Lyme Disease First Detection In U.S. Was Connecticut

(Editor's note: This is the third in a series on Lyme Disease, which has invaded this area.)

The following information is from Dr. Audrey Stein-Goldings who specializes in the diagnosis and treatment of Lyme Disease:

Red Steagall To Perform Here July 4

Muleshoe and area folks are in for a real treat on July 4th, when Joe's Boot Shop brings recording artist Red Steagall to town for free entertainment.

He will be the special guest of Joe's Boot Shop on July Fourth during the Boot Shop's Proud To Be An American Boot Tent Sale.

Red Steagall has always been a cowboy, at least in his heart and in his mind.

While growing up in the ranching country of the Texas Panhandle, he learned the skill and cow savvy of the men who worked the range. He knew the songs of the range by the time he started to school and since that period in his life, his favorite songs have always been about cowboys.

His music, poetry and homespun wit have charmed audiences from the Arbuckle Mountains to the White House lawn.

In constant demand, Red has performed an average of 200 days per year over the last 12 years including major rodeo performances, concert tours, convention presentations, radio and television commercials and numerous fair appearances. The reason for his success is simple. Audiences love him. He draws a crowd every time. And gets asked back year after year.

Red Steagall will be performing at the Cowboy Gathering at Marshall Auditorium in Clovis at 7:30 p.m. on Saturday, May 11.

IF YOU HAVE BEEN BITTEN BY A TICK, WILL YOU NECESSARILY GET LYME DISEASE?

No. First of all, it may not be a deer tick. Second, if it is a deer tick, it may not be infected. In the East, infection rates among ticks may average 30 to 60 percent but go up to 90 percent. In the West, rates are much lower, being present in only one to two percent of deer ticks.

It is not known the percentage of ticks that may be infected here in Texas. Even if the tick is infected, it may not transfer the bacteria to you. The longer the tick is attached to your skin the greater the risk of transmission of the germ. Researchers estimate that the probability of infection is low during the first couple of hours.

If an infected tick stays on you for its full feeding (48 hours for a nymph, on average; up to a week for an adult tick), your risk may approach 50 percent. Health. The researchers found that most of the patients with the arthritis lived in heavily wooded areas and also that the first symptoms began in the summer.

In addition, the disease was not contagious from person to person. Curiously, several patients remember having had a bull's-eye shaped red skin rash named Erythema Chronicum Migrans (ECM) had actually been described by a Swedish physician in 1909.

Doctors knew that these patients had been bitten by a sheep tick before the rash started. It also became clear that Lyme arthritis was actually a more complex illness that not only involved the skin, but nerves and heart of both children and adults.

Europeans had also described earlier this century neurological involvement associated with an expanding skin lesion following a tick bite they called Bannwarth's syndrome. Since the skin rash was later found to be the root of the illness rather than a virus which would not respond to an antibiotic.

In 1982 Dr. Willy Burgdorfer was able to find within a tick the spirochete (a form of bacteria) that causes Lyme Disease. This discovery was a major step

Methodist Youth Plan Bike Rally

Each year, the youth of First United Methodist Church have a Bike-A-Thon to raise money for a service project.

This year, the youth have chosen CFF (Cystic Fibrosis Foundation). CFF is a voluntary non-profit organization dedicated to finding a cure and control for Cystic Fibrosis and to improving the quality of life for the 30,000 people with this disease.

The Bike Rally will be held at 2 p. m. on Sunday, May 5. All riders are asked to meet at the First United Methodist Church at that time. Instead of competing individually, the riders will compete in teams of two only. Either bring a friend to ride with you, or someone will be assigned to ride with you.

Also, the Bike Rally is open to anyone who wants to ride. There are plenty of pledge sheets, and you must have at least $5 in pledges to compete for a trophy. For pledge sheets, call Susan or Jimmy Wedel at 272-5901.

You will ride your bikes to various locations across town, searching for clues and answering questions to gain points and lead you along the route. There are a possible 100 points to be earned -- and best of all -- trophies will be awarded for first place in each age category, as well as a trophy for the most pledges collected.

Library News

By Anne Camp

We had a great National Library Week in Muleshoe, not only here at the Muleshoe Area Public Library, but at the Public Schools as well. We are very proud of our "Library Family of the Year," Kristy and Arnold Price and children. They have been library users for many years, and all seem to enjoy reading, and have a good library record.

We want to express our appreciation and thanks to all who helped make Library Week a success. First, the Friends of the Library who sponsored our annual book sale. It was one of the best ones we have ever had! Thanks to all the news media, The Muleshoe and Bailey County Journals, Howard from the Ranger, for coming to make pictures, KMUL Radio for all the announcements, and Magann from Channel 6 for all the announcements, and for coming and making a video. All the people who gave us donations of books for the sale, and all the people who came and bought books during the week, to Jennyslippers for the donation. We really appreciate it all!

We received bids on two sets of encyclopedia, The Book of Knowledge, and The Britannica Junior. Linda Turner outbid the others for the Book of Knowledge set, and Pam Hancock got the Britannica Junior set. Congratulations to both of you, and we hope you enjoy them very much!

The Reference section of the library received a nice donation of a 21 volume set of Thomas Register of American Manufacturers, an excellent listing of all major Companies with their addresses, telephone numbers, and officials, as well as the products. Thanks to Richard Clackman for these useful books.

We now have two copies of the unauthorized biography of Nancy Reagan by Kitty Kelly, if you want to read this as everybody seems to, give us a call, and we will put it on reserve for you. We also got a biography of Saddam Hussein, which may not be as popular, but may be very interesting. Call 272-4707 to reserve either.

Reunion

An enthusiastic group of residents and former residents of the Progress community met Sunday afternoon to plan the first reunion for Progress. The school was built in 1926 and held classes for some 22 years before consolidating with the Muleshoe Schools.

Those meeting were Mr. and Mrs. Phil Garrett, Mattie Hicks, Mr. and Mrs. J.E. Wilhite, James Meason, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ramm, Billie Downing and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Shanks from Amarillo.

All former students of the school, teachers, and personnel are invited to attend this reunion to be held on July 6. Anyone having information to the addresses of these people are asked to please contact the committee. Also, names of the earliest class members are needed.

All current and former residents of the community, former members of the Methodist Church, present and former members of the Baptist Church or the earlier Union Sunday School, are invited to attend.

There will be a coffee on the morning of July 6 from 9:30 to 11 a.m.

"Please respond to Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ramm, Route 2, Muleshoe, Texas PH 925-6421; or Mr. and Mrs. J.E. Wilhite, 1816 W. Ave. C Muleshoe, Texas, PH 272-5062" said Billie Downing.

BROTHERS SELECTED--These Lazbuddie brothers were selected February Citizens of the Month. Junior Godinez is a 5th grader, and David Godinez is in pre-kindergarten. They are the sons of Armando Godinez. (Guest Photo)

Senior Citizens News

The Muleshoe Senior Citizens met at the Old Depot on Monday, April 22 for their regular covered dish luncheon and meeting.

Bro. Edwards gave the invocation. Twenty-five were present for the meal and fellowship. Two visitors were also present, Bro. Richard Edwards, pastor of the First United Methodist Church, and Carol Delaney, Home Health Care Nurse.

Odessa Shanks had charge of the program. Bro. Edwards showed a film of his trip to the Holy Land. It was the journey of Jesus' life. He recited the scripture that went with each picture.

Ms. Delaney told the group about Home Health Care. It was reported that they work very closely with the doctors. It was informative and they do a good service for home bound people, according to their reporter.

She also checked the blood pressure of those attending the meeting.

The president, Katie Rubinek had charge of the business. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and the treasurer's report given.

Two celebrated birthdays, Mildred Head and Goldie Slaughter.

A get well card was sent to Sherman Inman, and the closing prayer was given by J.C. Shanks.

MARSHA WILSON

Marsha Wilson To Participate In Miss Teenage Texas

On March 1-4, Marsha Wilson was selected to participate in the 1991, Miss Teenage Texas Pageant in Houston. Young ladies from throughout the state submitted applications. Out of close to six thousand submitted, 145 state finalists were then chosen. The judging was based on personality, school activities and poise/appearance. Miss Wilson had the honors of being a semi-finalist in the top 30.

At the finals, seven special awards were given and Miss Wilson received the Teen Image Award. This award was for the person whom the judges felt demonstrated the best image of teenagers today.

Mia Jennings, of Lazbuddie, also had the honor of being a contestant and was selected to be in the top 30. Miss Jennings also received The Most Academic Achievement Award.

West Texas was well represented, it is a great accomplishment when two young ladies from small towns can compete and be successful against larger towns such as Dallas and San Antonio.

The Muleshoe Kiwanis, Rotary and Lions Clubs sponsored Miss Wilson. She stated that she would like to send a very warm Thank You to her sponsors for whom without she could not have had a chance to represent Muleshoe, gain so much experience or receive the honors she did.

One month later, April 12th through 13th, Marsha then had the honor of competing in the 1991 Miss Texas Homecoming Queen Pageant in Dallas.

Homecoming Queens throughout the state were given a chance to submit an application and out of over 600 submitted around 65 finalists were chosen. There were two categories of judging, interview and evening gown competition. The ladies were interviewed by three judges individually in private. Then they were judged once more during a banquet in evening gowns.

The top ten were chosen and asked a spontaneous question while on stage.

Marsha had the honor of being selected First Runner-Up. If for any reason the young lady who won can't compete in the National Homecoming Queen Pageant in July, which will be held in Hawaii, Marsha will represent Texas.

Creative Living

by: Sheryl Borden

Information on making hand-painted adult-wear and preparing some classic casseroles will be the featured topics on "Creative Living" on Tuesday, April 30 at 12 noon and Saturday, May 4 at 2 p.m. (All times are Mountain.) "Creative Living" airs on public broadcasting station, KENW-TV, from Eastern New Mexico University.

Sue Gholson, an artist and pattern designer from Tucumcari, N.M., will show how to create some beautiful wearable art for adults. She will present an array of clothing items--including sweats, tops, skirts, dresses, jackets and even shoes.

Linda Funk, spokesperson for the Wisconsin Milk Marketing Board in Madison, WI, will share some classic casseroles from America's heartland.

On Tuesday, April 30 at 9:30 p.m. and on Thursday, May 2 at 12 noon, "Creative Living" will present information on spices and ways that businesses can get involved in recycling.

Ona Scandurra, representative of the American Spice Trade Association in New York, will make suggestions about ways to cut down on salt and sodium in the diet. One way is to replace the salt in your salt shaker with a low-sodium seasoning blend--which she will demonstrate.

Helen Hatton, spokesperson for the Paper Bag Division of the American Paper Institute, will talk about how businesses are getting involved in recycling. Ms. Hatton is from Toronto, Canada.

"Creative Living" is produced and hosted by Sheryl

Borden. The show is carried on more than 100 PBS stations in the United States, Canada, Guam and Puerto Rico and is distributed by Pacific Mountain Network, Denver, CO. # Lyme Disease

HOW SHOULD YOU REMOVE A TICK?

Use tweezers to grasp the tick as close to your skin as possible. Pull it straight out. You don't want to do anything else that will irritate the tick and cause it to inject more germs into your skin.

IS LYME DISEASE A NEW DISEASE?

The history of Lyme Disease is rather fascinating. It was first recognized in 1976 by Dr. Allen Steere when he was at Yale University in Connecticut. There was an unusual cluster of children living in three towns on the coast of Connecticut, including Lyme, who developed joint disease initially diagnosed as juvenile rheumatoid arthritis.

In 1975 two mothers became very suspicious that something else was brewing and brought it to the attention of the Connecticut State Department of Health in being able to tie the whole worldwide picture of Lyme Disease together, as well as become the springboard for further research regarding the biology, treatment, and prevention of this disease.

WHO GETS LYME DISEASE?

Anybody can get Lyme Disease. People who frequent the woods and forest edges such as campers, hikers, outdoor workers, and deer hunters are generally more likely to come into contact with ticks. However, Lyme Disease has also become a suburban illness because new home development has encroached on the woodland. Ticks feed mostly on deer, field mice, and other forest animals. Other hosts for the ticks include birds, dogs, cats, horses, cattle and humans. Dog and cat owners are more likely to get Lyme Disease because their pets may bring the ticks home with them from their wanderings.

WHAT ARE THE SYMPTOMS?

Lyme Disease may occur in stages, however, they overlap and not all patients go through all three. It usually starts with a slowly expanding red rash called Erythema Migrans that starts at the site of the bite. The rash may grow in a circular pattern and look like a bull's eye. Up to one half of patients, however, do not recall having had the rash. The skin lesion may re-occur even after it has gone away.

Other symptoms include paralysis, pain, arrhythmia. Weeks or months later, some people experience severe headaches, muscle pain, facial paralysis, abnormal heart rhythms and inflammation of the heart walls and surrounding sac.

Recurring arthritis symptoms with increased swelling and pain.

Because many of these symptoms resemble those of gout, chronic fatigue and even multiple sclerosis, physicians may not think to check for Lyme.

To know for sure, you'll need a blood test that detects an antibody to the Lyme bacterium. It's notoriously inaccurate the first few weeks after infection, so you might need a retest. Results can take days. Fast, accurate assays are still in the works.

HAS ANYONE EVER DIED FROM LYME DISEASE?

Yes, one adult died in 1980 due to severe heart complications and another in 1985 due to respiratory failure. However, Lyme Disease is not usually fatal. Instead, it may be a painful infection that can mimic a number of other diseases and may recur for years. In these people it interferes greatly with the quality of life. Most people respond promptly to treatment; the majority stabilize and improve when appropriate therapy is initiated.

IS LYME DISEASE SPREADING?

More and more cases of Lyme Disease are being identified yearly. More states have been reporting the disease. In 1979 the disease was reported only in ten states and it has now been reported in 43 states. The current increase in the tick population is closely linked to the deer population found in the states.

For many years the white tail deer population, the primary host of the adult tick, had been small. However, in recent years the deer population has grown dramatically. As deer multiply and mate, so do the deer ticks and spread Lyme Disease. Birds also play a role in transporting the germ to new areas.

HOW CAN ONE GET MORE INFORMATION ABOUT LYME DISEASE?

The address for the Lyme Foundation is P. O. Box 560, Toland, Connecticut 06084. The Texas Lyme Foundation's address is P. O. Box 335, Coppell, Texas 75019.

The Earth Branch of First State Bank of Dimmitt had an increase in deposits, but a decrease in loans for the past year.

Deposits were shown to be $14,080,000 at the close of March this year, up $1,636,000 from the $12,444,000 at the same time last year.

Loans at the bank decreased by $319,000. Loans were $4,

Children Suffer Trauma Of Divorce Too

Going through a divorce is traumatic for children as well as parents. Yet the signs and symptoms of the children's trauma may go unnoticed, according to Dr. Bill Rae, child/adolescent psychologist in the Division of Psychology at Scott and White in Temple.

Often, parents who gain custody of the children are so preoccupied with their own anger, depression and lifestyle changes that they are not aware of their children's anger, depression, and feelings of rejection and guilt, Dr. Rae said.

It is very important for parents, neighbors, and other people in whom children may confide to look for telltale signs that indicate that the children are having difficulty in dealing with their parents' divorce.

TELLTALE SIGNS

Two through five year olds may begin to cling to the parent who has custody. They may feel that if they don't hold onto the parent that parent may leave them as well.

"Behavioral regression is also common among pre-school children. Children who have been toilet trained may suddenly begin to wet their clothing for example," said Dr. Rae.

In children aged six through twelve years of age, prolonged depression, poor academic performance, anger, headaches, and stomach aches may indicate that they may need help in coping with the divorce.

Divorced parents of teenagers should be alert for misbehavior, inactivity, drug and alcohol abuse, and prolonged depression.

COPING

Dr. Rae made the following suggestions to help kids cope:

* The custodial and non-custodial parent should allow the children to verbalize their dislike of and other feelings about the divorce.

* A custodial parent should not expect an older child or a teenager to become a confidante. Allow the child to act his or her age.

* Help to rebuild the child's ego. He or she may feel responsible for the divorce.

* Be consistent with the child and be fair.

"The quality of the ongoing relationship between the parents after the divorce can greatly affect the child's adjustment," Dr. Rae said. "The less turbulence and more agreement, the better."

Dr. Rae notes that the child also benefits from frequent visitations from the non-custodial parent, as long as the parent is not abusive.

Parents may seek the assistance of a pediatric psychologist or other child mental health professional to make the stress of the divorce easier on the entire family. For more information, call (817) 774-2092.

SUGGESTED READING

There are several books available for both parents and children that provide information on dealing with divorce.

For parents: The Parents Book About Divorce by Richard Gardner and Divorce and Your Child by Goldstein and Solnit.

For children: Surviving the Breakup by Wallerstein and Kelly or Going It Alone by Robert Weiss.

Kiwanis News

By R.A. Bradley

Sixteen Kiwanians, seven guests, four Honorary Members and Sweetheart Marsha "Double Chocolate Ice Cream," Wilson met Friday morning at the Dairy Queen. Honorary Kiwanians present were Robbie Clapp, Jon Keith Turner, Chad Johnson and Lucy Morris. Lucy it is real good to have you present. We have sure missed you. Our guest were Nancy Kidd, Manager of the Chamber of Commerce, John Huffhines, B.F. Thegpin, L.W. "Doug" Nichols and Scott Smith Jr., Lt. Gov. of Division 33. All these gentlemen are from the South Amarillo Club. Our other guests were James Warren and James C. Warren. James C. Warren is in the active reserves of the 1st Marine Division and has just come back from Desert Storm.

President Glen Morris called the meeting to order. Mickey Merriott led the group in the pledge to our flag and R.A. Bradley gave the invocation. Sweetheart Marsha "Double Chocolate Ice Cream" Wilson, stated that she had considered this matter all week about if she should give the Friendship Coin to someone in the smoking section or not but decided not. Since smoking is hard on your health, she wasn't sure if the smokers would still be alive by next week. Since Brad wrote such complimentary things about her and was trying to find her a boy friend, Marsha gave the Friendship coin to Brad.

Lt. Gov. Scott Smith Jr. encouraged the Kiwanis Club to continue to work for this community. Encouraged us to participate in the Sophomore of the Year Award. Scott read a letter from a Sophomore from Canyon about all of the things that he was involved in and his desires. With young people of that caliber, we don't need to worry about tomorrow. To often, the youth of today who cause all of the trouble is the only ones who get much attention. It is good that this is just a small part of our youth. The majority of our youth are good and have great plans for their future and the future of our country. What we as adults need to do is recognize the fine young ladies and men and pat them on the back and let them know how proud we are of them. The future of this country is in good hands if we as adults do not leave it in to big a mess.

I believe that James C. Warren was a Sargeant in the Marines. He told of some of his duties while he was in Saudi and on the border of Kwaite. He was in the transportation division of the Marines James stated his respect for the Pilots of all branches and the terrific job they did in this conflict. James stated that driving five ton trucks, they had a hard time staying up with the tanks and troops, bringing fuel, ammo and food. James stated that he was proud to be an American and very proud to be home. James said that when he was about 18 years old, he thought the greatest thing in life would be to leave Mulshoe. When he was in the Deserts of Saudi and the Middle east, he thought the greatest thing that could happen to him would be back in Mulshoe! James you said you were welcomed home this time very royally, this was not so for veterans of Korea and Vietnam. May I appoligize for the way you were treated when you came home from Korea and Vietnam. To me you were here's then and you still are. Maybe time can heal the wounds not the wounds that you received while in Korea and Vietnam but the ones you received after you got home. Thanks to you and all men and women who served in Korea and Vietnam and Desert Storm. Thanks for a job well done and welcome home. Hugh Young told of the dreams and the hard work to make it a reality. The monument to veterans that will be erected in Mulshoe. This is to recognize all veterans of WWI, WWII, Korea, Vietnam and Desert Storm who have served their country. If you would like to donate or buy a rock for this Monument to veterans, please contact the Mulshoe Chamber of Commerce. This will be your Monument, Search your hearts and pocketbook and let us make this a monument we can all be proud of.

Sergent James Warren stated that this country had many faults but it was still the best there is. Be proud of our Country and our Flag. May I say Amen.

Against the Sea

Have you ever wandered idly along a sandy ocean beach or the rocky shore of a lake and come upon the battered hull of an old boat? Perhaps the bottom has been smashed in or the sides leak so badly that probably the repairs would cost far more than the old boat is worth. So it is left to rot; abandoned to the merciless pounding of the wind whipped surf and the constant destruction of the surging water. Let us consider for a moment how many people of our acquaintance have, through their own choice, made their lives very much like this old boat. They have let the destructive waters of malice and greed eat away at their hearts and minds until their lives have become as worthless as this rotting hull. And yet, God in His Infinite Mercy will not let man be abandoned. There is no measure of His forgiveness if we but acknowledge that He is our Father and we are His children. There is no life that He considers worthless or beyond repair. Begin now to attend the church of your choice regularly... for through the church you will know of everlasting life.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Dear Louisa,
A cousin of mine, whom I haven't seen in ten years, is planning to visit me. We have always been fond of each other and have kept in touch by writing to one another.

This cousin lives in California so this will be quite a trip for her. I am looking forward to her visit but don't know how long she will want to stay. We have a large home but the girls will have to move upstairs and share a room.

I am writing to get your opinion on how I should find out how long she expects to stay and what I should do to entertain her?

--Puzzled--Va.

Answer:
Tell her how delighted you will be to see her and ask if the week or a certain time will suit her to come as that will also fit into your plans.

For entertainment let the relatives know of her visit and invite them in for an occasion. They will probably reciprocate by having her and you for meals or a party during the visit.

LET'S ASK THE EXPERTS!

ANSWERS TO DOG HEALTH QUESTIONS

Q: What are the symptoms of Lyme Disease in dogs?

A: The most common problem is arthritis, resulting in difficulty walking and reluctance to move. This is often accompanied by fever, lethargy and loss of appetite. Other signs include: Sudden onset of severe pain and lameness, with or without severe swelling of various joints; intermittent lameness or arthritis, lasting several months or years in untreated dogs.

If you observe these symptoms, which suggest Lyme Disease, see your veterinarian. Blood tests can be used to look for indications of the disease. Unfortunately, current blood tests are inconclusive 30 percent of the time. New tests are being developed to improve the diagnostic accuracy.

A Breakthrough for Dogs

to be fatal in dogs. If detected early it can be treated with antibiotics. However, Lyme Disease is a complex illness that's difficult to diagnose and the treatments can be lengthy and expensive.

The good news is, there's now a vaccine to immunize your dog against Lyme Disease—the first major breakthrough in preventing the disease. Extensive tests have shown it to be effective and safe. Ask your veterinarian for more details about the new Lyme Disease vaccine and whether your dog should be immunized.
