

Rains discloses interest in governor's race

By The Associated Press

DALLAS — Texas Secretary of State Jack Rains said he wants to run for governor next year and that he is "95 percent" sure he will be in the race, a newspaper reported Sunday.

In a Washington interview with The Dallas Morning News, Rains said he will quit as secretary of state when the current legislative session ends in June.

Rains, a Republican, said he plans to "run my traps across the state, and then (wife) Aileen and I will come back and make a decision."

"But if you ask me today, I'd say the odds are about 95 percent I'm going to make a race," Rains said. "I've reached that conclusion over a two-year period of what people have told me in traveling around the state, the encouragement I've received and the unsolicited grass-roots support."

A former Houston businessman and lawyer, Rains, 51, would be making his first run for public office.

Although it has been no secret among Texas politicians that Rains has been positioning himself for a gubernatorial run, he has denied he was planning a campaign to follow Gov. Bill Clements.

Clements, who appointed Rains to the secretary of state's post, has said he will not seek re-election.

Rains already has started organizing a campaign team and seeking pledges of financial support, The News reported.

He said he decided to make his political plans public to "counter those who are spreading rumors that I am not a candidate."

Rains said he would not be intimidated by the prospect of facing George W. Bush in the Republican primary, should the president's eldest son decides to run.

George W. Bush told reporters and political supporters in Washington last week that he is "interested" in the governor's race, although he said he has made no final decision on whether to enter.

"I love George and Barbara Bush. And whether George W. runs or doesn't run, he's a fine man. I respect him," Rains said. "The issue is going to be who is qualified and who is electable and who can carry the message to grass-roots Texas."

"I know Texas, I'm a native Texan, I've lived here all my life and I've traveled it," Rains said.

Texan fights to save greeting

By The Associated Press

SAN ANTONIO — To all those contributing to the erosion of the Texas speech pattern, Buddy Calk, in his soft-spoken West Texas drawl, has just one word. Howdy.

The 37-year-old Calk is worried that a bit of Texana is fading away, and that's why he launched a one-man crusade to "Save the Howdy."

"I saw this article last summer that said only 6 percent of Texans still greet folks with 'Howdy,'" Calk said. "I thought that was pretty darn sad. Pretty soon, we're all going to sound like we came from Pittsburgh or something."

Calk couldn't stand still for that and decided to take action. He wrote to Gov. Bill Clements and urged him to back a bill making "howdy" the official state greeting.

State designates ag college for mediation program

By SCOTT VAN DUYN
The University Daily

The Texas Agricultural Loan Mediation Program at Texas Tech has been designated by the U.S. secretary of agriculture as the state agency to act as mediator for farm borrowers, those behind in payments and loan institutions.

"Texas Tech has had a similar program on a much smaller scale for about two years," said Gary Condra, director of the program. "There are presently 13 state programs that are together funded by a $3 million grant. Out of that three million, the Tech program gets $500,000."

The Agricultural Credit Act of 1987 requires farm borrowers and lenders to restructure delinquent loans when foreclosure is not an adequate solution to the problem, Condra said.

"We are only here to serve as facilitators," Condra said. "We're not judges, juries or advocates. We're just a neutral third party trying to make a deal possible."

scales of justice.

Along with thunderous explosions, billowing smoke and blinding lights came the quaking finale of the first set. During the finale to the song "...And Justice for All," the stage began to fall apart; sections of the lighting began to shift, the statue began to tumble apart and even some of the lighting over the stage fell from one end.

Queensryche started the night off with the cut "Queen of the Ryche," from its 1983 EP, "Queensryche." Most of the 45-minute set was devoted to cuts off its "Mindcrime" album with the exception of "Take Hold of the Flame."

Headed by the searing vocals of Geoff Tate, the guitar wizardry of Chris DeGarmo, Michael Wilton on guitar, Eddie Jackson on bass and Scott Rockenfield on drums, Queensryche tore through some of the best cuts from the "Mindcrime LP."

The only disappointment in the opening show was that the band chose not to play any cuts from its "Rage for Order" LP.

AM I GOING TO HEAVEN?

Instructions

Check below what you feel is the best basis for reaching Heaven.

1. Keeping the Ten Commandments.
2. Gifts to charity.
3. Doing one's best.
4. Leading a good life.
5. Good works.
6. Trying to obey the Golden Rule.
7. Tithing or giving to the church.
8. Church membership.
9. Regular church attendance.
10. Prayers.
11. Fasting.
12. Baptism.
13. Holy Communion.
14. Born of Christian parents.
15. Confirmation.
16. Penances.
17. Extreme unction.

Explanation

1. Though the Ten commandments are God's absolute standards of conduct, no mortal has ever fully kept His laws, not could one reach Heaven by trying. The Bible states: "Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in His (God's) sight; for by the law is the knowledge of sin" (Romans 3:20).

2,3, or 4. These are commendable acts, but according to God's Word, they will never save anyone. "Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to His mercy He saved us" (Titus 3:5).

5,6, or 7. God's clear declaration is: "For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God; not of works, lest any man should boast" (Ephesians 2:8,9).

8,9,10,11. Although these things are good in themselves, they can never justify sinners before a holy God. "We are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags" (Isaiah 64:6).

12 or 13. Without trusting in Jesus Christ, Baptism and Communion cannot help. The Bible shows clearly that these are of spiritual value only when one believes in Jesus Christ. (See Acts 8:12, 1 Corinthians 11:2, 23-32).

14. Children born into Christian homes need to be saved like anyone else. "As many as received Him (Christ), to them gave He power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on His Name, which were born, not of blood (not of one's parentage), nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God" (John 1:12, 13).

15,16,17. As the basis for going to Heaven, none of these is the real issue. A person could well go through all of these actions without having settled the real issue of salvation.

What then is God's way of salvation? The Bible gives a definite answer. The one and only means of spending eternity with God in Heaven is faith in the Lord Jesus Christ alone. "Because we cannot save ourselves by good works, good character, personal effort, or merit of any kind, God sent His Son to die as a substitute for sinners. When the Lord Jesus died on Calvary and rose again the third day, He finished the work necessary for salvation. Now all that God requires is that we receive Christ as our Savior: "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved" (Acts 16:31). Thus when the sinner trusts the Savior, he is saved, and on the authority of God's Word has everlasting life and is bound for Heaven. Jesus said, "He that heareth My word, and believeth on Him that sent Me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life" (John 5:24). Will you accept God's way of salvation? The choice is yours. You may continue to trust in those things listed on page 2. If so, you will go the grave without Christ, and wake up in a lost eternity. Or you may believe in Jesus and be saved. Be wise! Choose Christ! Then indicate the choice you have made below.  My hopes for Heaven are based completely upon the Lord Jesus Christ, my Lord and my Savior. William MacDonald

Poised Frogs keep Tech at bay

Ian Halperin/The University Daily

Two for the show

Tech's Jerry Mason jams two of his game-high 20 points midway through the second half of Sunday's game against TCU. The Horned Frogs, undefeated in Southwest Conference play, won 57-56.

By JOEL WEST
The University Daily

and the Red Raiders again found that big deficits early are hard to overcome.

TCU showed Texas Tech why it is the only undefeated team in Southwest Conference play Sunday, and 13-5 overall, outlasted a second-half Raiders rally 57-56 in Lubbock

Municipal Coliseum.

Leading 55-54 with :41 remaining, TCU's Tony Edmond missed the front end of a one-and-one free throw, but the ball slipped past Tech and into Frog John Lewis' hands. Twenty seconds later, Tech's Sean Gay fouled out and Lewis sank both ends of his free throws to give the Frogs a 57-54 advantage.

The loss, Tech's second straight, dropped the Raiders to 1-4 in the SWC and 6-10 overall.

A costly turnover occurred with 1:04 left when TCU's Tony Edmond stole Todd Duncan's inbound pass in the Raiders' forecourt for an easy lay-in to give the Frogs a 55-51 lead.

Tech coach Gerald Myers said part of the reason for the loss was Tech's 2-1 ratio in turnovers. The stingy Frogs committed only three turnovers in the second half.

"To me, that (the turnovers) was probably the difference in the game," Myers said. "When they pick those turnovers up and get those loose balls in a game like that, it makes a lot of difference."

Tech had an opportunity to send the game into overtime with :13 left, but Mason was forced to settle for a close-range jump shot after missing a three-pointer.

"TCU got off to a great start," Myers said. "We had to fight back the whole way, and they were always equal to the task."

Reminiscent of Wednesday night's game against Texas, where the Raiders trailed by 17 at halftime but managed to cut the lead to one point late in the contest, the Horned Frogs rolled out to an early 15-3 lead 6½ minutes into the game. Tech never led in the game and trailed by as many as 12.

Down by nine at intermission, Tech slowly sawed the Frogs' lead and knotted the game at 44 with 8:13 left on Mason's 18-foot jumper.

49ers Super again

Taylor's TD decides close Super Bowl

By The Associated Press

MIAMI — Joe Montana hit John Taylor with a 10-yard touchdown pass with :34 left as San Francisco staked its claim as the Team of the 1980s Sunday with a 20-16 victory over Cincinnati in the most dramatic Super Bowl ever.

The victory was achieved through the brilliance of Joe Montana and Jerry Rice, who led the 49ers.

The winning score came at the end of a 92-yard drive, engineered by Montana, whose touchdown pass gave him a Super Bowl record with 357 yards passing. Twelve of his completions were to Rice, who finished with 12 catches for 222 yards, both also records.

It was the fifth straight win for an NFC team, but by far the most dramatic — the previous four had been by an average score of 41-14.

It also gave coach Bill Walsh his third Super Bowl win in 10 seasons as the 49ers coach. It would be a fitting climax to a career that may end this week when the 57-year-old Walsh could announce that he will step down as San Francisco's coach.

The winning drive began after Jim Breech had kicked his third field goal of the game, a 40-yarder with 3:20 left, to give the Bengals a 16-13 lead. A holding call on the kickoff forced the 49ers to start from their own 8 with a little more than three minutes left.

But Montana, who was 23 of 36, made himself the quarterback of the decade on the winning drive. He passed for 8 yards to Rice, 9 yards to tight end John Frank and 17 more to Rice. Then, he hit Roger Craig for 13 yards and hit Rice 27 yards over the middle on a second-and-20 play.

After an 8-yard pass to Craig, he hit Rice for 10 yards to set up the winning score to Taylor.

The game that was supposed to be a shootout went 44 minutes and 26 seconds without a touchdown, the longest dry spell in the 23 Super Bowls.

Then came two within 91 seconds.

After Mike Cofer's 32-yard field goal tied the game 6-6 for San Francisco with 50 seconds left in the third quarter, Stanford Jennings took the kickoff 93 yards for a score, racing untouched through the San Francisco defense until Terry Greer ran him down and tripped him as he fell over the goal line.

But the 49ers, whose offense sputtered, suddenly came to life, going 85 yards in just four plays to tie the score at 13-13. Montana hit Jerry Rice for 31 yards, Roger Craig for 40, then Rice for a touchdown in the left corner of the end zone from 14 yards out.

The 49ers got as far as the Cincinnati 35 with 1:15 left.

The first half of what was supposed to be a shootout ended with the score tied 3-3 and each team licking major wounds. It was the first halftime tie in Super Bowl history and the first without a touchdown since Pittsburgh led Minnesota 2-0 at halftime 14 years ago.

The Bengals started without backup fullback Stanley Wilson, who was suspended by the league about five hours before the opening gun for what the league simply called "a violation of the NFL's substance abuse policy."

Wilson, whose NFL career began in 1983, had missed 2½ previous seasons, including all of 1985 and 1987 and had undergone drug rehabilitation at least five times in the past.

Krumrie was hurt on the first play of a drive that carried the 49ers from their own 3 to the Bengals' 24 and culminated with the first score of the game, Cofer's 41-yard field goal with 3:14 left in the first period. Fifteen of the yards came on a roughing-the-passer call against David Grant, the rookie 4th-round draft choice who replaced Krumrie.

But it could have been worse for the Bengals — a 22-yard pass from Montana to Mike Wilson that was first ruled complete at the 2 was overruled when replay official Chuck Heberling said Wilson never had possession.

The 49ers blew a major opportunity on their next drive when they tried for 3 points instead of 7 on fourth down and a long one from the Cincinnati 2 and came up with nothing.

San Francisco had driven 68 yards on a drive featuring a 30-yard Montana-Jerry Rice hookup and 6-yard third down burst to the two by Tom Rathman from a four wide-receiver formation with two minutes gone in the second period. But after a time out, they elected to try the 19-yard field goal and when Randy Cross' snap was low, Cofer shanked it wide left, the shortest miss in Super Bowl history.

The Bengals tied it with 1:15 left in the half on Jim Breech's 34-yard field goal following a 28-yard, six-play drive set up by Barry Helton's 37-yard punt.
