Davidson Thanks Fellow Students

Student Association President Troy Davidson, June graduate, issued the following statement to the Toreador Wednesday evening.

To the Student Body of Texas Tech Dear Fellow Students:

As we come to the end of this school year, I can look back upon many pleasant associations with you, and would like to take this opportunity to express my appreciation to all of you for your fine spirit of cooperation in student activities.

I fully realize that I and your Student Council have made mistakes this year, but all have been in good faith. At the same time, I sincerely believe that much good has been accomplished. The cooperation among the administration, faculty, alumni, and student body is at a new high, and if we have helped bring about these fine results, then our efforts have been justly rewarded.

The incoming officers have as one of their objectives the strengthening of the ties among those factions, and in so doing will lead Texas Tech to even greater heights. Give them your cooperation as you have done thus far and there is no limit to the accomplishments that can be made for our institution.

Thanking you again for the opportunity of serving you and for the cooperation that you have given us, and wishing you the very best of luck for continued success, I remain
Very truly yours,
Troy Davidson

McElroy Planning Organized Alumni

"Tech needs an organized Alumni" has long been a true and oft spoken word by students, alumni and those interested in Tech," says D. M. McElroy, new executive secretary of the Alumni Association.

The purpose of an organized alumni will be to promote the welfare of Tech through fully supporting the college administration in its efforts toward executing the plans and policies outlined by the Board of Directors, says McElroy.

Selection of the executive secretary is the first step toward the organization program. Organization of the ex-students will consist of location of as many of these as possible and establishing contact with them either by mail or through a Tech chapter.

The forming of Tech Chapters will play a large part in the program. McElroy says that this organization is a task that cannot be completed in a few months but the alumni work must begin now with the nucleus that has.

Some aims of the Alumni Association are to establish scholarship and loan funds, establish a fund to assist the college in programs where legislative appropriations are unavailable, work effectively with the state legislature in helping to secure needed appropriation, establish a placement service to assist seniors and alumni, send new students to college and to establish or maintain in the Alumni a spirit of affectionate, intelligent and effective interest in the college as an exponent of higher education.

Campus Infirmary, Physician Included In Fall Medical Plan

A 20-bed campus infirmary staffed with physician and a number of nurses is included in tentative plans for a broad medical service program to be launched next fall for Tech students, Pres. W. M. Whyburn has announced.

The faculty committee on student welfare, assisted by business and medical staff members of the three Lubbock hospitals, are now developing the plans which will go in effect next September.

The program is made possible by recent action of the Texas Legislature in authorizing directors of state supported colleges to require a $30 student activity and medical fee each year. Voluntary student activity fees now total $11.20, and limited health service is covered with a nurse fee of $5.00 per semester.

The prospective infirmary will be housed in a war surplus building, one of some 32 being moved to the campus from Camp Barkeley by the FWA. It is expected to be particularly helpful in providing speedy isolation for patients with minor communicable diseases, in giving first aid on the campus, immunization shots and laboratory tests for various diseases when necessary.

"Patients will be admitted only by physician's orders. They will be permitted to remain in the infirmary free of charge for a limited number of days, and may receive care longer for a nominal charge. Service of the physician and nurse will be covered by the fee.

Complete health examinations will be given freshmen, according to present plans, and it is hoped that these examinations will be available to upperclassmen who request them.

While the proposed health program will offer more services to students than have been possible during the war, college officials emphasized that it would not provide complete hospital services, nor specialist's care for individual cases.

TWVA Votes Five To One Against Subsistence Raise

One hundred and fifty members of TWVA voted Tuesday night not to support the proposed increase in veteran's subsistence payments, according to Floyd Read, commander. The vote was approximately five to one against the increase.

The vote, following a lengthy discussion, was in opposition to a poll of 1,000 veterans, made by TWVA, which showed that Tech veterans favor the increase by 25 to one.

The subject of increased subsistence was brought before TWVA following the recent organization of the Inter-Collegiate Ex-Servicemen's Association of Texas, which favors the blanket increase. As yet, TWVA is not a member of the organization; the vote Tuesday was called in order to see how Tech veterans felt about the plan.

Dr. Doyle D. Jackson, sponsor of TWVA, expressed opposition to the blanket increase and also to the ultimate aims of the new statewide organization. John Wright reviewed hearing of Congressional subcommittees on education, showing the opinions of outstanding educators on the subject of the increase.

Others who talked at the meeting pointed out that the present subsistence payments are not enough to maintain the proper standard of living, but that a blanket increase was not the solution to the problem.

Parents, Students Given Recognition In Annual Service

Parents as well as students were honored in the Recognition Service on Parent's Day Tuesday. Troy Davidson, president of the student's association, recognized the following parents at this first all college recognition service held on Parent's Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Chick, parents of Bob Chick, president elect of student council from Henderson for traveling the farthest distance; Mrs. Fred Montgomery, mother of William, Robert, Fred and Mac Montgomery, for having most children in Tech at present time.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirby Nash, parents of Tommy, Bob, and Norma, Nash, for having the most children in Tech for all time. Ex-Techian parents with children now in Tech were: Mrs. H. D. Bentley, Mrs. William Peticoles, Floyd Blankenship, Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Smith, Mrs. M. C. Butler, Mrs. R. C. Harvey, Mrs. Marie Shook and Mrs. Annie Roland.

Dean J. G. Allen, Dean of Men, was master of ceremonies for the service and the address was given by Pres. Whyburn. Dean R. C. Goodwin, Dean of Arts and Sciences gave recognition to the honor students, Ray L. Chappelle, member of the Faculty Committee on Scholarships and Awards, recognized students who hold scholarships or scholastic awards for the academic year 1946-47.

Mozelle Craddock, director of the Tech dormitory systems and former professor and head of the Department of Institutional Management at Tech, is competing with Katherine Hart, assistant professor of home economics and manager of the food service for the Union Cafeteria, Michigan State College, Lansing, Mich., for the office of chairman of the American Home Economics association in the 1947 election, it has been announced.

A bulletin giving qualifications of candidates declared that Craddock held her BS from the University of Texas, and her MA from the University of Chicago. She was associate professor in institutional management at the Texas State College for Women before coming to Tech. While here, she has been responsible for designing, equipping and organizing food service in the four dormitories, the bulletin concluded.

Jennings, Morgan Attend Conference Meet At Waco

Morley Jennings, director of athletics, and Dell Morgan, head football coach, will travel to Waco this weekend to attend the Southwest Conference track meet.

In addition, the two men will attend meetings of faculty representatives of the Southwest Conference to discuss various rule changes. A decision may be reached by the conference on whether or not to heed the "purity" code of the National Collegiate Athletic Association.

The N.C.A.A. "purity" code forbids coaches to talk to prospective athletes in an attempt to influence the prospects to attend any particular school.

Bronz Star Awarded

Edward H. Singleton, a foreman on Tech dormitory construction, was awarded the Bronze Star medal in the Military Science building Thursday afternoon, according to Col. L. C. Adams, professor of military science and tactics.

Singleton was decorated for outstanding and meritorious service during May to July on Luzon in the Philippines.

Col Adams stated that no ceremony other than the decoration took place.

Six Men's Clubs Remain Active

Six of the 7 men's social clubs will remain active during the summer, pending approval of the MIOC Los Comaradas will be inactive during the summer semesters. Club pledges attending summer school who pledged and made their grades during the spring semester will be initiated during the beginning of the first summer term.

Summer reunions of the clubs have been announced as follows: The Silver Keys will hold a reunion in Ruidoso from July 17 thru July 20.

Socis will have their reunion in Fort Worth between the summer and fall semesters.

Dallas will be the site of the Kappa reunion to be held the first weekend in September.

Wranglers will hold their reunion in Dallas from May 30 through June 3.

Centaurus will meet in August at Fort Worth to have their reunion. Date and time for the College Club, and her MA from the University of Texas, and her MA from the University of Chicago.

Dorm Manager Competes For Chairman of AHEA

Mozelle Craddock, director of the Tech dormitory systems and former professor and head of the Department of Institutional Management at Tech, is competing with Katherine Hart, assistant professor of home economics and manager of the food service for the Union Cafeteria, Michigan State College, Lansing, Mich., for the office of chairman of the American Home Economics association in the 1947 election, it has been announced.

A bulletin giving qualifications of candidates declared that Craddock held her BS from the University of Texas, and her MA from the University of Chicago. She was associate professor in institutional management at the Texas State College for Women before coming to Tech. While here, she has been responsible for designing, equipping and organizing food service in the four dormitories, the bulletin concluded.

Journalism Scholarships Given For Best Reporting

Winifred Larabee and John Anderson, junior journalism students from Lubbock, have been awarded $50 scholarships for the best work in newspaper reporting for the year, according to Cecil Horne, head of the Journalism department.

John Anderson was awarded the Avanche-Journal Scholarship supported by Charlie Guy, editor and publisher of the Avalanche, for the best work in reporting done by a junior journalism student for the first semester.

Winifred Larabee received the Wilbur C. Hawk Memorial Scholarship, inaugurated by Gene Howe, publisher of the Amarillo News Globe, for the best reporting work for the second semester.

The money from the scholarships will be available to these two students for college expenses next year.

Tom Clark, Dr. Grant Will Give Addresses To Class Of 1947

Barbecue To Honor Attorney General

A barbecue honoring U. S. Attorney General Tom C. Clark, who will address the spring graduating class at the commencement exercise Monday, June 2, is being planned by a committee of Lubbock citizens in charge of arranging its reception.

Plans are for the barbecue to be held at 5:30 o'clock, June 2. No definite site has been selected, but it will be somewhere on the Tech campus.

Guests at the affair will be those persons invited to attend the commencement service as guests of the college, according to A. B. Davis, chairman of the barbecue committee. Davis said a limited number of tickets will be available to townpeople at $1 each.

Members of the committee besides Davis are Dr. J. William Davis, head of the government department of Tech, Tom Duggan, president of the Lubbock Bar Association, and Charles Adams, Jr., representative of the alumni and ex-student association.

ALUMNI TO AID GRADES

Alumni office will give letters of introduction to graduating seniors and ex-students to fellow alumni and ex-students in principal cities and through them contact individuals of desired companies, states D. M. McElroy, executive secretary of the Alumni Association.

Due to the short time of operations, the Alumni Association has been prevented from having an effective placement program this year. "It is hoped that each graduate and ex-student will keep in close contact with this office, so that we may serve you in the future," says Mr. McElroy.

Tech's Funds Eliminated When Senate Lowers Bill

The state Senate Monday lowered the house bill appropriating funds for operation of state supported colleges for the next two years by $12,316,313. The $1,655,000 improvement fund for Tech, contained in the House bill, was completely eliminated.

A comparison of House and Senate recommendations for Tech on an annual basis shows:

Salaries: House—$1,319,866; Senate—$1,137,998.

Improvements and maintenance: House—$800 for 1947-48; $1,655,000 for 1948-49; Senate—$5,000 each year.

If the Senate recommendations should be passed, the Tech building program would have to be abandoned until further funds are granted.

HONORARY Ph D

Professor D. O. Wiley, Tech band director, was given an honorary Doctor's Degree by the Southwest Conservatory of Fine Arts for outstanding service in music and music education over a period of twenty-five years. The degree was conferred in Dallas, May 10.

Tech Trackmen Place Second In Border Meet

Reynolds High Point Individual Entry As Raiders Lose To Tempe In Last Event

By BILL SAYRES

Tech's track and field team returned from the Border conference meet at Albuquerque where they took second place honors after bowing to a strong Tempe aggregation in the last event of the meet. The Red Raiders took five first, two second, five third and two fourth places for a total score of 42 5-6 points to 49 1-2 for the Sun Devils. Fleet Charley Reynolds successfully defended his Border conference 100 yard dash title, placed first in the 220 yard dash and ran the anchor lap on the winning mile relay team to cop individual scoring honors for the meet, with five 1-4 points. He barely nosed out Joe Batiste, sensational six event man from Tempe who compiled 11 points even.

This meet marked the end of the struggle hold on the conference championship held by Arizona who has won every meet since it was established 12 years ago. "Beat the Wildcats" seemed to be the order of the day as every team participating put everything they had into an effort to break the one-school domination.

The favored Sun Devils started strong as was expected with Tech overtaking them near the half way point in the meet. From then it was an even struggle with the Raiders holding a slight edge until the javelin throw, the last event, when they were overtaken by Art Van Hazel and Joe Batiste who placed first and third respectively to set up the meet. Arizona's Ortiz took second and West Texas State's Lyon beat out C. Florence for Tech by a quarter of an inch.

A heated debate resulted from the finish of the 220 yard dash. Charley Reynolds took a clear-cut first but the argument resulted when the judges picking second, third and fourth places all picked Tech's Seth Murphy. All judges stuck to their decisions and it was finally decided that second, third and fourth place points would be divided evenly between Murphy, Fred Wendt, Texas Mines and Jim Powers of Arizona. After another hour of haggling, however, the decision was reversed and Murphy was given second place with Wendt and Powers splitting third and fourth due to a rule giving the second place judge priority over the other two.

Weather that made the "Land of Enchantment" boosters blush with shame dampened the track making it mushy and slow and a stiff breeze sprang up to further handicap the runners which probably accounts for the slow time made in most events. The 2:01 half mile turned in by Ernest Hawkins was the outstanding performance of the day. Hawkins came from 10 yards back to charge across the finish line ahead of Arizona's Bill Daum to the screaming approval of over 1000 fans. The Raider mile relay team earned an impressive first place, finishing a good hundred yards in front of their nearest competition with a time of only one second over the conference record. This is the second straight year that the mile relay team, composed of Hewitt Allison, Bill Kelley, Charley Reynolds, and Joe Wilson have won the Border conference title. This was a farewell performance by Allison who will graduate this spring and the first year that Wilson has competed with the relay team.

Three Physical Education majors have been appointed counselors for the summer at Camp Elowi, a recreation camp, in Dallas. Nina Starky will be archery counselor, Sue Everitt will be dance counselor, and Faye Harlan will be swimming counselor, according to Mary Peacock of Women's P. E. department.

'47 Bears Tough, Writer Forecasts

By JOHN HASSON

Let's take a quick look at one of Tech's gridiron opponents for next season. We've chosen Baylor for three reasons. Tech fans have had an opportunity to see the Bears play here oftener in recent years than any other Southwest conference team. Baylor will be Tech's homecoming opponent, and the Bears have begun a new regime under a new coach, Bobby Woodruff.

Woodruff, in his first year at Baylor, has a problem reminiscent of the difficulty which confronted Dell Morgan at Tech last year. That is—he needs a topnotch quarterback to make the T-formation click. Woodruff, who was schooled in the Tennessee single-wing under Bob Neyland, has become a T-man, undoubtedly influenced by the results of teams like Army and Notre Dame. He has indicated that Bear opponents will see the single-wing at times even though the T will be the basic formation.

Hayden Fry, quarterback on Odessa's state champion high school team last year, is one of the Baylor candidates being groomed for the spot. Fry, one of the most sought after high school stars of recent years, should partially solve Woodruff's problem in another year or so.

Others likely to see action at the quarterback post next season appear to be Jack Price, a fine passer but too slow afoot, Joe Burke and Ben Sheats both good passers but not so adept at slick ball handling necessary to the success of the T. The other backfield positions seem to be well-manned. Sammy Pierce, handicapped by a knee injury last year and Jerry Mangum, one of the leading ground gainers in the Southwest conference last year should handle the fullback position capably.

At left half the Bears will have Dudley Parker, a good kicker and one of the swiftest men on the squad aided by Bobby Griffin, a promising newcomer. The right halfback position is talent-laden with James Watson and Billy Joe Norris, lettermen from last year's squad along with newcomers Ben Hall, Lyle Blackwood and "Jitter" McKinney.

Standouts in spring training for the line were "Bull" Johnson, all-conference in '45, Captain James Griffin, Bentley Jones, Clarence McGaw, Bill Craven and "Chuck" Stone.

The Bears may not be contenders in the Southwest conference next year but every team on the schedule will be a possible upset victim. And in '48—that's the year that Bobby Woodruff expects his efforts to pay off.

Scenes from the Border conference track meet at Albuquerque May 9-10. TOP—Ed Clepper, Tech hurdler winning a thrilling preliminary heat from Joe Batiste, Tempe star. BOTTOM—Charley Reynolds scoring a repeat victory in the 100-yard dash. Tech's Ralph Earhart, finishing third, is just behind and to the side of Reynolds, with only a part of his legs and arms visible.

Odds and Ends...

By JERRY STOLTZ
Toreador Sports Writer

Tech golfers took out a bit of revenge in the Border Conference meet when they took second place behind Arizona. By this I mean that they took New Mexico and Texas Mines by enough to make up for losing early season matches to each of these teams. The two-stroke margin that the divot diggers trailed Arizona wasn't much.

Elmer McKinney brought the individual golf honors back with him. He had a 73-77 for 150 for the 36 holes which gave him a 4 stroke advantage over his nearest rival.

Other notes from Albuquerque include the NMU-Tech football game next Nov. 22. This game will be Homecoming for the Lobos. It also will be a "natural" in that it brings Coach Dell Morgan and his former assistant Berl Huffman together as rivals on the gridiron for the first time. Incidentally the seating capacity of the Hilltop stadium will have approximately 5,000 seats by the time this game is played in anticipation of the interest in this game.

Next year's Border Conference track meet, tennis and golf championships will be held at Tempe, Arizona. For those who want to start planning the trip now, it's a few miles out of Phoenix. The 1949 conference meet will be here at Tech. By then we will have a cinder track and other improvements, to help make Tech's first time as host to the conference a success.

The Southwestern Individual Fencing championships that were scheduled for this weekend in Austin have been postponed to June 6. This will throw one kink in the way of Tech fencers. That is that if any fencer who has not lettered should win one of the first places in the tournament, it would be too late for him to letter this year, since school will be out.

While we are on letters we might add that the Athletic Council's action on awarding letters in track, tennis, golf, and fencing will be too late to make the Toreador this semester.

Ernest Hawkins will be the seventh 3-letter man in Tech athletic history when he receives his letter for track. He won the half-mile in the conference meet to assure himself of a letter in track. He quarterbacked the Red Raiders in football and got in enough time in basketball to earn a basketball letter. Bill Kelley the sixth 3-letter man is also in school, but didn't play basketball this year.

Texas University just had a big intramural track meet last week. Intramurals in golf, tennis and track are lacking around here. Maybe the rubber game of the Centaur-Wrangler softball championship series won't be over in time to make this paper. If so we regret it.

Tech received two trophies in the conference meet, and the fencing team also contributed a couple recently. Maybe someday there will be a trophy case around someplace so the students can point with pride to the school's accomplishments in athletics.

A definition of golf, now that spring is luring the enthusiasts of the links out: Golf—a futile attempt to put an insignificant ball into an obscure hole with a totally inadequate weapon, for no apparent reason.

Tennis Team Wins Second In Games At Albuquerque

The six tennis teams entered in the Border conference tournament battled it out in matches between intermitted rain showers at Albuquerque on May 9 and 10 with Arizona making a clean sweep of all competition for the championship and Texas Tech taking second honors. Arizona, ceded first from the outset, lived up to all expectations with Herb Benham winning the Class A singles championship; Benham and Ken Drummond, Class A doubles; and Marvin Borodkin and Bob Caldwell, Class B doubles. The Class B singles, an all-Arizona contest, was not played due to rain and it was agreed that it will be played in Tucson at the players' convenience. This match will be played between Drummond and Borodkin.

The Tech net men showed up well in the preliminaries with Glenn Ivey, Tippy Lee and Jake Broyles winning their first match and only Joe Montgomery dropping out by virtue of a defeat at the hands of Ken Drummond of Arizona.

In the second round Lee and Ivey quickly put away their respective opponents by identical scores of 6-0 6-0 and Broyles also winning his match.

Lee and Ivey were eliminated in the next round, Ivey falling before Herb Benham and Broyles winning over Drummond from Arizona.

In the Class A singles finals Benham defeated Broyles 6-2, 6-2. In the Class A doubles Benham and Drummond defeated Broyles and Ivey 6-2 in the first set, the Tech men took an exhausting second set 12-10 and the Arizona team won the last set 6-4.

Borodkin and Caldwell defeated M. T. Horne and Jim Scott for the Class B doubles crown.

In this room, telephone circuit specialists maintain accurate and instant control over some 11,400,000 miles of long distance lines.

Merely by referring to this huge diagram they can tell at a glance the exact status of telephone circuits from Montreal to Mexico City and from Havana to Seattle. For, as quickly as new lines are added or extended, or as quickly as circuits reach capacity or again become available, the change is recorded on this master chart.

Simple, yet effective methods like this are important to the smooth and efficient operation of the telephone industry.

Men who can produce such ideas, who can inject enthusiasm and ingenuity into their work, find telephony a fascinating and rewarding career.

Quarterly Club Honors Doak, Smith; Portrait To Be Shown At Tea Sunday

Mrs. Emily Guthrie Smith's portrait of Tech's basketball hopefuls tonight will conclude 1947 spring training for the Red Raiders, with Coach Polk Robison planning an equal division of his charges for the game which starts at 7:30.

Robison has not chosen final lineups for the game, but he said he expects about half of last year's squadmen to be on each team, with newcomers making up the remainder. Of 30 men out for training, nine are lettermen of last season, three are men who gained Freshman numbers in 1944, four are last season's squadmen, and others are newcomers to Tech basketball.

This week's practice has been devoted to shooting, defense, ball-handling, and team play to smooth rough edges from the team, said Robison, who is coaching Tech's basketball team for the fourth time. Robison headed Raider teams from 1942-44, and succeeded Berl Huffman as mentor this spring.

Raider Spring Training Will End With Scrimmage

Invitations to the reception have been extended to more than 1000 persons.

At Missouri University two fellows held an eating contest. The winner won the prize money, but more important, he won a contract from the Goodyear Bilmop company.
