Clubs Fail to Reserve Annual Pages; La Ventana Moves Deadline to Friday

Deadline for reserving a club page in the 1954 La Ventana has been extended to 5 p.m. Friday. Forty-four organizations on campus have not yet reserved their page. Earl Dietering, business manager, announced Monday. Reservations should be made by contacting Dietering in La Ventana office, J205.

The following clubs had not made a reservation at the original deadline time Monday: Agricultural Club, Alpha Chi, Alpha Epsilon Delta, Alpha Phi Omega, Alpha Psi Omega, Alpha Tau Omega, Alpha Zeta, American Chemical Society, American Institute of Architects, American Institute of Industrial Engineers, American Military Engineers, American Society of Civil Engineers, American Institute of Chemical Engineers, American Society of Mechanical Engineers.

Baptist Student Union, Delta Delta Delta, Donk Hall, Forum, Future Farmers of America, Future Teachers of America, Home Economics Club, Horn Hall, Infantry Club, International Relations Club, Kappa Alpha Mu, Kappa Kappa Psi, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Zeta Tau Alpha, Mu Phi Epsilon.

La Ventana Seeks Ten Top Beauties

Entries for the beauty contest sponsored by the 1954 La Ventana may be turned in now at the office, J205. Any club may sponsor one or more women who have a 1-point grade average. Each entry must be accompanied by written consent of the woman, Editor Ted Harrison reminds.

The 10 top beauties will be presented in the yearbook and at the annual spring Varsity Show. Initial elimination of candidates will be made by a panel of local portrait photographers and final judging will be by a celebrity whose name has not yet been revealed. The beauties will be pictured in the annual alphabetically and not in order of their beauty, Harrison explains.

In the past three years, sophomore beauties appear to have been favored slightly. Out of the top 20, seven were sophomores, six were freshmen, five were seniors and two were juniors. Geographically it seems that Lubbock's women tend to be most attractive, five having been featured in the past three years. Other winners have listed different home towns. Mary Anne Kelley, Colorado City, was selected in two consecutive years, 1951 and 1952. Sue Haynie, Lubbock, also was selected twice, in 1951 and 1952.

TRIP TICKETS READY

Students who have paid for the trip to Houston on the special train are requested by J. C. Chambers, Student Council president, to pick up their tickets this week in the council office.

Receipts were given to students paying the $17, and these must be exchanged for train and game tickets, Chambers added.

HAMPTON TO SPEAK

Don Hampton, senior architecture student from Clyde, will speak Monday night to the American Institute of Architects about his trip to the National AIA Convention in Seattle last summer.

Aggie Club Pig Roast Features Awards, Recognition for Six Scholarship Winners

More than $2,350 in scholarships were awarded and judging teams were recognized at the Aggie Club's 26th annual pig roast Tuesday night.

George Harral, Fort Stockton senior, was awarded the $300 Borden Company Foundation Scholarship in Agriculture for achieving the highest average grade in all college work preceding his senior year. Harral, with a grade-point average of 2.927, has the highest average of any Borden Scholarship winner so far.

Dwayne West, Keller sophomore and Red Raider player, and Spencer Norwood, Burleson senior, received the Robert B. Price Dairy Production scholarships of $100 each. West has a grade-point average of 2.485, and Norwood, an average of 2.217. This is the third time Norwood has received this scholarship, having qualified for

Writers Urge Raiders Be Asked To Play In Sugar, Cotton Tilts

By B. F. KELLUM
Toreador Sports Editor

Tech's Red Raiders are being mentioned as possible guest team in the Sugar or Cotton Bowl New Year's Day.

Strong suggestions that the Raiders appear either at New Orleans or Dallas, where these bowls are located, have been made by leading sports writers in the two cities.

First indication that Tech was being considered to play in one of the nation's top three classics came from a story written in the New Orleans Item one of the crescent City's major newspapers.

The Item, which has 103,000 circulation, pointed out that the Sugar Bowl committee is having a difficult time picking teams to play in this classic from the "slimmest field in history."

It declared, "If the Sugar Bowl committee is sincerely seeking a colorful new face, fresh money for our town (West Texas oil money, too, the greenest in all Texas) and a top-ranking challenger for a Southwestern Conference club, it could do itself proud with Texas Tech."

Tech has impressive record. Tech is the nation's highest scoring team with 341 points. It has defeated such teams as Mississippi State (once beaten in the SEC and one of its leaders); Oklahoma A&M; College of the Pacific (conqueror of Stanford); and Tulsa, just a week after the Hurricane defeated Houston.

The New Orleans paper further pointed out that Tech had a date this week with the University of Houston and if the Raiders can outpoint the up set-minded Cougars then the Sugar Bowl committee should not hesitate in inviting the boys from Lubbock.

In a story written by Harold V. Ratliff, Texas Associated Press sports editor, and published in the Dallas Times Herald, the Raiders were boomed for the visiting Cotton Bowl spot.

Ratliff said Tech owns one of the best records among major colleges in the state and apparently seems destined to wind up that way. He said he had been thinking about Tech for some time and sincerely believed that the Raiders would be the logical team to play in the Cotton Bowl.

Ratliff suggests invitation. In his column, Ratliff further pointed out that it was the policy of the Cotton Bowl committee to invite nationally known teams from other parts of the nation who have impressive records, but there are just not any. He said he could see no reason why Tech should not be invited. He added that he had suggested to the Cotton Bowl representatives to extend an invitation to the Raiders, provided they beat Houston.

Ratliff summed up his column by saying that Tech in the Cotton Bowl would insure a good football team to play the Southwest Conference champion.

Head Coach DeWitt Weaver is pleased by all the bowl talk, but refuses to let this take his mind or team members' minds off the game with Houston Saturday. He says that he knows nothing more. See BOWL BIDS, Page 7

H. L. ALLEN SPEAKS

The history of light and power companies and their future outlook were discussed by H. L. Allen at an AIEE-IRE meeting Monday. He is the vice president and Southern district manager of Southwestern Public Service Company.

PEP RALLY
A pep rally, sponsored by Saddle Tramps, will be held at 6:45 p.m. tomorrow at the Sante Fe railroad station.

The $400 J. S. Bridwell scholarship was awarded to Carl Menzies, Menard senior, who has a grade-point average of 2.64. Robert Tylman Mason, Abilene graduate student doing work in animal husbandry, received the Clarence Malone Soil and Water Conservation Scholarship worth $250.

The $1,200 Texas Cottonseed Crushers' Graduate Fellowship was awarded to Neal T. Garner, graduate student from Hico. John B. Stribling, Rotan graduate student, received the William L. Ellwood Fellowship.

Approximately 600 guests attended.

Favorites Chosen In Election Today

Mr. and Miss Texas Tech and class favorites were elected today as students went to the polls and voted for their choices.

Favorites were elected in class meetings at 5 p.m. Names of the favorites and Mr. and Miss Texas Tech were not available at the time of Toreador deadline.

Nominees for Miss Texas Tech were: Barbara Lu Currie, senior from Garden City; Nancy Hess, senior from Lubbock; Lena Schmidt, senior from Slaton. Candidates for Mr. Texas Tech were: Paul Griffith, senior from Tullia; Bobby Cavazos, senior from Kingsville; J. C. Chambers, senior from Lubbock; Max von Roeder, senior from Snyder.

Friday Is Deadline For Show Entries

Campus organizations wishing to sponsor an act in the World University Talent Show which will be held Dec. 9 should enter at the Student Council office by Friday.

The show, sponsored by the Student Council, will be held at 7:30 p.m. in the Student Union ballroom. Admission will be 50 cents. Proceeds from the show will be donated to the World University Service Fund. Purpose of this fund is to help students in universities all over the world to meet living expenses and books.

Last year, Tech donated $304 to the fund, third largest amount given by any college in Texas.

Acts of five minutes each will be staged by faculty and student organizations.

Organizations who have entered acts in the contest to date are the Tech Choir and the Faculty Club.

HOUSTON PEP RALLY

A pep rally at the Rice Hotel will mark the arrival of Tech students in Houston Saturday. Techsians on the special train will disembark and march en masse to the hotel before the Houston game.

Members of the Tech Band and Sam Houston Rifles, who will accompany the parade, will later perform in the half-time activities in Rice Stadium.

The train will leave the Lubbock Santa Fe Depot at 8 p.m. Friday.

It will leave Houston for Lubbock at 10 p.m. Saturday, arriving in Lubbock about noon Sunday.

NO TOREADOR . . .

'Most Handsome Man' To Be Chosen; Friday Is Deadline for Contest Entries

Deadline for entries in Tech's Most Handsome Man Contest is 5 p.m. Friday. Any campus organization may enter a candidate by submitting a 5 by 7 glossy photograph of its nominee and a data blank to Theta Sigma Phi, at Journalism Building. The most handsome one will be elected at the annual Club Scarlet, mock night, Dec. 5 in the Rec Hall.

The council of the Association of Women Students has agreed to select not more than seven runoff candidates before Club Scarlet.

let. Final choice will be made at Club Scarlet on mimeographed ballots, with each person present having one vote. The editor of the annual will present the winning candidate in the 1954 La Ventana.

The floor show at Club Scarlet will be composed of ten specialty numbers by campus clubs. Any organization desiring to give a skit should fill out an application and turn it in by 5 o'clock Friday afternoon, also. They should be addressed to Theta Sigma Phi, Journalism Building. Those taking part in the skits will be admitted free and will have a vote in the Most Handsome Man Contest.

In order to make the choice truly all-college, Mollie Jordan president of Theta Sigma Phi which sponsors Club Scarlet, is asking each organization on the campus to enter a candidate. The person need not be a member of the organization which submits his name. He must have a 1-point average unless he is a first term freshman and must be enrolled for at least 12 hours work during the current semester. He may be of any division or classification.

Block and Bridle Sets Deadline

Monday For Livestock Entries. All Ag students interested in showing animals in the annual Little International Show of farm animals, sponsored by Block and Bridle, are asked to attend a meeting in Ag224 at 5 p.m. either today or tomorrow.

The show will be held Dec. 12 and any agriculture major may enter. Tech animals will be issued to the students, who will prepare them for exhibition.

All entries must be in by noon Monday. Five classes—beef cattle, sheep, dairy cattle, quarter horses, and swine—will be judged. Block and Bridle hopes to have around 50 entries in the show.

To Show Slides of Spain

Slide pictures of Spain will be shown and discussed by Dr. J. C. Dowling, head of the foreign languages department, at a meeting of Sigma Delta Pi, honorary Spanish fraternity, at 7 o'clock Tuesday evening in the small meeting room of the Student Union. Margaret Ann Garlin, club president, requests all members to be present because pictures for the 1954 La Ventana will be taken.

Geologists Make Trip

Approximately 70 members of Sigma Gamma Epsilon, honorary geology fraternity, will leave at 7:30 Sunday morning on a four-stop field trip which was previously postponed. They will study fossils of the Triassic and Recent periods in sections south of Buffalo Lakes, southwest of Wilson, and east of Brownfield. Speakers will discuss fossils found, with relations to their geologic period.

To Judge Shorthorns

W. L. Stangel, dean of agriculture, will judge Shorthorn cattle at the 1954 San Antonio Livestock Exposition, according to Mark L. Blowne, general livestock committee chairman. Over $57,000 in livestock and horse show premiums, a record in the show's five-year history, are being offered in the Feb. 12-21 show.

Last Day To Drop Courses

Tuesday is the last day a course can be dropped without a grade of WF, unless the drop is initiated by a dean, according to a report from the registrar's office.

Wins Textile Award

Wallace L. Wilson, Lubbock freshman, has been selected to receive the Dallas Textile Club Scholarship of $150 which is presented for the first time this year and is designed to promote scholarship and interest in the textile engineering field. Wilson was president of the National Honor Society last year, vice president of both his junior and senior classes in Lubbock High School, a member of the student council and a member of the basketball squad.

Credit Usages Told

Thirty members of the Tech Accounting Society Thursday heard a discussion by Lee F. York, Lubbock First National Bank vice president, of how accounting statements are used in credit reports. The next meeting will be Dec. 10, according to President Craig W. Wilkerson.

Former Custodian Dies

Albert H. Vaughn, 51, Tech custodian until Sept. 5, was found dead last week in his room at I. L. Smith Courts, 603 College Avenue. The bed was afire, and death apparently resulted from asphyxiation by smoke.

Why Educate Is Asked

"Education—for What?" was discussed by a group of Tech students preparing for the teaching profession Thursday at O. L. Slaton Junior High School Parent-Teacher Association meeting.

Dads Parents? Prof Says Yes

"Fathers Are Parents Too" was the subject discussed by Dr. Per G. Stensland of Tech Thursday at a Parent-Teacher Association meeting in the M. C. Overton School, Lubbock.

Coggins To Speak

Ross Coggins, associated director of the State Baptist Student Department, will speak at a Yak Snaek at 6:45 p.m. Thursday in the Baptist Student Center.

Colored Pictures Shown

Colored pictures of Europe were shown at a guest night meeting of Le Cercle Francais, French club, last night by Mr. and Mrs. George Etz of Lubbock, who toured Europe last summer. The members discussed plans for sponsoring a French movie, "Sextet," to be shown at the Midway theater Dec. 1-3. Plans were made for a Christmas party to be held Dec. 15.

Union To Close

The Student Union Building will be closed Wednesday, Nov. 25, for the Thanksgiving holidays and will remain closed until Saturday, Nov. 28, when it will be open from 10 a.m. until after the football game with Hardin-Simmons University. On Sunday, Nov. 29, the Union will open and again be

Following surgery last week,

J. Paul Sheedy* Switched to Wildroot Cream-Oil Because He Flunked The Finger-Nail Test

"Your hair's no yoke" bellowed Sheedy's gal. "Those cowlicks look awful. Why not take the bull by the horns and get yourself some Wildroot Cream-Oil, America's favorite hair tonic? Keeps hair combed without greasiness. Makes you look cud-dly. Removes loose, ugly dandruff. Relieves annoying dryness. Contains Lanolin. Non-alcoholic. I won't cow-tow 'til you start using it heiferly day." Paul was utterly stunned, so he bought some Wildroot Cream-Oil for just 29¢. He told his girl the good news and now they're hitched for life. So just steer yourself down to any toilet goods counter for a bottle or handy tube. And remember to ox your barber for Wildroot Cream-Oil too. You'll be the cream of the campus—and that's no bull.

THE CAT'S MEOW

By PHYLLIS MARTIN
Toreador Society Editor

Excuse the B-grade dialogue, but golly-gee-whizz, I'll be glad when the Thanksgiving holidays roll around. Quick as a flash this thought comes to mind: a big turkey, cranberry sauce, potatoes and dressing! Nostalgic, isn't it? Well, it won't be long now!

The low blow of the season is the fact that grades will be home when we get home, and what a thing to come home to.

You know, if fifty million people say a foolish thing, its still a foolish thing, but I know fifty million people, more or less on this campus that would vote down classes. (No reflection on my friends.)

A quotable quote of a good-natured freshman: "I was a modest, good-humor boy, it's Tech that has made me insufferable." Now is that school spirit, or is that school spirit? You can look at it both ways.

You do big things, they print your face; you do little things, they print your thumbs. Patsy Hart will have her picture in the paper, along about Dec. 28, the date of her wedding to George Frank Farrell. The bride-elect attended Texas Tech last year and was a pledge to Pi Phi sorority. The bridegroom-elect is a senior pre-dental student at Tech and is rush chairman for Phi Delta. The ceremony will be solemnized at the Arlington Heights Memorial Church in Fort Worth.

Joan Clifford, Tri Delta, will wed Glyn Whitmore, PiKA, Dec. 19 at St. John's Methodist Chapel.

Jaquelyn Crump will marry Billy Beene Dec. 20 at the Brownfield First Methodist Church. Miss Crump attended Tech two years. She is now a student at Draughon's Business College. The prospective bridegroom is a junior at Tech, and is majoring in aeronautical engineering.

You'll be at the head of the jet parade at Boeing

For long-range opportunities, it's hard to beat the jet aircraft field. If you want to get into this exciting branch of engineering after you graduate, get in at the head of the parade—at Boeing.

Through the fighter-fast B-47 six-jet bomber, and the giant new eight-jet B-52, Boeing has acquired more experience designing, flying and building multi-jet aircraft than any other company, either here or abroad. In addition, Boeing is the first American company to announce its entry into the jet transport field.

Engineering graduates will find in the aviation industry an unusually wide range of experience, and great breadth of application—from pure research to production design, all going on at once. Boeing is constantly alert to new techniques and materials, and approaches them without limitations. Extensive subcontracting and major procurement programs, all directed and controlled by engineers, afford varied experience and broad contacts and relationships.

Aircraft development is such an integral part of our national life that young graduates can enter it with full expectation of a rewarding, long-term career. Boeing, now in its 37th year of operation, employs more engineers today than even at the peak of World War II. Its projects include guided missiles, research on supersonic flight and nuclear power for aircraft.

Boeing engineering activity is concentrated at Seattle in the Pacific Northwest, and Wichita in the Midwest. These communities offer a wide variety of recreational opportunities. Both are fresh, modern cities with fine residential sections and shopping districts, and schools of higher learning where engineers can study for advanced degrees.

There are openings in ALL branches of engineering (mechanical, civil, electrical, aeronautical, and related fields), for DESIGN, DEVELOPMENT, PRODUCTION, RESEARCH and TOOLING. Also for servo-mechanism and electronics designers and analysts, and physicists and mathematicians with advanced degrees.

Have to give the ole boy credit for trying to pep up a mighty dull course.

Only the Name Changed . . .

Every year at Tech the Student Council Sponsors a variety show to raise money for World Student Service Fund.

This year the WSSF has changed its name to World University Service. Its purpose, to enable students of the world to unite for mutual benefit, has not changed.

The organization, which has 32 national branches at work in Asia, the Middle East, Western Europe, and North America, works without prejudice to race or nationality, religious or political conviction, social or economic background.

Today in the universities of Asia, Europe, and the Middle East students are carrying on their studies without the basic needs of life.

Many of the world's students are refugees who have no place to turn for help. Many do not have proper or adequate equipment, very few have co-operative stores or canteens, and textbooks are mimeographed because funds are not available for printed books.

Their plea for funds should not be ignored. This year the talent show is Wednesday, Dec. 9, from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. in the Student Union Ballroom.

This is our chance to give these students the security that comes from friendship and the knowledge that others care.

We're Being Followed . . .

. . . by Lubbock and Dallas and New Orleans, by local newspapers and national wire services, by sports enthusiasts here and all over the country.

They're watching us, waiting to see how the Red Raiders emerge from this weekend's football game with the University of Houston. On that grid battle may depend Tech's chances of receiving a bid to play in the Sugar Bowl or the Cotton Bowl. Details on our possibilities may be found elsewhere in this issue.

Victory over the Cougars is mainly the problem of the Tech teams and coaches, who have the tangible task of meeting Houston on the playing field. But victory also depends, in part, on the student body, which has the ill-defined job of building up the kind of spirit which makes a team win.

How to do it? Let's have nothing but victory in mind. Talk it over coffee in the Union and yell it in the pep rallies. Carry it with you to Houston if you're making the official out-of-town trip.

And if you create the kind of spirit which results in beating Houston, you may have the chance to exhibit your feeling again—in Dallas or New Orleans on New Year's Day.

'The Miser' Tours South Plains Area

Fourteen cast members, nine crew members and Director Ronald Schulz are touring South Plains cities with the speech department production, "The Miser," after a week's run on the campus.

The group has an open date today, but will be in Floydada tomorrow night. A matinee will be given in Paducah Friday and a night show in Wellington on the same day. "The Miser" will be presented in Memphis on Saturday. Next week the performers will be in Anton Monday and Shallowater Tuesday. Performances were given in Littlefield and Spur earlier this week.

Poems of Students To Be Published

Two Tech students, one a geology major and the other a pre-law major, have been notified that poems which they submitted in a national contest have been accepted for publication. Jerry Raul, Harlingen senior, and Max Preston, Ralls senior, are the students chosen.

Their poems will be published in the annual Anthology of College Poetry, published by the National Poetry Association. The anthology is a compilation of poetry written by college students representing every section of the country.

Raul has been writing poetry every since he was a freshman in high school. He has had three other poems published, one in a previous anthology, and two in an anthology of high school poetry. One of the latter was reprinted in a book titled "Songs of Youth." He writes as a hobby.

Preston has written "for years," but has never submitted any of his work to be published. He says he writes his poems for himself.

The title of Raul's poem is "Your Words Fly Up." Preston's poem is entitled "I Love, But Do Not Speak."

ROTC EXAMS SET Dates for pre-enrollment examinations for students interested in registering for advanced Army ROTC in the spring semester have been announced by Col H. L. Green, professor of military science and tactics.

Examinations will be held in X10B from 5 to 6 p.m. Friday, 5 to 6 p.m. Dec. 3 and 7 to 8 p.m. Dec. 4. Additional hours may be scheduled on request to Maj. V. B. Peniel in X10.

Other requirements for enrollment in the advanced course, in addition to the examination, are a 1-point grade average, no military science grade below C, junior classification by the spring semester, good physical condition and satisfactory completion of Military Science I and II (basic course).

European Tour Planned for Summer College Credit in History To Be Given

Tech students may tour Europe this summer and earn six semester hours in history at the same time. Two new field courses in the history department, which will provide for the students enrolled to travel in 10 European countries from June 11 to Aug. 26 were announced today.

The trip will include tours of France, Italy, Switzerland, Austria, Germany, Belgium, Holland, Scotland, England and Monaco. Visits will be made to historic sites in Paris, Milan, Florence, Venice, Rome, Monte Carlo, Isle of Capri, Naples, Geneva, Innsbruck, Cologne, Munich, Coblenz, Brussels, The Hague, Amsterdam, Isle of Marken, Edinburgh, Windermere, Stratford-on-Avon, London and many others.

Two Three-Hour Courses The new courses are History 3314, a study of World War I and its aftermath, and History 3315, a study of World War II and its aftermath.

Name KTTC Staff, Officers, Directors

Officers and representatives to the Board of Directors for KTTC, campus radio station, have been named, according to Kyle Effinger, newly elected chairman.

Elected to serve on the executive committee with Effinger are: Craig Stephens, vice chairman, and Gladys Parkey, secretary-treasurer.

Two representatives from each dormitory serve on the board. They are: Shirlee King and Phyllis Martin, Horn Hall; Gladys Parkey and Connie Scudday, Knapp; Wayne Gilbert and Ken Owen, Doak; Craig Stephens and Allen Lehmann, Sneed; Foster Cook and John Dehn, Gordon; and Jack Hon and Jack Davis, Bledsoe.

Those named to staff positions are: Odie Echols, station manager; Dee Bowman, program director; Lloyd Kidwell and Dick Herndon, head engineers; Ted Simon, promotion manager; Phyllis Martin and Lavoy Berry, continuity heads. Also Jeannine Smith, traffic manager; Neil Jolly, news editor, and Jay Bowman, music librarian.

Student To Play In Music Recitals Tuesday Afternoon

Eleven Techsians will be presented in a student recital and ten will present original compositions beginning at 4:10 p.m. Tuesday in the recital hall of the Music Building.

Numbers on the first part of the program will be as follows: "Toccata for Elevation" (Giovanni Frescobaldi)—Guys Knowles, first horn; Gordon Collins, second horn; Kathleen Gilbert, third horn; David Wiggins, fourth horn; "Vergin, tutta amor" (Silvestro Durante)—Jean Porter, contralto, accompanied by Judith Moss; "Non so piu" from Marriage of Figaro (Mozart)—Irma Hopp Knowles, soprano, accompanied by Anita Powers; "Rain and The River" (Oscar J. Fox)—Maurice Fawcett, baritone, accompanied by John Perry; "Sonata in C minor" (Bach)—Dorothy Dees, piano; "Scherzo in E minor" (Mendelssohn)—Ned Hardin, piano; "To A Wild Rose" (Edward MacDowell)—Lynn Harrison, piano; and "The Engulfed Cathedral" (Debussy)—Martha Judah, piano.

In the second part will be original work in Mozart style and a four-voice setting with piano accompaniment. Student composers of "Tuba Mirum" (text from the Mozart Requiem) are Florence Ashcraft, Betty Barbee, Lynn Harrison, Trevis Muney, Gloria Snell, Ann Spikes, Rosemary Sprague, Arnold Tanner, Carolyn Taylor and Dana Wampler.

Students are from the classes of Robert Taylor, Mrs. Myrtle Dunn Short, Herbert Colvin, Robert Elson and Miss Mary Jeanne van Appledorn.

Dr. C. D. Eaves, professor of history, will teach the course. Mrs. C. D. Eaves, assistant professor of accounting, will be the tour conductor. She spent a year in Europe in 1946-47 and travelled in 13 countries.

The tour is available to students, teachers and the public. Dr. Eaves will be in charge of the tour members.

To Sail June 11 The group will sail from Quebec June 11 on the SS Atlantic and will reach Paris June 18. From Paris they will travel inland over the various countries and return to Quebec Aug. 16.

Brownell Travel Bureau, Inc. will conduct the land tours. Most of the travel will be by motor-coach through the countries, which will enable the party members to see native homes, farms, villages, and out-of-the-way places, in addition to the important cities. Included in the program are several days and half days set aside for leisure, swimming, shopping and entertainment.

Cost of the tour will include every calculable travel expense in Europe, such as meals, sightseeing, hotel bills, taxes and tips.

Contact Dr. and Mrs. Eaves Additional information and details of the trip may be obtained from Mrs. Luta P. Eaves or Dr. C. D. Eaves on the campus or at 2221 14th St. in Lubbock.

Dr. Eaves was a member of the original faculty at Texas Tech and has taught European history at the college since 1925. He holds B.A. and Ph.D. degrees from the University of Texas and an M.A. from the University of Chicago. Dr. Eaves spent a year in Japan following the close of World War II, where he was associated with the educational program of the United States government.

Four Students Represent Tech in Speech Activities

Four speech students participated in poetry reading, extemporaneous speaking and debate at Baylor University and Texas University last weekend, according to Dr. Merville Larson, head of the speech department and sponsor of the group.

Jo Ann Miller, Big Spring freshman, placed fifth in individual debating at Texas University. Sandra Yarbrough, Ysleta freshman, qualified for the finals in extemporaneous speaking. Both girls also participated in poetry reading events.

Beverly Ross, Lubbock senior, and Lois Parker, Tulsa sophomore, represented Tech at the Poetry Reading Festival at Baylor University Thursday and Friday.

The Museum will close for Thanksgiving holidays at 5 p.m. Wednesday, and remain closed through Nov. 29.

AFROTC Cadets Awarded Honors

Thirteen Air Force ROTC cadets have been selected as distinguished military students by Col. Ollen Turner, professor of air science and tactics.

The honors go annually to Air Force ROTC cadets whose grades rank them in the upper third of the student body and in the upper third division in their respective majors. Qualifying students also are picked for their character, aptitude for the service and demonstrated leadership.

Singled out for the honors were Larry H. Hanners, business administration senior, Lubbock; James B. Wilde, engineering senior, Abilene; Garnet O. Reeves Jr., business administration senior, Lubbock; Kenneth E. Owen, business administration senior, Lubbock; Donald B. Miller, arts and sciences senior, Vernon;

Max von Roeder, agriculture senior, Snyder; Robert W. Mitchell, arts and sciences senior, Lubbock; Billy J. Fraley, business administration senior, Abilene; Cecil A. Dillard, arts and sciences senior, Borger; James C. Wilder, business administration senior, Coleman; Allen J. Tomlinson Jr., engineering senior, Houston; Marlis E. Smith, arts and sciences senior, Lubbock; Gene G. Harrah, agriculture senior, Fort Stockton.

Air Force Aviators To Receive Wings

Eight members of Tech's Air Force ROTC Flying Club will be presented wings in ceremonies during Thursday's drill by Col. Ollen Turner, professor of air science and tactics.

Air Force cadets to be honored include Keith Pate, business administration junior; Kress; Richard Zeek, engineering junior; Lamesa; Don Reed, business administration junior; Lubbock; Vernon D. Hart, engineering senior, Miami Springs, Florida; Jerome Cole, arts and sciences senior, Kermit; Bob Williams, engineering freshman, Fort Worth; Jay Barney Terrell, engineering freshman, Dallas; Bob Jetton, agriculture junior, Junction.

To qualify for wings, cadets must have at least eight hours of flying time and a solo flight to their credit.

All cadets to receive wings are members of the Air Force ROTC Flying Club, a new campus organization formed last spring for Air Force cadets interested in flying. The club owns a 1941 model Piper Cub plane, which is used on a schedule by the 18 club members.

Naval Officer Program Is Open To 1954 Graduating Seniors

Graduates of 1954 and others interested in commissions under the Naval Officers Candidate Program have until Nov. 24 to schedule appointments with a Naval recruiting officer.

Interview blanks and other information about qualifications and requirements are on file in the Placement Office, Ad105. Candidates must be graduates of an accredited college or university with a baccalaureate degree.

Interviews will be held Dec. 2 and 3 at the U. S. Navy Recruiting Station and Office of Naval Officer Procurement, Post Office Building, 4th and Gold Streets, Albuquerque, N. Mex.

Freshman Wins Turkey Handicap

Five minutes and 46 seconds was the time clocked for the winner of Sneed Hall's annual Turkey Handicap Saturday.

The winner, Perry Ellwood, legged it in ahead of the other 25 contestants in the mile race to pick up the first prize of a white turkey. Ellwood, freshman agriculture student from Colorado City won another prize, a kiss from Grace Boles, queen of the race, who wore a crown of turkey feathers.

Second-place winner, Carl McDonald, arts and sciences freshman from Jacksboro, received a hen. Jackie Cloude, freshman engineering student from Spur, got the third-place prize—one U. S. standard egg.

James G. Allen, dean of student life, was official starter and Dr. E. N. Jones, Tech president, was timekeeper.

When the last man was reported still on his round after 46 minutes five seconds, the contest was declared over.

The winner was interested in the cash value of this prize, and sold the turkey to a local poultry dealer for $4.20.

B. A. Honorary Initiates Thirty

Thirty pledges of Phi Gamma Nu were initiated in a candle light ceremony at St. John's Methodist Church recently. President Marilyn Wheelless presided.

Pledges initiated by the business administration women's fraternity, were: Ruth Jones, Mary Catherine Hill, Ida Gaye Wheat, Frances Little, Helen Hodges, Ann Graham, Pat Robertson, Jean McNeal, Joyce Gooch, Marjorie Clinton, Mariso Lehmann, Virginia Mitchell, Patsy Singleton, Reva Watson, Nancy Hudson, Carmaleta Brown, Joanne Wheatley, Anne Brown, Jeannine Brown, Kay Lynn Watson, Doris Ellis, Betty Pitzer, Mava Cartwright, Peggy Golden, Joyce Booher, Jane Adair, Carolyn Pope, Connie Pruetz, Rosalie Sides, and Tharalene Parsons.

Mildred Montgomery and Norene Trueblood will finish their pledging this semester.

Library Usage Increases As Improvements are Made

"Use of the reserve room has increased 50 per cent since the installation of the new furniture last spring," reports R. C. Janeway, librarian.

Last month's circulation of two-week books shows a 33 per cent increase over last October. This increase in circulation is evidently due to the fact that students are able to find additional books when looking through the open stacks, says J. E. Platz, assistant librarian.

Incorrect shelving of books is still the library's greatest problem in the open-stack policy, says Platz. He requests that students place books on tables in the center aisle of the stacks if they are in doubt of the proper shelf location.

Unless this situation can be remedied it may become necessary to discontinue open stacks, he warns.

the group will also be chosen at the meeting. Students interested in joining may write letters of application to Tarbox in Gordon Hall.

Committee appointments will be made and pictures for La Ventana will be taken.

TECH COW HIGH PRODUCER

Tech owns a cow which produces enough milk daily to serve 92 persons a half pint each. Almost a hundred students could be served at one meal each day with milk from this cow.

Tech Ormsby Frieda, one of several registered Holstein-Friesian cows in Tech's herd which have completed official production tests under Advanced Registry rules, averaged approximately 23 quarts of milk daily for the period covered by the test.

Testing was supervised by Texas A&M, in co-operation with The Holstein-Friesian Association of America.

"HOW GOES IT?" dials New York—and a building in Illinois answers

Shell Oil Co. wanted a small brick building in Illinois to be able to teletype automatically to a dispatcher in Radio City—more than 800 miles away. The building in Dennison, Ill., is one of four pumping stations on an important oil line. For efficiency, all these stations were to be controlled from New York. Bell System engineers were asked to help.

Now the New York dispatcher operates these stations by using an ordinary telephone dial. By dialing a number, he can make a pumping station automatically report back its meter readings by teletype! He also dials numbers to open and shut valves, start and stop pumps, and summon an attendant. It's done through Bell System facilities.

These remote-control installations represent salesmanship, research and engineering skill on the part of many Bell System people. That's the reason there are rewarding opportunities in many lines for college people in the telephone company. Why not check soon with your Placement Officer on your chances to start with the Bell System after graduation?

Horizons... Unlimited

In March, 1953, the Department of Defense disclosed the existence of the Chance Vought guided missile, the Regulus, designed under the sponsorship of the Navy Bureau of Aeronautics for launching from submarines, surface ships and shore bases. In May, 1953, the Navy Bureau of Aeronautics announced that Chance Vought had won a design competition for a new Navy Day Fighter, it being selected as the design best suited for Navy requirements from designs submitted by eight aircraft manufacturers. This engineering work was added to the current Chance Vought projects, the F7U-3 Cutlass and the attack airplane, the A2U-1. Moreover, other research and development programs which will shape the aircraft designs of the future are being carried out at the present time.

These engineering projects offer excellent long range employment opportunities in many fields of engineering and science as Chance Vought enters its thirty-seventh year designing and building military aircraft. Newly graduated engineers and scientists from the Bachelor to the Doctor's level will find interesting futures awaiting them in the design and production of these aircraft.

If you are receiving a degree in:

- Aeronautical Engineering
- Mechanical Engineering
- Electrical Engineering
- Civil Engineering

... we invite you to discuss your career opportunities in the aviation industry with us. Contact your Placement Director today for an appointment for your interview with Mr. R. S. Stiff, Chance Vought Aircraft Engineering Personnel Representative, who will visit your campus November 30.

Intramurals Near Finish; Chowhounds Win League

Lop-sided contests, close scores, and shutouts were the pattern in intramural touch football games last week as one league finished its schedule and the other two went into their final week of play.

The Chowhounds won the Independent League with a record of four wins and no losses.

Three games were played Nov. 11. In the Fraternity League, PiKA defeated Phi Psi 13-0 and in the Dormitory League, West Hall downed Steed 21-7, and Bledsoe No. 2 was defeated by Doak 3-0.

Starting for Phi Psi were Tommy Neatherlin and Bob Hart. Harold Wells stood out for PiKA. Two touchdowns passes were caught by Maurice Mullens and one by Harry Mitchell for West as they moved past Steed.

Chowhounds Win
Denton Lambert and Roy Bryant sparked the Chowhounds past Wesley Student Foundation 21-6 in an Independent League game played Nov. 12. Dale Wing passed to Bob Whitehead for the only WSF score.

In the Dormitory League game played Nov. 13, Bledsoe No. 1 was defeated by West Hall 6-0. John C. Hayes intercepted a pass and ran for the touchdown for West. An Independent League game on the same day found BSU defeat-

Musical Groups to Present Concert for Brownfield Club

Three Tech musical groups and two instructors will present a concert Tuesday for the Brownfield Women's Music Club.

The HarmoDears, HarmonKnights and Madrigal Singers will appear. Robert Elson and Herbert Colvin, music instructors, will sing. Mr. Colvin will also play some piano selections.

Members of the HarmoDears are: Marjorie Scales, Jan Doggett, Joyce Miller, Marjorie Hendrick. Timm Magness, Ned Hardin, Clarence Whiteside and Bill Cornack are the HarmoKnights.

Students in the Madrigal Singers are: Marjorie Scales, Joyce Miller, Alice Ann Yates, Jan Doggett, Tim Magness, John Taylor, Clarence Whiteside, Bill Cornack.

PLAN FIELD TRIP

Twenty industrial engineering majors will be conducted through our major industries in Ft. Worth and Dallas Nov. 30 and Dec. 1.

The group will see industrial operations, types of equipment and manufacturing methods and processes of Trinity-Portland Cement, Ford Motor Company, Fleming and Sons, a paper manufacturing concern, and Chance-Vought.

Industrial engineering students make a similar trip each year.

Nothing Definite Now
"There is nothing definite now," Coach Weaver adds, "but we should know more after the Houston game. We need to win this game before we can think about any post-season game."

There was an air of confidence among Tech's coaching staff yesterday as they discussed bowl possibilities. Weaver said that he believed the Raiders could play any team a good football game.

"I don't believe we would disappoint anyone," he said. When asked which bowl the team would prefer, the Sugar or the Cotton, Coach Weaver replied, "The one that asks second will be too late."

Captain Don Gray had this to say: "I think we can whip any of the teams being considered for the Sugar Bowl."

Team sentiments were summed up pretty well by All-American candidate, Bobby Cavazos, when he said, "I'd give anything to play in a bowl game this year—especially the Sugar Bowl."

ROTC Riflemen Meet NMU Next In Annual Contest

With a close victory over West Texas State under their belts, Tech's ROTC riflemen will have 22 days to sharpen their shooting for an encounter with the University of New Mexico at Albuquerque Dec. 11.

The Tech team will be flown by Air Force units to Albuquerque for the shoulder-to-shoulder match. A return match with West Texas State is slated for Dec. 17.

Raider riflemen chalked up 1,805 points in the standing position in Thursday's shoulder-to-shoulder match on the college rifle range in M2.

Tech's James R. McKenzie took first place in the standing position with 88 points and first in overall honors with a total of 373. Barney Terrell was second in overall standing.

Medals were awarded by Col H. L. Green, professor of military science and tactics, at a banquet honoring the visiting group Thursday.

GILLIS WINS PRIZE

A $100 prize was awarded to Dr. Everett A. Gillis, associate professor of English, at the annual meeting of the Poetry Society of Texas in Dallas Saturday. Out of the 21 1953 citations awarded, he was presented the Old South Prize for his poem "Stephen the Black Enters Cibola." It is a narrative work written in blank verse.

Tech Tennis Team Downs West Texas

Tech Tech's Red Raider tennis team won the first meet of the season Friday, defeating West Texas State 5-2 on Tech courts.

Captain David Clark won the No. 1 singles match, defeating Terry Smith, 6-1, 6-1. Van Hall and Clark teamed up to defeat Smith and Dan Baldwin in the No. 1 doubles match 6-3, 8-6.

Other winners for Tech: Harold Williams over Ralph Thompson, 6-1, 6-3, in the No. 3 singles; Charles Riddle over Philip Nichol, 6-2, 6-2, in the No. 4 singles; Hall over Ray Graham in the No. 5 singles.

West Texas won the No. 2 singles match, Baldwin downing Wendell Jones, 4-6, 6-3, 6-4, and the No. 2 doubles, Nichol and Thompson defeating Williams and Jones, 6-2, 8-6.

A return match between the teams will be held at Canyon Monday. The Raider netmen will take part in a quadrangular meet in Abilene with West Texas, Hardin-Simmons and McMurry Dec. 5.

PICADOR GAME

Texas Tech's freshmen football team will play a previously postponed game with the Hardin-Simmons frosh in Abilene tomorrow afternoon. Coach Bob Kellogg's Picadors have defeated Clovis Air Base 77-0 and New Mexico Military Institute 32-6, and lost to Sheppard Air Base 19-6.

New Version of Old Story Presented in Opera Series

Dr. Gene L. Hemmler, head of Tech's music department brought the tragic story of "Lucia di Lammermoor" down to the modern cats' level Sunday afternoon in the Museum's Twilight Music Hour. This was the second in the Opera Once Over Lightly series.

Soprano Mary Kelley, as Lucia, and tenor William K. Geisert, as her sweetheart Edgar, sang the leading arias. Rosemary Sprague, soprano; Elton Plovman, tenor; Robert Elson, baritone; and Tim Magness, bass; sang the supporting roles. Mrs. D. K. McCarty was accompanist.

The next Twilight Music Hour will present a "Program of Christmas Music" in co-operation with the Allegro Music Club Dec. 6 in the First Presbyterian Church.

The Library will be closed Thursday, Thanksgiving Day. Regular hours will be kept Wednesday and Friday, but Saturday hours will be from 8 a.m. until noon.

Raiders Roll Over Tulsa Hurricane; Will Meet Hot-Cold U. of H. Saturday

The University of Houston, conquerors of highly rated Baylor, will provide opposition for the Raiders in Houston Saturday afternoon. The game will be played in Rice Stadium.

In defeating Tulsa last week, the Raiders won their first victory over the Golden Hurricane since 1949. The 49-7 victory by Tech was the worst licking Tulsa has suffered since 1948, when it was defeated by Nevada 64-14.

Six Raiders took part in the scoring parade at Tulsa with Dean White, end, the only player to go over for more than one touchdown. Other players scoring for Tech were Jack Kirkpatrick, Bobby Cavazos, Elmer Wilson, Norman James, Paul Erwin and Buddy Hill.

Kirkpatrick's touchdown came on the first play of the game when he took Tulsa's opening kick-off and raced 101 yards for the first score.

Tech's passing, good for 199 yards, was a major factor in the Raiders winning their eighth game of the season. Their ground game, which was ranked third in the nation before the game picked up 270 yards to net the Raiders 469 yards of total offense for the afternoon. They are only 101 yards shy of marching a full two miles on the gridiron this season.

Already the highest scoring team in the nation before the Tulsa game, the Raiders boosted their total from 36.5 to 37.9 points per game in that contest.

The Cougars of Houston stand as a big block in Tech's road to a possible bowl bid. Coach DeWitt Weaver stated that a lot depended on this game. A defeat by the Cougars would probably end all post-season game hopes that the Raiders enjoy.

The game has taken on a different light after Saturday's results. Before the game with Baylor, Houston had played anything but spectacular ball since its opening game tie with Texas A&M. The defending Missouri Valley Conference champions had lost to both Tulsa and Oklahoma A&M and were having one of their worst seasons in years. But the Cougars proved that they can rise to any occasion when they knocked off Baylor. Before the game the Bears from Waco were rated eighth in the nation.

Band To March At Houston Game

Tech Band and Sam Houston Rifles, ROTC drill team, will perform six formations during the half-time activities at the University of Houston game Saturday.

As the 150-piece group marches onto the field in an entrance formation, the band will play "Fanfare" and "Texas Tech on Parade." Performers will then move into the shape of an oil derrick with the drill team forming the crossbars and the band playing "Old Black Magic."

Houston's "Alma Mater" will be heard as the drill team forms an "H" in the middle of the band's "U." The ROTC group will maneuver into a "53" inside a school house formed by the band as it plays "School Days" and "Graduation March."

Strains of the "Wedding March" will float through the air while the band is in the shape of a bell. The sixth formation will be a double T as the band plays the "Matador Song."

Audubon Lecture To Feature Films In Opener Friday

"Happy Valley," a picture-poster in color, will open the fourth season of Audubon lectures and films programs at 8 p.m. Friday in the Museum auditorium.

The films of Tom and Arle Hadley picture a "happy valley" the mythological spot in which man has yearned to dwell since time immemorial where he can work and play and dream of a finer world to come and which exists in every land on earth, but so often can be discovered in our own corner of the country.

Mr. Hadley was formerly an executive at General Motors, where he served as head of the architectural section of the Fisher Body Works engineering department. He has also served as president of the Detroit Audubon Society.

Mrs. Hadley has been active in conservation and Audubon activities for many years. She is a charter member of the Michigan Wildflower Association. She assists in the photography and serves as projectionist at her husband's lectures.
