

SEVERE COLD WAVE FORECAST FOR THIS AREA

Farm Bill Soon To Be Ready

Deadlock Due To Be Broken By Monday

Senate Committee Is Near Agreement On New Measure

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18 (AP)—A near-agreement in the senate agriculture committee on farm control legislation brought promise today of a break in aimless debate which has dominated the special congressional session.

Senator Bailey (D-NC) carried on the southern filibuster against anti-lynching legislation in the senate. But Chairman Smith (D-SC) told reporters an "ever-normal granary" farm bill—patterned after administration recommendations—would be ready Monday to displace the lynching measure.

Fulfillment of this prediction would bring before the special session, one week after convening, the first of a four-point program recommended by President Roosevelt—farm, wage-hour, regional planning and executive reorganization legislation.

A house tax sub-committee talked of—but did not agree finally—granting all corporations some exemptions from the undistributed profits tax which has been assailed by business. The house apparently settled itself into another day of political oratory.

Chances for the wage-hour bill depended largely on breaking a deadlock in the house rules committee unless a discharge petition, signed by 105 house members, gets 113 more signatures.

Tax Revision Advanced
Prospects for the other two administration measures—government reorganization and regional planning—were greatly dimmed, leaders conceded, by the time-consuming filibuster in the senate over the anti-lynching bill.

Pressure for tax revision during the short session grew steadily amid evidence of almost unanimous congressional sentiment for modifying the corporate surplus and capital gains levies. But Democratic Leader Barkley of the senate said:

"I have talked with leaders in the house, and they say there is no chance to get a bill framed in time for action at this session, so there is no use talking about it."

Due To Pass
Even foes of the lynching bill forecast it would pass eventually. While the senate was talking about this issue, the house was hearing miscellaneous speeches. The result was continuation of the do-nothing habits and the democratic bickering of last session.

The underlying cause was not the president's program, however, as it was during the last session, but the political nature of the anti-lynching bill. Observers said this measure, which has been pending in congress in one form or another for a generation, has more political potentialities than any other current bill.

It always has created a democratic deadlock, because it is political sugar in the north, particularly in states where negroes hold the balance of power, and political poison in the south.

CHECKING CLAIMS
J. T. Gray, regional service officer of the Abilene district, here the first part of the week checking on veteran disability claims, said that he would return here Jan. 5 to check into further claims in Big Spring and adjacent territory.

Red Cross Drive Moving Slowly
Annual roll call of the Howard county chapter were along Thursday, only about one-fourth of the way toward its goal of $2,000.

However, a half a dozen additional firms and institutions rallied to the cause with reports of 100 per cent memberships. They were Flash Service station No. 1, Safeway store, Day and Night Food store, South Ward school, and the Big Spring hospital.

Shine Phillips, county chairman, characterized the showing to Thursday noon as "still disappointing." He reiterated that "we haven't enough working at the job. All who have been contacted to give have gladly made their contributions."

TOOTH EXTRACTED
WASHINGTON, Nov. 18 (AP)—President Roosevelt had his abscessed tooth extracted today after his dentist discovered the infection could not otherwise be cured.

Captain Ross T. McIntire, the president's physician ordered the president to remain in bed again today. He said at no time had there been anything to "give us any alarm."

TWO OF KIDNAPERS ARE RECAPTURED

Two of these three men, John Oley (center) and Harold Crowley (right) were back in custody today after officers recaptured them in Syracuse, N. Y.

The third, Percy Geary (left) was still at large after the three escaped jail at Jamesville, N. Y., blind and gagging four keepers and a matron and kidnaping another keeper who was freed later. The three are under sentence for kidnaping John J. O'Connell of Albany.

Tells Of Slaying Three Years Ago And Subsequent Marriage To The Widow Of His Victim

ST. GEORGE, Utah, Nov. 18 (AP)—Youthful Charles Bosshardt loosed today, in a verbal torrent locked behind tight lips for almost three years, a bizarre account of how he killed a man, then married the victim's widow—who did not know her husband was dead—to atone for his crime.

From a jail cell at Salt Lake City his brother-in-law, 33-year-old George Schaefer, confirmed the story of the killing of Spencer Malan March 17, 1935, in a ranch fight, and of Bosshardt's subsequent marriage to Mrs. Malan, who is Schaefer's sister.

And at the ranch scene of the killing near Enterprise, 25 miles northwest of here, Mrs. Bosshardt nervously stroked the hair of her 11-year-old son—Malan's son—and told Sheriff Antonio B. Prince she had always believed her first husband, Spencer, had deserted her. "Neither my husband nor my brother ever gave a sign they knew what had happened to Spencer."

Bosshardt, 25, and Schaefer said they threw the body into an old well. Deputies climbing into the 110-foot deep hole discovered a cavelin had buried the bottom in 25 feet of dirt and estimated it may take several days to remove the debris.

Both prisoners insisted Mrs. Bosshardt was ignorant of the killing.

To Give Tests For Drivers

Exams Required Of Those Applying For Licenses

H. B. Matthews, state highway patrolman stationed here in charge of driver license examinations, will be here Friday and Saturday to administer tests to all persons seeking drivers and operators licenses.

Stationed here last week, Matthews has been spending the first four days of the week in the district. Monday he was at Garden City and Sterling City. Tuesday he was in Midland, and the following day at Snyder, Gail and communities in the surrounding area.

Thursday he was due in Odessa and is to finish the week here. Matthews' regular itinerary is similar to the one followed this week. He spends from two hours to two days in the various towns in his district. At the present time he is being assisted by Patrolman Wilhite. Another driving license examiner is expected to join him here soon for the examination work.

Persons who already hold operators' permits will not be subjected to the tests until April of 1938 when the present licenses expire. New applicants and persons seeking to secure their chauffeur license must submit to the tests.

Missing Man's Body Found

Auto Mechanic Confesses To Slaying At Dallas

DALLAS, Nov. 18 (AP)—Detective Inspector Will Fritz today said the body of Harry Leon Helfman, 32-year-old Brooklyn, N. Y., merchant, who had been missing since Monday, had been found in a watery pit with a bullet hole through his head.

Robert Lacy, 22-year-old automobile mechanic, Fritz said, admitted killing Helfman last Monday during ostensible negotiations to buy Helfman's new $1,100 car.

Lacy and his wife were arrested early today in a tourist camp where officers, Fritz said, spotted Helfman's automobile.

Fritz, leading a squad of five detectives, said the young mechanic led them to the body after they had questioned him for several hours. Previously, the officers said, Lacy steadfastly maintained he knew nothing of Helfman's whereabouts.

Fritz said Helfman came to Dallas from Brooklyn 60 days ago to set up a small business. He drove down in a new automobile, which figured in a crash near Dallas, Fritz said. Helfman took the car to a Dallas garage for repairs, which cost $300.

The Brooklyn merchant, able to pay but half the repair bill, entered into negotiations for the remainder of the bill. Fritz said, Helfman and Lacy dickered over sale of the car to the mechanic.

2 Kidnapers Back Behind The Bars

Third Jail Fugitive Still Being Sought By Officers

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Nov. 18 (AP)—Heavily guarded, two recaptured members of a gang convicted of the 1933 O'Connell kidnaping, were lodged today in separate cells while state and city officers continued their hunt for the third participant of the jail break.

The pair, John Oley and Harold "Red" Crowley, who said he "liked his freedom like anyone else" were moved yesterday from Syracuse police station to the detention quarters in the Onondaga county court building to await prosecution on escape charges.

The third, Percy Geary, was still at large following his leap from a bathroom window of a Syracuse rooming house where Oley and Crowley meekly surrendered yesterday to officers who were directed there by a janitor—Ivan Whitford.

Whitford earlier had walked into headquarters, drew Patrolman Harold Kelley aside and casually remarked "you want to catch the kidnapers?"

Oley and Crowley were seized about 36 hours after they escaped from the Onondaga county penitentiary at Jamesville, N. Y., with the aid of Geary who cut his way through cell bars to trust the prison guard staff of six and escape in a stolen car.

Captain of Detectives Russell W. Humphrey said Whitford said he met the trio early yesterday and was forced to agree to provide them lodging and food at his own rooming house.

VOTING ON STRIKE

HOUSTON, Nov. 18 (AP)—A strike vote was being taken today among the 900 Shell refinery members of the Oil Workers union, J. E. Crossland, secretary-treasurer of the C. I. O. affiliate said. J. L. Benson, president of the Pasadena local, said the present contract with the Shell company has expired and the union must have another contract. He said the union has been unable to open negotiations with the Shell.

MOTHER AT 12

BERRYVILLE, Ark., Nov. 18 (AP)—Attendants at a Berryville hospital disclosed today the birth of a son to 12-year-old Mrs. Willis Hocker-smith of the Oak Grove community. The young mother is the wife of a 19-year-old farmer.

Blanton Disappearance Remains A Mystery After Year's Inquiry
AUSTIN, Nov. 18 (AP)—Still shadowed by mystery, the Blanton disappearance case was one year old today.

Officials admitted fate of Luther and John Blanton, father and son who on Nov. 18, 1936, left their farm near San Perita in Southwest Texas to hunt ducks, remained unknown.

Snow Falling In Panhandle Territory

Hard Freeze, Possible Rain In Store For Tonight, Friday

The weather man issued "get-out-your-overcoats-and-blankets" advice Thursday morning, with a forecast of a real winter assault on this section tonight and Friday. Slipping temperatures backed up his prediction of a freeze tonight, and already the cold wave had hit the Panhandle.

Livestock Warnings
Rain was forecast for this part of West Texas, and snow already was falling in the Amarillo sector. Livestock warnings were issued for the northern part of the state, and a severe freeze was forecast. Friday was due to be partly cloudy and colder.

Amarillo had a temperature of five degrees below freezing at midday and snow flurries were reported.

DOME LAKE, Wyo., Nov. 18 (AP)—An official temperature of 14 degrees below zero was recorded early today at Dome Lake, nestled in the Big Horn mountains of north central Wyoming.

A low of 18 degrees was in prospect for that territory tonight. Practically all points in the Panhandle received snow flurries. Snow and freezing mist fell today from Canadian to the north and east. Much of western Oklahoma had freezing mist.

The Dalhart section had low temperatures of 28 degrees and that area and southern Kansas had snow flurries.

The eastern part of New Mexico had below freezing temperature but overcast skies had not produced any snow.

Heavy snow fell between Pueblo and Denver in Colorado. Wichita, Kas., had light snow.

20 At Dallas
Joseph L. Cline of the Dallas regional weather bureau said Dallas might expect a hard freeze tomorrow with temperatures around 20. He said rain probably would turn to snow by tomorrow night.

In five hours starting at 3 a. m. temperatures plummeted 20 degrees at Borger, hitting 28 and steadily dropping. Livestock warnings were issued for parts of East and West Texas.

Dr. Cline said temperatures early tomorrow in a region extending 300 miles north and northwest of Dallas would range between 14 and 20 degrees. To the west it would be almost as cold and South Texas could expect freezes by tomorrow evening at least.

Winter Weather Hits Northern Part Of U.S.

CHICAGO, Nov. 18 (AP)—Wintry weather spread snow over most of the northern half of the nation today. It was the season's first appreciable snowfall in many sections.

PROCESSING TAX ON WHEAT IS SOUGHT
WASHINGTON, Nov. 18 (AP)—A house agriculture subcommittee decided today to ask that marketing quotas and a processing tax of 20 cents a bushel for wheat be written into the administration's new farm bill.

Chairman Smith (D-SC) meanwhile announced general agreement of the senate agricultural committee on an "ever normal granary bill," patterned along administration ideas, except for cotton control.

Members of the house corn subcommittee said they virtually had decided on marketing quotas for corn, but remained opposed to a processing tax.

Jan Kubelik, Here For Concert, Wants To See Museum Relics

The cold weather and the West Texas museum were two items of interest to Jan Kubelik, noted violinist, who arrived here shortly before noon today prior to his performance at the Municipal auditorium this evening at 8:15.

Asked about his opinion of Big Spring, the artist first spoke of the cold weather, and snivered under a heavy top coat. Then his interest centered upon the museum which he had attempted to visit but couldn't because it was locked and he could find no one to open it. He wanted to know if there were any Indian relics displayed and the nature of general exhibits. He enthusiastically accepted an invitation to visit it tomorrow during his stay before continuing to Sweetwater for a performance tomorrow evening.

Kubelik, who has played over four thousand concerts, is the featured concert violinist. He wears long hair combed straight back and is courtly in the manner once demanded of the artists of his type.

He made his first appearance in Texas in 1907 when he played in San Antonio, Fort Worth, Dallas, Waco and other prominent Texas cities—and wondered how he had missed Big Spring, which impressed him favorably on his trip to the postoffice, his first move upon entering the city after an automobile trip from Silver City, N. M., where he recently played a concert.

The violin that will be used in the concert this evening was made by Stradivarius in 1715 for an emperor and is valued at $100,000. This instrument has been used by Kubelik to play before the crowned heads of Europe, including Kaiser Wilhelm, Queen Victoria, George V, Edward VII and Emperor Franz Joseph who, so a story goes, was bored with a concert played for his pleasure, with the exception of Kubelik who was his favorite and who, according to the Emperor, kept the evening from being a complete failure. The violinist is also proud of the fact that in 1900 he played for Theodore Roosevelt.

Composing is the hobby of the virtuoso who has recently completed a symphony in Hollywood. He is the composer of six violin concertos.

Kubelik, a native of Prague, Czechoslovakia, has been in America for two and a half years. See KUBELIK, Page 10, Col. 1

GRAND JURY TO MEET AGAIN ON MONDAY

Grand jury of the 70th district court will be called back Monday to investigate more than half a dozen felony complaints lodged since the jurors recessed little more than a week ago.

The jury is being called back a week earlier than anticipated, District Attorney Cecil Collins said.

Activities of the court were suspended the remainder of the week after the hearing of jurisdictional pleadings Wednesday. Among the cases settled were the divorce granted Reuben Quezada from Elisa Quezada. Custody of minor children was granted the defendant and the plaintiff ordered to pay $7.50 monthly to their support. Ella Rogers was given a divorce from H. B. Rogers.

The suit of V. W. Fuglar against R. G. "Tex" Pattilo on a note was continued until the January term by agreement of both counsels. Alma Pauline Lucas had her last name legally changed to Reuckart, her maiden name.

Disputes Come Closer Home

U.S. Takes Role Of Mediator In Four Squabbles

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18 (AP)—Four international disputes are disturbing the placidity of the western hemisphere less than a year after the 21 American republics signed peace pacts at Buenos Aires.

In each controversy, the United States has assumed or sought to assume a mediatory role.

The latest dispute is that between the Dominican Republic and Haiti over the alleged wholesale slaying of Haitian laborers employed in the former country.

President Roosevelt has joined the governments of Cuba and Mexico in offering the services of the United States as a mediator.

His proposal received an unexpected setback when the Dominican president, who had not requested outside mediation, asked for a "clarification." The Dominican government had contended the situation was a domestic matter.

On another front, the United States is engaged with Costa Rica and Venezuela in an effort to mediate the "postage stamp" boundary dispute between Honduras and Nicaragua.

Civilians Rushing From Capital City Of Nanking

SHANGHAI, Nov. 18 (AP)—Japanese army spokesmen announced tonight Japanese troops driving to break through China's "Hindenburg" line between Shanghai and Nanking had captured one gate of the walled city of Kashing, southern keystone of the line.

Both Chinese and Japanese reported heavy fighting in the area.

SHANGHAI, Nov. 18 (AP)—More than $6,000,000 and two years of work will be required to repair the streets of the International Settlement damaged by the Chinese-Japanese war.

A recent survey by the public works department of the Shanghai municipal council showed destruction in the settlement war zones of Hongkew, Waiside and Yangzepoo was so great that even Japanese mechanized army units were unable to use the streets.

around Kashing, 60 miles southwest of Shanghai and 30 miles south of Soochow, main point of Chinese defenses.

News of the Japanese push against the southern wing of the defenses came a few hours after an unofficial government warning spurred mass migration of civilians from Nanking.

For 24 hours, Chinese had held their own along the length of the defenses to which they retreated after Shanghai fell.

Although the Japanese received reinforcements for the new onslaught today, their only advance apparently was on the southern front.

Chinese reported their troops, aided by 20 warplanes, had counter-attacked and pushed Japanese back toward Chien. They also asserted Chinese had repulsed three Japanese attempts to effect a landing at Fushan.

Nanking technically was still the seat of government, but Chinese senior officials who remained were ready to leave on short notice. The fleeing civilian population almost engulfed columns of soldiers moving in the opposite direction—to the front.

Two Charged Here In Car Theft

Two men were arrested in Abilene Wednesday night following the loss of an automobile here by Herman Moser, the sheriff's department reported Thursday.

Deputy Sheriff A. J. Merrick said that L. P. McCaslin, state highway patrolman, and J. F. Crenshaw, constable, had gone to Abilene to return the pair here.

The two suspects, taken in possession of the car, were charged here with car theft as L. C. Patrick of Valley Mills and Wallace Taylor, twice sentenced to prison.

Following disappearance of the car here, Moser notified police who immediately broadcast the warning over the local shortwave station. Abilene police made the arrests and recovered the car soon afterwards.

U. S., BRITAIN TO NEGOTIATE TRADE PACT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18 (AP)—The United States and Great Britain agreed today to negotiate for a reciprocal trade pact, a decision fraught with far-reaching economic and political implications.

It was the first formal step toward an objective long sought by the Roosevelt administration as an indispensable feature of its program for liberalization of world commerce.

The decision was announced by Secretary Hull in a statement asserting merely that the United States "contemplates" such negotiations.

Preliminary Work
Actual start of the negotiations, expected within a few weeks, will climax more than a year of exploratory work by representatives of both governments in London and Washington.

Hull's announcement, released simultaneously with a statement to the British house of commons on the subject, gave no hint of the basis of approach agreed upon nor any details of the long preliminary conversations.

There appeared good reason to believe, however, that the British government probably consented to consider granting to some American products treatment equal to that which it now accords to goods from the British dominions under "empire preference."

"Secretary Hull has striven, since his reciprocal trade program started in 1934, to obtain an agreement with Great Britain in the conviction that closer Anglo-American economic co-operation is essential to any general lowering of world trade barriers.

Agreements with 16 nations have been put into effect since the reciprocal trade act, permitting the president to lower or raise tariffs as much as 50 per cent in return for like concessions, became operative in 1934.

Those countries are: Cuba, Brazil, Belgium, Haiti, Sweden, Colombia, Canada, Honduras, The Netherlands, Switzerland, Nicaragua, Guatemala, France, Finland, Costa Rica and El Salvador.

Negotiations have been projected or are in progress with Venezuela, Ecuador, Czechoslovakia and Turkey.

READING AND WRITING

By JOHN SELBY

"THE METROPOLITAN BOOK OF THE OPERA," by Pitts Sanborn and Emil Hib; (Simon & Schuster; $3).

Today is Saturday and not many Saturdays will pass before the Metropolitan opera is again on the air, and millions of listeners are once more hanging over their sets, absorbed in the familiar doling of Mimì, of Violetta, of Hagen and so on.

It is a question how successful broadcasts of an art form depending on music, dramatic art and painting can be. One gets only a third of the show. But this being so, it also is evident that listeners the country over really need a book which will tell them what is going on in New York, while the music pours from their receivers in, say, Tulsa, Okla.

With truly American generosity and hospitality, Pitts Sanborn has endeavored to fill that need in collaboration with Emil Hib and two young men who work with Mr. Sanborn on the World-Telegram: Robert C. Bagar and Louis Blauvelt. Mr. Sanborn is music reviewer for that New York paper. He has been writing about music for more than 30 years in New York, and unquestionably has worn out many pairs of trousers in the seats of the Metropolitan Opera.

How effective "The Metropolitan Book of the Opera" is remains an open question. There already are some superb jobs in this same field—Ernest Newman has done some of these, and the Victoria Book of the Opera, arranged more practically and written without literary flourish, is perhaps even better.

Messrs. Sanborn and Hib have, it seems to this reader, erred occasionally by assuming too great familiarity on the part of their audience with certain familiar operas. Mr. Sanborn has slept through a terrific list of "Faust" performances, no doubt. He probably could recite the plot backward as well as forward. (Perhaps it makes as much sense that way.) But it is certain that people who know all this won't buy the book, and that those who do buy the book will want more than a scant two pages on this deathless old warhorse.

Which is a minor point. The book will serve many well.

Reporters Vote. Clemency For Accused Man

RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 18 (AP)—Brady Laurence, 22-year-old negro convicted of the murder of a white man, owed his life today to a group of five newspaper reporters, who, acting upon the request of Gov. Clyde B. Hoey as an unofficial court of last appeal, decided that his death sentence ought not to be carried out.

The five newspapermen spent two hours studying the records in the case, and voted unanimously in favor of sparing the negro's life. Paroles Commissioner Edwin M. Gill announced late yesterday that the error had commuted the sentence.

"Frankly, the governor told the reporters, 'I have been studying the case for several months and still haven't been able to reach a definite conclusion. Here are the facts. Your decision will be final. What would you do if you were in my place?'"

Governor Hoey's records showed that the presiding judge recommended commutation while the county sheriff and all members of the jury opposed clemency.

Reporters Vote. Clemency For Accused Man

RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 18 (AP)—Brady Laurence, 22-year-old negro convicted of the murder of a white man, owed his life today to a group of five newspaper reporters, who, acting upon the request of Gov. Clyde B. Hoey as an unofficial court of last appeal, decided that his death sentence ought not to be carried out.

The five newspapermen spent two hours studying the records in the case, and voted unanimously in favor of sparing the negro's life. Paroles Commissioner Edwin M. Gill announced late yesterday that the error had commuted the sentence.

"Frankly, the governor told the reporters, 'I have been studying the case for several months and still haven't been able to reach a definite conclusion. Here are the facts. Your decision will be final. What would you do if you were in my place?'"

Governor Hoey's records showed that the presiding judge recommended commutation while the county sheriff and all members of the jury opposed clemency.

DIRIGIBLE-PLANE ARGUMENTS IS HEARD AGAIN

NEW YORK, Nov. 18 (AP)—The controversy over the comparative efficiency in trans-oceanic travel of lighter-than-air craft and giant airplanes was reopened today by the Aeronautical Chamber of Commerce of America.

The chamber, in a report to the United States maritime commission, combined a forecast of winged flying boats weighing 300,000 pounds with severe criticism of lighter-than-air ships for passenger, mail and express service over the oceans.

The chamber, trade association of the aircraft manufacturing industry, predicted the "next step" in the construction of sea-spanning flying boats would be a monster plane of 150,000 pounds gross weight with sleeping accommodations for 100 passengers.

The airplane, contended the report, is faster than airships such as the Hindenburg, destroyed by fire at Lakehurst, N. J., last May, is more reliable, more efficient and less expensive to operate, considered on a passenger-mile basis.

The chamber argued further that development of large flying boats was essential to national defense. It quoted and took issue with Dr. Hugo Eckener, the German airship expert, who said last January that wide oceans were "beyond the performance ability" for economical airplane transport.

OIL MEASURING RULE DUE TO BRING MORE MONEY TO PRODUCERS

AUSTIN, Nov. 18 (AP)—Attorney General William McCraw said today that a proposed rule requiring measurement of oil storage tanks on a 100 per cent basis would save producers and royalty owners approximately $15,000 daily.

He said he had been advised the Texas Pipe Line company had dropped an appeal from a federal court decision upholding the rule and another company which was refused an injunction in Travis county district court did not appeal.

For years, pipe line purchasers computed the amount of oil on a 99 per cent tank table which meant the seller must deliver 100 barrels but was paid for only 99, the difference being charged to waste.

When the commission ordered 100 per cent measurement some months ago the rule was attacked and a federal court upheld it.

NAMES HITLERITES ON WEST COAST

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18 (AP)—Representative Dickstein (D-NY) listed in the Congressional Record today the names of 116 Southern Californians he said were leaders in a "Hitler movement" on the west coast.

He described them as "100 per cent Nazis" and said they "work up and down the west coast" as "public speakers and agitators" in "cooperation with the west coast 'Bund' leader, Herman Schwinn."

LEGISLATION FOR LABOR UNIONS RECOMMENDED

NEW YORK, Nov. 18 (AP)—A grand jury which spent seven months investigating racket conditions in Brooklyn today recommended legislation to make labor unions "amenable to the laws which govern business."

The grand jury warned that government disregard of labor union strike might "encompass the ruin" of both industry and labor, and urged municipal, state or federal supervision of all union funds and disbursements.

Long Warfare Seems Likely In Holy Land

British Unable To Ferret Out Leaders Of Arab Terrorists

JERUSALEM, Nov. 18 (UP)—The type of warfare taking place in the Holy Land—ambushes and guerrilla tactics—argues a protracted and painful process of restoration of order by the government.

Arab nationalists are resisting the "enroachment" of Jews and insisting the plan of the mandate authority, Britain, to partition the country between Arabs and Jews. There have been scores of deaths. The activities of attacking terrorists are believed to be directed from an Arab underground headquarters which the British are unable to discover, much less stamp out. No Arab patriot will betray his kinsmen endeavoring to free their race from the "infidel imperialists." An illustration of this is the reward of $50,000 offered for evidence of the murderers of Lewis Yelland Andrews, British district commissioner of Galilee, still is unclaimed. Also is more than $400,000 in rewards posted by the government from time to time for information on similar crimes committed since last year's revolt.

Press Attack Pointed Another indication that the recent outbreak is of serious and prolonged character is seen in the outspoken comment of "Palestine and Transjordan," the only English language Arab weekly, whose editor until recently, Fouad Saba, also secretary of the Arab supreme committee, was called by Britain to an island in the Indian ocean.

The following passages leave little doubt as to the feelings animating the Arab leaders now directing their people: "The British government has endeavored with one single stroke of the pen to declare the Arab supreme committee and all national committees in Palestine unlawful associations; it assumed control of the finances of the Moslem AWQAF and cut off spokesmen of the Arab population in Palestine in order, as it alleges, to clear the country from its wave of terror, but in fact to silence all opposition to its mischievous policy to divide Palestine... a new rebellion against the British in Palestine may be regarded to have started on Oct. 14, 1937."

The Grand Mufti of Jerusalem escaped on Oct. 14 and on this date there were attacks on Jews and British police in many sections of Palestine.

Another Egypt Feared The same publication declared that "the Arabs of Palestine have come to believe that their country will soon be for England another Egypt or Ireland... the same England, obsessed with false belief, and pronounced regression which has lost both Egypt and Ireland, will have to lose Palestine sooner or later."

The paper was suspended for three months by the government a week after these articles were published.

Palestine prisons have been filled to such an extent since renewal of trouble with the Arabs that the government is preparing concentration camps to which many prisoners will be sent.

There will be separate camps for Arabs and Jews. The largest of the concentration camps is being constructed near Sarafand, where hundreds of Arabs were confined during last year's revolt.

The department of police and prisons has applied to the government for increased appropriations in view of this and other unforeseen expenditures necessitated by the trouble. Other new expenses include numerous radio broadcasting and receiving sets for police posts throughout the country, and remuneration for numerous secret service agents, some of them imported, who have been added to the police forces recently.

Meantime, Arab nationalist organizations have embarked on a campaign to collect funds to finance the Arab nationalist movement and to resist Britain's plan for partition.

World Trade On Upswing

Abrupt Rise In Volume Reported For First Half Of Year

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18 (UP)—The United States is leading the way in rapid recovery of world trade, according to a survey just completed by the department of agriculture.

The survey prepared by department economist R. B. Schwenger disclosed an "abrupt rise in the volume of world trade during the first half of 1937."

An index prepared by department economists showed world trade during the second quarter of this year equal to that of 1929. The index for the last quarter of 1936 was at 87 per cent of 1929.

Raw Imports Important "A detailed analysis shows an important part of the increase has been due to United States imports of a wide variety of commodities, especially of such raw materials as rubber and wool," Schwenger said.

World trade had lagged far behind world industrial production since 1932, the economist said, due to the increase in trade barriers during the depression. He suggested these barriers must be relaxed or removed before complete recovery can take place.

In recent months, due to partial relaxation of trade barriers, world trade has been increasing much more rapidly than world industrial production. If the rise continues, Schwenger said, the two indices may be expected to be at the same level before the end of the year.

Armament Spurs Trade Explaining the "complex causes" of increased world trade, Schwenger pointed to increased activity connected with rearmament in a number of important countries, the relaxation of trade barriers and the rise in export prices.

Less than half of the increased trade may be attributed to rearmament programs, he said. Japan, Germany, Italy and Great Britain, where rearmament requirements were a major factor in international trade, accounted for only 39 per cent of the increased world trade between the last half of 1936 and the first half of this year, Schwenger said.

France, Switzerland and Czechoslovakia accounted for an additional 10 per cent of the increase. The remainder was due to increased imports by Canada, United States, Argentina, India, British Malaya, Belgium, Denmark, Australia, Netherlands, Sweden and the Union of South Africa, Schwenger said.

Hardin-Simmons U. Program Goes On Air This Evening

The Hardin-Simmons "College Night" in the current series of collegiate programs sponsored by the Coca-Cola Bottling companies of Texas will go on the air from the Hardin-Simmons university campus this evening at 6:30 p. m., according to W. E. Jarrett, manager of the Texas Coca-Cola Bottling company of Abilene and surrounding territory. This unusual program of collegiate music, spirit and football facts will feature the famous Cowboy band of Hardin-Simmons university, directed by Marion B. McClure; and it will go over KRBC of Abilene, and WFAA-WBAP, WOAI and KPRC, the Texas Quality Network.

Hal Thompson, football announcer, will be the master of ceremonies and will interview Frank Kimbrough, head football coach of Hardin-Simmons university. Ben Lee Boynton, former all-American quarterback at Williams college, and for 12 years one of the leading gridiron officials in the Southwest, will discuss the Hardin-Simmons 1937 football team, forecast the result of the November 19th Hardin-Simmons game with Oklahoma City university, and predict results of other important games to be played that weekend.

That Beautiful Hair Was False

NEW YORK, Nov. 18 (UP)—Now it can be told. That six-foot torrent of carrot-red hair worn by the late Mrs. Leslie Carter, famous actress—it was the envy of women of two continents—was false, and it cost her $50,000.

Hair merchant Albert Simonson disclosed today that the actress, during her 18 years on Broadway, bought ten new sets of hair, paying $3,000 each time. She also paid $20,000 for repairs.

Simonson, who obtained Mrs. Carter's locks from peasant girls in Austria-Hungary, said false hair also had helped make public idols of Lillian Russell, Richard Mansfield and Jeanne Eagels.

Texas Univ. Lists Qualifications For New Prexy

AUSTIN, Nov. 18 (UP)—The new president of the University of Texas will be middle-aged, married, strongly religious, no radical, an executive as well as a teacher.

If such a man, healthy, with a Texas background and out-of-state experience, he is in line for a salary of $17,500 a year.

The specifications were drawn by ex-student councilmen who are co-operating with regents in selection of the permanent head of the fast growing school. How eager they are to get a man with the caliber desired is evidenced by the willingness to pay him $2,500 a year more than the university's football coach who was lured away from Nebraska by a 10-year contract at $15,000 a year.

Fourteen scoring points were suggested by the ex-students in recommendations to the regents. They are: Age, 40 to 50; Texas or Southern background; experienced

Where these lines meet is "THE END OF THE ROAD"

INFERIOR, temporary high-way surfaces clamor for more and more maintenance and reconstruction year after year. Eventually, any new roads are out of the question. All the annual road money goes for upkeep! Then, "the end of the road" has been reached, both literally and figuratively.

But Here's Big News! Taxpayers save from $88 to $465 per mile per year in the cost of surface maintenance on concrete highways compared with other types of pavement.

This statement is based on the actual reports of surface maintenance costs on 135,000 miles of pavement in 21 states — every state that publishes these records. Concrete is the standard by which all roads are judged... insuring maximum safety, comfort and economy for motorists. High visibility at night... easy on tires, gas and repairs. # THE SPORTS PARADE

BY HANK HART

Reports that Olie Cordill, Big Spring lad who left the Rice-A&M game last week, was seriously injured are false. The 190-pounder is sure to start against Texas Christian Saturday and those fans who wanted to see him in action this season will get their opportunity.

Olie sidestepped a Farmer and was hit on the arm by the shoulder of another Aggie and down he went. He received a bruised nerve above the elbow.

Mr. and Mrs. Olie Cordill will make the trip to Fort Worth Saturday to watch their son, Olie, Jr., take part in the Rice-Texas Christian game. Carmen Branson, too, will be there pulling for his alma mater which, if several other local people make good their intentions of going down for the game, will make for a house divided.

Ross Callahan, all-district guard who won't see much, if any, action in the Abilene game Friday, may be switched to the backfield by Coach Murphy next year. "Cally," who earned starting position in his sophomore year, may come right along if he can gather some speed.

The varsity eleven is going to be seriously handicapped by loss of first string backs next season but will probably come up with one of the best lines in this part of the state with Chock Smith coming back for an end position after a year's absence and J. L. Enloe moving into the forward wall.

Enloe was originally slated for the secondary but he is built for heavy duty and could do a better job of playing the game up front.

Johnny Miller of the Devils is the most likely candidate who will come up from Ben Daniel's charges. Young Miller, who weighs around 145 pounds now, is a sophomore and should have two good years.

Owen Brummett, another Devil, may be moved into the line. He played backfield for Daniel this season.

Tickets for the Abilene-Big Spring game will be available to adults once again at a booth in the Settles hotel lobby. The ducauts will go on sale about 9 a.m.

Weldon Hart, sports editor of the Austin Statesman, recently chose these eleven players for his all-Southwest team: Benton, Arkansas, end; Hale, TCU, tackle; Routt, A&M, guard; Aldrich, TCU, center; Jones, A&M, guard; Young, A&M, tackle; Ramsey, Texas Tech, end; O'Brien, TCU, back; Patterson, Baylor, back; Wolfe, Texas, back; Lain, Rice, back.

Mr. Hart evidently doesn't think much of Sammy Boyd, Baylor's greatest end of the decade, who with Patterson personally won the games from A&M, Texas Christian and Arkansas.

He also has forgotten about Charlie Sprague and the rest of the Southern Methodist team who have managed to cop but two of four conference games thus far.

The selection of Ramsey is all right. There could hardly be a better man in football than the Red-eye star but Ki Aldrich is vastly over-rated.

Incidentally, he placed Burns McKinney of Hardin-Simmons on his third string backfield along with Harris of Austin college, Atchison of Texas and Heineman of Texas Mines.

WRANGLERS WIN FINAL BATTLES

ABILENE, Nov. 18.—The Hardin-Simmons Wranglers have rung the curtain on their grid season, after losing three in a row to open it playing five junior college varsity crews in an away from home schedule.

The H-SU Fish defeated Altus, Okla., Junior college, 14 to 7, and lost to the North Texas Aggies, 0-2, and to Weatherford Junior college, 14-39.

As the season closed, Coach Jarnagin's starters included: Johnny Bounds, Stamford, center; Jimmie LeMellier, Iran, and Todd Switzer, Comanche, guards; Hal Thompson, South Swansea, Mass., and Dave Reeves, Leakes, tackles; D. A. Parker, Ozona, and Deward Marium, Amarillo, ends; Bill Ford, Wheeler, quarter; Bob Russ and Dub Teague, the "San Angelo twins," halfbacks, and Moon Mullins, Henderson, fullback.

Five District Three Six Years Afterward, Irish Seek Road Back Games On Tap

Abilene-Big Spring Game Holds Interest, Sandies Play Borger

By FELIX R. McKNIGHT
DALLAS, Nov. 18 (AP)—Two games with all the chips down, one deep in the East Texas oil belt field and the other in the Panhandle, stand out in a comparatively light weekend of only 38 games in the schoolboy grid league.

Trying for its fourth straight state title, Amarillo's Golden Sandies tackle, on their home lot Saturday, a Borger team that is tied with them for the District 1 lead. Beaten only once, Amarillo faces a Borger crew that has won three, lost three and tied one, but scored in all.

At Marshall, on Friday, the Longview Lobos, East Texas' powerful undefeated team with its Dandy Dick Milge, prancing ball carrier, attempt to clear another hurdle in their district 9 race. Marshall, tied with the Lobos for the district lead, has shown offensive strength that could provide an upset.

More Coming
Other choice titular games in the 16-district league have been held over until Thanksgiving Day, but seven more Friday games could alter standings.

Unbeaten Abilene, leader of district 3, travels to Big Spring to meet a club that has won only two games and dropped five; Sherman, heading the district five parade, stays at home to meet the challenge of an inferior district 2 pace setter, ranked a favorite over Wichita Falls in their meeting on the latter's field.

At Dallas, the city and district eight title was at stake when Woodrow Wilson, only slightly favored, clashed with North Dallas. Lufkin, power of the district 10 battle, had Jacksonville, with two wins and three losses on its books, in a home game.

Conroe Tries Again
A smashing Conroe team, unbeaten and untied, prepared to defend its district 13 lead against the invasion of John Reagan of Houston while Jeff Davis and San Jacinto, two Houston teams deadlocked for second place and still in the race, clashed at Houston.

Beaumont, tied with the disputed Port Arthur (Port Worth), Friday; Port Arthur, Yellowjackets in district 14, had a rough assignment in Ball High of Galveston, a team that lost its first game to Port Arthur last week.

Complete schedule by districts:
1.—Friday: Pampa at Plainview; Borger at Amarillo.
2.—Friday: Vernon at Wichita Falls.
3.—Friday: Abilene at Big Spring; Eastland at Sweetwater; San Angelo at Ranger; Stephenville at Brownwood; Breckenridge at Cisco.

Upwards of 90 golfers including many topnotchers were entered in the two-day event.

Babe Didrikson was among the competitors.

Horton Smith and Jimmy Thompson tied with Tony Manero and Mike Turnesa yesterday in the pro-preliminary tournament.

Coach Prays For Victory

Shaughnessy Hopes That Boys Will Be Rewarded Saturday

CHICAGO, Nov. 18 (AP)—This is an old story—with a new angle—about a football coach who'd give anything to win a game Saturday.

It's the story of Clark Shaughnessy, coach of the Chicago Maroons, doorman of the Big Ten for more than a decade.

The Maroons have lost five straight games this fall, scoring only 19 points, but it isn't a story of a coach fighting for his job because Shaughnessy, as a professor on the Chicago faculty, is beyond reach of the "wolves."

Personally, Shaughnessy says, a defeat by Illinois Saturday in the season's finale won't mean much to him. But secretly, he is praying for victory "because the 12 football players I have are the greatest, gamest bunch of boys I've ever coached and a lesson in real courage."

Shaughnessy, who coached successfully at Tulane and Loyola of New Orleans before coming to Chicago in 1933, watched his squad of 29 players trot onto the practice field.

"I don't care much for myself, but it's tough to see them, week after week, trying so hard to win, and losing again. Not many people know what we are up against."

"Exactly three boys reported for spring practice last May—so we didn't have any spring practice. Just four of that squad ever had played any real high school football, so we have to start teaching them from scratch."

That group of 12 boys makes a good starting team, but without reserves, they can't go all afternoon against big squads."

Kriel Remains On Sidelines

WACO, Nov. 18.—Cold wind swept over historic Carroll field today as Coach Morley Jennings took his Baylor Bruins out on the gridiron.

The veteran football mentor has seen press releases where other Southwest conference eleven were taking it easy this week in preparation for their interconference clashes this week-end and the final drive of the district conference race ever witnessed in this section.

But not so in the Baylor camp. In their preparation for the Lions of Loyola (Los Angeles) in Beaumont Saturday the Bears will go through the hardest week of scrimmage since fall training began Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday were set aside as the days for inter-squad competition. Jennings says there will be no let-up. It is work and then more work in the Bruin camp this week.

While the Baylor crew came out of the S. M. U. game without any serious injuries, the squad will probably not reach its top physical strength again this season.

Emmett Kriel, invincible guard, one of Baylor's bids for all-conference honors, will probably not see action again Saturday due to his injured knees. Duffam Bivins, who hasn't donned the Green and Gold uniform since the Arkansas game may get back into the fray Saturday, but it is still a doubt.

Milton (Crazy Legs) Evans, hula-hipping halfback of the Bruin squad, will get into the Saturday melee but his ankles will have to be so tightly bound that his chances of setting "the Loyola lions secondary is doubtful.

White Family Atop Scorers

By the Associated Press
MILWAUKEE.—Three "shave-less" sophomores of Marquette's football squad—Bill Burke, Dave Braden and Dan Koster—have it all figured out how they can give the campus barbers some business without going back on their vow. They pledged themselves to go without shaves until the Golden Avalanche wins a major game. Since Duquesne is heavily favored in the regular season finale Saturday, the three sophs figure on interesting authorities in a post-season popper in the hope of getting shaves before Christmas.

III CHAOS AFTER ROCKNE

(Last of a Series)
SOUTH BEND, Ind., Nov. 18.—The death of Knute K. Rockne in a Kansas airplane crash March 31, 1931, threw Notre Dame football into a state of chaos.

Could Notre Dame continue to have winning teams without the guidance of the illustrious Rockne? The Catholic university was determined to "carry on for Rock."

Jesse C. Harper, who had coached at Notre Dame from 1913 to 1917, returned as athletic director and Heartley (Hunk) Anderson, who had played on Irish teams under Rockne in 1918-19-20-21, became head football coach in 1931.

But the Irish could not get back to the victory trail blazed by Rockne.

The season after Rockne's death Notre Dame won six games, lost two and tied one. This was a slump for Notre Dame, for the undefeated 1929 and 1930 teams coached by Rockne had won 19 straight games and national championships.

In 1932 the Irish won seven games and lost two. The defeats were administered by Pittsburgh and Southern California.

Then the Deluge
The following season was the worst in Notre Dame football history. The 1933 team won only three games, dropped five and tied one, scoring only 32 points, compared with 80 for the opposition.

Elmer Layden, one of the famous Four Horsemen of 1924, became athletic director and head football coach in 1934, succeeding Harper and Anderson.

Plunging into his tasks, Layden did not make any radical changes, and said: "If the Notre Dame sys-

A New Machine
He started to build a new football machine, using as a basis Rockne's plan of shifting ends, a balanced line and shifting backfields.

He varied the Rockne system to meet changing conditions, pointing to Rockne's frequent statement, "when they begin to catch you, you have to use new stuff."

Layden's 1934 team showed much improvement over the 1933 squad, winning six games and losing three. The 1935 eleven scored 108 points to 56 for the opposition, and the victims included Purdue, Carnegie Tech, Wisconsin, North-

"Whether Notre Dame will find the road back to national championships remains to be seen," Layden says. "We do not play for a national championship, but to win every game."

Layden believes Notre Dame material has "fallen off" in the past eight years, "although we have had many good boys in the past and still have some."

He says Notre Dame will continue to schedule the toughest opposition in the country, "because, we might as well lose to good teams, if we have to lose."

Bostick Ready For Eagle Game

Locals Fight For 1st Win In 10 Years

Eagles Handicapped But Will Be Heavy Favorites To Win

The Longhorns lost a lineman and gained a back during the week's practice when it was discovered that Alton Bostick, who has been out six weeks with a fractured arm, would be able to play against the Abilene Eagles when the two teams line up for the kickoff Friday afternoon at 3 p. m. in Steer stadium.

Bostick may see lots of action since he is counted on to carry much of the offensive load for next year's eleven.

There was little hope that it would be possible for Calhoun, injured guard, to play. He may not even suit out.

The Longhorns, realizing that they are in a good spot to upset the pace setters, apple cart, are bearing down in an attempt to perfect the offense that will be used against the War Birds.

The Eagles come swooping down but they won't be in full force when they take the field. Four regulars will be hobbling with injuries.

The Big Spring team will be seeking their first victory over the Abileneans in modern times. Since Big Spring became a member of Class A football back at the turn of the decade the Taylor county crew has been dropping the Bovines for yearly losses.

The most one sided victory the Eagles have ever scored over a Big Spring eleven took place around 1928 when the Birds trampled the Herd, 75-0.

The first year that Big Spring was admitted to Class A football the powerful Eagles walloped the Steers, 33-0, and have been able to score more touchdowns than the Longhorns have ever since.

The locals came closest to victory in 1935 when the Bovines led by Olie Cordill and Sam Flowers, held a 12-12 lead until the final 60 seconds of play when Moser intercepted a pass and returned it for a touchdown and an 18-12 victory.

Last season the mighty Eagles walloped the Longhorns 39-13, and went on to win the district crown but the locals did have the satisfaction of scoring more touchdowns on the Abileneans than any other team until the victors met Amarillo in the state quarterfinals.

NEW YORK.—Don't look now, but Alex Wojciechowicz, Fordham's candidate for all-America center, is an ardent devotee of (tak, tak) crocheting. He learned it years back and his latest creation is a heavily favored in the regular season finale Saturday, the three sophs figure on interesting authorities in a post-season popper in the hope of getting shaves before Christmas.

BOULDER, Colo.—This White family is cornering the market on individual point production this season. There's Byron (White) White at Colorado, here, who has piled up an even 100 points so far, and leads the nation. While back at Brooklyn college, Sid, of the White clan (and somewhat of a whizzer himself), has chalked up 83 points to date, and is second in the country.

LOUIS CRAVING RING RETURN AFTER 25TH

CHICAGO, Nov. 18 (AP)—Joe Louis is itching to pull on his ring togs, after a layoff of 10 weeks, "just to get the feel of boxing again."

The heavyweight champion said so today, but he won't have his craving satisfied until Monday when he starts a 10-day span of gymnasium work. Louis will not fight until next February when he expects to make a defense of his title against a challenger in New York, but he is anxious to sharpen his punching eye, after being idle since defeating Tommy Farr in their 15-round bout August 30.

The titleholder said "he believed" he could knock out 210 pounds at present which is 10 pounds above his normal boxing weight.

Louis leaves this afternoon for Detroit to spend the weekend. The champion said he positively would do no boxing until after Thanksgiving when he plans to stuff himself as full as a billygoat, with turkey, dressing and all the trimmings. He might top off the meal with a little fried chicken, his favorite dish.

That's one day I'm going to eat my head off," Louis mumbled.

Birds Plagued By Injuries

Abilene Comes West With Four Key Men On Sidelines

The Abilene high school football Eagles, riding at the top of the turbulent Oil Belt football league with an average of seven down and only two to go, hit town Friday morning for their 3 p. m. game with the Big Spring Steers bringing a lineup that will be seriously handicapped by loss of key men.

Whereas the Longhorns, who will be trying for their third victory of the semester, have only one regular who cannot start the battle, the Abileneans will make the trip with a quartet of disabled first stringers.

It remained doubtful as to whether James Beam, Eagle backfield, R. H. Hughes, Beam assistant, Pete Simpson or J. T. Bell would be able to play as the War Birds went through their last drill today.

Hughes, remembered chiefly for his one-man attack against Stephenville, Nov. 5, was bothered by a charlie horse, Simpson had an infected hand, Bell, a bad knee and Beam is still having trouble with his shoulder.

Zelus Motley, goal kicking tackle, will probably be shifted to end to replace Simpson while Travis Ables, substitute tackle, will replace Motley at his old position.

The Eagles will be heavy favorites to annex their eighth victory of the season and ride into the Thanksgiving Day clash with San Angelo with a clear record but they expect to be hard pressed since Assistant Coach Howard Miller, who scouted the Bovines in Stephenville, reported that the Big Spring eleven is vastly improved over the performances it gave in early season.

Group insurance in the United States last year was estimated to total $1,363,000,000.

Defense Honor To Villanova

Minnesota Last In Rating, Has Given Up 44 Points

NEW YORK, Nov. 18 (AP)—When you speak of the Notre Dame system, you speak, generally, of offensive football.

Yet, of the ten top teams in this week's national ranking, the four with the best defensive records are coached by disciples of the late Knute Rockne.

Last in the first ten, Villanova, coached by Maurice "Little Clipper" Smith, is No. 1 on defensive performance, with only seven points scored against it in seven games. Fordham and Santa Clara, coached by Jim Crowley and Buck Shaw, and fourth and sixth in the nation, are tied for second, defensively, with nine opponents' points each.

Alabama, under the tutelage of Frank Thomas and third in the rankings, comes next on the defensive list, though having held eight rivals to 13 points. At the other extreme of defensive play is Minnesota. The Gophers have given up 44 opponents' points and have been scored on by five of their seven rivals, including North Dakota State.

Between them and the four leaders are Dartmouth and California, nicked for 33 each; Pitt, with 27 points, all in the last three games, on the debit side; Yale, which has given up 23 to Army, Dartmouth and Penn; and Louisiana State.

NCAA VICTOR IN SQUABBLE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18 (AP)—The National Collegiate Athletic association has won in its fight for control of several Olympic game sport committees.

For years the amateur athletic union has had the upper hand. A compromise adopted yesterday at the meeting of the American Olympic association gave the N.C.A.A. equal representation with the A.A.U. on committees in charge of men's track and field, boxing, men's swimming, wrestling, men's gymnastics, basketball, field and handball, and ice hockey.

Avery Brundage of Chicago was re-elected president.

DEVILS TRY FOR FOURTH WIN OF YEAR IN COAHOMA TODAY

Ben Daniel's Devils make their next to last start of the current season in Coahoma this afternoon when they take the field against Lloyd Devan's Bulldogs on the Coahoma gridiron.

With the exception of Captain Johnny Miller, who is out for the remainder of the season, the front line are in great shape for the contest against the Lubbock Cowboys a week ago will be used again.

Owen Brummett, spearhead of the locals' attack, will be used at fullback with Jake Anderson and Goldie Miller at half backs and Bobby Martin at quarter.

The Coahomans' offense is built around Marshall, heavy hitting senior, McGuffin and Echols.

The Bulldogs triumphed over the Big Spring freshmen, 20-6, in the Devils' first game of the season. Since then, the Danielmen have lost to Lamesa and won from Ackerly twice and Lubbock once.

The local eleven will close the season Thanksgiving morning in a game with the Sweetwater Roosters in Sweetwater.

All Teams May Swap During Conclave

McCarthy Is Interested In Hurler

NEW YORK, Nov. 18 (AP)—Baseball's big league managers are dusting off old but "swap-able" ivory and bringing bank-rolls into the open for what may be the biggest buying and trading session in years.

Every pilot, from Joe McCarthy of the Yankees on down the line in both leagues, is hoping Santa Claus is good to him. When they spring the barrier on the minor league meetings in Milwaukee on December 1, and follow along with the major league conclave in Chicago, the buying and selling is going to resemble the stock exchange floor on a big day.

There isn't a team that couldn't stand improvement. McCarthy, despite his world champion wall-poppers, could find a lot of use for another starting pitcher, and an infielder, in the event the Yanks sour on Joe (Flash) Gordon as second-base successor to Tony Lazzeri.

The Yanks' neighborhood rivals and World series opponents, the National league pennant winning Giants, have an eye out for at least one pitcher to back up Hubbell, Melton, Castlemann, et al, and

California Not Looking Beyond Stanford Game

BERKELEY, Calif., Nov. 18 (AP)—University of California, favorite to defeat Stanford Saturday and thereby win the coast conference football championship and the Rose Bowl bid, hasn't given an official thought yet as to an opponent in the New Year's day game at Pasadena. Graduate manager Kenneth Priestley said today.

"First we must win from Stanford," he added.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 18 (AP)—Word leaked out of U.C.L.A. today that Southern Methodist will encounter an opponent on aerial circus in the coliseum Saturday.

definitely need punch in spots, particularly those spots at first base and center field.

Jimmy Dykes has shouted his need for a third-sacker, and it doesn't require a psychic hot-stover to see that his Chicago White Sox can't go on forever with their old-man pitching corps.

If the Chicago Cubs can get Van Lingle Mungo from the Dodgers, their only worry will be the outfield, or an outfielder. But Brooklyn, believing the Mungo market has dropped because of temperamental Van's dismal season, may hold off on any deal involving him. Similar needs for talent were seen in a survey of the other big league clubs.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18 (AP)—The maritime commission recommended to congress today that loans and subsidies be made available for developing trans-oceanic aircraft.

The proposal was included in a report on foreign air commerce. The commission emphasized, however, that there is no need at present for aircraft subsidies comparable to those granted surface shipping.

"It seems fairly evident," said Chairman Joseph P. Kennedy, "that the volume of passenger mail, and express traffic available to aircraft is ample in the trans-Atlantic field, for example, to create income necessary to eventual profitable operation. Other routes, however, where the traffic is lighter may require substantial help initially."

The principal need now, the commission said, is for 75 per cent construction loans to help swing

NO ULTIMATUM TO FRANCE FROM JAPS

PARIS, Nov. 18 (AP)—The French foreign office and the Japanese embassy formally denied today that France had received an "ultimatum" from Japan to cease transporting war materials to China over the French-owned railroad from Indo-China to Yunnan.

Nevertheless, Sen. Henry Berenger, chairman of the senate foreign relations committee, who declared in a speech that Japan had "warned" France, still persisted his statement held good, as he had not used the word "ultimatum."

The Japanese embassy said the report that Japan issued an "ultimatum" to France was "denied in the most formal manner by the minister of foreign affairs in Tokyo."

Modernized Pumpkin Pies Have Fancy Tops, Varied Fillings

By MRS. ALEXANDER GEORGE, AP Feature Service Writer

Pumpkin pies have gone modern. The shiny tops prized by grandmother often are concealed now by a coating of whipped cream, fancy meringue, coconut or delicately-flavored sauce.

Fillings, too, are more varied. While standpatters demand their plain—with a thick wedge of tangy cheese alongside—left-wing pie eaters prefer fillings containing fruits or nuts, for instance.

Secrets of Success

There are several secrets for the success of any pumpkin pie. The first lies in the crust. It must be rich and well placed in the pan—to allow for a thick filling. A little grated cheese may be added to give a pleasing flavor combination.

The oven should be hot the first 10 minutes the pie is in the oven. This will bake the crust so well that the filling will not soak in. The second secret is in the filling. Although it may be made in a number of ways it must be poured in a thick layer into the crust, and it must not be permitted to run over the edge. It should rise only to within a fourth of an inch of the top edge of the crust, since it will rise a little during baking.

Brown sugar enriches the flavor of the filling. Adding a tablespoonful of molasses to the regular ingredients will darken the color. A combination of spices is usually best. About one teaspoonful of cinnamon and half a teaspoonful

De Luxe Pumpkin Pie
Unbaked pie crust.
2 cups cooked mashed pumpkin.
1 cup granulated sugar.
1-2 teaspoon mace.
3-4 teaspoon cinnamon.
1-2 teaspoon all-spice.
1-2 teaspoon nutmeg.
1-2 teaspoon salt.
3 tablespoons melted butter.
3 eggs, slightly beaten.
2 cups milk, scalded.
1-2 cup coconut.

Line deep pie plate with pastry rolled one-eighth of an inch thick, allowing pastry to extend 1 inch beyond edge. Fold edge back to form standing rim. Flute with fingers. Combine all ingredients in the order given. Mix thoroughly and pour into pie shell. Bake in hot oven (450 degrees F.) 20 minutes. Then reduce heat to moderate (350 degrees F.) and bake 20 minutes longer. Sprinkle 1-2 cup coconut over top of pie and bake 10 minutes longer, or until custard is firm and coconut a delicate brown.

of nutmeg, cloves and ginger is enough for each pie.

Quivry Filling
Eggs are important. Two tablespoonful of flour may be used in place of one egg, however, if eggs are too expensive.

The pie is done when the crust is brown and shrinks slightly from the pan. The filling should be slightly quivry, since it will stiffen as it cools.

When the pie is removed from the oven it should be placed on a rack to cool. Doing so helps prevent a soggy crust.

Variations:
Add one-third of a cup of any of the following to each pie: chopped candied orange peel, preserved fruit, dates, raisins, figs, nuts coconut or orange marmalade.
Sprinkle grated cheese, dates, nuts, marshmallows or nuts over the top of the pie five minutes before you remove it from the oven. Ten minutes before you remove the pie from the oven criss-cross thin strips of unbaked pastry over the top.
Serve the pie plain or topped with whipped cream, cream cheese, hard sauce, orange sherbet or crushed coconut macaroons.

Get Ready For Big Contest Next Year; There's Talk Of An Event To Find Champ Cotton Picker

Missouri and Iowa can go right on banging the backboards with their increasingly popular cross-hauling contests, but make way for a more exciting event next autumn when the first Big Spring cotton-picking championship is awarded here.

There is little doubt that Big Spring is going to have a big contest to decide the best picker of the section when fields are turning white in 1938. J. H. Greene, chairman of the contest, has agreed to push the idea and O. P. Griffin, county agent, has said that he would attempt to obtain a field near town for the competition.

All that remains to make the event a success is favorable growing weather. Eliminations in talking over the plans for an event which is as far away as it is novel, said that no contest would be allowed unless the winners of some kind of elimination contest, either in their communities or counties. An county in this section may send its top picker to jerk locks with the best burr-snatchers Howard county can put up.

There will be no limitations on technique or equipment, so long as new-fangled pickers are kept out, and even the fancy artists who rob two rows with reckless abandon may overstep their bounds and insist on a third row if they are willing to sacrifice speed for trickery and polish.

Some of the leading heavy-duty pickers will find themselves at a disadvantage because a system of grading will be worked up to judge according to weight, freedom of the picked cotton from trash, leaves, seed burrs, as well as the thoroughness of the picking as shown by the tell-tale rows. Naturally the overpowering picker who habitually forces stalks to yield open cotton will be docked for his trashy sack.

Various "Styles" Greene believes that there will be several schools of picking represented in the contest—the crouching pluckers who deftly swoop down on open bolls, the praying picker who dons pads and stays on his knees while in the patch, the hop-skip and jump exponent who combines a sort of love-on-the-run technique in luring the lint.

If staid Missourians can wax warm over noisy board banging, Greene thinks West Texans will go wild over a line of pickers going down rows with expert hands flying. Why there might even be "row" prizes for the one to the end of the row first, or an award for one farthest along when time is up, or for the one who could slip the most pie-melons in his sack. The idea really has possibilities.

Canned pears may be filled with cream cheese and grape jelly and served with French dressing on top.

Fairview News

Claude Jackson of this community suffered facial injuries last Saturday night when a car in which he and a cotton picker were riding collided with one driven by some Mexicans south of Fairview.

Announcement is made of the birth of a son, Tuesday morning, to Mr. and Mrs. Morris Wooten of Big Spring. The child is a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wooten of this community.

Mrs. Jeff Grant and baby are spending the week in Goree, where she is visiting her mother and other relatives. Mrs. Grant was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Haskell Grant.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wooten and daughter, Ermance, were weekend visitors in Lubbock, guests of E. R. Wooten and family.

Rev. Rickles filled his regular appointment at the church here Sunday, and will return for services on the fourth Sunday and the Saturday night preceding. Song and prayer service is held each Wednesday evening.

Cotton picking is beginning to taper off some now, and the Fairview gin is catching up with the delivery of lint.

Wilburn Mathis made a business trip to Sparsburg Saturday.

H. P. Wooten was in the Fairview community the first of the week, buying turkeys for the Thanksgiving market. There are not many turkeys in this section this year, but all are in fine condition, getting No. 1 grade.

Sales Of Luxury Goods Show A Slight Decline

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 18—The first recessions in the public's buying of luxury goods, after three years of unbroken gains, are shown in a study of nation-wide department store sales for the third quarter of 1937.

Sales of furs in the 238 department stores covered by the report showed a decline of 1.9 per cent for the third quarter of 1937 compared to the corresponding period of last year; this contrasted with a gain of 22.2 per cent in the first six months of 1937, over the first half of 1936. The halt in the spectacular three-year expansion in fur sales climaxed an advance in fur prices which has been greater than that in any other line of goods sold in the general commodity field.

The percentages above are on dollar volumes; the decline in unit sales is somewhat greater, due to the increase in prices from a year ago. Always sensitive to residential construction trends, sales of electric household appliances for the third quarter of 1937 were off 2.3 per cent from the same period last year, after scoring a 12.4 per cent increase in the first six months.

The remaining five of the seven key lines of "prosperity goods" covered in the survey, namely household furniture, pianos, jewelry, sporting goods, and luggage, showed continued gains over last year, though at a diminishing rate as compared to the first six months.

Charles Adkins of El Paso arrived here last Thursday morning to be with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Adkins and family. He plans to remain here indefinitely.

Guests in the home of G. C. Broughton Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Newton, Mr. and Mrs. M. Newton and daughter, Eula Faye, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Newton and children.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Merrick, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Landers, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Adkins, and Rawleigh McCullough of this community made a trip to Sweetwater where they visited Mrs. Merrick's father on his 96th birthday.

A group of men went hunting from this community last week. The party was composed of A. A. Landers, M. E. Broughton, Martelle McDonald, Short Saunders, Truett Thomas, and Tracy Roberts.

Norman and Bill Newton spent Saturday night with Wright Lipscomb in the Elbow community.

George King, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dick King, suffered a leg injury when a bullet exploded in a trash fire at his home Thursday. He was taken to the Big Spring hospital where the bullet was removed. He is improving nicely.

CONCERNING FASCISM IN BRAZIL

Although the first reports said that by his coup President Vargas had converted Brazil into a fascist state, there was from the outset little reason for thinking that the reports could be correct. The word fascism is to be taken as meaning what it means in Italy and Germany, then it may be said that none of the generating causes of fascism exists in Brazil, or in any country in this hemisphere.

We shall misunderstand fascism and we shall not know how to deal with it if we use the word as a new name for any anti-democratic and reactionary movement. The leaders of true fascism, Mussolini and Hitler, are not ordinary old-fashioned reactionaries. They are popular leaders. Through their rise to power was made possible by intrigue, conspiracy and betrayal within the ruling class, the real source of their power is a great following among the masses of the people. Moreover, their following was not attracted ordinarily, nor is it held now, by an appeal to the conservative principles of property. On the contrary, both Mussolini and Hitler are revolutionaries not merely against the liberal and democratic state but against the capitalist system. Hitler's name for the German brand of fascism is national socialism. The name is accurate. His regime is not merely nationalistic. It is no less socialist in that it is rapidly substituting for private property and private initiative a system of production planned and directed by the state. This is true also of Italian fascism which has moved at least three-quarters of the way toward a completely collectivist state.

We shall quite misunderstand what is going on in Italy and Germany if, as the naive liberals' agent, we think of Mussolini and Hitler as superconservatives acting for big business and the great landlords. The contrary is true. In both of the fascist countries the properties of the classes are the prisoners of the dictators, and their wealth is entirely at the disposal of the two regimes.

It is not true, therefore, to say that fascism has suppressed the socialist movement. It would be much more true to say that the fascists have taken command of the socialist movement, that Mussolini and Hitler have ousted the old socialist leaders and have occupied their place.

Nor is it true to say that they have ended the Marxian class struggle. What they have done is to transform the domestic struggle between the workers and the property classes into an international struggle between the nations that have empires and their own nations seeking to be empires. They have turned the masses from the attack on German and Italian capitalists and landlords to an attack upon the British and the French empires. They have converted the struggle between Haves and Have Nots at home into a struggle between Haves and Have Nots in international affairs.

Thus fascism as we see it in Germany and Italy, may be described as a popular movement, inspired by the Marxian psychology and under the leadership of men who have set out to organize, to discipline and to mobilize their nations for the conquest of empires. Whereas the ordinary socialist wishes to redistribute the property of the domestic capitalist, the national socialist seeks to redistribute the property of foreign nations.

For that reason fascism is an international problem and not merely a matter of the internal government of Germany and Italy. The driving force behind it is a popular conviction that by conquest abroad the people can improve their standard of life. The power of fascism rests upon the fact that it is the most thorough and the most resolute preparation for war ever undertaken by modern nations.

Now Brazil is a country with great resources and a relatively small population. Whatever the social problems of Brazil, however unready Brazil may be for democracy as we know it, no matter how much her rules may imitate some of the superficial characteristics of European fascism, the essence of fascism cannot, I believe, exist in Brazil.

My reason for saying this is that President Vargas will not let his country solve its domestic problems by organizing a conquest abroad. He will not, therefore, establish a totalitarian regime, however, undemocratically he governs Brazil; for unless a regime is mobilizing for conquest and regimenting its people for the coming war of conquest, it will not be based on the inner principle of fascism.

And therefore, we may feel confident that President Vargas is telling the truth when he says that Brazil does not intend to join the fascist combination. We should be reassured because no one can really be interested in that combination who is not interested in foreign conquest. Aggression abroad is the basis that holds the fascist combination together.

Indeed, one might go further and

How To Torture Your Wife

Have We Become Spoiled?

Government officials speak of balancing the budget and of curtailing federal expenditures, and most of us give a cheer; but we haven't yet given up the attitude that Uncle Sam should carry our burdens.

The national conference of mayors Wednesday moved to ask for federal relief funds. The municipal chiefs took no action toward providing or home-financing of welfare work. The mayors' stand relects that of most of the people. We have become spoiled, content to let humanitarian projects be financed from the public purse.

Many directors of welfare fund subscriptions will tell you that money raising for worthy causes is becoming increasingly difficult. This year, when locally business conditions are rated much better, the Red Cross is having a hard time in meeting its quota. The recent Salvation Army campaign was disappointing.

We are not alone. The newspaper in a neighboring West Texas city recently cited the poor showing of a Community Chest drive, remarked that, by failure to contribute to those welfare organizations whose work is essential, the people are bringing on a possible charity tax. If voluntary subscriptions cease, then such a levy may be considered by many a county and city; for the poor are still with us and must be cared for. The general agreement is that the federal government should withdraw from the "business of relief," and yet when the time for withdrawal comes, we begin to weaken.

We in Big Spring and Howard county already are, indirectly, paying toward a charity tax. For a year, a welfare association has been financed by county and city contributions, and the taxpayers are making possible those contributions. But there are activities to be carried on among the distressed that can never be quite covered by simple governmental dole. Such organizations as the Red Cross and the Salvation Army carry on humanitarian projects just across the borderline. They are projects that the American people want to continue, because we are a people who want to ease, as far as possible, all real distress among our own.

But we have let our governments step in and handle the job, until our sensibilities have become deadened to the demands upon us.

Man About Manhattan

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK — Notes of the big town, jotted here and there on a quick round-up:

The newest Broadway hit is that satirical musical farce which sets a precedent by lambasting the daylight out of a president while he is still in office. . . . But it is all in good fun. . . . It's the sort of mirth-provoking buffoonery in which a member of the Supreme Court leaps out from behind bushes and trees to yell "no" everytime Mr. Roosevelt (George M. Cohan) passes by.

Written by George S. Kaufman and Moss Hart, Broadway's prime profaners of temples, it is, primarily, the Washington setup reduced to a daisy-chain of gleeful absurdities. Financially, it is the most important production of the season. Such was the sense of expectancy which gripped Broadway that advance sales had totalled $180,000 before a single performance was given.

However, (to this corner's notion, at least) the best show in town is a lusty gallop with Alfred Lunt and Lynn Fontanne in "Amphitryon 38," which is really a bedroom farce based on connubial razzle-dazzle.

The opening scene is a bawdy roar. It reveals Lunt (as Jupiter) and Richard Whorf (Mercury) stretched out in full muscular nakedness on a cloud, peeping through windows down on earth and appraising the charms of various charmers there. Here is a salty episode out of Greek mythology, with the Gods descending to mortal subterfuge and somehow being bested.

Gertrude Lawrence is right much of the prankster off stage. . . . She is one really famous star who likes to go places and dance after the final curtain. . . . The daughter of Arthur Train, author of the famous Tut and Mr. Tut stories, is following in her father's footsteps. . . . But she has eschewed fiction to author a cook book. "To the Queen's Taste" it's called, and it is an amusing, informal and practical guide designed for modern urban hostesses. . . . In private life she is Helen Train Hilles, her father-in-law being Charles D. Hilles of the Republican national committee.

Mary Boland has made 17 trans-Atlantic crossings. . . . Skippers of the Atlantic lines, incidentally, are gratified that winter is upon us. . . . Not that they prefer icy gales to gentle summer breezes, but it means the end, for nine months at least, of the college boy tourist, who sometimes proves a strenuous and a trying charge.

Al Jolson explains why the wolf is often at the door—it's the mink in the closet. . . . Fred Allen says the newest in cemetery accoutrements is neon tubes for grave stones—for deceased actors who are used to having their names in lights.

Sidney Howard is a superb actor but he is a master of the sentimental touch in directing. Rarely does he write original plays, his greatest success having come from dramatizing novels. His most noted adaptation was "Dodsworth."

speculate on the possibility that of all the Latin-American countries, Brazil is the one with the greatest interest in keeping the European fascist at a safe distance. For if fascistism crosses the Atlantic, the most likely point of entry into this hemisphere would be the two predominantly German-speaking provinces of Brazil.

These rich provinces are, it appears, already rather thoroughly nazified, and it is by no means inconceivable that under certain circumstances they might detach themselves from Brazil and become in fact, though not in name, a German colony, a sort of American Manchukuo. If this happens the Monroe Doctrine would have been breached in a way that we should find it very awkward to deal with.

Therefore, when we see a movement to strengthen the central government in Brazil, we should not hastily condemn it, on ideological grounds. Weaknesses on the part of the central government might turn a theoretical possibility into a real danger. So it may well be that President Vargas has had that in mind as one of the reasons for his effort to make the national power indisputably stronger than that of the local governments, and it is to our own interest to give him the benefit of the doubt.

Sights and Sounds By Robbin Coons

HOLLYWOOD — A movie gag man must be brazen and shameless, and have a hide thick as an elephant's. Otherwise—in a gag conference—he'll blub and be confused and lose the opportunity to contribute something that might possibly be funny.

Sat in on a gag session for the new Laurel and Hardy feature. It's about a couple of guys with a better mousetrap, many better mousetraps. The traps are ingenious nutty and Rube Goldbergish, each designed to exterminate a mouse humanly.

The session, when it gets under way finally after a general, informal discussion of who wrote which gag, was what musical comedy 20 or 30 years ago, with side bets on the matter, is called to order—if any—by Stan Laurel. He comes in, settles down at his desk, and puts his feet up. Oliver Hardy is absent, and this—now I know it—is why he's the fat one. He hasn't anything to do with the gag sessions.

Looking for Laughs

Stan is neatly dressed in grey business suit; Felix Adler, over on the dayport, is costless. Pretty soon he has loosened up his tie, too. Jimmy Parrott sits in a corner. Charlie Rogers, who's been with Stan since his old days with the Fred Karno troupe (Chaplin was in it then too) paces around costless, in a vivid red shirt. Art Duquette, the script clerk, hovers nearby silently, waiting to "make a note" if anything's said that Stan thinks is worth noting.

Felix Adler is telling a yarn about his neighbor's kid when Stan, without ado, replies cryptically: "We gotta get rid of the kid, and then most of the faces present jump. (This is business.)" Adler's discussion of ways and means of getting rid of the kid, but they don't decide anything.

They've got to get names for those mousetraps. "Something cute, that'll fit into a song, and yet not give away the gag in the trap," specifies Stan.

Out of the silence comes a suggestion. It's terrible. Another that brings a smile to Laurel's face. Still another that brings a laugh. "Anyone Can Play the Game" Felix Adler makes a pun, so terrible that he and all the rest break out laughing. "That's so lousy I have to laugh at it myself," he says.

"Everything comes out at a time like this," explains Charlie Rogers. "We don't hold anything back." It's true. They don't. Adler makes more "tricks" than anybody else gives his gag and then laughs ha-ha. The first he is loud and strong, if nobody else laughs, the second he is hollow and sour, dying in the throat. But trying often, he makes a "trick" a better battering ram in the end.

"It shows you you" contribute some me, laughter breaks in to the general gloom. Anybody

Chapter 43
FALLING IN LOVE
 After David, too, had had a slight and much needed build-upper with the girls, he exclaimed: "Whew! what an afternoon! Little David with a breath on him like a brewery, demonstrating a closed car, to somebody's Aunt Minnie... aged 70. And the floats... what a case of the floats! I was glad when she insisted on having the windows up, I was afraid I might just drift out of one."
 "David," explained Nina, "was a vered bad boy last night."
 "Your partner in crime was just here, my friend," remarked Cordelia, naughtily.
 "Who—Jack? Oh—Gracie. Really?" He didn't seem to care much one way or the other, which was a nice sign.
 Nina knew that Cordelia would notice and she was glad. In spite of her hangover, mean little Gracie had looked quite darling, in a new perky felt hat and a suit with a diminutive jacket.

Nina was falling in love. It was the most extraordinary thing.

 "To cap the climax," David went on, leaning up against the mantel, "there was a car in front of us, all the way round the park, with a very dusty metal tire cover on the back. Some little boy had printed in the dust: 'Sammy stinks!'"
 Just like that, a terse statement: "Sammy stinks!" I tried to pass the darn thing and Aunt Minnie, the poor girl, looked everywhere but at it. . . . but the car stuck in front of us like a leech.

Cordelia and Nina were howling. "Finally it got to a point where you couldn't ignore it, so I said 'Fithy—what? and...'"
 "David, you didn't?"
 "Sure, I did, and Aunt Minnie..."
 "David, you didn't sell it to her, after that?"
 And he said again: "Sure, I did! And Aunt Minnie said: 'My, my, boys will be boys' or something like that; and we got quite merry over poor, unpopular Sammy." He took another drink. "I'll tell you whose Aunt Minnie she was, Nina. Remember that Carstairs fellow, whom I handled so brilliantly—sold a new car to him, when he wanted to rent a second-hand? Well it was his Aunt Minnie, Swell girl."

"Swell, David," corrected Cordelia.
 "Wottasman Day!" he agreed modestly.
 Presently, Cordelia had to go, and they parted, shouting: "Sammy stinks!" and "Remember, poor Sammy!" at each other, like ridiculous infants.

Nina felt that she shouldn't feel so happy... that she hadn't the right.
 "David, lamb... would you, by any chance, feel like kissing me?" And her heart gave a totally unexpected, and vigorous thump in her breast... because David would.

Little Things About Him
 Nina was falling in love. It was the most extraordinary thing.

She told herself how fine David was—how much finer than Richard, how their only hint of trouble had been money trouble... and that that had been her fault, and was over now. . . . She told herself that David was extremely attractive, but that unlike Richard, he was putting that attractiveness toward getting ahead, doing something worth while. . . .

But she wasn't going herself into loving David, she was falling.
 Lord! Poor Nina, she ought to know!
 It was just as though he were a beau, or something.

Little things about him simply delighted her: his long, lean puppy loose-jointedness... his grin... the way he looked in his battered hat and more too new clothes... his crazy humor. . . .

The way he kissed her. . . . She found herself trying to look her best—not only because it was part of being a good wife—but because she wanted him to think her attractive. . . .

She had never felt any of this toward him before. . . .
 Nina had always been so busy thinking how fine he was, how good for her, how she admired his self-respecting attitude toward life. . . . but now all of a sudden, she was simply entranced with him... himself.

It had begun the day after her trip to Tarrytown, that late afternoon after Cordelia's departure, when she had asked him would he by any chance feel like kissing her. . . . and her heart had given that unexpected flip-flop, because he would.

There were three days in there, when life was heaven. . . .
 Nothing like a good house-cleaning of the soul—plus falling in love, to make life such a wonderful thing that your heart nears bursting. . . .

Shaw's Version Of Shakespeare Treated Lightly By Critics

LONDON, Nov. 18 (AP)—London critics, somewhat baffled, today gave merry rather than serious consideration to George Bernard Shaw's rewritten version of William Shakespeare's Cymbeline. The Evening News titled its review of last night's production of the play, "George Bernard Shaw." The review expressed the opinion that the abdication passage in the last act, which Shaw rewrote, was "not in the best of taste."

In an obvious allusion to former King Edward's abdication, the Irish playwright had one of the king's long lost sons, Cadwal, decline the throne when he is hailed as the heir after he and his brother, Polydore, are found.

In answer to the shouts of his supporters, Cadwal says in blank verse: "No, no! This kingly business has no charm for me—'Compelled to worship priest-invented gods, 'Not free to wed the woman of my choice."

Polydore retorts: "Do you by heavens? Thank you for nothing, my brother."

An editorial in The Star suggested Shakespeare had a better abdication piece in Richard II. The production was the fruit of Shaw's old threat that some day he would rewrite Shakespeare and improve him.

Pressed for a comment on the abdication passage, Shaw said: "You must not try to find in the passage more than there is on the surface."

Approximately 6,000,000 state hunting licenses are issued each year in the United States.

ITALY BOOSTS GAS TAX BY 40 PCT.

ROME, Nov. 18 (AP)—The Italian government, furthering its program to raise money for self-sufficiency development of the empire, clapped a 40 per cent increase on the gasoline tax today.

The levy raised the price of gasoline in Rome by 25 per cent, the new figure being 3.32 lire a liter or 66 cents a gallon.

on this particular tour, and has his first papers toward becoming an American citizen. He says he may stay here two months—and then again he may spend the next fifty years—if America continues to like him.
A son, Kafaal, who is 23 years old, has recently completed a tour of England as conductor of the Prague Philharmonic society. Last year he and his father played a concert for General Motors in New York City.
Accompanying Kubelik is Alexander Karaloff who only a month ago was selected to play for the artist. The two met at a private party in Hollywood where Karaloff played several numbers. So well pleased was Kubelik with the pianist's playing, he asked him to be his accompanist.
Karaloff is a native of Moscow, Russia, and was an honor graduate of the Moscow conservatory. He and his family have become citizens of the United States since moving to Hollywood 12 years ago.
He has appeared as soloist for the Hollywood Bowl Symphony orchestra and last summer toured Mexico.

Pledges No Govt. Competition In Housing Field
WASHINGTON, Nov. 18 (AP)—Nathan Straus, administrator of the United States Housing Authority, assured the United States chamber of commerce's housing conference today the authority's program would not compete with the private building industry.
He told 300 representatives of the building industry and chambers of commerce, assembled to consider means of stimulating private construction that "no competition with private industry is contemplated by me or, if I read the law right, is even possible under the act."
Straus, called by President Roosevelt to direct the $500,000,000 program authorized by the Wagner-Steagall housing act, said the authority's activities would be directed entirely at rehousing slum dwellers.

BIG REFINERY OPENED AT MT. PLEASANT
MOUNT PLEASANT, Nov. 18 (AP)—A two million dollar refinery on a field where a year ago a few weather-beaten bull yearlings prowled among the cotton and corn stalks was dedicated today.
Opening of the Talco Asphalt and Refining company's new plant was witnessed by a crowd of oil men and industrialists who gathered from all parts of Texas. Many came by special train.
Claude McDonald, mayor and president of the Mount Pleasant chamber of commerce, welcomed the new industry to Titus county, urging knowledge and use of home industry in the Southwest, and pointing to the huge refining plant as a milestone of progress.

SEPARATE MOTIONS ARGUED AT TRIAL
MADISON, Wis., Nov. 18 (AP)—Federal Judge Patrick T. Stone called upon defendants of the government's gasoline price-fixing case today to argue individual motions for dismissal of charges.
The judge denied yesterday a general motion to drop charges against all 19 oil companies and 45 individuals.
Argument on individual motions began yesterday, but the judge did not rule at once. He said, though, Archie Gray, Houston, Tex., Gulf Refining company and Gulf Oil corporation attorney, had made "a very persuasive statement."

TOO MUCH TURKEY
WASHINGTON, Nov. 18 (AP)—Eating turkey hour after hour gets to be a tedious business, a volunteer in the agriculture department's taste tests said today.
"If I keep you from wanting any dinner," sighed Rob R. Stocum of the bureau of agricultural economics.
Stocum said he and five partners couldn't relax and enjoy the free meal.
They had to pass judgment on aroma, texture, flavor of fat, flavor of lean, tenderness, quantity of juice and general conclusions—in such degrees as desirable, neutral, tough, pronounced, coarse, fine, good and poor.

DREDGE GOES DOWN
DALLAS, Nov. 18 (AP)—A $32,000 dredge rested on the bottom of White Rock lake today while city authorities and builders of the dredge wondered who was going to raise the craft out of six feet of water.
The dredge, which had been leaking several days, sank last night in a minute and a half, said George Webb, night watchman.
It had been in use only a few weeks. City Manager Hal Moseley said he would have to consult the purchase contract to see whether the city or the builders has to raise and repair the dredge.

PLANT CLOSED BY SIT-DOWN STRIKE
PONTIAC, Mich., Nov. 18 (AP)—The third General Motors Corporation sit-down strike in three days threw 17,500 workers into idleness here today and the local plant of the Fisher Body Co. again was held by strikers.
Although the previous interruptions were short-lived there were indications the present tie-up might continue longer.
Control of the plant was assumed late yesterday afternoon.
Because of the second Fisher sit-down here the Pontiac Motor Car Co., which employs 10,000, announced it would be closed until Monday.

FARM COMMITTEEMEN TO BE NAMED HERE ON NOV. 27

Election of community committeemen and alternates for the Howard County Agricultural Conservation association will be held in the county court room November 27, County Agent O. P. Griffin said Thursday.
Any person who will have an interest in any 1938 crop on a farm or livestock on any ranch located in the community may vote, declared the agent. This includes both landlord and tenants as well as sharecroppers. As a prerequisite to voting, members will register as intending to participate in the 1938 agricultural conservation or ranch program. Persons who are in the 1937 program may vote although arrangements have not been made for the 1938 farming operations.
First balloting will be for what is known as the eastern district or Community A. The ballots will contain the following names, one to be chosen, Glenn Cantrell, Willis Winters, H. C. Reid, and H. T. Adams.
Initial ballot for the western district or Community B will list A. J. Stallings, L. H. Thomas, M. L. Hamlin, W. T. Bly, and R. N. Adams.
Second ballots will be on candidates nominated from the floor and from which the other two members of the committee will be chosen to gather with one alternate community committee. The third ballot will be on nominations from the floor for a second alternate community committee.
All of the regular committeemen elected in the two communities will constitute the board of directors for the county association. This board will have in charge the administration of the agricultural and ranch program for 1938. They will select from their number a county committee of three members.
Any person who is engaged in farming or ranching or derives the principal part of his income from farming or ranching, is a resident of the community for which the committee acts, is not holding or does not become a candidate for public office, is not an officer, manager or employe of any political unit, does not actively solicit support for election as committeeman, does not have an immediate member of the family as a member of the county committee or of the same community committee, and has not been previously requested to resign as committeeman or officer of the association may be named as a committeeman.
The eastern district will meet at 10 a. m. and the western district at 2 p. m., for balloting on November 27.

HUNTERS SUCCESSFUL
Reports began to drift back to Big Spring today from the thatched country of Mason county and the rugged stretches of the Davis mountains of success in the quest for deer.
To H. W. Smith went premier honors with his 10-point buck bagged on the Henderson ranch in the Fort Davis region. Frank Powell dropped a four-point one, and the two have turned their attention toward bringing home a treasured kill—a bear.
From Mason county a party of hunters called Wednesday evening to report that Marshall Petty had bagged his limit in clipping two bucks. Grover C. Dunham, Tom Ashley, and Ray Million had dropped their first bucks but none had equalled Petty.

NO TEST REQUIRED OF THOSE HOLDING DRIVER LICENSES
AUSTIN, Nov. 18 (AP)—Public safety department officials today reminded that automobile drivers with permits issued prior to Nov. 15 are not required to take driving and physical tests.
Ralph Buell, chief, said headquarters and district offices of the driver's license bureau had been "swamped" by applicants fully 25 per cent of whom were not required to take examinations.
Buell explained the new license law applies only to first-time applicants. Holders of private and commercial permits issued before Nov. 15 may continue to drive without renewing them at this time.

SECOND STORY IS ON FIRST FLOOR
G. B. Walters obtained a permit Thursday to construct a double duplex as a two story affair. But—he also made it plain that both the first and the second stories would be ground floor.
To puzzled clerks he explained that the first ground floor would front on 1003 Main street, and that the second story or second ground floor would front on Runnels street. This portion of Runnels street (or Sheppard's Lane as it is correctly known) towers above Main street's level by more than a score feet.

COURTHOUSE GETTING A NEW BONNET
Howard county courthouse Thursday was receiving its first new bonnet in nearly three decades.
Contractors for the re-roofing job were ripping away clay tile covering placed about the building when constructed in 1909 and were replacing the materials with composition shingles. It was thought that the job might be finished by time 70th district court resumes its work Monday.
The city hall also is to receive a new covering.

FINAL ADJUSTMENTS ON FARM PAPERS
County committeemen began the task of making final adjustments on the 1937 farm papers Thursday and found that it would amount to more than a one day job. They had to back track to take care of a 47 acre excess in the total crop land and a 392 acre deficiency in the cotton base acreage. Yields likely will not be affected if acreage adjustments can be ironed out satisfactorily.

U.S. PREPARES NEW DUNS ON WAR DEBT
WASHINGTON, Nov. 18 (AP)—The United States prepared new bills today for 13 war debt nations to remind them they will owe $1,680,170,447 on Dec. 15.
There appeared little prospect, however, any country besides Finland would make a payment. The sum represents a semi-annual installment totaling $160,173,726, payments already in arrears of $1,519,996,720.

Howard Farmer's Seed Chosen For Standardization

Sam Little, veteran Howard county farmer, had 12 years of painstaking cotton breeding rewarded Wednesday evening when Knott cotton producers chose his seed for an attempt at standardization in that community.
His seed were chosen by eight of 10 producers attending a cotton parity. Little did not vote and the tenth man bought Little seed before leaving the meeting.
Little, known as one of the best farmers of this area, has a Mebane strain cotton and has possibly followed a closer watch and exercised greater care in breeding than any others in the county save the U. S. Experiment Farm.
A similar meeting is to be held at Vincent Thursday evening. The choice there is expected to be the Texas Mammoth variety bred by Von Roeder farms, just over the line in Borden county. Virtually all of the Vincent producers now raise that variety and have this year enjoyed a marketing advantage.

MAIL SERVICE FOR KNOTT IS CHANGED
A change which went into effect Thursday will give Knott an evening mail outlet to Big Spring. Na. Shick, postmaster, announced Thursday.
The change, he said, had been put through by the Knott postmaster. Pender Little is at present in charge of the office here.
Identical tour will be followed until the carrier reaches the Hamilton ranch box. The route then goes west to Knott where the evening mail is picked up, and then back to Big Spring.

CLEAN FALSE TEETH—GET RID OF STAINS
New Easy Way—No Brushing
Stera-Kleen, amazing new discovery, removes blackest stains, tartar, tartar like film of water and acid Stera-Kleen powder. No messy brushing. Recommended by dentists—approved by Good Housekeeping. At all drug stores. Money back if not delighted.

Club Women To Show Handiwork In Exhibits Here
Under the sponsorship of the Howard County Home Demonstration council, club women will display their candlewick bed spreads and woolen and feather fill comforts in a two-day show opening Friday at 10 a. m. in the old post office building on West Second street.
Miss Lora Farnsworth, county home demonstration agent, said there was no estimate to the number of articles to be "on display. However, it was believed that the number might reach two score.
The filling of feather comforts continued through Thursday in preparation for the show. Several of the light weight comforts have been made by the women here this year in addition to similar articles filled with wool.
Candlewick bedspread, equally tedious in composition, will furnish the more artistic turn for the show. Ribbons will be awarded to first, second and third place winners in the demonstrators exhibit and the cooperators exhibit.
Club women will conduct concessions in connection with the show, selling home cooked foods, it was announced.
