Charged

Mrs. Tommie Dene Doughty, 17-year-old baby sitter accused of kidnaping the child she was hired to keep, sits moodily in the U. S. Marshal's office after being arraigned in Hugo, Okla. She was hurried for two days after she disappeared from Evansville, Ind. Mrs. Doughty, a former carnival performer, said she took 5-month-old Richard Lee Stammer because he reminded her of her child who died. The baby was unharmed. (AP Wirephoto).

Couple Reunited With Their Baby

TULSA, Okla. (AP)—Happy at recovering their baby but bitter at his kidnaper, a young sailor and his wife started back by air today to their Indiana home.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Duane Stammer left here by scheduled airliner, 5-month-old Richard Lee safe in his mother's arms, for Evansville.

They uttered words of bitterness at Mrs. Tommie Dene Doughty, a 17-year-old former carnival stripper-leader with a mother complex who admitted taking the child while baby-sitting for the Stammers Friday night.

"It doesn't matter to me what they do to that girl," said the 18-year-old mother. "I have no sympathy for her. She had none for me."

Meanwhile, Mrs. Doughty, who said she wanted the child to replace one lost at birth, began to show the first signs of remorse from her jail cell at Muskogee. The twice-wed girl, held under $20,000 bond on kidnaping charges, insisted:

"I didn't commit no crime, I was going to take the baby back. I got to thinking about his mother, it made me feel awful."

But Stammer, 20, and his wife, who had given the baby up for lost, were unrelenting, remembering the teen-ager's vow to get Richard Lee again when he is grown.

They flew to Oklahoma yesterday when the FBI announced it had arrested Mrs. Doughty at her parents home near Bokchito shortly after she completed the flight by bus and hitchhiking.

Kastel 'Greeted' By Houston Police

HOUSTON (AP)—Philip Kastel, business associate of New York gambler Frank Costello came to town from New Orleans yesterday and found a welcoming committee of top Houston police.

They questioned Kastel three and a half hours last night. Kastel, 35, denied he is now interested in any rackets and said he was in Houston to sell an interest in some proven oil property.

Rape Charges Filed

DALLAS (AP)—Charges of rape were on file today against Walter Keener, 35, an aircraft worker, in the assault of a Negro baby sitter, 12 years old.

Ship Collision Sinks 60-Foot Shrimper

PORT ARTHUR (AP)—A ship collision in the Port Arthur Canal sank a 60-foot Delcambre, La., shrimp boat today and damaged four other craft.

Three men sleeping aboard the shrimper leaped to the wharf just before the boat went down. S. Broussard, 42, was treated for leg injuries.

The shrimper collided with the tug Mars, owned by the Commercial Petroleum and Transport Co. of Houston. The tug swerved into four docked shrimp boats to avoid being struck by the freighter Constantia of South Africa, headed upstream.

The tug was towing a barge-load of shrimp today and damaged four other craft.

Total damage was estimated at $30,000.

Western Big Three Meet Set At Bermuda

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower will meet with Britain's Prime Minister Churchill and French Premier Laniel Dec. 4 in Bermuda to develop new policies to counter Russia's threat to Western security.

A White House announcement today said the Big Three leaders will be joined in the talks by Secretary of State Dulles for the United States, Foreign Minister Bidault for France, and Foreign Minister Eden for Great Britain.

The statement said "It has been decided to hold the Three Power conference at Bermuda which was planned for the beginning of July but had to be put off.

"It is hoped to meet from Dec. 4 to Dec. 8 and various matters of common concern to the Three Powers will be discussed," it said.

The apparent toughening of Russia's anti-Western policies presumably would rank high among the topics.

Truman Says Fear Of Reds Manipulated

NEW YORK (AP)—Former President Harry S. Truman says a fear of communism is being manipulated by a few to cause nationwide hysteria thereby placing freedom of speech and thought under attack.

In an extemporaneous speech before the American Jewish Congress last night, Truman said he feared the fight for freedom of speech and thought "is losing ground."

He added: "Fear of communism is being manipulated by a few so as to cause a wave of hysteria in this country."

"Fear is a great silencer and people are being kept quiet for fear of being accused of sympathy with communism."

"When people become afraid to speak their beliefs or to defend the innocent or to explore new ideas, then freedom is really in danger."

He said he did not mean "we are about to lose these freedoms," but added, "I will say that they are under attack."

Truman was awarded the AJC's 1952 Stephen Wise Award for his "consistent and courageous leadership in the cause of civil rights."

Third Ransom Bill Found In Indiana

PETOSKEY, Mich. (AP)—Three bills included in the $600,000 ransom paid in the Bobby Greenlease kidnap-killing have been uncovered. Two of them were found in Michigan, a third in Indiana.

Of the ransom paid, $308,000 has not been found. Finding of the bills raised immediate speculation by authorities that hoodlums may be peddling the money to professional "fences" at 30 to 50 cents on the dollar.

Two bills, one a $20 and the other a $10, were reported found here and in Detroit yesterday. Maj. Walter Weyland, executive officer of the Indiana state police, announced last night that a $20 bill had been found at Petersburg, Ind.

Truman Subpoenaed In Ex-Treasury Aide Case

Former Diplomat Doesn't Recall White In Report

NEW YORK (AP)—Spruille Braden, who had a political battle with Harry Dexter White in 1942, says he received an FBI report on Communists in 1945 but could not recall that it mentioned White.

Braden was an assistant secretary of state in 1945 and now is chairman of the New York City crime commission.

He said it was possible the FBI report was split into sections and that the part purportedly pertaining to White had gone to the Treasury Department but not to the State Department.

Atty. Gen. Herbert Brownell Jr. has said the FBI report listed White as a spy for Russia but that White nevertheless later was promoted to the post of U. S. executive director of the International Monetary Fund.

Brownell named Braden as one of nine Truman administration officials who received copies of the FBI report.

"My guess," Braden told newsmen, "is that probably the FBI report was split into sections, with the State Department part coming to us and the Treasury part to the Treasury. I would not have seen the part about White in that case."

Braden said he had a policy clash with White in 1942 and "if White's name were in the report, I think I would have remembered it."

In 1942, Braden was ambassador to Cuba and White was an assistant secretary of the Treasury.

Braden declared White headed a Treasury department "mission" that drew up banking and financial recommendations for a Cuban currency reform.

"The White report, Braden said, contained some recommendations that made it 'just the kind of thing the Communies wanted to put over.'"

Braden described the report as "See BRADEN Pg. 4, Col. 3"

Senate investigators to seek testimony from James F. Byrnes who says he received FBI report linking late Harry Dexter White to Communist spying; talked with Truman about it.

Truman declines further statement—"If it becomes necessary I will comment."

Democratic Chairman Stephen Mitchell charges GOP "tried Truman before luncheon club" to divert attention from New York state scandals.

Ex-Ambassador Spruille Braden says he received an FBI report in 1945 but does not recall mention of White; declares White backed "just the kind of thing the Communies wanted" in Cuban currency reform.

Former President To Be Questioned

BULLETIN WASHINGTON (AP)—A member of the House Un-American Activities Committee said today it has issued a subpoena for the appearance of former President Truman Thursday for questioning in the Harry Dexter White case.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Investigating Senators announced today that Gov. James F. Byrnes of South Carolina will be asked "for his recollection of an FBI memorandum linking Harry Dexter White to Communist espionage."

Byrnes, who was secretary of State in former President Truman's administration, said in a statement last night that he recalled the FBI document. He said he talked with Truman about it early in 1946—at the time Truman was advancing White to U. S. representative on the International Monetary Fund.

The Senate Internal Security subcommittee, headed by Sen. Jenner (R-Ind.), said it would ask for Byrnes' recollection of the incident.

The group also announced it definitely will question Maj. Gen. Harry Vaughan, who was Truman's military aide, at a closed session at 2 p. m. Thursday, and will also take testimony from Miss Ruth Anderson who was Vaughan's secretary at the White House.

The Senate group did not say that Gov. Byrnes would be asked to testify but a committee spokesman indicated that this may happen, if agreeable to Byrnes.

Byrnes, now governor of South Carolina, said he suggested that Truman withdraw White's nomination to a higher government post—a nomination Atty. Gen. Brownell contends was made early in 1946 despite an FBI report that White was engaged in Soviet espionage.

It was plain the committee was out in any case to put formally on the record Byrnes' statement that he saw such an FBI report, talked with Truman about it, and suggested that Truman withdraw White's nomination.

On its face, this apparently clashes with Truman's assertions that White was "fired" as soon as it was learned he was "wrong."

White took the monetary post in early 1946 and served for over a year. So far as the public record goes, White then resigned voluntarily. However, Truman has said that White was "fired" by asking for his resignation.

The Senate group's move was only one indication that Congressional Republicans were preparing to dig into every corner of the controversy touched off when Atty. Gen. Brownell declared last week that Truman promoted White despite an FBI report that White was a Russian spy.

In addition, the House Un-American Activities Committee has announced it wants to question Vaughan, also on Thursday.

And Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.), chairman of the Senate Investigations subcommittee, declared "it begins to look more and more as if Truman will have to be called as a witness."

McCarthy said this did not mean his subcommittee has any plans to call Truman but that he thought Jenner's group or the House Un-American Activities Committee should.

Truman has declared he does not recall any FBI reports on White in late 1945 and early 1946. Brownell said Justice Department records show reports were delivered to Vaughan at those times for relay to the President.

Last week, Truman said he would have his personal files checked to determine whether there were such reports in them.

Byrnes' statement last night was occasioned by a Brownell statement which brought his name into the matter.

Brownell said an FBI report on White was not only sent to the White House but to Byrnes and several other high officials of that time.

Two other former members of Truman's official family said last night they did not recall such a report, but Byrnes said he read it, went to the White House and told Truman he was "shocked," and asked what the President intended to do about it.

"The President stated he had read the report and that he also was surprised," Byrnes said.

At the time Brownell first made the accusations, Truman said, "I don't recall that such a thing happened." He has also said, "It was See TRUMAN Pg. 4, Col. 1"

Magsaysay Has Lead In Election

MANILA, (AP)—Challenger Ramon Magsaysay today took an expected early lead in Manila over President Elpidio Quirino in apparently the least violent presidential election in the republic's seven-year history.

Eight persons were reported slain by gunfire and stabbing during the balloting. In the last presidential election in 1949 there were 25 reported killed and scores injured.

Election officials said they do not expect decisive results for about three days.

However, Philippines News Service said the trend looks like a "nationwide landslide" for Magsaysay, the ex-guerrilla fighter who quit his job as defense secretary under Quirino last spring.

The first complete, unofficial returns from 137 of Manila's 1,500 precincts showed Magsaysay 15,944 and Quirino 3,355. Manila was expected to be in the Magsaysay fold.

Other sparse returns from the provinces showed Magsaysay a total of 31,707 and Quirino 10,825—only a tiny fraction of the islands' total.

The early reports showed Magsaysay strength in the central Philippines and the heavily populated cities as expected.

Scattered returns from the north—expected to be a Quirino stronghold—gave Magsaysay the edge, but they were too minor to establish a pattern.

He also held a very early margin in the south, which was considered a tossup.

Although the Commission on Elections said voting generally was peaceful, Philippines News Service listed eight victims of gunfire and stabbing.

Five men and a youth were slain in volatile Cavite province, four of them in one gun battle. One person was reported killed at Rosario in LaUnion province and another was reported stabbed to death in a polling booth at San Carlos, Pangasinan province.

After hearing the first reports, Magsaysay said they "seem encouraging" but added "it's too early . . . to form any definitive opinion."

He said if the elections were clean and peaceful and vote counting is honest he "will win a sweeping victory." He added: "It seems threat to the security of the entire area."

Declaring the raid was "apparently calculated," Jebb said the "whole situation is made worse by the apparent unwillingness of the Israel government to punish those responsible and hence, by implication, their willingness to condone it."

Chief U. S. Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. told the council evidence left "no doubt" that armed Israeli forces had made the Kibya attack. He added that his government subscribed to Britain's stand in the matter.

New Recess At Agenda Meet Today

PANUNJOM (AP)—Allied negotiators for the second straight day today called a recess to study carefully a Communist statement made during secret talks to arrange an agenda for setting up a Korean peace conference.

There was no hint of what the Reds said.

The staff advisers met for 1 hour 40 minutes and announced they would meet for the fourth time tomorrow.

The lower level negotiators are trying to break a two-week deadlock.

American envoy Arthur Dean and the chief Red Chinese and North Korean diplomats, who failed to solve the agenda controversy in 11 meetings, are in recess while two staff advisers from each side tackle the problem.

Young called a 10-minute recess yesterday to give "careful study" to a Communist statement.

So far, however, there has been no clear indication whether the staff negotiators are making progress toward drawing up an agenda.

Big 3 To Stall Action Call On Israeli Clash

By TOM HOGE UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The Big Three have denounced Israel before the U. N. for the recent killing of 53 Arabs in the Jordan border village of Kibya. But they have agreed to hold off a call for Security Council action until both sides have their say.

Israel's Chief Delegate Abba Eban told the council he will plead his government's case when the hearing is resumed Thursday.

Israel, meanwhile, faced another going-over today before the council on neighboring Syria's complaint she is stealing the life-giving waters of the Jordan from Arab farmers by diverting the river for an Israeli hydroelectric project.

Israel agreed—at the U. N.'s behest—to halt work on the Jordan project while the council debates the Syrian complaint. But Israeli sources indicated last night if the council does not take action soon, she will seek permission to resume work.

Britain, France and the United States last night joined in strongly censuring the Oct. 14 Kibya raid by Armed Israel as a flagrant violation of the already strained Palestine armistice. They said the incident endangered the peace in the Middle East. They appealed to Israel to stop trying to justify the incident as a logical act of reprisal and to help bring the guilty ones to justice.

An authoritative Big Three source said today Eban's response to the Western censure largely will determine how strong the wording of their resolution on the border killings is to be.

Britain's Sir Gladwyn Jebb spearheaded the Big Three rebuke, labeling the Kibya incident a

Trieste Guards Tighten Checks On Those Entering

TRIESTE (U)—Italian sources said today border guards of the Trieste free territory have tightened their checks on Italian citizens entering the disputed zone in the wake of last week's bloody riots.

High Court Turns Down Texas Request On Pipeline Case

WASHINGTON (U)—A request by Texas for an immediate Supreme Court decision on the validity of a Texas tax on natural gas sent out of the state by pipeline has been denied.

No reason was given by the court in its denial for the quick hearing of arguments. As the case stands, the court probably will hear the arguments next month. Atty. Gen. Shepperd of Texas said in Austin the effort for an early hearing was made so a judgment could be reached by January or February.

The case is a test of the tax. Money collected on such shipments have been tied up in the litigation. Shepperd said Texas teachers have been told that the revenue from the tax might go toward salary boosts if the Supreme Court decides for the state.

Riding THE GRUB LINE

With Franklin Reynolds

The chances are that two of the busiest young ladies in Stanton today, because they were the busiest pair there yesterday and the job is yet far from done, are Misses Mary Beth White and Angie Lou Chesser.

They're Stanton High School students with a big load of the responsibility for making a success of the observance of Friendship Week which will reach its climax Black Cat Day (Friday the 13th) with the game between Stanton and Sandoz.

"Wednesday will be Western Day, and then Thursday will be Hobe Day," these quiet charming young ladies explained. "Wednesday everybody is supposed to wear Western clothes and we hope the people down town will wear them, too," they said. It naturally follows that on Thursday everybody, even those down town are supposed to dress like hoboes.

Thursday night will be topped off with a big snake dance and bonfire, a sort of pep rally.

Friday — well Friday is open house at the new school building, "and so it will be dress up day," say the Misses White and Chesser. In between, and somewhere, there is to be a big pep rally and a dance. The dance will likely turn out to be a "sock hop" maybe even some of the boys will wind up barefooted. They just haven't decided where it will be held at the Legion Hut or the abandoned Humble Camp Club House. The girls hate to even think of the accumulation of dust and sand they may find in the Club House. The Legionnaires have offered the Hut with a refinished dance floor.

It will be open house all day Friday and all ex-students and parents, and everybody in fact, is being urged to attend. At 5:15 p.m. Friday there will be a barbecue supper in the new school cafeteria served by the Junior and Senior classes at 35 cents a plate; the ex-students will meet at 6:45 p.m. in the gymnasium and then the starting whistle will blow at 8 p.m.

Saturday and Sunday there will be some mighty happy, but hard-working and tired, high school girls in Stanton.

Likely there isn't anybody who knows more about how few family milk cows there are on the cotton farms of Martin County than Charlie Christopher.

Charlie, who admits he hasn't been in Big Spring for some time but who has promised to come over and see how much the town has grown, lives in Stanton, where he is engaged in the distribution of Borden milk, ice cream and other products, and ice.

It used to be that the country people brought milk and butter to town to sell. Now, as a town man, Charlie hauls these things to the country to sell to the farmers. Three days a week he makes a run up to Lessorah and then on out past the Grady School to Tarzan. On this route he services five stores, two cafes and the Grady School with half-pints for the lunchroom program.

Everybody is always glad to see Charlie coming because he is always so full of cheerful, down-to-earth philosophy so well expressed, and while there may be times when he's short on ice cream or buttermilk or ice, he's never short on words.

Slick as a ribbon we saw him talk Mrs. T. J. Hogue out of a mess of turnip greens at Lessorah. "If there's anything I really like," he said, "it's turnip greens and good ones are hard to find. If you'd told the lady you like turnip greens she'd a'given you some too."

But there's a time when nobody can give Charlie something good to cook and eat's when Mrs. Christopher is not at home to cook it for him.

He says he's not going to let anybody tie him to a cook stove.

The people of Martin County have a couple of early elections coming up, one this month and one next month.

On Nov. 21, they will vote on a reallocation of county taxes, and then on Dec. 12 they will vote on a proposed bond issue of $75,000 for the purpose of paying off the indebtedness against the Martin County Memorial Hospital and taking it over as a county operation.

County Judge James McMorris says the hospital is valued at $287,000 and it is now being operated by an incorporated association. The county has been asked to assume the debt against it, a little less than $75,000, and to take it over and operate it.

The Commissioner's Court has called the Dec. 12, bond election to let people say what they want to do about it.

McMorris says that if the voters approve the bond issue the county will take over the management of the hospital just as soon as the incorporated association can be dissolved; the bonds sold and the debt paid. Just exactly how long that will take, he says he doesn't know, but it won't be long.

Martin County Chief Deputy Sheriff A. C. Abernathy has just turned in a good job of detective work. On Oct. 24 the Farmers Co-Op Welding Machine Shop at Ackerly, and in that part of the town situated in Martin County, was broken into and plow fittings and welding equipment valued at $425 was stolen.

International Politics Keeps Copper Men High In Air Today

NEW YORK (U)—Politics, economy and the cold war have copper and other metal men up in the air today.

The politics is at the international level. An urge for economy has caused Uncle Sam to stop buying metal from U.S. producers for his defense stockpile. And the cold war angle is the United States' urgent desire to keep Russia from getting any of Chile's surplus copper—a war essential.

Texas Paper Union Case Is Argued

FORT WORTH (U)—Management of the city circulation department of the Houston Chronicle was argued before the 5th Federal Court of Appeals yesterday. The judges will decide later.

The newspaper in 1950 adopted the independent contractor system, replacing the practice of having employe district managers for city circulation, the court was told.

The National Labor Relations Board held in December that the Chronicle discharged five former district managers for union activities and then changed its entire city circulation system to circumvent organizational activities of the CIO Newspaper Guild.

The board ordered reinstatement of all former district managers. "There is a serious question here as to whether the board in Washington can tell how to run a newspaper," Chief Judge Joseph Hutcheson of Houston told Miss Rosanna Blake of Washington, who argued for the board.

"If the Chronicle decided to change its way of doing business it is going a long way to say the Congress passed an act telling them how to run their business. How can the board say what the motivating factor for the change was?"

Vision Better, Man Returns Friends' Aid

KANSAS CITY (U)—Two years ago friends of Gene Dorsey contributed $710 to replace his seeing eye dog that had been killed by a car.

Ataturk's Body Is Given Final Burial In Great Memorial

ANKARA, Turkey (U)—The body of Mustafa Kemal Ataturk, who led feudal Turkey into Western ways, was given final burial today, 15 years after his death.

Thousands lined a four-mile route as a military gun carriage bore his bier from the small temporary mausoleum near the heart of the capital to a great memorial of native yellow stone on the outskirts.

Ataturk took over the leadership of his defeated nation, following the World War I downfall of the Ottoman sultans, and sparked a revitalization of his people. As dictator-president he forced them to give up age-old customs and adapt themselves to modern Western ideas.

His body will rest in a 42-ton tomb, carved from a single block of granite, in a 200-foot square green marble hall of honor.

C-City Amends Its Meter Ordinance

COLORADO CITY (U)—Colorado City councilmen voted Monday night to legalize the present charge of twenty-five cents, paid by over-parkers who pay up within the hour.

The vote will amend a section of the parking meter ordinance, according to City Manager Roy Doler, which allows motorists guilty of overparking to go to the police station within an hour and pay a nickel instead of the usual one dollar fine.

Doler said that police had been collecting the quarter instead of a nickel for more than a year, and asked for the change to make the law conform to practice.

On courtesy parking tickets for out of town cars—approved by the council at a previous meeting at the request of the Chamber of Commerce—Doler said that such a custom would be subject to abuse and added that he didn't feel that people would appreciate it. He reported that police were not issuing courtesy tickets at present.

Hippo 'Puppy Love' Reported By Zoo

NEW YORK (U)—Bush match-makers at The Bronx zoo have reported a budding romance in the hippopotamus cage.

The zoo arranged a meeting yesterday between its two young hippos—Pete II, a strapping lad of 250 pounds, and Phoebe, a dainty 315 pounder.

The two immediately went in for a little ear chewing and nuzzling, the beginning of love in the hippo world, a zoo spokesman reported.

Pete shifted away from a 700-pound prospective bride last September.

But Pete and Phoebe could be only at the puppy love stage now. Each is about a year old and hippos usually wait nine years before giving serious thought to settling down and starting a family.

of copper is in fairly delicate balance at the moment, with the price holding firm at around 30 cents a pound while the United States and Chile haggle over what to do with the big stocks of copper.

Copper men here say that the price is likely to drop, no matter how the present impasse between Washington and Santiago is resolved.

If Chile goes through with current threats to offer her more than 100,000 tons of surplus copper on the world market, the price drop could be sharp. The surplus piled up because Chile asked 35 1/2 cents a pound and could find no takers. If Chile finally sells it to the United States for retirement into the U.S. stockpile of defense materials, the release of new Chile copper output on the world market seems likely to break the present delicate balance and tilt the price downward.

A rush of foreign metal already has caused price breaks in zinc and lead, breaks which have caused closing of a number of American mines. Copper, zinc and lead are usually closely tied together in consumption and price trends.

Copper, lead and zinc men say the demand for their metals continues high, even if off a little from the Korean war peak. The trouble, they say, is first that the U. S. government has stopped buying for its stockpile, and second, that there is a big world supply and an increase in import volume here. This has eased a little in recent weeks. But the Chilean copper situation could easily upset the suit was filed yesterday and is similar to the one filed by Stanolind Oil & Gas Co. several weeks ago. The Stanolind suit asked the court to clarify leasing rights to some 30,000 acres of potentially rich oil lands.

The Shell lease involves marine bottoms in the ship shoal area of the Gulf.

Named defendants were the register of the State Land Office and the State Mineral Board.

States were given control of offshore property "within historic boundaries" by the last Congress.

In both suits, the court is asked to rule whether the oil firms can reinstate and lease by payment of back rentals not paid when ownership of the property was still involved in a state-federal dispute.

Open House Is Set At C-City School

COLORADO CITY — At the Monday night meeting of the Colorado City school board, John E. Watson, assistant superintendent, announced that open house for the newly completed Wallace school for Negroes, would be held Sunday.

The new, completely modern school, replaces a converted barracks building, near the downtown area of Colorado City. Board members debated the possibility of using the old barracks building as a field house at Wolf Stadium, with further information on the proposed usage to come before the board at next month's meeting.

Mossadegh Attempts To Leave Courtroom

TEHRAN, Iran (U)—Screaming, sobbing ex-Premier Mohammed Mossadegh attempted to walk out of a court martial trying him for his life today after a wild fist-swinging scene climaxed his attempts to disavow his court-appointed lawyer.

The 73-year-old politician—accused of defying the Shah, trying to overthrow the monarchy and illegally dissolving the Majlis (lower house of Parliament)—shouted at his judges:

"Give an order to cut off my head, but I must defend myself."

It was the third straight day of emotional fireworks staged by Mossadegh, virtual dictator of Iran before his overthrow last August by royalist supporters. He told the

City, County Expect To Beat Deadline On Fourth Street

Both city and county say they expect to have Fourth Street right-of-way and curb and gutter funds ready for the State Highway Department by January.

And Highway Engineer J. C. Roberts has said contract will be let in January for making Fourth a part of Highway 80, if the right-of-way is secured and curbing funds are in escrow by that time.

Husband Kills Self After His Wife Commits Suicide

LOS ANGELES (U)—The body of Mrs. Helene Hughes, 32, was found two weeks ago in Exposition Park. Police said she had died of an overdose of sleeping pills and that she had told friends of marital troubles.

Yesterday her husband, Sam M. Hughes, 25-year-old aircraft worker, was found dead. Police said he too had taken sleeping tablets.

"I loved Helene," said a long letter he left for a friend. "I didn't treat her well and she had never been treated badly before. She died of a broken heart, purely and simply."

"Living with Helen's death on my mind was hell and I could never have gotten rid of the pain I caused her. . . . Helene always wanted me to follow her. I never did. . . . Helene and Sam are together now and for always, the eternal marriage as she wanted it."

Eisenhower Given 200 Books To Read By Literary Group

WASHINGTON (U)—President Eisenhower got a lot of new reading matter today, including a book about himself.

The American Booksellers Assn. presented the White House 200 volumes selected as most suitable for a typical family library.

The 200 books included memoirs by such old associates of the President as Winston Churchill, Gens. Omar Bradley, Mark Clark, Lucius Clay and Walter Bedell Smith, now undersecretary of state. There are three autobiographical volumes by former President Hoover.

In addition to the revised standard version of the Holy Bible and fiction by such writers as Ernest Hemingway and William Faulkner, there are William Hillman's "Mr. President," a book prepared from the papers of former President Truman, Eleanor Roosevelt's "This I Remember" and "Speeches of Adlai Stevenson."

One of the biographies, by Kevin McKann, is titled "Man From Abilene."

TOKYO (U)—The U. S. Army announced today 5,399 Japanese nationals would be dropped from its payroll in current economy dismissals at bases and installations throughout the islands.

TB Association Needs Help In Mailing Seals

The Howard County Tuberculosis Association has issued an appeal for volunteer workers to assist in preparing Christmas Seals for mailing.

The association hopes to get this year's seals in the mail next week, but is in urgent need of assistance in "stuffing" envelopes, said Wendal Parks, president of the TB organization.

Some groups and organizations already have volunteered assistance. Members of the VFW auxiliary have been helping out in typing, while Kiwanis Queens and Girl Scouts already have agreed to help with the mailing chores.

However, more volunteers are needed immediately if the task is to be completed on schedule, Parks said.

Individuals or organizations who can help have been asked to contact Mrs. J. P. Knight, in charge of seal sales by mail, at 1504-A Sycamore, or telephone 4-4787.

The sale of Christmas seals is an annual project of the Tuberculosis Association. Funds derived from the sale are used to finance the association's program of work.

Square Dance Is Slated In Abilene

ABILENE (SC)—Members of the Westerners Association here will be hosts at a square dance and barbecue at Abilene's Fair Park on Saturday night. The dance is an annual event and callers and dancers from all over West Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico have been invited.

The Westerners Association is the oldest square dance organization in the Southwest.

A special square dance band will be on hand to provide the music Saturday night, and Les Gotcher, world famous square dance caller and instructor will make one of his few appearances in Texas for this year.

Federal Petroleum Board Head Resigns

KILGORE (U)—James Lewis resigned yesterday as chairman of the Federal Petroleum Board.

The board, with headquarters here, administers the Connally "Hot Oil" Act in the Southwest.

The Interior Department in Washington told the Kilgore News Herald that Leo Hart, 54, of Gilmer had been named Lewis's successor.

Lewis was with the board 20 years, eight as chairman. He said he would probably enter private law practice.

POW Shot To Death

PANMUNJON (U)—A North Korean war prisoner was shot to death by an Indian guard while trying to escape over a wire fence today, the Neutral Nations Repatriation Commission announced.

He was the fifth prisoner killed by guards' gunfire since Sept. 25.

New King

Crown Prince Emir Saud, 50, (above) is the new king of Saudi Arabia, succeeding his father, King Ibn Saud, who died. The 73-year-old former king was the richest man in the world with an income of 200 million dollars a year, much of it from the vast oil resources of his desert kingdom. The new king is the most traveled of the royal family. Saud has a weakness for American food. His steward is Claude McDonald of Amarillo. (AP Wirephoto).

Republican Seeks Resignation From Civil Service Head

WASHINGTON (U)—Rep. A. L. Miller (R-Neb.) called upon Philip Young today to resign as chairman of the Civil Service Commission.

He said Young is blocking Eisenhower administration efforts to place its own men in key federal jobs.

Miller said that because of Young's objections, the commission has classified as appointive jobs outside civil service protection fewer than half the positions requested by the administration.

"Inasmuch as you have not seen fit to support the administration in helping to remove those who would sabotage the very administration who gave you a job, it would seem that in all fairness and decency you should submit your resignation to the President," Miller wrote Young.

Miller is chairman of the House Interior Committee.

Jets Scare Off Ducks

DENISON, Tex. (U)—Duck hunters who have worked the Lake Texoma area since the season opened Friday with little success have complained to Perrin Air Force Base that their jets are scaring off the ducks.

The base commandant said he would have his jets come in higher.

Farm Policy Vote

LONDON (U)—Prime Minister Churchill's Conservative government won House of Commons backing for its farm policies, 311 to 275.

Fourteen Days Of Mourning Set By New Arabian Monarch

BAHREIN, Persian Gulf (U)—Saudi Arabia's new king, Saud Ibn Abdul Aziz, has decreed 14 days of official mourning for the death of his father, King Ibn Saud.

A report of the decree reaching this Persian Gulf island today said the body of the world's richest and most powerful absolute monarch was flown from his summer palace at Taif to one of the desert kingdom's capitals at Riyadh within two hours after his death yesterday morning. It was buried the same day.

The report said the 73-year-old, one-eyed Moslem ruler died at the fortified mountain village surrounded by the male members of his family and tribal heads. They followed the traditional Arabian rite of acknowledging the monarch's eldest son the new king and pledging their loyalty by hand-claps around the deathbed. The chiefs also proclaimed their acceptance of Ibn Saud's second son, Faisal, as heir to the throne and prime minister of this land of oil riches.

The new king, reported variously as being between 50 and 55 years old, closely resembles his fabulous father. He is well over 6 feet, wears spectacles and a dark chin beard. Presumably he inherits the income, estimated at 200 million dollars a year, his father built up

Huge Phone Rate Hikes In Effect In Houston Today

HOUSTON (U)—Huge telephone rate increases were in effect here today.

The hikes became effective at midnight, a few hours after Judge Wilmer Hunt signed a temporary injunction restraining Houston from enforcing its 1949 rate ordinance.

The City Council rejected last month a request for telephone rate increases averaging 44 per cent. New monthly rates, federal taxes not included, are:

- One-party business $17, up $5.
- One-party residential $6.50, up $1.75.
- Two-party residential $5.50, up $1.50.
- Four-party residential $4.50, up $1.25.

Y Clubs Here Name Delegates

When Robert Angel raps, the gavel in the Senate as lieutenant-governor of the YMCA Youth-in-Government project, he will have at least two friendly senators in the chamber.

Tray-Hi-Y members named Anne Gray as senator at their meeting Monday evening. The boys selected Glenn Rogers as the Hi-Y choice.

Janice Anderson and Libby Jones were picked as representatives from the ranks of the girls, and Roger Brown and David Read as boy house members. Wade Simpson was selected as reporter for both clubs.

Research assistants of the girls will be Lila Turner and Anna Mae Thorp, who also will be alternate reporters. Richard Hughes and Ray Shaw are the boy research assistants, while Kim Milling is an alternate research assistant.

District Attorney Elton Gilliland will counsel with the girls in preparation of their bill, which he warned in his talk to them Monday, must be in hand in 10 days. A. Mack Rodgers and George T. Thomas were named as legal advisors by the boys for preparation of bills.

David Read, it was announced, will be a committee chairman in the House. Robert Angel, accompanied by Keith Odum, sponsor, is to attend a preliminary legislative training conference in Austin this weekend. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Angel, are due to make the trip too, and the party will be joined by Patsy Morrow of San Angelo.

Commissioners On Tour Of Courthouse

Howard County commissioners were giving the new courthouse another inspection this morning. Elevators, which have been put in operation, were "delivered" to the county, and were tried out. Arrangement of seats in the county courtroom was being discussed.

Touring the building with officials was Olen Puckett, architect.

Prowler Reported

A report of "automobile prowling" was made to police last night. Residents in the 1000 block of Johnson Street said a car continued to go up and down the alley. No description of the car was given, and it was gone when police arrived.

Ice Can Be Health Hazard, Scientific Germ Tests Show

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE AP Science Reporter

NEW YORK, Nov. 10 (AP)—The ice that chills your food and drinks can be a health hazard, germ tests show.

Ice almost always starts out pure, made from water meeting high sanitary standards. But there can be many a slip 'twixt freezer and lip by careless handling and serving of crushed or cubed ice.

The tests often find ice carrying germs that could cause illness or diarrhea. How much actual illness they may cause appears very hard to determine.

Two studies point up the hazard, with Harvard scientists reporting a remedy to keep crushed ice sanitary—a chlorine bath.

V. D. Foltz of Kansas Agricultural Experiment Station, Manhattan, Kan., analyzed 114 samples of ice collected from public places and hospitals in central Kansas.

From 75 per cent of them, he could cultivate germs of the type responsible for food poisoning, diarrhea, wound infections, typhoid and dysentery.

Thirty-one samples were fairly high in germ content. Crushed ice was usually worse than cubes, with only 10 of 77 samples of crushed ice meeting good sanitary standards, Foltz found. That's significant, he said, because crushed ice is not only used in drinks but also in direct contact to chill foods.

some of which are eaten raw. Germs in crushed ice included some known to play a part in spoilage of some foods.

Cubed ice made by machines was much better, with nearly half of 37 samples being germ free. In hospitals particularly, where ice-making machines were well tended, the ice cubes were really sanitary.

Foltz, writing in public health reports, also found sand, threads, bits of finger nail polish and lint, and other debris in sediment from melted crushed or cubed ice.

Prof. Edward W. Moore, Evelyn W. Brown and Ellen M. Hall of Harvard University also report germs often contaminating crushed ice as it was formerly dispensed in 16-ounce serving units of the university.

Spoons or scoops were used to dish the ice into glasses, but despite strict rules human hands would touch it, and were the main source of germs.

An effective remedy was to cover the crushed ice with a weak solution of sodium hypochlorite, supplying chlorine which kills most of the germs.

Use of chlorine brought absolutely no complaints of changes in taste or flavor of drinks, and chlorine now is being used in all the dining halls, Prof. Moore writes in the American Journal of Public Health.

Don't count on corn-squeezins' to knock out germs in a mixed drink. It would have to be a potent drink to kill the bugs which could get into carelessly handled ice.

C. M. Knowlton Dies In Angelo

Cyrus Millard Knowlton, 72, former resident of Stanton and the Ackery community, died at 5:05 p.m. Monday in San Angelo. For the past decade, Knowlton had resided at Mertzon.

The body is at Nalley Funeral Home here.

Born in White County, Arkansas, March 21, 1881, Knowlton had farming and ranching interests in Martin County at one time. More recently, he was a butcher in Mertzon.

Survivors, in addition to his wife, Tressa Knowlton of Mertzon, include four sons, M. L. Ackery, J. C. Fullerton, Tex.; C. B. Duper, S. D.; and Larry B. Mertzon; three daughters, Mrs. Mary Edwards, Portland, Ore.; Mrs. Margaret Hughes, Ranger; and Mrs. Mabel Cantton, Seminole; four sisters, Mrs. Mabel Black, Ranger; Mrs. Vela Williamson, California; Mrs. Irene Williams, Taboka; and Mrs. Ruby Holder, address unreported; and two brothers, Hugh Anderson, Dumas; and Dudley Anderson, Stanton.

Plans for services are incomplete but they will probably be held at the Church of Christ in Stanton at 2 p.m. Wednesday. Burial will be in Stanton. Minister Adcock of Mertzon and Emore Johnson, minister of the Stanton church, will officiate.

Four Minor Crashes Reported To Police

Four minor accidents were reported to police Monday, and there apparently were no injuries.

Cars driven by John W. Strobaugh, WFAE, and Lawrence Clifton Dunagan, 1110 Nolan, were in collision about 8:30 p.m. in the 800 block of Main. Strobaugh was driving a Yellow Cab.

At 4:40 p.m. Mrs. Pauline Kendrick Hunt, 1601 Stadium, and Arthur Lee Watson were driving cars which collided in the 900 block of Johnson. And about 11 a.m. an accident between drivers John Jim Winn, 1205 Lancaster, and Charles Ray Clinton, Vealmoor, occurred in the 1100 block of Mulberry.

About 11:46 p.m. a car driven by Leo Volmer of Chicago, Ill., was in collision with a pickup parked in an alley behind 908 Johnson Street. Owner of the pickup was not identified.

Automobile Stolen, Another Recovered

Theft of an automobile from a Big Spring man and recovery of another which had been stolen a week ago was reported Monday afternoon to local law enforcement officials.

G. T. Baker, 1207 East 6th St., reported to sheriff's officials at 6 p.m. Monday that his 1953 Pontiac was stolen. It was taken between 2 p.m. and 5:45 p.m., he said. License number is NV 8931.

Police were informed Monday that a 1939 Plymouth belonging to Selo Villa, 306 N. Bell, was recovered at Snyder, where it had been abandoned. Villa's car was taken Nov. 1 while parked in front of the Rio theater in Northwest Big Spring.

Martin Test Yields Free Oil, Area Logs 3 New Completions

A large amount of free oil and some salt water were recovered on the Monday drillstem test of Gulf No. 2-A G. W. Glass, stepout venture to Martin County's Glass (Pennsylvanian) Field.

Two completions have been reported by the Texas Company in Martin's Mabey Field, and a new final was recorded by Duncan Drilling Company in the Howard-Glasscock Field. Two locations were spotted in Dawson's Welch field by Toke Foster.

Borden

Stanold No. 1 J. Homer Beal, 2,310 from north and 690 from east lines, 14-31-3n, T&P survey, is reported at 2.7% inch surface casing, where the 2 1/8 inch surface casing has been set. Top of the Grayburg was picked at 2,665 feet, and top of the San Andres is 2,735 feet. No elevations were listed.

Johnson and Wood No. 1 W. B. Owens (Zant), 2,162 from west and 660 from south lines, 12-33-2s, T&P survey, has spudded and was, at last reports, down to 102 feet. This venture is two miles north of Vealmoor.

Independent Oilman Dies At Texas Home

HOUSTON (AP)—O. L. Rash, 75, independent oil operator and former chamber of commerce official at Dallas and Gainesville, died at his home here last night after a long illness.

A partner in Whitehead and Rash, he brought in wells in the Fairbanks Field in Harris County, and the Mandel Field in Brazoria County.

Rash was manager of the Gainesville Chamber five years. His widow and three daughters, all of Houston, survive. Services will be held here tomorrow.

Policeman Shows He Knows Drunks

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Police Sgt. Morgan Smith knows a drunk when he sees one and can back it up.

A defense attorney in a public drunkenness case expressed doubt yesterday. The officer cast a practiced eye about the courtroom, pointed to Jack Brady, 40, and said, "There's one now."

Brady was arrested and charged with being drunk in a public place.

Accused

The late Harry Dexter White is shown above as he testified before a House Un-American Activities Committee on Aug. 13, 1948. At that time he denied giving secret information or aid to Soviet agents. Attorney General Herbert Brownell elaborated on his charge the Truman Administration had full notice of spying activities by White before White was advanced to a higher post. (AP Wirephoto).

TRUMAN

never proved that White was a spy. . . He was never indicted by a grand jury."

Byrnes and Truman have become bitter political foes in recent years. The South Carolina governor supported President Eisenhower in the 1952 campaign.

Spruille Braden, an assistant secretary of state under Byrnes, and Adm. William D. Leahy, personal chief of staff to Truman, said they did not recall seeing any FBI report on White.

Their names, and others, were brought into the mushrooming dispute late yesterday by Brownell. Eisenhower's attorney general issued a new statement declaring FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover had given "full and adequate notice... of spying activities" by White to the White House, to four Cabinet officials and four other top men.

Truman, who has termed Brownell's accusations a desperate political maneuver, maintained silence on the new statement. He turned aside with a "no comment" all questions, including those about Byrnes' version.

A speech the former President made in New York City last night contained no direct mention of Brownell's charges or the steaming political furor they have stirred.

During his usual early morning walk in New York City today Truman declined again to discuss Byrnes' statement.

"Sorry, no comment," the former President said. "If it becomes necessary I will comment, but it has not become necessary as yet."

When reporters pressed their questions during the 30-minute walk, Truman said "I think I covered it pretty well at home."

Byrnes, in a statement issued at Columbia, S. C., said he saw an FBI report on White's "affiliation with the Communists" the day before the Senate acted on White's nomination by Truman as director of the International Monetary Fund.

He said he called at the White House the following day and told Truman, "In view of the charges contained in Hoover's report, I thought he should immediately ask the Senate to withhold action and then withdraw the nomination."

But, Byrnes continued, the Senate already had confirmed the nomination, and he then suggested that Truman should refuse to issue a commission to White. Byrnes quoted the former President as saying he had been told, on a previous occasion, that once the Senate acted he had no alternative but to issue a commission.

Byrnes continued: "I told him if he should send for White and tell him about Hoover's report, White would never resort to the courts."

Byrnes said he "got the impression" Truman was "disposed to follow that course" but he later learned that White was commissioned.

The South Carolina governor said he did not remember the exact date. White was confirmed by the Senate for the monetary fund job on Feb. 6, 1946. He died in 1948 a few days after swearing before the House Un-American Activities Committee that he had no connection with a Soviet spy ring.

Brownell appeared to have backed away slightly on one point from the charges he voiced in a Chicago speech last Friday.

He said then a detailed FBI report on White's "spying activities" was "delivered to President Truman through his military aide, Maj. Gen. Harry H. Vaughan, in December 1945. Yesterday he said that report, and a second one on Feb. 4, 1946, were delivered to Vaughan "for the attention of the President." Vaughan has denied knowledge of such reports.

Brownell said yesterday copies of the first FBI report were sent to Byrnes and to these other members of the Truman Cabinet: Atty. Gen. Tom C. Clark, Secretary of Defense James V. Forrestal and Secretary of the Treasury Fred M. Vinson. Forrestal and Vinson, who later became chief justice, are dead. Clark, now a Supreme Court justice, was not available for comment.

Driver Hurt When Truck Forced Off Road, Turns Over

Henry Hensley, truck driver for the Martin Distributing Company of Big Spring, was hospitalized at Lamesa this morning after the truck he was driving turned over on Highway 87.

Hensley's condition was reported as not serious. However, Highway Patrolman Jimmie Parks, who investigated, said he believed the driver's arm was fractured.

The accident occurred about 5:30 a.m. today. Hensley told Parks he was forced off the road by a hole in the pavement. The truck, which was going the opposite direction from his own vehicle, the driver of the second truck did not stop.

Hensley said the truck should be damaged on the left side. He believes three men were in the cab. It was green, he said, and a 1950 model.

After being forced off the road, Hensley's truck turned over and merchandise was scattered about the area. Parks was at the scene some 23 miles north of Big Spring—until about 9:30 a.m. clearing the highway for traffic.

Burglars Get $1.38 Here Monday Night

Truman Jones Motor Company was burglarized sometime during the night, and police reports show that $1.38 in pennies was taken from the cash register.

Patrolman Alvin Hillbrunner, who investigated the break-in, stated that entry was made through a window facing the alley. A window was broken which leads into the office.

Broken Water Line Interrupts Service

A six-inch water line broke in the 1400 block of Pennsylvania Street at 8:30 p.m. Monday, and water service was temporarily suspended.

Lee Nuckles, water distribution superintendent, said service was restored quickly to all but six or eight families. All repairs were to have been completed at noon today.

Waco Man Speaks At Baptist Meet

Everett Cox of Waco was the guest speaker at the Big Spring Association Baptist Brotherhood Monday at the Forsan Baptist Church. The group had its quarterly meeting.

Burl Hays, presided. The Rev. J. S. Stagner, host pastor, read the Scripture. A dinner was served to 196.

CTC Meets Tonight

The Citizens' Traffic Commission will meet tonight at 7:30 p.m. in the Howard County Junior College auditorium. Dr. Lee Rogers, president, stated that traffic engineering problems will be discussed and a short movie shown.

Theft Is Reported

Huey Birdwell reported to police this morning that his black and gold leather jacket was taken from an automobile parked in front of his house, 111 NW 2nd, last night.

BRADEN

"so completely cockeyed that when I saw it I was so shocked by the harm it could do that I took it up with the prime minister of Cuba."

Braden said he persuaded the Cuban government to reject White's recommendations.

When he reported his action to Laurence Duggan, a State Department official in charge of the matter, Braden said, Duggan and other persons in his section "blew their tops to a fare-you-well."

Duggan and White "became my worst enemies," Braden said.

Duggan jumped or fell to his death from his New York office Dec. 20, 1948. That was 12 days after he had been mentioned in secret testimony before the House Un-American Activities Committee as a member of a Communist apparatus that included Alger Hiss.

White also died in 1948. His death was attributed to coronary thrombosis.

Braden said a "terrific fight" developed over his action on the White report. Braden threatened to resign as ambassador at one point, he said, but continued on the job for three years.

Braden said he won with support from the then Secretary of State Cordell Hull.

Braden said he recalled that the 1945 report described activities of Alger Hiss; Hiss' wife, Priscilla; and Hiss' brother, Donald, giving many facts later amplified in Whitaker Chambers' "pumpkin papers" which figured in Hiss' conviction on perjury charges.

He said the report also mentioned a man whose name he could not recall, who was up for transfer to the State Department.

Braden said he had the man investigated, decided he was "personally obnoxious," and refused to accept the proposed transfer.

Baptist Women Discuss Korean Mission Work

"Advance Through Suffering in Korea" was the theme of Royal Service programs at the First Baptist Church and the E. 4th Baptist Church Monday.

The Kate Morrison Circle at the E. 4th Baptist Church and the Mary Willis Circle at the First Baptist Church presented the programs.

Devotions were given on "Rejoicing in Suffering" from Hebrews 11:32-40 and I Corinthians 3:13-15. Mrs. W. B. Younger opened the First Baptist meeting with prayer. Mrs. J. E. Hardesty gave the devotion and Mrs. C. T. Clay the rest of the program.

Mrs. Clay traced the Baptist work in Korea, beginning in 1893, when the First Baptist Church was organized at Wonsan. There were 124 Baptist churches organized by May 1953.

The people suffered persecutions by the Japanese, especially during World War II, Mrs. Clay said, and there were many Christian martyrs.

It was announced that Mrs. Darrell Mock will lead an all-day study of foreign missions on Nov. 23 in preparation for the Lottie Moon

Week of Prayer, Nov. 30 - Dec. 4. Twenty-four members attended. Mrs. Boyd was welcomed as a new member. Mrs. Clay gave the benediction.

Mrs. J. C. Harmon, program chairman, presided at the E. 4th Baptist Church. Mrs. Rufus Davidson gave the devotion.

Speakers were Mrs. Billy Rudd, "Baptist Beginning in Korea"; Mrs. L. O. Johnson, "Early Korean Baptist Outreach"; Mrs. Leon Cain, "Persecution of Christians"; Mrs. E. E. Ellison, "Korean Baptist Martyrs"; Mrs. Leroy Minchew, "Baptist Work Today".

Mrs. Harmon gave the benediction. Prayers were offered by Mrs. Denver Yates, Mrs. O. R. Smith and Mrs. Davidson.

The group voted to serve the Cheerio Club Jan. 19 and to continue being hostesses at the Servicemen's Center. The Willing Workers Circle served refreshments. Forty-six attended. Mrs. W. L. Clayton was a visitor.

The Association WMU Clinic will be Nov. 17 at 10 a.m. at the Airport Baptist Church. A Workers Conference will be Nov. 19 at the Westside Baptist Church.

Happy Gardener

Mrs. Don Penn has a right to be proud. It's chrysanthemum season and the work she's put into her chrysanthemums since she planted them last May has brought forth floral beauty. Besides the floral, or decorative, mums she's pictured with, she also has some lovely spider mums. The season is a little late this year, she says; it should be about the middle of October.

St. Thomas Women Hear CCD Reports

Mrs. W. E. Blanchard and Mrs. C. C. Brunton gave reports from the Congress of Confraternity of Christian Doctrine which was held in Amarillo recently at the meeting Monday of the St. Thomas Altar Society.

It was announced that the district meeting of the D. C. C. W. for fall will be held in McCamey on Dec. 1. Women of the parish are requested to attend. Reservations can be made with Mrs. Bob Wilson or Mrs. L. D. Jenkins.

A cake and pie sale was planned for Sunday at the church following the two Masses.

Carrie Scholz displayed the Christmas cards and urged everyone to get them early.

Mrs. Edith Healey, district president of D. C. C. W., who was scheduled to visit the group, was unable to attend because of illness. She is expected at the Nov. 23 meeting.

Mrs. Angel To Speak

The adventures of a private school teacher—the only woman on the faculty—will be recounted by Mrs. Clyde Angel when she reviews "Snips and Snails" at the Classroom Teachers' Association meeting tonight.

The group will meet at the Senior High School study hall at 7:30 p.m. The public is invited, and teachers are urged to bring guests.

Louise Baker, the author of the book, also wrote "Party Line" and "Out On a Limb" and is now director of public relations for the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults.

Feeding Multitudes Is Study Of Methodist Circles

"Feeding Modern Multitudes" was the study given by Mrs. W. R. Sparkman at the meeting of the Reba Thomas Circle of the First Methodist Church in the home of Mrs. Ted McLaurin Monday.

The meeting was opened with the group singing "We Gather Together," accompanied by Mrs. Charles Pruitt. Mrs. L. R. Saunders gave the devotion on "Scientific Knowledge—A Stewardship." Mrs. Saunders lit candles for the worship center, which symbolized the sharing of the staff of life with the empty plate of the world.

Mrs. H. M. Fitzhugh read Scripture from Mark 6 and Matthew 25. Mrs. Pruitt presided during a business session. The group was dismissed by repeating Scripture. The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. John Knox, 113 Lexington.

Mrs. Jordan Grooms was in charge of the study at the meeting of the Mary Zinn Circle in the home of Mrs. C. E. Shive, 1311 Scurry.

Mrs. Clyde Johnston discussed "Lifelong Hunger Around the World" and Mrs. F. R. Nobles discussed "Saving Farm Animals in Ethiopia" as part of the study of "Feeding Modern Multitudes."

Mrs. Grooms gave the devotion. Eight members attended.

THIS IS GOOD EATING

TONGUE LOAF

Ingredients: 1 quart finely ground, cooked smoked tongue, 2 eggs (lightly beaten), 1/4 cup chili sauce, 1/4 cup minced green pepper, 1/4 cup minced onion, 2 cups soft bread crumbs, 1/2 cup water.

Method: Mix tongue and eggs. Mix together chili sauce, green pepper, onion, bread crumbs and water; add to tongue mixture, stirring well. Bake in greased loaf pan (about 4 by 9 inches) in a moderate (350F) oven 1 hour. Makes 8 servings. This is nice for a buffet supper with the following menu.

Here's A Fine Yankee Recipe In Apple Season

City markets are full of apples and thrifty housewives are making the most of having apples in season. Cooking them every favorite way and keeping plenty on hand to eat raw with the sweet juice dribbling down chins.

But here's a new way to use apples—a Yankee Apple John, that's a Down East cousin of an Apple Cobbler.

YANKEE APPLE JOHN (APPLE COBBLER)

Ingredients for Biscuit Recipe:
2 cups sifted flour
3 cups spongy baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
1-3 cup shortening
cup milk

Method:
Sift flour, baking powder and salt in bowl. Cut in shortening (with knife or a blender) until the mixture looks like coarse meal. Add milk to shortening mixture and mix just enough to hold dough together. Transfer dough to a board or pastry cloth which has been dusted with flour. Roll to fill pan (8-inch square).

Ingredients for Filling:
6 to 8 apples, thinly sliced
cup sugar
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1/4 teaspoon nutmeg
1/4 teaspoon salt

Method:
Grease shallow baking dish (8-inch square x 2-inch) and fill with sliced apples. Mix sugar, spices and salt and sprinkle over apples. Place biscuit dough on top of apple mixture, brush with milk. Bake in hot oven (450F) about 25 minutes or until apples are tender. Serves 6 to 8.

Mrs. G. G. Palmer Is Class Hostess

McBRIDE SAYS

A man I know named Dick Hyman started many years ago collecting boners in the news, freak laws still on the statute books, divorce oddities and strange old epitaphs. Now he puts them into books and makes a lot of money.

You'd suppose that if there ever would be a subject that Americans would be serious about it would be inscriptions on tombs. But headlines from Maine to California prove that our forefathers retained a sense of humor even when burying their dead, as witness a gem from Vermont.

"I put my wife beneath this stone,"

"For her repose and for my own."

To prove that this uxorial sentiment is not confined to New England, here's one from Alabama:

"Beneath this stone my wife doth lie,"

"She's now at rest—and so am I."

My favorite comes from Maryland and I don't know whether it marks the resting place of a man or a woman. It says: "Here lies an atheist, all dressed up and no place to go."

Epitaphs don't figure much in the modern scene, at least not on tombstones. But sometimes an associate of a prominent figure will utter words that the dead man might have been proud to claim as his epitaph. Such a tribute was paid to Sen. Robert A. Taft after his death last summer.

"He wasn't afraid to die," said a friend, and then added: "But he knew he still had work to do in the world."

The two sentences described a fortunate human being—a man who didn't fear death, because he believed in life hereafter, and yet one who knew he could keep busy and useful for a long time to come. Here is a wonderful formula for happiness that I wish I could patent and distribute to a discontented world.

Senator Taft suffered defeats and sometimes those defeats hurt. Interviewing him during his last campaign for nomination for the presidential candidacy, I asked, "And if you don't win, what?"

"Why I'll go right on, of course," he said. "Defeat isn't new to me. I've lost before."

He lost, again, but he still had work that he believed was important to his country and the world, so he did go right on. Senator Taft moved in a larger arena than yours or mine. But it is useful work also to darn a husband's or son's socks, to iron the cotton dress of a working daughter, to bake a chocolate cake for the family coming home at the end of a busy day.

I can think of nothing I would rather have said of me than that in my lifetime I had never ceased to be useful, and that I had not feared the end.

DATE DATA

By Beverly Brandow

Your Wallflower Duty

Dear Beverly Brandow:

Recently my mother made me take the daughter of a friend of hers to a school dance. The girl is so self-conscious she could scarcely talk and she stepped all over my feet.

Last night mother asked me to date this girl again. She has invited all her friends to her sweet sixteen party, but hasn't got a date for herself yet. Her mother has asked my mother to rope me in on the deal.

How can I make my mother realize that this wallflower's problem is her own and not mine?

DISGUSTED JOE

Whether you are 17 or 70, Joe, life will always hold some distasteful tasks which must be taken in stride in order to be mature. This is one of them. No human being can live entirely to himself, catering only to his own wishes and desires. There are others to consider and the boy who would be well liked will appreciate the value of a little personal sacrifice now and then.

Families are built on mutual love and cooperation. Mom is a pretty good stand-by when you need a helping hand. Just remember good friends are important to her, too. Turn about is fair play, and you sound like a good Joe.

I doubt that the poor wallflower is hopeless. Many people are shy, but that doesn't necessarily make them "drips." Shy people are just harder to know and understand, but often they are more worth knowing. Think what a popular boy like you could do for her social standing? Be her attentive slave one evening and watch the other boys give her the "stink."

If you could put this girl so at ease that she could think straight, you'd probably discover that your date is a very charming person. It takes a suave boy with "know-how" to make points with a quiet girl. His tactics must be better and smoother. Consideration must be his motto and sometimes he must talk enough for both of them, not to mention holding the reins pretty firmly when it comes to any form of mush.

When the shy girl is thawed out by gentleness, she is a real prize of sincerity, devotion, and personality.

Glitter Trim Is Certain To Please

A sure-fire gift hit for any girl is a pretty Christmas sweater with a set of removable glitter decorations.

Now available at ten-cent stores and notion counters all over the country are packages of sweater trimmings including braids, colored beads, sequins and pearls, so that you can choose your colors and create your own designs.

Instead of sewing the trimmings to the sweater, it's smarter and more practical to work out the design on a strip of thin buckram, so that it can be basted or pinned to the sweater and removed in a jiffy. This makes it possible to wear the sweater plain the daytime or dress it up with glitter for evening.

Trimmings can be collars, neck-lace-like bands or a strip clear down the front. Cut your pattern first from paper, then transfer it to the buckram. One of the simplest and most effective trimmings is a little bejeweled collar that ties on with narrow velvet ribbons. This is easy to make by sewing pearl beads, colored sequins, gold braid or brilliants to your buckram collar pattern, in any design you choose.

For a girl who is handy with the needle, a welcome gift might be a sweater and an assortment of packaged trimmings from which she can work out several different sets of decorations, in her favorite designs.

Removable decorations also mean that the sweater can be washed. To keep sweaters new and fluffy looking, they should be washed frequently says Winfred S. Carter, director of household information service for a leading soap company. She advises using cool water, mild soaps and as little as possible rubbing and squeezing. Rinse water should also be cool. After gentle rinsing, lift the sweater out of the water and squeeze between the hands to remove excess moisture. Roll it in a towel to blot up the rest of the water, then lay sweater on a dry towel, pat it gently into shape and leave on a flat surface to dry.

Film Director Named In Assault Charges

NEW YORK (AP) — Police today accused Italian movie director Pietro Mele of assaulting two patrolmen in the Park Avenue apartment of actress Brenda Frazier Kelly.

The 30-year-old Mele was taken into custody after he allegedly turned on the two officers, who said Mrs. Kelly had asked them to escort him from her apartment. Mele was held without charge. Police said he squabbled with the officers in the lobby of the apartment and then, when the three reached the lobby of the building, kicked one patrolman in the groin.

The patrolman, Duncan Christie, was treated at a hospital and released.

Mrs. Kelly was introduced to society in 1938, when her fortune was estimated at four million dollars.

She married John (Shipwreck) Kelly in June 1941. She says she is separated from him now.

This account of the incident was given by police:

The Italian and Mrs. Kelly, beautiful pet of New York cafe society in the late 1930's, arrived in front of her residence shortly before 3 a. m. after a tour of Greenwich Village.

An argument ensued. A neighbor called police.

As three officers approached, Mrs. Kelly urged the police to keep Mele from her apartment where, she said, a nursemaid and her 8-year-old daughter, Victoria were sleeping.

By the time police reached the flat, Mele had entered. He bolted from one room toward another bedroom and police lunged at him. He struggled and the squabble continued in the elevator, then the lobby.

Mele was not subdued until Mrs. Kelly's chauffeur assisted the police.

One friend said Mele and Mrs. Kelly have had "a long and stormy friendship. Mele once sufficed in a Rome nightclub with Harry Cushing IV, wealthy American editor of an English-language paper in Italy over Mrs. Kelly."

Admiral Ramsey Says U. S. Leads In New Aircraft

WASHINGTON (AP)—Adm. Dewitt C. Ramsey, president of the Aircraft Industries Assn., says U. S. manufacturers have in development or production 11 types of military planes "superior to any types in existence or under development abroad."

Ramsey said yesterday on an American Legion broadcast, prepared for use by some 600 radio stations, that the 11 types range in size from day fighters to heavy bombers.

He said U. S. manufacturers are providing the armed services with 8,000 jet planes a year—23 types of combat jets, 15 of them fighters.

Terrible-Tempered Father Day Due On TV Screens Soon

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Father Day, the terrible-tempered parent of the stage and screen, will soon be blasting away on the TV screens.

Mr. Day, the central figure of "Life With Father," had a historic run on Broadway, chalking up a record 401 weeks. At one time, four companies were playing the show in the United States. The film version, starring William Powell and Irene Dunne, grossed over five million dollars in this country and Canada alone.

The Day family of 1899 New York will be seen on CBS-TV starting Sunday, Nov. 22. The stars will be Leon Ames as Father and Lucretia Tuttle. He has long appeared in films and she has been radio's busiest actress (She has given up an average 15 shows a week to become Mrs. Day.)

Both players, as well as the four boys who play their sons, have had to submit to red dye jobs on their hair. No, they're not getting ready for color TV. It's just that they all must appear to have the same shade of red hair on the black-and-white picture.

Here to help the show get on the air in the proper spirit is Mrs. Clarence Day, widow of the man who wrote the stories about his irascible father. I found her to be a cheery New Englander of firm convictions.

"We're like that in New England, you know," she said over lunch. "I grew up in Concord, Mass., and my family was inclined to do things according to tradition. I raised my daughter that way. She never was allowed to touch her back to the chair while eating and of course she never put her elbow on the table. Sometimes I think I was too strict, but later at school my daughter said she was glad I had been. She said the girls who didn't get along with strict upbringing didn't get along as well.

"Perhaps in New England we have too much tradition. Here in the West you don't have enough."

Mrs. Day said she will stick around for a few shows so that the new Days will adhere to the established characters. She advises on the costumes and sets and sees that the scripts hew to the spirit of her husband's stories. She performed the same function when the movie was made, but admitted that some things got out of hand.

"I didn't approve too much of the crowd scenes," she remarked. "After all, 'Life With Father' is an intimate story and is best told in intimate surroundings. The picture showed the Days living in a huge house. Actually, the Days weren't rich; they were comfortable."

Texas Board Okays U.N. Text In Books

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—The State Board of Education has refused to cut out all references to the United Nations Declaration of Human Rights in world history textbooks for Texas school children.

It voted 12-3 to adopt books that would include the text without "any editorial comment."

The board thus rejected a request of its textbook committee made up of 15 schoolteachers that authors' opinions on it "be deleted from all world history books recommended."

The U. N. document among other things condemns discrimination based on race, color, sex, language, religion or politics.

Member Eugene Smith of El Paso objected to what he called "the pink slant" in one textbook's discussion.

Member W. W. Jackson of San Antonio warned that action deleting all reference to the U. N. declaration approached the principle of "thought control."

Two textbooks up for adoption included the declaration. Others made no reference to it. Local schools have wide discretion in which they may adopt.

Inquest Verdict In Twin Deaths Delayed

FORT WORTH (AP)—The inquest verdict in the double death of a couple whose bodies were found in a parked car near here was delayed yesterday by Justice H.D. Barnes.

The dead were identified as Mack Renfro, 65, of Burleson and Mrs. Lottie Ferguson Sumpter, 57, Fort Worth widow.

Barnes said, "Something doesn't look right so far."

Sheriff Harlon Wright said he thought a carbon monoxide gas backed up into the car and asphyxiated the couple.

Frost Brings Hike In Cattle Sale Run

HOUSTON (AP)—Stockyards received yesterday their largest receipts for a single day since Nov. 12, 1948, Supt. C. B. Guthrie said.

Frost was blamed for the large runs. Ranchers said prices could drop if the big run keeps up.

"Frost kills the grass, what's left of it after the drought," one said, "and it's expensive to feed a lot of cattle."

No. 2 in a series of RARE CREATURES!

THE FLAT-FOOTED FUDDY

dreams of cracker-barrel days and can't stand products that sell too fast

A FLAT-FOOTED FUDDY is a storekeeper who refuses to stock what the customer wants.

Keeps the sales down that way — so that he doesn't have to refill shelves or bother with streams of busy customers.

Naturally the FUDDY is a rare creature, almost extinct.

The modern retailer, fortunately, carries the products that move the fastest — the brands that customers want.

He is sure, of course, that the brand preferences come from the influence of newspaper ads. Naturally. When he advertises he automatically uses the newspaper because he knows that just about all his customers read it.

In fact most retailers use it. Last year while national advertisers were spending $526 million in local newspapers, retailers were spending 85% of their money telling their customers where to buy those national brands.

All business is local... and so are all newspapers!

Mapping Strategy For Odessa

The five coaches pictured here are mapping plans they hope will help the Pampa Harvesters beat Odessa in District I-AAAA's big game at Pampa Saturday afternoon.

Blasting Fullbacks Are With Us Again

By BOB HOOBING NEW YORK—The days of the blasting fullback of the Bronco Nagurski school are not gone—just ask the Notre Dame and Penn football players.

Outstanding fullbacks are few this year but the return to limited substitutions has given line smashers like Worden, Varaltis, Wisconsin's Alan Ameche, West Virginia's Tom Allman, Texas' Douglas Cameron and Georgia Tech's Glenn Turner an opportunity to prove their versatility and durability.

Worden was a human battering ram as he led a vicious ground game in Notre Dame's 27-14 victory over Georgia Tech that ended a 31-game unbeaten string.

Stovall Plays Finale Friday

KNOTT—Phillip Stovall, ace quarterback of the Knott Hill Billies, winds up his high school football eligibility Friday night when Bill Bolin's team plays Dawson in the annual Homecoming game.

Hogan Again Given Linksters' Award

DETROIT—The PGA's "Golfers of the Year" award has been in existence for six years—and Ben Hogan has been awarded the title four times.

feet was scoring touchdowns on runs of one and 40 yards for a come-from-behind 12-7 victory over Virginia Tech.

After Varaltis crashed what had been considered the almost impenetrable middle of Notre Dame's line for 85 yards and a touchdown, Irish Athletic Director Moose Krause said his performance rated him in the Nagurski class as a runner.

LOOKING 'EM OVER With Tommy Hart

If Big Spring goes ahead and wins the right to represent District I-AAA in the playoffs, a little matter it can take care of by beating Snyder this weekend, the county will have three football teams competing for bi-district honors.

Howard County has already equalled Winkler County's fabulous record for producing champions. Unless Big Spring stumbles between now and Thanksgiving Day, our teams can shade the Winkler record and leave one for any county in Texas at which to shoot.

Nineteen members of the Lamesa Tornado football team that met and lost to Big Spring last weekend are seniors. Such standouts as Quarterback Johnny Jones, Weldon Garrett, Seth Hyatt, Kay Dunbar, Bobby Burnett, Lawrence Hill, Elwood Hamilton, Sherrod Dunn, Kenneth Hill, Dee Phillips and Larry Smith will not be around in 1934.

Congress Isn't Likely To Act Against Sport

By HERB ALTSCHULL WASHINGTON—The Supreme Court has said it will keep hands off professional baseball, and that put it up to Congress to decide whether something should be done about the game's disputed reserve clause.

While Trautman may be right, it is not certain, for Congress has the right to legislate as it sees fit in regard to baseball.

There were three baseball cases before the Supreme Court, on appeals from lower court findings by George Toolson and Walter Kowalki, former minor league players, and Jack Corbett, a former minor league club owner.

Under these circumstances, he said, "I doubt if there will be any resort, in absolute or modified form, to the wholesale blacklisting that has been a characteristic of baseball since the death of Judge Landis."

With the exception of Defensive Back Don Swinney, who got a lick on the ankle, the Big Spring Steers came out of their game with Lamesa in good physical trim.

Half Of Class A Districts May Crown Titlists Friday

By The Associated Press Half of the 32 districts in Class A schoolboy football may have champions by the end of this week.

Defending champion Wink will have to wait another week before it will know if it's to be in the playoffs again. Wink plays McCamey for the title of District 5 Nov. 20.

Record Shaded COLLEGE STATION—James Blaine broke his own home-come record for the second straight week yesterday to lead the Texas Aggie harriers to a cross-country victory over Oklahoma A&M.

Bowl Feelers Sent LUBBOCK—Texas Tech's Red Raiders have received feelers from the Refrigerator Bowl and the Gator Bowl.

Swinney Drills In Sweat Suit With the exception of Defensive Back Don Swinney, who got a lick on the ankle, the Big Spring Steers came out of their game with Lamesa in good physical trim.

Baylor Ninth, Texas Tenth In AP Poll

By BEN PHEGAR NEW YORK—The nation's newspaper and radio football experts continue to pick Notre Dame as the No. 1 team with Maryland and Illinois steadily gaining runner-up support.

The Fighting Irish polled 79 of a possible 125 first-place votes in the seventh weekly Associated Press balloting and a total of 1,159 points on a system which gives 10 points for each first-place vote, nine for second and on down the line.

Notre Dame has been on top in every poll this season. This week Maryland gained 31 points on the Irish, probably because Notre Dame had a real battle before overcoming underrated Pennsylvania, 28-20, last Saturday.

127 New Citizens To Earn Their Freedom

BALTIMORE (AP) — The United States is getting 127 new citizens today—all from countries behind the Iron Curtain. They'll help their new country in military intelligence assignments, the Army said. A swearing-in ceremony was scheduled today for the group, members of a military intelligence training battalion at nearby Ft. Meade.

Oil Crew Gets Can Openers After All

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—An oil exploration crew almost went to Bolivia with 1,600 cases of canned food and no can openers. A typist, wide-eyed and practical noticed that the bills of lading included the large quantity of canned food but no openers. Twelve openers were added to the cargo, which is being loaded on a Port Houston freighter.

Texas Farm Bureau Head Says American Agriculture Is 'Sick'

By BRUCE HENDERSON
MINERAL WELLS (AP)—Agriculture is "sick," the president of the Texas Farm Bureau Federation asserted today.

Walter Hammond, leader of the 50,000-member group said over-production has caused agriculture's ills and called for a national acreage-retirement program to keep prices up. Hammond suggested cutting surpluses by letting land lie fallow. "If the overall over-production amounted to ten per cent, every farmer would retire ten per cent of his land," Hammond said. "This retired land could not be planted to any crop which would add to production, but would have to lie dormant or be planted to soil-building crops."

Hammond called present controls on individual crops "piece-meal" because "acres diverted from one crop are used to build surpluses in another." Some 1,200 farmers and ranchers, pleased over rains but concerned about prices, heard Hammond.

Allan Kline, president of the parent American Farm Bureau Federation, and Sen. Lyndon Johnson (D-Tex.), spoke during the afternoon.

Delegates split yesterday over cattle price supports. A motion asking Kline's resignation was ruled out of order.

Air Force Officers Wearing Red Faces

HAMILTON AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP)—A resounding explosion here yesterday brought dozens of telephone calls to peace officers in Sonoma and Marin counties and red faces to Air Force officers.

Col. George Anderson, Hamilton commanding officer explained Air Force ordnance experts detonated at one time 14 rockets jet-tioned Saturday by an F94 Starfire jet fighter which caught fire on the ground and was badly damaged.

"It was our first experience with such disposal," Anderson said. "It appears now we'll have to explode them in lesser numbers."

Register's Contents Not Enough To Steal

WORCESTER, Mass. (AP)—A gunman walked into Maurice Shulman's variety store last night and demanded the contents of the cash register.

Noting there was less than a dollar in the drawer, the intruder said, "It wouldn't pay."

He left empty-handed.

Air Force Plane In Hunt For Sooner Pilot

HOUSTON (AP)—An Air Force search plane joined at dawn today in a two-state hunt for the missing Oklahoma pilot of a small private cabin plane.

A Cub piloted by Jim Trewitt of Tulsa disappeared southwest of Seminole, Okla., shortly before sundown yesterday.

of Kline and the parent organization. Kline has vigorously opposed "excessive government interference in agriculture."

Hammond had this to say: "I don't need to tell you that our industry is sick. You who face drastic cuts in your cotton acreage another year, you cattlemen who have had to sell your cattle at giveaway prices, you know better than anyone."

"We have huge surpluses in beef, cotton, wheat and many other commodities. Why not limit our production to only the amount of agriculture commodities which can be sold at a reasonable price?" Farm prices dropped 2.3 per cent from Sept. 15 to October, 11.5 per cent below last year, Hammond said.

"This could be the beginning of a downward spiral toward a depression," he said.

H. E. Brown of Dalhart, president of the United Livestock Producers Assn., which wants cattle price supports, led ranchers urging a floor under cattle prices.

"We support everything the cow eats, why not support the cow?" Brown demanded.

Jim Griffin of Mission argued supports are not the answer. He called for an advertising program to sell beef.

W. D. Lipscomb of Matador moved to ask Kline's resignation, saying: "One man inside an organization can do more harm than 20 men on the outside. I think we have that situation in our national president."

Lipscomb was ruled out of order. Hammond defended Kline saying he was only expressing the majority policy of the national federation.

Nation's Crude Oil Production Climbs

TULSA (AP)—The nation's daily average crude oil and condensate production climbed 22,225 barrels to 6,208,525 during the week ended Nov. 7, the Oil and Gas Journal said today.

An allowables cut reduced Texas by 100,850 barrels to 2,263,425 barrels. Cumulative 1953 production increased to 2,016,665, 300 compared to 1,937,166,975 a year ago.

An increase in Louisiana allowables boosted that state's production to 679,050 barrels an increase of 48,200. Other increases were in Oklahoma, up 4,400 barrels to 514,200; and New Mexico, 1,325 to 205,750. Arkansas lost 1,250 to 74,500.

Honor Student Keeps Record Of His Intact

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—Ralph Willey, honor student at Oklahoma City University, wouldn't let a little domestic event like childbirth spoil his three-year perfect attendance record.

After pacing the floor all night with his wife, awaiting the arrival of their new daughter, he reported on time for a 7:30 a.m. class yesterday.
