Commissioner Is Charged With Operating Still

HUGO, Okla., March 7. (Sp.)—A Choctaw County commissioner, his two sons and two other men are charged with violation of internal revenue laws in operation of a liquor still.

Alcohol tax unit agents yesterday said they confiscated a 100-gallon capacity still set up for operation near the home of Commissioner Charles Cawley, 3 1/2 miles southwest of Fort Towson.

Charged with Cawley were his sons, Frank and William Cawley, James C. Justice and Jesse Ernest.

Cawley and his son, William, and Justice and Ernest were released on $1,000 bonds each after arraignment before a U. S. commissioner at Antlers. Frank Cawley is a hospital patient.

Little Film Actress Returns To Work

HOLLYWOOD, March 7. (Sp.)—The retirement of Lora Lee Michel, nine-year-old film actress recently the subject of a stormy custody battle, lasted less than a month.

She started work in a new picture yesterday.

It seems that Mr. and Mrs. Otto H. Michel, foster parents who won custody of the child, changed their minds about taking her back to Texas. A studio press agent quoted Mrs. Michel:

"Lore Lee is happy here. She loves acting and she loves Hollywood. It would be a shame to cut her career short at this point."

The child is not under contract, but makes more than $100 a day when she works.

The dismissals will be nationwide. Approximately 3,000 employees in hospitals and homes and 4,000 in other activities are included, VA said.

Managers of VA field stations will be told Monday of the number they will be required to release. Dismissal notices will be handed out by March 1.

Worley Approved As Associate Justice

WASHINGTON, March 7. (Sp.)—A Senate judiciary subcommittee today approved the nomination of Rep. Worley of Texas to be an associate justice on the U. S. Court of Customs and Patent Appeals.

The three-man subcommittee acted swiftly and unanimously after hearing Worley commended by Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas.

The full judiciary committee may act Monday.

SEOUL, March 7. (Sp.)—Korean army headquarters said today they had broken up an attempt by an unidentified ship to supply Communist guerrillas in the republic of South Korea.

The early Chinese invented a primitive method of drilling oil.

Here's how to pick a good used car
Hard way—
1. With the motor running, accelerate sharply a few times and have someone watch the exhaust pipe. Heavy black smoke is from burning oil, and usually indicates worn or fouled piston rings. Heavy blackish smoke is from too rich a fuel mixture, and points either to a badly adjusted automatic choke, or a carburetor that is fouled or worn out. At the same time listen for rattle crankshaft bearings, wrist pin bearings, or camshaft rattle. Other points to be checked are battery, starter, generator, oil pump, radiator and water pump.
2. Take out the seats and look over the upholstery thoroughly.
3. Carefully examine the body for any evidence of serious bashes.
4. Slide under the car, or have it lifted on a hoist, and examine the main frame and all chassis members for misalignment, or other evidence of a bad collision.
5. Check headlights for proper focus, aim and brilliance.
6. Test the brakes, the clutch, the heater motor.
7. Shake the front wheels by the top of each tire to see whether kingpins or bushings are worn and loose. Examine for evidence of steering misalignment.

Easy way—
1. Come see us—your reliable local Buick dealer. On every used car we sell, we have already made three tests—and a couple of others more. And we have thoroughly reconditioned each car to eliminate the question marks, the annoying and costly "bugs" that might come out later. Whatever we tell you about a car's condition, we stand behind.
2. All you have to do is walk around and see that you like the color, give the tires a good-natured kick, then slide under the wheel and settle yourself, and imagine how you'd feel driving that beauty down the street to park it proudly in front of your home!
3. Drive over this evening and feast your eyes on the buys we feature!

Mahon Says It's American Duty to Preserve Peace

Preservation of peace should be the number one objective of Congress and the American people, according to Rep. George Mahon. Mahon made the statement following a series of meetings with top military leaders and the committee on military appropriations, of which Mahon is chairman.

Although the state of readiness among the military may be great, the forces are smaller, he observed. He expressed a fear that if the rate of procurement of planes was not increased, the air arm "will become less modern at a rapid rate."

He said that Gen. Dwight Eisenhower had told the committee that budgetary provisions were not adequate for putting the U.S. ready for war, but a larger military expenditure is not now advisable and certain "calculated risks" must be taken.

Most military leaders anticipated no immediate difficulties, but forecast eventual trouble between the U.S. and Russia unless "some way can be found to establish good will between the United States and Russia."

The committee has been conducting hearings for seven weeks and is due to present the military appropriation to the House around April 1.

Edwards Shines In San Angelo Rodeo Sonny Edwards, Big Spring, practically changed the weather with a sixing catch and the Thursday to lead calf ropers in the opening session of the San Angelo Rodeo.

Edwards roped his calf and tied the frisky animal in 13.8 seconds. He was approximately five seconds to the nearest competitor, finished fifth with 21 seconds. Crisp weather named ropers fingers and made calves saltier, thus slowing times in general. Second performance is being held today and the fourth and concluding one will be Sunday.

Rural Road Meet Is Called For Tuesday Here

A county-wide meeting concerning a rural roads program has been called for 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in the district courtroom.

The session is being held under auspices of the Texas Rural Roads association in connection with its plan of dedicating natural resource taxes for permanent improvements only.

Robert G. Dillard, executive director of the Texas Rural Roads association, is to be speaker at the meeting. It is one of a series of such rallies being sponsored by the TRRA.

Original arrangements were made by the late Judge J. E. Brown, and his successor, Judge John L. Dibrrel will preside at the meeting, introducing Dillard.

Explaining the purposes of the informative meetings, Judge R. N. Stripling, San Augustine, president of the TRRA, said that "natural resources, our state's capital assets, should be a severance tax, finance a continuing program of permanent improvements, such as rural roads, soil conservation, and permanent buildings."

"This is a sound business and economic principle which will prevent the state ever going bankrupt by the unsound practice of using capital investments for current operations. It will prevent the need of a sales tax on our daily necessities of life."

During the meeting here, Dillard will discuss the purposes and proposed plans for the rural roads program in detail. An invitation is extended to any citizen in the area interested in rural development.

Program time at the noon luncheon of the American Business club Friday in the Settles hotel was devoted to an informal discussion of the school bond election set for March 7. Roy Reeder was the principal speaker with Graham Purcell and Ted Phillips assisting.

Reeder urged the members to vote and to ask others to vote. He stated that the carrying of the election would not only give Big Spring a high school building of which to be proud, but would give the city needed educational equipment. He expressed his belief that education was the answer to the world crisis. He also urged the members to take an interest in all elections, especially in the choice of public officials.

Trophies for the volleyball and relay races were on display at the meeting. Carl Coleman, high school coach, announced that 19 teams had entered his relay races.

J. W. Purser, club president, announced that the Stamps Quartet had been booked by the club for April 27.

C-C Directorate To Meet Monday The new chamber of commerce directorate is to meet for luncheon and a short business session at noon Monday.

George White, chairman of the chamber's highway committee, will probably submit a proposal that the organization recommend widening of highway 80 to four lanes from the Coston refinery to Municipal airport. J. H. Greene, manager, said. The meeting will be held at the Settles.

LAST SHOW TONIGHT Fun Is Keynote Of Lions' Minstrel

Final performance of the Lions club's annual variety show, "Tune Times", goes on the board tonight, and it will be in the wake of a fast-paced presentation Thursday night which scored with a near-capacity audience at the municipal auditorium.

Comedy, music and colorful movement combined to make the show enjoyable as home-talent fare. Some of the acts Thursday night were downright good, others were on the corny side, but all found favor with the crowd.

First act of "Tune Times" is a series of sketches ranging from songs to blackouts. These include a girl's dormitory scene, a take-off on a busy executive's office, a drive-in skit, a park scene complete with nursemaids, eggs and "big" babies; a schoolroom sketch. Hit of this division was a satire on a woman's devotion to her morning radio programs, with Mrs. E. B. McCormick appearing as the smitten housewife.

"Tune Times" picks up in tempo and spirit with the second act, and old-time minstrel staging. The costumes, lighting and staging are particularly effective, and the big chorus added fine background to the specialty numbers.

The minstrel misses the easy-going humor of big Dallas Whaley and Rex Van, who were black-face men in prior years, but develops some new end men of capability. A standout for stage poses is Dr. Cullen Chapman. Other principal comedies are Dan Conley, Solley Riley, Jack Smith, Bob Trivett and Bill Dawes. All contribute equal numbers but Smith, who does a desecrator bid for fame and Riley, who has his troubles with water. Biggest load in the second act is shouldered by Harold P. Stock as Mr. Interlocutor, who does an able job of keeping the whole machinery moving without a creak.

A group of "Hi Yella Strut Dancers" make a comely contribution. Most professional item of the evening is Mary Jane Hamilton's vocal rendition of "Blue Skies". Hamilton sings effectively, and the number is aided by a star-lighting effect when the chorus members use flashlights to a darkened stage. The minstrel orchestra under direction of J. W. King, performed yeoman duty throughout the evening, and the show was kept moving under vigorous direction of Paul Hagen of the John R. Rogers Company.

Lions members merged forces between acts to put on their traditional prize-candy sale, and this added to the informality of the evening. Fun was the keynote, and everybody Thursday night seemed to have fun.—BW.

It Takes Courage To Eat Food With Which You Are Unfamiliar

Food always has been a popular subject, but we are of the opinion that history does not list the names of some heroes associated with that topic that should be remembered whenever tasty meals are prepared.

The principals in these earlier experiments apparently used the trial and error method, and we think their courage is above challenge. Pioneering in eating must surely have been a risky and thankless type of adventure.

RIBBON RAMBLINGS By Mildred Young

Got a long, long letter in yesterday's mail from someone who signs their name, "Your Country Cousin Of The Sandhills." We highly suspect that it's from someone we know though they say they "have never laid eyes" on me and wouldn't know me if they met me on the street.

However, they go on to say: "But from reading your 'Ribbon Ramblings' I did think that I had the inside of you figured out pretty accurately. I had come to the conclusion that you did not own a mind and heart of your own. Or if you did have a mind you did not use it to excess, and if you had a heart it was so heavily insulated with ice so thick you never could penetrate it if you lived to be a hundred years old."

"But, alas, along comes this piece about LaVrue Rosch and my fine blown conclusions about you take wings and join the flying saucers. In that one, you penetrated the ice and reached down deeply in your heart and brought up images that lived in you and lived in your reader, too. Those images were sad; they were yours and they were real and honest and that's what counts in a world where there dishonesty seems to be an attribute."

"Occasionally, a member of the staff does reach deeply in his heart and brings up illusions that live in him and live in his readers. But they are so few and far between. This achievement looks simple. Perhaps it isn't so simple. Perhaps it is too difficult for a farmer to understand." Earlier in the letter the reader had said that "This gripe is in behalf of your country readers. You do have some you know."

He goes on to say: "Tommy Hart did it with a simple piece about school days. Joe Pickle with his yo-yo. McNair, I believe it was, did it with a piece about a ten-year-old circus queen, and Bob Whipple did it with a plane ride to Dallas." (Incidentally, R. G. MacReady wrote about the circus queen.)

"Usually, though you folk take a squint at a scientist who in turn takes a squint at an atom and comes up with a brilliant theory that may benefit the human race in ten, fifteen or twenty years.

"This may be okay for your readers who walk the paved streets of the city. But it's no good for a farmer who is penned up in a house entirely surrounded by a vicious sandstorm whose debris he has to breathe for six or eight hours."

"When the mailman finally comes, he staggers out through the gray mist to his mail box and gets a dead grip on his precious Daily Herald and wobbles back through the same whirling mass of dust and sand to his scanty protection."

"Then he opens his paper and 'Ribbon Ramblings' offers him little, a mechanical lady who can detect his diabetes. Our reader then goes in for a terrifying account of what happens to the farmer. This ends with "he has no use for his Daily Herald. It has chained him to reality. So he buries it into a far corner of the room, takes a long breath of fresh clean sand and watches the gray sheets whirl outside his window while he listens to the weird scream of the wind around the eaves of the house."

"I'm sorry, pal. But Tillie—the mechanical lady is no help to your country readers. What the farmer wants for the next thirty days or more is escape from reality. He wants to hie-hike back to school with Tommy Hart and yo-yo with Joe Pickle. He wants to fall in love with a ten-year-old circus queen with the guy who wrote that piece, and take a trip to Dallas on an airliner with Bob Whipple and suddenly be able to turn gray hair into black with a wave in it... or stand with Mildred Young beside the grave of a school chum who dreamed a dream and lost his life trying to make that dream come true."

"Now won't you folk more often than you do reach deeply in your own heart and bring up a few illusions we farmers can ride out of these sandstorms? Won't you?"

Sorry that we didn't have room to use all the letter or make any comment today, but as our competition, the radio, would say, turn to this page Sunday morning and we'll have something to say about what we consider reality.

Greater Unity For Government's Economic Policies Recommended

WASHINGTON, March 2. (AP)—The economic policies in some degree is necessary to make this nation's foreign economic policies secure.

This would open up American markets to greater sales of foreign goods. The idea is to promote prosperity and economic stability in other areas, especially western Europe.

Some State Department officials also say that the United States should consider the effect of its domestic agricultural programs on the world generally. They particularly want a study of whether a foreign use may be found for this nation's agricultural surpluses that would help the anti-Communist world.

Provision is also made for a White House Co-ordinator to direct the work of the committee.

Houston Police Hold Girl in Slaying

HOUSTON, March 2. (AP)—Police are holding an 18-year-old girl charged in Columbus, Ohio, with first degree murder in a Feb. 14 knife slaying.

The girl, who identified herself as Barbara Adams, surrendered to Houston police yesterday after telephoning Columbus police. She said Columbus police advised her to report to Houston officers.

Capt. Glenn Hofmann of Columbus police told the Houston Chronicle by telephone that the charge resulted from the Feb. 14 slaying of Daniel Miller, 22, in front of a downtown night club. Hofmann said Miller was stabbed 24 times. He said four people were involved in the slaying.

"I wasn't involved in the killing at all," Mrs. Adams told Houston reporters. "I just happened to see it, that's all."

TEXAS SHOULDERS BURDEN Hospital Program Lauded By Shivers

AUSTIN, March 2. (AP)—Gov. Allan Shivers said "you and I" will pay for the care of the unfortunate persons in Texas' state hospitals and special schools.

"The Legislature decided we would do this Texas job in a Texas way," the governor declared, "without calling on the federal government for financial assistance."

In a radio report to the state last night on the work of the special session of the Legislature that ended Wednesday, Shivers said that Texas' first decent program of reform for state hospitals in 306 years is in sight.

The special session started on the problem without a dollar in sight, he said, and 24 days later had it solved with $25 million on the line—$1 million for operation and 5 million for new buildings in the coming year.

"Tomorrow, as a result of this progressive step, our state hospitals will be places where sick people can be brought back to mental and physical health—rather than unsafe, unsanitary places where they can exist without much comfort and without much hope of a permanent cure."

"The magic formula" that made it possible, he said, was a combined vision, orderly planning and co-operative action.

"This great thing does not come as a gift from the Legislature to the unfortunates of Texas," he said. "You and I will pay for it. In Texas the funds to support and improve our state hospitals will come from the smokers of cigars, the consumers of beer, wine and whisky; from the oil, gas and sulphur producers, the public utilities, the insurance companies, and others whose taxes were given a slight boost for the effective period of the appropriations."

Shivers said the people of Texas have indicated they want to continue to support worthwhile public programs. That, he said, puts us "face to face with another business problem for the state of Texas—the program of sound financing and budgeting."

He said that within a few days

he would appoint a citizens' committee to be known as the Texas Economy Commission to study the executive branch of the government and recommend changes in the interest of economy and efficiency.

WEST LOS ANGELES, March 2. (AP)—Charles McCarthy, 59, choked to death on a fried egg on the eve of his wedding.

McCarthy choked during a pre-nuptial drinking party, an autopsy surgeon disclosed yesterday. Police, however, detained the bride-to-be, Mae Flower Ingraham, 45, sometime Mack-Sennett bathing beauty, and three men celebrants for further questioning.

Dr. Frederick Newbarr said a wound on McCarthy's head, which police thought had been made by a bludgeon, evidently occurred when the man fell as he strangled.

BILL TO SCRAP ELECTORAL COLLEGE CONCEDED DEAD FOR THIS SESSION

WASHINGTON, March 3. (U) — A survey of the House Rules Committee and the House leadership indicated Thursday that the Lodge-Gosssett bill to abolish the electoral college is dead for this session of Congress.

The bill would submit to the states a proposed constitutional amendment. This, if ratified by 36 states, would discard the present system of giving the winning presidential candidate the entire electoral vote of a state and, instead, split up the electoral vote among the candidates in ratio to their popular vote totals.

It already has passed the Senate and is in the House Rules Committee. If it clears the rules committee, it must get a two-thirds vote of the House before being submitted to the states.

For two reasons, many Republicans in the House don't think much of the proposal.

First, they believe it will hurt them in large northern states which they normally carry for their presidential nominee and in which they now receive the entire electoral vote under the so-called "unit rule."

Second, many of them want to kill the proposal because it bears the name of Sen. Lodge (R-Mass.), who has disagreed at times with the policies of the regular Republican leadership in Congress.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Ephesus Becomes Christian Center

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL

In our day almost any so called message, theory or philosophy set forth by a ready talker can gain converts. This is true both in the fields of religion, politics or others.

Many such doctrines seem fantastic to the Christian believer; some even immoral, but in a changing and troubled world they gain converts.

The history of the spread of the early church of Christ, largely through the efforts of the Apostle Paul and his associates, is fascinating reading to us of the modern world—and heartening too.

So far in our lessons the work has spread—our lessons have shown—from Jerusalem and other Palestinian cities, to various parts of Asia, to Greece, and would shortly be preached in Rome.

Rome had heard of this new religion through its men who were sent to rule over and to administer Roman laws in the conquered provinces, but before Paul, they had not received the message directly.

In today's lesson we read how Ephesus, the city of the Greek goddess Diana, was made center of the Gospel of Christ and became a center of His message. The great temple of Diana—one of the wonders of the world at that time—was in Ephesus, and her worshippers were many.

Paul came to Ephesus and found some disciples there. He asked if they had received the Holy Ghost and they said no; they had not heard if there was a Holy Ghost. Paul asked unto what were they baptized, and the answer was unto John's baptism.

Paul explained that John baptized for repentance of sins, and that they should believe on Him who was to come after. So then Paul baptized them and the Holy Spirit fell on them, and they too spoke in strange tongues, and prophesied.

Paul preached and disputed in the synagogue at Ephesus until he found those who believed and spoke evil of his teaching, then he transferred his activities to the school of one Tyrannus—of whom we know nothing more. Here he stayed for two years, according to their reckoning, and all heard the "word of the Lord Jesus Christ both Jews and Greeks."

God wrought special miracles by Paul. St. Luke tells us. Handkerchiefs or aprons were brought from his body to sick people and they were healed of their diseases.

One odd instance is told us that is even humorous. Seven sons of a Jewish high priest tried to exorcise evil spirits that possessed some persons by saying, "We adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preacheth." Instead of the evil spirit being banished, however, the man who was afflicted leaped upon the would-be exorcists, saying "Jesus I know, and Paul I know, but who are ye?" and he beat them so badly that they ran away wounded.

Many believers in the city brought their pagan books and burned them in the market place—many of them of great value.

Now Diana was the goddess worshiped generally by people in that city, and by making and selling small silver shrines to her, silversmiths had grown wealthy.

One, Demetrius, called the workmen of this craft together and pointed out that if the Christians continued to make converts at the rate they were doing, there would be no market for these wares.

The silversmiths revolted, therefore, and shouting, "Great is Diana of the Ephesians," they took their case to the town clerk. But he told them that everyone knew that the city of Ephesus was a worshiper of Diana, and that no one had spoken ill of her, and that if Demetrius and his craftsmen had anything against these Christians they could bring it before a court of law. He said he saw no cause for all the uproar, and dismissed them.

Writing in after years to the church at Ephesus, Paul adjured them to "let not the sun go down upon your wrath. . . Let all bitterness, and wrath and anger and clamor, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice: "And be ye kind one to another, tender-hearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you."

MEMORY VERSE:
"Be ye strong in the Lord and in the strength of His might." —Ephesians 6:10.

New School Plans Are Complete

This is the second in a series of articles on the local school situation.

What sort of plant is envisioned in event voters approve bonds for a new high school on Tuesday?

The last two questions may be answered pointedly. The plant would be located on school-owned property on Eleventh Place between Gollad and State.

On the west would be the auditorium with 1,000 seating capacity and with quarters at the rear for the band and choral groups.

The center—and a one story unit—would be devoted to demonstration and laboratory type classes in keeping with the zoned-plan of the building.

A wing to the north of the central entrance would contain the principal's and other offices, book-rooms, storage vault, waiting room etc.

Adjacent to the central entrance would be a wing for the library and stemming off to the east would be the classroom unit, a two-story affair.

Floors through the building would be asphalt tile; the halls terrazo; the walls all acoustically treated.

A separate unit would be the gymnasium, capable of seating 1,650 spectators as well as providing regulation space for games and physical education purposes.

Of the $950,000 proposed issue, $685,000 would be earmarked for the auditorium and high school, $145,000 for the gymnasium, $90,000 for furniture and equipment.

Application for an REA loan of $750,000 has been made by the Wes-Tex Telephone Cooperative.

Announcement came Friday from Stanton, following quickly on heels of action by the special session of the legislature in an act which legalized the telephone cooperatives.

The application, according to cooperative spokesmen, was filed "to provide adequate rural telephone service in the area."

Wes-Tex's proposed system would more or less parallel Cap Rock Electric cooperative lines and would serve members in Howard, Martin, Midland, Glasscock, Andrews, Ector, Borden and Dawson counties.

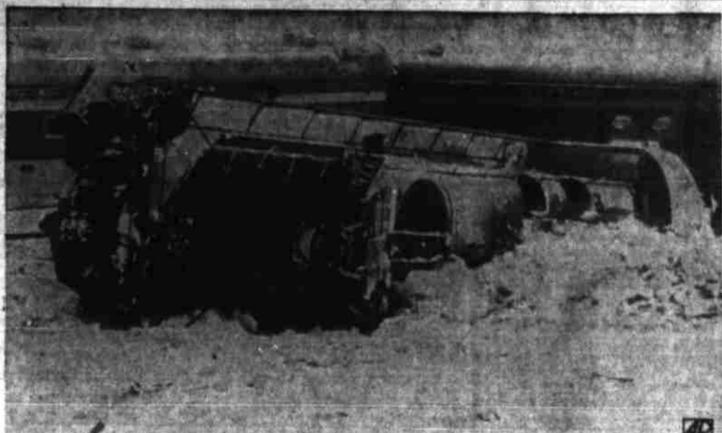

The Wes-Tex Telephone Cooperative was organized in January with J. W. Anderson, Stanton, being named as president.

Other directors named were Mrs. Glen Cox, Lenorah, vice-president; Mrs. Cliff Hazelwood, Stanton, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Carl Grant, Big Spring, Mrs. A. J. Stallings, Lomax, J. C. Spaulding, Knott, M. L. Blocker, Midland, M. L. Graham, Stanton, and A. A. McKinney, Big Spring.

Two other applications for REA assistance have been filed for part of the area sought by Wes-Tex. One is by the Coahoma Telephone Exchange, which would embrace the area in northeast and southeast Howard. The other is by the Ackerly-Knott Telephone company and projected to serve the Knott, Ackerly, Vestmore, Sparenburg, and Lenorah-Tarzan areas.

As it has been at any time since the war, this is the view not only of British and American diplomatic observers, but numbers of Frenchmen as well. The country has had a disquieting series of reverses and can't seem to do anything to help itself to get out of the doldrums.

Rufala recently recognized the independence of Ho Chi Minh, the guerrilla leader in Indochina. France has seen days when she would have gone to war about such a thing. But not now. She sent a note of protest.

DELAY SEWER ACTION

HCJC Building Bids May Be Asked Soon

Possibilities of early advertising for bids on the Howard County Junior College plant was seen Friday.

As soon as some minor items in the plans can be completed, bids will be asked, according to a board announcement. It is possible that the bids may be called within four weeks.

Action on a proposal by the City of Big Spring to serve the area with sewer and water connections was delayed pending receipt of building bids.

Instructors and other members of the official family were elected at the board meeting Thursday evening. Resignation of John F. Jones, effective at the end of the current semester, was accepted with regret and with a resolution of esteem.

Formal action calling an election of trustees on April 1 was taken by the Howard County Junior College board of trustees Thursday evening.

Horace Garrett and L. H. Thomas, whose terms expire, will offer themselves as candidates again for six-year terms.

Four points County voting boxes No. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 (Big Spring), No. 11 (Center Point), No. 6 (Gay Hill), and No. 14 (Morris) will ballot at the fire station in Big Spring.

Box No. 10 (Forsan) will ballot at Forsan; No. 13 (Knott) and No. 15 (Boash) will ballot at Knott; No. 9 (Cohoma), No. 5 (Vincent) and No. 7 (R-Bar) will ballot at Cohoma.

Deadline for filing is 10 days prior to the date of election on March 21.

Candidates for trustee of the Big Spring Independent School District have until March 21 to file for places for three-year terms.

Three members whose terms expire in April are Dr. J. E. Hogan, Co. Hygo Conleand monDaj h.ee Dan Conley and John Coffee.

STRACHEY DECLARED RED

Dismissal Of British War Minister Asked

LONDON, March 3 (U-P)—Lord Beaverbrook's anti-labor newspapers today demanded the ouster of Left-winger John Strachey from his new post as war minister despite a stiff government denial that he ever was a Communist.

Both yesterday's tabloid Evening Standard and this morning's daily Express played up some of Strachey's old pro-Communist statements the likes of which twice got him into trouble with U. S. authorities on visits to America before the war.

The Standard said Strachey, named war minister this week, "remains an avowed Communist," and "has never publicly repudiated his belief in Communism."

A quick reply from Prime Minister Clement Attlee's official residence at No. 10 Downing St. called the charges "disgraceful."

The Express pointed to the fact that Strachey's new job would make him at least partly responsible for Britain's military intelligence set-up, which is under fire as a result of the conviction of Dr. Klaus Fuchs.

Quoting pro-Communist statements from two books published by Strachey in 1932 and 1936, the Express editorial said: "He will not command sufficient public confidence in that position," the editorial continued.

Truman Asks Quick Coal Board Report

SECRET DEFENSE PLANS CHECKED

WASHINGTON, March 3 (U-P) Senators began a detailed check today into secret blueprints for mobilizing the nation's civilians and industries in event of war.

Chairman Tydings, (D-Md.) assigned three members of the Senate Armed Services Committee to the survey, after commenting that testimony the committee heard yesterday convinced him that the nation's defenses are at a peace time peak.

President Truman said much the same thing at his news conference yesterday. This apparently was in reply to some protests in and out of Congress that economies instituted by Secretary of Defense Johnson have weakened the Army, Navy and Air Force.

Sen. Gurney (R-SD), one of the lawmakers named to study the nation's mobilization plans, said he is less confident about the state of American preparedness than Tydings.

Tydings spoke out after the committee had listened behind closed doors to the testimony of Acting Chairman John R. Steelman of the National Security Resources Board (NSRB). This agency has the task of developing plans for using the nation's resources in time of war.

"The board has tackled its huge problems intelligently," Tydings said. "It has arrived at a pretty good understanding to meet any emergency that could reasonably be expected."

Tydings said the mobilization activity does not indicate that officials believe another war is imminent, adding: "This is just insurance that this government should take out to meet possible conditions just like the average citizen takes out fire insurance."

Hartwells To Vote On Consolidation Of School District

Balloting takes place in the Hartwells common school district Saturday on a proposal to consolidate with the Stanton Independent School District.

At the same time, the Stanton district is to hold a referendum on whether to accept the Hartwells district, should it favor consolidation.

If consolidation is not favored by Hartwells, it is possible that its constituents will seek attachment to another district, possibly Big Spring. The local board had issued a standing invitation to the Hartwells district, which, after this year, is due to be classified as an inactive district and thus subject to attachment to an active district.

Saturday Deadline Set For Filing for City Commission

Midnight Saturday is the deadline for candidates to file for post on the city commission, C. R. McCleeny, city secretary, reminded this morning.

Only two persons had announced for the positions this morning, McCleeny said, Jack Y. Smith and Frank Hardesty both filed Thursday. Smith is a candidate for reelection.

Terms of H. W. Wright and C. W. Deats expire this year. The election will be held April 4.

Whether the analysis of the bargaining situation is to be made public will be up to Mr. Truman, Cole added.

With the fuel shortage becoming more critical by the hour, government attorneys moved desperately to recover the ground they lost by a judge's decision yesterday that the United Mine Workers Union was not in contempt of court.

Federal Judge Richmond B. Keesh today issued an 80-day injunction under the Taft-Hartley Act. It repeats the language of his temporary order—that the miners shall go back to work and the union and operators shall bargain in good faith on a new contract.

It is estimated unofficially that at least 225,000 workers in allied industries have joined the 97,000 striking United Mine Workers in idleness.

With the fuel shortage becoming more critical by the hour, government attorneys moved desperately to recover the ground they lost by a judge's decision yesterday that the United Mine Workers Union was not in contempt of court.

Federal Judge Richmond B. Keesh today issued an 80-day injunction under the Taft-Hartley Act. It repeats the language of his temporary order—that the miners shall go back to work and the union and operators shall bargain in good faith on a new contract.

It is estimated unofficially that at least 225,000 workers in allied industries have joined the 97,000 striking United Mine Workers in idleness.

Whether the analysis of the bargaining situation is to be made public will be up to Mr. Truman, Cole added.

President Slated To Get Data On Situation Today

WASHINGTON, March 3 (U-P)—President Truman will ask Congress today for power to seize and operate the coal mines.

WASHINGTON, March 3 (U-P)—President Truman asked his coal fact-finding board for an immediate report today on the present situation in the contract dispute.

The White House announced the President's move but declined to say whether it was preliminary to some further presidential action such as a move to seize the mines or a personal appeal for a resumption of coal mining.

Presidential Press Secretary Charles G. Ross summoned reporters to his office and told them: "The President this morning requested the fact-finding board in the coal dispute to call a meeting of the parties—the operators and the union—and ascertain specifically what concessions have been made by each party in the negotiating and where each party stands at this time on each issue in the dispute and report to the White House as soon as possible."

Ross said all members of the board are in town.

"Mr. Cole was just preliminary to buy immediately," Ross said.

David Cole, Pittsburgh, N. J., attorney is chairman of the fact-finding board.

Cole told reporters the board would report to the President before the day is over.

Whether the analysis of the bargaining situation is to be made public will be up to Mr. Truman, Cole added.

Wes-Tex Telephone Co-Op Seeking Loan

Application for an REA loan of $750,000 has been made by the Wes-Tex Telephone Cooperative.

Announcement came Friday from Stanton, following quickly on heels of action by the special session of the legislature in an act which legalized the telephone cooperatives.

The application, according to cooperative spokesmen, was filed "to provide adequate rural telephone service in the area."

Wes-Tex's proposed system would more or less parallel Cap Rock Electric cooperative lines and would serve members in Howard, Martin, Midland, Glasscock, Andrews, Ector, Borden and Dawson counties.

The Wes-Tex Telephone Cooperative was organized in January with J. W. Anderson, Stanton, being named as president.

Other directors named were Mrs. Glen Cox, Lenorah, vice-president; Mrs. Cliff Hazelwood, Stanton, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Carl Grant, Big Spring, Mrs. A. J. Stallings, Lomax, J. C. Spaulding, Knott, M. L. Blocker, Midland, M. L. Graham, Stanton, and A. A. McKinney, Big Spring.

Two other applications for REA assistance have been filed for part of the area sought by Wes-Tex. One is by the Coahoma Telephone Exchange, which would embrace the area in northeast and southeast Howard. The other is by the Ackerly-Knott Telephone company and projected to serve the Knott, Ackerly, Vestmore, Sparenburg, and Lenorah-Tarzan areas.

As it has been at any time since the war, this is the view not only of British and American diplomatic observers, but numbers of Frenchmen as well. The country has had a disquieting series of reverses and can't seem to do anything to help itself to get out of the doldrums.

Labor Regime Is In New Trouble

LONDON, March 3 (U-P)—Britain's Labor Government, reportedly in a mood to self-penalize nationalization in an effort to stay in power, faced new threats today in its own camp—from the British workers who support it.

A nation-wide strike vote was ordered among 3 million members of the Confederation of Shipbuilding and Engineering Unions. They are to decide whether to strike or to arbitrate their government-rejected demands for a raise in pay of one pound ($2.00) weekly. The government has appealed for a freeze on most wages in a move against inflation.

Manchester, N. H., March 3 (U-P)—Dr. Hermann N. Sander in an effort to prove that Mrs. Abble C. Borroto, 59, was dead when he injected air into her veins.

The unexpected disclosure was made as the defense opened in the "mercy" slaying trial of the 41-year-old country doctor yesterday.

Assistant Defense Atty. Ralph Langdell also told the 13-man jury the physician's pretty wife will take the stand. He would not say when they will be called.

UT Pathologist Testifies

Fate of Cliff Clary, former ranch foreman charged with the death of his wife, was due to go to a 32nd court jury late today.

The defense rested at 10:45 a.m. today after Dr. N. D. Schofield, pathologist for the University of Texas school of medicine at Galveston, testified that heat caused the death of Mrs. Clary. Her body had been discovered in the ruins of the Clary home, which went up in flames on Jan. 31, 1948.

The state had sought to make out a case that Clary had murdered his wife and set fire to the house.

Dr. Schofield's testimony was in conflict with that of Dr. O. H. Chandler, Ballinger, who had told the jury that he believed Mrs. Clary had been suffocated before the fire. He also testified that deep scratches on Clary's arm appeared to have been made by fingernails.

In his testimony, Dr. Schofield said that a fracture of Mrs. Clary's skull was caused by heat; that there was no sign of choking before death; that there was no sign of monoxide poisoning.

"The only changes we saw were those associated with heat," he said. "We did not qualify the term) concluded she died of shock and intense heat."

On rebuttal, J. H. Arnett, Austin, state chemical laboratory toxicologist, said that Dr. Schofield had observed at the time of the autopsy that "this woman died from suffocation—butane or some similar substance." Arnett said that he remarked that "if there were sufficient butane for suffocation, there would have been no fire."

Best Monroe, Abilene woman, was introduced as a state rebuttal witness. Regarding a conversation with Clary on Jan. 30, 1948, she said "I heard him say he was going to have his freedom."

Miss Monroe, remembered only that she saw Clary. Of a subsequent conversation about the time of the autopsy, Miss Monroe declined to give Clary's answer to her observation the autopsy "might help clear you."

Aubrey Shafter, son of the deceased woman, testified for the defense that his mother appeared to be happily married. So did her brother, F. A. Sanders, who thought scratches on Clary's arm were caused by a sharp instrument. Ollie Clary, brother of the defendant, said that the accused loved his wife, was devoted and helped with household chores.

Judge A. S. Mauney was due to deliver the charge to the jury at 2 p.m., opening the way for final arguments.
