Atom Spies Are Ordered To Die Week Of June 15

NEW YORK (AP)—Condemned atom spies Julius and Ethel Rosenberg were sentenced today to die in the Sing Sing prison electric chair the week of June 15.

This was the fourth time Federal Judge Irving Kaufman had set the execution date amid a maze of continuing legal defense maneuvers.

Lawyers tried to have Kaufman postpone the setting of the date until next Monday. The Rosenbergs were accused of conspiracy to pass atom bomb secrets to Russia.

Kaufman said he could not remember "any case in our American courts which has received all the care and attention that this case has received."

Setting of the execution date again followed refusal of the Supreme Court this week for the third time to review the case.

ke, Taft Seek To Avoid Party Split On Korea

By JACK BELL WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower and Sen. Taft (R-Ohio) today avoided any party-splitting break in their relations despite some fundamental differences over U. S. policies in Korea and the Far East.

The White House took the initiative only a few hours after Eisenhower had said at a news conference that "No," he did not agree with Taft's assertion that the U. S. "might as well forget the United Nations as far as the Korean War is concerned."

Eisenhower aides called Taft's office to inquire about the health of the Senate Republican leader. They intimated the President planned to address a note of cheer to Taft, hospitalized in Cincinnati with an undiagnosed hip pain.

Eisenhower had sent such a message when the senator was in Walter Reed Hospital here last week for a checkup.

Taft was publicly silent about the President's disavowal of the Oltman proposal that the U. S. withdraw "from all further peace negotiations in Korea" if present truce talks fail.

But Robert A. Taft Jr., the senator's son, noted in a telephone interview from Cincinnati that Taft had said in his Tuesday night speech he was giving only his personal views on the Far Eastern situation and had said these views were not intended "as any criticism of what is being done or not done."

The senator's son said he is satisfied the difference of opinion could not be construed as a "break" with the President, nor would it be likely to be reflected in opposition to administration policies.

Taft is scheduled to return to Washington Sunday. The Eisenhower and Taft statements left the two most powerful men in the Republican party publicly at odds not only on the U. N.'s future role in the Far East but on the methods by which peace might be attained in that area.

Reds Reject Part Of UN Proposal

By ROBERT B. TUCKMAN and BILL SHINN MUNSAN (AP)—The Communists rejected outright at least part of an Allied truce plan submitted in a secret meeting at Panmunjom Monday.

Choi went out of his way to make clear that the letter represented "my personal point of view." However, it was known that the letter was approved by President Syngman Rhee and was taken by South Korean government leaders to represent the views of the Republic of Korea.

Choi boycotted the Monday truce session in a move unprecedented in the two year old negotiations. Government leaders have said the boycott would continue unless the U. N. Command withdraws or changes its proposal.

Neither Harrison at Munsan nor Gen. Mark Clark's U. N. headquarters in Tokyo would comment on the boycott threat.

State Highway Department maintenance forces were notified of the condition and were to attempt to remove the dirt.

British Smash Red Assault On The Hook

LONDON The War Office said today British troops in Korea have inflicted a "crushing defeat" on Communist forces attacking the Hook, about 12 miles east of Panmunjom.

A Communiqué said the Communists last night attacked the Hook, a key Western front stronghold, and were thrown back mainly by the Duke of Wellington Regiment, the King's Regiment and the Royal Artillery.

The size of the attacking Communist force was estimated at a brigade. No further details were available. Earlier reports from Korea said the Duke of Wellington Regiment was still holding firm on the Hook after beating back four Chinese Communist assaults between dusk and 3 a.m. today.

The fierce attack on the British positions was part of a general Communist assault on U. N. positions. The attacks were the heaviest this year.

1,200 Dismissed By Health Department

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Health, Education and Welfare Department has given dismissal notices to about 1,200 employees, because of budget cuts.

An official said today the notices were distributed this way: Public Health Service, a net cut of 1,000; Food and Drug Administration, 100; Office of Education, 50; and miscellaneous 50. The department, headed by Queta Culp Hobby, has about 37,500 employees.

The House voted $1,712,248,641 for the department, compared with an Eisenhower request of $1,722,544,870 and a recommendation in January by President Truman of $1,786,528,761.

Duke's Wife Subs For Queen At Final Coronation Rehearsal

LONDON (AP)—The final full-dress rehearsal of the coronation went off without a hitch today. Queen Elizabeth II knows her part so well she left it up to a stand-in to play her role.

Crowds outside Westminster Abbey got a good preview of the rich pageantry surrounding next Tuesday's big show. More than 1,200 persons took part in the 2 1/2 hour practice, carried out with all the trappings of the watchful eye of the Duke of Norfolk, who as earl marshal is directing the coronation.

The duke's wife played the role of the queen and won her husband's admiration for a "superb and supreme performance." Elizabeth was busy with affairs of state at Buckingham Palace during the rehearsal. The queen's failure to show up at the Abbey was disappointing to the crowd.

Those taking part in the practice run were permitted to wear their medieval ceremonial robes and modern street clothes. Young Queen Elizabeth II appointed the Duchess of Norfolk as her stand-in and the Queen's husband, the Duke of Edinburgh, had Sir Eric Mielville pinch-hitting for him.

It was reported the royal couple viewed the rehearsal from a box in the Abbey along with Queen Mother Elizabeth and Princess Margaret.

Two Women Are Beaten In NW City

Two women were beaten in separate disturbances in the "flats" last night, police reported. Another woman said she had been threatened.

Bessie Gonzales, of 608 NW 4th, was found by officers in the street near the north end of the west viaduct shortly before midnight. They said she was badly beaten about the face and head, and was unable to tell officers any details of the assault.

The woman was taken to Cowper Hospital where she still was undergoing examination and treatment this morning.

Maria Sallas was the other woman injured, police said. They reported she was struck on the head at Penn's Cafe, in northwest Big Spring. She was also taken to Cowper Hospital, but was discharged after receiving first aid.

Police said charges are due to be filed against another Latin American woman as a result of the attack on Maria Sallas.

Another woman last night reported a man had threatened to harm her. Officers were unable to locate the man, but kept a close watch on the woman's home.

REHEARSAL

ner headline in the Morning News Chronicle, it said merely: "The Queen Looks Radiant"—to Britons, that was the news of the day.

Meanwhile, it was made official that Elizabeth will be the first crowned British sovereign of modern times to possess no "Dominions."

The Privy Council, which advises the Queen in matters of high policy, erased the word "Dominion" from the precise description of the sovereign's relationship to the various elements of the British Commonwealth of Nations and the Queen signed the proclamation yesterday.

Although everyone has known about the change for months, publication of the order today made Her Majesty officially:

"Elizabeth the Second, by the grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and of her other realms and territories, Queen, Head of the Commonwealth, Defender of the Faith."

The old style was:

"Elizabeth the Second, by the grace of God of Great Britain, Ireland and the British Dominions beyond the seas Queen, Defender of the Faith."

But the new style insists it is "Elizabeth II," taking no note of the contention of many Scotsmen she should be known as "Elizabeth I" because the 17th Century Elizabeth was Queen of England but not of Scotland.

With such technicalities cleared away, London and other British cities displayed growing excitement.

Man Is Found Dead In Hospital Room

Juan B. Caranado, about 45, of Kent County, was found dead Thursday in a hospital room.

Justice of the Peace Cecil Nabors rendered a coroner's verdict of "death by strangulation, self inflicted."

Nabors said the man had lashed himself to a doorknob with a bed sheet. A hospital attendant had led the room only a few minutes earlier, and found Caranado dead when he returned.

Caranado had entered the hospital on May 11.

The body was at Nalley Funeral Home.

Protestants Score Colombia Situation

BOGOTA (U. N.)—The Evangelical Confederation of Colombia says the Roman Catholic Church and pro-government press have intensified a "malicious" campaign here to "place Protestantism in the same category as Communism and revolutionary banditry."

A periodic report by the Protestant organization last night cited 17 alleged incidents of persecution of Protestants from March 1 to April 30.

The report said a church and missionary residence in Atafquez was damaged by conflagration. In Bucaramanga authorities reportedly arrested an Adventist for removing a picture of President Robert Urdaneta Arbelaz from the door of a Protestant church. It was charged the arrested man was beaten, forced to eat a picture of the president and given the "water treatment."

In other cases, Protestants allegedly were arrested, threatened and intimidated. Several Americans were reported to have been involved. The report said:

A bullet struck near American missionary Rev. Frank Horning of Seattle during services in Barrancabermeja. In the same town, Rev. and Mrs. Joseph Knapp of Portland, Ore., received a threatening letter, allegedly signed by Catholics in the town.

The mayor of Quinchich, Caldas, prohibited the Rev. William Shillingsburg of Kansas City from holding Easter services in two churches of the Gospel Missionary Union. Catholic authorities in the past have denied any organized persecution of Protestants in this officially Catholic country and have said that "regrettable incidents" have been brought about by the anti-Catholicism or political activities of some Protestants.

IKE-TAFT

divide Korea unnaturally and it might release a million Chinese soldiers to be used against Nationalist-held Formosa and French Indochina.

If the truce efforts fail, Taft proposed that the U. S. tell England and other Allies that it is withdrawing from all further peace negotiations. He did not outline what further steps he would take.

"If you are going to go it alone one place," Eisenhower said, "you of course have to go it alone everywhere. . . . Our whole policy is based on this theory: No single nation can live alone in the world. We have to have friends."

Several hours after the news conference the White House granted newsmen permission to quote directly from Eisenhower's comments on the Taft speech. Normally, the President's remarks at news conferences may not be quoted directly.

These differences of opinion between the two men followed closely a well-marked division of views within the Republican party. Their public expression indicated the trend foreign policy debate is likely to take in Congress.

Taft's colleagues among Senate GOP leaders discounted talk of a break that might split the party, although none of them wanted to talk publicly about the differences between the President and the senator.

Sen. Saltonstall of Massachusetts, assistant GOP leader, didn't want to comment on either Taft's speech or Eisenhower's news conference remarks. But he added: "I have faith that the United Nations will be a helpful organization in maintaining the peace of the world and I am not ready to give up that faith."

In New York, U. N. delegates would not comment on publication, but they indicated that Eisenhower's stand had eased their minds considerably of concern which they felt over Taft's speech.

Sen. Bricker (R-Ohio) inclined toward the Taft view, and commented that so far "Congress hasn't had very much to say about the conduct of the Korean War."

But he, too, saw no "split" between Taft and the President and called for the "fullest presentation of both points of view."

Sen. Green (D-R) said Eisenhower was too easy on Taft.

"It should have had a much better effect both at home and abroad if Mr. Eisenhower had expressed the resentment he should have last night," Green declared.

"I should think the President would have resented Mr. Taft's statement because it handicaps him in foreign relations. It is not only bad taste but disloyalty to the President to throw a monkey wrench into the machinery of foreign relations, and that is what Taft has done."

Sen. Lehman (D-Lib, NY) said he agrees with Eisenhower "and I'm very glad he took that position."

"It may help to clear up some of the confusion," Lehman said. "Unless we are careful, we are going to break up the unity of the free world."

Sen. Cooper (R-Ky), a former U. S. delegate to the U. N. General Assembly, said in a speech here last night: "We should weigh the value of the United Nations from a selfish standpoint and then as a forum for negotiations for peace and we should not allow provocations and resentments to turn us against it."

In New York, Secretary of Commerce Weeks said in a speech: "Despite what you read in the papers, Bob Taft is giving the President of the United States great support. Despite some differences of opinion, we are molding the best team-play between the legislative and executive branches of the government that I have ever seen in Washington."

In Los Angeles, Sen. McCarran (D-Nev) said in an interview he agreed with Taft.

"If we had gone it alone at the outset, the war would be over by now and thousands of American boys killed in Korea would be alive today," McCarran said. "The United Nations angle of this con-

Badly Burned Child Undergoes Plastic Surgery

Little Lou Sullivan, 4, badly burned during the winter when her clothing caught fire, underwent surgery again this morning as doctors sought to repair damages the blaze caused to her body.

Her condition was reported satisfactory at noon, following plastic surgery on her abdomen.

Lou received another blood transfusion. Her father, C. J. Sullivan, furnished the blood—the sixth or seventh pint he has given in the past 12 weeks. Relatives reported there was insufficient time to call another donor, although other persons had offered to give the blood.

Gordon Gross, representing the IOOF Mullin Lodge, this morning reported Big Spring residents have contributed a total of $243.40 to help provide medical treatment for the little girl.

The money was turned over to the Sullivan family last night by Luther Coleman, noble grand for the lodge. Gross reported hospital and other expenses already amount to $1,654 and that the lodge is continuing its campaign to assist Lou.

3-Time Escapee From State Hospital Held In Holdup Of Bank

FORT WORTH (U. N.)—A Negro who escaped three times from the Terrell State Hospital was under $25,000 bond today, accused of robbing the Maybank State Bank of $2,095 Wednesday.

Mrs. Quentin Golladay, 35, assistant cashier of the bank, picked Harvey Bell Tutt of Fort Worth out of a police line-up yesterday as the man who forced her to lie on the floor as he rifled her tellers cage of currency and escaped.

Tutt, 26, last escaped from the Terrell mental institution May 17.

When captured yesterday at his sister's tavern here, Tutt had on a new gray suit with $129 in his pockets.

A search failed to turn up any more money.

Tutt has served a prison term for burglary and theft.

3 States Added To Dallas Office Of Internal Revenue

DALLAS (U. N.)—The nationwide reorganization of the internal revenue bureau will add Arkansas, Louisiana and New Mexico to the Dallas district.

The district now serves Texas and Oklahoma.

Outgoing district commissioner John B. Dunlap predicted a "slight" increase in the staff of the Dallas office. He said he doubted if the reorganization resulted in any local personnel, "other than myself," losing their jobs.

Assigned to Dallas office to replace Dunlap was Alfred W. Fleming, former district commissioner at Buffalo, one of the eight district offices eliminated in the shakeup.

Dunlap was national head of the bureau until last fall. He said he had no plans. "Right now, I'm looking forward to a long vacation this summer," he said.

Briton Offers Apartment To Texas Woman

CHICAGO (U. N.)—A gallant British business man offered his unoccupied, furnished 14-room home outside London today to a Texas widow who wants to see the coronation but can't find accommodations.

J. M. Murir formerly of London and now U. S. manager for a British firm with offices in Chicago says he wants to help out Mrs. Louise Cochran, 39, Houston real estate woman.

Determined to see the coronation Mrs. Cochran cabled Queen Elizabeth to arrange for accommodations. She said she got a reply saying reservations had been arranged. When she got to New York she was told the message from London apparently was a hoax.

Buckingham Palace officials said her cable had been received but no reply had been sent. Mrs. Cochran said she would continue to London anyway.

Muir read about her plight and immediately tried to reach Mrs. Cochran with his offer.

"I'm certain Mrs. Cochran would like the place," Muir said.

DALLAS (U. N.)—Civil defense administrator Val Petterson told Texas defense leaders yesterday Russia is capable of firing atomic missiles from the Gulf as far inland as Dallas.

Addressing 120 state, regional and local defense leaders, Petterson said Russia could attack every center in America with atomic and biological weapons.

"I think that if they attack the United States they will rain atomic missiles into the states from submarines off the coasts," Petterson said. "They are capable of pumping those missiles farther than 250 miles inland from a distance of 25 to 30 miles out."

Dunlap Quits After BIR Reorganization

WASHINGTON (AP)—The new Republican administration has abolished 11 of the 17 district commissioner offices set up last year by the outgoing Democratic administration when it reorganized the Bureau of Internal Revenue. Three new district commissioner offices have been established, dividing the nation and its territories, for tax purposes, into a new total of nine districts. The sweeping revision of the tax bureau's top field services swept out of office John B. Dunlap, who as Commissioner of Internal Revenue supervised last year's top-to-bottom reorganization. Before the change of administration, Jan. 20, Dunlap was made district commissioner at Dallas, Tex., where he had spent most of his career in the revenue service. Dunlap said in a letter made public here by the revenue bureau that the new reorganization would "result in great benefit to the public" and that he felt he could "best serve the bureau" now by getting out. His shift to Dallas had brought some Republican criticism. Dunlap resigned effective June 30. He had become Commissioner of Internal Revenue in April, 1951, in the midst of congressional investigations of the bureau. In a joint announcement yesterday, Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey and T. Coleman Andrews, the new commissioner, said the revision of last year's reorganization would take effect July 1. They called it a "first step in concentration on a business-like management program" and said it would:

1. Reduce the number of district offices from 17 to nine.
 2. Cut personnel in the field by 40, with a saving of two million dollars a year, and in Washington by 900, with a saving of four million dollars a year.
 3. Help bring in more taxes by freeing agents for additional checking of tax returns.
- Cities where district offices will remain are Boston, New York City, and Dallas. New district offices will be established in San Francisco, Omaha and Cincinnati. Cities where district offices are being abolished are Buffalo, Baltimore, Cleveland, Detroit, Louisville, Birmingham, St. Louis, St. Paul, Denver, Los Angeles and Seattle. The revision was hailed by Rep. Kean (R-N.J.), chairman of the House ways and means subcommittee which has been digging into revenue bureau scandals for two years. Sen. Williams (R-DeI) said he thought the changes would "help the efficiency" of the bureau and "are a step in the right direction."

Auto Workers Seek To Alter Briggs Contract

DETROIT (AP)—A new, higher wage agreement reached with the first of the "independent" auto-makers and with one supplier firm, the CIO United Auto Workers concentrated today on altering their still unexpired contract with Briggs Manufacturing Company. While they were pressing for alterations in their contracts, which legally can run to mid-1955, the UAW's top brass, however, had bumped into a snag in its attempts to settle a local wage dispute at Muncie, Ind. Leaders of striking Local 287 of the UAW refused Thursday night to submit to a vote of its 4,800 members a settlement agreed upon in Detroit by UAW's international officers. The local represents employees of the Warner gear division of the Borg-Warner Corp. and their strike, which started April 20, has idled 40,000 in such independents as Nash, Willys, Kaiser-Frazer and Studebaker. The independents depend on Borg-Warner for transmissions and other parts. The strike started over production standards and incentive pay. Nash-Kelvinator was the "independent" which agreed overnight to alter its contract, giving workers everything wage-wise that General Motors, Chrysler and Ford already had given. While the "Big Three" agreed to up maximum pensions from $120-$130 to $137.50 monthly, including federal social security payments, Nash-Kelvinator said that question to a joint committee for study and recommendation.

Tomb Of Unknown Soldier Honors All U.S. War Dead

TOMB OF THE UNKNOWN SOLDIER

By FRED GREENE
"Here lies in honored glory an American soldier, known but to God." These words are written on a tomb situated in Arlington National Cemetery at Arlington, Va. This is the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier, a tomb which Americans pay homage to daily, but particularly on Memorial Day and on Armistice Day. Though the body buried under this massive tomb is that of an unidentified American killed in World War I, this unknown soldier is saluted on behalf of all American war dead. He typifies the strength, unity, democratic ideals that make this great nation. He stands, too, for the freedom for which all Americans sought, are seeking and will continue to seek so long as nations remain divided. Although authorized in 1921, this tomb was given no particular name, but through a natural desire for a brief, usable designation, the memorial became known as "Tomb of the Unknown Soldier," and has acquired wide acceptance. Because the choice was limited to a member of the American Expeditionary Force in France and because of the word "soldier," there developed some feeling of discrimination. Some people thought of soldier in the narrower sense, meaning a member of the Army. However, the fact remains that the term "soldier" is not restricted to members of an army as contrasted with a navy. The expression equally applies to any person "engaged in military service"—an officer or a private. Thus, any member of the armed forces of a nation can be a soldier. Consequently, any attempt to narrow the meaning of the memorial tomb, and the men, it may honor, in the popular mind is unfortunate. Because the likeliest place to recover a body is from a battlefield, it is quite probable the man selected was from the U.S. Army. However, Marines played an outstanding role in the war, and the body could be that of a Marine. Even a member of the fledgling U.S. Army Air Force could be the Unknown Soldier in the form of a recovered airman's body. But the term soldier applies to all and the memorial extends to all men, of all races, of all creeds, of all colors. The inscription "An American soldier" makes this clear. The tomb's erection came about following authorization from Congress in 1923. Appropriation for it amounted to $50,000. A number of commissions were appointed to decide on the design of the monument following a contest. The chosen designer was Sculptor Thomas H. Jones, while Lorimer Rich was selected as architect. Both were New Yorkers. The tomb itself stands 11 feet high, eight feet wide at the base and five feet eight inches wide at the top. Length at the base is 13 feet 11 inches and at the top 11 feet seven inches. The stone is Yule (Colorado) marble, white and flawless. Four pieces make up the complete tomb, the subbase, base, capstone and die. Weight is 50 tons. The rear of the monument faces the famed cemetery's amphitheatre, while the front faces the nation's capitol. Carved on the front are the figures of Victory, Valor and Peace. An act of Congress in March, 1921, authorized the Secretary of War to "cause to be brought to the United States the body of an American, who was a member of the American Expeditionary Force, who served in Europe, who lost his life in the World War and whose identity has not been established, for burial in the Memorial Amphitheatre of the National Cemetery at Arlington, Va." Most American war dead in France were buried in cemeteries at Somme, Meuse-Argonne and Meuse-Argonne. On October 22, 1921, one coffin from each cemetery was transported to Chalons-sur-Marne. All were placed side by side in the city hall there. On October 24, Sgt. Edward Younger of the U.S. Army of Occupation, a hero who possessed numerous decorations, wore battle stars from four major engagements and who was wounded twice, was accorded the honor of choosing the Unknown Soldier. It was a dramatic moment when Sgt. Younger made his selection. American and French officers, along with leading citizens of Chalons, newspaper reporters and photographers, watched the solemn scene. Sgt. Younger walked slowly and silently around the coffins four times, then placed on the second casket from the right a spray of white roses. The sergeant saluted the Unknown Soldier, then retired. After others had rendered their salutes, the dead hero was transferred to another casket which bore the inscription "An unknown American who gave his life in the World War." A number of colorful and solemn ceremonies in honor of the Unknown Soldier were held in France before the casket left Le Havre aboard the U.S. cruiser Olympia, flagship of Admiral Dewey at Manila Bay. The ancient vessel had been reconditioned especially to carry the dead hero back to the United States. On November 9, the body arrived in Washington and ceremonies there marked the occasion. The casket was placed in the rotunda of the Capitol to lie in state for two days. Funeral was held at Arlington on Armistice Day. A guard of honor daily patrols the unknown hero's tomb. The guard mount is rotated between the three forts near Washington, Myer, Belvoir and Washington.

Nehru Sees Way To Settle Suez Dispute

CAIRO, Egypt (AP)—India's Prime Minister Nehru, after a 90-minute conference with Egypt's Premier (Maj. Gen. Mohammed Naguib) said today there was a "way of settlement" for the bitter Anglo-Egyptian dispute over military control of the Suez Canal. Nehru, who stopped off briefly in Cairo en route by air to the coronation of Queen Elizabeth in London, did not specify what it was. Naguib told reporters it would be "natural" for Nehru to support Egypt in the case. Nehru said he believed in the possibility of a solution despite the recent breakoff of talks between Britain and Egypt on the issue. The meeting in a small room at Cairo's airport was the first between the two Middle Eastern statesmen. Nehru told reporters, he felt the world situation was "certainly better" and said international tension would ease further if there were an armistice in Korea. Newsmen pressed him for comment on regional defense pacts such as the Western proposal for a Middle East Defense Command. Egypt has refused to participate so long as there are British troops in Suez. Nehru said that the right of peoples to national independence "generally should" take precedence over considerations of regional security but added: "The best way of approaching the problem of security should be by pushing out the danger of war. Then the question of security would be largely solved."

Most Of Nation Is Fair, Warm

By The Associated Press
There were wet spots in Western areas but generally fair and warmer weather was reported in most of the Eastern half of the nation today. Thunderstorms and showers hit sections in the Western Great Plains from Kansas to North Dakota and eastward into Minnesota. There also were thunderstorms about the Eastern slopes of the Rockies in Colorado and Wyoming. Showers also fell in the Northern and West-Central Rockies. A tornado struck Liberal, in southwestern Kansas, last night, damaging several buildings, including a new $150,000 30-unit motel. There were no casualties. The Weather Bureau had unconfirmed reports of blizzards striking at Newcastle, Wyo., and near Hayes, S. D. As warmer and more humid weather spread into the mid-continent, cooler air pushed into the Southern Plateau region and the Northern Plains. Hot weather continued in most of the Southeast and in Texas. Temperatures climbed to 97 in Lake Charles, La., and 96 in New Orleans, Thursday. But readings were above 100 degrees along the Rio Grande River in Texas with the top of 107 at Presidio.

Recount Of N.M. Votes Is Slated

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. (AP)—Officials launched preparations today for a recount due to start Monday, in New Mexico's contested U. S. Senate election. The way was cleared late yesterday for the recount brought on by charges from Republican Patrick J. Hurley that last fall's election of his opponent, Sen. Chavez (D-NM), was marred by irregularities. The two remaining major hurdles holding up proceedings were removed when the Senate Elections Subcommittee, headed by Sen. Barrett (R-Wyo.), rejected two requests from Chavez. The veteran New Mexico senator, who has held the seat since 1936, had asked that the contest be dismissed and that a bill of particulars be prepared detailing the voting irregularities his opponent alleged.

To Attend Exercises

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower will attend the Memorial Day exercises in Arlington National Cemetery tomorrow. The White House said the President will lay a wreath at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier and attend ceremonies, without making a speech himself, in the marble amphitheater.

The Way of Christian Love

PAUL ADVISES AFFECTION TO SOLVE CHURCH CONTROVERSIES

Scripture—1 Corinthians 12-15.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL

OUR LESSON assignment today comprises two of the most beautiful and helpful compositions in the New Testament. We know from previous lessons that the church in the great city of Corinth was far from harboring a spirit of brotherly love.

There was strife there, lawsuits were brought by brother against brother. There were schisms, jealousies, immoralities, boastfulness. The church certainly needed Paul's lesson of love.

In all the centuries since Paul's time there have been bitter divisions in Christian churches. The same faults that marred the Corinthian church have often been disrupting influences in the churches of today.

Disagreements over the interpretation of our Holy Bible; over church doctrine and practices; jealousies, quarrels of many kinds, are often rife. Every minister in every Christian church might well devote one sermon a year to the 12th chapter of 1 Corinthians, to remind members of what Christian love means.

Our commentator devotes his words to the 13th chapter of our lesson, but I think lessons are to is contributing his or her bit to help make the world a pleasant place in which to live.

"But covet earnestly the best gifts; and yet show I unto you a more excellent way," Paul ends the 12th chapter of this epistle. The better way is love.

"Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not love, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal."

"And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not love, I am nothing."

"Even if I give all my goods to feed the poor, or give my body to be burned, without love, it profiteth me nothing."

"Love suffereth long, and is kind; love envieth not; love vaunteth not itself; is not puffed up; doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil;

"Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth."

"Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things."

"Love never faileth; but whether

MEMORY VERSE
"Now abideth faith, hope and love, these three; and the greatest of these is love."—1 Corinthians 13:13.

be learned also from the 12th chapter, where Paul points out that each person is gifted in a different way.

"There are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit. And there are differences of administrations, but the same Lord. And there are diversities of operations, but it is the same God which worketh all in all."

Some have the gift of wisdom, Paul writes; to another faith is given; to another gifts of healing; to another the working of miracles; to another the gift of prophecy; to still another a gift of "diverse kinds of tongues."

Paul points out that no one need be envious of another because the latter has a different gift than himself. As all the parts of our bodies are necessary to us, but constitute a single body, so all the gifts of the various members of a church are necessary to the proper functioning of that body.

If we each use the gifts bestowed upon us—working faithfully, day by day to do our best, the business executive, the machinist, the laborer, the career woman, or housekeeper need not envy, or be puffed up either about his or her position in life. Each er there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away."

"When I was a child, I spake as a child, I thought as a child; but when I became a man, I put away childish things," writes Paul.

Childish things—are not envy, jealousy, hatred, peevishness, childish things that we should put away from us when we grow to physical adulthood? And are not these the faults we should help our children to outgrow?

"And now abideth faith, hope, love, these three; but the greatest of these is Love."

Members of church congregations might well read (and reflect) on those words of Paul's, and forget their differences, settling them in love rather than aggressiveness.

Disputes between married couples might end happily if they remembered the words of Paul, "Love suffereth long and is kind; doth not behave itself unseemly."

Parents who chide or punish their children would probably get better results if they too remembered that "Love never faileth."

State To Vote On 11 Proposed Amendments

By MARTHA COLE

AUSTIN (AP)—The Legislature left 11 proposed constitutional amendments for a vote of the people.

The election will be held on the same date of the General Election in November 1954.

This is the biggest package of proposed changes the Legislature has fixed up in recent years. It will make 213 suggested changes offered to the people since Texas adopted its present Constitution in 1876. Only 110 of these have been adopted.

The changes the Legislature approved this year would:

1. Require women to serve on juries in Texas. The people turned it down several years ago. Rep. DeWitt Hale, Corpus Christi, got it through the Legislature again this year.

2. Raise the present 35,000,000-a-year ceiling on state public welfare to 42 million dollars for the needy aged, needy blind and dependent children. Sen. Doyle Willis, Fort Worth, sponsored it. The people turned down the same proposal in 1951.

3. Raise the pay of legislators to $25 a day for the first 120 days of a session and drop them to nothing for any days thereafter of a session. They now get $10 a day for the first 120 days and $5 thereafter. The proposed change also would make the salaries now set in the Constitution for state officers the minimum salaries and let the Legislature raise them when they wanted to. The governor now gets $12,000 a year, the attorney general $10,000 and the rest $6,000.

4. Allow military personnel from Texas to vote. It requires them to vote in the county where they resided before entering military service.

5. Permit use of the unused part of the Confederate Pension Fund to erect two new state office and court buildings in Austin, a memorial to Texas' Confederate soldiers and grave markers for the soldiers who fought in the Texas War for Independence. Its sponsor, Sen. George Moffett, estimated six million dollars would be available.

6. Allow four-year terms for precinct, county and district elective officers. They now have two-year terms. Sen. J. P. Fuller of Port Arthur sponsored it.

7. Prohibit pledging the state's credit to support toll roads, by Sen. Dorsey Hardeman of San Angelo.

8. Allow a joint city-county hospital, to be supported by a tax up to 75 cents per $100 evaluation, after approved in a county election. It applies only to Harris, Dallas, Bexar, Tarrant, Galveston, El Paso, and Jefferson Counties.

9. Allow counties of 10,000 or less vote on whether they want a separate tax assessor-collector. The sheriff does the job now in such small counties.

10. Allow certain city employees to qualify for social security benefits.

11. Allow certain city employees and teachers to get credit for prior service when they switch from one retirement system to the other. By Sen. A. M. Alkin Jr., of Paris.

In all, 61 amendments were introduced.

Plan For Compulsory Narcotics Treatment To Be Given Congress

WASHINGTON (AP)—A plan for compulsory treatment of narcotics addicts, to be presented to Congress, was formulated yesterday by a committee of the National Association of Attorneys General.

The committee, headed by Atty. Gen. Nathaniel L. Goldstein of New York, said in a statement that the rising rate of drug addiction prompted the proposal for compulsory treatment under federal-state supervision.

Under the plan, the federal narcotics hospitals at Lexington, Ky., and Ft. Worth, Tex., would be used for the basic period of hospitalization, after which the states would assume care and treatment of patients.

Lone GAR Survivor Notes Memorial Day

By HERB COLEMAN

DULUTH, Minn. (AP)—Albert Henry Woolson has his blue serge suit with brass buttons cleaned and pressed and the "GAR" on his uniform cap sparkles.

Saturday is the old soldier's 84th Memorial Day and the 106-year-old Civil War veteran will be the center of Duluth's observance of the day.

A busy schedule has been set for Woolson, who Saturday—for the first time—will note Memorial Day without a single comrade in the Grand Army of the Republic (GAR). The organization once counted 408,489 members.

Named Vice Commander in Chief of the GAR at its last session, Woolson is the only survivor of the 2,573,000-man Union Army in the Civil War. James A. Hard, Rochester, N. Y., the only other Northern veteran, died March 12.

Memorial Day was first officially observed in 1869 on the order of Gen. John A. Logan, GAR commander.

Woolson's self-designed GAR uniform came back from the cleaners Thursday.

He will put it on and at 9 a. m. Saturday will lay a wreath on the soldiers' and sailors' monument in front of the Duluth Courthouse. A half hour later, he will get into a convertible and assume his post as honorary grand marshal of a parade down Duluth's main thoroughfare, Superior Street.

Then, in a ceremony at the Duluth Armory, he will receive a

Airmen Donated 214 Pints Of Blood To Area Campaign

A total of 402 pints of blood were contributed by citizens of Big Spring and airmen at Webb during the four days that the Red Cross Bloodmobile was here.

Quota for the city and base was 700 pints.

Airmen donated 214 pints during the two days the Bloodmobile was at Webb. In the city, 188 pints were contributed. Mrs. Morse Sawtelle, secretary of the Howard-Glasscock chapter of the Red Cross, reported there were no hitches in the four-day operation.

"I believe we could have taken twice as much blood the way we were set up," she said. "We had everything but donors."

Airmen donated 75 pints of blood Thursday, last day, the Bloodmobile was here. During the first day they donated 139 pints.

Gusty Surface Winds

Delegates Hear How Texas Clubs Excel

Texas women made a larger contribution for Dutch flood relief than the women of any other state, Mrs. Van Hook Stubbs of Wortham told the General Federation of Women's Clubs' national convention in Washington, D. C., Wednesday.

Mrs. Stubbs, president of the Texas Federated Clubs, also reported that the Texas clubs exceeded their quota in organizing new clubs last year.

Texas had been asked to start 20 new groups last year, Mrs. Stubbs reported, but more than 25 clubs have been organized. Texas has about 1,200 clubs with a membership of 75,000, she said in her report on Texas club activities.

"In the field of mental health we have encouraged clubs to present high school assembly programs on alcoholism, and we have introduced mental health studies in cooperation with the Hogg Foundation," she continued.

She reported on the Aid to Austria project and described the $1000 scholarship the Texas clubs are establishing for a student of psychiatric nursing.

Wives of Texas congressmen entertained the 30 Texas delegates at a luncheon after the report was made.

Mrs. Grover Johnson of Wichita Falls visited the White House Wednesday afternoon to see President Eisenhower. She presented a scroll signed by 250,000 Texas women asking that he appoint a Secretary of Peace with Cabinet status.

She explained to the President that the women did not expect him to act on the suggestion until an honorable settlement has been reached in Korea.

Sen. and Mrs. Price Daniel feted the Texas delegates with a tea in the Senator's office Wednesday afternoon.

Convention delegates passed a resolution Wednesday for revision of the McCarran-Walter Immigration Act in order to wipe out injustices. They also called for a constitutional amendment to limit the President's treaty-making powers so that any treaty conflicting with the Constitution would be nullified.

Mrs. Oveta Club Hooby of Houston Secretary of Welfare, spoke at the Wednesday night meeting. She commended the Federation for its projects on behalf of youth. She specifically mentioned the projects designed to curb juvenile delinquency, stimulate educational achievement and inspire participation in citizenship.

Following the business meeting, the group played games and danced. The president, Jack Lehive, treated the members to a coffee session at a local restaurant. Attending were 14 members and their sponsor, Mrs. L. D. Jenkins.

Local Students Are Initiated At NTSC

Social sororities and fraternities at North Texas State College have initiated three local students who have completed their pledgeship.

Mrs. Reagan and Mrs. Hickson served. Mrs. Thomas registered guests and Mrs. Porch displayed the gifts.

The honoree's corsage was of white and deep red carnations. White carnations corsages were presented to Mrs. Ethel Fowler, mother of the bride-elect, and Mrs. J. D. Jenkins Sr., mother of the prospective bridegroom.

Put garlic sliver through press or mince and crush; add and mix well right in container. Taste and add more caraway and salt if desired. Cover tightly. CEIL CHAPMAN DESIGNS FOR H.R.H. QUEEN ELIZABETH

On May 31, Miss Ceil Chapman will present her "Coronation" Dress to a representative of the British Government... a token of esteem and affection from the women of America. With the Queen's lovely fairness in mind, Miss Chapman designed this daytime or cocktail dress of soft blue to match her Majesty's blue eyes. Precious buttons, especially created for Elizabeth II, inspired by an authentic Elizabethan button in a beautifully-wrought gold setting with rubies and diamonds—in enameling of white, blue and green, afford elegant contrast to the regal simplicity of the frock.

This design can be obtained only through American Designers' Patterns by Spadea, who has the exclusive right to it. It is possible, through Spadea, for you to wear an exact copy of the Queen's dress.

It Is Fortunate The President Opposes Kicking Allies In Teeth.

On occasion the American people have reasons to thank their lucky stars that on questions of state their official spokesman is Dwight D. Eisenhower and not Robert Alphonso Taft. Tuesday was one of these occasions. In Cincinnati Senator Taft urged this country to abandon the United Nations in Korean negotiations and conduct them on its own. The leader of the majority in the Senate said the U. N. is an ineffective agency to prevent aggression and, as such, "might as well be forgotten for the moment."

Legislature Had Short Session; Left Number Of Things Undone

The 53d Texas Legislature was gathered to its fathers Wednesday leaving on the record a good many plus and minus signs. It was one of the shortest sessions of recent decades, and it achieved a balanced budget after a fashion. If left undone a number of things that subsequent sessions will have to rectify, notably a realistic program of highway development and a law to curb unconscionable loan sharks.

Washington Calling - Marquis Childs Undercurrent Of Revolt Noted In The Crucial Farm Belt Area

WASHINGTON - It all depends on whose dam is knocked out of the budget. That was demonstrated recently when political pressures with a powerful head of steam came down on the Bureau of the Budget. Under the stern eye of Budget Director Joseph M. Dodge, former Detroit banker, an appropriation for Oahe Dam in South Dakota had been thrown out with a lot of other requests for electric lines and power projects. This was part of the economy program.

This Day In Texas

The University of San Augustine received its charter from the Republic of Texas on this day in 1837, but it took the good citizens of the town five years to find a man of sufficient energy and intellectual attainments to head the school. Their choice was the Reverend Marcus Montrose, a Scotsman who claimed to have a degree from the University of Edinburgh although that institution had no record of his graduation.

At times the relationship between the President and the Ohio Republican who is his party's leader in the Senate must have been trying on both men. It has had its ups and downs.

Problem Of The American Dollar Faces Statesmen Of The Big 3

When the heads of state of the three great powers meet in Bermuda in the middle of June, they will not limit their discussions to the Korean War. The biggest problem they will face is the dollar—the American dollar. The British do not regard the Korean War as a war. To them it is a limited military action, as the American Marines used to practice in Nicaragua and Haiti, and such places. They have a similar problem in Malaya as the French have in Indo-China. So far as they are concerned, Korea should not interfere with the restoration of trade, so that the British can accumulate sufficient dollars to set themselves economically free from the United States.

Battle Memorial

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP)—This city is perhaps the only place in the country which annually recalls the battle of Selchey, the first major engagement involving United States troops in World War I. Seven platoons in a machine gun battalion of the 102nd (Yankee) division, consisting chiefly of New Haven men, were surrounded by Germans near Selchey, France. A counter-attack rescued them after 80 had been killed, 150 taken prisoners and 400 wounded. Each year, on the anniversary of the battle, city officials take part in a ceremony on New Haven green.

Tools On Hand For All Types Of Yard Work

Big Spring Hardware Company, 117 Main, has all kinds of tools and equipment for care of the yard.

J. W. Atkins, manager, states that the equipment extends from lawn mowers to weed pullers and from plant food to weed killer.

"We have everything in stock to help the homeowner have a beautiful yard," he said. "After a visit to us for the right kind of supplies, all that is necessary is a little effort."

Lawn mowers can be purchased which have motors or which have to be pushed along. Some of them have automatic sharpening on the blades. Also push carts for hawking grass, dirt, weeds, or anything else needed can be purchased to go with the mower.

Such things as hoes, spades, rakes shears and other standard yard equipment are abundantly stocked, Atkins said. Also hoses and sprayer systems can be purchased.

Atkins also has lawn supplies of all types to make grass grow or to kill weeds. "You name it and we have it," he said.

After the yard has been "perfected," other items such as barbecue equipment, lawn stoves, ice cream freezers, yard tables, etc. should be added. Big Spring Hardware also has all the "extra" equipment.

Such things as wading pools, play tents, and yard swings for the kiddies are also stocked.

Stationary 'Space Ship' Planned By AF

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — The Air Force plans to build a stationary "space ship" to study problems of high flying.

The school of aviation medicine says it is building a sealed cabin to simulate atmospheric conditions at altitudes of 100,000 feet or more.

The most distant galaxies visible by the largest telescopes are about two billion light-years away from the earth.

Homemakers Today Are Color Conscious

As never before, the fashion note in home decoration today calls for "fresh, sprightly colors — and in courageous combinations.

From Arthur W. Franklin, manager of Sherwin-Williams Branch in Big Spring, came this report today.

"Color consultants who study decorative trends are agreed that the American homemaker is more color conscious than ever," he said. "It is understandable when you consider that color for the home — in furnishings, in accessories and in wall and woodwork finishes — is more abundant and more readily available than ever before. The contribution of color to gracious living is tremendous."

In step with the Spring "Clean-Up, Paint-Up" theme, the homemaker is interested in how to beautify various rooms in the house, Franklin said.

"This year there is a trend," he continued, "to fresh sprightly color schemes. At paint stores are bins of bins. By that I mean that homemakers are doing their own color-styling, building individual color schemes. At paint stores are easy-to-use color guides. These show how to plan color combinations with confidence. They encourage the homemaker to express her personality in color."

Not so many years ago, remarked Franklin, it was his business "to supply protective coatings for the home," but today the emphasis is on "coats of decorative color."

"This reflects sensational advances made by the paint industry through research," he explained. "The truth is that today's paints provide better protection than in the past. The homemaker expects this degree of protection. Her principal interest, therefore, is focused on colorful beauty in the home, color schemes that can be achieved with today's versatile paints."

Mr. Franklin reported that the latex-base wall paint and synthetic woodwork enamel produced by his company is offered this year in 20 ready-to-use and matching colors in both types of finishes.

"By means of a custom color-mixing service," he said, "we can provide a great range of individual shades. The mixing is done in the store and according to tested formulas. A tiny light beam in a device called the Color Key makes intermixtures possible with laboratory precision. There is no guesswork whatever."

When such a mixture is formulated, a record card bearing a sample of the color is placed on file, together with the customer's name. This means the color can be duplicated promptly in the future.

"We who deal in paint and color," Mr. Franklin said, "were never better prepared to help Big Spring homemakers plan and carry out fresh color combinations for their homes."

Not only does the new Ford Golden Jubilee Model tractor, which has the most advanced hydraulic system of any tractor, it also has extra power with the great new "Red Tiger" engine, which is Ford's greatest tractor engine. It has new weight, size and ruggedness; a new high in comfort, convenience and safety, and sells at a new low Ford price, too.

The folks at the Big Spring Tractor Company on the Lamesa Highway point out that now in the new Golden Jubilee Model Ford's tractor engineers have provided a hydraulic system with a new high in speed of response, lifting power, dependability and usefulness.

gives almost instant response at all times when the tractor engine is running. It handles large implements and heavier loads, and with the exclusive Ford "Hy-Trol" hydraulic system the operator can conveniently choose the hydraulic speed to fit any particular job. An almost unlimited variety of remote cylinder operations is also possible.

In addition the operator has Ford Tractor's three-point triple-quick hookup for mounted implements, four-wheel stability, and many more "Ford First" features.

After farmers and industrial users have viewed and operated the new Ford Golden Jubilee Model tractor, they report, the more they have learned about how it brings new ease and speed to farming and industrial operations, with a new economy. Too! These new Ford Golden Jubilee Model Tractors may be seen at the Big Spring Tractor Company on the Lamesa Highway.

Rabbits were first introduced into Australia in 1837 and again in 1859 after which they spread as a pest and it is estimated there are some 300 million in the country now.

Joe Carr, Ward Are To Tangle In Finals

Yank Wallops Windrow, 5-4

BULLETIN
HOYLAKE, England — Defending champion Harvie Ward of Atlanta will meet Joe Carr of Ireland in the 36-hole final of the British Amateur Golf Championship tomorrow. Ward beat Arthur Perowne of England, 6 and 5. Carr turned back Cecil Beamish of Ireland, on the 19th hole in today's semi-finals.

HOYLAKE, England — Harvie Ward of Atlanta moved into the semi-final round in defense of his British Amateur Golf championship today when he walloped Cyril Windrow, 48, of England, 5 and 4.

Ward, the only American left in the tournament, won almost as he pleased, leading six up at the turn. Joe Carr, the Irish Walker Cup star who is expected to meet Ward in Saturday's final, also entered the semi-final, beating Joe Lambie of Scotland, one up.

Although the American showing in the British amateur this year has been the poorest of the post-war period, Ward's performance against an outclassed opponent established him a strong favorite. For three years the British Amateur final has been an all-American affair and there has been one American finalist every year since the tournament resumed in 1946.

In semi-final matches this afternoon, Ward was to meet Arthur Perowne of Norwich, England, a member of the 1949 British Walker Cup team. Carr was to meet another Irish player, Cecil Beamish. Perowne defeated J. W. Draper of Scotland, 4 and 3. In the quarter-finals and Beamish defeated Dixon Rawlinson of England, 4 and 3.

White Caps Lick Brownsville, 11-5

By The Associated Press
 Galveston kept the pressure on the rest of the Gulf Coast League, overcoming Brownsville, 11-5, Thursday night and stretching out another full game on Harlingen.

The back-sliding second-place Capitols fell four full back games off the pace when they were defeated by Texas City, 7-1.

Texas City swept the series from Harlingen with Billy Bagwell hurling nine-hit ball, for his ninth victory.

The Laredo Apaches continued their war-dance through the league, taking their sixth straight game by dropping Lake Charles, 13-12.

The game was the league's longest this season, but Laredo didn't really mind for it moved the Apaches into a fourth place tie with Port Arthur.

The Sea Hawks were clipped by Corpus Christi, 11-8.

Manhattan And Georgetown Share Spotlight In AAAA

NEW YORK — Manhattan's speed demons and Georgetown's distance dandies are expected to share the honors in the two-day intercollegiate A. A. A. track and field championships starting today at Triborough Stadium.

With a flock of sprinters and hurdlers led by Olympic 100-meter champion Lindsey Remigino, Manhattan was an overwhelming choice to retain its team title. Yale was the only school rated a chance to make it even closer.

Remigino, the 220-yard ICAA champ, is entered in both the century and the furlong alone with his roommate, Joe Schatz. Jack O'Connell, the third member of the sprint trio, will go only in the 100.

The Japers figure to pile up plenty of other points with Charley Pratt in the broad jump and high hurdles, Lou Jones and Ron Ferraro in the 330 and mile relay. Steve Dillon in the hammer and Frank Gaffney in the high jump.

Georgetown almost completed a unique sweep of the 880, mile and two mile runs last year. This year they may make it. Charley Capozzoli, the outstanding college two-miler in the country, and Miller Joe La Pierre won last year. Carl

San Angelo Loses To Artesia, 5-3
By The Associated Press
 The Carlsbad Potashers undid the tie at the top of the Longhorn League Thursday night when they leveled the Big Spring Broncos, 15-6.

They blasted out 22 hits and for the second consecutive night every man in the Carlsbad lineup had one hit.

San Angelo, after their brief stay in the league lead, fell from the soft, bowing to Artesia, 5-3. Roswell swept the series from Odessa with a 4-1 victory behind the five-hit bowing of rookie hurler Roland Becardi.

Lamesa was assured of staying in seventh place for another night when their game with Midland was postponed by a sandstorm.

Terwilliger Forced

Wayne Terwilliger (12), Washington second baseman, is forced at the keystone sack in the first inning of Yankees-Nats game at Yankee Stadium in New York City. Phil Rizzuto, New York shortstop, fires back to first in an attempt for a double play. The play started when Mickey Vernon, Nats first baseman, rapped a grounder to Yanks first baseman Joe Collins. Joe fired to Rizzuto for the force on Terwilliger and Phil whipped to Pitcher Eddie Lopat covering first, but too late for the DP. (AP Wirephoto).

Haas, Furgol Lead St. Louis Field

By ED WILKS
ST. LOUIS — Freddie Haas and Marty Furgol, showing unbecoming concern for Believer's stubborn par 70, lead the field today as the 50th annual Western Open Golf Tournament moves into second round play.

Haas, a New Orleans pro who doubles as a maker of golf clubs, and Furgol, the 1951 western winner from Lamont, Ill., broke par with 68, giving them a one stroke lead over Art Wall Jr., a youngster from Ponoco Manor, Pa., after yesterday's first round competition.

They were the only players to get the best of Believer's hilly, narrow, 6,574-yard course, although five entries tied for fourth with par-matching 70s.

Les Slatery Jr., a 26-year-old St. Louisan, led the amateurs by posting a 70 that led for a while. Then Al Bessellink of Grossinger, N. Y., Ed Furgol of St. Louis, in relation to Marty; Cary Middlecoff of Memphis and Dutch Har-risson of Ardmore, Okla., moved in.

Defending Champ Lloyd Mangrum of Chicago, who took the $2,400 first place money at Westwood County Club here a year ago, almost made it a six-way tie, but he ran into trouble on the 18th for a 71. That placed him in a tie with Tommy Bolt, Maplewood, N. J., and Skeet Riegel of Tulsa, Okla., who now makes appearances at only the major tournaments, holds the Believer record of 64. He posted that one last year in qualifying for the U. S. Open.

Yesterday he birdied the 9th, 10th and 11th holes and was on his way to a clear lead before he three-putted the par four 15th. He was on the edge of the green in two on the 405-yard hole.

Marty Furgol, playing as steadily as he did over the similar rolling fairways of the Davenport (Iowa) Country Club where he won the 1951 western, carded two birdies. One came on the 230-yard No. 8 when his drive carried to within 2 1/2 feet of the pin. The other was an 18-foot putt at the 12th.

Middlecoff, Bok and Riegel each carded 33s on the back nine, the best of the day.

Oilers Decision Engineers, 6-0
 The Oilers battered the Engineers, 6-0, in American Little League play here last night for their sixth straight win.

Preston Daniels hurled the Oilers to victory, stopping the Engineers with four blows. The Engineers collected three hits in the fourth but could not score.

The game was called in the fifth due to a power failure.

For the Oilers, Jack Thomas got two hits, as did Jimmy Parkhill. Chubby Moser accounted for three blows.

Raul Rubio, on the hill for the losers, yielded nine blows, in all. The game between the Legion and the Eagles was postponed due to winds and the power failure.

Broncs Flogged By Potashers Again, 15-6

By WILL GRIMSLEY
INDIANAPOLIS — The fabulous good weather luck of the Indianapolis 500-mile Speedway is expected to hold again tomorrow for the 37th death-defying edition of America's premier auto race.

The weatherman predicts rain clouds drifting east from Illinois won't hit this area until well after a new king of the nation's steering wheel jockeys is crowned in what officials say will be record time.

The forecast for the 20-lap grind around the brick and asphalt hudson, scheduled to start at 11 a. m. (EST), is cloudy and humid with the temperatures in the high 80's.

Should thundershowers strike sooner than anticipated, the event will be put off until Monday at the same time. But in all the years since the race began in 1911 there's only been one postponement—1915—and two curtailments—in 1926 at 400 miles and in 1950 at 345—because of bad weather.

Thirty-three of the fastest machines American ingenuity can devise, each manned by a race-hardened driver, will compete for a total purse of approximately $240,000. The crowd, traditionally the largest to pay for an American sports event, is expected to hit between 125,000 and 200,000. There will be no television but the race will be carried on a special 38-state radio network.

Everything points to a record-breaking performance — which would be the sixth in a row — if conditions permit.

Bill Vukovich, a 34-year-old descendant of Slovenian immigrants, won the pole position with the near record qualifying time of 138.392 miles per hour. He was one of 19 in the field to better a qualifying speed of 136 mph.

Vukovich was the hard luck guy of the 1952 race, leading until the last 25 miles when his steering gear failed. That opened the door for Troy Ruttman, who came churning home in a record 128.992 mph victory. Ruttman is out with an injury this year and won't defend.

Oldtimers around the pits predict it'll take 131 or better mph to prevail tomorrow.

Vukovich, of Fresno, Calif., and driving an original Kurtis-Kraft 500, may find his sterner opposition from two past champions, Johnny Parsons of Sherman Oaks, Calif., 1950 veteran, and Bill Holland 45-year-old veteran from Indianapolis who triumphed in 1949.

By The Associated Press
PLAINVIEW — Leading Lubbock Hubbers and their chief rivals, the Clarks Pioneers, didn't get to play their West Texas - New Mexico League game Thursday night but the rest of the league went at it hammer and tong.

The Plainview Ponies, fallen to fifth, bowled over Borger 15-7 in what was to be the opener of a doubleheader. The second game was rained out.

The Albuquerque Dukes got both of their games in, winning both ends of the doubleheader, from Pampa, 7-5 and 16-3.

Amarillo defeated Abilene, 9-7, with a break from the weatherman.

precision. It is being careful not to crown the wrong person.

That is the symbolism of the beginning of the coronation ceremony. The Queen will come in—central figure in a splendid procession—through the west doors of the church.

Westminster Abbey was built to accommodate coronation ceremonies. Unlike most other great churches and cathedrals, it has a wide, open space where nave and transepts meet.

The coronation service will give her the proper authority, and the first task of the Archbishop of Canterbury will be to establish that she is the proper person.

Empire's Business Went On As Mourning Elizabeth Took Over

At first there seemed little likelihood Elizabeth II ever would be Queen, but she has learned most of her life-time for the role appointed to her. She takes next Tuesday in Westminster Abbey. This is the last of four articles on her childhood, womanhood and the new career brought her by the death of her father last year.

By JAMES F. KING
LONDON (AP)—When she became Queen, Elizabeth, wearing slacks and a bush jacket, was perched in a giant fig tree watching rhinoceroses coming out of the African jungle to drink.

Since childhood she had been drilled in the art of royal deportment, of combining the regal manner with democratic understanding, of making pleasant small talk with strangers, of being both a symbol and a human being.

And when the moment came for her to assume the responsibilities of the crown of a world-girdling empire she was in a spot so remote that she did not learn of it until 12 hours later.

King George VI, who left a sick bed only a week before to see Elizabeth and her husband, Philip, off on a 50,000-mile royal tour that Australia and New Zealand, died in his sleep at Sandringham on Feb. 6, 1952. Elizabeth, stopping off in Kenya in East Africa for a look at one of Britain's most promising and habitable colonies—Mau Mau terrorists were not yet active—got the news the next afternoon.

Even on her flight back to London, the heartbroken 25-year-old girl was handed a batch of state papers to sign—the beginning of a daily ritual that would continue for the rest of her life. The business of the British monarchy never stops.

She bore up under her grief and responsibilities with all the regalness and humility in which she had been trained.

"I pray that God will help me to discharge worthily this heavy task that has been laid upon me so early in my life," she told her Privy Council at the first meeting in London.

Britain has had five reigning Queens before. None of these reigns was humdrum. Two were golden ages for Britain, the reigns of Elizabeth I and Victoria.

There is an old belief in England that the empire prospers when a woman is on the throne. The British want especially to believe that now.

The lines of empire have receded to a new low and bitter postwar poverty has diminished British prestige throughout the world. They hope that a new Elizabethan Age, in this day of the jet plane and the atom, is in the making with omens of good fortune for the Commonwealth.

Elizabeth herself tried to set the keynote of her reign in a broadcast last Christmas calling on the people for abiding faith in the British way of life and to "venture beyond the safety of the past."

The crown has lost its political power since the glorious reigns of Elizabeth and Victoria, but it still remains the pivot on which the whole Commonwealth turns.

Elizabeth probably is one of the busiest young women in the world with her duties as wife, mother and Queen. She lives, by a well-ordered timetable which sometimes is arranged as much as a year in advance.

Her office in the Belgian suite on the ground floor of Buckingham Palace is much like any office of a young woman business executive.

Here she signs the state documents and reads the secret papers brought by her ministers each morning, receives official callers and keeps minutely informed on the political, social, economic and constitutional intricacies of the empire and all the ramified affairs of the world.

The Queen usually is up at 7 a. m. and begins the day by listening to the 8 o'clock news broadcast. Then she breakfasts with her husband and pores over the morning newspapers.

Elizabeth, a horse racing enthusiast who on occasion has been thrown from her mount, and Philip a cricket and polo player of standing, always scan the sports pages along with the stories of more moment.

Before the working day, their youngsters are brought in for a half hour's play with her parents. Wide-eyed Charles, 4, is a curious lad and is always popping questions. Princess Anne, almost 3, tries to curtsy and usually falls over.

The first round of callers to the Queen's office—government officials, foreign diplomats and other dignitaries—usually begins at 11:30 after she has read documents and dispatches. Sometimes she receives 18 or 20 such callers in a week. They often are invited to stay for lunch.

The young Queen has a retentive memory for names, faces and details, and is a friendly and easy-to-talk-to conversationalist.

Outside public engagements—ranging from impromptu tours, such as a recent visit to flood-stricken areas, to accepting the presidency of a new hospital or attending a full-dress social function—take up much afternoon time.

Elizabeth always tries to be back at the palace by 5 p. m. for the big moment of her day—an hour in the nursery with the children. She reads to them—cowboy and Indian stories for Charles, nursery rhymes for Anne.

Even Sir Winston Churchill—knighthood by Elizabeth—has to take a back seat for the youngsters. By custom, the Prime Minister makes a weekly report to the monarch, usually on Tuesday at 5:30 p. m. But at Elizabeth's request, Churchill has put it off an hour to give the Queen more time to see her children to bed.

During the day, Prince Philip is often "on the road" as his wife's envoy—visiting a coal mine or opening a new playground. The queen's subjects have come to regard him as a "good bloke" because of his informal manner.

On occasion the royal couple have a night out—attending the theater or opening some entertainment for charity. Philip enjoys Naval drinks, beer and gin, while Elizabeth sips an occasional cocktail.

Money is no particular problem to this young couple, but the royal household does have to be run on a budget like any other home.

The Queen probably is the highest paid young lady in the world. She is allotted 1,300,000 pounds ($3,724,000) a year to run her vast households.

As Queen she has been faced with two personal crises. The first involved the arrangements for the intricate pageantry of her father's state funeral and burial at Windsor Castle.

The second was the death on March 24 of 85-year-old Queen Mary, the grandmother who had taught Elizabeth from an experience that had spanned the placid Victorian Age, Two World Wars, an abdication and a cold war.

The coronation date had already been set for June 2 and all the plans and arrangements were far advanced, and it was her wish that nothing interfere with them. The period of court mourning was cut short to one month in order that the coronation plans could go ahead.

Forrest Meadows, who farms in the West Lorraine area of Mitchell County harvested his first year alfalfa planting for hay recently. He reports it made near a ton to the acre on the initial cutting. This field was irrigated with sprinkler type irrigation during the winter and spring months. Meadows appears to be well sold on the value of alfalfa both as a soil conservation crop and as a cash crop. Incidentally, the alfalfa patch did not suffer any bad effects from the recent severe dust storm which played over the area for several days. The ground was so well covered that the damaging winds couldn't reach the surface of the soil.

"Water For Texas" will be the timely theme of the Agriculture Show at the 1953 State Fair of Texas which opens Oct. 10 and continues for two weeks.

The show will take the form of a gigantic, three-dimensional "Agriculturama" that will show how Texas farmers are trying to meet their important water resources problems.

A large central exhibit will feature old Mother Nature herself, turning the crank on a "weather machine" that will cause simulated rain, thunder and lightning at intervals. The "hydrological cycle"—describing what happens to water after it falls as rain and how it is returned to the atmosphere again—will be portrayed. The rainfall belt in Texas will be illustrated to show the relation of water to farming and ranching on a state-wide basis.

E. C. English, agriculture chairman of the Fair, says water was chosen as the central theme of the show because it is one of the most important single factors in today's agricultural economy, especially in Texas.

"Many people don't realize the vast quantity of water required to produce farm crops, or the enormous amount that just one plant consumes in growing to maturity," English explains. "Many Texans also have little notion of the importance of irrigation to farmers in some sections of the state. Texas actually ranks second in the nation in areas under irrigation."

Record prices were set for Short-horns at the recent Scofield Short-horn sale in Austin. Top bull brought $26,000, and top female $14,000. Scofield's ten bulls averaged $3,757 and 22 females brought $2,767. Guest consignors saw their 18 head go at an average of $750.

The high-selling bull was Cruggleton Rainey, bred in Scotland, which went to W. R. Bronk, Houston, Texas. Top female was Circle M Mysis 3d bred by Circle M Ranch, Salisbury, N. C. selling to Mrs. Roberta Dickson, Austin, Texas. No female sold for less than $900, and other high prices were $3,000, $4,000, and $3,500.

Total of the sale, including consignments from J. Doss Miller, DeLeon, Texas; Riverside Ranch, Taylor, Texas; Marquart Ranch, Bartlett, Texas; and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Fenstermaker, San Antonio, Texas, came to $111,855.

The top bull price was the highest since 1947 when Pittodrie Upright sold for $34,000 at the Sul-A-Bar Farm Dispersion sale in Grain Valley, Mo. The high female price capped last year's modern record of $10,000 for a heifer at the Edelynn Farm sale, Wilton, Ill.

Bronk was top buyer at the sale, taking 18 lots. Others prominent in the buying were Hawthorne Farm, Marshall, Va.; Rancho Mission Viejo, San Juan Capistrano, Calif.; Adele M. Smith, Lyford, Tex.; Louisiana State University; R. E. Smith, Houston, Tex.; Bill Emmen, Burney, Tex.; and Mrs. Marie Thompson Gollad, Tex.

Travis Dean, who farms in Dawson County, two miles north of Cotton Center, has worked out a conservation program for his farm with the assistance of farm planners from the Lamesa Unit of the Soil Conservation Service. He plans to farm on the contour and to plant some Guar this year as a soil-building crop.

Soils surveys have been completed on the farm of J. O. Goodson, four miles east of Midway, and on the farm of O. E. Boatright and the farm of Lee Hancock in the Arvona Community in Dawson County.

These soil surveys show the type of soil, the slope of the land and the amount of erosion that has taken place on each acre of these farms. These surveys give the farmer and the farm planner the same information as an inventory gives a store owner. In either event each knows just what he has to work with.

At a special meeting of the Board of Supervisors of the Dawson Soil Conservation District they approved conservation plans for the farms of D. W. Kroger, Herbert Greene, D. V. Wade, Paul W. Morgan, Monroe Davis, Dan Corley, Raymond Orson, John Ranta (Joe Haney farm), A. L. Goode, A. C. Goode (and for A. C. Goode on the Mrs. O. E. Kee farm), Dennis Mix and Lum Holder, Mrs. E. J. Turner and J. E. Aihart, Mrs. H. M. Scott and Glenn Scott; Sybil Mitchell, J. Altus Hudson, and J. R. Middleton.

The board also ordered a special built four-row grass and legume drill which drills four 40-inch rows at one operation. This drill will be delivered to the board by June 1 and will be available to local farmers and ranchers for planting grasses and legumes.

Banner Dairies Is Merged With Foremost Firm

DALLAS (AP)—A large West Texas milk products firm, Banner Dairies of Abilene, merged yesterday with Foremost Dairies Inc., of Jacksonville, Fla.

Banner will now be known as the Banner division of Foremost Dairies, a wholly owned subsidiary of Foremost.

A statement by officials of both companies said: "No change in management, personnel or policies toward producers supplying milk to Banner Dairies is contemplated."

The Banner market for West Texas farmers and dairymen will be continued, the announcement said, "and enlarged as improved as quickly as possible under the new affiliate arrangement."

The Banner market area encompasses some 45 counties surrounding Abilene, Big Spring, Midland, Odessa, Monahans, San Angelo and Brownwood.

Banner plants are at Abilene, Big Spring, Brownwood, Midland and San Angelo. Distributing points are: Arson, Ballinger, Breckenridge, Munday, Odessa, Roscoe, Santa Anna, Seagraves, Seminole and Winters. The consolidation came through an exchange of stock. Banner stockholders became shareholders in the Foremost corporation.

O. D. Dillingham, president; and his sons, Dan, secretary-treasurer; and Richard, vice president, represented Banner. On hand for Foremost to close the deal were Paul Reinhold, board chairman; E. L. Volkwein, vice president; and Lloyd Hughes, vice president in charge of the Southwest division.

A special train may be run to and from the National Polled Hereford Show and Sale at San Francisco, Nov. 24, carrying Polled Hereford breeders, members of their families and friends, from all points east of the Rocky Mountains.

The primary object behind the idea for the special train is to provide a simple and congenial means for large numbers of Polled Hereford supporters to travel to the giant 1953 National together. It is tentatively proposed that the special train will originate in Kansas City and while traveling the most direct route to San Francisco will make brief stops at Denver and Cheyenne to pick up other members of the Polled Hereford fraternity. A tentative schedule shows the train leaving Kansas City at 7 p. m., Oct. 30 and arriving in San Francisco at 8:30 p. m., Nov. 1, the day before the start of the 1953 National. The tentative schedule provides for the passengers to remain in San Francisco for three days after the end of the National thus allowing the travelers an opportunity for sight-seeing and a chance to visit Polled Hereford ranches in California. According to this suggested schedule the special train would arrive back in Kansas City at noon Nov. 10.

Any person interested in booking passage is invited to write to the American Polled Hereford Association, 1110 Grand Avenue, Kansas City, 6, Missouri.
