School's In Session: Watch Busses, Protect That Child

With the starting of school this last week, Harold Horne and Tom Jinks, Muleshoe school officials, would like to caution everyone relative to safety measures to protect children riding school buses and also children walking to school.

All drivers of school buses have completed a 20-hour course taught by David Gray, a high school instructor, therefore the drivers are certified by the Texas Education Agency.

Some new traffic signals have been installed on the Clovis Highway and around all four campuses of the district.

In general these are the laws that should be obeyed to assure protection of all students: (1) Obey speed limits, especially in the school zones -- the limit is 20 miles per hour (2) Drivers stop completely for unloading students when red flashing lights on the bus are in operation (3) Watch out for small children on their way to and from school (4) Make complete stops, especially where crosswalks are painted (5) Drive as if your child were a pedestrian or a school bus rider (6) Parents should have their children at the assigned pickup points on time or a little ahead of time (7) Parents of Dillman Elementary students need to help supervise your children at loading or unloading zones and at your pickup or drop-off points. We ask please don't let these children cross a highway by themselves. (8) Please do not park in loading zones at Dillman Elementary or Mary DeShazo Elementary Schools. (9) Drive as if YOUR child's life depended on it -- it does!

The Muleshoe School District operates 15 buses and covers 1100 miles in the area each day. This is a big operation and every measure has been taken to have maximum security, but the cooperation of everyone is needed to provide safer transportation of school children.

The Texas Department of Public Safety says that thousands of youngsters will be starting back to

FFA Boosters Plan Fence Building

Muleshoe FFA Boosters met on Friday, August 20 for an ice cream feast and regular meeting with election of officers being held. Elected as president this year was Donald Prather, vice president, Dewey Moore, secretary-treasurer, Norma Prather, reporter Shirley Farmer and historian, Jo Harmon.

The Boosters discussed the fence to be built around the FFA project farm. It will be a chainlink fence and will be locked except when FFA members or instructors are on the premises. This fence is being built in an effort to prevent the stealing of animals such as has been done in the past. The barn construction has been completed, and the school has agreed to pay one half the cost of the fence which is figured at $2.15 per foot. The entire cost of the fence is expected to run around $2,000.

It was suggested that the Boosters decide on some money making projects to build the pens that will be contained within the barn. Each pen will cost about $120.

Any business or individual who wishes to contribute.

FmHA Reorganizes District, County Texas Offices

In Final Competition With 20 Other Boards

The Farmers Home Administration (FmHA) in Texas has announced a reorganization of its District and County offices. In the reorganization there will be a realignment of the counties served by the District Office in Lubbock.

Donald R. Perry, District Director, in Lubbock, said that the following FmHA County Offices will now be under his administration: Plains, Brownfield, Tahoka, Crosbyton, Lubbock, Levelland and Morton.

Spur will be served out of the Vernon District Office.

Muleshoe, Farwell, Plainview, Littlefield, Floydada, Dimmitt and Tulia will be served by the new District Office scheduled to open in Plainview. Perry said that the realignment of District lines will more equally distribute the workload of the employees in the State.

In announcing the reorganization, J. Lynn Futch, State Director, said that the aim of FmHA is to provide a sound credit program to rural people who are unable to obtain credit elsewhere, and to provide the servicing activities needed to insure that the loans are repaid. Futch also said that because of recent budget reductions and lower staff ceilings, the reorganization is necessary to reduce the number of FmHA offices in the State.

The reorganization will be effective September 5, 1982.

The Muleshoe City Council met on Wednesday, August 25 at 7:30 p.m. in special session in council chambers.

The entire session was devoted to discussion of changes and upcoming events concerning the Master Airport Plan for Muleshoe.

Earl Cook, representative of Gordon Herkenhoff and Associates, Inc. of Albuquerque, New Mexico was on hand to discuss these matters with council and to bring them up to date on changes and alterations and what needs to be done to comply with FAA requirements.

Council members also discussed the proposed site of the new airport as well as alternate sites. It was pointed out by Cook that the present airport facilities are less than adequate, since they are obstructed laterally and are too close to the community in general. In a westerly direction from the present airport facilities, there is a water tower and to the east

Each following week after September 2, the Journal will publish the football contest. Entries must be turned in to the Journal office by 5 p.m. each Friday; and if mailed, must be post marked no later than Friday afternoon.

Contestants are reminded that a score MUST be included on each tiebreaker game. Tiebreakers are counted as a part of the total overall score. For instance, missing a winner in a tie breaker will be counted against you.

Each year several entries become ineligible because a name has been left off the entry blank. You must include your name and address, along with your telephone number. No entries will be graded without this information.

Also, entrants should be aware of the fact that no information will be released to anyone regarding winners or points until it is published in the Thursday paper following the games. Many calls last year led to confusion regarding the games. The grading and decisions of the grading judges will be final and ties

Notification has been received by the Muleshoe Independent School Board by the Texas School Board Association and the Texas School Administrators Association that the Muleshoe ISD Board of Trustees has been selected as one of four schools named to the "Honor Board" in the State of Texas. Superintendent of Muleshoe Schools Harold Horne, is extremely pleased at this honor and said "It is a tremendous honor to even be selected as an Honor Board, since there are approximately 1100 school boards in the State of Texas."

On October 3 in San Antonio, the "Outstanding School Board of Texas" will be selected from the four honor board nominees, which of course, includes Muleshoe. The other three boards are those of Corpus Christi ISD, Lovejoy ISD and Ysleta ISD of El Paso. Muleshoe School Board members will be recognized at a banquet which will be attended by more than 6,000 school board members and administrators. A plaque will be presented to the outstanding board. The banquet and annual meeting of the TSBA and TSAA will feature such speakers as Governor Bill Clements, Mark White, Bill Hobby and George Strake.

Board members of the Muleshoe ISD serving under this nomination include Jim Shafer, president; Ben Roming, vice president; Royce Harris, secretary; Ronnie Holt, Gene McGuire, R. D. Angeley and Gordon Wilson, along with Superintendent Harold Horne.

The purpose of this honor award is to recognize and focus attention upon the dedication and ethical service rendered by school boards throughout Texas to the boys and girls of Texas.

The procedure or method of nomination according to Harold Horne, begins with the submission of a detailed application; and, it may be submitted by any Texas school superintendent who is a member of the Texas Association of School Administrators. A large amount of paper work goes into the applications, along with data that collaborates the information submitted.

Topics to be covered on "The Creative Woman" show on August 31, and September 4, include healthy snacks, color in decorating, cooking with herbs and spices, and making drawstring pants. The show is aired at 12:30 p.m. on Tuesdays and Thursdays, and at 2:00 p.m. on Saturdays, on KNEW-TV, Channel 3.

"Snacking can be good for us, depending on what we choose to eat," says Beverly Harder, Home Economist for Arrowhead Mills, Hereford, Texas. Mrs. Harder will talk about snacking as it pertains to different age groups and will illustrate samples of good, nutritious snacks.

Christi Clancy, Interior Decorator with Clancy

Carpet and Draperies in Clovis, will talk about the importance of color in decorating. She will illustrate this principle with samples of draperies, upholstery and carpet.

Another guest will be Mary Ellen Payne, Extension Home Economist from Carrizosa, and she will talk about cooking with herbs and spices. She will talk about the history of cooking with spices and herbs and give some hints about storage and suggested usage of these products.

Ann Person, President and Founder of Stretch and Sew, Inc. will demonstrate how to make drawstring pants, and how to alter a standard pants pattern for this sewing technique.

On September 2, "The Creative Woman" show will include information of using the Jenn-Air Deep Fryer Cartridge, creative table settings and how to decorate using baskets.

Jenn-Air products make cooking fun again. Their convertible cooktops provide unlimited menus and part-time flexibility. In seconds, the grill that delivers great outdoor flavor can be easily converted to provide other cooking options. Sandy Elkins, Jenn-Air Demonstrator for Fields and Tractor in Lubbock, Texas, will demonstrate using the Jenn-Air deep fryer cartridge.

Jewell Limacher, Extension Home Economist from Roswell says that each meal should be a pleasant occasion--whether it's for family or friends. One way is to get all our table accessories into active circulation, combine patterns, blend different dishes, mix flatware and above all, forget the words "everyday" and "company". Mrs. Limacher will demonstrate several different creative table settings.

Another guest on the show will be Kaye Willmott, owner of The Final Touch, in Clovis, and she's going to show one way to display a collection of baskets on a wall. She will also discuss buying points and other interesting uses for baskets.

"The Creative Woman" is produced and hosted by Sheryl Borden for KNEW-TV. The show is made possible in part by a grant from Security State Bank in Farwell, Texas. Viewers can request copies of printed materials offered on the show by calling on KNEW-TV's toll-free telephone lines. The numbers are: New Mexico: 1-800-432-2361 and Out of State: 1-800-545-2359. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Jack Young of Muleshoe, and Mrs. Margaret Gilbert of Nacogdoches.

Mother's pews and family pews were marked with brass candelabras with glass chimneys with arrangements made by the bride's mother, of ivory bows and nosegays of silk flowers nested in the center.

Bryan Johnston of Lubbock, soloist, sang "You Light Up My Life", as the mothers were escorted into the sanctuary. Each mother carried a candle which she used to light her taper beside the unity candle.

The groom escorted his mother into the church and presented her with a dozen long stemmed red roses, after she lit the groom's taper at the unity candle. The bride's mother was escorted by the bride's father.

Mr. Johnston, accompanied by organist, Mrs. Elbert Hamilton and pianist, Mrs. J.R. Johnson, sang "The Wedding Song", preceding the processional. The musicians presented musical selections as the guests were seated before the ceremony.

Guests were registered in the foyer by Mrs. Stephanie Barrett of Muleshoe.

Prior to the bride's entrance to the sanctuary, the candlelighters unrolled an aisle runner. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an heirloom candlelight gown designed by Priscilla of Boston. The entire gown was covered in French alencon lace over silk finished English net and was beaded with seed pearls. The Victorian neckline was scalloped in French alencon lace and seed pearls and the candlestick sleeves fell to the wrist with scalloped edges. The princess line bodice fell to floor length and swept to back fullness. Scalloped edges accented the entire chapel length train. The bridal attire was completed by a Juliet cap of seed pearls and cathedral length veil. Candlelight silk sandals fashioned by the mother of the bride were trimmed with Alencon lace matching the bridal dress and accented by hand sewn seed pearls.

The cascading bridal bouquet of ivory silk orchid, ivory and apricot tiger lilies and silk foxgloves was accented by pearls and ribbon tied with love knots of silk baby's breath. The bouquet was designed and arranged by the bride's mother. The bouquet rested on the Bible carried by the bride's mother and sister on their wedding days. Intertwined in the bouquet were a handkerchief belonging to the bride's paternal grandmother and a new keepsake handkerchief which was a gift from the bride's mother.

The bride carried out the traditions by wearing a gold locket belonging to her maternal grandmother and a diamond ring of her paternal grandmother as something old. Her something new was a pair of pearl earrings from the groom, and her something borrowed was her wedding dress and veil belonging to her cousin, Mrs. Richard Ojeda of Houston. Her something blue was her garter, made by her mother was designed with a tiny pocket holding a penny minted the year of the wedding. She wore pennies minted in the year of the bride and groom's births and a lucky six-pence in the shoe.

The bride presented her mother a monogrammed handkerchief with the couple's names and the wedding date as she entered the sanctuary and presented the groom's mother with a matching handkerchief as she and the groom left.

Mrs. Pam Atwood, sister of the bride, served as matron of honor; her other attendants were Mrs. Sherrell Wheeler of Amarillo, Mrs. Cindy Beaty of Lubbock, and Mrs. Jan Pipkin of San Angelo. The attendants wore apricot formal length dresses of luster-glow polyester featuring a V-neck which crossed in the front, sweeping in the back into a capelet.

They carried cascading nosegays of silk azaleas, gysophylla, cherry blossoms and baby's breath in shades of apricot and rust. They wore matching head garlands in their hair and lace gloves accented with satin ribbon and pearl buttons.

All of the accessories worn and carried by the attendants were designed and made by the bride's mother. The candlelighters, Mrs. Candi Cain and Debbie Cain, cousins of the groom from Nacogdoches, wore identical dresses of matching fabric of the other female attendants and were fashioned with a wide lace ruffle accenting the off-the-shoulder formal length gowns. They also wore garlands and lace gloves similar to the bridesmaids.

The groom was attired in a dark brown tuxedo with an apricot ruffled shirt. Bryan Johnston of Lubbock served as best man. Groomsman were James Atwood, brother-in-law of the bride, of Muleshoe; Jimmy Hill of Brownwood and Gary Trammel of Breckenridge. Trammel and Hill also served as ushers for the occasion. They wore tuxedos of dark brown trousers, ivory jackets and apricot ruffled shirts.

The reception following the wedding was held in the home of the bride's parents. Guests were greeted by the parents of the bride and were registered by Mrs. Carolyn Hill of Brownwood.

Mrs. Jeanine Powell of Amarillo, Mrs. Cindy Beaty of Lubbock, Mrs. Sherrell Wheeler of Amarillo and Mrs. Jan Pipkin of San Angelo, served at the bride's table. A centerpiece of apricot carnations, tiger lilies and fern cascading off a silver candelabra was flanked by six single tiered ivory cakes accented by apricot roses, gold rings and doves connected by stairs adorned with cherubs and leatherleaf. In the center of the table, in front of the candelabra, was a single layer topped by the traditional bride and groom in a crystal arch atop a reflector mirror. The tablecloth was white satin with scalloped edges, decorated with sequins and seed pearls. The center of the tablecloth featured two love doves of sequins and seed pearls. The tablecloth was designed and made by the bride's mother.

The punch table was of apricot polyester with apricot daisies and baby's breath at the gathered cascades. Apricot nectar punch was served from a crystal punch bowl by Mrs. Allison Johnston of Lubbock.

The groom's table was an hor d'oeuvre table of Butter Cheese Straws, Sausage Biscuits, Cold Cut tray, Marinated Shrimp, Chicken Carolines, Sliced Turkey, Rolls and hot mustard, pickled mushrooms, and fresh fruit and nuts. All refreshments were prepared by the bride's mother and ladies assisting in the house party. The table was centered with brass candlesticks of various sizes. The tablecloth was dark brown over a beige circular skirt accented with gold rope and brass rings. Assisting the bride's parents with the hospitalities were Mrs. Roger Hill of San Antonio, Mrs. Calvin Hurst of Wellington, Mrs. Thelma Switzer of Blanket, Mrs. Jan Cain of Nacogdoches, Mrs. Jenny Davis of Nacogdoches, Mrs. Gary Dale, Mrs. Curby Brantley and Miss Linda Guelker of Muleshoe.

For the wedding trip to points of interest in New Mexico, the bride chose a tan suit with a tan and pink silk shirt accented by a bronze belt and shoes. After the honeymoon, the couple will make their home in Lubbock.

On Friday, August 13th, the couple was honored with a formal rehearsal dinner in the home of the bride's parents. Approximately 40 guests attended the dinner of chicken casserole, salads, and dessert of cake and English trifle. Assisting Mrs. Jack Young in the hospitalities were Miss Linda Guelker, Mrs. Roger Hill and Mrs. Calvin Hurst.

The empire bodice featured an overlay of Chantilly lace encrusted with seed pearls. The A-line skirt flowed into a chapel length train. A deep band of lace formed the hemline of the skirt and train. Her headpiece was a Juliet cap of matching lace holding a lace edged veil of illusion.

Following tradition, the bride wore a pearl necklace belonging to her grandmother, Mrs. Gladys Wilson, as something borrowed. Something blue her garter, made by the groom's aunt, Marilyn Cox. Something new was an engraved necklace given to her by her brother, Danny and Susan Wilson. She wore pennies in her shoes minted in their birth dates for something old.

The attendants wore identical formal length gowns of apricot silista with a blouson bodice, featuring a scoop neckline and self fabric bows at the shoulders. A floor length circular skirt fell from a natural waistline and was tied with a self fabric belt.

They carried folding white embroidered fans with apricot daisies, gardenias and baby's breath flowing down with love knots, made by Jo Harmon.

Ronnie Cary of Bovina served as best man. Groomsman was Greg Harper of Sudan. Ushers were Danny Wilson, brother of the bride, of Muleshoe and Kyle Sager of Santa Fe, N.M.

Courtney Brown, cousin of the bride, presided at the registration table, which was an outdoor wicker table and chair, containing the bride's book, with an apricot plume pen with silk arrangement, accented the setting.

Ushers seated the maternal grandparents, Mrs. Gladys Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. George Y. Mitchell, all of Muleshoe. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. James E. Cox of Amherst and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sager of Littlefield.

An apricot lace cloth skirted the reception table, which was enhanced with an arrangement of apricot

School Board Honored

"Mrs. Elizabeth Watson was extremely instrumental in co-ordinating the completion of our nomination procedures. She collected clippings, letters and other certification for the board and we owe her a great debt of gratitude for her work," Horne explained. Also, Helen Adrian did the art work which carried the theme of "Busy Hands" throughout the application. "She is also to be commended for her help in this matter," Horne stated.

According to the Superintendent, the first step in the nomination procedure is to submit all materials and applications to the executive director of Region 17 Education Service Center in Lubbock. Sixty-four schools are in Region 17; however, not all schools submit an application. Out of the ones submitted, the Regional Board picks one, in this case Muleshoe ISD, to represent Service Center Region 17 in competition with 20 other regional winners or nominees."

From the twenty that are sent in from regional, the state picks four school boards for the title of "Honor Board;" then, out of these four will be the one selected to be designated as Outstanding

School Board for the State of Texas. Candidates in all phases of competition are screened from an extensive criteria as to the proper functions of a school board. "Many citizens, including the Journal, wrote letters of commendation which aided our board in the selection process," Horne commented. "For all this effort, the Muleshoe ISD Board of Trustees is most grateful," he said.

The Muleshoe ISD Board application had to be substantiated in eleven separate categories, and proof of function had to be given. The criteria included: policy making and appraisal, ethical dealings with professional staff, operation within written school board policies, carrying the school story to the community, supporting educational improvement projects, loyalty to school and programs, maintaining the harmony among board members, providing financial support for school system, participation in workshops and activities designed to improve performance, putting the welfare of children above personal or political motives and demonstration of commitments to a code of ethics.

school, many of these for the first time. Last year in Texas, the pedestrian death accounted for approximately 16 percent of our total traffic fatalities, several of these were school age children.

So once again we will be seeing those big yellow school buses back on the streets and highways. The Texas Department of Public Safety wants to remind you that Texas law prohibits the passing of a stopped school bus that is loading or unloading passengers when the lights are flashing. If you are in doubt stop -- those few moments you lose may mean a lifetime to some youngster. None of us wants to be responsible for the death or injury of a young child so remember to slow down in the school zones in the mornings and again in the afternoons.

Just because most of the children will be in school, we must not forget the preschooler who will still be playing in the residential areas. Remember, to slow down as you are driving through school zones, in and around school areas, and around buses. Drive as if you had a child there -- because someone has!

bute or to pay for the cost ($120) of one of these pens is encouraged to do so, so that the barn may be completed in time for the FFA students to use it to the best advantage this year. For those who wish to donate or buy a pen for the barn, a plaque will be hung on that pen designating the donor, which would be a good advertisement for businesses or a good project for civic clubs. A total of 42 pens will be contained in the barn when the work is completed.

The FFA Boosters will begin their membership drive in the near future and parents of incoming freshmen students as well as parents of current FFA members are encouraged to join this organization. Many things have been accomplished by the FFA Boosters and each accomplishment benefits every boy or girl who is in FFA or takes vocational agriculture in some way. President Don Prather said, "We are proud of our organization and accomplishments, we are proud of our FFA members and officers and are proud of our two fine vo-ag instructors who have really helped to get the FFA organization back on its feet. We have a lot of plans for the future and they include every student who is involved in these activities. We need your help." The FFA Boosters are not limited to parents; businessmen and civic organizations, as well as others are encouraged to join.

FFA Boosters regular meeting nights are on the third Monday night of each month and visitors are welcomed.

will be broken according to prior standards. We must emphasize the request that no phone calls be made requesting information regarding winners prior to publishing the names of the winners.

Cash prizes and points will go towards the final outcome of the contest and the winner will be awarded accordingly. A first place award will be given a cash prize and points toward the final decision for the grand championship. Second and third place winners are also given weekly prizes and points. A running total on each winner (first, second or third) is kept.

There will once again be an overall grand prize for the ultimate winner of the contests. So sharpen up your pencils and get ready to make this one of the best, most competitive contests ever.

Local FFA Chapter Plans Coming Events For Year

The Muleshoe FFA and FFA Boosters ended the summer season with a swimming party and ice cream supper on Friday, August 20 at the City Swimming pool and the Ag building.

The party was given for all new and current FFA chapter members or prospective members and their parents. A total of 16 members enjoyed the swimming and food. FFA parents provided the refreshments for the chapter.

The Muleshoe FFA held their first officer's meeting on Thursday, August 26 at 8 p.m. in the ag building, planning upcoming activities.

September will be the date of the first chapter meeting, which will be used to set up committees for the year, elect sweetheart and plowgirl, and if freshmen are far enough along, a greenhand installation will be held.

Also at the September meeting, a board of directors will be named to set policies and responsibilities for the new project barn located where the old ag farm used to be. The FFA is proud of its new facilities and would like to let everyone know how much they appreciate the work that went into getting this barn.

An FFA open house is planned sometime in October. Also on December 6, Muleshoe has been selected as the site for the District FFA Banquet and Sweetheart Contest. The District President and also president of the Muleshoe Chapter this year is Kim Farmer and District Advisor is Carl Wheeler. Other activities will be published as they are made available.

Looking busy has become one of the great talents in government work.

Halfway Field Day Set September 14

Research aimed at helping High Plains farmers make better management decisions about their crops will be demonstrated Sept. 14 at the 73rd annual field day of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station (TAES) at Lubbock and Halfway.

The Texas A&M University High Plains Research Facility at Halfway, 14 miles west of Plainview on U. S. Hwy. 70 is the host this year, said Dr. Bill Ott, resident director of research for the Lubbock - Halfway centers. The annual program alternates Council... are major power lines. A new runway cannot be developed on the old site due to the property layout and the developed acreage (farmland, etc.) that surrounds it.

Another point brought out by City Manager Dave Marr was that when major industries start looking at locations for businesses, one of the first things they look at is airport facilities. There is a big element involved in expanding, since the present Warren Field has no facilities that can be expanded. Cook said that even existing buildings were obstructions to the airfield.

between the two facilities, in cooperation with the High Plains Research Foundation.

Five major displays are planned on the tours of the research sites at Halfway, said James Bordovsky, research agricultural engineer and field day chairman. These stops will illustrate research being conducted in weed research, cotton breeding and variety testing, and cotton bollworm control; explain work on new management strategies including on-farm computer application; and display a new multi-function irrigation system which will apply both water and chemicals through a dual nozzle system.

Also featured on the tour will be research on sorghum improvement, mite control, soil fertility, grain sorghum performance, and soybean evaluation. Farm machinery, irrigation equipment and other farm implements will be on display by area manufacturers and suppliers.

Tours will begin at 1 p.m. and end at 5 p.m.

The field day is a cooperative presentation of TAES, the High Plains Research Foundation, the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and the Agricultural Research Service of the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

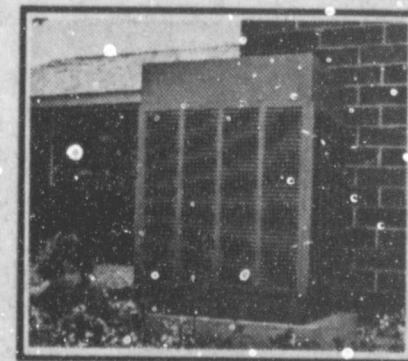

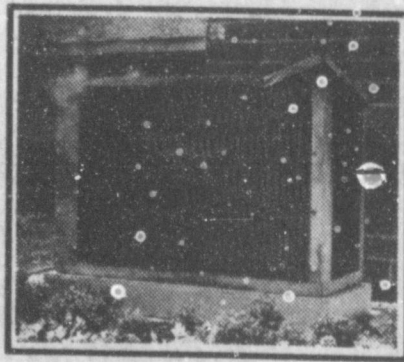

Professional staffs of these agencies will be on hand to answer questions and discuss problems with agricultural producers, home owners and gardeners, Bordovsky said.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor,
Governor Clements recognizes that the individual classroom teacher plays an integral role in providing quality education for our children.
The teachers salary increase during Governor Clement's administration has increased 45.5 percent. When Governor Clements took office the average Texas teacher was paid $13,042 a year. At the start of school this fall the average teacher will make $19,019 a year.
Also you will notice that four former Attorney Generals have endorsed Governor Clements. They are: John Ben Sheppard, Will Wilson, Waggoner Carr and Gerald Man. Also former Governors who have endorsed Governor Clements are: Allen Shivers, Preston Smith and John Connally. So you see that many Democrats and Independents will vote for Bill

Clements on November 2. Readers be well informed as you prepare to vote.

Letters to the Editor:
I believe that the time has come that something is done about the Railroad crossing on North 1st street. For some time now we have had to put up with deep ruts, loose ties, stray railroad spikes and any number of other hazards when we use the crossing. The ruts seem to get deeper each time the crossing is redone. Our vehicles develop more rattles and tire damage each time we cross. Maybe we can get some repairs done if we all let our complaints known to the Authorities. The Santa Fe roadmaster is Mr. J. L. Duncan, PO Box 2469, Lubbock Tx 79408. Lets all write him and let him know our concern.

ON RUNAWAYS
NEW YORK -- Today's teenage runaways are escaping from instead of running to something, as their flower children counterparts did in the 1960s according to a survey article in the August issue of Ladies' Home Journal. The runaways are now trying to get away from disintegrating families instead of seeking alternative lifestyles.

Area Producers See How Dollars Spent

Robert Newton of Enochs saw first-hand how producer dollars in cotton research and promotion are helping growers compete in today's tough economic climate.
Newton, accompanied by his wife Louise, were among several ginners and growers who recently 'went the extra mile' to learn about their Cotton Incorporated self-help program.
The group participated on a tour sponsored by the Texas Cotton Ginners Association, which recently visited Cotton Incorporated's Research Center located in Raleigh, North Carolina. The facility is funded by U. S. cotton growers.
"If everyone connected with cotton could come and see the research facilities and the work that is being done by Cotton Incorporated there would be a lot more support for the program," said Newton.

The group heard staff reports on agricultural, textile, economic and marketing research. Newton commenting on textile research and development said, "I didn't know it cost as much to develop cotton goods as it did synthetics. I thought the end product of 40 cent cotton should be a lot cheaper, but I found out there is a lot of cost in chemical processing of cotton. A lot of research goes into the permanent press finish."
The group toured the Cotton Incorporated Research Center and Neil Street facilities which houses spinning, weaving, and dyeing machinery similar to that which is found in actual mills. There, evaluations are made to determine cost effective methods of manufacturing cotton fabric. The objective is to increase the use of U. S. cotton at the mill level. Newton said, "I can see that we need continued research to bring us more money for our cotton. Of course, we're all looking for that."

Tony Price, executive vice president, Texas Cotton Ginners Association said, "Basically our directors feel that gins are the focal point of each cotton community and should be prepared to discuss the merits of Cotton Incorporated just like they discuss insecticides, fertilizers, or a lot of other interests connected with cotton production.

"Because we feel this is so important, we went to Raleigh. We're encouraging others to visit Raleigh as well. Additionally, our group is tentatively scheduling a second tour in November," said Price.

Laziness explains more failures than ignorance, but the combination is catastrophic.

Becalmed

This happy crew doesn't mind too much being becalmed because they can always break out the oars and row to shore, though it may cut down on the fun of their outing. But what happens when we get becalmed in the midst of life? Where do we look for oars and which way is the shore? Then above all we need some word of direction and reassurance from the world invisible to help us resume our journey.

The Church proclaims this word of direction and reassurance for man who waits in this life for fulfillment from beyond. From the Bible the wind of the Spirit blows fresh and strong to send us on our way through this mysterious life confident and unafraid.

Governor's Statewide Voter Registration Drive Underway

On August 11, 1982, Governor Clements proclaimed the period August 11, 1982 through October 3, 1982 as the official period for a statewide "Voter Registration Drive." Based on the fact that only two out of every three eligible voters in Texas are registered to vote, eligible voters not currently registered to vote must be encouraged to do so by October 3, 1982 --the date by which Texans must be registered to vote in the State's November 2, 1982 general election.

In conjunction with the Governor's Proclamation, the Secretary of State's Office has initiated an extensive voter registration drive. Organizations across the state and the media are being asked to participate in this effort. In addition, an effort will again be made to contact eligible high school students to urge them to register to vote.

The following information sets forth the criteria that is necessary to be met for voter's registration in Texas.

The qualifications for voting are: 1. You must be a citizen of the United States. 2. You must be at least 18 years of age on the day of the election. 3. You must be a resident of the county, or political subdivision conducting the election. 4. You must be registered to vote.

Persons NOT entitled to vote include: 1. Those convicted of a felony whose full rights of citizenship have not been restored. 2. Those persons found mentally incompetent by a court of law.

You may register to vote by: 1. Completing a post-card application for voter registration and mail it postage-free or present it in person to the voter registrar in your county. 2. You may register to vote at any time, but your application must be received by your county Voter Registrar by October 3, 1982 in order to vote in the November 2, 1982 general election. Because October 3, 1982 falls on a Sunday, persons wishing to register in person at the voter registrar's office by the October 3rd deadline must do so no later than the close of business, Friday, October 1, 1982. 3. You may register to vote if you are at least 17 years and 10 months of age, but you may not vote until you are 18 years of age.

To obtain a voter registration application, contact your county voter registrar or call the Secretary of State's office toll-free at 1-800-252-9602 and one will be mailed to you.

The Speaker Reports

by Bill Clayton

AUSTIN—The Legislative Budget Board (LBB) is an entity widely discussed within the walls of our State Capitol. Yet, many persons not involved in the actual day-to-day operation of our state government are unfamiliar with the major role played by the board in the legislative process.

Statutorily created in 1949, the LBB is responsible primarily for making appropriation recommendations for all state agencies. The ten members of the board are the Lt. Governor, chairman; Speaker of the House, vice-chairman; the chairmen of the Senate Finance Committee and the Senate State Affairs Committee; two additional senators appointed by the Lt. Governor; the chairmen of the House Appropriations Committee and the House Ways and Means Committee; and two additional members of the House appointed by the Speaker.

The staff of the LBB begins their budgetary preparation work long before the Legislature convenes in January. Throughout the interim the staff analyzes budget requests from state agencies and meets with personnel from the agencies to receive testimony on the need for certain dollar amounts. The board and its staff is authorized to inspect the facilities of the agencies for which appropriations are made.

The Legislative Budget Board meets during the months prior to the regular legislative session to review agency requests and staff recommendations. The decisions of the board provide the basis for the General Appropriations Bill which is introduced in each house and distributed to every member of the Legislature at the beginning of each session. The board also makes a recommendation as to the constitutional limitation on the growth of state appropriations.

Another important function of the LBB and its staff is the preparation of fiscal notes outlining the probable cost of any bill or resolution calling for the expenditure of state money. During the 1981 Regular Session the Legislative Budget Office delivered 4,229 fiscal notes to the members of the Legislature. Such documentation has proven valuable to the members as they weigh the pros and cons of proposed legislation.

An additional duty assigned to the LBB is the task of performance audits and program evaluations of all state agencies. The board and its staff determine if the agencies are complying with statutory objectives and evaluate the efficiency and effectiveness of agency operations. The board sends its findings and recommendations in a performance report to the Legislature at the start of each Regular Session.

The Legislative Budget Board is a respected entity and an essential component of the legislative process. State legislators have come to depend on the LBB's work to assist them in their many decisions regarding appropriations.

Administration Blasted For Grain Price Debacle

The President of the Texas Farmers Union said today that Ronald Reagan and John Block have no one but themselves to blame for the recent crash in grain prices.

Speaking at a statewide agriculture rally in Hico, TFU head Mike Moeller said that the Reagan Administration had single-handedly created the situation which this week resulted in record-setting low prices for soybeans, corn and feedgrains.

Noting that some agricultural economists are now acknowledging that U. S. agriculture is in a full-fledged depression, Moeller said, "In the 1880's, my great grandfather sold shelled corn for $2.00 a bushel. Now, one hundred years later, our farmers are being offered less than $2 a bushel for their corn. How many other industries could survive these inflationary times while receiving less for their products than they did 100 years ago?"

Moeller went on to enumerate the steps the Reagan Administration has taken to insure low farm prices: First, he said, there was the four-month delay in lifting the Soviet grain embargo. Second, the passage of the Administration's "Anti-Farm" Bill in late 1981. Third, what Moeller called the Administration's "Mickey Mouse" 1982 set-aside program. Fourth, the defeat by the Administration of the 1982 Farm Crisis Act. Finally, Moeller cited the Administration's refusal to renegotiate a long-term agreement with the Soviets.

"By driving this series of nails in the American farmer's coffin, Ronald Reagan and John Block guaranteed the surplus commodities and low prices we are now experiencing," Moeller added.

He called on the Administration to support the Farm Crisis amendments in the budget reconciliation package currently before Congress and to use all existing authority to pump new life into the failing U. S. farm economy.

CHANGING ATTITUDES ABOUT DWI

Few things in this country have changed as much during the past few years as public attitudes on drunk drivers. It is a change we can all be thankful for.

Most of that change, in my opinion, can be attributed to the organization of Mothers Against Drunk Drivers (MADD), and the attendant publicity and editorial support they have received from our newspapers. They have succeeded, where others have failed, in drawing attention to the tragedy that has claimed the lives of thousands of Texans.

It was not long ago, for instance, when some public officials who ought to lead by example were openly contemptuous of our laws against driving while drunk. Much of this problem started nine years ago when my opponent became Lt. Governor and helped pass the law reducing the legal drinking age from twenty-one to eighteen years of age. Now Mr.

Hobby, feeling the heat of irate parents and loved ones, and perhaps personal remorse, has said he favors tougher drunk driving laws--another switch from a previous position.

Political promises, however, are easily made. If a politician can't get excited about an issue of this magnitude in nine years, it seems unlikely that he would get excited and pursue corrective legislation in another four years.

So I hope the Mothers Against Drunk Drivers will stick to their guns, and I hope they continue getting support from the people of our state. Their efforts to put an end to this carnage on our highways has my support, and I hope it has yours.

Of one thing we can be reasonably sure. Starting next year we will have a new Lt. Governor, and that will make it easier. If you have thoughts on this subject, please write me at 1213 W. 34th, Austin, 78705.
