Richardson vs. A. Richardson, suit for divorce, granted.

Emma Petrey vs. Grady W. Petrey, divorce, granted.

Stella Anderson vs. Frank Anderson, divorce granted, and H. R. Debenport appointed receiver of their property.

Mary Mitchell et al vs. Harriet Werteen et al, suit for partition of property. It being agreed that property could not be divided, it was ordered sold and L. S. Patterson was appointed receiver. There are 1920 acres involved; including sections 21 and 31 in block 2, Tap. 2 N and section 26, block 33 Tap. 1N. This is fine agricultural land, located northwest of Big Spring.

The case of the State of Texas vs. Robert Shoop, charged with violation of the Deane law, some two years ago, had to be quashed because the fourteen quarts of liquor secured at that time had disappeared.

The following cases will be called for trial and probably tried before court adjourns:

Another case against R. W. Long in which he is charged with violation of the prohibition law.

State of Texas vs. H. O. Long charged with violation of prohibition law.

State of Texas vs. Bernard Christian, charged with the manufacture of intoxicating liquor.

State of Texas vs. Bob Spears, charged in several cases with violation of prohibition law.

State of Texas vs. Fred Jones, negro; forgery.

Other cases resulting from indictments by the grand jury may also be called.

Ku Klux Klan Speaker Here
As announced after the services at the tabernacle by Bro. McClung who is holding a revival service and who is preaching some old gospel sermons, Dr. Lester A. Brown, a national lecturer, a Baptist minister, who has been employed by some of the largest churches, such as Memphis, Chattanooga, Tenn. and Atlanta, Ga., a scholar and a Christian gentleman, who is being sent out from the Imperial Palace at Atlanta, Ga., spoke to one of the largest assemblies of people ever gathered together in our town and spoke for one hour on the subject of The Ku Klux Klan and Americanism. Back of the speaker and in front of the people stood the electric fiery cross and an American flag. He made an eloquent plea for what the Ku Klux Klan stands for and the great throng of people listened very attentively and seemed to enter into the service whole heartedly.

Cotton Receipts Here
Up to Thursday evening five hundred bales of cotton had been received at the cotton yard at Big Spring. From now on the number will increase rapidly from day to day unless unfavorable weather sets in.

The cotton market made several substantial jumps upward the past week but is in a slight slump just at present.

District Court

The present grand jury has been in session continuously since Monday September 3rd and is making a record for thorough and efficient investigation of all matters brought to their attention. So far they have returned indictments for twenty-six felonies and two misdemeanors and we understand they are not near through with their investigations.

District Court is also busy and a general clean-up of most all cases on the docket is expected.

Three pleas of guilty on charges of Deane prohibition law were entered this week and a total of eleven years in the penitentiary assessed.

State of Texas vs. R. L. Pennington, charged with transporting intoxicating liquor, entered a plea of guilty and his punishment set at five years in the penitentiary.

State of Texas vs. John Chambers, charged with transporting intoxicating liquor, entered a plea of guilty and he was sentenced to serve five years in the penitentiary.

State of Texas vs. Frank Anderson, charged with transporting intoxicating liquors, entered a plea of guilty and was sentenced to serve one year in the penitentiary.

The case of the State of Texas vs. R. W. Long, charged with transporting intoxicating liquor, was called for trial Thursday.

The following cases were disposed of:

The case of Mary Richardson vs. A. Richardson, suit for divorce, granted.

Emma Petrey vs. Grady W. Petrey, divorce, granted.

Stella Anderson vs. Frank Anderson, divorce granted, and H. R. Debenport appointed receiver of their property.

Mary Mitchell et al vs. Harriet Werteen et al, suit for partition of property. It being agreed that property could not be divided, it was ordered sold and L. S. Patterson was appointed receiver. SCHOOL OPENED LAST MONDAY

970 Students Enrolled in Big Spring Schools on Opening Day—Work Starts Off in Great Shape

The Big Spring schools opened last Monday morning with an increased attendance and an outstanding enthusiasm that bespeaks a year of great achievement. Never before has such an interest in school been so manifest as shown by the large number of patrons attending the opening exercises at the various schools.

The attendance at the High School building was especially gratifying, and the large auditorium was inadequate to accommodate the patrons and pupils.

A short program was carried out and especially interesting talks were made by teachers, members of the school board and patrons, following the invocation by Rev. E. N. Strother.

Among the speakers were Judge James T. Brooks, Rev. Ben Hardy, Dr. E. O. Ellington, Shine Phillips, Superintendent P. B. Bittle, P. P. Brewster, principal; Miss Eubanks, of the Domestic Science department. A reading by Miss Reeves, expression teacher, was greatly appreciated.

If it be possible to continue the fine school spirit manifested on the opening of our school; and it is certainly possible if we have the welfare of the boys and girls at heart, there is nothing to prevent the year's work surpassing any previous record made by our schools. We have everything to gain by working together to make the Big Spring schools the best in Texas. We are hurting ourselves, our friends and our town if we fail to lend every aid and encouragement to the progress and upbuilding of our schools. We can't afford to pull back because of some misunderstanding or because the schools are not being conducted as we think they should be. Be big enough to take your complaints first of all to Supt. Bittle. If he cannot straighten things out it is then up to you to consult the school board. Be sure, however, that you take these complaints to superintendent and school board before you begin knocking the schools. All of us are human, mistakes are bound to occur, but we should be reasonable and strive to correct these misunderstandings without injuring our schools. Of course this is merely friendly advice and there is no need for it at this particular time as our schools never started under more auspicious circumstances. It's merely given to warn you that misunderstandings may arise during the year and to urge you to take the proper means of correcting same without hurting our schools. Superintendent, principal, and teachers are delighted and encouraged by the fine school spirit shown and wholehearted cooperation promised and are going to give the best that is in them. Continue to encourage them, take an interest in their work, tell them how you appreciate what they are doing for your boy and girl and note the improvement all along the line. If you fail to take an interest in school work or our school, do not be surprised to find that teachers lose interest. If you don't care, why should they?

An increased enrollment over last year marked the first day and more new students keep dropping in. There were 970 students enrolled Monday.

It was found necessary to add another teacher to the Grammar Grades at the High School building and Miss Lurline Rogers of Stanton was employed. This makes two additional teachers over last year since there was no one serving as principal during 1922-23.

A. B. Edwards of Abilene, a teacher of national repute, has been secured to take charge of the Commercial and Typewriting Department of our High School. He signed up fifty pupils in the High School Monday, and expects to add others, not now attending school, to his classes.

Make it a point to visit the schools and see the work being accomplished. Be sure to speak a word of praise for our schools when you find they deserve them.

The siren fire whistle will be out of commission until a part has been secured from the factory at Chicago—so we were informed when inquiring why the fire alarm was not sounded Tuesday.

The farmer makes a lot of money for other people.

Fine Agricultural Specimens

Our farmers continue to bring to the Chamber of Commerce samples of farm products that would be a credit to any country, giving further evidence that we can secure an agricultural exhibit this year that would make folks back east sit up and take notice if we only have an exhibit at some of the Fairs they will visit this fall.

W. S. Wingo, residing west of town brought in some monster stalks of cotton, literally covered with bolls. While he only had about five acres of this extra fine cotton it will compare favorably with the best anywhere in Texas under the most favorable conditions.

N. T. Wheeler brought in samples of maize and kaffir corn that were indeed extra fine and would attract attention in any exhibit.

Others have brought in fine samples of cotton and feed and visitors who, stopping at the C. of C. office to examine these specimens are loud in their praise of the agricultural possibilities of this section.

Recital by J. D. Chenault
The Baptist Church was filled to capacity Monday night and the large audience pronounced the Recital given by J. D. Chenault one of the finest ever enjoyed in this city.

In addition to the nine selections on the violin by Mr. Chenault, with Mrs. Harry Hurt as accompanist, several delightful readings were given by Miss Myrtle Reeves.

In his every selection Mr. Chenault demonstrated his wonderful mastery of the violin and the music proved a rare treat to our people. After hearing this fine music everyone was agreed that Big Spring was indeed fortunate to have secured Mr. Chenault as a citizen, and all are looking forward to more occasions when he will favor us with his wonderful music.

The violin used in this recital was made by Mr. Chenault, and its wonderful tonal qualities testifies to his great ability as a manufacturer of high class violins.

Style Show Tonight
Most everyone is discussing the Style Show which is to be given at the R. & R. Lyric theatre tonight under the auspices of the firm of J. & W. Fisher and the Elite Hat Shop. Better not miss this interesting event.

Mrs. J. W. McCamly will be directress and the following will take part: Pages, Miss Alice Ann Rix and Mrs. John Hodges; Vanity, little Miss Elizabeth Northington; 1850, Miss Fay Stevens; 1924, Miss Marianne McCamly; Models, 1923, Miss Lois Clingan, Mrs. L. A. Elliott, Miss Anna Agnell, Mrs. Goodpastor, Miss Fay Stevens, Miss Marianne McCamly. Other numbers on the program: Reading by Miss Reeves; Violin Solo, Mr. Chenault; Music, Miss Alice Dawes.

Home Destroyed by Fire
The home of R. L. Beddo together with practically all their household furnishings and clothing were destroyed during the noon hour, Tuesday. Due to the fact that the fire originated from the explosion of an oil stove, the flames spread rapidly throughout the building, making it impossible to save but a very few articles of clothing and bedding.

The blow is a hard one indeed on Mr. Beddo as his loss is only partially covered by insurance, and then too when a man loses his home there is no getting back many possessions prized more for their personal relationship rather than their money value. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Beddo indeed regret their misfortune.

Big Spring Defeats Midland
It was a one-sided baseball game that was staged at the baseball park in this city between the Midland and Big Spring baseball teams on last Sunday afternoon.

The Midland bunch must have thought it was a poultry show since goose eggs were the best they could produce.

The Big Spring team had their swatting clothes on and went in to win. They made six scores in the opening inning. Two home runs were made by J. J. Hair and one by Adams. The agony ended 30 to 0 in favor of Big Spring.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Castle, James Campbell and family and D. B. Cox and family returned last Saturday from a fishing trip on the Pecos river. They were successful in landing some extra large fish and had a most pleasant time on the trip.

C. OF C. LUNCHEON HELD LAST FRIDAY

A Campaign for a Spirit of Cooperation Toward Our Schools Advocated

About eighty men and women attended the luncheon at the Cole Hotel last Friday night, which was given under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce to welcome Supt. Bittle and the faculty of the Big Spring Schools to our city, and pledge hearty cooperation in all school activities the coming year.

After the invocation by Rev. W. L. Shepherd, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, the company were treated to one of the finest lunches ever enjoyed. When all seemed to have done full justice to the meal, W. W. Rix, presiding as toastmaster, tendered the Superintendent and assistants a most cordial welcome to our city. He gave a brief history of the progress our schools had made in the past and prophesied a greater advancement under the able direction of Supt. Bittle. He especially urged that teachers and members of school board be given a chance to make good. He also asked that baseless rumors be traced to their source instead of being peddled as the truth. He stated that it would only be necessary to phone or consult Supt. Bittle to learn the truth or falsity of many hurtful rumors. He pointed out that it was your duty to make this investigation since these false rumors hurt your property—the schools. He said our schools would be just as good as we wanted them to be and they deserved the best we could give.

He then called on Supt. Bittle who made a splendid talk in which he thanked the citizenship of Big Spring for the hospitality, good will and friendship already manifested and promised an earnest and faithful performance of duty in the management of the Big Spring Schools. He stated that the board had selected an efficient faculty, and that nothing would be left undone to make our schools rank with the best in Texas.

He asked the loyal aid and cooperation of every citizen to best insure the success of our schools. He asked that you bring your kicks and troubles to him rather than to the teachers and members of the school board. He is going to be on the ground and know what is going on in the schools and will be in a position to aid and advise in having these misunderstandings ironed out. He also stated that all signs pointed to one of the most successful years of the Big Spring School since the number of applications for entrance in the High School continued to show an amazing increase. He called on some of the teachers for brief talks and they responded with words of praise for Big Spring and optimistic talks on the outlook for the year's work. They made the prediction that the Big Spring High School would win the Football championship of Texas if our citizenship backed them in their efforts. Among the speakers were P. P. Brewster, principal; J. B. Burleson, science and coach; B. Z. Hughes, history and coach; Miss Myrtle Reeves, expression teacher, begged off speechmaking and delighted those present with an humorous reading.

Other speakers called on were District Judge W. P. Leslie, S. H. Morrison, City Attorney H. R. Debenport, Clyde E. Thomas, T. H. Johnson and County Judge James T. Brooks.

Judge Leslie made an especially fine talk in which he stressed the importance of the schools, as the foundation of law, order and christian civilization. He paid Big Spring and Howard County a real compliment when he said he found we had officers here who were earnestly and efficiently enforcing the laws and were being backed by the citizenship.

Judge Brooks made the closing speech in which he agreed with the other speakers in advocating a hearty cooperation between teacher, pupil and parent for the good of our school. Other items advocated were the organizing and maintaining a brass band in Big Spring and the sending of a fine agricultural exhibit to the Dallas Fair and other fairs in Texas this fall.

W. L. Lemmons, sheriff of Glasscock County, left Monday night for Abilene, where he will assist John Bond, sheriff of Taylor County during the trial of Tom Ross and Milt Good, who are charged with the murder of two cattle inspectors at Seminole last Spring.

Coahoma News Items

Howard Birkhead of Denver, Colo. arrived in Coahoma, Wednesday, Sept. 5th, where he spent a week with his parents. Mrs. Claude Crouse of Big Spring and Mrs. Gus Martin of Westbrook joined their brother for a few days at their fathers home. This brought the entire Birkhead family together.

Theo Collins and a cow had a head-on collision last week—result the car was much battered and the cow went lame.

Tom Sullivan gave a watermelon feast at the Guitjar gin Saturday, the eighth. It was a veritable feast, judging from the number of melons on hand.

Houston Crocker's cafe burned Friday night, between the hours of 10 and 11. He had no insurance.

Mrs. Mann of Colorado City, with her daughters, two of whom taught in Coahoma school last year, passed thru Coahoma Saturday, enroute to Big Spring. Miss Sparks accompanied them to Big Spring.

A new cafe is opening in the new concrete building next door to Mr. Holden's meat market.

Rev. Green preached to an attentive audience Saturday evening.

The grandmother of Mrs. Walter Roe who died in Abilene, was brought through Coahoma; carried to Green Valley and buried.

The mother of A. N. Hart who has been with his family for four months returned to her home in East Texas. She left Saturday on the Sunshine. She will spend a week with friends in Dallas.

Many Coahoma cars carried many persons to hear Rev. Winsett speak on the K. K. K. Monday the 3rd at Big Spring. Many Big Spring people returned the courtesy Wednesday night and heard the evangelist, Jim Nicholson, on the same subject, at Coahoma.

Many new Fords are being driven in this vicinity.

Rev. Cox, the M. E. pastor, gave a large audience, both morning and evening hours, some good food for thought. There were nine accessions to the church.

Little Miss Flora Madison entertained fourteen little friends at a birthday party Saturday from 4 to 6 p. m. After the games were played the guests were invited to the table. At the right of each dish of blanc-mange was a scroll telling the future of the participant. This fortune had hardly been read when the birthday cake was cut and again the veil of the future was down and each saw himself as cowboy, soldier, preacher, or what he may be; while the girls immediately began drumming for trade for her millinery store or some line of merchandise, or a profession. Gladys McCann drew the ring. There were just eight candles to be blown out. The hostess had the first try—she blew out only two. The candles were relighted, as each guest tried to blow them all out. Only one failed to extinguish as many as one. While Norma Hart extinguished all at one effort. From the table they were ushered to the living room where Flora unwrapped the gifts, and Norma read from whom they were, and the verse accompanying them. Then thanks and adieu; the little hostess was left alone.

Miss Jenkins who teaches music here has been in Mason for the past two weeks. She reports a pleasant trip.

Mr. Card of Iatan was with his wife and children, visiting in their car with other occupants of cars on the streets Saturday evening.

Mrs. Price Echols and several of the family enjoyed an outing at Miss Springs Friday.

The Junior C. E. had the pleasure of seeing many of their parents at the meeting Sunday, 2:30 p. m. The subject for discussion was "Gambling." The members offered earnest prayers that none of their number would ever be one.

Mrs. Simon and Frank Logan delighted all present with a duet, "The Little Home."

Elbow School House Improvement
The trustees of the Elbow School district have authorized the overhauling and the making of extensive improvements on Elbow school house at once. This work will be completed before the regular school term opens on the first Monday in November.

Children's Index: Senator Underwood is to be commended for his outspoken sentiments and opinions upon important matters. The man who speaks the truth about his political beliefs is a rarity in this country. Most of them endeavor to get into office without letting the people know what they believe or what they intend to do. Senator Underwood may not receive the Democratic nomination for President, but he will be the more thought of because of his attitude upon many questions of importance.

No man ought to be elected to the presidency or to anything else without having stated unequivocally what he stands for and what he stands against, as regards issues prominent in the public mind. Next to the man who has no convictions the man who fears to express what ever convictions he may have is the least deserving of public responsibility. It is doubtful if the Democrat party, or any other party has the courage to nominate a Southern man for President at the juncture. There are still innumerable narrow minds at the North, and the prejudice in those minds against Southerners in politics is such as to make any national convention reluctant to oppose that prejudice with a Southern nominee. There are, to be sure, many narrow minds at the South; but Southern people have long been accustomed to Northern Presidents and are even very favorably disposed toward Calvin Coolidge, who is what used to be called a blue-bosomed Yankee. Mr. Coolidge doubtless has outgrown the narrow-mindedness that characterizes some of his Vermont fellow-citizens in these matters, but there are not enough Calvin Coolidges in the North to make a Southern man a safe nominee in a presidential election. State Press in Dallas News.

Far in Advance

Tremendous was the tribute paid Woodrow Wilson, by Lord Birkenhead, at the Minneapolis Rotary-Kiwanis banquet.

"A man who lived far in advance of anything which the political life of the United States would permit," he said.

The truly great have always been far in advance, in politics, religion, art, science and industry. The masses catch up only after long suffering and repeated demonstration of the inefficiency and folly of the status quo.

Woodrow Wilson visioned and strove for the Brotherhood of Man. Holding the respect of all civilized nations, and head of the only nation not stricken to its knees by world war calamities, he thought that the hour had struck. Surely, with America having given so tremendously to ideals, with blood-soaked Europe facing famine and poverty, civilized man would gladly accept a covenant, the operation of which would be based on reason, moral obligation and national conscience. Opportunity knocked on civilization's door, and passed on.

But what Woodrow Wilson visioned will come. Old Earnest Haeckel, the evolutionist, figured out not only the biological evolution of man from the primordial germ but his spiritual evolution. Sometime posterity will say that President Wilson was not only great enough to be far in advance of American politics, but also far in advance of the civilization of his day, just as was He whose greatness will endure and spiritually evolutionize as long as mankind lasts.—Fort Worth Press.

Make Your Poultry More Profitable

Every person who keeps poultry naturally desires to make as much profit as possible. To do so it is important that every hen kept should be a good layer and that all cockerels except those for breeding purposes (as well as pullets that lack vigor and vitality) should either be eaten or canned for home use or be sold as soon as they are large enough.

Selecting the hens that are poor layers from those that are good layers and picking out for market the cockerels of the flock that are the least likely to develop into good breeders is commonly spoken of as "culling," or culling for eggs and market. If you are to succeed and make money from your poultry it is necessary that you learn to cull your flock accurately so as to keep only such birds, as will pay a profit on the feed they eat. Some hens lay three to five times as many eggs as others. In every flock of hens, there are good layers and poor layers. Pure bred flocks have culled in them.

Cull all hens that are sick, weak, inactive, lacking in vigor, poor eaters, with shrunken, hard, dull or whitish-colored comb; with thick, stiff pelvic bones that are close together, small spread or distance between rear end of keel and pelvic bones; full firm, or hard abdomen; and those that have molted or begun to molt in August or September. In breeds having yellow legs and skin the discarded hens should show yellow or medium-yellow legs and yellow beaks and vents.

Keep the hens that are healthy, vigorous, active, good eaters with plump, bright-red combs; large moist vents; thin, pliable pelvic bones spread well apart; a wide-spread between pelvic bones and rear end of keel; large soft, pliable abdomen, and neither molted nor molting in August or September. In breeds with yellow legs and skin the hens kept should also show pale or white legs and pale and white beaks and vents. Cull in August, September and October. It pays—Anna Bower, Potter County Home Demonstration Agent.

Force Nations

Marshall News: Mussolini, the Italian Premier, insists on it that the firing on the Island of Corfu by the Italian navy, and the consequent killing of a score of people, was not an act of war. If it had been an act of the British Empire thus fired upon, Mussolini would have found out that it was an act of war. But Greece has no navy of any consequence and is greatly weakened by wars and internal dissensions. It is quite safe, therefore, for Italy to fire on a Greek island, especially when Italy covets some Grecian territory.

If Greece had been a first-class power, she might have had an idea different from Mussolini's in regard to whether or not the forcible taking of Corfu was an act of war. It is apparent that away back in the mind of Signor Mussolini there lurks the idea that there is one international law for strong Nations and another for weak Nations. The idea lurked in the back areas of the minds responsible for the Austrian ultimatum to Serbia in 1914. It is an old, old idea, and has caused most of the wars. The League of Nations was organized for the purpose of giving weak Nations a tribunal to which to appeal for protection against stronger Nations. Unless the stronger Nations shall respect that tribunal, its usefulness is at an end. Mussolini's refusal to permit the league to pass upon his quarrel with Greece indicates his belief that he would get less than he demands. In other words, he discloses the old spirit, the ancient spirit what is variously called selfishness, greed, lust of power and faith in force. It is the spirit which the Turks emphasized in their recent negotiations with the war-sickened European powers—the threat of conflict, the arbitrament of arms. The Turks were not strong neither is Italy; but either is strong enough to start a war which stronger powers do not want. Must all the world at last agree that there can be no international tribunal for the prevention of war? Perhaps so—unless the world's strongest Nation shall approve such a tribunal.—State Press in Dallas News.

KEEP AMERICA'S WAMPUM SOUND!

By SAMUEL H. BEACH,
President, Savings Bank Division,
American Bankers Association.

Although the United States is today upon a solid gold basis, we nevertheless know of our own knowledge what inflation means. It would take long to recall in detail the bitter experiences which this nation suffered during the Civil War and the years which followed it, and in our present easy condition we might think such conditions could never again arise. But with such men as Henry Ford and Thomas A. Edison talking about commodity money there is no foretelling what may happen.

One of the plainest lessons taught by financial history is that whenever a nation issues paper money with nothing back of it, that nation is on the road to disaster. Look at Russia with its worthless rubles and Germany with its worthless marks. Think of what happened in France during the years immediately following our Revolutionary War.

The common people of France rose in their might, tore down the Bastille, and made reprisal for centuries of kingly crime and oppression. The profligate court had piled up taxes until they were unbearable. The enraged populace killed King Louis XVI, and also his queen, Marie Antoinette. But they only threw themselves out of the frying pan into the fire so far as finances were concerned.

Unsound Money Tyranny
At the very worst point of their currency inflation they found themselves under the absolute domination of Robespierre. In order to meet the growing scarcity of coin, paper money called assignats were issued. First 400,000,000 francs worth, then 800,000,000 were added with the distinct understanding that the 1,200,000,000 would be the full extent of the issue. This pledge was soon broken and further issues brought the total up to 3,700,000,000 francs.

Frightful depreciation was the inevitable result; and legislation was passed making it a crime, with six years' imprisonment as the penalty, if any one should refuse to take the paper assignats at their face value. Just think of it! A French peasant after working the entire year to produce a crop was compelled by law to accept payment for that crop in paper money, which he knew to be worthless, or go to prison.

It was simply legalized robbery. When the penalty was increased to twenty years imprisonment the inevitable climax came. The Reign of Terror was at its height. Robespierre was in supreme power. He suggested that more assignats be issued and if the people did not take them the guillotine should be the penalty.

Robespierre's End

This unheard of outrage was more than the people could stand. An unknown man arose on the floor of the convention and denounced Robespierre, reciting the heinous crimes he had committed, and so worked upon the feelings of the audience that Robespierre, the tyrant, became Robespierre, the convicted criminal. Two days later he was led to the guillotine. France had learned her financial lesson well—that money must have value back of it.

The fallacy of unsound money is sure to confront us again. Never is there enough of everything for all the people. The struggle for existence is a real struggle, and those who find themselves in the lower strata of human society are ready at any time to grasp at fiat money or any of the other things which misguided politicians hold out to them.

My whole purpose is to drive home the fact that danger lies ahead and to urge every one to use every opportunity to go by to use voice and influence toward keeping the wampum of these United States, as it is today, the soundest currency in the world.

SOME BANK SALARIES

Investigations made by the Missouri Bankers Association have revealed that 363 banks in this state in towns of under 2,000 population are paying their cashiers and chief executives an average of only $110 a month. Only 273 of the 1,162 reporting banks in towns under 5,000 population pay the president a salary. The report says: "It indicates that, even allowing for the economy of living in small communities, the cashiers and managing officers of those 1,162 banks, who receive an average of $140 per month, either must have personal means to begin with, or must maintain the standards necessary to their positions as the leaders of their communities and the builders of the commonwealth by means of 'side lines,' such as selling insurance, collecting commissions on loan loans, and trading in real estate."

Another Section of Bankhead Highway to be Improved

So anxious are the highway departments of state and nation to have the Bankhead National Highway placed in first-class condition that Callahan, Taylor and Nolan counties have been offered a proposition by state and federal governments that has never before been offered. The proposal is to furnish two dollars of state and federal money for every dollar furnished by these three counties.

Elections have been called in these counties to take advantage of this unprecedented offer.

Don't Take a Chance

Is your property protected from loss by fire? If not you are assuming a heavy risk. You know what an uphill task it was to save the money to build a home or invest in business. It would be an even harder task to save enough to rebuild or recoup your losses if fire should destroy your property and you had no insurance. Don't take a chance. Let us show you where it pays to keep your property insured. We take pleasure in trying to aid you.

Complimentary to Visitors

At the home of Mrs. E. O. Ellington on Wednesday afternoon Mesdames Ellington and Phillips entertained twenty-six couples at Bridge, complimentary to Misses Nell Phillips and Nora Hendrickson of Dallas.

Keen rivalry was evidenced in the series of closely contested games, and when scores were compared it was ascertained that Mrs. Jno. Clarke had made club high score and Mrs. A. J. Gallemore, second high score. Delicious refreshments were served in two courses.

The occasion was one of especial pleasure and all present declared themselves under obligation to hostesses and honorees.

The religion of a president ought to be of interest to his people. The Banner regrets not being able to report as favorably as we would like on the religion of Mr. Coolidge. His wife is a Congregationalist, and the family attends that church, though Mr. Coolidge is not affiliated with any denomination.—Baylor County Banner.

Being a brother-in-law to the church is perhaps better than not being related to it in any way. There are a good many men who have all their religion in their wives' names. But church membership is too often confounded with religion. Membership in a church does not necessarily imply that any man is really religious, nor does the lack of such membership mean that he is irreligious. The Kaiser was a church member and frequently occupied the pulpit; Cortez, who destroyed a nation and a people, was an ardent church member. Two years from now we will be better able to judge as to the quality of the president's religion, if he has any.—Wichita County Promoter.

No Reason for Slipping
Are you losing your pep on the downward grade of life? Are you continue slipping backward you going to "buck up" and back again?"

Many people make the mistake of feeling that a few business put an end to their usefulness the most they can hope for is along for the rest of the day. Having lost hope, they lose and a man without pep can't accomplish much in this world. Never consider yourself out. You only reach that point you admit that you are there you refuse to admit it never reach it.

If you are not successful present calling it is probably a nation has not fitted you a particular line of business simply started off on the wrong foot.

We can not all hope to be lawyers, or doctors, or accountants because many of us are not inclined for such work. Mistakenly drift into such do not achieve any results. Have courage, our loss of spirit of indifference, and actual slipping backward to where we started in life.

If your present line of does not appeal to you, if you do not acquire and maintain interest in your work, you are wrong and should be changed.

When you find the work that does appeal to you, it is a shining pep will return. The bottom of the slide fades away and the top is in sight.

There is no such thing as permanent failure for the man determined to succeed.

When a fellow reaches where he can consume an old time liquor without effects he is qualified to drop of modern booze which is instant death.

American Stability
 While the mark crashes and the kronen slides and the ruble wobbles, the good old American dollar holds its own. That is because American enterprise, American stamina and American ideals are still on the job. The German presses may turn out just as artistic paper money and the Austrian dies may be equal to their American contemporaries, but when it comes to industry, natural resources, high mindedness, business integrity, and unwasted manhood there is none today to challenge Uncle Sam's supremacy.
 Before the war four German marks—approximately—were equal to one American dollar. Today the ratio is 4,000,000 to the dollar. A day laborer at the end of the week, if he expects full pay, must endure several hours of additional work with a wheelbarrow in order to get his wages home. And once home, if he is not caught in a rainstorm on the way, his earnings makes acceptable fodder for the cookstove.
 Notwithstanding the widespread complaint concerning the diminished purchasing power of the dollar, compared with other years, we're a fortunate people. High prices and high wages mean nothing unless the lawful specie is sound and stable. And as long as the American people stand by their institutions, their traditions, their Constitution and their country, the gold eagle will ring true. No one questions American ingenuity, American sagacity, or American talent for business. The one quality our people may be somewhat shy of is patience. If the English "Mr. Britling" could "see it through" during the war, surely our Yankee Smith and Dixie Jones can—with the comfortable consciousness of the stability of things American—match him during the trying times of peace.—Farm and Ranch.
 Miss Mary Holmes left Friday evening for Weatherford where she holds a position as teacher of English in the Weatherford High School.

Odd Fellows Once Had University at Bryan
 An account of the commencement exercises of Odd Fellows' University of Bryan in June, 1873, has just come to light. Fifty years ago this university lived and flourished in that little city, and today, few remember that such an institution ever existed.
 The account of the 1873 commencement in a newspaper of that time contained the following bit of history:
 The Odd Fellows' University was established in 1871-72, there being no public schools in Bryan at that time. It included in its list of students all ages from beginners to grownups.
 The building, a two-story frame structure, was built by the Odd Fellows, and the board of trustees was drawn from the members of the local order. All expenses of the building was met by the Odd Fellows, and the faculty received salaries from the tuition paid by students.
 In 1873 the superintendent was Charles F. Estill, father of Harry F. Estill, now president of Sam Houston Normal at Huntsville. The Texas Odd Fellow.
 This bit of news is of particular interest to many in Big Spring because Charles F. Estill was the father of Mrs. J. I. McDowell of this city. Harry F. Estill, president of Sam Houston Normal, is her brother.
 A few good customers for honey, butter, eggs, pork sausage and other commodities bring in the ready cash which is always needed. There must be some inducement for consumers to deal directly with producers. The inducement must come either in the quality and freshness of the goods offered, in price, or in both, or else they will deal through the middleman who guarantees both quality and service.—Farm and Ranch.

Before College—What?
 A vast amount of the chatter about a college education is ballyhoo. Parents with youngsters in kindergarten are already talking about the wonders the college is going to accomplish for their progeny. Folks with children in primary, intermediate, and high schools spend more time prognosticating about B. A. degrees than they devote to ascertaining the department of Jack and Mary and Hiram in their respective grades. Arithmetic, geography and writin'—to them—are a mere snap of the finger, while chemistry and geology and higher mathematics are the only big explosions in the educational melodrama.
 In matters of education it is only the present that matters; the future can take care of itself. And education is education wherever it is found. The A. B. C.'s are even more useful in the college course than they are in the first grade, although they are ordinarily taken for granted. So it is from A to Izzard. Strong, thorough training in the public schools will mean strong, thorough mastery of the college subjects. And if, perchance, fate orders the boy to work before he reaches the freshman year of an institution of higher learning, he will be equipped with a firm foundation. In other words, he will know what he knows.
 It is said that the American people are spending $22,000,000,000 annually on luxuries. And yet they whimper when it is suggested that they spend more than $1,000,000,000 a year on schools. These same American people—so many of them like to play the game of checkers in which they jump their youth from kindergarten to college, and then expect that youth to sweep the board.—Farm and Ranch.

Convention of Christian Church
 The International Convention of the Christian Church which closed last Sunday at Colorado Springs, Colo., was one of the best conventions held by the church.
 The National Evangelistic Association opened the convention Sunday morning with 2,400 men in the Men's Bible Class, which was taught by Geo. B. Taubman of Long Beach, Calif., where he teaches the biggest Men's Bible class in the world, with an average attendance of 1600 men.
 Following this service, there were about 3,000 people present at the 11 o'clock communion service, at which six elders, and sixty deacons presided. The sessions were attended by 2,000 to 3,000 people and the large new convention hall was well filled at all times.
 One of the main topics discussed at many of the sessions was the "Sin of Sectarianism," and the plea for all God's people to unite with no book but the Bible and no creed but Christ, so the world can be won for Christ in answer to His prayer, "That they all be one, that the world might believe."
 The subject of Evangelism was discussed at many services and is to be made a special feature during the coming year.
 The convention which was one of the largest conventions held in Colorado Springs for many years, closed on Sunday night. More than 3,600 people from outside the city being present.
 There were over 1,500 present in the Bible school the last day and an offering of $435.75. In the afternoon a communion service was held, 2,600 persons being present, and 14 elders and 112 deacons officiating at the communion table.
 One of the main features of the day was a sunrise prayer meeting in the Garden of the Gods.
 The convention closed with a sermon on Christian Unity by Bishop Mead of Denver, Colorado.

An Editorial

The bigger the body, the slower the movement. The greater the movement must be, the longer it takes to get under way.

The United States is a large body, almost entirely surrounded by good motor cars and poor roads. It is moving slowly, but surely towards a condition when it will have only good roads. The movement is slow because the body is so large, and has so many heads. 110,000,000 of them.

Improving our almost three million miles of highways is a huge task. The movement is enormous. Therefore, it takes times to get under way. It is like a monster freight train, starting up a grade, requiring many locomotives to begin the travel and slowly getting up speed. But once the train is in motion, it has an enormous force for going ahead; and one locomotive can keep it moving and it is difficult to stop!

So will it be with our road building program; slowly but surely the movement for better roads than Federal aid can give, for more roads than States alone can build, is gathering momentum. When it gets up speed, nothing can stop it.

Meanwhile the individual who needs a good road and needs it now, must not lose courage. It was said the Panama Canal couldn't be built in a generation. It was built in a few short years. At the rate we are at present building Federal aid roads it will take some hundred and fifty or two hundred years to improve our road system. All of us will be very dead before that movement is well started. The answer is to change the movement, to work for, educate for, vote for, national highways, built by and maintained by the National Government; give this Nation two hundred thousand miles of such roads (which could with ease be built in a period of five years), and the rest of the roads will be improved in even less time, by States, counties, and towns, which will refuse to be kept from the benefits of such a national road system, when all that they need to do to enjoy it, is to connect with it.

Reds and Pale Pinks

How many "reds" are there in the United States? When is a man a "red" and when is he only "pale pink?"

Nobody seems to know. The American Bar Association, through its Committee on American Citizenship, believes that there are a million and a half "reds." Other civic organizations with a different definition of what is a "red" put the number much lower.

The man in the street understands by "a red" a person who wants to overthrow the government, who believes in the Soviet rather than in representative government, who thinks the sword and the torch, the industrial revolution and the commune, are better than the economic structure of this or any other civilized country.

But many an alleged "red" is only "pale pink" in the sunlight!

By "a pale pink" most of us understand a man who is radical in ideas, in that he believes the present order of things is due for a change, but who wishes that change made in an orderly and legal manner. A "pale pink" may believe whole heartedly in a commune (in which everybody shares in everything, in which all are equally wealthy), and yet desire to bring about such a state of affairs by educating people to demand such an amendment to the Constitution as will insure that plan. A "red" may strongly desire child labor to be forbidden, education made free to all, government ownership and building of national highways and other "good" ideas, and yet think the best way to get them is to start with a revolution, battle, murder, sudden death!

The "pale pink" radical is not a menace. The "red" is. That there are a million and a half men and women in this country who want revolution, is unthinkable. That there are not more than a million and a half "pale pink" people is probable; prosperity always decreases and hard times increases their number.

All good Americans are on guard against the real "red," but it is not inherent in any red-blooded American to be scared of an army of "reds," which is really very pale pink. Only a few botheads really try to invade American sanity with anarchy. Let us concentrate on these, and not scatter our efforts to make this land 100 per cent American by worrying over the harmless "pale pink."

Most everyone you encounter is strong for having a fine agricultural exhibit at the various fairs throughout our state this fall. Funds for preparing and maintaining such exhibit should be raised at once.

Of course Big Spring can make it right along with our present population but a greater growth and prosperity will come as more acres in our county are put in cultivation. We can well afford to aid in bringing many new homeowners to our county as it will help every property owner.

John Elbert Lynch Dead

John Elbert Lynch, aged sixty-three years, nine months and twenty-eight days, died at his home in the city at 10:40 o'clock Tuesday morning, September 11th. He was a respected and esteemed citizen and many friends mourn the death of a good man.

His death was due to Bright's disease, and he has been a sufferer from this complaint for a number of years.

During the years he made his home in this city he won the respect of all with whom he came in contact and followed the teachings of the Golden Rule in his daily life.

Funeral services were conducted at the Third Street Baptist Church at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning by Rev. E. N. Strother.

He is survived by his wife, six sons and two daughters, Hugh and Weldon Lynch of Achela, N. M., Dewey Lynch of Corsicana; C. H. Lynch of Breckenridge; Gussie and Sterl Lynch of Carlton, Texas; Mrs. Milton Gaskin of Knott and Mrs. Ben Carpenter of this city, and to these who mourn for one dearly beloved is tendered the heartfelt sympathy of many friends.

Complete Red Cross Work in Mitchell

The American Red Cross has completed its relief and rehabilitation work among the storm victims in Mitchell County and offices maintained by the organization at Colorado since a few days after the cyclone which swept across Mitchell County May 14 were closed this week. Henry M. Baker of St. Louis, in charge of the office here, stated that $58,000 was contributed for relief work among these people.

After attending to needs of the wounded and destitute following the cyclone, the Red Cross started a program of rehabilitating the devastated territory. A number of farm homes were built, farm implements, work stock, milk cows, seed, feed, furniture and other needs on the farm and farm homes were supplied storm victims by the organization. In addition several families, left in destitute circumstances temporarily because of the storm were given cash endowments.

To Correct Bad Spots in Highway

Intan and Roscoe flats have been a thorn in the side of motorists for a long time whenever rains fell in that vicinity. It is now urged that these bad spots which are hurting the Bankhead Highway be eliminated.

Looking to such object, a meeting of County Judges of Mitchell, Nolan and Howard counties, and officers of Chambers of Commerce along the route is called to be held in Colorado Saturday, September 22nd.

Howard County and Big Spring should be represented at this meeting and we should render every assistance in having these troublesome spots on Highway No. 1, corrected.

The five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Coats had a narrow escape from serious injury, near their home in the east part of town about four o'clock Wednesday afternoon when struck by an automobile. The headlight struck the boy in the head, knocking him down, but he fell between the wheels, so the car passed over him without inflicting further injuries. The little fellow had just stepped out of an auto driven by Jed Henry, and ran around the car to cross the road. Newbie Ellis of Midland was driving the car which struck the boy, and made every effort to stop his car in order to avert the accident.

Revival Meeting at Tabernacle

The Revival meeting under the auspices of the Church of Christ now in progress at the tabernacle with Evangelist C. McClung doing the preaching and J. W. Terrill as song director, is growing in interest. These men are getting the plain truths before the people of Big Spring as has never been done before. There have been several additions and a finer interest continues to be manifested. If you hear one of Evangelist McClung's sermons you will come to hear more.

You are cordially invited to attend these services.

Brown Items

There is talk of a new road out of the community right away. As soon as possible the road from the Brown schoolhouse to Flowergrove schoolhouse will be opened up. We are expecting a rural route on this road when it is finished.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Shortes and three youngest children left the second of this month for a visit with relatives in Oklahoma. Mr. Shortes expects his brother to come here to live in the near future. We'll admit he couldn't pick a better place to locate.

Bud and Hilary Lacey and Aubrey Pitts returned from a visit to Colorado City and other points last Thursday.

Saturday night Mr. and Mrs. Lacey gave the young folks a delightful party which was surely enjoyed.

Every Sunday in every way our Sunday school grows better and better. Last Sunday we had a bigger crowd with better attention and better lessons than ever before. And there was a number of visitors. You are especially invited to "fine" us. Next Sunday, which is regular preaching day, Bro. Thompson will be with us.

Saturday night a charming daughter arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Jeffcoat. We extend a royal welcome to the young lady.

Sunday afternoon the young folks gathered at the home of P. E. Forester for a little practice in singing and from there to Mr. and Mrs. Pitt's home for singing Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Isiah Brown have returned to this community to make their home. We felt sure these people would decide that they had left a good country. We are glad to have them back.

The Pitts brothers are expecting another brother from Oklahoma this week. He will make his home here, we understand.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith and son of Spur arrived Saturday for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Brown. Mrs. Smith is a sister of Mrs. Brown.

The weather this week is nice and cool—good cotton picking weather—but the less said about the crops the better. The worms have damaged most of the crops. Nearly all the farmers poisoned but failed to do much good.

Knott, we missed your chat last week. We wish you would donate your presence every week. A. W. come on, be a sport. XXX.

Panther Draw Notes

J. J. Phillips and sons, Olie, Johnnie and Herbert, and G. W. Overton went up near Knott Sunday, to look at the country.

Mr. and Mrs. Hart Phillips, Mrs. Hardin, Mary Hardin, Ethel and Ruby Phillips, went to Elbow, to church, Sunday morning and to baptizing in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Day, Everette and James Overton took Sunday dinner with the family of G. W. Overton.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Overton and children went to Lucien Wells Sunday.

Clyde Reeder returned to Amarillo Wednesday.

Johnnie Phillips is now in Big Spring running a hamburger stand. We wish him much success in his new undertaking.

Our Sunday school is getting better each Sunday. Have new literature ordered for another quarter. Everybody come and swell the number.

Mr. Settles is on the sick list this week.

Clydia Ballard has returned to Big Spring, and entered school Monday morning.

Thomas Hardin visited his brother near town Saturday night and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Overton gave the young people a play party Saturday night. There was ice cream and cake for everyone, and then some. All report a nice time. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Pittman, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Overton, Grandma Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Overton, Misses Mary and Ovey Hardin, Hortense, Marie and Elouise Pittman, Ruby, Gladys, and Ethel Phillips, Clydia Ballard, Edna and Jewel Overton and Veneil Pittman, Messrs Johnnie, Herbert and Victor Phillips, Reuben and Jesse Overton, Sterling Connell, Everette, James and A. J. Overton, Lee and Albert Hardin, A. Z. Pittman and baby, Pharon.

The farmers are all busy now, gathering and binding feed, and picking the fleecy staple.

Mrs. Hardin and children plan to go north of town the last of this week to pick cotton for Mr. McMurray. One of the Panthers.

Real Estate for Sale

I have two good houses and three lots that will pay on the investment 20 per cent, besides these houses are located where they will always rent, and they will make good homes for some one that is wanting to buy a home. The price is right. Terms, if desired.

I also have some fine lands for sale, located northwest of Knott, and the prices are right on the lands. If you want to own your own farm I would like to talk with you about these lands. R. L. COOK, Big Spring, Texas.

Amarillo Sheriff and County Attorney Indicted

Amarillo, Texas, Sept. 12. Indictments against sheriff Less Whitaker, County Attorney Henry Ford and four other men in connection with the recent flogging here of E. T. McDonald were today returned by Potter County grand jury. Whitaker and Ford are charged with misconduct in office, while the other four men are charged with assault with prohibited weapon.

My community is the place where my home is founded, where my children are educated, where my income is earned, where my friends dwell and where my life is chiefly lived. I have chosen it, after due consideration from among all the places on the earth. It is the home spot for me. Here let me live until death claims me. Then let my neighbors say I was a friend to man.—Farm Bureau News.

I have a fine section of raw land, located four miles of the new town on the highway between Lamesa and Big Spring. This section is all tillable, mixed sandy land, the price is $14.00 per acre, or will discount one dollar per acre for cash. I recently made a soil test of the country in and around these lands and it is as good as you will find in West Texas. If you want to own a good section for a home then let me show you this one. R. Queer Feelings

"Some time ago, I was very irregular," writes Mrs. Cora Robie, of Pikeville, Ky. "I suffered a great deal, and knew I must do something for this condition. I suffered mostly with my back and a weakness in my limbs. I would have dreadful headaches. I had hot flashes and very queer feelings, and oh, how my head hurt! I read of and of others, who seemed to have the same troubles I had, being benefited, so I began to use it. I found it most beneficial. I took several bottles . . . and was made so much better I didn't have any more trouble of this kind. It regulated me." Cardui has been found very helpful in the correction of many cases of painful female disorders, such as Mrs. Robie mentions above. If you suffer as she did, take Cardui—a purely vegetable, medicinal tonic, in use for more than 40 years. It should help you. Sold Everywhere. E 90

Keeping the Taxes Down

Recently there appeared a statement that at the end of the fiscal year a surplus existed in the treasury. When it was suggested that a reduction of taxes might follow, Senator Reed Smoot of Utah warned the public that taxes could not be reduced. The Utah Senator is more frank than some other Senators and does not hesitate to speak very plainly. Senator Curtis of Kansas, says there must be found new sources of taxation.

He has found one, the billboards, the advertising signs along the highways, as legitimate subjects for Federal taxation.

Instead of cutting down taxes these Senators, and perhaps others, are planning to increase taxes.

They want more money to spend. That is what they consider to be their mission to spend money, not to save it.

The man in Congress who advocates saving money is not considered to be a good politician.

But the people's attitude on this question is not the same as that of these distinguished men.

Progress has been made in putting business into the government, eliminating the duplication of work, reducing the number of useless employees and practicing economy.

If the good work is continued as it has commenced, in a little time a reduction in taxes could take place.

The majority of the people think they are paying high enough taxes now.

They think they are getting too much government and that it is costing them too much. They want to see some plan carried out which will consider their pocketbooks a little and enable them to enjoy just as good government as they have today and pay less for it.

These are old fashioned notions but they exist and must be reckoned with.—Portland (Me.) Press-Herald.

Texas Industrial Week

San Antonio, Sept. 3.—"As the clock strikes twelve at noon on Monday, November 12th, all sirens, whistles, etc., will blow for a period of five minutes in every city and community in the State of Texas, thus ushering in Texas Industrial Week," said G. M. Knebel, Executive Vice-President of the Texas State Manufacturers Association. Continuing, he stated: "It is of the greatest importance that the entire citizenship of the state cooperate in this state-wide movement for the industrial development of Texas. In order that the people of the state may know more fully just what is manufactured here in the way of some 1500 odd products, the merchants of the state will make displays of such products throughout their places of business and in the show windows. Composite window displays of Texas made products will also be shown in the larger down-stores in every city in the state, irrespective of whether such products are carried in stock or not. The Jobbers, Retailers and Manufacturers will be requested to feature Texas Industrial Week in their display advertising and in other ways secure the cooperation of the dealers in their trade territory."

"On Monday, November 12th, a Texas made luncheon will be served throughout the state that will consist entirely of food products made in Texas. Speakers from the communities where the luncheons are held will speak on important industrial subjects for the upbuilding of the industries of the community and the state as a whole. The commercial life of the city should be represented fully at these luncheons."

"In many of the larger cities of the state, trade parades will be held during Texas Industrial Week, giving a display of the many manufactured articles of the city and state. "Such clubs as the Rotary, Kiwanas, Lions, City, Conopus, Business and Women's clubs will be requested to cooperate by putting on a made in Texas program during their weekly meetings during Texas Industrial week. The manufacture members of the clubs are expected to take charge of the program."

"The great bulk of the products manufactured in Texas by our 150,000 workers must be consumed here, as conditions here are not what they are in the large industrial centers of the north and northeast where the products of their industries are consumed in other sections of the country. We must look to the people of Texas for our market to a great extent, and we are therefore requesting the merchants and citizens of our state to "Buy it Made in Texas," not just because the product is made here, but that price and quality being equal or better the Texas made product should by all means be given preference. All lines of Texas manufactured products are to be represented during Texas industrial week, everything in the building and construction lines, food products, clothing, ladies ready to wear, machinery, drugs, household articles, fixtures, house furnishings, hats, shoes, textiles, work garments, shirts, beverages, iron and steel products, lumber, automobiles, auto bodies, trucks, tractors, in fact, everything that is manufactured in Texas should be exhibited during Texas industrial week

Make It Nation Wide

Daily we read of grade crossing accidents with the inevitable death list.

Warning devices, gates, flagmen and even approaching trains which are in plain sight fail to deter many drivers in their mad attempts to cross tracks without hesitating a few seconds.

In their determination to eliminate railroad crossing accidents, the cities of North Chicago, Illinois, and Waukegan, Wisconsin, have passed ordinances which provide that all vehicles, automobiles, trucks and other conveyances propelled by animal or other power and used in, and upon the streets and public highways within the city limits, shall when approaching a railroad crossing, be brought to a full stop ten feet therefrom and the driver ascertain if the way is clear before proceeding to cross.

Penalty for violating the ordinance is a fine of not less than $5 or more than $200 for each offense. Similar city ordinances or state laws throughout the country would reduce to a minimum the grade crossing death toll which runs between 10,000 and 15,000 persons annually.

Such a law which saves life would be, instead of an expense to the taxpayers, a money-maker through fines collected for law breaking.

America leads in murder, and Texas is one of the largest contributors to it.

The indictment against the United States record was made in a recent meeting of the American Bar Association at Minneapolis. The indictment is being made daily against Texas in the growing list of murderers unpunished and in the apathy that seems to exist in the minds of otherwise highly intelligent people against this most heinous crime of the age. Life that is most precious in America is held to be the cheapest thing we have. And growth of this crime is cheapening our civilization.

There is much damning of courts and the practice of law on every hand as the principal reason why murderers go "scot free." The laws probably are faulty and the practice bad, but there is one change that could take place in the criminal procedure of the courts that requires no new law and no change of the constitution—a jury with backbone.

What the United States needs, what Texas needs, what Tom Green County needs, is not more laws or much change in the practice of the law, but a change in the men who sit in the jury box. These chairs seem to have become the nesting place of sob sisters and the tender hearted.

It is one thing to feel sorry for a criminal, and another to let sentiment influence a verdict. Civilization is based upon law and its enforcement. The juryman is an officer of the law charged with its enforcement as much as the judge who sits upon the bench or the state's attorney who presents the evidence. The need of America is fearless juries as well as fearless officers.

The American Bar Association report held that "while the general population of the United States for the years 1910 until 1922 increased 14.9 per cent, the criminal population increased 16.6 per cent. The largest proportion of criminal increase was found in crimes accompanied with violence.

"There exists in nearly every state of the union a lack of vigorous enforcement of the criminal laws.

"The criminal situation in the United States so far as crimes of violence are concerned is worse than in any other civilized country."

The committee that made this report also found that the system of handling the criminal in the United States lacked three great essentials of law enforcement—celerity, certainty and finality. "This lack, together with general public indifference to the situation, accounts in large measure for the want of respect for law in this country and the failure of its enforcement.

Such is the indictment that would shame even a less civilized people. Such is the condemnation of a legal code that has been built up seemingly to shield the criminal. While adequate punishment is provided there are also furnished the loopholes thru which the criminal may escape the just punishment that should by all means be meted out to him. It is this fact that has led to the growth of mob violence and perhaps to the growth of questionable organizations who would supplant the law that doesn't deal to the criminal a punishment commensurate to the crime involved.

How the law works is aptly illustrated in San Angelo, in which place, during the last year three men have been found guilty of murder. Yet not one of those men is serving time today. In no instance was it regarded they were sufficiently guilty to pay with their own lives. One is out pending appeal. Two others are free as the result of an opinion handed down by the Court of Criminal Appeals. They have been adjudged killers by a good jury as ever graced a courtroom, but Texas doesn't regard the man a menace of society, and they are free to operate as though no crime had been marked against them.

The remedy, says the American Bar Association, may be found in standardized code of criminal ethics for all states. Such, surely would simplify the present system, around which has grown up such a network of legal restraints that the ends of justice are curbed.

The indictment finds justification in comparative figures; seventeen murders in London last year, not one of which remains unsolved; 7,850 murders in the United States; 260 murders in New York and 137 in Chicago in 1921, and in the same year only 63 murders throughout England and Wales.

In the eyes of the world America stands accused—an example of greed and jealousies on which murders grow. No matter what barrier of good records may be erected against it, the eyes of the world will see the black mark of murder. When they view the record of achievement murder will head the list.—San Angelo Standard.

ROBS CALOMEL OF NAUSEA AND DANGER

Medicinal Virtues Retained and Improved—Dangerous and Sickening Qualities Removed. Perfected Tablets Called "Calotabs."

The latest triumph of modern science is a "de-nauseated" calomel tablet known to the drug trade as "Calotabs." Calomel, the most generally useful of all medicines thus enters upon a wider field of popularity—purified and refined from those objectionable qualities which have heretofore limited its use.

In biliousness, constipation, headaches and indigestion, and in a great variety of liver, stomach and kidney troubles calomel was the most successful remedy, but its use was often neglected on account of its sickening qualities. Now it is the easiest and most pleasant of medicines to take. One Calotab at bedtime with a swallow of water—that's all. No taste, no griping, no nausea, no salts. A good night's sleep and the next morning you are feeling fine, with a clean liver, a purified system and a big appetite. Eat what you please. No danger.

Calotabs are sold only in original, sealed packages, price thirty-five cents for the large, family package; ten cents for the small, trial size. Your druggist is authorized to refund the price as a guarantee that you will be thoroughly delighted with Calotabs.—(Advertisement 41-13t).

Parents Blamed for Juvenile Immorality

Lampasas, Sept. 8.—The blame for a great deal of the immorality of the county can be laid at the door of the parents of the wayward children, according to the tenor of the report of the Lampasas grand jury tendered at the end of its session yesterday at noon.

"The grand jury can investigate and report on law violations, but it can not heal broken hearts and ruined lives," the jurymen declare. "We earnestly urge the parents to keep in touch with the whereabouts of their children and in this way they will not be led into temptation and the parents will not be subjected to sorrow and humiliation."

The report went on to urge the citizens to stand behind the officers of the law in the apprehension and prosecution of violators of the law.—Fort Worth Star-Telegram

Signs Off the Highways

An interesting law goes into effect in Minnesota December 1st whereby bill boards and other advertising signs on the State Highways are prohibited and signs now in existence are to be taken down as it has been found that such signs not only disfigure the landscape but are a frequent cause of accident in cutting off the view. The signs on the roads will consist only of those telling of tourist camps in the various towns which have been provided for the many visitors to the State of Ten Thousand Lakes. It is the opinion of many people of Minnesota that the place to advertise is in the newspaper and not on barns and fences, trees and rocks along the highways.

"BETTER THAN THE LAW REQUIRES"

A Chain of Strife

Since the days when Cain killed Abel the spirit of strife has been in the blood of mankind, and it will continue in the blood as long as mankind exists.

Nations are merely collections of individuals banded together for their own protection. As long as their national fight among themselves it must be expected that nations will fight each other.

Just when many people were hoping that the league of nations would eventually be able to function to some practical purpose we are confronted with the spectacle of Italy defying the league and taking forcible possession of Greek territory.

We in America are not concerned with the merits of the controversy between Italy and Greece, but we are vitally concerned with the effect upon this country if we are dragged into another general European conflagration.

Italy and Greece may adjust the press difficulty, or they may fight it out.

In either event, it is our business to keep hands off.

Some claim that we should interfere in European affairs because we owe a duty to civilization. But what if civilization declines to be served?

Europe today is just a great conglomeration of grasping, self-seeking, jealous, intriguing and backbiting nations, awaiting only an opportunity to devour each other.

The last war, which should have taught them a lesson, did not improve matters in the slightest degree. If anything, it made them worse.

Civilization should be preserved and advanced, but that can be accomplished only when honor and a spirit of fairness return to the nations that are destroying it.

Until then our duty to ourselves demands that we keep out of the engulfing mess.

The man who shoves his hand into a lion's mouth must expect to have it chewed off.

We have no hands to lose.

Urged to Publish Helpful Criticism.

The President has expressed himself upon the publication of news and editorial views which inform the public of evils without suggestion remedies, in no uncertain fashion. In a letter to the Southern Newspaper Publishers Association, Mr. Coolidge says:

"Every newspaper can be very helpful in its support of the Government, whether it be State or National. Fundamentally, this means always making the authority of the law supreme. It means undivided allegiance to the Constitution and unhesitating obedience to legislative action made in accordance with its provisions.

"Constructive criticism is always helpful. It keeps institutions from becoming fossilized and falling into decay. But constructive criticism does not accomplish its purpose merely by pointing out what is evil. It must not fail to direct attention, with more emphasis, to what is good. Our institutions, our social organization, our economic condition are all of a quality and quantity which are worthy of our highest admiration. I believe that it will be exceedingly helpful to public sentiment if these principles and ideals can be reiterated from time to time, joined with a reverence for religion and an inspiration for better things."

Good Roads Meeting Postponed

Fredericksburg, Texas, Sept. 7.—The joint good roads meeting of the Glacier to Gulf Motorway Association, the Puget Sound to Gulf, and Southwest Trail, to have been held at Fredericksburg, Sept. 14 and 15, has been postponed indefinitely on account of the continued rains which have interfered with the harvesting of Texas' greatest cotton crop and have otherwise disorganized plans generally.

Fredericksburg had gone to considerable effort in arranging this meeting, which was to have been one of the largest attended good roads meetings in Texas, and it was postponed only after the goods roads committee of the Fredericksburg Chamber of Commerce, in conference with D. E. Colp, manager of the Glacier to Gulf Motorway, President McFarridge, representative of the Southwest Trail, and F. R. Senor, secretary-treasurer of the Puget Sound to Gulf, and secretary of the Fredericksburg Chamber of Commerce, decided these conditions would tend to cut down the attendance to a considerable degree at this time.

West Texas

What do you think of a country that continues to produce roasting ears, black eyed peas, peppers, tomatoes, okra, watermelons, cantaloupes, string beans and other good things at this season of the year. All these are now being raised in Howard County and sold to the stores in Big Spring. Old Howard County is mighty hard to beat.—Big Spring Herald.

East Texans and others who imagine that West Texas is just one desert utterly incapable of raising anything but mesquite bushes and rocks, are asked to take note of the above. Here it is September and the truck crops are growing in Howard County as if it were early spring or mid-summer. Those persons who have imagined that West Texas is not an agricultural country, need to be enlightened as to the truth of the matter.—Abilene Reporter.

Weekly Livestock Market Letter.

The Dagget-Keen Co. give the following prices in vogue at the Fort Worth Livestock market:

Receipts of cattle and calves continue heavy on the Northern markets, but are light on this market. Monday and Tuesday prices were generally satisfactory to the selling side.

Beef steers are fully steady with a week ago. Several cars of fat desirable steers selling at $6.50 and $7.00. Choice fat steers would bring more, these plain half fat to pretty good steers selling mostly from $4.00 to $5.50.

Cows selling a shade stronger. We sold today one car good fat West Texas cows at $4.50. Bulk of the butcher cows selling from $3.00 to $4.00. Canners and cutters $1.50 to $2.50. Heavy bulls $3.00 to $4.00. Light bulls and common bulls $2.00 to $2.50.

Choice fed yearlings are quotable at $8.00 to $9.50, but the bulk of the good fat grass yearlings selling from $5.00 to $6.00, with the plainer and less fleshy kind $3.50 to $4.50.

The calf market is fully 50 per cent higher. We sold today one car of good fat heavy calves weighing 403 pounds at $6.60. Good veal calves $6.50 to $7.25. Good heavy calves $5.50 to $6.50. Calves of medium weight and flesh $5.00 to $6.00. Common calves $2.00 to $4.00.

The Stocker trade is slow. Good white face stocker steers $5.50 to $7.25. Good Durham stocker steers $4.00 to $5.00. Plain and cold blooded stocker steers $2.00 to $3.50. Very little demand for stocker she-stuff at any price.

Hogs 2,250, market steady to 10 per cent higher. We sold today 10 loads of hogs and topped the market with two loads at $9.25, shipped by Joe Franks, Hennessey, Okla., consisting of 160 head averaged 211 pounds, being 25c a hundred above Kansas City top. Bulk of sales $8.80 to $9.00. Throw out sows $6.60 to $6.75. Best butcher pigs $7.00. Stockers $6.00 to $6.50.

Sheep 1,500, market slow. Best lambs $12.50. Feeder lambs $10.00 to $11.00. Yearlings $9.00 to $10.00. Wethers $7.00. Ewes $6.00. Fat goats $3.00.

ARTHUR BRISBANE WRITING FOR BIG SPRING HERALD

Arthur Brisbane is the most widely read and highest paid newspaper writer in the world. Under the heading "This Week" this paper presents his column in this issue. Read it.

Mr. Brisbane, now receives $260,000 a year for his news column. This newspaper is in the program full of interest. The little Japanese song given by Mrs. L. S. McDowell was especially appropriate and much appreciated.

Presbyterian Auxiliary Notes

Last Monday's program meeting on Japan and our City Missions was well attended and the program full of interest. The little Japanese song given by Mrs. L. S. McDowell was especially appropriate and much appreciated.

Next Monday the Circles will meet at 3 o'clock with the following hostesses: The Dorcas with Mrs. Shepherd, at the Mansie; the Whatsoevers with Mrs. L. S. McDowell; the King's Daughters with Mrs. Ellington.

CONFERENCE AT COAHOMA

The Presbytery has been divided into four districts for the purpose of bringing the Presbyterian methods and plans close to all the women and getting them acquainted with the Presbyterian officers. District, No. 2, composed of Colorado, Coahoma, Big Spring and Midland, will hold its first conference at Coahoma on Thursday, Sept. 20th. It will be an all-day session beginning at 10 o'clock in the morning and closing at 4 in the afternoon.

A picnic luncheon will be served by the Coahoma Auxiliary at noon. Good attendance is expected from all the towns. Several cars will leave here about 9:30 and there will be room for all the ladies who wish to attend. The following program has been arranged.

Horse Shot for Glanders

Colorado, Texas, Sept. 10.—Dr. W. M. Thaxton of Fort Worth, member of the State Livestock Sanitary Commission, condemned one horse here today as being infected with glanders.

The animal, which was dispatched by county officials, was owned by a farmer of near Westbrook, 10 miles west of Colorado. Thaxton has completed an inspection of practically all horses in the Westbrook vicinity and stated the one condemned was the only animal infected. Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

Mussolini, the Small

"War between Italy and Greece would be popular in Italy where hatred of the Greeks runs high," says William Philip Simms, who knows. "It would be regarded as an easy victory as Greece is bankrupt and fresh from defeat at the hands of the Turks. A short, victorious war would lift Mussolini and his fascisti to dizzy heights. And they know it."

Politics plain, cheap, curb politics, you see.

Irresponsible Greeks or Albanians committed a heinous crime against Italian officials, an act neither desired, approved nor condoned by the Greek government. The League of Nations was in session a few miles away, and Italy was committed to its support and administration. Mussolini ignored it—rejected it. He rushed his warships to shoot down innocent people who were not even indirectly connected with the crime against the Italians. He seized property and committed an act of war.

If Mussolini had carried his grievance to the League of Nations, he would have risen, on the instant, to world stature and gained the acclaim of all civilization. More than that, he would have exemplified and exalted the needed rule of reason above the rule of powder and shot and wanton murder. He would have done the biggest thing possible for world peace, at the psychological moment. But he didn't do it. He let the great chance slip. He resorted to the smallest kind of narrow, home politics. He played even the lives of innocent women and children into the game that he might solidify and increase his weakening political support at home. He preferred the empty applause of his partisans to the sincere approval and gratitude of a civilized world.

Mussolini played small because he is a small man.

Big Prize Fight to be Staged Tonight

Little interest seems to be taken in the world's heavyweight championship battle which is to be staged in New York City tonight. Jack Dempsey the present champion will meet Luis Firpo of Argentina. Prize fighting has lost its fame as a manly sport and has developed into a money-making proposition strictly. Champion prize fighters are no longer the national heroes they used to be, and there would not be much weeping even though Dempsey was knocked from under his crown by a foreigner.

This Week

Forests From the Air.
Great Man Coming.
Two Great Anniversaries.
Move Supreme Court Closer.

BY ARTHUR BRISBANE

Learned gentlemen of the Bar Association want the United States Supreme Court removed from Washington "far from the influences of Congress," which means the influence of the people that elect Congress and appoint Supreme Court judges through their paid servant, the President.

Some citizens think the Supreme Court is quite far enough away from the influence of the people already, that it would not do any harm to bring it back a little closer.

Two great anniversaries approach: Fifty years ago this week, the typewriting machine began its career, saving time, increasing efficiency and, most important of all, introducing into business the good influence of hundreds of thousands of women.

Fifty years ago Americans began the manufacture of Portland cement, which is, to building, what the typewriter is to business. For the first ten years this country made only 36,000 sacks of cement annually. Last year the country used 470,000,000 sacks, and American plants now possess a capacity of 600,000,000 sacks.

Lloyd George will be here in a few weeks. You will see and hear a real man, when he comes. Without him, to manage England and her Allies in the big war, putting England's armies under Foch, supplying the Allies with money and ammunition, William of Hohenzollern would probably be still Kaiser, and on a bigger scale, with a newly captured throne for each of his sons.

See and hear Lloyd George, if you can. He is the greatest democrat that Europe has produced since Cromwell, and history will say so, whatever Tories may say now.

Germans are building flying machines for a 28-hour service between Hamburg and New York. Real flying is beginning.

Dr. Curtis, professor of botany, at Columbia, says the destruction of our forests may come in ten years. Thanks to the flying machine that destruction need not happen. Our 832,000,000 acres of virgin forest have been reduced to 140,000,000 acres. But what men have cut down in centuries fliers could replant, scattering seeds from airplanes in four or five years easily. Millions of acres of mountain land, cut off or burnt over could be replanted from the air and the Agricultural Department should be supplied with the men, money, seeds and machines to do it.

A distinguished senator suggests buying one of the palaces in Berlin for the United States ambassador. Palaces in all capitals for our democratic ambassadors, to be paid for by the people, are suggested seriously. There are several second hand crowns drifting around Europe at bargain prices. Why not get one of those for each American ambassador? If you must make an ass of yourself, do it thoroughly.

Louis Chaliff tells the American Dancing Teachers' Society that body and brain are improved by dancing. Nature knew it long ago. The animals danced, lizards, dinosaurs, jungle fowls, goats and monkeys, long before man came. What Nature orders is wise.

One man in California cuts the price of gasoline to six cents a gallon. That is war, of course. But there isn't much comfort for the consumer in a few days of war and low prices. When the big oil men kill off the little fellows they will take out of the consumers' pocket all that the price war costs and a little more.

Mrs. Dan O'Keefe and daughter, Miss Theima, left Tuesday morning for El Paso, where they expect to make their future home. It is with deep regret their many friends learn of their departure from our city. Mrs. O'Keefe's untiring activities in behalf of our schools and civic improvements will be greatly missed. They sold their home in this city to C. W. Saunders.

Methodist Sunday School Notes

Last Sunday put us over the 300 mark once more—310 to be exact. Nearly all the teachers were back at work with renewed zeal for the fall season. Mrs. Sloan reports her primary boys doing extra memory work, and doing it well.

A visit to the Beginners room shows an increase in enthusiasm and attendance also. We are to have a special number from these little ones in a few more Sundays. Quite a lot of new things will be used in this department the coming months.

We miss our young secretary, Gladys Gardiner, tremendously. As a helper she was a constant joy, so full of willingness to serve, and always on hand, bright eyed, bright faced and capable. The superintendent had a letter from her in her new home at Hayden, Ariz. She is rather homesick for her old Sunday school, but is already planning to help build up her new. We wish for her increasing success, and many blessings in her new home.

Our Sunday school had the pleasure of hearing the new expression teacher, Miss Reeves, last Sunday. Her selection was a most romantic episode of a highwayman and his lady fair, the setting back in the middle ages. It was well given, and we shall like Oliver Twist, ask for "more."

The Saturday Evening Post of Sept. 8 had an article of exceptional interest, "Missionaries and Foreign Trade." We have asked Bro. Hardy to briefly review the outstanding points for us this Sunday, directly after the lesson period. Churchgoers who are in the habit of "skipping" Sunday school (a bad habit in itself) are assured it will be well worth their time to come a little early, and hear this fine eulogy on the grand old heroes of the cross, treated in rather a unique way in relation to trade. Come at 10:30 and hear it.

Several new pupils are coming in every Sunday now, and we are trying to get all in ship-shape for promotion day, the last Sunday in September. A few new classes will be organized. Last Sunday the 22 boys in Mrs. Stripling's class after a good lesson, did a little socialservice job by taking quite a lot of magazines up in the Rest Room for distribution. This class keeps growing apace. Intermediate boys not in S. S. are urged to come and join it. The teacher is not at all backward in claiming that it is the best class in our school.

Foolish—Like a Fox

Some Washington friends of President Coolidge, observes the Chicago Tribune, say that the public is being given a wrong impression of the chief executive. They say he is conspicuously without political sense, or, if he has it, refrains from allowing it to appear in his acts, and that whatever chance he has for the nomination must rest entirely on his record in office. Continues the Tribune:

"It was mere accident that Mr. Coolidge appointed a Virginian as his private secretary. He discovered that Mr. Sloop was a Virginia after the appointment. He thought he lived in Montana. He retained Brig. Gen. Sawyer because he thought he was a world war veteran. He did not know that it would please many admirers of President Harding or that the brigadier had been in the White House before. He was too busy with golf to tend to the anthracite strike. That's why he passed the work over to Governor Pinchot. He did not know it would please the governor and the folk of Pennsylvania generally. (To the banker of Fairbury; watch your step).

"Mr. Coolidge took the oath of office in his father's farm house because he was in a hurry or because he did not want to make trouble for an associate justice of the supreme court in Washington. His friends know that the idea of him as an executive giving no thought whatever to delegates may be received with popular disfavor, but they feel in duty bound to spread it."

In other words Mr. Coolidge is foolish—just like a fox. All the apparent political preparation has been by accident. Nobody has been thinking.

Another evidence of the fact that Mr. Coolidge is very stupid as a politician may be seen in the revival of the plan to sell the Muscle Shoals power plant to Henry Ford. Ford might run for the presidency on the democratic ticket, and he might get elected if he did run. Ford might not run for the presidency if he bought the Muscle Shoals project from the government. So it would be very crude of Coolidge and Weeks and others high up in the present republican administration to eliminate from the opposition such a dangerous man as Mr. Ford.

Yes, Mr. Coolidge has no political sense.—Temple Telegram.

Give your Horses a Chance

How are you getting more milk from your cows or more pork from your hogs? Isn't it by balancing their rations?

Then why not give your horses the same chance? They deserve it, and will deliver the results.

You can save money by selling your grain and feeding Purina O.M. feed. It is not a weak medicine, but a special preparation of oat and corn that produces wonderful results.

Two thirds of a ton of O.M. does as much in a real feeding trial as a ton of corn. Call for a free trial order to feel it all. Balance your prices.

The bible intimates that it is difficult for a rich man to break into heaven, and a brutally frank newspaper writer insists that it is practically impossible to put one into jail.

If you refrain from meddling with other people's affairs they won't have any excuse for prying into yours, and you won't be in danger of being found out.

West Texas
 The Texas Commercial News has started a great discussion among Texas editors as to the exact or approximate geographical limits of the various sections commonly referred to as West, East, North, South or Central Texas.

Editorial opinion differs as editorial opinion is wont to do on great issues like this. The Mineral Wells Index is miffed because the editor of the Abilene Reporter read that famous health resort out of West Texas. The Indexian asserts with justifiable pride that Mineral Wells is in Texas.

A certain Fort Worth newspaper advertises that Fort Worth is "Where the West Begins." According to the peculiar Fort Worth theory, West Texas begins at the Tee Pee passenger station in the Panther City and extends westward the width of the right of way of that artery of traffic to a point approximately even with Cisco, where it suddenly expands and includes everything west of the 99th meridian. The Fort Worth corridor to the West is something new in sectional nomenclature, and entirely original with that hustling young city.

Abilene is proud of the fact that it is really in West Texas. But as a matter of cold, indisputable fact, Abilene is fifty miles nearer Texarkana than it is to El Paso. The dividing line of the weather bureau as between East and West Texas is the 100th meridian, which passes thru the eastern edge of Merkel, 17 miles west of Abilene. To Uncle Sam, everything east of that line is East Texas, and everything west of it is West Texas. Uncle Sam however, goes a little too far in placing the line at the 100th meridian—approximately one degree too far west.

It ought to be very gratifying to West Texans to see other towns struggle to get within the magic bounds of this magic region. But West Texans are so intensely proud of their achievements, and of their region, that they rather resent the efforts of down-state towns to claim West Texas identity, or kinship.

It is certain that whatever West Texas has accomplished, she has done it herself. Whatever she accomplishes in future, she must do by her own efforts. Every time the politicians try to help West Texas they make a mess of it.—Abilene Reporter

End of the Rainbow

"The sweetest grass is on the other side of the fence; the prettiest girls are over in the other village; the best farm land is in some other community; the only chance the farm boy has is to go to the city, and the only hope for the city man to get ahead is to go on the farm." This is the belief of many people says The Farm Journal.

"Where is the best country in the whole world? Where are opportunities to get ahead the greatest? Where are conditions just right to successful farming and happy living? Where should the young man go in order to make the greatest success? The answer is easy and quickly told; he shouldn't go at all. The best opportunities, and the best people in the whole world are right at home.

"The best section of the country is the one where you reside at this moment. It has taken you half a lifetime to make your many friends and establish your reputation for honest dealing. Your neighbors are the ones you grew up with and one old friend and neighbor is worth a multitude of strangers. The loneliest place in the whole world is in a crowd where you are unknown. Heart-breaking loneliness abides in the great city and never in the country. The best land is the land you are familiar with. The best methods of farming are those you grew up with. Eastern methods will surely fail in the West; northern methods are failures in the South and vice versa.

"Opportunities are all around you; success awaits you right at home and not at the end of the rainbow."

Albert Cooksey and family of Pecos enroute home from a month's auto trip thru Texas, Colorado, Kansas and Oklahoma were here the forepart of the week for a visit with J. L. Ward and family. Mr. Cooksey stated that he covered considerable territory in his travels but that in all his round he found no crops that would compare with those of this county and Mitchell County. He also said that he had long since decided that Big Spring was one of the most substantial little cities in Texas as it had always weathered unfavorable conditions that sweep the country without a set-back. He remarked that all signs now pointed to a prosperous era for this section.

A mother and six children, ranging in ages from 4 to 15 years, in destitute circumstances landed in Big Spring Tuesday morning. The mother claimed that Sweetwater folks paid for a ticket to this place. This is indeed strange as well as inhuman when these unfortunate ones were endeavoring to go to Oklahoma where the woman says her father resides. Sixty dollars was raised here; and after tickets for the family were purchased, the mother was given nine dollars in cash. Other citizens donated shoes and clothing to the needy ones.

It is going to require extra funds to secure, prepare and maintain a fine agricultural exhibit at the Dallas Fair and other fairs but it will be worth the effort and money we expend. If you want to boost the agricultural development of Howard County donate a little to this fund. Somebody must pay for this and if you help others will.

Hiram Crowder, deputy sheriff, returned Tuesday having in charge a negro, Sonny Jones, wanted here on a charge of forgery. The offense was committed some months ago and several of our business men were "stuck" for small amounts.

C. L. Breckon of Amarillo, representing the Mergenthaler Linotype Co., spent Sunday and Monday in this city. While here he made the trip to the top of Big Spring Mountain and was loud in his praise of its scenic beauty. He stated that Goldfield, Nev., presented almost a duplicate mountain view which attracted many lovers of real beauty.

At the regular meeting of the Woodmen of the World, in this city, last Friday night, the Building Committee was granted authority to enter into a contract with a person or firm desiring to lease the lot just east of the W. O. W. Hall for the construction of a substantial building thereon.

O. Dubberly, C. W. Jones and H. A. Modesette attended a banquet at Stanton last Friday night given by the Stanton Luncheon Club to the members of the Stanton Band. The occasion was one of the finest attended according to the report of the Big Spring visitors.

J. J. Curlee a resident of this city in the early days, spent Saturday and Sunday in this city and was kept busy greeting old time friends. Mr. Curlee is now representing the Bowser Pump Co., with headquarters at Sweetwater.

Miss Fanny Rosson of Cullman, Ala., who has been the guest of Misses Mattie and Spencer Leatherwood, left Saturday evening for her home. Miss Rosson won many warm friends during her visit in our city.

Saturday, Sept. 22 has been designated as Big Spring day at the Colorado Fair and we should have a big delegation there on that date. Stanton plans to send 500 folks to the Colorado Fair on Stanton Day.
