Plead Self Defense In Slaying

BY MARY E. PLUMMER
JESEY CITY, N. J., May 21 (AP)—The way was paved further for a self defense plea today in the trial of Gladys MacKnight, 17, and Donald Wightman, 18, for the hatchet slaying of the girl's mother.

With the prosecution hearing the end of its case, counsel for the red-haired boy sought to show that Bayonne police in early questioning of the young couple did not mention the knife reported found in the mother's hand.

Gladys, who, the state charges, backed Mrs. Helen MacKnight to death while Donald held her, was calm as the time drew near for her defense to begin.

Bayonne Detective Capt. Thomas McGrath testified under cross-examination that Supt. John J. Egan, head of the police department bureau of identification, showed him a knife the night the pair were at headquarters and said:

Final Vote Important Test Of Sentiment On Economy Issue

Glascoy described the final vote, probably late in the afternoon, as an important test of sentiment on the economy issue.

Those pitted against the president's supporters offered three diverse proposals.

1. A $500,000,000 cut in the president's figure, which Rep. Woodrum (D-Va.) declared would "take the rocketing out of relief."

2. A $3,000,000,000 relief fund, which Rep. Boleau (Frog-Wis) said would provide jobs for 3,000,000 and a 20 per cent increase in WPA pay.

3. A $2,000,000,000 "compromise" which Rep. Maverick (D-Tex.) said would prevent the lay-off of 600,000 men under the president's program.

Speculate About US Currency Policy

Armistice Plans Discussed For War-Torn Spain

LONDON, May 21 (AP)—Proposals for an armistice in the Spanish civil war and for the withdrawal of foreign volunteers moved towards actuality today with authoritative assurances that no European power outside Spain will object.

Germany and Italy were said authoritatively to have been the greatest stumbling blocks to the twin plans for restoring peace in embattled Spain, but well-informed diplomatic personages said both now would join general discussions.

The British government, through its own ambassadors, has been seeking to learn the attitude of foreign nations on the armistice for some time. It was reliably disclosed that they have encountered no refusals for active consideration of the plan.

A special technical committee of the 27-nation "hands off Spain" group discussed the possibility of withdrawals of foreign troops from the civil war today and pressed the delegates to obtain their governments' flat approval of an armistice.

The Spanish government's efforts to bring the civil war before the league convenes would prevent serious considerations of the Spanish demands at Geneva.

(The league of nations council assembly will meet next week.)

He obtained the bees from Early a year ago. Early has two hives and has sold about seven gallons of honey this year. Another resident who has several hives of bees is R. W. Baker.

There are a few other hives sprinkled over the county. Until recently very few attempts have been made to culture bees here due to the contention there was not enough flower growth to support the bees.

Solons Rush To Pass Four Major Bills

AUSTIN, May 21 (AP)—Members of the legislature today intensified their efforts to pass four big appropriation bills within the short time remaining before the scheduled end of the long regular session tomorrow.

Conference committees on the educational, departmental and rural school aid bills still expressed confidence their reports would be ready tonight or tomorrow. The judiciary bill had struck a snag because of a rider affecting salaries of Dallas district judges but did not appear to be in serious difficulties.

No Action On Wager Repeal
A belated effort to bring about a vote on repeal of the race betting law developed in the senate but made no immediate progress. Governor James V. Alred had said he would reconvene the lawmakers immediately in special session unless the senate voted repeal.

Sen. H. Grady Woodruff of Decatur, advocate of repeal, engineered today's move. When he sent up a resolution proposing that the house repeal bill be considered immediately, Sen. Frank Rawlings of Fort Worth, staunch friend of racing, was quick to point out that action could not be taken on the proposal until completion of the morning business routine. The upper chamber later went into executive session to consider governor's appointments.

To Study Pollution
The house sanctioned another investigation, this one to deal with stream pollution. The appropriation for the latest house committee inquiry, however, was reduced from $5,000 to $500.

Sponsors of the investigation referred, particularly to pollution in the Trinity river and the San Antonio river between San Antonio and the gulf. They said that in addition to a study of river pollution they contemplated an investigation of the danger of pollution resulting from oil drilling in coastal waters.

The lower chamber also adopted a resolution asking the United States senate to pass the Vinson anti-pollution bill.

It voted to give the committee investigating eleemosynary institutions $500 to extend its inquiry. Sponsors repeated charges that inmates of the institutions sometimes were subjected to cruel and inhuman treatment.

Possibility of a vote on race repeal was dimmed further when the senate recessed until this afternoon without completing its executive session. Rules would have to be suspended to permit action on anything other than conference reports after noon.

House agreement with senate amendments advanced to the governor a bill appropriating $25,000 to create a public welfare department in the board of control. The department would embrace the relief commission and agencies aiding dependent children and needy blind.

The house concurred in senate amendments to the San Antonio slum clearance bill and adopted a conference report on a proposal raising salaries of Bexar and Harris county court reporters from $3,000 to $3,600.

Another bill sent to the governor through house concurrence in senate amendments would raise the pay of the Hunt county auditor from $2,500 to $3,000.

Project For East Texas Is Vetoed

State Finances Will Not Justify Two Such Institutions

AUSTIN, May 21 (AP)—Governor James V. Alred made good today on his promise to veto an appropriation of $817,000 for a new hospital for the insane to be built in East Texas but approved one for the same amount and purpose to be established in West Texas.

The governor said the financial condition of the state would not justify building two such institutions at the time and, moreover, the legislature made the appropriations in the general knowledge that he would knock out the one for East Texas.

The governor said he had acted upon the recommendation of the board of control and their finding that this (West Texas) hospital was necessary and desirable. He added that no member of the legislature had conferred with him concerning an East Texas hospital until after it had been tacked on in a general amendment.

"An overwhelming majority felt we did not need a hospital and that this should be established to serve a vast area in West Texas not being served at the present time and to relieve congestion in other institutions. I am myself of the opinion that we cannot afford to build two hospitals at this time and that one hospital, with additions, at existing institutions, are sufficient to meet our present and early future needs."

House bill 597, from which the hospital is authorized, provides that the institution be located on a tract of not less than 300 acres of fertile ground, that it be sufficient to accommodate 500 inmates, that the $817,000 appropriation for the hospital be divided as follows: two main buildings and equipment, $115,000 each; psychiatric

CHEMISTRY TO PLAY IMPORTANT ROLE IN NEW ERA, CLUB TOLD

Chemistry is to play an increasingly important part in the new economic life of this nation, Frank P. Johnson, food and fertilizer expert of the Fort Worth Frontier, told members of the American Business Club Friday.

He told how modern industry is utilizing the waste products of the farm and foreman the time when the farm would be one of the most important factors in industrial production. As evidence of this, Johnson said that industries were moving southward.

Johnson also spoke of the new Billy Rose show which will open with the splendor of an old southern plantation scene and close with a resounding "It can't happen here" flash signalled by finale of "The Star Spangled Banner."

In this connection he stressed the importance of tourist traffic, declaring that tourists left $4,000,000 in Texas last year.

Visitors for the day were Dr. J. E. Hogan and C. W. Cunningham, Hugh Duncan, president, presided over the meeting.

AVIATORS TO DIE

BILBAO, Spain, May 21 (AP)—Two captured German aviators were sentenced to death today on charges of military rebellion and murder.

The two officers, downed on the Basque front, were convicted by a popular tribunal of waging warfare against the government of Spain in the forces of Insurgent Gen. Francisco Franco.

WPA Organization To Take Several Weeks

It will be from four to six weeks yet before the details of the WPA's district reorganization plan worked out, according to the state headquarters in San Antonio.

R. H. McNew, director of the local district, which was among the eight abolished by an administrative order from H. P. Drought, state administrator, remained in conference with Drought at San Antonio Friday.

It was learned unofficially that the northern tier of counties in this district, including Gaines, Dawson, Borden, Garza, Terry, Yoakum and Lynn, would go to the Lubbock district, carrying a caseload of about 870 persons. The southern part of the district will go to the San Angelo territory, including Howard, Martin, Midland, Ector and Glascock counties with an estimated caseload of 500 workers. Among other counties due to go to the San Angelo district are Mitchell, Nolan, Taylor, Callahan, Brown, Coleman and McCulloch.

Most of the staff members in the district office here said they planned to seek private employment. A few had hopes of continuing with WPA under the new setup.

YOUNGSTERS IMPROVE MUSKOGEE

HOPKINSVILLE, Tenn., May 21 (AP)—Hope for the survival of the three remaining Mullins quadruplets brightened today as they passed their first 48 hours of life, termed by hospital attaches the most crucial period.

Reading + Writing

By John Selby

Some fiction, good and less good.

The week's novels are again above average for this season. One of the best is a translation from the Italian of Gian Daul—the long and quite detailed account of a man's disintegration, and of the effect this process has on those with whom he has contact. "The Wind From the Mountains" (Putnam; $2.75) is perhaps a little somber, but the side matter is a moving account of Italian life.

The contrast of Daul's novel and Trygve Gulbrandsen's second novel, "The Wind From the Mountains" (Putnam; $2.50), is almost too sharp. The four-square style of the author makes it still sharper. This new novel is a continuation of "Beyond Sing the Woods," rather a slow-moving one. Into the Norwegian family life of Old and Young Dag comes a new influence, and a puzzling one, the daughter-in-law Adelaide. It is only fair to say to prospective readers that by the time he has finished "The Wind From the Mountains" he will have finished quite a stint of reading.

It is just as well to confess that this reader stuck tight in Lion Feuchtwanger's "The Pretender" (Viking; $2.50) and passed it by. The novel is almost perfect reflection of another national and racial temperament—Feuchtwanger's "Jew Suss" was one of the most exciting experiences this reader ever had. But his current novel about the man who impersonated Nero is from Feuchtwanger's "Josephus" shelf.

Feuchtwanger's partisans probably will scream at the idea of putting down "The Pretender" in favor of "The Tree Falls South" by Wellington Roe (Putnam; $2). Mr. Roe has no international acclaim, and so far as we know never has been exiled from any land. But he has known America intimately, and his phrases are authentically American. He is telling about the tragedy of farming in the dust bowl, about the heat and the dirt and the thirst, and what they do to farmers' minds. There are all sorts of implications, some of which may not be evident to the lower Fifth Avenue set. But even those who bound the United States on the west by the Hudson river will sense that Mr. Roe has made some very important points in very little space.

Others present were Mrs. John Clarke, Mrs. H. W. Leeper, Mrs. Arthur Woodall, Mrs. R. C. Strain and Mrs. W. E. Hornbarger.

GAS PAINS PUT LADY IN AGONY

Heart Pounded; She Gasped For Breath; But Van-Tage Relieved Her.

"I never would have believed there was such a medicine!" People over this Entire Section are saying that about Van-Tage, the Amazing New Medicine which is being sold in large quantities here in Big Spring. Recently, Mrs. Chas. Hale, of 3237 N.W. 11th St. (Route 5, Box 477-A), Oklahoma City, Okla., endorsed it.

MRS. HALE "It seemed like everything I ate disagreed with me and laid there in my stomach and caused awful gas which put me in agony. This terrible gas crowded up into my chest around my heart and made it beat so wildly that I had to gasp for every breath I took. I didn't know what it was to get a good night's sleep. Those awful gas pains would start and I felt like I was going to smother. But finally I found Van-Tage. It acted on my upset stomach and it is really amazing the way loads of gas left me. And how wonderful it is to eat a meal and have my food digest. Since the gas and bloating have been relieved I can sleep like a person should. I am SO GRATEFUL to Van-Tage for the Blessed Relief it gave me."

It is the Natural Herbs in Van-Tage which help to produce the relief described above by Mrs. Hale. Herbs have been used by the Human Race for Hundreds of Years! They help invigorate bowel, stomach and kidney action, so don't hesitate to take Van-Tage. Get it at the Collins Bros. Drug Store. Also sold by all Leading Druggists in Big Spring and throughout Texas and Neighboring States.

THE SPORTS CIRCUIT
Did Latins Chase Pogi From Home?

By HANK HART
Gorilla Pogi's real name is a plop. It's Ermetto, which sounds too much like "Orwin" to be used in the game. Maybe the moniker his parents plastered on him drove him to the business he's in now.

Joe Kopecky has been in the wrestling game a long time but it might surprise fans to find out how old the Texan really is. He's been here long enough to be Ace Freeman's father, and Ace has seen 24 summers.

Like Joe Louis, Bob Feller saw his profile much too much in the papers and began to believe all the malarkey about his invincibility. As a result of his injury the youngster will do the Cleveland Indians little good this year. The bad wing he received is far more serious than Steve O'Neill would have the public to believe.

P. Fierro, who caught for the Mexican Tigers when that aggregate is living in Stanton now. The back stop worked in McCamey for a while two years ago.

H. B. Dunnagan, Jr., who at one time played a lot of tennis locally when that game was at its height, is living in Austin laboring for an oil company. Dunnagan entered several local and West Texas net meets and a resident here.

First big golf tournament held here will be the Women's Invitational golf tournament which opens June 27, exactly one month after the West Texas meet at Brownwood.

Mrs. Theron Hicks is the defending champion, having defeated Mrs. Rhea Vernon, Abilene, in the finals of the 1936 meet, 6 and 5.

Mrs. Alice Phillips, who was a strong contender for the crown last year and who was defeated by Mrs. Vernon in the semi-final, one up on 19, will be back and feminine golfers from Clovis, N. M., to Fort Worth and San Antonio will probably file entries.

Doug Jones signified the fact that he is ready for the West Texas by firing a 37 on the Mundy yesterday. Doug had an eagle on the first hole.

LEE TAMES YANX, TRIBE TAKES LEAD

By SID FEDER
Associated Press Sports Writer
The whole thing doesn't make as much sense as an insane asylum, but the figures show the American League is off to a closer and more completely unlooked for start than it has been in years.

By the end of the first month last year, five games separated first and fourth place. This season, the WASHINGTON, May 21 (AP)—Manager Steve O'Neill announced today that Bob Feller, the Cleveland Indians' youthful strikeout king, would do no further pitching on the club's current eastern trip which ends May 27.

O'Neill's announcement came after Feller reported his "million dollar" right arm felt weak and that some trace of soreness remained.

race was regarded as New York, Detroit, Cleveland and nothing much else. But so far it's been as light as a mustard plaster—so close are the leaders of the moment, Cleveland's Indians, from the cellar riding St. Louis Browns.

And most astonishing of all is that the longest of the long shots, Connie Mack's mystifying Athletics, are in the second place, leading both the Yankees and the Tigers. They were on top until yesterday, but the Indians licked the far out of the Boston Red Sox, 16-5, while the A's dropped a 3-2 decision to the Tigers, which gave the tribe the place by a percentage margin.

Hottest of all right now are the reviving Washington Senators—and their sudden form reversal is just as explainable as the rest of the league's ways. Although their pitching still is in a sorry state, the Nats are starting to hit, and on this strength alone have won their last four straight to climb from eighth to fifth. It took two twirlers and 12 innings before they finally overcame the Browns yesterday 5-4 on Ossie Blue's timely single.

Thurston Lee found out the Yanks are still his "cousins." The White Sox outpaw became the first flinger of the tribe to whip the hitless world champions twice by mugging them with three hits for a 3-1 win, thereby dropping them to third place.

Altogether, every outfit but the Tigers and Browns changed places yesterday. Mickey Cochrane's crew held fourth with their decision over the Athletics achieved through Roxie Lawson's sixth victory of the season. The Red Sox, dropped to seventh; the White Sox, whipping the Yanks, advanced to sixth.

Featuring the National League larruping for the third straight day the Giants and Cardinals wound up their three-game series with New

(All night games.)

It was Fort Worth's turn today to take on the fearsome scowl as challenger to Beaumont's Texas league paces.

The Cats worked themselves into the No. 2 spot last night on the strength of some good pitching by Jackie Reid and a little help from Galveston, which was knocking over Oklahoma City, previous contender.

Reid pitched a fine game against San Antonio, whose batters had to be content with six hits, while Fort Worth massaged Lefty Mills for five hits and three runs in the fourth inning. The score was 4 to 1.

The Panther rise to a contending position was the fruit of a sustained drive which netted them 10 victories in 13 starts.

Dallas made Beaumont's grip on the lead more precarious than ever, suddenly coming to life with a pitching and batting combination that caught up with and passed the South Texans, 9 to 8. A young Clevelandian named Frank Papish rushed to the mound for Dallas in the first inning, when old Fred Marberry cracked. Beaumont scored two in the third and one in the fourth against him but from there on out he was as tight as a drum, allowing no runner past second and grasping two hits.

In the fourth the Steer batsmen regained a semblance of their 1936 slugging form and rushed across four runs. At the end of the eighth they had tied the game up. In the ninth Les Mallon smacked out a double to score a runner from second.

Three pitchers couldn't match the performance of Galveston's Eddie Cole and Oklahoma City lost 9 to 1. Houston swapped cellar positions with Dallas in dropping their second straight game to Tulsa, 5 to 4.

HAGAN RETURNS TO LOCAL RING

A Louisiana lumberjack by the name of Jack Hagan, who had his share of following last year, returns on Herman Fuhrer's Tuesday night wrestling card by taking on Ace Freeman in the semi-final.

The bout threatens to overshadow the main event, which brings together George Bennett, Tulsa collegian, and Joe Kopecky.

Hagan may have lost more scraps than he won last year but he was colorful and had the fans behind him while Freeman is highly popular with the ringside.

HOSPITAL BUSINESS BUZZES AS PLAYERS AIL

Every Team Affected As Troubles Mount
(By HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR., NEW YORK, May 21 (AP)—The crickets are beginning to recover, but for the first month or so of this baseball season major league managers have found it necessary to read hospital charts and X-ray plates rather than batting averages, before they could name their daily lineups.

Disregarding spring training troubles, every major league club has been affected to some extent by either illness or injury, with Chicago's Cubs easily topping the list.

The rot still is growing. Joe Cravin Boston Red Sox manager, suffered a cut cheek when a thrown ball hit him Monday. His regular catcher, Rick Farrell, got a broken throwing hand the same afternoon. Then young Bob Feller of Cleveland, whose publicized sore arm had kept him idle since his first game, had a workout abandoned in the game just long enough to walk one batsman.

The Cubs' hospital list now has swelled considerably, but since the campaign began it has been something like this: Pichers, Carl Davis, "dead" arm; Tex Carleton, chipped bone; Larry French, bruised hand; Ray Bryant, flu; catcher, Gabby Hartnett, sore arm; then a split finger; Bob Garoark, broken finger; Ken O'Dea and John Bottrill, minor hurts; infielders, Bill Jurges, broken wrist; Bill Herman and Ripper Collins, minor injuries.

Two serious operations have been performed on prominent and ailing ball players. Paul Dean, of the Cardinals, running mate of his more famous brother, Pizzy, had a piece of cartilage removed from his shoulder in an effort to fix up the sore arm that forced him into retirement last season. Jake Fowl of the Yankees had his appendix removed.

In addition the Yankees' young Joe LaMaggio was absent a while for removal of his tonsils after his throwing arm began to cause trouble. Irvn Lerner, of the Giants, wound up in a hospital after Feller beaned him in an exhibition game.

Difficult to classify are the unidentified illness that has kept Detroit's Schoolboy Rowe from taking his turn and caused him to be "laid off" until he was in shape, and John Whitehead's lack of fifth control which made Manager Jimmy Dykes suspend him until he got into condition.

Others hid up at one time or another include: Wally Berger, Bees; Leo Durocher and Johnny Aize, Cardinals; Joe Stupp, Babe Phelps and Ranty Moore, Dodgers; Frank Gahler, Giants; Lloyd Waner, Pirates; Ernie Lombardi, Reds; Bill Dickey, Yankees; John Altom and Bruce Campbell, Indians; Tommy Bridges, Tigers; Larry Rosenthal, White Sox; Cecil Travis and John Riddle, Senators; Jimmy Fox, Fabian Gaffke and Bobby Doerr, Red Sox.

TWO TEXANS IN SO. SEMIFINALS

Atlanta, May 21 (AP)—A change in tournament style was suggested as a way to improve women's golf by Mrs. Don Chandler of Fort Worth, Tex., a semi-finalist today in the southern amateur.

Matched with Dorothy Kirby, 17, three times Georgia champion Mrs. Chandler came out on a platform of more emphasis on medal play in women's contests, commenting, "that's the real test of golf." She has been medalist in her last six tournaments, including this one.

The other semi-finals found Mrs. Estelle Lawson Page of Greensboro, N. C., matched with Mrs. Frank Goldthwaite of Fort Worth who won the southern in 1935 as Anella Goveyeva.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

NEW YORK, May 21 (AP)—Reports persist that the New York State Athletic commission will reinstate Barney Ross without making him go through the formality of defending his welterweight title against Cefarino Garcia, of Los Angeles.

Which would pave the way for a Ross-Pedro Montanes bout, which Jack Dempsey is pulling the big wires for. No wonder Mike Jacobs and the Garden are jittery.

They've been trying to land this plum for months, but were handcuffed by the suspension of Ross. They will turn to a crimp if Dempsey plucks it from right under their noses.

Marquette university golfers were boiling when they returned home the other day after losing a match away from home. Playing on a strange course for the first time, they approached the 18th tee and asked their hosts which way to drive. "That way" quite well. Imagine how they felt when the locals teed up and headed in the opposite direction. Marquette's golfers took 8's and 9's on the hole, while the home boys holed out in 4's.

Correction: Stan Bordagaray of the Cardinals and not Wally Berger of the Bees is the outfielder who has been delayed the deal. Benny Huffman, now catching regularly for the Browns, was behind the plate for Bridgewater college, a small institution of only 250 students, a year ago. His wife is a student. Can it be true that Al Well intends to turn down a guarantee of $50,000 for Lou Ambers to defend his lightweight crown?

Metz's Cup Chances Are Ruined When Golfer Hurt
CHICAGO, May 21 (AP)—The rosy hopes of Dick Metz, young Chicago professional, for a place on the 1937 U. S. Ryder cup squad were all washed up today, the result of a St. Patrick's day accident.

Metz, recently named as one of the group of amateurs to battle to fill the four vacancies on the Ryder cup squad, was in a hospital with a severe infection in his right leg. The ailment was a souvenir of an automobile smash-up March 17 which cut short his most successful campaign in the southern winter circuit.

Giant Pitcher Star Of First Month Of Season
NEW YORK, May 21 (AP)—Although pressed closely by five other players in both leagues, Carl Hubbell was big league baseball's "star of the month" in the opening 30-day period of the season.

The Giants' great left-hander was named five times during the month in the daily Associated Press list of "yesterday's stars," one more than each of his nearest rivals—high teammate, Dick Barry, Van Mungo, of the Dodgers; the Cardinals' Ducky Medwick and Dizzy Dean, and the Detroit Tigers' Gerry Walker.

A total of 17 players from both leagues were mentioned three or more times.
D. M. Young, of the Museum of Geology, University of Kentucky, says 17 meteorites have been discovered in Kentucky.

WOMAN IS REAL IVORY HUNTER

MCKINNEY, May 21 (AP)—Baseball's only woman scout—Mrs. Roy Largent—with 13 seasons of combing the minors for talent behind her, laid aside her sock darning today to tell tales of "her boys."

Scout for the Chicago White Sox, she has sent many a star to the Windy City. Luke Appling, the 1936 batting champ, was her find. Zede Bonura, slugging first sacker, another. And then there's Monte Stratton, Rip Radcliff, Johnny Whitehead, Vern Kennedy and others.

The warm spot in Mrs. Largent's heart, however, belongs to Stratton, lean six foot, five inch twirler with two well-buried shutouts on his record already this year.

Just a boy of 19 in overall when found by Mrs. Largent, Stratton had much to learn. Eager, however, he was a frequent visitor at her home and was most adept at lifting Mrs. Largent's gingerbread cookies from the jar.

Most interesting of all her "boys" however, was Art (Whattaman) Shires. Her story of Shires:
"I liked Art Shires because he was husky, aggressive and could hit that ball a mile. I found him with Waco in 1929 and upon my recommendation it was agreed we'd buy him.

But Shires had other plans. He didn't get a cut of his purchase price so he jumped the club and we lost him 'somewhere in Texas.' I was told to go out and find him. After weeks of traveling I found him playing semi-pro ball at Baytown and Lampasas. It took a lot of arguing but he was finally persuaded to join the White Sox.

I told Mr. Comiskey, club owner, that Art was the fighting type. He wired back 'fine, that's the kind of a player we need.'
"But I guess my boy Shires carried a little too far when he hit Lena Blackburne, then manager of the Sox. In general, he just conducted himself more like a pugilist than a star ball player."

Today Mrs. Largent still looks for aggressiveness in her ball players.
"I like the men who have fire and hustle," she said. "Then, too, looseness of arm and body helps. To be a good major leaguer, good size is necessary. You've got to be a good hitter to last."

Mrs. Largent's husband, Roy, accompanies her on all her trips and is a No. 1 ivory hunter himself. Every day during the baseball season they see a game somewhere. More often than not, it is two—once it was four.

Scouting today is harder, what with the advent of night baseball, Mrs. Largent said.
"You've got to see what a player can do in the sunshine before passing final judgment. Fast ball pitchers at night usually don't shine so well in the day."

Today, the Largents, having signed three bright prospects out of the Southwest conference, left by automobile for Louisiana. They'll drive 6,000 miles, touring the smaller leagues looking for new timber.

Martin Appeals For Sunday Game
The Coden Oilers are still without a game for the week-end. Lorraine, originally scheduled to meet the locals here, will play the Cosmoza Bulldogs in Laraine Sunday afternoon. No reason for the change was given by the Laraine manager.

The Codenites go to Hobbs, N. M., May 30 to meet Cotton Clover's Amerasia Oilers and have a return game with the Amerasia outfit set for the local grounds June 13.

To Women:

If you suffer every month you owe it to yourself to take note of Cardui and find out whether it will benefit you. Functional pains of menstruation have, in many, many cases, been eased by Cardui. And where malnutrition (poor nourishment) had taken away woman's strength, Cardui has been found to increase the appetite, improve digestion and in that way help to build up a natural resistance to certain useless suffering (Where Cardui fails to benefit, consult a physician.) Ask your druggist for Cardui—(pronounced "Card-u-i").—adv.

Budget

quirements show a gain, when in fact they are less than a year ago. This is due to $14,500 bonds already retired out of the fund surplus, plus the regular demands.
An estimate of all revenues for the year amounts to $243,580, which is $874.63 more than collected during the past fiscal year.
The apparent discrepancy between estimated revenues and disbursements is to be covered by a surplus which now stands at around $60,000.
June 8 at 8 p. m. in the city court room has been fixed as the time and place for the budget hearing.
The commission adopted a schedule of prices for lots in the new addition to the cemetery. Regulations governing the addition were adopted to the effect that any construction of curbs or concrete work in the territory must conform to the city's specifications.
A clause in the taxi-cab insurance ordinance was changed to conform with standard form of insurance. The ordinance had required injured parties to sue the insurance company directly.
Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Phillips and son, J. D., and Woodrow Campbell, have returned from a vacation trip spent in California and other western states. They visited at Catalina Island, Santa Monica, Long Beach and other points before continuing through Yosemite Park. While in Berkeley the Phillips called on the late Mrs. John W. Ward, who was at that time in a Berkeley hospital for treatment.
Ben M. Davis of the accounting firm bearing his name of Abilene was a business visitor in Big Spring Friday.

NO INDICATION THAT LANCASTER WILL ACCEPT PASTORATE

Members of the pulpit committee of the First Baptist church said Friday there was no indication as to whether Dr. E. C. Lancaster, pastor of the First Baptist church in Pampa, would accept a call extended him by the local congregation in conference here Wednesday evening.

Rev. Lancaster drove here last Sunday evening to address the church membership.

He has been at Pampa since 1930. His congregation there numbers approximately 1,600 members. Prior to the war he was pastor of the Pampa church, but resigned to tender his services to the army. Later he held pastorates at Chillicothe and Coleman before returning to Pampa.

COURTESY BOX IS MORE ACCESSIBLE

Changes in parking regulations have made the post office courtesy box entirely more accessible to motorists, Postmaster Nat Shick said today.

Provision of more space and erection of no parking signs have made it possible for cars to be driven in close enough to the curb box to drop letters without getting out of the automobile.

Shick expressed the hope that those who do not care to go into the post office just to mail their letters use the courtesy box. Mail is collected from it before every run.

He also urged the public to cooperate by remaining outside of the no parking zone. Police indicated that parking was not to be permitted in the area, even temporarily.

GOVERNMENT DENIES DUKE PROTECTION ON HONEYMOON CRUISE

MONTS, France, May 21 (AP) — The British government was reported today by a source close to the Duke of Windsor to have denied the former monarch the protection of the British navy for a honeymoon cruise down the coast of civil war torn Spain.

Windsor, his friend said, was considering turning to a foreign nation for the guarantee of safety which he was unable to get from the naval empire he once ruled.

The original honeymoon plan was said to have called for Windsor and his duchess to leave Chateau de Candé immediately after their wedding June 3, for an automobile trip to Biarritz, a French resort on the Bay of Biscay whose waters also wash the Basque coast of northern Spain.

After three days at the famed watering place, the royal couple were to cruise on a British yacht down the Spanish coast, through the Straits of Gibraltar to the Mediterranean and the romantic Dalmatian coast of Yugoslavia.

The owner of the yacht which Edward planned to use, had insisted upon the naval protection.

There was a possibility the duke might change his honeymoon plans completely, or might seek a foreign yacht and protection for the cruise.

Members of the British royal family, prevented from attending the wedding by the British government which refused to allow Ed-

Rural School Students Awarded Diplomas At Graduation Program

Seventy-six seventh grade students of Howard county rural schools were awarded diplomas Friday morning in a mass graduation exercise at the municipal auditorium as the seventh annual rural school rally day was started.

The commencement address was delivered by Leland L. Martin, superintendent of the Foran schools. Miss Anne Martin, county superintendent, made the award of the diplomas.

To eighteen students, not all members of the graduating class, went certificates of award for not having been tardy or absent during the current school year.

Special honors were conferred upon Norma Lee Dean and Arthur Franklin, both of Cauble, for having made the highest averages on the seventh grade standardization tests.

During the noon hour students and patrons journeyed to the city park where they took part in an old fashioned picnic luncheon. At 1:30 p. m. a program featuring talent from the various schools got underway at the auditorium.

Scheduled for places on the program were Laveda Schultz, Moore, song; Adelaide Hargrove, Chalk reading; Morris school, song; Hollis Holt, Morgan, reading; Mary Helen Lomas, Lomas, piano solo; Vincent students cast in one act play written by Nan Carpenter, a student of that school; Edith Wallace, Morgan, reading; Berylene Cramer, Chalk, song; Moore students with kazoo band; Neva Mae and Mary Ellen McKee, R-Bar song; Doris Kilpatrick, Kienland song; Era Adams, Sash, reading.

MOTHERS ARE RESPONSIBLE

The family looks to you to aid your doctor in keeping them well. You can help prevent much illness and poor health by guarding them from common constipation.

Most constipation comes from faulty diet—meals low in "bulk." This condition can be corrected so easily and pleasantly.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN provides the safe way to prevent constipation by putting "bulk" back in the diet. Within the body, ALL-BRAN absorbs twice its weight in water, forming a soft mass which gently sponges out the system.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN also furnishes vitamin B and iron. It is so much better for your family than constant dosing with artificial pills and drugs.

Two tablespoons daily as a cereal with milk or cream, or in recipes, are enough for the average person. Three times daily in severe cases.

Sold at all grocers—and guaranteed by Kellogg in Battle Creek.
