

Yale Takes Lead in NCAA Tourney

by LEE SULLINGER

Four teams are pacing the field as the NCAA fencing tournament enters its final stages today at Texas Tech. Yale, with 31 victories in yesterday's action, is ahead of the pack, followed closely by Columbia, last year's runner-up, with 30, Illinois with 29 and Navy with 27.

Texas Tech, the host team, managed 15 wins in Friday's matches, and entered today's play in 12th place.

BIGGEST NOISE made in the first day of competition was by Yale's John Norton. The Bulldog flash wound up the day leading all entries in the foil division with 11 victories. One of those wins was an upset of Bruce Davis of Wayne State, defending foil champion and winner of 30 consecutive matches.

Davis, who was the popular favorite to repeat as champ this year, has 10 wins in the foil division, along with Gerald Bodner of Wisconsin.

IN THE EPEE division, Tom Moshangi of Columbia and R. R. Wommack of Navy are tied with 10 victories apiece.

Columbia's Frank Parisi and Illinois' Arthur Schanklin lead the sabre division with 13 wins each.

Texas Tech, trailing the leaders by a considerable margin, has been paced in the national tournament, first ever held in Texas, by player-coach Frank Griffin and Delano McLane.

GRIFFIN HAS six victories in the foil division, the same number McLane boasts with his sabre. Royce Bruce, entered in the epee division, has three wins for the Red Raiders.

Tech finished 16th in last year's national tournament, the highest a team from the Southwest has ever finished.

THE MATCHES, which were run off yesterday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the Tech Gymnasiums, will resume today at 11 a.m. The tournament is scheduled to be completed by 2 p.m. today.

Competition is on a round robin basis, with the first man to score five touches against his opponent being declared the winner.

Individual championships will be determined by the highest number of touches being scored by one fencer, and team championships will be decided by the highest number of points scored by a school's individual fencers.

MEDALS WILL BE presented immediately following the completion of the tournament.

Teams from throughout the nation have converged on the Tech campus for the championships. Included in the entrants are defending champion NYU, Wisconsin, third in last year's tournament, eighth-place Princeton, ninth-place Notre Dame and tenth-place Illinois.

Shaffer Featured At Annual Event

Five Texas Tech social fraternities received awards for scholarship, sportsmanship and athletics at the annual Interfraternity Council smoker in the Rec Hall Thursday night.

Preceding the awards ceremony, Dr. Robert H. Shaffer, dean of students at Indiana University, was guest speaker at an Interfraternity Council banquet.

Approximately 350 fraternity men attended the awards presentation.

ALPHA TAU OMEGA received the scholarship plaque presented by James G. Allen, Tech dean of student life. This plaque is awarded the fraternity making the highest composite grade average in the two previous semesters.

Delta Tau Delta received the Sportsmanship award. It was presented by James Whitehead, assistant dean of men. The sportsmanship award is given as a result of balloting by all fraternities.

PHI DELTA THETA won the Sweepstakes Blanket, an award presented for the first time this year. The winner is determined by the greater number of intramural points compiled in all sports for the spring and fall semesters last year. Edsel Buchanan, intramural director awarded the trophy.

Other sports awards went to Phi Delta Theta for winning the fraternity league in football last fall and basketball and track last spring. Phi Gamma Delta won the basketball trophy for 1958 competition and Kappa Sigma received a trophy for winning the softball league last spring.

ALSO RECOGNIZED at the smoker and banquet were the presidents of the fraternities. They are Jerry Evans, Alpha Tau Omega; Jerry Martin, Delta Tau Delta; Buddy Wayne Gibbens, Kappa Sigma; John Roberts, Phi Delta Theta; Lawrence Merriman, Phi Gamma Delta.

Thomas Holeman, Phi Kappa Psi; Pi Kappa Alpha, Jefferson Garrison; Richard Ligon, Sigma Alpha Epsilon; Joe Hood, Sigma Chi and Carey McAdams, Sigma Nu.

Scholarship shingles were presented to the pledge and member of each fraternity having the highest scholastic average for either the spring or fall semester of 1957.

ALPHA TAU OMEGA awards went to Edward Myrick, member and Don Gates, pledge for the spring semester; Delbert Hess, AP HIGHLIGHTS . . .

US Living Cost Hits New High Despite Slump

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Nation's living costs, moving contrary to the business decline, rose to another record level in February.

The rise of two-tenths of one per cent from January in the government index represented the 16th time in 18 months that consumers' costs have risen.

Food, the main item of family budgets, again was the chief factor. This was due to continued bad crop weather in Florida and throughout much of the South—where most of the winter's fruit and vegetables are grown.

The Labor Department index rose to a mid-February level of 122.5 per cent of the index's 1947-49 average. This is 3.2 per cent above last year. Food also was at a high, 4.5 per cent over the same time last year.

Indonesians Trap 300

SINGAPORE (AP)—The Indonesian army claimed Friday it had 300 rebels trapped against a lake-shore in North Sumatra and that rebel forces were being deeply whittled by death and desertion.

The revolutionary regime, on the other hand, announced over its radio at Bukittinggi that it had formed a fledgling navy and put it into action against a government blockade.

A rebel leader also charged that Soviet ships had arrived at Jakarta, capital of President Sukarno, with arms shipments for the government forces.

Army spokesman Lt. Col. Rudy Pirmagadi said in Fakarta that Maj. Boyke Naimn Golan, leader of a mutiny in the North Sumatran capital of Medan last Sunday, was pinned against the east side of Lake Toba with 300 of his men. Golan had not boats to escape across the lake, a resort about 50 miles southwest of Medan, the spokesman said.

Ooops—Kraut Play Not 'till Thursday

The "Liederkranz Revue" will be presented Thursday, March 27, at 8 p.m. in the Tech Ballroom. (In retraction to the article in the last issue of THE TOREADOR which announced the show for last Thursday).

The show will begin with the presentation of the chorus line which will dance to the Liechtensteiner Polka.

A new male quartet, which calls itself "Die vier Cowboys" will sing an original German song, "Smoky".

The show is a take-off of a modern TV show complete with German versions of Commercials.

The production is for the benefit of students taking German but the show is free and open to the public.

Comic Opera Set

"The Triumph of Honor" or "The Rake's Reform" by Alessandro Scarlatti, a comic opera in English, will be presented Tuesday and Wednesday at 8 p.m. by the Tech Opera Workshop.

The gay and lighthearted opera will be given in the choir room of the Music Building and admission is free.

Two young ladies and their aunt provide a comical situation when they find themselves in love with the same man, each sure of his love for her.

Red Cross Pledge Cards Distributed on Campus

Pledge cards for the 1958 Lubbock County Red Cross fund drive are being distributed to all staff and faculty members at Tech today, Burt M. Abel, associate professor of finance and campus fund chairman, announced.

"When tornadoes hit the South Plains last Spring, the American Red Cross was on the job giving aid in 24 counties to 160 families," Abel said. "All told, $129,965 was expended in this area for the relief and rehabilitation of disaster victims."

The goal for Lubbock County is $70,667, he said.

"Any pledge or contribution to the Lubbock County Red Cross fund drive will be welcome support for a year-round program in this community," Abel said.

Each department has been requested to turn in its pledge cards to Abel by March 26.

No direct solicitation of Tech students will be made, but their contributions will be accepted at the Red Cross Chapter House, 1641 Broadway.

Members of Kappa Kappa Gamma and Pi Beta Phi sororities will be participating in the Lubbock residential fund drive next week. This division is headed by Mrs. DeWitt Weaver.

Tech's Upperclassmen Are Screened

Texas Tech's top juniors and seniors are being screened this week as possible candidates for Phi Kappa Phi, international scholastic honorary society which established a chapter at Tech last year.

Only students in the upper 10 per cent of their graduating class or upper five per cent of the junior class can qualify.

Dr. Donald Ashdown, Tech chapter president, said "Phi Kappa Phi is one of the academic world's top honorary societies, for two reasons:

It is one of the most selective, having more rigid grade standards than most. Also, it is the only major society which cuts across all academic disciplines, recognizing outstanding scholastic endeavor in all schools."

Installation of a chapter at Tech last year was a major mark of distinction for the institution, Ashdown said.

CAMPUS

Delta Gamma Initiates Pledges

Gamma Xi chapter of Delta Gamma climaxed Delta Gamma week by initiating 21 pledges, March 9. During the week the fall pledges were honored with a series of pre-initiation parties.

Vanda Carter was chosen best pledge of the fall pledge class and was presented a plaque with her name engraved.

Those initiated were: Nancy Baldwin, Barbara Morgan, Houston; Jan Walner, Cam Murray, Judy Jukes, Marcia Anglen, Gloria Lindsey, Dallas; Susie Easterwood, Judy Ford, Fort Worth; Gay Terry, Beverly Austin, Linda Jobb, Lubbock; Hazel Tripp, Susie Novak, Odessa; Vanda Carter, Floydada; Jan Smith, Memphis; Charlotte Hargis, Seminole; Kay Moseley, Tomball; Sharon Cochran, Waco; Pat Young, San Angelo; and Gale McDougal, Abertathy.

Other Delta Gamma activities included an annual Spring Dinner Dance March 7 at Lubbock Country Club.

Music for the dance which followed the buffet dinner was provided by the Kingsman Combo. Floral decorations of pink and white carried out the spring theme. Delta Gammas received white gardenias as a special surprise and their dates were presented favors.

Sigma Iota Epsilon Meet Thursday

Sigma Iota Epsilon, honorary management fraternity, met Thursday evening at the Spur Restaurant.

Special guests for the monthly professional meeting were M. A. Cox, personnel director for Proctor and Gamble, and J. P. Cooley, personnel director for Container Corporation of America.

Initiation Climaxes Tri-Delta Week

Initiation services Thursday and Friday nights climaxed Delta Week for 24 pledges of the Phi Eta chapter of Delta Delta Delta sorority.

Delta Week, a traditional observance of the Tech chapter, began last Sunday and will continue through tomorrow night.

Activities so far have included group church attendance, a paddle party, at which pledges presented paddles to their big sisters, an initiate's party given by the members for the pledges and the two stages of the initiation ceremony.

The Tri-Delts will plant the traditional pine tree, one of the sorority's symbols, on the Tech campus this afternoon. A pine tree is planted for each pledge class that is initiated.

Delta Week concludes Sunday night with the honor Awards banquet, a new feature of the week. Presentation of the best pledge, best member, high scholarship pledge, high scholarship member and ideal Delta of the month will be made at the banquet.

Wants Display

Texas Tech's Union will display student's exhibits.

Anyone having an interesting hobby or collection that they are willing to exhibit in the Union are asked to contact Cora Jean McMurty, Weeks Hall. This project is being sponsored by the music and exhibits committee.

Zeta Tau Pledges Conclude Initiation

Twenty-two members of the Zeta Tau Alpha pledge class will enter the final stage of their initiation ceremony at 1 p.m. today at the First Methodist Church.

The initiation ceremony, which began last week, is the highlight of the traditional Zeta Week. The week opened last Saturday night with the presentation of the Zeta pledges in the ballroom of the Caprock Hotel.

Zeta Week activities will be conducted Monday afternoon with a reception for the new members in the home of Mrs. Glenn Keyton.

Activities so far this week have included an announcement dinner at Leslie's Chicken Shack and a paddle party at which big sisters were honored by their little sisters.

There will be a breakfast Sunday morning at Walden's, after which the Zetas will attend church in a group.

Longhandles, Lass Book Among 'Lost, Found'

by BARBARA WRIGHT
Attention all size 40 boys:
Unclaimed in the lost and found is a pair of white longhandles just your size.

This winterized wear is only one of the many unusual articles awaiting owners in the campus lost and found in the Tech Union.

For example, there is also a little red book filled with names and addresses of some local lasses.

The cool cat who misplaced his red plaid ivy league cap can find it at the Union. Also, in the lost and found is a blue hat. It appears to have once been an "active" in the Air Force ROTC, but now it is only "fading away."

There is one lost article almost defying explanation — a broken thermometer. Perhaps it was worn out and left over from last fall's Asian flu epidemic.

Some distinguished Tech gentleman will find his pipe in the lost and found. And some coed would probably be relieved to discover her short velveteen jacket at the Union.

Speaking of jackets, there are about 30 coats and sweaters unclaimed. Other winter apparel which Tech students may still need despite spring's arrival, includes gloves of all kinds, innumerable head scarves, and a few hats.

Lost books varying from Milton to the World Book Encyclopedia may be found at the union. Clip boards, paper, and notebooks are other school supplies there.

There must be a lot of students groping blindly around campus, if the number of lost glasses is any indication. An optical business could be set up with the Union's present stock of lens, frames, and glass cases.

Among other lost articles waiting to be claimed are a small slide rule, 3 high school senior rings, lighter, keys, billfolds, lipstick, pens, pencils and assorted jewelry,

Thinclads Resume Action In West Texas Relays Today

Texas Tech's track squad swings back into action this weekend, making the West Texas Relays at Odessa their third outing.

Competing with Tech in the University division will be the University of Texas, Abilene Christian College, North Texas State, Houston, Baylor and Southern Methodist.

In the preliminaries for the bulky high school division, held yesterday, three records were set, with Abilene and Andrews projecting a two-way fight for their division championship.

Andrews, which will make its title bid mostly through the relays, led in record smashing. The quartet of Larry Shoemaker, Ray Ham, Tony Cin and Jerry Jetton broke the 440-yard relay mark of 43.2 seconds with 42.6. And the combination of Shoemaker, R. E. Merritt, Ronnie Grice and Petton rubbed out the mile relay record of 3:25.0 with a glittering 3:23.1. Abilene also bettered the record with 3:23.5.

Major League Expansion Discussed by Owners

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — A pair of baseball moguls suggested changes and expansions of the major league picture Friday. They didn't agree and Commissioner Ford C. Frick, who would be involved in any such doings, was happy "because they are talking baseball."

That was the commissioner's only comment on the suggestion of Del Webb, co-owner of the New York Yankees, that the Kansas City Athletics and the Philadelphia Phillies should swap franchises.

The second proposal came from Lou Perini, owner of the Milwaukee Braves, who would have both major leagues expand to 10 teams by 1960 and then expand further to 12 clubs in about five years.

me," said Gles, "and I'm sure it doesn't to any of the National League owners."

"We are happy in Philadelphia," was Carpenter's reply.

"I'm an American League man," said Johnson. "I don't like the idea at all."

By transferring the Phillies to Kansas City the National League teams would have a logical jumping off place, Webb pointed out.

By returning the Athletics to Philadelphia, where they won fame for more than 50 years under the immortal Connie Mack, the Western terminus of the American League would be at Chicago.

Two league rivalries could be exploited by the suggested moves.

The A's building up their gam with the New York Yankees at the Phils establishing a Missouri feud with the St. Louis Cardinal.

In explaining his plans for expansion, Perini said, "The people are entitled to it."

The Milwaukee mogul said I felt Minneapolis-St. Paul, Fort Worth-Dallas, Toronto, Denver and Atlanta would be ready in year or two for major league franchises.

He said he figured the team for the expansion of the league to 12 teams would come from Mexico City, Montreal, Havana and Caracas, Venezuela.
