the American zone and in 1962 somewhere in Australia.

October dates are desired to avoid conflict with the Walker Cup U.S. vs. Britain and the American Cup U.S., Canada and Mexico.

with DOWELL, you hold the key

What can an oil man do when, after drilling a well, he finds oil won't flow into the well? This happens quite often even though there is every evidence of oil in the formation. As few as just ten years ago he might have had to abandon the well. Not today, however. Sandfrac*, Petrofrac*, Riverfrac*—or any one of several other exclusive Dowell fracturing services might be used to make this well a good producer.

Hydraulic Fracturing is an oil well treating technique which involves the pumping of special fluids under high pressure down a well. The fluids are forced out into the formation to fracture and open up natural drainage channels. Dowell is called on repeatedly to help oil men solve special well problems, and improve the producing characteristics of oil, gas and water wells.

To solve these problems, it takes a team of well-trained, creative people. It takes able men to design new fracturing services; others to prove them, still more to apply them properly. The key to unlocking formations and performing a real service to the oil industry is held jointly by every Dowell employee. Fortunately, Dowell is staffed with people who can accept a challenge—but more are needed.

If you are a technical or business graduate seeking an opportunity to unlock your abilities, Dowell can provide the key. For complete information on careers with Dowell, consult your Placement Officer or write Personnel Department, Dowell Incorporated, Box 536, Tulsa 1, Oklahoma.

Women Loosed on Aggieland

The wails of some Aggie exes could be heard afar Wednesday after a judge ruled that women should be admitted to the hallowed, all-male halls of Texas A&M College. But others liked the idea.

Along with the wails, at least one Aggie ex said the decision by Dist. Judge W. T. McDonald was correct, although he didn't like it.

AT BRYAN, where the decision was handed down, the attorney fighting for admission of two women clients to the school called for—and got—police protection.

The attorney for the women asking admission to A&M is John M. Barron.

He said he had received telephone calls and letters threatening bodily harm since he became attorney for Mrs. Lena Bristol and Mrs. Barbara Tittle, both of Bryan.

THE ATTORNEY SAID both callers used "unprintable" language and were men.

Strongest opinion stated publicly was that of Ralph Gorman Jr., president of the Dallas A&M Club. "It will do the school a lot of harm. I can't see how anybody can favor it."

AT AUSTIN, another Aggie ex, John Hardman, said, "I'm against it, but from a legal standpoint it's correct because it's a state school. But I hate to see it because of the tradition."

Actually, A&M is invaded by women each summer session. Also women have attended the school during the regular session in the past under special circumstances.

Judge McDonald ruled that women's rights had been violated under the 14th Amendment.

JAMES N. LADLUM, college chief counsel, said he would appeal.

That Texas Women's University, Denton, might be invaded by men was indicated by Claude A. Thormalen, 18, Alice.

Wednesday he wired the TWU president, Dr. John A. Guinn, asking admission this fall.

THORMALEN is a 6-5, 185-pound senior in William Adams High School at Alice. He played tackle on the football team.

Asked his reasons for wanting to enter TWU, Thormalen said, "Aren't they obvious?"

The youngster's father and Dr. Guinn are good friends. The elder Thormalen, C. A., is county superintendent of schools. Guinn was Alice superintendent 1946-48.

DR. GUINN was not immediately available for comment.

The registrar at TWU, Francis Emerson, said the Alice youth's application had not been received. He said it would be rejected because the law specified the school was for girls.

THE A&M CAMPUS was relatively quiet during the night. Someone threw a firecracker. Reports circulated that some cadets threw their sabers and boots in a pile in protest, but the pile had disappeared by morning and the report could not be confirmed.

Binford told reporters, adding that he believes Mrs. Cliett is hiding somewhere in Houston, 30 miles southeast.

"This farce has gone far enough," Binford said as he began his return trip to Houston.

A dozen or more neighbors were on the farm when Binford arrived. They were a part of Mrs. Cliett's army which has helped her by keeping an advance look-out for deputy marshals.

Mrs. Cliett's feud with federal authorities began 24 years ago when heirs of the late George Scott filed suit for one-half of the property. Mrs. Cliett contends Scott was a friend of her father and that she only gave him a home for 13 years until he died in 1933.

FEDERAL JUDGE T. M. Kennerly ruled that while the deeds to the property were in Mrs. Cliett's name there was indication of some sort of partnership in the farm's operations. A 50-50 partitioning of the property was ordered. The final court order was entered last July after several unsuccessful efforts to appeal.
