Election code violations alleged in A&S run-off

By JIM DAVIS
Editor

For the second time in this year's round of elections, a candidate faces disqualification for violation of the election code and the Arts and Sciences senatorial election faces a controversy.

The candidate being accused is Ken Fields, who Tuesday won a run-off election for the 12th A&S seat. The accuser is C.C. "Candy" Hall, former vice presidential candidate and second runner in the A&S run-off.

IN THE WRITTEN protest, Mrs. Hall alleged that Fields had committed four offenses against the election code. First, he is accused of handing out campaign name tags during the run-off when the committee had strictly prohibited any sort of material campaigning during the run-off.

Second, Fields is accused of violating the code prohibition on campaigning within 15 feet of the polls.

Third, he is accused of counseling persons "who were not in Arts & Sciences as to how they could vote" for him in the A&S election.

Finally, Fields is accused of placing campaign posters in prohibited areas. Mrs. Hall said they had witnesses who would testify to the validity of these accusations.

Bruce Barrick, who with Greg Wimmer and Roger Settler will represent Fields at the Student Operations and Relations Committee, said they were denying all the charges.

"They (the alleged acts) were simply not done or (the accusations) were misinterpretations of the rules by the Halls," Barrick said.

Mortar Board takes women in ceremony

Twenty-two new members of Tech's chapter of Mortar Board, national honorary for senior women, were selected at traditional Tapping Day ceremonies Wednesday.

Student nominees were "tapped" for membership during the day at the various campus buildings where they were attending classes. Selection is based on scholarship, leadership and service and the identities of those to be honored remains a secret until the actual ceremony begins.

CHOSEN WERE: Barbee Anderson, Fort Worth; Betsy Brown and Bonnie Brown, both of El Paso; Julie Cates, Dallas; Judy Clark, Temple; Ann Graham, Breckenridge; Jeannie Griffith, Lubbock; Amy Hammer, Lubbock; Ann Hearn, Lubbock; Kaye Hilliard, Waco; Becky Hutchinson, Spearman; Ethel McDaniel, Pampa; Laura McElroy, Ralls; Sharon McIntyre, Poteet; Marsha Mills, Alpine; Jeannie Smith, Alpine; Gayle Snure, Midland; Jan Stephenson, Claude; Laura Stout, Odessa; Linda Vaughn, Lubbock; Pam Whitley, Arlington, and Debbie Wright, Tahoka.

New members will be initiated in services at 2 p.m. April 4 at Second Baptist Church, said Mortar Board President Katie Upshaw of Canyon.

Working a must in Cuba

MIAMI (AP)—Cuba passed today a new law imposing strict penalties on working-age people without jobs or chronically absent from work or school, Havana radio reported.

Committee passes tuition raise

AUSTIN (AP) - A House-passed bill boosting state college tuition for non-Texans by 250 per cent was approved Wednesday by the Senate finance committee.

THE PROTEST is expected to be ruled on by the committee sometime today.

Rene Freeman, chairman of the committee, said, "If it's true, we should have a pretty valid complaint."

Fields will not be installed as a senator until the protest is settled. Had the election not been protested he would have been sworn in Wednesday night at the Student Association Installation Banquet.

Mrs. Hall said if the committee did not rule to disqualify Fields she would appeal the case to the Student Supreme Court.

The day before the executive elections, the Tech Supreme Court upheld an Operations and Relations Committee decision to disqualify vice-presidential candidate Doug Williams for putting his campaign posters up some five hours before the official beginning of material campaigning.

THIS IS the second time this year an A&S senatorial election has been questioned.

During the elections last week, it was discovered the name of a Business Administration senatorial candidate had erroneously been put on the A&S ballot and left off the BA ballot. Both elections were protested.

The BA election was completely redone Monday on a ruling from the Operations and Relations Committee

The Committee, however, sustained the A&S election. The Tech Supreme Court overturned the committee ruling and set up the run-off between Mrs. Hall, Fields and Nancy Bowen. Mrs. Hall placed second in the run-off, although she had won the 12th A&S seat in the original election.

Dignitaries visit Tech to witness bill signing

By LAYLAN COPELIN
Special Reporter

Four plane-loads of Texas dignitaries today will accompany Governor Preston Smith to witness the signing of House Bill 278 which will fund construction of the Tech Medical School and projects in the University of Texas System.

IN THE GROUP will be 25 to 30 state representatives, including the members from Lubbock; two state senators, including H. J. "Doc" Blanchard; the Board of Regents from Tech and UT and seven of the eight presidents of the UT System's universities, said Jerry Hall, information officer in the Governor's Office.

Security will be handled "just as we do a basketball game," said Captain S. O. Boyd of Traffic Security. He expected 20-23 officers would be used in and out of the University Center Ballroom, the site of the ceremony.

THE LUBBOCK POLICE Department will be available should anything happen, but no city officers will be stationed on campus, said Chief J. T. Alley of the Lubbock Police Department.

The Governor's Office has taken no special security steps despite rumors of demonstrations. "It has been a long time since we haven't had a few sign carriers at engagements on campuses. As long as they are peaceful, the Governor's Office doesn't mind," said Hall.

The ceremony, which will have seating capacity for 500, will begin at 5:30 p.m.

FRANK JUNELL, chairman of the Tech Board of Regents, will be the master of ceremonies and will make a short speech, said Hall.

Following Junell, State Representative Dick Slack of Pecos, Tex., who introduced House Bill 278, will speak.

Next, Hall said, Blanchard will introduce the Governor and he will make more remarks concerning the bill.

Tech Student Association leaders were not officially invited to the ceremony, said Dr. Monty Davenport, Tech associate vice president, because the bill concerns the medical school which is a separate institution from Tech itself.

However, the ceremony is open to the student body.

After the signing ceremony, the Governor will attend a dinner at the Lubbock Country Club and then fly back to Austin later tonight.

GOV. PRESTON SMITH

Senate cracks down on radicals

AUSTIN (AP)—Texas senators voted Wednesday to give the old folks a tax break and to get tough with anyone causing trouble on college campuses.

They also made it easier for minors to be treated for drug abuse and harder for insurance companies to cancel auto insurance policies.

The Senate worked on numerous proposals Wednesday after Sen. Ralph

Hall decided not to bring up his legislative ethics bill, a measure he said had the "heart" cut out of it Tuesday.

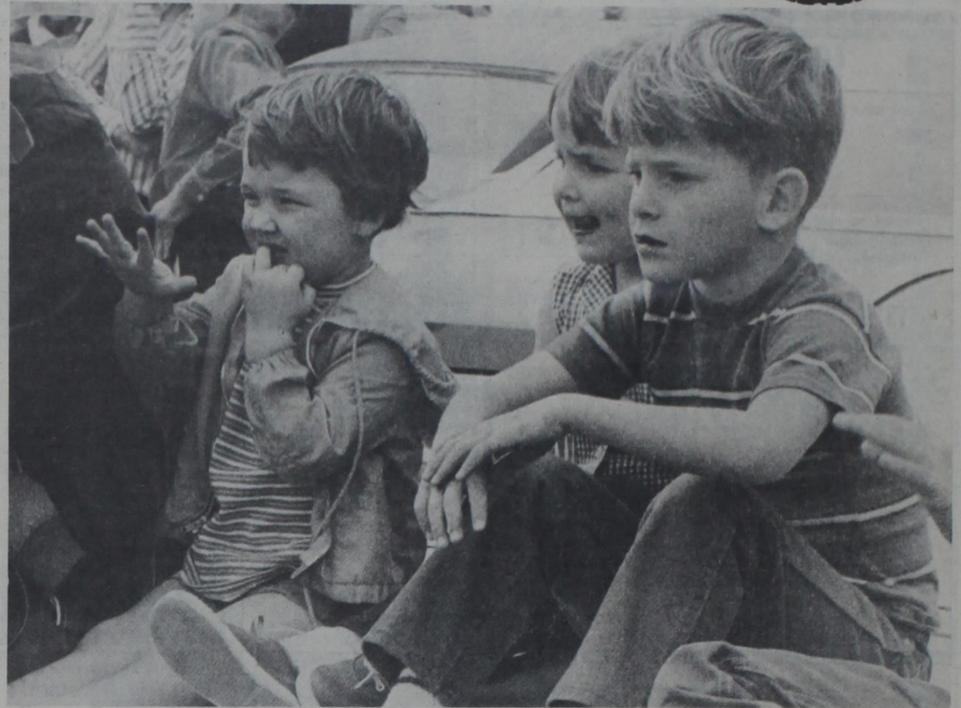

But Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes said he hoped Hall's ethics proposal would be debated again Thursday, and there is a good chance that the Senate will consider liquor-by-the-drink.

"If the troops are here, I'll be ready," said El Paso Sen. Joe Christie, the liquor bill sponsor. He is counting votes and would like to have at least 21, or enough to put the measure into immediate effect, if it is finally approved by both houses and signed by the governor.

The Senate passed on voice vote and sent to the house a bill by Sen. Oscar Mauzy, Dallas, prohibiting "disruptive activities" at private and public colleges and vocational-technical schools.

The bill makes it illegal for anyone to seize control of a building, disrupt a lawful assembly or obstruct or restrain anyone from passing through hallways or in and out of buildings. Violators could be sentenced to six months in jail and fined $200.

A person convicted three times could be barred from attending a state-financed college for two years. Senators passed, 29-0, a House-approved bill to allow minors at least 13 to be examined and treated for the misuse of narcotics without their parents' consent. The measure goes to the governor.

Hit or miss affair

Pinatas swinging time

By PAT NICKELL
Campus Editor

A hit or miss affair in front of the University Center today is being sponsored by Los Tertulianos.

Anyone desiring to take a swing at a pinata can take three swings for a dime.

The Pinata Bust was to begin at 10 a.m. today with the proceeds going to the Annual Seminar for Higher Education, which is a project of Los Tertulianos.

Dorm Movement's polling reveals surprising results

Tech's unofficial Dorm Movement recently conducted a poll of 160 residents with surprising answers.

Ralph Tilney, a spokesman for the Dorm Movement, said the organization's initial reaction to the results was a "greatly heightened activity."

Tilney also emphasized the importance of the survey's result in the general support of the organization. "This poll will either put an end to our faltering organization or breath some fire into it," he said.

The most surprising result, Tilney said, was only seven per cent more students objected to the dorm food than to dorm rules.

ALSO 43 PER CENT of those polled registered their preference for truly coed dorms in those buildings with adequate toilet facilities, while 81 per cent prefer segregation by floor or by room.

It is the opinion of the Dorm Movement there is time left for the housing office to make arrangements to have at least one coed dorm.

In a question asked about the general opinion of the dorms, six percent of the boys felt the dorms were favorable, 44 per cent thought they were satisfactory and 50 per cent said the dorms were unfavorable.

THE SURVEY included questions on dorm rules and food, visitation policies, the expense of living in a dorm, hours for freshmen, contract systems and questions about dorm representatives.

The dorm questionnaires were compiled and administered by Dorm Movement personnel and the analyzed results were released to the University Daily.

Little 500 bike race scheduled

Chi Rho, Women's Service Organization, and the Saddle Tramps are sponsoring the 14th annual Little 500 Bicycle Race on April 3, 1971.

THE RACE will begin at 1:30 p.m. for women riders and 2:30 p.m. for the men. The women will have their bikes inspected at 1 and the mens bike inspection will take place at 2 p.m.

The course to be used will circle around the engineering key and Memorial Circle. The men's race will consist of 24 laps while the women's race has twelve laps.

Entry forms may be picked up at the Student Association Office in the University Center or by calling Mike Earney 795-8572 or Greg Humphries 785-7802, or Tom Tella 742-4083.

The entry fee for each team is five dollars payable when the entry forms are received. The entry forms should be returned to the Student Association Office by March 29th at 5 p.m. This is the last deadline to turn in the entry forms. Each participating team may enter swings, the swinger will then, if he is an apt pupil, be able to outguess the pinata operator and connect, thereby breaking the pinata and winning its presumably valuable contents unless, of course, they are so valuable they are snatched up by bystanders.

The contents of most pinatas is candy, but jewels or any small trinkets could be used. A pinata is generally made of chicken wire and is hollow. It is in the shape of an animal and the wire is covered with papier-mache which is supposed to break when hit.

For those who don't think they can break chicken-wire, they should remember that chicken wire has holes in it and the trinkets or candy kisses or whatever will theoretically fall out when the shell is broken.

A WEAPON of some sort is used, such as a bat or a stick, and could possibly be the area where that greedy bystander gets his comeuppance.

Bystanders could, of course, wear helmets to avoid a frustrated, blindfolded person with a bat in his hand, going around swinging blindly at the thin air where there might never have even been a pinata.

The swinger, of course, will just have to remember if he hits someone in the head, he gets no candy. Also, the swinger will have to remember some students resent being hit in the head and might take some sort of reprisal action.

Pinata busting is not generally regarded as a dangerous sport and Los Tertulianos invites anyone to come by, leave a few dimes and take a few swings.

Pinata is a Spanish word, pronounced pin-yotta, and, as one might think, pinata busting is an activity common in Mexico.

It is a traditional festivity connected with Christmas and is usually practiced by blindfolded children, who like toys in their pinatas as well as candy.

Four pinatas will be provided for anyone wishing to make a hit, or for anyone who wants to take a last swing at Tech before the spring holidays begin Friday.

one candidate for the Little 500 Queens contest. Elections for the queen will take place on the Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, preceding the weekend of the race. The information needed from each contestant is a wallet-sized photo, her home town, classification and major.

The deadline for this information is also March 29th to be turned in with the teams entry blanks.

The profits received from the Little 500 Bike Race will be used to place more bicycle racks on Campus.

We find that the idea of demonstrations upon the appearance of Gov. Preston Smith on this campus is extremely ill advised.

The reason for this belief, which we will report very briefly, may well be too pragmatic for our idealistic fellow students. But in a day when our ability and the ability of others to afford higher education depends on our actions, we believe practicality comes before idealism.

We have believed and will continue to believe in peaceful demonstrations when such action offers some hope of effective accomplishment. We have believed and will continue to believe that demonstrations which serve no effective end or which in fact might damage the end they aim to support should not be conducted.

A demonstration against Preston Smith would tend toward the latter and therefore should not be conducted.

Editorial

The aim that would be damaged is the killing of the tuition increase in the state Senate. It is our impression from several sources that their strong opposition to the tuition increase within the Senate already. We are informed that chances are good that the Senate will kill or cripple the tuition increase.

These Senators must know by now where students stand on the issue already. A demonstration will tell them no more.

However, a demonstration offers the very definite chance of alienating those fence sitters who we must have on our side to kill a tuition increase.

Demonstrations, now, would be a vote for the other side, the side that views students as irrational, unpatriotic anarchists who deserve to be penalized at every turn, who deserve to be taxed instead of all taxpayers.

Hits bigots

To Dennis Wilson, I do not use the title "Mr." or "Sir" because a racist person such as you who thinks that you should be idolized as a god just because you are white does not deserve the respect.

Before I go on, I would like to say that I am not trying to offend my white brothers who sympathize with our cause. I am only referring myself to bigoted "Americans." It is "Americans" like you that we call "gringos" rather than "Anglos." There is a difference, an Anglo is one who empathizes and understands the Chicano and tries to do something positive for all people. A gringo is the white racist who hates people who do not fit his mold, and you, I call a "gringo!"

The name Chicano we gave ourselves. It adopts a new philosophy of pride and belief in our cultural heritage. It bothers gringos like you to accept this name because we are through submitting to your bigoted dominance, and suppression. It bothers you because we are no longer accepting your label which you have hung on us.

Your lack of intelligence is apparent when you refer to the word Mestizo, and the Chicanos culture. Our culture has its roots in Mexico as well as the Southwest which you refer to as "America." It is evident in architecture, the names of states, countries, cities, and streets, and even your gringo "taco joints." And for some of you who think that "cowboy" is a John Wayne creation; sorry, but the cowboys came from the Spanish word vaquero. I could go on and on as to the contributions of the Chicano in your "America," but time and space will not permit.

You say that you have never heard of a nation called Chicano. This is because when Mexico was invaded you once again had to impose your gringo names on a nation called Aztlan. A nation which had been in existence for centuries before the whites "discovered America." Can you really say that you are white? Just as snow is white? Can you really say that you are "American?" Is not the entire Western Hemisphere America? Besides that were you not the intruders into our land? Were we not here first?

As to the ridiculous assumption that you are in the majority, there are 270 million people in the Western Hemisphere with whom I communicate! Who is really in the majority?

Yes, I too am proud to be an American, a Chicano, but not according to your gringo classification of an American. Will demanding to be called "American" solve the problems of hunger in our barrios? We are getting more done through Chicanos now than we ever accomplished by trying to be Americans. We are grateful for what we have, which is our family, our people and our identity. We do not have the rights which were supposedly given to us in the U.S. Constitution. The only reason we feel that the White race owes us something is because they stole the entire Southwest from us. If you don't want us to gripe about giving it back to us.

TRAVIS WARE--Most Handsome

Ware Most Handsome

A junior from Cambridge, England, won the Most Handsome Man Contest sponsored by Theta Sigma Phi, professional Journalism Association for women.

Travis Ware won the contest, bringing in almost $60 worth of votes.

Before the contest Ware said, "This is not the kind of thing one would want to do for one's self. It is more important to campaign for such offices as senator than for something like this." He also said he thought it was a good idea for the girls to elect a most handsome man, but it should be kept a fun thing.

Ware, nominated by Kappa Alpha Theta, also was nominated by a dorm and another sorority, but the Thetas named him first.

Bobbie Sargent, senior from Wichita Falls, won first runner up with $49 worth of votes.

The least amount of money brought in by a candidate was 79 cents.

The contest brought in about $200 which will be used for scholarships said Joan Levers, secretary of Theta Sigma Phi. Other candidates were Roy McKay, Jesse Richardson, Fritz Allen Wisdom, Stan McElroy, Dan Stalcup, Bucky Weatherby, and Dan Alpern.

As winner of the contest, Ware will be featured on a full page in the La Ventana. Kappa Alpha Theta will receive a plaque for being the sponsoring organization.

Ware was announced as the winner Friday night on KTX. The contest was held March 10-12 in the University Center.

Little 500 events set

Entry blanks for the 1971 Little 500 Bicycle Race scheduled for April 3, may be obtained by calling Mike Earney, Tom Tella or Greg Humphries.

According to Earney, chairman of the race, all blanks must be completed and returned to the Student Association office by 5 p.m. March 22.

The event, which will be the 14th annual race, is sponsored by Chi Rho, the religious service organization for Catholic men students.

The Women's Service Organization and Saddle Tramps will assist Chi Rho.

Entry blanks may be obtained by calling Earney, 795-8572, Tom Tella, 742-4083, or Greg Humphries, 765-7802.

There will be an organizational meeting of the Bicycle Race Committee, with representatives of each team, April 1 at 7 p.m. in the Blue Room of the University Center. Each team must have a representative present for this meeting, said Earney.

'Magic Flute' cast named

Casts for "The Magic Flute," an opera by Mozart, have been announced by members of the Tech Music Theatre. Two people have been cast for each role until mid-April when a single, final cast will be announced.

Tamino, a tenor prince, will be played by David Fox, a Seagraves senior, and Edward Quillin, an Irving sophomore.

Fox, a member of the Tech choir and the Madrigals, also has played in "Li'l Abner," "Brigadoon," and "Gianni Schicchi."

Quillin, also a member of the Tech choir, performed in "My Fair Lady," and "Mikado."

Mrs. Suzanne Cate, from Pampa, and Sara Peek of Lubbock are cast as Pamina, a beautiful princess. Both sopranos are members of the Tech choir and have studied voice for at least three years.

Mrs. Cate also has experience in "South Pacific," "The Pajama Game," "Cosi Fan Tutte," "Li'l Abner," "Gianni Schicchi," "Brigadoon," and "The Marvelous Multi-colored Maze."

Miss Peek played in "The Music Man," "Li'l Abner," "Impressario," "Don Quixote," "Pagliacci," and "Ruth."

Cast as Papageno, a baritone birdcatcher, are Bobby Dillard, Andrews senior, Ben King, Lockney junior, and Tim King, Lubbock sophomore.

Papageno, the birdcatcher's soprano sweetheart, will be played by Julia Irvin, Lubbock sophomore, and Harriett Snider, Seguin senior.

Daniel Johnson, Big Spring senior, and Eluid Rios, San Antonio junior, are cast as Monostatos, a tenor Moor.

Gay Lynn Edmondson, from Phillips, will play the first lady; Judy Benson, Odessa senior, will be the second lady; and Ellen Fuller, San Angelo senior, is the third lady.

First, second and third priests will be played by Jeff Berta, junior from Floral Park, N.Y.; Ray Owens, Galena Park senior, Steve Davis, Lubbock junior; and Randy Tyler, Lubbock sophomore.

Playing the three spirits will be Michelle Graham, Amarillo junior; Beth Hayworth Perry, Big Spring junior; Debbie Kerr, Lubbock sophomore; Cathy Crossland, Plainview junior; Christina Lemke, Dover, Del., freshman; and Terrie Stewart, Amarillo junior.

Davis, who also plays a priest, and Gary Miller, sophomore from Lubbock, will play two men in armor.

All students cast are music or music education majors, except Rios, a business administration major. Mrs. Cate, Miss Peek and Miss Edmondson are graduate students.

Two guest artists, Caterina Michieli and Robert Bernard, will also perform.

Playing the Queen of the Night, Miss Michieli is a member of the voice faculty at Baylor University.

Bernard, who will play Sarastro, is a member of the Tech voice faculty. Jeff Berta will sing Bernard's part in the Sunday matinee.

Conductor of the program will be Paul Ellsworth, director of orchestras at Tech. Musical Director will be Gene Kenney, director of choirs at Tech. Bernard and Mohr will be vocal director and director-designer respectively.

A company of nearly two hundred will present the fully-mounted production, in English, April 16, 17 and 18 in the Monterey High School Auditorium.

Dallas dooms student's tent

DALLAS (AP)—Dallas city officials are looking for the tent which El Centro Junior College student Monica Lutz of San Antonio is using as a home.

If they find it, they say they'll put a red tag on it. A red tag means the "structure" is condemned for failing to meet city building codes.

"It's strictly against all ordinances to live in a tent in the city of Dallas," explained Chief Building Inspector Tom Jones.

"If we knew the location, we'd pay her a visit."

Miss Lutz, who has been unlucky with roommates—one stole her savings and another wrecked her car—at last report was living in the tent behind a house occupied by other students.

A HIT FOR OWENS — Johnny Owens lashes a single to center field during the second game of the Tech-Hardin-Simmons double header. The Raiders play their biggest series so far this year Friday and Saturday against Texas.

Surprise! Wicks, Carr head All-American team

NEW YORK (AP) — Sidney Wicks, 6-foot-8 jumping jack of UCLA's defending national champions, and Austin Carr, Notre Dame's 6-3 shooting whiz, top the 1971 All-American college basketball team selected Wednesday by The Associated Press.

Also named to the all-senior squad were 7-2 Artie Gilmore of Jacksonville, 7-0 Jim McDaniels of Western Kentucky and Dean Meminger, 6-1 floor general who led Marquette to 39 straight victories.

Three more seniors, a junior and a sophomore were chosen for the second team on the basis of votes from 479 sports writers and broadcasters.

John Roche of South Carolina, Dave Robisch of Kansas and Curtis Rowe of UCLA are the seniors. Paul Westphal of Southern California is the junior and Johnny Neumann of Mississippi is the sophomore. Indiana's George McGinnis, another star sophomore, was named to the third team along with four seniors — Rich Yunkus of Georgia Tech, Howard Porter of Villanova, Fred Brown of Iowa and Cliff Meely of Colorado.

Jim Clemons of Ohio State, Ken Durrett of LaSalle, Corky Calhoun of Pennsylvania, Stan Love of Oregon, Jimmy England of Tennessee, Tom Payne of Kentucky, Charlie Davis of Wake Forest, Jeff Halliburton of Drake, Dennis Wuyck of North Carolina and Charlie Yelverton of Fordham were high up on the list of honorable mentions. Gilmore, whose college career was ended in last Saturday's 74-72 defeat by Western Kentucky, signed a reported multimillion contract with the Kentucky Colonels of the American Basketball Association on Tuesday.

Wicks, Carr, McDaniels and Meminger all will be in action in the second round of the NCAA tourney Thursday night. Wicks goes against Brigham Young in the West regional at Salt Lake City. Carr against Drake in the Midwest regional at Wichita, Kan.; McDaniels against Kentucky in the Mideast regional at Athens, Ga., and Meminger against Ohio State, also in the Mideast at Athens.

Arnie heads golf field

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — Arnold Palmer, hungry as ever and buoyed by recent success, will be gunning for his second consecutive victory Thursday in the first round of the $25,000 Greater Jacksonville Open golf tournament.

"Winning just makes you want to win more," said Palmer, who scored the 56th victory of his incredible career last week in the Citrus Invitational.

It was his second triumph of the year, pushed him to the top of the money-winning list with more than $89,000 and re-established him as a major threat in any tournament he enters.

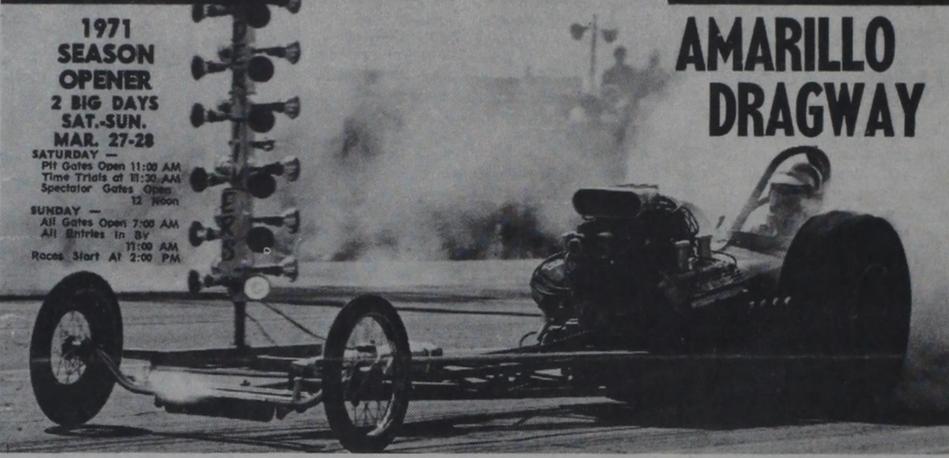

"Winning is important," he said. "BUT I also have other things to do. I haven't won a major championship since 1964. That's a goal."

"I'm playing reasonably well. But I'm still not putting as well as I'd like to. I'm going to have to improve in that area if I'm to continue winning. I just can't expect to hit as many irons as close to the hole as I did last week."

As usual, his chief challengers in the 144 man field include Jack Nicklaus, the PGA-British Open champ who is back from a week's rest; South African Gary Player, looking for his first victory on his current American swing, and the always-dangerous Lee Trevino.
