Preliminary Report Ready On Court Bill

Measure Will Come From Hands Of Subcommittee Today

TALK HEARD ANEW ON BENCH APPOINTMENT

Name Of La Follette Is Brought Into List Of Possibilities

WASHINGTON, July 26 (AP)—Chairman McCarran (D-Nev.) forecast today a senate judiciary subcommittee drafting a bill to alter lower court procedure would complete its work by nightfall.

He said the subcommittee had agreed to leave out of the bill which replaces the shelled administration court bill, any effort to regulate receiverships. This, he added, would be handled in a separate measure.

Democratic Leader Barkley (D Ky.) told newspapers however he had made no change in the senate program for the week and planned to continue with the wage and hour bill.

Meanwhile expectation that President Roosevelt would fill the vacancy on the supreme court before adjournment of congress received speculation over his choice. The latest name mentioned was that of Senator Robert La Follette (Prog-Wis.).

Senator Borah (R-Ida), chief backer of the proposal to regulate receivership procedure, indicated he was not satisfied to handle it as a separate bill.

"There is an impression there is an element of breach of faith to include the receivership provision in the court bill," Borah said. "But everyone favors the receiver plan and I will offer it as a separate bill."

20 Injured In New Flareup Of Violence In Steel Strike

CLEVELAND, July 26 (AP)—Steel strike violence broke out anew today. At least 20 persons were injured in rioting at Republic Corp.'s Corrihan-McKinney plant in Cleveland; eleven were arrested.

Chaos occurred when pickets broke through CIO picket lines. Tom Glowacki, 51-year-old picket, suffered critical injuries when he was run down by a car containing four men trying to enter the plant. Two policemen were hurt.

Some 1,000 strikers and sympathizers, massed around one of the approaches to the plant's main entrance. About 100 officers, many on horses and on motorcycles, attempted to clear a path.

Rocks Thrown At first only boos and cat calls came from the crowd but as more cars carrying non-strikers passed through the line rocks flew from the strikers, police said.

In melee which followed, Mounted Patrolman Howley Oker was hit in the back of the head. He remounted and charged a crowd of 300 on the sidewalk, witnesses said, bringing his night stick down on the head of a striker, Matilda Mnaos, 35, who collapsed under the blow.

After the violence, first here since Republic reopened its Cleveland plants July 6, the strikers marched on city hall in a mass protest against police action. Their ranks swelled and the milling crowd was estimated at almost 5,000 persons.

A committee of 15 carried a protest to Mayor Harold H. Burton. This was the worst strike out-break since July 1, when two men were killed and 15 injured in a police-strikers clash at a C.I.O. union headquarters in Massillon, O. That clash is being investigated by the national labor relations board.

WAGE-HOUR BILL ADVANCED

WASHINGTON, July 26 (AP)—The House today advanced the Wagner bill for a minimum wage and maximum hours for workers in interstate commerce.

The proposed bill to plug loopholes has not been finished. The wage and hour bill would give a minimum wage of not more than 40 cents an hour and a maximum work week of not less than 40 hours for each industry in interstate commerce.

Goods produced in violation of these standards or manufacture by child labor would be barred from interstate commerce.

Chieftain Of Tammany Dies

NEW YORK, July 26 (AP)—James J. Dooling, 44, leader of Tammany Hall, died of a stroke early today in the midst of the bitter political fight of his organization's 191 points of existence.

Dooling, although already stricken at any time, had just successfully blocked a ouster movement against him, but through his own and his deal candidate, United States Senator Royal S. Copeland, for the New York mayoralty, against an unprecedented revolt, and himself about directly a split in Mayor Fiorello H. La Guardia's fusion party ranks.

Dooling had suffered several strokes. The final one occurred at 7:30 this morning at his home at Belle Harbor in the Longmeadows. Dooling was unmarried but closely attached to his relatives, especially his three sisters.

Successor William B. Keenly, chairman of the executive committee of Tammany Hall, automatically succeeded to the leadership of the organization by virtue of his office. He will hold office until the executive committee selects a permanent leader.

No comment was forthcoming immediately from Tammany members on what effect Dooling's death would have on the approach ing mayoralty campaign.

Dooling came into his leadership several years ago as victor in an internal fight at one of Tammany's lowest periods as far as political prestige goes. Tammany had been ripped apart by the sensational disclosure of the Sabury investigation, followed by its political defeat by Mayor La Guardia.

Dooling is survived by three sisters, Misses Florence and Ethel Dooling, and Mrs. Thomas Howley. Funeral services will be held Thursday morning at Holy Cross church in Manhattan with interment at Calvary cemetery. Dooling's family asked that no flowers be sent to the house.

NEW YORK, July 26 (AP)—Little Lord Fauntleroy is dead, a hero Vivian Burnett, who spent a lifetime proving he was not as "sissy" as the fictional character portrayed in the famous novel by his mother, Frances Hodgson Burnett, died last night after a long illness.

Burnett, 61, collapsed at the home of his wife Delight Hill yesterday after recovering it so that other in the last could lead from the scene two men and two women whose names had not been reported. He was dead, apparently from a heart attack, before the yawl departed.

"Little Lord Fauntleroy" was written when Burnett, then seven, asked his mother to "write some books that little boys would like to read."

The book was an immense success, and a generation of American boys came to hate the "perfect little boy" whom their mothers held up as a pattern of conduct. He also hated the "simplified" big white Fauntleroy collar which imprisoned their young necks during a national vogue.

Burnett was a sophomore at Harvard when his mother disclosed in a magazine article that he had been the unwitting model in her novel. The rest of his days the "Fauntleroy" tag plagued him.

To offset it he made a name for himself on the university track team and later, as a cub reporter, evaded Denver when the city was the stronghold of as two-fisted crew of journalists as ever beat up a city editor.

BETTER CONDITION REPORTED BY MANY STATE TREASURIES

CHICAGO, July 26 (AP)—From state capitals of the nation came reports today of mid-year audits showing marked improvement in government finances.

Most state treasurers found that not only were operating budgets out of the "red," but substantial trimming was under way in bond or indebtedness that reached the staggering total of almost three billions in 1929.

Tax collections shooting upward with the rising curve of business was the principal reason advanced for the brighter financial picture.

The Oregon treasury showed a $12,000,000 balance, largest in history. Arkansas' was above $10,000,000 and a bond refinancing program was in progress. California sliced its operating deficit by $17,000,000. Illinois had a $66,000,000 treasury balance and had cut its bond obligations $28,000,000 in three years. Iowa's $6,400,000 balance was its best in six years. These were typical of the bright spots revealed in an Associated Press survey comparing current statements with peak deficits.

Despite bond retirement programs in many states, issues outstanding were at higher levels in some states because of highway and building construction and emergency projects brought on by depression needs.

Among the states making the largest bonded debt reductions from peak marks were: Colorado, $12,700,000 to $4,025,000; Kansas, $20,500,000 to $15,504,000; Oklahoma, $19,500,000 to $15,504,000.

Texas, $24,102,000 to $17,800,000; Oregon, $62,175,000 to $47,175,000; Idaho, $4,800,000 to $1,627,000.

READING AND WRITING

By John Selby

"THE MAKING OF A HERO," by Nicholas Ostrovski; (Dutton; $2.50).

Two such antipodal literary talents as Nicholas Ostrovski's and Kenneth Roberts should be kept near each other as a kind of permanent exhibit.

The Russian's is certainly the greater, and that in spite of some serious flaws in logic and reasoning in the only book of his this reviewer has read. This is "The Making of a Hero," which was called "How the Steel Is Tempered" when it was published in Russia. This is a much better title, which perhaps partly explains why a novel which is more a promise than an accomplishment should have sold nearly a million and a half copies in Russia.

For "The Making of a Hero" is autobiographical, sometimes literally so, although it is also an historical novel. Ostrovski was born in a worker's family in Southern Russia. His older brother, Artem (who also appears in the novel) was a locksmith at the railway station, and when Nicholas was expelled from school, he also worked there as kitchen boy in the restaurant.

In 1919 Ostrovski joined the Young Communist League and fought to "liberate" the Ukraine from the Poles and the Germans. He went through the Civil War, was demobilized, and returned to his railway station, to official duty under the soviets, to strenuous party-work and to study. He went blind, but still worked on. The last two years of his life produced "The "Making of a Hero" and with that finished, the end came.

This is the story of Ostrovski and also the "plot" of his book. The writing is usually live and full of energy and earnest faith in communist principles. It can be read as a story of suffering in a cause or as propaganda. But it is too simple and too rich at the same time to be sloughed off. And that is where the reference to Mr. Roberts begins to have point.

Here is a young and unfortunately extinct Russian who also moves his chief character through a great historical crisis. Mr. Roberts works with his head; the Russian with his heart and his passion, if perhaps mistaken faith.

That is the difference.

By HANK HART

Big Spring athletes spotlighted the news in this section of the state and, although none were as successful as they wanted to be...

The best seller, of course, was Mrs. Gordon Phillips who went into the finals of the Lubbock women's invitational golf tournament...

Also in Lubbock fell the weakened Coaden Oilers in the third round of the Parris invitational baseball tournament.

In Midland the local Sandbelt golfers were upset by the Midland outfit and as a result will probably be forced to play for season's honors with Odessa.

Bristow, the day before, had lost out in the first round of the first light tournament in the 21st invitational which hurried to Midland in time for the matches but evidently couldn't help to turn the tide.

Cleaning the cuff: Several local baseballers, among them Pepper Martin, Jake Morgan and a first baseman (whether it be Horace Wallin or Wallace Fugler) have been asked to play in the O'Donnell tournament with the Tahoka boys.

Richard Donald leads with 14 straight wins... The seven leading winners of the International League all belong to the Newark team.

The Dodgers and Cardinals put on 23 innings of dizzy baseball with Brooklyn winning the opener 6-5 in 11 innings and tying the nightcap at 7-11 in 12.

Records of the Boston Bees' top five pitchers since they started the drive that has won 22 games in their last 30.

YANKS ARE EXTENDED BY BRITONS

DANGEROUS BEES TAKE DAVID ROLE

(By the Associated Press) They were still chasing after the Cubs on the National League merry-go-round today but the brassing appeared to be exclusively in possession of Boston's beleaguered Bees...

And the payoff is that although the Bees' big four fingers are bunched up the top in a drive that is being right now, they didn't count on Bob Quinn and cagey Bill McKee...

This quartet, aided by a couple of other "cheap" assistants, such as Johnny Lanning and Gabbe Gabler, and without the backing of any kind of batting punch, have bunched up the top in a drive that is being right now...

They have won 22 of 30 starts have allowed only 81 runs in 277 innings, and have a collectively earned run average that should make the Mathewsons and the Waddels turn over in their graves.

They clinched their winning spree yesterday by topping the Pittsburgh Pirates in both ends of a doubleheader, 5-2 and 7-5, with Bush and Fette doing the work.

The Giants salvaged the last game of their series from the Cubs 5-0 behind Harry Gumbert's six hit elbowing. This defeat allows the Cubs' lead to two games.

The Yankees wound up their western whirl by splitting with the Chicago White Sox. They won the first game, 12-11, on Bill Dickcyn's two homers but were nipped in the nightcap, 7-6, despite a pair of round trip belts by young Tommy Henrich...

Washington's Senators knocked the ears off seven St. Louis Browns' pitchers for a twin win 16-10 and 15-5. Lefty Grove hurled a two-hitter as the Red Sox socked the Indians, 4-1, in a single game cut to five innings by rain...

Miss Jones Victor Over Alice Phillips

LUBBOCK, July 26 (AP)—Miss Ednor Jones of Albuquerque, N. M., today packed off the Lubbock country club's invitational tournament.

Already New Mexico's woman champion, Miss Jones yesterday added the Lubbock title to her string with a 6 and 5 triumph over Mrs. Gordon Phillips of Big Spring.

Miss Jones maintained an advantage from the beginning taking the lead with her steady approach shots.

Mrs. Phillips edged into the final round by beating Mrs. Cliff Dean, Lubbock, 3 and 2 while Miss Jones got by her semi-final foe, Mrs. Rhea Vernon of Abilene, one up.

SEA BRIGHT, N. J., July 26 (AP)—Wm. L. Allison of Austin, Tex., moved into the second round of the 50th annual invitational tournament of the Seabright lawn tennis and cricket club today with a straight-set triumph over William Robertson, of Pasadena, Calif., 7-5, 6-2.

Frank D. Gurnsey, Jr., of Orlando, Fla., sixth-ranking player in the southern association, provided the tourney's first minor upset when he defeated the Davis cup veteran, R. Norris Williams, 2nd, of Philadelphia, 6-4, 6-1.

John McDiarmid, of Chicago, the lanky Princeton professor of political economy who won here last year, disposed of Charles Mattman, of New York, 6-4, 6-2, to join Allison in the second round.

SEA BRIGHT, N. J., July 26 (AP)—The Sea Bright lawn tennis and cricket club's golden jubilee invitational tennis tournament got under way today with a galaxy of stars among the mixed field of 85 competing.

Top-seeded in the men's division was Bobby Riggs, Los Angeles. Another contender was Wilmer Allison 1925 national singles king, who came here fresh from the successful defense of his Longwood Bowl title at Brookline, Mass., Saturday.

Looking to the national championships in September, Jadwiga Jedrzejowska of Poland aimed for a match with top-seeded Alice Marble, national singles champ and defending titlist, whom she beat in the semi-finals of the all-England championship.

DALLAS, July 26 (AP)—Argentina's agile soccer wizards, champions of the two Americas, today prepared to return to their home land.

Two trophies—the Pan-American games championship cup and on presented by A. G. Dominguez Mexico's consul at Dallas—were packed off by the colorful squad which triumphed over the cream of North American teams by overwhelming scores of 9-1, 8-1 and 13-0.

The vanquished were, respectively, the Trenton (N. J.) Highlanders, United States champions; the Winnipeg Irish club, Canada's titleholders; and the Texas-Mexico All-Stars, a choice of the best talent in these parts, above and below the Rio Grande.

Their final conquest last night of the Tex-Mex eleven was an all pathetic rout from the start. The team will sail from New York Wednesday.

By defeating the Lamesa team, 28-12, the Odessa Sandbelt golfers moved into a tie with the Big Spring outfit Sunday afternoon.

The locals were defeated in an upset match by an inspired Midland crew, 26-14. Eddie Morgan won the only individual point the Big Spring team scored while the other four points came when Lee Hubby and Lil Coffee managed to win low ball in their match.

In the match at Stanton, the homeboys marked up their first victory of the season by edging out the Colorado golfers, 22-18.

Twin Bill May Decide Tourney

LUBBOCK, July 26 (AP)—The curtain will be drawn Tuesday afternoon on the seventh annual Avalanche-Journal baseball tournament, in a performance that offers possibility of a doubleheader being required to determine a winner.

The Lubbock Hubbers will meet the winners of this afternoon's game between Brownfield and La. Amerada Oilers of Hobbs, N. M. The Hubbers, only undefeated club of the eight that entered, would have to take the field again should they drop the initial Tuesday game to the Oilers, once beaten.

The Hubbers Sunday grabbed second money certainly by a 11 to 1 victory over the Oilers and established themselves favorites to cop the top prize Tuesday.

Tahoka, a surprise club from the start, passed from the tourney picture when the slugging Brownfield club hit eight times to take a 2 to 2 victory.

Lefty Blanchard, who had pitched a 11 hitless shutout over Tahoka in the current joust, Sunday gave up seven hits to the Oilers.

Conoco Loses To Coahoma, 4-3

FORSAN, July 26—Maxie Beard had to go ten innings before earning a 4-3 win for the Coahoma Bulldogs over the Continental Oilers Sunday afternoon on the Forsan diamond.

The Social nine finally won out in the extra frame when Earl Reid, running for Bud Mahoney streaked home following a misplay on an attempted bunt at first base and Mahoney collected "to lay one down" and Johnson dropped the ball after the attempted tossout from the pitcher.

The Bulldogs collected only eight hits off Winmill Brown while Beard was giving up a total of ten. Box score:

Sarazen Is Ready For Major Wars

WINS $3,000 CHI OPEN. GUS MORELAND TOPS AMATEURS

CHICAGO, July 26 (AP)—The boys who golf for a living can start fearing Gene Sarazen all over again.

He was back in the dough, the $3,000 victor's award for the Chicago $10,000 tournament for his first major conquest since his "double eagle" triumph in Bobby Jones' 1935 Masters' Open at Augusta, Ga.

Sarazen fought over a great field to win the rich Chicago tournament with a 72-hole total of 290 at the Medinah country club.

Starting yesterday's 36-hole wind up, tied with George Smith of Chicago, and Harry Adams of Nashville, Tenn., at 144 strokes, a margin of one shot over Horton Smith, Ky. Laffoon and Jim Foulis of Chicago, he worked through intermittent rain squalls to make his slender advantage last. Smith and Laffoon matched his scoring all the way in, but couldn't overhaul him, and a gallant rally by Harry Cooper, who never before had lost an official tournament at Medinah, gained him only a tie with them for second at 291.

Paul Ransyan of White Plains, N. Y., achieved a sensational 33-69, the best round of the tournament on his last trip, to take over the next slot at 292. Sam Snead of White Sulphur Springs, Va., was seventh at 296, and National Open titleholder Ralph Guldahl, wound up even with Jimmy Hines of Garden City, N. Y., and Bill Helinet of Indianapolis, 299.

Gus Moreland of Peoria, Ill., topped the amateur section of the field with 300 strokes, a margin of one shot over Fred Haas, Jr., of New Orleans.

NEW YORK, July 27 (AP)—Everybody along the main stem is pulling hard for Mike Heloise, leatherweight champion (in New York state), who is fighting for his life in a hospital here... Pneu-monia... Three blood transfusions haven't done much good...

Hats off to Prof. Jesse Haines, 44-year-old Cardinal pitcher, who turned in a six-hitter against the Dodgers the other day... No. 1 number of the country right now is Mike Jacobs, New York fight promoter... A quarter there, a half here... Caddyright now is a major industry... Golfers laid out $65,000,000 in fees for bag carriers last year... Is it true that Johnny Bronca, the bespectacled pitcher, who jumped the Yanks, fears blindness?

Note to Yankee fans: The bat Joe DiMaggio broke in Chicago the other day was not his favorite home run club... Joe Turness, former Ryder cup golfer, becomes pro at the Rockville country club at Rockville Center, L. I., today... President Sam Houston may laugh 'em off but rumors that Frankie Frisch is on his way out still bob up... Bob Feller may not know it, but he gives every pitch away—at least to Earl Combs, Yankee coach... Babe Phelps, the beligerent, flat swinging catcher of the Dodgers, sings in the church choir during the winter months... In St. Louis they believe Dizzy Dean will be transferred to the Giants next winter.

Gabby Hartnett has undergone a change since becoming temporary manager of the Cubs... Instead of going out to dinner each night with convivial companions, he now dines alone in his hotel room.

WORTH CROWING ABOUT MARVELS The CIGARETTE of Quality

Payrolls are growing—and the army of Marvels smokers grows right along with them. Men who have more to spend still prefer Marvels quality.

WIMBLEDON, Eng., July 26 (AP) — Overcoming surprisingly stubborn resistance, Don Budge and Gene Mako beat Tuckey and Wilde in the doubles today, 6-3, 7-5, 7-9, 12-10, and gave the United States a 2-1 lead over Great Britain in the Davis Cup challenge round with two more singles matches yet to be played.

With that one point advantage, American supporters now are confident Budge will win Henry Wilford (Bobby) Austin in the final singles match for a row for the clinching point even if Frankie Parker loses to Charles Edgar Hale in the opener.

After sweeping through the first two sets today in rapid style, the Californian appeared to lead toward an easy triumph. But with the veteran Tuckey performing brilliantly in support of the untired Wilde, the British came roaring back to win the third set and almost snatched the fourth as well.

By a strange quirk, Tuckey captured every one of his receive games until the 21st game of the fourth set. And when Budge and Mako broke through then, it spelled curtains for the British. Leading 11-10 then, Budge served a love game for set and match.

Neither Budge nor Tuckey lost a single serve game throughout the first three sets. Wilde was broken four times and Mako thrice.

After Saturday's even division of the opening singles matches, both teams fought hard for the crucial 2-1 advantage they needed to take into the final day's competition tomorrow.

Budge Rated As 'Kingpin'

WIMBLEDON, Eng., July 26 (AP) — The Davis Cup may symbolize international tennis supremacy in the rest of the world, but as far as this tennis capital is concerned the trophy is about to become the personal property of America's J. Coonard Budge.

He has already won the singles and shared both doubles finals at Wimbledon this year, beaten Von Cramm in the inter-zone finals in one of the greatest matches ever seen on the center court, and is greatly favored to beat Austin in the final match of the challenge round tomorrow. Some believe the defection of Perry to the pro ranks gave Budge confidence to ascend to the world's No. 1 position.

Anyway the fact remains he carried the United States through the inter-zone finals and now it looks as if he will have to produce the clincher tomorrow. The United States was favored to hold a 2 to 1 lead after the doubles today, but here is given a better than even chance to tie it up in the first match with Frankie Parker tomorrow, leaving the final struggle with Austin up to Budge.

Acting manager Del Baker said Cochrane would take over the duties Tuesday.

RANCH FOREMAN DIES

RAYMONDVILLE, July 26 (AP)—Funeral services for George Durham, Jr., 48, foreman of the former King ranch at one time the world's greatest cattle empire, were to be held here late today. Durham died yesterday on the King ranch, 34 miles east of here. He became owner of the King ranch at the age of 18, succeeding his 80-year-old father, who survives here. Durham's survivors include his widow and a son, Albert, 11.

Records Taken In Labor Office Theft

SAN ANTONIO, July 26 (AP)—The office of the International Ladies Garment Workers union was looted last night and important records were taken, including evidence to be presented to the national labor relations board in connection with charges against Eric Wright and the Shirley Frocks company, Miss Jo Anne Ramsey, educational director of the union said today.

All records "of value" were stolen, Miss Ramsey said, including those that were to be submitted to E. A. Elliott, regional director of the national labor relations board. She said moving pictures of police arresting pickets at the Frocks plant were not stored in the office and were consequently saved. These are also to be presented to Elliott, she said.

In addition to the records, $5 in cash was taken from a desk, it was reported.

SCHOOL PAYMENT STILL UNDECIDED

AUSTIN, July 26 (AP)—The controversy over the amount of money the state shall pay next year for education of children in its free school system still was undecided today.

Five members of the state board of education met here yesterday to consider reduction of the $22 per capita rate set by that body recently but because the number was one short of a quorum were unable to transact business. They issued a call for another meeting in Dallas next Saturday and also asked Great Sandford, president of the board, to take similar action, which previously he had declined to do.

'CLOTHE OR CLOSE'

DALLAS, July 26 (AP)—Even the "nudist club" girls in the Pan American exposition's peep show today wore clothes. Reason: "A clothe or close" edict of Vice Squad Chief Roy Richburg of the Dallas police last night. The chief and his men toured the show yesterday and peeped then they talked. Out loud. Peep show operators heard words like "indecent" and "vulgar." So, today, even the "life class" models donned reinvent.

consin, accompanied Mr. Roosevelt on a week-end cruise down the Potomac.

The president told his press conference Friday that he had not yet considered the appointment. Many Washingtonians have expressed the belief Mr. Roosevelt might promote a federal circuit of district judge to the high court. Judges Sam Bratton of New Mexico, and William Dennis of San Francisco are among those mentioned.

The names of two democratic senators—Wagner of New York and Logan of Kentucky—also have entered public discussion. Assistant Attorney General Robert H. Jackson, Solicitor General Stanley Reed, Chairman James M. Landis of the securities commission, and Justice Ferdinand Pecora of New York are others in the spotlight.

Hints were given during the court battle that some of the older justices—Sutherland and Brandeis in particular—might leave the bench as soon as that issue was settled. The senate sidetracked the bill last Thursday, and a judicial committee is drafting a non-controversial measure to speed up lower federal courts.

STEEL EMPLOYEES GET PAY CHECKS

EAST CHICAGO, Ind., July 26 (AP)—More than 12,000 former strikers at the Inland Steel company plant today received a half million dollars in pay checks, the first since the walk out May 26.

Pay day at the big plant of the Youngstown Sheet and Tube company, adjacent to Inland, is scheduled Friday when more than 7,000 workers will receive approximately $400,000.

Most of the money, business men said, would go to stores that extended credit to the workers who answered the CIO strike call. The Inland mills resumed operation July 1 and the Youngstown plant on July 13.

BINGHAMPTON, N. Y., July 26 (AP)—Charles Harrigan, who allegedly has admitted participation in the 1933 kidnaping of John J. O'Connell, Jr., today testified three of seven others on trial for the crime aided in the abduction.

The one-eyed Harrigan, Alcatraz prison convict, gave a detailed version of the kidnaping after brief cross-examination by Prosecutor A. G. ### GAS MALODORANT IS PUT INTO USE

DALLAS, July 26 (AP)—The first major step in placing a malodorant in gas mains as a safety measure was started in Texas today.

The Lone Star Gas company announced it would start injecting fumes from amyl mercaptan—akin to an odor usually prevalent around oil refineries or that of burning rubber—into its main line at Gordon, Palo Pinto county. By the end of the week the fumes were expected to permeate the system as far as Dallas.

Thomas Bacon, research engineer for the company, explained that the chemical, potent enough to give off a warning odor by the mixing of only one pound with a million cubic feet of gas, is obtained by putting natural gas gasoline through two processes.

HELD FOR ATTEMPT TO EXTORT MONEY FROM ROOSEVELT

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., July 26 (AP)—William H. West, self-styled "thought wave projector" and "president-maker" sat in a cell at city hall today, considering the cosmos and awaiting a hearing on a charge of attempting to extort money from President Roosevelt.

West, a 47-year-old minister, was jailed last night after police charged he had sent letters to the president demanding either a job or "adequate compensation" for bringing about Roosevelt's nomination at the 1932 democratic national convention in Chicago.

Norwood G. Green, the secret service agent who arrested West, said it took two weeks to trace the origin of the alleged extortor's notes. The minister, listed as a graduate of Drexel Institute and the University of Michigan, has resided here 18 years. He was deported two years ago in a campaign for county clerk.

Scout Camp Great Success, Decree 154 Boys Who're Having Fun There

CAMP FAUCETT, July 26—One hundred and fifty-four boys, all ways a critical jury, have pronounced the first week of the annual Buffalo Trail summer camp a decided success.

Routine schedule of the camp, was altered slightly Sunday to allow for a late breakfast, a chicken dinner and church services. However, there was a fly in the ointment—the bugler forgot and blew reveille at the regular time.

At Stiles, area executive and camp director, had many a heart ache before he made good his promise of fried chicken for the boys. The man from whom it was expected to receive 40 large sized fryers failed him late Saturday afternoon. A hurried trip to Barksdale was unsuccessful, although together with Morris Kitchbaum of Colorado, he drove to Camp Woods and consulted Dr. Ends, the camp physician. At 10 p. m. they were at a ranch house pulling two score of the ill-fated birds from their roosts and shortly before midnight they were back in camp, with a promise made good.

Ice Cream

Another feature of the Sunday dinner was ice cream brought from Uvalde especially for the occasion.

Sunday morning the boys continued with their test passing activities with small groups here and there pondering over signalling first aid, bird study, bridge construction (pioneering), swimming, and life saving.

Sam Atkins and George Thomas Big Spring, in charge of the water front, banished half a dozen boys from the pool during the morning hour for swimming out of position in the boggy cause of weakens their uniforms. Sam concluded they were throwing their gear at too far into the deep hole just for fun.

Sunday afternoon, following a general staff meeting, the boys were assembled at the mess hall for a brief church service. This came the afternoon swim and the grand revue. The day rounded into a fitting climax with music, try at the ice cream and the camp council fire.

Plane Attracts Attention

Visitors in the camp during Sunday included Dr. P. W. Malon and Joe Pickle, Big Spring, who flew down in Dr. Malone's plane from camp on the Boy Scout landing field. A score of Barksdale natives flocked to the field to get a view of the "first plane that's landed here in years."

Saturday afternoon the boys had a rare treat. They were taken some 12 miles to Turkey Pin cave and crawled through the place legendary hideaway of early day bandits. To mark the trail through the cave, they strung binders twine, but as George Thomas said, "by the time we had been in several rooms we ran across binders twine everywhere." However, it made no difference for all the boys came out safe and sounded with pockets bulging with stalebites and stalemates. Adult leaders, some 10 of them, are having a merry time keeping up with 154 boys. The way boys shine up for inspection each morning indicates they are getting plenty of attention.

Monday will be the last day of the first week and Tuesday morning around 100 plan to leave for home. Among them will be around 20 boys from Big Spring's troop No. 1, No. 2, No. 3, No. 5 and No. 7, Mexican troop headed by John R. Hutto.
