Classes Nominate '60-61 Favorites

Nominations for 1960-61 class favorites were made Wednesday afternoon in class meetings.

These nominees along with the candidates for Mr. and Miss Texas Tech will be voted on next Wednesday and presented at the Coronation Ball, March 11.

Nominated for the vacant senior vice-president's office were Ted Ferguson, Gayle Mullanax, Don O'Neal.

Candidates for senior class favorites — Boys: Bob Honts, Charles Draper, Dick Toll, Bill Dean. Girls: Carolyn Jenkins, Janis Jones, Marcia Vick.

For Fall

41 Top School Honors

Texas Tech's honor roll has been released for the fall semester, with 41 students having a perfect average of 3.0 grade average.

There were 432 names on the honor roll this semester as compared with the 375 for the spring semester of 1960. There were 43 students with a 3.0 average in the spring of 1960, while this semester saw a slight drop to 41.

Honor roll membership is based on undergraduates enrolled for 12 semester hours or more and who ranked in the upper five per cent of the student body in their schools.

The School of Agriculture had only two with 3.0 averages. They were, however, 35 with averages ranking from 2.50 to 2.88.

The school having the most students with perfect averages was Arts and Sciences; the total was 30. There was a recording breaking 141 students with averages between 2.56 and 2.95.

Those with three point averages in Arts and Sciences were: Dorothy Ann Bowles, William E. Clark, T. Gail Coltharp, Betty Daisy Davie, Michael J. De Sha, Dwain G. Fuller, Bobby D. Grant, Carolyn P. Grau, Hazel Maurine Hale, John M. Haschke, Judy Kay Jones, Jan Justice.

Kathleen P. Kelley, Carolyn Enis Kirby, Vauda Kay McCallon, A. Anne McElheny, Nancy Jo Mankins, Denise Honey Meador, Dorcas A. Pettigrew, Cecilia Kay Porter, Linda Dennis Price, Nan Booth Simpson, Henri S. Still.

Fern E. Vestal, Dixie Lea Ward, Harriett Ann Watts, Irene Duval Wiley, Charmayne Wilson, Sandra Wolfe, Beatrice K. Young.

Taking three point averages in Agriculture were Harold Ray Duke and Richard T. Sharp.

Three students in Business Administration received the top honors, David Lee Patton, Suzanne Stafford and J. Anne Whittenburg.

In Engineering, five students topped the list. They are Howard J. Browning, Ronald Collins Hyatt, Hugh Willson Lyon, F. Milton Schramm and Jerry Leroy Yoes.

Priscilla Gibson was the Home Economics School top student.

Girls are: Joan Dorris, Janis Cobb, Ouida Daugherty, Melinda Harrison, Ann Jaroszewski, Beth O'Quinn, Kay Woody.

Candidates for sophomore favorites are — Boys: Charlie Aycock, Hank Hunt, Jerry Parsons, Lee Pfleger.

Girls: Claudia Austin, Lynn Buckingham, Linda Kester, Ann Mason, Barbara McMurrey, Sandy Sellers, Kakie Shaughness, Mary Thompson, Susan Zeigler.

Nominees for freshman class favorites are — Boys: Tex Cowart, David Irwin, Dick Harris, Royal Ferguson, Charlie Borgan, Wayne Davis.

Girls are: Karen Anderson, Suzy Alderson, Anne Long, Mary Jo Garret, Mary Alice Hill, Ann Douglas, Carolyn Buxton, Mary Ellen Cross.

Running for the six places open on the Freshman Council are: Kay Hooper, Anne Long, David Woltz, Jean Carpenter, Kathleen Kelly, Herman May, Alice Utterback, Karla Dickson.

Jeffrey Lee Sarff, Sondi Nelson, Mary Beth Dorbandt, Suzanne McCarthy, Sarilyn Bay, Donna Dellinger, Kathy Gordon, Charlie Bogan and David Berry.

Business Administration candidates are: Ken Baily, Virgil Wilson, Charlie Crocker.

Engineering candidates are: Miles Sadler, Jerry Avery and John Wehrle.

Ballot boxes for the voting Wednesday will be placed in the Union, the Ad. Bldg., the Home Ec. Bldg., the Ag. Bldg., the East Eng. Bldg., and the C. and O. Bldg.

Battle Fumes For Senator

by the Associated Press

Two of the most active candidates in the U.S. Senate special election race drummed for votes in the state capital Wednesday.

They were Atty. Gen. Will Wilson, who held a late afternoon coffee party and news conference, and the GOP candidate, John G. Tower, who also held a public coffee break reception.

Congressman Jim Wright of Fort Worth closed out the third day of his week-long 1,700 mile helicopter campaign at Beaumont.

Maury Maverick Jr., at Houston said he favors President Kennedy's school program which in 1962 would mean "in excess of $40 million for school construction and teachers' salaries in Texas, plus 1,268 scholarships of $700 each."

In Lufkin Jim Wright said he would place his record of experience against that of any of his major opponents. "I'm sure that they all must be fine men, he said. "But I seriously question their qualifications for this particular tough and demanding job."

Tower announced he would accept a recent challenge to debate Wright as soon as Wright has met Gonzalez, Maverick, Wilson and Blakley in television debates. He said then he would "immediately cancel any conflicting engagements I may have then and meet him whenever and wherever he chooses."

Nine Campus Acts Await 'Raider Rambles' Friday

Nine campus talent acts will perform in the first production of "Raider Rambles" in the Tech Union Friday night.

The production is a variety show sponsored by the Tech Union program council.

The top nine acts were selected from about 20 contesting groups in three days of auditioning.

The program will begin at 6:30 p. m. Friday. Judges for the talent acts are David Blackburn, manager of Civic Lubbock; Rex Webster, Lubbock advertising executive; and Mrs. John Robert Moxley, Morris Sheats, junior from Lubbock, will be master of ceremonies.

The top two or three acts will perform for the half-time at the Tech-TCU basketball game immediately following the show.

Letters Are Coming!

The Toreador offices have been deluged with a flood of letters this week, but—due to a scheduled four-page paper today—we can't run them until Saturday.

In the Saturday issue, The Toreador will attempt to print all of the letters received.

It is The Toreador's hope that our readers will continue to express their opinions in letters.

Letter writers must remember that letters must be signed and adhere to our letter policy.

Selected to perform are: the Symphonium Swingsters and the Madhatters, a pantomime act; Jo Chandler, whip artist; Tommy Taylor, accordion player; Clyde Bateman, vocalist; Dan Johnston, magic act.

Also, W. J. Laurence Quartette, a singing group; Jan Payne and Sara Gordon, modern dance; and Pat Walker, a vocalist.

HEC Desires 'Lump Sums'

AUSTIN (AP)—The Higher Education Commission wants the Legislature to continue giving colleges lump sum appropriations, rather than detailed item-by-item money grants.

Rep. G. Baker of Houston, commission member, told a House appropriations subcommittee today that itemized appropriations would put higher education recruiters "in a strait jacket."

Under the lump sum plan, Baker said, the state's colleges have flexibility in recruiting for top administrative jobs, "just like business."

Baker is a former vice president of the Humble Oil and Refining Co. He appeared as the commission asked the subcommittee for a 19 per cent increase over the present $121,536,874 allotted to state supported colleges for the next two year fiscal period.

Steglich Discusses Racial Difficulties

"Myths and Race Relations" is the title of a special program to be given at the Tech Union Forum in the workroom at 7 p.m. today by Dr. Winfred Steglich.

To be followed by a question-and-answer session and refreshments, the lecture will be concerned not with integration, but with segregation, according to Dr. Steglich, a Tech sociology professor.

"We're most concerned with popular—that is, Southern—misconceptions regarding racial relations," he said. Discrimination is old and relatively universal but segregation is a new and unique problem; we'll discuss both the trivial and the tremendous."

Dr. Steglich said that such an issue is "essentially controversial" although the main subjects of discussion are the historical and sociological aspects of racial friction.

"The racial issue is one of our most important problems since it affects our foreign policy and all aspects of our society," said Dr. Steglich.

DR. S. M. KENNEDY

Favors Name Change

Kennedy Places Trust In Future Of Tech

A stocky ex-Army officer of World War II has taken over the reins of Tech's largest school, that of Arts and Sciences. He has definite views on the growth of Tech and the A&S school.

"IT IS A fine privilege to have the confidence of this great institution and equally sobering to have the responsibility of an undertaking of this size." This is what Dr. S. M. Kennedy replied when asked how he felt about the permanent appointment.

His views on the future of Tech lay in expansion. There are two things he said he always feels when he returns to the campus. They are a sense of pride at how far Tech has come and the recognition of how far the opportunities are for Tech to go in the future.

"TECH SHOULD realize the great importance of being a major institution and take a leading stand. There has been great achievement at this institution and there is no time to rest on laurels," Kennedy said.

The new dean believes that the Arts and Sciences school is the center of the institution and has, as an important factor, a great breadth and variety in offerings and experience.

OVER THE LAST four or five years there has been a pronounced and increasing growth of the A&S school. "I have no miracles to work, but it is my belief that the school, working together, still has an almost unlimited opportunity for qualitative and quantitative growth," the new dean said.

The World War II veteran has been active in the Army reserve for the past 18 years and has been recently promoted to major of civil affairs. It may be interesting to Tech students to know that he cut a trigonometry class to join the reserve.

WHEN ASKED about a name change for Tech he said that at a recent meeting of deans held at Harvard he was asked to explain what kind of institution Tech was. After he explained the other deans remarked, "why don't you change the name to fit the facts."

Dr. Kennedy still stands with the statement he made in 1959 on the name change in the "Tex Talks," the newspaper published by the Tech Ex-Students Assn.

"IN VIEW OF the continuing maturity of this institution, why not attempt to improve where we can by choosing a name which is descriptive, accurate, and appropriate? This is a Texas institution. This is a State institution. This is a University, not a college. Why not, therefore, simply become Texas State University?"

He enrolled at Tech as a freshman in 1938 and stayed to receive his B.A. and M.A. in government, so he is not a newcomer who thinks the name should be changed.

THE 37-YEAR-OLD dean has attended several institutions among which are the University of Nancy, France; Oklahoma A&M; Texas Tech and the University of Colorado, which he attended every summer from 1947 to 1952.

His hobbies are reading, playing golf, and tending his large backyard. He married a Tech graduate and has two daughters, aged two and ten.

When asked about the children, Dr. Kennedy laughed and said: "They are strong Tech supporters."

The new Arts and Sciences Dean had a word for the future.

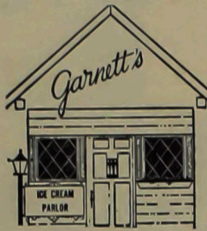

"I view the future of Tech with calm confidence and look forward to the continued progress of the school of Arts and Sciences, students, faculty and the administration."

Social Score

by Lynn Buckingham

It has been slightly less than a year now since Carolyn Jenkins, the 1960-61 Toreador society editor, took me, the archetype of eager, but tender young reporters, under her wing to show me the so-called 'ropes' necessary to pull in preparing society pages.

With the gift and obligations of a society page comes the society column, in my case the news-filled item called The Social Score. However, as is the case with all writers, prospective and otherwise, there comes a time when there are just no more ropes to tug.

Such is the situation I find myself in on this occasion. The normally busy-to-the-point-of-being-hecktic Friday, Saturday and Sunday combination at Tech this weekend leaves much to be desired by an ultra-curious society editor.

ENOUGH SAID. Among the few events scheduled to take place this weekend is a Heart Fund benefit dance sponsored jointly by Kappa Sigma and the Lubbock chapter of the American Heart Association at 9 p.m. Saturday in the Lubbock Fair Park Coliseum.

Tickets for the dance will be available all this week between 8 a.m. and 3 p.m. in the lobby of the Tech Union. The price of the tickets is $1.50 per couple. No stags will be admitted.

Music for the benefit dance will be provided by the Four Teens and the Tornados.

OTHER SATURDAY activities include the Agronomy Club banquet in the Tech Union at 8 p.m. and the Pi Beta Phi presentation at 7:30 p.m. at the Parkway Manor. The Pi Phi's will sponsor a coffee at their lodge at 10 a.m. Saturday.

Sigma Chi has scheduled a banquet at the Holiday for members and pledges at 7 p.m. Sunday.

The sole activity scheduled before the Tech-TCU basketball game here Friday is the annual Tech talent show, "Raider Rambles." The show will begin at 6:30 p.m. in the ballroom of the Tech Union.

THE TECH UNION will sponsor a square dance at 7 p.m. Thursday in the Rec Hall and Carpenter Hall will give a dance at 7:30 p.m. in the dormitory cafeteria.

PI BETA PHI has scheduled a luncheon at noon Thursday in the Tech Union.

THE SOPHOMORE class has announced plans for the annual Sophomore Hodge-Podge, set this year on March 3 from 8 to 11 p.m. in the Rec Hall.

Tickets for the sports dance will go on sale Monday in the men's residence halls and will be sold Monday through Friday in the Tech Union.

In charge of arrangements for the dance are Lee Pfleger, publicity; Kenny Abraham, tickets; and Ann Wilson, decorations. The Classics, a band from Odessa, will play for the dance.

MEMBERS, pledges and dates of Sigma Kappa enjoyed their annual dinner dance Friday at 7 p.m. at the Pioneer Hotel. A buffet-style meal was served and music for dancing was provided by Don Davis and his band.

Dinner dance favors were wooden cigarette lighters with the Sigma Kappa crest.

Geraldine Loky has been named Sigma Standout for February and Judy Price was named Best Pledge for the month.

13 Tech Coeds Present Newest Bridal Fashions

The newest spring and summer styles for brides, bridal attendants and mothers of the bride were shown last night in the gala bridal fashion show sponsored by Hemphill-Wells on the third floor of their downtown store.

Models for the fashion show represented all of Tech's 11 social sororities and Lubbock Christian College. Miss Joan Wienke, Lubbock, the 1961 South Plains Maid of Cotton, was also a model.

Pam Hearn, Pi Beta Phi; Puddin Herman, Kappa Alpha Theta; Ella Ruth Jackson and Kay McCorkle, Lubbock Christian College; and

Jan Barton, independent.

Commentator for the show was Mrs. Wilma Heaton, Hemphill-Wells ready-to-wear buyer. She was assisted by Mrs. Mabel Cranmer, bridal consultant.

Tech, High Schools See Coliseum Action

Activity is abundant on the Texas Tech campus this weekend as the college plays host to three high school regional basketball tournaments, a state quarterfinal play-off, and a Southwest Conference basketball game.

Starting with action in class AAA at 2 p.m. and ending with two championship matches in classes AA and A Saturday night, Municipal Coliseum will be the site of 12 contests, involving some 18 teams.

The Southwest Conference match will pit the forces of Red Raider Basketball Coach Polk Robison's cagers against those of Texas Christian University's Horned Frogs, with the 8 p.m. Friday game being preceded by a contest between the Tech Picadors and the Ince Oilers at 6.

In the playoff contest, Amarillo Palo Duro will battle Midland at 2:15 p.m. Saturday for the right to represent the region in the class AAAA state tournament in Austin.

In the 3A tournament games Friday, all four teams in the pairings were at the tourney last year also. Seminole and Brownwood meet in the 2 p.m. contest and Dumas plays Lamesa at 3:30.

Seminole has been playing in class 2A in past years, but is making its seventh consecutive trip to regional competition. Lamesa won the 3A division last year and Seminole was defeated in the finals of the 2A tournament.

In addition to winning the tournament at Lubbock last year, Lamesa won the state championship at Austin.

Saturday's games will begin with two morning games between class A teams. Plains, the only returnee from last season's tournament, meets Farwell at 8 for the initial contest and White Deer will contest Iraan at 9:30.

AA action will start at 11 a.m. with Dimmitt, last year's winner, meeting Fort Stockton. The second contest will begin at 12:30 with Hamlin and Hamilton playing their match.

After completion of the 4A play-off between Amarillo and Midland, the 3A championship will be played off, with the Friday afternoon winners meeting each other.

The class A championship game will begin at 7:30 followed by the AA championship match at 9.

The 3A games Friday afternoon, the Tech games Friday night, the 1A and 2A semifinals, the 4A play-off, the 3A championship, and the two championship games of 1A and 2A compose one session each in the six-session affair.

Prices for the tournaments will be $1 for adults and 50 cents for others, and the 4A playoff prices are $1.50 and 75 cents.

FOR RAIDER BASEBALLERS

Diamond Play Begins

By JAMIE ANDERSON
Toreador Sports Writer

Six returning lettermen have greeted new coach Berl Huffman for the beginning workouts of the varsity baseball squad.

George Gibson, the team leader in most departments last season, is among the returnees. Other lettermen on the roster are Bill Dean, Elton Howard, Tom Prichard, Roger Mac Evans and Sam Gipson.

The Raiders are hoping to improve on the 8-7 record compiled last spring. Both Gibson and Dean hit above the .300 mark last season with .389 and .333 averages respectively.

Nine players are coming to the squad from last year's freshman team. Infielders in this group include Darwin Hilliard, Dennis Willett and Doug Gibbins. The pitchers are Ramey Brandon, Michael Bromley, Tim Roberts, Bill Eastwood and John Sosnowy. Cagle Davis is the lone outfielder.

Looking at last year's statistics, the Raiders batted .265 to their opponents .247, and garnered 134 hits while holding the opposition to 112. In the run department Tech held a 146 to 89 margin over their foes.

Missing from this season's squad are Bruce Boyd, who hit .389 last season, outfielder Ken Warren, and pitchers Charles Flanagin and Zan Miles. Flanagin was the work-horse of last year's mound crew. In 1960 the Red Raiders captured four victories from West Texas State, two from Sheppard Air Force Base, and two from Highlands University. Southwest Conference foes Rice, Texas and Texas A&M each defeated the Raiders once, Sul Ross hung three losses on the squad, and Highlands gained revenge by winning two games.
