

Oil Price An Issue In Race

Both Terrell And Sadler Pledge To Remedy Affairs

By the Associated Press
The recent cut in price of East Texas oil held the attention of candidates for railroad commissioner as they opened their final week of the second primary campaign with a heated controversy over causes of the slump.

Jerry Sadler declared at Fort Arthur last night that Texas oil would still be 10 cents per barrel if Congress hadn't passed the Connally hot oil act. He attacked his opponent, C. V. Terrell, incumbent, declaring "it was under his administration that oil sold for 10 cents per barrel."

Terrell, campaigning in the same section of the state, declared at Orange that "Texas must not return to the chaotic days when the markets of the world had more Texas oil than they could then use and worried school officials were burning their midnight oil trying to find a way to make a thin dime do the work of a well-fed dollar."

"The higher the price of oil, the better school system Texas can have," he said, adding that "C. V. Terrell is re-elected the days of chaos in the great oil industry will not reappear."

Walter Woodul carried his campaign for attorney general into deep East Texas today, speaking at Jasper, Lufkin and Nacogdoches. Yesterday he declared was "anything but a professional politician, especially in opposition to my opponent."

He said Gerald C. Mann, who is seeking the office, had held three full time political appointments from Governor Alfred since 1934.

Mann, speaking at Gladewater, charged his opponent with "supporting the interests of the utility corporations and ignoring the right of the common citizen."

"His action as lieutenant governor, concerning utility rates was flagrant," Mann said. "A bill was introduced to permit gas consumers in towns of 5,000 or less to have 30 days' notice in case their gas rates should be increased. Of 31 members of the senate Walter Woodul was the only member who voted against the bill."

Winnifred H. McDonald, candidate for re-election as state land commissioner, said at Sherman that his opponents and his friends are "making a desperate effort to create the false impression that none of the state land leased on high royalty is producing oil."

McDonald asserted high royalty leases in the coastal area today are paying $2,000 a month more into the state treasury than would have been received had the leases been granted on a one-eighth royalty.

Bacon Giles, McDonald's opponent, said he would stand firm against favoritism in awarding leases on state school land.

Minister Shot, Badly Hurt

Father Of Boy Who Drowned At Encampment Is Held

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 23 (AP)—The Rev. G. Kearnie Keegan, of Alexandria, president of the state-wide Baptist encampment, was shot and seriously wounded today at the encampment at Mandeville, La., and the father of a boy who drowned Saturday was accused of the shooting by Philip Smith, Mandeville marshal.

Marshall Smith said the father, Murray McGuire of New Orleans, blamed the minister as head of the encampment for the death of his son, Lawrence McGuire, 15, one of about 500 Louisiana boys attending the annual camp.

Smith said the boy's body had been recovered by a coast guard cutter and brought to shore.

Witnesses told the officer that McGuire met the minister just after the latter left a telephone near the Lake Pontchartrain beach and that the minister placed his hand upon the father's shoulder and told him, "I'm sorry."

A pistol, biased almost immediately and five bullets were discharged at the minister, one striking Dr. Keegan in the abdomen and another in the leg of a man.

Dr. Keegan was treated by the local coroner and then started to New Orleans in an ambulance while Marshall Smith placed McGuire under arrest and carried him in hysterical condition to the St. Tammany parish jail at Covington.

The Frontier Round Up, to which is attracted a large number of residents of Mitchell county in the pioneer days, is to be held Sept. 4-9-10.

NEW YORK, Aug. 23 (AP)—George Weinberg, 36, ex-convict and once business manager of the multi-million dollar Dutch Schultz "policy empire," testified in supreme court today that Tammany District Leader James J. Hines promised "protection" from police raids on Harlem policy banks.

State Seeks PWA Aid For Office Building

$2,600,000 Structure Proposed In Application; Special Session Required To Raise Texas' Share

FORT WORTH, Aug. 23 (AP)—Governor James V. Alfred today filed with public works administration an application for a $2,600,000 office building in Austin, requesting a special session of the legislature to raise the state's share of the cost.

The structure will house state departments, the application pointed out. A federal grant of $1,170,000 is asked by the governor. The application did not indicate when the special session will be called to consider appropriation of the state's part of the cost.

The structure will be situated on Eleventh street at Congress and Colorado streets. It will be faced with limestone and granite. Page and Sutherland of Austin were listed as architects.

AWAITS ASSURANCE
AUSTIN, Aug. 23 (AP)—Confirming the state's application for PWA assistance in constructing a state office building, Governor James V. Alfred said today a special session of the legislature would not be called until he had assurance the application would be approved.

The governor pointed out completion of formalities in connection with the application might take several months and the need for raising the state's share of expenses might not arise before the general session beginning next January.

He explained the application contemplated a combined appellate courts and state office building to eliminate overcrowding in the capitol and the need for renting office space.

The proposal, he said, was a modification of an earlier one for a $1,000,000 courts building which was not submitted to PWA.

ANOTHER FIRM POSTS $1.20 CRUDE PRICE
LONGVIEW, Aug. 23 (AP)—W. T. Reed of the Premier Oil Refining company of Texas announced today his company was meeting the "qualitative" price of $1.20 a barrel posted for East Texas crude by two other independent refiners.

"On account of depressed conditions in the refined market," his statement said, "and competition brought about by purchasers who are not posting a price, the Premier Oil Refining company of Texas has found it necessary to meet the price for East Texas crude as posted by the East Texas Refining company and the Danziger Oil Refiners, Inc."

AMARILLO-MEMPHIS AIR LINE PLANNED
OKLAHOMA CITY, Aug. 23 (AP)—Jerry Sess, Oklahoma City, said today financing had been completed for a new air line to carry passengers and bid for mail between Amarillo, Texas, and Memphis, Tenn., via Oklahoma City.

Sess said he would head the new line, Trans-Southern Airlines, Inc.

The proposed route of the line would be from Amarillo through Elk City, Oklahoma City, Muskogee, Fort Smith and Russellville, Ark., and Memphis. The route is 616 miles.

The company's general offices and shops would be located here.

Ten Years Of Talks
Remember when moving pictures suddenly became "talkies"? They put some stars on the sids, created many new ones, and gave the whole industry a thorough shaking up. Now talkies are 10 years old—and folks call 'em "moving pictures." Their story is one of the most dramatic in the history of entertainment.

Robbin Coons, Hollywood correspondent for the AP Feature Service and The Herald, tells it in four illustrated articles. For the first, turn to the editorial page.

Hungary Wins The Right To Rearm

Little Entente Agrees To Lift Ban Fixed By War Treaty

BLUED, Yugoslavia, Aug. 23 (AP)—The Little Entente swept away the military clauses of another world war treaty today and gave Hungary the right to rearm "in the interest of peace."

The three nations—Czechoslovakia, Rumania and Yugoslavia—agreed to abrogate arms restrictions in the Trianon treaty and grant military equality to Hungary.

The action followed a similar move by the Balkan entente, which includes Rumania and Yugoslavia, on July 30 wiping out military clauses of the treaty of Neuilly which limited Bulgaria's rearmament.

Dr. Milan Stojadinovich, premier and foreign minister of Yugoslavia, made the announcement at the close of a three day conference of Little Entente foreign ministers in this little resort.

He said the principle of an understanding had been reached with details which would be negotiated between Hungary and the three nations individually.

Conversations on Danubian navigation, he said, also would be held in Belgrade "in the fall."

A formal communique expressed satisfaction over improvement of the international situation in Europe, particularly between the Little Entente countries and their neighbors.

The communique contained references to the League of Nations which observers considered slightly critical, but there was no indication the states contemplated a break with the league.

Yugoslav sources said Germany, now trying to extend her influence into southeastern Europe, was annoyed at Italy's alleged efforts to gain supremacy in the Danube basin.

Foreign minister, Stojadinovich, was reported due in home in the near future to conclude a friendship accord with Italy similar to the five-year treaty signed by Italy and Yugoslavia last October.

CORRIGAN NOT READY TO PART WITH SHIP

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 23 (AP)—Douglas Corrigan, the aviator who missed California but found Ireland, thinks there's plenty of good flying left in his $900 "Grate."

After Mayor Bernard F. Dickmann renewed his suggestion last night that the flier sell his nine-year old St. Louis-built plane to the city for a museum piece, Corrigan replied that it was too early to decide.

"I want to fly it for several months," Corrigan said, "I can't say now that I will do with it after I get through flying it around."

The diminutive flier is en route to California in the jolly that took him on his unannounced transatlantic flight.

CZECHOSLOVAKIA POLICY TOPIC BETWEEN HITLER AND HORTHY

KIELE, Germany, Aug. 23 (AP)—Czechoslovakia's chief was listed as one of the chief conversational topics between Adolf Hitler and Admiral Nicholas Horthy today as the German and Hungarian leaders went to inspect heavily fortified Helgoland.

Informed Nazi quarters said the two statesmen saw eye to eye on the problem whose "satisfactory" solution might enable Hungary to grant Hitler and Premier Mussolini of Italy their wish for an Hungarian-Yugoslav reconciliation.

These sources pointed out that Hungary would like the autonomy of Hungarians in Czechoslovakia, if not their return to Hungary, just as Hitler wants the autonomy or return of 1,500,000 Sudeten Germans in Czechoslovakia.

It was said, too, that should this come to pass for Hungary, that demands—growing out of the post-war Trianon peace treaty which took away a third of her 10,500,000 population—on sections now belonging to Yugoslavia.

Another subject for discussion among Hitler, Horthy and other officials, including Premier Bela Imredy and Foreign Minister Kolumon von Kanya of Hungary, was the question of how to increase German exports to Hungary so as to enable Hungary to send more wheat and other agricultural products to Germany.

Germany, in her apparent desire to dominate the Balkan countries economically, is hard put to it to find enough industrial products to make her Hungary's most desirable trade partner.

Civil-Service Workers Told To Avoid All Political Activities

WASHINGTON, Aug. 23 (AP)—A half million federal employes have been reminded they must stay out of politics or suffer severe penalties.

The civil service commission issued a statement yesterday, under a two-inch heading "warning," emphasizing that workers who attained positions through competitive examinations (classified employes) risked discharge for such slight infractions as wearing campaign buttons.

Executive or judicial officers or employes, the notice added, could be fined $5,000 and imprisoned for three years for soliciting campaign contributions from other federal officials or employes.

The notice pointed out that even presidential appointees were prohibited from serving on political committees, soliciting funds, displaying "obtrusive partisanship," or using their positions to further any candidate's cause.

Among the added restrictions on classified employes are:
Organizing, conducting or addressing political meetings.
Engaging in public political discussions.
Manifesting "offensive" activity at polling places.
Serving as an election officer.
Distributing campaign literature or circulating petitions.
Becoming "prominently identified" with any political movement, party or faction.
Unclassified employes were not included in the notice.

O'Daniel In Another Appeal For Six Candidates He Has Endorsed

As A 'General' He Wants Own Kind Of 'Ammunition'

FORT WORTH, Aug. 23 (AP)—W. Lee O'Daniel told the voters of Texas today he believed they would not select a general to fight a battle and then refuse to provide the ammunition he preferred.

He was making another plea over the radio for election of candidates for state offices who will be chosen in a runoff Democratic primary Saturday and whom he has endorsed.

Before his formal speech, the Democratic nominee for governor in an interview with press correspondents:

Asserted he planned an intensive study to determine whether state government departments could be consolidated for reasons of economy.

Expressed the opinion a large amount could be saved from expenses of government by efficient methods of operation.

Said, when asked if he would favor a state board to regulate utilities, that he was surprised to find anything not regulated.

Declined to comment further on any moves to re-legalize wagering on horse racing, or on a question as to whether he was "wet or dry."

At the outset of his speech, O'Daniel said it "looks like the storm is about over."

"The hundreds of letters pouring in now prove conclusively the folks here come to the right decision," he said.

He said he had not endorsed the candidates in the runoff without investigation and that he had good reason for the action.

He went on to say that if he had not acted as he did he would have failed to do his duty, that he felt he had a great responsibility to the state.

Mobster Says His Price Was $500 Weekly

Arrests Dropped Off After He Talked With Politician

NEW YORK, Aug. 23 (AP)—George Weinberg, 36, ex-convict and once business manager of the multi-million dollar Dutch Schultz "policy empire," testified in supreme court today that Tammany District Leader James J. Hines promised "protection" from police raids on Harlem policy banks.

"I paid Jimmy Hines $500 a week and higher for protection," Weinberg said.

The witness testified that during one of his frequent "pay off" meetings with the politician, he talked to Hines about the police.

"What did you say to Hines," asked District Attorney Thomas E. Jewey.

"I told him there were too many arrests," Weinberg said.

"Hines promised he would try to do something about the police," Weinberg went on. "Hines and I talked the arrests averaged about 20 a day. Afterward they dropped to maybe four, five or six a day."

Weinberg said Hine's name was listed on the "master sheet" of the Dutch Schultz racket combine as "Pop" and "J. H.," with each entry covering payments for alleged protection.

"The arrests started going up again in September, 1935," Weinberg testified. "and I again went to Hines and complained about it, on Schultz's instructions, and the arrests soon dropped way down again. We had no more trouble that year and I never had occasion after that to speak to Hines about the police."

Weinberg testified that in August or September, 1935, he was summoned by J. Richard "Dicke" Davis, the "big mouthpiece" of the Dutch Schultz mob, and that Davis asked him for $2,000 which Davis told him he had paid Hines.

"I told Davis that Schultz had approved only $2,000 of the payment," Weinberg said. "Davis agreed to take the other $1,000 as his own loss."

Hines listened placidly to Weinberg's story. The 61-year-old Tammany stalwart, showed no sign of emotion.

Weinberg repeated his testimony that Hines was paid $500 weekly by the Schultz mob.

"I myself paid Jimmy Hines $500 in front of Hines' home," he said.

"That was a week or 10 days after a meeting of Hines, Dutch Schultz and Bo Weinberg," he continued. "At that meeting, it was agreed to see PAY OFF, Page 8, Col. 1

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 23 (AP)—Mrs. Emma Krueger, wife of Karl Krueger, symphony conductor, is much better, hospital attendants said today.

They optimistically reported her condition was the best it has been since she was brought here Friday night suffering from bullet wounds inflicted by her maid's jealous husband.

Last night, her voice diminished by pain, Mrs. Krueger gave police a "deathbed" statement, as Charles McDonald, the 29-year-old unemployed electrician was charged with assault with intent to murder her. He is held under $50,000 bond.

Nine witnesses yesterday pointed the two out as the men who committed five robberies here in the last few months.

The State of Arkansas also moved toward securing custody of Hamilton and Walters in connection with robbery of the Bradley, Ark., bank in June. Meanwhile federal agents filed complaints naming Hamilton, Walters, "John Doe" and "Richard Roe" as violators of the Dyer national motor theft act. The charges were filed at Shreveport, accusing the quartet of transporting a stolen automobile from Vivian, La., to Bradley.

A 16-year-old girl held in Texas-kans after she admitted traveling with Hamilton and Walters was released, State Highway Officer Thomas H. Vannoy stating that she had been held to prevent her contacting the desperadoes.

Detective Inspector Will Frits, who announced identification of the two in the Dallas robbery, said witnesses in four other hijackings sought to identify the suspects today.

THE SPORTS PARADE

By HANK HART

Al Bernat, Baron catcher who was hit in the head by Soule's pitch while attempting to scurry back to second last night, has quite a headache this morning but his injury isn't serious.

Thrill-Packed

Many more games like the one last night and this observer won't be around when baseball season ends this weekend. Refitting the crowd that was on hand, estimated in some quarters at 1,600, the Midlandites and the Big Springers put on their classiest and longest show of the year. Spectators were so "fagged" when the three-hour, 10-minute battle was over, that they could hardly give the winning and the losing teams their rightful plaudits.

Big Spring might have come through in the 12th inning before Bobby Decker was trapped off first after talking a base on balls but umpire Buster Capps, who rarely misses a play, ruled that Suttar had blocked Robin.

Capps is in a class by himself as an umpire in this league. His decisions are rarely protested, should never be. Manager Fincher Withers of the Midland crew "blazed away" at him with a running line of criticism in the late stages of the game when he thought Buster had slipped up on a decision involving Lefty Morris but Capps thought otherwise and thumbed the leader to the gate. Withers was still arguing and the arbiter opened both fists and waved them in front of Tak. That gesture didn't mean that Bus was shielding himself. Withers got the drift and strolled several feet toward the grand stand before he saw red again and turned again to present his case but Buster boy was staring him down and repeated the procedure of the sign language and this time onlookers could count 25 fingers, capable of going higher. Withers had had enough and goose stepped it through the crowd.

Harry Faulkner, business manager of the Lubbock club, was tossed out of the park in a game at Clovis Sunday when umpire Bob Howland heard an uncompromising remark passed in his direction but it took two police escorts to show him the gate.

Controversy

Interest in the scheduled foot race between the fastest members of the Baron squad, Watty Watkins and the Eubbers, the speediest high school gridders, and possibly George Neel, former griddler, set for Thursday night immediately before game time here, is growing rapidly.

Watkins is reputedly the fastest man on the Lubbock squad but it is doubtful whether he can outrun Billy Capps of the Barons or Lefty Beihell, the Steer footballer.

The race will be over a field of 100 yards and the speedsters will finish directly in front of the grandstand. A prize will be offered the winner.

The Devil softball team today lies up with Detroit, Mich., in a third round game in the national junior softball tournament at Columbus, Ohio. The Detroiters are the same outfit that took them into camp, 4-2, in last year's opening game.

Swim Program Ready

The program planned for Wednesday's "Riders' day" at the municipal swimming pool will include free style swimming races, retrieve, cork scrambles, balloon races and a diving contest.

All children 17 years and younger are eligible to participate.

The winners will be given a free swim for a week.

Champ Trails In Meet At Cleveland

Furgol And Doll Face Public Links Field With 68's

CLEVELAND, Aug. 22 (AP)—Golf may be just a game to most players—but its far more than that to Eddie Furgol and Pete Doll.

As the 18th national public links championship swung into its second day at Highland Park municipal course, Furgol and Doll were riding along on pace setting 68's and high hopes of some day making the sport their life's work.

Before their brilliant two-under par performances yesterday in the first round of qualifying play in the working man's annual classic, Furgol and Doll were just two more "unknowns" in a star-studded field.

Match play will begin tomorrow and continue through Saturday's 36 hole final.

Furgol, blond 20-year-old unemployed youth from Utica, N. Y., has made many sacrifices to develop a game he hopes will some day land him a professional position.

His trade is polishing metal, but he hasn't worked for three months. Doll, 23 years old, is employed by a Louisville, Ky., plumbing goods manufacturing company, but since January has worked only two days a week. He also fervently hopes to land a professional's job.

Two strokes back of the pace-makers were defending champion Bruce McCormick, Los Angeles fire fighter, and Andrew Swedlow, hunky Pittsburgh steel mill worker, with 70's.

Conroe Meets Duncan Team

HOUSTON, Aug. 22 (AP)—The championship of the annual Houston Post semi-pro baseball tournament will be in the balance tonight when the Conroe Wildcats clash with the Halliburton Cementers of Duncan, Okla.

Conroe, already holding a decision over the defending champions, rated favorite to win the title inasmuch as the Wildcats will have two chances to do so. Should Conroe lose the first game another would be necessary to determine the winner.

Tommy Fine pitched Conroe to a 9-4 victory over B. E. Norvell Co. of Houston last night while Halliburton was defeating Grand Prairie of Houston, 17-3.

SNEAD WINNER IN PLAYOFF

TORONTO, Aug. 22 (AP)—Slammin' Sam Snead is the Canadian Open golf champion but it took 27 holes of spectacular playoff golf before Harry Cooper relinquished his grip on the Dominion title.

After finishing the 72 holes of the regular tourney with 377's, the two played off for the title yesterday. At the end of 18 holes they were tied with 67's, and went into another nine in which Snead scored a two-under-par 34 to Cooper's 39 for the 27-hole. Snead carded 101, seven under par, to 106 for Cooper on the Mississauga Country club course.

The victory brought the White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., pro $1,000 and kept him well ahead as the top money winner of the season. Cooper got $600 for runner-up position.

ASSISTANT GRID COACH IS NAMED

Daniel, who played high school football under Murphy at Abilene, will probably work with first year senior high school boys.

He may accompany the Longhorn squad to their fall training camp near Junction next week.

Just when they thought they had the Tulsa Oilers hanging on the ropes the Oklahoma Sooners bounced back with the assertion they had just begun to fight.

The erstwhile leaders of the Texas league who went into a tail-splint that looked like it might end somewhere in the vicinity of the collar have taken on new life and just about clinched a place in the Shaughnessy play-off—that is unless they can't stand properly and start losing in a hurry.

Tulsa has won five out of the last six games and boasts a margin of six and one-half games over fifth-place Houston today. Last night the Oilers downed the Buffs, 4-3 with Vern Olsen pitching stellar ball and getting one of the hits that figured in the winning rally, Houston del 8-1 until the ninth.

Cleveland's Bobby Feller, trying a new pitching style, seemed to have recovered his old effectiveness for seven innings, giving only six hits and allowing eight. But the eighth gave Cleveland's White Sox three runs and a 4-2 victory, as a result the Tribe started east 11 1-2 games behind the Yankees, and only one ahead of Boston.

BAUGH INJURED

CHICAGO, Aug. 22 (AP)—Indiana's Bo McMillin, head coach of the college all star football team which will meet the Washington Redskins Aug. 31, faced another problem today—that of finding a formidable combination to back up the line on defense.

At the Washington camp in Ballston, W. Va., meanwhile, the Redskins were recovering from a scare brought on by an injury to their star passer, Sammy Baugh, who reported yesterday with a swollen ankle. X-ray pictures disclosed a sprain.

Yanks' Injuries Are Troublesome But NY Keeps In Front

One explanation of why these hot August days are called the "dog days" might be that then baseball players—dogs—feet to the uninitiated—begin to give out.

It's a long grind from spring training in February or March to the world series in October, and the boys really begin to feel the strain about this time. Pitchers who have been winning regularly begin to blow up, batters experience sudden slumps and injuries strike more frequently.

More than one pennant contender has suffered from these ill effects already. And if the current leaders, the New York Yankees and Pittsburgh Pirates, fall to remain on top it probably will be because of injuries, weariness, or both.

Hard Hit

The New York Giants, with Carl Hubbell in the hospital, Lou Chiozza retired, and Bob Seeds unable to play, and the Chicago Cubs, who lost Manager Gabby Hartnett and have had various other stars on the shelf, have been the hardest hit. The Boston Red Sox lost Lefty Grove with a sore arm; Cleveland's mound staff seems to have worn out and even the Yanks haven't escaped entirely.

Red Rolfe, Myril Hoag and Bill Dickey have suffered injuries during the past few days, but the Yankee mound staff is reported in fine shape for their 30 games against Chicago and Cleveland in five days. Pittsburgh hasn't reported any serious injuries, but has shown plenty of signs of weariness lately.

Weak Stars

The Bucs had one good spurt left, however, and big Jim Tobin had plenty of "stuff" in his pitching as Pittsburgh knocked off Chicago 4-2 yesterday in their last game before opening a home stand against the east.

The defeat dropped Chicago back into fourth place as the Cincinnati Reds hit hard, as usual, behind Paul Derringer, and sacrificed to second base by Suttar, who rolled to Capps in front of the plate but the front runner attempted to stretch his dash to two bases and Dick Hobson speared Barnabe's return throw and nipped the runner after a swash dive.

Not To Be Denied

But the Midlanders were not to be denied in the fifteenth. Stacey succeeded in cutting down Barnabe, the leadoff man, but Evans drew a base on balls to set the stage for Soule's blow.

The Barons threatened mildly in their part of the same stanza when Harry Siebert walked as the leadoff man but, after Stacey had popped to Franklin in short left, Harry was forced at second on Jacob's ground ball and Aubrey Harlow struck out.

Midland's starting pitcher, "Three-Two" Beers had plenty of trouble during the 2-1-3 innings he worked and only extraordinary stick work by his mates enabled him to leave with any hope. Bobby Decker, after Hobson had walked, greeted him with a home run in the first frame to give the home team a 1-0 lead. Robin strolled by again in the third after Bernat and Hobson had been passed and tripped mightily against the left field wall. Bob later romped home on Stacey's three base hit.

Score Three

A single by Larry Battle in the second that got away from Frankie Dean to left field enabled the Cards to tally three runs and the Red Birds bounded right back in the third to chalk up two more on two successive wild throws at first base by Bill Capps.

The Barons wound up their scoring for the night in the fourth when Capps doubled, Ramsdell singled and Hobson popped short to Evans back of second base. Evans caught a Capps sliding home head first on a brilliant execution.

Back Into Tie

The visitors deadened the tally again in the fifth when Nelson tripled and came home on Morris' long fly to center.

Largest Crowd Of The Season Sees Midland Take 15 Inning Game

Stacey Throws All The Way For Barons

Soule Doubles Winning Run Home In 7-6 Decision

By HANK HART

A brilliant pitcher's duel between Pat Stacey and Jerry Soule went 15 innings here Monday night before the Big Springers faltered momentarily and surrendered a 7-6 verdict to the Midland Cardinals in a game played before a crowd estimated at 1,600, largest of the season.

Soule, fresher than Stacey in that he did not take over until the third frame, won his own ball game in that round when he doubled into deep left field with Bobby Evans aboard. The Red Bird finger had to rely on all his cunning to overcome a team that time and again contributed the "impossible" play and time and again threatened to shakedown the visitors by playing their waiting game.

All appeared lost for the Barons in the 12th stanza when Jake Suttar doubled as the leadoff man but Stacey leveled down to force Morris to roll to Capps, and Barnhill to ground out weakly to Stacey for the second out. A bit of strategy on the invaders' part failed to pan out although it was brilliantly executed. Evans attempted to bunt, Suttar crossing the plate the moment the ball bounded into the infield but Billy Capps raced in to grasp the rock and blazed away at his target, Charles Barnabe, at first base, retiring the runner on a play that brought a roar from the stands, and a protest from the runner.

Again in the fourteenth the Black Shirts threatened when Nelson bled and was sacrificed to second base by Suttar, who rolled to Capps in front of the plate but the front runner attempted to stretch his dash to two bases and Dick Hobson speared Barnabe's return throw and nipped the runner after a swash dive.

Not To Be Denied

A New Hubbell And A New Grove Turn Out To Be... Right Handed!

Unbelievable as it may seem, you are now gazing upon a Mr. Hubbell, who pitches right-handed, and upon a Mr. Grove, who is just as orthodox in his tossing. Let us hasten to explain: Here you see Johnny Hubbell, Carl's brother, and Robert Moses Grove, Jr., Lefty's son... Johnny pitches as for the Jersey City Giants. He recently won his first start of the season, allowing Montreal just five hits to give Jersey City a 3-1 margin. Johnny is 23 years of age, stands 6 feet 1 inch tall... Young Bob works out daily at the Red Sox ball park. He is only 17 years old, but he hopes to be pitching in the majors in a couple of years.

Layden Crying Over Prospects But Shedding Crocodile Tears

By EDDIE BRIETS

NEW YORK, Aug. 22 (AP)—Those must be crocodile tears Elmer Layden is shedding—the kind Sam Breadon wept when he sold Dixie Dean to the Cubs... Elmer has 100 footballers reporting September 10... Five days later another hundred odd will show up... Still he moans so loud you can hear him from here... Joe DiMaggio doesn't own a slice of Jim Braddock's restaurant, as some of the chroniclers chronicled—the reason he spends so much time there is because the grub is on the cuff. Seabiscuit and Lagarto may do an encore in Seattle.

Cornell is looking for a new basketball coach and Viv Hanson, ex-grid professor at Syracuse, and one of the great court stars of all time, is said to be Candidate No. 1... Joe Savoldi, once a great fullback at Notre Dame and later one of those dino-donor wrestling champs, has bought a farm near Miles, Mich... The gambling ban has taken most of the pep out of the Saratoga meeting. The New York News says Buddy Hassett is all set to transfer to the Polo Grounds this winter if the Dodgers will take him. Schlusener and Hank Leiber in return... Tony Galento is around again, cocky as ever.

Ray Wolf, North Carolina's smart coach, thinks the open type of football and the five-man line will be more in vogue in football this season... A Harlem hot spot has a ringside table reservation for Joe Louis as long as he lives and it doesn't cost Joe a dime... Look for the training table, in modified form, to reappear in Big Ten football camps this fall.

What is the real dope on Burgess Whitehead, anyway? The boy still is on the Giant ailing list, but he managed to elude two doctors for his Lewisohn (N.Y.) team the other day... Glenn Cunningham, the well-known amateur miler, seems to be doing all right if it is true that he paid an income tax on $24,000 last year... Joe Louis' softball team is in big demand through New England.

If Henry Armstrong ever gets around to fighting Cefarino Garcia the bout probably will go to the coast where it will draw more potatoes... Red Rolfe, Yank third sacker, takes to the air tomorrow night to size up the American league pennant race... Yanks plan to take some fancy stitches in their drive to sew up the flag this week... Five doubleheaders in five days.

ROAD TO FINALS IS ROCKY ONE

BROOKLINE, Mass., Aug. 23 (AP) If there are tennis advantages derived from stiff competition, they probably will be gained by Don Budge and Gene Mako, rather than Australia's Adrian Quist and Jack Bromwich, during the current national doubles play at Longwood.

New equipment has been issued this season but the gridders are not expected to make use of it until they enter serious training at the camp. Warm weather limits the use of the toggery.

Practices throughout the week will be conducted on the grounds south of the high school.

New York, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Chicago...they all speak a different language. What goes in one city, in one part of the country, may slide right off the back of another.

Politicians know that's true. Actors on the "road" know it. Sales managers know it. And so do advertisers...whether they're selling food, clothing, sporting goods, or anything else. Take the business of selling air travel, for example...

When the advertising agency (J. Stirling Getchell, Inc.) planned the current national campaign for Transcontinental & Western Air, they realized that an ad that clicks in New York might fall flat in San Francisco. So they prepared a different series of ads...with different headlines, copy and illustrations...to fit each of the several markets covered by the campaign.

Naturally, newspapers...and only newspapers...were chosen for this campaign because, as Mr. Roberts, TWA advertising manager, says: "It is the only medium where you can effectively localize your copy in every market where you seek business...Only the extreme flexibility of newspapers makes such a tailormade job possible."

This ability to localize a national campaign, to carry a special, "home town" appeal into each market, is one of the many distinct advantages newspapers offer advertisers... one of the many reasons why newspapers are recognized as the primary advertising medium.

A Statement to the BUREAU OF ADVERTISING

"The TWA campaign marks the first time in the history of air transport advertising that entirely separate campaigns have been mapped out for separate traffic centers. We decided on this strategy following a survey that revealed what kind of copy would appeal to each traffic center most.

"We chose newspapers to carry this campaign exclusively because it is the only medium where you can effectively localize your copy in every market where you seek business. Our campaign...the largest of its kind ever run by an airline...covers the country, but copy varies from section to section with a different appeal for each section.

"Only the extreme flexibility of newspapers makes such a tailormade job possible."

Russia A Land Of Contrasts; To Understand It, You Must Recall Conditions During Days Of Czars

By HOUSTON HARTE

LENINGRAD, U.S.S.R. (By Mail) It does not take but a glance at Russia to bring out the superlatives of one's vocabulary. Russia is unspeakable. It is unbelievable. Here one finds unbelievable buildings, unspeakable hardships, unspeakable fear, unbelievable progress. In a single panorama one sees unspeakable filth and housing and unbelievable building of modern apartment houses. Smoke curls from every factory chimney, men and women work at every conceivable task, side by side, in the street, in the factory, high up on the building and down deep in the subway. With it all is an unbelievable buoyancy of spirit in this new freedom under conditions that to us would be unspeakable tyranny.

Russia appears to be making progress under communism—more than I had ever been told it was making by its greatest boosters. As to whether it has gone as far as it could have gone under a capitalistic form of government is another question. The world has been guessing about it for a long time. To me the best answer is that those parts of Russia which freed themselves from the U.S.S.R. following the seizing of power by the Bolsheviks, are in far better shape today than the U.S.S.R. There is less communism—fewer votes cast in Finland and Estonia, once a part of Russia and whose borders abut those of Russia, than in any other counties of Europe. That seems to be the best answer to those who hail communism as the answer to the science of men living together in peace, in comfort, in freedom and in contentment.

Four Days Observations

To attempt to write about Russia after four days—two in Leningrad and two in Moscow, is on its face almost an affront to ordinary intelligence. People who have studied Russia for a life-time hesitate to write with authority about it. What is said here can be nothing more than the mere impressions which one person received after being four days in Russia, and those four days spent largely in the hands of special Russian officials whose business it was to sell Russian progress and Russian communism to every American who came in—particularly newspaper people. Other persons who made the same trip at the same time got different impressions. But I fear they looked at Russia through the eyes of an American and did not try to see Russia today in the eyes of a Russian who had lived under the czars. The most impressive thing in Russia to me was the fact that if the Russians of today could tolerate the Russia of today, what must Russia have been under the czars? That is the best answer a casual visitor can find to the question of, "Is Russia better off today than in 1917?"

Lenin Is Their God There are many things the matter with Russia that one can see from a motor car or a street corner and I shall list in another story a few of these, but badly as a great many Russians would like to get out of Russia, crowded as the Russians are in their decaying flats, despotic as is the rule of Stalin, I am firmly convinced that the Russian people love Stalin and worship Lenin as God. There is intrigue. There is ruthless killing on every band, but these people feel that Comrade Stalin is working for their betterment and that some day the good things of life will come to them.

The propaganda, the great pageantry of the New Russia, by sheer force of repetition is a palliative that has been a force in encouraging Russians to be patient while confusion and wasteful bureaucracy choke down the great government machine and leave the workers hungry, cold and homeless. Perhaps all the dictator countries have propaganda worked down to the science it is in Russia, but propaganda here is the life of the nation. They talk about what they are going to do. Then they talk about it when they start it. Then it is talked up as it goes along and when it bogs down, a scapegoat is found and shot and the propagandists make a lot of this. When the job is finally finished there is a great celebration with people brought in from the provinces and thereafter conducted parties are taken through the building or factory and harangued about what Comrade Stalin has done.

How Propaganda Works If in our country the only things we heard about any person in it were good things? If every good impulse was attributed to him? If all the ideas in the government were said to be his? If all the noble motives of a people were said to have emanated from one being and we were told about it by proclamation, by newspapers, by radio, by billboards, by superintendents of every work or overseer on every job—and if we knew that people who did not sing this song, sometimes never were seen again. It is not hard to understand how you can build up a man, particularly if he is an exceptionally great man, into a god.

And when you have been taught that the old gods of Russia were the gods of the czars, the nobility and the capitalists, it is not hard to see how Russia worships its past and present leaders. The ordinary man must worship something. He can't worship his wife any longer, for the government says this is silly—that each person must stand alone. He can't worship his children—for his children are taught that the lies of family and home are the basic foundation of capitalism. So who can the Russian worship? Only Lenin (because he is dead) and Comrade Stalin. And Russians do worship Lenin and Stalin.

There is no evidence of any sign of rebellion among the people against Russia in Russia. No doubt there is intrigue among the rulers of Russia. These men are human. They are subject to ambition, to greed, to lust, to hate and jealousy as other men. The Bolsheviks grew up on intrigue. They struggled to position by reason of it through the 12 years from the first revolution in 1905 and "the revolution" in 1917. They have climbed up over each other—killing each other off—and no doubt will continue to do so. But this jockeying for power is on top, not at the bottom.

Class Hatred The Idea

Bolshevism thrives where it can raise one class against another—where it can go to the less fortunate, the indolent and the slothful and point out to them that they should hate those who have by one means or another bettered their lot. In Russia there are but two classes; the less than two million members of the communist party and the 160 million Russians who are not members. The 160 million are equal to an unbelievable steely. Among the two million party members there is a great difference in privilege, pay, and power. It is in this upper group that the struggle, the rebellion, the intrigue goes on—and will continue to go on as long as men lust for power. This struggle should be more ruthless in Russia than anywhere else, for in Russia the gospel of the Man of Nazareth, which is the only basis of brotherly love in the world, has been cast aside and certainly no believer in Christianity could stay within the Bolshevik party walls. There is nothing in Russia to help a man control himself but might and the fear of might. Stalin, so friends in Moscow say, is the greatest of all dictators. He is zealous for communism. John Gunter of the Chicago Daily News says "his belief in it is that of the Pope for Jesus Christ." He has courage and patience. He is an extraordinary administrator, knows details that "her government officials never dream of thinking about and has succeeded in throwing out all who disagree with his plan to make communism in Russia before wasting any time fermenting communism in the rest of the world.

The Machines Come First

He has been working on the machinery for production and not being diverted to food and clothing just because people are cold or hungry. He wants a plant first, they say, and he is getting it. He is building just enough houses to show the people what they can get in the sweet bye and bye. The fact that five million Russians starved because the farmers did not want to raise wheat and potatoes for city workers, did not bother Comrade Stalin nearly as much as the rest of the world. He sent soldiers down, got the wheat and had stored up for themselves, brought it to the cities and let the farmers starve. He thought that would be the best way to impress them with the need for raising crops—for others.

But the Russians love Comrade Stalin! They may not understand it, but you remember the czars.

In a branch of the engineering profession the great achievement is to harness the uncontrolled waters of the turbulent river, to make them do man's bidding as he wills.

In radio the great achievement toward which any ambitious station struggles is SHOWMANSHIP. There lies the key to success. Without Showmanship you have just another radio station.

Five months ago KBST keyed itself to the tempo of Showmanship, intent upon giving its listeners programs that were DIFFERENT. Just a few of those programs are listed here—programs that were far from the ordinary run of entertainment:

- 1)—As a tribute to all Mothers on MOTHER'S DAY, KBST microphones went into the homes of the oldest and youngest mothers in Big Spring—Mrs. Mary E. (Mother) Zinn and Mrs. Fred Simpson—to carry a full hour program to listeners.
- 2)—In promotion of National Air Mail Week, KBST announcers went aloft to broadcast by shortwave to their station for re-broadcast to KBST listeners, fifteen programs as the plane piloted by R. F. Schermerhorn zoomed over as many West Texas communities and towns.
- 3)—To unite the Blue and the Grey, KBST microphones on Memorial Day went into the homes of Cann Powell, GAR veteran, and W. C. Brooks, veteran of the Confederacy, to pay tribute for an hour to these survivors of the Strife of the '60s.
- 4)—Given permission to join the Columbia Broadcasting System August 3rd, thanks to the efforts of J. Y. Robb of the R. & R. Theaters, to bring to KBST listeners the full hour program, "Alexander's Ragtime Band", presented on the nationwide CBS network. KBST was one of few non-CBS stations ever to obtain permission to join that network for a special program.

There have been many more such programs—and there will be many more in the future. KBST believes that its listeners always are entitled to the best in entertainment. It has lived up to its name of being the SHOWMANSHIP Station. In addition it has, in recent months, given thorough consideration to the question of how it can better serve its listeners. It has reached a decision——and Now KBST Goes NETWORK!

Because network stations do not reach into the Big Spring area satisfactorily, particularly during daytime, it has not been possible for radio listeners in this area to have the coverage of outstanding national events as well as great nationally presented radio shows that they should have.

But that time soon will be no more. Soon, when the president delivers a message of vital importance, when a great sporting event is being enacted, this will be brought straight into your home by means of your radio.

For weeks KBST has been negotiating for network facilities — the crowning achievement in this station's brief life of less than two years. We are happy to say that that crowning achievement has been attained, that greatly improved service will be provided to our listeners.

On September 15 KBST
Will Join
Mutual Broadcasting System
and
Texas State Network

It is our sincere hope that you will like this new affiliation. We believe that you will. But far from being content, KBST pledges anew that it will strive always to give you even better locally-produced programs than in the past, keeping always before us the fact that we must be a SHOWMANSHIP station. You are entitled to that. In the meantime

LABOR—MANUAL AND MACHINE

The average laboring man regards machinery as a natural enemy, a competitor that is slowly but steadily forcing him into the bread lines and the relief rolls.

Some interesting statements on this subject were made recently by Paul G. Hoffman, president of the Standard Oil Corporation.

In 1908 he employed 3,000 hands. There was little machinery. The work week was 60 hours.

Here is an interesting illustration of the practical effect of the mechanization of industry.

By Preston Greer

WASHINGTON—One of J. Edgar Hoover's highly prized possessions, in addition to the bullet proof vest of John Dillinger, is a letter from an earnest admirer who concluded a long dissertation on crime by saying: "After long study, I have concluded that the best way to end crime is to outlaw it."

Just as the Department of Justice presses its campaign to outlaw price-fixing and monopoly, the postoffice department discloses, and boasts, that it does the heaviest bit of profiteering in the land.

For seven cents it can manufacture a sheet of 100 three-cent stamps, sell them to a stamp collector and reap a clear profit of $2.93.

Funny Philately So profitable is the business of selling to stamp collectors that the department is thinking of taking a truck load on a transcontinental tour to drum up business.

Incidentally, the people who buy those $5 stamps are bankers and movie companies.

Practice Makes Puncture This piece began with G-men and can end by telling how they practice shooting kidnapers.

Then begins the charge. The G-man rushes 10 yards at a time, firing sometimes lying flat on his stomach, sometimes sitting or kneeling.

TEN YEARS OF TALKIES

Ten years ago, talking pictures turned Hollywood upside down. A movie with dialogue had brought new customers to the boxoffice.

Two years before, a New York audience had seen and heard a program of Vitaphone shorts and a silent "Do: Jutah" with synchronized musical score.

Chapter 15 Law And Disorder

When Jean-Francois has gone, I sought out Hugo and gave him the gist of Jean-Francois's report.

"I suppose," he commented when I had done, "that you're thinking that this bears out Meanie Willy's letter?"

"More than that," told him. "It's made up my mind for me. Hugo, there's a definite connection proved between that hotel and Gelas and I propose to pack up my traps and shift there this afternoon."

He opened his mouth to protest, but I checked him. "I know it's wild and crazy," I said, "but the situation I'm in is even wilder and crazier. I'm suspected of a murder I didn't do, and if I don't make a move quickly, I'll find myself presumed guilty till I can prove myself innocent."

"Well," said he, and shrugged wearily, "there's something in what you say."

Five minutes later I was pulling up before the big iron gates of the Chateau la Vague.

I walked up to the front door and rang the bell. It was a good minute and a half before footsteps approaching told me that my summons had been heard.

"You wish a room?" she asked. "Yes, my name is Archibald Lumsden, and I'm staying with my friend, Mr. Hugo Stern, at the Chateau d'Amour, but I'm obliged to remain in Cannes longer than I expected, and I don't want to inconvenience him. The chateau is small, you see, and this hotel is conveniently close . . ."

"HOLLYWOOD—Ten years ago . . . Sound effects will enhance but dialogue will be a detriment to enjoyment of screen entertainment."

"Mr. Lumsden!" she said. "A fellow-countryman! That will be nice, if we have a room, but I am not sure. One minute, if you please."

Chinese Mobilize To Guard Hankow

SHANGHAI, Aug. 22 (AP)—A million soldiers and 300,000 civilians were reported mobilized today to protect the Hankow area should the Japanese break the deadlock that has kept them 110 miles from the provisional Chinese capital for nearly a month. The Chinese civilians were being trained in many behind-the-line duties in the Hankow district. Included were 40,000 rickshaw pullers who would become a troop transport corps. Chinese newspapers which reported these details also said women were being given important roles as nurses and military aides. A women's corps was being trained to be medical workers in the front lines. Many college graduates, members of leading Chinese families, were said to be among the corps members. The Chinese-Japanese struggle for mastery of Poyang lake, about 135 air miles southeast of Hankow, continued today with undiminished fury.

Worm Damage Baptists Seek On Decline O'Daniel View On Race Bets

Worst Of Infestation In County Believed Past

Reports from over a large area of the county Tuesday showed that the leaf and hollyworm infestation crisis apparently had passed and that damage to the cotton crop from insects was on a sharp decline.

Many farmers found their fields virtually ridged of the worms after poisonings over the weekend, most of those which still had a serious infestation could notice a decline in the number and amount of damage.

At Lomax, where the worms were making a serious threat as late as Saturday, farmers reported that the worst appeared to be over.

It was believed that after the final round of poisoning this week, the worm problem could be largely forgotten until next season. It was estimated that the cost of fighting the most serious infestation in years this summer was near $20,000 for poison alone.

Resolution Adopted Asking Him To Take A Public Stand

FORT WORTH, Aug. 23—(AP)—Although supporters of W. Lee O'Daniel had assured Baptist leaders that the governor-nominate will oppose legalization of horse race betting, the Baptist Student conference at Southwestern Baptist Theological seminary today moved to obtain a stand on the question from O'Daniel himself.

"Since the issue has again arisen with the statement that you have an 'open mind' on the matter," the resolution adopted without dissenting vote set out, "we feel that Texas wants and needs a new declaration of independence, a declaration against legalized race track gambling which puts in jeopardy the economic, political and moral life of our people."

"We are praying," it concluded, "that you will take a public stand against race track gambling."

A letter written by Carr P. Collins, Dallas, O'Daniel advisor, and a statement made by Collins to Dr. L. R. Scarborough, president of the seminary and the Southern Baptist convention, were quoted on the convention floor.

Collins gave in both his assurance that O'Daniel will oppose the partial mutual system of betting.

"It is a strange situation," Rev. J. B. Tidwell, head of the Baylor University Bible department, commented at the conference, "that we have to go to an outsider to find out how the governor-elect stands on moral issues." He suggested the addition of two addresses to the three previously scheduled.

He said he will speak from 8 to 8:15 p. m. Friday—election eve—over the Texas Quality network and over the three Columbia broadcasting system stations in Texas. He also will speak at 7:45 p. m. Thursday on TQN.

The Friday night broadcast will be from Marine Park, where C. V. Terrell will speak in his campaign for railroad commissioner. Terrell is supported by the governor-nominate. Terrell has arranged for a 30-minute period starting at 8 o'clock. O'Daniel will use the first 15 minutes, and Terrell the remainder. The CBS stations are KRLL, KTRH and KTTA.

O'Daniel Busy On The Radio

Adds More Speeches To Schedule Before Election Day

FORT WORTH, Aug. 23—(AP)—W. Lee O'Daniel will conclude the runoff primary campaign with a barrage of radio broadcasts, he indicated today when he announced the addition of two addresses to the three previously scheduled.

He said he will speak from 8 to 8:15 p. m. Friday—election eve—over the Texas Quality network and over the three Columbia broadcasting system stations in Texas. He also will speak at 7:45 p. m. Thursday on TQN.

TOM HUNTER WILL GO ON ALASKAN TRIP

WICHITA FALLS, Aug. 23—(AP)—Tom F. Hunter, who returned Sunday night from a vacation in Colorado, will leave Aug. 31 on an Alaskan hunting trip.

"Where I'm going it will take 18 days to reach camp and there won't be any flur sleazem," Hunter chuckled as he discussed his plans. The 18 days from Wichita Falls to camp will include an airplane hop over one section of Alaskan wilds where there are no trails.

Although the hunting trip will be a general one Hunter is looking especially for Kodiak bear, biggest and fiercest of North American big game.

French Labor Fights For 40-Hour Week

PARIS, Aug. 23 (AP)—French labor leaders rallied their forces today to fight the Daladier government for retention of the 40-hour week and labor circles forswore the possibility of a general strike.

The General Confederation of Labor which lists 5,000,000 members and most other unions ordered their members to be ready for action.

Foremost in the offensive were the waterfront unions, fighting government efforts to force Marseille stevedores to unload perishables during the week-end and thereby exceeding their 40-hour work period.

The Federation of Port Workers' unions said "grave decisions" would be made soon unless extra pay for overtime was granted the Marseille members, and labor circles said this was a threat of a strike in all French ports.

Pen Inmate Is Killed

HUNTSVILLE, Aug. 23 (AP)—Capt. J. P. Hamilton, manager of the Eastham state prison farm, informed prison officials here today that convict Richard Charles Rehm was stabbed to death yesterday by Assistant Building Tender Roy Hockler, 34, of Dallas.

Hamilton said Rehm had a fight in the prison dormitory yesterday, and later it was rumored he had a knife. The captain declared that Hockler ordered him to submit to a search and Rehm pulled the weapon.

Hockler, permitted to carry a knife as building tender, beat Rehm to the punch, stabbing him in the stomach, according to Hamilton.

The captain said Rehm recently made several attempts to escape, and shortly before the stabbing was released from 54 hours of solitary confinement for laziness.

Rehm was serving 30 years from Grayson county where he was convicted for the slaying May 18, 1934, of Luke J. Bell of the Dallas police department. Bell was slain as he was transferring Rehm to the Dallas county jail.

Rehm, who was 23 years old, was from Memphis, Tenn.

Hamilton did not indicate whether charges would be preferred against Hockler, who was serving 12 years for 14 cases of burglary and three of theft from Tarrant county.

INSURGENTS' DRIVE APPEARS BLOCKED

HENDAYE, France—(AT The Spanish Frontier)—Aug. 23 (AP)—A general insurgent offensive appeared blocked today on the key sector of the Ebro front although in central Spain, along the Tagus river, government troops were giving ground.

Observers considered the fighting on the two fronts perhaps the heaviest in the 26-month-old civil war, with artillery, tanks and airplanes used by both sides on a scale scarcely approached before.

The main force of insurgent Generalissimo Francisco Franco's campaign broke against Hitler positions held by the Barcelona militiamen on a great bend of the Ebro river just east of Gandesa in Catalonia.

Despite intense bombardment, the government fighters held the fortified positions and mowed down insurgent infantrymen with cross-fire from machine-guns.

Losses on both sides were heavy not only on the front but far behind the lines.

Pay Off

pay Hines $1,000 down and $500 a week.

Weinberg said that thereafter he saw Hines weekly and paid him $500 each time.

Hines asked me, when we met out side his house, how things were going," Weinberg said.

"He had previously told me that I could contact him at his home each morning at 9 o'clock or in the evening.

"Then, along in May, 1932, I saw Dutch Schultz and I told him it was about time the policy bank operators were shown they could get protection. That was after the payments had been made to Jimmy Hines."

Weinberg said Schultz told him to get the "O.K." from Jim, and that he saw Hines in June and asked assurances that it was safe to operate the policy racket.

"Hines told me to open it up and try it," the witness testified.
