The college has received general announcements regarding the plan for further college training of both reservists and college students who may be drafted...

Dr. Kent pointed out details of plans for induction have not been worked out and probably will not be known until after January 1, possibly not until January 15.

Our advice to students is to continue their regular college work without interruption unless called by the Selective Service boards and until full details of the proposed plan have been worked out and announced to the colleges...

Students should not become impatient. The duration of these courses is for a 12-week period, meeting eight hours per day five days a week. While in training, individuals will be paid $100 per month. ## A Question Answered-

(Editor's note: Dr. Coffey ably answers the questions that have been in the minds of college students of Selective Service age. It is reprinted here because we believe the answers contained herein are of the utmost value to today's wartime student.)

THE University has an obligation to keep you constantly informed concerning developments relating to the war that inevitably affect you as students. This pamphlet discusses some of these developments. You owe it to yourself to read what follows with the utmost care.

The chairman of the federal man power commission recently said that the time is close at hand when only those students will be in college who are directly preparing themselves for war work. The Man Power Commission has formally approved this statement: "All students, men and women, must be preparing themselves for active and competent participation in the war effort and supporting civilian activities."

The Secretary of War has announced that men in the Enlisted Reserve Corps will be called to active status upon reaching Selective Service age; for some this active status may involve special training on college campuses, as determined by the War Department.

There is a general belief that the Selective Service age will soon be dropped from twenty to eighteen years. This will certainly mean revision and reconsideration of Selective Service policies as they relate to deferment.

These are but a few straws in the wind that indicate that the time is not far distant when every college student must justify his presence on a campus.

One point is important, however, and on it there is general agreement: The need for the training that colleges can give is more pressing than ever before and grows more pressing every day. Every branch of the armed forces, industry, and governmental agencies calls for men and women with special abilities and special training. If ever a speech made this point clear, the recent speech by General Somervell did. Said the General: "Our army today is an army of specialists. Out of every 100 men inducted into service, 63 are assigned to duties requiring specialized training." So it is in the Navy, also.

The problem that faces you, then, is not "Should I go to the University?" That has been answered affirmatively on every hand. Your question is, rather "Now that I am in the University, what courses should I take that will be of greatest advantage to me and of maximum service to the country in the present war emergency?" This question is one for the women as well as the men. In this war, service is not limited to men alone—as England is amply demonstrating, and as the quotation from the Man Power Commission above implies.

Since everyone sooner or later will be called upon for war service your problem reduces itself to "How can I best serve?" Serving best requires adequate training. It means laying a sound foundation upon which later service will rest. Your period in the University—whether for one quarter, two or three quarters, perhaps a year or more—is your opportunity to lay a sound foundation.

One final word—Should you be called to the armed forces or drop out of college to enter upon service that is supplementary to the war program, any work that you do in these months immediately ahead, and in courses such as these we are calling to your attention, will not be wasted. This is not the time to discuss fine points of college credit—but rest assured that whatever you accomplish during these pre-service days will eventually be counted toward the degree we hope you will ultimately obtain.

The primary job, at the moment, is to get ready for the next things you will be called upon to do.
Dr. Walter C. Coffey,
President, University of Minnesota.

Official Notices

At the suggestion of the Faculty Advisory Committee, the Administrative Council on December 15th authorized the establishment of an Honors Day Convocation for the announcement of awards, with appropriate ceremonies.

Heretofore these awards and honors have been recognized at Commencement. Fortunately they have grown to such an extent that the commencement program has been unduly burdened. It is deemed appropriate, therefore, that a special convocation or convocations be arranged, with appropriate ceremonies, at which these honors and awards may be made. This will be made available to a larger representation of the student body than otherwise would be the case, the honors for which they are eligible to compete. This, of course, would apply to all divisions of the College. This procedure will not apply to certain honors which should be recognized during the Commencement ceremonies, nor is it intended to take the place of the Women's Recognition Service unless those responsible therefor should prefer to consolidate these efforts.

The Convocation Committee has been requested to implement the suggested change in policy.

Clifford B. Jones, President

At a meeting of the Administrative Council on December 15th, cognizance was taken of recent advice from the Association of American Universities to the effect:

"That the Committee on Classification of Universities and Colleges, while hoping to send a committee to Texas Technological College during 1942, has found it impossible to do so, and the conclusion is reached that any inspection during the war of a technological institution would be an inspection carried out under abnormal conditions, it has been decided to postpone the inspection of Texas Technological College until after the war, and our educational institutions have returned to more normal conditions, and further that Texas Technological College has been listed for inspection just as soon as the Committee finds it possible to effectuate the inspection."

Clifford B. Jones, President

It will be appreciated if those interested in re-establishing their membership or acquiring initial membership in the Sons of the American Revolution, will please communicate with the undersigned.

The renewal fee for membership is $5.00. The initial membership is $15.00, and thereafter, $5.00 per year.

This highly patriotic organization is contributing much to the morale of the war effort.

Clifford B. Jones, President, T. D. Hobart Chapter

This Collegiate World—

If the Roman empire had been as permanent as the lipstick that was used by Roman School girls, we would still be talking the language now used only at the head of fancy diplomats.

For the Roman girl went two steps further than the modern woman. She not only dyed her lips, instead of using a temporary coloring, but she used a variety of colors, usually green, purple, or sometimes red.

The startling theory of the match the color of the tunic was revealed by Dr. John J. Geise, professor of history at the University of Pittsburgh.

Further, Dr. Geise said, if the women didn't like the color of their hair they changed it. Blondes were at the highest premium.

You don't have to go down to the five and ten, Dr. Geise said, to get face powder if you do as the Roman girls did. All you have to do is go down into your cellar, open up a can of white lead, and then rub it over your face. If that doesn't suit you, smash up some of little sister's blackboard chalk and rub it over your face. The Romans used both.

The college girls who appear in open-toed shoes from which protrude toenails lusciously covered with red paint have nothing on the Roman lassies. It was common practice not only to point the fingernails, but also the toenails all shades of the rainbow.

Then there was the ancient "mascara," Dr. Geise added. It was nothing more than Manganese, burnt almonds, frankincense, or one of many other eyebrow shades.—ACP.

Parade of Opinion

(By Associated Collegiate Press)

PUBLIC opinion, backed by strong men behind a conference table and not merely idealists and dreamers, will mold the peace after this war, Dr. Henry J. Bruman, assistant professor of geography at Pennsylvania State college, declares in outlining a four-point peace plan.

Dr. Bruman believes we must start now to think about terms on which peace can be maintained, and he lists the following four steps for a lasting peace:

1. A program of re-education and indoctrination for democracy in the conquered countries. To do this will probably take a lifetime, gradually placing into positions of power youth who have been taught the principles of freedom and democracy.
2. Military occupation of Germany, Italy, and possibly Hungary with maintenance of an army of occupation in those countries for at least 8 to 10 years, and perhaps a whole generation during the re-education process.
3. Compulsory military training in the United States for every male citizen to provide a large standing army.
4. Generous boundary allotments to Germany and Japan, and equally generous allotments of sources of adequate raw materials. Germany should be given Austria and the Sudeten Germans.

"I fervently hope the powers in Russia and the English-speaking peoples will be able to arrive at a mutually satisfactory agreement regarding the nature of the peace," Dr. Bruman concludes. "If such harmony does not come about, we shall have lost the peace."

"We are engaged in the dirty business of war. You did not start the conflict, but you will have to carry it on. Yours will be the major sacrifices, and you are preparing to make them. All that I am saying is that, even in such a time and under such conditions, it is not your sole mission in life to learn to fight, no matter what you are told. Your preparation should be much broader. You should get clearly in mind the kind of world you want after the war and then prepare yourselves to bring about and to administer this world. As you fight this war, insist that your generation take responsibility for shaping the peace and equip itself to do so effectively."

"O, '-----' Night, O, Holy Night..."

"Faith," says the Bible, "is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things unseen." No more perfect example of faith can be found than in the story of the wise men. When they set out to find the manger on that long-ago Holy Night, they had nothing to guide them but a star. They had not seen the Christ Child, but the star guided their way.

Another anniversary of that Holy Night is about to dawn. Throughout the world people are suffering under the burden of War. This Holy Night will not be a SILENT Night because the big guns will boom right on in the far-off conflicts. No one can accurately predict the outcome, but the eyes of liberty-loving men everywhere catch the gleam of the star of Bethlehem, and learn, as did the Wise Men, the lesson of faith. A faith well-founded in a government that needs more and more financial support through the purchase of War Bonds and Stamps. This may not be the happiest Christmas we have ever known, but it can be a Christmas rich in the renewal of steadfast faith and an increased buying of war bonds and stamps...

Lubbock Flyers Down Tech Five In Opener, 35 To 34

Last Minute Rally Defeats Red Raiders

Allen Paces Collegians With 13 Points To Lead Scoring

A GROUP of former collegians proved too much for Texas Tech's college boy basketball players Tuesday night in the gymnasium as the Lubbock Army Flying School emerged with a 35 to 34 victory.

The game was nip-and tuck all the way, with Tech holding the widest margin of the evening at one point when the score stood 28 to 22. A final spurt by the first-string LAFS lads turned the game to its final outcome as the most powerful of the flyers all left the bench at once, after a ten-minute rest, to crash through with six points and victory.

It was Tech's former star, Norman Volz, who was mainly responsible for his former teammates' loss as he demonstrated his smooth floor work to time and again break up the Raiders' offensive, frequently breaking through to steal the ball in a manner well-known to Tech followers. Lieut. Leon Reese, former ACC star, and Clayton Wasson, substitute center from an Eastern college were the big guns for LAFS, the former playing most of the game to amass five field goals, and the latter contributing four counters from the floor and one from the foul line. Wasson dropped through the final basket which ended all scoring, a beauty from the sidelines while Tech defenders swarmed all over him.

George Allen was the Raider and the evening's high scorer, garnering six baskets and a gift shot, while Garland Head accounted for two successful floor shots and three free throws to take second honors for the losers.

Allen was the only Raider to have much success with his shooting. Head attempted many shots from all corners but failed to click as on previous occasions.

Poor passing on the part of Tech led to several of the LAFS successful drives for the basket and in the closing minute two bad tosses by the Raiders broke up fast moving drives toward the basket.

The Flyers were in front at the half, 21 to 19, but dropped into second position, on the short end of a 28 to 22 score, before the last half was very old. The LAFS regulars retired to the bench a short time later and watched the Raiders slow down against their substitutes. Then came the final hectic closing minutes in which Volz, Reese and Wasson each clicked from the floor to turn the tide of battle. Tech missed seven shots from the floor, most of them hurried and frantic, in the final minute.

The game's summary:

New Record Set At Aggieland By Halfback Rogers

526 Minutes Out Of Possible 600 Was Mark Hung Up At AMC

Cullen (Slick) Rogers of Mart, newly-elected co-captain of the Texas Aggies for the past season, set a modern Aggie record for participation by playing 526 1-12 minutes of a possible 600 in 10 games, it was announced by Head Coach Homer Norton.

"Rogers played more time than any boy I've coached in my nine seasons at Texas A&M," Norton said. "He really was an indispensable player."

Rogers who led the nation in in passes caught with 39 for the season, was on the field for almost nine full games, the figures show.

Elected co-captain with Rogers by the 27 Aggie lettermen was Elvis (Boots) Simmons, senior end from Somerville.

The lettermen announced by Norton, seven of them sophomores and two others participating in football for the first time, follow:

Vernon Belville, sophomore back from Yukon; Felix A. Bueck, senior guard, Schulenburg; Leo H. Daniels, junior back from Bryan; Ed D. Dusek, soph back, Temple; Henry C. Foldberg, soph tackle, Dallas; Floyd N. Hand, soph end, Pasadena; Bill Henderson, senior end, Houston; Leonard Joeris, senior tackle from Abilene; Don R. Luechy, junior tackle, Monahans; Weldon Maples, senior guard, Fort Worth; A. J. Mercer, junior center, Temple; J. B. Montgomery, junior tackle, Moran; Ray Mulholland, senior guard, Belton; Ed Ogdee, senior guard, San Benito; Otto Payne, senior back, Waco; Cullen Rogers, senior back, Mart; William (Dub) Sibley, senior center, Abilene; Elvis A. Simmons, senior end, Somerville; Marion P. Slaughter, junior end, Houston; Walter R. Steymann, soph tackle, Bastrop; Ed B. Sturcken, junior back, San Antonio; Jake Webster, senior back, Sweetwater; Barney Welch, soph back, Stephenville; Bobby Williams, junior back, Eldorado; Willie Zapala, senior back, Bellville; Truman D. Cox, junior end, Donna; Wayne Cure, senior guard, Gilliland.

Neither Ogdee nor Sturcken had had previous varsity experience with the Aggies. Each has a season of eligibility left, but like all the juniors on the team, probably will graduate before another September rolls around.

Next to Rogers, the figures show that Bueck, all-Southwest conference guard and already chosen on several all-America teams, among them those of the Boston Post and Boston Record, played most time with 475 minutes.

A number of Madonna and child pictures will be on exhibit until Dec. 22 in the hall on the second floor of the engineering building. These pictures are by well-known artists.

This good-looking young man will start his Texas Tech basketball career in their second game of the season Saturday night at 8 o'clock when he sends the Tech loopers against the South Plains Army Flying School. This is Polk Robison's first season as coach of the Red Raiders. He was a star basketball player at Texas Tech in 1932-33-34. He graduated and left Tech in 1934 and was signed a few weeks later to coach at Burk Burnett High School where he remained from 1934 through 1941. At Burk Burnett he served as the first assistant football coach and head basketball mentor.

Joe Franklin, field representative for Lockheed-Vega Aircraft Corporation, was here Friday afternoon interviewing mechanical, electrical, and civil engineering students as prospective employees.

Callahan, Schlinkman Named To Border Conference Team

7 Raiders Named On Conference Gridiron Teams

Techsans Gain Most Honor Roll Places In Choice Of Coaches

The coaches of Border Conference teams joined Texas Tech followers in paying tribute to the 1942 Red Raiders this week as they placed Walter Schlinkman and J. R. Callahan on the All-Conference first team and five Raiders on the second team.

Tribute to the Tech line play throughout the year was paid in placing End Joe Smith, Tackle George Zoller, Guards Will Allbright and Doyle Caraway on the second team along with Don Austin, halfback.

Arizona placed three men on the first eleven, to lead individual entrants in the conference, with Texas Tech and Hardin-Simmons placing two each. Rudy Mobley, the season's high scoring ace, and Eddie Sprinkle, tackle, were Hardin-Simmons contributions to the first string. Four of the Cowboys were listed on the seconds.

Tech walked away with top honors for individuals listed on the two elevens.

The coaches' selections were:

FIRST TEAM
 LE: Fred Salem, Texas School of Mines.
 RE: Rex Dempsey, New Mexico Agricultural college.
 LT: Jack Irish, University of Arizona.
 RT: Ed Sprinkle, Hardin-Simmons.
 LG: Bill Thompson, University of New Mexico.

RG: Joed Forbus, West Texas State Teachers college.
 C: Murl McCain, University of Arizona.

SECONd TEAM
 Ends: Harold Prescott, Hardin-Simmons and Joe Smith, Texas Tech.
 Tackles: John Baklarz, Arizona State Teachers college (Tempe) and George Zoller, Texas Tech.
 Guards: Doyle Caraway and Will Allbright, both of Texas Tech.
 Center: Jim Callam, Hardin-Simmons.

Backs: Don Austin, Texas Tech; Al Onofrio, Arizona Teachers (Tempe), Norvell Smith, University of New Mexico and Camp Wilson, Hardin-Simmons.

Tulsa Points To Sugar Bowl With Intensive Drills

After a defensive workout and a short brisk scrimmage, the Tulsa football squad training for the Sugar Bowl game with Tennessee ran 40 fifty-yard dashes before going to the showers.

The emphasis has been on physical conditioning throughout the Sugar Bowl preparations. Last week, before scrimmages started, the Hurricanes ran three miles a day.

Defense against Tennessee running plays was stressed in the scrimmage sessions. The Tulsa backs, who had the best collective punting average in the nation during the regular season, also engaged in a forty minute kicking practice.

"Women In Industry" Is St. Clair's Speech Topic

O. A. St. Clair will deliver an address, "Women in Industry" at the University of Texas December 22 to a meeting of the Eighth Area command, a group in training for the purpose of putting into effect and enforcing safety in government financed projects.

The meeting opened December 12 and will continue for two weeks.

Routt, Chapel Hill; Walter E. Ruff, Houston, Clarence Shifflet, Port Arthur; Payton Sparks, Yalata; Jesse Speed, Corsicana; Geo. Strohmeier, McAllen; Gus White, Lamesa; W. W. Wilson, Colorado City; Charles E. Wright, Fort Worth; and Desmond Zock, Port Arthur.

"Merry Christmas"

...and a Happy New Year

... and may we continue to be merry; merry and free from the tyranny and destruction of war. May there continue to be the same old Christmas and New Year's that we long for each year; the one we cherish almost as much as our freedom and pray that we may continue to have. But this will be just another pipe-dream unless we invest more and more in war bonds and stamps to build a foundation for these "Dreams of Freedom" of which this country has the greatest privilege.

Kemas, Wranglers, And Soucis Will End Seasons Festivities

The first presentation dance of the year was given last night by the Sans Souci girls' social club, who introduced 16 pledges and two members from a green cellophane Christmas lantern. Divisions between the panels of the lantern were of twisted white crepe, and the top was covered with silver dust. A silver mirror cloth furnished the background. Lights in the Hilton ballroom were hung with green cellophane bows and silver bells.

Kemas and Wranglers, men's fraternities, will give Christmas dances this week end. The Kemas will be in the form of a party in their clubhouse and the Wranglers will be Monday night at Hotel Lubbock.

ing those in the Reserve, will be ordered to active duty upon graduation, or upon completion of the spring semester's work. They will be ordered to active duty in their respective branch schools and commissioned upon successful completion of the course.

"4. Junior students in the Enlisted Reserve, who are pursuing approved technical engineering courses, will continue in an inactive status until the end of the spring semester, and will then be called to active duty. Those selected, when called to active duty, will be detailed for instruction under the Army Specialized Training Program.

"5. Junior students pursuing approved technical engineering courses, and not members of the Reserve, will, if inducted prior to June 1, 1943, be placed on inactive duty to continue college work until the end of the spring semester. They will then be called to active duty. When they have completed basic military training, some of them will be selected and detailed for further instruction under the Army Specialized Training Program.

"6. All other Enlisted Reserve students will be called to active duty at the end of the current semester, and upon completion of basic training, will be eligible for selection for training under the Army Specialized Program or for other military duty.

At the termination of specialized training, whether as a result of screening or completion of course, the soldier will be selected for: (1). Further training in an Officer Candidate School; (2). recommended for a technical, non-commissioned officer; or (3) returned to troops."
