

Congress Given Reorganization Plan For ODM

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower sent Congress today a plan to reorganize the Office of Defense Mobilization. He said it is intended "to achieve the maximum degree of mobilization readiness at the least possible cost."

The plan would merge the functions of the mobilization agency (ODM) and those of the National Security Resources Board (NSRB). It also would give permanent status to the ODM, which has been operating as a temporary emergency agency.

The plan to create a single, central defense mobilization office will go into effect in 60 days unless either the Senate or the House veto the plan.

In a message to Congress, Eisenhower said the plan "will permit better organization and management of the federal programs relating to materials and requirements and will thus help to achieve the maximum degree of mobilization readiness at the last possible cost."

He said it is not practicable to try to itemize savings he expects to result.

The plan calls also for: 1. Appointment of a director to head the ODM, and a deputy director to serve as top aide.

2. Appointing the director of ODM to serve as a member of the National Security Council in recognition of the vital strategic importance of defense mobilization.

3. Transferring to ODM responsibility now shared by the Defense and Interior Departments.

Eisenhower said the idea is to improve organization of the executive office of the President, and to enable that office "to exercise strong leadership in our national mobilization effort, including both current defense activities and readiness for any future national emergency."

Schools Close For Holidays

Schools began closing down over most of the area today in anticipation of the Easter season.

Howard County Junior College dismissed classes at noon. They will resume at 8 a. m. Tuesday.

Afternoon sessions will mark the end of school for Big Spring until Tuesday at 8 a. m. Rural schools busily children here will follow a similar schedule.

Forsan has changed its schedule. The Easter holidays will be Monday and Tuesday with school resuming Wednesday. Originally a Friday and Monday holiday schedule had been set up.

Knott will close Thursday afternoon and resume classes Monday. The Coahoma schedule would not be confirmed immediately, but reports were that it was similar to Knott.

Lomax, which operates in harmony with the Stanton bus schedules, will dismiss today but resume Monday.

Wilson Cracks Down On Security Lapses

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Wilson has cracked down on security slip-ups he blames on inter-service rivalry, a lax handling of secret documents.

The nation's security has been affected and "countries hostile to the United States" have picked up vital intelligence, Wilson said, because of recent "leaks."

Two orders by Wilson, disclosed yesterday, call for:

"A higher degree of security for our official documents."

"Closer checks on disclosures of technical military data through inter-service rivalry in the weapons development field."

Communist Liaison Officers At Panmunjom

A group of Communist liaison officers, led by Senior Colonel Ju Yon, chief Communist liaison officer, arrive at Panmunjom, Korea, to receive Gen. Mark Clark's reply to Red China's proposal to exchange seriously sick and wounded prisoners at once. The meeting with UN liaison officers at the truce site lasted two minutes. Reds Present Latest Proposal; Okay Panmunjom Meet Monday

MUNSAN, Korea, Friday (AP) — The Allies and Communists quickly agreed Thursday to meet at Panmunjom Monday to discuss the exchange of sick and wounded prisoners. First step toward a resumption of truce talks.

The Monday meeting will be between liaison officers who will arrange for the early exchange of the sick and wounded. The Allies were making swift preparations for the first flow of returned prisoners. Their liaison team already is organized and ready to go.

The Communists suggested the Monday meeting set the time for a resumption of full-scale armistice negotiations. They also handed over official copies of Communist proposals for a resumption of truce talks, carried by Peiping Radio Monday.

Gen. Mark Clark, the U. N. commander, already has made it clear that Allied truce negotiators will return to Panmunjom only after arrangements are completed for exchanging disabled prisoners.

Delivery of the new proposals from Red China's Premier Chou En-lai and North Korea's Premier Kim Il Sung fed mounting hopes that the Communist world is serious about peace.

The latest development in a chain reaction touched off by Red China less than a week ago came only a few hours after Soviet Russia pledged its all-out support of China's Korean truce plan.

But many Western observers still warned against over optimism. Wait, and see if the Communists do more than talk about peace, was their advice.

One Allied spokesman here, long in close contact with the protracted truce talks, said the businesslike tone of the Communist message delivered Thursday was "heartening."

"It's devoid of the usual propaganda," he said. He cautioned, however, against unbridled optimism and said the Communists would show whether they "really mean business if they settle the details of how we exchange the sick and wounded without a lot of haggling."

At this Allied camp work was speeded on plans to care for wounded prisoners and for full-scale resumption of truce negotiations.

A team of three full colonels and two lieutenant colonels arrived here to choose a site for processing the sick and wounded. And a pre-fabricated village which can be set up in a few days, or even hours, is stored nearby to care for the returnees.

Tentative plans called for setting up one or more forward aid stations to process and treat prisoners as they are released. If an exchange is agreed upon, most of the men will be taken to field hospitals behind the lines by ambulance, but serious cases will be evacuated by helicopter.

The U. N. Command was ready for the meeting in Panmunjom Monday.

The Allied liaison group will be headed by Rear Adm. John C. Daniel, a member of the five-man U. N. truce delegation. Daniel flew here from Japan Wednesday and immediately began staff conferences.

The proposals handed over by the Communists, at Panmunjom Thursday were in reply to a letter Clark wrote Tuesday suggesting a meeting to discuss plans for exchanging disabled prisoners.

The Red truce proposal was the official version of the plan. Peiping broadcast Monday and cabled to U. N. headquarters in New York the following day.

It provides for the exchange of prisoners who want to return home immediately after a truce is signed. All others would be turned over to an unnamed neutral nation pending a decision on their future.

Paris on a reparations issue was the only major unsettled issue when the truce talks were suspended last Oct. 8.

The Allies refuse to return 51,000 of 132,000 Communist prisoners who have said they do not want to go home. Until now the Reds have insisted that all prisoners in Allied stockades be returned.

Other U. N. soldiers, mostly British, and about 9,000 South Koreans.

Stassen, who had strongly protested McCarthy's announcement Saturday as bringing upon the State Department's prerogative, argued again yesterday that such agreements have "unfortunate effects."

Stassen said they impair his own foreign aid work and hamper the State Department's efforts to choke off the flow of goods to the Reds.

Dulles had nothing to say publicly about this until yesterday's joint statement. President Eisenhower, who has maintained silence publicly, is almost certain to be asked whether he agrees with Dulles or Stassen at his news conference today.

Stassen fired his new blast in a letter delivered to Sen. McCarthy (R-Ind.) as McCarthy and Dulles were drafting their statement in which:

1. Dulles termed the ship owners' agreement in the national interest.

2. McCarthy agreed to consult the State Department concerning any more such agreements.

3. They both made clear that McCarthy's attention had been called to "the dangers that would result if congressional committees entered into the field of foreign relations which is in the exclusive jurisdiction of the Chief Executive."

Assisting in this task evidently will be the primary test Ambassador Charles E. Bohlen, President Eisenhower's new envoy to Moscow.

Eisenhower scheduled a farewell conference with Bohlen today, presumably to give him final instructions.

Bohlen is due to leave New York Friday and, with stop in Western Europe, to arrive at his post by April 10. It is expected that shortly thereafter he will call on Foreign Minister Molotov and confer with Malenkov.

Russia's latest maneuver was to submit to the United Nations yesterday new disarmament proposals which appeared somewhat similar to Western proposals announced by the Soviets previously. Among other things, they indicated willingness to engage in a balanced reduction of armed forces instead of demanding a percentage cut which would leave Russia with an overbalance of force as compared with the West.

This move, coming on top of proposals toward ending the Korean War and other cold war issues, afforded one more piece of evidence that the Kremlin is acting according to a careful master plan with several possible objectives.

U. S. officials are still awaiting proof in positive action that Soviet leaders are willing to make good on their words. Ending the Korean War on terms acceptable to the U. N. may be the acid test.

U. S. To Cut Staff On French Mission

PARIS (AP) — Informed sources say about 290 persons — 95 Americans and 195 Europeans — are on their way off the U. S. government payroll in Paris.

These sources reported the Mutual Security Administration is halving the staff of its mission to France and that the President's special representative to Europe—Ambassador William H. Draper—is cutting personnel of his headquarters 10 to 15 per cent.

M'Carthy Tries For Pledges As Dulles Gives OK

By G. MILTON KELLY WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.), assured by Secretary of State Dulles his efforts are "in the national interest," sought today to get more Greek ship owners to take a pledge against trading with Iron Curtain areas.

McCarthy's action, in the face of a new protest by Mutual Security Director Harold E. Stassen, takes up where the senator left off when he arranged yesterday's conference with Dulles.

It started Saturday with McCarthy's announcement that his Senate Investigations Subcommittee staff had elicited an agreement among the Greek owners of 242 ships not to handle cargoes to Red China, North Korea or between any Communist ports.

McCarthy said then he hoped to get a similar agreement from Greek owners of about 150 more ships—but later he held off this action pending his talk with Dulles.

A source close to McCarthy's dealings with the Greeks said that, after this talk, the senator promptly renewed discussions with the owners of these 150 ships.

The source, who declined to be named, said McCarthy sent a detailed "progress" report to Dulles, in line with a statement issued by the senator and the secretary after their meeting at the State Department.

Stassen, who had strongly protested McCarthy's announcement Saturday as bringing upon the State Department's prerogative, argued again yesterday that such agreements have "unfortunate effects."

Stassen said they impair his own foreign aid work and hamper the State Department's efforts to choke off the flow of goods to the Reds.

Dulles had nothing to say publicly about this until yesterday's joint statement. President Eisenhower, who has maintained silence publicly, is almost certain to be asked whether he agrees with Dulles or Stassen at his news conference today.

President Backs Weeks In Case Of New Battery

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower, backing up Secretary of Commerce Weeks, accepted today the resignation of Dr. Allen Astin as director of the Bureau of Standards.

Weeks said he called for the resignation on the ground that the bureau, a unit of the Commerce Department, had not been "sufficiently objective" in its testing methods. He said there also were other reasons but did not disclose them.

Astin denied the accusation. He said the bureau must stand by its scientific findings regardless of "pressures."

Weeks singled out for special mention the bureau's decision that a battery "dope"—designed to prep up aging batteries—was bogus.

Astin said bureau scientists found that the battery "dope," put out by Pioneers Inc., did not pep up batteries as the company claimed. Weeks said it does.

Astin's job, which is a career one, pays $15,000 a year. Politics are not supposed to figure in the assignment.

The White House made no comment on the battery controversy. The bare statement said only that Eisenhower received Astin's letter of resignation yesterday and accepted it at once.

Asked if Astin made a defense of the bureau in his letter, White House Press Secretary James H. Hager replied:

"That will have to come from him."

Neither Astin's letter nor the President's acceptance was made public.

Elizabeth Plans Visit

LONDON (AP) — Queen Elizabeth II has decided to visit Aden, Uganda, Malta and Gibraltar at the end of her Commonwealth tour next spring, the colonial office said today.

Then it quit until 10:30 a. m. Monday, refusing to join the House in a long Easter week end off. The House had quit yesterday until Tuesday morning.

The House Revenue and Taxation Committee stayed on for a hearing on the big omnibus tax bill.

Its author, Rep. George Berry of Lubbock said it would add $4 million dollars a year to state revenue by raising taxes on chemicals, oil, gas and other earth products and levying a tax on timber.

Berry said more taxes were needed to give the teachers a pay raise. So many opponents appeared that the committee decided to hear them in relays for a few weeks.

A joint conference committee working out the multi-billion dollar state spending budget met in secret.

Backers of a $600 a year pay raise for teachers tried to pick up more votes. Rep. Lamar Zivney of Temple said he would seek Tuesday to get speedier action.

Reds Relax Aims On Disarmament

By OSOOD CARUTHERS UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — Rapid fire moves in the new Soviet peace offensive gave United Nations delegates much to study over today and little hope for East as they started a five-day Easter recess.

The U. S. and her Western allies joined all other nations outside the Soviet bloc in probing warily the succession of dramatic Red actions of the past few days. One observer said it looked like a "surprise-a-day campaign."

The latest surprise here came yesterday when Russia, Andrei Y. Vishinsky, recently returned from Moscow talks with the new regime of Prime Minister Georgi M. Malenkov, scrapped for the first time in seven years his efforts to "introduce harsh words against the West into the formal record on disarmament."

Vishinsky's version of the "peace approach" was an amendment he submitted yesterday to the Western-backed resolution on disarmament scheduled for consideration when the Assembly reconvenes Tuesday.

The Western plan, which lays down a suggested disarmament program for the U. N. Disarmament Commission to consider in its year-round negotiations, was approved last month by the Assembly's Political Committee. The same program was approved in 1952 by the Assembly but was stymied in the commission by Russian opposition.

The Political Committee last month rejected, as it has before, an alternate Soviet program.

The usual Soviet tactic, after defeat in the committee, is to roll out its defeated resolution and demand that the full Assembly reverse the committee decision against it.

This time, however, the Russians asked the Assembly only to delete parts the Soviets had voted against in a paragraph-by-paragraph ballot in the committee, but to leave in the working part ordering the Disarmament Commission to continue its work toward finding a solution.

Nor did Vishinsky's amendment make any mention of a rejected Soviet resolution charging the U. S., Britain and France with trying to turn the Disarmament Commission into a Western espionage agency.

This action got a new boost yesterday when Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov announced the Kremlin's full support of the offer, "indicating to the world that it was a serious move to end the war in Korea."

Efforts by India's V. K. Krishna Menon to get the U. N. Assembly to seize immediately the new Red overtures as the basis for reopening Korean talks here were stepped yesterday by the Assembly's recess for Easter.

Senate Debates Tides Measure; House Gives OK

By HARRISON B. HUMPHRIES WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate continues debate today on a bill to establish the coastal states' title to oil-rich submerged lands off their shores—title which Sen. Cordon (R-Ore.) said they should have as a matter of "right and equity."

Advocates of federal ownership of the offshore resources called it "give-way" legislation. They noted that the Supreme Court has ruled in the cases of three states that all lands beyond low water mark fall within the dominion of the federal government.

Senate debate began yesterday shortly after the House passed for the third time, 285-108, a bill to give the states the offshore property within their boundaries usually three miles from low water mark but 10 1/2 miles in the case of Texas and the Gulf Coast of Florida.

The lands in question, often mistakenly called tidelands, contain oil estimated to be worth 40 billion dollars or more.

Sen. Cordon, managing the legislation for the interior committee, retained the floor at the start of today's session to continue his explanation of the bill drafted by the committee.

After today's session, the Senate will take a customary recess over the Easter week end. Republican Leader Taft of Ohio called for daily Senate sessions next week to speed final action on the submerged lands question. The Senate has been meeting only three days a week.

Sen. Byrd Expects To Pinpoint Blame For Shortage Of Ammo

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Byrd (D-Va.) said today he is confident a Senate investigation will disclose the people and conditions responsible for reported ammunition shortages in Korea.

"I think we are going to find out who and what were responsible for these shortages," Byrd told reporters.

The senator voiced this belief as a Senate Armed Services Subcommittee delayed until next Wednesday further testimony on the dispute kicked up by Gen. James A. Van Fleet, retired commander of the U. S. Eighth Army in Korea.

Van Fleet repeated to senators yesterday his claims that a shortage of shells for his guns was a major factor in forcing United Nations troops into a defensive role in Korea. He was supported in this view by Lt. Gen. Edward M. Almond, retired former commander of the Eighth Army's 10th Corps.

Secretary of the Army Stevens, who went to Korea to have a first-hand look at the ammunition situation, told newsmen in Seoul yesterday the Eighth Army now has enough ammunition "no matter what happens."

His appraisal was backed by Gen. Mark Clark, Far East commander, and by Lt. Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, now Eighth Army commander.

Taylor said there are restraints on firing "unless there is something to shoot at" and he added: "On the other hand, I know of no situation where a local commander did not expend as much ammunition as he thought necessary to meet a given situation."

Sen. Margaret Chase Smith (R-Me), chairman of the Senate inquiry group, recessed hearings until next week. To be heard then are former Secretary of Defense Robert A. Lovett and his deputy, W. J. McNell.

Much of the dispute over the reported shortages—which the Senate Armed Services Committee says are an established fact—has revolved around the meaning of the word "shortage."

Pentagon chiefs have said Van Fleet had all the ammunition he needed to carry out his limited mission in Korea. And on this basis they insist there was no ammunition scarcity in Korea.

But Van Fleet stoutly maintains his gunners did not have the ammunition they needed—and that shortages anywhere along the pipeline affected the rate of fire on the front lines.

The big, husky veteran of four wars testified yesterday he was stopped by orders from launching a sea-borne strike behind the enemy's lines in June, 1951, which he claims would have destroyed the Red armies.

He said he made his recommendation for the amphibious landing—the pattern of Gen. Douglas MacArthur's famous Inchon landing—to Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, then Far Eastern commander in Tokyo and now supreme Allied commander in Europe.

But he added he was turned down. He did not say whether Ridgway called off the strike on his own initiative or merely relayed orders from the Pentagon.

In Paris, Ridgway said he had "absolutely no comment" on Van Fleet's testimony.

HOLLYWOOD BEAUTY

By Lydia Lane

HOLLYWOOD — Blond Mari Blanchard, who is frequently seen around Hollywood with bachelor Greg Bautzer, is one of the busiest girls at Universal-International.

"I hope I get time to do some Easter shopping," she confided one day at lunch.

"What is your favorite Easter gift?"

"Perfume," Mari said enthusiastically.

"I don't believe I have a type—I prefer to choose a perfume for an occasion. I think that you should give just as much attention in choosing what scent you are going to wear as what kind of jewelry."

"The sense of smell plays an important part in creating an impression. One may not be as conscious of the scent you have chosen as he is of the perfume you are carrying, but both are accessories appealing to different senses."

"I have a friend who does volunteer work in a hospital and she likes heavy perfume," Mari continued. "One day a doctor asked her to leave the operating room because her scent was making him ill. It was quite a popular perfume but I've always felt it was too loud."

"There is a technique to using perfume," Mari added. "It's dreadful when you use too much—it's like sitting too close to a brass band. And on the other hand there is not much point to using perfume so sparingly that no one but you know that you have any on."

"Have you a special way of perfuming yourself?"

"I like to spray cologne on after a shower—when I use a fragrance from head to toe I create an aura so that instead of smelling sweet in one or two spots, it's all around me."

"If you choose a well-made perfume, one which you know will last, and you don't get any compliments then either you are not using enough or something is happening to the scent due to your individual body chemistry."

"I had to wear several different perfumes before I found one that everyone seemed to enjoy. A perfume can't help but become a favorite when so many people tell you how sweet they find you smelling."

"What do you do if someone gives you perfume you don't like?"

"I take it back because I learned the hard way never to open a bottle of perfume unless I was familiar with it. It is just as much a mistake to wear a perfume which is not suited to you as to wear a hat which is not becoming."

U.S. VISITOR LEARNS

People In Moscow Are Very Friendly

EDITOR'S NOTE: Eugene A. Simon is one of a group of American news executives now visiting Moscow. He filed this dispatch early today at the end of his first full day in the Russian capital. A graduate of Baldwin-Wallace College, Simon is president and general manager of the Valley Daily News of Tarentum, Pa. He was a lieutenant aboard a Pacific Fleet carrier in World War II.

Square today with Pavlov, one of our interpreters and guides, a group of teen-agers crowded around for a picture—like kids anywhere. Pavlov said they were the common people—the salt of the earth. I got better acquainted with Pavlov after awhile and found he is something of a philosopher. He was bragging about his boy of 12 and girl of 8, who were fine pianists. Pretty soon I pulled out a picture of my little girl. Pavlov pointed to it and said it was a universal law to live for your children. Two things surprised me about Moscow. One is that it has some of the widest streets I have seen anywhere. The other is the great amount of construction and new building going on. The newly completed Moscow University looks like the University of Pittsburgh Tower of Learning in the center and Bethesda Naval Hospital on the sides. Our 10 press and radio representatives frankly expected some hostility and perhaps strained situations in Moscow. As yet none has occurred and the people I have contacted up to now have been very friendly and hospitable. This is even true on the street, where a great deal of curiosity is evidenced. I guess we really stand out as foreigners.

Funeral Is Held

ENNIS (AP)—Services for Richard Brooks, 70, were held here today. The retired oil operator died in Dallas last night after a three-months illness.

Adenauer Heads For U.S.; Plans Talks In Britain

LE HAVRE, France (AP)—West Germany's Chancellor - Foreign Minister Konrad Adenauer called for the United States early today for important conferences but indicated that even more critical talks may take place next month when he visits Britain. In a news conference shortly before he boarded the liner United States, the Chancellor said that in London he would discuss Britain's relationship with the projected (EDC). Asked what he would take up with Prime Minister Churchill and Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden, Adenauer at first only told newsmen the talks in mid-May—after his Washington visit — would concern the world situation at that time. Then he added: "I don't want to play hide-and-seek with you. I have repeatedly urged Eden to accede to France's wishes for closer association between Britain and the EDC." Referring to Britain's repeated refusal to join the European army because she must consider her position ahead of the far-flung British Commonwealth, Adenauer added: "I fully recognize the special position of Britain. At the same time, we have the same wish as France that Britain be associated as closely as possible with the EDC." The bogged-down European army plan is a prime question awaiting the 77-year-old German statesman in Washington. He also will talk about possible American assistance in handling refugees from East Germany, the troublesome dispute between France and Germany over the industrial Saar and the new Moscow peace offensive.

HE CAUGHT, BUT IT TOOK TIME

CLEVELAND (AP)—Twenty-four years ago $4 was taken in a robbery. Police held James Dunn, 49, today for the theft. They said fingerprints Dunn made recently on a cab driver application led to his arrest. Detectives said Dunn told them he jumped $5,000 bail after he was arrested and lived in Chicago until recently.

Earnings Of Humble Oil In Big Drop

HOUSTON (AP)—Humble Oil reported a decrease of 24 million dollars net earnings from 1951. Earnings of $145,292,100 last year were equivalent to $475 a share, compared with 1951's $472. The lower earnings were blamed on increased costs despite a large volume of production and larger gross revenues. President Hines Baker and Chairman L. T. Brown told stockholders: "The operation of a free market for so important a product as petroleum... should result, in time, in prices adequate to offset the higher costs incurred. Otherwise, there will not be sufficient incentive for the high rate of exploration and drilling needed to provide adequate domestic capacity." The company's total crude oil production last year was 127,954,000 barrels, compared to 127,088,000 in 1951.

Mrs. FDR To Visit NEW YORK (AP)—Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt is going to visit Japan next month, and then Europe.

Mitchell Again Insists Morrow Off Dem Group

WASHINGTON (AP)—Stephen Mitchell, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, has said again that Weight Morrow of Houston is no longer a committee member from Texas. Mitchell said he made a routine report of the Texas case to the Executive Committee yesterday. "I made a report on the facts on Morrow and I didn't ask for any action because it is a completed matter," Mitchell said. "We had already ruled the resignation was effective." Mitchell said Mrs. H. H. Welpert, Texas national committeewoman, asked for an explanation of the ruling in Morrow's case and he read the recent decision by committee counsel declaring a vacancy there. Morrow supported President Eisenhower in last year's election. He resigned as committeeman but the Texas Democratic Executive Committee refused to accept the resignation. Mitchell said he had accepted a copy of Morrow's resignation sent him as Morrow's notice he was quitting.

Bulgaria Sets New Low in Human Depravity Against Dissenters

New depths of human depravity have just been achieved by the Communist government of Bulgaria, which has enacted a law sentencing all Bulgarian refugees abroad to capital punishment and imposing imprisonment on their relatives. The new law was published in the Official Gazette of the Bulgarian government on February 13, a copy of which had reached London last week.

Diplomats believe similar laws will be enacted by other Communist governments in an effort to halt the drift of their nationals from behind the Iron Curtain. Up to now, not even Russia had gone this far in repressing dissenters, though it had been a practice in some Red countries to visit reprisals upon the relatives of escapees.

A New Department Is Born, And A Texas Woman Becomes Its Head

When President Eisenhower signed a resolution just recently, the number of departments of cabinet rank again went up to ten. The number dropped to nine in 1947, when the Army and Navy Departments were unified into a single Department of Defense.

The new department combines into one agency social security, all federally-aided public assistance programs, health activities, education programs, children's programs and the Food and Drug Administration. This department was first proposed by President Harding and by President Truman, but was balked by members of Congress because it would have been headed then by Oscar Ewing, sponsor of compulsory health insurance.

Eisenhower Administration Must First Try To Restore Confidence

WASHINGTON — Shortly, the administration will announce a new system of loyalty-security checks and clearance to apply throughout the vast bureaucracy of the federal government. This will be one more effort to insure a loyal personnel and at the same time protect the individual from the kind of public character destruction that has too often resulted from the procedures of the past.

So the idea is to broaden the concept to cover a formula of "suitability of employment." Then the dismissed individual would not necessarily be forever disgraced on a charge closely resembling treason.

Texas Prison System Well Administered But Overcrowding Becoming A Problem

By ALLAN SHIVERS, Governor of Texas. The people who commit crimes are still human beings after their freedom has been forfeited. That is one of the basic principles behind the operation of the Texas Prison System.

Most of the State prison expenditures go for the first two of these items, although protective walls and cells and guards form a definite part of the rehabilitation program.

As chairman of the Inmate Committee of the Texas Prison Board, the Rev. Mr. George Beto, President of Concordia Lutheran College at Austin, is responsible for the rehabilitation program, which is actively administered by Mr. A. C. Turner, Mr. Beto, who accepted an appointment to the Board early in 1953, made an inspection of the entire Texas Prison System in February and March.

U. S. Bond Market Is Like Poker As Investors Sizing Up Humphrey

A poker game has been going on in government bonds. Insurance companies, banks, large investors, government bond dealers, and speculators have been trying to pre-guess Secretary of the Treasury George M. Humphrey. How would he raise new money for the Treasury? Was he really going to put out a 3 1/2 per cent bond? Or a 3 per cent? Or both?

By the same token, Humphrey was playing poker too. He had to anticipate what the market anticipated. He had to figure out what the collective investors in government bonds would go for, and then give them what they wanted.

So buyers and sellers of governments were betting on what they thought Humphrey would think the collective market would want even though individuals in the market could never be sure before the event how the collective market would react after the event.

Gruenther Sees More Hardships For Free World

BY ERNEST S. VACCARO
WASHINGTON (AP)—Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther's predictions of greater hardships ahead for the free world prompted new words of caution on Capitol Hill today against any meat axe swings at European military and economic aid.

Gruenther testified at a closed session of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee yesterday. Afterward Chairman Wiley (R-Wis.) quoted him as saying:

"We may be facing a period now that will make the hardships and sacrifices of the last two years look easy."

Sen. Sparkman (D-Ala.) said the committee decided to make Gruenther's testimony public after the general has edited out any security secrets. This editing will be done, Sparkman said, before Gruenther leaves Paris for Paris, where he is chief of staff to Gen. Matthew Ridgway, commander of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization forces.

President Eisenhower, whom Gruenther served in the same capacity before last year's presidential campaigning, took up the other side of the security coin-national defense.

In a letter to Chairman Saltonstall (R-Mass.) of the Senate Armed Services Committee, Eisenhower said he and the National Security Council are carefully studying the nation's defense program.

Eisenhower said the conclusions reached by this study will be presented as soon as possible to the committee, although he could not predict a date now. In the meantime, Eisenhower expressed hope the committee will not "move unilaterally into this delicate field at this time, while this process of re-examination and re-analysis is still in progress."

Gruenther, as quoted by Wiley, said Russian peace talks needs careful evaluation. The Soviet, he said, apparently are trying to play up the economic strain of supporting a Western defense force. He said their aim was to drive a wedge between the U. S. and its Western Allies.

Gruenther pleaded for an understanding of the difficulties faced by the Allied forces, he said, are not strong enough at this time to meet a determined all-out attack by the Russians. But, he said, "they are no longer a pushover."

A Lion In Your Lap

Well, not quite, but the illusion created by "Three Dimension" or "Natural Vision" pictures makes it seem that figures project right from the screen. Three-Dimension creates the depth and scope to scenes and figures, as well as the length and breadth. The first feature length employing the new process—a sensational in the movie world—is "Bwana Devil." This picture opens at the State Theatre Friday, for an extended run at advanced prices.

Increase Seen In Scholastic Census In City

A sizeable increase in the scholastic census appears to be impending.

On the basis of initial compilations, the final total may be several hundred over a year ago.

Last reports from the various schools were received this week, and Wednesday a total was run. It amounted to 4,859 white and 247 colored, an aggregate of 5,106.

The final approved census of the Big Spring Independent School District this year was 3,157, but that was after picking up all those overlooked in the initial rounds and adding the transfers into the district from rural schools. Final figure two years ago was 4,766.

As a general rule, a hundred or two will be added to the rolls after the preliminary total is run. Inevitably, there are many missed in the general canvass for children of school age. While there will be some duplications, omissions almost always over-balance those listed twice.

Meanwhile, school authorities appealed to patrons of the district to make sure that every child of school age has been listed.

If your children—or your neighbors children or those of anyone you know—have not been enumerated, please call the administrative office at No. 3520. Children of school age are those who were born on or before Sept. 1, 1947.

The earliest trombones used in England were called sackbuts.

'Bwana Devil,' 3-D Film, Opens At State On Friday

The newest development in motion picture production—and one that bids fair to make as much impress as did sound in movies—comes on view in Big Spring Friday.

This would be "Natural Vision," or Three Dimension. The first feature length picture in 3-D opens an extended run at the State Theatre. It is "Bwana Devil," not a picture of great consequence within itself, but one of tremendous interest from the standpoint of the photographic process.

The milestone in movie making has been playing to capacity crowds throughout the nation. The State brings it here at advanced prices.

Two projection machines are used to flash the images on the screen, and the audience views the picture through special polaroid glasses.

The novelty is intriguing. In a black and white prologue explaining the new process, a finger comes out of the screen and seems almost to scratch your nose. When Lloyd Nolan steps out of the flat screen into the new media, it almost seems as if the screen disappears to be replaced by a living picture. When a spear is thrown, it gives the illusion of coming right out into the audience. And when a lion leaps out, it appears to be coming right into your lap. Colored scenes in the mountains particularly emphasize the great perspective which can be obtained in outdoor photography with the 3-D process.

"Bwana Devil" is an Arch Oberler production, starring Robert Stack, Barbara Britton and Nigel Bruce. It tells of adventures encountered in constructing a railroad in Africa.

The so-called 3-D process was attempted in short subjects some years ago, but many changes have been made with "Bwana Devil" as the result. At least a dozen other 3-D pictures are to be turned out in the next few months by Hollywood, and a new system of movie projection may be on its way. "Bwana Devil" is regarded as the start of the new process.

AEC Puzzled By Effects Of Blast

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—About half of the 300-foot tower used in Tuesday's atomic blast was left standing, an Atomic Energy Commission source says, which makes the puzzling shot even more of a puzzle to those outside the curtain of secrecy surrounding test explosions.

"As previous detonations, so far as is known, the towers have been vaporized, leaving no appreciable trace."

Other unusual features of the blast:

Its cloud was a mere wisp of white, compared to the boiling smoke mass of most previous shots. The shock wave, usually felt here, was not noted.

Two Food Dispensing Establishments Close For Extensive Repair

Two food-dispensing establishments are closed for extensive repairs while health department permits are suspended, Lige Fox, city-county sanitarian, has reported.

They are the Western Grill, 106 E. 3rd, and Mrs. Crow's Bake Shop, 1008 Russells, Fox said. Health permits of both were suspended because of physical condition of the buildings. As soon as repairs are completed, permits will be returned.

Young Marine Rejects Dad's Offer Of Help

DUBUQUE, Ia. (AP)—A handsome 18-year-old AWOL Marine today faced murder charges in three states alone after rejecting the efforts of his grieving father-to help him.

John McManus, who straggled off five days as "too bad," flatly told his father, Mose McManus of Valley Stream, N. Y., a brewery executive, he did not want the help of the lawyer the elder McManus had retained to defend him.

The father flew into Dubuque from New York and had a brief interview with his son last night in the Dubuque County Jail.

The youth, who earlier had said he didn't want to see his father, greeted the elder McManus calmly and shook hands with him before authorities led them to an office for a short talk.

During the 15-minute meeting a deputy sheriff who was present, said young McManus shed a tear when his father made a reference to the girl who accompanied the boy on a four-day cross-country crime spree.

The youth leaped from his chair knocking it over, and started for the door in apparent indignation at the remark. The father covered his eyes and wept, then left the room.

When the elder McManus attempted to see his son a second time a short time later, the boy refused.

"I don't want you to spend any money on me," he said. "I know what I've done, and I know what I want to do. I want to get it over with quickly now."

Young McManus has written and signed a statement admitting a car theft killing at Rochester, N. Y., last Friday and double killings in holdups at Keeneyville, Ill., on Minn., on Monday.

Two Big Springers Enlist In Marines

Two Big Spring men were among 18 enlisting in the U. S. Marine Corps through the San Angelo station during March.

T-Sgt. Wes Ward, in charge of the station, said they were Cecil Howard Washburn, 20, son of Mrs. Pauline Washburn and husband of Melba Jane Washburn, 902 E. 12th, and William Wayne Harrison, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Harrison. Washburn was enrolled in Howard Payne College where he was majoring in physical education before enlisting.

Both men will undergo boot training at San Diego, Calif., then will be promoted to private first class and transferred to Camp Pendleton, Calif., for four weeks of advanced training.

Science Seeks Power Plant For Atom Sub

(Editor's Note: This is one of several stories by Elton C. Fay, Associated Press military affairs reporter, on the cross-country chain of laboratories and plants building the atomic-powered submarine.)

By ELTON C. FAY
PITTSBURGH, April 12 (AP)—So swift is the pace that manufacture of the operating engine for the first atomic-powered submarine already is under way.

Obviously assured by what it is learning from the prototype engine under test at Idaho Falls, Idaho, the Atomic Energy Commission (AEC) has directed Westinghouse Electric Corp. to start work on the seagoing version which will be installed in the submarine Nautilus.

This start on the assembly of the nuclear reactor and steam propulsion machinery does not necessarily mean the design of atomic submarine power plants has been "frozen."

It does mean AEC scientists and Navy designers believe they have an atomic power plant which will propel a submarine probably faster and certainly longer without refueling than any engine existing today.

No one expects this nuclear power plant to operate flawlessly the first time the Nautilus puts to sea. It is still highly experimental. It will have "blips," as any newly designed machinery does. But until the engineering force first gets up steam in a dockside test and the Nautilus makes her maiden voyage, the designers won't know all the fine changes in design detail that must be made.

"The power plant for the Nautilus is built around a 'thermal' reactor, with a water coolant for transfer of the atomically produced heat to the steam turbines."

Nuclear physicists call the devices "reactors" which in layman's language means furnaces.

The first reactors were, and still are, used for producing refined fissionable material, including plutonium, which goes into the manufacture of atomic bombs. The heat in those reactors is an unnecessary and undesirable by-product disposed of by elaborate water-cooling systems.

But now they want the heat to produce power to drive naval vessels and later industrial machinery. So the intense local heating of a reactor is being tapped.

Two types of reactors are to be used in two submarines to see which works best—the thermal reactor in which the speed or energy of neutrons released in the fission process is relatively low; an intermediate reactor in which neutron release is faster.

The relatively low neutron speed of the thermal reactor means that ordinary steel and other materials would absorb or capture too many of the neutrons.

To meet this situation, scientists of the AEC, the Bureau of Mines, of the Westinghouse Corp. and of a number of other firms turned to a metal little known or used until they demanded it in quantity—zirconium.

Zirconium looks, feels, weighs and generally appears to be much like high-grade steel. But it has the happy advantage of neutron absorption far lower than steel. It is used for key parts of the reactor's core.

Building Total For Year At $619,285

Building in Big Spring amounted to another quarter of a million dollars during March, pushing the year's total to $619,285, F. W. Bettle, city building inspector, reported today.

The volume of construction permits was nearly 40 per cent higher in March than in February, although value of the projects lacked $16,000 equalling February's record, Bettle said. Many of the March undertakings were small repair and remodeling jobs, however.

There were 123 permits for building granted in March, compared to 89 in February and 65 in January. Total of building permits issued this year is 277.

Dollars-wise, the monthly totals are $104,750 for January, $263,300 for February, and $249,233 in March.

T&P Operating Revenue In Last Year Hits Top Figure

Texas and Pacific Railway's gross operating revenues totaled $83,825,516 in 1952, the highest figure in the company's history.

This, according to the annual report distributed this week from the office of T&P President W. G. Vollmer, is due largely to industrial expansion in the Southwest, which is described as "unparalleled in its history."

The gain in operating revenue was 7.8 per cent over the $77,556,514 reported for 1951.

Freight revenue amounted to $71,844,654 in 1952, a gain of 8.9 per cent over 1951. While tons of revenue freight handled last year were about the same as in 1951, revenue ton miles increased by 1.1 per cent, the report explained. And the average rate per ton mile was 1.621 cents, compared to 1.505 in 1951.

Passenger revenue, at $4,589,548, showed a decline of 7.5 per cent, despite the fact that there was a slight increase in the number of passengers hauled. However, the average trip per passenger decreased from 253 miles in 1951 to 233 miles last year.

Mail revenue accounted for $3,385,980, or an increase of 2.6 per cent over 1951. Also, Texas and Pacific's proportion of the Railway Express Agency's net revenue for distribution to railroads totaled $1,410,261, an increase of 42.3 per cent over 1951.

The company's net income was $11,655,792.

Wages accounted for the largest item of operating expenses during last year, with $33,827,685, or 59.7 per cent of the operating expenses. Cost of fuel was $3,030,980, and other materials and supplies required expenditures amounting to $9,722,945.

Expenditures for maintenance of way and structures totaled $11,232,331, and expenses for maintenance of equipment totaled $13,398,115.

Railway tax accruals for 1952 were $10,083,070, while state ad valorem, franchise, gross receipts and miscellaneous taxes totaled $1,443,322. Payroll taxes included $1,837,852 federal excise tax for the retirement of employees, and $145,000 unemployment insurance contributions under the Railroad Employment Insurance Act. Provision for federal income taxes amounted to $6,655,846.

Cash outlay for additions and improvements during the year totaled $3,891,583, initial cash payment for new equipment was $2,151,589, and installment payments due on equipment previously purchased amounted to $2,939,766.

Howard County Judge R. H. Weaver stated today that commissioners aim to clear the square just as quickly as possible.

Commissioners have considered the razing problem several times but have not agreed at a definite conclusion. They discussed the advisability of taking bids with Bill French, engineer, Monday.

Weaver stated that bids will probably be taken and that advertising will be started soon enough to enable razing when present structures are vacated.

However, Weaver stated that commissioners will make sure reputable individuals get the job of tearing down present structures.

Proximity of old structures to the new courthouse make it necessary that careful jobs be done.

Weaver stated that the new courthouse could be damaged if walls on the present courthouse do not fall the right way.

Chile Plans Protest Of Property Damage On Island By British

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP)—Chile says it will protest immediately to the Organization of American States against Britain's destruction of Chilean and Argentine installations on Deception Island, near the Antarctic Circle.

The island, in the South Shetland group, is claimed by both countries. In February, British forces demolished buildings, erected by the two Latin American nations and forcibly deported an Argentine citizen from the island.

Nuclear Research Groups Ending Meet

ROME (AP)—The 10-member European Council for Nuclear Research held final sessions today on plans to bring Europe abreast of the United States in atomic research.

The members are Belgium, Denmark, France, Germany, Italy, The Netherlands, Norway, Sweden, Switzerland and Yugoslavia. Britain also is represented and may join.

Rubber Workers Out As Strike Toll Rises

Thursday involved 3,500 CIO utility workers union against the Southern California Gas Co. Wages, a union shop and other demands are involved in the dispute over a new contract. The average wage of the workers is $1.86 an hour.

The strike of 4,500 United Auto Workers and 1,100 AFL machinists at the General Electric Company plant in Evendale, O., was in its 20th day. The walkout has stopped production of jet engines used in war planes.

Nearly 50,000 workers have been made idle in steel and steel-related industries owned by U. S. Steel Corp. in Pennsylvania. The unemployment resulted from a strike started Monday by 1,500 Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen on a connecting line serving the company's district plants near Pittsburg.

The U. S. Rubber workers started walking off their jobs after the midnight deadline in contract negotiations. No wage issue is involved in the dispute. Issues included hospitalization, pension plan revision and the length of the new contract.

Five Dead In Big K.C. Fire

KANSAS CITY, (AP)—A fast-spreading fire swept through a 45-family apartment building near downtown Kansas City yesterday, killing five persons, three of them firemen.

Fifteen persons were injured. The firemen were crushed to death when two porches and part of a wall collapsed on them. They were Don A. Nastajko, 32; Joseph P. Cooney, 39; and Melvin Kurtz, 30.

The bodies of the two other victims—Mrs. Willard Coon, 22, and her 2-year-old daughter Mary—were found in their third-floor apartment.

Some residents trapped in their rooms escaped the flames by descending ladders. At least three were forced to leap into firemen's nets.

Depth Record Noted By Reeves Wildcat

ODESSA (AP)—The Gulf Oil Corp. reported a new depth record for the main portion of the West Texas-New Mexico oil region.

The Jack Frost No. 1 P. G. Northrup wildcat in Reeves County reached 16,018 feet in lime and shale yesterday. It was 20 feet deeper than the previous record set by a Gulf wildcat failure in unproductive Presidio County.

The record-setter is about 24 miles southeast of Pecos. No production has been proved at this depth.

Craddock Is New C-C Manager At Colorado City

COLORADO CITY—Frank Craddock, Hillsboro, is due to assume his duties as Chamber of Commerce manager here late this month.

His acceptance was announced here Wednesday by Frank Masad, president of the Colorado City Chamber of Commerce. The post has been vacant since the fore part of 1952. Masad named Jeff Taylor as chairman of a special committee to plan a welcoming banquet for the new manager. Craddock, about 60, has been secretary and general manager of the Hill County Chamber of Commerce for the past eight years.

He has devoted much time to youth activities, particularly those in rural areas. The chamber has sponsored two livestock shows a year, has a youth dairy training show, a Sear's Foundation pig program, corn and cotton contest, a cotton fiesta for the first time. He also has worked with adults on agricultural development, particularly dairying.

Craddock was selected to re-write the Hillsboro city charter for the first time in 50 years. He also has been active in promoting the school system in Hillsboro. During his tenure with the Chamber, 10 large industries have been brought to the city. He was interested with his organization in supporting the Whitney Dam project.

Bob J. Nobles, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Nobles, 405 Washington Blvd., will soon complete his basic training at Lackland Air Force Base.

After completion of basic, he will be sent to an Air Force technical school for training in specialized work. Lackland is near San Antonio.

Bobby G. Hodges, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert D. Hodges, 504 Donley, is now at Yokosuka, Japan, for assignment to fleet activities.

Hodges is a graduate of Big Spring High School. He entered the Navy in October, 1952, and is now a fireman.

CANDIDATES SPEAK OUT

This is one of the statements being made by candidates for the school board in response to an invitation by the Herald. These are being carried in the hope of presenting the people and their views who have offered to serve 700-282.

At your request I am setting forth in this letter my ideas and ideals concerning our local school system. I have been living in Big Spring almost twenty years during which time I have been closely associated with our schools in one capacity or another. Twelve of these years were spent as a teacher and for the past six years I have served on the Board of Trustees. During this period of time I have had many opportunities to observe both the good points and the bad points of our school system and I sincerely believe that the good points greatly outweigh the bad points. While our schools fall short in many respects, I do not feel that under the present administration we have made much progress and that now we rank with the best in the state.

Much of the criticism directed at our schools is due to a lack of understanding. We are confronted with many problems but steady progress is being made in solving these problems and they can be overcome quickly by school-community co-operation.

We must realize that our schools are an integral part of our community and when we improve the schools we improve the community. Likewise when the life of the community improves our schools are made better. Thus the greatest growth occurs when the school and the community work together.

I am deeply concerned with the welfare and development of our boys and girls and if I can be of some assistance in bringing about better educational advantages for them I shall be happy to serve.

Sincerely yours,
Dan Conley

Men In Service

Approximately 11,041 license plates were issued in Howard County through purchase deadline Wednesday.

Mrs. Viola Robinson, county tax assessor-collector, stated today that a 20 per cent penalty will be charged those who did not purchase their plates in time.

However, she said that if the purchaser signs an affidavit stating his car has not been used since April 1, the penalty will not be charged.

A total of 8,593 passenger plates were sold to county residents. Last year approximately 7,500 plates were issued.

Commercial licenses totaled 1,408, farm plates 375, truck-tractor tags, 145, and trailer plates 375. Miscellaneous tags for motorcycles, buses, dealers, and house trailers totaled about 150.

Passenger license plates in Howard County started with the number CA 9900 and went through CA 9999. Then they started again with CB 10 and went through CB 8592 yesterday.

Mrs. Robinson stated that plates through CB 8528 had been issued this morning. This means that 26 purchasers today were delinquent and either paid the penalty or signed affidavits.

Twenty-five people have filed for school board posts in the county. Elections will be held Saturday to fill vacancies on the county school board and the boards of 11 districts. Polls will open at 8 a.m. and close at 7 p.m.

Eight people are running for three openings on the Big Spring Independent School District Board. Three are running for three vacancies at Knott, three for two vacancies at Coahoma, and two for two openings at Forsan.

Five people are running for three openings on the Gay Hill Common School District Board, and two people have announced for the one opening at Midway.

Two have announced for the county trustee openings. Vacancies occur this year in Precinct 1 at Knott and Precinct 2 covering Midway, Forsan and Coahoma.

Fred Roman of Knott and J. D. Gilmore of Forsan have announced for county board posts. C. A. Denton and Woodrow Robinson are running at Midway, Robinson being the incumbent.

The five in the race at Gay Hill are A. N. Anderson, Neil D. Spencer, Jim Zikes, Jeff Painter and Louis Underwood. Terms are up for Sam Buchanan, A. N. Anderson and Charles Sweeney.

Ed J. Carpenter, C. E. Galbraith, and W. R. Morrison are in the race for a place on the Coahoma Independent School District Board.

Claud King, J. M. Blake and O. N. Lancaster are running for places on the Knott Independent School District Board. At Forsan, Henry Park and A. O. Jones are running.

The eight Big Spring contestants are Dan Conley, R. E. McKinney, Mrs. Shelby Read, Dr. Akin Simpson, David Elrod, Clyde Angel, H. L. Shirley, and Mrs. Elvis McCrary.

Write-in votes will be taken at Center Point, Elmhor, Cauley, LeMay and Vealmore. No one has announced for positions at any of these schools, and one post is open at each.

Vandalism Report Is Only Police Matter On Wednesday Night

One report of vandalism Wednesday night was the only thing to break the routine of police patrols.

Some boys were reported throwing rocks at street lights at 22nd and Main about 7:15 p.m. Their aim apparently was poor and the youths were gone by the time officers arrived.

Otherwise, with only a couple of routine "drunk" calls, police considered it one of their quieter nights.

Vagabond On 'Tour,' Pays Visit To City

A man who styles himself "King Cole, King of the Hobos," in Big Spring yesterday and today, apparently has no fear of vagrancy laws.

He approached, unannounced, City Judge William E. Greenlee, and City Manager H. W. Whitley with requests for lunch money today.

The vagabond said he was on his fifth world tour. The trip will make about 50 across the United States, he reported.

11,041 License Plates Issued By Deadline

Approximately 11,041 license plates were issued in Howard County through purchase deadline Wednesday.

Mrs. Viola Robinson, county tax assessor-collector, stated today that a 20 per cent penalty will be charged those who did not purchase their plates in time.

However, she said that if the purchaser signs an affidavit stating his car has not been used since April 1, the penalty will not be charged.

A total of 8,593 passenger plates were sold to county residents. Last year approximately 7,500 plates were issued.

Commercial licenses totaled 1,408, farm plates 375, truck-tractor tags, 145, and trailer plates 375. Miscellaneous tags for motorcycles, buses, dealers, and house trailers totaled about 150.

Passenger license plates in Howard County started with the number CA 9900 and went through CA 9999. Then they started again with CB 10 and went through CB 8592 yesterday.

Mrs. Robinson stated that plates through CB 8528 had been issued this morning. This means that 26 purchasers today were delinquent and either paid the penalty or signed affidavits.

Twenty-five people have filed for school board posts in the county. Elections will be held Saturday to fill vacancies on the county school board and the boards of 11 districts. Polls will open at 8 a.m. and close at 7 p.m.

Eight people are running for three openings on the Big Spring Independent School District Board. Three are running for three vacancies at Knott, three for two vacancies at Coahoma, and two for two openings at Forsan.

Five people are running for three openings on the Gay Hill Common School District Board, and two people have announced for the one opening at Midway.

Two have announced for the county trustee openings. Vacancies occur this year in Precinct 1 at Knott and Precinct 2 covering Midway, Forsan and Coahoma.

Fred Roman of Knott and J. D. Gilmore of Forsan have announced for county board posts. C. A. Denton and Woodrow Robinson are running at Midway, Robinson being the incumbent.

The five in the race at Gay Hill are A. N. Anderson, Neil D. Spencer, Jim Zikes, Jeff Painter and Louis Underwood. Terms are up for Sam Buchanan, A. N. Anderson and Charles Sweeney.

Ed J. Carpenter, C. E. Galbraith, and W. R. Morrison are in the race for a place on the Coahoma Independent School District Board.

Claud King, J. M. Blake and O. N. Lancaster are running for places on the Knott Independent School District Board. At Forsan, Henry Park and A. O. Jones are running.

The eight Big Spring contestants are Dan Conley, R. E. McKinney, Mrs. Shelby Read, Dr. Akin Simpson, David Elrod, Clyde Angel, H. L. Shirley, and Mrs. Elvis McCrary.

Write-in votes will be taken at Center Point, Elmhor, Cauley, LeMay and Vealmore. No one has announced for positions at any of these schools, and one post is open at each.

Vandalism Report Is Only Police Matter On Wednesday Night

One report of vandalism Wednesday night was the only thing to break the routine of police patrols.

Some boys were reported throwing rocks at street lights at 22nd and Main about 7:15 p.m. Their aim apparently was poor and the youths were gone by the time officers arrived.

Otherwise, with only a couple of routine "drunk" calls, police considered it one of their quieter nights.

Vagabond On 'Tour,' Pays Visit To City

A man who styles himself "King Cole, King of the Hobos," in Big Spring yesterday and today, apparently has no fear of vagrancy laws.

He approached, unannounced, City Judge William E. Greenlee, and City Manager H. W. Whitley with requests for lunch money today.

The vagabond said he was on his fifth world tour. The trip will make about 50 across the United States, he reported.

THE GRUB LINE

With Franklin Reynolds

"We don't need a rain maker, what we need is a wind stopper," remarked Ted Turner of the north end of Dawson County.

Then he went on to explain hopefully: "If we can just stop this wind we'll get the rain!"

At this point Bill Thomson of the Lamesa unit of the Soil Conservation Service took up the conversation and went on to tell about the mile and a half of fence he found down on the ground.

"The wind had blown the post holes away," he said.

Thompson also says he has learned a good way to distinguish a real West Texan.

"The real West Texan," as Thomson describes him, "is a man, who just before he ever goes outdoors will reach up and pull his hat down tight on his head, because he knows what to expect when he goes out the door."

Some interesting figures have been released by the Texas Extension Service on the dairy cattle population in the state.

Cows and heifers two-years-old-and-older kept for milk production in Texas as of Jan. 1, 1953, rose to 1,085,000 from 1,053,000 a year earlier. The compares with a 10-year (1942-51) average of 1,357,000 head.

Yearling heifers being kept for milk cows on Jan. 1 of this year in Texas numbered 266,000 compared with 248,000 held a year ago, and heifer calves numbered 301,000 the same as for last year.

These increases are in line with a national upsurge at the beginning of this year in numbers of heifers and cows being kept for dairy purposes, reversing a downward trend each year since 1946.

Across the nation, cows and heifers two-years-old-and-older being kept for milk production on Jan. 1, 1953, have been estimated by the Bureau of Agricultural Economics at 23,906,000 head, or three per cent more than on Jan. 1, 1952.

Yearling heifers being kept for milk cows totaled 5,970,000 head, an increase of four per cent over a year ago, and heifer calves kept for milk production are estimated at 6,913,000 head, or six per cent more than the number saved as replacements the year before.

At the beginning of 1952, the total number of cows kept for milk on farms in the United States was 23,369,000 head, the lowest in over 20 years and more than four million less than the record high of 27,770,000 reached in 1945.

Milk production per cow in Texas fell to 3,290 pounds in 1952, as compared with 3,300 pounds per cow in 1951. Average milk production per cow for the United States as a whole was estimated at 5,328 pounds in 1952, the highest record thus far achieved on a nationwide basis.

Recently this column referred to Bence O. Brown, a member of the board of supervisors of the Martin-Howard Soil Conservation District as a "conservationist."

When the proof readers, printers, or somebody else finally got the column into type it branded Brown as a "conservationist" whatever that is. By turning to the final authority we learn there is a "conservationist" and a "conversationalist."

But since there isn't such thing (that we can find) as a "conversationalist" we'll let either of the other descriptions go as far as Bence Brown is concerned since we've learned that a "conversationalist" is one "who excels in conversation."

The art of fine conversation, we're told, is one that is passing, a victim of the speeding, streamlined age of mechanization. Fine conversationalists are becoming fewer. Hence Brown, however, is one of the finest of these in other words a most interesting and entertaining talker, the sort that a man can't meet too often.

Now let's see what the operators, proof readers and printers do with these paragraphs.

One of the largest (if not the very largest) grass planting scheduled for Howard County is not being planned by a farmer or ranch, but by the military.

Marion Everhart, of the Big Spring SCS unit, reports that the Webb Air Force Base is arranging to plant from 1,200 to 1,700 acres in grass.

Everhart says the planting will include 2,600 pounds of Sideoats Grama; 1,100 pounds of King Ranch Bluestem; 3,400 pounds of Blue Grama and 5,000 pounds of Bermuda seed.

The first three listed will be seeded as a mixture, approximately six pounds to the acre in the proportion of one pound of KR Bluestem, three pounds of Blue Grama, and two pounds of Sideoats Grama.

The base is taking steps to become a co-operator with the Martin-Howard SCS.

Pete Ainsworth, who farms in the southeast Spade area of Mitchell County, has planted about 18 acres of cropland to adapted grasses.

He planted 10 acres of Blue Panic at the rate of two and one-half pounds to the acre using the Mitchell SCS's two-row grass and legume seeder. He seeded the Blue Panic on a flat, firm seedbed in 40-inch rows.

Ainsworth sowed three acres to King Ranch Bluestem broadcast at the rate of five pounds per acre, and three acres to Sideoats Grama at the rate of nine pounds per acre. These two broadcast plantings were made with the grass seed drill on a seedbed like that for the Blue Panic. Ainsworth says he has about 75 acres of cropland to seed to grass on this farm and he is planning on harvesting seed from these plantings to finish up the job. His 125-acre native pasture will be rested this year to improve the grass vigor, the ground cover, to increase the density and build up the surface litter, and at the same time the deferment will keep the young grass seedlings from being grazed until they are well established.

Another Mitchell Countyman, Royce Mahon, who lives in the North Lorraine Community, has recently fertilized his 14-acre alfalfa patch with 20-60-0 which gives him 30 pounds of nitrogen and 60 pounds of phosphorus to the acre.

The recommendation for this fertilizer was made by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service following an analysis of a soil sample taken from the alfalfa field and forwarded to College Station for a test.

This alfalfa is being irrigated and it looks like he will have an unusually early hay crop unless some untimely and unexpected freeze comes along. Mahon says he expects to get five or six cuttings this year with a very high yield each cutting.

Jess Jenkins of the Lamesa unit of the SCS says he needs some help—from farmers who have been using district equipment.

Somebody borrowed the small cyclone handseeder and forgot to return it. Somebody else used one of the funnel seeders and failed to return it. Jess says he hopes whoever has these is a Grub Line reader, that they'll read this one and return these items.

The cyclone seeder is used to broadcast small areas to grasses and legumes, and the funnel seeder is one of a set of four and the set is now useless for four-row planting until the missing seeder is found.

Cards Out To Prove They're In Scrap

Stanky's Boys Pound Atlanta

By BEN PHLEGAR
Associated Press Sports Writer
Now that they've shaken the Florida sand from their shoes, the St. Louis Cardinals are setting about to prove that they are as good as their spring record indicates.

With a feast of minor-league pitching ahead of them the Red Birds should be able to pull into their Sportsman's Park home with a better than 500 average even though they won only 3 of 22 in Florida.

Yesterday in their first outing since leaving St. Petersburg, the Cards pounded out a 12-4 decision over Atlanta of the Southern Association. They will continue to meet Southern Association and Texas League teams until they face the Browns in the St. Louis big series starting a week from Saturday.

The important thing to the Cardinals is yesterday's triumph was the way their rookies came through. Third baseman Ray Jablonski faced a triple and a home run. Steve Bilko, who can have the first base job for keeps if he can hit, drove in four runs with a triple and two singles. Outfielder Rip Repulski tripled and little Jackie Collum hurled three scoreless innings and hit a home run.

Manager Eddie Stanky has claimed all along that his club's early spring record didn't mean a thing because he was experimenting. He insisted the training camp was the place to find out what his new men could do and that a victory in March wasn't worth a dime in a September pennant drive. Stanky is sure to have liked what he saw in Atlanta.

The quality in other exhibitions across the country yesterday varied from very good—in Clearwater, Fla., and Mobile, Ala.—to farcical—in Denver.

At Clearwater, the Richie Ashburn homered in the first inning and Smoky Burgess did the same in the 10th to give the Philadelphia Phillies a 2-1 extra-inning victory over the New York Yankees.

At Mobile, in another 10-inning contest, the Brooklyn Dodgers edged the Milwaukee Braves, 2-2. Rookie Bob Buhl scattered four hits as he went the first nine for Milwaukee but the Dodgers got to Lew Burdette for three safeties and the winning run in the 10th.

Jayhawks Ended 1952-53 Season With 3,154 Points

Corrected totals give Bobby Williams, H.C.J. sophomore from Dallas, 719 points for the 1952-53 basketball season. Williams took part in 40 games, averaging 18 points a game.

Four other members of the great '52-53 Jayhawk team averaged 10 or more points a contest. Casey Jones, Odessa soph, ended up with 584 points while Charley Warren was way over the 500-point mark for the season with 531 to his credit. Bobby Maines, who missed one game during the season, lacked only seven points of making 500 points for the year.

The Hawks scored the amazing total of 3,154 points for a 78.9 game average. It was far and away their best season in history. They won 34 games, nine more than their next best season in history.

Individual scoring table with columns for Player, G, FG, FT, PTA, PF, TP, AYO.

Compete For Jobs

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart
This fellow Joe McCarthy is a piker compared to Ben Peeler, the Odessa scribe.

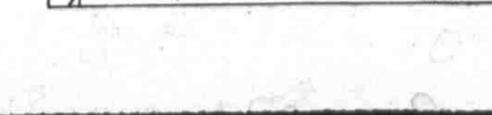

Peeler is campaigning to relieve Big Spring of its franchise in the Longhorn League. Also, Lamesa, Artesia, Roswell and Carlsbad. Peeler sees no future in the professional sport for those places. He says they are financially weak and proposes to consolidate what he refers to as the stronger clubs in the WT-NM and Longhorn circuits into one compact organization. In that category, Peeler would put Odessa, Midland, San Angelo, Lubbock, Amarillo, Abilene and El Paso of the Arizona-Texas League. He doesn't say which towns he'd add to fill out the league. It could be Denver of the Western League, a fair country ball town, and Fresno of the California League, both of which had respectable years at the gate in 1952.

Peeler sobs the teams shouldn't be allowed to pull down the strong, adding some of the teams won't be able to raise the money to operate in 1954.

"Realignment," writes he, "must come to West Texas as it has to the majors. The question now is whether the various clubs will wait too late—as Bill Veeck (of the St. Louis Browns) did."

Peeler undoubtedly has been reading too much after Harry Gilstrap of Amarillo. Gilstrap, one gathers, wants no truck with the likes of Odessa and Midland, however, Amarillo deserves AA bookings, and that is that.

Since when has baseball become a dog-eat-dog business, in which no little operative dares risk a buck or two?

6-Year-Old May Become Turf's Best Sprinter

By TED MEIER
NEW YORK (AP)—Squared Away may turn out to be the turf's 1953 sprint champion.

The Jan Burke six-year-old demonstrated yesterday that he is ready for what could be his greatest season in racing. The ease with which he won the $25,000-added Paumonok Handicap, at Jamaica emphasized the consideration that should be given him in future sprint events for older horses.

And if he retains his sharp form, Squared Away certainly will be a strong contender for championship honors when voting time arrives in the fall.

Squared Away's victory in the Paumonok featured the opening of New York's 196-day racing season before a crowd of 40,364, which wagered $2,900,207 on the eight-race card.

Packing out weight of 125 pounds, including jockey Jimmy Nichols, Squared Away made a show of a good field of sprinters such as Hitek, Sagittarius, First Glance, Count Flame and Bryan G.

Breaking from No. 7 post position Nichols shot Squared Away into the lead soon after the start. The six-year-old gelding widened the gap to four lengths and crossed the finish line 3 1/2 lengths ahead of Bryan G.

A $7.20 second choice to Hitek, ridden by Eddie Arcaro, Squared Away must have enjoyed his outing. He finished with his ears pricked just like a puppy in a playful mood. He was timed in 1:10 1-5.

ACC Tracksters To Birmingham
ABILENE (AP)—Six Abilene Christian College track men will go to Birmingham, Ala., Saturday to compete in the Southern Relays.

Coach Oliver Jackson is taking his three relay teams that won in the Texas Relays last week end—the 440-yard, 880-yard and mile-plus high jumper relay teams.

REALIZE JOB AHEAD

Marciano Backers Respect Walcott

HOLLAND, Mich. (AP)—The Rocky Marciano camp is far from brimming over with confidence as the time approaches for the heavyweight champion's defense against Jerry Joe Walcott.

Neither Manager Al Weill nor trainer Charley Goldman will let the champ forget he was trailing on points and being soundly out-boxed by Walcott before the explosive 14th-round finish of their blistering Sept. 23 fight.

"It doesn't make any difference how weak Walcott might have finished at Philadelphia, if he stayed on his feet, Marciano couldn't have won a decision," Weill said.

"We don't know how Walcott may fight this time, but if the pattern is the same, the pressure again will be on Rocky."

Goldman has been grooming Marciano to dish out heavy body punishment to the 38-year-old Walcott to hasten the wearing-down process. At the same time, he has been conditioning the Rock for either a victorious early attack by Jersey Joe or a crowding chase if the former champ goes bicycling.

"This should be an even-money fight," said Goldman. "Nobody knows better than Rocky that Walcott can punch. Although I don't think Jersey Joe can floor him again in the first round, Marciano was a pretty confused boy in the first round at Philadelphia—suddenly face-to-face with a champion. The left hook that decked Rocky was not as hard as several he took later without blinking."

Goldman explained that from now until Rocky breaks camp next Tuesday, he would have him "putting three minutes of boxing into every two-minute round."

FOLLOWING LAYNE WIN Charles Looks For Big Game

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Onetime Heavyweight Champ Ezzard Charles, back in the title hunt with a smashing 10-round win over tough Rex Layne, told the boxing world today "I think I can beat anyone now."

The Cincinnati Negro, 35, put on one of the finest battles of his lengthy ring career when he battered the Lewiston, Utah, gamesteer into a bloody hulk last night at Winterland.

Millions of nationwide television viewers and 7,500 fans at the indoor arena saw Charles floor Layne four times—in the first, sixth, seventh and tenth rounds.

Charles, fighting for a title shot, beat Layne in savage fashion. He pounded the 203-pound Rex in the mid-section and belted his head, with stinging left hooks and sharp right crosses to the face. Layne was groggy from the sixth round on.

The decision was a mere formality. Referee Frankie Corrieri and Judge Toby Irwin each gave it to Charles 60-51. Judge Johnny Latis called it 60 1/2 to 49 1/2.

TV To Be Taken To Ball Park
TEMPLE (AP)—General Manager Bob Conwell of the Temple Big State League club says "We can't lick television so we'll join them."

He's going to bring TV to the ball park so the fans can see their shows and also watch the ball games.

Baseball men say the biggest crowd killer has been fans staying home to look at TV.

Conwell has constructed a TV room in the ball park where a set will operate while the Temple club plays only a ball throw away.

WITH CLEAN SWEEP Dairy Maid Grabs Bowling Crown

Dairy Maid won the Men's Bowling League championship with a clean sweep over Mathis Studio in matches this week. A big $50 trophy will go to the titlist.

Lee Hanson's lost a chance for a tie by dropping the third of three games to Seagram's by a 20-point margin. Hanson's had won the first two games.

In other matches, West Texas Roofing Company took three games from Singlet Oil and the Eagles Club two from Big Spring Herald.

High series was bowled by Bill Taylor, a Seagram's sub, with 163-51. The top game was registered by the Big Spring Herald's Fred Greene with a 218.

Fred also had a 555 for second high series and P. W. Self of Dairy Maid tied with Phillip Palmer, Lee Hanson's, for second high singles with 214's.

High team was Dairy Maid with 914-2544. Lee Hanson's was close with 893-2521.

Members of the championship club are Crickett Hale, Virgil Long, T. W. Campbell, Winnie Cunningham, Mummy McDaniel and P. W. Self.

For the season, E. B. Dozier Jr.'s 243 and 613 stood up as game and series high. Dozier also posted a 234 and series scores of 612 and 594. He wears the shirt of the Seagram's team.

H. I. Bankston, Big Spring Herald, boasted the best single game, with 253.

Best score in single game over the course of the season was posted by Dairy Maid, with a 925. Singlet Oil had a 923. The best aggregate was recorded by Dairy Maid, which had a 2604, followed by Seagram's with 2550.

Dairy Maid's winning margin was 49 against 35 losses. Hanson's had 48 wins and 38 reversals, followed by Seagram's 46 and 38. West Texas Roofing's record was 45-39. Eagles Club 41 1/2-42 1/2. Singlet Oil 40 1/2-43 1/2. Big Spring Herald 39-45 and Mathis Studio 27-57.

FINAL HOME GO TONIGHT

Followers of the Big Spring High School girls' volleyball team get a last chance to see the lasses in action this evening.

The Steerettes wind up practice for the district tournament in an 8:00 o'clock contest with Odessa in the High School Gym. The locals will be seeking their 20th victory of the year.

Teams of the two schools open play at 6 p.m. There'll be a string game at 7 p.m. Rosemary Rice, one of the best players ever developed here by Coach Argh Phillips, plays her last home game for the Steerettes.

ABCLUB RELAYS FIELD GROWS AS MEET NEARS

Thirty-one teams have now filed entry lists for the ninth annual American Business Club Relays, which take place at Steer Stadium here Saturday. More are due today and Friday.

Abilene's Eagles are still slight favorites to cop the team trophy but strong competition can be expected from Amarillo, Midland, Odessa, O'Donnell, Colorado City and some of the Permian Basin teams.

High school coaches and attendants will spend today and Friday conditioning the track for the big meet, which should be the best in the history of the show.

Schools which have already forwarded entry lists are: Coahoma, Lorraine, Anton, Snyder, Wink, Olton, Colorado City, Sweetwater, Stanton, Brownfield, Garden City, Abilene, Denver City, Monahans, Lubbock, Phillips, Seminole, Andrews, Friona and Amarillo.

Also Midland, O'Donnell, Borger, Abilene, Crane, Fort Stockton, Plainview, Roby, Odessa, Foran and Big Spring.

Officials here are hoping for a clear, still day. Records are due to fall wholesale in the meet, if the elements co-operate.

New Sports Director
HOUSTON (AP)—Jack A. Scott has succeeded Robert J. McCarthy as sports promotion director of the University of Houston.

McCarthy resigned effective yesterday. Scott had been sports promotion assistant.

San Antonio's Lesbia Lobo Latest Golfing Sensation

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—The latest golf sensation in Texas, where more star linksters are produced than in any other state, is Lesbia Lobo.

She's two years too young to vote but she's already state champion. In six years she has spent more time powdering a golf ball than her nose. She has racked up the 1951 Mexican national women's championship, the 1952 Texas Public Links title and the 1953 Texas state women's championship, not to mention a variety of lesser trophies that have overcrowded the bookcase she uses for such things.

Not since Betty Jameson, another San Antonio product, won the Texas title has one so young dominated the crown. And last week during the state meet at the San Antonio Country Club, Miss Lobo demonstrated why her backers think she can be a world beater with more tournament experience behind her.

After settling down from a qualifying round of 82 (seven over women's par), Miss Lobo ruined five opponents with par golf that made her closest call a 3-and-2 victory over Mrs. Leonard Keating, a two-time champion, in the semifinals.

So completely did the San Antonio dominantly the finals that she closed out Mrs. W. K. Stripling of Fort Worth, 9 and 8, in the 36-hole final by equaling men's par during the second half of the day's play.

Fast finishes by Miss Lobo are nothing new. Last year, playing against the best pros in the country in the Betty Jameson Open in San Antonio, Lesbia turned in a 94-hole total of 82-76-74—222.

Now that isn't spectacular, but the figures tell the story of lack of experience in tough competition. The opening day, seven three-putt greens skyrocketed her out of contention. From then on, she played the par-72 Brackenridge Park layout in good style, and was only one stroke back of the lowest money winner (Mrs. Betty Mims Danoff of Dallas), and third low amateur.

Possessor of a powerful swing that has won driving contests with average distances of 225 yards, Miss Lobo was on the golf team at Jefferson High School in 1951 until the Texas Interscholastic League ruled the school's chances in state competition by ruling that golf was for "male contestants" only.

Cougars Triumph
HOUSTON (AP)—The University of Houston tennis team defeated Tulsa University, 6-0, yesterday in opening defense of its Missouri Valley Conference title.

HELP WANTED

We Can't Handle This Job All By Ourselves! You good folks can all relax for the next day or two—cause Ole Joe T. (Now Boys) Williamson and his first wife have gone to cool Colorado on business (he says) and we (namely Jimmie Felts and Milt Frederick) would like to make a good showing while the little feller is gone. So come on down and take advantage of us.

WE PROUDLY LIST BELOW THE SCRAP IRON JOE WANTS US TO GET RID OF.

1952 FORD Customline convertible coupe. Radio, heater, premium white wall tires, 6,000 actual miles. Color solid black.

1949 BUICK Super 4 door. Cleanest thing we ever seen. Got everything but a kitchen sink.

1950 PONTIAC 2-door sedan. Radio, heater and straight drive—straight fenders and a straight deal.

1951 STUDEBAKER 2-door sedan. If you're the quiet man this one will suit. No radio, but has heat and overdrive.

1951 CADILLAC '62' sedan. Low mileage—clean—ready—beautiful—and for sale. BUY NOW.

1952 FORD Customline 2-door sedan. Radio, and heater, 9,000 miles. Two-tone paint and looks NEW.

JOE T. WILLIAMSON SPECIAL
1952 NASH Rambler Sedan Country Club. Music, overdrive and furnace. Grandpa's favorite color. Crap shootin' black and yellow. Let's buy this one while Joe Williamson is out of town.

And several other pieces of scrap iron that we need to sell . . . CHEAP.

Cars on two lots. At our lot and next door at the Y.M.C.A.

Area Doctors Expected Here For Medical Society Meeting

Seventy-five to 100 West Texas doctors are expected in Big Spring Friday for a meeting of the Second District Medical Society.

Discussions by some of Texas' leading physicians and surgeons, as well as an address by Dr. T. C. Terrell, president of the State Medical Association, will highlight the event.

Arrangements for the Second District meeting have been under the direction of Dr. John E. Hogan, president, and Dr. Arch D. Carson, secretary-treasurer, both of Big Spring.

Dr. R. B. G. Cowper of Big Spring has been selected to extend greetings to visiting doctors who are expected from Abilene, Lubbock, San Angelo, Odessa, Midland and intermediate points.

Program will commence at 9 a. m. with registration on the Hotel Settles mezzanine. Auxiliary members, as well as members of the Medical Society, face a full day's program which is to be concluded with a dinner at 7:30 p. m., following which Dr. Terrell will speak.

A joint luncheon for doctors and wives also is planned and a social hour will be observed from 8:30 to 7:30 p. m.

The First Presbyterian Church, will pronounce the invocation for the opening of the physicians' meeting at 9:45 a. m. Dr. Cowper, councillor for the Second District, State Medical Association, then will welcome guests.

First lecturer—at 10 a. m.—will be Dr. Raleigh L. White, associate professor of surgery at the University of Texas Post Graduate School, Temple. He will discuss "Indications for Surgical Treatment of Peptic Ulcers."

Dr. Gilbert B. Forbes, Dallas, professor of pediatrics and chairman of the pediatric department, Southwestern Medical School, will speak on "Fever in Children of Obscure Etiology." Dr. Forbes also is chief of pediatric service at Parkland and Children's Hospitals in Dallas.

THEY PAY FOR THEMSELVES AND MORE

City Gets Average Of $3,341 Monthly From Parking Meters

By WAYLAND YATES
It's a pretty fair investment that'll amortize itself in a year. The City of Big Spring is in on a deal like that. Parking meters installed here now are paying for themselves each year.

Revenue per meter for the past year averaged $68 or a little better. And the city last January purchased 200 additional meters—at a cost of $60.50 apiece.

Actually, Big Spring's parking meters are bringing in considerably more than $68 each per year. The $68 average for the past year is based on the 585 meters now in service, but there weren't that many meters in operation for the entire year.

Not taken into consideration in the calculation of revenue is maintenance costs which, on the per-meter basis, probably is less than $5 per meter.

Monthly receipts from the Big Spring meters averaged $3,341 for the first 11 months of this fiscal year. That's about $500 per month more than the parking clocks brought in during the first year they were in service, indicating fewer vacant parking spaces throughout the day at present.

In 1947, first full year the meters were in operation here, monthly receipts were, on the average, $2,835. Some 590 of the city's first 600 meters were installed late in 1946, with first revenue from this source rolling into the municipal till in December. Meter income for the first month was $2,678.39. The Big Spring "take" from parking meters is slightly higher than the national average for cities of its size. Parking meter manufacturers estimate the annual income per meter, on a national basis, is $67.43 for cities of 10,000 to 25,000 population.

Bigger towns do a lot better, with those of populations between a quarter and half million receiving about $90 per meter each year.

The manufacturers also estimate there are 1,113,000 parking meters in the country, and annual income from the parking regulators is in excess of $75,000,000. Which is beautiful nickels and pennies.

Big Spring's new shipment of parking meters, the first ordered since the initial 600, are now due. When they arrive, approximately 200 will be installed in the downtown area, replacing present meters which will be moved to outskirts of the business district, or used as spares.

Tommy Malone, the city's parking meter serviceman, says about 100 meters will be added to the 585 now set up as a result of the shuffle. The 200 and 300 blocks of Johnson and possibly the 200 block of East Fourth will receive some of the extra clocks.

The downtown replacements will be made as soon as the new meters arrive. They are expected in the next two weeks, said Malone.

Reports on meter receipts don't include foreign coins that wind up in the instruments. Malone estimates he finds 30 cents worth of Mexican and Canadian money in the meters every week.

Parking meters weren't designed or adopted as sources of revenue, although municipalities certainly don't frown on that phase of their operation. The meters are intended to encourage "turnover" of parking space. A driver, knowing he's supposed to put a nickel in every hour or two, isn't as prone to leave his car parked downtown as long as he might if there were no restrictions on use of parking space.

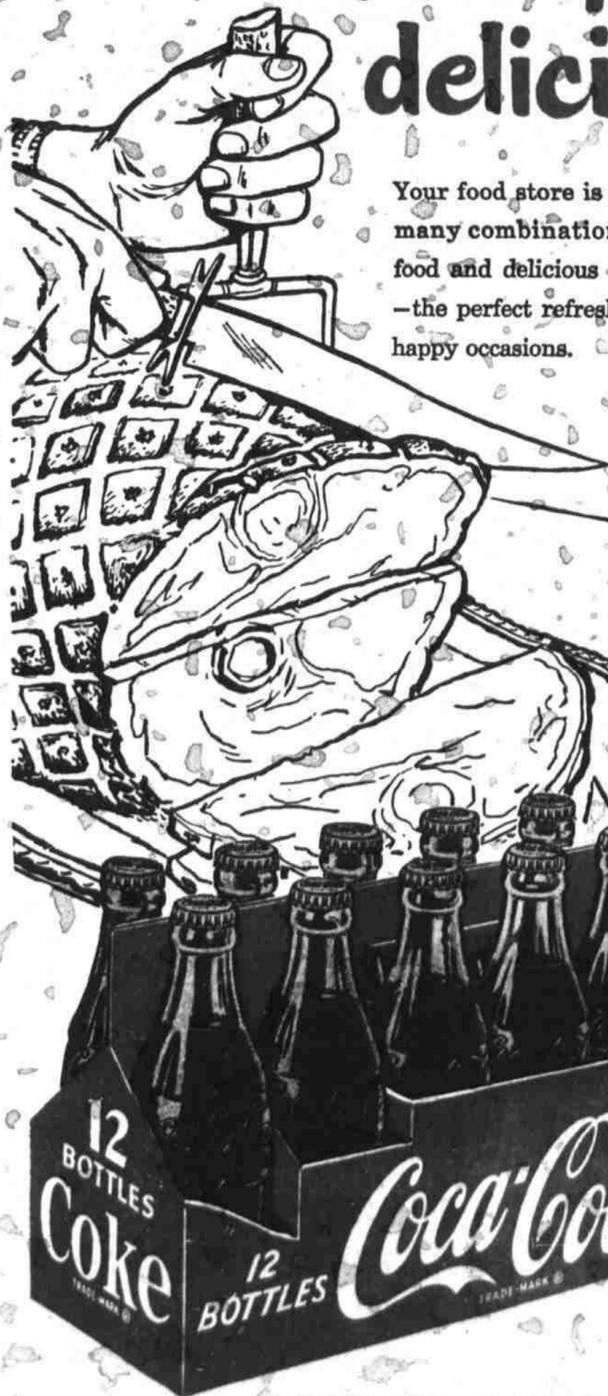

The clocks also have policemen the task of enforcing hour and two-hour parking restrictions which exist on some unmetereed streets.

Revenue from Big Spring parking meters, in addition to paying for the clocks, has covered the city's cost of a big paving program in 1948. It also financed construction of a sub firestation at 18th and Main. And the city plans to retire $100,000 in paving warrants now being issued with parking meter receipts during the next five years.

New Self-Service Drug Store

Elliott's Drug Store Sets Formal Opening On Friday

Formal opening of the Elliott's Drug Store at 1907 Gregg will inaugurate self-service in drugs and sundries and will focus attention on a new shopping center for the city.

J. D. Elliott and H. J. Morrison, both well known in the drug store field and throughout this area, have combined efforts as partners in the new store. It is, so far as they know, the first self-service drug store in West Texas.

Two other businesses are in the new center—the Elliott-Nabors building—at the northeast corner of the Gregg and Edwards intersection. The drug store is on the corner and immediately north is the Tot Shop, to be operated by Mrs. John I. Balch, and north of that will be Jake's Camping and Gun Store, operated by J. B. (Jake) Bruton.

The drug store is completely departmentalized to facilitate leisurely shopping by patrons. Only the cameras, combs and brushes, and some powders are engaged—everything else is in open display for individual selection. All displays are low so that a sweeping view may command the entire store.

There are two divisions in the 2,400-square foot enclosure. One is the fountain and snack bar—the other the drug department, which also includes sundries and light appliances.

The fountain is 21 feet long and is all of stainless steel. It also has a refrigerated sandwich unit. There are 11 stools and five booths capable of seating 31. Space is available to accommodate up to 47. In connection, there will be one of the largest magazine racks in the area.

Things are grouped so that shoppers can find what they want without difficulty in the drug department. For instance there will be such things as blenders, mixers, percolators, tea kettles, scales, etc. in the small appliance unit. Nearby are garden hose, scales, flashlights. One department embraces the laxative field, another covers liniments and salves, still another a broad variety of patent medicines.

There are counters, of course, for cosmetics and tonsorial supplies; for baby goods, food, supplies; for toys of all types; for cleaning fluids; for women's hosiery; for Pangburn candies; for ice creams and frozen confections to be carried home.

All during the opening day there will be gifts of various types. At times candy and hosiery will be given at each quarter hour; at others there will be free drinks for the women, ice cream for the children and cigars for the men. The first 500 women visiting will be given special favors.

Besides the general service that the store will provide for patrons, a specialty will be for private parties. On a few minutes notice the fountain department can serve drinks, ice cream or sandwiches to parties—and at a special discount. Thus, hostesses can have in friends without worrying about preparing refreshments or having to clean up after them.

U.S. Chamber Meet In Washington On Apr. 27 For 3 Days

WASHINGTON (U)—The Chamber of Commerce of the United States meets in Washington April 27 and expects to enjoy the climate.

"The meeting will be historic in the sense that it convenes in a political environment devoid of hostility to business," said Arch N. Booth, executive vice president. "That is in diametric contrast to the environment of the last 20 years."

The Chamber announced an intensive three-day schedule of meetings on taxation, social legislation, foreign policy, government economy and labor relations.

Named As Princess

WASHINGTON (U)—Betty Ann Kilday, daughter of Rep. Kilday (D-Tex.) has been named one of the princesses for the national cherry blossom festival here April 8-12.

TWO OF 'SHINE'S BOYS' Familiar Personalities Join In Local Self-Service Store

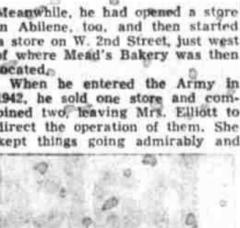

Two personalities familiar in the Big Spring area have teamed in a new venture, Elliott's Self-Service Drug at 1907 Gregg.

They are J. D. Elliott, who for 15 years operated from one to four stores here, and H. J. (Sunbeam) Morrison, who worked in a drug store before he could reach the cash register. They are a couple more of "Shine's boys," having worked here with Shine Philips.

Elliott came here in 1930 and went to work for Philips at the Settles Hotel store. In March 1934 he and Corrine Hardesty were married. The following February he acquired his first store, the Ritz Drug. A year later he took on the Lyric Drug, and in 1936 he purchased the Crawford Drug.

Meanwhile, he had opened a store in Abilene, too, and then started a store on W. 2nd Street, just west of where Mead's Bakery was then located.

When he entered the Army in 1942, he sold one store and combined two, leaving Mrs. Elliott to direct the operation of them. She kept things going admirably and when he returned in 1944, he got back into the swing. A year later they sold the Ritz store, and in 1946 sold the Crawford store to his brother-in-law, Frank Hardesty.

While he devoted most of his time to development and operation of 23 rental housing units here, Elliott also found time to dabble in the drug business again. He opened three stores in San Angelo in conjunction with two younger brothers, and the first of this year he turned them over to them.

Still, he was itching to get back into the trade. He and Oscar Nabors got together on plans to build an attractive shopping center at a key intersection on busy Gregg Street. Elliott joined with Morrison on plans to provide an increasingly popular type of merchandise in the drug field, that of self service. Together, they have spared no expense in decorating, equipping and stocking the store.

Morrison is a native of Big Spring. While he was just a small boy, he started hanging around the old Cunningham & Philips No. 1 store. Shine put him to work as an errand boy. Pretty soon he was sketting sodas and doing other things. Later, he helped Alfred Collins open his first store, and worked several years for him. In 1932 he left the drug business at Aransas Pass and attended Cumberland Law School. Subsequently, he was associated in a coin vending enterprise here for several years. He was married Dec. 31, 1937.

When he anticipated military service, he sold his business but it was a year and a half later before he was called up. Meanwhile, he worked for a time with the Texas Liquor Control Board. Following his separation from service, Morrison was assistant manager of the Chamber of Commerce before resigning to become secretary for the Texas Horse Breeders Association.

Bruton Gets His Camping Shop Ready For Business

While he won't be observing formal opening, J. B. (Jake) Bruton will have his camping and gun shop open Friday and thereafter.

Bruton, former police chief and sheriff here, is returning to his first love—gunsmithing and dealing in outdoors supplies. His store is on the north end of the new Elliott-Nabors shopping center and is at 1907-Gregg.

Because his portion of the building was the last to be finished, he did not order merchandise earlier than was necessary for April delivery. Possibly by the middle of the month he will have in his complete line of camping, hunting and fishing supplies.

Meanwhile, Bruton is setting up his gun shop for operations. Actually, he is taking in work, but the response is such that he has had to halt setting-up operations at times to attend to reloading, etc.

Since the first of the year he has reloaded 60,000 shells for pistols and high-power rifle bullets. Demand for his reloads is mounting rapidly.

Bruton has a stock of ammunition, including most of the hard-to-get sizes. He also has a store of rifles from leading manufacturers.

As a youth, Bruton apprenticed as a gunsmith and later followed the trade before he became a peace officer. He was with the Border Patrol, then on the police force here, served as its chief, and then became Howard County sheriff.

Ike Appointments Are Announced

WASHINGTON (U)—President Eisenhower gave the Senate Commerce Committee Wednesday power to examine income tax returns in a move the White House said was aimed at New York waterfront racketeers.

This was believed to mark the first time the White House has empowered the Commerce Committee to look at income tax returns.

In some other cases, congressional committees have been granted the privilege.

The Commerce Committee, under Sen. Tobey (R-NH), is looking into charges of racketeering and political influence in the dock areas of New York and northern New Jersey.

Eisenhower's press secretary, James Hagerty, said Tobey's committee will have access to income tax return data and other confidential material.

Stores Keep Up Resistance To Price Curbs

Lingan A. Warren, President of Safeway Stores Incorporated, in his annual report for 1952, told stockholders that even though price controls are terminated it is desirable to eliminate any possibility of the re-enactment of unfair and inequitable orders issued by price control officials during the past two years.

He told how the company during the year continued its efforts through protest and legal actions to correct the inequities in OPS regulations and to force the price control authorities to extend to Safeway and other food retailers the benefits and protections provided by law, when it became evident that price control officials would not act otherwise.

"It is our management's feeling that the benefits derived from these efforts more than offset the legal, accounting and research expenses incurred," Warren reported.

Aggregate net sales of Safeway and all subsidiaries during 1952 of $1,639,095,832, an increase of $184,452,216 or 12.68 per cent over net sales in 1951 which were $1,454,642,996.

1952 sales for the company and its consolidated subsidiaries in the United States were $1,484,129,254, an increase of $163,210,428 over 1951 sales. Net sales of the Canadian subsidiaries (in Canadian dollars) were $140,200,996 in 1952.

Net profits of the company and all subsidiaries for the year 1952, before provision for taxes, was $17,094,348 as compared with $13,318,809 in 1951. After allowing for a refund of excess profit taxes of $1,157,000 in 1951 and the payment of increased income taxes in 1952, the net profit, after taxes on income, for 1952 was $7,331,943 as compared with $7,615,851 in 1951.

77 Pct. Of U. S. State Employers Are Protected

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Census Bureau estimated today that 3,440,000, or 77 per cent, of some 4 1/2 million persons employed by state and local governments last year had retirement coverage.

It said they came under state and local government retirement plans or federal social security.

The bureau said that when it last investigated, 11 years ago, less than half had any form of retirement protection. Now, under the federal old age and survivors insurance (FOASI) program, which until three years ago, excluded state and local government employees.

The bureau said that in October, 1952, some 1,821,000 employees were members of state or local government retirement plans. Of these, about 85,000 were also covered by FOASI.

EASTER EGG HUNT

Final preparations are underway for the Easter Sunday egg hunt to be staged at Webb AFB. The Sunday afternoon affair, according to Chaplain (Lt.) John Little, project officer, will be held in the large area immediately north of building 261. Between 300 and 500 children of Air Force personnel ranging from two through 10 years of age are expected to take part in the hunt.

The young hunters will begin searching for the 12,500 candy eggs at three p.m.

ARMED FORCES DAY

A gigantic Armed Forces Day program is scheduled for Big Spring and Webb AFB according to Major Charles Brewton, base project officer for the event.

A tentative schedule has been announced by the program committee and includes: a parade through Big Spring with the Webb band, a Cadet detachment, the National Guard, Naval Reserve, VFW, American Legion and other units; a morning base review followed by flyovers and an aerial exhibition.

PRIZE DRAWING

The prize list in the Armed Forces Day benefit drawing, to be held at James Connally AFB Waco, Tex., is growing.

The list for the drawing which benefits the JCAFB welfare fund now includes: A 1953 Cadillac four sedan with all accessories; a $500 defense bond; a $1,000 diamond studded platinum ladies wrist watch.

Tickets are available at Webb, selling for $1 each.

AOP
An Airman Orientation Program, patterned after the one used successfully at Vance AFB, Oklahoma, is scheduled to get underway at Webb on or about April 15.

The program will be twofold in purpose, explaining to arriving airmen the advantages and facilities of WAFB and Big Spring, and showing the advantages of the Air Force as a career.

A four-day schedule has been mapped out to familiarize the incoming personnel with the base and areas surrounding it. Included are trips to points of interest in the Big Spring area and a complete tour of installations on the base.

Roxie Dobbins Is Lions Prexy

Roxie Dobbins, long-time member of the Couden Petroleum Corporation staff, was elected president of the Lions Club at the annual election Wednesday.

He, and other members of the official slate, will take office in July. Dobbins will succeed Robert R. McEwen.

On the board with him will be Gil Jones, first vice president; Jack Cook, second vice president; Clyde Angel, third vice president; Larson Lloyd, secretary-treasurer; Roy Worley, Lion Tamer; R. H. (Shorty) Snyder and Pete Cook, talkers; George Melear and W. O. Underwood, directors.

For the first time in years there were no nominees other than those returned by the nominating committee, but Harry L. Plumley was a write-in as "club sweetheart" and won going away. Traditionally, that post has to do with handling club music functions.

VA Workings Told To Lions

Cooperation of the community and its many agencies has contributed largely to the efficient operation of the Veterans Administration Hospital here, W. O. Underwood, manager, told the Lions Club at its regular meeting Wednesday.

He gave the club an insight into the operation of the big institution, pointing out that it serves the largest territory of any VA Hospital in the country. Patients regularly come from Abilene to El Paso, from Lubbock to San Angelo and the Border, and recently there were more than a score from out of territory. Average daily patient load is 140, he said. Annual budget approximates a million dollars.

"One interesting fact about the territory served primarily by the hospital is that it has doubled in population from the period 1940-50 and is still growing rapidly," said Underwood.

Guests at the club were Mickey Butts, El McComb and B. J. Wolfe.

Plans for the production of the sixth annual Lions Minstrel on April 10-11 were discussed further, members were urged to step up ticket sales. Rehearsals have been moved to the city auditorium and will be held there from now until time for the colorful show.

70,000 People With Cancer Were Saved During Past Year

NEW YORK (AP)—The American Cancer Society reports 70,000 cancer patients were saved last year and that the number could have been doubled if every case "had been treated early and by the most effective methods."

The society's board chairman, William J. Donovan, said in the annual report yesterday that about 220,000 Americans died of cancer last year.

The report is a prelude to the society's annual fund-raising campaign, which is seeking 15 million dollars this year—of 2 1/2 million more than was raised in 1952.

MRS. JORDAN GROOMS
... Madonnas from all over the world

Madonna Collection Takes On Deep Significance At This Time Of Year

Deeply significant all year long, the Madonnas figurines and paintings in Mrs. Jordan Grooms' collection take on special meaning during the great religious observances of Easter and Christmas.

One of Mrs. Grooms' favorites is a seated Madonna and Child sculptured by Sister Houmell and bought in Germany on the trip she and her husband took to the Holy Land last year.

She bought a carved mother of pearl statue, which can be worn as a pendant, in Bethlehem across the street from the place of the Nativity. She found other pieces in Florence, Italy and at the Vatican.

Her pictures include 28 interpretations of the Madonna. One favorite is a copy of "The Midnight Madonna" by Ferruzzi.

"We have entertained friends from Cuba and India on different occasions, and they all said that this painting was a favorite in their own countries," Mrs. Grooms says. "The friends from Cuba were missionaries, and the Indians were students studying in this country."

Another favorite painting is "The Madonna of the Adoration" by Sister Alphonsine of Amarillo. Pointing out a series of paintings from Mexico City, Mrs. Grooms contrasts the style of paintings and white in the German Madonnas with the vivid coloring of the Latins.

Her 12 figurines also include a wood carving which a friend bought at Oberammergau, scene of the famous passion play.

Interested as she is in her collection, Mrs. Grooms' main interest is in her family and people in general.

The Rev. Grooms is pastor of the First Methodist Church. Their children are Barton, 14, and Telle, 8. Mrs. Grooms is also the guardian of her niece and two nephews, Cagdice, Walter, and Gordon Dickson.

Here Are Three Meals From One Pork Roast

One of the neatest tricks in meat buying and cooking is the three-way use of a pork shoulder roast. If you buy a larger than usual roast—one weighing about 6 pounds—you can have it cut up for three completely different meat dishes.

Buying a large cut of meat usually proves to be an economy, as it often sells for less per pound than the individual cuts. From a large pork shoulder roast you can get three or four pork steaks, a chunky pork roast (which will serve your family for two or more meals) and diced pork for chop suey.

THREE-WAY PORK SHOULDER ROAST

Buy a 5 to 7 pound pork shoulder roast and ask your meat man to cut off three or four steaks. This makes meal No. 1.

Then ask him to cut a good sized chunk off the other end—about 1 1/2 pounds to cube for chop suey, pork and apple curry or sweet-sour pork. (Cutting off the steaks and the chop suey piece is a job you can do in your own kitchen, if you prefer, as the bone is in the center of the cut.) Ask your meat man to weigh the center cut pork roast and mark the weight on the package so you will know how long to cook it.

If you do not wish to prepare all three pork dinners successively, you can freeze two of the cuts in your home freezer or freezer compartment of your refrigerator for several weeks to use at a later date.)

1. Pork steak dinner
For juicy, tender pork steaks, braise them—do not fry or broil. Trim a little fat from the edge of the steaks and fry out in a large skillet or Dutch oven. Remove pieces and in the fat brown the floured steaks. Sprinkle with salt, pepper and perhaps a little thyme or sage; also add some chopped onions, if desired. Add 1/4 to 1/2 cup tomato juice or water, cover tightly and cook over low heat 45 minutes to 1 hour or until fork tender.

2. Pork roast dinner
"It's important to know the weight of this roast so as to accurately figure cooking time." Season the roast with salt and pepper and place on a rack in a shallow pan. Roast, uncovered, in a 325 F. oven, 50 minutes to the pound. To make the gravy, pour off most of the fat, stir in several tablespoons flour, and add hot water. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly until thickened. Season to taste with salt, pepper and sage.

3. Pork chop suey
Cut the remaining piece of pork into cubes and make into a tasty chop suey:

- Chop Suey
- 1 1/2 pounds diced pork
  - 3 tablespoons soy sauce
  - 1 cup sliced mushrooms (optional)
  - 1 cup sliced onions
  - 1/2 cups sliced celery
  - 1 teaspoon ginger
  - 1 teaspoon salt
  - 1 1/2 cups bouillon or water
  - 4 tablespoons cornstarch
  - 4 tablespoons soy sauce
  - 1 can bean sprouts, drained
  - Toasted almonds (optional)
- Cook pork and mushrooms in hot lard until lightly browned. Add onions, celery, seasonings and bouillon; cover and cook until tender, about 30 minutes. Thicken with cornstarch mixed to a paste with a little water. Add soy sauce and bean sprouts and cook slowly for 15 minutes. Season to taste and serve on hot rice or fried noodles sprinkled with toasted almonds.

New Macaroni Needing No Pre-Cooking Helps Cook

Macaroni main dishes in which the macaroni need not be pre-cooked can be used for easy casseroles and skillet dinners, saving many minutes of preparation time for the hurried homemaker.

Called "One Step Dinners," they cut down on pot washing, too, since no separate kettle is needed for boiling the macaroni.

Secret of the quick new meals is the liquid ingredient in which the macaroni cooks. In the recipes given below, tomato soup plus water provides the liquid for the Macaroni-Frankfurter Skillet Dinner, milk for the Quick Friday Casserole.

MAC-FRANK SKILLET DINNER

The ingredients you need:

- 1 7 oz. pkg. elbow macaroni
- 8 frankfurters
- 4 tbs. fat
- 1 cup thinly sliced onion
- 1 can condensed tomato soup
- 2 1/2 cups water
- 1/4 tsp. salt
- 1/4 tsp. pepper
- 1 tsp. Worcestershire sauce

Prepare this easy way: Melt fat in skillet. Cook onion slowly until yellow and transparent. In mixing bowl combine onion, tomato soup, water, salt, pepper, Worcestershire, green pepper. Split frankfurters lengthwise, then cut each piece in two. Arrange half of them in bottom of skillet; put half of uncooked noodles on top; then add half the sauce. Add remaining frankfurters, noodles and sauce. Cover and cook on low heat for about 30 minutes, or until macaroni is tender. Serves 6.

QUICK FRIDAY CASSEROLE

The ingredients you need:

- 1 7 oz. pkg. shell macaroni
- 1 3 cup sliced stuffed olives
- 1 can mushrooms
- 1 1/2 cups cubed American cheese
- 2 cups milk
- 1 tsp. salt
- Buttered bread crumbs

Prepare this easy way: Combine all ingredients, except crumbs. Pour in buttered casserole. Sprinkle crumbs over top. Cover. Bake in 400 degree oven 1 hour. After first 30 minutes of cooking, stir contents of casserole gently. Uncover during last 15 minutes to permit browning. Serves 6.

MAC-FRANK SKILLET DINNER

The ingredients you need:

- 1 7 oz. pkg. elbow macaroni
- 8 frankfurters
- 4 tbs. fat
- 1 cup thinly sliced onion
- 1 can condensed tomato soup
- 2 1/2 cups water
- 1/4 tsp. salt
- 1/4 tsp. pepper
- 1 tsp. Worcestershire sauce

Prepare this easy way: Melt fat in skillet. Cook onion slowly until yellow and transparent. In mixing bowl combine onion, tomato soup, water, salt, pepper, Worcestershire, green pepper. Split frankfurters lengthwise, then cut each piece in two. Arrange half of them in bottom of skillet; put half of uncooked noodles on top; then add half the sauce. Add remaining frankfurters, noodles and sauce. Cover and cook on low heat for about 30 minutes, or until macaroni is tender. Serves 6.

EGG VEGETABLE CUTLET

4 beaten eggs
2 1/2 cups cooked mixed vegetables
2 1/2 cups oatmeal, uncooked
1 tablespoon chopped onion
1 teaspoon salt
Pepper to taste
2 tablespoons fat

To the beaten eggs add vegetables, oatmeal, onion, salt and pepper. Melt the fat in a frying pan and drop in the vegetable mixture by spoonful. Brown on both sides. This makes 12 cutlets.

Potatoes Can Give Variety To Use Of Ground Beef

The list of main dishes that may be prepared with ground beef is unlimited. And here are three novel servings to add to your list.

1. Meat Cups with Creamed Potatoes gives a tempting, thrifty combination with a different twist. Combine 1 pound of ground beef with 1/4 cup of dry bread crumbs, 1/2 cup of milk, 1 teaspoon salt and 1/2 teaspoon pepper. Press this mixture into small muffin pans to a depth of 1/4 inch.

2. Then fill with the creamed potatoes. Let them bake in a slow oven for 45 minutes.

3. Another food dollar stretcher is a Meat-Potato Roll. Combine 1 1/2 pounds of ground meat with 1/4 cup of cracker crumbs, 1 egg, 3/4 cup of milk and 1/2 teaspoon of pepper. Spread the mixture on waxed paper to 1/2 inch thick making a rectangle about 6 x 10 inches. Spread with 2 cups of mashed potatoes. Roll like a jelly roll, then place in a roasting pan and bake 1 1/2 hours in a moderate oven.

4. Meat-Potato Burgers give you a third dish. Mix 1 pound of ground beef with 2 cups of coarsely grated unpeeled potato, 1/4 cup of grated onion, 1 1/2 teaspoons of salt and 1/4 teaspoon of pepper. Shape into 8 patties and broil or panbroil.

Cabbage Is Ahead As A Thrifty Food

When you shop for fresh vegetables these days, you aren't going to find a very wide variety. But one of the best buys around is our old friend, the cabbage.

There's the creamy white head of cabbage—round, compact and very hard, known to your grocer as the Danish type cabbage. You'll also find the much-sought-after savoy cabbage. This is a domestic cabbage and easily recognized by its deep green color and tender crisp leaves.

The Danish and Domestic cabbages don't, by any means, cover the varieties of cabbages. Not counting all the cabbages developed in the Netherlands, Denmark, Germany, France, and England, America alone can boast of 17 cabbage varieties.

Whatever type of cabbage you select the next time you go shopping, plan to buy a half dozen very tart apples so you can put the two together with some enriched yeast-raised bread crumbs and come up with a fine family dish—scalloped cabbage and apples—suggested as a thrifty recipe of the month by the United States Department of Agriculture.

SCALLOPED CABBAGE AND APPLES

2 quarts shredded cabbage (8 cups)
1 quart tart sliced apples (4 cups)
2 teaspoons salt
1 teaspoon sugar
4 tablespoons margarine or butter
1 cup soft enriched yeast-raised bread crumbs

In a greased baking dish, place alternate layers of cabbage and apples. Season each layer with salt and butter and sprinkle sugar on the apples. Cover and bake at 305 degrees F. (moderate oven) 40 minutes or until cabbage and apples are tender. Remove cover and bake 15 minutes longer. Makes 6 servings.

Strawberry Cream

1 cup sugar
3 tablespoons cornstarch
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 1/2 cups scalded milk
2 slightly beaten eggs
3 tablespoons butter
1/2 teaspoon vanilla extract
1 pint sliced strawberries
1/2 pint cream, whipped and sweetened

Mix sugar, flour, cornstarch and salt. Gradually add the scalded milk and cook in a double boiler until it has partially thickened. Add small amount of hot mixture to beaten eggs, then stir in remaining hot mixture cooking until thick. Stir constantly. Remove from heat and add butter, vanilla extract and let cool. Pour into baked 9-inch pie shell and cover with sliced strawberries. Spread with whipped cream sweetened with 2 tablespoons confectioner's sugar.

Clever Serving

For a clever frankfurter serving, cut frankfurters nearly through lengthwise and top with mashed potatoes. Slip them under your broiler to heat through and to give the potatoes a golden tinge.

Broccoli Omelet Is Special Breakfast

6 eggs
6 tablespoons milk
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon butter
1 cup hot, chopped broccoli
1/2 pound milk processed cheese
1/4 cup milk

Whole heads of cooked broccoli. Beat egg yolks until light and add 6 tablespoons milk, salt and fold in stiffly-beaten egg whites. Pour into a skillet in which the butter has been melted. Cook slowly until puffed and lightly browned underside. Place in slow 300-degree oven for a few moments to dry the top. Spread half the omelet with hot chopped broccoli and fold other half over it and turn out on platter. Make cheese topping by melting cheese in top of double boiler. Add 1/4 cup gradually stirring constantly until the sauce is smooth. Garnish omelet with whole heads of broccoli left over, and serve immediately with cheese sauce topping.

There are many ways to use fragrances so they will not be overpowering. Tuck a perfumed cotton square into your bra or pin it to your shoulder pad or the hem of your evening skirt for a subtle scent.

Blood Medicines Playing Vital Role In The Future

The discovery last year that gamma globulin, a derivative of human blood, will prevent the paralytic effects of polio may open an entirely new era of "blood medicine."

Potential of the discovery, as well as the pressing need for blood for anti-polio serum and plasma for treatment of war victims, sets the stage for an ever-expanding blood procurement program, according to Roland Harriman, national chairman for the American Red Cross.

"The value of gamma globulin in combating paralytic polio is a striking example of the new uses medical science is finding for blood. Many doctors feel we are on the threshold of an era of blood medicine that will do even more to ease the ills of mankind," Harriman declares in a communication to Red Cross chapter chairmen throughout the nation.

Gamma globulin is the blood protein containing the antibodies that the human system manufactures to protect itself against disease. If a person has ever had measles, infectious hepatitis, or polio, the gamma globulin (GG) in his blood contains antibodies to fight these diseases.

Value of the serum as a modifier or preventive of measles has been known since World War II, and in 1944 the Red Cross began distribution of gamma globulin to state health departments for this purpose.

Subsequently, it was learned that GG is also effective in the treatment of infectious hepatitis. Polio treatment became recognized as a possibility in 1951 and 1952.

Tests made at Houston, Provo, Utah; and Sioux City, Iowa; by the University of Pittsburgh's Graduate School of Public Health demonstrated last year that gamma globulin would prevent the paralytic effects of polio.

Analysis of the polio field tests resulted in a meeting of representatives of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, the National Research Council, Department of Defense, Federal Civil Defense Administration, Office of Defense Mobilization, the U. S. Public Health Service, and the Red Cross.

GG Distribution Plans Revealed By Defense Unit

The Office of Defense Mobilization today announced details of its plan for distribution and use of the new polio weapon, gamma globulin.

To the parent who asks, "How will I get gamma globulin for my child if exposed to polio?" here is the answer: Do the same thing you do whenever your child needs any other kind of medical attention—contact your family physician.

The doctor will examine the circumstances surrounding each case and if he feels it is warranted, he will obtain the necessary supply of the immune serum from the state health officer.

The Office of Defense Mobilization emphasizes several facets of the gamma globulin inoculation program:

1. GG used under special circumstances of which your physician is aware will help minimize the crippling effects of polio.
2. One inoculation will not last a child throughout the polio season.
3. GG will only afford a partial immunity for about five weeks.
4. The polio season extends over a period of approximately 10 weeks in June, July and August.

The ODM has notified state public health officers there will be a supply of approximately seven million cubic centimeters (an average dose is seven ccs) of gamma globulin for use in the fight against polio, in addition to the amount needed to combat infectious hepatitis and measles.

The initial delivery of GG will be made about May 1 when each state will receive an amount of the immune serum based on the average number of cases of polio per year between 1947 and 1952. Additional shipments will be made when the polio rate in any state reaches epidemic proportions. State public health authorities will distribute the GG to family physicians where there is a need.

fecting for production of gamma globulin is just one part of the blood-for-defense picture. Whole blood and plasma in large amounts still are being required in Korea. There also is need to build up a defense plasma reserve, the Red Cross leader points out. The National Blood Program calls for procurement of about 3,000,000 pints of blood this year. This is about half a million pints more than were collected for defense last year.

And to meet both civilian and defense needs, the Red Cross must collect over 4,700,000 pints of blood this year—an average of nearly 400,000 pints per month.

Facilities involved in the blood collection program include 46 regional centers, 15 defense centers, 140 mobile units similar to the one that has made two visits to Big Spring, five railway cars, and 32 community blood banks.

A total of 2,300 Red Cross chapters are participating in the program, along with 34 blood centers in military establishments not otherwise served.

The blood program is serving, in addition to the armed forces, some 2,650 civilian and government hospitals. The civilian use of blood is currently averaging about 140,000 pints per month, and drastic increases can be expected as the polio season approaches.

The rapid turnover of patients in hospitals and the resultant increase in demand for blood also is cited in the Red Cross memorandum. Research into further uses of blood is continuing and tests now being conducted on fibrinogen, another blood fraction that assists in blood clotting, is expected to widen medical uses of the product.

The Red Cross leader compares significance of the constantly increasing need for blood with "a growing awareness on the part of the American people that giving duty."

Accomplishment in meeting the growing demand for whole blood and its derivatives must not be measured only in terms of pints collected and quotas met.

"Accomplishment in this case means also the creation of a blood program that is a community institution in which many people can apply their special talents to service for others," Harriman emphasizes. "Its concrete expression is in the average of 24,000 volunteers a month now serving in the blood program, as well as the thousands who contribute their blood."

Would Have Been A Bit Cheaper To Buy Two Pair Of Socks

SEATTLE (AP)—Philip C. Stahlberg, 42, a construction worker, told police yesterday he didn't know why he did it when he was arrested and charged with shoplifting two pair of men's socks.

"I didn't need 'em," he said. "The police believed him. He had $3,506.53 in his pocket. He said he had saved it in the last 10 years."

It All Depends On How You Look At It

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—The new police manual, just off the press, forbids Phoenix policemen from accepting or soliciting bribes.

Chief of Police Charles P. Thomas has explained the prohibition will be eliminated and the word "bribe" will be substituted for "bribes."

Cops Better Steer Clear Of The Cops

EAST PATERSON, N. J. (AP)—The deadline for driving in New Jersey with 1952 license tags was midnight last night.

Shortly before the deadline, a radio patrol car contacted Police Desk Sgt. Michael Stack with this message: "Car four-eight, car four-eight to headquarters. Sergeant, we can only work up to midnight. We don't have tags on the car." Quipped back the sergeant: "Just keep going. Stay clear of cops and you'll be all right."
