

Tech Rodeo Starts Today

Proclamation . . .

Every organization with the size and variety of interests of Texas Tech needs a common rallying experience now and then. Our location and history emphasize the significance and value of the Western way of life.

Therefore, to promote spirit and interest, I proclaim that April 29, 30 and May 1 be officially designated as "Western Days" on the Tech Campus. The Texas Tech Rodeo will highlight these days.

It would be helpful in promoting spirit if each Faculty member and student will wear at least one article of Western attire.

Signed and sealed this 26th day of April, A.D., 1954.

Parade, Dances, Roping Match Other Features of 3-Day Event

By CHARLES MAPLE
Toreador Staff Writer

Ten-gallon hats, levis, bright shirts and gaudy boots ushered in Tech's fifth annual Intercollegiate Rodeo and Western Days which started today and ends Saturday night.

The rodeo, feature of the three-day Western celebration, will begin the first performance at 8 tonight in Jones Stadium. A total of 13 teams will be competing for the large team trophy. Those entered include Sul Ross State College, Texas Christian University, Hardin-Simmons University, Oklahoma A&M, New Mexico University, Oklahoma University, Sam Houston State College, McNeese State University of Louisiana, New Mexico University, and Texas Tech.

Baugh vs. Kirkpatrick

Three unusual features are expected to interest this year's rodeo fans. A headline attraction will be a roping match between Sammy Baugh, Hardin-Simmons coach and former Washington Redskins football star, and Jack Kirkpatrick, Tech's young quarterback from Post. Both contestants have had long experience in the Western art. Two new features will display the rodeoing ability of 14 members of Tech fraternities and sororities. Four women will turn "milk-maid" as they attempt to milk a wild cow. The event will require the contestants to run from the starting line to a cow, get enough milk to pour from a bottle, and then return to the starting line. Those competing for the championship trophy include Shirley Griffen, Paint Creek freshman, Alpha Chi Omega; Anne Witty, Hamilton freshman, Pi Beta Phi; Peggy Pittman, Lubbock freshman, Zeta Tau Alpha; and Marguerite Winder, Gruver freshman, Delta Gamma.

Goats To Be Sacked

A goat sacking contest will pit five two-man teams against each other for the championship trophy. Contestants will run from the end of the arena, catch a goat, and sack him up. The team must then return to the starting line. Teams entered are Miles Black, Carlsbad, N.M. freshman, and

SENIORS TO MEET
Last meeting of the semester for the senior class will be held at 5 p.m. Monday in Ad219. The class will vote on its traditional gift to the college.

Kemas, Phi Psi Win Interfraternity Awards; Oklahoma Dean Is Speaker at Annual Smoker

Speech Play Will Open Monday

Monday night marks the opening of a play written with the college student in mind.

The play, "Goodbye My Fancy," is a timely satiric comedy about college life. It will be presented by the Tech speech department in the Speech Auditorium.

Leading roles will be portrayed by Jean Porter, Cal Foster and Arch March. Ronald Schulz, assistant professor of speech at Tech, is directing the play which had a successful run in New York and was later released in a motion picture version.

Tickets sales for Monday's performance were open to members of the Campus Club only, but remaining tickets for that performance are now on sale to the public in the speech office. The Campus Club is an organization for faculty and staff members of the college.

Students may obtain reserved seats upon presentation of activity books or 75 cents. Other tickets are $1. Reservations may be made in advance in the speech Kemas and Phi Kappa Psi were awarded the scholarship and sportsmanship plaques, respectively, at the annual Men's Interfraternity Council smoker held last night in the Rec Hall. Speaker for the occasion was Paul MacMinn, dean of students of the University of Oklahoma.

Kemas topped the other fraternities with a grade point average for the spring and fall semesters of 1953 of 1.49. Runner-up was Sigma Alpha Epsilon with 1.47. Other averages were: Phi Kappa Psi 1.42, Phi Delta Theta 1.29, Kappa Sigma 1.25, Pi Kappa Alpha 1.24, Sigma Nu 1.22 and Alpha Tau Omega 1.08.

The sportsmanship award was made for the first time this year. Competition in softball, football and basketball for the spring and fall semesters of 1953 was considered in the selection, which was determined by votes cast by each of the fraternities.

Questions Presented
Presiding at the smoker was Jerry House, president of the council. The speaker was introduced by James G. Allen, dean of student life. In his speech, Dean MacMinn presented seven questions of concern to Tech fraternity groups:

1. How effective is the rush program?
2. What type of pledge training program is used?
3. How well are finances managed?
4. How much emphasis is placed on scholarship and how is it emphasized?
5. How well are meetings conducted?
6. Do you realize that it is a privilege and not a right for a fraternity to be on a college campus?
7. Are you teaching individual responsibility?

Following the speech, House introduced the presidents of the fraternities winning athletic trophies. Presenting the awards to their athletic directors were: Gene McLaughlin, ATO; softball; Joe Jack Reynolds, Kappa Sig; football; Dick McGuire, Phi Delta; basketball; and McLaughlin, ATO, track.

Shingles Awarded
Scholarship shingles were presented to the member and pledge of each fraternity who made the highest averages. They were:

Dick Jurgens Set For Prom
Juniors and seniors are making plans for their social function of the year, the Junior-Senior Prom. Dick Jurgens and his band will play for the formal dance May 15 in the Student Union ballroom. Tickets go on sale Monday at $3 a couple and $5 stag.

Concert Closes Symphony
The five-day annual Texas Tech Symposium of Contemporary American Music was climaxed Sunday afternoon with a concert by the Tech Choir and Band. The choir was directed by Dr. Gene Hemmle, the band by Dr. D. O. Wiley.

The meet opened with the presentation of "Of These I Sing," by Tech music department Composers from six states performed in the symposium.

Student Identification Cards, Freshman Council, Recognition Program Discussed

Bill Burton, Student Association vice president, announced plans for a student identification card at Monday night's meeting of the Student Council.

In addition to the student's picture, the card would also include certain vital statistics and other information to be used in identification. Upon payment of the activity fee, the card would admit the bearer to all athletic events and Artists Course programs as well as providing identification for cashing checks. Those not desiring to pay the activity fee would receive a different type of card.

Another use of the student identification card would be in voting. Rather than having to go to the poll of his division, the student could vote at any of the polls.

A report on the proposed Freshman Council was given by committee chairman Gwen Williams. She said that plans are incomplete and that the committee is undecided how to organize the council. She listed three possible solutions as: let the freshman class elect the members of the council, let a board of upperclassmen screen and choose the members, or have the members elected by dormitories. Anyone of these or a combination may be the solution said Miss Williams.

She stated the purpose of the council as a means of promoting spirit in the freshman class, familiarizing them with the traditions of Tech, planning meetings, and providing better representatives from the freshman class. Miss Williams announced that definite plans and a recommendation to the committee will be presented at the next council meeting.

Plans were announced for the annual Student Council banquet, which will be held at 7 p.m. Monday in the Caprock Hotel. New members will be sworn in and will take office at the next council meeting.

It was announced that a committee is working on a College Achievement Recognition program which is designed to give credit and recognition to such performers as the aggie teams, the Tech riflemen, engineers, etc., who ordinarily get little or no credit from their work in representing Tech in out of town contests and exhibitions.

'What's That on Campus' (Ugly Man Contest) Will Be Held May 3 to 7

Campus beauty queens, handsome men, and "who's whos" have been selected this year, but again the time for Alpha Phi Omega's annual "what's that on campus" contest has arrived. The competition, sponsored by APO, national service fraternity, is better known as the Ugly Man Contest.

Nine men have entered in the title competition this year. The contestants and their sponsors include Wayne Davis, Tech Veterans Club; Melvin Deardorff, Disciples Student Fellowship; Ken Kummer, Sigma Alpha Epsilon; Joel Lackey, Phi Kappa Psi; Raymond Mires, Sigma Nu; Phil McGee, Zeta Tau Alpha; Bobbie Rains, Kappa Sigma; E. J. Tarbox, Pi Beta Phi; and Elmer Wilson, Alpha Chi Omega.

Voting Begins May 3
Campus-wide voting will be May 3 to 7. Votes for favorite candidates will cost one cent apiece.

Booths will be set up in the following buildings: Student Union, Administration Rotunda, East Engineering, Agriculture, Library, Science, and the center of Memorial Circle.

The winner will be announced and presented at intermission of the Student Union Fiesta Dance Friday, May 7.

Proceeds Go to College
Proceeds from the contest will be presented to the college to replace the loud-speaker system and chime clock in the west tower of the Administration Building. The clock will ring the chimes each hour of the day.

"The project will cost an estimated $1,000, which means that the student body will have to support the contest," says Alan Conley, chairman. Moody Alexander, Amarillo senior, won the title last year in a race that netted almost $600 for the Cancer Fund.

By The Way . . .

Col. John Coney Visits Campus
Col. John D. Coney, of the infantry school, Ft. Benning, Ga., was on campus Monday to begin liaison visits to the infantry ROTC.

This year's visit, to become an annual affair, is intended to bring about closer support between the infantry school and the ROTC program. The infantry school at Ft. Benning supports all infantry and branch general military science units in the United States.

While here Col. Coney visited with President E. N. Jones and Vice President M. L. Pennington. Before being attached to the department of non-resident instruction at Ft. Benning, Col. Coney was with the I Corps in Korea.

O.U. President Speaks Here
"If I could tell my son one thing," said Dr. George L. Cross, president of the University of Oklahoma, "I would tell him to treat others the way he wants to be treated."

This is the one precept that all religions have in common, President Cross pointed out at the annual banquet of Alpha Lambda Delta and Phi Eta Sigma, freshman honorary societies. The banquet was held in the Skyline Dining Room last Thursday night.

Geology Club To Have Picnic
The Geology Club is having a picnic Sunday afternoon at 2:30 at Buffalo Lakes.

Those planning to attend may pay in advance to any one of the following members: Bob Hosman, Paul Crenshaw, Jasper Hart, R. A. Kubena, and Claude Tucker. The fee is $1 for members, and $1.25 for guests.

Former Techian Cameraman
Charles H. Relyea, former Tech student, is serving at Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo., as a cameraman. He has recently finished a 16-week engineering course at the base. Relyea, an advertising student at Tech, was a member of Gamma Delta, Lutheran student organization.

Dr. Hazlewood Honored
Dr. E. A. Hazlewood, head of Tech's mathematics department, was elected president of the Texas Section of the Mathematical Association of America which met on the campus Friday and Saturday.

Dr. Burton W. Jones, head of mathematics department at the University of Colorado, gave the banquet address Friday night. He spoke on "New Emphasis in Mathematics." Dr. Hazlewood was chairman of arrangements for the meeting and spoke Saturday morning on "Coordination of Higher Education."

Dr. Hemmle To Judge in Waco
Dr. Gene Hemmle, head of the Tech music department, will be in Waco tomorrow and Saturday judging an interscholastic league choral festival.

Ex-Students Are Carrier Pilots
Two Texas Tech ex-students have recently qualified as carrier pilots at Pensacola, Fla. They were required to make six successful landings aboard the aircraft carrier, USS Monterey.

The two included Ed W. Graham of Graham and Charles C. Taylor of Sudan.

Graduate Aptitude Tests Set
Approximately 75 applicants for the Graduate Record Examination at Texas Tech will take the test June 19. The aptitude tests are prepared and scored by the

CHOIR VISITS SEAGRAVES

The Tech Choir, directed by Dr. Gene Hemmle, music department head, presented a concert in Seagraves Monday.

Net income from the concert, which was sponsored by the Seagraves Music Club, went for a music scholarship for Seagraves students attending Tech.

The performance featured the Madrigal singers, the Harmonic Knights and the Harmonicars. Ned Hardin, Tim Magness and Marjorie Seales had parts on the program. Herbert Colvin is associate conductor of the choir.

The concert was a return engagement. The first set up the scholarship. Bobby Dean Smith, petroleum engineer, is present holder of the scholarship.

Educational Testing Service of Princeton, N. J.

Graduate Record Examinations are being extended into a comprehensive graduate testing program, and have been required of candidates for the doctorate at Tech since September 1953. In February, 57 applicants took the test. After Sept. 1, 1955, each candidate for a master's degree must take the test.

Big Fossil Skull Found by Geology Teaching Fellow

Texas can again brag about possessing "a biggest." This time it is the skull of an amphibian found by Earl F. Green, teaching fellow in geology at Tech.

Mr. Green said the 22-inch-long skull that he found in rocks of Triassic age in Crosby County is the largest ever found on the North American continent. These amphibians are characteristic of the Triassic period.

After finding the skull in December, Mr. Green spent two months cementing the parts together. This skull is now on display in the Museum.

Texas University possesses the smallest such skull of this type. It was found in Howard County, also in rocks of Triassic age.

The only larger skull than the one found by Mr. Green was found in Europe and is a yard long.

Yolanda Ellis of Rt. 1, Plainview, is the winner of one of the four expense-paid trips to the National 4-H Camp in Washington, D. C., June 16-23.

Amarillo, Meadow, Phillips Interscholastic Winners

Amarillo, Meadow and Phillips took top honors Saturday in Region 1 Interscholastic League competition at Tech.

Amarillo with a total of 125 points was champion of Conference AA. Lubbock was second and Midland third with 105 and 60 points respectively.

Conference AA tennis was the deciding factor in choosing the AA champion. Amarillo, Midland and Lubbock were very close in the race for top position, but Amarillo jumped to the championship after winning 45 points in tennis to add to the 80-point total she had.

Phillips, Conference A school, placed first with 50 points and Canadian was second with 25 points.

In Conference B, Meadow won top position with 45 points and Booker took second place with a total of 40 points.

Dr. P. Merrill Larson, head of the speech department, served as director-general of the meet which attracted nearly 5,000 contestants, coaches, parents and visitors.

IN THE SPRING . . . Traditions and Original Dance

In the spring a young co-fancy turns to thoughts of sport dances and presentation. With the arrival of the Ge has begun on the campus a new era of traditional dance. The Techian has seen of the most original dance ideas developed at Tech for several years. The ever-popular dance is reigning supreme that spring is here.

Tri-Delta started the traditions last fall with the "Prince," which was followed by the Phi Masquerade and the Phi black and white. Hosted by men's fraternities, Phi Psi whopped it up with L11 Abner dance.

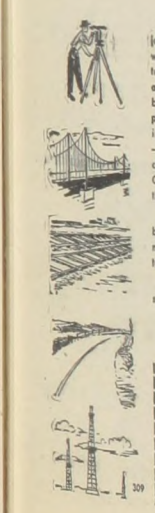

Kappa Used Keyhole
Following the custom on campus, all sororities held presentations with several carried out fairyland themes. Kappa pledges were presented blue keyhole which symbolized they could enter Kappa only after they opened the with their golden keys. The presented their new members for a Grecian garden which carried out the idea of a ternity.

Alpha Chi Omega chose a tiful spring garden setting presentation. The ATOs observed Washington's birthday with traditional George Wash Formal. Zetas entertained in a variety with a Top Hat Club with black and shocking-pink. The keynote of color. Thetas Turned Gypsy Thetas turned gypsy in and hosted their annual Dance. Sigma Nu gave one most beautiful dances of the —the White Rose Formal.

New Officers of Zeta Tau Alpha Installed at Tuesday Serv

Newly elected officers of Tau Alpha were formally installed at services Tuesday night at 3313 26th St. Members installed were: Stammer, president; Gale vice president; Nancy E. secretary; Jana Heber, treasurer; Marilyn Stethen, treasurer; McKissack, ritual chair. The Zetas presented their new members before a Grecian garden setting which carried out the idea of fraternity.

Alpha Chi Omega chose a beautiful spring garden setting for presentation.

Thetas Turned Gypsy

Thetas turned gypsy in March and hosted their annual Gypsy Dance. Sigma Nu gave one of the most beautiful dances of the year—the White Rose Formal.

New Officers of Zeta Tau Alpha Installed at Tuesday Services

Newly elected officers of Zeta Tau Alpha were formally installed at services Tuesday night at 3313 26th St.

Members installed were Dana Stamper, president, Gale Hays, vice president; Nancy Hudson, secretary; Jana Heber, historian; Marilyn Sneathen, treasurer; Nancy McKissack, ritual chairman.

Others include Joyce Wright, scholarship chairman; Mary Ann Tongate, rush chairman; Ruth Ann Cummings, AWS representative; Betty Jo Davis, activities chairman; Gloria Patterson, social chairman; Averill Brinkmann, standards chairman.

Peggy Pittman, hostess, served refreshments following the installation.

Spring rolled around and fraternities began their series of sport dances. The PIKAs came up with a good one—they featured Hades as a setting for their dance. Kappa Sigs entertained in a Pirate Cove setting. In keeping with Western Week, the Phi Deltas are giving a Raunch (ranch) dance this weekend.

What next? Who knows? The SAEs are planning a Saturday Night in Basin Street for their sport dance in May.

Tech May Boast 9 Sororities in '55

Sororities may outnumber fraternities on the Tech campus by the end of next year. Tech may be a nine-sorority school by late 1955 if the need arises, while it is unlikely that there will be more than eight fraternities.

A three-year colonization plan was set up last year to take care of the growing interest among women who want to belong to sororities. Plans for Delta Gamma and Alpha Chi Omega colonizations have been completed, and now plans for Sigma Kappa and Alpha Phi to come on the campus next year are underway if the seven sororities are not adequate enough to take care of the interested women. Definite plans cannot be made until after formal rush next fall. A great increase in freshmen women's enrollment is expected, and 60 are now on open rush lists. Mrs. Marjorie Neeley, dean of women, said that the colonization program will be carried out if needed, because the purpose of the program is to provide an opportunity to join. Gamma Phi Beta has been invited to come on the campus in 1955-56 if interest increases.

A very small number of men have indicated an interest in additional men's fraternities, but plans can be made to bring more fraternities on campus if the need increases, according to student life spokesmen.

HONORING SORORITIES

Phi Beta Phi sorority is giving a series of parties honoring other campus sororities. Alpha Chi Omega and Delta Gamma were honored earlier in the fall with a Coke party. A picnic for Kappa Alpha Theta, Kappa Kappa Gamma was held Tuesday night at Mackenzie park. Delta Delta Delta and Zeta Tau Alpha will be guests at a picnic later in the spring.

Kappas Honored With Date-Picnic

Kappa Kappa Gamma patronesses honored chapter members and pledges with a date-picnic and dance at the barbecue pit in Mackenzie State Park Saturday night.

A CAMPUS-TO-CAREER CASE HISTORY

"There wasn't a dull minute!"

DICK WALLNER, '52, left a trail of work as he whirled through a year of telephone training. Here he recalls the variety of his training jobs. (Reading time: 36 seconds)

"Training can really be interesting. I found that out when I joined A. T. & T.'s Long Lines Department after getting my B.A. at Cincinnati and my M.A. at Michigan in '52. Long Lines is the organization specializing in Long Distance communications. I was put in the training program, and there wasn't a dull minute.

"For instance, one of my jobs in the Traffic Department was estimating the exact number of calls that would be placed in a city on Christmas Day. My estimate was off by only 68 calls!

"Then in the Plant Department, I made a study of damage done to a certain cable. Found out that the most damage occurred in an area used by hunters. Some special public relations work among hunters helped improve that situation.

"And in the Commercial Department, I helped analyze the communication problems of one of the largest textile companies—it had widespread offices and plants. The recommendations made are now in use.

"The variety in my training has carried over to my regular job here in Cincinnati. My job is to see that good service is maintained for private line customers—pipeline and power companies, theater TV and the like. Every day is different.

"As far as I am concerned, I've found my career."

Like so many college people who have joined the Bell System, Dick has a job he enjoys. There are also job opportunities with other Bell Telephone Companies, the Bell Telephone Laboratories, Western Electric and Sandia Corporation. This is a good time to see your Placement Officer for full details.

When You Join

The "Men Who Measure" . . .

When you leave school as an engineer and join the ranks of the "men who measure," you'll want the most accurate and durable measuring tapes. Lufkin Chrome Clad Tapes ARE the most accurate and durable because their markings are bonded to the line and protected by multiple platings of metal that also protect the fine steel in the line. This all-metal line is longest wearing—it won't crack, chip, peel—is easiest to keep clean—is most rust and corrosion resistant. Chrome Clad Tapes are the choice of engineers the world over.

Whether you're running a survey, building a bridge or a building, reroading a road building, mining or drilling—there's a Lufkin measuring tape exactly right for the job.

TECHNICALITIES

RALPH SHELTON Toreador Editor

Most of Tech either saw the music department's recent production of "O' Thee I Sing" or has heard by now of its success. Some aspects of the show, however, deserve comment in print. The Good Points—the book by George S. Kaufman and Morrie Ryskind coupled with the tunes and lyrics by the Gershwins ...

casting his vote for Wintergreen, or Dean James G. Allen, polishing the candidate's shoes. We've heard of the amount of hard work put in by the members of this year's cast. Tech's Air Force ROTC Unit Conducts Annual Field Day; Awards Presented

Tech's Air Force ROTC unit held its annual field day this afternoon on the track field. Events included the best drill flight, best drill element, guidon competition, presentation of awards and a short review. The military excellence awards went to the following cadets: Squadron A, Dwayne West, Squyron B, Robert Keith, Squadron C, Danny Owen, Squadron D, Monte Wise, and the band, John Williams. Basic cadets, having completed the spring semester of the school year 1952-53 with an average grade of B or better in Air Science and without a demerit, a tardiness or un-authorized absence, received the Good Conduct Ribbon. These cadets included: William Brumley, Ronnie Clark, Ronald Crouch, Leslie Carnes, James Davis, Sam Findley, Gaylon Kornfehrer, James Knight, Kim Loveless, Robert Leonard, Minor Nelson, Gerald Rogers and Robert Wham. Oak Leaf Clusters Awarded. Cadets meeting the same requirements during the spring semester of the school year 1952-53 and who received an Oak Leaf

24 TO GET COMMISSIONS

Twenty-four Air Force ROTC senior students will receive their commissions May 31. Having completed the AFROTC program, the following students will be commissioned as second lieutenants in the Air Force: William Willis, Gene Harral, Milton Christian, Billy Wright, Edward Fouts, Glendon Rose, John Harkey, Jimmy Nickell, Luther Harvey, William Marlowe, Harvey Stewart, Charles Williams, Donald Wilson, Edward Goetze, Joseph Ridgway, Kenneth Taylor, Ernest Lakey, Marlis Smith, Garnett Reeves, Clyde Hollingsworth, Arlyn Driegel, Lewis Hollingsworth, Morris Turner, and William Leasure.

ZETA TEA SUNDAY

Zeta Tau Alpha will be honored at a May Day tea Sunday afternoon in the home of Nancy McKissack, 4503 21st St. The local chapter will be hostess for the affair. Approximately 35 alumnae members are expected to call between 3 and 4 p.m. Gloria Patterson, social chairman, will greet guests at the door.

AWARDS BANQUET SET

An international flavor will prevail at the annual awards banquet to be held by the Texas Tech foreign language department next Thursday night in the Student Union Ballroom. Dr. Ernest C. Giesecke, academic vice president of Tech, will discuss "Teaching Foreign Languages in Elementary Schools." Also on the program will be the presentation of awards to outstanding students of Spanish, French, and German. Tickets may be purchased in the foreign languages department office, Ad259, for $1.50.

FEEDING TEST HERE

Texas Tech's agriculture division is entering the final stages of a 168-day feeding experiment being conducted in cooperation with the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, according to Dean W. L. Stangel. The test is being run in an attempt to evolve a ration for commercial feeding. The cattle, being tended by Neal Garner, graduate from Hico, are fed as much cottonseed hulls as possible since they are easily obtained on the south plains.

WOMAN OF THE YEAR

Tech's "most outstanding woman of the year" will be selected May 11. Polls for the election will be in the Administration and Home Economics Buildings and in the women's dormitories. The winner's name will be announced that night at the banquet held by the Association of Women Students. Each woman's organization on campus is requested to submit to the Dean of Women by May 3 the name of a candidate for the title.

RODEO—

Jackie Beckner, Lubbock freshman, Alpha Phi Omega; Graves Nelson, Brownfield junior, and Roger Brooks, Smithfield junior, Kappa Sigma; Ronnie Stewart, Del Rio senior, and Ed Aiken, Sweetwater junior, Kemas; Ike Trimble, Seminole junior, and Charles Browning, Burleson senior, Alpha Zeta; and Don Boaz, Fort Worth senior, and Robert Simmons, Calvert junior, Pi Kappa Alpha.

Queen of the rodeo will be presented in ceremonies at tonight's opening performance. The queen, elected in a penny-a-vote contest, will be presented from the following: Glora Snell, Pat Tinney, Nina Flanagan, Franky Hallcock, Sue Hefley, Nancy Roberts, Revis Gilbert, Donna Jameson, and Shirley DuPriest.

Wake-Up Dance. A full program of extra events has been planned in conjunction with the rodeo activities. A parade, including 15 riding clubs and sheriff's posse, two bands and six floats, kicked-off the "cowboy holidays" today. The annual rodeo breakfast, sponsored by Block and Bridle, will begin at 6 a.m. tomorrow. The meal, consisting of bacon, eggs, doughnuts and coffee, is available to anyone for 75 cents. Tommy Hancock and the Roadside Playboys will play for a wake-up dance after breakfast until 8 a.m.

The Texas Sons will play for a Western dance at 9 p.m. tomorrow in the Student Union Ballroom.

The campus-wide barbecue, scheduled for Saturday evening, will not be held due to lack of sponsorship. Winning teams and individuals will receive awards at a Western dance after the final performance of the rodeo. Awards being offered by Block and Bridle and the Tech Rodeo Association, sponsors of the rodeo, include a handsome team trophy, a saddle for the best all-around cowboy, seven championship buckles, and numerous smaller prizes.

SMOKER—

member, 28. Presidents Introduced. House introduced the presidents of the eight fraternities: McLaughlin, ATO; Reynolds, Kappa Sig; Max von Roeder, Kemas; McGuire, Phi Delta; Nolen, Phi Psi; Bennett, Corle; PiK, and James Johnson, Sigma Nu. House is president of SAE.

Dean Allen presented the scholarship plaque to Kemas and James B. Whitehead, assistant dean of student life, presented the sportsmanship award to Phi Psi. The smoker was preceded by a dinner meeting attended by the council, the president and vice president of the college, the academic deans, the student life deans, and the speaker.

At the dinner, Dean MacMinn discussed leadership, which he called "a complex trait." The leader, he stated, should be a good follower before trying to become a leader, should have a "giving" attitude of service rather than a getting attitude, and should be courageous, since leaders may not always be able to take stands popular with their followers.

Claudia Martin Re-elected As Press Club President

Claudia Martin, junior journalism student from Johnson City, was re-elected president of Press Club for 1954-55 at the organization's annual banquet Thursday. Approximately 25 members and guests heard Curtis Sterling, publisher of the Brownfield News, explain "What Weekly Newspapers Offer the Journalism Graduate."

"The weekly newspaper offers a beginning journalist a wide variety of experience," Sterling said. Writing for a weekly may range from crime to society within a few minutes. The publisher said that a reporter on a large weekly may also learn to use a camera, back-shop equipment and an engraver. Reporters learn photo developing and printing on the Brownfield paper.

"The attitude you have toward your job and employer, when you leave this campus, will be of more value than all the knowledge you can get here," Sterling concluded. "What you leave with your employer may mean the difference in getting another better job."

J. R. Heitman and Dodd Vernon, club sponsors, were giving cuff-links by the club. Other officers elected include Linda Hudson, Lubbock junior, vice president; Jan Webster, New Deal freshman, secretary; and Gale Hays, Ballinger sophomore, treasurer.

FUTURE FARMERS COMPETE

Approximately 1,300 high school Future Farmers of America competed in Tech's 27th annual FFA judging contests last weekend.

Banners and ribbons were awarded to winners in the nine-event meet, sponsored by the college and supervised by the department of agricultural education. Winners included Lubbock, poultry and cotton; Plains, livestock; Brownfield, dairy products; Paducah, dairy cattle judging; Snyder, crops; Buena Vista, wool; Childress, grass; and Wilson, meats.

Almost 600 students and teachers were guests of the Plains Cooperative Oil Mill at a barbecue following the contests.

BOOK REVIEWERS TEA

"The Man Who Killed the Deer" by Frank Waters will be reviewed at 7 o'clock tonight by Mrs. Bryan Edwards at Book Reviewers annual tea. The tea will be held in the home of Mrs. Ruth Russell, club sponsor, at 1811 9th St.

Mrs. Edwards will show slides of the Pueblo Indians at Taos with her review.

Placement Service Schedules Interviews For Job Applicants During Next Week

Interviews from the following companies are scheduled for the coming week, according to Mrs. Jean Jenkins, Placement Service director:

Tomorrow, Allis-Chalmers Manufacturing Co. will interview electrical, industrial, mechanical and chemical engineers.

Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co. has set a general meeting for Monday and interviews on Tuesday for majors in management, marketing, economics and finance or others interested in marketing.

Tuesday, the Shell Oil Co. will interview majors in secretarial administration, administration and accounting and discuss summer employment in the Midland area for juniors in accounting.

Also on Tuesday, Ernst and Ernst will interview accounting majors. This firm has offices in many parts of the United States and has a number of foreign branches.

Friday, May 7, Mytinger and Casselberry will interview students in business administration and home economics who are interested in sales careers.

Information on these or other job openings may be found on file in the Placement Service office, Ad150.

ALPHA ZETA ELECTS

Charles Browning, Burleson senior, was elected chancellor (president) of Alpha Zeta, honorary agriculture fraternity, for 1954-55.

Other officers elected were Charles Cunningham, Garden City junior; Joe R. Goodwin, Claude junior, scribe; Charles Wales, New Deal junior, treasurer; and Thomas Mason, Tahoka junior, chronicler.

Browning was also selected to represent Tech's chapter at Alpha Zeta's national convocation to be held in Detroit, Mich. in September.

MR. ELLIOT TO SPEAK

Raymond P. Elliott, associate professor of music at Tech, will speak on Folk Songs Wednesday night in the First Methodist Church of Corpus Christi. This talk will be presented at the men's annual ladies' night.

For the 16th anniversary of the Corpus Christi Kiwanis Club charter, Mr. Elliott will give a similar talk on Thursday.

An authority on folk music, Mr. Elliott has presented approximately 80 speeches to various groups on the South Plains.

Open House Registers 2,153 Visitors; Exhibits And Demonstrations Featured

A total of 2,153 visitors registered during the two-day Home Economics Open House last weekend, according to Mrs. Hattie Camp, faculty advisor of the registration committee for the 17th annual project.

"The World of Differences" carried out as a theme for the exhibits and demonstrations by each department was viewed by special guests such as representatives of Pilot International and Miss Margaret Weeks, dean emerita of the division.

Dr. Willa Vaughn Tinsley, dean of Home Economics, attributed the success of the student project to the cooperative spirit of students and faculty and the distribution of responsibility.

"For years," said Dean Tinsley, who joined the faculty last September, "I have wanted to be able to attend Open House at Texas Tech. It has been even greater than my expectations. Aside from the joy of having the many visitors, it has been an unprecedented example of cooperative effort between students and between student-faculty groups."

Thousands Invade Campus; Students Survive the Battle

Last weekend resembled "The Lost Weekend" for crowd-weary Techsians working on the Engineers' Show, Interscholastic League contests, crop and stock judging contests and Home Economics Open House.

The campus was a bee-hive of activity Friday and Saturday as thousands of visitors invaded. They wrote essays for the Interscholastic League literary contests; ran track for the athletic contests; saw style shows, and looked at famous art in the Home Ec building; pushed buttons, turned cranks, and spun wheels at the Engineers' Show; judged livestock and cotton and

BASEBALL:

Lutherans Lose 8-5 In Tech's First Win

By KENNETH BENNETT
Toreador Sports Editor

Tech's baseball coach, Beattie Feathers, couldn't have picked a better time, or a better man, for a pinchhitting role, as Tech won its first baseball game in 25 years Friday. Fulton Smith, batting for Frank Wright in the sixth inning, slammed a three-run homer for the 8-5 victory over the favored Texas Lutheran nine at Odum Field. Until then, the Raiders were shy of a single victory during their first season since 1929.

Pete Correa, lefthand pitcher for the Lutherans, and who had pitched the Seguin lads past Texas A&M the week before, relieved Ronnie Kuhlman in the sixth inning. Correa pitched two balls across and then uncorked the one he should have left at home. Fulton watched it come in, and sent it right back, for the game-winning knock of the day.

Webb Takes Over

Glenn Webb took over the pitching duties for the Techsians in the fourth inning when Chuck Johnson quit the mound after throwing the ball in the dirt.

The Lutherans came back strong the following day, and handed the Tech lads a barrage of hits that just couldn't be handled. The Lutherans posted a 9-1 victory over the Raiders.

Tuesday, after a short but much needed seventh inning stretch, Fulton repeated his home run performance, this time a grand slam, and combined with the solo round-tripper by Jackie Miller, the Raiders tied up the ball game with the West Texas State nine. The game went 11 innings before being called with the score stalemated 8-8.

Glenn Webb went the distance for the Techsians, while starter Orville Copeland gave up to Bubba Hillman in the seventh for a relief role.

Injury Sustained

Jim Crawford was the hard luck player of the day. Crawford ran head-on into the fence while chasing a foul ball in the sixth inning. He suffered a gash in the forehead that required four stitches.

The Raiders took an early 1-0 lead in the first, but gave up three unearned runs in the second, taking back one of them in their half.

The Buffaloes added three more unearned marks in the sixth that offset one in the fifth by the Lubbockites. Trying to put the game on ice in the seventh, the Buffs scored two more to increase their lead 8-3, but that just wasn't enough.

Seventh Inning

Lightning struck fast in Tech's half of the seventh. Moe Turner was safe on an error, and Don Brooks singled. Webb forced Brooks, and Demere walked to load the bases. Then is when Smith moved to the plate, watched Hillman's second pitch, and decided he couldn't ask for more. Smith trotted home lacking one run for a knotted game.

That's when Miller came in, Griffin ground out, but Miller lashed the first pitch over the left field wall for the Raider's tie.

The Techsians let their biggest threat die in the ninth inning. Two walks and an infield single loaded the bases for the hopeful Raiders, but with two out, W. L. McGee watched a third strike fly across the plate for the third out.

The Tech nine will travel to Canyon for the final game of the season, with West Texas State, May 7.

A cooperative social function is being planned by Phi Upsilon Omicron, honorary home economics sorority, and Alpha Zeta, honorary agriculture fraternity. The affair will be a picnic at Mackenzie State Park beginning at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday.

Raider Tennis Team Plasters New Mexico A&M Squad, 6-0

Texas Tech's netmen will meet the West Texas State tennis squad in Canyon Friday. It will be the final match for the Raiders before the Border Conference meet in Tuscon, May 9-10. The Raiders have already defeated the West Texas lads three times this season.

Coach George Philbrick's netters swept past New Mexico A&M Saturday, batting an even 1,000 while doing so. For the Raiders it was six straight matches—four singles and two doubles.

David Clark defeated Jody Williams 6-0, 6-0, while Harold Williams handed Cody Williams a 6-4, 6-1 loss. Van Hall was given plenty of competition before dropping Ed Lockhart 8-10, 6-2, 6-3. Charles Riddle downed Mike Maloolf 6-3, 6-0.

In the doubles matches, Clark and Williams pined Williams and Williams for a 6-4, 2-6, 6-0 win as Hall and Riddle trimmed Lockhart and Maloolf, 6-2, 6-1.

INTRAMURAL GOLF

Charles Tyra, Berger junior, defeated Don McGuire, Anton sophomore, 5-4 in the first round of the Texas Tech intramural golf tournament early this week.

Allen Lehman, Fort Worth junior, will play the winner of the Hunter-Mott match. The winner of this match will face Tyra in the second round.

Intramural Track Meet Slated; Contestants To Sign Up in Gym

Entries for Texas Tech's intramural track meet, to be held May 8, may be taken to the intramural office in the Gym from Saturday until next Thursday.

The cinder event is open to everyone who has never been awarded a letter in track from Tech, or is now working with the team.

Fencers Will Go To Border Meet

Tech's fencing team will go to El Paso Friday for the two-day Border Invitational Tournament. The Raiders, defending champions of the tourney, are strong favorites to repeat. Teams from all over the Southwest, Mexico, and South America will compete for the title.

On May 15 and 16, the team will travel to Galveston for the Southwest Sectional finals, which will also serve as the season finale for the Techsians. Teams from the Border, North Texas, Gulf, and New Orleans divisions will be on hand for the matches.

The Raider team, having already won the team title in epee and sabre during the regular season, captured the division title in team foil at Abilene April 10 by defeating Abilene and Dallas.

In individual women's competition, Jo Nell West won first and third in the junior division, while Iva Crowley took second in the junior, third in the intermediate, and fourth in the open of the senior competition.

In men's competition, Jack Carnell sliced his way to three first places. Carnell took the top honors in the intermediate and senior foil, and senior sabre.

Tech Five Enters Kentucky Tourney

Tech's basketball squad will play in the All-American City Basketball Tournament at Owensboro, Ky., next season. The tournament will be held at Kentucky Wesleyan College in Owensboro on Dec. 27-30.

The Raiders will be rounding out an entry list of eight well-known cage squads throughout the nation. Tech will encounter competition from Rhode Island, Maryland (defending tournament champion), Mississippi, Cincinnati, Denver, Evansville College, and the host, Kentucky Wesleyan.

The locals who will go into the tourney boasting the best seasonal record of the list, will see plenty of competition from Maryland, favored for a repeat performance.

The Maryland five ranked 11th in the nation last year, and will be minus only their All-American, Gene Shue. The Terps will have nine returning lettermen to bolster the squad.

Tech will enter without the aid of three of its this year's starters. That will be breaking up what is considered "the greatest team in the school's history. The Raiders took the Border Conference championship and finished the season with a 20-5 record.

PRESENTS FROM THE SENIORS

From Oil Paintings to Softball Fields: Class Gift Tradition Began in 1929

The gift presented to Texas Tech by the senior class this year will be the 32nd such present since the tradition began in 1929. Most of the gifts are still on the campus. Some, however, have been worn out or otherwise retired from active duty.

The first of such gifts was an oil painting of Dr. Paul W. Horn, first Tech president. The 1930 class donated their funds to the alumni association, and the '31 class bought the Double T bench which is located behind the Administration Building.

Other gifts have been: 1932, plaque of Dr. Paul W. Horn in the Administration Building; 1934, Concrete Bench at entrance of campus with "Texas Tech College" chiseled on it; 1935, Oil painting of Dr. Bradford Knapp, second Tech president; 1936, victory bell in Administration Building tower; 1937, concrete tennis court; 1938, Double T neon sign; 1938, summer session, plaque of Dr. Bradford Knapp in Administration Building, balance of funds donated to Student Union Building fund; 1939, lamps erected around the circle in front of Administration building and a section of cement walk placed within the circle; 1940, lights on boulevard; 1940, summer session, sidewalk continued to Library; 1941, chimneys in west tower in Ad Building; 1942, class purchased U.S. Government Savings Bonds, earmarked to be used in the purchase of an ornamental gateway at the Broadway entrance to the campus; 1942, summer session, class purchased U.S. Government Savings Bonds, earmarked to be used in the purchase of building markers for the Agriculture, Engineering, Home Economics and Administration Buildings; 1943, electric scoreboard in Jones Stadium; 1943, summer session, funds donated to help with the purchase of scoreboard in Jones Stadium; 1944, oil painting and nameplate of President Emeritus Clifford B. Jones, and a cash balance donated to Student Union Building fund; 1944, summer session, class

Myron McCarty, Perryton senior, was named "Aggie of the Year" at the annual Aggie Club banquet Tuesday night.

Dean W. L. Stangel presented the certificate to McCarty, who is an animal husbandry major.

Tech's International Collegiate Championship livestock and crops judging teams were introduced at the banquet by Dean Stangel.

Archie Leonard, associate professor of agriculture and sponsor of the club, presented a gavel to Spencer Norwood, Burleson senior and president of the club.

Delbert Downing, manager of the Midland Chamber of Commerce, was guest speaker.

SIGMA DELTA PI ELECTS

Celene Pierce was selected as president of Sigma Delta Pi, honorary Spanish fraternity, Tuesday evening.

Other officers chosen were Charles Strehli, vice president; Sandra Farborough, secretary; Travis Francis, treasurer; and Polly Johnson, reporter.

The club attended the Spanish movie, "Dona Barbara," after the business meeting.

Americanism Series Slates Three Talks

Three lecturers of national reputation will climax the 1953-54 lecture series of the Institute of Americanism with four lectures between May 4 and May 13.

Clarence Manion will speak on "State Rights vs. Communism" at 8 p.m. Tuesday in the O. L. Slaton Junior High School auditorium. Frazier Hunt will speak on "The Tragedy of the Pacific" at 8 p.m. Wednesday in the Student Union Building.

Gen. Bonner Fellers will give talks twice on May 13: at 5 p.m. to ROTC units in the Tech gym on "Was There a Hidden Hand in the Military?" and again at 8 p.m. in the O. L. Slaton Junior High School auditorium on "The Strategy of Defense."

All four lectures of the series are open to students, faculty and general public free of charge.

Mr. Manion, the first speaker, is former dean of the School of Law of Notre Dame University, noted authority on the Constitution, author of "The Key to Peace," and a practicing attorney. The Freedom Foundation's Award was presented to him at Valley Forge in both 1949 and 1950. Until recently, Dean Manion was chairman of President Eisenhower's Committee on Intergovernmental Relations.

President E. N. Jones gave credit to Mr. Manion in his All-College Recognition Day Address for the thought-provoking, "Ten Word Cycle of Civilization."

Mr. Hunt, the second lecturer, is a world traveler, adventurer and student, who has interviewed almost every major figure of his time from Pancho Villa, in an outlaw's holdout, to Lenin in the cold walls of the Kremlin.

He has ranged the world for many years as foreign representative, writer and analyst for Hearst's string of magazines. Mr. Hunt is author of the forthcoming full-length biography entitled "The Untold Story of Douglas MacArthur."

During the author's visit to Tech on May 6, the Institute of Americanism will sponsor a Roundup of Southwestern Writers which, it is planned, will become a regular annual conference.

Gen. Fellers, third speaker, a West Pointer and retired army general, is an advocate of our change in military tactics from mass land armies to reliance on Air. He is an opponent of Universal Military Training.

From service as our chief military observer in the Near East in early stages of World War II, he occupied a high position on MacArthur's staff and was present at the signing of the articles of capitulation in Tokyo Bay.

Military Careers Urged for Women

Miss Marie Miles, English instructor and major in the women-Marine reserves, says she believes the women's service corps are among the outstanding careers open to college graduates.

Miss Miles, who will be in charge of the Marine women's reserve training program for the summer, believes it is just the thing for women who want an interesting life and a chance to travel and meet different kinds of people.

Promoted to major in November, she is really a liaison officer between the reserve and the regular training program. She will spend 90 days of active duty at Parris Island, S. C. this summer.

"Some of my most valuable acquaintances are people I've met in the Marine Corps," Miss Miles points out.

A teacher in one of the Lubbock schools when the war started, Miss Miles and a friend decided to join the Marines.

"They were asking for women in the service, and I thought if I could be of any help I would," Miss Miles served in Marine Corps Intelligence in Washington and San Francisco, handling classified information.

She was transferred to Pearl Harbor, but the war ended just three days after she sailed from San Francisco.

Miss Miles has a B.A. degree from West Texas State College and an M.A. from the University of Texas.

Coach Reconsiders

In an exclusive interview this week, Coach Ernest T. Gosh of the famed Goofers stated: "I will not be intimidated by the alumni but I am open to persuasion. And they were right! After taking the 8-day test I'm here to say, You can't beat the zesty flavor of frosty cold Dr. Pepper. Try it yourself: Drink Dr. Pepper 3 times every day for eight days. Then you'll be telling everyone you see, 'Wake up your taste with a frosty cold Dr. Pepper!'
